ERAMOSA PLOUGHING MATCH.—The Eramosa Agricultural Society will hold their Ploughing Match on the farm of Mr Robert Dryden, on Monday, the 21st inst. Particulars respecting prizes, etc., in a future issue.
SENTENCED TO DEATH.—At the last Assizes for the County of Waterloo a man named Bennedeck was sentenced to be hanged for an outrage on the person of a girl named Elizabeth Marmoron, a resident of the township of Woolwich. The plea of intermittent insanity was set up; but he was found guilty, and is to be executed on the 20th of December next. The Chronicle advocates the framing of a petition for the mitigation of the sentence.

SOUTH RIDING PLOUGHING MATCH.—The annual Ploughing Match in connection with the South Riding and Guelph Township Agricultural Societies, will be held on Wednesday, the 23rd inst. The prizes in the first class will be $6, $4, $3, $2, and $1; in the second and third classes each, $5, $4, $3, and $1. The field has not yet been selected, but we will be able to announce where it will be held next week.

DELEGATES TO THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE.—At the meeting of the Directors of the South Riding Agricultural Society, on Monday, Mr George Murton was appointed Delegate to represent the society at the meeting of the Board of Agriculture in November, which meets for the purpose of drafting a new Agricultural Bill. At the last meeting of the Mechanics' Institute Committee, Mr D. McCrae was appointed a delegate to the same meeting.

SOUTH RIDING TURNIP MATCH.—At a meeting of the Directors of the South Riding Agricultural Society, at J. O'Neill's Hotel, on Monday, it was decided that the judges should commence their examination of the fields entered for competition on the 17th inst. All parties who have made entries, but who don't intend to compete, will please notify the Secretary at once, so that the Judges will not be put to the trouble of inspecting their fields.

Messrs. Young and Clemens were entertained at a supper in New Hamburg, on Thursday evening last. So large was the attendance that the Chronicle says metaphorically, "All New Hamburg seemed to be on hand." Mr Springer and Mr. Trow, M. P.'s, were among the guests. The supper like most other occasions of the kind passed off in a highly satisfactory manner; the eatables were good, the drinkables better (if the number of toasts is any criteria) and the speaking was first-rate.

Waterloo Assizes—Interesting Case.
The case of Oakes vs. Boomer, tried at the last Waterloo Assizes, is interesting as showing the lengths to which party spirit and party rancour will sometimes impel those who yield themselves unresistingly to such feelings. The following is a report of the case:—This was an action brought by John W. Oakes of the village of Hawkesville, against Wm. B. Boomer, Esq., of the place, a Justice of the Peace, for making, as it alleged, a wilfully false, incorrect and partial return. The defendant, it appears, on the 2nd of March last, convicted one Frederick of St. Clements, for keeping a gambling house, and imposed a fine of $20, which was at once paid over to the said justice, who immediately paid one-half of the said penalty over to the complainant, and intended paying the other half to the Township Treasurer, but as the Quarter Sessions came on immediately thereafter, to which the defendant Boomer never made returns, he filled out his return showing the money paid over to the Treasurer, thinking to have an opportunity of so doing in a few days. Very shortly after this the defendant met the Reeve of the Township, Dr Vardon, to whom he stated the circumstances and even offered the money. Dr Vardon said it would do to pay the money the first opportunity he had of being at the Treasurer's office, distant some seven miles, and advised defendant not to send it by mail. In the mean time Dr Vardon and defendant colluded on politics, and Vardon at once made inquiries of the Treasurer whether the money had yet been paid, telling the Treasurer at the same time to keep quiet about it lest Boomer should get to know. It came out in the evidence that although the suit was entered in the name of the man Oake Dr Vardon was the real plaintiff. The jury after an absence of full three hours, returned with a verdict for defendant.

Erin Quarterly Fair.
The October Fair was held at Erin village on Tuesday last, and was more than usually successful. Not less than 300 head of cattle were offered for sale, besides a large number of sheep and pigs. A large number of buyers from Guelph, Norval and Toronto was present, and business was pretty active. Some of the cattle were very good, but the majority were rather lean. The following are a few of the sales effected. Neil McGill a cow for $25.75, and a steer and a cow for $55 to W. West. H. Fielding, three cows to the same buyer for $100; George Hurd, a bull to Mr. McQuillan for $18; H. Shingler, a cow to Mr. Patterson, for $18; B. Bingham, a cow for $25; G. Smith for $97; H. Shingler bought 2 head to John McMillan, for $40, and 2 steers to A. Noble, for $55; W. Ward bought 5 head for $125; Alex. Scott, a yoke of oxen to John Barber, for $100.

Give Him a Salary.
A coalition journal published in St. Catharines throws asid all decency in the treatment of the Nova Scotia question. All that is wanted is to give the Hon. Joseph Howe a salary of $5,000 and a seat in the Cabinet, and all will be right. Our contemporary reminds us of an old story. A half crazy Scotch beggar was once seized by a lot of young men, who washed and dressed him, and concluded by shaving him with a very dull razor. For ever after, that beggar had an instinctive dread of razors. On hearing a hog roar and scream at an unusual rate, he replied to a question as to the cause of its suffering by saying "I donna ken, but I think they may be shaving it." Our St. Catharines contemporary's appreciation of the most effective salve for Howe's discontent is about as acute as that of the Scotch beggar. They both doubtless spoke from personal experience. The beggar thought there was something like shaving to make even a big squeal, and the St. Catharines editor thought there was no argument like hard push to work wonders in converting an Oppositionist into a good sound Coalitionist.

From such words we learn a lesson as to Coalition morality. If a man stands in the way—if he is likely to be troublesome—there is one unfailing prescription for the disease "give him a salary." Sir John has taught the lesson that even Conservative leaders can be bought like beasts in the market. And from that the lesson is deduced that "every man has his price" that honour and consistency and principle are all a sham, and that the never-falling cure of all patriotism is "give him a salary."

To the Coalitionists a statesman who would not pocket his principles and take his salary would be a riddle more unsolvable than the sphynx, a monstrosity as much surpassing belief as the Admirable Crichton. And hence their advice in regard to Howe, "give him a salary." Such a proposition shows what the Coalitionists think of their leaders. They ask that Howe shall be elevated to a seat in the Cabinet; that he shall be made one of the leaders of the Coalition party; and the bait they hold out to him is a salary. Hence it is patent that the Coalitionists have no objection to accept as leaders men whose highest aspirations are bounded by the hope of gain—men whose adhesion to a party can best be secured by the echo of the magic words, "give him a salary."

Dickens' Former Reception.
The New York Times has the following pleasing paragraph concerning a reception accorded to Charles Dickens on the occasion of his former visit to America:—
A paragraph in the Leader, mentioning the rather striking fact that out of the twelve gentlemen who acted as Reception Committee when Charles Dickens visited this city in 1842, all but one are dead, alludes from the sole survivor, Mr. F. M. Wetmore, very graciously and pleasantly or two rather memorable incidents of that dinner, which, however, may have more forcibly struck the writer of this paragraph than they did Mr. Wetmore, are not noted in his article. Washington Irving presided, and as he was the most modest and unaffectedly distrustful of men, and quite as unused to facing a public audience as a battery, the task of making the opening speech was terribly formidable. He went on successfully for about two minutes, and then, his memory failing, came to a pause. His face grew scarlet; he became as embarrassed as a shy schoolboy in a parlor, and, stammering, "It's of no use; I never could do a thing of this kind," he sat down, amid the hearty applause and cordial good feeling of everybody in the room. Nobody greeted him more heartily than Dickens himself. He was and is a capital off-hand speaker; and when he spoke, in the warmest and most graceful manner, of the delight he had for years taken in Irving's writings, and cited a witness, who sat behind him, to prove that he never went to sleep without one of Irving's books under his pillow, he roused the heartiest enthusiasm of the whole company. That was but twenty-five years ago; yet how many would be the chairs made vacant by death, if that company were to be called together to welcome Dickens again!

TO-DAY'S TELEGRAMS.
Special and Exclusive Despatches to the Evening Mercury.
From Philadelphia.
Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—The footing up of the reported majorities in forty-five counties of Pennsylvania shows a Democratic majority of 8267. There are 21 counties to come in, of which 15 gave Republican majorities last year.
From New York.
New York, Oct. 10.—The World's Philadelphia special says the Democratic state ticket is undoubtedly elected. The Democrats claim from 5 to 10,000 majority.
The Herald's Louisville special says the steamer Ella Faber, which was sunk below Cannellon on Saturday, and was raised and placed in the docks this morning, took fire and is reported to be totally destroyed.
The Herald's Panama correspondence says public opinion favored the temporary banishment of Mosquera instead of his execution, for which the people were ripe soon after his arrest. An agent from a British house had gone to Bogota to obtain $100,000 with which his concern had bribed Mosquera to favor their projects relative to the Panama railroad, but his prospects were not flattering.
New York, Oct. 10.—Six seizures were made yesterday by the officers of internal revenue, including 32 barrels of whiskey and high wines, a tobacco factory, 28 brls. tobacco, etc.
New York, Oct. 10th.—During the week ending yesterday, 3045 emigrants arrived at this port, making 197,358 during the present year.

More Fenian Rumors!
REPORTED ARREST OF GARIBALDI'S SON.
BAVARIA AND GERMAN UNITY.
(MIDNIGHT DESPATCHES.)
Newmarket, Oct. 9th.—The second October race meeting commenced here to-day. The two leading races to-day were for the Czarewitch and the Royal stakes. The former was won by Julius.
London, Oct. 9.—Manifestations of ill-feeling on the part of the Irish in the north of England have excited much alarm. The inhabitants believe that the Fenians are concerting an outbreak in that part of the country. Troops have been despatched by rail-road to assist the civil authorities here, should any disturbance occur.
Dublin, Oct. 9th.—The uneasiness caused by the rumors of the revival of the Fenian conspiracy still continues and is increasing. Extraordinary precautions have been taken by the military and police authorities throughout the island.
Florence, Oct. 9.—A report is in circulation that Menotti, the son of Garibaldi, has been arrested by the Italian government. When last heard of Menotti Garibaldi was actively engaged in carrying out his father's plans for the invasion of the Roman territory. With these plans he was well acquainted, full confidence having been reposed in him by the General. His arrest will be a severe blow to his followers, as in the absence of Garibaldi it deprives them of the most capable leader.
March Oct. 9.—At the sitting of the Bavarian diet yesterday, Prince Hohenlohe, the Chief Minister of the Cabinet, made a speech in which he discussed the question of German unity, and indicated the position of the government in relation to the other states of Germany. He declared that the true policy of Bavaria was to stand union with the North German states under the presidency of the King of Prussia, and at the same time to steps for the establishment of a German and enduring alliance with the Emperor of Austria. "Should this be carried into effect, the whole Fatherland

Affairs in Europe.

The Paris correspondent of the N. Y. Times says it is rumored that the Emperor is about to resume his pet project of a Congress of the European Powers. The object, it is stated, is no longer that of arriving at a solution of pending questions, but of effecting complete disarmament. There is no feature in the present aspect of things which would go far to discredit his statement, and that is the bitterness of feeling which has been excited in the French mind by the successes of Prussia, and the tone of defiance adopted by M. de Bismarck in his circulars. No plan of a guarantee of the peace of Europe would, we are satisfied, now be acceptable to the French people that did not check the French aggrandizement of that Power and put an end to all chance of the absorption of Holland by her. This is unquestionably a scheme which the Prussian Premier has set his mind on accomplishing, because it would bring the naval force of Germany up to the point of strength which it now occupies militarily.

The accounts from Spain continue to be of the same gloomy and unsatisfactory character. There is some talk of the probability of the overthrow of the present Ministry. Gen Prim is at Geneva, where he is said to be preparing a manifesto justifying his conduct. It has been ascertained for certain that the two proclamations attributed to him were from his pen.

Holland, awakened to the danger of absorption by the German Confederation, has, it is said, sounded the Cabinets of London and Brussels as to whether it would not be advisable to have the treaties of 1832 revised on the following bases:—Extension to Holland of the neutrality of Belgium, and the formation of a neutral confederation of the Low Countries composed of Holland, Belgium and the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg. This union would, it is contended, give to France guarantees against Prussian annexation; to Germany guarantees against French annexation, and it would create an aggregate of military strength sufficient to defend more effectually the independence of the Low Countries. Nothing is as yet known of the reply of the two Governments to the inquiry thus put to them.

Of the effect on the trade of Paris of the rumors of a second French expedition to Rome, superadded to the anxiety that prevails in regard to the projects of M. de Bismarck, we have lamentable evidence. Business is paralysed and capital is lying idle in the Banks. To increase the general distrust, the affairs of the Credit Mobilier seem to have fallen into a hopeless state of derangement. When we take into account the large number of enterprises which are associated with its operations, and whose credit is bound up with it, we can understand the anxiety which its embarrassments occasion.

American Enterprise.

The New York Commercial Advertiser has a paragraph which shows, that the Americans are not at all frightened by the dreary aspect of Wallrusia, or its incongenial skies. It may safely be presumed that if Mr. Seward were to purchase the North Pole some adventurous Yankee would perch himself upon the pinnacle, and start a menagerie. The journal referred to says:—Already are Secretary Seward's prognostications, in regard to our new possessions, being verified. Hardly six months have passed since Russian America was acquired, and yet enterprises of every character are springing up in that country, which promise to develop a vast and most valuable Pacific trade for the United States. Building lots have advanced several hundred dollars in price at New Archangel and Sitka, in anticipation of a large flow of emigration thither. Numerous parties are organizing in California to proceed to Russian America to reap the wealth afforded in her gold, copper, and coal mines, fur trade, and fisheries. Ship-builders on Puget Sound expect and are preparing for extensive orders in the spring, and a United States navy yard is to be located on Cambridge Island. The climate of New Archangel is described as being delightful, and all kinds of vegetables are raised there. So far as can be ascertained, the inhabitants of Russian America, with the exception of the Indians, are pleased with the transfer of the country, and express themselves as being glad at being included in Uncle Sam's dominions. Before the lapse of many months, there will doubtless be a regular vessels plying between San Francisco and various points on the Russian coast. And we shall in time witness a more advanced civilization upon the Pacific coast, surpassing the most sanguine expectations.

FROM LIGHTNING.

We are sorry to hear that about one o'clock Wednesday last the barn of Mr. C. Lamb, situated on the farm of Mr. C. Lamb, was destroyed by lightning and fire.

KIRKWOOD, LIVINGSTONE & CO'S Montreal Review and Price Current.

Flour and Wheat.—The tone and tendency of the market for some weeks past has fully sustained our estimate of the 19th September, in reference to the future run of prices. The failure of the crops in some districts of Europe have been found on further investigation to be even more disastrous than was feared. The potato rot has also given much cause for uneasiness in Great Britain, and already there is a strong disposition to renew liberally their now limited stocks, but notwithstanding heavy importations from Canada and the United States, the active demand for the continent prevents any accumulation of stocks, and with a gigantic war imminent at an early date, we cannot see any chance of a reaction now in prices in Europe. While here there is nothing whatever to warrant the assumption of a possibility of a return to the prices current of a few years past, besides all the reasons already alleged, we now find the wet season is about to set in before the millers have acquired any stock of importance, and from many districts we find there is a lack of wheat to supply the mills in their own immediate neighborhood. With the close of navigation will also be found proof of our statement of the exceedingly small supplies that will be held in New York, Boston, and other cities of the North, and the railroads from the West, besides the disadvantage of the advanced charges, will be quite unable to supply the wants of the Northern people, and Canada will again find her natural outlet for her white wheat and best spring wheat flours. Even now purchases have been made and we hear of the shipments of Fall Wheat on the line of the Buffalo and Lake Huron Railroad for the Buffalo market at $1.50. The Lower Provinces are as yet but barely supplied for the Fall and Winter trade, and as freights will now become more difficult to get as the season advances, while insurance will advance every fortnight, it will be to the interest of dealers to provide themselves in advance against the increased cost that will be incurred later on. For upwards of two weeks the market has been very active mainly at $7.25 @ $7.40 for good to choice superfine. Occasional brands of choice baker's flour sometimes bringing 5 @ 10c more money. At the close of day, owing to extreme stringency in the money market, there is a shade less activity, but prices are no lower. With a little more ease in the money market prices, it is believed would go higher. Extras are less plentiful, but are still ample for the demand. Fancy has met a slow sale at quotations. In superfine, for which the demand is almost entirely limited, we noted much improvement in the old favorite brands, and many new brands that if kept up will become deservedly popular. No. 2 has been in good demand. The lower grades have also met a moderately active enquiry. Rye flour is more enquired for, but the stock is now limited, and orders difficult to execute. Oatmeal is in fair request, sales at $5.65 @ $5.80 per barrel. Wheat: transactions in western wheat during the week have been very heavy at $1.52 1/2 for No. 2, and $1.57 1/2 for No. 1. Upper Canada spring wheat, we notice sales at $1.55 @ $1.60, 2,500 bushels choice for seed bringing the latter rate, and car lots going at $1.55, $1.56, $1.57 1/2 and $1.59 according to quality. The scarcity of freights latterly, is driving shippers from any disposition to buy freely, causing holders to be placed more in the power of our local millers.

Peas.—The quality of this grain this season is very good, and prices have also been most favorable for producers opening at a high price, the market advanced to 90 cents per 60 lbs, but lack of freight has damaged any disposition to operate beyond the freight room to be had, hence the market closes quiet with latest sales at 97 1/2 for 66 lb ex cars.

Oats and Barley.—Purely nominal transactions confined to country districts.

Corn.—None in market.

Ashe.—Pots, market quiet. 1st pots, $5.90 @ $5.95 per bush; No. 2, $5.35 @ $5.40; No. 3, $4.90 @ $4.90. Pearls, No. 1, $6.30 @ $6.55; No. 2, $6.30 @ $6.40.

Butter.—Under an improved demand for the local trade and for shipment, we quote best dairy 1 @ 2 cents higher, but common and store packed continues dull and most difficult of sale. Choice dairy 15c @ 16c per lb; store packed 12 1/2 @ 13 1/2.

Cheese has also improved, and considerable sales have been made of choice factory at 9c @ 9 1/2c.

Pork.—The market is less active and lower than at date of our last quotation: Mess $20.25 @ $20.50 per barrel; Thin Mess $18.25 @ $18.50; Prime $16.00 @ $16.50; Prime 1/2 @ $15.50.

Canned goods.—Canned and sugar hams according to brand 15 @ 16 cents. Plain hams 7 @ 10 cents. Bacon 6 1/2 @ 7 cents.

Montreal, 8th Oct., 1867.

The Halifax Markets.

Oct. 1st, 1867. We have no improvement to note on business for the past week. The enquiry for all descriptions of merchandise is limited. Butter.—Flour has declined slightly since our last. The supply is far in excess of the demand, buyers holding off, anticipating a still further decline. Rye quiet. Cornmeal in moderate enquiry. Imports from Canada, 7524 lbs of flour, 177 bags wheat, 320 barrels rye. From the United States 430 lbs of flour, 100 barrels of rye, 300 barrels of meal. Exports 100 barrels, to Magdalen Islands. Fish.—Cod, we have no change to note, enquiry limited. Salmon unchanged, with little enquiry. Mackerel in good request, but small supply. Herring in fair enquiry, supply limited, prices. Alewives quiet. Imports 1218 quintals Cod, 87 barrels mackerel, 35 barrels of herring, 34 barrels salmon, 600 boxes smoked herring. Produce.—No change to notice. Oats nominal, sales confined to small lots. No arrivals from P. E. Island. Cheese in moderate demand. Imports from Canada 116 boxes. Provisions.—Pork mess in good demand, stock small. Beef mess scarce, some enquiry, quotations nominal. Lard quiet.

Oct. 8th.—Advices by telegraph report no change.

DECAY IN THE OIL REGIONS.—A recent visitor in the oil regions of Pennsylvania describes the desolation which reigns in a once famous locality. Between Oil City and Meadville, not one well is in operation. It is only a long line of rotten derricks and rusted boilers and engines. At Franklin, where the French creek empties into the Alleghany, they show with pride the great court house that they are building, the tall marble monument to the martyrs of the war, and the tumbling down farm-houses of the Evans family. Three years ago, $100,000 were offered to this family for their house and ground. The offer was refused as too moderate; and the daughter of the house, in the flush of sudden wealth, scorned her rustic lover, and cancelled her engagement. Now the estate, farm, and all, is a desolation.

A large number of delegates and visitors, many of whom were ladies, from different parts of Canada and some from the United States were present. Rev. NORAH CUSHALEEN

HAUNTED CASTLE.

Those questions might be said to be trembling in the balance when the latch of the chamber door was lifted, and the door itself slowly and silently opened by the tall, muffled form of Lady Blantire, whose right hand lay in her bosom and grasped the handle of the dagger.

The infant lay upon its mother's bosom, and his sweet, innocent face was turned up to hers, in calm repose. Norah herself lay with her face fronting the door. It was pale, and wore an appearance of grief and anxiety.

But, oh, in its meekness and gentleness it was touchingly beautiful. Sorrow and despair had set their sad mark upon it, and it seemed as if one look ought to have melted the hardest, cruelest heart.

Did the sight soften the feelings of Lady Blantire, or turn her from her purpose? Alas, no. Her eye gleamed only with hate and triumph, and her hand grasped more firmly the handle of her dagger.

Norah was to be the first victim; and to make sure that one blow would be enough, the murderess knelt down on the edge of the couch and cautiously removed the bed clothes from the bosom of her victim.

Slowly her right arm was raised, and the rusty dagger was pointed downwards. Another moment and it would have fallen with all the force she could put forth, when suddenly, with a loud cry, Norah sprang up and grasped the hand which held the fatal instrument.

She had not been sleeping. She had seen the door stealthily opened, and the tall muffled form appear on the threshold, and terrified surprise kept her silent and motionless.

With the exception of that one cry which in the first moment of terror escaped from Norah, they spoke not a word, and made no sound, but each knowing what depended on the issue, put forth all her strength to obtain the mastery.

Lady Blantire was animated by pride and the strongest of unholy passions; Norah struggled for her own life and the life of her child. Both were, therefore, animated by the strongest feelings and intensest desires of their nature.

Lady Blantire was a strong woman for her age. Her stern, unbending nature was well represented by her muscular frame. Norah, though far younger, was not physically unequal, and it is contended had been for a less valuable stake, she would soon have been overcome.

But a mother's love and a mother's fear—what can stand against these? We all know that the weakest and most timid of animals grow fierce and courageous when defending their young; and a weak woman, when called to the same holy duty, becomes strong.

And thus, in the midnight solitude of that mountain ruin, did passion and virtue struggle together—sinful pride and despairing innocence fought the one against the other in the persons of two of the gentlest sex, whose fine nature ought to know nothing of such strife.

A FEW REASONS THAT MAKE IT SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS.

- 1st—It proves itself a reliable time-keeper beyond all question. 2nd—The RUSSELL WATCH being made on correct and scientific principles, it must follow as a natural consequence that it will keep time. 3rd—Each part of which the RUSSELL WATCH is composed is a reflex of the perfect machine which, under skillful direction, it is produced. 4th—Truth is the essential of each part. 5th—Uniformity and conformity must therefore characterize the several parts in fulfilling the purpose for which they are made and brought together. 6th—Reproduction, as regards watch work, is simply an application of the principle that "things which are equal to the same things are equal to one another," and if there is any merit, the RUSSELL WATCH possesses that merit to a demonstration. 7th—The greatest variety of price, quality and size, that confidence and perfection will admit, afforded by the RUSSELL WATCH. 8th—The RUSSELL WATCH stands pre-eminently above all competitors for public favor and patronage. 9th—Proofs of the foregoing—the universal testimony of all Watch-makers who have sold, and the positive statements of the thousands in Europe, the United States and Canada, who have worn the RUSSELL WATCH.

TESTIMONIAL. To Robert Cuthbert, Watchmaker, Wyndham Street, Guelph.

If Society was as perfect in its organization, and was as obedient to the dictates of truth as the RUSSELL WATCH I bought from you in indicating time, evil would be swallowed up in good, and happiness would become monotonous.

JOHN McNEIL, Montreal Boot and Shoe Store, Wyndham-st., Guelph, Ontario. Guelph, 3rd September, 1867.

CARD.

HAVING disposed of my BUSINESS to Mr. JOHN McNEIL, who has been for a long period in my employment, I have much pleasure in recommending him as worthy and highly qualified to maintain the reputation which I flatter myself has been accorded to the Montreal Boot and Shoe Store since it was opened. The best proof I could have of the good name of the Store is the more than liberal support extended to myself during the long years which the Montreal Boot and Shoe Store has been under my control. MR. McNEIL has been a long time in your midst, and has an extensive connection in this County, which, coupled with PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE of HIS BUSINESS, and courteous manner, augurs well for his success, and I trust you will confer on him a share of your esteemed patronage.
