THE TICHBORNE CASE.

The Claimant Withdraws his Case.

He is Arrested For Perjury.

London, March 6.

The celebrated Tichborne case was brought to a sudden and most unexpected termination this morning. Upon the opening of the court the counsel for the claimant to the Tichborne estate announced that their client had decided, in view of the action of the jury on Monday in saying they had heard sufficient evidence whereon to base a verdict, to withdraw his case before the court.

After this announcement of the counsel for the plaintiff, the counsel for the defendant Lord Chief Justice Bovill to issue a warrant for the arrest of the claimant on a charge of perjury, and to fix his bail at £50,000. The petition was granted, and a Bench warrant was issued for his arrest.

The claimant was not present at the session of the court this morning, and it is believed he has fled from the city.

LATER.—The claimant to the Tichborne estate did not, as was first supposed this morning, leave London immediately upon his decision to withdraw his case. Shortly after the issue of the warrant for his arrest by Lord Chief Justice Bovill, he was taken into custody by the police and conveyed to Newgate.

The Railway Meeting.

Last (Wednesday) night a meeting was held in the Queen's for the purpose of appointing a delegation to proceed to Erin to attend the meeting held there to-day, in the interest of the Credit Valley Railway, by Mr. George Laidlaw. The meeting was well attended, many of our leading citizens being present. Mr. Massie was appointed chairman and Mr. Guthrie secretary.

After a long and friendly discussion on the whole subject, the following resolution was passed:

Moved by Mr. Melvin, seconded by Mr. Raymond, "That the chairman be instructed to request the Mayor to call a special meeting of the Town Council for an hour tomorrow forenoon, to consider the project of a railway from Guelph to Orangeville and Collingwood, and give expression to their views regarding it."

Moved by Mr. Higginbotham, seconded by Mr. Worswick, "That Messrs. Massie, Sturton, Hogg, Mills and McLagan be a deputation to go to Erin to-morrow."

Mr. Winger and Mr. Ruppel, of Elmira, were present, and urged on the meeting the propriety of sending a deputation to Berlin to-day to the meeting of those from the surrounding municipalities who are favorable to the building of a railway from Waterloo Village to Drayton. They represented that the people of Elmira would rather have railway connection with Guelph, and thought a scheme might be got up and carried out for the construction of a railway from Guelph through Elmira, Woolwich, Wellesley and Mornington.

On motion of Mr. Melvin, it was carried that the Mayor, Messrs. Howard, Goude and Chas. Davidson be appointed to attend the conference to be held at Berlin to-day.

EDITORIAL NEWS.

The Metropolitan hotel in Toronto is being cleared out for the Mad proprietors, and a gang of workmen are at work. Blackburn has not yet returned from New York. The prospectus will be issued in a few days.

Gen. Brownlow telegraphs from Calcutta that the Northern Howling chiefs have submitted, bringing peace offerings and bidding themselves to peace with their usual oaths and ceremonies, and all their captives have been recovered.

The tunnel under the Detroit river is progressing at the rate of five feet per diem, including the construction of the masonry. A layer of quicksand, discharging continually five gallons per minute, has caused much delay, and some large boulders have been met with rendering it necessary to use gunpowder to remove them. Operations will soon be commenced on the Canada side; but it is feared the total cost of the works will be much higher than was expected.

A DISPATCH from Rome states that when Prince Frederick Charles of Prussia was in that city recently on his way to Egypt, he declared that in case France made an attack upon Italy, the latter would be defended by Germany. This report is probably correct.

Nassagaweya Council.

The Council met pursuant to adjournment on Monday the 26th day of Feb. Members all present. The Reeve in the chair. The minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed. On motion it was ordered that the sum of $17.75 be paid to Dr. Winn for medical attendance on Widow Job's family, Patrick Waters and Samuel Seriver, poor and indigent persons. On motion the report of the Inspector of Taverns was received and read, which stated that he had visited the several taverns and found them provided with the necessary accommodation required by statute and the by-law, and recommending the occupants thereof as fit and proper persons to receive certificates for licenses. The applicants being present with their bondsmen, and after executing the required bond received their certificates for licenses, viz: John Coote, Farmers Arms; Michael Easterbrook, Campbellville Inn; Michael Lyons, Huttonville Hotel; Henry Stinzel, Ontario Hotel; Lewis Scram, Town-line Inn. On motion S. R. Lister was re-appointed to collect all arrears of taxes available. On motion a by-law was introduced and passed the several readings, for the remuneration of Township officers. On motion the Council adjourned to meet on the second Monday in April next, as a Court of Revision and Appeal, and for other Township business.

JOHN EASTMAN, Township Clerk.

BY TELEGRAPH THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES

A Great Fire in Cincinnati.

Recall of the Spanish Minister at Washington.

Cincinnati, March 7.—Last night a fire broke out among steamers at the wharf, totally destroying the following, with their cargoes:—Champion, Argosy, St. Charles, Kate Robinson, Major Anderson and Abeona, also seriously damaging an immense New Orleans wharf boat, which may yet be destroyed. It is impossible at this hour to ascertain the loss, which will be heavy. The fire is still raging, but is not likely to extend beyond the boats mentioned above, as other threatened boats have been removed.

Madison, Wis., March 7.—A Bill passed in the Senate yesterday, prohibiting the purchase, or receiving in store, grain by any other weight or measure than at the standard provided by law.

Washington, March 7.—Senator Roberts, the Spanish Minister, has been recalled. The certainty of the event has been for some time whispered in administration circles, but the Government now has authentic notice of it, and has also an intimation that the successor likely to be sent out is so completely a tool of the Marplot Sogasta, and has used such expressions towards the United States, that the question of receiving him demands grave consideration. We certainly seem entering upon a period of decidedly cool relations with Spain.

Special Meeting of Town Council.

A special meeting of the Town Council convened by the Mayor was held this morning at 9 o'clock. Present, the Mayor, Messrs. Massie, Hogg, Kennedy, Snider, Stewart, Crowe, McMillan, Bruce, Howard, Robertson, Stevenson.

The Clerk read applications from Mrs. Atkinson and James Hoban for shop licenses. Referred to the Inspector. Moved by Mr. Robertson, seconded by Mr. Howard, that this Council views with approval the project of a Railway from Guelph to Orangeville and thence to Collingwood, connecting this town with the waters of the Georgian Bay, and that this Council will use every legitimate means in its power to promote the enterprise. Carried.

The Turnberry By-law.

We have received a despatch from Wingham, announcing that the Turnberry By-law, granting a bonus to the Narrow Gauge Railway was on Wednesday defeated by a majority of 140. This with the defeat of the Wingham By-law is a grievous blow to the Narrow Gaugers, whose fortunes now are at a rather low ebb.

Fire in Drayton.

Special despatch to the Mercury. March 7.—Last night a fire broke out in the residence of Mr. J. Longman, formerly owned by Dr. Tuck. The fire originated in the chimney or stovepipe. The contents of the house were nearly all saved, together with the kitchen adjoining the house. This was effected by the activity of the village people. The building, with its contents, was insured in the Waterloo Mutual for $1,000.

The preparations for the Boston June Jubilee are still going on at a tremendous rate. The Executive Committee meets regularly every Wednesday evening. As for chorus, the only difficulty will be that there is a prospect of too much of it. Over $15,000 worth of season tickets have already been sold. Wilcox & Coare building for the occasion the most enormous organ ever erected in this country. "It is to be played," we are told, "by means of electric communication between the keyboard at the conductor's stand and the organist's seat at the rear extremity of the stage." The information is not quite so definite as we could desire: for we are left in doubt as to who or what is to play, the conductor of his stand, the organist or his seat; or whether the whole thing is to be done by electricity.

A bachelor editor, who had a pretty unmarried sister, lately wrote to another editor similarly circumstanced, "Please exchange."

WE beg to call attention to Mr. Horsman's advertisement about Ploughs. The Plough referred to is having a large demand, so great has it become that three car loads have been forwarded to Mr. Horsman to supply the farmers in this neighborhood this Spring. All pronounce them the best general purpose Plough made; as a guarantee of this we need only say that they are manufactured at the celebrated Agricultural Works of F. W. Glen, Oshawa. The price it will be observed will be kept at $13, the old figure, until the 1st of April, when it will be raised to $15 in consequence of the advance in Iron and Steel. We should therefore recommend our farmer friends to loose no time in procuring one at Mr. John Horsman's, Hardware Merchant of this town.

HELEN MOIR OR—
LOVE AND HONOUR.

A TALE OF THE CLYDE.
CHAPTER XX.

DAVID BRIDGEMAN TELLS HIS STORY.
"Ha!" exclaimed Edwin, "I could not think how you could become connected with such an odious wretch."
"That was the beginning of my acquaintance with him. I never particularly liked him, but I attributed his cynical character to the malformation of his body, and pitied him rather than otherwise. I knew him to be void of all sympathy and tenderness of feeling. I knew he had a strange pleasure in beholding and aggravating the sufferings of others, but I did not believe him to be capable of such treachery as he has manifested within these few days. However, it is not of him that I now require to speak, so much as of his master, Philip Jerdan."

"Ere long the small sums I from time to time received from him amounted to something considerable, and this was a new uneasiness added to my distraction. Of Glenfruin and Helen I could not now think but with a shudder, and when the thought did intrude I strove to banish it with frantic effort. My anxiety and restlessness grew insupportable. Solitude I could not endure, and a desire to rush into excitement of some kind came restlessly upon me. At this juncture, Jerdan wanted me to go with him one evening, and I eagerly accepted the invitation. I knew not where we were going, nor into what society; I only hoped and expected that it would be where I should enjoy a respite from the gnawing pain of my own thoughts, and was careless as to all else. Jaquin accompanied us, following a few paces behind, and after passing along several thoroughfares, we entered a quiet street, and about the centre of it Jerdan led the way into a dingy building. Presently we found ourselves in a long dark passage, Jerdan walking first, I immediately behind him, and Jaquin closely following. At the end of the passage was a door which seemed to open of itself, for it turned noiselessly on its hinges as we approached without even knock or signal being made, and so soon as we three had passed within, it closed again in the same silent mysterious manner. We were now in a lobby or ante-room, lighted by a large lamp in the centre, and on the other side was a door covered with green baize, at the side of which sat a man in a large leather chair."

"To this door Jerdan walked, beckoning me to follow, which I did with perfect unconcern, and wholly unsuspecting of the kind of scene to which I was about to be introduced. But the opening of the door revealed it, and at a glance I understood its nature, for all the features told me that the gambling table, with all its surroundings was before me."

"The room was long and lofty. It was brilliantly lighted, and large mirrors reflected and reproduced it everywhere. There were two or three tables, each surrounded by a group of men, and by their eager, flushed, compressed faces, or which hope and triumph rested, the nature of their occupation could be guessed."

"Jerdan glanced at me to see, no doubt, if I understood the nature of the place, and how I received the revelation. 'Would to God I had turned away from it in horror. I did shake my head in disapprobation, at which Jerdan laughed and whispered that he dropped in now and then just to see the fun.'

"I know two or three of the fellows a little," he added. "Come forward and I'll introduce you."

"No—I would rather not, I remonstrated, but my resistance was feeble and ineffectual, and under the grasp of his hand and his firm persuasive manner I was drawn forward to one of the tables, and to my excessive surprise Jerdan introduced me to the players under the name of Waldgrave Winthrop."

"Why did he do this I could not conjecture. He told me in a private whisper that he thought I might prefer to conceal my real name there, and as I had already passed under this other name in Scotland, it had naturally suggested itself to him."

"My story has now reached the verge of the dreadful catastrophe, and I cannot approach the narration of the occurrence in that room that night without a cold sweat breaking upon me."

"And in truth as he spoke round beads of perspiration began to gather on Bridgeman's brow, his breath came fast and quick, and an expression of pain, amounting to agony, passed over his face."

"Helen, with a woman's gentle, tender touch, took her handkerchief and wiped the moisture from his brow."

"Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites will speedily and certainly arrest the depressing influence of disease upon the nerves and muscles. It restores the appetite and induces a disposition to take on healthy flesh. It causes the formation of living blood, strengthening the action of both Heart and Lungs. It sustains the system under trying circumstances, and causes the healthy development of all the organs necessary to our existence."

"We notice that the agricultural papers all over the country recommend the use of Sheridan's Catary Condition Powders.—Exchange.
Farmers and others in this section have long known and appreciated the advantage of these powders over all others."

Breakfast—Epps' Cocoa—Grateful and Comfortable.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which will save us many heavy doctor's bills.

Cold Service Gazette.—Made simply with boiling water or milk. Each packet is labeled "James Epps & Co., Homeopathic Chemists, London." Also, makers of Epps's Milky Cocoa (Cocoa and Condensed Milk).

We all consider iron the embodiment of strength and power, but how few are aware that it is this same element, in the system, that gives us strength and vigor, and that an insufficiency of it causes weakness and debility. The Peruvian Syrup, a protoxide of iron, is prepared expressly to supply this vitalizing element.

There are probably a hundred or more persons in this and neighboring towns, who daily suffer from the distressing effects of kidney troubles, who do not know that Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, is almost a certain cure. In several cases, great relief may be obtained, if not a perfect cure.

FELLOWS

HYPOPHOSPHITES

As all life-endowed bodies, whether they be Beasts, Birds, Reptiles, Insects, or even Zoophytes, and subjects of the Vegetable Kingdom are governed by vital force, which binds all the springs of existence, and as nothing can save them from destruction when this principle leaves them, the discovery of means whereby vitality may be sustained in the living body is in fact a boon to the world.

Modern Chemistry has ventilated the question and discovered the ingredients constituting the brain, muscles and nerves, and finds that by introducing these ingredients in proper proportions the brain and nervous system are strengthened.

The eye is substantially the basis on which the nervous system is built, its direct action upon the Brain and Nervous System, and the direct effect of the Nervous System, it causes the rapid distribution of Vitalized Blood in the Muscular Organs of the Body.

Housing the Sluggish Heart and Liver, strengthening the Action of the Stomach and Bowels, and enabling the Lungs to be fully inflated with Oxygen.

It is adapted for all cases of Weakness and Emaciation, whether arising from a sedentary life, a tropical climate, from fever, or debility from any cause, and is efficacious in Pulmonary Consumption, many confirmed cases having been cured and all benefited, where the use has been continued over a fortnight.

In Bronchitis it is a specific, and in Asthma it gives relief where every other remedy fails. For Nervous Debility it stands unrivalled, and may be used with confidence in all cases.

As this is entirely distinct and different from every other preparation of Hypophosphites, be careful to ask for Fellows Syrup, and take no other.

JAMES I. FELLOWS Chemist,

St John N. B.

Wife I wish I could but speak to every mother in America, especially those who live in the country places, or far from a good physician, I would like the person's wife to thank me for buying a little of Perry Davis Pain Killer. If they could not afford to buy it, I would like to present them with a bottle, but few very few indeed could afford to buy it, they only knew the benefits and comfort it would afford them.

Husband—For children the Pain-Killer is invaluable. Aches and pains are as nothing with them; if they have the Pain-Killer at hand it secures so quickly. For you it has been invaluable, it cured you of Dyspepsia and for me I cannot express my thankfulness since my terrible Rheumatism left me.

Wife—I must be sure and tell the person's wife what a blessing this Pain-Killer has proved and what a good work she is doing in telling its merits over where she goes.
