FLOWER SHOW AT BRIDGETOWN

Initial Steps Taken Toward Holding This Show Here in the Early Autumn.

A number of our flower growers and adherents met on Monday evening at Dr. Armstrong's office to consider the holding of a Flower Show at Bridgetown in the early fall. For some years Bridgetown held very successful exhibitions of flowers in the Masonic building and later this show was fused with school exhibitions and held at the school building, but a few years ago was discontinued and base ball filled the centre of the stage.

At the meeting on Monday evening it was felt by those present that the show should be held this year and that we should again open it to the whole county, as in former years and in every way stimulate and encourage the growth of more flowers in town and country districts.

A committee consisting of Mrs. F.
M. Graves, Mrs. E. R. Orlando, Mrs.
H. S. Mudge, Dr. Armstrong and Miss
A. Spurr was appointed to draft a prize list and present it at an ad-journed meeting to be held on Thurs-day evening in the Board of Trade rooms to complete details.

All parties interested in country and town are invited to this adjourn-ed meeting Thursday evening.

JUDGE RITCHIE'S DEATH REGRETTED

His Career a Source of Pride to His Native Town and County.—
Social And Personal
Notes of Interest.

Annapolis Royal.—The news received here on Wednesday that Mr. Jus-tice Ritchie had passed away sudden-ly in Bermuda was heard with pro-found regret. During his last visits to his native town, it was noticed that he had aged considerably, but his friends still hoped for many more years of usefulness in his career, and the news of his passing came as a de-cided shock.

The late Judge Ritchie's family have been highly prominent in the history of Annapolis Royal. His great--grandfather, John Ritchie, a native of Glasgow, Scotland, settled here in 1775; and his grandfather was the late Judge Thomas "Grange" Ritchie, the well-known "Grange" estate,
the site of the present County Acad-emy—and who planted the beautiful trees surrounding it. Judge Thomas Ritchie's fourth son, Rev. James J.
Ritchie, for over twenty-five years rector of St. Luke's church, was the father of the late deceased Judge, who was born here in July, 1856—his mother being Eliza (Almon) Ritchie, formerly of Halifax. While on a trip to Bermuda, as a young man, the late Judge met Miss Cecelia Clem-ent-Smith, married in Peterboro, Ont., and brought to the rectory as a bride, in 1885. Their oldest child, Paul Clement, died in infancy, and two daughters and another little son who also died, were afterwards born to them. The older daughter, Miss Cecilia, was with her parents at the time of her father's death, and the younger Barbara Almon, was married several years ago, at Bermuda to Com-modore Herbert Noel Stewart, R. N., and at present resides in England.

She had planned to spend the com-ing summer in Nova Scotia, with her little daughter. The late Judge's leg-al history is well-known in the town and his loss as a barrister and citi-zen was keenly felt, when he moved to Halifax nearly twenty years ago.
He built the house at present occu-pied by Mr. and Mrs. Bellevue, where the family lived for several years. His only brother, W. B. A. Ritchie, also a prominent lawyer, died at Vancou-ver in 1917, and a sister Mrs. Eliza-beth DeBois, is the only surviving member of the family.

A largely attended Sacred Concert was given in the Upper Clements Bap-tist church on Wednesday evening, April 22nd, and a most enjoyable pro-gramme rendered. The proceeds were in aid of the Renovation Fund.

An interesting event took place on Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bellevue, when their infant twins, daughter and son, were christened by Rev. J. H. Freestone of Bridgetown. The ceremony was per-formed in the large living-room, gay with spring flowers, and to the circle of friends and relatives who witness-ed it, was most impressive and plea-sured. Rev. Mr. Freestone, who a few years ago had performed the marriage ceremony of Mr. and Mrs. Bellevue, was accompanied by Mrs. Freestone, and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hicks, Mrs.
F. R. Fay and Miss Aileen Fay, had motored down from Bridgetown for the occasion.

Mrs. S. Dennison has been spending the week with friends in Bridgetown.
Mr. and Mrs. George S. Piere whose musical talent was much appreciated during their residence in town last summer, were among the artists broadcasting from Station C. N. R. A.
Moncton, N. B., on Friday night.

Mr. F. C. Gilliat left on Thursday to take up his summer work on the Entomological staff at Wolfville. Mrs.
Gilliat and children will follow later, to spend the summer there.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Muise and little son, Lorraine, accompanied by Mrs.
J. S. DeVany and Miss Kathleen De-
-Vany motored to Yarmouth on Sun-day with Mr. J. C. Muise, who remain-ed to visit his other son, J. A. Muise.
Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Pickles and their daughter, Miss Jeanne returned on Tuesday from Florida, where they had spent the winter. On Saturday, Mr. Pickles left for Yarmouth, accom-panied by a party of friends to bring home a new Lincoln car.

Very glad to report Capt. Melanson better. Sunday he was able to get out doors again. He has been confined to his room since the first of January by the dreaded disease, rheumatism.

OBITUARY.

Dr. C. W. Muir.

The death took place at his home at Carleton Corner, Bridgetown, on Sunday morning of Charles Wilson Muir, D. D. S. Dr. Muir was a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Muir of Shel-burne, and was a graduate of the Philadelphia Dental College. He prac-ticed his profession very successfully in his native town, Shelburne, for a considerable period of years. In the interests of his health he retired about five years ago from active prac-tice and purchased a farm property here. He was an active member of the Church of England and interested in all that pertained to the welfare of the community.

He is survived by his wife, nee Miss Jessie M. Burns, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Burns of Shelburne, and by one son, Mr. Burns Muir who resided with his parents. Mrs. O. T. Daniels of this town is a cousin of the deceased.
The late Dr. Muir was highly esteem-ed by a large circle of friends. The funeral took place on Tuesday after-noon, with service at the home con-ducted by Canon Underwood and in-terment in Riverside Cemetery.

his home on Tuesday last. The fun-eral services were conducted at his late home by Rev. H. Rackham as-sisted by Rev. W. S. Smith. Inter-ment at Lawrencetown Cemetery.

The new Tennis Court presented a busy scene on Friday when a large crowd of young men of this place were busily engaged in preparing the ready for use in a very short time.

SUPPRESSING SPEECH.

The 100 per cent. American is a bewildering complex. Some time ago it was announced that Count Karolyi, of Hungary, would visit the United States. Now it has been stated that Karolyi was a Communist, so Secretary Hughes, in a solemn document proclaimed that if the Count set foot upon the "land of the free" it must be upon condition that he refrain from preaching Communism. Mr. Hughes apparently thought that one Communist might destroy the faith of 110 million Americans in their constitution—an appalling compliment to Karolyi.

Karolyi came, saw and was silent. But Washington's indignation was a glorious press agent. For weeks he pushed Charlie Chaplin and John McGraw and the bandit Chapman and other celebrities to the south clear of the front pages; wherever Karolyi, there went the photographers. As an apostle, Karolyi, advertised as an apostle, has contracted for books and pamphlets and articles which, because of Mr. Hughes' free advertisement, will be read all over America and the world.

Press Comment

PROTECTION IN ITALY

London Daily Mail: Italy is a country with high protection, and 20 or 30 years ago we used to be told that no country with a high tariff could hope to compete in the world market with Free Trade England. Today in Free Trade England mills are running short time and in protected Italy they are working the full week. What is more, new mills are being rapidly built in Italy. Where are they being built here? We fear that British workers are not told the truth about what is happening abroad or about the new conditions of competition which we have to meet.

REPUBLIC OR MONARCHY?

Baltimore Sun: That there is still widespread monarchist sentiment in Germany is certain. Could this sentiment agree in support of any one candidate, it might even be dangerous. But as Germany gets back on normal footing, the issue of what lines the Republic shall follow supplants that of whether the Republic shall endure. Whether the German Republic shall be Socialistic, Liberal, or dominated by the great industrial and financial powers—that is the basic problem which the coming election will help to decide.

SEVEN HOURS A DAY.

Glasgow Herald: The operation of the Seven-hours-per-day Act has added 2s 6d per ton not only on every ton of coal shipped, but upon every other article exported in proportion to the quantity of coal required in manufacture. The production of a ton of steel requires about four tons of coal. This Act, therefore, has the same effect as an export duty of about 10s per ton on this commodity. The President of the Board of Trade states that in volume the whole of the British export trade in 1924 was from 20 to 25 per cent less than in 1913.

ARABS IN PALESTINE

Brooklyn Eagle: The world cannot see just how the Arabs' "general strike" gets them anywhere. It is a futile, a puerile demonstration. The Hebrew University in Jerusalem is an incident of the revival of Hebrew letters, which is itself an incident of the recognition of the Homeland. It is as close to being non-political as anything that could take place in the Holy Land. And conceding as we must that from the start Great Britain has abandoned in this matter the principle of self-determination, she has done so from the highest motives and at considerable cost to herself in the unsettling of sentiment among the Moslem populations of her colonies. Also she has made good her promise to see that the civic and religious rights of the Arabs are protected.

TOMMY ATKINS

Times of India: The recent communal disturbances in India have served to strengthen the contention, so firmly maintained both by the Government of India and by the Home authorities, regarding the necessity for British troops. We ourselves have frequently maintained that the aim of the authorities should be gradually to diminish the numbers of the British garrison in India in proportion to the growing capacity of the Indian army to undertake the defence of the country. It is, however, perfectly plain that such a process must, if it is to be safely consummated, be of a gradual character. For, quite apart from the value of British regiments as a nucleus of national defence in case of a serious invasion, their utility when communal disturbances break out is obvious. So obvious, indeed, that it has been frankly admitted by that section of the press which, as a rule, has scarcely a good word to say for anything British.

ARCTIC EXPLOITATION

Boston Transcript: There are no insurmountable physical obstacles to the exploitation of the Arctic and especially of Baffinland, in which the Canadians are particularly interested. The northern portion of the that great expanse of territory lies beyond the Arctic Circle, but it does not extend farther north than 75 degrees. The northern extremity of Spitzbergen passes the eightieth parallel, and coal has been mined in Spitzbergen. In the years before the Great War several companies were engaged in the business. There was a time when Americans participated in it. What was done in Spitzbergen could be done in Baffinland or elsewhere in the Arctic. Certainly the Canadians are showing wisdom in attempting to find out the extent of the riches which may be concealed beyond the Arctic Circle. They may remember to their ultimate benefit that time

Halifax Nurse Recommends
Halifax, N. S.—"I am a maternity nurse and have recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to many women who were childless, also to women who need a good tonic. I am English and my husband is American, and he told me of Lydia E. Pinkham while in England. I would appreciate a copy or two of your little books on women's ailments. I will willingly answer letters from any woman asking about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. S. M. COLEMAN, 24 Uniacke Street, Halifax, Nova Scotia.

SPRITTY YOUNG ROOSTER KILLS RATS.

You have no doubt been troubled with the rat pest around your hen coop, and have like myself tried every thing to overcome it. No cat, no trap, no poison has been effective so far. However, much to my surprise I now have a year old Gamecock Rooster who has sporting himself in my hen house for three consecutive days. I have found a big dead rat pecked through the head in my hen coop. I hope you will try it and say like I did "Thank God."

TOBY M. P. EXPLAINS HIS BIG MAJORITY.

Humorously Tells House of His Many Relatives in His Own Riding.

Ottawa.—How he had obtained a majority of over 6,000 votes in the last general elections was humorously explained in the House of Commons by J. H. Harris (Conservative, York East) during his speech on the budget.

Mr. Harris at the time was making a plea for all nationalities in Canada to remember that they are Canadians. "To my friends from the western provinces let me say, you have not been Canadians as long perhaps as some of the rest of us, but get in line with us as quick as you can. Do not forget that you have not been very long in this country."

Intensely interesting country. Two things at least were made clear to us by the address. First, that the converts from the high castes in India, still have to pay a tremendous price for their change of faith in ostracism, boycott of every kind and direct persecution and secondly that the church on its knees in prayer works miracles today as it did in New Testament times. Sheik of Mena Village Host to Canadians Photographed above are Nasr Enani Khattab, who recently succeeded his father as sheik of Mena Village, and Deane H. Dickason, well-known newspaper man accompanying the Canadian Pacific S.S. "Empress of France" on cruise of the world, who sent the following interesting dispatch covering the caravan trip of the Canadian and American tourists and the death of their host, Enani Khattab (right).

 "Thirty-two of us left Cairo by river steamer, debarking sixteen miles up the Nile at Bedrashien, where we journeyed by camel, donkey and sand-cart through Old Memphis and its necropolis Sakkarra, another sixteen miles out on the Lybian desert. There a Bedouin camp was pitched. We ate Bedouin food, listened to Bedouin music and watched Bedouin dancers far into the night. We did not reach camp until 8 o'clock the last two hours riding having been made in the light of the moon. At midnight the moon was at eclipse. Our host, Enani Khattab, undoubtedly the most popular and probably the wealthiest of the Bedouin sheiks of Egypt, had been laughing, dancing, and conversing with the rest of us. At one he went to his village, Mena, at the base of the Pyramids, to rest prior to returning with us to Cairo the next morning.

A Bedouin Camp.
 He was conversing with his daughter when he was seized with an attack of the heart and died almost instantly.
 His son Nasr, 24, popular and handsome dragoon, who had guided us from Cairo to the camp, succeeded him as sheik of the Mena Village, with about 6,000 inhabitants. The guests were permitted to finish their breakfast before the news was broken to them. We returned—a humble horde, saddened and grieving—after a night of exquisite adventure. More than 10,000 attended his funeral in the quaint little village among them a considerable number of our passengers who had grown to respect and admire Enani after a few short hours with him. He spoke several languages and in a gentle, well modulated voice that must have earned him great reverence from his subjects, who as sheik—mayor, police magistrate, justice of the peace, city council, et al—he ruled nobly and well.

JURIST DIES AT BERMUDA.

Member of Supreme Court of Nova Scotia Dies Suddenly on Eve of His Intended Return to This Province—Wife And One Daughter Were With Him at Time of His Death.—Had Been Judge Since 1912.

In the death of Judge J. J. Ritchie, at Bermuda, Tuesday evening the legal profession of Nova Scotia has lost a shining light. Judge Ritchie belonged to a family that adorned the bar and had provided the Province with several Judges, including Judge Thomas Ritchie and Judge Norman Ritchie, both men of high legal repute.

Before his appointment to the Bench in 1912, Judge Ritchie had built up a lucrative practice in Annapolis where much of his early life was spent, and was known throughout the whole Province as an able lawyer. He was a public-spirited man and a leader in the Conservative party, having been twice a candidate in the Queens-Sheburne constituency in opposition to Hon. W. S. Fielding, but was not successful in his candidacy either time. Shortly after his appointment to the Bench he was made a Judge-in-Equity, and it was in his court that Divorce and Marital causes were heard. He had a reputation for fair-dealing and for wide legal knowledge, and the profession will feel his loss keenly.

Judge Ritchie passed away in Bermuda suddenly Tuesday evening, Judge Ritchie went down to Bermuda several weeks ago, having obtained leave of absence until May 1st to recuperate from a severe attack of la grippe from which he suffered while in Halifax. His wife and their daughter, Miss Cecily Ritchie, were spending the winter in Bermuda.

The late Judge Ritchie was the son of the Rev. James J. Ritchie and Eliza Almon, and was born in Halifax 68 years ago. He spent his early life in Annapolis, where his father was rector. He was a graduate of the Harvard Law School, being admitted to the bar in 1877. For a time he practiced law in Annapolis and Windsor, and later came to Halifax. In Annapolis he was in partnership with his brother, W. B. A. Ritchie, who predeceased him.

He twice unsuccessfully contested the districts of Sheburne-Queens with the Hon. W. S. Fielding. In Halifax he practiced law for a time under the firm of Meagher, Chisholm and Ritchie and was appointed to the Bench in February, 1912, later being appointed a Judge in Equity.

Besides his wife, two daughters survive, Miss Cecily, now in Bermuda and Mrs. Barbara Stewart, wife of Commander Stewart, R. N., of Cardiff, Wales. One sister also survives, Mrs. DeHols, of Ottawa, W. B. A. Ritchie, a brother, and Mrs. Darrell, a sister passed away some years ago.

TONIC TREATMENT FOR INDIGESTION

The Surest Way to Relieve Stomach Trouble is Through Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

When the stomach is feeble and food lies in it undigested, the poisonous gases distend the walls of the stomach and cause serious interference with the action of the heart and lungs. These poisonous gases have other ill effects. They are absorbed by the blood and so weaken and corrupt it as to cause aches in remote parts of the body and the formation of unhealthy tissue everywhere. Experience shows that these troubles vanish just as soon as the stomach is made strong enough to digest the food. In other words, it needs a tonic that will enable it to do the work of changing the food into nourishment. The tonic used ought to be one that will agree with the most delicate stomach and this is exactly what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do.

Here is a bit of convincing proof given by Mrs. Chas. Ladner, Ellerslie, P. E. I., who says:—"For some years I was a sufferer from stomach troubles. Everything I ate caused distress, sour stomach, and belching. I could not eat meat or potatoes, and I grew weak and very nervous. No medicine seemed to help me until I was persuaded to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and these simply worked wonders. I took the pills faithfully for a couple of months, by which time every symptom of the trouble had disappeared, and there has not since been the slightest symptom of stomach trouble. No wonder I praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."
 You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

OBITUARY.

Isaac Durling.
 Lawrence-town—Isaac Durling, a highly respected citizen of Lawrence-town, Annapolis County, and well and favorably known to the people of Annapolis and King's Counties, and also in Halifax, passed away at his home on Friday afternoon, April 17th, aged 82 years.

Mr. Durling was the eldest son of the late Charles and Eliza Lonley Durling, and was born in Roxbury, Annapolis County. He was the last of a family of four sons, three brothers, David, James and Fletcher, having predeceased him in recent years.

For several years, Mr. Durling was the owner and manager of a large fruit farm in South Lawrence-town, and at the same time carried on an extensive meat and provision business, buying cattle and sheep for the Halifax markets. Later he conducted a large wholesale and retail meat and provision business at the corner of Argyle and Sackville Streets, Halifax. His business brought him in touch with the farmers of Annapolis County, and his name was a household word among the people.

Mr. Durling was twice married, his first wife being Miss Henrietta Fair of New Albany, N. S., by whom he had three daughters, Mrs. Elvin Shaffer, Lawrence-town; Mrs. (Rev.) J. H. Toole, of Swift Current, Saskatchewan; and Miss Besse Durling, of Boston. His second wife was Miss A. A. Stoddart, of Springfield, Annapolis County, the children of this union being Marie and Helene, of Boston; and Mildred (Mrs. Reginald) Mason of Welland, Ontario.

The funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home, Main Street, and conducted by Rev. W. H. Rackham, the pastor of the Methodist church in Lawrence-town.

APPLE SUCKER QUARANTINE EXTENDED.

The Department of Agriculture announced that by Order-in-Council passed on March 18th the European Apple Sucker Quarantine, which has affected the movement of nursery stock from certain areas in the Province of Nova Scotia during the past several seasons, was revised. The quarantined area now comprises the whole province of Nova Scotia and the Counties of Westmoreland and Albert in New Brunswick.

Nursery stock which includes all trees, shrubs, vines, seedlings, grafts, scions, cuttings or buds may now be moved without restriction from any point in the quarantined area to any other point within that area, but an inspection certificate, issued by any authorized inspector, must accompany all nursery stock moved to any point outside the quarantined area.

The extension of the quarantined territory is due to the fact that the apple sucker, a serious foreign insect pest, was discovered in the two counties in New Brunswick mentioned above and has now spread to all important apple growing sections of Nova Scotia.

Any person found violating the quarantine will be prosecuted as provided for under the Destructive In-

PETERSEN STEAMSHIP CONTRACT

It might be of service to the committee charged with the furtherance of the Petersen adventure if its members take a look around before they leap, unless, like sheep, they prefer jumping the fence heedless of the steep-banked pitfall on the other side. Scrupulously shy of making peace pact commitments which are deemed a needless risk, it might be well did they apply a moiety of the same caution to a business deal in which the odds against them are ten to one on bankruptcy. They are not likely to succeed in a venture which for others nations has spelt futile expense, disillusionment, and failure. But if they persist, they can secure a cheap and rusty bargain by taking over some of the marine left-overs other nations are anxious to get rid of. The market just now is rather lively with break-down fleets.

An Example From India.

The Government of India has recently decided to sell out its mercantile marine. The vessels were practically a gift, being a part of the German craft captured during the war. It seemed a snap. A few years' experience has convinced the state owners that the six merchant boats cost more than they carry, and are not half so useful as though they had actually been white elephants. Today, with their German names still on the hulls, they are up for sale. India has no wheat for export. But she has plenty of teas, cotton, jays, salubria, etc., and a Government representing a population of two hundred millions and more. Yet the "Big Six" though a gift, has not paid for its upkeep. So the East Indies Government has concluded by notice of sale to make the best of a bad bargain.

The same thing has happened in the United States. There was a time when Woodrow Wilson's Indulgence-Gentlemen, I don't know where our merchant fleet has gone. All I know is that it has gone. It was a reforming slogan. The U. S. did reform. During wartime the U. S. mercantile marine was rebuilt and refurbished. Yet what was once a war cry of criticism would today sound more like a gospel. The trade fleet is docked, at least that part of it which has not yet been sold for a song. It is going, going, under the auctioneer's hammer, and in the interests of economy—the very point the Petersenes so loudly stress—Uncle Sam says, "Good riddance!"

Can Canada win out where a shrewd neighbor who has pockets bulging with gold declares he has no more money to waste on idle ships?

The Aliezed Combine.

But we are told it is the British combine causes the Canadian shoe to pinch. Australians do not talk that way. To begin with, they have no need. They are out of competitive range, even more so than India. They have an immense area of marketable land, and possibilities. And Australia has wheat, meat, fruit and wool plenty of them to load up for export. It anywhere fortune would seem to favor the launching and subsidy of a mercantile marine, Australia has the advantage.

Here again experience speaks in another key. It has given Australians proof of the pudding in the taste. And the taste has been in this instance bitter. The fond scheme mulcted the Antipodean Commonwealth in appalling losses, and the government has staggered out and "from out"—again by sale. To use a slang phrase, the advocates of state-owned ships are up a gum tree. They have taken the tall timber. The darling project they dreamed would keep national commerce on an even keel has itself "turned turtle," and gone down "unwept, unlearned, and unsung." Yet our up-to-date Solons predicate some corresponding scheme as the economic redemption of our Canadian market.

A Delusion And Snare.

The emprise is belated. It belongs to the ancient and honorable society of the wreckers. There has been already shown on this page what sort of a "profitable" dare this Petersen investment will be, and that since it takes away more with the left hand than it offers with the right, its prospectus is a delusion and a snare. And it is advisable to look up and consult the memorandums of prior voyagers ere another Argosy is chartered and got under weigh to drift into the great "grave-yard" of the Saragossa Sea. The national treasury is not so excessively and prodigally rich. Not even as an "economic" gesture for western votes is the same worth while. Why become junk dealers in the political scrap-yard? (Montreal Gazette.)

WHO IS THE HOME MERCHANT.

The Hanover Post in a recent edition asks the above question and then proceeds to answer it by giving some facts that the average merchant could pass along to the homes in the community with good results.
 "The home merchant who is he?
 He is the chap who gives you credit when you are financially broke and carries your account until you are able to pay.
 He is the chap who gives you back your money or makes exchanges if you are not satisfied with what you have bought.
 He is the chap who meets you at the door with a handshake and lets you out with a message to the "kids and a real 'come again good-bye.'"

FLY FISHING IN THE LA HAVE.

(Bridgewater Bulletin.)
 A young Indian named Labrador hooked a 25 lb. salmon near the lower Davison dam, on Saturday morning and after playing him for an hour and a half, landed the big fish in front of the Royal Bank. A large crowd watched the operation.
 A number of the salmon are being caught in the river within the town limits. This is a tip for sportsmen in Halifax. Fine fishing and excellent hotel accommodation.

The pigeon still sat in his place. The hunter aimed, fired, and the pigeon was melted to a branch of the oak-tree with the shoe-nails.
The hunter was almost in despair, seeing the game apparently fastened beyond his reach. But he climbed the tree, agitated with difficulty to the place where the pigeon hung, and had just taken the bird off, when he lost his footing and fell through the air.
As chance would have it, the hunter landed in the midst of a hare's nest. He began to roll rapidly down the steep hillside; but before he did so, he seized a large hare firmly by the hind legs.
Rolling downward, the hunter still plump into the midst of a covey of partridges; and striking about with the hare, he succeeded in killing nine of these admirable birds.
He then picked himself up and went homeward with his pigeon, his hare and his partridges, well satisfied with the results of his shot.

GERMANY IS TOLD POINCARÉ WILL RISE WITH HINDENBURG

Berlin Papers, Commenting on Herriot Fall Praise His Honesty.

Berlin.—Since few of the Berlin newspapers appeared this morning because of yesterday's religious holiday, there was little comment on the resignation of M. Herriot as French Premier.

After observing that M. Herriot, "despite his weakness and readiness to follow bad advisers," deserves the appreciation of all friends of democracy and peace, Vorwaerts says:

"The return of Poincaré or Millerand at the present time seems unthinkable, but the election of Field Marshall Von Hindenburg would constitute a means to return them to power within a few weeks, if enough fools can be found in Germany to choose a man who is looked upon by the world as the incarnation of militarism. A wave of nationalistic passion would be unloosed in France which would sweep away the peaceful elements."

Die Zeit, organ of Foreign Minister Stresemann, ascribes the fall of M. Herriot to the opposition of the church circles and the "catastrophical development of the franc, for which he is not responsible."

The Tageblatt characterizes M. Herriot as "absolutely honest and striving for the pacification of Europe."

PUBLICITY'S GOOD WORK

In a recent letter to the Publicity Bureau, a high official of the Literary Digest says:

"The writer has been giving your various letters and literature relating to Nova Scotia study of late, and would like to have from you a list of about one dozen of the most attractive places in Nova Scotia for a summer vacationist's standpoint. A gentleman from California writes: 'Thank you for the arrangements you have made. There will be four in our party. We are hoping to arrive in Nova Scotia in June.' A manufacturer in Massachusetts says: 'We had planned to spend our summer vacation in Northern Maine, but, since reading your literature and your interesting letters, we have decided to change our plans accordingly. We shall arrive in Nova Scotia, via Yarmouth, early in July.'"

NICE POINT OF LAW

Compromise in Question of Which of Two Died First

Toronto.—That the next of kin of the husband and the relatives of the wife should be awarded equal shares in the estate of Harry Cecil Staples and his wife, who were found dead in their home in September, 1921, was the decision of Mr. Justice Middleton at Osgood Hall Monday. Litigation has been taking place for four years since the issue of a writ against the Ontario public trustee in 1921, to determine whether Harry Cecil Staples or his wife died first. Circumstances under which the couple were found dead led the heirs of Mrs. Staples to declare her husband was responsible for her death. It was necessary under the Evidence Act to prove which died first, but an agreement on this point was reached by the litigants. The question as a principle of law will be brought before the commission now consolidating the Ontario statutes, with a view to remedial legislation.

TAKING CHANCES

According to an article by Walter B. Pitkin in "The Forum," only one murdered in New York City in 1920 out of every 79 killings. The American Bar Association is authority for the statement that a murderer in New York has thirteen chances to one of escaping punishment. The Metropolitan Life Insurance Association has figured out that, taking the country at large, only one murderer is executed in every 146 crimes of that class. As for crimes outside the capital class, convictions and sentences are rare. It is not so in Canada. We do not mix up politics with our judicial system. The sinner is very apt to suffer on this side of the line.

Perhaps the greatest discouragement to those who are seeking to bring about reform in the United States comes from the loose system which prevails as to bail. In New York City it is not uncommon for a criminal to have from three to seven or eight indictments standing against him before he is brought to trial. If he is finally convicted, political influence can either bring about his parole or his pardon. Few convicts serve their sentences if they have friends or "pull". Our neighbors are, with growing acuteness, feeling the reproach of all this.

VALUE OF ADVERTISING.

While advertising has helped millions of farm homes to greater efficiency it has also raised the standards of business. It is the word of the house to the customer. Manufacturers and distributors realize that readers must receive exactly what is promised in advertised products. No man of experience will put his name or brand on inferior articles because it is plain business suicide to advertise an unworthy product. Hundreds of successful businesses have grown from a good idea, nurtured with advertising. Advertising attracts new customers, broadens the market and quietly brings repeat orders. That is why advertising flourishes.

GRAIN INQUIRIES HAVE COST $500,000.

Large Proportion of Money Has Gone to Lawyers in Investigations.

Ottawa.—The western members are collecting quite a lot of material for the coming discussion on the amendments to the Grain Act, that are now ready for presentation to the House. It will be a subject monopolized mostly by the men from the Prairie Provinces, for, while others are interested, they do not attach as much importance to it as the Prairie members do.

Information brought down as to the number and cost of the various enquiries into the grain trade show it to be undoubtedly the most investigated business in the country. Since 1897, not less than 14 commissions, provincial and federal, have looked into it, and made recommendations for its regulation. Those appointed by the Federal Government have cost more than $300,000.

The first enquiry was conducted by a special committee of the House in 1897. In 1899 there was a federal Royal Commission, the cost of which is not known. In 1906 there was another commission appointed by the Federal Government, which cost $30,774. In 1910 and 1914 the Saskatchewan Government appointed enquiries the cost of which is not known to the authorities here.

In 1916 there was another federal commission, but it did not cost much, only $152.50. In 1918 Price, Waterhouse and Company conducted an audit of terminal elevator books and the bill was $134.58. In 1921 the Saskatchewan Government had a grain marketing commission at work, of which nothing is known as to the expense. In 1921 the Hyndman federal commission conducted an enquiry at a cost of $46,878.

In 1922 the federal Government appointed the Lakes Grain Freight Rates Commission, the expense in connection with which was $41,012. Last, but by no means least, came the Turgeon enquiry which has cost $170,596. It is generally known that a large part of the money in all these instances has gone to counsel who have been engaged to secure the facts.

Taking the cost of the provincial commissions and enquiries into account, the cost of investigating the grain trade since 1897 was undoubtedly $500,000.

An item of interest in last issue of the Monitor was the marriage of Miss Ariel Conrad and R. Carlyle Davies, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davies. Lyle is well known here and his bride is a sister of Mrs. J. E. Conrad, a former resident of this place, but now residing in Haines City, Florida. The friends of this couple would extend best wishes for their future happiness.

OBITARY.

Isaac Longley Darling.

On Friday, April 17th, Isaac Longley Darling passed away at his home in Lawrencetown, aged 81 years. Until about ten days before his death he had been actively engaged in business.

Mr. Darling was a life-long resident of Lawrencetown and by his kind disposition made many warm friends. In politics he was a staunch Liberal, and in religion a Methodist, of which church he had been a member for thirty-five years.

Mr. Darling was twice married. In 1871 to Miss Henrietta Fain of Albany, who left three daughters, Winifred, widow of J. Elvin Shaffner of Lawrencetown; Ethel, wife of Rev. J. Holmes Toole of Swift Current, Sask., and Miss Bessie of Brookline, Mass. In 1892 he married Miss Ada Sophia Stoddart, who survives him, with her daughters, Miss H. Marie of Boston; Mildred, wife of P. M. Mason, of Welland, Ont.; and Miss Helene of Boston. There are eleven grandchildren. Mr. Darling was predeceased by his three brothers, James of Inglewood; David of Lawrencetown, and Fletcher of Paradise.

His children, except Mrs. Toole, were present at the funeral services, which were held at his late residence on Tuesday, April 21st, by Rev. W. H. Rackham, Methodist, assisted by Rev. A. H. Whitman, Baptist. Many friends from a distance joined with those of his home town in paying their last respect. The pall-bearers were his grandsons, Malcolm and Ernest Shaffner, and nephews Paul and Isaac Darling.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful. Interment was at Fairview Cemetery.

Local Happenings

We would call our readers attention to the advertisement appearing in this issue announcing the great "Matrimonial Trial" to which we referred last week. All roads will surely lead to the Primrose on the evening of Thursday, May 7th. The production will be under the direction of Mrs. W. D. Lockett.

STORES CLOSE ON WEDNESDAY AFTERNOONS.

Beginning May 1st, and continuing until October 31st, stores will remain open on Tuesday evenings and will close on Wednesday afternoons at 12:30 p.m. of each week.

On Tuesday evening at a meeting of the Women's Missionary Aid Society of the Baptist church held at the home of the President, Mrs. J. W. Peters, a presentation of a fountain pen was made by the members to Mrs. Harry Miller, who has been the efficient secretary of the organization for some considerable time past, and is leaving here for Niagara.

In their entertainment on Thursday May 7th, the Upstreamers Tuxis Square will have the assistance of the Bridgetown Melody Men, and the Male Quartette. Vaudeville and acrobatic stunts will also be featured. See ad.

On Friday evening there was a spelling match in the Sunday School room of the United Church between the Baptist and United Church young people. Mr. Gladstone Parker was captain for the Baptist. On each side twenty were chosen and the contest was very interesting. Vice Principal R. J. Messenger gave out the words which were from the Public school speller. The Baptists won by a very good margin and Miss Margaret Peters was the last speller left on the floor.

At the Baptist church on Sunday evening a large congregation attended the Service of Song and saw the stereoscopic views of prominent scenes in the life of Christ which were spoken of by the Pastor. The service was under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Aid Society. The President, Mrs. J. W. Peters occupied the chair and read the Scripture. Prayer was offered by the Honorary President, Mrs. E. C. Young.

Rev. P. R. Hayden landed a twelve pound Salmon at Paradise on Monday morning. This we understand is the third Salmon taken from the river this season.

Miss Marie Miller, who has been one of the most efficient members of the teaching staff here for several years has tendered her resignation to take effect at the end of the present term. Her successor has not yet been appointed.

A business deal of considerable importance was consummated a few days ago when Major C. T. Ferguson, of Glasgow, Scotland, purchased the fine farm owned by Mr. E. B. Tracey at Carleton Corner. The Major will shortly occupy his property. We extend him, Mrs. Ferguson and family a cordial welcome and trust that they may have both profit and enjoyment here.

Mr. and Mrs. Tracey have been residents here for several years and enjoyed the esteem of a large circle of friends who hope that Mr Tracey may decide to remain in this locality.

MARRIED.

Beals-Banks.

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday evening, April 15th, at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guilford Banks, Turnpike Road, when their daughter Olive Edith was united in marriage to Frank Kenneth Beals, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Beals, Fayetteville, Mass. The double ring service was used, Rev. Frank Narry, pastor of the Fayetteville Baptist church, officiating. The bridal procession came in as the wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Miss Grace Beals and stood under an arch of roses. The bride was given away by her father.

The bridesmaid was Miss Marjorie Banks, sister of the bride, and the best man was Raymond Beals, brother of the bridegroom. Doris Banks, the bride's little sister, was ring bearer. The bride was gowned in white with a charmuse and wore a veil and a string of pearl beads. She carried the bride's roses. The bridesmaid's dress was rose crepe de chine and she carried sweet peas. The ring bearer wore dotted swiss. The bride's going away dress was blue charmuse trimmed with fur and she wore a coat of henna bolivia, with hat to match. The bride was born in Torbrook, Nova Scotia, the former home of Mr. and Mrs. Banks and came to Massachusetts when very young.

She resided in Framingham, where she attended the public schools, graduating from Framingham high school last June. She is a member of the First Baptist church of Framingham. The bridegroom was born in Keene, N. H., and has lived in this town seven years. He belongs to the Fayetteville Baptist church and is also a member of the U. S. Reserves, being master sergeant Grade I, of the 302nd Infantry. The couple were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts, one being a dinner set from the postal clerk of Wellfleet, where the bridegroom is employed. Other gifts were china, cut glass, pyrex, linen, money, etc. After the reception to immediate relatives only, the couple started on a short wedding trip and on their return will reside on Lexington street, Framingham.

The bride and groom were both formerly residents of the Annapolis Valley and had a large circle of friends in that part of Nova Scotia.

THE GREAT MATRIMONIAL TRIAL

We are looking forward to some very interesting situations in the great matrimonial trial, "Snooks and Fozzie" to be staged in the Primrose Theatre, on Thursday evening, May 7th. The cast of characters is certainly suggestive, viz: Solomon Fobb, an elderly Judge (Arnold Wood); Henry Hines, Clerk (George Jefferson); Thomas Fozzie, Proprietor of a Matrimonial Bureau, Defendant, (Joe Dand); Abraham Octavius Snooks, the Plaintiff, a bachelor, forty years old, in want of a wife (Ralph Benson); Demosthenes Goff, K. C. Counsel for Plaintiff (Charlie Anderson); Lemuel Gump, K. C. Counsel for Defendant (Charles LeBrun); Patrick Hooligan (O'Leary Norman); Miss Talker, a neighbourhood gossip, anxious for a husband (Kenneth Robinson); Mrs. Heathbreaker, an actress looking for her sixth husband (George Stevens); Mrs. Bridget O'Tool, a middle-aged buxom Irish woman, (Guy Henson); Miss Estumotive, an advocate of Woman's Rights, forty years old, single and looking for a chance to marry (Victor Walker); Mrs. Hinkley, a widow of fifty, mother of a nice little family, and real anxious to wed (Clarence FitzRandolph); the Editor of the local paper, specially detailed to report the case (John Donat). The special jury will be empaneled on the spot, and consist of both sexes.

GRANVILLE CENTRE

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Eaton spent Easter with relatives in Tupperville. Miss Leah Baltzer has returned from a week's visit with friends in Upper Clements.

Mr. and Mrs. Robb Gillatt of Trenton, spent Easter vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gillatt, Mrs. Gillatt remained for a few week's visit.

Dr. A. Robinson of Annapolis journeyed through last week and called on a number of his friends, who were pleased to see him, after his recent serious illness.

Miss Priscilla Young of Bellefleur has returned home, after spending two weeks at the home of her brother, Mr. Howard Young.

Olson FitzRandolph's house started a blaze. It was soon noticed and with the help of neighbors the fire was put out after considerable damage had been done to the roof.

An ad in the Monitor and Mr. Tracey was soon hooked up with orders for all the wood he could sell. Moral: If you have anything to sell which people want and the price is right an ad in the Monitor is the quickest and cheapest way to bring buyer and seller together. If you think we are recommending ask Mr. Tracey.
