Three years have elapsed since the war ceased, but nothing definite has been done towards erecting a memorial to the Watford boys who gave their lives to secure peace and happiness for those who stayed at home. HALLAM C. POTTER

Hallie was born in Watford 17 years ago. Poor health since birth constantly militated against his progress in every line of a boy's life, especially was this the case with his school work. Still he was exceedingly well read and possessed a fund of information far surpassing that of the average youth. His musical talent was remarkable. He was familiar with and able to hum many tunes before he could talk. When but three years of age at a meeting of the W. H. S. Literary Society he greatly added to the program by playing on the harmonium quite correctly a lengthy list of hymns and popular airs to the surprise of all present. When quite young he was a member of the Watford Methodist S. S. orchestra and later played the cello in the Methodist church choir at Port Elgin. This last summer he was a member both of Knox church choir and orchestra, Theodford, and of the Theodford band.

Two weeks ago he became ill, shortly after pneumonia developed and on the tenth day of his sickness he passed away to that bright realm where "There shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying," calmly reposing in the Everlasting Arms.

He was borne to his last resting place by Alex. Elliot and Douglas Weight of Watford, Clifford Laird of Bosanquet, and his three brothers, Dalton, Charles and Austin.

In token of remembrance and affection wreaths were sent by the members of the Knox Church choir and orchestra; The office staff of Beauty Bros. Limited; each of his three brothers, a very dear friend, and one from his parents and sister. Rev. W. W. Shoup, of Theodford, delivered at the house an able and appropriate address, he also officiated at the grave.

DEATH OF MRS. JOSEPH COOK

Mrs. Joseph Cook, an old and much-esteemed resident of Watford, passed to the great beyond at Strathroy hospital on Wednesday of last week in her 68th year. About seven weeks before her death she suffered a paralytic stroke and some two weeks afterwards was taken to Strathroy. Deceased was born in Warwick being a daughter of the late David Calvert. In 1873 she was married to Joseph Cook, who predeceased her in 1910. She leaves to mourn her loss three sons, Walter, of Watford, Oscar of Coronation, Alta, and Arthur of Scott, Sask., also two brothers and one sister, W. S. Calvert, Strathroy, David, Mandamain, and Mrs. D. A. McTavish, Watford. At the time of her death the body was taken to the home of her brother, W. S. Calvert and service was held there on Friday by the Strathroy Presbyterian minister. The funeral was held to Watford cemetery from the residence of her sister, Mrs. McTavish, Watford, where service was held by the Rev. W. K. Hagar, pastor of the Watford Methodist church of which she was a member of long standing, and was very largely attended. The pallbearers were: F. Kenward, T. B. Taylor, B. H. Parker, J. Temple, A. Harrower and A. Guerns.

THE THREE LEADERS

Three leaders are all on the sunny side of fifty, and all Presbyterians. Sir Wilfrid Laurier was elected to the Quebec legislature for Drummond and Arthabasca three years before Arthur Meighen and William Lyon MacKenzie King were born, and Thos. Alexander Crerar at that time was a babe in swaddling clothes. Sir Wilfrid was elected to the Commons the very year that the present prime minister first opened his eyes in that little farm house in Blanshard township, Perth county, and MacKenzie King played in his cradle in the then small village of Berlin. When they had reached the mature age of three, Sir Wilfrid was Minister in the MacKenzie administration and little Tom Crerar was toddling about his father's farm at Molesworth. Yet Sir Wilfrid lived to see Arthur Meighen rise to be a power in the Conservative party and a leading member of government, and to make MacKenzie King a member of one of his own administrations. The campaign which is now opening up is in all truth a young man's fight; the respective leaders are not overburdened by the weight of years, in fact this is an election in which youth is going to have its fling.

THE HOME PAPER

Every Four Corners has its Home Town Week now-a-days, but all the boys and girls who have wandered from the Township Center cannot get back to enjoy the loved surroundings. But all can subscribe to the old home town paper and thus keep well in touch with the little spot they once called home.

What joy to run over the school promotions and find that the tots of a few years ago are moving higher and higher in scholastic circles and eventually blossom forth as the "sweet girl graduates," or the clean strong boys discarding knickers.

Just watch that hardened old city coddler open up his home paper—it is the first thing he picks up out of his bunch of mail—and what can he find there to interest him? Angus McGugan's horse died yesterday; Peter McGregor will run for the county clerkship; Horace Jell hopes to win the secretaryship of the Hilltown agricultural society; Lydia Mungler has opened up a millinery store in one side of the printing office; Mrs. Brown lost her hand satchel in the butcher; Dr. Dorland is attending Clara Brown who is down with a severe cold; Mrs. Pieter broke her ankle and is in the county hospital.

Yet though he smiles at the old-time styles and expressions he enjoys it all over and over again for it takes his mind back home where his wonderful boyhood days—happy days—were spent.

SIMPLICITY OF LIVING

Canon Alexander, preaching in St. Paul's Cathedral, pleaded for simplicity of living. He said that the message for the present generation was: "Simplify your tastes. Cultivate a spirit of contentment. Reduce your necessities. Do not carry two coats. Learn to do without. In an age which is, perhaps, the most vulgar in history, beware of vulgarity."

Expense, he said, was not essential to beauty. In too many cases certain garments are chosen, not because they are beautiful, but because they cost a great deal of money, and minister to the pride of the wearer. The clouds by day, the stars by night, exceed in beauty all the gold and precious stones that can be bought to adorn the person, but they are not prized as they should be because they cannot be monopolized.

Simplicity of living would do much to lesson social discontent, which is due largely to the ostentatious display of wealth. Those who have most to spend should set an example of refinement, and not of vulgar show. Perhaps it is going too far to say that this age is the most vulgar in history, but it is certainly open to improvement in regard to the intelligent use of wealth.

Holloway's Corn Remover takes the corn out by the roots. Try it and prove it.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Now that the elections are on, about the only discreet remark a man can make is "Merry Christmas."

The Railway Strike in the United States has been called off, the men believing that owing to its gigantic proportions, it could not succeed.

In the pending election the hours of polling, instead of being from nine to five, are to be from eight to six. This is for the benefit of the farmer, who is an early riser, and of the women voters, who have an hour longer in which to get themselves dolled up in the afternoon.

Wrong thinking, whatever its nature, leaves indelible scars on body and mind alike. It affects character and material prospects equally. Every time you grumble and find fault, every time you lose your temper, every time you do a mean, contemptible thing, you suffer a loss that cannot be repaired.

They are planning to charge pedestrians 5 cents for walking across the new Detroit-Windsor bridge, but of course, if this seems too high, a person can stay on, as he does on the ferry, and get his money's worth by walking back and forth several times.

Ottawa Journal:—Silence is golden and never more precious than when heads are bowed in respect for the soldier dead. Two minutes of silence are designated for 11 a.m., Nov. 11. Nothing ever uttered by the tongues of men will compare with the eloquence implied in the standing wheels of traffic and the motionless figures of millions of men and women.

A young lady recently wrote to a country newspaper asking if there were any editors in Heaven. The editor replied: "There is but one editor in Heaven. How he got there is not positively known, but it is conjectured that he passed himself off as a clergyman. When the dodge was discovered they searched the length and breadth of the realms of felicity for a lawyer to start ejection proceedings, but they couldn't find one, so of course, the editor holds the fort."

On January 1st the Dairy Standards Act will likely go into force. The Act it is understood, places a standard average at 3.5 per cent. This will mean that a herd of cows will have to average that figure before the products can be accepted by creamery companies at the standard price. The act is aimed to enforce higher standards in dairy production and it will probably be necessary throughout the province, to introduce high testing blood into very many dairy herds in order to bring them up to the necessary standard of efficiency.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

There is more need than ever for the gospel of Canadianism, which unites those of all races and creeds in a supreme love of country. The strong patriotic feeling heightened by the war should become the motive power of national endeavor, which should bring us into helpful co-operation for the reconstruction of a stricken world, without injury to any of our national interests. We should be a people of one language, and of one allegiance, unwilling to impair our strength, but glad to use it generously in the advancement and defence of civilization.

George Elliott of Parkhill was chosen as the Conservative candidate for West Middlesex in the Dominion elections at a convention held in Strathroy on Thursday. Mr. Elliott was the Conservative candidate in two former elections. Others proposed for nomination at the convention were:—W. H. Bartram, Parkhill; ex-Reeve A. J. Wright, Glenoe; Dr. W. H. Woods, Mount Brydges; Ed. deGex, Metcalfe; J. W. Cameron, Strathroy; Geo. Lewis, Strathroy; Mrs. Duncan Harvey, Strathroy; R. J. Stevenson, Strathroy; Wm. Toohill, Napier; Dr. F. J. Bateman, Strathroy; Fred Laughton, Parkhill.

Most of the holdups, robberies and other depredations in Canada and the United States are being committed by foreigners—mostly Italians. There are many honest, hard-working foreigners, as evidenced by the men who have been here for some time doing our street work, but there are evidently a lot of undesirable immigrants filling up the country, and it is up to both Canada and the U. S. to devise some scheme whereby immigrants who are not desirable may not be allowed to land. We have no place in this country for foreign thieves and thugs, excepting the penitentiaries, and these places of detention are becoming a burden to the taxpayers.

Miss Agnes McPhail, the U.F.O. candidate in South-East Grey, says she will not be held up for contributions to anything except what she feels she should support as a private citizen. Sports, societies or churches will not find her a mark. Also she says she will not kiss babies, or smile upon men, only as a private citizen. We admire Miss McPhail's candor and we trust she can make good, but it's mighty hard to resist the appeals made these days. We have to stand for them in business whether we feel like it or not. Now that Miss McPhail is in business—for politics is a real business—we will watch her career, and if she makes good will give three hearty cheers.—Kincardine Review.

It has Many Qualities.—The man who possesses a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is armed against many ills. It will relieve a cough, break a cold, prevent sore throat; it will reduce the swelling from a sprain, relieve the most persistent sores and will speedily heal cuts and contusions. It is a medicine chest in itself, and can be got for a quarter of a dollar.

The Man of the Hour

In this hour of Canada's most acute national crisis, the country's greatest need is leadership—not class leadership, not sectional leadership, but NATIONAL leadership. A pilot must be chosen possessing the necessary courage, foresight, breadth of vision and determination to lead the nation safely out of the existing economic uncertainty.

And one man stands out head and shoulders above all others as pre-eminently fitted for the task.

Born on a farm near St. Mary's, Ontario, Arthur Meighen is a true son of the people, a toiler who has fought his way to eminence by sheer ability and force of intellect. Entered Parliament in 1908; appointed Solicitor-General in 1914; Minister of the Interior in 1917; and Prime Minister in 1920.

At the Imperial Conference he was acclaimed by the Press of Great Britain as a great statesman, as a strong, virile, vigorous personality—alert in mind, keen and far-seeing in judgment, and with a fearless determination to stand for the right.

Professor A. D. Skelton, of Queen's University, and biographer of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, wrote of the present Prime Minister:—"He has already given proof of high administrative capacity. His personal integrity is beyond question."

Of himself, Arthur Meighen said to his constituents the other day:—"You know where I stood on this issue in 1908, in 1911, and as in 1911 I stand to-day."

PLOWING MATCH AT ALVINSTON A SUCCESS

The annual Lambton County plowing match was held at Alvinston last Thursday on the farm of H. A. Gilroy. The day being an ideal one, large crowds turned out from all parts of the county as well as other nearby places. A large number entered the contests and many good samples of plowing were turned out.

Mr. Plain won the association cup for the best high cutting, while D. M. Campbell, of Inwood, won the Goodison cup, donated for the best tractor plowing, and Frank Stronghill, an English lad, 14 years of age, won the Royal Bank's cup.

At the close of the day the Women's Institute tendered a banquet to the men, at which toasts and speeches were given and much enjoyed by all.

THE LATE MRS. T. SHEPHERD

The late Mrs. Thos. Shepherd, whose death took place on Oct. 16th, was born in the hamlet of Traligga, Cornwall, Great Britain. Her maiden name was Charity Hayne. She came to Canada with her father's family in 1853 settling near Uttoxeter in Plympton County, and ultimately married Mr. Shepherd, who was the son of early pioneers in this section. He passed over to the great majority several years ago leaving his wife to care for and comfort a large family. Her funeral on Tuesday of last week was largely attended by relatives, friends and neighbors. In the cortege, immediately behind the hearse, were four families of grand children, the families of two of them having already preceded their mother to their long home. A long train of autos followed to the grave at Uttoxeter where the body was laid to rest along side that of her departed husband. She leaves to mourn her departure one daughter, Mrs. Wm. Brush, of Uttoxeter; and three sons, Roger, of Durban, South Africa, principal of the Commercial College there; Samuel, of Plympton; and Ernest, on the old homestead, townline Plympton and Warwick. Three sons and one daughter predeceased her. Thos. Hayne, of Sarnia, is her only brother. Thus has passed away one of the many mothers of our land, who have ever helped their industrious husbands and sons to clear off the mighty forests of Canada, and lay the foundations of a greater nation yet to be.

SISSON—PARKER

The home of Miss Margaret Brereton, Warwick Township, was the scene of a pretty autumn wedding on Wednesday, Oct. 26th, when her niece, Dora Luvima Parker, became the bride of Cecil Edwin Sisson, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Sisson, of Brooke. Rev. Rathby, pastor of Petrolea Baptist church officiated. Promptly at three o'clock to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus played by Miss Edythe Hayward, cousin of the bride, the bridal party entered the drawing room and took their places beneath an arch of evergreens and autumn flowers.

The bride who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. John Brereton looked charming in her girlish gown of nigger brown satin with lace trimmings and touches of burnt orange, and carried a shower bouquet of carnations and maiden hair fern. She wore the groom's gift a gold brooch set with her birth stone, garnets. The groom's gift to the pianist was a gold brooch set with sapphires. Mrs. Clifford Sisson sang very sweetly during the signing of the register. Immediately following the ceremony the guests were received in the dining room which was artistically decorated with pink and white streamers, the bride's table being decorated with her bouquet. Here a dainty wedding dinner was served.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Sisson left amid showers of confetti and best wishes by motor for Toronto, Niagara Falls and Buffalo, where they will spend their honeymoon, the bride travelling in a smart embroidered suit of navy blue with navy panne velvet hat to match.

On their return they will reside on the groom's farm in Enniskillen where they will be at home to their friends after Dec. 1st.

Among the many beautiful gifts received by the young couple were several substantial cheques.

MARSH—WAUN

A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, Oct. 19, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waun, 10 concession of West Williams when their eldest daughter, Mary Elva, was united in marriage to Wilbur E., second son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Marsh, of the same township, Rev. T. Bingham, of Parkhill, officiating. The bride, looking very sweet in a costume of midnight blue silk, entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her father, while the wedding march was played by her sister Miss Leila Waun, and took her place beside the waiting groom beneath an arch of evergreen and flowers. Her bridesmaid was Miss Myrtle Marsh, sister of the groom. The groom was supported by Mr. Earl B. Waun, brother of the bride. After the ceremony a dainty wedding lunch was served. The happy couple left by motor for London and eastern points for a short honeymoon. Upon their return they will reside on the groom's farm near Arkona. Among the guests from a distance were Mr. Chester and Miss Gladys Marsh, of London; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Atkinson, of Strathroy; Mr. Samuel Carroll, of Napier, grandfather of the bride, and Mrs. Fuller, grandmother of the groom. Their many friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous married life.

MERIAM—FITZGERALD

A quiet autumn wedding was solemnized in St. Paul's Cathedral, London, on Thursday, October 27, at 4:30 o'clock, when Josephine Rogers, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Fitzgerald, became the bride of Mr. John Wesley Meriam of Byron. The ceremony was performed by the Very Rev. Dean Tucker. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a smart suit of navy broadcloth, with jet and beaver trimmings and hat of black panne velvet with ostrich spray, and a corsage of orchids and yellow roses with streamers. A dainty wedding luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents after which the young couple left for points east. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Meriam will reside at the new home, Byron, Ont., and will be home after December 1st.

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a tonic and Blood Purifier, and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.

SMITH—BARNES

On Wednesday, Oct. 12th, at the home of Frank Barnes, brother of the bride, was the scene of a pretty wedding when Ella was united in marriage to Ernest Smith, by the Rev. H. A. Jones, Baptist minister, Arkona. The bride wore a suit of blue broadcloth with georgette blouse trimmed with French lace and carried a shower bouquet of lilies and ferns. Little Esther Magdaline Sitter made a charming ring bearer dressed in cream corded silk caught with cream lace and blue baby ribbon and roses wearing a beautiful string of pearls and a ring the gift of the groom and carrying a basket of colored autumn flowers and ferns. Mrs. Frank Barnes played "The Wedding Bells" as the bridal party entered the parlor which was decorated with evergreens, autumn flowers, ferns and leaves. After the ceremony Mrs. E. O. Sitter sang "Memories" while the guests proceeded to the dining-room where a wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left by auto for Detroit amid showers of confetti and good wishes. The bride received many beautiful presents and on their return will reside on the groom's farm, 2nd line north, and will be at home to their friends after Dec. 1st.

THE INSPECTORS' LAMENT

(Badly Broken Verse) There were two score or more of them who willingly gave all their time each day, to aid the work of paving, and now and then comment Upon the way M. M. & Ray put down cement. Of salary they did not ask a cent. But gave their wisdom willingly like any kind, benevolent gent.

"'Tis wrong," said one, "to cut away that hill. And we will have to pay the bill". "That raised part is a very dangerous place, and if a car should skid and lives were lost 'Tis us who'd have to pay the cost." "That little house I built, for which Jim offered twenty-four Is taxed up to the hilt, And last year's taxes put me back a score."

Another said, "Such waste I never saw, those cobble stones would build a barn or stable, but no, they're thrown away or dumped in holes. Instead of being sold for many bones." "And then, the stuff that's placed on the back streets has made them nought but mud holes."

Quoth one, "The intakes are not close enough to take the water off, the road lacks tilt, And the catch basins are not properly built." That curbing is a sight, its not made straight, 'Tis like the hydrants—out of date."

Another whines, "You cannot cross the street, 'tis blocked with truck of every kind." "To think that we must stand these Turks and have our town held up by Dagos, while local men are out of work, and for all this the back street man must pay."

J. H., the forman on the job, keeps the workmen on the move. But e'en of this these supervising gents do not approve, "I would not work for such a man," said one, "He'd make you do two full days work in one and never let you rest; Because he wants to end the work and take away our job."

If Jim could hear the supervisors' talk His pleasant phiz would turn as white as chalk, And he'd pine away, or cross the mighty deep and drown his sorrows in Lock Lomand or the Clyde, or even go and live in slow Dundalk.

"Alas," one supervisor said, "the work is nearly done And the Council—just a bunch of boys—will tell Sam Louks to add the cost to our already heavy tax bills. If they their money had to earn, as we old-timers did, they would not be so slick In building roads, waterworks, and such. Hello! 'tis six o'clock, we'll wander to our homes And reckon up the interest on our Victory Loans."

AN INDIAN NEWSPAPER

One of the strangest newspapers in the world is the Kamloops Wawa, published in Kamloops, B.C. It is a newspaper for Indians and has a proud circulation of about 35,000 weekly copies. Some years ago a priest who knew both shorthand and the Indian language was sent as missionary to the Indians of the Fraser River valley. He combined the two and offered to teach his hieroglyphics to the Indians, who were very much interested in the idea of having a written language of their own and showed their interest by learning it by the hundreds. Pleased with his success, the priest translated parts of the Bible into his new sign language. Now he prints a weekly newspaper for the Indians, who, through its pages, are kept interested in many things.

The twenty-seventh annual convention of the Epworth Leagues of the Strathroy District was held in the Methodist Church, Uttoxeter, on Thursday, October 20, 1921. The opening exercises were conducted by the President, Rev. T. A. Steadman. The brief address of welcome given by Rev. A. R. Johnson of Uttoxeter, was suitably acknowledged by the chairman of the District, Rev. W. K. Hagar.

The speakers of the evening were Rev. D. Couch, who recently joined the Conference from Quebec, and Rev. H. Gilbert of the Manitoba Conference. HOME TOWN PAPER WEEK November 7th to 12th

The week of November 7th to 12th has been set aside all over the North American continent for the publishers of the Home Town Weekly Newspapers to do a little boosting for their own business. The Home Weeklies are continually doing their best to promote the interests of the entire community in which they circulate, but very seldom take the opportunity to give their own enterprise much publicity.

The Guide-Advocate is also setting this week aside as a special period for receiving subscriptions—both new and renewal. If you know of any one not receiving The Guide-Advocate every week, co-operate with us in securing their name on our mailing list for 1922. All new subscriptions received Armistice Week will be credited to December 31, 1922.

If you are already a subscriber—LOOK AT YOUR LABEL—the figures will tell you to what date your subscription is paid. As it would be an expensive undertaking to mail statements to all our subscribers, we take this method of calling upon our readers to examine their labels and remit by money order or cheque.

The fact that thousands of weekly newspapers have been forced out of existence in the past few years has brought the survivors to realize that all subscriptions must be paid in advance. Our year's supply of newsprint must be paid in advance, our wages, salaries, postage and operating expenses must all be met weekly and monthly.

We are constantly striving to make our home weekly better in every way and to render more service to our subscribers, advertisers and the general community. The past year has seen some great changes in our mechanical department. To do away with the old, hand-set method of typesetting we installed a new model Linotype, whereby we are able to give from twenty-five to thirty columns of good, live local news every week, which previously was an impossibility.

Whether you reside in the community or at some distant point you need The Guide-Advocate every week. You would not care to do without it. Co-operate with us in giving you a good newsy paper every week by forwarding your Two Dollars now—while it is in your mind.

IF A NEWSPAPER COULD BE RUN LIKE A CHAUTAUQUA

A Chautauqua is a grand thing for any community, but it strikes us that the organizations want too much for even a good thing. If we could employ their system we could do about thusly: We would first convince a number of patriotic citizens that a newspaper is an invaluable asset to a town (which is true); on the strength of that we would bind them by contract to assure us a certain minimum revenue.

Then we would give ourselves over to leisurely grinding out, bright gems of thought and sparkling humor such as fill this widely-read column every week, and we would leave to our guarantors all the commonplace chores connected with the operation of a print-shop.

These would include hustling the news, writing kind words about people we don't like, washing dirty ink rollers, setting type, getting advertisers to bring in their changes of ad. on time, disinfecting the paste-pot, running the presses, cleaning up pi, geeing up delinquent subscribers, taking the office towel out for its daily airing, collecting accounts, swearing at the office devil, apologizing for what we said in error the week before, cussing the profiteers over the weekly advance in paper prices, jollying the sheriff, winding the clock and putting out the office cat.

If our guarantors kicked against doing these little chores in their spare time, we would smilingly fold our arms and tell them to come through with the guarantee, gold-durnt.—Battleford Press.

STERN REMINDERS OF RHEUMATISM

The Trouble Must be Treated
Through the Blood.

Every rheumatic sufferer should realize that rheumatism is rooted in the blood and that to get rid of it must be treated through the blood. The old belief that rheumatism was caused by cold, damp weather, is now exploded. Such weather conditions may start the pains, but it is not the cause. Liniments and outward application may give temporary relief, but that is all they can do because they do not reach the sources in the blood. The sufferer from rheumatism who experiments with outward applications is only wasting time and money in depending upon such treatment. The trouble still remains, and it is all the time becoming more firmly rooted. Treat this disease through the blood and you will soon find relief. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills act directly on impure, weak blood; they purify and strengthen it, and so act on the cause of the rheumatism. Mr. P. J. MacPherson, R.R. No. 5, Cardigan, P.E.I., says: "About three years ago I was attacked with rheumatism. I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and soon the trouble disappeared and I am in better health than before. I also know of an old lady acquaintance who was badly crippled with rheumatism in her arms and legs, and who suffered very much. W. R. LAWRENCE KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

William Ralph Lawrence of Sarnia was almost instantly killed, Mark Stover received injuries of the most serious character, and Alex. Hueston suffered less severe hurts when their automobile was wrecked at Delaware Village at one o'clock Saturday morning. They had come from Sarnia with a party to attend a Men's Brotherhood session at the Masonic Temple, London, and were returning home, via Strathroy, to avoid detours on the Sarnia road, when they met with the accident. Stover was operated on at Victoria Hospital and it is reported that his condition is very grave. Hueston will recover.

The party took the right branch of a fork in Delaware Village, but were redirected by a garage man to proceed by the left. They were moving slowly to get back onto the proper line, in a dense fog, when the car was driven over the side of the road into the cellar of a small store, which was burned some years ago. The car dropped about eight feet over the sheer wall of excavation, and, landing on its radiator, rolled over on top of the passengers.

Sarnia, Oct. 30.—The death of W. Ralph Lawrence, and the serious injuries sustained by others of the party of Sarnians who were returning to this city on Friday night from London, where they had been attending a banquet of the World's Brotherhood, was the sole topic of conversation in the city yesterday and to-day. All these gentlemen are well-known citizens and widely respected for their citizenship and many fine qualities. Bulletins regarding the progress of Mr. Stover and Mr. Hueston are posted at frequent intervals.

The late Mr. Lawrence was the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Lawrence and resided with his parents at 127 Christina street south. Surviving are his widow, Maude, and one son, Donald, aged four, his father and mother, and two brothers, Edward in Sarnia, and Wilbur in Toronto. He was a son-in-law of Rev. Dr. George W. Henderson, of the Central Methodist Church, St. Thomas. The deceased was a partner with his brother, Edward, in the Lawrence Lumber Company on Devine street, and was very well known in the city, where he had resided all his life. He was a prominent member of the congregation and the choir of the Central Methodist church. On many occasions he assisted in the church services with solos. The deceased was also a member of Liberty Lodge and the Wawanash Chapter, R. A. M.

The funeral took place Monday afternoon. Service was held at the family residence at 1 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Millyard officiating, assisted by Dr. John Morrison. Members of the Brotherhood, of Central and Devine Methodist churches, with representatives of the London Brotherhood, including R. R. Smith, the London president, attended the funeral in a body. Many floral tributes covered the coffin from friends, relatives and societies, including the Masons.

WHEN WET, YOU SHOULD NOT TOUCH ELECTRIC LIGHT

No electric appliances should ever be placed where a person in a bathtub can reach them. Such is the assertion of Dr. A. Zimmern in the Presse Medicale (Paris) in commenting on the death of a colleague. Electrocutation has taken place with a current of only 110 volts under such circumstances.

The reason is that the water on the hands and body provides exceptionally favorable conditions for conduction of the current. It is not safe to touch even an electric light, heater or bell when in the bath. Dr. Zimmern cites recent cases as follows:—

A woman killed by holding an electric light in one wet hand while turning a water faucet with the other; a woman killed by wiping with a wet cloth the current distributing apparatus for an electric heater; a man receiving a severe shock by taking hold of a chandelier while holding an electric light suspended by a wire.

It is very dangerous to change an electric bulb when the hands are wet or the floor is wet; a slight defect in the insulation may cause a severe shock or even death.

patients, suffering from acute throat or lung troubles, to get away from the cities to the pine-forest mountain resorts, and there live in the open-air as much as possible. Why? Because there is a wonderful exhilaration from Pine trees, which, breathed into the lungs and air-passages, heals, strengthens and re-invigorates them.

Today, by the wonderful aid of Science, these volatile fumes and other medicinal agents are compressed into unique breathable tablets known as Peps. These bring the healing pine forest air into your own home. You strip Peps of their silver wrappers and dissolve the tablets in your mouth. The germicidal air-like medicine which is liberated is carried with the breath into your air-tubes and lungs where it quickly stops the most troublesome cough, relieves soreness and tightness, and soothes and heals the inflamed bronchial tubes.

Peps are the direct scientific treatment—the remedy that has revolutionized treatment of coughs, colds, chills, bronchitis, and all soreness or irritation of throat or chest. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

LIFE OF CANADIAN MOUNTED POLICE NOT LIKE MOVIES

Hard Work and Little Romance their Part, Says Haskin.

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police have a grudge against the movies and the romantic novel, writes Frederick J. Haskin. Both of these fields of art have seen fit to seize on the northwest mounted policeman as a dashing and daring figure who rescues heroines with one hand and shoots Indians with the other. He is a sort of combination of Sir Galahad and Dead Eye Dick.

It is not argued that the mounted police aren't heroic. They undeniably engage in some of the most thrilling adventures left to a civilization that is rapidly extracting most of the thrills out of life. But the fictionalized versions of the mounted police life are in general highly exaggerated and give Americans the lurid sort of ideas of Canada that English people used to have a woolly and Indian-infested United States.

The highly colored tales in which existence in the mounted police includes at least one thrill every day are nothing more than the legitimate penalty of fame. As the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, the organization became the most famous police force in the world. It will probably be some time before people get used to the new name which substitutes for northwest.

The name was not changed as a disguise to escape publicity. The force was simply combined with other Canadian forces operating in other sections of the country. The royal force is at work in every part of the Dominion, and its duties are considerably more than pursuing Indians across the prairie at a mad gallop.

For one thing the mounted police assist customs and immigration officials in their efforts to catch bootleggers and drug dealers along the border. The smuggling of liquor from a very moist Quebec into the United States is a perpetual source of worry to the government.

Others of the royal force guard the public buildings at Ottawa. For this particular duty a member of the force wears a striking and becoming costume. A dark blue spiked helmet with a glittering gold chin strap gives him a military and British appearance. His blue suit is decorated with a wide yellow stripe down the trouser leg and the formality of his position is subtly suggested by white gloves. A man in this snappy uniform welcomes visitors inside the door of each government building.

The adventures of the mounted police are not so much among the Indians as in Eskimo land. The organization is pushing farther north and establishing outposts beyond the Arctic circle. The men who patrol the frozen northwest have to be pioneers and adventurers in a very real sense. They have to travel in dog teams over the endless frozen miles of northern Canada, and spend months or years in a single quest.

Up there, the Eskimos are giving Canada trouble. These natives, like the primitive Indians, have their own customs, some of which are barbarous. Murder in some tribes is not regarded with aversion if it seems justifiable. A man who becomes immoral they regard as insane, and if he gives trouble may be knifed or strangled with full approval of the tribe.

Natives of some bands have long had the practice of killing off their babies when the band is travelling and food is scarce or when the mother does not consider it to the advantage of the family to be burdened with an extra member. Old people too, were once killed if economic circumstances seemed to the tribe to warrant it. But now, many young children and aged people are seen about the igloos of the Eskimos known to have had these customs.

The charge is attributed, in a part at least, to the mounted police. It is one of the duties of a patrol to gather the people of a band together and explain to them the white man's laws and the penalties for breaking them. This has been urgent business since traders and explorers have pushed farther and farther into the Arctic regions of Canada. Occasionally they bring back word of a murder to the outposts of civilization. Sometimes a white man is the victim. In any case, when the Canadian government hears of these tragedies, it dispatches a patrol of the police with orders to investigate or to bring back the offender.

A realistic film of such an expedition would have to preface nearly every other scene with "six months later." In one case the patrol which crosses Canada every two years brought word of a murder in the far north. After travelling a year and a half over ice and snow, through blizzards, with long stops when the weather made travel impossible, he caught one Eskimo responsible for the trouble. But there was another. He had no way to carry and guard a prisoner over a long trail, farther into the north. So he left the native there, trusting to the Eskimo band to hold him until his return. He got the other man, picked up the first captive and got to headquarters after being gone four years.

WEDDING LASTS SEVEN DAYS

Jerusalem, Oct. 22.—The marriage customs of Palestine, demonstrated recently in the wedding of one of the prettiest girls of the city to a well to do merchant, are among the most interesting celebrations of this ancient city.

No person who is privileged to witness one will ever forget either the gorgeous costumes displayed or the thrill of the music and dancing indulged in by the guests.

Not only the respective families of the bride and bridegroom but also the entire neighborhood takes part in the merrymaking which generally lasts for seven days.

The celebration begins always on Monday and the wedding ceremony itself always occurs at dawn on the following Sunday.

Invitations are sent only to those from whom presents are expected. However, any person may attend who wishes. Presents are always in the nature of foodstuffs, such as rice, meat, sugar, coffee, flour, butter and vegetables. These are necessary to provide food for the hundreds of guests who flock to the bridegroom's house daily to take part in the singing and dancing.

Saturday brings the climax to all joy making. If the bridegroom's father is of even moderate circumstances professional musicians are hired for the day.

Men and women in Palestine do not mix together often, due to the general belief that women are not mentally worthy of association. Consequently it becomes necessary to entertain women separately.

On Saturday evening, at eight o'clock there takes place the shaving of the bridegroom, a feature of the entertainment. Surrounded by scores of men and women who keep up incessant maddening yells, which may be heard for a mile around, the barber undertakes the operation.

This done, a procession is formed, proceeding to the church with people marching two abreast. At the head comes eight kawasas (guards), followed by ten children carrying in their hands palm branches and long candles lighted. Immediately after hobble four priests dressed in their church robes and singing psalms. The bridegroom accompanied by his father and the best man, comes next, trailed by 200 or 300 men. At the end of the procession come the women and children.

A similar procession having started at about the same time from the bride's place, the two groups meet at some appointed place and proceed jointly to the church. All along the street men and women, awakened by the noise, lean out of the windows to watch the bridal party.

After the wedding ceremony is performed a funeral rush is made to the bridegroom's house, where breakfast is served (by this time it being early morning) to all.

RHEUMATISM?

If you are a Sufferer, Read This Advice.

Collinwood, Ont.—It is with pleasure that I write this note of commendation. I suffered with muscular rheumatism for three years and have been completely cured of same by taking a few packages of Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery after doctors' medicines failed to do any good. I am now free from all signs of rheumatism for which I most heartily thank Dr. Pierce and his wonderful medicines." Mrs. Kerwood Cook, Box 464.

HAVE YOU A COUGH?

Woodstock, Ont.—"My husband always speaks a good word for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and we both feel that he owes his present good health to this splendid medicine. Bronchial pneumonia, as a child, left him with chronic bronchial trouble and it just kept getting worse every year even though he doctored and tried every remedy recommended to him. Some nights he would cough so hard I used to be afraid he might die before morning. Last fall his mother advised him to try the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and from the first few doses he improved. It is just a year now and he seems to be entirely cured of all bronchial ailments." Mrs. S. M. Greer, 27 Sydenham St.

NOVEMBER

The dark, dull days of nature's grief Have compensations and relief From burdens many.

We know what we have lost or gained, Where we hope worried, and complained.

Yet at our tasks have still remained And turned a penny.

We crush the leaves beneath our feet And face the wind, the rain, the sleet And relish cover.

And if the snow perchance will come And go before the month is done, A contrast to the scorching sun, Or ardent lover.

A fortune what we might expect We can prepare but not reject So we must take it.

Whoever christened it the fall Was not mistaken after all, The seasons comforts, shrunken small We sometimes hate it.

In those long nights we gladly find, Time to enrich and store the mind With precious learning.

The golden nuggets of the truth Will make a millionaire of youth, Thoughts of the mighty, will forsooth Make us discerning.

And when we see, and know, and feel, And get like tested, tempered steel, We fear no fetter.

But fill a man's or woman's part, And get the healthy, happy art, Efficient, able, true and smart When months get better.

THE CHAMPION MEAN-MAN

The meanest man in Western Ontario, probably in Canada, has been discovered. A city hall official yesterday reported a case that takes first, second and third prizes for caniness and the aforesaid prizes may be awarded in a few days.

The official mentioned states that a man and his wife live in one of the outlying townships of Middlesex County. The wife, under a custom hallowed by precedent, enjoys an allowance, this allowance being all the eggs the chickens lay which the lord of the manor or freehold does not desire for himself.

This good wife saved eggs with an eye to purchasing a handsome calico dress. Hens were encouraged to do their duty, and they did it nobly. Finally, with dozens of eggs in a large basket, the housewife set forth to Ingersoll. Arriving there she traded in the eggs for the dress of her desire.

But it developed that the eggs did not quite come up to the value of the dress. There was, in fact, a balance of fifteen cents. That amount the merchant kindly consented to charge against her husband pending the receipt of more eggs. The wife departed for her long trudge back home, happy with the new calico dress.

A few days later Mr. Mean Man went to Ingersoll and for some reason asked a statement of his account. Horrors! Friend wife had had 15 cents charged against him! Mr. Mean Man at once, so the story goes, inserted an advertisement in the weekly paper to this effect: "Take notice I, M. Man, will no longer be responsible for the debts of my wife, Sarah Ann Man." The ad. cost 32 cents, it is understood.

GYPSES PROVE SKILFUL PICKPOCKETS

(Norwich Gazette)

On Saturday last a number of ladies described as gypsies paid the merchants of Burgessville and New Durham a visit which they will not soon forget. These women were clever vixens and purported to be fortunetellers. For the amusement of those in the store, Mr. Fred Webb, who works in the Kirkpatrick store at Burgessville, permitted them to have their way and tell his fortune. The next thing he saw was a lady going to the till, he stopped her and the strangers left the store; then he missed ten dollars. How these women obtained the money no one present could explain.

At Carl Jacques store similar tactics were attempted and Mr. Jacques did not take long in showing them the way out.

At New Durham they were successful in getting a small sum from Mr. James Patterson. They carried on their capers there before Mr. and Mrs. Patterson and a niece, Miss All, who found them very amusing. When the women left, Mr. Patterson found his pocket book partly out of

HOW WOMEN AVOID SURGICAL OPERATIONS

Some Are Extremely Necessary, Others May Not Be

Every Woman Should Give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a Trial First

Chicago, Ill.—"I was in bed with a female trouble and inflammation and had four doctors but none of them did me any good. They all said I would have to have an operation. A druggist's wife told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took 22 bottles, never missing a dose and at the end of that time I was perfectly well. I have never had occasion to take it again as I have been so well. I have a six room flat and do all my work. My two sisters are taking the Compound upon my recommendation and you may publish my letter. It is the gospel truth and I will write to any one who wants a personal letter."—Mrs. E. H. HAYDOCK, 6824 St. Lawrence Ave., Chicago, Ill.

A Vermont woman adds her testimony to the long line of those fortunate women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after it had been decided an operation was necessary:

Burlington, Vt.—"I suffered with female trouble, and had a number of doctors who said that I would never be any better until I had an operation. I was so bad I could hardly walk across the floor and could not do a thing. My sister-in-law induced me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it certainly has helped me wonderfully. I keep home and do my work and have a small child. I have recommended Vegetable Compound to a number of my friends and you may publish my testimonial."—Mrs. E. R. SHARON, Apple Tree Point Farm, Burlington, Vt.

In hospitals are many women who are there for surgical operations, and there is nothing a woman should ever do than the thought of an operation, and the long weary months of recovery and restoration to strength if it is successful. It is very true that female troubles may through neglect reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but most of the common ailments of women are not the surgical ones; they are not caused by serious displacements, tumors or growths, although the symptoms may appear the same. When disturbing ailments first appear take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve the present distress and prevent more serious troubles. In fact, many letters have been received from women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after operations have been advised by attending physicians.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

his pocket, opening it he found it empty. Fortunately there was very little in it.

As most of these people feel that they have been duped in an astonishing fashion, they are very reticent about giving details, but we understand others were also embezzled in a similar light handed manner. So far no trace of these women has been found. They ought to be brought to justice for such offensive and criminal practices.

If you think there's nothing in patriotism, just try to knock a man's home town! It's a fine way to start a fight. The folks at home are big folks to you. Read about them in Your Home Town Paper.

The worms that infest children from their birth are of two kinds, those that find lodgement in the stomach and those that are found in the intestines. The latter are the most destructive, as they cling to the walls of the intestines and if not interfered with work havoc there. Miller's Worm Powders dislodge both kinds and while expelling them from the system serve to repair the damage they have caused.

DEATH OF LADY LAURIER

Ottawa, Nov. 1.—Lady Laurier, widow of the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier, died at her home here today at 11.45 a.m. All through the night physicians in attendance had expressed the fear that the end was at hand. Lady Laurier was in her 80th year, and contracted a chill while out walking recently.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier died February 17, 1919. The late Lady Laurier, who before her marriage was Miss Zoe Lafontaine of Montreal, had resided in Ottawa almost continuously for over a quarter of a century, and no one was better known in the capital, but there probably has been less written concerning her than of most women who have occupied such a position as she attained.

Lady Laurier was not a public woman, and like most great wives in history, she contributed to the success of her late husband in innumerable ways out of what might be called "a wise heart" not all heart, not all head, but an admixture which men, for want of better understanding, call instinct.

EPICRAM ON THE STREETS

I'm now arrived, thanks to the gods! Thro' pathways rough and muddy.— A certain sign that making roads is not this people's study. And tho' I'm not with scripture crammed, I'm sure the bible says That heedless sinners shall be damned Unless they mend their ways. —BURNS.
