Technical and Bibliographic Notes/Notes techniques et bibliographiques

The Institute has attempted to obtain the best original copy available for filming. Features of this copy which may be bibliographically unique, which may alter any of the images in the reproduction, or which may significantly change the usual method of filming, are checked below.

L'Institut a microfilmé le meilleur exemplaire qu'il lui a été possible de se procurer. Les détails de cet exemplaire qui sont peut-être uniques du point de vue bibliographique, qui peuvent modifier une image reproduite, ou qui peuvent exiger une modification dans la méthode normale de filmage sont indiqués ci-dessous.

The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

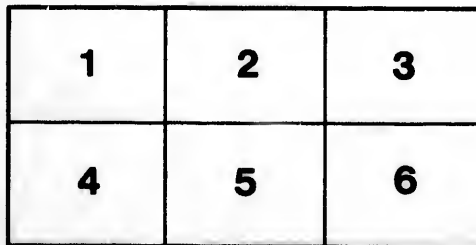

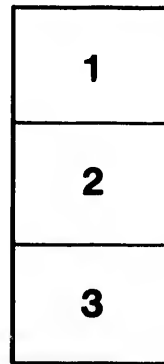

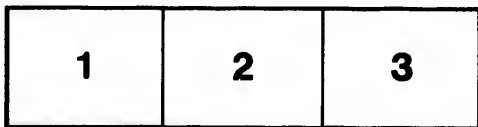

Legislative Library
Victoria

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Legislative Library
Victoria

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

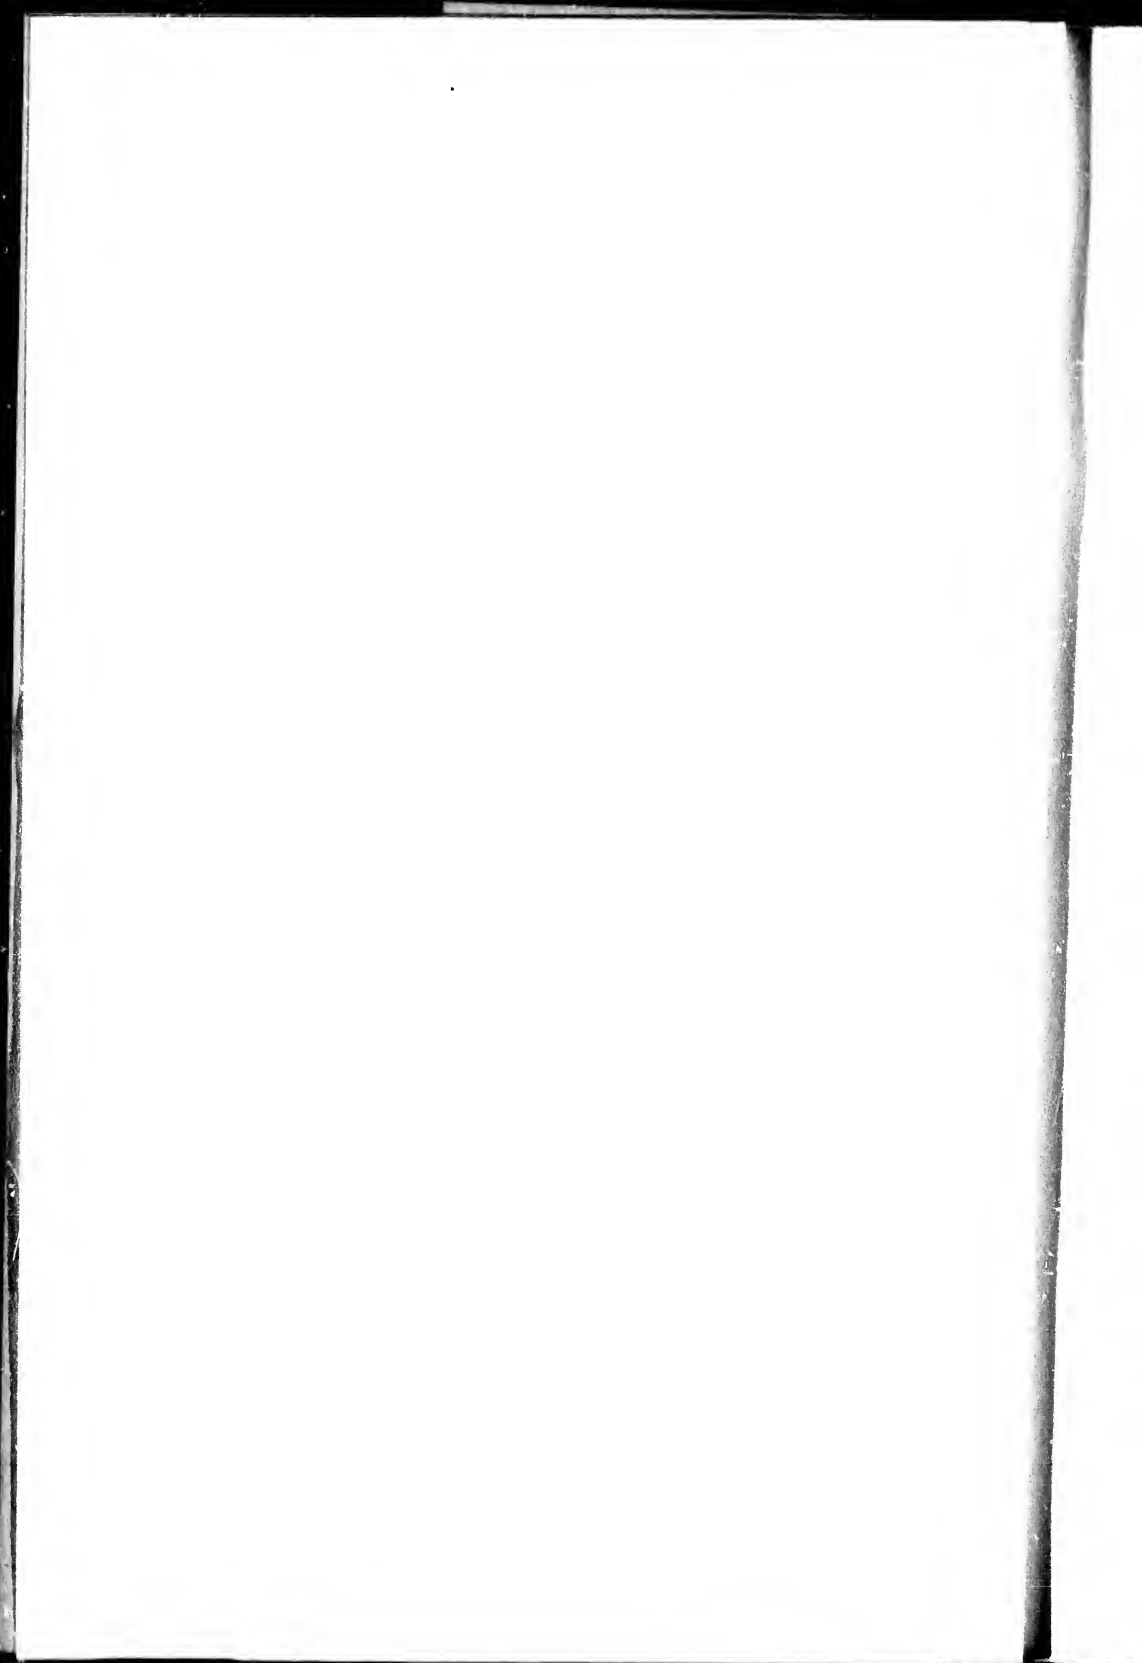

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

A DICTIONARY OF BOOKS

RELATING TO AMERICA

EEKS (William R[aymond]). A Letter on Protracted Meetings: addressed to the Church in Paris, by William R. Weeks, late Minister to that Church. Utica: Press of William Williams, Genesee Street. 1832. 8vo, pp. 16.

BM., H., NYH., PRINCETON, Y. 102462

Weeks published several sermons, religious works, etc.

WEEMS (Mason Locke).

For fuller information as to the works of this author than is contained in the following brief list, see "Mason Locke Weems, his Works and Ways . . . a bibliography left unfinished by Paul Leicester Ford, edited by Emily Ellsworth Ford Skeel," 3 vols., New York, 1929. Titles of works merely edited by Weems and of almanacs published by him will for the most part be omitted from our entries, and we shall not attempt to enter late editions of the various titles which are included but shall refer instead to their numbers in Mrs. Skeel's bibliography. We wish to acknowledge gratefully further help from Mrs. Skeel in the preparation of this section.

WEEMS. Anecdotes of Gamblers, extracted from a work on gambling, by M. L. Weems, formerly Rector of Mount Vernon Parish. Philadelphia: To be had of Benjamin & Thomas Kite, No. 20, North Third Street: [etc.] 1816. No. 9. [Colophon:] Joseph R. A. Skerrett, Printer, No. 135, south Ninth street. 12mo, pp. 12. AAS. + [Same imprints.] 1818. No. 9—2d. ed.—6000. 12mo, pp. 8. AAS., MDHS. 102463

Reprinted, Philadelphia, 1878. MDHS.

Skeel's "Mason Locke Weems," vol. 1, 1929, nos. 194-196.

WEEMS. The Bad Wife's Looking Glass. Or, God's Revenge against Cruelty to Husbands. Exemplified in the awful history of the beautiful, but depraved Mrs. Rebecca Cotton, who most inhumanly murdered her husband John Cotton, Esq. for which horrid act God permitted her, in the prime of life and bloom of beauty, to be cut off by her brother Stephen Kannady, May, 5th 1807.

With a number of incidents and anecdotes, most extraordinary and instructive. By M. L. Weems. Second Edition Improved. Charleston: Printed for the Author. 1823. . . . 8vo, pp. 44.

AAS., C., CH. LIB. SOC., HSP., NYP. 102464

Skeel no. 218. No earlier edition noted by Mrs. Skeel who suggests that the words "Second Edition" may have been added to suggest a successful first edition, which had never been issued in reality.

[WEEMS], pub. A Calm Dissuasive against Intemperance; or, An Awful View of the Horrors and Miseries of Drunkenness. Originally published in Connecticut. Philadelphia: Printed for Mason L. Weems. 1816. 8vo, pp. 44. AAS., NYP. 102465

Probably not by Weems.

Skeel no. 240.

WEEMS. The Devil Done Over; or the Grand Revival in Old Edgefield in 1809, wherein seven hundred souls were added to the Baptist Church in nine Months. — Taken chiefly from the Minutes of the Rev'd Daniel Marsh, Robert Marsh, John Landrum, and Samuel Cartledge, who were the Honored Instruments of the Glorious Work. By M. L. Weems . . . [1812?] 102466

Skeel no. "209?" from advertisement in Car. Fed. Repub., Jan. 4, Mar. 21, 1812 et seq.

WEEMS. The Drunkard's Looking-Glass, reflecting a Faithful Likeness of the Drunkard, in sundry very interesting attitudes; with lively representations of the many strange capers which he cuts at different stages of his disease . . . By M. L. Weems . . . Second Edition, greatly improved. . . . [Philadelphia?] 1813. 8vo, pp. 60.

BA., NYP. 102467

Skeel no. 198. For the first edition, see God's Revenge against Drunkenness, below. See also nos. 199–205, for other editions, the latest, eighth edition, printed for Mrs. Weems, Baltimore, 1843.

Reprinted in Weems' "Three Discourses," New York, 1929, pp. 49–136.

[WEEMS]. . . . Effects of Drunkenness, illustrated in the History of Peter and John Hay. [Colophon:] Andover: Printed for the New England Tract Society by Flagg and Gould. 1822. 2d edit. 6000. 12mo, pp. 12. AAS. 102468

Skeel no. 208.

Caption title, with heading: No. 112.

Forms part of vol. 6 of "Publications" of the N. Eng. Tract Society, 1823.

For other editions of this extract from the Drunkard's Looking Glass, see History of Peter and John Hay, below, and Narrative of . . ., below.

WEEMS. Geschichte Gg. Washington's von der Wiege bis zum Grabe, von M. L. Weems, einem Zeitgenossen Washington's. Philadelphia, zu haben bei Otto Maasz. [n. d.] 12mo, pp. 240. 6 plates and portrait.

B., C., HEH., HSP. 102469

Skeel nos. 39A, 47A, and 55. Mrs. Skeel assigns the date "1841" because of an advertisement on the printed back cover of the HSP. copy in which 1840 is alluded to as the date of death of Frederick William the Third, and which would exclude the possibility of the dates 1824 and 1833 elsewhere assigned.

For other editions, see Das Leben des Georg Washington, and Lebensbeschreibung des George Washington, below.

WEEMS. God's Revenge against Adultery, awfully exemplified in the following cases of American Crim. Con. I. The accomplished Dr. Theodore Wilson, (Delaware,) who for seducing Mrs. Nancy Wiley, had his brains blown out by her husband. II. The elegant James Oneale, Esq. (North Carolina,) who for seducing the beautiful Miss Matilda Lestranger, was killed by her brother. By Mason L. Weems, author of the Life of Washington. Baltimore: Printed by Ralph W. Pomeroy & Co. 1815. 8vo, pp. 48. Frontispiece. AAS. + Second Edition. Philadelphia: Printed for the Author. . . . 1816. 8vo, pp. 48. Frontispiece. AAS., H., NYP., WLC. + Third Edition. Philadelphia: Printed for the Author . . . 1818. Griggs & Co. Printers. 8vo, pp. 48. Frontispiece.

AAS., C.,

CH.LIB.SOC., HSP., MDHS., NYH., NYP., P., PA.STATE LIB. 102470

Skeel nos. 217-212, and for an 1828 edition, see no. 213. Reprinted in Weems' "Three Discourses," New York, 1929, pp. 137-139.

WEEMS. God's Revenge against Drunkenness; or, The new Drunkard's Looking-Glass, &c. Philadelphia. 1812. 8vo, pp. 62. Frontispiece.

Skeel no. 197.

Title from the Boon catalogue, 1870, lot no. 2490.

For other editions, see The Drunkard's Looking Glass, above.

WEEMS. God's Revenge against Duelling, or The Duellists Looking Glass; exhibiting that Gentlemanly Mode of Turning the Corner, in Features altogether Novel, and admirably calculated to entertain and instruct the American Youth. By M. L. Weems, author of the Lives of Washington, Marion, Drunkard's Looking Glass, &c. . . . Georgetown, D. C. Published by Elijah Weems, for the Author. Gideon, Print. Washington. 1820. 8vo, pp. 54. AAS., C., NYP. + Second Edition — Revised and greatly improved. By M. L. Weems, author of the Lives of Washington, Marion,

Drunkard's Looking Glass, &c. . . . Philadelphia: Printed for M. L. Weems. J. Bioren, Printer. 1821. 8vo, pp. 48. 4 plates. AAS., B., C., HSP., NYH., NYP., P., WHS., WLC. + Third Edition — Revised and greatly Improved. . . . Philadelphia: Published by Joseph Allen. Sold by John Grigg, North Fourth street. :827. 16mo, pp. 96. Frontispiece. AAS., NYP. 102472

Skeel nos. 214-217, no. 216 being a reissue of the second edition with a cover title as the "Third Edition" AAS. Mrs. Skeel notes that most copies have but one plate in the second edition.

WEEMS. God's Revenge against Gambling. Exemplified in the Miserable Lives and Untimely Deaths of a number of Persons of both sexes, who had sacrificed their Health, Wealth, and Honor at Gaming Tables. With curious anecdotes of the following Unfortunate Gamblers:— I. Miss Fanny Braddock, sister of General Braddock, who, from Gambling, hung herself. II. Drisden Harwood, Esq. Maryland, who, from Gambling, drowned himself. III. Jack Gilmore, Esq. Virginia, who, from Gambling, shot himself. IV. T. Alston, Esq. (N. C.) who, from Gambling, was shot by Capt. Johnson. V. Maria Antoinette, Queen of France, who, for Gambling, was brought to the Guillotine. VI. Other awful cases of young Gamblers, and their untimely ends. . . . By M. L. Weems, formerly Rector of Mount Vernon Parish. (Second Edition.) Philadelphia: Printed for the Author. 1812. [Colophon:] Printed by Lydia R. Bailey, No. 10, North Alley. 8vo, pp. 51. Frontispiece. AAS., B., C., H., WLC. 102473

Skeel no. 189. For other editions, see nos. 190-193, the latest, Philadelphia, 1822. See also, above, Anecdotes of Gamblers.

Skeel no. 188 suggests the probability of an edition in 1810, quoting advertisements in the "Louisville Gazette," May 4, 1810, and the "Georgia Argus," Jan. 16, 1811, also a letter from Weems to Carey, March 12, 1810.

WEEMS. God's Revenge against Murder; or, The Drown'd Wife of Stephens's Creek. A Tragedy, as lately performed, with unbounded applause, (of the devil and his court) by Ned Findley, Esquire, one of the grand company of tragedians in the service of the Black Prince, who was so highly gratified with Mr. Findley's performance, that he instantly provided him Rooms in one of his own Palaces; created him a Knight of the most ignoble order of the Halte; ; clapped bracelets on his wrists, and an ornament round his neck; and in a few days promoted him to the ridge pole of the gallows, at Edgefield Court-House, South Carolina. By M. L. Weems, of Lodge No. 50, Dumfries. Second Edition Enlarged

. . . Augusta: Printed by Hobby & Bunce, at the Herald-Office. Copy right secured. 1807. 8vo, pp. 40. BA., DUKE U. + Third Edition enlarged . . . Philadelphia: Printed for the Author, by W. M'Culloch, No. 306, Market Street. . . . [1808.] 8vo, pp. 40.

NYP. 102474

Skeel no. 177.

No copy of the third edition located by Mrs. Skeel, who notes that the edition was advertised in the Wilmington "Museum of Delaware," Dec. 31, 1808, et seq.

A Philadelphia, 1802, edition is listed in the Albany Institute Catalogue, 1855. For other editions, see Skeel nos. 178-185, the latest, the eleventh edition, enlarged, Philadelphia, 1823.

WEEMS. . . . History of Peter and John Hay. . . . Printed for the American Tract Society by Flagg & Gould; and sold by them at the Society's General Depository, Andover, (Mass.) Sold also by S. T. Armstrong, No. 50, Cornhill, Boston. 3d edit. 6000. [1824?] 12mo, pp. 12.

H. 102475

With heading: No. 112.

Forms part of vol. 6 of "Publications" of the Am. Tract Soc., 1824.

WEEMS. . . . History of Peter and John Hay. . . . Published by the American Tract Society, and sold at their depository, No. 87 Nassau-Street, near the City-Hall, New-York . . . [1828-1832?] 12mo, pp. 12.

AAS. 102476

Skeel no. 208A. At head: "No. 112." Pages also numbered as pp. [225]-236 of vol. 4 of the "Publications of the American Tract Society." For other editions of this extract from the Drunkard's Looking Glass, see Effects of Drunkenness, above, and Narrative of Peter and John Hay, below.

WEEMS. A History, of the Life and Death . . . of General George Washington. See below, the chronological arrangement of the various texts and editions of Weems' Washington entered following the earliest version, The Life and Memorable Actions of George Washington.

WEEMS. Hymen's Recruiting-Serjeant: or The New Matrimonial Tat-too, for the Old Bachelors. . . . With some elegant songs. . . . By the Rev. M. L. Weems, Lodge No. 50, Dumfries. . . . Philadelphia: Printed by John Bioren, No. 88, Chesnut-Street, for the Author. 1805. (Copy-right secured according to Act of Congress.) 4to, pp. 19, advertisement (1). Frontispiece. c., HSP. + [Another issue. Same imprint, date and collation.] AAS. + Fifth Edition. [Same imprint.] 1806. 4to, pp. 19, advertisement (1). c. + Middletown: Printed by Seth Richards, for the publisher. 1815. 4to, pp. 16. γ. + Sixth Edition. Philadelphia: Printed for the Author. 1816. 8vo, pp. 40. Frontispiece.

AAS., H. 102477

No. [1].

Skeel nos. 161-164. For later editions, see nos. 165-170, the latest, Hartford, 1851. Reprinted in Weems' "Three Discourses," New York, 1929, pp. 11-48.

Skeel nos. "160?" and "160A?" suggest two possible editions that may have existed prior to that of 1805. Mrs. Skeel believes that an imperfect copy in NYP, having pp. 5-19, (1), may represent her second suggested edition. Her comparison shows differences between it and both issues of the 1805 edition. The Albany Institute Catalogue, 1855, lists "Hymen's Recruiting Sergeant," Nos. I and II, Philadelphia, 1802, but they can not now be located in the portion of the library acquired by NYS.

One of the features distinguishing the second issue of the 1805 edition from the first issue is that in the advertisement on the last page there is no hyphen between the words "Twelve" and "Cents" and no apostrophe after "Cents." For other differences, see Skeel nos. 16.-162.

WEEMS. . . Hymen's Recruiting-Serjeant: or, The Maid's and Bachelor's Friend. Containing a very Seasonable and Savoury Dissertation, on Love, Courtship, and Matrimony. With a fine flourish on true beauty; admirably calculated to disclose those two most delectable and desirable Secrets; First, How the Homely may become Handsome, and the Handsome, Angelic: And, Secondly, How the Single may become Married, and the Married, Happy! Exemplified in the History of Miss Delia D—, one of the brightest and loveliest of all the bright and lovely Daughters of Columbia. . . With some elegant songs. By M. L. Weems, Lodge No. 50, Dumfries, Virginia. (Price, three-eighths of a Dollar.) Philadelphia: Printed by R. Cochran, for the Author. 1802. (Copy-right secured according to law.) 4to, pp. 20. Frontispiece.

AAS., B., BA., NYH., NYP. 102478

With heading: (No. 2!!!)

Skeel no. 171A.

Skeel no. "171?" suggests the existence of an earlier edition.

WEEMS. Das Leben des Georg Waschington, mit Sonderbaren Anekdoten, Sowohl ehrenvoll für ihn selbst, als auch Nachahmungswürdig für seine junge Landsleute. . . Von M. L. Weems, Ehemaligem Prediger der Mount-Vernon Kirche. Aus dem Englischen übersetzt. Nach der neunten sehr verbesserten Auflage. Libanon, (Penn.) Gedruckt bey J. Schnee, für M. Carey in Philadelphia. 1810. 12mo, pp. 240. Portrait, and 6 plates. AAS., B., BA., C., H., HEH., NYP., PA.STATE LIB., VA.STATE LIB. + Baltimore, Gedruckt und verlegt bey Schäffer und Maund, für sich selbst, und M. Carey und Sohn, in Philadelphia. 1817. 12mo, pp. 240. 6 plates, portrait and folded map.

B., BA., C., H., HEH., HSP., NYP., P., WLC. 102479

Skeel nos. 20 and 31. The earliest of the German versions of the text of the Life as it has generally been known. For later editions, see the following title, and Geschichte, above.

For the German version of the early work, Life and Memorable Actions of George Washington, see Lebensbeschreibung und merkwürdige Handlungen, below.

For doubtful German editions, see Skeel nos. "81?" and "83?"

The English texts and editions are arranged chronologically following the earliest, Life and Memorable Actions, below.

WEEMS. Lebensbeschreibung des Georg Washington, mit merkwürdigen Anekdoten begleitet, ehrenvoll für sein Andenken, und der amerikanischen Jugend zur Nachahmung aufgezeichnet. . . Von M. L. Weems . . . Philadelphia, gedruckt und verlegt von Edmund Y. Schelly. 1838. 12mo, pp. (4), 297, (3). Frontispiece portrait, and 6 plates. AAS., B., HEH., HSP., NYP. 102480

Skeel no. 53.

[WEEMS]. Die Lebensbeschreibung und merkwürdige Handlungen von Georg Washington, General und Befehlshaber der Armeen von Nord-America [sic]. Nebst der Erklärung der Unabhängigkeit, und der Constitution der Vereinigten Staaten. Aus dem Englischen übersetzt. Friederichstadt, Gedruckt bey M. Bärtgis. 1809. 12mo, pp. (2), 176. Frontispiece portrait.

AAS., B., BA., C., HEH., HSP., NYP., NYS., WLC. 102481

Skeel no. 18. Mrs. Skeel suggests that the translator is either "David F. Schäffer, A. M. Prediger," or "Daniel Wagner, Prediger," these names being signed to commendations on the verso of the title. Weems wrote to Carey from Fredericktown, Jan. 25, 1809, that a young divine in that place was willing to translate the work. Skeel, p. 52. This is practically the same work as the Life and Memorable Actions of George Washington, see below.

[WEEMS]. The Life and Memorable Actions of George Washington General and Commander of the Armies of America. [Baltimore:] Printed by and for George Keatinge. No. 207 Market-street. [1800?] 16mo, pp. (2), [4]-10, verso blank, (4), [17]-96. Frontispiece portrait. c., HEH., HSP. + A New Edition Corrected. Frederick-Town, Printed by M. Bartgis. 1801. 12mo, pp. 68, index (2), including frontispiece portrait. c., HSP. 102482

Skeel nos. 1 and 5.

The c. copy of the [1800?] edition is imperfect, having only pp. 33-50, 63-82.

Although the text of this anonymous work is quite different from that of the later editions with Weems' name on their titles, Mrs. Skeel shows that these two issues and the German version printed by Bartgis in 1809, see Lebensbeschreibung und merkwürdige Handlungen, above, are practically the same work. The latter has been attributed to Weems. Quotations from the author's correspondence with Carey, the Philadelphia publisher, are given to show that he had already been working on Washington in 1799.

WEEMS. A History, of the Life and Death, Virtues, and Exploits, of General George Washington; dedicated to Mrs. Washington; and containing a great many curious and valuable Anecdotes tending to throw much light on the private as well as public life and character, of that very extraordinary man: the whole happily calculated to furnish a feast of true Washingtonian Entertainment and Improvement, both to ourselves and our children. . . . Printed for the Rev. M. L. Weems, of Lodge No. 50, Dumfries, by Green & English, George-Town. (Price 2s. 3d. only.) [1800?] 8vo, pp. (4), 80. BA., HEH., HSP., JCB., NYP. 102483

Believed by Mrs. Skeel and Wilberforce Eames to be the earliest edition of Weems' work with this title. Though it contains passages similar to some of those in the Life and Memorable Actions no. 102482, above, the work is on a different plan. Correspondence of the author with Carey, the Philadelphia printer and publisher, in April, 1800, shows Weems asking him to print the book, the title being briefly quoted approximately as above. See Skeel, pp. 7-9. This edition quotes the prophecy of Rev. Samuel Davies as to Washington's being preserved to accomplish some service for his country, included in a sermon delivered soon after Braddock's defeat in 1755. See our no. 18763, vol. 5.

WEEMS. A History of the Life and Death, Virtues and Exploits, of General George Washington. Faithfully taken from Authentic Documents, and, now, in a Second Edition Improved, respectfully offered to the perusal of his countrymen; as also, all others who wish to see human nature in its most finished form. Price 25, Cents. . . . By the Rev. M. L. Weems, of Lodge No. 50 — Dumfries, Philadelphia: Re-printed by John Bioren, No. 83 Chesnut Street, for the Author. (Entered according to Law.) [1800?] 12mo, pp. (2), 82. Frontispiece portrait. AAS., APS., B., C., EI., HEH., HSP., NYH., NYP., Y. + . . . A Third Edition Improved . . . Price, 37½ Cents. . . . [Same imprint.] [1800?] 8vo, pp. 84. AAS., APS., BA., C., EI., H., HEH., HSP., MDHS., NYH., NYP., PRINCETON, WLC. + . . . A Third Edition, Improved . . . Elizabeth-Town: Printed by Shepard Kollock, for the Author. (Entered according to Law.) [1802?] 8vo, pp. 61. Frontispiece portrait. AAS., APS., BA., C., EI., HEH., HSP., MDHS., NYH., NYP. + . . . A Third Edition Improved . . . Albany: Printed by Charles R. and George Webster, at their Bookstore, corner of State and Pearl-streets. (Entered according to Law.) [1802-3?] 12mo, pp. 83, adver- tisement (1). AAS. + . . . A Fourth Edition Improved . . . [Same imprint.] [1805-6?] 16mo, pp. 152. CHS. 102484

Skeel nos. 3, 4, 6, 7 and 9.

See Skeel no. 3 for notes on the slight variations between Bioren's second edition and the Green & English edition.

Some copies of Bioren's third edition have a portrait engraved by Tanner after Stuart, which is not included in others which appear to have been issued without it. See penciled note by Wilberforce Eames in one of the NYP. copies.

A fourth edition of Weems, R. Cochrane, Printer, is apparently advertised in a hand-bill now at HSP. Skeel no. 8, dated [1803?]

WEEMS. The Life of Washington the Great. Enriched with a number of very Curious Anecdotes, perfectly in character, and equally honorable to himself, and exemplary to his Young Countrymen. . . . The Fifth Edition — Greatly Improved. Price 50 Cents. By M. L. Weems, of Lodge No. 50 — Dumfries. Augusta: Reprinted by Geo. F. Randolph. 1806. Copy Right secured. 8vo, pp. 80. NYP. 102485

Skeel no. 10.

A rewritten version of the text with new material, being the first to include the story of the cherry tree. Mrs. Skeel remarks that the book as thus issued was an amplified and lengthened sermon, even to its epilogue or summing up.

WEEMS. The Life of George Washington; with Curious Anecdotes, equally honorable to himself, and exemplary to his young countrymen. . . . Sixth Edition — greatly improved. By M. L. Weems, formerly Rector of Mount-Vernon Parish. Philadelphia: Printed for the Author, by R. Cochran. 1808. Copy-right Secured. 12mo, pp. 216. Frontispiece portrait. Skeel nos. 11-17.

The sixth edition is the first in the title of which Weems appears as the former "Rector of Mount-Vernon Parish." It includes for the first time the story of Washington being discovered in prayer at Valley Forge.

The first "Eighth Edition" listed, Skeel no. 14, does not have the words "Embellished with seven engravings" on the title page. Skeel nos. 15-16 describe two issues of the second "Eighth Edition" given, one distinguishing mark being that in the first the last words on p. 76 are "tolerable order," and in the second are "order, but,". The MSP. copy of the second issue, the only one located by Mrs. Skeel, does not have the criticisms at the beginning. MSP. also has a copy of the first issue. In another variation of the second "Eighth Edition" given, not described by Mrs. Skeel, the final words on p. [3] are "Have not a." In both of the above mentioned issues the last words on p. [3] are "Have not a thousand."

For later editions, see Skeel nos. 19-"84", the latest, [New York], 1927. NYP. now has a copy of the twenty-ninth edition, Frankford, 1825, which Mrs. Skeel, p. 76, lists as "not found."

For editions of German versions, see Geschichte Gg. Washington's, Leben des Georg Washington, and Lebensbeschreibung des George Washington, above.

WEEMS. The Life of Doctor Benjamin Franklin, written chiefly by himself; with a collection of his finest Essays, humorous, moral, and literary. A new edition, revised and enlarged by Mason L. Weems, of Lodge No. 50, Dumfries. Baltimore: Printed by Ralph W. Pomeroy, & Co. No. 12, Light Street. 1815. 16mo, pp. 264. AAS., H., MDHS., NYP. IO2487

Possibly should contain a portrait.

Improved title of no. 25534, vol. 7.

"Probably it was called a 'New Edition' because it was practically a reprint of parts of Franklin's Autobiography . . ."—Skeel no. 131.

Based on the "Works of the late Dr. Benjamin Franklin," London, 1793, our no. 25600, vol. 7, Ford no. 437.

"Not satisfied with Stuber's continuation of the autobiography, the editor has added a new one 'by one of his [Franklin's] friends,' which is about as accurate a description of Mr. Weems as his other title of 'Washington's pastor.' Having invented half a life of Franklin in this work, the editor printed three editions and then from his imagination wrote the whole life . . ."—Ford no. 477. "The later editions are entirely by Weems, although in the first half of it he has done little more than turn the 'Autobiography' into the narration of a third person."—Wroth's "Parson Weems," 1911, p. 87.

For later editions, see Skeel nos. 132-147, the latest, Philadelphia, 1884.

The title of the first of the editions entirely by Weems is as follows:

WEEMS. The Life of Benjamin Franklin; with many choice anecdotes and admirable sayings of this Great Man, never before published by any of his biographers. By M. L. Weems, author of the Life of Washington. The Fifth Edition, greatly enlarged. . . . Baltimore: Printed by John D. Toy, for the Author. 1820. 12mo, pp. 264. Frontispiece portrait. AAS., C. IO2488

Skeel no. 134. See note on the preceding title.

[WEEMS]. The Life of Gen. Francis Marion, a celebrated Partizan Officer, in the Revolutionary War, against the British and Tories, in South-Carolina and Georgia. From documents furnished by his brother in arms, Brigadier-General P. Horry; and by his nephew, the Hon. Robert Marion, Esq. of Congress. . . . Philadelphia: Published by Mathew Carey. 1809. 12mo, pp. 242.

Copyright in the name of Weems as author, dated Nov. 20, 1809.

Skeel no. "85?" Mrs. Skeel had not seen a copy. See that number for elaborate notes on the publication of the work.

For later editions, see our nos. 33044-33045, vol. 8. The latest issue noted by Mrs. Skeel was published at Philadelphia in 1891. See Skeel nos. 86-"130?" for fuller information than is given in our entries.

Mrs. Skeel quotes from correspondence between Horry and Weems which shows that the latter altered the work delivered to him by Horry, much to the latter's disapproval. "Most certainly 'tis not my history, but your romance."

WEEMS. The Philanthropist; or, a good twenty-five cents worth of Political Love Powder, for Honest Adamites and Jeffersonians: with the following recommendation by George Washington. . . . By the Rev. M. L. Weems (of Lodge No. 50) Dumfries. [n. p. 1799.] 8vo, pp. (2), 30.

AAS., B., C., HEH., HSP., JCB., NYP., P., Y. 102492

Skeel no. 157.

The second leaf contains a dedicatory letter addressed to Washington by Weems. Caption title on p. 3: The Philanthropist; or, A Good Twelve Cents Worth of Political Love Powder, for the Fair Daughters and Patriotic Sons of Virginia.

Mrs. Skeel, no. 156, believes that a copy at MDS. without title page and lacking pp. 29-30 represents an earlier issue with no title page since the title page in other copies is of a different texture of paper, pasted in, and contains Washington's acknowledgement of a copy of the pamphlet.

Mrs. Skeel states that the text is largely taken from W. L. Brown's "Essays on the Natural Equality of Men," Philadelphia, 1793.

For later editions, see Skeel nos. 158-159, the latest, tenth edition, Philadelphia, 1809.

WEEMS. Pride's Looking Glass or God's Revenge against Extravagance, exemplified in a number of the most remarkable cases ever recorded, chiefly collected in the United States. Augusta, Geo. [n. d.] 8vo, pp. 82. 102493

[WEEMS]. The Virginia & North Carolina Almanac, for the Year of our Lord 1800. Being the Fourth after Leap-Year: containing besides the necessary Calculations—Lists of Members of the Council, Senate, Assembly, &c. of this State—Fine Anecdotes, Songs, &c. a New and Beautiful Dissertation on the Married Life; Worth a Jew's Eye to all pretty Maids and Bachelors who would live Healthy, Wealthy, and Happy. . . Fredericksburg: Printed by T. Green, for the Rev. Mason L. Weems. [1799.] 12mo, pp. (36). AAS. 102496

In the main from the same type as the Virginia Almanac. However, it includes information as to the days of holding court in Maryland and North Carolina not found in that issue, and omits lists of officers of Virginia and of members of the legislature.

Skeel no. 172A.

Most of the almanacs printed for Weems have been omitted from our list. See Mrs. Skeel's bibliography cited in these entries.

WEISER (Conrad). Translation of a German Letter. See Hopkins (S.), An Abridgment of Mr. Hopkins' Historical Memoirs, no. 32947, vol. 8, to which Weiser's letter is appended.

WEISER. Ein Wohl-gemeindter und Ernstlicher Rath an unsere Lands-Leute, die Teutschen. [Philadelphia: Benjamin Franklin. 1741.] Folio, pp. (2). HSP. 102508

Signed and dated: Conrad Weiser. 20. Sept. 1741.

"An election circular. Conrad Weiser, then living in Tulpehocken, advises his countrymen, not to vote for the Quakers who opposed the levying of taxes for all kinds of warfare, even defensive, but for the Government candidates. He calls attention to the dangers threatening from a league of the French in Canada and on the Ohio with the Indians."—Seidensticker. That authority supplied the Franklin imprint.

Weiser's journal of a tour to the Ohio, August 11—October 2, 1748, reprinted chiefly from Pennsylvania Colonial Records, vol. 5, 1851, pp. 348—358, is included in Thwaites' "Early Western Travels," vol. 1, 1904, pp. 15—44. It had also been printed from another ms., together with an earlier narrative of a journey from Tulpehocken in Pennsylvania to Onondago in New York made in 1837, in Hist. Soc. Pa., "Collections," vol. 1, 1853, pp. 6—33.

A report by Weiser is included in "Minutes of Conferences held with the Indians," Philadelphia, 1757, our no. 49347, vol. 12.

Title from Knuttel's "Catalogus van de Pamfletten-Verzameling . . . in de Koninklijke Bibliotheek," no. 16827.

J. I. Good in his "History of the Reformed Church in the United States, 1725—1792," 1899, p. 137, makes the following statements in regard to the work: "It has been suggested that Weiss wrote this report. This is not true, as the acts of the synod show. It was composed by the deputies and the committee of those two classes, after conference with Weiss and Reiff, and based on their statements. It, therefore, emphasizes the needs of the two congregations for which Weiss and Reiff were appointed to collect, Philadelphia and Shippack, and entirely ignores all the congregations of Behm."

According to J. H. Dubbs' "Reformed Church in Pennsylvania," 1902, p. 343, Good, who died in 1924, owned a copy of the pamphlet.

This is undoubtedly the work to which Appleton refers as "An Account and Instruction relating to the Colony and Church of Pennsylvania, made up by the Deputies of the Synod of South Holland, (Amsterdam, 1730)." Appleton states that Weiss also published "a pamphlet concerning his arrangements with the classis of Amsterdam to care for the Germans in Pennsylvania (1731)," but we have found no other reference to such a work.

According to Harbaugh's "Fathers of the German Reformed Church in Europe and America," vol. 1, 1857, p. 265, Weiss sometimes wrote his name as Weitzius.

This is without doubt the work Appleton refers to as "Account of the Indians," 1743.

"The earliest issue of this poem, and was probably printed early in the eighteenth century. No author's name is suggested."

Title and note from Ford's Mass. Broadside, no. 947.

WELD. A Funeral Elegy by Way of Dialogue; between Death, Soul, Body and Jesus Christ. Composed by Edmund Weld, formerly of Harvard College, who moving hence into Ireland, became a Preacher of the Gospel at Inniskee, there; who [at] the Meditation and Apprehension of his own Death (which was soon after the second Day of March, 1668) made this following Poem, which was sent hither in a Letter from his Wife, there living, to his Relations here. Ætatis suæ An. 39. Boston: Re-printed and Sold by S. Kneeland, in Queen-Street. [172-?] Folio broadside.

NYH. 102529

Ford gives Weld's age as 59 and lists the above edition under the year 1751. S. Kneeland was printing alone in Queen-Street from 1718-1727, when he began a partnership with Timothy Green. However, the name of both printers do not always appear in the imprints even in later years. See Evans.

BM., C., H., MINNHS., NYH., NYP., PRINCETON. IO2541

In the first edition, the view of the Hudson River is incorrectly designated on the plate itself, and in the list of plates, as "View on [or of] the Patowmac River from Mount Vernon." A number of copies have an erratum slip noting the error pasted at the foot of the list of plates, or facing it. H., HEH., NYH., WHS.

In the second edition, this plate is still called "View on the Patowmac River . . ." but in the list of plates it is listed correctly as "View on the Hudson River." A note at foot of the list of plates, relating to this plate, reads as follows: "In some of the Impressions, by mistake, called 'View of the Patowmac River . . .'"

In the later editions it is correctly called "View on the Hudson River" on the plate and in the list of plates.

WELD. Travels through the United States of North America, and the Province of Upper & Lower Canada, by Mr. Isaac Weld, and the Duke de La Rochefoucault Liancourt, in the years 1795,

[WESLEY]. A Funeral Hymn, made by the Rev. George Whitefield, with design to be sung at his own funeral.—Adapted to Savannah Tune. [n. p. 1770?] Small broadside. H. 102643

First line: Ah! lovely appearance of Death!

Though the title of this Hymn states that the author was Whitefield, it was first printed in the first series of Charles Wesley's Funeral Hymns. It is reprinted in the "Poetical Works of John and Charles Wesley," vol. 6, 1870, pp. 193-195. See also Charles Wesley's "Journal," vol. 1, 1849, p. 379, for the occasion which inspired the poem.

For other editions of Charles Wesley's hymn, wrongly ascribed to George Whitefield, see that author.

Herdsfield . . . 1785.* 12mo, pp. 12. 102644

Title from ms. information filed by Joseph Sabin.

C. H. Cavender in his "Catalogue of Works in refutation of Methodism," 2d ed., 1868, p. 41, notes that the above has been attributed to Charles Wesley.

Cavender's work was published under the pseudonym of H. C. Decanver.

For information as to other works of Charles Wesley, including hymns issued in conjunction with his brother, see R. Green's "Works of John and Charles Wesley," 2d ed., 1906. For a few early American editions, see Evans.

Charles Wesley's "Journal" was published at London in 1849.

WESLEY (John).

We have attempted to include in the following list only those works of this prolific writer, editor, and publisher, which have real American interest. For further information as to the early British editions of various publications of Wesley, see R. Green's "Works of John and Charles Wesley," 2d ed., 1906. For early American editions, see Evans.

For controversial writings attacking the Wesleys and their associates, see Green's "Anti-Methodist Publications issued during the eighteenth century," 1902.

Large collections of Wesleyana are in the libraries of Drew University, Madison, N. J., Emory University, Atlanta, Ga., Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, O., and Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn. The nucleus of the Emory collection was that of the English collector, Thursfield Smith, and additions to it are being constantly made. A printed catalogue is in process of preparation.

A condensation without acknowledgment of Dr. Samuel Johnson's "Taxation no Tyranny," our no. 36303, vol. 9. That the latter did not object is shown by the following quotation from a letter of Johnson's, dated Feb. 6, 1776, printed in the "Gentleman's Magazine," vol. 67, 1797, pt. 1, p. 455: "I have thanks likewise to return for the addition of your important suffrage to my argument on the American question. To have gained such a mind as yours, may justly confirm me in my own opinion."

WESLEY. Journal.

The Journal was first published in sections. For the first editions of these sections, see above, An Extract of the Rev. Mr. John Wesley's Journal. The first collected edition appeared in Wesley's "Works," 1771-1774, forming vols. 26-32 of the compilation. It was also included in the editions of the "Works" edited by Joseph Benson and Thomas Jackson, ordered by the Wesleyan Conference in 1808 and 1828, respectively, and in later editions. We give here the first separate American edition, but make no attempt to list most of the other late editions of the Journal.

Caption title.

"Advertisement" on p. 1 dated: May 18, 1791.

An abridgement of Wesley's "Reasons" which were published in his "Preservative against Unsettled Notions in Religion" in 1758, and as a separate pamphlet in 1760. NYH. Contains also a quotation from his "Farther Appeal to Men of Reason and Religion" and a "Copy of a Letter from the Rev. Charles Wesley to the Rev. Dr. Chandler, just before the Doctor's embarkation for America." The "Reasons" have no American historical interest but the "Advertisement" and the letter have frequent references to the Methodists in America.

No further volume of this edition was published.

The first edition of Wesley's collected Works was printed in Bristol from 1771-1774. Originally issued in numbers, it was later published in 32 volumes. See Green no. 276. BM., H.

The second edition, prepared by Joseph Benson under an order of the Wesleyan Conference of 1808, was published at London from 1809-1813; and the third, ordered by the Conference of 1828, was edited by Thomas Jackson, and published from 1829-1831. There have been many later editions.

The first complete American edition, as represented by a set at Yale University, was issued as follows: vols. 1-3, Philadelphia, 1826; vols. 4-7, New York, 1826; vols. 8-10, New York, 1827. The set at the Boston Athenæum has a New York, 1827, edition of vol. 1, and a New York, 1830, edition of vol. 5.

WEST (Benjamin). Scriptural Cautions against embracing a Religious Scheme, taught by a number of Europeans, who came from England to America, in the Year 1776, and stile themselves the Church, &c. &c. By Benjamin West, who has been deluded by them, to the great injury of himself and family. . . . Hartford: Printed and sold by Bavin Webster, a few rods South-East of the Court-House, 1783. 8vo, pp. 15. CHS. 102714

WEST (Benjamin), b. 1730, d. 1813. An Account of the Observation of Venus upon the Sun, the Third Day of June, 1769, at Providence, in New-England. With some Account of the Use of those Observations. By Benjamin West. . . . Providence: Printed by John Carter, at Shakespear's Head. M,DCC,LXIX. 8vo, pp. (6), 22. AAS., C., JCB., M., P., RIHS. + Providence: Printed by John Carter, at Shakespear's Head, M,DCC,LXIX. [1813?] 8vo, pp. (6), 22. B., C., H., HEH., JCB., NYH., NYP., RIHS. 102715

The reprint may be distinguished by the addition of a final e in Shakespear's in the imprint.

In a letter to Margaret B. Stillwell from Frederick Harcourt, dated at Pawtucket, R. I., June 6, 1915, laid in the NYP. copy, Harcourt says that the reprint was probably made on the press owned originally by John Carter and that it was undoubtedly printed after May 20, 1809, because it uses the round s and on that date Carter discontinued the use of the long s.

Miss Catherine C. Quinn of the John Carter Brown Library states that the copy of the reprint in that library has the inscription: "Theodore Foster, presented to him by Gabriel Allen at Providence Monday August 15. 18 (?) at the Post Office." Allen was the son-in-law of West whom he succeeded as postmaster upon West's death in 1813. He himself died in 1824. The only year between 1813 and 1824 in which August 15 fell upon Monday was 1814. This fixes the year of presentation of the JCB. copy and suggests that the pamphlet may have been issued soon after West's death in August 1813.

For various almanacs published by West either under his own name or under the pseudonym of Bickerstaff, see Evans; A. C. Bates's Check list of Connecticut almanacs, 1914; H. M. Chapin's Check list of Rhode Island almanacs, 1915; C. L. Nichols's Notes on the almanacs of Massachusetts, 1912, the three latter titles being reprints from the Proceedings of the American Antiquarian Society. The library of the Society contains the best collection of West's almanacs.

[WEST (Mrs. Lucy Brewer)]. The Adventures of Louisa Baker, Whose life and character are peculiarly distinguished. Having in early life been shamefully seduced by a pretended suitor, and with her virginity, having lost all hopes of regaining her former state of respectability, became a voluntary victim of Vice, and joined a society of Bawds, and for three years lived as a common Prostitute on Negro Hill, (so termed). But at length becoming weary of the society of the Sisterhood, she formed the curious project of rendering her services more to the benefit of her country's cause, in her late rupture with Great Britain . . . she dressed like a male, and under a fictitious [sic] name, in 1813, entered as a Marine on board an American Frigate where she performed the duties of her department with punctual exactness, fidelity and honor, without any discovery being made of her sex while on board, from which she was honourably discharged in 1315 [sic], when she re-assumed her former dress, and like a true penitent has since returned to her Parents, from whom she has been nearly six years absent. New-York. Printed by Luther Wales. [1815.] 12mo, pp. 24. Frontispiece portrait. AAS. + The Adventures of Louisa Baker, a Native of Massachusetts, whose life and character are peculiarly distinguished. . . . New York—Printed by Luther Wales, (with the privilege of Copy-Right.) [1815.] 8vo, pp. 36. HEH. 102739

WEST INDIES.

It was Joseph Sabin's intention to enter in this section a number of titles of anonymous works relating to the islands, together with references to previous entries under attributed author or title. The following list is merely supplementary to such entries and will omit references to many satisfactory title entries, as they would naturally be consulted. No attempt has been made to locate a large number of copies of the various items.

WEST-INDISCHE COMPAGNIE.

The Dutch West India Company was chartered under this name in 1621. It was later known as the Generale Geotroyeerde Nederlandsche West-Indische Compagnie. The company was reorganized under a new charter of 1674 and dissolved in 1794.

The following list of printed documents, of publications of the company, and of title entries relating to the company, does not aim to be complete. It is hoped that the most important of the many titles which might be entered here will be included. Our entries should be supplemented by other bibliographical aides. The most important of these is G. M. Asher's "Bibliographical and Historical Essay on the Dutch Books and Pamphlets relating to New-Netherlands and to the Dutch West-India Company," Amsterdam, 1854-1867. The catalogues of Frederik Muller published in Amsterdam, especially those of 1872 and 1875, our no. 51281, vol.
12, P. A. Tiele's "Bibliotheek van Nederlandsche Pamfletten," Amsterdam, 1858-1861, and W. P. C. Knuttel's "Catalogus van de Pamfletten-Verzameling berus-tende in de koninklijke Bibliotheek," The Hague, 1889-1920, should also be consulted. For many titles published after 1700 of which we have located no copies elsewhere, see the British Museum Catalogue. See also Jameson's bibliography of Usselinx appended to his "Willem Usselinx," in "Papers of the American Historical Association," vol. 2, no. 3, 1887, our titles under Usselinx, nos. 98186-98216, vol. 26, and our entries under Societeit van Suriname, nos. 93834-93847, vol. 24. For bdsd. trading license, 1660, see Quaritch cat. 459, 1932, 1091.

Formerly bound with the JCB. copy of the above were a number of documents, two of which are marked in the upper left hand corner L^a. A, and L^a. B, respectively, and have caption titles as follows:

Aan de Hoog Mog. Heeren Staaten Generaal der Vereenigde Nederlanden. Hoog Mogende Heeren! Vertoon met behoorlyk respect Bewinthebber van de Generaale Geotroijeerde West-Indische Compagnie dezer Landen . . . [Amsterdam. 1783?]

Extract uit het Register der Resolutien van de Hoog Mogende Heeren Staaten Generaal der Vereenigde Nederlanden. Lunae den 15 September 1727. Is ter Vergaderinge geleezen een Memorie van den Heere de Mendoza Corte Real, Extraordinaris Envoyé van zyne Majesteit de Koning van Portugaal, conserneerende de klagten van de Onderdaanen van hoogstgedagte zyne Majesteit, over de Proceduren van de West-Indische Compagnie . . . [Amsterdam. 1783?] Folio, pp. 23.

The text of the "Copie" of June 3, 1783, refers not only to L^a. A and B, but also to L^a. C, L^a. D, and L^a. E. The three last items were not acquired with the JCB. copy of the "Copie" of June 3, 1783, but in the same lot were copies of the "Wederlegging van de Argumenten," our no. 102441, and of the "Kort Vertoog," no. 102894, below. Possibly these two items which relate to the same general subject, under discussion in 1724, 1725, 1727, and 1769, may also have been printed as late as 1783.

Title from the Tross catalogue, 1872, 6th series, lot no. 3496.

For the first and other editions of this charter, see vol. 13, nos. 56665, C., JCB., NYP., 56666, BM., JCB., NYP., 56667-56668, (not located), 56669, BM., NYP., 56670-56671 (not located), 56672, C., NYP., 56673, C., and 56674, C., NYP.

In the ninth line of the title of no. 56666, "Moog:" should be corrected to "Mog:".

For editions under a different title, see Ordonnaten ende Articvlen, below.

For French and German translations, see no. 56675, vol. 13, and Bewilligungen, above.

Octroy, by de . . . Staten Generael, verleent de West-Indische Compagnie. In date den 20. September 1674. Midtsgaders, de prolongatie van het zelve Octroy voor den tijd van dertigh jaren. In date den dertighsten November seventien hondert. In 's Gravenhage, By Paulus Scheltus . . . Anno 1701. Met Privilegie. 4to, pp. (43). NYP. 102902

For first and other editions of the second charter, see vol. 13, nos. 56676, BM., C., H., JCB., NYP., 56677 (Amsterdam, 1675, NYH., NYP.), 56678, BM., and 56679, C., NYP.

Copies of two issues of the 1674 edition in NYP. show that the imprint at least was reset, there being variations in the spacing.

Stevens' "Schedule of two thousand American historical nuggets," 1870, p. 8, lists two Amsterdam, 1675, editions.

A in four. HEH., JCB. + [Another issue. Same imprint and date.] 4to, pp. 8. HEH., NYP. 103100*

In the first issue both letters are signed "E. W." and in the second they are signed "W. E."

There are other curious changes in the typography. In the first issue the first letter ends on p. 5 and is immediately followed by the second, which ends on p. 7, "A Copy of the Inscription . . ." appearing on verso. In the second issue, the ". . . Inscription . . ." follows the first letter on p. 5, and the second letter fills pp. 6-8.

For still other differences, see the Church catalogue nos. 639-640. The JCB. copy of the first issue differs from that at HEH. in having the first letter headed "Dear Friend."

Improved title of no. 65678, vol. 15. B., BM., C., H. (BUS.). 103121

The author's name is sometimes spelled "Whatley."

Ford, "Franklin Bibliography," 1889, no. 320, states that the original edition by George Whatley was published under title, "The Laws and Policy of England," London, 1765. BM., H., H. (BUS.), NYP. However, Dr. Cole, librarian of the Harvard Business School, states that a comparison of the two works does not bear out that statement, and that they appear to be two distinct treatises. Franklin contributed many of the notes to the second edition of the Principles. See Whatley's, letter to Franklin, dated 15 November, 1784, printed in Franklin's "Works," vol. 10, 1904, pp. 429-30.

The BM. catalogue attributes the "Laws" to William Mildmay, and the "Principles" to George Whatley.

The preliminary leaves contain a dedication to the Countess of Huntingdon, a preface by the author, a letter from the author's master, and an "Attestation," as to the genuineness of the poems, signed by Governor Hutchinson, Lieut. Governor Oliver and other gentlemen. These are reprinted in most of the later editions.

Heartman notes that some copies of the first edition have the author's autograph on verso of the title.

WHEATLEY. Poems on Comic, Serious, and Moral Subjects. By Phillis Wheatley, Negro Servant to Mr. John Wheatley, of Boston, in New-England. The Second Edition, Corrected. London: Printed for J. French, Bookseller, No. 164, Fenchurch-street, and may be had of the Booksellers in Town and Country. . . . [n. d.] 8vo, pp. 124, (3), advertisement (1). Portrait. 103137

Title from a photo-facsimile reproduction in Heartman's "Phillis Wheatley," p. 44. The copy there described, p. 36, showed signs of having included a portrait, but lacked it. A copy dated "(1773)" sold by Heartman, Nov. 17, 1916, lot no. 271, had the portrait. The "body of this edition is the same as the foregoing with a new title page."

WHELOCK (Eleazar). A Brief Narrative of the Indian Charity-School, in Lebanon in Connecticut, New England. Founded and Carried on by that faithful Servant of God the Rev. Mr Eleazar Wheelock. London: Printed by J. and W. Oliver, in Bartholomew-Close, near West-Smithfield. M DCC LXVI. 8vo, pp. 48.

AAS., B., BA., BM.,

C., H., JCB., M., NYH., NYP., US.BUR.EDUC., WHS., Y. 103202

Prepared from Wheelock's narrative, see below, A plain and faithful Narrative, with other material, in connection with the visit to Britain of Nathaniel Whitaker and Samson Occum, 1766-1768, and containing testimonials to assist them in raising money for the school. Love in his "Samson Occum," 1899, p. 133, states that Whitefield is believed to have written the introduction, and Whitaker to have edited the compilation.

c. has two copies with which are bound copies of the appendix to the second edition, pp. 49-64. There is no catchword "Appendix" on p. 48 to connect the two, as in the case of the second edition.

Reproduced in photo-facsimile, Rochester Reprints, no. 3, [Rochester, 1909], 125 copies.

WHELOCK. A Brief Narrative of the Indian Charity-School in Lebanon in Connecticut, New England: Founded and Carried on by that Faithful Servant of God the Rev. Mr Eleazar Wheelock. The Second Edition, with an Appendix. London: Printed by J. and W. Oliver, in Bartholomew-Close, near West-Smithfield. M DCC .XVII. 8vo, pp. 64. H., WHS. + [Same imprint and date.] 8vo, pp. 63. AAS., B., BA., C., JCB., MINNHS., NYP., WHS., Y. + [Another issue. Same imprint and date, without a final note beginning N. B.] 8vo, pp. 63. H., HSP., M., WLC., Y. 103203

Issues with 63 pages also located at B., BA., HSP., M., MINNHS., Y.

The first pp. 48 contain the same matter as the first edition, but are from different type. There is a catchword "Appendix" on p. 48 of the issues of this edition.

The Appendix, p. 49 to the end, contains "fresh important Testimonials as well as some other further Accounts of the Progress of this laudable Undertaking," and a list of the trustees appointed to receive the money collected, headed by the Earl of Dartmouth.

Since some copies of the Appendix with pp. 49-64 have been found separately, JCB., NYP., it has been assumed that they were issued to accompany the 48 page edition of the narrative, and that this would indicate that the issue with 64 pages was earlier than those with 63 pages.

The appendix in the 64 page issue and that in the 63 page issues are in the main from the same type. The 64 page issue has the letters "N. B." at the foot of p. 63 and a final note of eleven lines on the verso. The first 63 page issue listed has the first three lines of the "N. B." note at the foot of p. 63. The second 63 page issue listed does not have the "N. B." note.

The first 63 page issue listed was reproduced in photo-facsimile, Rochester Reprints, no. 4, [Rochester, 1909?], 125 copies.

WHEELWRIGHT (John), b. 1592, d. 1679. Mercurius Americanus, Mr. Welds his Antitype, or, Massachusetts great Apologie examined, being Observations upon a Paper styled, A short story of the Rise, Reign, and Ruine of the Familists, Libertines, &c. which infected the Churches of New-England, &c. wherein some parties therein concerned are vindicated, and the truth generally cleared. By John Wheelwright junior. . . . London: Printed, and are to be sold at the Bull near the Castle-Tavern in Cornhill. 1545. 4to, pp. (4), 24.

B., BM., H., HEH., JCB., NYP. 103223

See [Winthrop (John)], for the work to which this relates.

Wheelwright was the brother-in-law of Anne Hutchinson. Bell notes that the word "junior" may have been added upon the title by mistake, or because there was an older person in England bearing the same name, but is sure that the American John Wheelwright composed the work.

A reprint is included in C. H. Bell's "John Wheelwright," in Prince Soc. "Publications," 1876, pp. 181-228.

For another account of the author, see John Heard's "John Wheelwright," 1930.

Wheelwright's Fast Day Sermon preached in Boston in January, 1636-37, was printed for the first time from a manuscript in the possession of the Massachusetts Historical Society in the "Historical Magazine," in April, 1867, ser. 2, vol. 1, pp. 215-224, and reprinted separately, Morrisania, 1867. This was in advance of its publication in Mass. Hist. Soc. "Proceedings" for 1866-67, pp. 256-274, with volume preface dated in November, 1867. This edition was also reprinted separately, Cambridge, 1867. Another reprint is included in Bell's work cited above, pp. 153-179.

[WHEELWRIGHT (John)], of New York. Charges preferred against the New-York Female Benevolent Society. See McDowall (J. R.), no. 43188, vol. 11. B., BA., BM., NYP., Y.

The frontispiece is included in the pagination.

John Wheelwright was chairman of the auditing committee investigating McDowall.

WHEELWRIGHT (Timothy), pseud. . . . Mr. Zenger; I Received two Days ago a Letter from some of my Brother Trades-Men in the City . . . [New York. Peter Zenger. 1734.] Folio, pp. 3.

NYP. 103224

Caption title. With heading: "King's County, the 12th of September, 1734."

Consists of three letters on the election of aldermen, the first and third signed "Timothy Wheelwright," the first dated as above, and the third undated. The second is dated "New-York, the 8th of September, 1734," and signed "John Chissel."

[WHEELWRIGHT (William)]. Statements and Documents relative to the Establishment of Steam Navigation in the Pacific. See no. 90775, vol. 23. AAS., B., BA., BM., C., H. (BUS.), NYH., NYP., UCAL. (BANCROFT).

Wheelwright published other works on this subject after 1840.

[WHEAT (Josiah), Jr.]. History of John Vandelure, containing an account of his voyages and conversion while on the N. W. coast of America, &c. &c. Written by himself in a letter to his Uncle in Philadelphia. [At foot of p. 66:] (Andover, N. H. Printed by E. Chase.) [1819?] 18mo, pp. 72.

NYP. 103225

Caption title.

On p. 66: "Abridged by Josiah Wheat, Jr." Pp. 67-72 contain a poem by Wheat. "Composed on the wondrous capacity of the Human Mind."

The NYP. copy lacks pp. 3-4.

According to Sargent's "Centenary of the Andover Press" in the "Granite Monthly," vol. 51, 1919, pp. 287-295, Chase began printing in Andover in 1819, and removed to Enfield in 1823.

According to some ms. notes received from Silas C. Wheat of Brooklyn, N. Y., July 3, 1920, laid in the NYP. copy, Josiah Wheat, Jr., "wished to be distinguished from the grain wheat so wrote his name Wheat and thereafter felt sure he was not a green stalk with roots fixed in the soil and bearded head waving in the breeze."

[WHEILDON (William Willder)]. Letters from Nahant. By an Editor. Boston. Press of the Bunker-Hill Aurora. 1838. 12mo, pp. 52. Frontispiece. H., M., MINNHS., NYH. 103226

Cover title: Letters from Nahant, Historical, Descriptive and Miscellaneous. To be continued annually.

An edition of the same was published in 1842, with title like the cover title of the first edition, but without the note as to continuation. AAS., B., BA., BM., C., M., NYH., NYP. The AAS. second copy, H. and NYH. copies have printed front covers dated, 1848. Another edition with the same imprint was issued in 1853. 12mo, pp. 52. Rewritten. AAS.

Other works by Wheildon appeared after 1840.

WHELAND ([William]). A Narrative of the Horrid Murder & Piracy committed on Board the Schooner Eliza, of Philadelphia, on the High Seas, by Three Foreigners, who were tried before the Circuit Court of the United States, on Monday, the 21st April 1800; together with an Account of the Surprising Recapture of the said Schooner, by Captain Wheland, the only person who escaped from their Barbarity. [Colophon:] James Hedderwick, Printer, 26, Bell-Street, Glasgow. 8vo, pp. vi, [11]-116. B., C. 103230*

Signed: Philadelphus. According to a note on the last leaf of the Providence edition, the author was "Samuel Whelpley, deceased, a clergyman of New-York."

The titles of the Philadelphia editions and of the London edition are shortened to read ". . . showing war to be inconsistent with the laws of Christ, and the good of mankind."

[WHELPLEY]. The Triangle. A Series of Numbers upon Three Theological Points; enforced from various pulpits in the City of New-York. By Investigator. New-York: Printed and published for the Author. Van Winkle & Wiley, Printers. 1816. 8vo, pp. 75. NYH., NYP. + Second Series of Numbers [without the words "upon . . . New-York?"]. [Same imprint and date.] 8vo, pp. 84. GROSVENOR, NYH., NYP. + Third Series of Numbers. [Same imprint and date.] 8vo, pp. 96. NYP. + Fourth Series of Numbers. [Same imprint.] 1817. 8vo, pp. 84. NYH., NYP. + Fifth Series of Numbers. [Same imprint and date.] 8vo, pp. 60.

In the title of the Second Series the first two words are enclosed in a double-lined triangle, each side containing a printed line.

The five parts were issued together in 1817 with preliminary pp. viii, consisting of a half title, general title page, and Table of Contents, the title reading as follows: The Triangle. Part I. In Five Series of Numbers. By Investigator. [Same imprint as above.] NYP. For another complete edition, see the following title.

For a reply, see A Sketch of the Life and Character of Dr. Pædagogus, no. 81522, vol. 20. The note is incorrect. The pamphlet is a defence of Drs. Romeyn, Milledoler, and M'Leod, against the criticisms of Whelpley in the Triangle.

A in four, the first blank, B in four, C in two, D-M in fours, N in two, the last blank.

BM., C., HEH., JCB., NEWBERRY, NYP., Y. 103330

By the leading early promoter of Newfoundland colonization.

Entered by Barret at Stationers' Hall, Aug. 26, 1620, and interest in the tract later transferred by his widow to John Parker, April 3, 1626, and by the latter to John Haviland and John Wright, Sept. 4, 1638. See Arber's "Transcript," vol. 4, pp. 40, 158, and 433.

According to Dict. Nat. Biog. a rough draft of the Discourse with alterations in the author's own hand is preserved in the British Museum (Addit. ms. 22564).

Some copies include inserted broadsides, signed by bishops of the dioceses in which they were to be used, in connection with the collection of funds to reimburse Whitbourne for his expenses of printing, etc. NYP. has two copies in one of which is a broadside signed by George [Montaigne], Bishop of London, dated Sept. 16, 1622, and in the other, one signed by Rou[land] [Serchfield], Bishop of Bristol, dated Oct. 5, 1622.

Both NYP. copies have two leaves inserted, ff-ff2, which are identical, except for signature marks, with the two leaves, A2-A3, in the 1622 edition and are described under that edition.

AAS., AMER.GEOG.SOC., B., BM., C., CHS.,

H., HEH., HSP., JCB., M., NEWBERRY, NYH., NYP., P. 103331

P. 35 is incorrectly numbered 3, and in some copies pp. 70 and 71 are misnumbered 100 and 101.

The first of the two leaves following the title page, A2-A3, is headed "At Theobalds, the 12. of Aprill 1622" and contains the King's grant to Whitbourne of the sole right of printing the work for 21 years. On the verso is a letter recommending the work to the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, signed by the Lords of Council, and dated "the last day of June 1621." The second leaf contains "The names of some, who haue to vndertaken to helpe and aduance his Maiesties Plantation in the New-found-land," signed "R. W." This information appears on leaves A-A2 in the 1623 edition. For an impression of the leaves, with signature marks ¶-¶2, see notes on the 1620 edition, above, and Discourse containing a Loving Invitation, below.

This edition includes A Discovrse containing a Loving Invitation, also printed separately, see below. At the end, pp. 15, are a number of letters from Avalon, the unsuccessful colony founded in Newfoundland by Sir George Calvert before undertaking his ventures in Maryland.

Some copies of this edition have inserted broadsides similar to those mentioned above in the note on the 1620 edition. The HEH. and JCB. copies have the broadsides of the bishops of London and "Bristol," respectively, and the M. copy has one signed by Samuel [Harsnet], Bishop of Norwich, dated Dec. 2, 1622. The broadside of the Bishop of London in the HEH. copy of this work differs from those inserted in the NYP. copy of the 1620 edition and in the HEH. (Hoe) copy of Discovrse containing a Loving Invitation, below, in having four lines after the Bishop's signature. See the Church catalogue, no. 397.

We have located two mixed copies and found references to others. NYP. has a copy with the title page and preliminary leaves of the 1622 edition and part of the text of the 1623 edition, pp. 97, (4). JCB. has a copy of the 1622 edition with its own title page lacking and a 1623 title page inserted.

WHITBOURNE. A | Discovrse | and Discovery | of Nevv-foynd-land, with | many reasons to prooue how worthy and bene- | ficiall a Plantation may there be made, after a | better manner than it was. | Together with the laying ¹ open of certaine enormities | and abuses committed by some that trade to that | Countrey, and the meanes laid downe for | reformation thereof. | Written by Captaine Richard Whitbourne of | Exmouth, in the County of Deuon, and published by Authority. | As also a louing Inuitation: and likewise the copies of certaine | Letters sent from that Countrey; which are printed in | the latter part of this Booke. | Imprinted at London by Felix Kingst m. 1623. | 4to, pp. (18), 97, (4), verso blank, letters (12). Two leaves without signature, A in two, B-Q in fours, R in two.

B., BA., BM., HEH., NYP. 103332

Pp. 34-35 are incorrectly numbered 35-36, and in some copies p. 95 is misnumbered 63.

The HEH. copy must be of an early impression since in it the second word of the title is misspelled "Discoervs."

There are two issues, with variations in signature D, pp. 7-14. In issue A, the running heading on pp. 8 and 14 is "A Description of New-found-land," and on p. 10, "A Discourse of New-found-land." HEH., NYP. In issue B, the running heading on pp. 8, 10, and 14 is "A Discouery of New-found-land." NYP. Differences also occur in the marginal notes on pp. 7, 8, 9, and 12.

In the NYP. copy of issue A is inserted a broadside similar to those described above, signed by Nicholas [Felton], Bishop of "Elie," and dated, June 2, 1523.

Some parts of the work were reprinted under the editorship of T. Whitburn with the title "Westward Hoe for Avalon," London, 1870. BM., C., H., PRINCETON.

Abridgments in German and Latin are included in the thirteenth part of the German and Latin versions of De Bry's Great Voyages, and were published at Frankfurt in 1628 and 1634, respectively. See our notes on De Bry, vol. 3, pp. 58, and 45-46. A German abridgment is also included in the 20th part of Hulsius, Frankfurt, 1629, our no. 33673, vol. 8.

WHITBOURNE. A | Discovrse | containing | a Loving Invitation
| both Honourable, and profitable to all | such as shall be Aduenturers, either in person, | or purse, for the aduancement of his Ma-
iesties most hopefull Plantation in the | Nevv-foynd-land, | lately
vndertaken. | Written by Captaine | Richard Whitbourne of Ex-
mouth, | in the County of Deuon. | *Imprinted at London by Felix
Kynngston, dwelling | in Pater-noster-Row.* 1622. | 4to, pp. (8),
46, blank leaf. A-G in fours.

B., BM., C., H., HEH., HSP., JCB., NYP., WLC. 103333

The invitation was also printed as part of the 1622 and 1623 editions of A Discovrse . . . of Nevv-foynd-land, above.

Some copies have at the end the letters that form pp. 15 and pp. (12) at the end of the 1622 and 1623 editions of A Discovrse . . . of Nevv-foynd-land, respectively. The HEH. (Hoe) copy and one of the NYP. copies have a different printing of the letters, pp. 18, A-B in fours, C in one. The second NYP. copy is followed by the letters as they appear in the 1622 edition of the discourse on Newfoundland, pp. 15, S-T in fours.

The HEH. (Hoe) copy also has bound with it the recommendatory broadside of the Bishop of London, described above, and two leaves, 1-12, which are identical, except for signature marks, with the two leaves, A2-A3, in the 1622 edition of the discourse on Newfoundland. The B. copy lacks signature B.

C. S. Brigham notes that the above contains many of the same lines as the author's Concise View, see above. "The Gospel Minister" is included in full in the latter work.

Besides the works of which he was the author, Whitcomb also published a number of anonymous chap-books. These were usually issued without place or date of publication, with the imprint: Printed for Chapman Whitcomb. They are for the most part known to have been printed at Leominster by Charles Prentiss, or Daniel Adams and Salmon Wilder, his successors at that press, at about the end of the eighteenth or beginning of the nineteenth century. The best Whitcomb collection is at AAS.

Dated on p. 7: February, 10. anno 1633.

A facsimile of the original tract of 1633 made, by permission, from the only known copy in the possession of his Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster, was published at Baltimore in 1929, by W. A. Baldwin, with an introduction and notes by L. C. Wroth. 125 copies printed. H., NYP. For information as to White's possible authorship, etc., see this edition.

For information as to a Latin version of the same document, see notes on the following title. A translation from the Latin form of the Declaration comprises pp. 3-8 of the same.

WHITE. A Relation of the Colony of the Lord Baron of Baltimore, in Maryland, near Virginia; A Narrative of the Voyage to Maryland, by Father Andrew White; and sundry reports, from Fathers Andrew White, John Altham, John Brock, and other Jesuit Fathers of the colony, to the Superior General at Rome. Copied from the archives of the Jesuits' College at Rome, by the late Rev. Wm. McSherry, of Georgetown College; and translated for Force's Historical Tracts, by N. C. Brooks, A. M., Member of the Maryland Historical Society. [Washington. 1846.] [Verso of title:] Force's Collection of Historical Tracts. Vol. iv.—No. 12. 8vo, pp. 47. B., BA., BM., C., H., M., NYP. 103352

Force's edition was published without authorization by the society. For a few separates of the sheets published by the organization, see the following title.

WHITE. A Relation of the Colony of the Lord Baron of Baltimore, in Maryland, near Virginia; a Narrative of the First Voyage to Maryland by the Rev. Father Andrew White, and sundry reports from Rev. Fathers Andrew White, John Altham, John Brock, and other Jesuit fathers of the colony to the Superior General at Rome. [Seal of the Maryland Historical Society.] Copied from the archives of the Jesuits' college at Rome, by the late Rev. William M'Sherry, of Georgetown College, and presented by the college to the Maryland Historical Society. Translated by N. C. Brooks . . . Baltimore. 1847. 8vo, pp. 47. H. 103353

"As the Society's typographical seal, made from a cut with an unmistakable break in it, was employed . . . it is likely that these separates were published by the organization as an assertion of its claim upon the material."—Wroth's edition of White's Declaration, p. 17.

The original McSherry transcript was first in the library of Georgetown College and later in that of Loyola College. The copy taken from this which was used by Brooks disappeared from the archives of the society, and unfortunately the last part of the original transcript also could not be located at Loyola College. However, from what remained of the transcript the society published as its Fund Publication no. 7 the Latin text and a new translation with title as follows: "Relatio Itineris in Marylandiam. Declaratio Coloniae Domini Baronis de Baltimoro. Excerpta ex Diversis Litteris Missionariorum . . . Narrative of a Voyage to Maryland, by Father Andrew White, S. J. An Account of the Colony of the Lord Baron of Baltimore. Extracts from Different Letters . . . Edited by Rev. E. A. Dalrymple . . . Baltimore, February, 1774." Because of the loss of the final pages the narrative in Latin ends abruptly and the English version of the missing part is taken from Brooks' translation. A more authoritative printing of the Latin from the originals in the Jesuit Archives is in T. Hughes' "History of the Society of Jesus in North America," Documents I, pt. 1, 1908, pp. 94-107. A corrected translation of the "Declaratio" is in Hall's "Narratives of Early Maryland," 1910, pp. 1-10.

An original ms. version of the "Relatio" in English was acquired by the Maryland Historical Society in 1894, and was published as part of its Fund Publication no. 35, 1899, pp. 26-45, with title: "A Briefe Relation of the Voyage vnto Maryland." This "Briefe Relation" was printed by Hall in the "Narratives," pp. 25-45.

Since White was at the head of the Jesuits accompanying the expedition, he is generally conceded to be the author of the "Relatio," while Hall and Wroth also accept him as the probable author of the "Declaratio." See Wroth's introduction to the facsimile edition of the "Declaration," 1633.

Wroth notes that "A Relation of the successful beginnings of the Lord Baltimore's Plantation," 1634, was "an abridged and tactfully amended version in English" of the "Relatio." See our no. 69291, vol. 16, and the partial reprint of the same, no. 69292.

WHITE ([Anthony Walton]). The Military System, for the New-Jersey Cavalry, compiled by Adjutant-General White. . . . New-Brunswick: Printed by Shelly Arnett. 1793. . . . 12mo, pp. (2), 80, (4). Engraved frontispiece and table.

The AAS. copy lacks the leaf of poetry preceding the frontispiece, the frontispiece, and the table at the end. The copy is in contemporary binding and shows no sign of these leaves ever having been bound with it. A privately owned copy in New Jersey has the preliminary leaf of poetry but lacks the plate and the table. It is possible they were not issued with all copies.

A Vindication of the Divine Authority of Ruling Elders in the Churches of Christ. Asserted by the Ministers and Elders, met together in a Provincial Assembly, November 2d. 1649. and printed in London, 1650. Beginning at Page 34 to 48. Transcribed out of the same Book. Re-printed for Publick Good. 1734," pp. (2), 15. An earlier undated reprint of this Vindication, our no. 99805, vol. 27, contained selections from Increase Mather's writings, and was entered by Evans under the year 1700, while T. J. Holmes suggests the date 1716. The Mather selections are omitted in the 1734 edition. See Holmes' "Increase Mather," vol. 2, 1931, pp. 615-617.

The half title or title page, or both, are lacking in a number of copies of the first edition. Several copies begin with the title of the first section in which occurs the error "Lamentaitons," as in the case of the copy described in the c. printed card. Perfect copies of this edition are located at H.(AND.), JCB., and M.

This journal supported the struggles for independence of the Spanish colonies. An anonymous "Carta de un Americano al Español sobre su numero XIX," London, 1811, is our no. 11094, vol. 3. H. Medina's Dicc. de anón. y seud. hispanoamer. gives the author as a Mexican clergyman, José Servando Teresa de Mier Noriega y Guerra, and adds an edition printed at Santiago de Chile in 1812.

White's views on religious liberty brought forth a reply in Juan Egaña's anonymously published "Memoria política sobre si conviene en Chile, la libertad de cultos," our no. 47599, vol. 12. For information as to editions of this work, see Medina's Dicc. de anón. y seud.

It should be noted that our author's name was originally José Maria Blanco y Crespo.

AAS., B., BA., HSP., M., NYP., Y. 103594

Improved title of no. 69400, vol. 16, where it is stated that a first edition also was printed by Kneeland and Green. However, as we have located no copies of a Boston "first edition," it seems probable that the Glasgow edition is the only preceding issue. For a London edition, see A Vindication, below. For the pamphlet to which this is a reply, see nos. 90595-90597, vol. 23.

WHITEFIELD. Some Remarks on a Pamphlet, entituled, The Enthusiasm of Methodists and Papists compar'd; Wherein several Mistakes in some Parts of his past Writings and Conduct are acknowledged, and his present Sentiments concerning the Methodists Hildeburn lists a Philadelphia, 1765, reprint.

WHITEFIELD, incorrectly supposed author. Two Funeral Hymns, Composed by that eminent Servant of the Most High God, the late reverend and learned George Whitefield . . . Who departed this Life, in full Assurance of a Better, on Lord's-Day, the Thirtieth of September, 1770, at 6 o'Clock in the Morning, of a sudden Fit of the Asthma, at Newbury-Port, near Boston, in New-England. [At foot of sheet:] Sold by E. Russell, in Queen-Street, and by J. Boyles, Marlboro'-Street. [Boston. 1770?] Folio broad-side.

HSP., M. 103604

In spite of the title, Whitefield was not the author of the hymns, the first being Isaac Watts' "Why do we mourn departing Friends," and the second, Charles Wesley's "Ahl lovely appearance of Death." See Julian's Dictionary of Hymnology, 1915.

For other editions of Wesley's hymn, see [Wesley (Charles)], no. 102643, and Funeral Hymn, and Hymn, above.

Dritte Theil. Germanton: Christoph Saur, 1740. 103607

Information as to the three parts from Hildeburn, who took the title of the third from an advertisement in Saur's Almanac for 1741.

WHITEFIELD. Voorbidding een ieder Christen's Plicht, verotoont in een Predicatie door George Whitefield, A. B. &c. Nieuw-York: Gedrukt en te koop by J. Peter Zenger, en Jacobus Goelet. 1740. 103608

Advertised in the "New-York Weekly Journal," No. 325, March 3, 1740.

For Zenger's advertisement of the original English version, see Intercession Every Christian's Duty, above.

WHITEFIELD. Voorbidding ein eider Christen's Plicht en De Wyze and Dwaaze Maagden, verotoont in twee Predicaties, door G. Whitefield . . . En te Koop by J. P. Zenger in Nieu York en Benj. Franklin in Philadelphia. 1740. 103609

Title from Haven's list.

A translation of Intercession Every Christian's Duty, and The Wise and Foolish Virgins.

WHITEFIELD. What think ye of Christ? A Sermon Preached by the Rev. Mr. George Whitefield, on Kennington-Common, after he was refused the Use of all the Churches. Boston, Printed by D. Fowle, for D. Henchman in Cornhill. 1741. 8vo, pp. (2), 5-30. M. 103610

The m. copy lacks the first leaf of signature A, probably a half title, which if included would make the collation pp. 30.

See also A Sermon, entitled, What think ye of Christ? above.

WHITEFIELD. The Works of the Reverend George Whitefield . . . Containing all his Sermons and Tracts which have been already published: with a Select Collection of Letters . . . from the Year 1734, to 1770 . . . Also some other Pieces on Important Subjects, never before printed; prepared by Himself for the Press. To which is prefixed, an Account of his Life, compiled from his Original Papers and Letters. . . . London: Printed for Edward and Charles Dilly, in the Poultry; and Messrs. Kincaid and Bell, at Edinburgh. MDCCLXXI[-MDCCLXXII.] 7 vols., pp. (4), 480; 480; 512, 2 folded plans, and folded map; 494, list of books (2); vi, 3-474; vi, 3-429, verso blank, advertisement (1), list of books (3); xvi, 357, (1), list of books (2), frontispiece portrait, and 2 plates. AAS., B., BM., C., DERENNE, H., JCB., NYP. 103611

The imprint varies slightly in later volumes.

Edited by John Gillies.

The collection does not include Whitefield's Journal and other autobiographical writings.

The above collation includes, as the seventh volume, Gillies' "Memoirs of the Life of . . . Whitefield." For the title and other editions of that work, see no. 27415, vol. 7.

WHITEFIELD. Worldly Business no Plea for the Neglect of Religion. A Sermon. By George Whitefield. Philadelphia: Andrew and William Bradford. 1740. 103612

Title from Hildeburn no. 685.

WHITEFIELD. Die Zuchen der neuen Gebarth; Dargelegt in einer Sermon, oder Predigt. Gehalten zu London, 1739, von Georg Weitfield. Germanton: Christoph Saur. 1740. 12mo.

A translation of Marks of the New Birth, above.

103613

Title from the Pennypacker catalogue, part 5, 1st no. 355.

TITLE ENTRIES RELATING TO WHITEFIELD.

It was Joseph Sabin's intention to include in this section a number of anonymous and other title entries relating to Whitefield, with cross references to previous entries under attributed author, title, or place. Since many of these previously entered titles are satisfactory and would more probably be consulted under those entries than under the subject, the following group may be considered as merely a supplement to them, and will not include a complete list of references.

Many anonymous works attacking Whitefield relate especially to his share in the Evangelical Movement in Britain, or are personal and scurrilous in character. For information as to such titles without great interest to students of American history, see R. Green's "Anti-Methodist Publications issued during the Eighteenth Century," London, 1902. See also Tyerman's "Life" of Whitefield, under the years when such works were published.

Signed and dated: Edin. Octob. 26. 1741. Sir, Your Wellwisher, Dic Verum.

An Ode set to Music, consecrated to the Memory of the Rev. George Whitefield, A. M. who left this transitory Life, in full Assurance of one more glorious, September 30th, 1770, Ætatis, 56. By one of his Friends in Boston, New-England. [Boston. 1770?] Folio broadside. M. 103639

Improved title of no. 56705, vol. 13.

Orphan-Letters. Being a Collection of Letters wrote by the Orphans in the Hospital of Georgia to the Reverend Mr. George Whitefield: Giving an Account of the Workings of God's Spirit upon their Souls, and the great and wonderful Success of Mr. Whitefield's Labours and Ministry among them. Glasgow, Printed: and sold in the Gallowgate Printing-house, and by Robert Smith at the Gilt Bible, opposite to Gibson's Land, Saltmercat. 1741. 8vo, pp. 24. DERENNE, NYH. 103640

Includes extracts of letters from [Jonathan] B[arber] and [James] Habersham, who were in charge of the Orphan-House, as well as the letters of the children, and a hymn which "they frequently sing . . . for their Benefactors."

[Woodcut portrait of Whitefield.] A Poem, occasioned by hearing the late Reverend George Whitefield preach. [At foot of sheet:] Sold over the Auction-Room in Queen-Street. [Boston. 1771?] Folio broadside. B. 103641

Ford calls attention to the fact that the same cut was used in Jane Dunlap's "Poems," below. O. E. Winslow notes that Green and Russell had a printing office and auction room on Queen Street as late as 1775, and that the cut was used later to honor other clergymen, but suggests that it is probable that the broadside would be issued soon after Whitefield's death in 1770. See her "American Broadside Verse," 1930, p. 171, for a facsimile of the sheet.

A Poem, On the joyful News of the Rev. Mr. Whitefield's visit to Boston. Dedicated to all the true Friends of such "an exemplary Christian, fine Gentleman and accomplish'd orator . . ." [At foot of sheet:] Boston, Printed Oct. 1754. Folio broadside.

The Testimony and Advice of an Assembly of Pastors. See no. 94918, vol. 25.

Our entry described the Testimony as having two variant issues. An examination of p. 51 of several copies described in the M. catalogue shows at least four different issues easily distinguished by the number of lines of corrigenda on that page, having one, five, six, or seven lines respectively. In the issues with a one line correction and with a six line list of corrigenda, the text of p. 51 begins "Our Time is now short." The issues with five and seven lines of corrigenda respectively begin the page with the words "concomitants of this blessed Work." There are other differences.

HAVERFORD. 103663

Whitehead, Thomas Coke, and Henry Moore were by Wesley's will left as his literary executors, and Whitehead was chosen to write the official life of Wesley. A dispute arose among the three, and Coke and Moore themselves compiled a biography, our no. 14252, vol. 4, during the preparation of which Whitehead did not allow them access to the papers left by Wesley. Whitehead's advertisement in vol. 1 of his Life of Wesley relates to the controversy. See also [Colet (J. A.)], no. 14338, vol. 4, NYH., and the sketch of Whitehead in Dict. Nat. Biog.

The Dublin edition was altered by the omission of passages disapproved of by the influential members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and by the addition of new material from other sources.

There were several American editions published after 1840.

WHITING (Samuel), b. 1670, d. 1725, supposed author. A Sermon, preached at Windham, A. D. 1721, on a day of Thanksgiving, set apart by the First Church in that place, occasioned by a Remarkable Revival of Religion, when, in six months, eighty persons were added to the church. By Samuel Whiting, Pastor of the First Church in Windham. New-London: Printed 1721. Windham: Re-printed, by John Byrne. 1800. 8vo, pp. 35.

AAS., B., HEH., NYP. 103707

A Sketch of the Life of the Rev. Samuel Whiting, the first Minister in Windham, pp. 3-5.

Although Whiting's name appears as author on the title page of this edition, the sermon is the same as one printed in 1721, with the name of Eliphalet Adams, Whiting's father-in-law, on the title. The address, "To the Reader," in the 1721 edition, signed, E. Adams, is written as though the sermon were his own, and speaks of the defects and imperfections that may attend it. The title follows:

A Sermon preached at Windham, July 12th. 1721. on a Day of Thanksgiving for the Late remarkable Success of the Gospel among Them. By Eliphalet Adams M. A. . . . New-London, Printed & Sold by T. Green, 1721. 8vo, pp. (2), vi, 40. B.

WHITTIER (John Greenleaf).

The following entries furnish brief information as to the works of Whittier which were published separately up to, and including, the year 1840. A few titles of a later period than that now covered by this Dictionary are included because of cross references. It should be noted that many of Whittier's writings were first issued in periodicals, newspapers, and in compilations entered elsewhere in our bibliography. For fuller information, see the forthcoming definitive bibliography of Whittier by Mr. Thomas Franklin Currier, which is to be published by the Harvard University Press. We are also much indebted to Mr. Currier for the list of titles and notes to be included here.

[WHITTIER]. Address read at the Opening of the Pennsylvania Hall, on the 15th of Fifth Month, 1838. Philadelphia: Printed by Merrihew and Gunn, No. 7 Carter's Alley. 1838. 12mo, pp. 8.

Does not have author's name, but is Whittier's poem "Daniel Wheeler."

Whittier's contributions to various works by other authors, entered elsewhere in this Dictionary, may be noted as follows:

He unquestionably contributed some portions of George D. Prentice's "Biography of Henry Clay," Hartford, 1831, B., BA., C., H., 2nd ed., New York, 1831, B., C., H., NYP., our no. 65062, vol. 15, but the exact passages have never been precisely identified.

Whittier edited the volume of John G. C. Brainard's "Literary Remains," Hart-

Jord, [cop. 1832], our no. 7332, vol. 2. AAS., B., BA., BU., C., H., M., NYH., NYP. He also wrote the sketch of Brainard's life included in the book.

Whittier had planned to write a history of Haverhill, and had gathered some materials, which he turned over to B. L. Mirick. For a discussion of Whittier's share in Mirick's "History of Haverhill," Haverhill, 1832, our no. 49422, vol. 12, AAS., B., BA., C., H., M., NYP., see Mr. Currier's bibliography cited above.

Whittier was also the editor of "Letters from John Quincy Adams to his Constituents of the Twelfth Congressional District in Massachusetts," Boston, 1837, B., BA., C., H., M., NYP., our no. 285, vol. 1, and the "Introductory Remarks" are signed: J. G. W. For an improved title, see Mr. Currier's bibliography cited above.

The initials "J. G. W." are signed to the preface of Harriet Martineau's "Views of Slavery & Emancipation," New York, 1837, our no. 44944, vol. 11. BA., C., H., M.

WHITTINGHAM ([William Rollinson]). A Letter from the Rev. Professor Whittingham, of the General Theological Seminary, to a Clergyman of Western New-York, in relation to the Division of the Diocese of New-York. . . . [New York.] June, 1838. 8vo, pp. 22. AAS. 103820

For a review of the above, see Thoughts on the Division of Dioceses, no. 95701, vol. 25.

Also various sermons, charges delivered as Bishop of Maryland, forms of prayer, etc.

On the probability that Wigglesworth was the author of the above, see A. M. Davis's notes at the end of the reprint of the pamphlet in the Prince Soc. "Colonial Currency Reprints," vol. 2, 1911, 19-42. A facsimile of the title is included. Another reprint with facsimile of the title is in Davis's "Tracts relating to the Currency of the Massachusetts Bay," 1902, pp. 297-322. Thomas Foxcroft's copy now at c. has his autograph on the title page and, apparently in the same hand, an attribution to "Mr. Wigglesworth." A cutting from a bookseller's catalogue also assigns the tract to "Mr. Wigglesworth."

See also "A Letter from One in the Country," and "A Project," above.

WIGGLESWORTH. Day of Doom. Cambridge, 1666? 103914

Concerning the first and second editions of the Day of Doom, no perfect copies of which have been located, see S. A. Green in Mass. Hist. Soc. "Proceedings," 1894-5, ser. 2, vol. 9, pp. 269-275, and Matt B. Jones in Amer. Antiq. Soc. "Proceedings," 1929, new ser., vol. 39, pp. 77-84. The New England Historic Genealogical Society has an imperfect copy with no marginal notes which is believed to be of the first edition. AAS., CHS., and M. have fragments with marginal notes which are probably parts of copies of the second edition. Information as to the probable dates of printing of these two editions has been obtained by the above authorities from private memoranda of Wigglesworth. These also show that the marginal notes were first added in the edition printed circa 1666.

Jones believes that the printer, in calling the Boston, 1701, edition the "Fifth," counted the London, 1666, and 1673, editions as the third and fourth. Green had suggested that there might have been American editions of 167— and 1683.

year 1862.

God's Children, all tending to prepare them for, and comfort them under the Cross. By Michael Wigglesworth. Corrected and amended by the Author, in the Year 1703. The Sixth Edition. New London: Printed by T. Green, for Seth White. 1770. 12mo, pp. 140. AAS., B. 103928

The s. copy lacks the first leaf of signature A, either a blank leaf or a half title. In the latter case the collation would be pp. (2), 140.

A fragment of Wigglesworth's autobiography, some of his letters, a catalogue of his library, and bibliographical notes on the editions of the Day of Doom, and Meat out of the Eater, were included in J. W. Dean's memoir of the author, see our nos. 19034-19035, vol. 5.

We have located no copies of an election sermon which Evans lists under the year 1686, with a note that Sibley doubted its ever having been printed. Its preparation for the press had been requested by the General Court.

An artillery election sermon mentioned by Sprague was probably not printed either.

WIGGLESWORTH (Samuel). The Blessedness of such as trust in Christ, the King whom God hath exalted. A Discourse delivered to the Congregation of the Southern Parish in Ipswich, March 20th. 1755. being a Day of publick Fasting and Prayer. By Samuel Wigglesworth, A. M. Pastor of the Church in that Parish. . . . Boston: N. E. Printed and Sold by S. Kneeland in Queen-street. 1755. 8vo, pp. (4), 28, (2), 29.

AAS., B., BA., H., JCB., M., NYP., Y. 103929

Second title, following p. 28: God's Promise to an obedient People, of Victory over their Enemies. A Discourse delivered to the Congregation of the Southern Parish in Ipswich, May 25th. 1755. in the Audience of a Number of Soldiers, before their going on an Expedition against the French at Crown-Point. By Samuel Wigglesworth, A. M. Pastor of the Church in that Parish. Boston: Printed and Sold by S. Kneeland in Queen-street, 1755.

Half title reads: Mr. Wigglesworth's Two Discourses, the First, on a Day of Fasting and Prayer: the Other, on Occasion of the Expedition, &c.

Signatures are continuous for the two pamphlets.

The NYP. copy lacks the second discourse.

WILLARD. A Brief | Discourse | Concerning that | Ceremony | of | Laying the Hand | on the | Bible | in | Swearing. | By Samuel Willard, | Teacher of a Church at Boston in New-England. | London, Printed by J. A. in the Year 1689. | 4to, pp. (4), 8. A in four, B in two.

AAS., B., BA., BM., M. 104068

To the Reader, signed, M. I. i. e. Increase Mather. "Written during the administration of Andros and against his practice of compelling swearing by the Bible, could not be printed in Boston, doubtless owing to Dudley's censorship of the press . . . If it was printed after the fall of Andros became known in London (June 28th, 1689 . . .), as seems most likely, then its publication apparently was designed not primarily for readers in New England, but for use in London as propaganda to indirectly aid Increase Mather in obtaining the charter for Massachusetts." Holmes's "Increase Mather," vol. 2, 1931, pp. 601-602.

Reprinted in the "Andros Tracts" published by the Prince Society, vol. 1, 1868, pp. 179-191.

W. gent. London, Printed by T. H. for John Stephenson, at the Signe of the Sun below Ludgate. 1650. 2 pts. in one vol., 4to, pp. (12), 47, verso blank, (8); (6), 75, (3), including illustrations.

BM., C., H., HEH., HSP., NYH., NYP., VA.STATE LIB., WLC. 104190

For the first edition, see below, Virgo Triumphans.

The second part is the author's Virginia's Discovery of Silk Wormes, below. This may have been issued separately.

In the first part of this edition the text is ideactical with that of the first edition, except that the two preliminary leaves in the first edition which contained "To the . . . Lord President, and Counsell of State," "To the Reader" and errata are omitted, although the errors are not corrected. This edition adds a preliminary leaf containing a dedication "To the worthy Gentlemen, Adventurers and Planters in Virginia."

According to the BM. catalogue, this "second edition" was reissued as parts 3-4 of "Copy of a Petition from the Governor and Company of the Sommer Islands," 1651, see our no. 100450, vol. 27, where all of the copies described lacked the "large Description of Virginia" mentioned on the title page.

Reprinted in Washington in 1844, without the second part on silk worms, etc., as no. 11 of vol. 3 of "Force's Collection of Historical Tracts," sometimes found separately.

WILLIAMS. Virginia in America, Richly Valued: More especially the Southerne Parts. With the Tendure of the Vine, and Silke-worme, making Wines and Silks there: and framing of Saw-mills, to cut Timber for Building. Shewing also divers other meanes of raising infinite profits to Adventurers and Planters. Together with A compleat Map of the Country, from 35. to 41. Degrees of Latitude discovered, and the West Sea. London, Printed for John Stephenson . . . M.DC.LI. 104191

No copy located. Title from the Huth Catalogue, vol. 5, p. 1595, where it is stated that the copy of the second edition described there has the above title page inserted.

Col. Lawrence Martin, chief of the Division of maps at the Library of Congress, calls attention to the fact that there were at least four states of the Farrer "mapp of Virginia discovered to ye Falls . . ." which was first included in the Williams book in its third edition, and differentiates them as follows:

(1) John Farrer, author; I. Stephenson, publisher; date, 1651; no portrait of Sir Francis Drake at top. Original. NVP. Photostatic reproduction. c.

(2) Virginia Farrer, author; I. Stephenson, publisher; date, 1651; portrait of Sir Francis Drake at top; "Canada flu" connected with the Sea of China. Original. NVP. Photostatic reproduction. c.

(3) Virginia Farrer, author; I. Stephenson, publisher; date 1651; portrait of Sir Francis Drake at top; "Canada flu" separated from the Sea of China by an isthmus; word "Hills" substituted for word "Falls" in the title. Original. NVP. Photostatic reproduction. c.

(4) Virginia Farrer, author; John Ouerton, publisher; no date; portrait of Sir Francis Drake at top; "Canada flu" separated from the Sea of China by an isthmus; title as above. Original. c.

NVP. copies of states of the map are inserted in the earlier issues of Williams's Virginia. Colonel Martin states that copies of the works of Edward Williams and Edward Bland (Discovery of New Brittain, 1651, with which also the map was issued) in the Library of Congress do not contain these maps.

Clayton-Torrence no. 61 states that the second edition of Williams's Virginia is represented in the Virginia State Library by two copies containing two states of the map.

[WILLIAMS]. Virginia's Discovery of Silk-Wormes, with their benefit. And the Implanting of Mulberry Trees. Also the dressing and keeping of Vines, for the rich Trade of making Wines there. Together with the making of the Saw-mill, very usefull in Virginia, for cutting of Timber and Clapbord, to build withall, and its conversion to other as profitable Uses. London, Printed by T. H. for John Stephenson, at the Signe of the Sun, below Ludgate. 1650. 4to, pp. (6), 75, (3), including illustrations.

BM., C., H., HEH., HSP., JCB., NYH., NYP., WLC. 104192

This work was also issued as the second part of William's Virginia . . . Richly and truly valued, its publication being announced on the last page of the first edition of that work, Virgo Triumphans.

In the Church copy, now HEM.: pp. 18, 19, 22, 23, are misnumbered 22, 23, 18, 19, respectively, and 45 and 53 are unnumbered. The pagination in other copies examined is correct.

The pagination includes five full-page woodcuts.

WILLIAMS. Virgo Triumphans: or, Virginia richly and truly valued; more especially the South part thereof: viz. the fertile Carolana, and no lesse excellent Isle of Roanoak, of Latitude from 31 to 37 Degr. relating the meanes of raising infinite profits to the Adventurers and Planters: Humbly presented as the Auspice of a beginning Yeare, to the Parliament of England, and Councell of State. By Edvvard Williams, Gent. [Vignette.] London, Printed by Thomas Harper, for John Stephenson, and are to be sold at his Shop on Ludgate-Hill, at the Signe of the Sunne, 1650. 4to, pp. (14), 47, verso blank, (8).

BA., BM., C., H., HEH., JCB., NEWBERRY, NYH., NYP., P., VA.STATE LIB. 104193

Pp. 26, 27, 30, 31, misnumbered 34, 35, 39, and 38, respectively.

In the address "To the Reader" Williams states that "the whole substance of it . . . was communicated to me by a Gentleman of merit and quality . . . Mr. John Farrer of Gedding in Huntingdonshire."

Farrer's own copy described in Quaritch's "General Catalogue," vol. 5, p. 2991, is now in NYP. It contains his ms. marginal criticisms, and the drawing of a map . . . to show the accessibility of California by inland-route, which was engraved for the third edition. This copy has only the title and "To the Reader" leaf as preliminary leaves and Quaritch catalogue describes it as an early issue without the other five preliminary leaves.

With an Appendix. By Jesse Williams. New-York: Published by J. H. Colton. 1840. 24mo, pp. 180, advertisement (1). Folded map.

AAS., C., M., NYP., WHS. 104241

The descriptions . . . have been . . . compiled from the original field notes now on file in the Surveyor-general's office at Dubuque.—Preface.

WILLIAMS (John), the tobacconist. fl. 1721-1722. An Answer to a Late Pamphlet, Intituled, A Letter to a Friend in the Country, attempting a Solution of the Scruples and Objections of a Consciencious or Religious Nature, commonly made against the new Way of receiving the Small Pox. By a Minister of Boston. Together with A Short History of the late Divisions amongst us in Affairs of State, and some Account of the first Cause of them. By John Williams. . . . Boston: Printed and sold by J. Franklin, at his Printing-House in Queen-Street, over against Mr. Sheaf's School. 1722. 8vo, pp. (4), 20.

AAS., BM., H., M. 104242

The AAS. copy lacks the title, and all after p. 18, which ends with the catchword, "Reply." The M. copy also lacks the last two pages.

The author has sometimes been confused with his contemporary, John Williams of Deerfield, but was quite a different character, who kept a "tobacco-cellar" in Boston, and was nicknamed "Mundungus." For information as to Williams and the other pamphlets published in the controversy, see G. L. Kittredge's introduction to his reprint of Increase Mather's "Several Reasons proving that Inoculating . . . the Small Pox, is a lawful Practice," 1921, pp. 27-37, etc. Kittredge attributes the pamphlet, "A Letter to a Friend in the Country," to William Cooper and notes that he acknowledged the authorship in the third edition of that work. BA. It is usually erroneously attributed to Cotton Mather as in our no. 46379, vol. 11.

WILLIAMS. Several Arguments proving, That Inoculating the Small Pox Is not contained in the Law of Physick, either Natural or Divine, and therefore Unlawful. Together with A Reply to two short Pieces, one by the Rev. Dr. Increase Mather, and another by an Anonymous Author, Intituled, Sentiments on the Small Pox Inoculated. And also, A Short Answer to a late Letter in the New-England Courant. By John Williams. . . . Boston: Printed and sold by J. Franklin, at his Printing-House in Queen-street, over against Mr. Sheaf's School. 1721. 8vo, pp. (4), 20. AAS., AML., M. + The Second Edition. . . . [Same imprint, date, and collation.]

BM., H. 104243

Includes a reply to Mather's "Several Reasons proving that Inoculating . . . the Small Pox, is a lawful Practice," our no. 46741, vol. 11, Holmes no. 120-A. "Sentiments on the Small Pox Inoculated" was printed on the same sheet, and was written by Cotton Mather, see his "Diary," pt. 2, 1912, p. 660.

WILLIAMS. Good Fetch'd out of Evil, in Three short Essays. I. A Pastoral Letter, of Mr. John Williams, the faithful and worthy pastor of Deerfield; now detain'd a captive in Canada; written to part of his flock, and some others, returning out of their captivity. II. The conduct and constancy of the New English Captives when strongly tempted unto the Popish Idolatries. And certain plain Poems, written by some of them, to fortify their children against such temptations. III. An account of most remarkable and memorable deliverances, received by many of the captives; and great things done by their Almighty deliverer for them. Collected and published, that the glorious God may have the glory of his power and goodness; and that his people may reap some advantage from what has befallen their brethren. [n. p.] Printed in the Year M,DCC,LXXXIII. 8vo, pp. 34.

AAS., NYH. 104261

Williams's letter, pp. 7-16, a poem written for his little son, pp. 18-22.

Williams' letter from Canada, dated Chatoauriche, May 28, 1706, forms an important part of this compilation prepared by Cotton Mather. The latter notes under date of Aug. 11, 1706, that soon after the return of a number of captives, he "composed a Collection of Memorables relating to the Captives . . . edifying Poems . . . and, a Copy of a Pastoral Letter written by the worthy Minister, who is now a captive . . . And I gave this Collection to the Bookseller . . . It is entituled, Good fetch'd out of Evil. In a weeks time, he sold off a thousand of the Impression." See Mather's "D ary," vol. 1, 1911, pp. 567-568.

Published July 15, 1644, according to the Thomason Catalogue.

Without the list of errata on p. 247.

Henry N. Stevens suggests that this is the first edition since the list of twenty-three errata at the end of the "Tenent" edition, fourteen are correctly printed in this "Tenet" edition and nine incorrectly. He believes that nine errors are common to both editions and fourteen additional errors were made in the reprinting for the "Tenent" edition. It would also seem that the "Tenet" spelling was corrected to "Tenent" since the latter spelling was used eight years later in "The Bloody Tenent yet More Bloody." See the Henry Stevens Son and Stiles catalogue of "Rare Americana," 1907, nos. 816 and 816*. Mr. Lawrence C. Wroth, after a careful comparison of the two editions, believes this to be the earlier.

A plea for religious toleration in place of tenet, or "tenent," of persecution, also for the separation of church and state. The work includes a reprint of the arguments of a religious prisoner in Newgate (John Murton?) written surreptitiously in milk, smuggled out, and printed in "A most Humble Supplication of many of the King's Majesty's Loyal Subjects . . . who are persecuted (only for differing in religion)," signed by "your majesty's loyal subjects not for fear only, but for conscience' sake, Unjustly called Ana-baptists," printed in 1620. This had been sent to John Cotton some years before, and his reply to it, now apparently first published, "bloody" in contrast to the milk of the prisoner's writing, precedes Williams' answer to Cotton. The last part is an answer to a work, which Williams attributes in part to Cotton, but which the latter had no part in, see his "Bloody Tenent Washed," 1647, p. 192.

Williams' work was burned by the Presbyterian party then in power in England. See his letter of March 25, 1671, printed in Mass. Hist. Soc. "Proceedings," for 1855-1858, p. 314.

Contents: summary of the points taken up in the treatise, without heading, pp. (4); "To the Right Honorable, both Houses of the High Court of Parliament," (4); "To every Courteous Reader," (3); contents (10); "Scriptures And Reasons written . . . by a . . . Prisoner in Newgate," 1-6; "The Answer Of Mr. John Cotton . . . To the aforesaid Arguments . . ." 7-14; "A Reply to the . . . Answer of Mr. Cotton," 15-117; "A Model of Church and Civil Power. Composed by Mr. Cotton and the Ministers of New-England, And sent to the Church at Salem, as a further Confirmation of the bloody Doctrine . . . Examined and Answered," 118-247.

Based in part on John Williams' "Redeemed Captive," but according to the preface "the whole of it, except the extracts" is written in the words of the compiler.

A NYP. copy has a title pasted on cover, dated 1841.

An abridged reprint, without the appendix, appeared in the April, May, and June, 1842, numbers of the "American Pioneer."

Williams also edited an edition of the "Redeemed Captive," Northampton, 1853, which includes the Biographical Memoir.

Dr. Williams compiled works of historical or medical interest published outside the period now covered by this Dictionary. The most important of these are his "American Medical Biography," Greenfield, 1845, and "The Genealogy and History of the Family of Williams in America," Greenfield, 1847.

B. 104382

Advertisement on verso of title: A Scurrilous pamphlet, entitled "The Greatest Sermon that ever was Preached," has just been issued from the press in Providence. It is intended to ridicule the labours of Mr. Maffitt in that town, and is well known to have proceeded from the pen of a notorious infidel lawyer. The following pages are written with a view to expose the author of the aforesaid pamphlet . . .

Written in reply to: The Greatest Sermon that ever was Preached, published for the benefit of all who did not hear it. By Demens Egomet [pseud.] New-England: Printed for the Publisher, 1822. 8vo, pp. 12. v. + Second Edition. [Same imprint], 1825. 8vo, pp. 32. BA., H., NYP., Y. The anon. author seems to have replied to Williams "Answer" in: An Explicit Avowal of Nothingarianism, in a Sermon, fourth of March, 1823. By Demens Egomet. Printed and Published, nowhere, by nobody. . . . [1823.] 8vo, pp. 9, (1). CONGREG.LIB., H., Y. Dexter, however, who had apparently not seen the "Answer," credits the two tracts by "Demens Egomet" to Williams.

This edition was reprinted as a supplement to vol. 4 of John Payne's "New and Complete System of Universal Geography." New York, 1799, and was again reprinted by O'Callaghan, op. cit., vol. 2, pp. 1127-1167.

WILLIAMSON. The Legislature at their last session, having granted considerable aid to improve the Great Road leading from Fort-Schuyler . . . to the county of Ontario, and appointed a Commissioner to carry the law into effect—great exertions are now making, by the inhabitants in the county of Onondaga, and the western part of the county of Herkimer, to enable the Commissioner to make the road by the end of the season completely fit for the stages . . . Judge Williamson, of Ontario, is appointed by law sole Commissioner to direct the road in Ontario county . . . We, the subscribers, do therefore . . . promise to pay to any of the following persons . . . the several sums by us subscribed, to be paid into the hands of Charles Williamson . . . for the purposes aforesaid. BA., BM., C., H., HEH., NYH., NYP., P., PRINCETON, WHS. 104597

Imprints and dates of later volumes vary as follows: vol. 2, [same imprint], 1810; vols. 3-4, Printed by R. & W. Carr, 1811; vols. 5-6, Printed by Robert and William Carr, 1812; vol. 7, [same imprint], 1813; vols. 8-9, [same imprint], 1814.

The last two volumes, published after the author's death, were edited by George Ord, the text of vol. 8 and the plates for vols. 8-9 having been prepared by the author. A biographical sketch of Wilson, by the editor, forms pp. xiii-xlviii of vol. 9.

The seventy-six plates were drawn and colored by Wilton, and engraved by A. Lawson, assisted by J. G. Warnicke, and G. Murray, and, in one plate, by B. Tanner.

There are two issues of vol. 1 which may be distinguished by a statement in the biography of the wood thrush towards the foot of p. 33. In the earlier the passage reads: "Tho' it is believed that some of our birds of passage, and among them the present species, winter in the Carolinas, yet they rarely breed there, and when they do, they are certainly vocal." B., H., HEH., F. After later observations, this sentence was replaced by the following: "I have myself searched the woods of Carolina and Georgia, in winter, for this bird, in vain, nor do I believe that it ever winters in these states." BA., C., H., NYP., P., PRINCETON, WHS.

+ [Same imprint.] 1808 [-1825.] 9 vols., 4to, vols., 1-6 same as the preceding edition, vols. 7-9: pp. (2), 138, 9 plates; 162, 9 plates; (2), vii-ccxxii, ccxxi-ccxxii, a recto numbered ccxxiii, (1), 225-298, General Index (4), 4 plates. NYP. 104598

This edition is entirely reset, vols. 1-6 being reprints of those volumes in the first edition, the imprints and dates remaining the same, except that in vol. 5 the printers' names read Printed by R. & W. Carr.

Imprint of vols. 7-8: Philadelphia: Published by Samuel F. Bradford. Printed by Thomas H. Palmer. 1824.

Title of the last volume: Supplement to the American Ornithology of Alexander Wilson. Containing a Sketch of the Author's Life, with a selection from his letters, some remarks upon his writings; and a History of those Birds which were intended to compose part of his Ninth Volume. Illustrated with plates, engraved from Wilson's original drawings. By George Ord, F. L. S. . . . Philadelphia: Published by J. Laval and S. F. Bradford. 1825. [Verso of title:] T. H. Palmer, Printer.

From the editor's preface to vol. 7: "The publisher of this work having resolved to give a new edition of the seventh volume, the Editor . . . re:is[ed] it . . . Wilson committed more errors of nomenclature in his seventh volume than in any of his preceding volumes." The eighth volume was likewise revised. The "Supplement" is an enlargement of vol. 9 of the first edition, with a new editor's preface, and much additional material in the biographical sketch.

Although the above bears a London imprint, merely the preliminary leaves and pp. 20-23 appear to have been printed in England. The rest of the book is a reissue of the sheets of the "Debates of the Convention, of the State of Pennsylvania," 1788, our no. 60040, vol. 14. For this reason there are some variations in copies, due to irregularity in binding.

The AAS. and two M. copies include the Philadelphia title and half title as well as the London ones, making a total of four preliminary leaves. The UMICH.(LAW) copy has no title page with imprint, but only the London and Philadelphia half titles as preliminary leaves.

For a description of a number of varying copies, see the bibliography by Randolph G. Adams included in his edition of the "Selected Political Essays of James Wilson," 1930, pp. 349-351.

The "Directions to the Binder" calls for a plate showing the "Falls of Niagara" at p. 183 in vol. 1, but in the NYP. copies of the 1795 and 1799 editions this plate is a view of "The Falls of St. Anthony in the River Mississippi."

One of the H. copies of the first issue with this title has inserted two editions of a prospectus of "A Geographical, Commercial, and Philosophical View," see above, the American edition in numbers. The first is in octavo, pp. 4, and the second is printed on a small quarto leaf. It is stated that the work will consist of 33 weekly numbers, the first to be published Jan. 31, 1795. Each part was to contain at least one map or plate and 64 pages of letter press.

Imprint of vol. 2: Boston: Printed by Thomas B. Wait and Son. No. 90, Court Street. 1826.

The first complete edition from Winthrop's manuscripts in three volumes. For an earlier printing from the first two volumes, edited by Noah Webster, see Journal, below.

The following note on p. 13, vol. 2, is of interest: "Here ends the perfect text of the second venerable ms. of the author . . . On the morning of the 10th November last, the original was destroyed by fire, and my copy . . . was also lost. Another copy, designed for the printers, shared the same fate, except that the few pages foregoing, having been sent to the press, were preserved." The text of the part covered by the missing ms. is from Webster's edition, and ends on p. 200. The following pages are again based on the original ms.

Reprinted, Boston, 1853. Another edition edited by James K. Hosmer was published by the American Historical Association, New York, 1908, in the series "Original Narratives of Early American History."

Dated and signed: From Yarmouth aboard the Arbella April 6. 1630. 10: Winthrop Gov. Rich: Saltonstall. Charles Fines. Isaac Johnson. Tho: Dudley. George Philipps. William Coddington &c. &c.

Entered at Stationers' Hall, May 21, 1630. See Arber.

Usually considered to have been drawn up by John White of Dorchester to "commit the leaders of the Winthrop fleet against separatism." See Morison's "Builders of the Bay Colony," 1930, pp. 47-48; and F. Rose-Troup's "John White," 1931, pp. 204-208. H. W. Foote in Mass. Hist. Soc. "Proceedings," vol. 63, 1931, pp. 193-227, calls attention to the fact that this attribution goes back to Hubbard's manuscript history of New England, written about 1680 (fifty years after the Humble Request), which was not printed until 1815. Printed in the second edition of the "General History," 1848, p. 126, the passage reads: "It is commonly said, that the Declaration was drawn up by Mr. White, that famous minister of Dorchester, of whom there is oft mention made in this History." Foote questions whether a paper drafted by White in advance would not rather have been signed at Southampton or Cowes than kept unsigned on the Arbella while waiting for favorable winds at Yarmouth, and thinks it more likely to have been an eleventh-hour inspiration, and that though Winthrop might have written The Request, it would naturally have fallen to George Phillips, the only minister on board, to draw it up. Reasons are also given for believing that the Request was consistent with Phillips' later life and writings.

A reprint forms pp. 1-5 of "Massachusetts or The first Planters of New-England," 1696, our no. 78431, vol. 19, entered under Joshua Scottow, a probable editor. AAS., M., NYP. Our no. 33698, vol. 8, is an incorrect entry for 78431. Another reprint forms pp. 4-6 of "Old South Leaflets," no. 207, [189-?].

A facsimile with a bibliographical note by Wilberforce Eames and an historical introduction by John L. Elwell, Washington, 1905, AAS., BA., NYP., gives references to several additional reprints.

Again reproduced in facsimile, with an introduction by G. P. Winship, and with the added title: "The Puritan's Farewell to England. Winthrop's ms. narrative in three volumes became a part of Thomas Prince's New England Library, but after the Revolution the two first volumes were found in the possession of the elder branch of the Winthrop family in Connecticut. The third volume was not discovered until 1816, when it was identified, being still in the Prince collection, at that time kept in the Old South Church. The above includes only the first two volumes.

"Edited, very superficially it must be said, by the redoubtable lexicographer, Noah Webster." The second volume of the manuscript was destroyed by fire in the office of James Savage while he was preparing the edition of 1825-1826, see above History, so that the Webster text of this part was used for that issue. See Jameson's "History of Historical Writing," 1891, pp. 28-29.

"The First Year of Winthrop's Journal" forms pp. 101-137 of "The Foundation of Massachusetts," 1930 (Mass. Hist. Soc. "Proceedings," vol. 62).
