For Thy Guidance.

The Nova Scotia Central Association convenes next Friday, 2 p.m., at Hantsport. Pastor Fash, Brethren J. F. L. Parsons, G. A. MacDonald, N. B. Smith, and Sisters Mrs. N. B. Smith, and Miss Mabel Parsons, have been appointed delegates. We shall expect helpful reports from them on their return. It is quite probable that one of the ministers in attendance at the Association will preach for us next Sunday.

The Mission Band Committee has been very fortunate in securing Bro. W. E. Briggs, returned Missionary from India, to speak at the meeting, Sunday, June 26, 3 p.m. The Mission Band exercises well attended. This time there will be additional interest. A SPECIAL COLLECTION will be taken for the support of David.

The Ladies expect to open their "Home Mission Barrels" the last of this month.

Have you read "In His Steps," by Charles M. Sheldon? What a mighty revolution would take place if every professing Christian really made his life motto, "What would Jesus do"? Anything less is not Christian. Is your christianity according to the New Testament idea? If so, the North Baptist Church will "hum with life."

Good progress is being made in the arrangements for our Sunday School picnic.

Our Ice Blossoms. Another of our estimable young ladies has left us for the United States, but she went not alone. Miss Emma Melvin, of the North Church, and Norman E. McPhail, of Boston, were married June 15th, by the Pastor, at 116 Queen St. Our best wishes follow the happy couple.

Prayer Meeting Points. "I want to put some flavoring into the meeting." Don't knead your bread too long. Be B-R-I-E-F. If you mean to hit, don't spend all your time taking aim. Hit.

Pastor's Creed. 1—Postpone no service on account of weather. 2.—Send no agents to members, and write no letters commending articles of sale.
