Millerton Welcomes Her Returned Heroes

Returned Lads Tendered Reception at That Place on Thursday Evening

One of the largest celebrations ever held in this county was that in the Millerton hall on the evening of the 20th inst., to occasion being the welcoming home of the Derby and Chelmsford and Upper Nelson boys from the front.

John Betts presided. The platform was very prettily decorated with flags and banners. Prominent was the Victory Loan flag with nine crowns, won by Derby Parish. A large banner, 14 by 8 feet, white, with red letters, contained the surnames of the returned soldiers invited, most of them were present. Over the top was "Welcome Home," and at the bottom "Well done, Boys."

The smaller banner, 8 feet square, blue, with white letters, bore, over the surnames of those who made the supreme sacrifice, the words "Faithful Unto Death."

The names of the returned men invited were:

Harold Appleby, Leo Baxter, Theodore Bryenton, Daniel Clarke, Harry Crocker, Major Randolph Crocker, Cornelius Doyle, Clarence Crocker, Abraham Fary, Archibald Harper, Harold Hill, Frank Knight, L. McElwee, Hilton McKinley, John Price, Silas Russell, Fred Stoddall, Ernest Simpson, Wm. Sullivan.

On the roll of those who died for the Empire overseas are:—

Willard Appleby, Beverley Barron, Howard Bryenton, Newton Bryenton, Hiram Bryenton, John Clarke, Harvey McKinley, John Newman, Arthur Parley, George Peterson, Kenneth Price. A united choir of some 25 voices, assisted by the following orchestra: Thomas Ross, violin; Miss Grace Russell, violin; Miss Agnes Flett, piano; Councillor J. W. Vanderbeck, cello and harp; and J. W. McKay, cornet, furnished vocal and instrumental music throughout the evening.

The program included: Tableau—Scene at the Front—Soldiers, with "Keep the Home Fires Burning" by the choir and orchestra, followed by cheers for the King and the returned boys, and the National Anthem.

Address by Rev. H. T. Montgomery. Duett—Watch, Hope, Wait, Little Girl, I'm coming back to you.—Miss Jessie Lyon and Miss Evelyn Denning. Selection—O Canada—Choir and Orchestra. Addresses—John Price, Frank Knight, Rev. E. Rowlands. Selection—Orchestra. Addresses—Ernest Simpson, Archibald Harper.

Selection—Orchestra. Addresses—Rev. W. McN. Matthews and Rev. Father Cyr. Bugle Call.

Then followed supper in the Upper Hall, at which 325 were served by the ladies of the parish, to whom and the managers and assistants and to the musicians every praise is due.

It is proposed to hold a similar celebration in June, when more soldiers will have returned.

PLEDGED TO KILL PRESIDENT WILSON

Montreal, Feb. 24—The Gazette publishes the following despatch from New York:—

Acting on information that two Spanish anarchists had agreed to kill the President and would arrive in this city today, from Philadelphia, on the way to Boston, secret service operatives raided two resorts of Spanish radicals today and arrested fourteen men.

Two of those arrested are suspected by the police of being a pair who were pledged to attempt the life of President Wilson. They were said to have arrived in this city today from Philadelphia and to have planned to leave tonight for Boston. While the secret service agents who uncovered the plot and planned the raids refused to give details of the conspiracy, it was learned that a thorough search of the two places which were raided was made for a bomb which was to have been thrown at the presidential party tomorrow if the plot had been carried out successfully.

We would recommend a committee of the Mayor and two aldermen be appointed by the Council to inquire into what repairs and adjustments the town electric light plant requires, whether there is sufficient power at Kouchibouguac for our supply and its approximate cost and into all available sources of electric power and to report back to the Council at next meeting, and that an engineer be engaged if the Committee decides they need his services.

Would Nationalize The Liquor Business

After Prohibiting All Using of Liquor for Beverage Purposes

Quarterly Board of the Newcastle Methodist Church met in special session last night, Rev. F. T. Bertram in the chair. Others present—H. D. Atkinson, recording steward; T. A. Clarke, A. E. Petrie, Howard Williston and H. H. Stuart.

The following resolutions were, after thorough discussion, passed unanimously:

Canada to grant the request of the Dominion Prohibition as follows:

(a) That the order-in-council now in effect prohibiting the importation, manufacture and interprovincial shipment of alcoholic liquors for beverage purposes, created into law by the Parliament of Canada;

(b) That this legislation be effective until the electors of Canada shall have opportunity to vote on the question of making it permanent, and

(c) That the Government of Canada fix the date of voting at a time subsequent to the return of the soldiers from overseas, and that at least six months' notice shall be given of the time of taking the vote.

II. That this Quarterly Board further urge upon the Government that legislation be enacted requiring that all alcohol and alcoholic liquors and compounds needed for medicine, industrial and sacramental purposes be manufactured, distributed and sold directly and solely by the Government through salaried officers permanently attached to the civil service and therefore having no financial interest in making sales.

These resolutions were, on motion of T. A. Clarke, and A. E. Petrie, ordered sent to the Acting Premier, Sir Thomas White, and to W. S. Loggie, M. P.

For their next issue lists of persons who had paid their dog taxes for 1918

The report of J. W. Spurden, auditor, was read and on motion, adopted. The Town Clerk reported that at the recent plebiscite held, that there were 144 ballots cast, 128 in favor, 12 against, 24 spoiled ballots.

The Mayor's report was as follows: To the ratepayers of the Town of Newcastle:

Ladies and Gentlemen: I beg to submit my report for the year ending December 31, 1918, for your consideration.

During the year your Council retired local improvement debentures to the amount of $5,000, maturing in 1920 at a saving of $150.00. $2,000 was also invested in the last issue of Victory Bonds for fifteen year terms, thereby increasing the earning capacity of the sinking fund by one and a half per cent. The corporation has, up to the present time, $27,000 invested in the above bonds.

It will be noticed from reports of the various committees that all have kept within their appropriation, and the majority of them with a balance to the credit side, showing that each department practiced economy as much as possible.

The Light and Water Committee reports a loss of $7,151.36. This was not on account of inefficient management, but owing to the high cost of fuel. The light rates were increased during the year for the idea of providing against too great a deficit, the Council feeling confident that a change should be made in the method of manufacturing electric current, engaged the services of a competent engineer in the person of F. H. McKechnie, of Booker & McKechnie, of Halifax, N. S., to investigate streams adjacent to the town with the idea of having the most practical one developed. As you know, the Sevegie River was the one selected, and in the near future you will be asked to decide whether the corporation shall apply to the Local Legislature for the authority to issue bonds for the amount of $150,000.00, to proceed with the power development on the above stream.

The year just closed will be remembered by our people as the most historical and most momentous which we as Canadian and British subjects have passed through. The decisive victories during the latter months of the

INFLUENZA STRIKES HORSES

The Fredericton Mail says: Owners of horses in and about Fredericton have been greatly inconvenienced lately by a severe outbreak of influenza or shipping fever among their horses. Livery stables have been particularly affected.

Dr. G. C. McCoy, veterinarian states that the disease is not alarming, although differing in some features from that usually encountered in this province. He states that there always is some of this disease in evidence throughout the country.

The most noticeable symptom of the disease is swelling of the head and legs of the horses. In some cases the legs swell several times their ordinary size. A general illness also accompanies the disease. The horse recovers in two or three weeks.

Wisdom Teeth Test Was Fatal

Gave Austrians Pretext to Hang Two Albanian Children

As a partial explanation of the fact that the masses of the population of Albania, which early in the world war were alleged to have been rather friendly to the Austrian invaders, made the evacuation of the occupying troops of the Central Powers an occasion for displaying extreme hostility to the Austrian soldiers, many of whom were shot from ambush while leaving the country, the Vienna Arbeiter Zeitung of Dec. 18, prints an example of how Austrian military 'justice' functioned in Albania.

It appears that two Albanian boys named Husko and Hairis Kalacs, aged 15 and 18 years, respectively, who had been pro-Austria at the time of the invasion, and had been supplied with weapons by the invaders failed to hear of an Austrian order calling for the immediate delivery of all arms in the possession of the Albanians and consequently were apprehended, tried by court-martial and found guilty, being condemned to death.

"But," says the Arbeiter, "the two were children and it is not permissible to execute children. What did the judges do. They ordered an army doctor to establish the two arrested persons' qualifications for the gallows. The doctor examined the two boys, looked at their teeth, found that their wisdom teeth were visible, and declared that the accused persons must be between 20 and 21 years of age. The two children were then hanged."

The newspaper gives the names of the three judges and the doctor and demands that they, together with the commandant who approved the verdict be arrested.

War to Peace To Solve Canada's Employment Problem

EVERYONE in Canada should understand just what the Government is doing to solve the unemployment problems that may arise through the demobilization of our fighting forces.

- (1) Employment Offices. So that everyone—male or female, soldier or civilian—can get quickly such jobs as are available the Government is co-operating with the Provinces in establishing a chain of Public Employment Offices. Employers are being urged to make use of these offices to secure any help they need. Farmers, for example, who need hired men should apply to the nearest office. There will be a Public Employment Office in every town of 10,000 people—and wherever the need for one exists. There will be 60 different offices in all—one-half are already in operation.
(2) Employment Opportunities. The war held up much work that will now be carried on at once. Public works, shipbuilding, roadbuilding, railway work—construction of bridges, improvement of road-bed, making of new equipment—these will provide new opportunities for employment. In addition, the Government has sent a Trade Mission overseas to secure for Canada a share in the business of providing materials and products required for reconstruction work in Europe. It has also set aside the large sum of $25,000,000 to be loaned through the Provinces to encourage the building of workmen's houses. This will mean much new work in the spring.
(3) Land and Loans for Soldiers. To help soldiers become farmers the Government has developed a programme that includes the providing of land, the granting of loans, and the training and supervision of those inexperienced in farming. At present, the soldier is granted, free, in addition to his ordinary homestead right, one quarter-section of Dominion lands. He also receives a loan up to the maximum of $2,500. These original plans are now being broadened. If Parliament passes the new proposals during this session, the Soldier Settlement Board will be able to buy suitable land and re-sell it to the soldier at cost. Land up to the value of $5,000 may be bought by this plan—the money to be repaid in 20 years. The low interest rate of 5 per cent. will be charged. These new proposals will also permit the Soldier Settlement Board to loan the soldier-farmer up to $2,500 for purchasing equipment, etc., in addition to $5,000 loan on his farm.

Interesting Judgement In Liquor Case

Doaktown Man Accused found Not Guilty of Consuming Liquor Illegally

The following interesting judgement was recently delivered by Thomas Parker, J. P., and being one of the first cases of its kind ever tried in the province we reprint the judgment in full, showing why the defendant was found not guilty:

This action laid by Fraser Saunders, of Marysville, in the County of York, a Provincial Constable, a defendant from Doaktown, in the County of Northumberland, was commenced by information dated the twenty-third day of December last, and filed in this Court on that day. The information charges that the said defendant between the first day of October, 1918, and the first day of Nov. 1918, at the Parish of Blaisfield, in the County of Northumberland, did consume or drink liquor prescribed by a physician under the Intoxicating Liquor Act for a person other than the said defendant, contrary to the provisions of the Intoxicating Liquor Act of 1916. The information is rested on Sec. twenty one of the Act, which reads as follows: "No liquor prescribed by a physician under this Act, shall be consumed or drunk by any person other than the sick person for whom it has been prescribed."

On the hearing of this information witnesses were examined, all of whom were called by the prosecution. The testimony of witnesses is the source from which the Magistrate must gather his knowledge on which to ground a decision. This evidence is the fountain, so to speak, from which he must draw his conclusions. If it were otherwise, if he could draw conclusions from other sources, then where the wisdom of taking sworn testimony at all? The Magistrate must take the evidence, and disabusing his mind of sympathy on the one hand and of prejudice on the other, apply his best judgment to the record before him. He is sworn to discharge his duty without fear, favor, or malice. If he who so often has reason to complain of the conduct of others under oath, should fall in his own, he would not only set an evil example, but he would turn the Court itself into an engine of corruption and pervert justice at the fountain from which it ought to flow pure and undefiled.

There are certain rules of evidence and rules for the construction of the Statute law which he is bound to follow as far as he knows them. These rules are often condemned by the thoughtless, and the unread, because it is said that offenders by their operation, are allowed to go unpunished. I want to say a half dozen of words about these rules, so as to explain, if possible why it is that the verdict of the Court often fails to agree with the preconceived notions of the bystanders. In small villages like ours, more than in the cities the Justices of the Peace are often severely criticized for their judgments. Some of these rules originated in Britain more than 1,000 years ago. Some of them were borrowed from the civil law, the law of Rome, and introduced into British common law. These are known to have been in existence for more than 2,000 years. And as Blackstone points out some of our laws have been taken from the law of Moses as we have it in the Old Testament. Moses, skilled in the learning of Egypt, could hardly fall to draw from that source when he gave his code to his people. Now if that is so, some of the principles which govern us today must have existed through a period of more than 5,000 years. These rules must have been founded in wisdom, otherwise they should not have survived through so many ages. Coming down from immemorial times they have acquired an authority which only venerable age can give. They have been approved, sanctioned and upheld by the wisest and best of men as being favorable to liberty, if indeed they are not the foundation of it. There is no doubt that through the application and operation of these principles many persons every year escape the consequences of their acts. Some evil may indeed result from them, just as evil may result from every thing else that is good. But if they should be taken away far greater evil would result. If they should be abolished despotic authority would pass into the hands of a class of men no more infallible than other men. The will of the Judge would then be the rule of the law. Courts, Judges and Magistrates would then hold arbitrary power. The line, the square and compass, once taken away, the Judge could trade and traffic on the lives and liberties of the people. No man should hold arbitrary power. Arbitrary power is at eternal enmity with both law and liberty. It works from a bad centre both ways. It demoralizes those who practise it, and it destroys the independence of those who suffer by it. Some evil may indeed result from the present system, but a hundredfold greater wrongs would follow a change. Of two evils we should choose the least for it would be madness to choose the greater.

Bearing in mind then, the rules of evidence, and the rules of Construction to which I have referred, what are the facts in this case. Two facts are set out in the information:—1st, that the defendant drank liquor, and the 2nd, that the liquor he drank was prescribed by a physician for some person other than himself. The question to be considered is, does the evidence sustain the charge.

Of the ten witnesses examined, two of these, Shaffer and Dixon, were examined on auxiliary matter relating more or less remotely to the charge. The witness Russell, also stands apart as a witness, and his testimony will be considered apart. The remaining seven were shown to have been in the defendant's company for some time on Oct. 12th, the day the offence is alleged to have been committed. On that day it appears that the defendant in company with the witnesses Turner and Carr went from Doaktown to Blackville in an auto. It appears that they visited the Liquor Vendor, Shaffer, at Blackville, and that they started homeward, on the same day having with them, in the possession of the said two witnesses, some quantity of prescribed liquor. It does not appear whether the defendant had or had not in his possession the liquor prescribed or otherwise. It is clear that the party on their way homeward called at the home of Chester Connors at Upper Blackville.

It appears that they went into the Connors house, that they met Chester Connors and one Elmer Arbeau, both witnesses in this case. It was shown by the testimony of both Connors and Arbeau that James Turner had a bottle of whiskey, for Connors on his oath said "Turner had the whiskey." Certain of these people drank from a bottle produced by the said Turner, but it was not shown that the defendant drank. Both Connors and Arbeau swore they did not see him drink. It also appears that the defendant and the witnesses Carr and Turner on their way westward called at the home of Angus McDonald at Blaisfield. Here again a bottle was produced on a table in McDonald's woods. But there is no evidence that the defendant drank, though the witness did. Somewhere on that road on the same day, the party fell in with Arthur R. Williams, of Chatham. This witness after explaining that he met the defendant and the parties with him admitted they were taking a drink. I think it fair to assume that the defendant was one of the "they" who were taking a drink. He, Williams, however, would not swear that the liquor in question was intoxicating. He waived the question by saying that it looked like some kind of a syrup or other decoction. There is no evidence at all that the bottle or bottles produced on these three different occasions had any prescriptions on them. Probably the parties who saw them were more interested in what was in the bottle than what was on it. It is true that testimony of an adverse witness must be given full weight as far as it goes, because like most of the others, he volunteered nothing of a damaging nature. Whatever he disclosed of that kind was drawn from him reluctantly and with some reserve. And it is generally held that testimony wrung from an adverse witness ought to bear more weight than if fully volunteered. Nevertheless, if I should find a conviction on this testimony I would have to assume without a particle of testimony, first that the liquor, whatever it was, was intoxicating, and second that it had been prescribed or set apart for some person other than the defendant.

I have now only to consider the testimony of Russell, for Dixon and Shaffer from their situation can furnish no clue at least as far as the drinking is concerned. The evidence of Russell is clear of all doubt as to what he discloses, but it does not appear that he saw the defendant on the day in question, had he been of the auto party on that day the result might have been different. This witness stands out in sharp contrast with some who hesitated, with others who prevaricated and yet others who stultified themselves. Some of these witnesses had the temerity to take the oath, and then depose to things that no sane man could believe.

Granted that this is no place to moralize, still I may say in passing that it is regrettable, even melancholy, to see young men, some of them not more than boys, drifting, as one may say, from the church and the Sunday School, to a Police Court, there in my opinion, undoubtedly to perjure themselves, in order to screen off the truth, and throw a haze over the mind of the Magistrate who had to deal with their testimony. In this respect the defendant himself, though accused of an offence, stands head and shoulders above some of the crown witnesses, for he, though inter-ested, prudently refrained from such conduct.

Russell's evidence shows that he saw the defendant on Oct. 13th, the day after the defendant's visit to Blackville. I show that the defendant admitted to Russell that he and his party on the day before had probably been drunk. The language of the defendant at Russell's barn was "I guess we were all drunk."

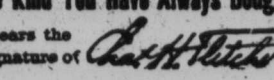

Now, if the charge in this information had been drunkenness, and the defendant had made this admission in Court under oath, or not under oath, it might have convicted him, if drunkenness were an offence in the Statute on which the information was based. But this is not the case. The information does not charge drunkenness, nor is it rested on a Statute that makes drunkenness an offence. Therefore the admission of drunkenness cannot in my opinion convict of or for consuming liquor prescribed or separate for some other sick person than the defendant. In other words, the admission does not go to the root of the matter. The wager is lost because the bullet does not pierce the bull's eye. Besides this, the admission was expressed in the form of a doubt. "I guess we were all drunk." A guess involves doubt. The accused must in all cases get the benefit of the doubt. Moreover, the admission was made neither under oath nor to the Court, by the defendant, circumstances which I think weaken its force, for, though the witness is above suspicion, his memory might be defective, or his powers of expressing and reproducing conversation might be at fault, so that whatever way we look at this admission the difficulties for conviction thicken. It may indeed well be held that if the defendant was drunk he must have been drinking, but his drinking goes only to one of the particulars of the charge. Where is the evidence that what he may have drunk was prescribed liquor? The two particulars in the charge—the drinking, and the fact that the liquor so drunk was prescribed or set apart to another's use and diverted from that use by the defendant, these two particulars are inseparable, joined together, framed together and built on one foundation; they must stand or fall together. There is evidence that some of the defendant's party on the day in question got drunk on prescribed liquor. The witness Carr was overtaken apparently with some complaint and liquor prescribed for him at Blackville. On his return with the defendant he admits that he got so drunk that he could not remember what happened. No enquiry was made about the nature of his complaint, but it must have been bad if it were worse than the remedy. But this was Carr, not the defendant. There is some evidence of drinking but nothing conclusive. The whole mass of testimony is clouded with uncertainty. The Judge is not bound to give weight to any testimony which he does not believe. If I should throw all away that is doubtful then there is little left. There are damaging facts disclosed here and there, but no clear or steady light. There are glimpses of light only, here and there, like the momentary gleams of the sun breaking in the rifts of the clouds, on a day that is overcast. The prosecution must have realized this at the close of the last adjourned hearing, otherwise the complainant would not have moved for a further adjournment for witnesses—a motion which I granted. Had he been satisfied that the charge was proved he would have rested it there and then. The information is dismissed with costs, not because it has been shown to be false, but because it has not been shown to be true.

A GREAT CANADIAN GONE

The Canadian people irresponsible of pary, mourn the passing of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, whose death occurred last week.

For thirty years he was a national figure, and the story of his life during that period would be almost the history of Canada for the same time.

Naturally he had many political opponents, but his enemies were exceptionally few.

He began life with the handicap of a weak constitution and without the best of educational advantages, yet he attained the very respectable age of seventy-eight years, and for fifteen years was premier of his native land. He possessed a great charm of speech and a wonderful personal magnetism that held the loyalty of his followers through many critical periods.

One of the most inspiring utterances in his long career was contained in his message to the students of the University of Toronto in 1913, when he said:

"My young friends, go out into the world to service. Make the highest thought of service your inspiration. Problems there are—big problems. Tomorrow and the day after tomorrow it will be your turn to grapple with them. Serve God and your country. Be firm in the right as God gives you to see the right. You may not always succeed. Progress is often punctuated with reverses. You may meet reverse—but the following day STAND UP AGAIN and renew the conflict, for truth and justice shall triumph in the end."—Ex.

WHAT THE NEWSPAPER DOES FOR A COMMUNITY

An appreciation of the newspaper and what its editor does for the community is well expressed in an article we have noticed in some of the exchanges credited to ex-Governor Francis, of Missouri. It follows: Ex Governor Francis once said the following of newspapers: "Each year the local newspaper gives from $500 to $1000 in free lines to the community in which it is located. No other agency can or will do this. The editor in proportion to his means, does more for his town than any other ten men and in all fairness he ought to be supported, not because you like him or admire his writings, but because the local paper is the best investment a community can make. It may not be brilliantly edited or crowded with thought, but financially it is more benefit to the community than the preacher or teacher. Understand me I do not mean mentally, and yet on moral questions you will find most of the papers on the right side. Today the editors of the local papers do the most for the least money of any people on earth."

A LESSON DEARLY BOUGHT

Some fifteen years ago the A. & F. Pears Company, of England—believing that their publicity had earned an invulnerable place for their product and was no longer necessary—ceased advertising. For six months no Pears advertising appeared, and in that period the Company had lost 35 per cent of its business. It was estimated it cost the company $6,500,000 over and above its regular publicity schedule to rectify this error and get back where it was before the experiment.

A RICH COUNTRY

The New York Times in a recent issue, voiced its appreciation of Canada as follows:—"In developed wealth, Canada is the richest country in the world today in proportion to her population." And still we find Canadians who point us to the United States and to Great Britain as the greatest countries in the world. Canada is still good enough for the most of us.

NOTES BY THE WAY

Estimates of unemployed in Toronto run from 19,000 to 20,000.

Talk about water power propositions—A movement is on foot to develop water powers in Ungava and cable it across the ocean to England.

A movement is on foot to have the Legislature of Ontario compel the removing of bill-board signs throughout the province. New Brunswick should take similar steps before it is too late.

It seems to us that the undue hubbalooboo attends the announcement in Ottawa that a method has been perfected to permit five conversations over a telephone at the same time. It is no news to anyone who has been a subscriber on the party lines around Newcastle.

It is a lamentable fact that, at least in the present stage of her existence, Canada is not a reading nation. In far too many of her households the library consists of the Bible and Shakespeare, set crosswise upon the table in the "best room," a wool mat beneath them and a stereoscope balanced on top, and the patent medicine almanac that hangs upon the wall of the kitchen.

"You have to go to the country towns to see real versatility," said a commercial traveller. "I was in Nova Scotia recently and a fellow drove me to the hotel from the station. I wanted a shave before dinner, and he shaved me. When I went to bed I found the same man changing the bed linen. In the morning he waited on the breakfast table, made out my bill and drove me to the station again. Talk about versatility!"

(Continued from page 1) war over the unprincipled German horde, compelled them to sign the armistice terms as laid down by the Allies, thereby opening the way to a long and lasting peace and a glorious future for our country, our people and our Allies who were associated with our nation in this fight for Freedom, Justice and Truth, and further to prove to the outside world that British traditions would be defended and the high principles of democracy would be spared, and most important of all to prove that the lofty ideals of civilization would remain and move forth in this, and generations to come untrammelled and unassailed.

The most important period in the history of our Dominion lies ahead of us, namely: reconstruction and demobilization. And while the actual fighting is over, those soldiers representing our Dominion on the firing line who were spared the inevitable and will return to us and their interests must be carefully looked after and every consideration must be given them by our Government and our people, proving to them that while we, as a people, stood behind them while doing their duty "over there," are still as deeply profound in caring for their interests through the years to come, to prove to them that highest recognition is due for valuable services rendered in adding honor and glory to Canada's name.

In conclusion I wish to thank the members of the Council for their hearty co-operation in all matters pertaining to this Town's interests, and to you as ratepayers, I trust my admiration of the Town's affairs will meet with your approval. Let me take this opportunity of thanking you for your hearty support of the past, and trust that if, in the near future I appear before you I may be accorded the same response.

Your obedient servant,

Britain To Open Schools For Brides

London, Feb. 15.—Schools for war brides and soldiers' fiancées are being planned by the demobilization department.

Domestic science, food chemistry, marketing and care of children will be taught. The Government will pay all expenses of the pupils.

The schools will be open only to wives of soldiers and women engaged to marry soldiers. More than 400,000 young women are eligible, it is estimated.

Department officials explain the schools are expected to pay for themselves as social experiments by training women to be helpful wives. The schools are needed, it is believed, because thousands of young girls left their homes to work in munition factories at a time when they ordinarily would have begun to learn household duties.

Of 1,500,000 women who entered industry in the war, thousands now are jobless through the closing of munition factories. Hundreds are unable to find other employment because peace industries have not yet got into full swing. The schools are expected to give occupation to hundreds of women who otherwise would have nothing to do.

St. Blase Bishop And Martyr

In the Catholic Church on Monday, St. Blase's Day, hundreds of persons particularly children, had their throats blessed. Butler's Lives of the Saints furnishes this sketch of the saint:

He was Bishop of Sebaste, in Armenia, and was crowned with martyrdom in 316, by the command of Agricola, governor of Cappadocia and the lesser Armenia. It is mentioned in the acts of St. Trastatus, who received the crown of martyrdom in the reign of Diocletian, and is honored on the 13th of December, that St. Blase, the Bishop of Sebaste, honorably received his relics, deposited them with those of St. Orestes, and punctually executed every article of the last will and testament of St. Trastatus.

His festival is kept a holy day in the Greek church on the 11th of February. He is mentioned in the ancient Western Martyrologies which bear the name of St. Jerome, Ado and Ursuard, with several more ancient manuscript Martyrologies, quoted by Chatelet, place his name on the 15th. In the holy wars, his relics were dispersed over the West and his veneration was propagated by many miraculous cures, especially of sore throats. He is the principal patron of the Commonwealth of Ragusa. No other reason than the great devotion of the people to the celebrated martyr of the church seems to have given occasion to the woolcombers to choose him the titular patron of their profession, on which account his festival is still kept by them with solemn guild at Norwich. Perhaps also his country might in part determine them to this choice, for it seems that the first branch, or at least, hint of this manufacture was borrowed from the remotest known countries of the East as was that of silk; or the iron combs with which he is said to have been tormented gave occasion to this choice

"Pape's Diapespin" neutralizes excessive acid in stomach, relieving dyspepsia, heartburn and distress at once.

Time it! In five minutes all stomach distress, due to acidity, will go. No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas or eructations of undigested food, no dizziness, bloating, foul breath or headache.

Pape's Diapespin is noted for its speed in regulating upset stomachs. It is the surest, quickest stomach sweetener in the whole world, and besides it is harmless. Put an end to stomach distress at once by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapespin from any drug store. Young Lad Sent To Reformatory

Given Two Years at St. John Institution for Trying to Wreck Ocean Limited

(Campbellton Graphic)

One Monday Walter Babin, a twelve year old Athol youth was before the Sitting Magistrate charged with tampering with the switches on the main line of the C.N.R., and attempting to derail the Ocean Limited.

Saturday morning, Feb. 23, inst., young Babin broke the lock of a main line switch at a siding facing a steep embankment at Athol. He stole the signal lamp of the Athol train, and going further down the track tried to open another switch which he was prevented from doing on account of the lock being frozen. A man passing by some time later, discovered the open switch, and closed it just in time to save the oncoming train, with its precious load of human lives, from destruction. The train was two and a half hours late, which was the only thing that saved it from complete destruction. Young Babin is incorrigible. He has been in various scrapes and has got beyond the control of his parents. He admitted his guilt and said he wanted to see what kind of a wreck would result. He was sentenced to two years at the Reformatory at St. John.

Osborne, A.D.C., and R. S. Barker, C. S. Notice concerning the reception to be given by His Honor on the afternoon of the opening will be given later.

CANADIANS SIT ON THE COUNCIL OF TEN

Paris, Feb. 19—For the first time a representative of the overseas dominions has served in the council of ten, which is the governing body of the peace conference. The British empire representatives at this afternoon's sitting were Mr. Balfour, the British foreign minister, and Sir Robert Borden. The matter before the council was Serbia's claims for enlarged territory.

In the forenoon the committee to consider the Greek claims, of which Sir Robert Borden is a member, held a sitting. Yesterday there was a full meeting of the British empire delegation at which Canada was represented by Sir Robert Borden and Sir George Foster to discuss the problem of Russia which has been engaging the attention of the council of ten for some days without any definite result to date.

There has been some apprehension lest the Canadian exhibits for the Lyons trade fair would not arrive in time, but the ship containing them docked at Havre on Sunday and they will be carried to the fair grounds by a fast train. With the opening of the fair on March 1st, the exhibits will be in position, and there will be in attendance representatives of Canadian industries and enterprises who are beginning to arrive.

Sir Arthur Currie, commanding the Canadian corps, who is in Paris attending the Canadian mission, is giving up part of his time to sittings to Sir William Open, who is painting his portrait for the Canadian War memorials.

Mr. F. M. Draper, who has been representing the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada on the Canadian mission, leaves for London on Thursday and will sail for home by the Mauretania on February 28.

Former Miramichi Man Dead In New York

Hon. J. J. Adams was Prominent in Politics and at the Bar in U. S.

The death of Hon. John J. Adams, one of the many brainy New Brunswickers who have achieved position and prominence in the United States, took place at his home on 74th Street New York on Sunday night last at 9 o'clock from paralysis. His funeral took place Wednesday morning, after service held in the Paulist church, on 59th St. Mr. Adams was born at Douglastown, was a lawyer by profession, was active in politics, as a Democrat, for some years, and sat in Congress for one or more terms for a New York district. He is survived by his wife. His only child, a married daughter, died quite suddenly last year. The Honorable Samuel Adams, of New York, is a brother; Richard B., another brother, also lives in New York. The late Hon. Michael Adams, who will be remembered as a member of the provincial government, and afterwards as a member of the House of Commons and also of the Senate, was a brother of the deceased. The late Thomas Adams, who was engaged in lumber manufacturing in Bathurst a few years ago, was another brother. Three sisters survive, Mrs. J. D. Creaghan, Newcastle; Mrs. Lawrence Doyle, Douglastown; and Mrs. J. J. Flannigan, New York. The deceased attained a prominent position at the bar in New York, and had he remained in political life would no doubt have reached a position of eminence.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FROM DANDEUFF

Girls! Try it! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a small bottle of Danderuff.
If you care for heavy hair that glitters with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderuff. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots finally, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderuff from any drug store and just try it.

Woman's Right To Good Health

Most Troubles Afflicting Women Are due to Weak Watery Blood

To every woman belongs the right to enjoy a healthy, active, happy life, yet nine out of every ten suffer years of agony, usually from some form of bloodlessness. That is why one sees on every side pale, thin cheeks, dull eyes and drooping figures—sure signs of headaches, weak backs, aching limbs and uncertain health. All weak, suffering women should win the right to be well by refreshing their weary bodies with the new, rich, red blood that promptly transforms them into healthy attractive women. This new, rich, red blood is supplied in abundance by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which reaches every organ and every nerve in the body. Through the use of these pills thousands of women have found a prompt cure when suffering from anaemia, indigestion, heart palpitation, rheumatism, general weakness, and those ailments from which women alone suffer. There is no part of this broad Dominion in which you will not find some former sufferer who has regained health and strength through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Among the thousands of women who bear testimony to the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is Mrs. W. Ferguson, Plattsville, Ont. who says: "After the birth of my second baby I was left very weak, and was steadily growing thinner and more bloodless. As time went on I became so run down that my friends thought I was in decline. I tried different medicines, but none helped me until I was advised to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I began taking them and was not long in finding that they were helping me, and by the time I had taken a half a dozen boxes I felt like a new person. I had increased in weight, my color returned and I was again enjoying my old-time health. You may be sure when opportunity offers I will gladly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills." You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Grandmother made delicious things to eat

SNAPPY, brown cookies, coffee cake with fruit and spices put in with a generous hand, pumpkin pie with the genuine old-time flavor, and many more. All these good things Grandmother made with brown sugar. Her granddaughters can make them just as successfully to-day if they use

Lantic Old Fashioned Brown Sugar

Pure brown sugar gives to baking and desserts the characteristic molasses taste which is a great improvement to many dishes. Brown sugar, as well as white, should be kept in the pantry of every household which appreciates old-time goodies.

Brown sugar is economical. It costs a little less per pound than other pure sugars and it flavors as well as sweetens. Grocers sell as much as you wish.

Black as Dirt About the Eyes

Liver Was All Upset and There Was Pain Under the Shoulder-blade — Two Interesting Letters.

So many people suffer from derangements of the liver that we feel sure these two reports, just recently received, will prove interesting reading and valuable information to many readers of this paper.

Mrs. F. L. Harris, Keatley P.O. Sask., writes: "I was suffering from liver trouble—had a heavy pain under one shoulder blade all the time, and was nearly as black as dirt around the eyes, so I concluded to try some of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I did so, and before I had taken one 25c box the pain had left me and I commenced to gain in flesh, and by the time I had taken two boxes I was completely cured and felt like a new person. My trouble was caused by heavy work out-of-doors, and, of course, heavy eating and constipation. I would advise anyone suffering from kidney or liver trouble to give Dr. Chase's Pills a trial."

Mrs. Charles Terry, Tweed, Ont., writes: "Before I was married I was troubled with enlargement of the liver. My liver became so enlarged that you could detect the swellings on either side, and it was only with difficulty that I could get my clothes on. A friend advised me to get Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and take them. I commenced this treatment, and used nine boxes, which cured me at that time. Then, about two or three years afterward I was troubled again with the swelling, but only on my right side. I secured some more Kidney-Liver Pills, and took them, which finally cured me. I have not been troubled in this way since. I can cheerfully recommend Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to anyone having kidney or liver trouble.

"We have also found Dr. Chase's Linseed and Turpentine excellent for coughs and colds. In fact, any of Dr. Chase's medicines which we have used have been good."

"Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25c a box, 5 for $1.00, at all dealers, or Edman Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

FERTILIZER

OUR first advertisement calling the attention of the farmers and dealers to the necessity of ordering their fertilizer early, and having it shipped early appeared in this paper four weeks ago. Since that time we have had a large number of our old customers ask for their fertilizer to be shipped at once, and we have had many enquiries and orders from new customers. The time when fertilizer will be used is approaching and the indications now point to an early spring. There will undoubtedly be a heavy call for fertilizer, and it will not do to put it off too long.

Notwithstanding the shortage of fertilizer for the past several years, particularly the spring of a year ago, we had a good supply and were in a position to take care not only of our own trade but of many customers who were disappointed in not being able to get their fertilizer. This condition may repeat itself this year and it will surely do so if you do not make arrangements early for the spring supply. It is certain that unless orders are placed the manufacturers will not take the risk of carrying over to next year materials bought on the present market when the prices are at the highest, and the tendency on the contrary will be not to carry even the slightest surplus with the possibility of having it on hand at the end of season.

A daring attempt at highway robbery was committed last week on Pleasant Street, when a man, who was standing on the corner near Stothart's new block, snatched a handbag from a young lady who was passing and fled down the street with it, but the screams of the lady caused him to drop his booty as he disappeared around the corner, before his identity could be ascertained.

Willis Clarke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Clarke, of Chelmsford, met with a serious accident on Saturday. He was cutting wood with some neighbors in the woods near his home when in some manner he got in the way of a falling tree, which took the whole scalp off the top of his head, and otherwise injured him by spraining his ankle, etc. He was unconscious several hours. He was taken to the nearest house and then to his own home. He was there attended to by Dr. Hayes of Nelson, who put seven stitches in his head. He was removed to the Miramichi Hospital on Sunday afternoon. He was resting easily last night and was reported doing well.

Whereas the great war which has been raging for the last four years has been brought to a victorious conclusion.

And whereas men of our land have contributed to the glorious result by offering themselves for military service and in a great many cases sacrificing their lives as an offering in defence of our rights and privileges.

Therefore be it resolved that this Council by this resolution record our gratitude and appreciation to all sons of Northumberland who have fought and bled in the great cause of honor and freedom and civilization.

And be it further resolved that the Secretary Treasurer publish this resolution in all of the local papers for two weeks.

Mrs. Mabel D. Richards, late superintendent of the Miramichi Hospital, spent a few days last week in Newcastle, the guest of Rev. L. H. and Mrs. MacLean at the Manse. She was enroute from Campbellton to Fredericton. Mrs. Richards resigned a few weeks ago in order to take post graduate work and visit leading New England hospitals. It was with great regret that the Hospital Board accepted her resignation, for not only had she proved herself to be an efficient nurse and capable superintendent, but also a woman of special executive ability. She leaves the hospital in a most efficient condition to go on with the good work it has done under her guidance. She leaves many friends in Newcastle who sincerely regret her departure, but who follow her with all good wishes believing that yet greater work is in store for her.

Courier, St. Stephen: Some people are always in luck. Last month, Clifford Mowatt escaped election to the town council by a narrow margin and this week sudden riches have been thrust upon him. Some years ago, he had a policy with the Rimouski Fire Insurance Co., which retired from business badly behind the game in a financial way. The affairs of the company have now been settled and Mr. Mowatt was startled this week by the receipt of a duly issued check for 3 cents, his share of the division of the assets. The check bore a 2 cent war revenue stamp, and the envelope containing it bore a 3 cent postage stamp. Mr. Mowatt is wondering what discount the bank will charge him for cashing the check and has filled several sheets of paper trying to figure out whether the check makes him a winner or a loser.
