The images appearing here are the best quelity possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shell contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▼ (meening "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, cherts, etc., mey be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure ere filmed beginning in the upper left hend corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

REPORT ON CANADIAN ARCHIVES

DOUGLAS BRYMNER, LL.D., F.R.S.C., ARCHIVIST.

The Honourable J. A. OUIMET,
Acting Minister of Agriculture,
&c., &c., &c.

Sir,-I have the honour to present the report on Archives for 1895.

Additional transcripts have been received from London since the last report relating to Upper and Lower Canada and the work of copying the papers for these two provinces is rapidly approaching completion. The correspondence of this branch increases steadily and no offort is spared to furnish the information desired on points of interest. Contributions continue to be received from learned societies, institutions and individuals; for these reference may be made to the list of works presented.

In the report for 1894, the calendar of the papers relating to Nova Scotia examined, in the various depositaries in London and elsewhere was published. In the present report the result of these inquiries is continued. The calendar of the papers now presented includes the papers respecting the other Maritime Provinces and Hudson's Bay. Some account of the scattered distribution of these papers in the various state departments and other places of deposit is given in the report for 1894, as well as a statement of the method I have adopted for arranging the transcripts to make them more easily accessible; it is, therefore, unnecessary to repeat this information. It appears, however, desirable to point out, as some misapprehension exists on the subject, that the transcripts of the papers calendared have not yet been received and that due notice shall be given of their reception.

I have, in accordance with the practice hitherto followed, made a summary of leading events in the history of the different provinces, but as this is not, and was not intended to be, exhaustive, the calendar should be examined to supplement the information given n the summary.

In 1769, it was determined, on the solicitation of the proprietors, to form PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND, then St. John's Island, into a separate government, subsidiary to that of Nova Scotia, but previous to that time, in 1763 and 1764, a scheme was proposed by Lord Egmont to parcel the island into hundreds, etc., the whole to be granted to His Lordship, who was to distribute the lands in common soccage, the holders, however, to be liable for military service. This scheme was rejected, as well as one by Admiral Knowles and associates, who also asked for a grant of the whole island. The Board of Trade, to whom the committee of Council referred the memorial distributed the lands to individual applicants, a list of many of whom will be found among the papers relating to Nova Scotia, under the date of 23rd May, 1767. Other documents relating to the same subject will be found in the same series of papers in June, July and August, 1767. It being on the solicitation of these proprietors that the separate government was formed, they came under the obligation to bear the expenses, so that no cost should be thrown on the public exchequer. Francklin, who administered the government of Nova Scotia during the absence of Lord William Campbell, entered into the plan with what was considered more zeal than prudence, and the steps he took were disapproved of, the Secretary of State writing to Lord William Campbell that Francklin was only authorized to report what establishment might be necessary, but to do nothing more than make temporary arrangements, so that it was feared the expenses incurred would fall on Francklin himself. The arrangements appear to have been badly executed or perhaps ill-conceived, as the officials sent to earry on the new government were obliged to return to Halifax, there being no provision made for their support. Patterson, who was appointed governor in July, 1769, arrived on the island on the 30th August of that year and was sworn in on the 19th September when he appointed an Executive Council. His report of the natural condition of the island was favourable, but there were neither houses nor provisions to shelter or feed expected arrivals; not even a barn appears to have been built, as stated by Patterson in the letter in which he reported the want of a church, court-house and gaol, nor were there any roads. In 1768, a plan on which Charlottetown was to be built was prepared by Morris, surveyor general of Nova Seotia, but that was modified by Patterson after his arrival. Both plans have been ordered to be copied.

The proprietors who had been so anxious for a separate government were not prompt in payment of their quit-rents from which the expenses were to be paid, so that the officials received no salaries and the funds for building roads were contributed by voluntary sub-cription. Ordinances were passed by the Executive Council for the collection of quit-rents and for other purposes, but these were regarded by the Secretary of State as of no further validity than such as would arise from the consent of the inhabitants; in the meantime the officials suffered from the non-payment of their salaries, being only relieved by unauthorized advances made by Governor Patterson.

In February, 1773, it was resolved to eall a House of Assembly, which was done, but the first did not exist long, the Executive Council on the 14th of July of the same year having determined to dissolve it: the Assembly was accordingly adjourned to the 1st of next April, when it was to be dissolved. Information may be gathered from the ealendar regarding the attempts by Lieut-Governor Desbrisay and others to settle the island, but these appear to have been objectionable to the imperial authorities represented by the Secretaries of State.

In 1775, on the outbreak of hostilities in the colonies, predatory excursions were made by the New Englanders against the island, in one of which they plundered the house of Governor Patterson, seized Callbeck, the administrator and Wright the surveyor, then captured a vessel from London, on board of which were Messrs. Spence and Higgins, whom they robbed of all their effects, and then released them, with Spence's wife and servants and Mr. Desbrisay, the chaplain. Wright states that the privateers were acting under orders from General Washington and that the attack on Charlottetown was out of revenge for recruits being raised on the island for Quebec. with Path deal order possions would be formed by the possion of the possion and the possion an loya the for t then and on the island during the revolutionary war and the measures of defence may be traced in the calendar, so that it is unnecessary to recapitulate them.

Patterson, who had been absent for some time, returned to the island on the 28th June, 1780, and reported a great improvement in the number of the population, the increase of stock, &c. He proposed on account of the confusion caused by the name—St. John's Island—that it be changed to New Ireland, and an Act was passed for the purpose, but disallowed, the reason given being that the name of New Ireland was already appropriated. He also proposed a system of military roads, but the plan was not approved of by Lord George Germain, then Secretary of State, as he held that these roads would afford advantages to an enemy, whereas by the island being left as it was the population from their knowledge of the country would have the advantage.

Governor Patterson, on his return, charged Lieut. Governor Desbrisay and the Executive Council with having taken advantage of his absence to seeure lands for themselves in an improper manner, and made a demand that the lands thus acquired should be restored to the Crown. Desbrisay defended his course, urging his powers as Lieut. Governor, and that he had obeyed instructions in granting lands; should the King command him, he would give up the lands, but he thought it hard. The members of the Council also protested against the demand for the restoration of the lands, but the Lords of Trade agreed with Patterson on the impropriety of the action of the Lieut. Governor and Council, and desired that a surrender of the lands should be made formally in open court, the transactions being entered on the record.

In January, 1782, Governor Patterson reported that he was constructing a boat to cross to the continent, so as to put the island in communication with the rest of the world during winter, but the result of this first attempt is not given in the documents.

About the end of this year (1782) the beginning of the movement of loyalists towards the island is noticed, being an invitation from the officers of the King's Rangers to loyalist refugees to visit and examine the island, so as to be themselves witnesses of the misrepresentations that had been circulated respecting it, and Governor Patterson, writing to the provincial agent, calls attention to the happy asylum it would be for the loyalists. The previous settlers appear, however, to have given him a good deal of trouble. In the month of June, 1783, the agent, Stuart, urged that official orders should be sent to New York to forward loyalists to St. John's Island as early as possible, and the grantees who had received large blocks of land on the island offered to surrender a fourth of their grants for their benefit, but at the end of the year Patterson complained that the want of instructions to supply the loyalists with provisions, &c., would frustrate these intentions. Whether from this or other reasons, the settlement of the loyalists did not proceed very rapidly, although the King's favourable designs in respect to them were communicated to Governor Patterson by the Secretary of State, in a letter dated 8th June, 1784. On the 12th of July, Patterson reported what steps had been taken to distribute the lands resigned by the proprictors for the use of the loyalists, and expressed the most sanguine hopes of the vast numbers to be expected from the Middle States. These hopes were not realized, although a certain number arrived for the transport of whom vessels were engaged and arrangements made for allotting them lands and for supplying them with provisions, materials for building houses, tools and implements of husbandry.

In the meantime, it was decided that St. John's Island was to be reduced to a lientenant-governorship and reannexed to the eastern part of Nova Scotia, but to enjoy its own constitution and retain its own jurisdiction (the dispatch signifying this is among the papers relating to Nova Scotia, dated 29th May, 1784). The new commission to Parr, Governor of Nova Scotia, appointed him to be Governor in-chief of Nova Scotia, St. John's Island and Cape Breton, but the letter from the Secretary of State to Patterson of 27th September, 1784, giving this information, repeated that the legislature of St. John's Island was preserved entire, and that every act of government was to be executed by the lieutenant-governor, except when the governor-in-chief was actually present. Patterson accepted his reduction in rank without complaint, but represented that after the first difficulties attending the settlement had been overcome the annexation of the island to Nova Scotia had inflicted a greater blow on the settlement of the island than all other causes put together, Parr in his new capacity having threatened that no more provisions would be granted to those who went to settle there, but he justified that course by the statement that Parr regarded the island as unlit for settlement—an apology which does not accord with a previous part of the same letter, in which it is alleged that the emnity in Nova Scotia to the island arose from the fear that its natural advantages would deprive Nova Scotia of its population. How far this charge was well founded does not appear in the correspondence. It is not improbable that the quarrels between the Governor and the Legislature and the charges against each other by the Governor and the Chief Justice may have contributed, as much as anything else, to the slight growth of population, added to which was the lack of funds caused by the neglect of the proprietors to pay their quit-rents. The relations between the Governor and the Legislature were evidently not friendly. The Assembly having adjourned and not having met on the day fixed for re-assembling, owing, as the members alleged, to the hindrances caused by the bad weather, Patterson issued a proclamation, dated 13th April, that it was dissolved ipso facto. Against this the Assembly protested and appealed to the public, formulating charges against Patterson, a petition for whose removal was prepared for signature. The Council and Assembly apparently took opposite sides and Patterson's brother John defended him with great energy, but the complaints became so numerous that his recall was ordered, and Lieut.-Governor Fanning, then at Halifax, was sent to take his place. Patterson's fight to retain office forms an interesting episode in the history of the island, the reason given in his first letter to the Secretary of State after the arrival of Fanning being that if he went away it would be the ruin of his family, and he wrote to Fanning declining to give up his position—a step submitted to by Fanning to prevent disturbance until he should receive further orders and he declined to receive an address from the inhabitants, in ease it might have a prejudicial effect on the public feeling. Under this anomalous state of affairs great confusion arose, but on the 5th of April, 1787, a peremptory order was sent by the Secretary of State to Patterson to deliver to Fanning all the public documents and instructions in his possession, the King having no longer need of his services. On the same date Fanning was notified of the recall of Patterson, but previous to the arrival of these dispatches Fanning had received others by way of Halifax (probably from Dorchester, although no dispatches of this nature can be traced). In accordance with these, he had by proclamation, on the 10th of April, published his commission requiring His Majesty's subjects to govern themselves accordingly. In spite of this, Patterson clung to office and on the 5th of May prorogued the Assembly already dissolved by Fanning on the 3rd. The order of the 5th of April was, however, too clear to be disregarded, and Patterson left for Quebee to present his ease to Lord Dorchester. (For letter from Patterson to Dorchester, of 6th July, see Q. 28, p. 113, and for Dorchester's report to Sydney, of 18th August, see the same volume, p. 111.) But the trials of Lieut. Governor Fanning were not over; several of the members of Council had resigned, whose places must be filled; he complained that the military officers refused to support him, and a report was current that Patterson intended to return. Added to these troubles was the uneasiness caused by the expression of opinion from Mr. Under-Secretary Nepean, that he was wrong to issue the proclamation of 10th April, whilst Patterson held the government. But the charges against Patterson were too serious to be overlooked. On the 14th of August, 1788, the Collector of Customs reported that in attempting to seize contraband goods he had been defeated by the snugglers employed by the late Lient,-Governor and his brother John, and in February, 1789, a public charge of the same nature was made against the two brothers. What were the specific charges against Patterson that were examined by the Privy Conneil are not clearly stated in the documents, but he complained of the mortifying result of the investigation and most of his Conneil, as well as himself, were deprived of office, although there appears to have been some hesitation with regard to the Council, owing to apprehension of difficulty in filling the vacancies.

The first printing press on the island was set up by Mr. Robertson in 1788, the sole reference to this fact being a notice that he was employed in December, of that year, to print the laws. These must have been kept most irregularly, so that it was with great difficulty the Acts could be collected for printing. The state of affairs in this respect may be seen in Fanning's dispatch of 20th May, 1792, when he transmitted the printed collection. In this he stated that only loose and incorrect copies had been found, but he reported that these had been carefully revised and corrected and he appears to have been satisfied with their authenticity. The business of a printer did not appear to be remunerative, as Robertson left immediately after the Acts of 1798 were printed.

The defenceless state in which the Island was left appears from the correspondence on the occasion of the apprehended war with Spain in 1790 and subsequently on that of the declaration of war by the French authorities in 1793. Apparently Fanning did not believe that a war would take place with Spain, a belief which turned out to be well founded, but he offered, should a war break out, to serve in a military espacity and suggested an attack on Florida, then held by Spain, the capture of which would afford an asylum to southern loyalists, who could not stand the northern cold. The treaty of peace in October, 1790, put an end to projects of this kind, although Fanning did not learn of the settlement of the dispute till June of the following year.

The war with France, declared in 1793, threatened to be of more dangerous consequence to the island, but the capture of St. Pierre and Miquelon by Ogilvic lessened the chances of an attack from that quarter. Owing to the demand for men required for agricultural operations, some difficulty was experienced in collecting the militia, but by December the ice acted as a sure defence against an attack on the coasts. In the spring of 1794, a corps of 200 men was ordered to be raised for whom arms were to be supplied from Halifax and Fanning offered, besides the levy money, 100 acres of his own land to each recruit who should enlist before the 1st of November. This gratnity was not accepted by government, the Secretary of State informing Fanning that it was not intended His Majesty's service should be provided for at his personal expense. In common with the other provinces voluntary contributions were made for defraying the cost of the war, a list of which was sent in October, 1798. The short peace put a stop to the war for a time, Fanning having on the 6th December, 1801, acknowledged receipt of the information that preliminaries of peace had been signed and subsequently ratified, although the Treaty of Amiens was not signed till 27th March, 1802.

In November, 1798, an Act with a suspending clause was passed by the provincial legislature to change the name of the island from St. John to that of Prince Edward, which was confirmed by the King, receipt of the order in Council to that effect having been acknowledged by Fanning on the 13th June, 1799, on which day the new name appears to have been first used in official dispatches from the governor. The Act is in collection of the statutes of the island, 39 George 11L, cap. 1.

For other transactions on the island reference may be made to the calendar.

In 1784, the province of New Brunswick was formed by detaching a portion from Nova Scotia. The reason for this will be found in a dispatch from the Secretary of State to Parr, dated 29th May of that year, among the documents relating to Nova In the same dispatch the appointment of a governor general over all the provinces was announced. Thomas Carleton, the first governor of New Brunswick was a brother of Sir Guy Carleton (Lord Dorchester) and served in Canada and New York during the Revolutionary war. He died at the age of 85. He arrived on the 21st of November, 1784, at Parr town (St. John) and on the 24th reported that he had published his commission and proclaimed the boundaries, &c. In his instructions it was directed that he and the Executive Council were to make as few laws as possible, leaving the work of legislation to an Assembly, which was to be called at as early a date as was practicable. Next spring (1785) he fixed on St. Ann's point as the capital of the new province, to which, in honour of the Duke of York, he gave the name of Frederic's town, now contracted to Fredericton. The selection gave rise to a somewhat acrimonious controversy and the representatives from the counties on the Bay of Fundy, after the Assembly was constituted, passed a bill to have the terms of the Supreme Court held alternately at Fred ricton and St. John, alleging the inconvenience to suitors on the Bay of Fundy from being obliged to go so far up the St. John to attend the Court. On the 25th of June, 1785, Carleton reported that he had given a charter of incorporation to the City of St. John, the name having been changed from that of Parr town on the representation of the inhabitants. The reasons given for granting the charter were the sudden increase of inhabitants and the necessity for municipal regulations, but it was indicated to him by the Secretary of State, in a dispatch dated 5th October, that he had exceeded his powers, as before granting the charter it should have been submitted for the King's consideration.

The Assembly referred to was convened on the first Tuesday of January, 1786, the number of members for the House of Representatives being fixed at 26. The election was not peaceable. Carleton complained that by appeals to party spirit and by the use of intoxicating liquor, riots to k place, so that the military had to be called out; by this measure, by the arrest of the ringleaders and by closing the houses of entertainment order was for the time restored. Carleton relied for permanent peace in the community on the efforts of the sober part of the population to repress scrious disturbances, the military force being too slender to cope with any general outbreak. But disorder did not cease at once or altogether, as Carleton reported in a dispatch, dated 14th May, 1786, that the defeated candidates had attacked the corporation, then the Assembly and succeeded in causing riots for which they were tried, convicted and punished.

A measure for the payment of members of Assembly was early brought forward in the House of representatives but was strongly objected to by the Secretary of State on the ground that payment for their services lowered the dignity and, therefore, lessened the influence of the members. Bills to provide for the payment were rejected by the Council, leading to disputes between the two Houses. The Assembly, in order to force the Council to pass the appropriation for the payment inserted it in the supply bill, but the Council, on the ground of the unconstitutionality of such a course rejected the bill absolutely, leaving the province without the means of carrying on the government. In reference to this dispute the Secretary of State, in a dispatch dated 9th June, 1796, laid down the constitutional mode of dealing with money bills. As the abstract in the calendar at that date gives the important part of the dispatch, reference may be made to it on that subject. It was not till the session of 1798 that the Assembly separated the item for the pay of members from the general supply bill and the Council on this change being made, in order apparently to put an end to the dispute, agreed to concur in the measure.

In respect to education, there are in the documents relating to Nova Scotia, details of proposals for the establishment of a college in that province and for the constitution of foundations in the two great English universities for completing the education of promising students from British North America. Governor Carleton was also communicated with on the subject, so far as it related to New Brunswick, and on the 20th August, 1790, he reported that steps had been taken to form an institution for higher education in that province and that a charter for a college had been in preparation but abandoned in consequence of a dispatch from the Secretary of State. the lands set apart for the endowment of a college, he reported that a portion was let at a rent of £100, the rest of the lands being a wilderness and unproductive, that a grammar school had been in operation and that the trustees hoped to enlarge the plan of instruction. Apparently in answer to this, a dispatch dated 8th November, 1792, informed Carlet m that the grammar school would meet with due consideration and that the benefits of the foundations in the universities were to extend to all the North American provinces. He was further desired to send a copy of the proposed charter for the public seminary and details of the work done at the grammar school; these were sent on the 9th of March, 1793.

The disputes respecting the boundaries between New Brunswick and the United States were begun very shortly after the close of the war, Massachusetts bay ng asserted, without a conference with the other side, that the most easterly of the three rivers falling into Passamaquoddy Bay was the western boundary of New Brunswick (that is of Nova Scotia before the division), an assertion with which Carleton did not agree, but which he did not think it desirable to discuss with the authorities of Massachusetts at that time. The proceedings of the commissioners subsequently appointed to determine the boundary, of which Chipman was the British agent, are too voluminous to admit of any satisfactory summary being made. All the papers will be copied, including the negotiations following on the treaty of Ghent, the documents coming down to 1810, special permission having been obtained to have copies made of those subsequent to 1812. It will be some time, however, before they are completed for transmission here.

In anticipation of an attack on British North America in consequence of the declaration of war by France, Carleton, on the 8th of February, 1793, was instructed to raise a corps of 600 men for the defence of the province, the deficiency in the supply of arms in New Brunswick to be made up from Halifax. In the apprehended war with Spain in 1790, application had been made to Lord Dorchester for arms for the militia of New Brunswick, but the settlement of the dispute had rendered a supply unnecessary on that account, so that the militia were unarmed and undisciplined. In a dispatch of 10th Angust, 1793, Carleton reported that preparations were making in the United States for predatory attacks on the provinces, which the government of the United States did not appear to have sufficient energy to prevent. In order to resist these attacks "from the lower class of people in these states," defensive works were erected at St. John without expense to government, and the Secretary of State informed Carleton that a squadron would be sent to protect the harbour. In its collective capacity the Assembly did not admit that it was its duty to provide for defence, but the individual members expressed their willingness to co-operate for that object. In the session of 1795, the discussion of the liability of the province for measures of defence was, according to Carleton, evaded by the Assembly.

The disputes respecting lands were in some cases carried to extreme lengths. The letters of Glenie, attacking every official indiscriminately may be found at November, 1789, January, 1790, and March, 1792. The violence of the language and the vulgarity of his attacks destroy any credence that might otherwise be attached to his charges and his correspondent, it is alleged, was laying claim to lands in which he could only demand a share, but the whole of which he wished to secure to the exclusion of his coheirs. No notice need have been taken of these attacks were it not that they probably throw light on one at least of the causes of the bitterness shown in local politics. Official complaints were frequent that settlement was retarded by the system of reserves to secure timber for the navy and by the restriction on grants which caused an outflow of the population.

Settlements of negroes had been made throughout the provinces during and after the revolutionary war; these negro settlers were of different classes. Some had seen military service during the revolutionary war, others had fled from slavery after the war was over. Among these latter was one named Peters, whose complaints of not receiving the land promised to him and to those whom he represented, or said he did, for the others denied having authorized him to speak for them, led to the correspondence which deals with the facts. These were, that the blacks who served with the troops received grants with other disbanded soldiers; the others obtained the same grants as the white settlers. The proposal to remove the black population from Nova Scotia to Sierra Leone, noticed in the preliminary report for 1894, p. xix., extended to New Brunswick. In neither province was the proposal received favourably, and in New Brunswick, to which the present remarks apply it was reported that most of the blacks were in the service of families and receiving high wages. The blacks themselves did not seem anxious to leave the province and the Imperial authorities appear to have taken that into consideration, but before the movement could be stopped 222 of the blacks had been shipped for Sierra Leone. Carleton was directed to induce the able-bodied who remained to enlist in a corps for service in the West Indies, but they did not show much eagerness to accept of this proposal,

The headquarters of the military were at Halifax, from which place supplies were sent to the troops in New Brunswick adding, as Carleton complained, to the expense and involving great delay. He remonstrated on more than one occasion on the removal of troops from New Branswick to Nova Scotia, partly on the ground that only through the former could the latter be attacked and, besides, that the removal acted as an impediment to the progress of the settlements above Fredericton, the presence of the troops there being a protection to the settlers from attacks by the Indians, which had deterred immigrants from going beyond the reach of military protection. Certain changes in the administration of the paymaster's department were believed by Carleton to be infringements on his power, in consequence of which he resigned his office, but before a successor was appointed he had reconsidered his position and expressed his willingness to continue, if the withdrawal of his resignation did not come too late; as he continued to be governor till 1803, it is clear that effect was not given to his resignation. On more than one occasion he expressed his desire to be transferred to Quebec, a wish which the King appeared willing to gratify, the correspondence showing that Carleton was regarded with favour by the King, favours being granted to other members of the family, which excited jealousy amongst aspirants to office. It being thought he would be more useful in New Brunswick than in Quebec, it was so represented to him although, he was informed, if he pressed his wish to be removed to Quebec he would be transferred, but that if he remained in New Brunswick he would receive marks of the royal favour by promotion in his profession. Carleton acquiesced, remained and was promoted to the rank of Major General.

Cape Breton was partially disjoined from Nova Scotia in 1784, but continued to be subordinate to the governor of that province, having, however, a separate legislature on the same system as that of St. John's Island (P.E.I.) On the 7th July, 1784, Parr was informed that Major Frederick Wallet DesBurres was to be Lieut.-Governor of Cape Breton, but that the island was still to remain a part of his (Parr's) government. Until the arrival of DesBarres, Cuyler, a loyalist and formerly mayor of Albany, was to act in his room, which he did for a short time. The information respecting the date of the arrival of DesBarres is not clear in the documents. According to them, he arrived in Halifax some time previous to the 16th November, 1784, and reached Cape Breton between that date and the 22nd February, 1785, when his first official paper is on record, dated at Coal Mines (afterwards Sydney), being an instruction to the Committee of Council to have the cargo of the "Blenheim" inspected and reported on.

Cuyler, who acted as locum tenens for DesBarres, appears from the correspondence to have left Albany and to have been employed for some time at New York. In October, 1782, he was at Montreal employed as inspector of the refugees and charged with the distribution of provisions to those in that district. During that time he was engaged in active correspondence with friends in Albany, with the object of obtaining secret inte ligence. On the 24th of March, 1783, he wrote to Major Mathews, secretary to Governor Haldimand, expressing his apprehension that a shameful peace had been made and that although stipulations were inserted in favour of the loyalists, these would have no effect. His words are:

"I make no doubt but His Majesty will endeavour to make such a stipulation, but I have no expectation that such of the loyalists as are considered of consequence will benefit by it, as it is clear to me that such cannot live in peace and safety amongst them when the sovereignty is lost, and as to their property that has been confiscated is lost, and their estates, should they be suffered to be sold, they would not fetch a fourth value, therefore all the good purpose that may be expected from such stipulation may be experienced by such as were of no great consequence among them when rebellion began and that tamely sit down to be insulted." (Archives, series B., vol. 165, p. 58).

The opinion of counsel given by Alexander Hamilton, dated at New York on the 13th February, 1784, on the application of Cuyler for leave to return to the State of New York to secure his property under the protection of the treaty of peace, bears out the anticipations that Cuyler entertained as to the inefficiency of the stipulations contained in the fifth and sixth clauses of the Treaty of 1783. Hamilton's opinion was that it would be very dangerous for Cuyler to return and that there was no prospect for the restoration of his property. Reference may be made to series B, of the Archives, vol. 165, for Cuyler's correspondence and his negotiations in London for grants of land in Cape Breton. At the end of the same volume, following page 261, is a list with the title:—"Return of the loyalists associated for the purpose of Forming a Settlement on the Island of Cape Breton, agreeable to His Majesty's Instructions to Abraham Cuyler, Esq., and the agents appointed for that purpose." The return gives the names, number of each family, their former place of residence or regiment and their occupations. The total number was 141, of whom 80 were men.

Apparently Cuyler did not act cordially with DesBarres, of whose unfriendly conduct he complained to Nepean. These quarrels being of comparatively slight public interest, except as throwing light on some of the causes which retarded the progress of the island, need not be treated at length. It may be briefly stated, that on the appointment of Macarmick, who succeeded DesBarres as Lieut.-Governor, Cuyler was taken into favour, and in 1787 made assistant judge and an Executive Councillor, other offices being added. Whether the cause was in the imperious disposition of Macarmick, as has been alleged, or in the temper of Cuyler, is not plain, but in 1789 Cuyler was suspended from his offices and Macarinick recommended that the suspension should be followed by dismissal and a successor appointed. The Council took up the quarrel and a long investigation into Cuyler's conduct was the result. In a letter of 18th May, 1790, Macarmick charged Cuyler with insolence as the mouthpiece of a faction, but the Imperial authorities did not take so serious a view of the transaction as did the Lieut.-Governor, holding that although Cuyler's conduct had been reprehensible, it did not warrant his dismissal. On the 30th of August, 1790, Macarmick repeated his charge of insolence against Cuyler, but added that he would have pardoned him, had not the suspension been made an affair of the Council. Cuyler, who had been in London to present his case to the Privy Council and been ordered back to duty, returned to the island in October, 1790, and resumed his offices, but apparently only as an evidence that he had been reinstated notwithstanding Macarmick's efforts, as he at once resigned the offices he held. It seems clear that he could scarcely have retained these, especially his seat in the Council, whilst Macarmick was Lieut.-Governor, their relations being of so unfriendly a nature. Macarmick charged him with issuing a pamphlet against his administration which was circulated with "uncommon diligence," containing, Macarmick complained, charges very injurious to his character. Cuyler, according to Macarmick's statement, shortly after his return from London, left the island and went to Canada, from which, so far as the papers to 1801 show, he did not DesBarres, the first Lieut.-Governor, was of high scientific attainments, as is evident from the works he has left but, apparently misled by his law advisers, especially by the Chief Justice, a man of extreme views, he was charged with taking higher grounds as civil governor than his commission warranted. flying a pennant, the distinguishing mark of ships of the Royal Navy, in virtue, Captain Sawyer alleged, of a commission issued by DesBarres. How far that commission was supposed to justify the master for assuming this special indication of His Majesty's ships does not appear, but the captain of the "Thisbe" evidently assumed that DesBarres was in the habit of issuing such commissions, as he ordered that all such should be revoked until the directions of the Admiralty were received. No further reference is made to the subject in the correspondence so that there is no explanation by DesBarres nor appeal by him to the authority or supposed authority under which he acted. As only one vessel was employed at a time for the provincial service, it is not probable that any other commission of this nature than one was issued and, therefore, that Captain Sawyer's order to refrain from issuing commissions was precautionary rather than founded on what was actually taking place.

The quarrels between the Lieut-Governor and the military authorities respecting the control of the provisions for the troops seem to have arisen, to some extent at least, from the confusion caused by the shipment of those for the soldiers and loyalists together, all consigned to the Lieut.-Governor. This, no doubt, led to his believing, encouraged by the Chief Justice, that he had complete control of these and that he alone could decide on their disposal, an opinion not shared by the General of the district, who instructed the officer in command at Cape Breton to hold possession of the provisions, those for the loyalists to be issued on the requisition, not by the order, of the Lieut. Governor. The Attorney General differed in opinion from the Chief Justice in regard to the powers of the L cut. Governor and declined to enter suit for the recovery of the provisions, recommending that the question should be submitted to the Treasury for decision, a course not followed and the quarrel proceeded to extremities, warrants being issued by the Lieut. Governor for the arrest of the officers and soldiers who had prevented the store-house from being taken possession of by the Provost marshal acting under the orders of DesBarres. Whilst the question was before the Secretary of State to whom it had been submitted by Campbell, the General commanding the district, a short-lived reconciliation had been effected between Colonel Yorke, commanding the detachment on the island and Lieut.-Governor DesBarres, but the quarrel was soon renewed with increased violence, the Lieut. Governor and Chief Justice denouncing in the Council the conduct of Colonel Yorke, as evidencing an intention to starve the people. The feeling of animosity to the troops created in the minds of the settlers by this charge was the most serious effect of the quarrel. Prosecutions were entered against Yorke and his officers and a true bill was found against the former by the Grand Jury. At a meeting of Council called to consider the question, the Attorney General gave it as his opinion, that DesBarres, as Chancellor, had power to issue a warrant against Yorke, but was responsible to the Crown for its exercise. The Chief Justice took high ground, maintaining that the Lieut-Governor had absolute power over all authoricy, civil or military, on the island and subsequently, in a charge to the Grand Jury, he stated that he declined to proceed to any trials till the military forces were removed. It seems from the correspondence that the inhabitants of the island were greatly divided in opinion, rival addresses being signed, some in favour of the troops, with scrious charges against the Lieut.-Governor and Chief Justice on the one hand and on the other addresses in favour of these two officials. On the 30th November, 1786, the Secretary of State wrote to DesBarres that the King was not satisfied with some of his proceedings, which had raised doubts of his rectitude, or at least of his prudence, and that he was to come to London to give an account of his administration, leaving the senior Councillor in charge. Gibbons the Chief Justice was suspended but restored on account of his general good character, although his conduct was held to have been censurable. He, however, died in prison in France, having been taken a prisoner of war whilst on board ship. Shortly after the recall of DesBarres, Macarmick was appointed to succeed him.

The anxiety of Lieut-Governor DesBarres for the speedy settlement of the island is apparent from the whole correspondence, but his efforts were thwarted by objections given effect to by government to emigration from the United Kingdom to the colonies although emigrants could not be prevented from going elsewhere, notably to the United States. The consequence was that the great expense incurred by DesBarres was, to a large extent, thrown away, an expense which, with others incurred officially in the course of his administration, he was unable to recover in spite of his efforts to that end. The violent party spirit that reigned in the island led to charges of all kinds being made against the Lieut-Governor for the time being, a fact which must be borne in mind in regard to the first who held that office in Cape Breton as well as in respect to the charges against his successors.

Macarmick, often, but improperly, written McCormick, his successor, was not more fortunate than his predecessor in escaping obloquy. He reached Sydney on the 7th October, 1787, but did not land till the 12th, DesBarres not having vacated Government House. Shortly after his arrival, Macarmick reported that he had taken steps to recover lands held under licenses of occupation granted by DesBarres. The cause of these licenses being issued appears to have arisen from the probibition to grant lands absolutely, which it was complained prevented the settlement of the island and thereby retarded its progress. Macarmick's proceedings in this case were approved of, the issue of the licenses being regarded as an evasion of the prohibition and pronounced invalid, formal authority being given to Macarmick to recover them by legal proceedings, but he reported that he did not anticipate any trouble from those in possession.

It is not necessary to dwell on the quarrels between Macarmick and the officials, which were frequent and bitter, it is sufficient to notice that the enmity of a portion of the inhabitants towards the military on account of the check kept on the issue of provisions remained unabated; the origin of this feeling has been already noticed. The apprehended war with Spain over the seizures of vessels at Nootka Sound, led to the orders for Cape Breton, as well as the other colonies, being put in a state of defence, but peace being speedily re-established, little expense was incurred for the island on that occasion.

In 1758, the strong fortification of Louisbourg was captured and held by Great Britain de facto, until by the treaty with France in 1763, a formal surrender was made of Nova Scotia, including Cape Breton, in terms of the fourth article of that treaty, which is in these words:—

IV. His most Chri tian Majesty renounces all pretensions, which he has hitherto formed, or might form, to Nova Scotia or Acadia, in all its parts, and guaranties the whole of it, and with all its dependencies, to the King of Great Britain; moreover, his most Christian Majesty cedes and guaranties to his said Britannic Majesty, in full right, Canada, with all its dependencies, as well as the Island of Cape Breton, &c., &c.

The existence of coal in the island was well known, grants having been made early in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries by the French King, and in the journal of Sir Hovenden Walker of the unsuccessful attempt on Quebec, he says on the 11th of

This ciaim was not, however, established for upwards of fifty years, as already noted, the treaty by which Cape Breton was surrendered by France having been signed on the 10th of February, 1763. Next year General Howe and other officers who had served in the army, applied for a grant of land to be used for opening coal mines. The application was referred by the Privy Council to the Lords of Trade on the 19th March 1764. On the 26th of the same month and year, a similar reference was made to the Lords of Trade of a memorial from the Duke of Richmond and associates for a grant of the whole island, in which no mention was made of coal mines. Other applications followed in respect to the coal lands. On the 10th of May, Sir Thomas Fludyer was desired to attend the Privy Council to support the case of himself and others, who had presented a memorial for the lease of all the coal lands in Cape Breton. Sir Thomas Fludyer was an alderman of London, knighted by George 111. in 1761. His brother, Sir Samuel, created a baronet in 1759, joined his brother Thomas in a second memorial in which they asked for 100,000 acres in Cape Breton, and for a lease of all the coal lands within the limits of the grant; a map accompanied this second memorial. Other proposals for the coal lands were received, and on the 10th of July, 1764, the Lords of Trade recommended to the King the acceptance of the offer by Sir Samuel Fludyer and associates. What steps, if any, were taken by the successful offerers cannot be traced n the correspondence; a report from Francklin, Lieut-Governor of Nova Scotia, dated 30th September, 1766, gives some information respecting the mines, the buildings, etc., so that some work must have been done to develop them. He reported that the vein was 12 fect thick and half a mile wide, that the coal ready for transportation could be sold for twelve shillings and sixpence, presumably a chaldron, the cost for raising the same quantity being five shillings, showing a large profit, which he urged should be used for the public benefit, and that the coal should be sent to Halifax in order to supply export cargoes for vessels bringing merchandise, instead of them being obliged to sail in ballast. This was followed by an address from the Legislative Council and Assembly, asking for the revenues of the coal mines and for the quit-rents on the lands granted to be used for provincial improvements, but this request was refused, the reason alleged being the heavy expenses for the American services, of which Nova Scotia came in for a very ample share. Apparently whatever leases had been granted had expired, for Lord William Campbell, Governor of Nova Scotia, at that time including Cape Breton, in a dispatch dated 21st May, 1767, reported that he had allowed merchants in Halifax to raise coal, that is that he had granted licenses for that purpose, that he had realized £500 by this step, and that as the coal was on the coast and easily accessible, the holders of licenses would for their own interest prevent unlicensed persons from carrying it off. The money thus raised was employed for the construction of roads, a course which did not meet with the approbation of the King, as Lord William Campbell was informed by the Secretary of State that His Majesty could not grant the revenues from quit-rents and from the coal mines for provincial services, but a sum was granted to cover the amount expended for these purposes. When the prohibition to carry off coal for general use was given does not appear in the dispatches, but a letter from Francklin, dated 28th May, 1768, shows that such an order had been received. In sending copy of the contract for digging and carrying off coal, he sent an affidavit of the quantity already removed, reporting that by His Majesty's instructions he had prevented the removal of the rest, and that by order of Sir Jeffery Amherst a quantity had been raised for the troops. The prohibition, it was represented, would have no effect in saving the coal, but the contrary. The removal of the 59th from Louisbourg

Lord William Campbell reported on the 12th of September, 1768, would be followed by the total desertion of its inhabitants and that the coal mines, ordered not to be touched would be worked by any one who chose to go there. A repetition of the order not to renew the contract was given by dispatch from the Secretary of State of the same date (12th September) and Lord William Campbell, apparently in answer, stated the nature of the coal contract and again informed the Secretary of State of his apprehension of the bad effects of the contract not being renewed, or a similar arrangement being entered into. That his apprehension was well grounded appears from a report made on the 30th June, 1770, that one inhabitant of Louisbourg had taken out 500 tons of coal for his own advantage, a case which does not appear to have been singular. It, however, led to a military guard being placed over the coal mines and the seizure of what had been brought to the surface, which it was suggested should be sent to Halifax for the use of the troops, or, if the expense of removal were thought too great, some other way of disposing of the coal could be considered. From this and previous evidence, it seems clear that Campbell regarded the existence of a contract as a guarantee that the contractors would guard their own interests instead of the expense of preserving the eoal being thrown on Government. It is apparent that the military guard was insufficient to watch over and protect the coal deposits, which, as previously reported, were easily aeeessible, for Legge, successor to Campbell, called the attention of Commodore Shuldham, on the 21st of June, 1774, to the fact that a regular contraband trade was carried on with St. Pierre and Miquelon, the islands off Newfoundland left in possession of the French, which were supplied with coal from Cape Breton, brandy, wine, and other merchandise being given in exchange. Such a trade, the Secretary of State believed, could only be stopped by the vigilance of the cruisers, and on the 27th January, 1775, orders were given that care must be taken to prevent the removal of coal from Cape Breton, except for the use of troops at Halifax and Massachusetts Bay.

The cause of the subsequent change of policy in respect to the preservation of coal does not appear in the correspondence, but it may be considered probable that the liberty to the inhabitants of Halifax to dig coal on Cape Breton of which they were informed by the Lieut-Governor on the 26th April, 1776, was due to the influx of troops and refugees to Halifax, consequent on the evacuation of Boston. The system was allowed to continue in force during the war which, no doubt, accounts for the absence of reference to the coal supply during that period, as it was not till the 8th of March, 1785, that the Secretary of State informed Parr, then Governor of Nova Scotia but having Cape Breton as a subsidiary part of his government, that the existing system of supplying Halifax with coal might continue, but that the privilege could only be temporary. The only references to the coal mines during the progress of the revolutionary war were reports that threats were freely expressed and attempts made to destroy the works, and that a force was sent for their defence, consisting of newly-raised independent companies, under command of Capt. Hierlihy. On a definite report that two pirates were to make a descent on the mines, the naval commander, Capt. Fielding, had a force sent off in twenty-four hours to repel the attack.

After the close of the war, Macarmick reported (23rd October, 1787) that he had sent coal to Halifax, the proceeds of which were to be applied for the purchase of provisions, and on the 28th of the same month, in a dispatch to the Secretary of State, he informed him that little or no revenue to be expected from the mines, which had been a sink of expense, and he proposed to farm them out; an indication, although not evidence, that the profit went to individuals, whilst the expense fell on Government. No answer to this is on record, and on the 1st of July, 1789, Macarmick again reported on the expense of bringing the mines into working order, and that it had been proposed to ballast the mast ships with coal.

What was done towards farming or leasing the mines does not appear in the correspondence, but an official letter from Mathews, the Attorney General, dated in January, 1792, shows that Mr. Moxley was in possession of the mines whom Macarmick desired to dispossess by a suit, declared by the Attorney General to be illegal. He. however, bowed to the Governor's order and informed him of the method of procedure that should be adopted. The attention of Government appears to have been called that year (1792) to the importance of the coal deposits in Cape Breton, by a series of observations by James Miller on the coal trade of the island, for a few days after (Miller's letter with the "Observations" is dated 31st June, of course through error) an order was sent to Macarmick by the Secretary of State, that a full report should be transmitted respecting the coal mines. In accordance with this order a return was sent of the quantity of coal raised on Spanish River for five years from 10th October. 1787, to 10th October, 1792, with a copy of the contract entered into with Tremain & Stout, but what had become of Moxley does not appear in the State papers. The terms of the lease were not satisfactory to Government, as Macarmick was informed by the Secretary of State, but the lessees were to be allowed to continue working on the terms agreed on, the revenues to be kept distinct and no part of them to be reserved as a perquisite for the General commanding the district or Lieut.-Governor, Apparently the quantity produced had increased sufficiently to warrant the erection of a shipping wharf, as one was ordered to be built.

James Miller, already referred to, was appointed to superintend the coal mines in Cape Breton, to report on those in that island and in the other provinces and on the salt mines, as they were called, of Upper Canada. Nothing appears to have been done respecting those salt springs or wells and but little, so far as the papers show, in regard to the minerals in other provinces, as except for the one visit he paid to Nova Scotia. at the desire of Wentworth, he does not appear to have left the island but remained there till his death. At the end of 1793 he left England to take up the duties of his appointment, but was driven back by bad weather. When he reached Cape Breton is not stated, but on the 27th August, 1794, he wrote as if he had been there for a short time. He then sent chart, plans and reports, with a memorial from Tremain & Stout for leave to raise the price of coal. He asked that no determination should be come to on that memorial until a general report he was preparing should be received. The proposal to raise the price of coal was disapproved of, the increase being apparently considered unadvisable. This determination was not satisfactory to Miller, who reported that the contractors had made no profits. It is clear from the correspondence that depredations were committed persistently on the coal mines by marauders; these and the proposed importation of coal from England tended to reduce the price and to affect injuriously the revenue of the country and no doubt also the profits of the contractors, but if a contraband trade existed, and the difficulty, if not impossibility, of checking it, except at a cost that would not be entered upon, rendered it permanent or nearly so, and the competition from Great Britain which it would have been wholly contrary to the policy of Government to interfere with, were to be apprehended, it is diff fite

It is unnecessary to enter into details of the differences between Mathews, Adminis trator, and Miller, up till the time Mathews was superseded by Ogilvie, sent to put a stop to the disputes among the officials and to take steps for the security of the island, but it may safely be assumed that these disputes tended to obstruct the progress of the coal industry, Mathews, so far as the correspondence shows, opposing Miller in every way, whether rightly or wrongly there is not sufficient evidence to show.

Ogilvie, believing that the contractors had lost money by the lease, an opiniou in which he was supported by Miller, allowed them to increase the price. Whether or not the legal competition was only a threat and not a reality and that the illegal competition had been checked there is no record among the correspondence to show, but Ogilvie reported that the increased price had not diminished the consumption, the demand having on the contrary increased. Ogilvie remained but a short time and was succeeded by Colonel Murray, who received the local rank of Brigadier General. Before he left Halifax to assume the administration, he proposed a change of policy in the management of the mines, his proposal being to work them on account of Government, to open a trade with the United States and to allow coal to be exported in American bottoms. In accordance with his proposals he took the working out of the hands of Tremain & Stout, who from the expiration of their lease had remained as tenants at will, quarrelled with them and reported in glowing terms of the financial success of the new method of working, which was flatly contradicted by his successor, Despard. What further occurred in respect to the coal mines down to 1801, may be traced in the calendar.

The political history of the island down to 1801, is the narrative of party spirit and abuse of whoever was Lieut.-Governor; dismissions and suspensions of officials and changes on the part of each new governor of the policy of his predecessor, so that the serious charges made against DesBarres, the first governor, down to Despard who was in the occupation of the office in 1801, when the calendar closes, must be received with doubt, if not in many cases with disbelief.

In Prince Edward Island, it may be remembered, Patterson refused to give place to Fanning, when ordered to return to London. On the island of Cape Bretor, there was a remarkable similarity of circumstances, varying in details, when Murray was ordered to transfer the administration to Despard. In his refusal to acknowledge Despard as civil administrator Murray was supported by the Chief Justice and by some of the Councillors. From the first there were doubts as to Murray's power to hold the office under the commission laid before the Council, that being granted to "Thomas" instead of to "John" Murray, his real name. This error, which there is no reasonable doubt was clerical, was held by members of the Council to be of so serious a nature as to invalidate all proceedings for which the authority of the administrator was required The objection was, however, surmounted, but when Despard was appointed to succeed him, Murray refused to give up the civil administration, holding that Despard was only vested with the military command. The proceedings of each, as reported by the other, were such as to be productive of little respect for authority on the part of the public. Like the two kings of Brentford, each held council meetings and transmitted the journals, leaving everything respecting the government of the island in confusion. plained that Despard had seized the mines, Government House and provincial schooner and placed everything in the hunds of the same faction which held possession of power on Murray's arrival, that he had been proscribed by proclamation and beat of drum, so that people were afraid to have intercourse with him. Despard reported in detail instances of misconduct on the part of Murray, but of the truth of these charges there is no direct evidence in the documents and from an incidental expression of opinion by the Secretary of State of Murray's want of discretion, it would seem that the real charge against him was a want of business habits, not dishonesty. The contest was not dignified, but Murray's course seems almost unaccountable; finally, on a positive order, which left no room for the slightest doubt of its meaning, Murray transferred to Despard the instructions, &c., which he held officially and disappeared from the scene.

The State papers relating to Hudson's Bay are comparatively few, the Government of the territory embraced within the charter of the Hudson's Bay Company being exercised almost independently by its officials. The early papers relate chiefly to boundary and other disputes between the company and the French. In connection with these documents two journals are published (Note A) of Radisson's voyages in 1682-3 and 1684, the first when he was employed by the French and the other when he had taken service again with the Hudson's Bay Company, he and his brother-in-law des Groseillers having both been previously employed by that company in 1667, as appears by the "Transactions between England and France relating to Hudson's Bay, 1687," published in full in the report on Archives for 1883. At page 186 of that report are these words, contained in the answer by the Hudson's Bay Company to the French claims.

The expedition made in 1667 is alone solemn enough to establish the Right of the English and is not the less valid for the service they reaped therein from Groseillers and Radisson, said to be Frenchmen. The Venetians might as well pretend to the English Colonics, because Cabot made the discovery and the Genoese might demand reason of Spaine for their Possessions in the Indies, because Colomb was a native of that State. There are few expeditions or Voyages and scarce any Conquests made where there is not a mixture of Forreigners 'tis sufficient that those people were not forced but hired into the service of the English nation.

The name of des Groseillers, taken from a small property, was Medard Chouart, but he is as little known by that name as Voltaire was known by his real name of Arouet, he being always spoken of by the name of des Groseillers, changed in one affidavit into "Gooseberry," the name literally translated into English being "gooseberry bushes." Copies of the journals now published in the original French, with a translation which I have made as usual, were obtained in the Hudson's Bay House, London, by the politeness of the Secretary, and are, I believe, now published for the first time in the original language, the Prince Society of Boston, Massachusetts, U.S.A. having profished translations in 1885.

The Hudson's Bay Company was incorporated in 1670, by Charles the second, the first name mentioned in the charter being that of Prince Rupert, Count Palatine of the Rhine, Duke of Pavaria and Cumberland, &c. It declared the company to be one body corporate and politic and to bear the name of "The Governor and Company of Adventurers of England, and into Hudson's Bay," of which Prince Rupert was to be the first governor. The company was not long in the quiet enjoyment of their privileges as Frontenae, who had become Governor General of Quebec in 1672, sent troops to occupy the territory, and in October, 1673, sent father Albanel, a jesuit, against whose conduct the company complained in 1676, charging him with attemping to seduce Groseillers and Radisson from their service and that in the absence of the ships he had pulled down the King's ensigns and had been, tampering with the Indians. In the document referring to this complaint, Radisson is said to have been an Italian, a statement for which there is no foundation. Charges and counter charges followed and the conduct of Radisson, his own version of which is given, was made the subject of complaint on the part of these who had suffered by his proceedings; as these proceeding are fully detailed in the journal (Note A), it would occupy space unnecessarily to reproduce them here, even in summary. It is sufficient to say that the affidavits and complaints and the narrative of Radisson are substantially in accord, although regarded from different points of view. A letter from Mr. afterwards Sir James Hayes, dated 26th January, 1681, throws a curious light on the facility with which the two brothers-in-law changed their employers, Mr. Hayes writes, and there is nothing in the journals to throw doubt on the statement, that in consequence of ill usage at the hands of the Governor of Quebec, they engaged in the fur trade with the New Englanders and were subsequently paid servants of the Hudson's Bay company; they were at intervals in the service of France and according to Radisson's own account, he was deceiving the French authorities during the time he was negotiating with the Hudson's Bay Company to be taken back to their service. In the journal of 1684, the name of Captain Gazer occurs several times. On the 30th of May 1688, Captain Geyer received a commission to be commander of the northerly part of Hudson's Bay and deputy governor of the lands, &c., at the bottom of Hudson's Straits. The general incorrectness in the spelling of the most ordinary words, not to speak of proper names, makes it probable, if not certain, other circumstances being considered, that the Captain Gazer mentioned in the journal is the Captain Geyer whose name is in the commission.

Although the hostilities on the part of the French were continued and convoys for the ships were necessary, yet it does not follow that the protection asked for towards the seamen engaged for the Hudson's Bay ships was against attacks from the French. On the contrary, it is probable that the protection asked for was rendered necessary to prevent the loss of seamen by impressment and the consequent delay in the sailing of the vessels.

Mention is frequently made in the journal of 1682-3 of Mr. Bridgar, appointed Governor of Port Nelson, who is there spoken of in slighting terms. The instructions he received on setting out for his government were dated 15th May, 1682, in these terms:—

We having thought fit to make a settlement in the River of Port Nelson in Hudson's Bay, have chosen you out from amongst those who have formerly served our Company, as a Person whom we judge qualified for such a Charge; wherein we hope you will never give us Reason to think ourselves mistaken; but that you will behave yourself with that Prudence, Integrity and Industry, that becomes you in so great a Trust, both for your own Reputation and the Interest and Advantage of the Company.

In the first Place, upon your Arrival there, you are, with the Advice of Captain Guilham, to choose out the most convenient Place for building a House and Fort, for your Safety and Accommodation; which when you have well done, you are to use your Diligence to penetrate into the Country, to make what Discoveries you can, and to get an Acquaintance and Commerce with the Indians thereabouts, which we hope in time may turn to Account and answer the great Charge we shall and may be at in making this settlement.

These instructions might be compared with the statement by Radisson that he was the first, on behalf of the French, to make a settlement at Port Nelson. It was a situation which was the scene of constant struggles having been taken and retaken repeatedly. In 1694, it was taken by Iberville; by this capture it was believed that the whole trade of the Bay fell under the complete control of France, but as the Hudson's Bay Company proposed to send out four ships the following year, they, at least, did not consider the results so extensive as was believed. In 1696, Port Nelson was surrendered by the French; the French commander, de la Forest, complained that the articles of capitulation had not been observed, and a long investigation was made by the Lords of Trade into the complaint. Some of the answers by the Hudson's Bay Company consist of allegations that the terms of the capitulation of 1694 were violated by Iberville, the violations on the part of Allen towards de la Forest being apparently regarded as in some sort reprisals for this previous failure to fulfil the engagements on the surrender. The dispute evidently caused a feeling of no friendly nature in the court of France.

By the treaty of Ryswick, 1697, there was to be a mutual restoration of territory, taken by either side during the war, but the eighth article contains these conditions:—

VIII. Commissioners shall be appointed on both sides, to examine and determine the rights and pretentions which either of the said Kings hath to the places situated in Hudson's Bay; but the possession of these places which were taken by the French, during the peace which preceded this present war, and were retaken by the English during this war, shall be left to the French, by virtue of the foregoing article. The Capitulation made by the English on the 5th of September, 1696, shall be observed, according to its form and tenor; the merchandizes therein mentioned shall be restored; the Governor of the fort taken there shall be set at liberty, if it be not already done; the differences arisen concerning the exceution of the said capitulation, and the value of the goods there lost, shall be adjudged and determined by the said commissioners, who, immediately after the ratification of the present treaty, shall be invested with sufficient authority for settling the limits and confines of the lands to be restored on either side, by virtue of the foregoing article, and likewise for exchanging of lands, as may conduce to the mutual interest and advantage of both Kings.

According to a report by the Lords of Trade, the conditions of the treaty were not complied with by the French either as regarded the surrender of the posts or the appointment of commissioners to settle claims. The petitions and memorials on these subjects are numerous and negotiations were in progress from 1699, but these had apparently no very definite result. It was not till 1713, that the questions respecting Hudson's Bay were settled, for a conclusion was never reached in regard to other questions raised by the treaty; by the tenth article it was provided that there should be restored to the Queen of Great Britain in full right for ever, "the bay and streights of Hudson, together with all lands, seas, sea-coasts, rivers and places situate in the sai . bay and streights, and which belong thereunto, no tracts of land or of sea being excepted which are at present possessed by the subjects of France."

The treaty of Utrecht was signed on the 11th of April, N. S. (by the old style 31st March) and on the 6th of August following, an order signed by the King was sent to Jeremie, ordering him to deliver up. Hudson's Bay, but the claims for damages still remained unsettled and, as just said, continued so, several vain attempts having been made to close up the disputes.

For a large amount of valuable information respecting the Hudson's Bay Company, reference may be made to the proceedings of a committee of the British House of Commons in 1749, a copy of which is among the Archives in series PF, vol. 40, the report beginning at p. 215. many valuable papers, but as the committee made no recommendations and no other eport than the evidence and appendix, it is impossible to make a summary in any reasonable space, beyond saying that accounts are given of the products, minerals, &c., of the country, the attempts to discover a North-west passage, explorations, tables of the importations and exportations of the Hudson's Buy Company and other information of more or less importance. The papers deposited in the Record Office are of no more recent date than 1789, but there is nothing of interest more modern than 1759. Among the manuscripts in the Archives are the journals of Anthony Hendey from June, 1754 to June, 1755, at which dates he left and returned to York fort, and o Mathew Cocking, second factor at York firt from and to the same fort, leaving in June, 1772, and returning in June, 1773. The object of the first is stated to have been to explore the country inland, so as to increase the company's trade; as an introduction to the other, it is stated that Cocking performed the journey "in order to take a view o the inland country and to promote the Hudson's Bay Company's interest; whose trade is diminished by the Canadians yearly intercepting the natives on their way to the settlements." To the politeness of Mr. R. Miller Christy, of the Priory, Bloomfield, England we are indebthed for copies of these journals, which are bound together in volume 190 of the series M in the Archives.

At Note B are published documents relating to the proposal to establish families on Sable Island for the purpose of rescuing and caring for shipwrecked crews and for saving the cargoes of the wrecked vessels. This island, which is apparently only the apex of the banks of Newfoundland has, from the numerous fatalities that have occurred there received the name of the "grave yard of the Atlantic". It has been stated to have been well known at a very early date, but many of the accounts are, to say the least, of doubtful authenticity. In 1583, one of the ships of Sir Humphrey Gilbert, who had taken possession of Newfoundland and was intending to go to Virginia, was wrecked here. Richard Whitbourne in his "Discourse and Discovery of Newfoundland," published in 1620, says that Sir Humphrey had arrived in Newfoundland, with two good ships and a pinnace and after taking possession of Newfoundland sailed for Virginia. His account of the cause of the loss of the ship is thus given in his preface:

By reason of some unhappy direction in his course, the greatest ship he had struck upon shelves on the coast of Canadie (sic) and was there lost, with most part of the company in her. And hec himself being then in a small Pinnace of 20 Tun, in the company of his Vice-Admiral (one Captain Hayes), returning towards England, in a great storme, was overwhelmed with the Seas and so perished.

It will be seen that there is a picturesque absence of perspective about this narrative, the ship not having been wrecked on the "coast of Canadie," and the foundering of the vessel in which was Sir Humphrey Gilbert not having taken place for some time after and at a great distance from the scene of the first wreck, and that the course of the vessels had been changed after the wreck on account of the weakness of the crews, arising from fatigue and hunger, which reconciles the statement made in a sentence preceding that quoted, that the vessels were on their way to Virginia, with that in the quotation, that they were returning to England.

Richard Clarke, Master of the ship "Delight," one of Gilbert's ships, gives the following account of the wreck:—Gilbert, desiring to sight Sable Island, a course was 8a-c taken from Cape Race to bring the ships in that direction. Clarke says (I have modern-sed the spelling):—

When we came within twenty leagues of the Isle of Sablon, we fell to controversy of our course. The General (Gilbert) came up in his frigate and demanded of me, Richard Clarke, Master of the "Admiral," what course was best to keep; I said that west-south-west was best, because the wind was at south and night at hand and unknown sands lay off a great way from the land. The General commanded me to go west-north-west. I told him again that the Isle of Sablon was west-north-west and but fifteen leagues off, and that he should be upon the island before day if he went that course. The General said my reckoning was untrue, and charged me in Her Majesty's name and as I would show myself in her country to follow him that night. I, fearing his threatenings because be presented Her Majesty's person, did follow his commandment, and about seven o'olock in the morning the ship struck on ground, where she was cast away. Then the General went off to sea—the course that I would have had them go before—and saw the ship cast away, men and all, and was not able to save a man, for there was not water upon the sand for either of them, much less for the "Admiral," that drew fourteen feet.

The sufferings of the crew and the loss of Sir Humphrey Gilbert off the Azores are described by Clarke and by Mr. Edward Haies, survivors. The latter gives an account of the fleet (Hakluyt, edition of 1589, page 684). Clarke is described as Master of the "Delight," but calls himself Master of the "Admiral." The list given by Mr. Haies (or Hayes, for it is given both ways) explains the apparent discrepancy; it is as follows:—

- 1. The "Delight," alias the "George," of 120 tons burthen, was Admiral, in which went the General; William Winter, partner and part owner, and Richard Clarke, Master.
- 2. The "Rawley," fitted out (set foorth) by Mr. Walter Rawley, 200 tons burthen, was vice-admiral, in which went Mr. Butler, captain, and Robert Davis, of Bristol, master.
- 3. The "Golden Hind," 40 tons burthen, was rear admiral, in which went Edward Hayes, captain and owner, and William Cox, of Limehouse, master.
 - 4. The "Swallow," 40 tons burthen, in her was Captain Maurice Brown.
- 5. The "Squirrell," 10 tons burthen, in which went Captain William Andrews and one Cave, master.

The fate of the rest of the vessels and the loss of Sir Humphrey Gilbert not relating directly to the history of Sable Island, it is not necessary to trace here. Very full details are given in Hakluyt, already referred to.

The unhappy lot of the convicts left by de la Roche on the island is so well known that a simple reference to the occurrence is all that is necessary. Only those of a less well-known character need be spoken of in the present report. Among these, is the loss of a vessel with a detachment of troops proceeding from Montreal to New York, but with orders to call at the Bay of Chalcurs, to see that the French troops there complied with the articles of the capitulation made at Montreal. The incident is so little known that great part of Licut.-Colonel Elliot's letter may be quoted. It is dated from Halifax, 9th May, 1761. The first part is omitted:—

A few days after we sailed from Chaleur, after a very great storm, we struck on the Island of Sable (about forty leagues to the eastward of this place) an island barren and uninhabited, with neither a stick of wood upon it, a stone or a spot of earth, but one entire bank of sand. e struck on land barren earth, but e eight and forty hours before we durst venture on shore, the sea being so very high; though, at the same time, we expected our vessel to fall to pieces every moment, our whole employ was tossing overboard such provisions as we could come at, for our future sustenance, in case we were any of us lucky enough to get on shore, which I began to despair of, as the only beat we had was lost in returning to the vessel, after landing a man on shore to fix a rope; in doing this two sailors were drowned; however, it was the preservation of the rest of our lives; for, finding it impossible to stay any longer on board, we fastened an empty barrel to this rope, and so, one by one, were drawn through a very great surf (for near the space of four-score yard) on shore, without the loss even of one man of my party, and Providence was pleased even to preserve two little infants that were on board, the one brought on shore on the father's back, and the other on the mother's. We continued eight-and-forty hours more in our wet clothes upon the land without anything to cover us: at last we picked up some sails, and next day luckily found the officer's tent that was with me. (Annual Register, vol. 5, p. 65).

Seventy people landed on the island, whose allowance was four ounces of flour, with a gill of rum or wine for each; and four pounds of pork among six for seven days until they discovered horses and horned cattle. Not expecting to be rescued till May, they erected houses with sails and yards of the vessel which were washed ashore, but contrary to their expectations they were all landed safely at Haifax on the 20th of January "as naked as beggars." In the volume of the Atlantic Neptune, by J. F. W. DesBarres, published in 1781, and marked B. in the Geographical Series of the Archives is a view in sepia with the title:—"A view from the camp at the east end of the Naked Sand Hills on the south-east shore of the Isle of Sable," which corresponds with the description of the houses built with yards, sails, &c., and with other circumstances. It seems almost certain, although no date is on the illustration, that it represents the camp of Lieut.-Colonel Elliot, as described in his letter.

From various indications there can be no doubt that wreckers plied their infamous trade on the island. In the volume of the "Atlantic Neptune," already referred to, is a view of a "Wrecker's Den near the pond on the Isle of Sable," with a wooden house shown in the foreground, which must have been in use subsequent to the wreck of Lieut.-Colonel Elliott's detachment. The want of dates on the views makes it difficult to identify the particular time intended to be represented, but as a period of only twenty years elapsed between the wreck reported by Lieut.-Colonel Elliott and the publication of the "Atlantic Neptune," it seems probable, although not certain, that this last view represents the establishment of the people who in 1774 asked for and obtained leave to settle on the island, on condition of assisting shipwrecked people. There was, however, no supervision of the island, and it was reported and currently believed that those who escaped alive from the shipwrecked vessels were murdered, so that the wreckers might secure without detection valuables from their persons and plunder from the vessels. It is even asserted that false lights were displayed to lure vessels to their destruction. The report in Note B of the number of wrecks discovered as the sand was shifted by the heavy gales, is evidence of the immense number of vessels that were lost on this fatal sandbank. For the more modern history of the islands, reference may be made to Dr. Gilpin's "Lecture on Sable Island," 1858, and to Mr. S. D. Macdonald's "Sable Island and its Attendant Phenomena," 1883.

The whole respectfully submitted.

(Translation.)

Relation of the voyage of Pierre Esprit Radison, Esquire, to the North of America, in the years 1682 and 1683.

I am obliged to justify myself above all things from the charge of fickleness of which I may be accused, when it shall be seen that in this voyage I acted against the interests of England and in that of 1683 against those of France, for if I had not good reasons to give for my proceedings, there would appear to be some caprice and great inconstancy in my conduct, but as there are many persons of note and of probity who know what Mr. Chouard Desgroseilliers, my brother-in-law, and myself have done in different voyages for those interested in the Hudson's Bay Company for the business of the beaver trade and the just causes of discontent which have obliged us both to withdraw to France, I need not apprehend that the engagements into which I have since entered against the interests of the said company, can draw upon me the reproach of fickleness and inconstancy, for it is known that neither my brother-in-law nor myself have ever failed in anything, however little may have depended on us, having both several times risked our lives and done all that was in the power of man, and what honourable and conscientious men ought to do, for the good and advantage of the said company, from the year 1665 to 1674, but seeing our advice rejected with contempt to follow that of others which visibly tended to the ruin of the establishment of the trade, and that it was apparent on all occasions that we were regarded as useless, of whom there was no longer need, and who deserved no acknowledgment, made us resolve to return to France, after having long resisted, for in reality it is known that I should have more regard for the service of England than for that of France, having married in London into an honourable family, the alliance into which had still more strongly bound me to the interests of the nation. Besides, all my friends know that I tenderly love my wife, and that I showed them how greatly I was troubled at sceing myself forced to abandon her. I hope, then, that these considerations will justify my conduct respecting the different parties to whom I have attached myself, and that what I shall state in this relation respecting my proceedings in regard to the English in the voyage to Nelson River and port in 1683, will justify me also against what has been reported to my discredit in order to render me odious to the nation, for it will be seen that having had the good fortune to make and maintain my establishment against those whom I then regarded as my enemies, and to make myself master of it by preventing their designs, I used in a proper spirit the advantage I had over them. If they wished to do me justice they would acknowledge that they had more reason to praise than to blame me, having always treated them honourably, so long as they would live with me. It is true that I made use of all the arts I could think of to carry my point, and as I knew all that these gentlemen were plotting against me, I preferred to take them rather than to be taken, knowing that if they had been beforehand, I would have passed my time wors; with them than they would have done with me. I come now to the narrative of my voyage, not thinking it necessary to speak here of the campaigns I made on the French navy since leaving England, of the Guinea and Tabago expeditions and other occasions previous to my engagement for this voyage.

Whilst my brother-in-law and myself were dissatined with the Hudson's Bay Company, we were several times solicited on behalf the late M. Colbert to return to France, with strong assurances that we should be well treated there; we resisted for a long time, not willing to listen to any of the propositions made to us, but seeing our affairs going from bad to worse in the company, apparently with no reason to expect good treat-

Si tost notre arrives a paris, nons alasme nous presenter, a feu mons' Colbert. Il nous censura d'abord de ce que nous avions preferé le service Dangre a celuy de France. neantmeins apres avoir entendu nos raisons et recognu de quoy nous pouvions estre capables, par les choses que nous luy dismes de nos découvertes dans les pays septentrionaux de l'amerique et des habitudes que nous y avions contractees avec les sauvages, Il nous assura de sa protection, et du pardon du passé de la part du Roy, avec un entier Restablis-ement au mesme estat que nous estions avant notre sortic de france, a condition que nous Employerions nos soings et habitudes pour l'utilité et le progres du commerce des traites du castor dans les colonies françoises du canada. Il nons confirma aussi la promesse qui nous avoit été faite a londres d'une gratification de 400 louis dor, qu'on acquiteroit toutes nos debtes et que nous aurions de lemploy, on nous fit Expédier dabord des lettres patentes de pardon et restablissement, dans lesquelles monst Colbert vouleut qu'il feust faict mention de la condition sous laquelle LeRoy nous les avoit accordéés, a scavoir, demployer nos soings et de nous servir de nos habitudes avec les sauvages pour lavancement et utilité du commerce de la traite du castor dans les colonies françoises, on nous fit payer comptant les 100 pistolles pour la gratification et on satisfit a tout ce qui avait esté promis d'ailleurs, a la rezerve de l'employ, pour lequel on nous fit courir fort longtemps Inutillement. Mais je maperceus le premier dans la suitte de la cause de ce retardement, et que mon mariage en angre me rendoit suspect par ce que ma femme y estoit demenréé, monse Colbert sen expliqua un Jour assez ouvertement apres nous avoir remis plusieurs fois, sur divers pretextes, en me disant qu'il faloit que je fisse passer ma femme en france, si je voules quon eust une entière confiance, en moy, je luv fit cognoistre que Je n'en aves pas esté encore le maistre, ma femme ayant un pere qui navoit pas vouleu me permettre que je la menasse avec moy en france, et je promis que Je feres tout mon possible pour ly attirer, cependant Mons' Colbert nous temoigna qu'il seroit bien aise que mon beau frere, et moy fissions un voiage en canada pour voir avec le gonverneur ce qui sy pourroit faire, nous assenrant qu'il lui envoyeroit ses ordres en notre faveur, nous fismes ce voiage, mais estans arrives a quebek, la Jalousie et le credit de ceux qui avoient en ce temps la un pouvoir absolu sur les affaires du commerce en canada, et dont les creatures estoient Employées, pour les nouvelles descouvertes, firent que le Sr comte de frontenac Gouverneur ne se mit pas en devoir de faire ce quon nous avoit faict esperer, de sa part, de sorte que mestant rebuté, je laissé mon beau frere en canada avec sa famille. Et je m'en retourné en france resolu de servir sur l'arméé navale. Jy ay passé les campagnes dont J'ai parlé cy dessus, jusquau naufrage de l'Isle d'Anb. duquel mestant heureusement sauvé je revins avec le reste de larméé a Brest au mois de juillét—ayant perdu tout mon equipage dans ce malheureux naufrage.

Mons' le vice admiral et mons' lintendant escrivirent en cour en ma faveur, et sur les bons temoignages quils rendirent de ma conduite, on me fit donner de la part du Roy une gratification de 100 Louis dor pour me remettre en esquipage, et ces m's masseurerent quilz esperoient dans peu, de me faire donner le commandement d'une fregatte. Je ne creus pas que cela me d'eust si tost arriver, cest pourquoy je me resolus de demander congé pour faire un voiage en ang'e, sous pretexte dy venir chercher ma femme, pour Lemmener avec moy en france, Jeus mon congé de la cour la dessus, avec une autre gratification de 100 Louis dor pour mon voiage, on me recommanda de faire diligence, surtout damener ma femme, apres quoy, on masseuroit positivement que

Mr le chevr ment de ma pas consentir, quil a contre pur à londres pa ne serolent que jour pour ment, we at last accepted the terms offered to us of 400 gold louis in cash, all our debts to be discharged, and to be given employment. We went to France on these conditions, agreed upon in the month of December, 1674.

Immediately on our arrival in Paris, we presented ourselves to the late M. Colbert. He at first censured us for having preferred the service of England to that of France, but after having heard our reasons and ascertained of what we were capable by what we told him of our discoveries in the northern parts of America and of the knowledge we had acquired among the savages, he assured us of his protection and of pardon by the King of what was past, with an entire re-establishment in the same state as we were before leaving France, on condition that we should employ our cares and acquirements for the use and progress of the beaver trade in the French colonies of Canada. He also confirmed the promise made to us in London, of a gratification of 400 gold louis, all our debts to be acquitted, and that we were to be employed. Letters patent of pardon were to be sent us in which M. Colbert wished mention to be made of the conditions on which the King had granted these, to wit, to employ our cares and to make use of our acquirements among the savages for utility in the beaver trade in the French colonies. We were paid 400 pistoles of gratification and the other promises were fulfilled, except that respecting employment, for which we urged uselessly for a long time. But subsequently I was the first to perceive the cause of the delay, and that my marriage in England rendered me suspected on account of my wife living there. M. Colbert explained one day, openly enough after having put me off several times on different pretexts, telling me that I must bring my wife to France, if I wished to have entire confidence placed in me. I made him understand that I was not yet master, my wife having a father, who would not allow me to bring her to France with me, and promised that I would do every thing possible to get her to come. However, M. Colbert stated that he would be happy that my brother-in-law and myself should make a voyage to Canada, to see with the governor what could be done, assuring us that he would send orders in our favour. We made the voyage, but on arriving at Quebec, the jealousy and credit of those who had at that time absolute power over commercial affairs in Canada and whose creatures were employed for new discoveries, made the Count de Frontenac, governor, not to do what we had been led to expect, so that being repulsed, I left my brother-in-law in Canada with his family and returned to France, resolved to serve in the fleet. I passed in this the campaigns of which I have spoken above, until the shipwreck on the Island of Aube, from which having fortunately been saved I returned with the rest of the fleet to Brest in the month of July, having lost all my clothing in this unfortunate shipwreck.

The vice admiral and intendant wrote to the court in my favour, and on their evidence of my conduct I was given from the King a hundred gold louis to refit myself, these gentlemen assuring me that they hoped shortly to obtain for me the command of a frigate. Not believing that this would soon happen, I asked leave to make a journey to England, on pretext of going to bring my wife with me to France. I obtained my leave from the court with another gratification of 100 gold louis for my journey, with a recommendation to use diligence, above all to bring my wife, after which I was positively assured I would have employment.

I then left and arrived at London on the 4th of July. I pointed out to the Chevalier Kirke (Sir John) my father-in-law, of what importance it was for the establishment of my fortune in France, that I should take my wife with me; he would not consent, but asked me to write to my friends in France, on the subject of claims which he has against the inhabitants of Canada, which I did. I still wished during my stay in London to ascertain myself and through my friends, if the company had not a better feeling towards me and if I could not find means some day to renew my connection with them. My attempts were useless, and I found no disposition that would enable me to obtain what I wished. I then returned to France and arrived at Brest, the 12th of October, 1679.

Having informed the vice-admiral and the intendant of the little success I had met with in my journey, for which, however, I was not to blame, they ordered me to render an account of it to the Marquis de Seignelay, which I did, but on learning that my wife pouvoir renouer avec eux, mes desmarches furent Inutilles Et je ne trouve aucune disposition a pouvoir parvenir a ce que je souhaites—je men retourné donc en france, et Jarrivé a Brest le 12' 8^{hre} 1679.

Ayant faict entendre a monst le vice admiral, et a monst l'intendant le peu de succes que Javes eu en mon voiage, et qu'il navoit pourtant pas tenu a moy, jls me donnerent ordre den aller rendre compte à monst le marpuis de Seignelay, ce que je lis, mais en lui aprenant que ma femme estoit encores demenree en angre, J1 me fit reproches, quil voioit bien que javes tousjours les sentimens anglais, adjoutant en mesme temps que je ne deves pas m'attendre qu'on se fiast en moy, quon me donnast le moindre employ, tant que ma femme demeureroit en angre-il mepromit pourtant quil parleroit de mes affaires a monst Colbert son pere ce qu'il fist. Et lestant alle voir, il meparla de la mesme maniere quavoit faict monst le marquis de Signelay (sic) sur le suject de ma femme, et me donna ordre daller chez le Sr Belinzani son premier commis pour les affaires du commerce qui me diroit ses intentions. Estant alle ches le Sr Belinzani, il me dict que mons^r de colbert trouveroit bon que jeusse conference avec le Sr de la Chesnaye marchand du canada, qui faict tout le commerce de ce pays la, et qui estoit lors a paris, afin de prendre avec luy des mesures, pour se prevaloir de nos descouvertes, et habitudes dans les pays septentrionaux du canada, pour avancer le commerce des traites du castor, et empescher autant quil seroit possible, celles que les etrangers y vouloient faire au préjudice des colonies françoises le dit sieur Belin ani me diet aussy que je ne pourres faire mieux ma cour aupres de mons colbert ni macquerir son amitié par aucun service quy luy fust plus agreables qu'en mapliquant fortement d'attirer toutes les nations des peuples sauvages de ces pays septentrionaux, du costé des francois, et pour les destourner des estrangers, massurant d'une grande reconnoissance pour le service que je rendres a l'Estat en cette occasion, et que le Sr de la Chesnave me donneroit en Canada toutes les choses necessaires pour Lexecution des desseins que nous pourrions resoudre ensemble ladessus.

Suivant ces instructions jallé ches le Sr de la Chesnaye nous conferasme assez longtemps ensemble, et apres plusieurs questions sur l'Estat des pays que javes frequentés, et luy avoir comm'uniqué mes memoires, jl me proposa d'entreprendre l'Establissement d'une traité pour le castor dans la grande baye, ou Javes esté quelques années auparavant pour les anglois, nous feusmes deux jours a concerter ensemble sur les moyens de faire c'est establissement, nous en demeurasmes enfin daccord, et que je ferês un voiage en augre pour tascher d'e n retirer ma femme, et prendre langue en mesme temps sur larmement que la compagn¹e de la baye de hudson pourroit faire pour ce pays la, Je fis ce second voiage à londres avec quelque reste desperance de meilleure disposition en ma faveur du coste de mrs les Interesses, mais soit quon me regardast lors comme un serviteur tout à fait Inutille, ou comme un homme hors destat de pouvoir nuire, on me Laissa partir sans mavoir faiet temoigner, la moindre marque de bonne volonté, toute la satisfaction que j'eus en ce voiage, feut d'avoir este favorablement receu de son Alt. le prince Rupert, qui me temoigna avoir du desplaisir de ce que mes services estoient si mal recognus. Je pris le parti de me consoler de cette disgrace, et men retourné en france croiant y rencontrer encores la chesnaye, mais estant arrivé a paris, je trouvé qu'il estoit partj, et je ne balancé pas a me resoudre de le suivre en canada pour executer ce que nous avions arresté ensemble a Paris. Je feus prendre congé de mons colbert en luy communiquant mon dessein quil aprouva, jl me souhaita bon voiage, en mencouragant de bien faire. Jallé voir les peres Jesuittes de Paris, comme Interesses avec la chesnaye au commerce du castor, et ils me donnerent de largent pour mon voiage, Jallé membar-

Si tost mon arrivéé je ma bouché avec le 8r la chesnaye qui témoigna avoir beaucoup de Joye de me voir, et apres quelque entretien sur ce que nous avions projetté à Paris, il me dit quil falloit y travailler Incessemment, et comme jl avoit le secret de la cour, et quil en sçavoit les Intentions pour nostre conduite en cette entreprise, il me mena ches le Gouverneur, et moblijea de luy demander sa protection et les ordres dont nous avions besoin de sa part, pour lexecution de notre dessein, mais monst le Gouverneur nous parla, comme sil ne lavoit pas apronvé, et sur cela la Chesnaye lui demanda pour moy un congé pour repasser en Europe, par la nouvelle angre dans une barque du gouverneur de laccadye qui estoit lors a quebek preste a faire voile.

still remained in England, he reproached me, saying he saw I had still English feelings, adding that I must not expect to be trusted, or that I should be given the least employment, so long as my wife remained in England. He promised, however, to speak of my affairs to M. Colbert, his father, which he did. Having gone to see him he spoke to me in the same manner as the Marquis de Seignelay respecting my wife. He gave me an order to go to M. Belinzani, his chief clerk in commercial affairs, who would tell me his intentions. Having gone to M. Belinzani, he told me that M. de Colbert considered it proper that I should have a conference with M. de la Chesnaye, a merchant of Canada, who did all the trade of that country and was then in Paris, concert with him measures to take advantage of our discoveries and acquirements in the northern country of Canada to advance the beaver trade and to prevent as much as possible those measures which strangers desired to take to the prejudice of the French colonies. The said M. Belinzani told me also that I could not better pay my court to M. Colbert, nor acquire his friendship by any more agreeable service than applying myself earnestly to attract all the Indian tribes of these northern countries to the side of the French, and to turn them from the foreigners, assuring me of a great recognition for the service I would render to the State on this occasion, and that M. de la Chesnaye would give me in Canada everything necessary for the execution of the designs we might agree upon for the purpose,

According to these instructions I went to M. de la Chesnaye: we had a long conference and after several questions on the state of the countries which I had often visited and having communicated to him my minutes, he proposed to me to undertake the establishment of a trade in beavers in the Grand Bay, where I had been some years previously for the English. We were two days consulting as to the means of forming this establishment. We came at last to an agreement, and that I was to make another journey to England to try to get my wife from it, and to investigate at the same time the equipment the Hudson's Bay Company might be preparing for that country. I made this second journey to London with some remains of hope of a better feeling in my favour on the part of the gentlemen interested, but either they regarded me then as an altogether useless servant or as a man in no position to do harm, and let me leave without showing the least mark of good will. All the satisfaction 1 felt in this journey was the having been favourably received by His Highness Prince Rupert, who expressed to me his displeasure that my services were so ill recognized. I resolved to console unyself for this disgrace and returned to France believing I would again meet la Chesmaye, but on my arrival in Paris I found he had gone. I did not hesitate to follow him to Canada to carry into execution what we had agreed upon in Paris. taking leave of M. Colbert, I communicated to him my plan, of which he approved. He wished me a good voyage, encouraging me to do well. I went to see the Jesuits of Paris, as being interested with la Chesnaye in the beaver trade and they gave me money for the journey. I embarked at Rochelle and arrived at Quebec on the 25th September, 1682.

Immediately on my arrival I conferred with M. la Chesnaye who showed great joy at seeing me and after some conversation on what we had planned in Paris, he told me we must begin work at once and as he knew the secret of the court and the intentions respecting our conduct in this enterprise, he took me to the Governor and obliged me to ask his protection and the orders it was necessary to receive from him for the execution of our design. But the Governor spoke to us, as if he did not approve of it and thereupon la Chesnaye asked him for leave for me to return to Europe by New England in a vessel belonging to the government of Acadia, then at Quebec ready to sail.

These formalities having been accomplished, la Chesnaye and I spoke of business fully, we continued in agreement respecting the journey and all the conditions for the settlement of our interests. He undertook the purchase of the merchandise and of all the necessaries for the trade to furnish me with a well equipped vessel and supply good provisions. It was agreed that I should have the fourth of the trade in return for my pains, care and the risks I was about to expose myself to for the establishment. My brother-in-law, des Groseillers, who was then at Quebec made on his Je partis donc de quebek le 4º 9bre 1682, avec mes trois hommes sur la barque du Gouverneur de L'accadie ayant mes ordres de me trouver au printemps suivant a l'Isle percée a Lembouchure du fleuve de St. Laurons ou. La Chesnaye devoit menvoyer un bastiment munj, et esquipé suivant nos conventions pour lexecution de lentreprise, il me promit aussi quil menverroit de plus amples. Instructions par escrit pour ma conduite quand je seres sur les lieux.

Nous arrivasme a l'accadie Le vingt six du d. mois de 9bre 1682, nous y passames Lhyver, et je me rendis a l'Isle percéé au printemps, le bastiment que J'attendès arriva, mais non pas tel quon me L'avoit faiet esperer, car ce nestoit qu'une vieille barque denviron 50 thonneaux avec 12 hommes d'esquipage, compris ceux qui estoient avec moy, jl y nuroit asses de marchandises pour la traite, mais peu de vituailles, de sorte que si je n'eusse pas esté engagé sj avant, que je lestes dans lentreprisse, vn tel bastiment auroit este eapable de men rebuter, mais Larrivee du Sr des Grosilieres mon beau frere sur une barque d'environ 30 thonneaux avec 15 hommes d'Esquipage mencourageai nous ne voulumes point l'un et lautre abandonner notre entreprise mais nous eusmes beaucoup de peyne a resoudre nos gens qui estoient espouvantes, de voir que nous allions les exposer a un voiage de 900 Lieues, en de sj petits bastiments, dans des mers rudes, ou nous avions encores a craindre les glaces, cependant nos esquipages voians que nous nous Exposions nous mesmes, et quilz suivroit notre fortune, ils se resolurent, a courir Les mesmes risques que nous, il feut arresté entre mon beaufrere et moy, que nous ferions notre route le plus pres que nous pourrions l'un de lautre, pour pouvoir estre plus tot en estat de nous Secourir en cas de besoing, et nous mismes a la voile partans de l'Isle percée le 11º juillet

Apres 19 Jours de navigation, et que nous ensmes passé le destroit de terre neuve, Lesquipage de la barque de mon beau frere se revolta contre luj, ne voulant pas passer outre, craignant la reneontre des glaces, et de saller engager dans un pays Incognu, ou il pourroit manquer de vivres pendant l'hyver, nous apaismes Les mutins par promesses, et par menaces, la veue dun navire par le 57e degré 30 minutes au nord sur la coste de la brador, y contribua, chacun songea a leviter, nous estions en terre de luy, et jl portoit au plus pres sur nous, comme voulant nous recogtre mais nestans pas en estat de nous defendre je ne trouvai pas a propos que nous missions cap sur luy, mais faisans la mesme route nous gaignasmes la coste ou jl ny avoit rien a craindre, jl revira de bord deux heures avant la nuiet, et nous Le perdismes de veue, et comme jl y a quantité de glaces sur ees mers qui derivent au sud nous fismes havre pour Eviter les dangers, et faire de leau, et prendre quelques autres rafraichissements a la coste des sauvages nommes Esquimos, les plus dangereux de tous ces peuples, quand on sen laisse surprendre, ils vindrent pourtant a nos bords et traiterent avec nous quelque centaine de peaux de loups marins, nous demeurasmes la deux-Jours pendant lesquelz jl y eut encore une mutinerie pour ne passer pas outre, mais japaisé les seditieux et ayant side a bargain with la Chesnaye for the same journey on almost the same conditions as I had done. All these things being settled the Governor was requested to allow age to take three men with me. He knew why but he thought proper to ignore it, for there was no appearance that he imagined I was returning to France without wishing to do anything towards the object which la Chesnaye and I had proposed to him, since I was asking for these three men whom he allowed me to take. One was my nephew, Jean Baptiste des Groseillers, on whom I placed great trust, as he had spent all his life in the savage countries, where he had acquired great aptitude for the trade. He had put 500 livres of his own in the equipment which la Chesnaye was to make for the journey. The second man was Pierre Allemand, whom I took with me for pilot, and the third Jean Baptiste Godefroy, who perfectly understood the Indian language and whom I knew to be able for trade. I left Quebec on the 4th November, 1682, with my three men in the vessel belonging to the Governor of Acadia, having orders to be the following spring at Isle Percee at the month of the St. Lawrence, where la Chesnaye was to send me a vessel furnished and equipped according to our agreement for the execution of the enterprise. He promised also that he would send more ample instructions in writing for my conduct when I should have reached the place.

We arrived at Acadia on the 26th of the said month of November, 1682, passed the winter there and in Spring I went to Isle Pereće. The vessel promised arrived, but she was not such as I had hoped for, being only an old craft of about 50 tons, with 12 men of a crew, including those who were with me. There were goods enough for the trade but a scanty supply of provisions, so that if I had not been so deeply engaged in the enterprise as I was, such a vessel might have repelled me, but the arrival of M. des Groseillers, my brother-in-law, on a vessel of about 30 tons, with 15 men of a crew, encouraged me. Neither of us would abandon our enterprise, but we had much difficulty in persuading our people, who were terrified at seeing that we were about to expose them to a voyage of 900 leagues in such small vessels, into rough seas in which ice was to be feared. However, our crews, seeing that we would expose ourselves and that they followed our fortune, resolved to run the same risks as we. My brother-in-law and myself agreed that we should keep on the same course as near as possible, so as to be able to help each other in case of need, and we set sail, leaving Isle Pereće on the 11th July, 1682.

After 19 days' navigation, when we had passed the strait of Newfoundland, the erew of my brother-in-law's vessel mutinied, not wishing to go further, as they feared meeting with ice and being entangled in an unknown country where provisions might be wanting during the winter. We appeased the mutineers by promises and threats and the sight of a ship in 57° 30' north on the coast of Labrador contributed to this, each thinking of avoiding her. We were in shore of him and he bore as near as possible to us, as if wishing to reconnoitre. Not being in a condition to defend ourselves, 1 did not think proper to go in his direction, but keeping in the same course as the other we reached the coast, where there was nothing to fear. The ship tacked two hours before night and we lost sight of her. As there is a quantity of ice in these seas which drifts to the south, we made the harbour to avoid the dangers, obtain water and some other refreshments on the coast of the Indians called Esquimaux, the most dangerous of all these tribes when people let themselves be surprised. They came, however, to the shore and traded with us some hundred skins of the sea wolf. We remained two days, during which there was again a mutiny to prevent the ships from going further, but $\hat{\mathbf{I}}$ appeased the seditious, and, having put to sea, I warned our crews to preserve the wood and water we had just obtained, as we had resolved, my brother in-law and myself, not to touch anywhere until we had reached our port, unless we should be pursued.

The winds being favourable, we entered Hudson's Strait, and coasted along the north shore. There was a quantity of ice, on which people from my vessel killed a bear of extraordinary size. They ate to excess of the flesh of this animal, from which they were all extremely ill, having great pains in the head and such violent purgings that I did not believe any of them would have recovered. I was obliged to signal my brother-in-law to give him notice of the accident that I might be assisted. Orvietan and sweating relieved these poor wretches, but they all lost their skin. We learned

remis en mer, Iadvertis nos Esquipages de conserver leau et le bois, que nous venions de faire, parceque nous avions resolu mon beau frere et moy, que nous n'aborderions point a Terre qua notre port, a moins que nous ne feussions poursuivis.

Les ventz se trouvans favorables a notre navigation nous entrasmes dans le destroit de hudson que nous cottoyions du côté du nord, il y avoit quantité de glaces sur lesquelles les gens de ma barque tuerent un ours dune grosseur extraordinaire, ils mangerent de la chair de cet animal avec Exces, dont ils feurent tous malades a l'extremité, ayant des grandes douleurs de teste et des desvoyement si violans que Je ne creûs pas quil en rechapast aucun, je feus obligé de faire signat a mon frere pour luy donner advis de cet accident afin destre secoura, lorvietan et les sueurs tircrent ces pauvres malheureux daffaires, mais ilz ont tous changé de peau, nous avons apris depuis par les sauvages que cette espèce d'ours blanes, a Du veniu dans le foye qui se communique a toute la chair, et cause de pareilz accidens quand on en mange.

Je maperceus que pendant ce desordre qui nous estoit arrive proche mile Island a la pointe de L'ouest, nous avions derivé nor ouest par compas, environ 8 lieues en 6 heures vers le cap henry, nons eusmes beaucoup de peyne a nous tirer des glaces et nous nous vismes plusieurs fois en danger dy perir, mais Dieu nous fit la grace den sortir, mon beat frere qui nosoit forcer de voiles estoit demeuré derrière. Jarrivé avant luy le 26 aoust sur la côte du ouest de la baye de hudson et nous nous rencontrasmes ensemble le 2e fore a lembouchure de la Rivière nommee par les sauvages KaKivvaKiouay qui signifie en françois, qui va qui vient.

Estans entrés dans cette Rivière nos premiers soins feurent de choisir un poste pour mettre nos barques en seureté, et bistir une maison, nous avançasmes environ quelque 15 mile, et nous nous arrestasmes a un petit canal, ou nous fismes entrer nos barques, trouvans le lieu assez propre pour y establir notre demeure. Je laissé mon beau frere occupé a faire bastir notre maison, et je partis le Landemain de notre arrivée pour aller dans les terres à la descouverte des sauvages.

Je membarque dans ee dessain dans un canot avec mon neveu, et un autre homme de mon Esquipage tous trois armes de nos fusilz et pistolles, et nous alasmes pendant 8 Jours Environ 40 Lieues au hault de la rivière sans faire rencontre dans les bois d'aucun sauvage, nj voir aucune marque fraische qui nous peust faire cognoistre que des hommes y eussent passé depuis peu, nous Jugions mesmes parceque nous trouvions quantité de bois coupé par les castors qu'il y avoit peu d'habitans aux environs, nous tuasmes chemin faisant quelque cerfz.

Mais le 8e Jour de notre depart estant le soir cabanes sur une Isle pour nous reposer et notre canot estant renversé sur le bord de leau un sauvage qui poursuivoit un ceré apercevant notre canot, s'imagina quil y avoit la les gens de sa nation, c'est pourquoy je silla pour nous advertir de prendre garde a la beste qui avoit passé sur une petite Isle au dessus de nous, mon neveu ayant veu le premier ce sauvage me le diet aussi tost. Je cour a un bord de leau, sans songer au cerf, et appelé le sauvage, lequel ayant esté long cemps sans me vouloir respondre me diet en sa langue que j'entendois fort bien, quil ne mentendoit pas, et se mit aussi tost a fuir au travers les bois.

Le rencontre de ce sauvage me donna de la Joyc, et quelque esperance que nous ne serions pas longtemps sans en voir dautres, nous feusmes toute la nuit sur nos gardes, et le lendemain a la pointe du Jour, je fis porter notre canot de Lautre costé de l'Isle pour estre tout prest a nous en servir, en cas daccident, et je fis faire un grand feu a 100 pas de la, nous decouvrisme le matin a la pointe de l'Isle neuf canots qui venoient vers nous estans aproches a la voix je parlé et demande aux sauvages qui paroissoient dans les canots qui j'ls estoient, jls me respondirent en termes de bonne amitié, je leur fis entendre le sujet qui mavoit mené en leur pays, et qui Jestois, apres quoj un vieillard arme de sa lance, sa massue, et son arc sestant levé tira une flesche de son carquois, dont ayant faict un signal de lorient a loccident, et du septentrion au midy, il La rompit en deux morceaux, et les jeta dans la Rivière puis sadressant a ses compagnons il leur parla a peu pres ainsy, jeunesse vous naves plus rien a craindre le soleil nous est devenu favorable, nos Ennemis uous craindront, puis que voicy L'homme que nous demaudions depuis que nos pere sont nais, apres quoy jlz nagerent tous vers moy a terre, et sortirent de leurs canots, je les fis aprocher de mon feu sans aucune armes, mon neveu et l'autre afterwards from the Indians that this kind of white bear has poison in its liver which is communicated to the whole of the flesh and causes such accidents when it is eaten. I noticed that during this disorder, which happened near Mile Island, at the western point, we had drifted north-west by compass, about eight leagues in six hours towards Cape Henry. We had great difficulty in freeing ourselves from the ice, and were several times in danger of perishing, but God graciously delivered us. My brother-in-law, who dared not set all sail, remained behind. I arrived before him on the western coast of Hudson's Bay, on the 26th of August, and we met on the 27th September, at the mouth of the river named by the Indians Ka Kirva-Kiouay, meaning "who goes, who comes."

Having entered this river, our first care was to select a post to put our vessels in safety and to build a house. We advanced some 15 miles and stopped at a small channel into which we brought our vessels, finding the place suitable for a habitation. I left my brother-in-law occupied in building the house, and left the day after our arrival to go into the country in search of the savages. With this object, I embarked in a canoe with my nephew and another of the crew, all three armed with muskets and pistols. In eight days we went about forty leagues to the upper part of the river, without meeting any Indians in the woods or seeing any fresh marks which might show that men had passed lately. We even considered by having found a quantity of wood cut by the beavers that there were few inhabitants in the neighbourhood. We killed some deer on the way.

But on the eighth day after leaving, having taken shelter in the evening upon an island to rest, our canoe being turned over on the edge of the water, an Indian who was following a deer, seeing our canoe, imagined that people of his nation were there, and whistled to warn us to look out for the animal that had passed over a small island above us. My nephew, having been the first to see this Indian, told me of it immediately. I ran to the edge of the water, without thinking of the deer, and called the Indian, who, having been a long time without answering, told me in his own language, which I understood very well, that he did not understand me and set off in haste through the woods.

The meeting with this Indian gave me joy and some hope that we would not be long without seeing others. We kept guard all night, and next morning at daybreak I brought our canoe from the other side of the island to be ready for use in case of accident, and had a large fire made 100 paces from there. That morning we discovered at the point of the island nine canoes coming towards us. Having come near enough, I spoke and asked the Indians whom I saw in the canoe, who they were. They answered in friendly terms. I let them understand the object which had brought me into their country and who I was. After this an old man, armed with his spear, his club and his bow, having risen drew an arrow from his quiver, which, having made a sign from the east to the west and from the north to the south, he broke in two pieces and threw them into the river; then addressing his companions, he spoke to them nearly thus: Young men, you have no longer anything to feur. The sun has become favourable to us, our enemies will fear us, since here is the man whom we have been seeking since our fathers were born. After this they all swam towards me to the land, leaving their canoes. I made them come near the fire without arms. My nephew and the other man who was with me, came at the same time within ten paces of us, without frightening the Indians, although they saw them well armed. I asked who was their chief, speaking to himself without knowing it. He bowed and another one told me, "You are speaking to him;" then I took him by the hand and having made him sit down, I spoke to him according to the fashion of these people, with whom it is necessary in order to be held in consideration to boast of having courage, of being powerful and in a condition to help and protect them against their enemies; it is also necessary to assure them that you have their interests altogether at heart, to be obliging towards them, and especially to make presents to them at first, for among them that is the great bond of friendship. I wished at this first interview to make him know me; and the chief of the Indians being seated beside me, I told him in his own language that I knew the whole earth, "thy friends shall be my friends, and I have come here to bring thee arms to destroy thine enemies; thou wilt not die of hunger, nor Jy arrivé Le 12 7bre au grand contentement de tous nos Gens leur ayant appris lheureux succes de mon voiage par la rencontre des sauvages.

Le mesme jour de mon arrivée de ce petit voiage un bruict de coups de canon nous donna lalarme. Les sauvages qui estoient avec nous les entendirent, et je leur Dis que ces coups de Canon estoient tires de nos vaisseaux que nous avions sur La grande rivière nomméé Kawirinagaw a trois ou quatre lieues de celle ou nous estions postes, mais voulant cependant mesclaireir ce que ce pouvait estre, je membarqué dans un canot, et Jallé Jusqua l'embouchure de notre rivière, sans avoir rien descouvert. Je crens que nous nous estions tous trompes, et Jenvoyé mon neveu avec un autre françois de mes gens pour aller avec les sauvages vers les nations, mais le soir mesme de leur despart, estant passes vis a vis lendroit dou nous avions cru entendre tirer les coups de canon, jls les entendirent encores, et de trop pres pour pouvoir douter qu'il ny eust pas la un navire, jls retournerent donc sur leurs pas pour men advertir, et sur leur avis, je partis aussitôt pour aller encores moy mesme a cette descouverte avec trois hommes.

Apres avoir faiet le trajet perilleux de cette grande rivière de Kawirinagaw, qui signifie en francois la meschante, nous descouvrismes le 16° de grand mattin une tente sur une isle. Jenvoyé aussjtost un des gens pour descouvrir secretement ce que cestoit, jl retourna vers moy, en peu de temps madvertir, qu'on bastissoit la une maison, et quil y avoit un mavire. Sur cet advis Je mavancé le plus que je peus, ne voulant pas pourtant estre descouvert, et je meposté avec mes hommes, comme dans vne espéce d'embuscade pour tascher de surprendre quelqu'un de ceux qui estoient la, et le faire prisonnier afin de scavoir qu'elles gens Ils pouvoient estre, Je pris toutes les précautions possibles, pour

You must give me two or three of thy canoes, that thy people may pay a visit to thy father." He made me a long harangue to thank me and assure me that he and all those of his nation would put their lives at my service, after which I gave to each of the Indians tobacco and pipes; and having noticed that one of them was making use of a small piece of iron to cut his tobacco, I asked it from him and threw it into the fire, which surprised them all, because at the same time I pretended to weep and to dry my tears, telling them that I was grieved to see them destitute and deprived of all things; I assured them they would want nothing so long as I was with them, and at the same time I took off the dirk which I had at my side and gave it to the man from whom I had taken the piece of iron. I had also some parcels of small knives brought from my canoe, which I distributed among them. I made them smoke, and gave them something to eat; and whilst they were eating I laid before them the presents I had brought, among others a musket, powder and lead for their chief. I told him when presenting them that I took him for my fother; he adopted me for his son, covering me with his robe. I gave him also my blanket, which I asked him to carry to his wife from me, wishing to take her for my mother. He thanked me, as did the others to the number of 26, who, to mark their gratitude for my presents, threw all their robes at my feet and went to their canoes for all the peltry they had there, which they brought me. We separated after all this ceremony, and they promised that before noon they would send three of their canoes, which they did not fail to do, and put in them my beavers. We went together towards our post, where I had left my brother-in-law. I arrived there on the 12th of September, to the great satisfaction of all our people, having informed them of the happy result of my journey by meeting

On the day of my arrival from this short trip a noise of cannon alarmed us. The Indians with us heard it and I told them that these cannon shot were fired from the ships we had in the Grand–River named Karoiringaw, three or four leagues from that where we were posted, but wishing to ascertain what the firing might be, I embarked in a canoc and went as far as the mouth of our river without discovering anything. I thought that we were all mistaken, and sent my nephew with another Frenchman of my people to go with the Indians towards the Nations, but on the evening of their departure having passed opposite the place where we thought we had heard the firing, they heard it again, too near to doubt of there being a ship there. They retraced their steps to warn me, and by their advice I left myself immediately with three men to find out.

After having made the dangerous passage of this wide river Karoirinagaw, meaning the wicked, we discovered carly on the 16th a tent on an island. I immediately sent one of my men to discover secretly what it was. He returned shortly after to warn me that a house was being built and that a ship was there. On this report I advanced as near as I could, not wishing to be discovered, and posted myself with my men in a kind of ambuscade, to try to surprise some one of those who were there and to make him prisoner in order to discover what people they might be. I took all possible precautions to accomplish this plan. I passed the night not far from the place where the house was being built without seeing any one leave or hearing any one speak, until next day at dinner time, when I recognized that they were English. Having advanced nearer to their post than I had been before to ascertain this better, I embarked with my men in the canoe, we came to about a gun shot from the house and stopped as if we had been Indians, surprised at seeing men there building a house. They were not long of discovering us, and, as soon as they had done so, they began to cry to us as if inviting us to come to them, pronouncing some words in the Indian language, which they read in a book, but seeing that we did not advance for what they said, they came towards us along the bank. Having stopped opposite the place where we were, I spoke to them in the language of the country and in French, without them understanding. At last having asked them in English who they were and what they proposed doing there, they answered that they were English come there for the beaver trade. I then asked them who had given them permission, and if they had any commission for that purpose. They said they had no commission and were from New England. I declared that I was settled in the country before them for the French Company and with sufficient force to prevent them trading to my prejudice, that I had my fort seven leagues from there, but that the sound of the cannon had obliged me to go where they were, believing that a ship from France, which I expected and which was to arrive at a river further north than that on which they were, had entered by some accident against my directions, that I had two others arrived lately from Canada commanded by my brother, and that, therefore, I did not advise them to remain longer, warning them that they would be better to withdraw and have all they had landed embarked as speedily as possible.

Je mes rembarqué dans mon canot avec mes gens, nous pareusmes a une portée de canou de la maisou, et tous nous arrestasmes comme si nous enssions esté des sauvages, qui auroient este surpris de voir la des hommes, qui batissoient une maison. Ils ne feurent pas longtemps a nous descouvrir, et sj tost quils nous eurent veus, ils se mirent a crier vers nous, comme nous Invitans daller a eux, en prononceans quelques mots en langue sauvage quils Lisoient dans un livre, mais voians que nous navancions pas pour cequils nous disoient, ils vindrent eux mesmes vers nous le long du rivage, et sestant arrestes vis a vis du lieu on nous estions, je leur parlé en langaige du pays et enfrançois sans quils mentendissent, mais enfin leur ayant demandé en auglois, qui jls estoient et ecqu'ils prétendoient faire la, jls me respondirent quils estoient anglois, venus la pour la traite du castor, je leur demandé ensuite qui leur en avoit donné la permission, et sils avoient quelque commission pour cela, ils me dirent quils navoint point de commission, et quils estoient de la nouvelle angre, je leur declaré que jestois establi dans le pays avant eux, pour la compagnie françoise, et avec des forces suffisantes pour les empecher de traiter à mon préjudice, que javes mon fort a 7 lieues de la, mais que le bruiet de leur canon mavoit obligé d'aller vers eux, croiant qu'un navire de france que j'attendes, et qui devoit arriver a une Riviere plus nord que celle ou ils estoient y feust entre par quelque accident contre mes directions, que jen avos deux autres arrives depuis peu, de canada commandes par mon frere, et qu'ainsi, je ne leur conseilles pas, de demeurer la plus longtemps, les advertissant qu'il feroient mieux de se retirer et de faire au plus viste embarquer dans leur bord tout cequils avoient a terre.

While speaking, I had brought my canoe near enough to the land to recognize those to whom I was speaking. Having learned that it was the young Guilliem [Gilham], the ship captain, I was very happy, for I knew him intimately. He no sooner learned who I was than he invited me to leave my canoe to embrace each other, and I did so. He came to me and we mutually caressed each other, and he asked me to go on board with him to enjoy myself. I did not wish to show that I distrusted him by refusing, but as a precaution, I made my three men land from the canoe, who remained on land with two Englishmen, whilst I went on board with the captain. I found on board the ship another man from New England, with whom I was acquainted. Before I went on board the vessel, the captain noisted the English flag, and as soon as I got on board, he fired several cannon shots. I told him that it was not necessary he should fire more, in case of causing jealousy in our people, and that they might insult him. He proposed that we should negotiate together. I promised him that I would speak to our other officers in such a way as to bring them to consent that he should pass the winter where he was, without them doing him any mischief, since the season was already too far advanced for him to withdraw. I even told him that he might continue to build. his mansion, without fortifying himself, assuring him that I would guarantee him against insult from the Indians over whom I had absolute power, and in order to assure him that he would have no cause to fear a surprise, I would agree with him before separating as to the number of men by whom I would be accompanied when I came to see him, notifying him that if he saw me coming with a greater number than that agreed on, it would be a sign that our officers did not consent to the proposition that we should ourselves negotiate. I also advised him to fire no more guns, and that he should not allow his people to leave the island, for fear of encountering the French, whom I had in the woods, so that he might not blame me for any misfortune that might happen to him, if he did not follow my advice. I told him also that the Indians had notified me that my ship had arrived at the north, and that in a fortnight I would return to give him news. With this he was pleased, and begged me to remember him. We parted after that well satisfied with each other, he fully convinced that I had the force of which I had boasted, and I resolved to keep him in this good opinion, having the design to oblige him to retire, or if he persisted in annoying me in my trade to await a favourable opportunity to seize his ship, which was a good prize having neither a commission from France nor England for the trade, but I would not undertake it unseasonably for fear of failure. Especially, I wished to avoid shedding blood. Having gone on board the canoe with my people, we were going with all speed to the lower part of the river, but had scarcely made three leagues from the island, till we discovered a ship under sail which was entering. We got to the south shore, and having landed to await the vessel which was coming towards us, I had a thick smoke made, and the ship having arrived opposite us anchored and remained the whole night, not sending a boat ashore till next day. We had watched all night to observe what would take place, and having seen the boat put off in the morning and come towards us, I posted my three men, armed, at the entrance to the wood, fifteen to twenty paces from me and advanced alone on the water's edge. Mr. Bridgar, whom the company was sending out as Governor of that country, was in the boat with six sailors of the ship commanded by Guilliem [Gilham], senior, captain of the New England vessel which I had discovered the previous day, as I afterwards learned.

cette bonne opinion, ayant mes véues de l'obliger a se retirer, ou sil sopiniastroit a me vouloir troubler dans mes traites, dattendre quelque occasion favorable pom me saisir du navire qui estoit de bonne prise nayant ancune commission de france ni dangre pour la traite, mais je ne voules rien entreprendre a contretemps de crainte de manquer mon coup, surtout je voulus eviter de repandre du sang. Mestant embarqué avec mes gens dans mon canot nous descendismes vers le bas de la Rivière, avec toute la diligence que nous peusmes faire, mais a peyne eusmes nous faict trois lienes de l'Isle ou nous avions laissé le navire de la nouvelle angre que nous en descouvrismes un sons voiles qui entroit. Nous nageasmes a terre au sud, et estant descendus de notre canot, pour attendre le navire qui venoit vers nous, je fis faire une forte fumée, et le navire estant arrivee vis a vis de nous il mouilla l'ancre, et demeura la toute la nuict, sans envoyer sa chaloupe a terre, que le lendemain, nous avions veillé toute la r $r \neq r$ observer ce qui se passeroit et ayant veu le matin desborder la chaloupe, et qu'e de vers nous, je fis poster mes trois hommes armes a lentree du bois a 15 ou vingt i a se moy, et je mavancé seul sur le bord de l'eau, le Sr Bridgar que la compagnie envoyoit en qualité de gouverneur en ce pays là, estoit dans la chaloupe, avec six matelotz du navire commandé par le Sr Guilliem pere du capae du navire de la nouvelle angre que J'aves descouvert le jour precedent, comme je lapris dans la suite.

Voiant donc venir la chaloupe vers moy, et quelle aprochoit de terre, dabord quelle feut a la voix, je parlé un langage façon de sauvage, qui ne signifioit rien, seulement pour embarrasser cenx de la chaloupe, on les obliger a parler alin de les recognoistre, et scavoir sil ny auroit point quelqu'un qui eust fréquenté les sauvages, et sceust parler comme eux. Personne ne respondit rien, mais la chaloupe sestant eschouéé a dix ou douze pas de moy, et voiant un des matelotz qui se mettoit a leau pour venir a terre, je luy presente mes armes en luy defendant davancer, et luy faisant entendre que personne de la chaloupe ne mettroit pied a terre que je ne sceusse qui ilz estoient, et ayant bien recognu par le navire et a l'air des matelotz, quils estoient anglois, je parlé en leur langue et Jentendis que le matelot qui sestoit mis a lean, et que j'empesches davancer, diet asses hanlt, gouverneur cest auglois quon vous parle, et sur ce que je continues a demander qui ilzestoient, qui commandoit le vaisseau, et ce quilz venoient chercher la. Quelqu'un respondit, qui est-ce qui en a a faire? nous sommes anglois, a quoy Je repliqué et moy francois, qui vous dis de vous retirer. Et ayant en mesme temps faict signe a mes gens de paroistre, ils se presenterent sur le bord du bois, ceux de la chaloupe qui croioient aparament quil y en eust plus grand nombre voulurent bien me respondre honnestement et me dire quils estoient de londres, que le navire apartenoit à la compagnie de la Baye de Hudson, et quil estoit commande par le capne Guilliem, je leur fis entendre de mon costé qui jestois quils venoient trop tard, et que javois pris possession de ces lieux au nom du Roy de france. Il fût encore diet plusieurs choses quil seroit inutile de raporter, icy, Les anglois soutenans quilz avoient droit de venir la, et moy que non, mais enfin le Sr Bridgar me faisant cognoistre quil seroit bienayse de mettre pied a terre avec trois de ses hommes, pour m'embrasser je luy temoignay que Jen aurois aussy beaucoup de joye, il mit done pied a terre et apres nous estre salues, il me demanda, si ce nestoit pas la rivibre kakiwakiouay. Je luy Dis que non, et qu'elle estoit plus au sud, que celle ou il estoit s'appelloit Kawirinagaw, on la meschante, il me demanda encore si ce nestoit pas la qu'un vaisseau anglois commandé par le chevallier thomas button avoit autres fois hiverné. Je luy respondis que ouy, et luy montré le lieu au nord. Il m'invitta ensuite d'aller a son bord, mes Gens qui sestoient advances men destournoient, particullierement mon neveu, je me resolus pourtant d'aller apres avoir pris deux otages, qui demeurerent a terre avec mes gens, car je me defies du capne Guilliem, quj s'estoit déclaré mon ennemi a londres, estant creature de ceux quy estoient cause que javes abandonné le service d'angre. Je fis bien de prendre mes précautions, car jay seu depuis, que sans cela, le Sr Guilliem mauroit arresté. Tout se passa cependant fort bien, nous disnasmes ensemble. Je parlé de mon establissement dans le pays, que jy avois quantité de francois dans les bois avec les sauvages, que javes deux navires, que jen attendes encore un autre, que je faisois bastir un fort, enfin je dis au Sr Bridgar tout ce que Javes dit au jeune Guilliem cap^{ne} du navire de la nouvelle angre, et encores audela. jl le creut de bonne foy, et il me fit plaisir d'estre credule, car sil eust vouleu se donner la peyne que je

Seeing the boat coming towards me and that she was approaching the land, as soon as she was within hail, I spoke after the manner of the Indians, which meant nothing, as I wished to embarrass those in the boat, or to oblige them to speak that I might recognize them and to know if there was any one there who had been in the habit of visiting the Indians and knew how to speak like them. No one answered, but the boat having grounded ten or twelve paces from me, and seeing one of the sailors get into the water to land, I presented arms forbidding him to advance, making him understand that no one from the boat was to put a foot on shore, as I did not know who they were. Having seen by the ship and the appearance of the sailors that they were English, I spoke in their language and I heard the sailor who was in the water and whom I prevented from advancing say in a loud enough voice, "Governor, he is English that is speaking to you," and therefore I continued to ask who they were, who commanded the ship, and what they were looking for? Some one asked, "What is your business? We are English." To which I replied, "And I am French, who tell you to retire," and having at the same time made a sign to my people to appear, they presented themselves at the edge of the wood. The man in the boat, who apparently believed there was a greater number, answered me plainly that they were from London, that the ship belonged to the Hudson's Bay Company, and that she was commanded by Capt. Guilliem. I made them understand on my side who I was, that they had come too late, and that I had taken possession of the place in name of the King of France. Several things were said which it would be useless to state here, the English maintaining that they had a right to come there and I that they had not, but at last Mr. Bridgar let me know that he would be glad to land there with three of his men to salute me. I testified to him that I also would have much joy at this. He landed, and after saluting each other. le asked if this was not the river Kakiwakiouay. I said no, that it was further to the south; that the river in which we were was called Kawirinagaw, or the wicked (meschante); he asked me again if it was not there that an English ship commanded by Sir Thomas Button had formerly wintered; I answered yes, and showed him the place to the north. He then invited me to go on board. My people who were in front tried to dissuade me, particularly my nephew. I resolved, however, to go after having taken two hostages, who remained ashore with my people, for I distrusted Capt. Guilliem, who had declared himself my enemy in London, being a creature of those who were the cause of my abandoning the service of England. It was well I took my precautions, for I learned afterwards that if I had not Mr. Guilliem would have arrested me. All passed, however, very well, and we dined together. I spoke of my establishment in the country, that I had a number of Frenchmen in the woods with the Indians, that I had two ships, that I expected another, that I was having a fort built, in fact I told Mr. Bridgar all that I had told young Guilliem, captain of the New England ship, and still further, he believed in good faith and pleased me by being so credulous, for if he had taken the trouble which I had done, to go forty leagues through the woods, to lie on the hard ground, in order to make my discoveries, he would soon have noticed my weak points. I was right to conceal from him and do what I did. Not having men enough to come to an open struggle, it was necessary to make use of stratagem. It is true that I had the great advantage of having the Indians on my side, which afforded means of great strength, and it was on this I chiefly relied.

After having been long enough in the ship, I asked to be landed, which was done. I made signals to my people, who had taken the hostages into the woods. They brought them back to the edge of the water and sent them on board their ship, into which I acknowledge I repented more than once to have gone, for it was a rash act and I was happy to get out of the affair as I did. Before leaving the vessel I promised Mr. Bridgar and the captain that in a fortnight I would return to see them. However, having resolved to be secure from any steps they might take, I remained two days in the woods to observe them, and having nearly acquired a knowledge of their design and that they were preparing to build a fort, I passed on the south side of the river to return to find my brother in-law, who must be anxious about me, but, having come to him, he was very happy to learn all that had passed, and the good arrangement I had made of our business. We discussed the measures we should take to prevent surprenes, d'aller 40 lieues au travers du bois, et dy coucher sur la dure, pour faire mes descouvertes, jl auroit bien tost recognu mon faible. Javes raison de luy cacher, et de faire ce que je faises, d'ailleurs nayant pas assez de gens pour en venir a force ouverte, il falloit vser de ruses, jl est vray que Javes un grand advantage davoir les sauvages a moy, ce qui me tenoit lieu de grandes forces, et cestoit aussi sur quoi je massenres le plus.

Après avoir esté asses longtemps dans le navire je demandé quon me fist mettre a terre, et on me renvoya, de fis les signaux a mes gens qui avoient mené les ostages dans le bois, ils les ramenerent jusques an bord de leau, et je les renvoyé a leur navire, ou javoue que je mestes repentj plus dune fois destre entré, car il y avoit de la temerité, et je feus heureux de me tirer daffaire comme je fis. Avant sortir du vaisseau je promis au Sr bridgar et au capitaine que dans 15 jours, Je retourneres Les voir. Cependant ayant resolu d'estre asseuré, de leurs desmarches Je demeuré deux jours dans les bois à les observer et ayant cognu a peu pres leur dessein, et quils se mettoient en estat de bastir un fort, je passé la rivière du costé du sud pour retourner trouver mon beaufrere, qui devoit estre en peine de moy. Mais nestant rendu aupres de luy, il eut beaucoup de joye daprendre tout ce qui sestoit passé, et la bonne disposition ou Javois mis nos affaires. Nous concertames ensemble sur les mesures que nous prendrions pour nous empescher destre surpris, et nous soustenir le mieux que nous pourrions dans notre establissement pour la traite, nous nons assurames des sauvages qui nous promirent de sacrifier lears vies pour nous, et afin de les engager encore daventage dans notre parti, je leur donné mon neveu, et un autre françois pour aller avec eux dans les terres en faire descendre les nations pour venir vers nous, Et pour les y obliger, J'envoyé des presens pour les chefz. Il arriva pendant mon voinge a la descouverte des deux navires anglois, un accidene fort fascheux pour nous, nos gens avoient tué environ 60 cerfz qui cust esté une grande provision pour notre hiver, mais ilz feurent tous entrainés par un desbordement extraordinaire des eaux, causé par les pluyes, ce qui arrive asses souvent. La perte feut assurement considerable pour nous, car nous navions lors que 4 barils de pore, et deux barils de beuf, mais nos gens reparerent cela, ayant tué encores quelques cerfz et 4,000 perdrix blanches, plus grosses que celles de ce pays. Les sauvages aporterent aussi des rafraichissements de viandes bouccanees, de divers endroits et fort esloignes.

Dix jours apres mon arrivée de la descouverte des anglois, je pris cinq nouveaux hommes pour aller observer leur contenance, et ce qu'ils faisoient. Javes preveu avant partir que nous serions obligé d'attendre quelques Jours, le temps favorable pour traverser Lembouchure de la dangereuse Rivière de Kauvirinagaw, ce qui nous arriva, par ce que la saison commençoit a estre rude, mais apres avoir attendu, nous fisme heureusement ce trajet, quoy que pendant la nuiet. Et nous nous rendismes 14 jours apres notre despart, a la veue du lieu ou estoit le Sr Bridgar. Nous aperceumes dabord le navire eschoué sur les vases, a plus d'un mille de la maison quon bastissoit. Nous estans aproches du vaisseau a la voix, nous apelasmes plusieurs fois sans que personne nous respondit, ce qui nous obligea daller ve s terre, ne sachans que Juger de ce silence, mais enfin un nomme nous appela, et nous fit signe de retourner. Estant alles vers luy, et luy ayans demandé. comment on se portoit, il respondit un peu mieux, mais que tout le monde estait endormi. Je ne vouleus point les troubler dans leur repos, et m'en allé seul a la maison, du gouverneur que je trouvai sortant du liet. Apres les compliments de bienvenue, Je mattache a examiner lestat de la maison, et Je maperceus quil ny avoit rien a craindre, et que jy pouves faire venir mes gens. Je les appelle, et nous y entrasme tous ensemble. Je fis passer un de mes gens pour capae du vaisseau que Je discs mestre arrivé, le Sr Bridger le creut, et ce que je trouvé a propos de luy dire, tendant toujours a empescher, qu'il neut aucune cognoissance de l'Interloper anglois. Nous tirasmes plusieurs coups de fusils en beuvant des santes, sans que ceux du vaisseau en prissent lalarme. Je Jugé par la, quilz estoient mal sur leurs gardes, et qu'ilz pouvoient estre aysement surpris. Je vouleus voir leur estat, et leur contenance, avant dont pris congé du Sr Bridgar, Je men allé avec mes gens vers le vaisseau, nous y entrasmes sans que personne nous en disputast lentrée. Le capne parut pourtant dabord estonné de nous voir, mais je l'asseuré en luy disant que je nestois pas la a dessein de lui nuire, au contraire pour luy offrir mes services, et mes secours, en ce quil auroit besoin de moy, luy donnant des advis pour luy faire prendre des precautions qu'il ne prenoit pas, pour se tirer du danger ou je Le vojois, prise and to maintain ourselves as best we could in our trade settlement. We made sure of the Indians who promised to sacrifice their lives for us and in order to engage them still further, I gave them my nephew and another Frenchman to go with them to bring down the nations that they might come to us. To oblige them to this, I sent presents for the chiefs. During my voyage of discovery two English ships arrived. A very annoying accident happened to us. Our people had killed about 600 deer, which would have been a great supply for winter, but they were all carried off by an extraordinary flood caused by the rains, which not unfrequently happens. The loss was certainly a considerable one to us, for we had at the time only four barrels of pork and two barrels of beef, but our people repaired that loss, having again killed a few deer and 4,000 white partridges, larger than those of this country. The Indians also brought refreshments of smoked meat, from different and very distant places.

Ten days after my arrival from the discovery of the English, I took five new men to go to observe their behaviour and what they were doing. I foresaw before leaving that we would be obliged to wait some days for a favourable time to cross the dangerous river Kawoirinagaw, which happened, as the season began to be rough, but after having waited we fortunately made the crossing, although during the night, and fourteen days after our departure we came in sight of the place where Mr. Bridgar was, We first saw the ship aground on the mud, more than a mile from the house that was being built. Having come within hail, we called several times without any one answering, we were obliged to go towards the land, not knowing what to make of this silence, but at last a man called us and made us a signal to return; having gone towards him and asked him how he was, he answered "a little better," but that every one was asleep. I would not disturb them and went alone to the Governor's house, whom I found going out with the lieutenaut. After compliments of welcome, I set myself to examine the condition of the house and saw that there was nothing to fear, and that I might bring my people. I called them and we entered together. I made one of my people pass for the captain of the ship which I said had arrived for me. Mr. Bridgar believed it and anything I thought proper to tell him, I aiming always to prevent him from having any knowledge of the English interloper. We fired several musket shots whilst drinking healths, without the vessel's crew taking alarm. From that I considered that they were not on their guard, and could be easily surprised. Wishing to see their condition and behaviour, having taken leave of Mr. Bridgar, I went with my men toward the ship. We went on board without any one hindering us. The captain, however, appeared at first astonished to see us, but I assured him, telling him I was not there to hurt him but to offer him my services and assistance in so far as he required me, advising him to take precantions which he was not taking to get free from the danger in which I saw him, of losing himself and the ship, as happened subsequently. But he received my counsels very ill, wishing to make me understand that he believed he knew more about it than I did. That might be, but it must be elsewhere than in the country of the Indians, which I had visited much more frequently than he. He requested me, however, to send him refreshments from time to time during the winter, especially oil and candles, of which he had need, which I promised to do. He behaved very well on his side, making me a present of a piece of beef and some biscuits. Having learned fully all I wished to know and that I had nothing to fear from these gentlemen, in the condition in which I saw them, I took leave of the captain, to see what was taking place on the coast where the New England interloper was.

I arrived there in the afternoon of next day and found that they had employed their time better than the others having built a fort well defended with six guns mounted. I fired a musket to warn those in the fort of my arrival and landed with my men under a slope sheltered from the guns. The lieutenant landed with another man, both well armed, in order to ascertain who we were. Having done so, the lieutenant congratulated me on my arrival and asked for news. I told him I had found, although with much danger, what I had gone to look for and that I had returned to visit them, having taken other me. than those who accompanied me the first time; that one of those who was with me was captain of the newly arrived ship and the others were four Canadians. The lieutenant answered me boldly, that they might be forty devils if they de se perdre luj mesme et le navire, comme jl est arrivé dans la suitte, mais il receut fort mal mes conseils, en voulant me faire cognoistre quil croyoit en seavoir plus que moy, cella pouvoit estre ainsi, mais nilleurs que dans le pays des sauvages, ou Javois plus frequenté que luy. Il me pria pourtant de luy envoyer quelques Rafraichissemens de temps en temps, pendant lhiver, surtout de l'huile et de la chandelle dont il avoit besoin, ce que Je luy promis, et je men suis aussi fort bien acquitté. Il me fiet present dune pièce de bœuf, et de quelques bisquits, estant donc esclairey sur tout ce que Javes voulu scavoir, et que je naves rien a craindre pour mes traites de la part de ces messes en lestat ou je les voies, je pris congé du capae pour al'er voir ce qui se passoit du costé, dy arrivé le lendemain apres midj et je trouvé quilz avoient micux employé lenr temps que les autres, ayant faiet un fort bien flanqué avec six pièces de canon en batterie. Je lis tirer un coup de fusil pour advertir ceux du fort, de mon arrivée, et je desbarqué avec mes gens sous un cotteau a convert du canon. Le lieutenant sortit avec un autre homme tous deux bien armes, et Ils vindrent pour nous recognoistre, apres avoir seu qui jestois, le lieutenant me felicita sur mon arrivéé et me demanda des nouvelles. Je hiy dis que Javois trouvé quoy que avec beaucoup de danger, ce que jestois alle chercher et que je retournes vers eux pour les viziter, ayant pris dautres hommes, que ceux qui mavoient accompagné la premiere fois, que lun de ceux qui estoict avec moy, estoit capue du vaisseau nouvellement arrivée, et les autres quatre canadiens. Le lieutenant me respondit fièrement, quilz soient 40 diables silz veulent, nons avons basti un fort, et nous ne craignons plus rien. Il minvita pourtant d'aller dans son fort pour mj regaler, pourveu que je vouleusse y entrer seul, ce que je refusé, en lui faisant cognoistre qu'il auroit peu parler moins fierement, estant allé la pour les voir de bonne amitié, et non pas pour leur faire la guerre. Je luy dis aussi que je voules mentretenir avec son capitaine, qui auroit asseurement moins de chaleur, et plus de retenue que Luy. jl envoya sur cela advertir le capue, lequel vint au devant de moy bien armé, et me diet en m'abordant que je ne deves pas prendre d'ombrage du fort quil avoit faict bastir, que cestoit sans consequance pour moy, et que jen serois tousjours le maistre, adjoutant quil ne me craignoit pas tant que les anglois de londres, et quil avoit fait bastir ce fort pour se desfendre contre les sauvages, et tous ceux qui voudroient lataquer. Je le remercié de ces honnestetes a mon Esgard et l'assuré que je nestois pas alié la, pour luy temoigner que jeusse la meindre jalousie, de ce quil avoit faiet bastir son fort, mais au contraire pour luj offrir 20 de mes hommes pour luj ayder a en bastir un, ayant a luy donner advis que ceux dont il aprehendoit si fort l'arrivéé estoient arrives luy offrant mon service pour le deffendre, et l'asseurant que sil suivoit mon conseil, je le garantirois de tout accident, estant bien Informe des ordres qu'avoient les nouveaux venus et de lenr estat, je luy dis encore qua lesgard du differant qui estoit entre nous pour la traite, ji estoit remis a la decizion de nos deux Royx, que par bonheur pour luj, son pere commandoit le vaisseau qui estoit arrivé, quil avoit amene un gouverneur pour la compagnie angloise, auquel je prétendois Empecher de prendre ce titre dans le pays ou jestois estably pour la compagnie françoise, et que pour luj, je voulois le faire passer pour françois afin de le mettre a couvert de toute Insulte.

Apres avoir dit tout cela au capie du fort, je l'obligé de faire venir tous ses gens auxquels je dis en sa presence, quil ne falloit point quilz sortissent du fort, nj quils tirassent de canon, quilz narborassent point leur pavillon, quils couvrissent le devant, et le derriere de leur vaisseau, et quilz ne permissent a aucun anglois nj francois daprocher de leur fort par cau on par terre, et quilz tirassent sur ceux de mes gens qui se presenteroient, sans mes ordres. Le capie me promit de faire observer tout ce que je venois de dire, et il en donna lordre en ma presence a ses gens, en me priant de luy donner le plus tost que je pourrois deux de mes hommes, pour sauvegardes, je luy apris la maladic de son pere capie du navire de la compagnie, dont il parut fort allligé, et me pria de luj donner les moyens quil peust le voir sans Inconvenient pour luy. Je luy en dis la consequence, et la difficulté. Cependant, comme javés mes raisons pour souhaiter que cette Entrevue du pere et du filz, se fist par mon moyen, Je l'asseuré que Je ferois mon possible pour luj donner cette satisfaction, et que jesperois d'en vemir a bout, sil vouloit suivre mes advis. liked, "we have built a fort and are afraid of nothing." He invited me, however, to go into his fort and refresh myself, provided I went alone, which I refused, letting him know that he might speak less haughtily, I having gone to see them in friendship and not to make war on them. I told him also that I wished to talk with his captain who certainly had less quickness of temper and more moderation than he. He sent them to inform the captain, who came to me well armed and said when accosting me, that I must not take umLrage at the fort which he had built, that it was of no consequence in respect to me, that I would always be the master, adding that he did not fear me so much as the English from London and that he had built the fort to defend himself against the Indians and all who might attack him. I thanked him for these civilities towards me, that I had not gone there to manifest the least jealousy at his having built the fort, but on the contrary to offer him twenty of my men to help him to build one, having to give him notice of the arrival of those from whom I apprehended so much, offering him my services to defend him and assuring him that if he followed my advice I would guarantee him against any acceident, being well informed of the orders the new comers had received and of their condition. I said also that in respect to the differences between us regarding trade, these were referred to the decision of our two kings, that fortunately for him his father commanded the ship which had arrived, that he had brought a governor for the English company, to whom I set up the pretension of preventing him from taking that title in the country where I had established myself for the French company and that in respect to him I wished him to pass for French to shield him from insult.

After having vaid all that to the captain of the fort, I obliged him to bring all his men to whom I said in his presence, that they need not leave the fort, nor fire guns, that they should not hoist their flag, that they should cover the bow and stern of their ship, that they should allow neither English nor French to approach their fort by water or land and that they should tire upon those of my people who should present themselves without my orders. The captain promised to have all I had just said observed, and he gave an order to that effect in my presence requesting me to give him, as soon as I could, two of my men as safeguards. I informed him of the illness of his father, the captain of the company's ship, at which he seemed much distressed and asked me to give him the means by which he could see him without inconvenience. I told him of the importance and difficulty of the affair, but as I had my reasons for wishing that the interview beween the father and son should be brought about by my intervention, I assured him that I would do my best to give him that satisfaction and that I hoped to succeed, if he would follow my advice. He agreed to do all I should propose thereupon. After some consideration, we agreed that he should come with me disguised as a hushranger (coureur de bois) and that I should pass him off as a

That being settled, I sent my men to hunt next morning at day break. They returned at 10 o'clock bringing 30 or 40 partridges, which I put in my canoc, with a barrel of oil and eandles, that I had promised Captain Guilliem, senior. I left one of my men in the fort as a hostage and embarked with young Guilliem to take him to see his father. We were obliged, the tide being low, to stop at a mile from the ship and to land every thing in order to march towards the vessel with our provisions. I left one of my men to take care of the canoe, with orders to keep her well off. On getting near the vessel, I posted two of the strongest of my men between the house Mr. Bridgar was building and the edge of the water, ordering them not to show themselves, and to let the Governor pass when he was going to the vessel, but that they should lay hold of him if they saw him return and that I had not left the ship.

Having taken these precautions I went with one of my men and young Guilliem disguised, to the vessel, which we got on board of without difficulty. I presented to Captain Guilliem the supplies I had promised him, for which he had asked, for which he gave me many thanks. I then brought into his room my two men, one of whom was his son, whom he did not recognize and whispered to Captain Guilliem that he was to send away two of his people who were with him, having an important secret to communicate to him. Having done this, I informed him that the secret I had to give him avoir resné, nous demeurasmes d'accord, qu'il viendroit avec moy desguisé en coureur de bois, et que je le ferois passer pour françois.

Cela estant ainsi resolu j'envoyé le lendemain des la pointe du jour, mes gens a la chasse. Ilz retournerent a 10 henres, et apporterent 30, à 40, perdrix, que je fis mettre dans mon canot, avec un baril dluille, et de la chandelle que j'avois promis au capae tuilliem père. Je laissé un de mes homme pour ostage dans le fort, et je membarqué avec le jeune guillein pour le mener voir son pere. Nous feusme obliges la maréé estant basse de nons arrester a un mille du navire et de mettre tous pied a Terre pour marcher vers le vaissean avec nos provizions. Je laissé un de mes hommes a garder le canot, avec ordre de se tenir au large, et je poste en approchant du vaisseau deux de mes gens les plus vigoureux, entre la maison que le 8r Bridgar fésoit bastir, et le bord de l'eau, leur commandant de ne se point descouvrir, et de laissé passer le Gouverneur, quand il irait au vaisseau, mais quilz se saizissent de luy, silz le voient revenir saus que je fusse sortj du navire.

Apres avoir pris ces précautions, jullé avec un de mes hommes, et le Jeune Guilliem déguisé abord du vaisseau, ou nous montasme encores sans difficulté. Je presenté au eapre Guilliem les rafraichissemens que je luy avois promis, et quil mavoit demandés dont il me fit bien des remercimens, je fis ensuite entrer dans sa chumbre mes deux hommes, dont l'un estoit son filz quil ne recogneut point, et je dis a loreille du cap^{ne} Guilliem quil fit retirer deux de ses gens qui estoient aupres de luy, ayant un secret Important a luj communiquer, ce quayant faiet je luy apris que le secret que javois a luy dire estoit larrivée de son filz que javois ammené avec moy. Men ayant prié avec de grandes Instances, et apres luy avoir representé l'Importance de garder le secret et de nen rien temoigner a cause des Inconveniens, quil y avoit a craindre pour eux deux, je fis avancer le filz, et le presenté a son pere qui l'embrassa et luy temoignant beaucoup de tendresse, et de joye, ji luy diet pourtant quil l'expozoit a un grand danger. Ils eurent ensemble quelque entretien apres lequel, le pere me pria en menbrassant de sauver mon nouveau francois. Je luy promis de faire mon debvoir la dessus, et ladvertis a mesme temps, quil songeat a sauver son navire, et que vien ne serait capable, de me faire rompre avec luy que la traite qu'il pourroit faire avec les sauvages, il me respondit que le navire estoit à la eompagnie, qu'a lesgard de la traite je navois aucun subject de eraindre de son costé, et que quand il nauroit pas un castor, il ne seu mettroit pas en peine estant asseuré de ses gaiges. Je l'advertis qu'il ne souffrit pas que son monde sescartat, sur tout quil nallast point vers le fort de son filz, ce quil me promit.

Pendant que nous estions dans cette conference, le gouverneur advertj de mon retour, vint au navire en toute diligence et me diet en arrivant quil falloit que mon fort feust plus pres de luy, quil navoit creu puisque jestois revenu si promptement. Je lui dis en riant que je volois, quand il estoit ques, on de servir mes amis, et que saeliant qu'l avoit des malades, et quilz manquoient de rafraichissements, je navois pas voulu perdre le temps, pour luy en aporter, luy promettant que je luy en donnerois toutes les iois que nos chasseurs seroient heureux. Dans ce temps la, le jeune Guillieu deguisé pensa estre descouvert, par quelqu'un qui le regarda de trop pres, de quoy le pere et le filz parurent fort embarrasses. Je men formalisé, et fis cognoistre que je ne trouves pas bon quon examinast ainsj mes gens, on men fist exeuse, et la marce étant montée je pris congé pour me retirer. Le gouverneur et le capitaine partagerent entre eux mes rafraichissemens, et ayant faict le signal a mes deux hommes de se retirer de leur embuseade, je sortis du navire, et nous alasmes tous ensemble on nous avions laissé notre canot, nous nous y embarquasmes, et le jeune capne fut estonné de voir, qu'un petit bateau faict descorce darbre peut resister a tant de coup de glaces, que nous recumes en nous cu retournant. Nous arrivasmes le lendemain au fort, et tres a propos pour nous, car sj nous eussions tardes tant soit peu plus longtemps, sur leau, nous aurions este surpris d'un foudre de vent de Nor' ouest, et d'un furieux orage de neige qui nous auroient Infailliblement faiet perir. La tempeste continua deux jours, et nous empêcha de partir, pour retourner a nostre pretendu fort au hault de la Riviere, mais le temps estant venu au beau, je pris congé, le lieutenant vouloit venir avec nous pour nous accompagner jusqua notre habittation, mais je le destourné de ce dessein, avant mes raisons, par ce que je voules eacher la voute que nous devions tenir. was the arrival of his son, whem I had brought with me, he having most urgently pressed me to do so. After having represented to him the importance of keeping the secret and of giving no evidence of it, on account of the inconveniences to be feared for both, I brought forward the son and presented him to his father, who embraced him, showing much tenderness and joy; he told him, however, that he was exposing himself to great danger. They had some conversation together, after which the father embracing me, begged that I would save my new Frenchman. I promised to do my duty in the matter, and at the same time warned him that he should think of saving his ship, and that nothing would make me break with him except the trade he might make with the Indians. He answered that the ship was the company's, and that with regard to the trade I had no cause to fear from his side, and that even if he had not a beaver, he would not trouble himself, being sure of his wages. I advised him that he should not let his people scatter, especially that he should not go towards his son's fort, which he promised. Whilst we were holding this conference, the Governor, notified of my return, came to the ship in haste and on his arrival told me my fort must be nearer him than he thought since I had returned so quickly. I told him, laughing, that I flew when it was a question of serving my friends, that knowing he had sick people who were in want of supplies, I did not wish to lose time in bringing them, promising that I would at all times give part of whatever we got when the hunters were fortunate. During this time, young Guilliem, who was disguised, thought he was discovered by one who was looking at him too closely; at which father and son appeared greatly embarrassed. I found fault with this and showed that I did not think it proper that my people should be examined in this way, for which an excuse was made. It being high water I took leave in order to retire. The Governor and captain divided my supplies between them. Having made the signal to my two men to come out of their ambuscade, I left the ship, and we all went together to where we had left our canoe into which we embarked, and the young captain was astonished to see that a small boat made from the bark of a tree could resist so many shocks of ice as we received when returning. We arrived next day at the fort, very fortunately for us, for if we had delayed ever so little longer on the water, we would have been surprised by a violent gale from the north-west and a furious snow storm, which would most certainly have caused us to perish. The storm lasted two days and prevented us from setting out to return to our alleged fort in the upper part of the river, but the weather having become fine, I took my leave. The lieutenant wished to accompany us as far as our habitation, but I managed to dissuade him, having my reasons, wishing to conceal the road we should take. On leaving we went up from the fort to the upper part of the river, but in the evening we retraced our steps and next morning found ourselves in sight of the sea into which it was necessary to enter in order to pass the point and reach the river in which was our habitation, but everything was so covered with ice that there was no appearance of passing further. We found ourselves indeed so entangled with the ice that we could neither retreat nor advance towards the shore to land. It was necessary, however, that we should pass through the ice or perish. We remained in this condition for four hours, without being able to advance or retire, and in great danger of our lives. Our clothes were frezen on us and we could only move with difficulty, but at last we made so strong an attempt that we arrived at the shore, our canoe being all broken up. Each of us took our baggage and arms and marched in the direction of our habitation, without finding anything to eat for three days except crows and birds of prey which are the last to leave these countries. There was no other game along this coast, which was all covered with ice and snow. We at last arrived opposite our habitation, which was on the other side of the river, which we were without hope of being able to cross, being covered with ice, but four of our men ventured to come to our assistance in a bateau, thinking they would perish by the strokes of the ice. We were also in great danger, but arrived in spite of all these difficulties at the side on which our habitation was, where we felt ourselves constrained to render thanks to God for seeing ourselves all together after being delivered from such great dangers.

le hault de l'Isle, mais le soir venu nous retournasmes sur nos pas, et nous nous trouvasmes le lendemain en veue de la mer, ou il falloit entrer pour passer la pointe, et gaigner la riviere ou estoit notre habitation. Mais tout estoit tellement couvert de glaces qu'il nj avoit aucune aparence de passer, plus avant, Nous nous trouvasmes incsmes, fort engagés de tous costes dans les glaces que nous ne pouvions nous en retirer ni avancer vers terre, pour desbarquer, jl falloit cepend ut passer au travers de ses glaces ou perir. Nons demeurasmes en cet estat lespace de quatre heures sans pouvoir avancer nj reculer et en tres grand danger de nos vies. Nos habitz estoient gelles sur nous, et nous ne nous remuions qu'avec grande peine, mais enfin nous fismes tant defforts, que nous arrivasmes a terre notre canot estant tout brisé. Nous prîmes chacun notre bagage, et nos armes, et nous marchasmes le long du rivage tirant du costé de notre habittation, sans avoir rien trouve a manger pendant trois Jours, que des corbeaux et des oyseaux de proye qui se retirent les derniers de ce pays la. ji ny avoit point dautre gibier le long de cette coste, qui estoit toute couverte de glaces, et de neiges. Nous arrivasmes Enfin vis a vis notre habittation, qui estoit de lautre costé de la riviere sans esperance de la pouvoir passer, estant couverte de glaces, mais quatre de nos hommes risquerent de se mettre dans un battean pour nous venir secourir. Ilz penserent perir par les coups de glace, nous feusmes aussi en grand danger, et nous passâmes cependant, nonobstant toutes ces difficultés du eosté de notre habittation, ou nous eusmes sujet de rendre graces a Dieu de nous voir tous ensemble apres avoir esté deslivres de sj grands perilz.

Pendant toutes mes alléés et venues mon beaufrere avoit mis notre habittation en bon ordre nous y estions en seureté, nayans rien a craindre du costé des sauvages qui estoient nos amis, et a lesgard de nos voisins leur desordre, et le peu de soin quilz avoient de sesclaireir de notre estat, nous mettoit a couvert de toute aprehension de leur part. Mais comme il pouvoit arriver que le Gouverneur Bridgar auroit eognoissance que l'Interloper de la nouvelle angre estoit en la mesme riviere que luy, et quil descouvriroit a la fin tout le mistere que je lui avois caché jusques la, que mesme il pourroit aprendre que nous navions pas les forces dont je mestois vanté, je voulus continuer a me precautionner, et je creus que le meilleur moyen estoit de masseurer du navire de la nouvelle angre, en men rendant le maistre, parceque sj le Sr Bridgar ment prevenu en cela, jl eust esté trop fort, et je me voyes tout a faiet hors destat de luy pouvoir resister, et de me soustenir. Mais la question estoit de trouver les moyens de reussir dans lexecution de ce dessein, ou je voies de grandes difficultés, mais jl faloit les vaincre ou succomber. Cest pour quoy je mattaché, tout entier a suivre cette entreprise, laissant a mon beau frere Le soin de notre habittation et de la traite. Voiant donc la Riviere tout a faict prise jenvoyé de deux en deux Jours pendant 15 Jours, mes gens au travers les bois pour apprandre en quel estat estoit le navire de la compagnie, on me rapporta a la fin quil es oit demeure eschoue sur la coste, le ruisseau ou il devoit yverner estant tout gellé, ce qui me fit juger quil debvoit perir infailliblement.

Jenvoyé aussi au jeune capne Guilliem en l'Isle deux de mes hommes quil mavoit demandes pour lui servir de sauvegardes mais je fus adverty par mes gens quil vouloit jouer au fin auec moy, ayant contre ce quil mavoit promis de ne recevoir personne en son fort, que ceux qui auroient mes ordres envoyé son batteau pour prandre deux des matelotz du navire de la compagnie que le sieur Bridgar avoit envoyés a la descouverte du costé ou je lui aves dict que nous avions nos fortz, et pour voir aussi sils ne trouveroient point des débris de leur navire. Mais ces deux hommes ayant veu ceux du fort sesmouvoir pour l'ancer leur batteau a leau, ilz creurent quon alloit braquer du ca.ion, contre eux comme je leur avois diet. Ils en prirent lespouvente et senfuyrent. Estans retournes vers le Sr Bridgar jls raporterent quil y avoit un fort, et un navire francois plus proche deux, que je ne leur avois dict, et sur cet advis, le d. Se Bridgar envoya deux hommes pour passer du nord au sud, pour savoir sjl estoit vraj que nous y eussions deux navires, outre celuj quj estoit à l'Isle, de quoi estant advertj par mes gens jenvoye par trois differens endroits pour tascher de prendre et me faire amener les deux hommes que le Sr Bridgar avait envoyes a cette descouverte, ayant pourt at ordonné a mes gens de ne leur faire aucun mal. Mes gens reussirent dans leur queste, ear ils trouverent ces deux pauvres hommes a environ cinq lieues de nos maisons presque morts de froid, et nayans rien a manger, de sorte quils neurent pas grand peine a les prendre,

During all my comings and goings, my brother-in-law had put our habitation in good order. We were in security, having nothing to fear from the Indians who were our friends and with respect to our neighbours, their disorder, and the little care they took to ascertain our condition, sheltered us from all apprehension from them. But as it might happen that Governor Bridgar learned that the New England interloper was in the seme river as himself, and that he might then discover all the mystery which I had concealed from him till then, that he might even learn that we had not the strength of which I had boasted, I wished to continue to guard myself and thought that the best means was to secure the New England ship by rendering myself master of her, because if Mr. Bridgar had anticipated me in that, he would have been too strong and I would be entirely unable to resist him and to maintain myself. But the question was to find the means of succeeding in the execution of this design, in which I saw great difficulties, but it was necessary to conquer or yield. For this reason I determined to follow entirely this enterprise, leaving to my brother the care of the habitation and trade. Seeing the river entirely taken, I sent every two days for a fortnight men through the woods, to ascertain in what condition was the company's ship. They at last reported to me that she was aground on the shore, the creek where she was to have wintered being completely frozen over, which made me consider that she must inevitably perish. I also sent to young Capt. Guilliem on the island, two of my men for whom he had asked me to act as safeguards, but I was warned by my people that he would at last play with me, having contrary to his promise to receive no one into his fort except those who had my orders, sent his boat for two of the sailors of the company's ship, that Mr. Bridgar had sent a searching party to the coast where I had told him that we had our forts and to see also if they could not find remains of their ship. But these two men having seen the men of the fort moving to launch their boat, thought they were about to aim the gun at them as I had told them, took fright and fled. Having returned to Mr. Bridgar, they reported that there was a fort and a French ship nearer than I had said. On this report Mr. Bridgar sent two men to pass from north to south to ascertain if it was true that we had two ships, besides that which was at the island. Being warned by my people, I sent by three different roads to try to catch and bring in the two men Mr. Bridgar had sent on this search, but giving orders to my people that they were not to do them any harm. My people succeeded in their quest, for they found these two poor men about tive leagues from our houses almost dead with cold and having nothing to cat, so that they had no great trouble to take them, they having made no resistance. They brought them to me at our habitation, where being well treated the men testified no annoyance at being in my hands. I learned from them the orders Mr. Bridgar had given them for this search, which obliged me to keep still more on my guard and to take new precautions to prevent Governor Bridgar from discovering the New England interloper, 1 sent at that time supplies to Mr. Bridgar who was in great necessity. He wished to dissimulate, thanked me by his letters, assured me that he would not interrupt me and would no longer allow any of his people to approach the forts which he believed to be ours. I sent also to visit young Guilliem to observe his proceedings and to see in what condition he might be, that I might take advantage of him. The two Englishmen whom my people had brought, informed me that the company's ship had been wrecked, that the captain, the lieutenant and four sailors were lost, 18 who were fortunately on shore being saved. This information obliged me to go to Mr. Bridgar to see how he felt. I took about 100 partridges to him and some powder for hunting, offering my services for whatever he needed. I asked news of his ship. He did not wish to acknowledge the loss, and told me she was four leagues lower down. I would not press him further thereupon and we parted civilly.

I went thence to the island fort to see what was passing there also and to try to complete the design I had to take the ship and the fort, having discovered by intercepted letters that young Guilliem wished to play me a trick and that he had resolved to ruin me. Having arrived at the island fort, I concealed from young Guilliem the bad news of the loss of his father and of his company's ship telling him only that his father continued ill and that he did not think it proper to write him for fear of him being discovered. I induced him to visit our habitation, which he promised to do and I returned having done nothing else that day.

nayans fait aucune resistance. Ilz me les amenerent à notre habitation, en les ayant bien traites, ilz ne temoignerent aueun chagrin destre entre mes mains. Jappris par eux les ordres que le Sr Bridgar leur avoit donnes pour cette descouverte, ce qui mobligea de me tenir encores plus sur mes gardes et de prendre de nouvelles precautions pour empescher, que le gouverneur Bridgar ne recognut l'Interloper de la nouvelle angre. Jenvoyé dans ce temps la des rafraichissemens au d. Sr Bridgar qui estoit en grande necessite, et me le vouloit dissimuler. jl me remercia par ses lettres, et masseura quil ne minteromproit point et quil ne permettroit plus a aucun de ses gens daprocher des fortz qu'il croyoit estre a nous, Jenvoyé aussi viziter le jeune Guilliem pour observer ses desmarches, et voir en quel estat jl pouvoit estre pour men prevalloir. Les deux anglois que mes gens avoient amenés me donnerent aussi advis que le navire de la compagnie estoit pery avec le cap^{ne}, le lieutenant, et quatre matelots, sen estant sauve 18 quj par bonheur estoient a terre. Cet advis mobligea daller vers le Sr Bridgar voir quelle contenance il tenoit. Je lui fis porter environ 100 perdrix, et luj donné aussi quelque poudre pour la chasse, en lui offrant mon service, en tout ce qu'il auroit besoin de moy. Je luj demandé des nouvelles du navire, il ne vouleut pas men advouer la perte et me dict quil estoit a quatre lieues plus bas. Je ne voulus pas le presser daventage la dessus et nous nous separasme civillement.

Jallé de la au fort de lIsle pour voir aussi ce qui si passoit et tacher de venir a bout du dessein que je mestois proposé de prendre le navire, et le fort ayant encore descouvert par quelques lettres interceptees, que le jeune Guilliem me vouloit faire piece, et quil avoit resolu de me perdre. Estant arrivé au fort de l'Isle je dissimulé au jeune Guilliem, la mauvaise nouvelle de la perte de son pere, et du navire de la compagnie, luj disant seulement, que son pere estoit toujours malade, et quil navoit pas trouvé a propos de luy escrire de peur de le faire descouvrir. Je le disposé ensuite a venir voir notre habitation, ce quil me promit, et je men retourné sans avoir faict autre chose avec Jaj lattestation de ce faict entre les mains. Je demeuré a ce voiage deux jours avec le Sr Bridgar, voulant lors travailler sincerement pour lui donner secours, le voiant hors destat de me pouvoir nuire, et en men retournant a notre habittation je passé au fort du jeune Guilliem dans l'Isle, ou je voules faire mon eoup, car il estoit temps.

quand je feus arr. ve au fort je dis au Jeune Guilliem que son pere estoit tousjours Indisposé et quil me remettoit tont entre Les mains, et sur ce que je luj dis de lestat de son pere, et de sa resolution, jl me pressa fort de retourner, et de le mener avec moy deguisé, comme la premiere fois, pour le voir, mais je le detourné de ce dessein, et luj fis venir lenvie daller voir notre habitation, et en quel estat nous estions, je scaves quil avoit eu la penséé de Le faire a mon Inseu, cest pourquoy je vouleus satisfaire sa curiosité, layant donc disposé par mes raisons a faire ce voiage, nous partismes le lendemain de grand matin, Ensemble, jl mena aussj son charpentier, et nous arrivasmes a notre habit-

Eight days after, I returned to see Mr. Bridgar whom I told he was not careful enough to preserve and feed his people, that I had learned from two of his men who were at my fort of the loss of his ship, which he acknowledged to be true. I promised to assist him and to send back the two men and whatever he asked from me. I also made him an offer of one of our vessels, with the necessary provisions to take him in spring to the head of the bay, which he would not accept. I assured him I would render him all the service in my power, wishing to deal honourably with him for the friendship I had always entertained for the nation, for in respect to Mr. Bridgar I had no reason to be satisfied with him, having certain information that he spoke ill of me in my absence and that he had said openly to his people that he would ruin my trade, even if he should give six axes to the Indians for a beaver, and as much other merehandise in proportion. I have the attestation to this fact in my hands. On this journey I remained two days with Mr. Bridgar, wishing to work sincerely to give him assistance, seeing that he was unable to do me any harm. In returning to our habitation I passed young Guilliem's fort on the island, where I wished to carry out my object, it being time.

When I arrived at the fort I told young Guilliem that his father was still indisposed and that he left everything in my hands. From what I told him of the condition of his father and of his resolution, he urged me to return and take him with me disguised as before in order to see him, but I dissuaded him from this plan and brought him to the wish to go to see our habitation and in what state we were. I knew that he had thought of doing so without my knowledge, that is why I wished to satisfy his curiosity. Having disposed him by my reasons to make this journey we left next morning early together. He brought a earpenter with him and we arrived at our habitations young Guilliem and his men being very tired.

I did not wish young Guilliem to see the two Englishmen who were at our habitation. I had them coneealed, and arranged for them to set out the next day with two of my people to return through the woods to their habitation, having promised Mr. Bridgar to send back these two men. I gave them also tobacco, clothes and several other things, which Mr. Bridgar had asked for and that I had promised him, but when they were to leave in the morning one of the Englishmen whom I wished to send threw himself at my feet and earnestly begged me not to send him back. I would not have agreed to this had not my brother-in-law requested me and that I considered also that it was a relief to Mr. Bridgar, who was short of provisions. I, therefore, let the other Englishman go with my two men and, having given them my orders to set out, I made young Guilliem come out that he might see them, making him understand that I was sending them to our fort in the upper part of the river. I remained quiet for a month, treating young Guillem, my new guest, well and with all sorts of civilities, which he abused on several occasions, for, having apparently perceived that we had not the strength I told him, he took the liberty of speaking of me in threatening terms behind my back, treating me as a pirate and saying that in spite of me he would trade in spring with the Indians; he had even the hardihood to strike one of my men, which I pretended not to notice, but, having had the insolence one day when we were discussing the privileges of New England to speak against the respect due to the best of Kings, I treated him as a worthless dog for speaking in that way and told him that having had the honour to cat bread in his service I would pray to God all my life for His Majesty. He left me, threatening that he would return to his fort and that when he was there I would not dare to speak to him as I had done. I could not have a better opportunity to begin what I had resolved to do. I told this young brute then that I had brought him from his fort, that I would take him back myself when I pleased, not when he wished. He answered impertinently several times, which obliged me to threaten that I would put him in a place of safety if he was not wiser. He asked me then if he was a prisoner. I said I would consider it and that I would seeure my trade, since he had threatened to interrupt it. I then withdrew to give him time to be informed by the Englishman how his father was lost with the company's ship and the bad situation of Mr. Bridgar. I left in their company a Frenchman, who understood English without them knowing it. When I had left, young Guilliem urged the Englishman to fly and to go to his master and assure him that he would give him six barrels of mises, mais quand jl faleut partir le matin, un des deux anglois que je voules renvoyer se jeta a mes piedz, et me pria Instemment de ne le point renvoyer. je ne lui aurés pas accordé sans que mon beau frere men pria. Et que je consideré aussj que cestoit une descharg pour le Sr Bridgar, quj menquoit de vivres. Je laissé donc aller lautre anglois avec mes deux hommes, et leur ayant donné mes ordres pour partir, je fis sortir le Jeune Guilliem alin quil les vist, luj faisant entendre que je les envoyes a notre fort au hault de la riviere.

Je demeuré un mois en repos traitant bien Le Jeune Guilliem mon nouvel hoste, et avec toutes sortes de civillites dont jl abusa en plusieurs rencontres, car sestant apparenment aperceu, que nous navions pas les forces que je luj aves dict. Il s'mancipa de parler de moy hors de ma presence en termes menaceans, me traitant de pirate, Et disant quil traitereit malgré moy au printemps avec les sanvages, jl cet encore la hardiesse de fraper un de mes hommes, Et je ne vouleus pas faire semblant de le scavoir, mais ayant eu l'Insolence un jour que nous discourions des privileges de la Nouvelle Angre, de parler contre le Respect deu au meilleur de tous les Roys, je le traité d'indigne chien de tenir de telz discours, et luj dis que pour moy quj aves eu l'honneur de manger du pain a son service, je prieres Dieu toute ma vie pour sa majesté, jl me repartit en me menaceant quil sen alloit retourner a son fort, et que quand jl y seroit je noseres luj parler comme je faises. Je ne pouves avoir de meilleure occasion pour commencer ce que Javes resolu de faire, je dis donc a ce Jeune brutal que je l'aves amené de son fort et que je ly conduirês moy mesmes quand jl me plairoit, mais non pas quand jl voudroit. jl diet encores plusieurs Impertinences qui mobligerent de le menacer que je le feres mettre en Lieu de seurté sil nestoit plus sage. jl me demanda sil estoit donc prisonnier, je lui dis que Jy adviseres, et que je voulés asseurer ma traite, puis quil mavoit menacé de mi Interrompre. Je me retiré ensuite pour Luy donner le temps de sinstruire avec Langlois, comme quoj son pere estoit perj avec le navire de la compagnie et du mauvais estat ou estoit le Sr Bridgar. Je laissé en leur compagnie un françois qui catendoit langlois sans quilz le sceussent. quand je feus sertj le Jeune Guilliem solicita langlois de senfuir, et daller vers son maître et de lasseurer de sa part quil Luy livreroit six barilz de poudres et dautres provisions, sil vouloit entreprendre de le tirer dentre mes mains. Langlois ne respondit rien, mais jl ne madvertit pas de la proposition qui lui avait esté faite. Je lapris par mon françois qui avoit tout entendu, et je Jugé quil estoit temps dagir pour ma seureté.

Je Dissimulé le soir tout ce que je scavés de ce complot, mais allant me coucher je demandé a nos gens sj les fusees que nous mettions la nuict autour de notre fort pour nous garentir de laproche de ceux quj nous auroient vouleu surprendre estoient placées. A ce mot de fuséés le Jeune Guilliem quj ne seavoit ce que cestoit en prist Lespouvente, et vouloit senfuir, crojant quon avoit dessein de le faire perir. je le fis retenir et Le gueris de son aprehension, mais le lendemain je Luy fis un compliment auquel ji ne sattendoit pas, car je ladvertis que jalles prendre son fort, et son uavire, jl me respondict fierement, que quand Jaures 100 hommes Je nen pourrès venir about, et que ses gens en auroient tué plus de 40 avant quils feussent a la pallisade. Cette fierté ne metonna pas, estant bien seur que je viendrois a bout de mon dessein. Voicy com-powder and other supplies if he would undertake to deliver him out of my hands. The Englishman made no answer, but he did not inform me of the proposition that had been made him—I learned that from the Frenchman who had heard everything—and I thought it was time to act for my security.

In the evening I said nothing of what I knew of the plot, but in going to bed I asked our people if the muskets were in their places which we put at night round the fort to guarantee us against surprise. At the word musket, young Guilliem, who did not know what was meant, took fright and wished to fly, believing that it was intended to kill him, but I restrained him and freed him from his apprehension. Next morning, however, I paid him a compliment which he did not expect, for I told him that I was about to take his fort and his ship. He answered haughtily that even if I had 100 men I could not succeed, and that his people would have killed more than 40 before they could reach the palisades. This boldness did not astonish me, being out.

I had counted on having two of my men in the fort as hostages, but as they had full liberty to come out, one of them returned in the evening to our habitation without my order at which I was annoyed, but dissimulated having the enterprise in my head for which I wished to make use of eraft and skill rather than open force. Seeing the arrogance with which the young captain had answered me, telling me that I could not take his fort with 100 men, I asked him how many were in it. He said nine. I requested him to choose an equal number of mine, whoever he wished, myself included, telling him that I did not wish for a greater number, to give him in two days a good account of his fort and ship, not desiring that he should have the shame of seeing what I was about to do. He accordingly named those of my men whom he wished and I took no others. I allowed him to accompany me to the water's edge, and set out with my nine for this expedition with one of Mr. Bridgar's Englishmen, as a witness. Having arrived at half a league from the fort, I left the Englishman with a Frenchman, commanding them not to leave until they had my orders. At the same time I ordered two of my men to go straight to the fort from the south side of the islet, and I went to post myself with my other five men at the point of the same island on the north side to ascertain what those were doing whom I had sent towards the fort. They were stopped by three Englishmen who asked them if they had letters from their master. My people answered them according to instructions that he was coming with me, but that being tired we had remained behind; that they had come on ahead to look for some brandy which they offered to carry. The Englishmen took the duty and my two men remained in the fort. The one who was a hostage had orders to take possession of the door of the guard house, one of the new arrivals of the door of the house, and the third was to go out and in occasionally to be able in case the plan was discovered to obstruct the door with blocks of wood so that it could not be closed, to give me room to enter to help them. But there was no need of so many precautions, for I had entered the fort before those who should have guarded it were aware. The lieutenant was surprised to see me and asked where was his master. The hour had come for explanation and action. I answered the lieutenant that it was not the question of asking where his master was, but of telling me how many men he had and of calling them. He satisfied my demand, and my men being collected and entered into the fort, I told those who were there the object for which I had entered, that I intended to be the master and that it was no longer a time for reasoning. I commanded them to bring me the keys of the fort and all their arms and to inform me if they had powder in their chests and how much, willing to trust what they would tell me. They brought their arms, and in respect to powder, they said they had none. I took possession of the fort in the name of the King of France, and afterwards made the lieutenant conduct me to the ship to take possession of her also in the same name. I did this without any one resisting, and whilst I was doing all these things young Guilliem's people showed more joy than sadness, murmuring against him for the ill treatment they had received, and that he had killed the supercargo. But a Scotchman of young Guilliem's crew wishing to show his zeal, fled and ran towards Mr. Bridgar's house to give him notice of what was taking place.

langlois avec un francois, leur commandant de ne point demie lieue pres du fort Jy la partir quilz neussent mes ordre, jordonné en mesme temps a deux de mes hommes daller droit au fort, du costé du sud de l'islet, et Jallai me poster avec mes einq autres hommes a la pointe de la mesme Isle du costé du nord, pour descouvrir ce que feroient ceux que javes Envoyes vers le fort. jls furent arrestes par trois anglois, armés qui Leur demanderent silz avoient des lettres de leur maistre, mes gens leur respondirent suivant mes Instructions quil venoit avec moi, que sestant trouvé fatigué nous estions demeures derriere, quils avoient pris le devant pour aller chercher de leau-de-vie quils soffrirent de porter, les anglois en vouleurent prendre la commission et mes deux hommes demeurerent dans le fort, celuj qui estoit en ostage, avoit ordre, de se saisir de la porte du corps de garde, un des nouveaux arrives de la porte de la maison, et le troisieme devoit entrer et sortir de temps en temps pour pouvoir en cas que le dessein fut descouvert Embarrasser la porte avec des busches pour Empecher quelle ne fust fermée, et me donner lieu d'y entrer pour les secourir, mais il ne feut pas besoing de precautions, car je feus entré dans le fort auparavant que ceux qui le devoient garder sen feussent aperceus. le lieutenant feut surpris, de me voir, et me demanda ou estoit son maistre. l'heure estoit venue qu'il faloit sexpliquer et agir, je respondis donc au Lieutenant quil nestoit pas question de demander ou estoit son maistre, mais de me dire combien jl avoit d'hommes et de les faire appeler. Il satisfoit a ce que je luj demandé, et mes gens estans rassembles, et entres dans Le fort, je dis a ceux qui y estoint le subject pour lequel Jy estois, que je pretendês estre la le maistre, et quil nestoit plus temps de raisonner. je leur commande de maporter les elefz du fort, et toutes leurs armes, et de me declarer silz avoient des poudres dans leurs cofres, et la quantité voulant bien men raporter a ce quilz me diroient, ilz ne firent aucune resistance. Ilz maporterent leurs armes, et a lEgard des poudres ilz mc dirent quilz nen avoient point. Je pris possession du fort au nom du Roy de france, et me fis conduire apres cela par le lieutenant au navire pour en prendre aussj possession au mesme nom. je le fis sans que personne y resistat, et pendant que je faises toutes ces choses les gens du Jeune Guilliem en temoignerent plus de Joie, que de tristesse murmurant contre luj pour les mauvais traitemens quilz en avoient receus; Et de ce quil avoit tué son marchand, mais un Escossois de l'esquipage du Jeune Guilliem voulant faire le zelé, se sauva, Et coureut vers la maison du Sr Bridgar pour luj donner advis, de ce qui se passoit. Jenvoyé deux de mes hommes les plus Legers pour courir apres luj; mais ilz ne peurent le joindre estant parti quatre heures devant eux, et il arriva i l'habitation du Sr Bridgar, lequel sur ladvis de les cossois resolut de me venir surprendre.

Javes cependant envoyé deux de mes hommes advertir mon frere, de ce qui sestoit passé, et que lescossois sestant sauvé, Japrehendes quil ne mattirast quelque affaire du costé du Sr Bridgar et que je ne me trouvasse Embarrassé sil ne menvoyoit quatre hommes de secours, avant plus danglois a garder que Je naves de françois, que je ne feus pas trompé en ce que javes preveu. Sur le minuiet un de nos chiens, donna lalarme a notre Sentinelle qui madvertit quelle entendoit du bruict a bord du vaisseau, je fis prendre les armes a mes Gens, et enfermer les anglois dans les cabanes, soubz la garde de deux hommes, et je sortis moj cinquieme pour aller au vaisseau. Jy trouvé des Gens armes ausquelz je fis dabord commendement de mettre bas les armes, et de se rendre. Il y en eut quatre qui se rendirent, et quelques autres qui se sauverent a la faveur de la nuict Mes gens vouloient tirer, mais je les en Empesché, de quoj jlz murmurerent contre moi, je mené les prisonniers dans le fort, et les Interrogé lun apres lautre. Je recognus quils estoient des gens du Sr Bridgar, et quil avoit esté de la partie, mais quil estoit demeurer a demic Lieue pour attendre le succes de lentreprise, le dernier des prisonniers que jinterroge feust Lescossois qui sen estoit fuy, quand je pris Le fort, et comme je scaves quil estoit seul la cause que le Sr Bridgar sestoit engagé a cette entreprise, je vouleus men venger en luj faisant peur, et je le fis attacher à un potteau et luj dis que je voules le faire pendre le lendemain. Je fis cependant fort bien traiter les autres prisonniers ses camarades, et comme mon Intention nestoit pas de faire dautre mal que la peur a l'Ecossois, je luj fis conseiller quil priast le lieutenant du fort de me demander sa vie, ce quil fist, et il neust pas de peyne a lobtenir, estant pourtant lui mesme fort consterné et ne scachant ce que je voules faire de luj.

I had, however, sent two of my men to inform my brother of what was going on, and that the Scotchman had escaped. I apprehended that this might lead to some action on the part of Mr. Bridgar, and that I would be embarrassed if he did not send four men to my assistance, having more Englishmen to guard than I had Frenchmen. I was not mistaken. About midnight, one of the dogs gave the alarm to our sentinel, who informed me that he heard a noise on board the vessel. I made my people arm themselves and had the Englishmen shut up in the cabins in charge of two men, and went off myself with five to go the vessel. I found armed men there, whom I ordered to lay down their arms and to surrender, Four of them did so, some others the dunder cover of night. Our people wished to fire, but I prevented them, at which they grumbled. I brought the prisoners into the fort and interrogated them separately. I recognized them to be Mr. Bridgar's people, and that he would have been of the party, but that he had remained half a league off to await the success of the enterprise. The last of the prisoners was the Scotchman, who had fled when I took the fort. As I knew that he alone was the cause of Mr. Bridgar undertaking this enterprise, I wished to be revenged by giving him a fright. I had him tied to a post and told him that I would hang him next morning. I had the other prisoners, his comrades, well treated, and as I did not intend to hurt, but only to frighten the Scotchman, I advised him that he should pray the lieutenant of the fort to ask for his life, which he did, and had no trouble to obtain; he himself, however, was much frightened, not knowing what I would do with him.

The four men whom I asked from my brother-in-law arrived in the meantime, and finding myself strong enough by this assistance to resist anything which Mr. Bridgar might undertake against me, I wrote him, asking him if he approved of the action of his people whom I held prisoners, who had broken two doors and the storeroom of the ship to carry off the powder. He made an ambiguous answer, complaining that I had not been sincere with him, having concealed this mystery from him. He notified me also that having proper orders to seize all ships coming to this quarter, he would have joined with me in taking this vessel, but as the prize had fallen into my hands, he hoped to be favoured with some of the pickings. These are the terms of his letter. I sent back his three men with tobacco and some provisions and kept their arms, commanding them to say from me to Mr. Bridgar, that if I had been notified that he wished to come himself on this expedition, I would have taken measures to receive him before he could withdraw from it, but that I had learned of it too late. On the earliest opportunity I would visit him to learn what he intended as to our intercourse, and, since he wished to ignore the position I held in that country, I would go to inform him of it.

Before the departure of the people I was sending back to Mr. Bridgar, I discovered that some Englishmen had concealed powder outside the fort. I questioned them all, but not one would acknowledge it, but at last I made them confess, and five or six pounds were found which they had hidden. I exerted myself after that to put the fort in a condition of safety. I sent my brother four of the Englishmen from the fort and arranged to go to see what Mr. Bridgar was about. I went to his house and entered before he was warned of my arrival. He appeared much surprised, but I spoke to him in such a manner as to show him that I had no intention to hurt him and told him that his proceedings had made all the Frenchmen his enemies, so that I found myself at a loss how to help him. I represented to him that it would be better in his present situation to try mildness. I told him also that as he did not keep his word, I knew how to act towards him. I did not intend them to do any harm to Mr. Bridgar, but only to intimidate him, so as to oblige him to live honourably with me, assisting him from time to time with what he needed. I especially wished to put it out of his power to think of trading and to reduce him to the necessity of leaving in spring.

Seeing that Mr. Bridgar seemed astonished to see me accompanied by 12 men and in a condition to play him a trick had I intended to do so, I tried to reassure him by voulu entreprendre contre moy, je luj escrivis et luj demandé par ma Lettre sil avouoit laction de ses gens, que je tenes prisonnier, qui avoient rompu Les deux portes, et la soute du navire pour en enlever les poudres, jl me fit une response fort ambigue declamant contre moj, que je ne luj avés pas esté sincère, luj ayant dissimulé ce mistere, Il me manda au-sj qu'ayant de bonnes Instructions, pour prendre tous les vaisseaux qui venoient dans ces licux pour la traite il se seroit joint avec moy pour prendre celluj la, mais puisque la partie mestoit tombéé entre les mains, il en esperoit de moy par faveur quelque plume, cest le terme de sa lettre. Je renvoyé ses trois hommes avec du tabac, et quelques vivres et je retins leurs auries en leur commandant de dire de ma part au d. Sr Bridgar, que sj Javois esté advertj, quil eust voulu venir luj mesme a cette Expedition, Jaures pris mes mesures pour Le recepvoir avant quil cust eu le temps de se retirer, mais que je lavois apris trop tard, et quau premier jour je l'irois viziter, pour scavoir quelle estoit son Intention, sur nostre maniere de vivre et que puisquil vouloit Ignorer en quelle qualité jestes en ce pays la, jyres luj apprendre.

Je descouvris avant le despart des gens que Je renvoyes au Sr Bridgar que quelques anglois avoient caché de la poudre hors le fort. Je les Interrogé tous, pas un ne vouleut Lavouer, mais enfin Je leur fis confesser, et on en trouva cinq ou six livres quilz avoient Cachéé. Je travaillé apres cela a mettre le fort en seureté. Jenvoyé a mon frere 4 des anglois du fort, et je me disposé a descendre pour aller voir ce que faisoit le Sr Bridgar. Je me rendis a sa maison et jy entré avant quil feust advert j de mon arrivéé. Il en parut fort surpris, mais je luj parle dune maniere a luy faire cognoistre que je n'aves aucun dessein de luj nuire et je luj dis ensuitte que son procedé en ce quil venoit de faire luy ayant rendu tous les françois pour ennemis, je me trouves fort embarrassé comment je pourres lassister, je luy representé, quil eust mieux fait de prendre Le parti de la douceur, en lestat ou jl estoit, et je luj dis que puisquil ne me tenoit pas sa parole, je scaves comment je deves agir avec luj mon Intention nestoit pas pourtant alors de rien faire u Sr Bridgar. Je voules seulement l'Intimider pour obliger de vivres honnestement avec moy, en le secourant de temps en temps de ce quil auroit besoin. Je voules surtout le mettre hors destat de songer a la traite et les reduire a la necessité de se retirer au printemps.

Voiant donc que le Sr Bridgar parroissoit estonné de me voir accompagne de 12 hommes, et en estat de luj pouvoir faire piece, sj Jen avois eu le dessein, je vouleus le rasscurer en renvoyant six de mes hommes a mon beau frere, et n'en gardé que six avec moy, dont jen envoyé quatre a la chasse pour tascher daporter quelques provisions au Sr Bridgar, je receus dans ce temps la, une lettre de mon frere qui me blamoit de la maniere dont jagissois auec des gens qui sestoient mis en estat de me surprendre deux jours devant, me mandant que sj je continues jl alloit tout abandonner, que je feres mieux les Desarmer pour notre seureté, et surtout que je ne me chargeasse daucun deux cestoit aussi le sentiment des autres françois qui estoient tous Irrites contre le Sr Bridgar. Ne voulant donc pas m'attirer la haine de mes gens, au lieu de quatre anglois que Javois promis au Sr Bridgar de prendre avec moy, pour quil peut mieux faire vivre les autres, je nen pris que deux dont jen mit un au fort de l'Isle, et mené lautre a notre habittation. Je promis au Sr Bridgar avant me separer de luj quil ne manqueroit point de poudre, nj de toutes les autres choses qui scroient en mon pouvoir, et luy ayant demandé combién jl avoit de fusilz de reste, et seeu de luj quil en avoit dix, dont jl y en avoit huict de rompus, je pris ses huiet fusilz rompus et luj laisse le mien en bon estat, luj promettant de faire accommoder Les siens, jl m'ofrit un petit pistollet, en me disant qu'il voyoit bien que je voules desarmer. Je luj respondis que ce nestoit pas le desarmer de luj oster de meschantes armes pour luj en donner des bonnes. Je luj offris mes pistolletz quil ne vouleut pas accepter. Je le laissé en cet estat, et men alé a notre habittation rendre compte a mon beau frere de ce que Javes fait.

Je partis quelques jours apres pour aller au fort de l'Isle voir sj tout y estoit en bon estat, et apres avoir pourveu a toutes choses je retourné a notre poste amenant avec moj le licutenant du fort de l'Isle, auquel je donné ma chambre, et toute Liberté le eroyant plus sage que son capar, quon avoit esté obligé de resserrer en mon absence. il me remercia de mon honnesteté, et m'ayant prie quil se retirast avec son capae je luj sending six of my men to my brother-in-law, keeping only six with me, of whom I sent four to hunt to try and get some provisions for Mr. Bridgar. At that time I received a letter from my brother who found fault with me for acting as I had done to people who had put themselves in a state to surprise me two days before, notifying me that if 1 continued he would abandon every thing, that I would do better to disarm them for our safety, and especially that I should not burden myself with them. This was also the feeling of the other Frenchmen who were irritated against Mr. Bridgar. Not wishing to draw on me the hatred of my people, instead of four Englishmen whom I had promised Mr. Bridgar to take with me, that he might the better subsist the others, I took only two of them, of whom I sent one to the island fort and took the other to our habitation. I promised Mr. Bridgar before we parted that he should not want for powder nor for anything else I could supply him with, and having asked how many muskets he had remaining, and learned from him that he had ten, of which eight were broken, I took his eight broken muskets and left him nine in good condition, promising to have his repaired. He offered me a pocket pistol, telling me he saw that I wished to disarm him. I told him it was not disarming him to take away his uscless arms and to give him good ones. I offered him my pistol which he would not accept. I left him in this condition and went to our habitation to give my brother in-law an ac ount of what I had done.

A few days after I left for the island fort to see if everything there was in good condition, and after having provided for everything. I returned to our post, bringing with me the lieutenant of the island fort, to whom I gave my room and full liberty, believing him to be wiser than his captain whom they had been obliged to secure in my absence. He thanked me for my civility, and, having asked to be allowed to withdraw with his captain, I permitted him.

I had, however, notice from one of our people whom I had left on guard at the island fort that Mr. Bridgar had gone there, contrary to his pledge to me, accompanied by two of his men, and that our people having allowed them to come into the fort, had held Mr. Bridgar and sent back the two men, after having given them bread and brandy. This man reported to me also that Mr. Bridgar was in despair at seeing himself arrested and that he was furious. This notice obliged me to go to the fort, to prevent the surprise which might be attempted. On arriving there, I found Mr. Bridgar in a pitiable state, having been drinking to excess. He who commanded in the fort had much difficulty to prevent him from ill-using the Englishmen who wished to remain with me. He said in my presence a thousand things against me, threatening to kill me if I did not act reasonably by him, but after having suffered for a long time, I was obliged to ask him to hold his tongue. Wishing to know his design, I asked him if any of his people were to come, because on crossing the river I had seen smoke. He answered yes, and that he would show me seen what he could do, expecting the 14 men who were to come and the two whom my people had sent back. I answered that I knew he had not so many, having allowed several to die from want, for which he should be called to account, and that besides I was not afraid of his threats. No one appeared, however, and next day I arranged for Mr. Bridgar to come with me to our habitation, which he could not resist. I assured him that neither myself nor any of my people would go to his place in his absence, and that when I should have entertained him in my house for a week or a fortnight he might return to his own place at full liberty.

Mr. Bridgar remained a fortnight at our habitation without feeling the time heavy, and it appeared from his face that he had not been ill treated; but not being always able to keep him company, the care of our affairs calling me outside, I left him with my brother, that I might go to the island fort to see what was taking place. I told Mr. Bridgar on leaving that if he wished he might get ready to leave next day for his habitation to remedy any disorder committed by his people, and to get provisions, and I promised that I would meet him on the road to go there with him.

After having finished my business at the island fort, I left early to arrive at Mr. Bridgar's habitation before him to prevent him from ill-treating his people. The bad weather obliged me to enter the house without waiting for him. As soon as I entered, $8a-3\Lambda$

Jeus cependant advis par un de nos gens que javes lai-sé a la garde du fort de l'Isle, que le Sr Bridgar y estoit allé contre la parolle quil m'avoit donnéé accompagné de deux de ses hommes, et que nos gens leur ayant permis lentree dans le fort. Ils avoient retenu le Sr Bridgar, et renvoyé ses deux hommes, apres leur avoir donné du pain et de lean de vie, cet homme me rapporta aussi que le Sr Bridgar temoignoit estre au desespoir de se voir arresté, et quil faisoit le furieux. Cet advis mobligea de partir pour aller a ce Fort, prevenir les surprises quon nons pourroit faire, y estant arrivé, je trouve le Sr Bridgar en pitovable estat ayant beu au dela de la raison. Celuj qui commandoit dans le fort avoit en beaucoup de paine dempecher qu'il ne maltraitast langlois qui avoit vouleu demenrer avec nous, il dict en ma presence mille choses contre moj me menaemt de me tuer, sj je ne luj faisois raison, mais apres avoir longtemps souffert, je fens obligé de le prier de se taire, et voulant scavoir quel pouvoit estre son dessein, je luj demende si quelques vns de ses gens d voient venir, parce que javes veu des fuméés en traversant la rivière, il me respondit que'ouy, et quil me feroit voir bien tost ce quil scavoit faire attendant 14 hommes qui lui devoient venir, outre Les deux que mes gens avoient reuvoyes. Je luj repondis que je scaves bien quil navoit pas tant de monde ayant laissé mourir plusieurs de ses gens de misere dont il devoit rendre compte, et que dailleurs je nestois pas espouvante de ses menaces. Personne ne pareut cependant, et le Lendemain je disposé honnestement le Sr Bridgar a venir avec moj a notre habittation, a quoj il ne peut soposer. Je lassenré que moj nj aucun de mes gens mirions ches lui en son absence, et que quand je laures regalé ches moy huict ou 15 jours, il pourroit sen retourner chez luj en toute liberté.

Le Sr Bridgar demeura 15 jours a nostre habittation sans sj trop ennnyer, et jl paroissoit a son visage quil nj avoit pas esté maltraité, mais ne pouvant pas luj tenir tousjours compagnie, le Soin de nos all'aires mappelant au dehors, je le laissé avec mon beau frère pour men aller au fort de l'Isle, voir, ce qui sj passoit, et je dis en partant au Sr Bridgar qu'il pouvoit, s'il vouloit se preparer a partir le lendemain, pour aller a son habittation, remedier a quelque desordre que ses Gens y avoient faiet pour avoir des vivres, et je luj promis que je le rencontreres en chemin pour y aller avec Luj.

Apres avoir faict mes alfaires au fort de L'Isle jeu partis de bonne heure pour arriver a 1 habittation du Sr Bridgar avant luj, afin de lempecher qu'il ne maltraitast ses gens. Le manvais temps mobligea d'entrer dans La maison sans lattendre, si tost que jy fus entrer ses hommes se jetterent a mes piedz, et me prierent davoir pitié deux, je Les blasmé de ce quilz avoient faict, et les exhorté a estre a ladvenir plus obcissans à leur maistre, Leur Promettant que je le prierois de leur pardonner, et quan printemps je donnerois passage a ceux qui voudroient passer par france. Le Sr Bridgar arriva peu de temps apres moy, je luj fis excuse de ce que jestois entré dans sa maison avant luy, lasseurant que jestois tousjours dans les sentimens de le servir, et de le secourir comme jl sen apercevroit quand Il voudroit avoir recours a moy pour de La poudre, et toutes les choses dont jl pourroit avoir besoing, ce que je nay pas manqué de faire toutes les fois que Jen aj esté solicité, ou que jay recegnu que le Sr Bridgar estoit dans le besoin.

Je partis de l'habittation de Sr Bridgar pour retourner a la nostre, et je passé au fort de l'Isle, ou je mis un autre francois pour commander en la place de celluy que Jy avois laissé, voulant le faire travailler a nos barques, parce que Le printemps saprochoit. Les anglois du fort de l'Isle me firent des plaintes d'un de ceux du S' Bridgar que Jy aves amené pour vivre avec eux, je fus oblig de Le renvoyer pour les satisfaire mais je nosé leuvoyer a notre habittation, nos françois si opposant parce que nous en avious desja

Arrivant à notre lubittation Jappris que Le cap^{ne} anglois mal traitoist fort celluy de ses gens que je retenes avec luj et qui Estoit son charpentier, je fûs moy mesme temoing, sans quil me vist, de ses emportements contre le pauvre homme jen Blasmé le cap^{ne}, et je renvoyé au fort de l'Isle le charpentier, pour avoir soing du vaisseau, et le tenir en bon estat.

Mon neveu arriva dans ce temps là avec Les francois qui estoient avec luy pour appeller les sauvages, et deux jours apres jl en arriva plusieurs qui nous aporterent des vivres. Jiz furent surpris de voir les anglois que nous avions dans notre maison, et jlz nous firent offre de 200 enstortz pour leur permettre daller destruire les autres, mais je his men threw themselves at my feet, begging I would have pity on them. I censured them for what they had done and exhorted them to be more obedient to their master in future, promising that I would ask him to pardon them, and that in spring I would give a passage by way of France to those who wished it. Mr. Bridgar arrived soon after. I apologized for entering his house before him, assuring him that I had still a mind to erve him and to assist him, as he would see when he would have recourse to me for powder and everything he might require, which I had not failed to do whenever I was asked and that I saw that Mr. Bridgar was in want.

I left Mr. Bridgar's habitation to return to ours and passed the island fort, in which I placed another Frenchman in command in room of the one I had left, wishing that he should work on our vessels, as the spring was approaching. The Englishmen at the island fort complained of one of Mr. Bridgar's men whom I had brought to live with them. I was obliged to send him back to satisfy them, but I dared not send him to our habitation, our Frenchmen being so much opposed to it, there being already Arriving at our habitation, I learned that the English captain was ill-treating that one of his people whom I had kept with him and also was his curpenter. I was myself a witness of this, without him seeing me. I blamed the eaptain for his violent actions against this poor man, and sent the carpenter to the island fort to look after the vessel and keep her in a good state.

My nephew at that time arrived with the Frenchmen who were with him to invite the Indians, and two days after several arrived, who brought provisions. They were surprised to see the English whom we had in our house, and they offered us 200 beavers to be allowed to go to destroy the others. But I declared that I was far from consenting, on the contrary forbidding them to do them any harm; and Mr. Bridgar having arrived at the same time at our habitation with one of his men, I warned him that he should no longer expose himself without having one of my people with him, and begged him that whilst with me he would not speak to the Indians. He did so, however, and I could not help showing my resentment, which made him hasten his departure. I accompanied him with seven or eight of my men for fear the Indians, who had left the previous day, might offer him any insult. I returned next morning, having learned that a band of Indians, our former allies, were to arrive; and, in fact, I found they had arrived, in order to make war on the English on the persuasion of the Indians whom I had seen the previous autumn and with whom I had renewed an alliance.

I thanked the Indians for the good will they had testified in wishing to make war on our enemies, but I showed them at the same time that I had no design to do them harm and that having put it out of their power to do me any I was satisfied. would oblige me they would say nothing more of it, they having promised me to leave in spring. If they returned, I would allow them to be destroyed. The Indians complained greatly of the English at the head of the bay, which I will not report here, wishing to speak only of what concerns myself, but I cannot conceal that among the reasons which they alleged to oblige me to consent to their making war on the English they told me this: "Thou hast made us presents to lead us to make thy enemies ours and ours thine: we would not be liars." This is a mark of the reliance we may place on the friendship of these people when they have once promised. I answered that I loved them as my brothers, the French, and would deal better with them than the English at the head of the bay; that if any one of my people did them the least wrong I would myself kill him, adding that I was annoyed that I was not better furnished with merchandise, so that I might give them greater marks of my friendship; that I had come on this voyage unprovided, doubting if I should meet them, but I promised to return to them richer and better furnished with everything necessary for them and in a condition to destroy their enemies. I sent them away well satisfied with me, the English being surprised to see with what freedom and familiarity 1 lived with these

This took place at the beginning of April of the year 1683, which was very fine. I made my nephew prepare to set out with three others to earry food and brandy to our Frenchmen and our Englishmen at the island fort. The ice was becoming dangerous leur témoigné que jestois fort esloigné dy consentir leur dell'endant au contraire de leur faire aucun mal. Et le Sr Bridgar estant arrivé dans le mesme temps a notre habittation avec un de ses gens, je ladvertis, quil ne debvoit plus sexposer, sans avoir quelqu'un des miens avec luj. Et je le prié que pendant qu'il seroit ches moy jl ne parlast point aux sanvages, jl le liet pourtant et je ne peus mempescher de luj en temoigner mon ressentiment, ce qui luj fit precipiter son despart. Je l'accompagné avec sept ou 8 de mes gens de crainte que les sauvages qui estoient partis le jour precedent ne luj fissent quelque Insulte. Je retourné Le lendenain ayant apris qu'une troupe de sauvages nos anciens alliés devoist arriver et je les trouvé effectivement arrives dans le dessein de faire la guerre aux anglois, a la persuasion des sauvages que Javés ven l'antoume precedente, et avec Lesquelz javes renouvellé alliance.

Je remercié les sauvages de la bonne volonte quilz nous temoignoient en voulant faire la guerre à nos ennemis, mais je leur fis cognoistre en mesme temps que je navois pas dessein de leur faire du mal, et que les ayant mis hors destat de men faire jestois content, qu'ainsj, silz m'obligeroient de ne leur rien dire, mayant promis quilz sen Troient au printemps, mais que silz retournoient, je leur permettrois de les destruire. Les sauvages me firent beaucoup de plaintes des anglois du fondz de la baye, que je ue veux point raporter ley, ne voulant parler que de ce qui me regarde, mais je ne dois pas taire qu'entre les raisons quils malleguerent pour mobliger a consantir quilz fissent la guerre aux anglois, ilz me dirent cecy, tu nous a faict faire des presens pour faire devenir tes ennemis les notres, et les notres les tiens, nous ne voulons pas estre menteurs. cest une marque du fondz quon peut faire sur l'amitié de ces peuples quand ilz lont une fois promise. Je leur respondis aussi que je les aimes comme mes freres les francois, et que jen useres mieux avec eux que les anglois du fondz de la baye, et que si quelqu'un des miens leur faisoit le moindre tort je le tuerais moj mesmes, adjoutant que jestois fasché de nestre pas mieux fournj de marchandises, pour leur pouvoir donner plus de marques de mon Amitié, que jestois venu ce voiage au despourveu parceque je doutois si je les rencontreres, mais que je leur promets de revenir vers eux plus riche, et mieux fourny de tout ce qui leur seroit necessaire, et en estat de les aider a destruire leurs Ennemis. Je les renvoyé aussi fort satisfaitz de moy Les anglois estans surpris de voir avec quelle liberté et familiarité je vives avec ces sauvages.

Cecy se passa au commencement davril de lannee 1083 qui estoit tres beau. Je fis preparer mon neveu a partir avec trois autres pour aller porter de la viande et de leau de vie a nos francois, et aux anglois du fort de l'Isle, les glaces commencoient a devenir dangereuses et je prevoies quil nj avoit plus daparense de se pouvoir risquer a passer pardessus, apres ce voiage, cest pourquoy je dis a mon neveu quil feroit bien, daller de la vers les sauvages, a qui ji avoiet promis de donner advis de l'Estat, ou nous serions, et pour leur aprendre aussi comme quoy nous estions venus about de nos Ennemis.

Apres le depart de mon neveu pour ce voiage, il nous arriva la nuiet du 22 au 23 avril un accident auquel nous pensions le moins, car ayans halé nos barques dans un petit ruisseau, le plus avant que nous avions peu dans le bois, et ou nous avions Eu beaucoup de peyne de les faire entrer deschargees, nous les croyions fort en seureté, a labry dun coteau de dix brasses de hauteur ou nos maisons estoient a une Esgale distence du bord de la Rivière. Cependant sur les dix heures de nuict, un bruict affreux nous reveilla tous, et notre Sentinelle vint nous advertir que cestoit un desbaclement des glaces, et que leau enfloit dune force Extraordinaire. Nous courusmes au bord de L'eau, nous vismes ce que la sentinellle nous avoit dict, et en peu de temps des glaces de six a huit piedz d'espaisseur feuvent portees par les Eaux Jusque sur notre cotteau, mais le pis feut que Les glaces ayant bouché lentréé de la Rivière elles sarresterent sur les bature et refoulerent avec une rapidité surprenante et entrerent avec tant dimpetuosité dans tous les ruisseaux qui se desgorgeoient dans la Riviere, quil estoit Impossible que nos barques peussent resister. elles furent aussi Brisces en picces, et il ne resta rien que le fond qui estoit enfoncé dans les glaces ou dans la vasc. Et sj cela eust continué deux heures davantage nous anrions esté obliges de monter sur des arbres pour sauver nos vies, mais par bonheur le desbordement cessa, la riviere sestant desbouchéé par lescoulement des glaces, nous aperceusmes trois jours apres que les Eanx feurent baisséés le desordre ou estoient nos barques, et le bonheur que nous avions eu de faire un sj grand voiage au travers les glaces sur ces mesand forc he l how and I saw it would no longer be safe to risk travelling on it after this journey. I, therefore, told my nephew that he would do well to go from that toward the Indians, whom he had promised to notify of the state in which we might be and to inform them also how we had overcome our encuies.

After my nephew left on this journey, an accident happened on the night of the 22nd or 23rd April which we had little anticipated. We had hauled our vessels into a small stream as far as possible into the woods. We had great trouble in getting them in unloaded and believed them in safety under shelter of a hill ten fathoms high, where our houses were at an equal distance from the bank of the river. However, about ten o'clock at night a frightful noise awoke us all, and our sentinel came to warn us that it was a breaking up of the ice and that the water was rising with extraordinary force. We run to the water side, saw what the sentinel had told us and in a short time ice of six to eight feet thick was carried by the water as far as our hill. But the worst was that the ice, having blocked up the mouth of the river, remained on the flats, drove back with surprising rapidity and entered with so much impetuosity into all the brooks that emptied into the river that our vessels could offer no resistance; they were broken to pieces, all that remained being the bottoms, which were sunk in the ice and mud, and had it continued for two hours longer we would have been obliged to climb the trees to save our lives, but fortunately the flood cease I and the river being freed by the ice flowing off we saw three days after that the waters had abated, and also the disorder in which our vessels were and our good fortune in making so great a voyage through the ice in these wretched vessels, for the one which had been mine was rotten and that of my brotherin law not bolted. This accident put us in a state of consternation apprehending that a similar fate had betallen the New England vessel, the Indians having told us that the river was more dangerous than ours and they did not believe that the vessel could have escaped in the place where she was; but, Mr. Bridgar having formerly told me of a similar accident which had happened in the river Kechechewan at the head of the bay and that a vessel had been saved by the eare taken to cut the ice all round her, I had taken the same precaution and given orders that the ice should be cut round the vessel down to the keel-an obligation which I owe to Mr. Bridgar for giving me this advice, for it saved the vessel. She was only pushed by the strength of the ice to the side, where she remained aground with little damage.

Whilst the water was falling, we consulted on which of the bottoms of our two vessels we could build one and it was at last determined it should be on mine. At this we worked without intermission day and night, intending this vessel for the passage of the English to the head of the bay, as I had offered to Mr. Bridgar. I went two or three times to the mouth of the river to see what the flood and ice had done and to see if I could round the point to get into the other river where were Mr. Bridgar and the English ship at the island fort, for it was impossible to go there through the woods, which were covered with water. I risked passing at last and fortunately doubled the point in a bark cance, although amongst ice, which compelled us in several places to carry our cance over it. After entering the river I kept along the south shore till I arrived at the island fort after having run many dangers. I found, as I have just said, the vessel aground in a pretty bad state, but easy to remedy, only the after part being broken. I gave orders to have it repaired and encouraged the English to work at it which they did and with more courage than the French.

Having given these orders I took the ship's boat to go to Mr. Bridgar's habitation to see in what state he was. I found that he had lost four of his men who had died from want besides two who had been poisoned some time before, from having rashly drank of a liquor they had found in the medicine chest, without knowing what it was; and her of Mr. Bridgar's men had had his arm broken by a musket shot while hunting. Seeing this disorder I went in haste to the south shore to go to our houses whence I promised Mr. Bridgar I would send the English surgeon, who was with us, brandy, vinegar and linen and as many provisions as we could spare. Having landed, I sent back the boat to the island fort, with orders to tell my two men whom I had left there to bring back my cance and to make use of it in hunting. Returning I went by land with one of Mr. Bridgar's Englishmen, whom I had taken with me to send him back chans bastimens, car lune qui estoit la mienne estoit toute pourrie, et celle de mon beau frere point chevilléé. Cet accident nous mist dans une grande consternation aprehendans quil en feust autant arrivé au navire de la nouvelle angre les sauvages nous ayant diet que La Riviere estoit plus dangereuse que la notre et quils ne croioient pas que le vaisseau eust peu se sauver dans lendroit ou jl estoit. mais le Sr Bridgar mayant sy devans faiet recit dun pareil accident quy estoit arrivé dans la Riviere de Kechechewanau fondz de la Baye, et qu'un vaisseau avoit été sauvé par le soing qu'on avoit pris de faire couper les Glaces tout autour, Javes pris la mesme precaution, et donné ordre quon coupast les glaces autour de ce vaisseau, jusques soulz la quille. Cest une obligation que jay au dt Sr Bridgar de mavoir donne cet advis, car il sauva le vaisseau, il feut seulement poussé par leffort des glaces a la coste ou il demeura eschoué avec peu de domage.

Pendant que les eaux diminuoient nous tinsmes conseil entre nous pour Resoudre sur quel fondz de nos deux barques nous en pourrions bastir une et jl feut enfin resolu que ce seroit sur la miene, a quoj nous travaillasmes jour et nuiet sans relache, destinant cette barque pour le passage des anglois dans le fondz de La Baye ainsy que je laves offert au Sr Bridgar, je descendis deux ou trois fois a l'embouchare de la Rivière pour voir qu'avoit faiet Le desbordement des Eaux, et les glaces, et voir si je pourres passer la pointe pour aller dans lautre rivière ou estoit le Sr Bridgar et le mavire anglois au fort de l'isle car jl estoit impossible dy aller au travers Les bois qui estoient tous couvertz d'eau. Je risqués à la fin de passer et je doublé heureusement la pointe dans un canot d'Escorce, quojque parmi les glaces, qui nous obligerent en plusieurs endroits de porter notre canot par dessus. Etant entré dans la Rivière, je costoyé du coste du sud et Jarrivé au fort de l'Isle apres avoir couru bier, des dangers. Je trouvé comme je viens de le dire le navire eschoué sur la costé en asses mauvais estat, mais facile a remedier, ayant seulement le derriere brisé, je douné les ordres pour le faire reparer, et Jencouragé les anglois dy travailler ee quilz firent, et avec plus de courage que les françois.

Ayant donné ces ordres je pris le petit batteau du vaisseau pour descendre a l'habitation du sieur Bridgar, et voir en quel estat, jl estoit. Je trouve quil aveit perdu quatre de ses hommes qui estoient morts de misere, outre deux qui sestoient empoisonnes quelque temps devant, pour avoir beu Inconsideremment d'une liqueur quilz avoient prise dans le coffre du chirurgien sans scavoir ce que cestoit, un autre des hommes du d. Sr Bridgar avoit eu le bras cassé dun coup de fusil estant a la chasse, voiant dans ce desordre je me fis passer en dilligence au costé du sud de la Riviere pour aller a nos maisons, dou je promis au Sr Bridgar que je luj enverres son chirurgien anglois quj estoit avec nous, de leau de vie, du vinaigre, et du Linge et des provisions autant que la necessité ou nous estions Lors me le pourroit permettre, estant arrivé a terre je renvoyé le batteau au fort de l'Isle, avec ordre de dire a mes deux hommes que Jy aves laissé, de ramener mon canot et de sen servir pour aller a la chasse. en revenant je men allé par terre avec un des anglois du Sr Bridgar, que je menes avec moy afin de luy renvoyer avec le secours de rafraichissemens, que je luy aves promis, quoj quil ne men temoignast guierres de recognoissee continuant toujours ses memaces, et se vantant quil attendoit des navires qui Luy devoient arriver de bonne heure, avec lesquelz il pretendoit nous prendre teus. cela ne mespouvanta pas, et je continué d'alter toujours mon chemin ne voiant plus le Sr Bridgar en estat de me pouvoir nuire, mais comme il estoit Impossible que pendant quil seroit sur les lieux, jl me donnast de Lembarras, je disposé mes affaires pour pouvoir partir avec ce que nous avions de pelleterie et renvoyé le Sr Bridgar apres avoir asseuré notre traite.

Je fis plusieurs voiages au fort de l'Isle pour faire reparer le vaisseau, et Jallé aussi diverses fois a l'habitation du Sr Bridgar pour luy faire porter des Rafraichissemens et lassister de tout ce qui estoit en mon pouvoir tant lui que ses gens. Ilz peavent en rendre temoignage, et que sans moy ilz auroient fort mal passé leur temps. Je courus plusieurs fois risque de perir en faisant ces voiages, car il y avoit toujours des glaces, et le passage a lembouschure de la Riviere ou nous estions pour doubler la pointe, et entrer dans celle ou estoient le Sr Bridgar, et le navire, de la nouvelle angre, est toujours tres dangereux. Je nestendraj point ley ma Relation sur le recit des dangers auxquelz je mexposé, nj de toutes les fatigues que Jeus, dans ces alléés, et venues pour nous with the supplies I had promised, although he (Mr. Bridgar) testified little gratitude still continuing his threats and boasting that he expected ships which would soon arrive, with which he alleged he would take us all. That did not frighten me; I continued to take my own way, not seeing that Mr. Bridgar was in a state to do me any harm, but as it was impossible that whilst he was on the spot he should give me any trouble, I settled my affairs so as to leave with what furs we had and to send back Mr. Bridgar after having secured our trade.

I made several journeys to the island fort to have the vessel repaired and also went at different times to Mr. Bridgar's habitation to bring supplies and to assist him and his men as far as was in my power. They can bear testimony to this and that without me they would have fared very ill.

In making these journeys I ran the risk several times of perishing, for there was still ice and the passage to the mouth of the river where we had to double the point and enter the river where were Mr. Bridgar and the New England ship was still very dangerous. I will not here extend my relation by the narrative of the dangers to which I was exposed, nor of all the fatigues I had in coming and going to prepare for leaving when the sea should be open, but I must not forget that amidst the civilities I puid to Mr. Bridgar, I gave him material to caulk his boat, cordage and everything necessary for him to make use of it, but this he abused, for contrary to the word he had given me not to go the island fort, he undertook to go there in his boat with his men and approached within musket shot of the fort under pretext of asking for powder. The commandant not willing that he should come nearer obliged him to anchor in the stream. He sent his bateau for Mr. Bridgar who entered alone into the fort, notwithstanding his urgent request that one of his men should accompany him. The others were told to go to the north side of the river and shelter there, where food was sent them. The next day Mr. Bridgar went off. I had the previous day seen the boat going under sail to the fort to which I was myself going with an Englishman in whom I had great confidence, having no other of my men. I suspected that Mr. Bridgar would attempt a surprise but I made sure that the good order I had left would prevent it. However, I strongly apprehended that my suspicion was true when I arrived near the fort on seeing the bateau come for me without the commandant making the signal agreed on, which embarrassed me exceedingly, and I was in the condition of a man who is afraid of what is happening. One of our Frenchmen who was steering the bateau in which were four Englishmen seeing this, reassured me calling out all was going on well and making the signal to me. I blamed him and the commandant very much for having disturbed me by not making the signals. On arriving at the fort, I learned that Mr. Bridgar had gone there and the manner in which he was received as I have just said. I was also told he had a secret conversation with the carpenter of the New England ship; whom I had formerly engaged to be with him and serve him. This conversation had obliged the governor to watch Mr. Bridgar and be on his guard, the Scotchman having told him besides, that he was not there with any good intention, so that the commandant of the fort sent him off in the morning having given him pork and

I gave my orders at the fort and set out to find Mr. Bridgar. Having arrived I reproached him for having broken his promise and delared to him that there would be no quarter if he returned there again and that he must lay his account to set out for the head of the bay in the vessel that remained to us so soon as the ice would permit, having so agreed with our Frenchmen, assuring him that he would have from me all that would be necessary for the voyage. He appeared astounded at the compliment I had paid him, and answered in so many words, that it was only one of three things that could oblige him to abandon the place—the order of his masters, force, or famine. He begged me then, that if the captain of the Indians of the river New Severn came, he might see him by my means, which I promised.

After having thus disposed Mr. Bridgar to prepare for leaving, I continued to assist bim and his people in everything for their subsistence and to enable them to help to put us in a state to leave. I left Mr. Bridgar at his house and went to ours in which, after consulting with my brother-in-law, we agreed that the island fort must be burned and preparer a partir quand la mer scroit ouverte, mais je ne dois pas oublier quentre les honnestetes que Javais faites au Sr Bridgar je luy aves donné de quoj faire radouber sa chaloupe qui estoit toute en desordre, des cordages et tout ce qui estoit necessaire pour quil sen peust servir. Mais jl en abusa, car contre la parolle quil mavait donnéé de naller point au fort de l'Isle jlentreprist djaller, dans sa chaloupe avec son monde, et estant aproché du fort a la partie du fusilz soubs pretexte de demander de la poudre, le commandant ne voulant pas permettre qu'il aprochast plus pres et lobligea de mouiller au large. Il envoya son batteau pour chercher le Sr Bridgar quj entra seul dans le fort quelque Instance qu'il eust faite qu'un de ses gens ly accompagnast. On fit dire aux antres quils allassent du coste du nord de la Rivière a terre et de sj cabanner, et on leur Envoya des vivres. Le Sr Bridgar ayant passé la nuiet dans le fort se retira le lendemain. Javes veu le jour precedent, la chaloupe allant a plaines voiles vers, Le fort ou jalles aussj moy mesmes par terre, avec un anglois, en qui javes beaucoup de confiance, nayant aucun autres de mes gens j'eus du soupcon que le Sr Bridgar ne vouleust entreprendre quelque coup de surprise, mais je masseures sur le bon ordre que Javes mis, pour la prevenir. cependant Japrehendé fort que mon soubçon ne fust verittable, quand je feus arrivé pres du fort en voiant venir a moy le batteau pour me prandre sans le commandant meust faict les signaux, dont nous estions convenus. Cela memburrassa extremement, et je me mis en Estat d'un homme qui estoit effectivement dans la deffiance. Un de nos françois qui conduisoit le batteau ou il y avoit quatre anglois sen aperceut, et jl me rasseura en me criant que tout alloit bien, et me faisant le signal. Je le blasmé fort, et le commandant, de mavoir ainsj mis en peine pour avoir manqué a faire les signaux. Japris en arrivant au fort que le Sr Bridgar y estoit alle, et ce que je viens de dire de la maniere dont il feut receu, on me dict encore, quil sestoit entretenu en secret avec le charpentier du navire de La nouvelle angre que javes engagé auparavant de bonne amitié de prandre partj avec luj et de le servir, que cet Entretien avoit obligé le Gouverneur dobserver de pres le d. Sr Bridgar et de se tenir sur ses gardes. Lescossois luy ayant dict, dailleurs quil nestoit pas alle là a bonne Intention, de sorte que le commandant du fort le renvoya le matin, apres luj avoir faict donner des poids, du Lard, et de la poudre.

Je donné mes ordres au fort et jen partis pour aller trouver le Si Bridgar estant arrivé ches luj, je luj lis reproche de ce quil avoit manqué a ce quil mavoit promis, et je luj desclaré quil ny auroit plus de cartier sil y retournoit daventage, et que cependant jl fist son compte quil partiroist pour sen aller dans le fond de la Baye, aussi tost que les glaces le pourroient permettre dans la barque qui nous restoit, en estant ainsi convenu avec nos francois, Lasseurant quil auroit de moy tout ce qui luy seroit necessaire pour ce voiage. Ji parut consterné du compliment que je luj fis, et il me repondit en propres termes quil ny avoit qu'une de ces trois choses qui pent lobliger a abandonner la place, lordre de ses maistres, la force, ou la faim. Il me pria ensuite, que sj le capar des sanvages de la rivière de neu saverne venoit, jl le peust voir par mon moyen, ce que je luj

Mr. Bridgar secured so that we could bring our people beside us and get rid of the task of guarding the fort and of the emburrassment of always taking precautions to guarantee us against surprises by Mr. Bridgar. The men of our two crews caballed at that time to oppose our design, of giving my vessel to the English for their passage. It was necessary to yield at first from policy, knowing that with time the mutiny would end. It was the master of my vessel who had excited the mutiny. The principal reason obliging me to make a semblance of yielding, was that I did not wish our divisions to come to the knowledge of the English, who might have taken advantage of it. We had four of them among us to whom I had given liberty on their parole, but to secure the New Englanders we had built a lodge on an island opposite our house where they were separated from us. We sent to visit them from time to time to observe what they were doing. We had left them a musket to amuse themselves with, but one day having used it to insult my nephew I had it taken from them.

Having gone afterwards to the island fort I sent a boat to Mr. Bridgar to inform him that the Indian captain, whom he had asked me to let him see, had arrived, and that he might come with one of his men, which he did. As soon as he had arrived, I made him understand that to secure our trade, I was obliged to secure him; that I would put him in the hands of my nephew, whom I had commanded to take great care of him and show him all sorts of civilities, notifying him that after I had shipped in the vessel all that was in the fort I would have it burned. I told him he could send with me his man to his house to carry such orders as he wished. I went there the same day. I declared to Mr. Bridgar's people that not being able longer to assist them, unless it might be with powder, and being on the point of leaving to return to Canada, it was necessary that those who wished to remain should declare so, offering a passage to those who would accept it. I asked their names, which they all gave me, except two. I recommended them to take care of all that was in the house and left a Frenchman to keep an eye on it and to go hunting, Mr. Bridgar's people not being trained.

After giving these orders I left Mr. Bridgar's house and crossed to the south shore, where I found two of our Frenchmen who were hunting. I sent them back with the game they had to the island fort where they were required to bring down the ship and anchor her opposite Mr. Bridgar's house to take on board his effects, which was done. I came to the other river by land and found at the mouth of it Indians who were waiting for me with impatience to settle how we should trade together. They had wished to oblige my brother-in-law to trade merchandise with them on the same footing as the English did at the head of the bay and they hoped for even greater favour from me, but that would have been the means of ruining our trade. For this reason I resolved to stand firm now since what we should determine then with the Indians for our trade would be a rule for the future. The Indians being assembled immediately after my arrival and having laid out in my presence their presents of beavers' tails, smoked Caribou tongues, and bladders of the fat of bears, elk and deer, one of the Indians spoke thus, addressing my brother-in-law and myself. "Men who pretend to give us life do "you wish to make us die; you know what beaver is worth and the trouble we have to "take it, you call yourselves our brothers and you will not give us what those give who "are not so. Accept our presents, or we will come no more to pay you a visit and will " go to the others.

I remained for some time without saying anything to the compliment of that Indian, which obliged one of his people to press me to answer, and as it was a critical time for us and that it was necessary to show firuness, I said to the Indian who was pressing me to speak: "Whom dost thou wish I shall answer? I have heard a dog bark; when a man shall speak, he will see that I know how to defend myself, that we love our brothers and that we deserve to be loved, having come here to save your lives:" on saying this, I rose and drawing my dagger, I took by the hair the chief of the Indians who had adopted me for his son and asked him: "Who art thou?" He answered "thy father," and I said to him: "If thou art my father speak for me, thou art the "master of my goods, that dog who has spoken, what is he doing here?: let him go to his brothers, the English, at the head of the bay. But I am mistaken, he has not far "to go, he may see them on the island," meaning him to understand that I had made temps en temps, pour observer se quilz faisoient. nous leur avions laissé un fuzil pour se divertir; mais un jour ayant vouleu se mettre en estat de faire Insulte à mon neveu on leur osta leur d. fusil.

Estant allé ensuite au fort de l'Isle jenvoyé un batteau au Sr Bridgar, luj mandant que le capne sauvage, quil mavoit prié de luj faire voir estoit arrivée, et quil pouvoit venir avec un de ses hommes, ce quil fist, et si tost quil feut arrivé je luj fis entendre que pour nous asscurer notre traité jestois obligé de masseurer de luj, que je le mettrois Entre les mains de mon neveu, auquel javes commandé davoir grand soing de luj, et de luj faire toutes sortes de civilites, Luj domnant advis qu'apres que Jaures faict Embarquer, dans le vaisseau tout ce qui estoit dans le fort, je descendres pour le faire brusler. je luj dis quil pouvoit envoyer avec moy son homme en sa maison porter les ordres quil luj plairoit, et Je mj en alle le jour mesmes, je desclaré aux gens du Sr Bridgar que ne pouvant plus les assister sinon de poudre, et estant sur le point de partir pour men retourner en canada, jl falloit que ceux qui voudroient demeurer se desclarassent, offrant le passage a ceux qui vondroient laccepter, je leur demandé Leurs noms quilz me donnerent tous a la rezerve de deux. je leur recommandé davoir soin de tout ce qui estoit dans La maizon et Jy Laissé un francois pour y avoir loeil et aller a la chasse, Les gens du Sr Bridgar ni estans pas Exerces.

Apres ces ordres donnes je partis de la maizon du Sr Bridgar, et me fis passer du costé du sud ou je trouvé deux de nos francois qui estoient a la chasse. Je les Renvoyé avec le gibier quilz avoient au fort de lisle ou ilz estoient necessaires pour ayder aux autres a faire descendre le navire et venir mouiller vis a vis de la maison du Sr Bridgar pour y faire emburquer ses effetz ce qui fust Executé. Je viens a lautre riviere par terre et je trouvé a lembouschure, des sauvages qui mi attendoient avec Impatience afin de regler comme nous ferions Ensemble nostre traite.

Itz avoient vouleu obliger mon beau frere de leur traiter les marchandises sur le mesme pied que faisoient les anglois au fondz de la baye, et jlz esperoient mesmes plus de faveur de moy, mais ceust esté le moyen de ruiner nostre traite, cest pourquoj je me resolus de tenir ferme en cette occasion, parce que, ce que nous resoudrions lors avec les sauvages pour notre commerce Devoit estre une regle pour ladvenir. Les sauvages sestans donc assembles si tost apres mon arrivée, et ayans Estalé en ma présence leurs presens de queûes de castorz; de langues de caribou boncanéés de vessies, de Graisses Dours, d'origneaux, et cerfz, un des sauvages prit la parosle, et sadressant a mon beau frere et a moy, nous parla ainsj: Hommes qui pretendes nous donner la vie vous voules nous faire mourir, vous scaves ce que vault Le castor, et les peines que nous avons a le prendre, vous vous dites nos freres, et vous ne voules pas nous donner ce que ceux qui ne le sont pas nous donnent acceptes nos presens, ou nous ne viendrons plus vous rendre visite, et nous Irons vers les autres.

Je demenre quelque temps sans rien dire au compliment de ce sauvage ce qui obligea un des siens de me presser de respondre et comme cestoit un coup de partic pour nous, et quil falloit temoigner de la fermetté, je dis au sauvage qui me pressoit de parler, a qui veus tu que je responde, jai ouy un chien abayer, quand un homme parlera, il verra que je me scay deflandre, que nous aymons nos freres et que nous merittons destre aimes, estant venus ley pour vous sauver la vie, disant cela je me levé tirant mon poignard, je pris par les cheveux le chef de ses sauvages, qui mavoit adopté pour son filz, et je lui demandé qui es tu, il me respondit ton père, et bien lui dis je, si tu es mon pere, si tu maime, et sj tu es le chef parle pour moj, tu es le maistre de mes marchandises. ce chien qui vient de parler, que vient jl faire ley quil sen aille vers ses freres, les anglois au fondz de la Baye, mais je me trompe, jl na pas Loin a aller pouvant les voir dans l Isle voulant luj faire entandre que je mestois randu Le maistre des anglois, je scay dis je en continuant de parler a mon pere sauvage ce que cest que des bois, dabandonner sa femme, de courir risque de mourir de faim, ou destre tué par ses ennemis, vous evites tous ces malheurs en venant vers nous, ainsi je vois bien quil vous est plus avantageux de traiter avecnous, quavec les autres, mais je veux pourtant prendre pitié de ce malheureux et quil vive encores, quoiquil veuille aller vers nos ennemis, je me fis aporter une lame despéc, et je dis en la presentant a l'harangueux tiens va ten vers tes freres les anglois dis leur myself master of the English. "I know," I continued, "how to speak to my Indian "father of what are the woods, of what it is to abandon his wife, to run the risk of "dying from hunger, or of being killed by enemies. You avoid all these misfortunes by coming to us, thus I see it is of more advantage to trade with us than with the "others. But I will take pity on this wretch and let him still live although he wishes "to go to our enemies." I had the blade of a sword brought me and said to the speechifier on presenting it to him: "Look here, be off to your brothers, the English, "tell them my name and that I will go and take them." It was necessary to speak thus at this meeting or our trade would have been lost for when once a thing has been yielded to the Indians it is never recovered.

Having said to the Indians all I desired, I wished to withdraw with my brotherin-law, but we were both stopped by the chief, who encouraged us, telling us that we were men, that we did not constrain any one, that each one had his liberty, and that he and his nation would remain united to us,-that he would go to invite the nations to come to see us, as he had already done so by the presents which we had sent him, praying us to accept of his and to trade at our will. Upon that the Indian speaker, to whom I had just given the sword and who was indignant, said that he would kill the Assempoils if they came towards us. I answered him: "I will go into thy country and eat sagamite in thy grandmother's skull."* This is a great threat among the Indians, and the most shocking that can be made. At the same time I had the presents lifted and distributed, three fathoms of black tobacco to the Indians who wished to be our friends, saying contemptuously to 1 im who opposed us, that he was going to smoke women's tobacco in the country of the lynxes. I invited the others to a feast, after which the Indians traded their beavers with us and we sent them off well satisfied.

Having done my business with the Indians, I embarked without loss of time to return. I found the New England ship anchored opposite Mr. Bridgar's house as I had ordered. I then went into the house where I had an inventory made of all I found in it. I went after that to the Island fort, which I had ordered my nephew to set fire to. I found him there with Mr. Bridgar, who wished to be the first to set it on fire, at which I was pleased. Having nothing more to do there, I went towards the ship, where I found that everything had been put on board. On leaving I had given orders to my nephew to bring Mr. Bridgar next day to our house, where being arrived, my brother-in-law, who did not know him so well as I did, put him with the New England captain and his men on the island, of which Mr. Bridgar complained next day, begging me to take him away, saying that he could not look at those people favourably. promised, and did so a few days after, bringing him with his men, whom he found in very good condition in the post into which I had put them, to the north of our river.

As I had not been able to subdue the obstinacy of our men on the subject of the vessel, which they would not consent should be given to the English, Mr. Bridgar propose I a plan to me of putting a deck on his boat, if I would assist him with what was necessary, telling me that his boat being well repaired and decked, he would willingly risk embarking to go to the head of the bay rather than accept a passage for France upon one of our vessels. I promised what he asked thereupon and remained with him until the ship that I had ordered to be sent down should arrive.

When she arrived I saw smoke on the other shore and had myself put across. I found that it was my father, the Indian; testified my joy at seeing him, and invited him to go on board, telling him that going on my invitation he would be well received by my nephew, so much so that a gun would be fired on his arrival, that he would be given something to eat, would be presented with biscuits and be given two fathoms of tobacco. He told me he could not believe that our men would do all that without being told. I wrote with charcoal on a piece of bark which he carried with him, and having seen that all that I told him had been executed exactly, he was very much surprised and said that we were devils, as they call those who do anything that surprises them. I returned to our house, having nothing more to do with Mr. Bridgar.

mon nom et que je veux les aller prendre. Il falloit que je parlasse ainsi, dans eette rencontre, ou nostre traite estoit perdue, car quand on a une fois ceddé aux sauvages

Jamais jlz ne reviennent.

Ayant dict tout ce que voules dire au sauvage je vouleus me retirer avec mon beau frere, mais nous feusmes arrestes tous deux par Le chef qui nous encouragea, en nous disant que nous estions des hommes, que nous ue contraignions personne, que chacun avoit sa liberté, et que luj et sa nation vouloient demeurer unis avec nous, qu'il vouloit aller Invitter les nations a nous vemir voir, comme jl lavoit desja faiet par les presens, que nous luj avions envoyes, nous priant daccepter les siens, et de traiter a notre fantaizie, sur cela le sauvage Harangueur a qui je venois de douner Lespéé, et qui estoit Indigné dict qu'il tueroit les assempoits silz descendoient vers nous, et moy lui repondis Jirai dans ton pays manger de la Sagamite dans le test de la teste de ta grande mere. cest une grande menace entre ces Sauvages, et la plus choquante quon leur puisse faire a mesme temps je fis enlever les presens, et je distribué, trois brasses de tabac noir aux sauvages qui vouloient estre de nos amis, disant par mespris a celluj qui nous estoit opposé, qu'il allast fumer au pays des loups cerviers, du tabac de femme. Jinvitté les autres au festin, apres lequel les sauvages traiterent avec nous leurs eastorz, et nous le renvoyasmes tous fortz contens de nous.

Âyant faiet mes affaires avec les sauvages je membarqué sans perdre de temps pour men retournér, je trouvé Le navire de la nouvelle angre mouillé vis a vis de la maison du Sr Bridgar comme j'en aves donné l'ordre. Jallé Ensuitte dans la maison ou je fis faire Inventaire de tout ce qui si trouva. Je monté apres cela au fort de lIsle ou Javes mandé a mon neveu de faire mettre le feu. Je ly trouvé avec le Sr Bridgar qui avoit vouleu mettre luy mesme Le premier feu a ce fort, dont je feus bien ayse, nayant plus rien a faire la, le descendis vers le navire ou je trouvé qu'on avait tout embarqué. Javes donné ordre a mon neveu, en partant qu'il amenast le Sr Bridgar a nos maisons, ou estant arrivé mon beau frère qui ne le cognoissoit pas si particulièrement que moi Le fit mettre avec le capitaine de la nouvelle Angre et ses gens sur Hsle, dont le d Sr Bridgar se plaignit à moy le lendemain me priant de len retirer, en me disant qu'il ne pouvoit voir ces gens la de bon œil. je luj promis et je le fis en peu de jours apres le ramenant avec ses gens quil trouva en fort bon estat dans le poste ou je les aves mis au nord de nostre rivière.

Et comme je naves peu encore vainere l'opiniastreté de nos gens sur le suject de La barque, quils ne vouloient pas consentir que je donnasse aux anglois, le Sr Bridgar me proposa quil auroit dessein de faire un pont sur sa chaloupe, sj je voules Lassister de tout ce qui lui seroit necessaire pour cela, me disant que sa chaloupe étant bien racomodéé et ponté, a une pointe jl risqueroit volontiers de sjembarquer pour sen aller au fondz de la Baye plustost que daccepter le passage pour France sur lun de nos bastiments, je luj promis ce quil me demanda la dessus, et demeuré avec luj en attendant que le navive que je faisois avancerfust arrivé.

Quand jl feut venu Japerceus de la fumé a lautre bord je me fis passer, et je trouve que cestoit mon pere le sauvage. je luj temoingné ma Joye de le voir, et L Invité daller a bord, luj disant qui allant de ma part, jl seroit bien receu par mon neveu, tellement quon tireroit un coup de canon a son arrivé, quon luj donneroit a manger, et quon luj feroit present de biscuitz, et de deux brasses de tabac. jl me dict, que je naves point desprit de croire que nos gens fissent tout cela sans lentendre. Jescrivis avec du charbon sur un morceau descorse quil porta abord, et ayant vu quon avoit Exécuté ponctuellement tout ce que je luj aves dict jl en fust fort surpris, et dict que nous estions des diables. jlz appellent ainsj tous ceux quj font quelque chose quj les surpreut. je retourné a nos maisons, nayant plus rien a faire avec le Sr Bridgar.

Javes fait pressentir le cap^{ne} du navire qui estoit sur lisle vis a vis de nous, pour scavoir de luj s'y estant anglois, jl voudroit me donner un escrit de sa main, par lequel jl consentiroit que je mise le Sr Bridgar en possession de son navire ou sil aymeroit mieux que je le menasse a quebek, mais luy et ses gens me prierent avec ses Grandes Instances de ne point les Livrer au Sr Bridgar, esperans quilz auroient meilleure composition des francois que des anglois, J advertis mon beau frere de sa resolutior, et comme quoi il vouloit sabandouner entierement a notre volonté.

He and his men begged me earnestly not to give them up to Mr. Bridgar, hoping that they could make a better agreement with the French than with the English. I notified my brother-in law of this resolution, and that he (the captain) would yield entirely to our will.

Whilst we were most busily occupied in preparing for our departure, I was obliged to endeavour to bring about the settlement of a quarrel between the family of my adopted father and that of another nation. I learned it first through the infant son of my Indian father, who was playing with his comrades. They, getting irritated against him one of them told him that he would be killed with the whole of his family to avenge the killing by his father of one of the family of the Marten, for Indian families are distinguished by the names of animals. As death greatly frightens these people, the child came to me shedding tears, and told me, after I had taken a great deal of trouble to make him speak, the threat his comrade had used. At first I was afraid there might be something else, and that the Indians had come to blows. Desirous to keep peace among them I quickly sent for the Indian chief, my adopted father. Having come on my order, I told him the cause of my uneasiness and what his child had told me. I had no sooner finished, than leaning on a post and putting his hands to his face, he began to cry more bitterly than his son had done and having questioned him after he had wiped away his tears, le told me that an Indian of another family having tried to carry off his wife, whom he loved very much, he had killed him and that the nations who wished to take vengeance for the death of the Indian having pursued him he had abandoned every thing and fled; it was this which brought him to find me at the meeting of the previous autumn, that he still apprehended the resentment of his enemies, and that they would kill him. I told him he had nothing to fear, the French being his fathers and I his son, that our King who had sent me covered him with his hand, wishing all to be at peace, that I was there to establish it, that I would do so or die, that I would call all the nations to have myself acknowledged, and that he would see my heart. After having said that, I obtained from the store a musket, two large kettles, three coats, four sword blades, four chisels, six graters, six dozen knives, ten axes, ten fathoms of tobacco, two blankets for the women, three caps, powder and lead, and I told the Indian, my adopted father, in presence of his allies, who had come, here is what will close the wound and wipe off the tears and which will make men live. I wish that my brothers would make haste, that two men from among you should embark immediately to invite the family of the Marten to the feast of union and to accept my presents. If it refuse them and wishes for blood, it is reasonable that I should give my life for my father, whom I love as I do all the other Indians, our allies, more than myself. Thus I was ready to expose my head to receive the blow, in case my presents were not satisractory, but that I would incite all the Frenchmen, my brothers, to bring muskets to help me to make war on this family. The Indians set out to go to the family, the enemies of my adopted father, to propose to them to accept the presents and to invite them on my behalf to a feast of union. I remained so short a time in the country after that that I was not able to finish the business. I will tell in its place what I learned on my last voyage, having inquired about it.

This difference being as it were ended. I was warned that Mr. Bridgar, in violation of his word not to appeal to the Indians, had not ceased to call some of them, who had come to him, whom he had endeavoured to impress with the belief that we were rascals, telling them that he would come to kill us, that he would trade with them to better advantage than we—that he would give them six axes for a beaver, and a musket for five. I reproached Mr. Bridgar. I also sharply reprimanded the Indians, who promised that they would no longer go to him and that I had nothing to be afraid of.

Desirous to prepare for leaving I again crossed the dangerous river to burn Mr. Bridgar's house, in which nothing was left, having taken out and shipped everything in it on board the New England vessel, after having made an inventory of it. I had with me three Englishmen and a Frenchman, trusting them more than my own men, because they loved me for treating them well. What I did on this occasion is an evidence of the confidence I had in the English, for if I had distrusted them ever so little I would not have exposed myself with three Englishmen and only one of my own men to go, as Pendant que nous estions le plus occupes a mettre ordre a notre depart, je me trouvé obligé de travailler a laccomodement dune Grande querelle entre la famille de mon pere adoptif, et celle dane autre nation. J'en eus dabord cognoissance par un Jenne enfant filz de mon pere sauvage lequel Jouant avec ses camarades, qui saigrirent contre luj, un d'eux luj diet quil seroit tué avec toute sa famille pour venger la mort de celluj que son pere avoit tué de la famille de la marthe, ear les familles des sanvages sont distingues par des noms d'animaux, et comme la mort espouvente fort ces peuples cet enfant vint ches moy fondant en larmes et me diet apres beancoup de peyne que je prie a le faire parler, la menace que son camarade luj avoit faite. Je eraignis dabord quil ny cust quelque autre chose, et que les sauvages ne fussent venus aux mains entre eux. voulant donc m'interesser pour entretenir La paix parmj eux jenvove promptement chercher le chef des sauvages mon pere adoptif, estant venn a mon ordre je luj dis le sujet de mon inquietude et ce que mavoit dict son enfant je neus pas plus tost achevé de luj parler que sapuyant contre un potteau et mettant les mains sur son visage il se mit a pleurer plus que son filz navoit faict et layant Interrogé apres quil eust essayé ses larmes, il me dit quun sauvage d'une autre famille ayant voulu luj enlever sa feanne qu'il aimoit fort jl l'avoit tué et que les nations qu'i vouloient prendre la rengeance de la mort de ce sauvage layant poursuivj, jl avoit abandonné et sen estoit fuy, et que cestoit ce qui lavoit fait treuver a ma rencontre l'automne precedente, quil aprehendoit toujours le ressentiment de ses Eunemis, et quilz ne vinsent le tuer, Je luj dis quil navoit rien a craindre. Les francois estans ses Peres, et moy son filz, que nostre Roy qui mavoit Envoyé là, le couvroit de sa main, vonlant quilz vecussent tous en Paix, que jestois la Pour lestablir, que je voules Le faire, ou mourir, que Jappeleres tontes les nations Pour me faire cognoistre, et quil verroit mon cœur. Apres Luj avoir dict cela, je fis tiver de nostre magazin un fusil, deux grandes chaudières, trois Justaucorps quatre lames d'Espéé quatre tranchés, six gratoirs, six douzaines de couteau, dix Haches, dix Brasses de Tabae, deux couvertures, pour femme, trois Bonnetz, de la poudre et du Plomb, et je dis au sauvage mon Pere adoptif en presence de ses allies qui Estoient venus: voicy qui fermera la Playe, et essuvera les Pleurs, et qui fera vivre les hommes. je veux que mes freres sentraiment, que deux Hommes dentre vous sembarquent jncessament pour Invitter la famille des marthes au festin d'union, et luj faire accepter mes Presens sjelle les refuse et quelle veuille du sang, jl est raisonnable que je donne ma vie pour mon Pere que Jaime comme tous les autres sauvages nos alliés, plus que moy mesme, quainsj jestois Prest dexposer ma teste a recevoir Le coup, en eas que mes presens ne Penssent satisfaire, mais que Jincitteres tous les françois mes freres a aporter des fusilz pour maider a faire laguerre a cette famille. Les sauvages partire a pour aller vers la famille cunemie de mon Pere adoptif leur faire la proposition Daccepter les presens et les Invitter de ma part au festin d'union. Je resté sj peu de temps dans le Pays apres cela, que je ne peus achever de terminer cette affaire. De diraj en son lieu, ce que Jen appris a mon dernier voiage, men estant Enquis.

Ce Differant estant comme terminé on madvertit que le sieur Bridgar contre la Parolle quil mayoit donnéé qu'il nappelleroit point les sauvages navoit pas laissé den appeller quelques uns qu'i estoient passes aupres de tuy, auxquelz il avoit tasché de faire Entendre que nous Estions des meschans, leur Disant qu'il nous viendroit tuer, qu'il traiteroit avec eux bien plus adventagensement que nous et qu'il leur Donneroit six haches pour castor, et un fusil pour cinq. J'en fis Reproche au d. Sieur Bridgar, et jen Tensé aussy rudement les sauvages qu'i me promirent qu'ilz niroient plus vers Luy et que je naves rien a craindre.

Voulant me disposer apartir je traversé Encore la meschante Riviere pour aller Brusler la maison du se Bridgar, ou jl ny avoit plus rien, ayant retiré et fait Embarquer ce quy y estoit dans le navire de la nouvelle angre, apres en avoir faiet l'Invantaire. Javes avec moy trois anglois et un francois, me fiant plus au anglois, quj majmoient, parce que je les traites bien qua mes propres gens, ce que je fis en cette occasion est une marque de la confiance que j'avés aux anglois, car sj je men estes tant soit peu defié, je ne me seres pas exposé avec Trois anglois, et un seul de mes hommes pour aller faire brusler comme je fis La maison du Se Bridgar a onze lieues de nos maisons. NOTE A.

I did, to burn Mr. Bridgar's house, eleven leagues from our houses. We ran a great risk of perishing on our return. I never saw myself in such danger in my life, having been surprised by a squall near the flats, the fog being so thick that we could not tell where we were.

Having returned to our habitation, I found that our men had brought the ship up opposite our houses and seeing that the weather was becoming fine, I gave orders to my nephew to continue the trade after we left until our return. I left him seven men, whom he was to command, and to take charge of everything.

That done I had the peltry shipped and brought the vessel to the mouth of the river to put to sea with the first fair wind. It was there I had left Mr. Bridgar. I found him ready to set sail on his boat, being well supplied with all things which I had furnished him, but after having made several trips from one river to the other, the sight of the ice had made him afraid to go in that small boat to the head of the bay so that we being prepared to sail on the 20th July, and having sent for Mr. Bridgar to come for his provisions, he told me he thought it would be rash to risk himself in the boat for the voyage he had to make, and begged me to give him a passage in our vessel. Having always believed that 1 wished to force him to embark for France, I told him that he would be welcome, and that I wished to force him to nothing but to leave the place. It was settled that he should go with my brother-in law in the barque. He would have preferred the ship, but it was not proper that the captain should remain and we could not without imprudence put Mr. Bridgar on board, having already more Englishmen to goard than we had Frenchmen.

On the 27th of July we raised anchor and fortunately passed the flats, but next day being yet only eight or nine leagues from the port, we were obliged to enter the ice, and as we were doing our best not to separate, the barque having tacked to enable her to throw her grapnel on the same ice to which we were moored she split, so that is was necessary to send help at once to discharge her cargo on the ice, in order to careen her, which we did with much trouble.

We remained in this danger in the middle of the ice to the 24th Angust, visiting each other with all freedom, keeping, however, on our guard, for the Englishmen whom we had taken at the beginning of winter from the snow. They remembering the good treatment they had received from me, gave menotice of a plot formed among the English who were in the barque to slaughter the French and that they were only waiting for an opportunity. This notice obliged us to observe them narrowly. We locked them up at night, during the day they had entire liberty.

When we were to the southward, below the 56°, Mr. Bridgar begged me to give him the barque to go to the head of the bay with his men. I promised to speak about it to my brother-in-law who was not much averse to it. It was only the master and a few self willed men who were opposed to it, but at last I got every one to consent and we gave up the barque to Mr. Bridgar after having unloaded her and he gave me his receipt.

I had managed this matter for Mr. Bridgar in good faith and believed that he would go in the barque, for he knew that I had offered it to him, but having solicited the Englishman of his people who had attached himself to us and in whom we had much confidence, to ask that he might be allowed to go with Mr. Bridgar, we considered at first and were not mistaken that it was at his instigation that this sailor had taken this step and we had some suspicion that Mr. Bridgar might intend to anticipate us by returning first to Port Nelson to surprise our people and the English sailor who knew our business, might have been of much use in this. Having consulted on this proposition, we resolved to detain Mr. Bridgar and take him with us to Quebec. him leave the barque and told him our resolution, which put him into a great passion, We made especially against me, who was not much affected by it. We transferred him to our vessel and made him tell his men that they had only to go on without him and that he was coming with us, after which we lifted our grapuel from the ice, seeing the water open to the west and an open passage that way. We were about 120 leagues from the head of the bay when we parted from the barque, which might arrive there in eight days and there were provisions on board for more than a month, namely, a barrel of oatmeal, 42 double pieces of beef, eight or ten salted geese, two pieces of pork, a barrel full of bisespaisses que nous ne pouvions nous recognoistre.

Estant reton né a notre Habittation je tronve nos gens avoient fait monter Le navire vis a vis nos maisons, et voiant que le temps commencoit a se mettre au bean, je donné mes ordres a mon neveu pour continu r la traite après notre depart, en attendant notre retour, je luj luissé sept Homma quil devoit communder avec lentiere disposition de toutes choses. Cela fuit je fis embarquer nos Pelleteries, et avancer le navire Jusqua lembonchure de la rivière pour mettre en mer au premier bon vent, cestoit lendroit ou javes laissé Le st Bridgar. Je le trouvé prest a faire voile sa chaloupe estant bien esquipce de toutes choses, que je luj uves fournies, mais apres , voir faict quelques voiages de lune a la tre Rivière, la veu des glaces Luy fist aprehender de sexposer daller dans ce Petit bastiment au fondz de la Baye de sorte que nons disposons a partir le 20 duillet, et ayant faict appeller le Sieur Bridgar pour verdr prendre ses Provisions. Il me diet quil se croiroit temeraire de se risquer dans sa chaloupe pour le voiage quil avoit a faire, et me pria de Luj donner Passage dans nos vaisseaux, ayant bien Tousjours creu que je voudres Le forcer de sembarquer pour france. je luj dis quil seroit le bieu venu, et que je ne pretendes le forcer a rien sinon dabandonner la place. jl fut arresté quil sembarqueroit avec mon beau frere, sur la barque . il eut bien mieux aymé entrer dans le vausseau, mais jl'estoit juste que le Capitaine y demeurast, et nous ne pouvions pas sans Imprudence y mettre le d. Sieur Bridgar ayant desja, plus danglois a garder que nous navions de francois.

Le 27 du d. mois de juillet nous levasme Lancre, et passasmes heureusement Les battures, mais le lendemain nestans encore qua Huiet ou neuf lienes du port nous feusmes obligés d'entrer dans les glaces, et comme nous faisions tout nostre pusible pour ne nous pas cecarter les uns des autres, la barque ayant revire de bord pour venir jetter ses Grapins sur la meme Glace ou nous estions Amarres se creva. jl fallut aussi tost y envoyer du secours, et desbarquer ee quil y avoit dedans sur la glace pour la caraner, ce que nous fisme avec beaucoup à. Peyne.

Nous dem urasmes dans ce danger au milieu des glaces Jusquau 24 aoust, nous visitans les uns les autres avec toute Liberté, nous tenans pour tant sur nos gardes, ear l'anglois que nous avions pris au commencement de l'hiver sur les neiges, se souvenant des bons traitemens qu'il avoit receus de moy, mavoit donné advis d'un complet formé parmi les Anglois qui estoient dans la Barque desgorger les francois, et qu'ilz n'attandoient que loceasion, cest advis nous obliger de les observer de plus pres, nous les enfermions la uniet soubz clef, et le jour jlz avoient Plaine liberté,

Quand nous fusmes vers le sud au dessous du 56 degré, le d. Sr. Bridgar me pria de luj donner la barque pour passer au fondz de la Baye avec ses gens, je luj promis d'en parler a mon Beau trère qui ne sen estoit. Pas Esloigné, jl nj avoit que le maistre et quelques opiniastres qui sy estoient opposes, mais enfin dy fis consentir tout le monde, et nons abandonnasmes La Barque au d. Sieur. Bridgar après lavoir deschargéé et jl men donna son Receu.

C'estoit de Bonne foy que javes menagé cela pour le d. Sr Bridgar, et je croiois quil sen Iroit sur la Barque, car jl scait bien que je luj aves offerte mais avant solicité l'Anglois de ses gens qui sestoit donné a nouset auquel nous avions beaucoup de confiance, de me demander son congé pour le laisser aller avec le d. Sr Bridgar, nous Jugeumes d'abord et nous ne nous trompions pas, que cestoit a son Instigation que es matelot avoit faiet cette desmarche, et nous eusmes quelque Soupcon que le Sr Bridgar pouvoit avoir dessein de nous prevenir en retournant avant nous au port de nelson pour y surprendre nos gens a quoy le matelot anglois qui seavoit nos affaires, luj eust peu beaucoup servir, ayant donc raisonné entre nous sur sa proposition nous resolumes de retenir Le Sr Bridgar et de lemmener avec nous a quebek, nous le fismes descendre de la barque, et nous luj dismes notre resolutior qui le mit en de grandz Emportemens, particullierement contre moy, qui n en fus pas plus emeu, nous le fismes donc Passer dans nostre vaisseau, et nous fismes dire a ses gens quilz navoient qu'a continuer Leur route sans luj, et qu'il venoit avec nous, apres quoy nous levasmes nos Grapins de dessus la glace voiant la mer ouverte au ouest et passage pour y gaigner.

cuits, in which there had been about 100 pounds of powder, eight or ten pounds of powder, and 50 pounds of lead. I gave besides, unknown to my brother, two horns full of powder and a bottle of brandy and a barrel they had drank on the eve of our separation. I made one of the New England sailors go on board the barque to strengthen the crew, which was weak, several being ill. Having left the ice with a favourable wind, we soon arrived at the strait, where by the carelessness and ignorance of our masters and French sailors, the Englishmen not being at liberty during the right, a gale of wind and snow drove us into a bay from which we could not clear our lives. We drifted towards the coast without any appearance of being able to escape but, whils we expected every moment to perish, God mercifully delivered us from this denger as we found amongst the rocks in which we were, the most favourable harbour in the world, in which 50 ships could have remained in safety without either cables or anchors during the strongest gales. We remained there two days and after taking some water on board we set sail and had fairly good weather until we arrived at Quebec about the end of October.

Immediately on our arrival, we went to report to M. de la Barre, Governor of Canada, what we had done. He thought proper to return the vessel to the New England merchants, warning them not to send again to the place from which she had come. Mr. Bridgar went on board with young Guilliem to go to New England against my opinion, for I advised him in friendship to go on board the French ships which were ready to sail, predicting, what happened, that he would be kept a long time in New England. We parted on friendly terms and he could testify that I let him know at the time my attachment and yet that I wished still to act as heartily in the service of the King and the nation as I wished to do for France.

Eight or ten days after my arrival, M. de la Barre sent for me to communicate a letter be had received from M. Colhert, by a frigate which had brought troops, by which he informed him that those who had left the previous year to make discoveries in the northern countries of America might have arrived or would arrive soon. He wished that one of them should be sent to him to give an account to the court of what they had done and of the establishments which might be made in those countries and M. de la Barre after having communicated to me the letter, told me that I must set out immediately to satisfy M. Colbert thereon. I determined on this without difficulty and to leave my affairs in the hands of M. de la Chesnaye, although I was not satisfied with him, he having acted dishonourably with me, but reflecting that I could pay my court to the prime minister of France by neglecting my own interests for his satisfaction, I took leave of M. de la Barre and embarked for France with my brother-in-law, the 11th November, 1683, on the frigate which had brought the troops and we arrived at La Rochelle on the 18th December, where I learned of the death of M. Colbert, but I did not tail to go to Paris to present myself at court and g - an account of my actions.

I arrived in Paris with my brother in-law on the 15th January, where I learned that great complaints had been made against me to the council of France, by Lord Preston, envoy extraordinary, in the name of His Majesty, touching what had passed in Nelson river and bort, and that I was accused of having cruelly ill treated the English, robbed, pillaged - I burned their habitation, for which Lord Preston demanded repuration, even to giving an exemplary punishment to the guilty for the satisfaction of His Majesty. This notice did not prevent me from presenting myself to the Marquis de Seignelay to inform him of all that had passed between the English and me a ing my voyage. He found nothing to find fault with in ... w whole conduct, of whic I gave him a true account, and far from being blamed in the court of France, I may say without vanity that I received applause. I will not say that I deserved it, but only that I endeavoured in all my actions to do my duty as an honourable man, and that I did not believe in going astray, I leave to be judged by the contents of this relation, which I maintain to be fuithful and sincere, whether I have deserved the charges which have given rise to accusations made against me to the court of France; and do not think it my duty to say anything else for my justification than will be found in the relation of the voyage made by His Majesty's order last ar, 1684, for the royal Hudson's Bay Company whose success and advantageous return have destroyed, to the confusion of my enemies, all the bad impressions they tried to give of my conduct.

RELATION

Of the voyage of the year 1684.

I have continued the relation of my voyage in the year 1682 and 1683 into Hudson's Bay to the north of Canada up till my arrival in the city of Paris, in which preparations were making for the fitting out of ships in which I was to make my return to the north of Canada. In the meantime I was negotiating at the court for the remission of every fourth beaver, taken by the Most Christian King for customs duty, and which had been promised me in consideration of my discoveries, voyages and services, and of which I had hoped to profit over and above my private interests during the first years of that establishment. It was at the same time that Lord Preston, envoy extraordinary of the King at the court of France, continued argently to pursue me respecting the things of which I was accused by the memorials of the Royal Hudson's Bay Company. My enemies had taken care to publish the enormous crimes of which I was accused, and my friends supported me, giving me notice of all that was taking place. At last, being no longer able to suffer the attacks on my conduct, I felt obliged to disabuse the minds of both friends and enemies. I resolved therefore to let it be known how affairs had taken place - For this purpose I made choice of persons who did me the honour to love me, and it was in conversations that I had with them on the subject that my heart, little inclined to dissimulation, acknowledged to them at different times the disappointment I felt at being obliged to leave the English service on account of the ill treatment I had received, and that I would not be sorry to return, being in a better position than before to render service to the King and the nation, if justice were done me and my services were recognized. I also spoke several times of the condition in which I had left my nephew, son of Mr. de Groseilliers, my brother in-law, with other French near Port Nelson, that they were sole masters of the beaver trade, which was there considerable and that it depended on me to make the English profit by it.

All these things having been reported by one of my particular friends to persons who were in the interests of the nation, it was thought well that a man who spoke in this manner and had no difficulty in speaking his sentiments could be easily brought back by justice being done him by a party whom he had abandoned only through dissatisfaction, I was requested to have a conference with these same persons. I did so, taking the first step without repugnance and on the report made to Lord Preston of things spoken of in these interviews and of what I might be capable of, I was exhorted on his behalf to return to my first engagements with the English, assuring me that if I could execute what I had proposed I would receive in England from His Majesty, from His Royal Highness, from the Hudson's Bay Company and from the Nation, every sort of good treatment and entire satisfaction, that further I need have no trouble about my interests, the minister intending himself to take charge of them and to obtain for me other advantages. It was also represented to me that His Royal Highness, honouring the Hadson's Bay Company with his protection, would extend it to me, if I would employ my credit, my care and the knowledge I had acquired in the northern countries, for the utility and advantage of the company, in which His Royal Highness took great

At the same time I received letters from Mr. Yonge, one of those interested in the company, asking me to return to England, giving me assurances of a good reception and that I would have reason to be satisfied on the subject of my private interests as well as of the advantages given me.

These letters, added to the continuance of Lord Preston's urgency against me with the Most Christian King, ended by my coming to a determination and by my own feeling and the counsel of one of my friends I yielded to these solicitations and determined to go to England for ever, and so strongly to bind myself to His Majesty's service and to that of those interested in the nation that no other consideration could ever detach me from it.

It was only Lord Preston, one of his servants and the friend who had advised me to go to England, who knew of my design. I took care to avoid suspicion from the danger $8a-4A\frac{1}{2}$

RELATION DUVOIAGE DE LANNÉE 1684,

J'ay estendu la relation de mon voiage des années 1682 1683 dans la Baye de hudson au nord du Canada jusque mon Arrivee en la ville de paris ou on disposoit toutes choses pour l'equipement des vaisseaux avec lesquelz je devois faire mon retour au nord du canada cependant que je negotiois à la cour la remise des quatre castor que le Roy tres chrestien prenoit pour le droit de coutumes laquelle m'avoit esté promise en consideration de mes descouvertes voiages et services et duquel j'espérois proliter au par dessus de me Interestz particulliers pendant Les premieres Années de cet Establissement d'estoit aussy en ce mesme temps que Milord Vicomte de Preston escuyer extraordinaire du Roy En la cour de france continuoit par ses Instances de me poursuivre sur les choses dont j'estois accusé par les memoires de messieurs de la compagnie royalle de la Baye de hudson mes ennemis avoient pris soin de publier les Crimes Enormes dont j'estois chargé Et mes amis prenoient celuy de men entretenir En me donnant advis de ce qui se passoit quand Enfin ne pouvant souffrir qu'on imposast plus longtemps à ma conduitte je me creus obligé de desabuser les uns et les autres. Je me resolus donc de parler afin de faire cognoistre comme les choses s'estoient passées pour cet effet je tis chois de personnes quy me faisoient l'honneur de m'aimer, et ce fut dans les entretiens que j'eus avec elles sur ce sujet, que mon coeur peu porté a la dissimulation leur avoua en differentes occasions le desplaisir que l'avois d'avoir esté obligé d'abandonner Le service Dangre A cause des mauvais traittemens que j'en avois receu Et que je ne serois pas faché d'y reantrer estant plus en estat que je ne l'avois esté de rendre service au Roy et à la nation sy on estoit disposé a me rendre justice Et a recognoistre mes services je parley aussy plusieurs fois de l'estat ou j'avois laisse mon nepveu filz du sieur des grosilliers mon beaufrere avec d'autres francois proche le port de nelson qu'ilz y estoient seulz maistres de La traite du castor qu'elle y devoit estre considerable et qu'il dependoit de moy d'en faire profitter Mrs Les Anglois.

Touttes ces choses ayant esté raportées par un de mes purticuliers amis a des personnes quy sont dans les Interestz de la nation on jugea bien qu'un homme quy parloit de cette manière Et qui ne faisoit pas difficulté de dire le sentimens dans Les quelz il estoit, pouvoit estre facillement ramené en luy fuisant justice dans un, party qu'il n'avoit abandonné que par mécontentement, je fus prié d'avoir quelques conferances avec ces mesmes personnes. J'en fis sans repugnance la première demarche et sur le rapport qui fut fait a Milord Preston des choses que nous avions traittées dans ces entrevues Et de ce dont je pouvois estre capable je fus exhorté de sa part de rentrer dans mes premieres engagemens avec Mrs Les Anglois m'assemant que si je pouvois executer ce que j avois proposé je recevrois en Angre de sa majesté et de son Altesse Royale de la compagnie de la Baye de hudson et de la nation toute sorte de bon traittement Et une Entiere satisfaction, qu'au surplus je ne devois pas me mettre en peine de ce quy regardoit mes Interestz, ce ministre voulant luy mesme se charger du soin de mes Les conserver Et de me procurer d'autres avantages apres que je me serois mis en estat de rendre service au Roy son maistre, on me representa encore que son a tesse Royale honorant la compaguie de la Baye de hudson de sa protection elle passeroit jusques a moy sy j'employois mon credit Et mes soins Et les habitudes que j'avois dans le pays du nord pour L'utillité et avantage des affaires de cette Compagnie ausquelles son altesse Royalle prenoit grand to which I exposed myself, and up to the eve of my departure I held conferences with the ministers of the Court of France and the persons of the department of marine and commerce, on propositions for fitting out and equipping vessels for the same voyage which I had just made and which were the subject of conferences between the two nations.

The day of my departure was fixed for the 24th April, 1684, but, in order that those with whom I was obliged to have daily conferences, by order of the ministers, should not suspect anything from not seeing me, I told them I was obliged to take a short trip into the country on family business, and I made good use of the time to go to London, where I arrived on the 10th of May.

Immediately on my arrival I had the honour of waiting on Messrs. Yonge and Hayes, both interested in the Hudson's Bay Company, who gave me a good reception, testifying the joy they had at my return and giving me assurances that I would have from them and their company every sort of satisfaction. I then entered into an explanation with them as to the services I alleged I could render to His Majesty, to the company and to the nation by establishing the beaver trade and by securing to those interested the profit from 15,000 or 20,000 beavers which I hoped to find in the hands of those I had left there, which would cost them only the interest I had in the business and the just satisfaction which was due to the Frenchmen who had made the trade.

These gentlemen received me agreeably to my proposition and, wishing to give me marks of their satisfaction, they did me the honour of presenting me to His Majesty and His Royal Highness, to whom I made my submission, the offer of my humble services, a sincere protestation that I would do my duty and that at the danger of my life I would use all my cares for the advantage of the company's business, that I would seek every means to give marks of my zeal and of an inviolable fidelity. His Majesty and His Royal Highness did me the favour to honour me with testimonies of their satisfaction at my return and assurances of their protection.

After that I had conferences at general meetings, and especially with the partners of the Hudson's Bay Company, in which I showed them the necessary methods to establish advantageously the beaver trade in the northern country, the means of main-aining it, and how to ruin in a short time the trade of strangers. That for this purpose I would begin by rendering them masters of the fort and habitation of the French, as well as of all the peltry they n'ght have gained by trading since my departure, on condition that those interested with me should be protected and that my nephew, whom I had left in command of the fort, and the other Frenchmen, should be paid what was legitimately due them. These gentlemen appeared satisfied with what I told them and believed, justly, that they might have entire confidence in me; and, therefore, when I had resolved to undertake to carry out their orders to go with their ships fitted out and furnished with everything to form this establishment according to my plans, they gave me power to settle, on soul and conscience, the claims of my nephew and the other Frenchmen, assuring me that they would be satisfied as to the statement I might present to them.

I accepted this commission with the greatest pleasure in the world, and urged with so much diligence the things necessary for my departure, that in less than a week I was ready to embark. I took no precautions with respect to my interests, for I did not wish to make an agreement with these gentlemen. I told them that since they had confidence in me I would, on my side, act generously with them and put off everything till the result of the voyage was known; and on my return, in the hope that they would reciprocate my civilities and that after having giving them marks of my sincerity in executing what I had engaged to do in their service, they would render me ail the justice I had reason to hope for from people of honour and probity. The ships intended for Hudson's Bay and for the execution of my design being ready to set sail and everything arranged for my departure, I took leave of the partners of the company, giving them new assurances of the fortunate result of my voyage, if I was guaranteed against the dangers to which I was about to be exposed, with which they appeared so satisfied that Sir James Haynes (Hayes), not daring to flatter himself with the advantage I promised that they would derive from the 15,000 or 20,000 beavers which I hoped to protection.

En ce mesme temps je receus a Paris des lettres du sr escuyer yonge l'un des interessez en La compagnie de retourner an Angre me donnant des assuerance d'une bonne reception Et que j'aurois lieu d'estre content du costé de mes jnterestz particuliers anssy bien que des avantages qu'on me feroit.

Ces lettres jointes a ce que my lord Preston continuoit ses justances contre moy au pres du Roy tres chrestien acheverent de me determiner Et je me rendis En fin de moy mesme Et par le conseil d'un de mes amis A touttes ces solicitations resolu de passer En Angre pour toujours et de m'engager sy fortement au service de sa majesté Et aux Intherestz de la nation qu'aucune autre Consideration ne fust jamais capable de m'en Detacher.

Il n'y eut que milord Preston, quelques uns de ses domestiques et se mien amj quy m'avoit conseillé de venir en Angre qui sceussent mon dessein je pris soin de sauver les apparences du soubçon par le danger ou je m'exposois Et jusqu'a la veille de mon depart j'eus des conferences avec les ministres de la cour de France et les personnes quy y ont le departement de la marine et du commerce sur des propositions d'armement et équipement de vaisseaux pour le meme voiage que je venois de faire et qui faisoit l'entretien des deux nations.

Le jour de mon depart fut fixé au 24 avril 1684 mais ann que ceux avec les quelz jestois obligé de conferer journallement par ordre des ministres de france, ne se doutassent de rien discontinuans de me voir je leur dis que j'estois obligé de faire un petit voiage à la campagne pour des affaires de famille, et je me servis utilement de ce temps la pour me rendre a londres ou j'arrivaj le 10 maj.

A moment de mon arrivée j'eus l'honneur d'aller voir Messieurs l'Ecuyer yonge et le chevalier hayes interesséz en la compagnie de la Baye de hudson, les-quelz me firent une bonne reception. En me temoignant la ioye qu'ilz avoient de mon retour et en me donnant des asseurances que jaurois de leur part et de celle de leur Compagnie toute sorte de satisfaction je m expliquay ensuitte avec eux sur le service que je pretendois rendre a sa majesté, a la compagnie et a la nation, en establissant la traitte du castor et en faisant profitter les Interesses de 15 ou 20 mille castors que j'esperois trouver par de la entre les mains des gens que j'y avois laissés ce qui ne leur couteroit l'interest que j'avois en la chose Et la juste satisfaction qui estoit deuc aux francois qui en avoient faict la traitte.

Ces messieurs receurent agreablement ma proposition, et me voulans donner des marques de leur satisfaction, jlz me firent l'honneur de me presenter a sa majesté Et à son altesse Royale a qui je fis les actes de ma soubmission. l'offre de mes tres humbles services, une sincere protestation que je ferois mon devoir. Et qu'au peril mesme de ma vie j'employerois tous mes soins pour l'aventage des affaires de la compagnie, que je cercherois toutes les occasions de donner des marques de mon zele Et d'une fidelité Inviolable sa majesté et son altesse Royalle me firent la grace de m'honorer des temoignage de leur satisfaction sur mon retour. Et de me donner des asseurances de leur

Apres cela j'eus plusieurs conferances en corps d'assemblée et en particulier avec messieurs les interessez en la compagnie de la Baye de hudson, dans lesquelles je leur fis cognoistre de quelle manière il estoit Necessaire de s'y prendre pour etablir avantagensement la traitte du castor au pays du nord, les moyens de la bien soutenir, Et d'y ruiner en pen de temps les traittes des etrangers que pour cet effet je commencerois par les rendre maistres du fort et l'habitation des françois aussy bien que de toutes les pelletteries qu'ilz auroient traitées depuis mon depart aux conditions que mes Interestz seroient a couvert et que mon nepveu que j'avois laissé commandant dans le fort, et les autres francois seroient payes de ce qui leur seroit Legitimement deub ces messieurs parurent contens de ce que je leur disois. Et jlz creurent avec justice qu'ilz pouvoient avoir une Entière confiance en moy e'est pour cela qu'ayant resolu de me charger de leur ordres pour aller avec leurs vaisseaux Esquipes et munis de toutes choses faire cet establissement en mettant a execution mes projetz, jlz me les donnerent avec pouvoir de regler en mon ame et consciance les pretensions de mon nepveu et des an es francois m'assenrant qu'ilz les satisferoient sur l'Etat que je leur en presenterois, L'acceptay cette commission avec la plus grande joye du monde et je pressaj avec tant de dilligeance les choses necessaires a mon despart qu'en moins de huict jours je find in the hands of the Frenchmen, said, on embracing me, that the company would be satisfied if there were only 5,000. The event justified what I had stated, and these genttemen were not deceived in the hopes I had given them.

I left Gravesin (Gravesend) on the 17th of the same month of May in the ship named the "Happy Return," in company with two others which these gentlemen were sending also to Port Nelson, with the same object. The winds being favourable, we arrived in a few days on the western coast of Button's Bay, in which time nothing happened worthy of notice; but the winds and currents having drifted us about 40 leagues to the south of Fort Nelson, and the ice having separated the vessel in which I was from the other two in Hudson's Straits, I began to doubt the success of my enterprise from the apprehension I felt that these two vessels having arrived before ours, the men on board would not hazard taking any step, which would have spoiled everything. In this uneasiness and knowing the necessity that I should arrive first, I determined to embark in a boat which we had carried to be employed as required. I asked it from the captain, who had it equipped, and, although more than twenty leagues from Port Nelson, I went on board of it with seven men; and after forty-eight hours fatigue, without being able to take any rest on account of the dangers, we found ourselves close by the river, which having recognized, we at last got to land at the north point of the river, where I landed with an Englishman who spoke good French, whom I wished to accompany me as a witness of all I would do.

After baving landed, I knew by certain marks that my nephew having heard the report from the guns of the English ships, had come to the place where we were to know if his father or I had arrived and that he had returned after having ascertained that the ships were English. These same marks showed me also that he had left further on those which I had given him when I had settled him as governor during my absence, which would inform me of his condition and the place where he was with his people. But I did not think it proper to go to that place until I had learned exactly the state of the English who had arrived in the country after I had left. I resolved then to embark again in the boat, so as to obtain information. For this purpose I encouraged the seven men who were with me, who made so much diligence that in spite of the contrary winds and tide we arrived in a very short time at the mouth of that great and terrible river at which I had wished, with so much impatience to see myself, that I had not dreamed for a moment of the dangers to which we had exposed ourselves.

This joy was soon followed by another, for I saw at anchor in that place two ships of which one had His Majesty's glorious flag displayed on the mainmast, and which I recognized to be that which the Captain Outlaw commanded, when that in which I had crossed had been separated from the others. At the same time I took the boat close and saw the new governor with all his people in arms on the quarter deck. He asked where the boat came from and who we were. On that I made myself known and went on board the ship and learned that the vessel on the coast was an English frigate which had wintered at Port Nelson with this governor, whom they had abandoned in order to return for fear of insults from the French and Indians, but having been met by Captain Outlaw on leaving the bay, they had returned and learned that I was in the English service and that I was coming into the country to establish everything to the advantage of the nation.

My first care after that was to inform myself of what had taken place between the English and French since my departure and their arrival, and from what the English told me, I considered it proper to risk everything to try to join my nephew and the people whom I had left with him as soon as possible, in order to try to gain them over either by gentleness or craft, before they knew with what design I came, a matter of extreme consequence, so without waiting for the arrival of the ship in which I had come, I resolved to embark in the same bout which was named the "Little Adventure," but I did not do so the same day, because the governor thought fit to put off the trip till the next day and to give me other men instead of the seven whom I had brought and who were tired out. I embarked next day with Capt. Gazer, but the wind being contrary I landed on the coast with him and the Englishman who spoke French fus en estat de m'embarquer, ce fut sans aucune precaution a l'egard de mes interetz car je ne voulus point faire de composition avec messieurs et je leur dis que pnis qu'jlz avoient de la confiance en moy je voulois aussi de ma part en user genercusement avec eux Et remettre touttes choses au succez de mon voiage. Et a mon retour dans l'esperance que j'avois qu'ilz repondroient à mon honnesteté Et qu'apres leur avoir donné des marques de ma sincerité en Executant les choses auxquelles je m'engageois pour leur service ilz me rendoient toutte la justice que j'avois Lieu d'esperer de gens d'honneur et de probité. Les vaisseaux destines pour la Baye de hudson Et à l'execution de mon dessein Estans prets à faire voile et moy tout disposé a m'embarquer je pris congé de Mrs de la compagnie en leur donuant de nouvelles asseurances du bon succez de mon voiage, si dieu me faisoit la grace de me garantir des dangers auxquelz je m'alois exposer de quoj jlz parurent sj contens que Mr le chev haynes n'osant se flatter de l'aventage que je leur promettois qu'ilz tireroient des 15 ou 20 mille castors que j'esperois trouver entre les mains des françois me dit en n'embarassant que la compagnie seroit satisfaite s'il y en avoit seullement Cinq mille, l'evenement a justifié ce que l'avois avancé, et ces Mes n'ont point esté trompes dans les esperances que je leur avois donnéés.

Je partis du port de Gravesin le 17º du mesme mois de maj dans le navire nommé l'heureux retour en compagnie de deux autres que ces Mrs envoyoient aussy au port de Nelson pour le mesme suject les vents nous ayant esté favorables. Nous arrivames en peu de jours sur les costes du ouest de la Baye de Button sans qu'il nous fut arrivé aucune chose qui merite d'estre remarqué, mais les vents et les courans nous ayant fait deriver an sud du port de Nelson environ quarante lieues Et les glaces ayant separé le vaisseau dans lequel j'estois des deux autres dans le destroit de hudson je commenceay a douter de la reussité de mon enterprise par l'apprehension que j'avois que ces deux vaisseaux estans arrivés plustost que les nostres les hommes quy estoient dedans ne se hazardassent a faire quelque demarche quy auroit tout gasté dans cette jnquietude Et cognoissant la necessité qu'il y avoit que l'arrivasse le premier je me resolus de m'embarquer dans une chaloupe que nous avions portée pour estre Employée a ce quy seroit Necessaire, je la demanday au capac qui la fit équipper et quoy qu'a plus de vingt Lienes du port de Nelson je me mis dessus avec sept hommes, et apres quarante huiet henres de fatigue sans avoir pa prendre aucun repos a cause des dangers qu'il y avoit nous nous trouvames par le travers de la rivière, ce qu'ayans reconnu nous abordames enfin la terre a la pointe du nord de la riviere ou je descendis avec un Anglois qui parloit bon francois duquel je me voulus faire accompagner affin qu'il fut temoin de tout ce que je ferois.

Apres avoir descendu a terre je eognus a de certaines marques que mon nepveu ayant Entendu le bruit du canon des vaisseaux anglois estoit venu a l'endroit ou nons Etions pour scavoir sy son Pere ou moy estions arrivés et qu'il s'en estoit retournés apres avoir reconnu que les navires estoient Anglois ces mesmes marques me donnerent aussy a eognoistre qu'il m'avoit laissé plus loin celles que je lui avois donnéés lorsque je l avois estably pour gouverneur en mon absence, lesquelles me devoient apprendre son estat et le lui ou jl estoit avec son monde, mais je ne trouvaj point a propos d'aller jusqu'a cet endroit la que je n'eusse appris au vray l'estat des anglois qui estoient arrives dans le pays d'spuis que j'en estois party, je resolus done de m'embarquer de nouveau dans la cludoupe pour en uller aprendre des nouvelles j'encourageay pour eet effet les sept hommes qui estoient avec moy lesquelz firent tant de diligence que malgre le vent contraire et la maréé nous arrivasmes en fort peu de temps a l'embouchure de cette grande et effroyable riviere ou javois souhaitté de me voir avec tant d'impatience que je n'avois point songé un moment aux dangers ou nous nous Exposions.

Cette joye fut bien tost suivie d'une autre ear je vis a l'enchre en ce mesme endroit deux navires dont l'un avoit le glorieux pavillon de sa Majesté arboré sur son grand mast et que je recognus pour etre celuy qui commandoit le capitaine Outlaw, que celuy dans lequel j'estois passe avoit esté separé des deux autres, a mesme temps je fis approcher la chaloupe Et j'apperceus le nouveau gouverneur avec tous ses gens En armes sur le tillac qui nous demenderent d'ou étoit la chaloupe et qui nous estions sur cela je me fis cognoistre Et j'entraj dans ce navire ou j'appris que celuj qui estoit a costé estoit une fregatte angloise qui avoit hiverné au port de nelson avec ce gouverneur lequel jlz avoient abandonné pour s'en retourner dans la crainte d'y estre Insultes and after sending back the boat with the other men, I resolved to go by land to the place where I was to find the marks my nephew left to guide me to the place where

We then marched, all three, until next morning having arrived at the place where I had told my nephew to leave marks and having seen them I learned that he and his men had left our old houses and built one on an island above the rapid on the Hayes River. After that we continued our road until opposite the abandoned houses, whence l hoped that we should discover something or, at least, that I should make some one hear or see by firing some musket shots and making a smoke. This attempt was not altogether vain, for after remaining some time we perceived ten canoes with Indians coming down the river. I thought at first that some Frenchmen might be with them, whom my nephew might have sent to discover who were the new arrivals. This led me to tell Capt. Gazer that I would go to the riverside to speak to them, asking him to wait above without apprehension and that in a short time he would have evidence of my faithfulness in the service of the company.

On going to meet the Indians at the river side I made them the usual signals to bring them to me, but noticing that they did not incline to do so I spoke to them in their own language to make myself known, on which they approached the bank. Not knowing me they asked me to make the marks I had, which having done, they testified by shouts and playful postures their joy at my arrival. I then learned from them that my nephew and the other Frenchmen were above the rapid four leagues from the place we were at and that they had told them that my brother-in-law, des Groseillers, was to come with me, which made me tell them that he had arrived and they would see him again in a few days. Then I told them that we had always loved them like our brothers and that I would give them marks of my friendship, for which they thanked me and begged me not to be angry that they had been to trade with the English and that I had found them going to meet their captain, who had gone through the woods with twenty men to the English ships to obtain powder and muskets, to which the hunger they had endured for a month whilst waiting for me had constrained them, but that since I had arrived they would not go further and that their chief, whom they were going to notify of my coming, would tell me further of the matter

However, I had to make some among them warn my nephew of my arrival. I asked them all if they liked the son of des Groseillers and if he had not relations among them, on which one of them said: he is my son and I am ready to do what you wish, and at that moment having landed I made him put his beaver on shore and, after calling Capt. Gazer, I spoke in these terms to this Indian in the presence of the others: "I have made peace for the love of you with the English; you, they and I are to be henceforth only one, embrace this captain and me in the of peace—this is thy new brother and that is thy son; go immediately and carry him to s news and the marks of peace and tell him to come to see me at this place, whilst the Indians of the company will go to wait for me at the mouth of the river.'

This Indian did not fail to go to notify his son, my nephew, of my arrival and to carry him news of the peace between the French and 'he English, whilst we waited with impatience for his coming down of the place where we were, which did not, however, happen till next day about nine o'clock in the morning. I saw my nephew first appear in a canoe with three other Frenchmen, accompanied by the other Indian canoe which I had sent and which was coming to warn me of the arrival of my nephew. I promised a coat each to thes 1 dian and his contrade, and returned their beaver with order to them to go and wait for me with the others at the mouth of the river.

After that Capt. Gazer, the Englishman who spoke French and I, went into the water half leg deep to go to a little island where my rephew was to land. He arrived there before us and he came to meet and salute us, very much surprised at the union I had made with the English. We then went altogether in his canoe to our old houses, into which I made the English and French enter, and whilst they conversed on the fatigues they had shared, I spoke in private to my nephew in these terms:-

"You will, no doubt, remember having heard the relation by your rather of the "pains and fatigues we had in serving France for several years. You also learned

Mon premier soin fut apres cela de me faire instruire de ce qui s'estoit passé Entre les anglois et les francois depuis mon depart Et leur arrivéé. Et par ce que les anglois me dirent je jugeaj qu'il estoit a propos de risquer touttes choses pour tacher de joindre au plus tost mon neveu et les gens que je luy avois laissé afin de tacher de les gaigner par la douceur ou de les surprendre par finesse auparavant qu'ilz sceussent a quel dessein je venois, car cela Etoit d'une extreme consequance, ainsy sans attendre l'arrivée du navire dans lequel jestois venu je resolus de membarquer sur La mesme chaloupe qui fut nommée la petitte aventure, ce que je ne fis pourtant pas le mesme jour par ce que le gouverneur trouva a propos de remettre la partie au lendemain et de me donner d'autres hommes a la place des sept que j'avois amené et lesquelz se trouverent fatigues je m'embarquay le lendemain de bon matin avec le caphe Gazer mais le vent s'estant trouvé contraire je me fis mettre à la coste avec le caphe Gazer et l'anglois quy parloit francois. Et apres avoir renvoyé la chaloupe avec Les autres hommes je resolus d'aller par terre jusqu'au lieu je devois trouver les marques de mon neveu qui me devoit faire cognoistre le lieu ou il estoit.

Nous marchames ensuitte tous trois jusqu'au lendemain matin questans arrivés au lieu ou j'avois dit a mon neveu de me laisser des marques et les ayant levéés j'appris que luj et ses gens avoient quitté nos anciennes maisons et s'en estoient basties une dans me isle au dessus du rapide de la riviere Hayes, apres cela nous continuames nostre routte jusques vis a vis des maisons quj avoient este abandonnéés d'ou j'esperois que nous discouvririons quelque choze ou du moins que nous nous ferions voir ou entendre en tirant quelques coups de fusilz et faisant de la tuméé En quoy mon attente ue fot point tout a fait vaine car apres avoir resté quelque temps en cet endroit nous apperceumes dix canots de sauvages qui descendoient la riviere je creus d'abord qu'il y pourroit avoir quelque francois avec eux que mon nepveu auroit pu Envoyer pour decouvrir qui estoient les gens nouvellement arrivés ce qui mobligea de dire au Capne Gazer que j'allois descendre au bord de la Riviere pour leur parler, que le je priois de m'attendre sur la hauteur sans aucune aprehension, et que dans peu jl pourroit rendre des temoignages de ma fidelité pour Le service de la compagnie.

Je fus dans ce mesme moment a la rencontre des sauvages Et du Bord de la riviere je leur fis Les signaux accoutumes afin de les obliger a venir vers moy, mais m'estant apperceu qu'ilz ne se mettoient point en devoir de le faire je leur parlaj en leur langue pour me faire cognoistre ce qui lit qu'ilz sapprocherent du bord. Et ne me cognoissant point jlz me demanderent avoir les marqués que j'avois ce qu'ayant fait jlz temoignerent par des cris d'allegre-se et de postures de divertissement La joye qu'ilz avoient de mon arrivéé j'appris ensuitte deux que mon nepveu et les autres francois estoient au dessus du rapide Eloignes de quatre lieues du lieu ou j'estois, et qu'ilz leur avoient dit que mon beau frere des groisillié devoit aussy venir avec moj ce qui m'obligea de leur dire qu'il estoit arrivé Et qu'ilz le verroient dans quelques jours, Ensuitte je leur dis que nous les avions toujours aimes comme nos freres et que je leur voulois donner des marques de mon amitié de quoy jlz me remercierent en me priant de n'estre point en colere de ce que par (lacune) avoient esté traitter avec les anglois et de ce que je les trouvois allans a la rencontre de leur cap^{ne} qui estoit allé au travers des bois avec 20 hommes aux navires anglois pour avoir de la poudre. Et des fuzilz a quoy la fain qu'ilz avoient Endurée depuis un mois en m'attendant les avoit contrains mais que puis que j'estois arrivé ilz ne passeroient pas plus outre Et que leur chef qu'ilz alloient à lvertir de ma venue m'en diroit davantage.

Cependant j'avois à faire de quelques uns d'entreux pour faire advertir mon nepveu de mon arrivéé, je leur demandaj à tous s'îlz aymoient le filz de des grossillié, et s'îl n'avoit point de parants parmj eux sur quoy je y en eut un quj me dit cest mon filz et je suis prest a faire ce que tu voudras et dans ce moment s'estant desbarqué je lui fis mettre son eastor a terre et apres avoir appellé le capue Gazer je parlaj en ses termes a ce sauvage En la presence des autres j'ay fait la paix pour l'amour de vous avec les anglois, vous Eux et moy ne devons estre desormais qu'un embrassé ec capue Et moy en

"You know also the motives which obliged your father and me, after thirteen years' service, to leave the English, the necessity to provide for ourselves and the refusal which the ill-intentioned of the Hudson's Bay Company to satisfy us, gave rise to our separation and to the establishment we made, and of which I left you in possession on sailing for France. But you are, no doubt, unaware that the Prince who reigns in England has disavowed the proceedings of the company towards us, and that he has had us recalled to his service to receive there the benefits of his royal protection and entire satisfaction for our discontent. I have left your father in England, happier than we, as he is assured of subsistence and begins to taste the pleasures of rest, whilst I am come to inform you that we are now English and have preferred the goodness of a clement and kindly King in following our inclinations, which is to serve with people of heart and honour, to the offers which he of France had made to us through his ministers—to oblige us to labour indirectly for his glory.

"I received orders before leaving London to care for you and to oblige you to serve the English nation. You are young and in a condition to work usefully for your fortune. If you are resolved to follow my sentiments I will not abandon you to receive the same treatment as I have done, and I will share, even at the expense of my interests, your satisfaction. I will also take care of those who remained here with you on my word, and will omit nothing for your advancement. You are of my blood. I know that you have courage and resolution. Determine promptly, and show me, by the answer I expect, that you are worthy of the goodness of the gracious prince whom I serve. But above all, do not forget the injuries the French have done to him who has given you life, and that you are in my power."

When my nephew had heard all that I had just said, he protested to me that he had no other sentiments than mine and that he would do all that I wished, but begged me that I would take care of his mother; to which I answered that I had not forgotten she was my sister, and that the confidence he showed on that occasion was a double engagement obliging me to take care of her and of him. Having been satisfied he transferred to me the command and I told him he should appear in the meeting of the English and French as satisfied as he should be and to leave the rest to my management. After this we returned to the house and I ordered one of my Frenchmen immediately to notify his comrades that everything was going well, that they should have entire confidence in me and obey my orders in which case they would want for nothing.

I also ordered the same Frenchman to warn the Indians to come down and set to work immediately to bring the beavers which they had concealed in the words [gap in the original] the newly-built house. To induce them to make more speed I told them I would double the daily allowance and provisions. Then I told my nephew to cross to the north shore with the Frenchman who would act as interpreter and to go by land to the place I had appointed to meet the Indians, whilst I went there by vater with Capt. Gazer, and the two other men who remained with me. Having embarked with these in my nephew's cance, I went down as far as the mouth of the river, where I found the Indians who were impatiently waiting for me, who having been joined next day by thirty other cances of Indians whom I I:d notified to come down by their captain, who had come to me by land, we were altogether in the Indian cances, which were close to the vessels aground in the Nelson river.

It was in this place that the chief of the Indians spoke to me of many things and after having received from me presents for the chiefs of his nations, he told me that he and his people would speak of my name to all the nations to invite them to come to me to smoke the pipe of peace, but he strongly blamed the English governor for having told him that my brother was killed, that I was a prisoner, and that he had come to destroy the rest of the French. This Indian chief added complaint to blame, and said loudly that that person was unworthy of his friendship and of that of their former brothers who had begun to settle among them, telling them lies. Their grumbling and fits of signe de paix c'est ton nouveau frere et celuj de ton filz va-t-en jncessamment luj porter cette nouvelle Et les marques de la paix, Et dis luj qu'il me vienne voir en ce lieu pendant que les sauvages de la compagnie Jront m'attendre a l'embouchure de la riviere.

Ce Sauvage ne manqua point d'aller advertir son filz mon neveu de mon arrivéé Et de luj porter la nouvelle de la paix entre Les françois Et les anglois pendant que nous attendions sa descente vers le lieu ou nous estions avec impatience ce quy n'arriva neantmoins que le lendemain sur Les neuf heures du matin je vis d'abord parroistre mon neveu dans un canot avec trois autres françois accompagné de L'autre canot sauvage que j'avois envoyé Et qui s'estoient advences pour m'advertir de l'arrivée de mon nepveu, je promis a ce sauvage et a sou camarade chacun un Capot et leur retournaj leurs eastors avec ordre de m'aller attendre avec les autres a l'embouchure de la rivière.

Apres cela le cap^{ne} Gazer l'anglois qui parloit francois et moy passames dans L'eau jusqu'a demj Jambe pour aborder une petite Isle ou mon nepveu avec ses gens devoit prendre terre, jl y estoit arrivé devant nous et jl vint a nostre rencontre me saluer fort supris de l'union que j'avois faite avec Mrs les anglois nous passames ensuitte tous ensemble dans son canot jusqua nos anciennes maisons ou je fis entrer les anglois Et les francois, Et pendant qu'ilz s'entretenoient de lers fatigues communes je parlaj en particulier a mon nepveu en ees termes.

Il vous souvient sans doute d'avoir entendu raconter a vostre pere les paines Et les fatigues que nous avons eues en servant la France pendant plusicurs annéés vous avez aussi appris de luy que la recompense que Nous avions sujet d'esperer fut une noire ingratitude, tant du coste de la cour que de celle de la compagnie du Capada, Et que cela nous ayans reduis a la necessité de eercher a servir ailleurs L'angre nous receut avec des temoignages de joye et de satisfaction.

Vous scavez aussy motifs qui ont obligé vostre pere et moy apres treize annéés de service de quitter les anglois, la necessité de subsister Et le refus que faisoient les mal Intentionnes de la compagnie de la Bawe de hudson de nous satisfaire ont donne lieu a nostre Separation et a l'establissement que nous avons fait et dont je vous aj laissé En possession en partant pour france, mais vous Ignorer sans doutte que le Prince quy Regne en Angre ait desadvoué le procedé de la compagnie a nostre esgard. Et qu'il nous ait faiet rappeler a son service pour y recevoir les effets de sa royale protection et une entiere satisfaction de nos mecontentemens j'aj laissé vostre Pere en Λng^{pe} plus heureux que nous en ce qu'il est asseure de la subsistance et qu'il commence a goutter du repos pendant que je suis venu vous apprandre que nous sommes maintenant Anglois Et que nous aurons prefere les bontes d'un Roy clement et debonnaire. Ensulvant nos juelinations quy de servir en gens de eoeur et d'honneur aux offres que celuy de France nous faisoit faire par ses ministres affin de nous obliger a travailler indirectement pour sa gloire.

J'ay receu ordre avant partir de Londres de pendre soin de vous, et pe vous obliger a servir la nation angloise vous estes jeune et en estate de sravailler utillement a vostre fortune s'y vous estes resolu de suivre mes sentimens je ne vous abandonneray point vous recevrez les mesme traitement que moy. Et je participeraj mesmos aux despens de mes Interestz a vostre contentement j'aurez aussi soin de ceux qui sont restes sur ma parolle en ces lieux avec vous et je n'obmettraj rien de tout ce qui pourra contribuer a vostre advencement vous estes de mon sang je saj que vous avez du courage Et de la resolution determinez vous promtement Et faites moy voir par la reponee que j'attens que vous estes digne des bontes du prince clement que je sers mais n'oubliés pas sur toutes choses les Înjures que les françois ont faites a celuy qui vous a donne la vie, Et que vous Estes en mon pouvoir.

Quand mon nepveu Eut entendu tout ce que je venois de luy dire, jl me protesta xu'il n'avoit point d'autres sentimens que Les miens Et qu'il feroit tout ce que je souhaitterois de luj mais qu'il me prioit d'avoir soin de sa mère, a quoi je repondis que je n'avois pas oublié qu'elle estoit ma soeur Et que la confiance qu'il me temoiguoit avoir en cette occasion estoit un double Engagement quy m'obligeroit d'avoir soin d'elle et de luy, de quoy ayant esté satisfait jl me remit le pouvoir de commandement, et je lui dis qu'il parust dans l'assembléé des anglois et des françois aussy content qu'il le devoit estre Et de Laisser le reste a ma conduitte, apres quoy nous rentrames dans la maison, passion formed part of his indignation. He several times offered insults to the governor, who endeavoured to apologize for having stated imprudently things contrary to the truth, but the Indian chief would hear nothing on his side nor from the other English, so suspicious had he become. However, I made up the dispute by the authority I possess over the mind of these nations and having made the Indian chief and governor embrace, after having embraced both, giving the Indian to understand it was a sign of peace, I told him that I would make the feast of this same peace, and that I had given orders to prepare food.

On such occasions the Indians are accustomed to precede the feast with a speech which consists in acknowledging as their brothers those with whom they make peace and to boast of their strength. After having informed the Indian chief of the experience, strength and valour of the English nation, he acquitted himself with much judgment and was applauded by our people and by his own.

1 told him then in the presence of his people that the French were not good seamen, that they were afraid of the iee through which they had to pass to come to them with merchandise, besides their vessels being weak and incapable of resistance in the northern seas, but that the English were robust, hardy and enterprising; that they had knowledge of all seas, that they had large and strong ships which would bring them merchandise at any time and without cessation. This having been acknowledged to be satisfactory, the Indian chief came to dine with us, whilst his people were eating together what I had given them. The feast being ended, it was a question of beginning trade and as I had formed the plan of abolishing the custom, which the English had introduced after I had left their service, of giving them presents to attract them, which was directly contrary to what I had practiced, for instead of giving presents, I made them do so to me, I said to the Indian elnef in presence of his nation, that he should make me the presents which I usually received on such an occasion. On this they consulted and then presented me with sixty beaver skins, telling me to accept them as a sign of our former friendship, to consider that they were poor and very far from their country that they had fasted several days in coming and that they would be obliged to fast in returning, that the French of Canada made them presents to oblige them to open their packages and that the English at the head of the bay gave all the nations three axes for a beaver.

They added that the beaver was hard to kill and that their misery deserved pity. I answered that I had compassion on their condition and would do all in my power to comfort them, but that it was much more reasonable that they should make me presents than that I should make them, as well because I came from a country much more distant than theirs to bring them good merchandise as because I saved them the trouble of going to Quebec and as to the difference of the trade of the English at the head of the bay from ours, I told them that each was master of what belonged to him and was free to dispose of it as he chose, that it was of no great consequence to trade with them when I had all the other nations for friends, that those were the masters of my merchandise who trusted to my generosity, that for thirty years I had been their brother and that in future I would be their father, if they continued to love, but if they had other feelings, I was pleased to warn them that I would have the neighbouring nations called to give them charge of my merchandise, that the advantage that they would receive by this assistance would render them powerful and put them in a condition to dispute the passage of all the Indians who dwelt in the interior, that by this means, they would be themselves reduced to lead a sickly life and see their wives and children die by war or famine, from which their allies, though powerful, could not guarantee them, because I was informed that they had neither knives nor muskets.

This speech obliged the Indians to submit to all I wished, so that seeing them disposed to trade I told them that as they had urgent need of knives and muskets I would give them ten knives for a beaver, although the master of the land—the King my master—had ordered that only five should be given. In respect to muskets, I would give them one for twelve beavers; and they were mout to accept my proposition, when the governor, either through fear or imprudence, told them we were asking only from seven to ten beavers for each musket, which compelled us to give them at that rate. Et je commandaj un de nos francois d'aller l'ucessament advertir ses camaradas que tout alloit bien et qu'ilz devoient prentre une entière confince en moy et obeir a mes ordres quoy faisant ilz ne manqueroient de rien.

J'ordonnaj aussy a ce mesme francois d'advertir Les sanvages ce descendre et de travailler jucessemment avec ses camarades a raporter Les castors qu'ilz avoient caches dans les bois (laceme.) La maison nouvellement bastie Et alin de le pouvoir faire avec plus de diligen re je leur dis de doubler l'ordinaire Et de leur subsistance. Ensuitte je dis a mon nepven de passer du costé du nord avec le francois quy huy servit d'interprette et d'aller par terre au rendes vons que j'avois donne aux sanvages les jours precedens pendant que je me rendrois par can au mesme rendes vons avec le capre Grzer Et les deux antres hommes quy me restoit avec lesqu'lz m'estant. Embarqué dans le canot de mou neveu je descendis la riviere jusqua l'embonchure on je tronvaj les sanvages qui m'attandoint avec jupatience lesquelz ayant esté jointz Le landemain par trante antres canots des sanvages que j'avois fait advertir de descendre. Et par leur capre qui estoit venu vers moy par terre nons fusmes tous ensemble dans. Les canots sanvages abord des vaisseax qui estoient eschones sur la riviere de Nelson.

Ce fut en cet endroit que le chef des sanvages me parla de beaucoup de choses. Et qu'apres avoir receu de mains des presens d'estime pour les chefs de ces nations jl me diet que luy et ses peuples parleroient de mon nora a toutes les nations, pour les inviter de veuir vers moy fumer an calumet d'union mais jl blama fortement le gouverneur auglois de lui avoir dit que mon frere avoit este fait mourir que j'estois prisonnier Et qu'il estoit venu pour d'estruire le reste des françois.

Ce chef des sanvages ajontoit au blame la plainte et disoit hautement que celuj la Estoit judigne de son amitié et de celle de leurs anciens freres qui commençoit a s'establir parmi eux en leur disant des mensonges le murmure et l'emportement avoient anssy part a son Indignation, il profera par plusieurs fois des injures contre le gouverneur qui tachoit de se justifier des choses qu'il avoit avancéés par impradence contre la veritte mais le chef des sauvages ne voudoit Entendre tien de sa part uj de celle des antres anglois tant luj étoit devenu suspect cependant j'appaisaj ce differant par l'authorité que j'aj sur l'esprit de ces nations Et ayant fait embrasser. Le chef sauvage et le gouverneur après Les avoir moy mesme Embrasses tous deux donnant a entendre au sauvages que c'estoit Ensigne de paix je lui dis assy que je voulois faire le festin de cette mesme paix. Et que j'avois donné ordre que l'on tit a manger.

En de pareilles occasions les sanvages ont accontinué de faire preceder le festin d'une harangne qui conciste a recognoistre pour leurs freres ceux avec lesquelz ilz font la paix et a louer leurs forces apres avoir. Instruiet le chef des sanvages de l'experience force Et valleur de la nation angloise jl s'aquitta avec beaucoup de jugement de cette action. Et jl fut aplandy des notres et des siens.

Je luj dis ensuitte en la presence de ses peuples que les françois n'estoient point des bons hommes de mer qu'ilz apprehendoient les glaces au travers desquelles jl falloit passer pour leur veuir apporter des marchandises d'ailleurs que leurs vaisseaux estoient foibles et Incapables de resister dans les mers du nord mais que pour les anglois jlz estoient robustes hardis et entreprenaus, qu'ilz avoient la cognoisance de toutes les mers Et des grandz Et fortz vaisseaux qui leur apartenoient des marchandises. En tout temps, Et sans discontinuation de quoy avans temoigné. Estre satisfaitz le chef Sauvage vent diner avec nous pendant que ses peuples mangerent. Ensemble ce que je lem avois fait donner. Le Repas estant linj jl fust question de commencer la traitte et comme j'avois forme le dessein d'abolir la continue que les anglois avoient introduitte depuis que j'avois quitte leur service qui estoit de faire des presens aux sauvages pour les attirer dans leur parti ce qui estoit directement oposé a ce que j'avois pratiqué car au lieu de donner des presens je m'en faisois faire, je dis an chef des Sauvages en la presence de cenx de sa nation quil me fit les presens que je recevois d'ordinaire en pareille occasion, sur cela ilz parlerent entreux et ensuitte jlz me presenterent soixante peaux de castor En me disant de les accepter en signe de notre ancienne amitié. Et de considerer qu'ilz estoient panyres et bien cloignes de leur pais qu'ilz avoient jeune plusieurs jour En venant er qu'ilz seroient obligés de jeuner en s'en retournant que les françois du canada leur faisoient des presens pour les obliger d'ouvrir leur paquetz Et que les anglois du fondz de la Baye donnoient a toutes les nations trois haches pour un castor.

to ynethew having learned from one of the chiefs of the neighbouring nations we with them that they would not return, he took to one side the Indian chief to interior and to I him to the had been notified that he did not love and the action as not coming back, at which the chief appeared much surprised, asking who had did im that. My repliew said it is the Indian called "la Graisse d'Ours" (Bear's Graise). Having heard the people drawn up in arms, speaking to one and to another to oblige him who actions to declare himself with the firmness of a man of convave, without which undergoould be done, but Bear's Grease would answer

The je donsy which reigns as well among Indian nations as among Christians had given rise to these purps, to which my nephew gave credit as he knew that the condact of the governor toward them had caused so much discontent with us all as had caused loss to the company, it being the nature of these people to believe that nothing should be asked but what is just—that is, what one should wish for the thing traded—and that when one withdraws (from the effer) he is not a man, showing that only those are suitable for trading with them who have a knowledge of the manners and customs of these nations, firmness and resolution to inglextremely necessary, which I again made use of on this occasion to smooth over—differences among the Indiaus and to reconcile them. It was on this account that their chief protested to me, calling me Porcupine Head, the name they give me among them, that he would alway come to me to trade and that, whereas I had only seen him come with 100 of 1—young men, he would bring thirteen different nations with him and that there would reither be wanting in his country men nor beavers for my service; after which they left us and we prepared to go to take possession of my nephew's house in the muner agreed upon with him.

For this purpose 1 left with the Governor, Capt. Gazer and a party of our people to go by land to the place where we had left one of our canoes on the Hayes river, whilst the other party went by sea in the boat, the "Adventure" to go round the point. We had the pleasure of observing at our case the beauty of the country and of its banks, with which the Governor was charmed on account of the difference of these from the places he had seen in the Nelson river. We then embarked in the cance for the place where the French had built their new house, where we found those who had remained there so far advanced in the work I had given them to do, that though very aneasy at having no news of my nephew, their commander, nor of me, they had brought other orders.

Having thus seen myself master of everything without being obliged to come to extremities and all the French being disposed to continue their obedience, I had an inventory made of all that was in the house and found 239 packages of beaver, to the number of 12,000 skins and merchandise sufficient to trade to the extent of seven or eight thousand more, which gave me much satisfaction. I told my nephew to give orders on my behalf to the same Frenchmen to send the beavers down to where they were to be shipped to be carried to the vessels, which was executed with so much diligence, that in six days eight or ten men, in spite of the difficulties which prevented them from going to the place except in canoes, owing to the rapidity and shallowness of the water in the river, did as much as others would, without exaggeration, have been troubled to do in six months. My nephew had, in my absence, chosen the place in which he had built a new house which was, so to speak, inaccessible, in order to guard himself from enterprises which might have been made against him and which at the same time prevented an easy entrance and exit.

The Indians with whom we had traded not having used as much diligence as we had done to return to their country, knowing that I was in our houses came to see me to ask for tobacco, because I had not given them any of what was in the ship, on account of its not being good, but having excused myself, saying that it was in the hold, I made them a present of that which my nephew had left, with which they were satis-

Ilz adjoutoient a cela que le castor estoient difficille a tuer et que leur misere estoit digne de pitié, je leur repondis que j'avois compassion de leur estat, et que je ferois tout ce qui Estoit en mon ponvoir pour les soulager, mais qu'il estoit bien plus raissonnable qu'ilz me fissent des presens que moy a Eux tant a cause que je venois d'un pays bien plus Eloigné que le leur pour leur apporter des bonnes marchandiscs que par ce que je leur espargnois la paine d'aller a quebek Et quant a la differance de la traite des Anglois du fondz de la Baye avec la notre je leur dis que chacun estoit le maistre de ce qui lui appartenoit et en liberté d'en disposer a sa volonté qu'il n'importoit peu de traitter avec eux lorsque j'avois toutes les autres nations pour amis que ceux la estoient les maistres de mes marchandises qui s'en raportoient a ma generosité qu'il y avoit trente années que j'estois leur frere. Et que je serois a l'advenir leur pere s'ilz continuoient a m'aymer mais que ils estoient dans d'autres sentimens j'estois bien aise de les advertir que je fairois appeller toutes les nations dalentour pour les charger de mes marchandises que l'aventage qu'elles recevroient par ce secours les rendroit puissantes et les mettroit en estat de disputter le passage a tous les sauvages qui habittoient dans les terres, que par ce moyen îlz seroient reduis Eux mesmes a mener une vie languissante Et avoir mourir leurs femmes Et leurs Enfants par la guerre ou la disette de qui leurs alliez quoy que puissans ne les pourroient pas garantir par ce que j'estois advertj qu'ilz n'avoient nj couteaux nj fusilz.

Ce discours obligea les sauvages de se soumettre a tout ce que je voudrois de maniere que les voyans disposes a la traite je leur dis que comme ils avoient un extreme besoin de couteaux Et de fusilz je leur donnerois dix couteaux pour un castor, quoy que le maistre de la terre le Roy mon maistre m'eust donné ordre de n'en donner que cinq Et qu'a l'egard des fusilz je leur en donnerois un pour douse castors, et ilz alloient accepter ma proposition quand le gouverneur par crainte ou imprudence leur dit que nous leur demandions que despuis sept jusques a dix castors pour chaque fusil ce quj fut cause qu'il fallut les leur donner a ce prix la, la traite se fit ensuite avec toutte sorte de tranquillite et de bonne amitié aprcs quoy ces peuples prirent congé de nous fort satisfaitz selon toutes les apparences tant En general qu'en particullier de nostre procedé En temoignage de quoy jlz nous promirent de revenir.

Mais mon nepveu ayant appris d'un des chefz des nations voisines qui estoit avec eux qu'ilz ne reviendroient point, il tira a part le chef sauvage des terres et lui dit qu'il avoit esté advertj qu'il ne nous aymoit pas. Et qu'il ne reviendroit plus de quoy ce chef parut fort surpris en demandant qui Luj avoit apris cela, mon nepveu lui dict c'est le sauvage appellé la graisse d'ours ce qu'ayant entendu il fit a mesme temps ranger en armes tout son monde parlant aux uns et aux autres affin d'obliger celui qui estoit accusé de se desclairer avec la fermette d'un homme de courage sans quoy on ne luy pouvoit rien faire, mais la graisse d'ours ne voulut rien repondre.

La jalousie qui regne aussy bien parmi les nations sauvages que parmi les chrestiens avoit donné bien a ces rapports ausquelz mon nepveu avoit adjoutté foy par ce qu'il scavoit qe la conduitte du gouverneur Envers Eux avoit donne autant de mecontentement contre nous tous qu'elle avoit causé de perte a la compagnie, Le genie de scs peuples Estant qu'on ne doit jamais demander que ce quy est juste, c'est a dire ce qu'on souliaitte avoir pour chaque chose qu'on traite, et que lors qu'on se retracte on n'est point homme, cela fait voir qu'il ni proprement que ceux qui ont la cognoissance des meurs et des coutumes de ces nations qui soient capables de traitter avec elles, a quoy la fermeté Et la resolution sont aussy Extremement necessaires, je m'en servis encore en cette occasion afin d'appaiser ce petit differant, Entre les sauvages, Et leur reconciliation fut cause que leur chef me protesta de nouveau en m'appellant Teste de porc Espy qui est le nom qu'ilz m'ont donné parmj eux qu'il viendroit toujours vers moy pour traiter et qu'au lieu que je ne l'avois veu qu'avec cent hommes de sa jeunnesse, jl ameneroit avec lui treize nations differentes Et qu'il ne manquoit point en son pays n'y d'hommes nj castors pour mon service apres quoy jlz nous quitterent et nous nous disposames a partir pour aller prendre possession de la maison de mon nepveu de la maniere que j'en estois convenu avec lui.

Pour eet effet je partis avec le gouverneur le cap^{ne} Gazer et une partie de nos gens pour aller par terre jusqu'au lieu ou nous avions luissé un de nos canots sur la riviere de de nos gens a riviere de fied, but I was surprised, when walking around the house with the governor, to see on the sand a quantity of pieces of tobacco of another kind which had apparently been thrown away indignantly. I reflected anxiously what could have given rise to this, when the great chief and captain of the Indians came to tell me that some of the young men of his band, still annoyed at the remembrance of what the Englishmen had said, that my brother des Groseilliers was dead, that I was a prisoner and that they had come to destroy all the other Frenchmen, also the shot from cannon loaded with cantempt the tobacco which had come from the English, and which the young men would not smoke. He assured me also that the young men had evil designs on the English, of which he warned me, in order to prevent them from leaving the house. The governor who could scarcely believe that this tobacco, thrown on the sand was the presage of some vexatious enterprise was nevertheless convinced of it by the talk of the Indians.

I begged him to come with me into the house, and neither himself nor any of the other English to leave for some time, assuring them, however, that they had nothing to fear and that all the Frenchmen and myself would perish rather than suffer the least insult to be offered to them; after which I ordered my nephew to make all the Indians immediately embark to continue their journey to their own country, which was done, so that we were delivered from all sorts of apprehensions and free to work at our business.

However, I could not sufficiently admire the constancy of my nephew and of his people in dispossessing themselves of benefit in favour of the English, their former enemies, on whom they had just claims, having no other assurance of their settlement than the confidence they had in my word; besides, I could not help showing my joy at the success of my enterprise, and to see that in beginning, as an evidence of my zeal for the service of the English company, I was making them profit to a very considerable extent, which would give them assurances of my fidelity in future and oblige them to take care of my interests, by giving me what legitimately belonged to me and by acquitting to my nephew and the other Frenchmen what I had promised, gained by them in long and painful labour.

After this, that is during the three days we remained in that house, I wished to obtain exact information from my nephew, in the presence of the Englishmen, of what had passed between them since I had left the country, and to know why and in what manner two Englishmen had been killed, on which my nephew spoke to me in these

"Some days after you left in 1683, on the 27th July, a number of cannon shot which we heard fired off the coast of the Grand River, informed us that some English ship had arrived. In fact, having sent three of my men to ascertain and to discover their design, I learned from them on their return that there were two English ships and that they had met with three men of that nation at a league from the vessels, but had not been able to speak, being satisfied to salute one another.

"But as my principal design was to discover that of the English and that my mea had done nothing in that matter, I sent other three to inform themselves of what was taking place. These three hast having arrived at the point between the Nelson and Hayes rivers, they met fourteen or fifteen Indians loaded with merchandise. Having asked who they were and where they were coming from, they answered that their nation lived along the river called New Severn, to the south of Hayes river, and that they were coming from trading with their brothers who were settled at the head of the Bay; after which my men told them also who they were and where they lived, asking them to come to smoke with them of tobacco, the most highly esteemed in that country, to which they willingly consented, showing much vexation that they had not known sooner that we were settled near them, testifying that they would have been happy to have traded with us.

"During this conversation they arrived together at our house, except one who, on the pretext of having forgotten something, said to his comrades that they should go to wait for him at the habitation of the Frenchmen. He arrived two days after, to be the witness of the good reception I gave to his brothers, of which I also made him a

M'estant done veu maistre de toutes choses sans avoir este obligé d'en venir a aucune extremité et tous les francois estant dans des dispositions de me continuer leur obeyssances je fis faire jnventaire de tout ce qui estoit dans la maison et je trouvaj dans 239 paquetz de castors le nombre de 12000 peaux. Et encore des marchandises pour en traitter jusques a sept ou huict mil, ce quy me donna beaucoup de satisfaction ensuite je dis a mon neveu de commander de ma part a ces mesmes françois de descendre les castors jusqu'au lieu ou jlz devoient estre embarques pour les transporter Ensuitte aux navires ce quy fut executé avec tant de diligence qu'en six jours huict ou dix hommes firent malgre les difficultes quy empechent qu'on ne peut aller en ce lieu que par des canots a cause de la rapidité et du peu d'eau qu'il y avoit dans la rivière, ce que d'autres auraient eu de la paine a faire en six mois sans aueune Exageration mon neveu avoit en mon absence choisy Le lieu ou jl avoit baty une nouvelle maison quy estoit pour ainsy dire jnaccesible, afin de se garantir des entreprises qu'on avoit pu faire contre luy et participant, giving him tobacco. But this rascal had had a totally different design "than going to seek for what he supposed to be lost. I understood, on hearing him speak "with the other Indians, that he had gone to find the English and that he was commis-"sioned by them to do some wicked action. In this I was not mistaken, for this wreteli, "seeing me alone and without arms, took me by the hand, telling me I was worthless "because I did not love the English and that I had not paid by presents for the country "I inhabited to him who was the chief of all the nations and the friend of the English at the head of the bay. He let fall the robe which covered him and remaining naked "made a blow at me with his dagger, which I fortunately parried with my hand, on "which I received a slight wound, which did not prevent me from seizing him by a "collar which he had on his neck and throwing him down. This gave me time to take "my sword and to recover myself, and I saw that the other Indians had their daggers "in their hands, except one, who was crying—'Do not kill the French, for their death "will be avenged by the upper nations on all our families.' The movement I had made "to take my sword had not prevented me from keeping my foot on my enemy's throat, "and whether this posture or my sword frightened the other conspirators not one of "them dared to approach me. On the contrary, they all left the house still keeping the "daggers in their hands. Some Frenchmen who were near, seeing this, rushed fur-"iously straight to the house. On their arrival the Indians threw down their daggers, "saying that the English had promised their chief a barrel of powder and other goods "to kill all the Frenchmen, but their chief being dead, which they really believed, they "had nothing more to fear, as they were men of courage, abhorring wicked actions. But "my people, seeing that I was wounded, wished to slaughter the Indians, which I pre-"vented—wishing by this generosity and by sparing the chiet's life to give evidence of "my courage and that I was not afraid of the English or of them. After this they "went off, and we resolved to be more on our guard in future.

"Some days after the Indians who were our allies and good friends, warned by the "smoke of our fires--which was our usual signal, arrived at our house as was their cus-"tom. Having learned of my adventure, they said nothing, but ran after the others "and having joined them invited them to a feast to learn from them the merits of "the case. Having been informed of it, my adoptive brother-in-law said to the "chief who had wished to assassinate me: 'This has been reported to me; thou art "not a man, since with fifteen of thy people thou hast not been able to bring down a "single man;' to which the other answered haughtily and imprudently: 'It is true, but "if $\hat{\mathbf{I}}$ have failed this autumn with fifteen men lic shall not escape me in spring when \mathbf{I} "go alone.' 'it will be necessary then,' my brother in-law replied, 'that thou shouldst "kill me first, for, unless thou dost, I shall prevent thy wicked design;' on which, hav-"ing come to blows, the Indian chief received a bayonet stab in the stomach and the blow of an axe on the head, on which he fell dead on the spot. In respect to the "others, they received no bad treatment and were allowed to go at full liberty, being "told that if they intended to avenge the death of their chief they had only to say so "and that war would be declared on them.

"After this expedition these same Indians divided into two bodies, and without com-"municating to us their design they went down to the place where the English were "forming their settlement, attacked them and killed some of them, and then came to tell "me that they had killed a great part of my enemies to revenge me for the conspiracy "formed against me and my brothers, and that they were ready to sacrifice their lives in "my service, in gratitude for which I thanked them and made them a feast, begging them "not to kill more and to wait the return of my father and my uncle, who would take "vengeance on the English for the insults they had ordered to be offered to me, whilst on "their part they had sought to chastise the Indians who were friends to the English for "their perfidy.

"We were still, however, distrustful and apprehended being surprised where we "were, as much from the English as from the Indians their friends. For this reason we "resolved to settle in the place we now oeeupy, and which as you see is of sufficiently "difficult access for all who have not been brought up among the Indians. We built

Apres cela c'est a dire pendant les trois jours que nous restames dans cette maison je voulus nr'informer exactement de mon nepveu et en la presence de Mrs. les Anglois de ce quy s'estoit passé entr'eux depuis que j'estois party du pays et scavoir comment et de quelle manière jl y avoit eu deux anglois tues sur quoy mon nepveu ayant pris la parolle jl me parla en ses termes.

Quelques jours apres vostre depart en l'année 1683 le 27 juillet quantité de coups de eanon que nous entendimes tirer du costé de la grande riviere nous firent cognoistre qu'il y avoit quelque navire anglois qui estoient arrives en effet ayant envoyé trois de mes hommes pour le scavoir et tacher de decouvrir leur dessein j'appris d'eux a leur retour que c'estoit deux navires anglois et qu'ilz avoient fait rencontre de trois hommes de cette nation à une lieue de ses vaisseaux mais qu'ilz ne s'estoient pû parler s'estans contentes de se saluer les unes les autres.

Mais comme mon principal dessein estoit de decouvrir celuy des anglois et que mes hommes n'en avoient rien fait j'en renvoyay trois autres pour s'instruire de ce quy se passoit ces trois derniers estans arrives a la pointe quy est entre les deux Rivieres de Nelson et de hayes jiz firent rencontre de quatorze ou quinze sauvages charges de Marchandises ausquelz ayant demande d'ou jiz estoient et d'ou jiz venoient jiz auroient respondu que leur Nation habitoit le long de la Riviere appellée Neuv Savern qui estoit au sud de celle de hayes et qu'jiz venoient de traiter avec leurs freres quy estoient establis au fondz de la Baye apres quoy mes hommes leur avoient aussi ditc qu'y jiz estoient et ou jiz habitoient en les priant de venir fumer avec eux du tabac Le plus estime en ce pays la, a quoy jiz avoient volontiers consenty en leur faisant paroitre beaucoup de chagrin de n'avoir pas sceu plustost que nous estions Establis proche deux temoignans

"this house there in a few days with the assistance of the Indians, and for greater security we obliged some of them to spend the winter with us on condition of feeding them, in consequence of which we fasted part of the summer.

"During the winter nothing extraordinary happened, except that the Indians per"formed several acts of jugglery, to learn from their Manitou, who is a familiar spirit
"among them, if my father and uncle would come in spring, who answered that they would not fail and that they would bring with them all sorts of merchandise and "avenge themselves of their enemies. At the beginning of April, 1684, Indians from "the south coast arrived at our new habitation to trade for muskets: but as we had
"none they went to the English, who, as I subsequently learned, made them presents
"and promised them many other things if they would undertake to kill me with that one "of my men whom you see still wounded, and who speaks the language of the country
"like a native. These Indians, encouraged by the hope of gain, accepted the proposal "and promised to earry it out. For this purpose they managed to gain over one of the "Indians who were with us, who served them as a spy and informed them of every thing
"we were doing. However, they did not dare to attack us openly, as they were afraid "of us, and this is the reason they used other means; this is the way.

"The Frenchman whom you see wounded, having gone by my orders to the place where our friendly Indians were preparing smoked meat of the deer they had killed, to "tell them to bring me some, fell while chasing a deer on the barrel of his musket, so that he could not fire it without having it repaired. Having done this after arriving at "the place where the Indians were, he wished to prove it by firing a blank shot at some distance from their huts; but whilst he was preparing to do so, one of the Indians who had promised the English to kill him and me, and who, with some of his comrades, was "unknown among the others, fired and struck him on the shoulder. Immediately he "cried out that he was killed and it was for the men who loved the French to avenge him, which the Indians who were our friends hearing, they left their huts and pursued "the culprit, without his adherents daring to declare themselves; but that was not needed, for he had fled into the woods after having thrown away his musket and taken his bow and quiver.

"This proceeding extremely surprised the Indians of our alliance and obliged them to swear in their manner vengeance against this Indian nation as well as against the "English; but not having enough of muskets for an enterprise of so much consequence, "they resolved to wait till my father and uncle should come. However, they sent to "solicit all the nations who had sworn friendship to my father and uncle to come down to make war on the English and on the Indians of the south coast, representing that they were obliged to take our part since at other times they had taken our presents as a "sign of peace and friendship, and further that we were always men of courage and their brothers.

"As soon as these nations had received notice of the state in which we were they "resolved to relieve us with all their strength and whilst waiting the return of my father "and uncle, to send as hostages and as a mark of their courage, two of their young child-"ren. One of their most considerable chiefs was deputed to bring them to me. I re"ceived him suitably; he was the adopted father of my uncle and one of the best friends "of the French, of whom I made use to bring about an interview with the English, in "order to ascertain what was their final resolution.

"For this purpose I deputed this Indian chief to persuade the English to allow me to visit them and to obtain their promise that I would not be insulted either among them or on the road, for which this chief should remain as security. The English accepted the proposal and I paid them a visit with one of my Frenchmen, who brought the presents I desired to make them, in the Indian fashion, and who received others in return from them to me as is customary.

"We did not treat in any way at this interview concerning our affairs, for I discovered that the English attributed what had been done to us directly to the Indians. All the advantage I derived from this step was to enable the Indians, my friends, to "trade for muskets, which they wanted, although they cost me dear owing to the gratuity

Quelques jours apres les sauvages nos alliez et bons amis advertis par la fuméé de nos feux qui estoient nos signaux ordinaires arriverent a vostre maison sellon leur coutume lesquelz ayant appris mon aventure sans nous rien dire coururent apres les autres et les ayantz joins jlz les Invitterent au festin pour seavoir d'eux la verité des choses dont ayans esté jnformés mon beau frere adopté dit au chef quj m'avoit voulu assassiner ainsy que cela m'a este raporté, tu n'es point un homme puis qu'avec 15 des tiens tu n'as pu venir a bout de tuer un seul homme, a quoy l'autre respondit lierement et avec jmprudence, jl est vrai mais sy je l'ay manque cette automne avec 15 hommes jl n'eschapera point ce printemps a moy seul, il faut done repliqua mon beaufrere adopté que tu me fasse mourir le premier ear sans cela j'empecheraj ton mechant dessein sur quoj en estans venus aux mains le Chef Sauvage receut un eoup de bayonette dans l'estomae, et un coup de hache sur la teste jl tomba mort sur la place et a L'esgard des autres jlz ne recevrent aucun mauvais traitement, et en les laissa partir avec toutte sorte de literté en leur disant que s'ilz estoient dans le dessein de venger. La mort de leur chef jlz n'avoient qu'a parler et qu'on leur desclareroit la guerre.

Apres cette expedition ecs mesmes sauvages se partagerent en deux corps, et sans nous communiquer leurs desseins ils descendirent au lieu ou les anglois faisoient leur establissement les attaquerent et en tuerent quelques uns, de quoy jlz me vinrent Informer en me disans qu'ilz avoient tué une grande partie de mes eunemis pour me venger de la conjuration qu'ilz avoient faite contre moy et mes freres et qu'ilz estoient prez de sacrifier leurs vies pour mon service, en reconnoissance de quoy je les remerciay et leur fis un festin Les priant de n'en tuer pas davantage et d'attendre le retour de mon pere et de Mon oncle qui se vangeroient sur les anglois de l'insulte qu'ilz m'avoient faite faire, pendant que de leur part jlz cerchoient a chatier les sauvages amis des anglois de leur perfidie.

Nous estions cependant tousjours dans la défiance et nous apprehendions d'estre surpris a l'endroit ou nous estions tant de la part des anglois que de celle des Sauvages Leurs amis, c'est pourquoy nous resolumes de nous venir establir au lieu ou nous sommes presentement, et quy est comme vous voyez d'asses difficile accez pour tous ceux quy n'ont point esté eleves comme parmj les Sauvages nous y batimes cette maison en peu de jours avec l'assistance des Sauvages et pour plus grande seureté nous obligeames plusieurs d'entr'eux de passer l'hiver avec Nous a condition de les nourrir ce quy fut cause que nous jeusnames partie de Lesté.

Pendant l'hiver il ne se passa rien d'extraordinaire si ce n'est que les sauvages firent plusieurs Jonglerice pour scavoir de leur manitou qui est un esprit famillier parmi eux sj mon pere et mon oncle viendroient au printemps, lequel leur repondit qu'ilz nj manqueroient pas et qu'ilz apporteroient avec eux toute sorte de marchandise et de quoy se venger de Leurs ennemis.

Au commencement d'avril 1684 des sauvages du eosté du sud arriverent a nostre nouvelle habitation pour traiter de fusilz, mais comme nous n'en avions point jlz allerent aux anglois lesquelz a ce que j'ay appris dans la suitte leur firent des presens Et leur promirent beaucoup d'autres choses s'ilz vouloient entreprendre de me tuer avec celuj de mes hommes que vous voyez encore blessé. Et qui parle naturellement la langue du pays, ces sauvages encourages par l'esperance du gain accepterent la proposition et promirent de l'executer pour ee effet jlz trouverent moyen de gaigner un des Sauvages qui estoient parmi nous Lequel leur servit d'espion et les avertissoient de tout ce que nous faisions cependant jlz n'osoient nous attaquer a force ouverte par ce quilz nous apprehendoient et ce fut la raison pour laquelle jlz en userent autrement et voyez comment.

Le francois que vous voyez blessé estant allé par Mes ordres avec un de ses camarades à l'endroit ou les Sauvages nos amis faissoient bouean des cerfs qu'ilz avoient tues, pour leur dire de m'en apporter tomba en poursnivant un eerf sur le canon de son fuzil et le ferule ça de maniere qu'il n'en pouvoit tirer sans au préalable l'avoir redresse ce qu'ayant fait apres estre arrivé au lieu ou les sauvages estoient jl voulut En faire le preuve en tirant au blane a quelques distances de leurs cabanes, mais pendant qu'il se disposoit a cela un des Sanvages qui avoient promis aux anglois Sa perte et la mienne. et qui estoit incognu avec plusieurs de ses camarades parmi les autres luy tira un coup par la fuméé de ellon leur coupres les autres erité des choses oulu assassiner 15 des tiens tu rement et avec commes jl n'esere adopté que essein sur quoj lans l'estomac, des autres jlz ec un de ses qu'ilz avoient canon de son avoir redresse ut En faire le ndant qu'il se et la mienne, tira un coup "which I was obliged to give to those whom I had employed for this purpose but it "was important that I should have them, in order to prevent the Indians coming "from the interior to trade, from going to the English.

"The end of this visit was, that I promised at the solicitation of the governor of the English to visit them once more with my chief, after which we withdrew to our house, where I was warned by some dissatisfied Indians, not to visit the English any more, because they had resolved either to take me prisoner or to kill me. My chief having also learned this, told me he would no longer be security for the word of a nation, which kept none. For this reason we remained at home, a little more on our guard than formerly.

"At the same time Hayes river having become open, several detachments of friendly nations arrived to relieve us. The Assinipoetes alone were more than 400 men. They were descendants of the great Cristionaux, old acquaintances of my uncle and all ready to make war on the English, but I did not think proper that they should concern them selves in this, either directly or indirectly, because I wished to remain on the defensive, pending the return of my father and uncle and besides I knew that several other nations who loved the French would fly to our relief on the least signal.

"However the chief of the Assimipoctes not wishing to leave us, encamped round "our house, resolved to wait till the last moment. Of the return of my uncle he spoke incessantly, showing by a thousand different postures the joy he would have at sceing him again. He repeated often that he wished to show that he was worthy of the presents which the governor of Canada had formerly made him, by giving marks of his zeal for the service of the French.

"The want of provisions in their camp partly prevented the effect of this laudable resolution and obliged the chief of the Assimipoetes to send into his country 40 canoes, in which he had embarked 200 of his men, the weakest and least resolute. There remained an equal number of the most robust and of those inured to fatigue and hunger having determined to be content for their subsistence with certain small fruits which begun to ripen, in order to await the moon in which the spirit of the other savages had predicted my uncle's arrival, which they believed to be infallible because their superstitious custom is to give faith to everything their Manitou has predicted.

"They remained in this state until the end of the first quarter of the moon in which it had been predicted that my uncle would arrive but seeing no appearance of it, they believed their Manitou to be a Har and resolved to join with us and to divide into two companies to go to attack the English and the Indians from the south; and in case of success they would take up winter quarters with us, in order to burn the English ships during the winter so that in spring they would have a better footing. What contributed greatly to this determination was a notice given them that the English had formed a plan to seize and kill the French.

"Such imprudence on the part of the English was fitted to produce mischievous results, the nature of the Indians being never to wait for an enemy but to close on him. The chief of the Assinipoetes was preparing to march against the English with part of his people, when ten or twelve persons were seen on the north shore of the Hayes river looking for the same fruits on which the Indians had been living for some time. They believed it was the forerunner of the English and Indians from the south who, they supposed, had joined them.

"At the same time he made all his men take the bow and arrow, and having called "us he ranged his men in order of battle, and said: 'My plan is to cross the river "with two of the most courageous among you in order to attack the enemy and to "arrange you in such manner that you shall be in a condition to relieve or to receive "me, whilst the French form a reserve. Our women shall load in our canoes all their "offects and they shall burn their habitations should necessity require it, but before "undertaking this expedition I wish you to select a chief to command in my absence or or in case of death." This having been at once done, this brave chief told us to camp on the edge of the wood with our muskets to prevent the approach of the enemy and then he made his men march on the water side in order that they might be in a "condition to cross over to support or receive him according to necessity. After which,

de fusil et Luy perça l'espaulle d'une balle aussy tost il cria qu'on l'avoit tué et que e'estoit anx hommes qui aimoient les francois a vanger sa mort, ce que les sauvages qui nous estoient amis ayant entandu jlz sortirent de leurs cabanes et poursuivèrent Le Coupable sans que ses adhérans ozassent se desclarer mais cela fut Inutille, car il se sauva dans les bois apres avoir jetté son fuzil et pris en place son arc et son carquois.

Ce procédé surprit extremement les sauvages de nostre alliance et les obligea d'en jurer En leur manière La vengeance tant contre cette nation sauvages que contre les anglois mais n'ayant point assez de fusilz pour une entreprise de cette conséquence jlz resolurent d'attendre que mon pere et mon oncle fusse venus cependant jlz envoyerent soliciter touttes les nations qui avoient juré amitié à mon pere et à mon oncle de descendre pour faire la guerre aux anglois Et aux sauvages du costé du sud leur remontrans qu'elles estoient obligés de prendre nostre party puis qu'elles avoient autres fois pris nos presens, en signe de paix et de bonne amitié qu'au reste Nous Estions tousjours des hommes de courage Et Leurs freres.

Aussi tost que ces nations curent receu avis de l'estat auquel nous estions elles resolurent de nous secourir de toutes leurs forces et en attendant le retour de mon pere ou de mon oncle de nous envoyer En ostage et pour marque de leur courage deux de leurs jeunes enfans, un des chefz des plus considerable fut deputé pour me les amener, je le receus comme je devois, c'estoit Le pere adopté de mon oncle, Et un des meilleurs amis des francois duquel je trouvaj a propos de me servir pour menager une Entreveue avec les anglois afin de scavoir qu'elle pouvoit estre enfin leur Resolution.

Pour cela je deputay ce chef Sauvage vers Les anglois pour les persuader de souffrir que je les vizitasse et afin de prendre leur parolle quil ne me seroit point fait d'insulte nj chez eux nj le long de la routte, de quoy ce chef demeuroit garant les anglois acceptant la proposition et je leur fis visitte ayec un de mes francois quy apportoit Les presens que j'avois envie de leur faire a La maniere sauvage, et qui en receut aussy deux pour moj selon la coutume.

Nous ne traittames rien dans cette entreveue touchant nos affaires parceque je recognus que les anglois attribuoient directement a qui nous avoit esté fait, et ce qui avoit esté fait contreux au sauvages, tout l'aventage que je receus de cette demarche fut de faire traitter par des sauvages mes amis des fusilz dont il me manquoit quoy qu'ilz me coutassent chers par la grattification que j'estois obligé de faire a ceux que j'employois a cela, mais jl estoit important que j'en cusse afin d'empecher les sauvages quy descendoient des terres pour en traitter de passer jusqu'aux anglois.

La fin de cette visitte fust que je promis a la solicitation du gouverneur des anglois de les visitter encore une fois avec mon chef apres quoy nous nous retirames a nostre maison ou je fus adverty par quelques sauvages mecontents de n'aller plus voir les anglois par ce qu'ilz avoient resolu ou de m'arretter prisonnier ou de me faire tuer, ce que mon chef ayant aussy appris jl me diet qu'il ne vouloit plus estre garant de la parolle d'une nation quy n'en avoit point, ce quy fut cause que nous restames chez nous un peu mieux qu'auparavant sur nos gardes,

Dans ce mesme temps la riviere de hayes estant devenue libre plusieurs detachemens des nations qui nous etoient amies arrivoient pour nous secourir, Les assinipoetes seulz faisoient plus de 400 hommes jlz estoient des descendans des grandz cristionaux de l'ancienne connoissance de mon oncle Et tous prets a faire la guerre aux anglois, Mais je ne trouvaj pas apropos de les y Interesser directement n'y jindirectement parceque je voulois me tenir sur la defensive En attendant le retour de mon Pere ou de mon oncle, Et que d'ailleurs je scavois que plusieurs autres nations qui aimoient les francois plus particulierement que celle cy voleroient a nostre secours au moindre signal.

Cependant le chef des assinipoetes ne voulant point nous quitter jl se campa au tour de nostre maison vesolu d'attendre jusqua L'extremité le retour de mon oncle dont jl parloit jncessemmant faisant Eclater la jove qu'il auroit de le voir par mille postures differantes et jl repetoit souvant qu'il vouloit faire voir qu'il avoit estoit digne des presens que le gouverneur de canada luj avoit faits autres fois en donnant des marques de son zele pour le service des françois.

La necessité des vivres qui arriva dans leur Camp empecha en partie l'effet de cette Louable resolution et obligea le chef des Assenipoetes de renvoyer en son Pays tué et que sauvages qui suivèrent Le ur il se sauva ois.

rtie l'effet n son Pays "having erossed the river with two of the boldest men of his troop who, as well as him"self, had greased themselves from head to foot, each of them carrying only two daggers
"as arms, they resolved to go straight to the chief of the English, to present him a pipe
"of tobacco, as a mark of union, and that if he refused it, they would try to kill him
"and to force a passage through his men with their daggers to the place where they could
"cross the river to be supported by their men.

"But after having marched to the place where the persons were whom they had seen, "they saw it was women, after speaking to whom they returned, telling us it was a false "alarm. This proceeding of theirs gave us proofs of their conrage and friendship, and we had such confidence in their help that we were afraid of nothing from the English "nor the southern Indians. When God, who is the author of all things and who disposes of them according to his good pleasure, has done us the grace to cause my uncle to "arrive in this country to stop the course of these disorders and to labour for our reconciliation, this work, so much desired on both sides, would be finished."

It will not be my fault if it is not lasting—let us live in future as brothers in union and without jealousy. As for me, I am resolved on that, although my life may be sacrificed for the glory of the King of Great Britain, for the interest of the nation and for the advantage of the English Hudson's Bay Company.

I have thought it right to report the narrative which my nephew made of what had taken place between the English and the Indians their friends, because it shows the true condition in which the two parties were at the time of my arrival, the necessity for the English to be relieved and the need of the French for provisions and goods and above all things of muskets, which could be obtained only through my means. But it is time to resume the care of our affairs and give an account of our conduct.

Our people continued to labour with great application to transport the beaver half a league through the woods, for that was the road that must be taken from the house to the place of embarkation in canoes which discharged where the boats were to carry them to the small frigate which then carried them to the ships. I was always present at the work to animate all our people, who gave themselves no rest till everything was done, and that contrary to the hopes of the captains, who had been made to believe that there would be long delay, but having gone down to them I assured them that if they were ready they might get up their anchor next day.

Things being thus settled, it was only a question of executing a secret order given me by the company, relying, however, on my prudence. It was to retain in its service my nephew and some other Frenchmen and especially the one who spoke the Indian language like a native, that was the wounded man, and to oblige them to remain in the country during my absence, which I had not dared to promise. However, I resolved to make the proposal to my nephew, believing that after I had gained him over I could casily succeed with the others. For this purpose I called together five or six of the Indians held in the greatest consideration, with the governor, and in their presence I told him that for the glory of the King and the advantage of the company it was necessary for him to remain in the country. He was at first averse to this, but the governor having assured him that he would treat him as his own nephew and that he would share his authority, he became doubtful; having reproached him that he was not observing the oath of obedience which he had sworn to me, he came to a resolution, assuring us that he was ready to do what was desired of him. What contributed greatly to this was the speech which the Indians made him, saying that I left him among them to receive in my absence the marks of the friendship which they had sworn to me and that they would always regard him as the nephew of him who had brought peace to the nations and made a union of the English and French, rendering them by this means

This last success in my affairs was to me a proof of the authority which I had over the French and over the Indians, for my nephew no sooner declared that he would submit to do what I wished than all the other Frenchmen offered to remain in the country, although I intended to leave only two. All my beaver being embarked, I resolved, after having left everything in a state of tranquillity and assured of making my return to England, where my presence was absolutely necessary, to inform the company how it

40 canots dans lesquelz jl avoit fait embarquer 200 de ses hommes les plus foibles Et les moins resolus, Et il en resta avec luy un parreil nombre des plus robustes Et de ceux qui estoient faitz a la fatigue Et a la faim les ayant determinés a se passer de certaines petits fruits qui commencoient a meurir pour leur subsistance afin d'attendre la lune dans laquelle l'esprit des autres sauvages avoit predit l'arrivée de mon oncle, ce qu'ilz croyoient jnfaillible par ce que leur coutume supertisieuse est d'ajouter foy a tout ce quo leur manitou a predit.

Il demeurerent en cest estat jusqua la fin de premier quartier de la lune dans laquelle jl avoit esté predit que mon oncle urriveroit mais ne voyant nulle apparence a cela jlz crurent leur manitou menteur et resolurent Entreux de se joindre avec nous et de se partager en deux corps, pour aller attaquer Les anglois et les Sauvages du sud et qu'en cas qu'ilz m'enquassent leur coup jlz yverneroient pour brusler pendant l'hiver les navires anglois affin d'en avoir au printemps meilleure marche, ce qui contribun beaucoup à cette deliberation fut un advis qui leur fut donné que les anglois avoit fait dessein de venir serrer les francois pour les tuer.

Une telle imprudence de la part des anglois estoit capable de produire des meschans effets. Le genie des sauvages estant de n'attendre jamais l'ennemj mais au contraire de l'uller serrer, le chef des assinipoetes sur cet advis se disposoit a marcher contre les anglois avec partie de son monde quand dix ou doux personnes furent veues du costé du nord de la riviere de hayes cerchans de ces mesmes fruits dont les Sauvages vivoient depuis quelque temps, jlz crurent que c'estoit l'avant garde des anglois et des Sauvages du sud qu'ilz suposoient les avoir jointz.

En mesmes temps il fit prendre l'arc et la fleche a tous ses hommes et nous ayant fait appeler jl les rengea en battaille et leur dit mon dessein est de passer la riviere avec deux des plus courageux d'entre vous pour aller attaquer l'ennemj et de vous disposer de maniere que vous soyez en estat de me secourir ou de me recevoir pendant que les françois feront le corps de reserve, et que nos femmes chargeront dans nos canots tous leurs effetz, et qu'elles brusleront leurs habitations en cas que la necessité le veuille, mais auparavant que d'entrependre cette expedition je souhaitte que vous fassies e-lection d'un chef pour vous commander en mon absence ou en cas de mort ce qu'nyant esté fait dans le mesme moment ce brave chef nous dit de nous camper sur le bord du bois avec nos fusilz pour empecher l'approche a l'ennemj. Et ensuite il fit marcher ses hommes sur Le bord de l'eau afin qu'ils fussent en Estat de passer pour le soutenir ou de le recevoir selon la necessité apres quoy ayant passé la riviere avec deux hommes de plus hardis de sa troupe lesquelz s'estoient graissez depuis les piedz jusqu'a la teste aussy bien que Luj ayant chacun seulement deux poignardz pour armes, jlz resolurent d'aller droit au chef des anglois luy presenter une pipe de tabac pour marque d'union, et que s'il la refusoit jiz tacheroient de le tuer et de se faire passage au travers de ses hommes avec leurs poignards jusqu'au lieu ou jlz pourroient passer la Riviere pour estre soutenus de leurs hommes.

Mais apres avoir marché jusqu'a l'endroit ou estoient les personnes qu'ilz avoient veues jlz reconnurent que c'estoient des femmes auxquelles ayant parlé jlz revinrent sur leur pas en nous disant que c'estoit une fausse alarme ce procedé de leur part nous donna des preuves de leur courage Et de leur Amitié Et nous avions une telle confiance En leur secours que nous n'apprehendions aucune chose de la part des anglois nj de celle des Sauvages du sud, quand Dieu est L'autheur de toutes choses Et quj en dispose sellon son bon plaisir a fait la grace a mon onele d'arriver en ce pays pour arreter le cours de ces desordres Et travailler a nostre reconciliation cet ouvrage tant desiré de part et d'autre est achevé jl ne tiendra point a moj qu'il ne soient perdurable vivons desornais comme frere en bonne union Et sans jalousie car pour moy je suis resolu quoy qu'il puisse arriver de sacrifier ma vie pour la gloire du Roy de la grande Bretagne pour l'Interest de la nation et l'adventage de la compagnie angloise de la Baye de Hudson.

J'ay trouvé a propos de raporter le recit que mon neveu nous fit de ce qui sestoit passé Entre les anglois luj et les sauvages leurs amis parceque cela fait voir le veritable Estat dans lequel estoient les deux parties lors de mon arrivée le besoin que les anglois avoient d'estre secourus Et la necessité que les francois avoient de vivres et de Marchanshould act to profit advantageously by the solid establishment I had just made and what things it was indispensably accessary to have in the country to facilitate the trade with the Indians and to prevent them from trading with strangers, that is with the French of Canada.

I was then for the last time with my nephew at the habitation of our Frenchmen, in order to leave some Englishmen there, where I found a number of Indians arrived to visit me, who were to call my nephew and me into one of their cabins, when a venerable old man rose and spoke to me in these terms: "Porcupine head, thy heart is good and thou hast great courage to have made peace with the English for the love of us; here we are come to thee, old and young, women, girls and young children to thank thee for it and to acknowledge thee as our father; we wish to be thy children and to adopt for our son thy nephew, whom thou lovest so much and to give an eternal mark of the obligation we owe thee; we no longer weep henceforth, mless it be for the memory of those whose mane thou dost exalt." After this, having told one of his young men to speak he fell as it were into a swoon and the other spoke in this manner:

"Men and women, young people and children, even those who are at the breast, "acknowledge him who is here as your father, he is better than the sun who warms you "and you will find, always find in him a protector, who will assist you in your necessi-"ties and console you in your afflictions. Men! acknowledge that he gives you muskets "during the year to defend you against your enemies and to kill the animals to "nonrish you and your families. Women! consider that he gives you axes and knives. "with which you banish hunger from your country. Girls and children! no longer "fear, since he who is your father always loves you and from time to time gives you "what is necessary for your subsistence. We all together weep no more, but on the "contrary testify loudly our allegiance to him whose honour and courage we have seen." At the same time they shouted with all their strength, weeping bitterly and saying: "We have lost our fathers, but here is he whom we adopt as our father, we have lost "our children, but the nephew of our father will be our son, he remains with us and he "will take care of his mothers." After this doleful music they began, one after the other, to acknowledge our adoption and cover us with white beaver robes, giving us beavers' tails, bladders of the marrow of deer, several tongues of the same animal smoked, which is among them the most exquisite food; they presented us also with two large boilers full of smoked and boiled meat, of which we all ate together, that is, they, the English and we. This is called a feast, among these nations.

After this I bade them good-bye and having had loaded in the house what was to be embarked in the vessels, I went to the month of the river where Capt. Gazer was employed in having a fort built at the same place where the preceding year Mr. Bridgar had built the boat. It was the most advantageous place he could find for it. I saw that he was making all the diligence possible, but he had men who by their feebleness were unable to answer to his vigilance. I made this observation because I hold it as a maxim that only robust, intelligent, and capable men should be employed and that those who are of a weak constitution or who flatter themselves with obtaining protection and favour, should be dismissed.

We then went to the place where the ships were, because I intended by my presence to oblige the captains to get their ships ready to make sail. But I had no sooner arrived than an Indian came to notity me that my adopted father, whom I had not been able to see, he being at war, was waiting for me at the place where Capt. Gazer was building the fort of which I have just spoken, and I even made the Indian whom I was sending back to my father, to hope that the governor was coming with me to offer his friendship and to protect him during my absence. It was on the consent of the governor and on his word I said this. However, he broke his word, and for the first time I was made a liar among the Indians, which was of dangerous consequence, for these nations abominate that vice. However, nothing vexatious happened to me and

On arriving at the appointed place, I was told that my adopted father had left. For this reason I sent an Indian after him to notify him that I had come to see him. This Indian having met him obliged him to return, although he was sad at the news dises Et sur touttes chozes de fusil ce qui ne leur pouvoit venir que par mon moyen, mais jl est temps de reprendre le soin de nos affaires et de continuer a rendre comte de nostre conduitte.

Nos gens travailloient tousjours avec une grande application a transporter les castors une demie lieue au travers des bois car c'etoit le chemin qu'il falloit faire de la maison jusqu'au lieu ou on les embarquoit dans des canots qui s'en deschargoient au lieu ou estoient les chaloupes et celles cy les portoient a la petitte fregatte qui ensnitte les aportoit aux navires, j'estois tousjours present au travail afin d'animer tous nos gens lesquelz ne se donnerent point de relache que tout ne fut fait, Et cela contre l'esperance des capitaines de nos navires auxquelz on avoit fait accroire que cela traineroit de long mais est ant descendu vers eux je les assuraj que s'ilz estoient prestz jlz pourroient Lever l'anchre le lendemain.

Les choses ainsi disposées il ne s'agissoit plus que d'executer un ordre secret que la Compagnie m'avoit donné s'en raportant neantmoins a ma prudence c'estoit de retenir a son service mon nepveu Et quelques autres françois Et sur tout celui qui parloit naturellement sauvage qui estoit le blessé Et de les obliger a rester dans le pays en mon absence ce que je n'osois me prometre espendant je me resolus d'en faire La proposition a mon nepveu croyant qu'apres l'avoir gagné je viendrois facillement a bout des autres je fis assembler pour cet effet cinq ou six sauvages des plus considerables du pays avec le gouverneur Et en leur presence je luj dis que pour La gloire du Roy et l'aventage de la compagnie il estoit necessaire qu'il restat dans le pais a quoy il repugna d'abord mais le gouverneur L'ayant assuré qu'il le traitteroit comme son propre nepveu Et qu'il partageroit l'authorité qu'il avoit avec luy, il fut Ebranlé de maniere que luy ayant reprocné qu'il manquoit au serment d'obeissance qu'il m'avoit juréé il se determina en Nous asseurant qu'il estoit pres de faire ce qu'on souhaitteroit de luy, a quoy contribua beaucoup les discours que les sauvages luy firent en luy disant que je Le laissois parmj eux pour recevoir En mon absence les marques de l'amitie qu'ilz m'avoit juréé Ét qu'ilz le regarderoient tousjours comme le nepveu de celuj qui avoit aporté la paix aux Nations Et fait L'union des anglois et des françois En les rendant par ce moyen les freres des uns et des autres.

Ce dernier succez dans mes affaires me fut une preuve de l'authorité que j'avois sur Les francois et sur les sauvages car mon nepveu n'eust pas plustost desclaré qu'il se soumettroit a faire ce que je voudrois que tous les autres francois s'offrirent a l'envy de rester dans le pais quoi mon dessein fut de n'en laisser que deux. Tous mes castors s'estans trouves embarques je me resolus, apres avoir mis toutes choses dans un estat tranquille et assuré de faire mon retour en angre ou ma presence etoit absolument necessaire pour faire cognoistre a Mrs. de la compagnie de quelle maniere ji en falloit agir pour profiter adventageusement de l'establissement solide que je venois de faire Et les choses qu'il estoit d'une necessité jndispensable d'avoir dans le pays pour faciliter la traitte des sauvages Et les empecher d'en faire aucune avec des etrangers c'est a dire avec les françois du canada.

Je fus donc pour la derniere fois avec mon nepveu a l'habittation de nos francois afin d'y Laisser quelques anglois, ou je trouvaj quantité des sauvages arrives pour me venir visiter Lesquelz furent appeler mon nepveu. After he had embraced me and learned the circumstances of this affair and the consequences which might follow, I wrote to the governor to come to the place where we were in order to prevent the continuance of these disorders, in virtue of the treaty of peace and union which I had made in the presence of the Indians between the French and the English.

The Governor having arrived. I presented to him my adopted father; that as he was the chief of the nation who inhabited the place where the fort was building, I had made him zome small presents through Capt, Gazer, and that it was proper he should do the same, because I had promised him the previous year what I had not given. The Governor took this in bad part and was irritated even against the chief, without any reason, unless it was that he was my adopted father. I learned afterwards that he was annoyed because on my arriv. I had not given any presents to a common Indian, who served him as a spy, and was son of the chief called "The Bearded," which would have been a horrible extravagence; for, besides the Governor being inferior to me, I was not obliged to acknowledge his favourite, and I have never made presents except to the chiefs of these nations.

Nor was it for the Governor to censure my conduct. I had independent orders, which gave me the right to resent the outrage he had done me, but the service of my King and that of the company being in question, I kept silence. [There is a blank in the original.] If I had openly spoken my sentiments to a man who was to command all those who were remaining in the country after my departure, it might have drawn contempt on him. I satisfied myself then with showing him the inconveniences which might arise from the indifference he affected to have for the chiefs of the Indian nations and I even urged him to change immediately his conduct towards my adopted father, not from that consideration, but because, as I have said, he was chief of the nation which inhabited the place where we intend to settle, which he promises me to allow. After this I went on board of our ship.

My nephew, who had remained at the fort with the Governor, having learned that the ships were ready to sail, came to me with the Frenchmen whom I had resolved to leave in Canada, to say good-bye. It was in company with the Governor they took their journey, during which, as I learned from my nephew, he testified more friendship for them than he had yet done, assuring them they would never want anything and that from consideration to me they would receive the same treatment as himself.

The conduct of my nephew and the other Frenchmen gave them no reason to doubt the sincerity of these protestations, or that there could be any suspicion of them being disturbed; my nephew and his interpreter had been solicited to remain in the country and had consented to do so without murmuring, because I had taken on myself the care of their interests in England. That was done in the presence and by the persuasions of the Governor. However, a surprising change took place by the caprice, inconstancy and wicked conduct of the same Governor. I arranged to leave with the other Frenchmen, when the Governor, having gone on board the small frigate, made a signal to hold a council of war. On this the captains and I went on board, in which my nephew followed us, remaining on the poop whilst the officers and I were in the cabin, where the Governor asked us if we had any valid reason against his returning in the ships all the Frenchmen who were in the country, to which the others having said nothing, I was obliged to speak in these terms:—

"On leaving England I received a verbal order from the company, and in particular "from Sir James Hayes, to leave in the country in which we are as many French as I "thought proper for the benefit and advantage of the company. On this, I resolved to "engage my nephew and his interpreter to remain there, and I have taken every care to "obtain the consent of the Governor, who now demands that they be sent back as people "who have apparently become suspected by him. I have always believed, and still "believe, that their presence in this country was useful and even necessary to the Apres cela je leur dis adieu et ayant fait charger dans la maison ce qui devoit estre Embarqué dans les vaisseaux je descendis a l'embouchure de la rivière ou le capre Gazer travailloit a faire batir un fort au mesme endroit, ou l'annéé precedente le sr bridgar avoit faict construire la chaloupe, c'estoit la situation la plus avantageuse qu'il en put trouver Et je reconnus qu'il faisoit toute la diligence possible, mais il avoit des hommes quy par leur delicatesse estoyent Incapable de respondre a sa vigilance, je fais cette observation par ce que je tiens pour maxime qu'on ne doibt employer que des hommes robustes entendus et capables de servir et que ceux qui sont d'une complexion foible, ou qui se flattent d'avoir de la protection et de la faveur doivent estre congedies.

Ensuitte nous passames a l'endroit ou estoient les navires parce que mon dessein estoient d'obliger par ma presence les capitaines de rendre leurs vaisseaux prets a faire voile, mais je ne fus pas plus tost arrivée qu'un sauvage me vint advertir que mon pere adopté que je n'avois pu voir a cause qu'il estoit a la guerre m'attendoit au lieu ou le capitaine Gazer faisoit batir le fort dont je viens de parler, c'est pourquoy je resolus d'y aller Et je fis mesme esperer au Sauvage que je renvojaj pour en donner advis a mon pere que le gouverneur viendroit avec moy pour luj faire des amities et le proteger en mon absence, c'estoit du consentement de ce gouverneur Et sur sa parolle que je luj avois dit cela cependant jl me manqua de parolle et je fut pour la première fois trouvé menteur parmi les sauvages ee qui estoit d'une dangereuse concequence en ces nations ont un abomination ce vice, neanmoins jl ne m'arriva rien de facheux et je ne receus pas mesme un reproche.

Quand je fus arrivé au rendez-vous on me dict que mon pere adopté en etoit party ce qui fut cause que j'envoyaj un sauvage apres hij pour l'advertir que j'estois venu Le voir, ce sauvage l'ayant rencontré l'obligea a revenir quoy que fort triste d'une nouvelle qu'il avoit apprise en ch-min qui estoit que Le chef de la nation qui liabite le haut de la riviere de Neu savern nomme le barbu Et un de ses filz qui estoient ses parans avoient esté tues en allant jusulter ceux d'entre les sauvages qui s'estoient mis en devoir de soutenir le francois qui avoit esté blessé par un sauvage gagné par les anglois apres qu'il m'eut embrassé Et appris les circonstances de cette alfaire, Et les suittes qu'elle pouvoit avoir, j'escrivois au gouverneur de se rendre au lieu ou nous estions affin d'empecher la continuation de ces desordres En vertu du traitté de paix et d'unnon que j'avois fait en la presence des Sauvages entre les francois et les anglois.

Le Gouverneur estant arrivé je luy prescutaj mon pere adopté et luy dis que comme c'estoit le chef quy commandoit la Nation quy habitoit au lieu ou on batissoit le fort je luj avois fait faire quelques petis presens par le eapne Gazer, et qu'il Estoit aussy apropos qu'il luy en fit, par ce que je luj en avois promis l'annéé precedente que je ne luj avois point donné ce que le gouverneur trouva fort mauvais et jl s'irrita mesme contre ce chef sans aucun sujet sj ce n'est qu'il estoit mon pere adopté et que j'aj appris depuis qu'il estoit faché de ce que lors que j'estois arrivé je n'avois pas donné a un simple sauvage qui luj servoit d'espion qui estoit filz de ce chef appelle barbu de presens

"company and that it was difficult to pass them over, because they are known by all the "nations. It is also on them I have relied for the safety of the goods remaining in the "habitation of the French, because without their assistance, or their presence, they will "be exposed to pillage. However, I do not presume to oppose the execution of the pro-"position which the governor has just made us. He is free to do as he will, but he will "not make me subscribe to his resolutions so long as I shall see them to be directly "opposed to those of the company, to my instructions and to my experience. On the "contrary, I will protest before God and man against all that he shall do, because after "what he has told us it is impossible that he should produce anything of advantage to "his masters, and it is in vain to give him good advice for he has not the intelligence to "receive it, as he is still making an attempt which he wishes me not to oppose."

This declaration would undoubtedly have made some impression on a mind not puffed up with the imaginary quality of governor. But, on the contrary, he fortified himself in his resolution and requested me to tell my nephew to embark with the other Frenchmen, without considering that he had not time to obtain his clothes nor several bonds due to him in Canada which remained at the house of the Frenchmen, which I made him abandon in order to obey, although I was in a position to satisfy him for them because I had the hope that the company would make up the whole to him.

The council was about to finish after that, but the Governor, apprehending that he would not be obeyed by the Frenchmen, wished to give an order to the captains to seize and embark them all. He had even the insolence to put me first in his list, as if I was suspected or guilty of anything. Capt. Bond, having noticed this, told him that he would not undertake his order—that I should be excepted, because he had seen nothing in me but attachment for the service of his masters and that the establishment we had made and the advantages arising to the company were due to my cares. That obliged him to make a new list, and so ended a council of war held against the interest of those who had given the power to eall it.

Many persons who have a knowledge of the Indian nations of the north and the prejudiee undoubtedly eaused by this imprudent governor against the company attribute his proceedings to want of experience or to some private hatred that he might have against the French. Whatever it may be, I am not of that opinion and I believe that his timidity and want of courage gave rise to all he did, through his apprehension that the French would undertake something against him and what confirms me in this idea is the precaution he took to prevent the French from speaking to any one after the day of the council, for he had them watched from the mement we left. I noticed also that he would not have failed to put my nephew in irons if he had had the least pretext. But knowing the governor's wicked design I made my nephew as well as the other French understand that we were going to England and that they must not leave the vessel as we were ready to sail at any moment.

Although this change surprised my nephew and his interpreter, they, nevertheless, did not appear dissatisfied, especially when I assured them as well as the other Frenchmen that they would receive every sort of satisfaction in England and that they would not suffer either in their persons or their claims. I then left them in the ship and having embarked in the frigate, we were run ashore at two leagues from the place where they were at anchor, to take on board some goods which had remained on shore, with more speed than we could have made with the ships. Having happily succeeded, we came to rejoin the ships where they were at anchor in one of which my nephew and the other Frenchmen had remained during that time, without taking the least step although they were in a position to undertake anything, as they could easily have made themselves masters of the two ships and burned them, neither having more than two men and a cabin-boy, after which they could, also without danger, have crossed to the south side with the Indian canoes which were on the north shore and then make themselves masters of their house and goods which were guarded by only two men. But to do this, they must have doubted all I had said, and to be as ill-intentioned towards the company's service as it would be to the governor. This they were not eapable of after having submitted and taken the oath of fidelity as they had done.

Dailleurs ce n'estoit point à ce gouverneur a censurer ma conduitte j'avois des ordres san dependence quy me mettoient en droit de me ressentir de l'outrage qu'il m'avoit fait, mais s'agissant du service de mon Roy Et de celuy de la compagnie je passay Le tout sous silence (lacune) que sj j'avois dit mes sentiments ouvertement a un homme quy apres mon depart devoit commander sur tout ceux quy restoient dans le pays, cela lui auroit pû attirer du mepris, je me contentaj done de luy faire cognoistre les inconveniens quy pouvoyent arriver de l'indifference qu'il affectoit d'avoir pour les chefs des Nations sauvages, et je l'exhortay mesme de changer sur l'heure de conduitte à l'égard de mon pere adopté non pas par cette considération mais parcequ'il estoit, comme je L'aj dit chef de la nation qui liabitoit a l'endroit ou nous nous pretendions etablir ce qu'il me promit de faire apres quoy je me rendis abord de nos navires.

Mon nepveu qui estoit reste au fort avec le gouverneur ayant appris que les Navires Esterent prets a partir se rendit aupres de moy avec les francois que j'avois resolu de laisser en canada pour me Dire a Dicu Et ce fust a la compagnie de ce Gouverneur qu'ilz firent la routte pendant laquelle a ce que j'ay appris de mon Nepveu jl leur temoigna plus d'amitié qu'il n'avoit encore faiet les asscurant qu'ilz ne manquereroit jamais de rien

Et qu'a ma consideration ilz recevroient le mesme traittement que Luy.

La conduitte que mon nepveu Et les autres francois avoient tenue ne leur donnoit point sujet de douter de la sincerité de ces protestations, jls ne croyoient point non plus qu'on a eust avoir aucun soubçon de mefiance sur eux, mon nepveu Et son jnterprete avoient esté sollicites de rester dans le pays pour le service de la Compagnie et ilz y avoient consenty sans murmure par ce que je m'etois chargé du soin de leurs jnteretz en Angre cela s'estoit passé en la presence Et par les persuasions du gouverneur cependant voiey un changement surprenant quy arrive par le caprice l'inconstance Et la mechante conduite de ce mesme gouverneur, je me disposois a partir avec les autres francois quand le gouverneur estant allé abord de la petite fregatte fit faire un signal pour tenir conseil de guerre sur cela les capitaines des vaisseaux et moy nous rangeames a bord ou mon nepveu nous suivit restant sur la Lunctte pendant que les officiers et moy estions dans la chambre ou ce gouverneur nous demanda d'abord sj nous avions quelques raisons valable pour Empecher qu'il ne renvoyast dans les vaisseaux tous les francois qui estoient dans le pays a quoy tous les autres n'ayant rien diet je fus obligé de parler en ces termes.

A mon depart d'Angre je recevs un ordre verbal de la compagnie et en particulier du sre James hayes de laisser dans le pays ou nous sommes autant de françois que je trouverois a propos pour le bien et avantage de la compagnie, j'ay sur cela resolu d'engager mon nepveu et son juterprette d'y rester, et j'en suis venu a bout par me soins du consentement du gouverneur qui demande aujourdhuy qu'ilz soyent renvoyez comme des gens qui apparemment luy sont devenus suspectz en bien faisant j'ay toujours creu et le croy encore que leur presence en ce pays etoit utile Et mesme necessaire à la compagnie Et qu'il Estoit difficile de se pouvoir passer d'eux parcequ'ils sont cognus de touttes les nations c'est aussy sur eux que j'aj fondé la seureté des marchandises qui sont restéés a L'habittation des françois parceque sans leur assistance ou leur presence elles seront Exposées au pillage cependant je ne pretend point de m'opposer au dessein que le gouverneur a de faire executer la proposition qu'il vint de nous faire jl est libre de faire ce qu'il voudra, mais jl ne me fera point souscrire a ses resolutions tant que je verraj qu'elles scront directement opposées a celles de la compagnie a mes jnstructions Et a mon Experience, au contraire je protesteraj devant Dieu Et devant les hommes contre tout ce qu'il fera par ce qu'apres ce qu'il nous a dit, il est impossible qu'il produise rien davantageux pour ses maistres et c'est en vain qu'on luy donneroit de bons conseilz. car il n'a pas l'esprit de les concevoir qu'il fasse encore un coup ce qu'il voudra je ne m'oppose a rien.

In fine, having suffered from the governor many things in respect to my honour and probity and also much fatigue, inconvenience, trouble and care in my person to accomplish my design and having fortunately succeeded in getting everything embarked in the ships and being on board we set sail on the 4th of September, 1684, and arrived in the Downs, without anything happening worthy of notice, on the 23rd of October of the same year.

My impatience to inform the gentlemen of the company of the happy return of their vessels and that I had acquitted myself in the service of the king and for their own interest of all the engagements into which I had entered, obliged me the same day to take horse to go to London, where I arrived at midnight, but this did not prevent me from informing Mr. Yonge, one of the partners of the company, of everything. Next morning he came to my lodging and did me the honour of presenting me to His Majesty and to His Royal Highness, to whom I gave an account of what I had done, and in testimony of their satisfaction at my zeal and fidelity to their service, these great princes gave orders to Mr. Yonge to tell his company to take care of me, and to acknowledge my services, as well in respect to my interests as to the reward I had justly deserved.

I then withdrew, and a few days after, believing I would receive from the partners of the company a general approbation, I was surprised to learn that the honour I had had of paying my respects to the King and to His Royal Highness had offended some members of the company, who still continue opposed to the resolutions it is necessary to take for the glory of His Majesty and the advantage of the company and of the sans considerer qu'il n'avoit point assez de temps pour aller cercher ses hardes ny plusieurs obligations qui lui sont devés En canada qui estoient restées a la maison des francois et que je luj fis abandonner pour obeir quoy que je fusse en estat de luy faire faire raison Et cela dans lesperance que la compagnie la luj feroit toute entiere.

Le conseil alloit finir apres cela, mais le gouverneur apprehendant de n'estre point obey des francois voulut donner un ordre aux capnes de se saisir de tous Et de les Embarquer il eut mesme l'insolence de me metttre le premier dans sa liste comme si l'estois soupeonné ou coupable de quelque chose, de quoy le capitaine Bond s'estant appercu il luy dit qu'il ne se chargeroit point de son ordre que je n'en fusse Excepté par ce qu'il n'avoit rien reconnu en moy que beaucoup d'attachement pour le service de ses maistres. et qu'on devoit a mes soins L'establissement que nous avions fait et Les avantages qui en revenoient à la compagnie, cela obligea de faire une autre liste, et ainsy finit un conseil de guerre tenu contre les Intherests de ceux qui avoient donne le pouvoir de l'assembler.

Beaucoup de personnes qui auront la cognoissance des nations sauvages du Nord Et du prejudice que la conduitte de cet Imprudent gouverneur aura sans contredit eausé a la compagnie attribueront son procedé au defaut d'experiance, ou a quelque haine, particuliere qu'il pouvoit avoir contre les françois quoy qu'il en soit je ne suis point de ce sentiment La, et je croy que sa timidité Et son manque de courage ont donné lieu a tout ce qu'il a fait par apprehension qu'il a Eu que les francois n'entreprissent quelque chose contre Luj et ce qui me confirme dans cette penséé Est la precaution qu'il a eue d'empeeher que les francois ne parlassent a personne depuis le jour de conseil car il les fit observer du moment que nous en fumes sortis Et je recognus mesme qu'il n'auroit point manqué de faire mettre aux fers mon nepveu s'il en avoit eu le moindre pretexte mais connaissant son mechant dessein je luj fis entendre aussy bien qu'a tous les autres francois que nous allions En Angre et qu'il ne falloit point sortir du vaisseau par ce que nos estions a tout momant pretz a partir.

Quoy que changement surprit mon nepveu et son interprete neantmoins ilz n'en parurent pas mescontans sur tout quand je les eu asseurés aussy bien que les autres francois qu'ilz recevroient toute sorte de satisfaction en Angre et qu'ils ne leur seroit fait aucun tort en leurs personnes ej en leurs pretentions, je les quittay ensuitte dans le navire et m'estant embarqué dans la fregatte nous fumes eschouer a deux licues de l'endroit ou ilz estoyent a l'anchre pour prendre quelques effets qui estoient restes a terre avec plus de diligence que nous n'aurions pu faire avec les vaisseaux ce qu'ayant reussi heureusement nous vinsmes rejoindre les navires au lieu ou jlz estoient a l'anchre dans l'un Desquels mon nepveu. Et les autres francois estoient restes pendant ce temps la sans avoir fait la moindre demarche quoy qu'ilz fussent en etat de tout entreprendre parce qu'ilz pouvoient facilement se rendre maistres des deux navires Et Les brusler ni ayant partout que deux hommes. Et un garcon de chambre dans chacun apres quoy ilz pouvoient aussy sans danger passer a terre du costé du sud avec les canot sauvages quy estoient au bord du costé du Nord Et ensuitte se rendre les maistres de leur maison et de leurs marchandises qui n'estoient gardéés que par deux hommes, Mais pour en venir la il falloit douter de tout ce que je leur avoit dit Et estre aussy mal intentionnes pour le service de la compagnie que l'estoit le gouverneur Et e'est de quoy jlz n'estoient poient capables nj les uns nj les autres apres s'estre soumis et avoir presté le serment de fidelité comme il avoit fait.

Enlin apres avoir souffert en mon honneur Et en ma probité beaucoup de choses de la part du gouverneur Et bien des fatigues d'incommodites de peines Ét des soins en ma personne pour venir a bout de mon dessein ayant heureusement reussy a tout ce qui devoit estre Embarqué dans les Navires Estant abord nous fismes voile le 4 jour 7 bre 1684 Et arrivames aux dunes sans qu'il nous arrivast aucune chose qui merite d'estre raporté le 23 Octobre de la mesmes année.

L'Impatience que j'avois d'apprendre a Messieurs de la compagnie l'heureux retour de leurs vaisseaux et que je m'estois acquité pour le service du Roy et leur propre Interest de tous les engagemens dans lesquelz j'étois entré m'obligea de monter a cheval le mesme jour pour me rendre a londres ou j'arrivey a l'heure de Minuiet ce qui ne m'empecha point de faire avertir de toutes choses le Sr escuyer Yong l'un des interressez en

NOTE B.

Observations upon an Establishment proposed to be made on the Isle of Sable, for the relief of the distressed, and the preservation of Property.

From the situation of that Island, with hidden, irregular Shoals projecting to distances that may take up Vessels in the Night, or in thick weather in day light, before the Island can he seen from the Mast Head, it must prove fatal to many, in passages from Europe to North America, and from the West Indies to the British Colonies; subject to various incidents and currents, that too often occasion a fatal difference between the real situation of the Ship, and that by a reckoning kept in the ordinary way practised in the Merchant Service. Recurring to Facts, which furnish a melancholy account, and lamentable List of Lives and Property that have perished, and been totally lost on that Island, for want of timely assistance and relief: and that List evidently increases, and must be expected to increase, in proportion as the intercourse and navigation may be increased between the countries in Europe and America, and from British America to the West Indies, in the Track of which the Isle of Sable lies; and has so often proved a fatal interruption—or antil some permanent establishment is formed under suitable regulations, and who may be unfortunately cast on its Shores. Humanity and prudence, as well as Policy, unite in recommending such a measure. In adopting it, care should be taken that the very contrary to the purpose proposed, may not take place.

The first step in such an undertaking must be to induce Families to reside on the Island, by the encouragement and reward of Pay and Provisions from Government. Should those Families be on a Footing of equality, or nearly so, either in Interest or Authority, the best intention might be defeated, if not produce a contrary consequence. The public cannot give such encouragement as will make it an object to any other than Families in the lower classes of Life, to resign themselves to so solitary and dreary a Banishment, and seclusion from the World both Summer and Winter: And whatever care and judgment could be exercised in selecting people who supported fair good characters in the community-whatever restraint their Instructions might lay them under—and however liberal their encouragement from Government might be—yet such people, finding themselves long, and far removed from Society; secure from immediate detection or the probability of future discovery; and led from their situation to ruminate and converse on the many accounts of what has been done; and what they night imagine more practicable and with greater safety in their insular Station; it might be feared that, notwithstanding all their inducements to good conduct, they would on some occasions relax a little; and by imperceptible degrees, finally yield to the Superior temptation of acquiring wealth by the shortest method; presenting itself at a moment when they were weary of a lonely residence, on a desolate Island; and impatient to return to Society. It but too often happens that few persons only get on shore alive; and they in a bruised, wounded and spent condition; and sometimes with little signs of Life-Persons in such a state of misery (instead of being suffered to expire from careless treatment, by those who may consider their own interest promoted more by the unfortunate sufferer's death than by his recovery) require the most active exertions at the earliest moment possible, and a faithful continuance of hospitable object contemplated in such an Establishment, it is most respectfully submitted—for consideration:—

That a Gentleman of respectability and character, who is also a Man of Business, or at least a good accountant, should be appointed commandant of the Island; with kindness and attention, until a removal from the Island can be effected. In order, therefore, to ensure as nearly as may be, an effectual attainment of the benevolent such an Author y from the Governor of Nova Scotia, as may be thought necessary: and a Salary of Two hundred Pounds per annum, and full Rations.

The Commandant to have under his Command six men, hired by the year: at Fifty Pounds Wages, and Rations to each.

The Commandant to be appointed during Pleasure, and to be answerable for the Conduct of the six men, who, in order to ensure their obedience, he to engage, discharge and replace at pleasure, And the duty of the Commandant to be, a strict and faithful compliance with all such orders as he shall receive, in a Warrant of General Instructions, and from time to time, from the Governor of Nova Scotia; to whom he is to be accountable, and to make reports as he may be directed in his Instructions, or otherwise,

All property saved to be kept in a Ware House, in such distinct and regular manner as to prevent confusion and uncertainty by mixing the cargoes of different Vessels, and Government, being at the expense of this establishment, to be entitled to a salvage for all the property that shall be thus saved; whether belonging to underwriters, or to individual proprietors; or whether any person is saved from the wreck or not. And property not claimed after being advertised in the Halifax Newspapers for a limited time, shall be totally disposed of for the use of Government.

A Building to be erected on the Island consisting of three suitable apartments, with a fire place in each: One for the Commandant, and to receive such Gentlemen passengers and Captains of Vessels as may be cast on the Island: Another for the six men: and to receive the Crews of the Vessels; and the third for the reception of Women, Children and Families; with proper places for cooking. Also a suitable Ware House to Store Provisions; and the property that may be saved from Stranded Vessels, Four Boats of different sizes; and of the construction well understood, and very skilfully built in this harbour for the different uses that occasion may require. There should also be a low Broad wheeled light Waggon, with Harness for Four Horses (which might be caught and tamed on the Island) and also a dozen stands of Arms and a proportion of Ammunition, to enable the Commandant with his six Men and any others that misfortune may put under his protection, to repel the attempts of Marauders, Allured by the prospects of plunder-And it would be advisable to have in store, twelve suits of Sailors dress, with warm caps, Great Coats, and Mittens, in readiness for any particular occasion, of uncommon exertion in cold and severe weather; or for the temporary use of men who may be cast on shore naked; and who by being comfortably clad, might not only be saved from suffering, but rendered serviceable in aiding to relieve others, or assisting in the preservation of property. A small chest of cordial and some few other Medicines, would also be necessary.

The Commercial Interests of Great Britain; and the numerous Vessels of War, Transports with Troops, provisions and Stores of all denominations, which are yearly increasing; suggest that this Establishment should be under the Control of, and made and Maintained by Great Britain; more especially as the Island is within the British Dominion; being an Appendage or Dependancy of the Province of Nova Scotia-from whence it must be furnished, supplied, supported and Governed; under Instruction from His Majesty's Ministers; to whom reports must be made through the Governor of that Provin e. The benefit that such an Establishment would extend to the Eastern States of America, in the relief that it would afford to their Subjects; and the preservation of the property of their Merchants, make it probable that they would willingly Contribute a proportion of the expense; if His Majesty's Ministers approved of such a connexion for that purpose.

Besides the Annual Salaries and cost of the Provisions allowed in Rations, the contingent Expences might be expected to amount to Four Hundred Pounds a year. The cost of erecting Buildings, furnishing Boats, Arms, and Ammunition Medicine chest, spare Clothing, Waggon and such like Articles; and transporting and placing the Settlers on the Island, would probably amount to Fifteen Hundred Pounds. What would be the Amount of salvage, and other property, sold for the account of Government, must be uncertain; but from the history of Shipwrecks, and account of valuable Cargoes totally lost on that Island; a principal part of which would have been saved, if such an Establishment had been formed, it is very generally believed that Govern ment would not finally sustain a loss by this benign undertaking. The customary Salvage upon the part which might have been saved, of the several valuable Cargoes known to have been totally lost on the Island for several years past, would have reinbursed the expence of forming the Establishment, and supporting it during that period.

If the Settlement proposed was effected, the Island itself would yield some encouragement to its continuance; in the probable establishment of as many Families, as there would be men employed in the Undertaking; who might draw support from the cultivation and improvement, of those parts of the Land that produce coarse Grass and some good clover; and will grow potatoes, Turnips, pease, and other vegetables, and has a plenty of fresh Water. Formerly there were neat Cattle, Sheep and Goats, as well as Horses that found abundant support, spontaneous on the Island. During the last War all but the Horses were pillaged, or destroyed by Maranders. Horses still remain and are very Two Men casually left unprovided for on the Island, supported themfat in Summer. selves from September to May last, on Horseflesh, Cranberries and Birds: In addition to what may be produced by cultivation, and feeding neat Cattle and Sheep, Hogs and Poultry; there is a small, but profitable Scal fishery; and considerable benefit in collecting Feathers, from the vast quantity of Sea Birds, that resort to the Island in particular seasons; some advantage may be had in catching Cod and other Fish at a little distance from the shores: And had there been such an Establishment as before suggested, it would have been so much their duty and interest to have been out in Boats, that it is almost a certainty they would have been seen by the Frances Transport, before the storm came on that caused her destruction, and the loss of such a property, and so many valuable People,

I have lately sent some Goats and Hogs to the Island; and intend as soon as possibled to add some sheep and neat cattle, to commence a breeding stock, for relief of those who may be shipwrecked there.

The Sands around the Island are shifted by every storm, which frequently brings to view forty or more old wreeks, that were entirely buried the preceeding day; and from time to time discovers numerous wreeks on every part of the Beach. Whether a Light House can be usefully erected on any part of the Island, and where: can only be determined upon by experience, and observation, as occasion may offer. At present it is imagined, that in many places ships would be taken up before they could see a light on any part of the Island. However such Light might in some instances be serviceable, in case the Crew should take to their Boats, and perchance get within sight of it; and thereby ascertain their situation.—This also is a Circumstance for future consideration, and the result of information.

The Statement of Facts in the Paper herewith inclosed No. 24 may be relied upon as correct, which, together with the foregoing Observations are humbly, and most respectfully submitted.

J. WENTWORTH.

STATEMENTS OF FACTS RELATING TO THE ISLE OF SABLE.

Ever since the Commerce of America began to assume any appearance of respectability, scarce a year has passed, but Vessels of some description or other have been lost on this Island. Of late years the Trade of the British Colonies, which is rapidly increasing, has greatly suffered by similar disasters. To remedy this evil, humane men have at different periods been induced to cause animals to be landed on the Island, for the subsistence of such unfortunate persons as might survive the wreck of their Vesssels. The most conspicuous among those who have deserved the thanks of the unfortunate by such spontaneous acts of benovolence, was Thomas Hancock, Esqr., formerly a most respectable Merchant of Boston. This Gentleman fitted out a Schooner upwards of 40 year ago, on board of which he embarked Horses, Cows, Sheep, Goats, Hogs and Animals likely to live on the Island. Those were landed there, and generally answered very well. No great depredations were made on them till the commencement of the American War, during the course of which, privateers men, and lawless persons of every description of respecta ve been lost idly increasnen have at r the subsiss. The most y such sponrespectable 40 year ago, nmals likely y well, No erican War, y description frequently landed on the island, and by the close of the War none of the Animals remained except a number of Horses. These Horses have been the means of affording food to many unfortunate persons who have since been thrown on the Island. But so cruel and unfeeling of late years have been a number of wretches, as to have taken Cargoes of those Horses from the Island, and carried them for Sale to the West Indies. Many of them have been wantonly shot, by persons wintering on the Island for the purpose of wrecking, and their skins brought for Sale to this Town and other parts of the Province. By such means as these, the greater part of the horses have been destroyed, and unless some remedy is found, this last hope of the unfortunate Mariner, will be entirely cut off.

A few years ago a Brig belonging to Prince Edward Island, Mr. Benjamin Chadwell Master, was in a violent gale of wind, driven on the Island.—The storm abating soon after she struck; the Vessel did not go to pieces immediately, and the crew not only saved their lives, but by great exertions preserved 8 puncheons of Rum, a quantity of Sugar, and a variety of other Articles.—They were shipwrecked about Christmas, at this time Captain Chadwell, supposed there were, at least, 300 horses on the Island, and they found several of the young horses, which they killed for Subsistence in the Month of January, so fat as to make good meat.—Captain Chadwell, being a Man of observation, employed his time during the Winter in exploring the Island -It was a custom with him immediately after a storm had happened, to examine the part of the Island on which the storm had particularly operated. In doing this he has counted upwards of 40 wrecks, which had been uncovered by the storm, and not one of which was visible before the storm commenced. The Hulls of some of these Vessels were apparently whole, and lying in all situations.—The greater number exhibited only part of wrecks. --Out of several of them they obtained Articles which were useful to them. --In a few days a storm would spring up from an opposite quarter, cover these wrecks with Sand, and uncover as many more. By following this practice of exploring the Island after a Storm, he found there was no part of it free from wrecks, but that it was perfectly surrounded with them.—When, therefore, it is considered that the Island is 30 miles in length, and that though its breadth is aparently small on the map, yet that the Sands which surround, take up Vessels in some parts, more than 12 miles distant from it, the mind must be Struck with horror in contemplating the lives which have been lost out of those wrecks whose remains are still so visible—and still more so, when to this number of visible wrecks is added the unltitude of Vessels which have been lost here, gone to pieces, and the wind suddenly shifting, the remains of them, instead of being drifted on the Island, have been carried out to sea, and been no more heard of.

Captain Chadwell having saved some Tools, employed his crew during the Winter in building a Small Schooner from Timber taken from the wrecks. This they effected by the Spring—embarked the remains of the Cargo they had saved, and arrived safely in this Port.—Being cast on Shore in the Winter, and finding no hut to cover them, they suffered much before they could collect materials to build their Habitations. What consolation would it have been to them to have found some comfortable establishment on Shore—some friend to console them!

In the fall of 1796 a Ship from Glasgow, bound to New York was lost on this Island.—The Crew were saved and remained some time there.—At length the mate arrived here in one of the Ship's Boats and a Vessel was sent to bring off the remainder of the Crew.—They were employed in selling about the Town Articles which had been saved from the Wreck $-\Lambda$ considerable part of the Cargo was also found by Persons who were on the Island that Winter, some of which were afterwards offered for Sale:-This Ship did not go to pieces for a long time after she struck, and had there been a regular Establishment on the Island, the greater part of this Cargo might have been saved to the Underwriters.—This Property was insured in England for upwards of

In the Fall of 1798 the Brig Lord Duncan, Captain Wyat, from London to this Port, was lost on this Island. By his reckoning he supposed himself to be more than 50 leagues to the Eastward of the Island, nor could be believe till morning convinced him he was near it. He had been deceived by a strong Current, for which he had not ac counted in his reekoning, though he had for twenty years followed the Trade from Lordon to this place.—The two following days after this Vessel struck on the Sand, the Weather was fine, and the Crew were employed in getting ashore their Baggage, Provisions, etc., from her, and a variety of other Articles; and had there been proper Capstans on Shore, and Boats of convenient construction, the greater part of this Cargo might have been saved. The third day a Storm came on, which parting the Vessel threw much of it with part of the Cargo on shore.—Some of it was brought up here, and sold under the direction of the Admiralty. Ont of this Brig and the Ship from Glasgow, property to the amount at at least £20,000 might easily have been saved, had not the Island been left in the abandoned state it was.—

Since these Accidents happened, several small Vessels belonging to the United States have been lost on the Island, but the particulars of these disasters have not reached here.-

To these Facts, the late melancholy fate of the Francis Transport may be added.—
The Francis was a Snow of about 280 Tons Burthen—the Master's Name Letsom.
—She sailed the 25th October last from Portsmouth laden chiefly with Horses and Stores, furniture, clothing, and Officers appointments for His Royal Highness—The Duke of Kent.—She sailed in Company with the America, Mast Ship; under Convoy of His Majesty's Ship Bonetta.—A succession of Gales followed them after their departure—The America, dismasted, got back to Portsmonth, and the Bonetta, with great difficulty, reached Lisbon.—The Francis apparently more fortunate than they, had crossed the Atlantic, and nearly reached her destination, when her progress was arrested by those fatal quicksands which surround this destructive Island.

This Vessel having been so long missing, and no tidings obtained of her, the beginning of May the Trepassey Cutter, being about to sail from this place for Newfoundland, Lieutenant Scamble, (siv), who commanded her, was directed to stop at Sable Island, to obtain information, if possible of the Francis, or any other unfortunate vessel, that might have been wreeked there during the winter and to land some animals which the Humanity of His Excellency Sir John Wentworth, had Committed to His care.—The following Letter contains the Report of that Gentleman on the subject. -

His Majesty's Tender Cutter Trepassey, At Sydney 17th May 1800.

Sir,

Agreeable to your Orders I proceeded to Cible Island, and on Tuesday morning, the 13th May, I went on shore and landed the Ewe, Goat, Sow and two Pigs, sent by Sir John Wentworth; after staying there nearly an Hour without discovering any person on the Island, and seeing a Schooner at Anchor in the N. E. arm, being some distance from the Cutter, I returned on board, intending to beat up to where she lay, but the Current prevented me, it running at 2½ miles an honr S. W. by S.—About 4 in the afternoon I discovered her under Sail I immediately weighed, made sail, and spoke her; she proved to be the Dolphin of Barrington, laden with Fish, Seal Skins and Seal Oil.—She had several Trunks very much damaged on board, and appeared to have been Washed on shore—one trunk was directed, His Royal Highness Prince Edward, No. 2. Another trunk directed, Captain Sterling of the 7th Regiment foot, both empty.—Also a trunk containing two Great Coats, the livery worn by the Servants of His Royal Highness.—The Master of the Schooner informed me that he had two men on the Island this Winter, on the sealing concern; who had built a Hut on the East end of the Island—the two men being on board, I learned from them, that about the 2nd December last, after a very severe gale of wind from the S. e., a woman was found, washed on shore on the south side of the Island; also the trunks before mentioned, twelve Horses, two Cows, one Bull, and two Sheep, all drowned (the horses were shod) and part of three Boats no name could be distinguished on them. The master of the Schooner, whose name is Reynolds, gave me some papers, which I have sent by the Pilot to you.

JOSEPH SCAMBLER, Lieut.

Besides the Intelligence contained in the above Letter, the Pilot of the "Trepassey," who arrived here with Lieut. Scamble's Letter, informs—that the men who wintered on the Island acquainted him that on the 2nd December, they observed a large Snow at a little distance from the N.E. Bar.—She was endeavouring to beat off all this day.—The weather was remarkably fine for a Winter's day, but the Wind was extremely light and baffling, that at night she made no great progress.—As the day shut in the weather began to thicken, and was soon followed by a Tremendous gale from the S.E. which continued with extreme violence through the night.—In this Gale the "Francis" must have been driven on the Sands, and in the course of the night, have gone to pieces, as neither the Snow or an, part of her were to be seen in the morning.—Soon after the storm had abated, the corpse of the woman above mentioned was found. She had a ring on her finger, but not being able to get it off, the men declared they had buried it with her.—A number of Articles were saved, which were carried to Barrington.

The following are the Names of the Unfortunate Passengers who perished in her:

Doctor Copland,
Mrs. Copland,
Two children of Doctr. Copland, and maid Servant.

maid Servant, Captain Holland, 44th Regt., Captain Sterling, 7th Regt., Lieut. Mercer, Royal Artillery, Lieut. Sutton, 7th Regt., Lieut. Roebuck, 7th Regt., Volunteer Oppinshaw, 7th Regt., Sergeant Moore, Private Thomas King,

— Abbott, 16th Lt. Dragoons,

— Judd, Coachman to the Duke of Kent.

Nicholson, Johnson, Gardner, Bloomfield, Stable Boys to His Royal Highness the Duke of Kent.

The Crew consisted of ninetcen persons, so that the whole number lost on this occasion amounts to 40.

Every year adds to the calamities occasioned by this dreadful Island, and points out the necessity of some establishment under the sanction of the government. Within a few years past property to a great amount has been cast on that Island.—A large proportion of it has been saved and carried away by persons who only visit this Island for the purpose of wrecking.—Many lives are lost which might be saved, if proper assistance could be afforded.—And even where Vessels and their Crews are totally lost, as in the case of the Francis, how great would be the satisfaction to ascertain to a certainty the fate that had awaited them.

In the abandoned state in which this Island has long been left, it has exposed the unfortunate people who have been cast on it to the mercy of any lawless, unfeeling persons who have chose to winter there; and it is so much to their interest to conceal the property they save, that it is generally by some accidental discovery, that such circumstances become known to Government.—To prevent such discovery, there is reason to fear that some who have escaped shipwreck, have been deprived of their lives by beings more merciless than the Waves.—

Another circumstance is well worthy the attention of Government and the Underwriters. It is the number of Vessels lost on this Island, which there has been good reason to suppose have been run on shore on purpose to defraud the Underwriters, and to enrich the Villains, who knowing the parts of the Island, on which they could run with the least danger, have landed the principal part of their Cargoes and concealed them in the Sand till convenient to take them away.—A Settlement on the Island would be an effectual check to this evil, as it would furnish the means of detecting and bringing such Villains to punishment.—

In short, viewing the utility of an establishment on Sable Island, either as it respects the purposes of Humanity—the Security it would afford to the extensive Trade between Great Britain and America, as well as the West Indies, and the preservation of immense quantities of property, now either totally lost, or squandered away by worth-

Halifax, Nova Scotia, 11 June, 1801.

To Seth Coleman of Dartmouth, in Nova Scotia.

Whereas it has been represented to me, that a ship or vessel has lately been east on shore and wreeked on the Isle of Sable together with her valuable carge of flour and other property: You are therefore hereby authorized and requested to proceed with all possible dispatch in the Schooner or shallop Angelie whereof Simon Fougere is Master, hired for this purpose, by Jonathan Tremain by my orders, to the Isle of Sable and afford every aid and assistance to preserve any people and property you may find there:—

If you find any Property there, under the care and charge of the Master, Owner or Supercargo of the Vessel wrecked—You will consult with such Person about the best means of being useful; and whatever Goods you receive on board, you will give a proper receipt for the same, to the Master, Owner or Supercargo, or any Person left in charge and to act for them or either of them to deliver the same, (danger of the Seas and Enemies excepted) to Jonathan Tremain Esqr: in Halifax, for the use of the lawful owners.—

If you find more goods than the schooner can bring off, and any other vessel can be procured there, you will agree to freit such goods in any such vessel to Halifax, not exceeding one dollar per barrell for flour, and in the same proportion for other goods, and to be delivered at Halifax to Jonathan Tremain, Esqr., as above. But should any Person be legally in charge of the Goods, You will Act herein only in his aid and not to supersede his rights or engagements unless the latter should evidently appear to be extravagant and extorted from him, in distress, in which case you will afford the best means in your Power for his relief, and for the benefit of all who may be interested in any property that may be found.

Ye will exert your best endeavours to obtain information of all the circumstances relative to the Wreck and of her becoming a Wreck.

You will make the best observations in your power, respecting the uses, situations practicability and mode of building a Light House on the island. Herein it will be necessary to examine the Soil, whether a foundation can be made on or in it, sufficient to erect such a building upon.

You will examine what Springs or other means of procuring fresh water there are, also what Grass or Vegetables will grow thereon.—Also what Animals are upon the island or may be usefully sent there.—What fishery may be carried on by the residents on the Island.

What number of Horses are there,

What people resort there, at what time and and for what purpose.

It has been represented to me that a Man and Woman of wicked character, have been landed on the island for the infamous, inhuman purpose of plundering, robbing and eausing shipwrecks:—This Man and his Wife, and all belonging to him—You are to i

THE REPORT

Of Seth Coleman to Sir John Wentworth, Lieutenant Governor of Nova Scotia.

In conformity to the instructions dated the 11th Instant I proceeded to the Island of Sable, but from contrary Winds and Calms I did not arrive there until the 24th. After landing, my first pursuit was to find the Wreck lately cast away upon the Island and to Afford such assistance as was in my power in saving the property and relieving the People, but to my great disappointment after discovering the wreck and the Hut which the Crew had inhabited, I met with only a Lad who had belonged to the Vessel in charge of a small part of the Cargo and some remains that had been saved of the Wreck, with orders to remain there untill the Vessel that had taken away the principal part of the property should return. Disappointed in the principal object, I turned my attention to the exploring the Island to find a suitable spot for erecting a Light House, which if once effected would tend to protect, and I am satisfied a Woodon Building could be made sufficiently secure without any Stone for its Foundation.—The place on which it must stand is altogether sand, but well guarded from the Wind by a thick growth of Beach Grass intermingled with a Wild Pea.-There are no springs nearer than a mile and a half, but I have no doubt but good Water might be obtained by sinking a Well of a moderate depth—As I have stated, that in my opinion, a Light House is necessary, upon general principles permit me to observe, in support of that opinion, that the necessity is obvious from the circumstances of the late misfortune, the Vessel being bound to England, she of course, if the wind was fair, must be Stearing by the Compass, nearly East, in that case, to take a View of the Wreck, and the proposed spot for the Light House at the same time, which I had an opportunity of correctly observing, she must have passed not more than one mile and a half from the place upon which I should recommend the Light House to be built; or, admitting, She had the Wind easterly and standing in, the distance from where she lies, could not exceed four miles, which in clear weather, would have discovered the Light and prevented that misfortune.

I cannot presume to offer a decided opinion upon the expediency of a Light House upon the East end of the Island, because, from the shortness of the time I was there, I had not an opportunity of fully satisfying myself, upon a subject of such importance, still at the same time I cannot help thinking, that if a Light was there established it might be the means of saving the Lives of many Persons, for, from the remains of Timber and other articles, discovered upon the Island, no doubt remains in my mind but that Vessels have been frequently lost, from which none have escaped to impart their melancholy fate.—

The soil in general is nearly the same excepting upon the upland, which is principally of a nature to produce the Beach Grass intermixed with the wild Pca, and round the Edge of the Pond, there is a finer kind of Grass, but much of the same quality, and I discovered some small spots of English Grass, and on the borders of the Pond Vegetables might be raised, if enclosed for Gardens., sufficient to supply several Families, and I have no doubt but Indian Corn might be produced, but not in large Quantities.

-No settler I should suppose would attempt any further improvement of the Soil, than merely Gardens for their Families, from the difficulty of Procuring Fencing or Manure, The only animals now upon the Island, are a few wild Horses, the numbers I could not ascertain, nine were seen together, a few days before I arrived, but during the time I was there, the Fog was too thick to make the discoveries I could have wished,-I believe the Island capable of supporting five or six hundred Horses, or in that proportion of black Cattle, if they could be wintered without care, but, whether that could be effected, I cannot determine.—Sheep would succeed well, I know of only one objection, which I do not consider as a substantial one, the possibility of their being Overloaded with Sand, in high wind, if that could be obviated, the Island would support four or five thousand.—I am of opinion that Hogs would thrive exceedingly well, as they would procure the principal part of their living out of the Pond, but from their mode of feeding they might by rooting, do a greater injury to the Soil, than the residents would derive advantage from introducing them. - Goats would thrive well, and I am of opinion would be profitable, as well from their milk, as their Flesh when young, and would maintain a great number of People.—Upon the Island there was a great number of Rats.—There does not appear that there is any Fishing worth pursuing excepting the Seal which I suppose might be carried on to an extent sufficient to support two Lights and to defray the expence of Nets, &c.—This would be of considerable consequence in case Light Houses should be established; for the Seal Oil, is, in point of Goodness, next to the Spermaceti, and would save the expence of transporting it from Halifax or any other nearer port. There are at present, excepting the Lad from the Wreck, only one Man, by the Name of King, His Wife, and three Children.—King informed me he was employed by the master of the Ship to save the property, and had allowed him a certain Salvage, and that he was then employed in collecting and drying the cotton, which, being confirmed by the American Lad, I thought, under every circumstance, it was not, at present, prudent to remove King and his family from off the Island. Having informed myself as well as thickness of weather and my short stay would admit and the weather appearing very wild and threatened a shift of wind, with the Pilots advice we left the Island without delay.

4th June, 1801.

To His Excellency Sir John Wentworth, Baronet, LL.D., Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over His Majesty's Province of Nova Scotia and its Dependencies, &c., &c., &c.

The Address of the House of Representatives in General Assembly.

May it please your Excellency.

The many calamitous accidents which have taken place in the Shipreck of Vessels, and loss of Lives, and valuable Property on the Island of Sable, an Appendage to this Province; having induced the House of Assembly to bestow much serious consideration on devising means for providing a remedy for such Evils.

On mature deliberation the House of Assembly are of Opinion, that the Settlement of three Families of good character on that Island, under the immediate Authority and direction of this Government, might not only preserve many Lives, and much Property, from total loss; but also in many Instances, would tend to secure Vessels from Shipwreck, which would otherwise be exposed to that Disaster.

Strongly impressed with a Sense of the Necessity and propriety of taking some measures for this purpose, the House thinks it their duty o recommend to your Excellency, to cause Advertisement to be made for the proposals of such Persons as may be willing to become Settlers on the Island of Sable; by which means your Excellency may be enabled to select three well-qualified and trusty men, who have Families, to be located there for a term of Years; and also that you will be pleased to devise such a System of Regulation, as your Excellency, with the advice of your Council, may judge adequate and suitable to their Government.

The House are of opinion, that securing to them a term of Possession and the exclusive Priviledge in certain Advantages the Island affords; will operate as a great Encouragement to Persons to undertake the projected location, but as such an Establishment must be attended with some Expence, the House will cheerfully make Provision for that Expence, to an Amount, not exceeding Six hundred pounds, which the House conceive will be sufficient for attaining the object in View.

RICHD JNO. UNIACKE, Speaker.

Patterson to Sccretary of State (Hillsborough). Arrived on the 30th August. Has been employed finishing a house, &c. The good quality of the soil, grain, roots, &c. The timber near Charlottetown, not of much use; in other parts there are oak and large pine trees in plenty; wild fowl in the bays and woods. The "beasts" are principally bears, foxes, otters, wild cats of a very large size, hares, martins, squirrels and mice; the latter have in most cases destroyed the little grain attempted to be raised; they appear in large numbers once in every seven years; believes, however, that it was the exceptionally mild winter that allowed them to increase. Scarcity of fish near Charlottetown, except in spring; at present there are only lobsters and oysters, neither very good. The climate is good. French inhabitants are employed by a few British subjects in fishing and paid in clothes, rum, powder and shot, with which they kill bears, seals and wild fowl, which supply them with food, so that they neglect agriculture. The soil is fertile, if the island were properly cared for. Arrival of families from Scotland. Leave of absence given to Duport to go to Halifax for the winter. Expected arrival of vessels from London with passengers and one from Ireland, with Desbrisay and family, which is unfortunate as there is not a house fit to put their heads into and unless they have provisions to serve till spring, they must starve.

Patterson to Secretary of State (Hillsborough). As soon as possible, he Charlottetown had convened some of the principal inhabitants, had read his commission and appointed Phillips Callbeck, John Russell Spence, Thomas Wright and Patrick Fergus, to be members of Council; Wright only winters, but he had surveyed the island with Holland, so that he had taken him to complete the Council to seven, Desbrisay not having arrived. He himself was sworn in on 19th September. To prevent disputes between Gridley living on the Magdalen Islands, and the fishermen, &c., on St. John Island, respecting the sea cow fishery, had had an Act passed for its regulation. Reports the great want Charlottetown of a church, court house and gaol; there is not even a barn in which to assemble the people for public worship. Necessity for the other buildings, as there is not a house fit to confine a man for an hour, contrary to his inclinations. Want of roads; means of communication described, for £500 he could have sixty miles of roads made. Want of soldiers; by allowing part of them to work, the price of labour would be greatly reduced, so that public works could be done at much less expense. Advantages in case of

Secretary of State (Hillsborough) to Patterson. Approves of the steps he has taken to carry into effect measures for the settlement of St. John Island and to prevent the destruction of the sea cow fishery; sees no objection to the regulations, if the licenses are not made a burden to the fishermen. A surveyor general was not considered necessary; if one should be required, Wright should apply to him (Hillsborough). Memorial of Samuel Smith, agent for St. John's. The proprietors are willing, on the island being formed into a separate government, to pay half of the quit rent, dating from the 1st May, 1769, instead of at Michaelmas, five years from the date of their grants, and praying that on this account a further extension might be granted for payment of the other half.

April 23, Halifax.

B. T., St. John's, vol. 1, p. 19 Duport to Secretary of State (Hillsborough.) Sends account of the island. At Magpec, St. Peters and Three Rivers there are small English settlements with small fisheries, and at Three Rivers a small branch of the lumber trade, which can be extended, as the timber is remarkably good; the soil of the island is fertile. Arrival of emigrants sent by Montgomery, Lord Advocate of Scotland, by Stewart and by Richardson. Arrival and swearing in of Patterson; Supreme Court opened on 24th September. Acts passed by the Assembly. He (Duport), had gone to the island in May, taking six months' provisions; the late arrival of the Lieut.-Governor prevented the importation of provisions, and as his stock was nearly exhausted, he obtained leave to return to Halifax with his family, there not being a stock of provisions on the island. The non-payment of the bills drawn for his salary has placed him in a very distressed situation. Prays for an addition to the present salary and a proper arrangement for its payment. 81

November 27. Island of St. John.

Patterson to Lords of Trade. Reports on the memorial of the Lord Advocate for a grant of three small islands, that it was the opinion of Hillsborough, and the generality of the proprietors, that the best method to dispose of the small islands was by sale to the highest bidder, in order to raise a fund for the public service, a preference being given to those to whose lands the islands were adjacent. Had, therefore, done nothing, hoping that the increase of inhabitants would enable him to dispose of the islands to advantage, but sees no prospect of this that would justify delay in granting them to gentlemen likely to settle them. The Governor complains of the insufficiency of his salary, and has presented or will present a petition to the Treasury for relief. The cause of the extraordinary expense in his case is the accommodation of strangers, there being no hotel in the capital and the expense will increase should an Assembly be called. The sum of £500 wanted for making roads. The naval officer has no salary; until the trade shall warrant the imposition of fees, he should be paid a salary.

A loose jotting appears to relate to the preceding document. Both are among the Dartmouth papers.

(See also pp. 235, 237, for copy differing in a few of the details.) Desbrisay to Dartmouth. Would have been in London before but for an attack of scarlet fever. To assist his Lordship in the disposal of his lands in East Florida, encloses his terms and conditions for the sale of his lands in St. John's Island, and Lutterloh's proposals for tenanting the same. The seller for 20,000 acres will have £10,000 in five years, and the purchaser by advancing £2,102 will have £2,000 for ever. Since he has been forbidden to take tenants from the United Kingdom, has adopted this method of settling his lands. Dartmouth paners.

Lutterleh's proposals, enclosed, are the same as those sent on the 13th May, 1773, with the addition of a certificate of his position.

Desbrisay to Secretary of State (Dartmouth). Has been informed by Callbeck that Patterson does not intend to leave the island this year. That means a loss to him (Desbrisay) of half the governor's salary and perquisites, and with no salary attached to his office of Lieut.-Governor and no personal fortune, it would be miserable to go to a desolate island. Asks leave, therefore, to remain for a year in hope of obtaining a government, or he would raise a battalion of 500 men at his own expense, on condition of being appointed to the command, naming his own officers to be selected from half pay. Is unhappy that Lord Ligonier is not acquainted with his Lordship (Dartmouth); encloses his letter. (See 18th July.)

Secretary of State (Germain) to Callbeck. Dispatch of 25th January received. The Newfoundland fleet strengthened to watch the St. Lawrence and defend the coast of Nova Scotia, &c. It is from that fleet St. John's Island is to expect security, but he (Callbeck) is not to neglect other means of defence. Is happy to find that the island can furnish supplies to the fleets and armies; the certain market for its produce should make it flourishing. The expenses for which these were drawn on the Treasury should have been defraped by the Commander-in-Chief in America, as ordered, but even if such order had not been given, no bills should be drawn without vouchers, &c. No muster rolls or other papers have been sent respecting the company he is raising, which does not seem to be complete. Particulars should also be sent of Hierlihy's independent companies sent from New York by Sir W. Howe, which arrived on 16th July, 1778. A full specification with details of expenditure to be sent to Sir Henry Clinton, retaining the original vouchers. Patterson has sailed to resume his duties. Nisbett will give him particulars of an armament sailing from Brest, under command of de Ternai, of 7 ships of the line, one 64, armé en flute, two frigates and from 20 to 25 transports and store ships having in all 5,200 land forces, intended for Halifax, Newfoundland or Quebec. Had written to Haldimand on 8th April, that the armament consisted of twelve sail of the line, two fifties and 12,000 land forces (for this letter see Canadian Archives, Series B., vol. 44, p. 32); he is to undeceive Haldimand if there is an opportunity to do so. Graves, with a reinforcement of six ships of the line, has sailed to join Arbuthnot at New York, who is to follow the French fleet wherever it goes, so that should it venture into the St. Lawrence, Haldimand will be prepared against surprise. A fleet sailed from Cadiz on the 28th April, of twelve Spanish sail of the line, with 10,000 troops, but there is no possibility of its destination being his (Patterson's) part of the world.

1780. July 30, Island of St. John.

Patterson to Secretary of State (Germain). Sends titles of Acts passed at the last meeting of the Legislature, with remarks. One of the Acts is to change the name of the Island from St. John to New Ircland. Owing to the constant mistakes caused by the similarity of name to that of other places, people are even sailing for Newfoundland under the belief that they were coming to St. John's Island, and the confusion in correspondence is inconceivable. Desbrisay to Secretary of State (Germain). Arrival of Patterson, who proposes to him to take command of Callbeck's company, on condition that he (Desbrisay) resigns one of his civil offices to Callbeck. Other conditions attached, to which he could not consent; so supposes that Callbeck will be recommended. The company raised by Callbeck, by permission of Howe, ordered by Clinton to be disbanded, an order not obeyed. Should the proposed company be raised, prays that His Lordship would recommend his (Desbrisay's) appointment as Captain. Col. Cor., P.E.I., vol. 4, p. 205 (Duplicaté in A. & W. I., vol. 413, p. 251.)

Enclosed. Clinton to Hierlihy, 12th September, 1778, that Callbeck's company is to be disbanded.

September 15, Island of St. John.

Patterson to Secretary of State (Germain). While the fleet was off Charles Town (Charlotte town), had tried to remove false impressions from the mind of Arbuthnot, respecting the island. Has no lope for any assistance from the navy either to the island or to Quebec, so long as Arbuthnot commands the flect. He promised to send two ships for defence, but they have never arrived. Ships intended for the protection of the St. Lawrence should, he suggests, winter at Charlotte town instead of Quebec, as they might thus be on their stations a month earlier in the spring and remain two months longer in autumn. The north and south ends of Cape Breton are the proper cruizing grounds, as if these two passes were watched, the enemy's vessels would not attempt to enter the St. Lawrence. How the rebel privateers carry on their operations. Captains Graves and Perry are both convinced of the service they would render by cruizing for two months, yet as they have to go to Quebec they must sail immediately. Captain Graves, who will deliver this letter, can give particulars on the subject. Col. Cor., P.E.I., vol. 4, p. 151

(Duplicate in A. and W. I., vol. 413, p. 248.)

Enclosed. Description and estimate of such military roads as it will be necessary to make in St. John's Island to enable the militia to assemble with sufficient facility for the defence thereof.

(Five roads were proposed, one towards Cape Traverse, 35 miles; to the North Cape, 70 miles; to St. Peter's and the East Point, 62 miles; from opposite Charlottetown to Georgetown, 28 miles; from where the latter divides to Georgetown, a branch to the sea coast between Point Prim and Bear Cape, 20 miles; a total of 215 miles. All the settlements, &c., to which these roads would open communication are enumerated. The total cost of clearing 16 feet in the centre of a proposed width of 60 feet, removing the stumps, &c. was estimated at £3,225.)

Patterson to McLean, 10th October. Has examined the plan hitherto adopted for the defence of St. John's Island, of which he does not approve. Sends account of the expense of the garrison and the cost to complete the fortifications, barracks, &c. The number of men required, the inadequacy of measures of defence; even if the plans were perfected, only the capital would be defended. His idea was that to prevent attack the island should be made to appear insignificant, to have a well regulated militia, a few troops, some batteries to defend the harbour of Charlottetown and a blockhouse to prevent surprise. The increase of population has raised a formidable body of men able to bear arms and the legislature has passed a militia law. But roads must be made and 300 stand of arms are wanting. number of miles of road wanted. If made, the militia armed and embodied and a blockhouse built, he would ask no other assistance for the defence of the island than Callbeck's company. Sends estimate of the cost of the roads and a blockhouse, but believes the work could be done for £3,000, including the completion of public buildings to accommodate 100 men and their officers. Sends calculation of the expense for one year of Callbeck's company showing the great saving that would be effected for troops alone, a corps of five companies gained for active service and the expense of the engineer branch lessened.

Estimate of the cost of finishing the fortifications, etc., for the defence of Charlottetown.

Calculation of the cost of the St. John volunteers for one year, £3,555 3s. 10d.

Secretary of State (Germain) to Patterson. Learns of his (Patterson's) satisfaction at the growth of the colony during his absence. Hopes it will increase from natural causes and the accession of settlers from the revolted colonies, but holds out no hope of emigrants from the British dominions in Europe, the population being too much exhausted to admit of sparing any to populate distant territories. His proposed name of New Ireland has already been appropriated, but there is no objection to changing the name of the island to New Guernsey or New Anglesea. His astonishment at the charge of £11,000 for the garrison, as it was only intended 100 men should be sent; approves of proposal to augment Callbeck's company to 100, withdrawing the other five. Laments the extent of works caused by the indiscretion of the engineer. Sends 300 stand of arms as a present from the King to the Militia. The opening of roads. whilst enabling the militia to assemble, would afford means to the enemy to attack from every quarter, and in the present state of the island, there would be an advantage over the enemy by the knowledge the inhabitants have of the country. As the population increases, roads will of course be opened. Col. Cor., P.E.I., vol. 4, p. 239 (Copy in Col. Off., St. J., p. 108.)

Lords of Trade to Patterson. The improper conduct of the Lieut. Governor in his (Patterson's) absence, in making unjustifiable grants of town and pasture lots to himself and members of the Council; would have advised the dismissal of the Lieut.-Governor and censure of the members of Council who had concurred with him, but for his (Patterson's) proposal that one lot should be retained for each person in their family, the other lots to be surrendered to the Crown. As they had referred the decision to Germain, no further steps would be taken till an answer should be received to this letter. It is expected that the parties concerned comply with his (Patterson's) proposal, that ro servant or others than the wives and children of the grantees should be included in the right, that the surrender be made in open court, the title an I description of each lot, with the name of the party surrendering being entered in the court record and minutes of Council, so as to prevent further controversy. Remarks on nine Acts passed whilst Desbrisay was Lieut.-Governor in his (Patterson's) absence. Their satisfaction at the increase of settlers on the island. Enclosed. Clinton to Patterson, 25th July. Not considering the island of St. John to be within his jurisdiction, he must decline to sanction appointments or expenditure. This opinion was shared by Sir W. Howe, as is shown by his letter to Callbeck in 1776. Had desired Campbell, commanding Nova Scotia, to remove Hierlihy's corps to Nova Scotia, and has given warrant to Callbeck to augment his company to 100 men, agreeably to Germain's letter.

Patterson to Brigadier General Campbell, 16th September. Had laid before Council Germain's letter, authorizing Callbeck to angment his company to 100 men and for the erection of a blockhonse, after which Hierlihy's five companies were to be withdrawn; had, also, laid the correspondence before Council, which did not consider the withdrawal of troops consistent with the safety of the island. A French fleet is off the coast intended for New York or, failing that, for Halifax. Should the report of the withdrawal of the troops spread, there can be no doubt of the island being attacked. Besides, it appears to be intended that the blockhouse should be erected and the company completed before the troops are withdrawn. There is still sufficient time this autumn to creet the blockhouse, and he hopes that orders will be given to the engineer to that effect. Encloses copy of letter from Cargenven, the officers being alarmed that their detention would prevent them from being incorporated, but the alarm has Want of clothing and bedding. Recommends the brothers Wheaton for promotion.

January 25, Island of St. John. Patterson to Secretary of State (Germain). Is constructing a boat to cross to the continent; if his plan succeed, it will put the island in communication in winter with the rest of the world. The robberies committed ever since the arrival of the independent companies; one man condemned to be hanged, but no one could be found to act as executioner; the provost marshal resigned, nobody would accept the office, so that the man was first reprieved and then pardoned. The confessions of the prisoner have led to the discovery of other offenders. John Patterson to Nepean. By the estimate for St. John's Island, the salary of £150 for the Secretary, Registrar and Clerk of the Council would indicate that the offices are united, but two are held by Desbrisay and one by Nisbett at £80, depending on which he had removed his family to the island and become a settler. The offices of Secretary and Registrar have seldom had a salary attached, the fees making the office lucrative. The three offices have not been united in any of the Colonies. Nisbett has been receiver of quit rents for twelve years without salary, asks, therefore, that the scary of £50 be annexed to the office of Clerk of the Council. A. & W. I., vol. 682

The advice that Parr had been directed to provide vessels for the loyalists came too late to allow of withdrawing his (Patterson's) order, some of the vessels having already arrived and been paid and the distance from Shelburne too great to admit of orders being countermanded. Sends letter to Parr on the subject and his answer; his only remedy is to submit accounts to the Treasury. the course he has adopted towards the loyalists; shall not give so large an allowance of lumber to the disbanded soldiers as to the lovalists. The instructions to Parr provide for the expense of surveys being paid from quit rents, but he had been forbidden to enforce the quit rent law, so that that fund had been unproductive. The necessity for laying out the lands; the fees to the Attorney General, the Secretaries and himself shall be withheld till a mode of payment shall have been pointed out, but there are other expenses which must be met. Complains that he had not received instructions like the other Governors. The expense of settlement in St. John's Island may appear to be greater than in Nova Scotia, although he is not certain of this, but in the island the expense is at an end; in Nova Scotia it is not yet settled, and all is in confusion, so that it is difficult to retain the loyalists there, unless they are immediately provided with lands. Has no intention to reflect on Parr's conduct, whose sentiments are given honestly. Col. Cor., P.E.I., vol. 5, p. 223

December 2. Island of St. John.

Patterson to Secretary of State (Sydney). Dispatches received with enclosures, one of which is his commission to be Lieut. Governor of the island, as a consequence of the change of system; this he read in Council, took the prescribed oaths and appointed a new Council, which is the same as the old with the addition of Townshend, collector and naval officer, and leaving out Desbrisay. Offers to give up half his salary, as a contribution towards alleviating the distress of his country; does not regret the loss of rank. His successful efforts to bring the island from chaos into order, largely at his own expense. The enmity in Nova Scotia to the island, on account of its superiority in natural advantages, which they fear will rob Nova Scotia of its inhabitants. The premature attempts at settlement from Ireland and Scotland and the injudicious attempts at fishery and trade under incompetent agents, of which details are given. These and other difficulties were overcome, when the annexation of the island to Nova Scotia did more damage than all other causes put together, Parr having threatened the people of Shelburne that if they went to the island he would grant them no more provisions. But for this, there would have been 2,000 more inhabitants than there are, but he does not blame Parr, as probably he (Patterson) would have done the same, because Parr believes the place to be as had as Desbrisay to Secretary of State (Sydney). Has heard from London that May 20, Charlottetown the proprietors of the island had un address in contemplation praying for the removal of the Lieut. Governor and Council, for disobeying the King's order respecting the quit rent bill. Is hurt at this, as the first day the papers were laid before the Council he urged that they should be sent to the Assembly then sitting; other action taken to the same end at subseanent meetings. Were he appointed Lieut.-Governor of the island, he could prove that His Majesty's designs were defeated by Patterson and the island robbed of £5,000, perhaps £10,000. Col. Cor., P.E.I., vol. 7, p. 641 June 29,

John Patterson to Nepean. Accuses the Committee of Assembly which made complaints against Lieut.-Governor Patterson of having been guilty of deception, of sending mutilated extracts, etc., from documents, which would prove their own guilt; the charges are a forgery. Patterson's regard for his honour is superior to that for his pecuniary benefit,

Secretary of State (Sydney) to Patterson. Orders him to return to give an account of his conduct, of which complaints have been made. Col, Fanning, late Lient. Fanning to Secretary of State (Sydney). Calling of the Assembly by Charlottetown Patterson, the reason given being to show his desire to obey the command to lay a bill before the Assembly which he has long had in his possession and which it is believed he has no intention to have passed in the form sent him and that that was one reason for refusing to transfer the Government to him (Fanning). Had thought it his duty to abstain from interference.

Same to the same. Transmits papers handed to him by Stewart. Enclosed. Stewart to Speaker of Assembly, 12th April, 1786. The half lot No. 18, bought by him (Stewart) from Allanby is to be excepted.

Speaker to Stewart, 18th April. If he desire to return the half lot to Allanby, the proper method would be to grant him a release before the bill now introduced into the Assembly is agreed to, as proof of the sincerity of his intentions.

Stewart to the Speaker, 19th April. His letter of the 12th was clear; is grateful for the advice, but he knows more of conveyancing than all of them put together.

Same to Fanning, 16th November. Gives an account of the bill for legalizing the sales of land, his request that the half lot 18 should be left out and of his transactions with Allanby respecting it.

1786. November 17, Island of St. John.

Patterson to Secretary of State (Sydney). Dispatches with enclosures, received. Had reported in January the arrival of respectable families from Rhode Island, a few more have arrived, taken the oath of allegiance and become inhabitants. Others have come to examine the Island, and have returned, intending to bring their families, so that next summer there should be a considerable number of new settlers. His desire to promote the interests of the empire in his construction of the laws relating to trade. The people proposing to come are deserving of encouragment, as they are very unfairly treated where they are; he has, sherefore, granted them the indulgence of bringing their effects and some have brought a little rum, molasses and tobacco, prohibited articles, but which, under the circumstances, were allowed to be landed and a few registers of vessels had been granted. Those coming next summer expect the same privileges, which it is for the interest of Great Britain to grant. Further reasons for his course without waiting for instructions. Col. November 19, Island of St. John.

Same to the same. The delay in calling the legislature owing to the necessity for gathering the harvest and other farming operations. Arrival of Fanning, at whose request he (Patterson) had prorogued the bigislature for two days. It met on the 8th and the bill respecting quit rents was laid before the Assembly, but he had little hope of its passing in the form sent, a belief confirmed by the actual result. Has prorogued the Assembly till May. The Act as passed contained the cancellation of the lots purchased by himself and by all whom he could influence. Remarks on the bill and on the disinterestedness of his own course.

December 6, Island of St. John.

Same to the same. Had enough of complaints against himself to answer to prevent him from taking other people's burdens. It is only two days since he received the proceedings of the General Assembly, held in March last, and only now the minutes of Council from May, 1785, to May, 1786; it is not his fault.

Enclosed. Minutes of Executive Council from 12th May, 1785, to 26th April, 1786. Journals of Legislative Council from 15th March to 22nd April, Fanning to Nepcan. Still remains here without any letter from Dor-Charlottetown chester since his arrival, or from the office since 30th June. Patterson still refuses to deliver the Great Seal or the papers; there is discontent on the island in consequence, it being believed he will not go to England or give up the papers, and his conduct justifies this belief. It is impossible to think such contempt of orders will be tolerated. Desires to know by whom the agent to receive the Parliamentary grant is appointed. Would he (Nepean) not act as agent?

1787. February 4, Charlottetown

Same to Secretary of State (Sydney). Public affairs are irksome to the inhabitants and to him, from Patterson still exercising the powers of government. Has sent an express to Halifax in hopes of finding there a dispatch from Dorchester, or from His Lordship. Sends address to show the feeling of the inhabitants; other addresses are in course of preparation. Should be be fortunate enough to receive dispatch with further authority, shall issue a proclamation, publishing his commission. His singular situation. 107

Memorial to Secretary of State (Sydney) praying that his present annuity may be fixed as an income for life.

Fanning to Secretary of State (Sydney). The failure of the attempt to eross from the island enables him to send copies of letters to him and to His Lordship from Desbrisay. These are sent to show the deranged state of public affairs and the growing necessity for the removal of Patterson.115 Enclosed. Desbrisay to Fanning, 27th February. Cannot allow him to see the records, as they have all been put into the hands of Patterson. 119 Same to the same, of same date. The refusal of Callbeck, Attorney-General, to read his (Fanning's) application to see the records. His (Desbrisay's) deputy had, immediately after the demand for the records, transferred them to Patterson. The matter, he suggests, should be reported to Sydney, as he suspects that foul play is intended.

Fanning to Secretary of State (Sydney). Not knowing whether or not Charlottetown Patterson has transmitted the Act in relation to the sale of lands for nonpayment of quit rents, sends a copy, as it may be of importance to the original shareholders to get early notice. The shortness of the notice to the original proprietors to take advantage of the Act, and other circumstances seem to show the specious semblance rather than a real intention to give any substantial relief to the original grantees. His opinion of the operation of the Act.

Enclosed. Act for setting aside the Act for the sale of certain lands, 147 Address (undated) from the inhabitants to Fanning.

(A copy with the copies of signatures). Answer by Fanning, 5th March.

Desbrisay to Secretary of State (Sydney). Transmits statement made to Charlottetown Callbeck, Attorney General, of the extraordinary conduct of his (Desbrisay's) deputy, Swan. He himself has been practically ousled from his office by Patterson. The desire is universal for Fanning to enter on the administration when, he believes, justice will be done. Swan, his deputy, has kept all the fees for a year and nine months, except twelve shillings and sixpence. Enclosed. Statement by Desbrisay to Callbook, 20th February, of the relative positions of himself (Desbrisay) and Swan, his deputy, who retains the records, and has not accounted for the fees, &c. Asks for directions how he should proceed in order to obtain the records.

Callbeck to Desbrisay, 6th March. Returns the statement of 20th February, as it is no part of the Attorney General's duty to give advice on the subject.

Desbrisay to Swan, 17th February. Had demanded in presence of witnesses the records of the island, held by him (Swan) as deputy, from which office he had been dismissed on 30th November last. Again, in writing, demands their return; if not complied with, other and more disagreeable steps must be taken. Private accounts between them are no reason for keeping the records, and he is ready to sign mutual bonds for the settlement of the accounts.

Secretary of State (Sydney) to Patterson. Had received letter of 5th November, with reason for not obeying the order to transfer the Government to Fanning. His Majesty has now no longer need for his services and he is to transfer to Fanning all public documents and instructions in his (Patterson's) possession.

May 10. Charlottetown

Fanning to Secretary of State (Sydney). In consequence of dispatches received by way of Halifax, had issued a proclamation on 10th April, publishing his commission and requiring His Majesty's subjects to govern themselves accordingly. Two days after Patterson published a notification, but the three Councillors who adhered to him, and have refused to act under him (Fanning) did not attach their names to it, although every effort was made to get them to do so. He (Fanning) has entered on the administration with the general approbation, except of a few who held office under Patterson. The imperative nature of the order to Patterson to leave the island on his (Fanning's) arrival, or failing that, to leave the senior official in charge. On the 5th instant, Patterson prorogued, to meet on the 4th of June, the Assembly, which he (Fanning) had dissolved on the 3rd. The opportunities Patterson had to leave the island since the orders received to that effect. He still obstinately refuses to give up the Great Seal; the arrival of Dorchester, expected shortly, will no doubt establish order.

Enclosed. Proclamation by Fanning, 10th April. 175 Notification by Patterson, 12th April.

Fanning to Nepean. His embarrassment at not receiving dispatches Charlottetown since the date of his commission. The measures taken by Patterson to retain office are almost indescribable, but these are daily sinking of themselves.

The claims now set up by the proprictors and the conditions exacted by them from the loyalists, to which Government could never have agreed. Unless the grants be made on the same terms as those in Nova Scotia, all the trouble and experse must end in disappointment (if no worse) to the loyalists. Fanning to Nepean. Account of his journey round the island, with re-Charlottetown port on settlements. Had the land been granted as in Nova Scotia, it would not have been equalled, considering its extent, by any other part of the American dominions: as it is, there are only 500 families, including those of all nationalities. Encloses petition from French inhabitants for licenses of occupation on lands belonging to Lords Milton and Townshend, the prayer of which had been granted on the same terms as those given to other settlers on the lands of absentee proprietors, who had agents on the island. Publications by a board of resident proprietors and agents, the motive of which is the desire to take care of themselves. If the absent proprietors wish that he and the Council should assist in getting settlers, hopes soon to receive instructions, at all events, hopes the proprietors would allow the Governor and Council to sign patents for the one-fourth surrendered in 1783. If not, settlers cannot be expected, and some will go away to the lands in Nova Scotia and Cape Breton, open to be granted rent free, except for the quit rents. Augurs ill for the lately constituted board. unless a liberal plan should be adopted by the non resident proprietors.

Enclosed. Edward Allen to Mainwaring, 28th October. It is time some decision was arrived at respecting the lands. He and the others on lot 47 are determined not to accept the terms offered by John Patterson. The Fortuine (Fortune Bay) people have returned from a survey of part of Cape Breton; they are all determined to lea as the board of proprietors has ruined all prospect of ever getting settlers. The necessity of making new gun carriages and repairing the battery at Charlottetown for the safety of the town against predatory attacks. Sends return of cannon and plan of battery. The sum of £500 should be sufficient for these purposes. The making large and expensive works would be an improper and ineffectual measure of defence, there being so many bays and rivers where an enemy could land. Fanning to Secretary of State (Sydney). Had found on his arrival that Charlottetown there never had been a printing press on the island, that the Journals and Acts had never been printed, that some of the latter had been lost and only imperfect manuscripts of others could be found. Had, therefore, encouraged Robertson, printer, to remove to Charlottetown. Sends copy of memorial to Dorchester for the appointment of Robertson as His Majesty's printer, with the same salary as the printer in New Brunswick, which Dorchester has forwarded. By order from the Lords of Trade, a complete printed collection of the laws is to be forwarded to them. Robertson is now engaged in the work of printing and by spring printed copies of the laws shall be sent to the Lords of Trade. Unless Robertson receive a salary he must leave the island, as the profits of the press cannot support his family.

Fanning to Secretary of State (Grenville). Has received copy of a dispatch from the ambassador at Madrid, reporting the arrangement towards the settlement of the Nootka Sound affair. Hopes that peace may result, but as that is still uncertain, shall proceed with such measures of defence as may be necessary. Col. Cor., P.E.I., vol. 10, p. 377

November 13.

Same to the same. Has received dispatch confirming two Acts passed Charlottetown in April, 1786.

Same to the same. His gratification that his dispatches have been November 20, (harlottetown received and his conduct approved of.

November 20, Island of St. John.

No date.

Same to Nepean. Offers his military services in event of a war with Spain. As this will give him no higher rank the offer is made from disinterested motives. Suggests in event of a war an attack on the Southern coast of Spanish America; the prospects of success. Had formerly served with the Creek and Cherokee nations and would not object to serving again. The brave and loyal character of these Indians. Would, if required, raise a brigade, officered chiefly by half-pay officers, the brigade to be on the same establishment as new corps raised in Great Britain for foreign service. The advantages to be derived from the possession of the Floridas and the ease with which they could be peopled. The tendency of emigration to flow from the North to the South and how it was conducted on the American Continent. Had Georgia and the two Floridas, or the latter only, been retained by Great Britain, they would have been settled by people now in the United States, who would have been loyal and faithful subjects. Many of the loyalists who came to Nova Scotia were driven to leave by cold, etc., and have gone to the Southern States, some to the Creeks and Cherokees; were the Floridas taken possession of they would flock there. Should there be no war this letter will be an evidence of his desire for military service.

Camden to Dundas (?) His concern at the charges that St. John's Island is so oppressed by the Executive Government and the practical deprivation of power from the Assembly. The representation calls for immediate interposition and if the Privy Council were on the spot and empowered to act, the whole of the criminals might be suspended, but is doubtful whether at this stage it would be right to call them all to England or to suspend them, as he did not know who could be substituted. November 18, Drake Street.

Same to the same. States at length the complaints of proprietors of lands in St. John's Island of the forced collection of quit rents, the escheating of their lands and the uncertainty of tenure, which were the causes of delay in settling the island. Remedies suggested: (1) An Act to confirm the titles and restore the escheated lands, would be the cause of great delay and uncertainty; an order to issue new grants or an Act of Parliament to confirm former grants would be necessary. (2) A change in the constitution similar to that in Canada, by which unqualified persons could not be appointed to the Council, or elected to the Assembly. (3) Modification of the navigation laws. (4) The appointment of a postmaster and regular mails between the island and the United Kingdom. Should an Act of Parliament be thought necessary, a bill will be prepared and submitted by the proprietors.

From the importance of the matter to himself and other officers complained of, has sent the answers by his secretary, Major Gray, who from personal knowledge can give particulars and whose character must give weight to his information. Fanning to Nepean. On account of a severe scorbutic attack has applied for leave of absence.

Same to Secretary of State (Dundas). Has received dispatches of 8th Charlottetown December and 7th January on the 15th instant, the first communication with the continent since the middle of December. Has divided the militia into three battalions, preparatory to making the returns ordered. The hostility to a militia law makes the obtaining of returns doubtful, but that does not arise from want of loyalty. In event of war, has confidence in the united efforts for defence of the inhabitants, and their opposition to the King's enemies. Sends returns and correspondence to show the destitute state of the island in respect to ammunition and the steps he had taken to obtain a supply. The island is in no condition for offensive operations, Measures necessary for defence against predatory attacks. The uselessness of forts in particular places, there being so many rivers, bays and harbours assailable by an enemy. Field artillery, small-arms and ammunition, a corps of feneibles or provincials and the militia would be the best means of defence. A frigate or ship of war should be stationed during the open season to protect the harbours and coast.

Memorial of Thomas F. Winter. Anderson, the acting Crown agent for St. John's Island, refuses to pay the half salary due him (Winter) without an order from the Secretary of State's office; asks that such order be given.

January 31, London. Thomas to King. Has been desired by Fanning to solicit some force for the protection of St. John's Island. If part of the force in Nova Scotia or Canada cannot be spared, he is informed that 200 men could be raised on the island on similar terms to these on which the corps was lately raised. Fanning believes that if any place is attacked in that quarter, it will be the island of St. John.

February 5, Whitehall, Secretary of State (Dundas) to Fanning. Order to raise a corps of 200 men to be divided into two companies with the usual officers, the Lieut. Governor to be conn ander without pay, the officers not to have rank in the army or to be entitled to half pay. The pay and subsistence of the corps to be the same as for the regular army; he is to draw for levy money and subsistence on the Treasury. Orders shall be sent to Halifax to issue the necessary arms and ammunition; clothing to be sent out. The levy money should not exceed two guineas a man, to be as far as possible applied to the purchase of vecessaries independent of the clothing.

exaggerated statements in the Governor's speeches and the addresses of the flourishing state of the island, the reverse being the case, arising from the fear of the island being annexed to Nova Scotia. The illegal conduct of the Governor in respect to the courts of law and other causes of a similar kind alleged as his reason for resigning; but this resignation shall not deprive him of his salary as Attorney General. Charges the Lieut, Governor with instigating his arrest on a debt of £25 to prevent him from leaving the island, having previously refused to sign a certificate for his (Aplin's) salary. A certificate is attached signed by Francis Longworthy of Aplin's arrest and detention in prison for debt.

Enclosed. Aplin to Fanning, 29th October, 1798. Is now out of the reach of his (Fanning's) power; appeals to him in a series of questions, if he has not done his duty as Actorney General and member of Council and charges him (Fanning) with attempting, by refusing certificate, to prevent him from going to defend his character.

(Undated. The proposal appears to have been made in London; the last letter of the Abbé addressed to the Secretary of State to be found in the correspondence, is dated 19th February; he delivered on his arrival on the island an official letter to the Governor, dated 6th May, so that the present document was, in all probability, written between these dates.)

He has been put in possession of the Fort lot, the buildings on which are much out of repair. The attachment of these gentlemen to the monarchy attracts his sympathy, as he himself had suffered from confiscation by a usurped government.

The situation of the town is superior to that of any other on the island. Enclosed. Fanning to Knox, 26th November, 1799. The motives which led to his application for leave of absence are becoming more pressing. Asks him to obtain from Portland a letter granting the leave. Understands that the Duke of Keut is to recommend his ease to Portland. Enclose memorial and documents.

Memorial (undated) from Fanning for compensation for his property at Mount Pleasant, near Halifax, taken for military purposes.

Ogilvie to Fanning, 2nd September, 1793. Is constructing a battery on the side of Point Pleasant, next to Halifax.

Lyman to Fanning, 25th August, 1797. The Duke of Kent has perused the letter respecting the Point Pleasant business, and he (Fanning) has only to forward his claims. Suggests that the memorial to Portland should be enclosed to the Duke, who would forward and recommend it. Stearns, the purchaser of the lot, would have given £1,000 more than he did but for the military works. The rest of the letter discusses the prospects of peace, etc.

Sterns to Lyman (undated). There is a difference of £1,000 between the time when Fanning left Point Pleasant and when he (Sterns) purchased, the difference being attributable to the military operations.

Secretary of State (Portland) to Farming. There is no objection to the lease given to de Calonne, except that it contains no power to distrain in case of a failure to pay the rent. A new lease should be given with such a clause added. Cannot consent to applying the rent for the encouragement of a French teacher; he must point out some other mode of applying the annual rent, such as making roads or for the support of a free school. The plan for settling Georgetown and neighbourhood worthy of consideration, but it cannot be carried into execution till the restraining instruction of 1791 shall be revoked; has a plan for further grants to be submitted to the King. Instead of John Wentworth, the King has appointed Peter Magowan to be Attorney General.

Since his (Wentworth's) arrival on the island, two months ago, more has been done towards quieting possessions, healing animosities and heats than within any former lifteen years. There has been too much reason to complain; but asks that no representations from any quarter should be trusted. His course has been to do strict justice, uninfluenced by any other consideration; the good effect of this. Fanning to Secretary of State (Hobart). Has received notice that preliminaries of peace have been signed with the French republic and by a subsequent dispatch that they had been ratified, with proclamation of the cessation of arms by sea and land.

Desbrisay to Secretary of State (Hobart). His right to command during December 6, Charlottetown the absence of Farming. No date.

"A detail of various transactions at Prince Edward Island and in par-"ticular the conduct of certain persons entrusted with the affairs of Gov-"ernment on the island, submitted to Mr. Vansittart at the Treasury and "Mr. Sullivan, in the Secretary of State's office by J. Hill, proprietor." A political account of affairs on the island, relative to the disputes between the absentee proprietors on the one side, and the Lieut. Governor and Council and the legislature on the other respecting the lands which it was sought to escheat for non-fulfilment of the conditions of the grants. All the officials are charged with malfeasance of office and it is urged that the island should be re-annexed to Nova Scotia, so that justice might be obtained in the courts, which it is alleged cannot be obtained under existing circumstances. (There is no date, the last mentioned is 1800, and the probability is that the document was prepared sometime in 1801.)

STATE PAPERS.—NEW BRUNSWICK.

1784. April 10. Queen Anne Street.

Thomas Carleton to Nepean. Sends copy, as well as he can recollect, of letter to Haldimand, explaining that he is remaining in London till his accounts are settled. Haldimand's demand that he (Carleton) should resign his office of Quarter-Master General, which he refused to do; hopes Lord Sydney will regard his supercession as unwarrantable.

Secretary of State (Sydney) to Thomas Carleton. He hopes the instructions will be sufficiently clear for his guidance, but directs his attention to various articles. Until an Assembly can be called, he and the Council can make ordinances, but, except in matters of regulation, trusts he will not frequently exercise the power, as the present population can at least enable him to lay the foundation of an Assembly. He is to issue a proclamation directing a registration of grants to be made, and the Assembly, when called, is to pass laws on the subject. The Great Seal and warrant shall be sent when ready. The declaration of the supremacy of the British Parliament is not to extend to the power of taxation, which has been given up. Sends estimate on which the grant for salaries, etc., is founded. How bills are to be drawn; the amount allowed for contingencies. On these heads he is to observe the directions in the minutes of Treasury of 28th November and 3rd December, 1764. Col. STATE PAPERS-NEW BRUNSWICK. 1784 November 15, W. Wylly to Nepean (?) His intention to settle; when the Governor Parrtown. returns from Halifax, he shall know what to expect here. The wonders effected by the loyalists; already between 2,000 and 3,000 houses are built from the entrance to the harbour and Carleton, on the opposite side, is a large village. Loyalists and disbanded soldiers are settled along the river for 150 miles. Windsor, Cornwallis, Horton and Annapolis are large, well cultivated districts. The good quality of the land. Col. Cor. N.B., vol. 1, p. 933 Rev. Mr. Walter to Nepean (?). Gives an account of his passage, November 20, Shelburne. arrival and eool reception given him by Parr. The declining state of Shelburne, owing to the removal of the settlers to their lands and other causes. The embarrassment in his church eaused by the settlement being divided into three parishes. The people are warm in his favour, with the exception of six or eight families; feels the opposition irksome. The people are about to erect a church and parsonage house; hopes for some help from November 24. Carleton to Secretary of State (Sydney). Arrived on the 21st. (Carle-Parrtown. ton arrived at Halifax before the 30th October, see letter of that date.) Has published his commission and issued a proclamation announcing the boundaries of the province and authorizing the civil and military officers to continue in the execution of their duties. (Parrtown was the name given at that time to St. John.) November 24. Carleton to Secretary of State (Sydney). Has issued a proclamation to put Parrtown. a stop to the illicit trade between the province and the United States. November 25. Carleton to Secretary of State (Sydney). Sends copy of proclamation Parrtown. respecting the exhibition and registry of grants of land. Proclamation. November 25. Carleton to Secretary of State (Sydney). Has appointed George D. to be assistant judges; their merits. Hopes that the appointments will be confirmed, and that the assistant judges may receive £300 a year, the same A list of the officials (undated, but apparently about the date of the letter) gives the name of Cox, instead of Putnam, as one of the assistant judges. 92

Carleton to Secretary of State (Sydney). Transmits papers received by Parr from Massachusetts and sent to him (Carleton). Has not thought it necessary to correspond respecting the irregularity of Massachusetts appointing commissioners to settle the boundary without a concurrent appointment by Great Britain. The importance of the question, if it be a question of the western boundary, to New Brunswick. The middle river of the three called St. Croix, known as the Scudiac, is the only one of importance, and was no doubt the one intended in the treaty.

Enclosed. Governor Hancock to Parr, dated Boston, 12th November. Sends resolution and proclamation of Congress respecting the Eastern boundary line of the State of Massachusetts. A committee of that State has found that the most easterly of the the three rivers falling into Passamaquody Bay is the boundary and desires that the provincial officers who have been encroaching on that territory be ordered to withdraw.

The resolution of Congress, dated 29th January, 1784. Its terms are embodied in the preceding letter.

Carleton to Secretary of State (Sydney). Has received additional instruction suspending the direction respecting the declaration to be made by persons holding offices of trust in the province.

No date. Proposed members of Council and of civil officers in New Brunswick. 889, 891

Same to the same. From the sudden increase of inhabitants and the necessity for municipal regulations, had granted a charter of incorporation to the City of St. John, so called at the wish of the inhabitants. (Formerly Parrtown.) The internal police is to be regulated as in New York when it was under His Majesty's government, the aldermen, assistants and constables to be chosen annually in the respective wards, the mayor, sheriff, recorder and clerk to be appointed by the Governor, the two first yearly, the other two to hold office during pleasure. Remarks on the duties of the Common Conneil, the inferior courts, &c. The province will soon be divided into eight counties, three along the Bay of Fundy, four up the St. John River and one at Miramichi. How justice is to be administered. Has endeavoured to form a settle I government before calling an Assembly; has fixed the fees, &c., but has avoided making ordinances that might lead to the belief that government was to be carried on without an Assembly. Has departed to some extent from the system in Nova Scotia, so as to seeme more power to the executive. Every step has been taken with the unanimous advice of the Conneil.

Enclosed.—Letter to Campbell, 8th June. Letter to the Secretary at War, 15th June.

July 10, St. John. Carleton to Nepean. The disappointment the assistant judges will feel should the salary be fixed at £200, instead of the £300 they expect. Shall apply, as recommended, for the allowance for honse rent. The information by Twiss "on a certain subject" (not specified) is satisfactory. Hopes that he (Carleton) is not to move this year as he has made a certain progress towards organising. Doubts the expediency at this time of Hamilton's project for a Canadian Assembly, as he believes, unless the state of society has advanced rapidly in the last three years, that the inhabitants would not understand it. (Hamilton was Lieut, Governor of Quebec for eleven months from November, 1784, to October, 1785. His correspondence is in series Q. vols. 24 and 25.) Surveys have been made of the Seudiac, a copy of the last shall be sent by the first opportunity. Regrets that Lord Sydney has been prejudiced against him (Carleton): hopes for Nepean's services to counteract this.

July 13, St. John. Same to Secretary of State (Sydney). Has received Orders in Conneil respecting trade with the United States and sends proclamation issued in accordance with them.

Secretary of State (Sydney) to Carleton. It is represented that the traders of Nantucket, Marble Head, Boston and other parts of the United States have settled agents in Halifax, under pretence of emigration, who have procured clearances by which cargoes of whale oil are sent to London in vessels not belonging to His Majesty's subjects, thus avoiding the alien duty. Carleton to Secretary of State (Sydney). Has received table of fees; re-September 28, monstrates against the disproportion of those allotted to the Governor and those for the Secretary, inverting the natural order by giving the inferior a larger amount than the responsible officer. The difficulties in settling claims of land; the arrival of the Surveyor General may lessen these.

Col. Cor., N.B., vol. 1, p. 175 List of fees established by the Governor in Council. Carleton to Secretary of State (Sydney). Sends copies of letters to the Treasury, of letter from Major General Campbell and answer on the subject of defraying the expenses incurred in the public departments. Trusts it will be found that he had incurred no expenses but what were absolutely necessary.

Enclosed. To the Treasnry, same date. Sends Campbell's letter and answer on the subject of the extra expense of drawing bills on Halifax. The scarcity of circulating specie in New Brunswick; the merchants have been obliged to send cash to Great Britain as they could not get Government bills.

Campbell to Carleton, Halifax, 2nd September. Hopes that the necessity to purchase provisions for the loyalists in St. John may not occur again, as an ample supply shall be sent from Halifax. Shall furnish the commander of the troops with money or bills to pay for provisions in ease of emergency, so as to save the enormous discount of seven and a half per cent.

Carleton to Campbell, St. John, 28th September. Explains the cause of drawing on Halifax and the proposal of Winslow, Campbell's late secretary, by which the enormous discount could have been avoided. Is gratified to find that an ample supply of provisions will be furnished.

1785. September 29, St. John.

Carleton to Secretary of State (Sydney). Sends copies of letters to Secretary at War and Major General Campbell, which he hoped would show that he had no intention of interfering with the latter's command of the troops in New Brunswick. The expense and other disadvantages of having to refer to Halifax for orders.

Col. Cor. N.B., vol. 1, p. 203

Enclosed. Carleton to Secretary at War, 28th September. Sends copies of letters from Campbell on the subject of the subordinate command of troops in New Brunswick. Had no intention to act on the warrant to hold general courts martial, so long as Campbell was in command, whose orders he had scrupulously taken. The interests of the province have suffered by the command of the troops being vested in an officer stationed at Halifax and the progress of the settlement would be greatly advanced by the military command being in the hands of the Governor, unless a commander-in-chief is placed over all the provinces.

Campbell to Carleton, 2nd September. The warrant to him (Carleton) to hold courts martial, &c., he believes to have been sent by an error of the elerk in the War Office, such innovation in his command not having been notified to him officially; shall take the earliest opportunity to have Carleton to Campbell, 27th September. Before leaving Halifax, he believed Campbell understood that he (Carleton) was in command of the troops in New Brunswick, subject to orders from Halifax; this belief was confirmed by subsequent communications. Cannot conceive that a commission under the Great Seal can deprive a military officer of the privileges of his rank.

September 29, St. John,

Carleton to Nepean. Is sending this by Ensign Pawlet, with dispatches to the Secretary of State, conveying ideas of disagreement between him (Carleton) and Campbell, which it had been his intention to avoid. The change in Campbell's feeling towards New Brunswick caused by a change in his family, he being a weak man with a great deal of vanity, easily influenced by those around him. Hopes Lord Sydney will not think he has dwelt too much on the subject of fees; had it been decided he was to have none, he would have acquiesced with pleasure, but establishing a rate below that of an inferior was against all rule. Has received no supply of provisions as promised; an additional supply is absolutely required for this winter. The promising appearance of the settlements.

October 5, Whitehall. Secretary of State (Sydney) to Carleton. Is informed by dispatch that owing to the increase of the inhabitants of St. John, he had granted the town an Act of Incorporation; the measure should have been submitted to His Majesty before this was granted; a copy of the charter is to be forwarded for the King's consideration. Cannot conceive that publishing Orders in Council for the good government of New Brunswick could lead the inhabitants to believe that it was intended to govern without an Assembly, as it was known one was to be called in winter. By instructions, the table of fees was to be transmitted for the King's approbation; is informed that a table has been published by ordinance, but no copy has been sent; that must be done on receipt of this letter, if a copy has not been sent before it reaches.

Carleton to Secretary of State (Sydney). Sends copies of letters from Bowdoin, Governor of Massachusetts, and answer, in respect to some islands in Passamaquody Bay, which that State affects to claim. The decision depends on the general question of the western boundary of New Brunswick as settled by treaty and has been referred to Congress, but as Massachusetts appears to be preparing for a declaration of independence, the question may have to be settled by a new and independent State. 299

Enclosed. Bowdoin to Carleton, 9th September. Calls attention to the reported claim by New Brunswick to Moose, Dudley and Fred Islands. Believes this report to be founded on the action of the sheriff in directing the inhabitants to attend as jurymen at St. Andrews. Gives this information, as he is of opinion that the Government of New Brunswick has not given its sanction to this step. The question of the territories east of the Secodiae has been referred to Congress.

Carleton to Bowdoin, 18th October. Holds that the sheriff is fully entitled to summon jurymen from Moose, Dudley and Fred Islands to serve at St. Andrews, in accordance with the treaty.

November 20. Carleton to Secretary of State (Sydney). The elections going on in the counties; the revival of party spirit to answer election purposes; the people induced by representations to avoid Government men and vote for those pointed out by Hardy, a lawyer. By these acts and by keeping the lower orders intoxicated a riot took place, the military were called out, the most active arrested and the houses of entertainment ordered to be closed; as a result, the election is now conducted in a peaceable manner. The necessity for keeping a firm hand on the lawless habituated to disorder during the civil war. The sober part of the community can be relied upon to repress more serious disturbances, with which the slender military ferce might not be able to cope.

Denbigh to Secretary of State (Sydney). Had applied respecting a claim of Mrs. Farrel in regard to Deer Island. Since then Capt. Farrel has appeared who, it was supposed, had been dead many years. If His Lordship can be of use, he (Denbigh) shall be obliged.

April 6, St. John. Carleton to Secretary of State (Sydney). In consequence of suspicious circumstances, inquiry was made into the case of the shipment of whale oil by Gillam Butler of Campo Bello; the Attorney General has been ordered to prosecute him. The Collector is sending the papers to the commissioners of Customs.

April 6, St. James's. Commission revoking the commission to Thomas Carleton to be Governor of New Brunswick and appointing Sir Guy Carleton Captain General and Governor in Chief of the same.

Col. Off., N.B., vol. 1, p. 63

(Passed the Great Seal on the 27th April.)

April 18, Whitehall. Secretary of State (Sydney) to Carleton. Dispatches received and laid before the King. The difference of opinion between him and Major General Campbell, it is satisfactory to learn, has produced no inconvenience. Sir Guy Carleton, appointed to the chief command, will settle all differences. An agreement between him and Campbell might have saved the enormous discount of 7½ per cent on public expenditure. His proclamation admitting effects in American bottoms is repugnant to the regulations and the indulgence is to be discontinued. Has recommended to the Treasury to defray the expense of rent for a Governor's house, but an allowance for firing cannot be admitted. The assistant judges to have salaries of £30° each. Would have recommended Chipman to succeed Blowers as Attorney General, but on the removal of Blowers, the appointment was given to Bliss, he having been promised it. Chipman will be made an allowance for his services between the removal of Blowers and the arrival of Bliss.

Leonard shall be appointed to an office on the first opportunity. The fees in New Brunswick are to be the same as those in Nova Scotia. The King regrets the disturbance at the election in St. John; on account of the intemperate conduct of Harding, all indulgences are to be withdrawn from him and from those who followed his example. The good effect of the eheck by him (Carleton) to these proceedings. The number of representatives fixed on is approved of; he might have confined the voters to those who held lands, or were entitled to grants, as that would probably have prevented the disturbanees. From the harmony among the different branches of the legislature, he believes that such regulations on this subject as may be necessary will be enacted. The Treasury will write him respecting the grant of further provisions to the loyalists. A. & W. I., vol. 568

Secretary of State (Sydney) to Carleton. His replies to the Governor of Massachusetts approved of. The survey transmitted shows that the Scoodiac, or Great St. Croix, is the natural boundary and the one intended by the treaty. There can be no difficulty in ascertaining in whom is invested the sovereignty of Moose, Dudley and Fred Islands, as the deeds to the lands in them will show under whose jurisdiction they were; he is to examine these and report. Col. Cor., N.B., vol. 1, p. 365

(Copy in Col. Off., N. B., vol. 1, p. 102.)

Secretary of State (Sydney), to Carleton. Sir Guy Carleton has been appointed Governor General over all the remaining dominions in America; this will revoke his (Thomas Carleton's) commission. In the absence of Sir Guy, the administration must be in the hands of a Lieut. Governor. On the removal of Haldimand and Hamilton, the charge of the Province of Quebec has been placed in the hands of Hope; in accordance with his (Thomas Carleton's) desire, that office is offered to him, but the King believes he would be of essential service by remaining in New Brunswick.

Col. Cor., N.B., vol. 1, p. 371

(Copy in Col. Off., N.B., vol. 1, p. 106). Letter dated the 19th in Col. Cor., N.B., vol. 1, p. 375, copy of which is in Col. Off., N.B., vol. 1, p. 109, is almost identical with the preceding letter of the 18th in A. & W. I., vol. 568.

Carleton to Secretary of State (Sydney). States his position in regard to a people collected on a coast scarcely inhabited. His reasons for granting an Act of Incorporation to St. John and the interpretation of his powers in that respect. The laws adopted and ordinances passed by the Governor in Council have been re-enacted by the legislature during its meeting. Copy of the table of fees was sent; now sends copy of the charter. The province is now in a state of obedience; artful men had used the distress of the people as a means of stirring up divisions; these men first attacked the corporation, then the Assembly in which they had failed to obtain seats; they also raised riots, but have been tried, convicted and punished, with the full support of the country, and the turbulent have been obliged to find employment elsewhere.

Col. Cor., N.B., vol. 1, p. 395 Enclosed. Charter of the City of St. John. Carleton to Secretary of State (Sydney). Sends naval officer's returns for St. John and St. Andrew's.

Secretary of State (Sydney) to Carleton. George Leonard to succeed Binney as superintendent of trade and fishery at Canso.

Carleton to Secretary of State (Sydney). John Cairns, convicted of publishing a seditious libel and sentenced to pay a fine of £100, having been recommended by the judges and jury, the payment of the fine is suspended till His Majesty's pleasure be known. (The immediately preceding letter is undated, but was apparently written between the 14th and 25th May).

1786,
June I, St. John.	Carleton to Nepean. His satisfaction at the appointment of a Governor General. A copy of the charter of St. John was sent by way of New York and a printed copy sent to Halifax for transmission. Sends the only ordinance passed; 60 Acts of the legislature shall be forwarded shortly. Had no expectation of a salary being granted to the members of Council, but some got so tired of the business that an application had to be made, which has put them in good lumour. After an appearance of faction, perfect tranquillity prevails and the Government possesses the full confidence of the people. Col. Cor., N.B., vol. 1, p. 453
June 4, St. John.	Same to Secretary of State (Sydney). His proclamation sent on the 4th March, 1785, was intended only to admit unregistered vessels bringing families and their effects from the United States, the consideration being that they were unable to obtain registered vessels there; all others were confined to registered vessels. Same to the same. An investigation shows that of the land mentioned by Hamond in his memorial only four small lots had been improved by him; a number of Acadians had settled on the tract, to whom no grant had been made, and an opportunity was taken to quiet their possessions, Another mistake had arisen in consequence of a want of survey; the land described as containing 10,000 acres was found to have 18,000; 30 farms were laid out for loyalists, whose titles also were secured. The escheated part of the land has now been parcelled out to loyalists in farms of 200

Same to the same. In answer to complaint of West Indian planters and merchants respecting distilleries, reports that there are none in New Brunswick. It was proposed to introduce a bill to prohibit them, but there was no hope of it passing, so long as distilleries were allowed in Canada and Nova Scotia. Arnold has brought out material for a distillery, but he (Carleton) cannot tell what quantity can be made. The distillation of rum will not affect the sale of that from the West Indies, as it costs about as much, and the home-made rum will not be used unless a reduction in price forms a temptation. The importation of rum from the United States last year amounted to £15,000, so that unadulterated rum from the West Indies would appear to be in need of some protection.

November 30, St. John.

James Glenie to Finucane. Received power of attorney and forwarded letter to Carleton, who said he had already forwarded dispatches respecting Sugar Island. Hears it is divided into ten acre lots, with the intention of cutting all the timber on it and that the Chief Justice, his son-in-law Robinson and Judge Allen have some of the lots; the Governor is to have his share. To attempt to recover his (Finncane's) property by a process of law would be the height of madness, with the Governor and a majority of the Bench against him. The province would have had twice the population had the Government not been inimical to its settlement. Unless the Governor be removed and Ludlow and Allen dismissed, the province will soon be ruined. He (Glenie) had been elected to the Assembly for the eounty of Sunbury without solicitation on his part, although the Government's pitiful junto for months practised every stratagem, every low artifice and lie to prevent it. "They are eursedly alarmed, for they suppose that a majority of the House will follow me and that their villainous practices will not only be examined into but brought to light and exposed."

Glenie to Finucane. Repeats his statement in letter of 30th November, that the Governor and judges are to have each part of Sugar Island, although they can have no possible claim to it. Wonders how the Secretary of State permits his injunctions respecting the business to be trifled with by a Governor totally unfitted for his office. "Had the Minister known "him as well as I do, he would have considered the recommendation of such "a measure as making him a Lieutenaut-Governor (from wherever it might come) an insult." The rest of the letter is an unfavourable criticism of all the officials in very emphatic terms. The Chief Justice is described as "Ludlow, the ignorand, strutting Chief Justice," who is stated to have prevailed on "Tommy Carleton" (the Lieut, General) to recommend as successor to Judge Putnam "Young Beverley Robinson, a man on whom "nature has fixed the stamp of stupidity" and who had not received even a school boy education, "It is as much as he can do to write his own name," His brother Jack who married Ludlow's daughter and who three years ago could neither read nor write, is fixed on as successor to "old Beverley." Billop, recommended to succeed Willard in the Council, is described as "an ignorant, uncouth Dutch boor," &c. &c.

February 15, Somerset St.

Col. Cor., N.B., vol. 2, p. 711 Andrew Finucane to Secretary of State. Complains of the treatment he has received in the supreme court of New Brunswick in respect to his claim as heir to his brother of lands in that province. States that he was driven off the lands by a riotous mob, who with violence and threats of instant death compelled him to leave. On applying to the governor he was advised to appeal to the ordinary law, and did so, bringing an action of ejectment, but was non-suited, proper evidence being refused. The refusal of justice has caused great uneasiness in the minds of the people, and from the bias of the judges he was recommended to apply to the Treasury, which he did, and proved his case. It was on their decision that His Lordship (the Secretary of State) founded his letter to Carleton of 12th February, 1789, which he had delivered and was referred to the court, before judges who support the outrage and hold part of the lands. His unfortunate position, after serving as military secretary to every general who commanded in Nova Scotia, and as commissary of prisoners, he is now left without half pay, which has been given to every other commissary who served in America; solicits employment.

Steps were taken in New Brunswick to form such an institution and a charter was in process of preparation, but a letter from Lord Sydney led to the abandonment of the charter. The college lands are let at an annual rent of £100, the whole of the revenue applicable to the infant establishment, the rest of the college lands being a wilderness and unproductive. So far only a grammar school has been in operation, but the trustees hope now, with his Majesty's paternal regard, to enlarge their plan of instruction and complete their foundation of a liberal and learned education. There are now six ministers of the Church of England, having salaries from the Society for the propagation of the Gospel, in addition to £100 allotted to each by an annual grant of Parliament, the glebe lands being still unproductive. The province has been divided into eight counties with 39 parishes, all of which, however, do not require a permanent minister at present.

Carleton to Dorchester, Received His Lordship's letter stating that he had appointed a captain and lieutenant of militia at Madawaska and proposing, until the boundary is settled that the same person should be commissioned by him (Carleton). Intended to appoint two magistrates. The disorders caused among the Indians by the sale of spirits to them by Canadian traders, of whom one Robicheau is pointed out as the principal offender. By keeping them after their hunting in a state of "riotous intoxication," they strip them of their furs and peltry and leave them a burden on the inhabitants. As the officers of militia can have no civil jurisdiction he will appoint two magistrates, the two he has selected being Pierre Duperre and Louis Mercure, if he (Dorchester) approve.

Carleton to Secretary of State (Grenville). In answer to Dorchester's questions on the division of the province of Quebec, recommends that Gaspé Bay remain as part of Quebec and that the settlements on the south side of the Bay of Chaleurs and the Restigouche should remain part of New Brunswick. Objects to a clause to prevent the escape of persons from one jurisdiction to another as it would be productive of a greater evil than it was intended to remedy. The increased settlement caused by the removal of the capital to Fredericton. A number of Acadian families granted 16,000 acres about 30 miles above the Great Falls, a little below the entrance of the Madawaska. Fifty heads of families have settled on farms of 200 acres each; hearing that it was proposed to place them under the Lo Oct

"arisdiction of Quebec, they have sent a memorial to be continued as part of New Brunswick. Thinks the boundary should be left as at present, but if a change is to take place proposes that "it might run from the Western "extremity of the Bay of Chalcurs by the River Restigouche, to its source, "and from thence by a direct line through the middle of the Lake Tamas-"quata (Temisconata) to be continued Westerly till it reaches the same line "of highlands that form the present boundary." October 30, Fredericton. Carleton to Nepean. The delay in receipt of dispatches, by being first sent to New York and thence to Halifax. October 30, Fredericton, Carleton to Secretary of State (Grenville). The letter to Sproule, respecting the stoppage of the allowance originally intended to have been made to him, was received on the 3rd of October, 1785, to which date, therefore, he hopes to be paid that allowance.

December 20, London,

Murray to Nepean. States the circumstances of his appointment to the office of provost-marshal, his disappointment at the subsequent settlement for the amount of salary made by the Lieut.-Governor and Council, his appointment to be sheriff which instead of furnishing subsistence proved to be a heavy burden, so that he was obliged to leave New Brunswick to avoid a prison. Applies to him (Nepean) for relief as his only friend. In his memorial he asks for the salary of provost-marshal, as he is so totally invalided by wounds that he is unable for employment where personal exertions may be necessary.

1791. January 3, London.

Same to the same. In reference to the suggestion that the only place which might be found for him was that of Provost-marshal in the new province, explains that such an office was the last he could think of, as he was unable for the necessary personal exertions. What he wished was to have the salary of the Provost-marshal of New Brunswick granted to him as a pension.

January 13, London,

Same to the same. Should be be unable to obtain the salary of Provost-marshal, asks for the appointment of commissary of musters in New Brurswick, to which no one has been appointed.

July 15, Fredericton.

Carleton to Secretary of State (Grenville). The situation of the country requires that permission should be continued to import grain and provisions, to which he has been induced to add lumber. The erection of sawmills with the expectation of speedily being able to supply the wants of the inhabitants and export to the West Indies has been a disappointment, the greater part of the country being unsettled and the timber in the vicinity of the mills soon cut up; the expense, therefore, of bringing timber from a distance was found too great, so that several have abandoned the undertaking, which cannot be resumed till the country is better populated. The reserve of mast timber has also had a discouraging effect, the deputy surveyors seizing all pine timber cut without a license, for which a considerable fee is charged. Suggests the relinquishment of these restraints on private property, which tend to discourage cultivation and settlement, especially as the reserves of pine lands are sufficient. The lumber sent from the province to the West Indies has been mostly taken from the American States, and, in consequence of the heavy port charges on British vessels in their ports, an illicit trade has sprung up for that trade and to supply the inhabitants.

August 6, Whitehall.

Secretary of State (Dundas) to Carleton. Transmits memorial from Peters, a black, complaining that he and his associates have not received the lands promised them; an inquiry to be made into the circumstances. Should the promises not have been fulfilled, he is to give immediate directions to have the land granted. A plan has been lately formed for a settlement on the Sierra Leone River, and Peters believes that that would afford him and persons of a like description an asylum better suited to their constitutions than Nova Scotia and New Brunswick; he has expressed the wish that he and others may be removed thither. Although attended with expense to the country, His Majesty wishes to gratify this desire and he is to lay the plan before the blacks to ascertain how many wish to remove to Sierra Leone, free passage being provided. As soon as this is ascertained, the people desirous to go are to be sent to Annapolis, where Governor Parr will provide sufficient shipping. Government takes no part in the business further than to gratify those who are dissatisfied. It has been proposed to engage blacks to serve in the West Indies as a separate corps, to be attached to the different regiments on service there; the steps he is to take with that end in view.

Bliss to Nepean. Has for seven years he'd the office of Attorney General of New Brunswick, during which time he has necessarily spent £700 above the emoluments of his office and profession; solicits an office of superior value. His situation has neither been so comfortable nor so lucrative as he had a right to expect; suggests that he he appointed a judge in Lower Canada or Nova Scotia with an annual salary of £500.

December 13, Fredericton,

Col. Cor., N.B., vol. 2, p. 763 Carleton to Secretary of State (Dundas). Has received dispatch with memorial from Peters, with orders to investigate the complaint in it. The blacks who had served in a military position received grants with their corps. Peters and others, who came as refugees solely to avoid servitude with their masters were only entitled to an asylum and freedom, which they now enjoy in common with all white subjects, and they have had lots granted to them as new settlers in the town of St. John, where they remained so long as provisions were allowed them. As they could not subsist on town lots, farms were offered them where they could settle, and three companies being formed lands which they selected were laid out for them. These are all situated conveniently from the town of St. John; only five out of the whole had attempted to cultivate their lands. The tract referred to by Peters was applied for by Lieut Murray, of the late Queen's Rangers, it having remained unoccupied. None of the blacks in New Brunswick had deputed Peters, nor had they any knowledge of his application till he told them after his return. Most of them have entered into the service of families, and as wages are high they have no grounds for complaint. The returns he has obtained show that all the blacks decline to enlist; 161 embrace the offer to remove to Sierra Leone, namely, 52 men, 49 women, and 60 ehildren, for whose removal to Annapolis eraft has been taken up.

1792January 15, Whitehall.

Glenie to Nepean. Sends observations on New Brnnswick as promised, Describes the fall of the St. John River into the Bay of Fundy and the river as far as Fredericton, most injudiciously selected as the capital; above that are rapids, shoals and currents. How shoals are formed impeding the navigation, so that in a short time even row boats will be unable to navigate the river below Fredericton; this will show the impropriety of making it the capital. At this place, incapable of defence, a barrack is in process of erection, which has cost already £4,000 and will cost £5,000 before it is finished. Other two forts have been erected further up the river; the expense of transport alone for provisions for three companies in them was £2,000; the same farce will be repeated next summer, if not prevented and both these posts are within the limits of the United States as settled by treaty; the evidence this affords of military and political capacity. The only reason given for their erection was to encourage the settlement of the upper part of the river, for neither the engineer nor any other military man was consulted. If the history of the settlers there were known, it would fill the mind with horror. The uselessness of two regiments being kept here, not being necessary in time of peace and of no service in time of war, so long as they are huddled up at Fredericton, mounting guard on the Governor's farm.

Secretary of State (Dundas) to Carleton. His reports on the condition of the free blacks and on the memorial of Peters are satisfactory, but he trusts his (Dundas's) letter of the 15th January would put a stop to all further expense for removing the negroes; has advised payment of the bill drawn for the expense, but it should have been drawn on the Treasury accompanied with the necessary vouchers. Takes it for granted that his assent to the importation of lumber was dictated by public emergency. It is not intended to surrender His Majesty's right to the white pine suitable for masts for the navy.

Carleton to Secretary of State (Dundas). Has received instructions as to provision to be made for certain loyalists, to which he will pay due attention. Is informed of the appointment of Parker, Comptroller of Customs, to the seat in Council, vacant by the death of Robinson, should the collector not accept. Had recommended Saunders, one of the judges, who is the most suitable for the position. Remonstrates against the impropriety of persons soliciting recommendations without regard to the Governor, whose position should be supported against the attacks of faction, etc., which will not fail to appear should it be understood that the most important appointments may be obtained without reference to the Governor. Does not impute such motives to either the Collector or Parker, but there are persons in the province with fairer pretensions to distinction than either of them.

Transmits memorial from the county of Westmoreland, respecting application from the Assembly of Nova Scotia for an alteration in the boundary between that province and New Brunswick. He takes it for granted that no such measure will be adopted without consulting Government, but he has thought it his duty to inform him (Dundas) of the wishes of those immediately concerned and reports, from his own knowledge, that no public benefit could arise from the proposed alteration.

November 20, Fredericton.

Carleton to Secretary of State (Dundas). Has received letter from Major General Clarke, ordering the removal of part of the troops from New Brunswick to Nova Scotia. The arrangements previously made for the protection and assistance of the loyalists, by which the settlements were extended fifty miles above Fredericton, but on the withdrawing of the second regiment the progress of the upper settlement was impeded by the insolence of the savages and the communication with Quebec threatened. A single regiment not being able to prevent these inconveniences, the 6th regiment was sent on his application in 1790; with this addition, he has been able to keep up the posts at St. John and Cumberland and to establish others at the Grand Falls and Presqu' Isle, as well as to keep a respectable corps at Fredericton; the importance of the latter; by the chain of posts communication with Canada is easy and safe and the settlements are made secure. Should the troops be withdrawn there would be a dislocation of the system deliberately planned and at great expense. In addition, it is only through New Brunswick that a hostile attempt by land can be made on Nova Scotia, so that it is of importance to keep a due proportion of troops there. Sees no adequate reason for a reinforcement to Nova Scotia.

December 10, Whitehall. Secretary of State (Dundas) to Carleton. Is sorry to see the dispute with Quebec in respect to the jurisdiction in the case of A. and M. Robichaud and F. Albert. The circumstances are serious, as Jacques Cir (Cyr elsewhere), lieutenant of militia vested with the execution of the process, was arrested, conducted to the Grand Sault and compelled to give a promisory note to Albert for £10 13s.—the expenses alleged to have been incurred. The harshness of the proceeding towards a person o ity employed ministerially is extremely reprehensible. The a. est was made by Costin, a justice of the peace for Madawaska and York County, who had also appointed two officers of militia by election of the people—a positive assumption of the King's prerogative. Officers of militia were appointed by Dorchester for Madawaska, which makes Costin's conduct inexcusable. His (Carleton's) dispatches since received do not make necessary any change in the first part of this dispatch respecting the arrest of Cyr or the election of officers of militia. No Act of Parliament is necessary to alter the boundaries between Quebec and New Brunswick, the Act of 1774 established them only during the King's pleasure. The division of Quebec into Upper and Lower Canada was not by Act but by an Order in Council. In respect to the recommendation to a seat in the Council, such recommendation is usually attended to, but cannot be invariable without losing control. On this occasion Saunders has been appointed. February 7, Fredericton. Carleton to Secretary of State (Dundas). As he may be obliged to draw bills at a discount for the subsistence and contingent expenses of the two regiments, asks that £6,000 may be sent in specie.

February 8, Whitehall. Secretary of State (Dundas) to Carleton. He is to raise a corps of 600 men in New Brunswick, which he is to command without pay; the officers are not to be entitled to half-pay, the corps being for service in New Brunswick only. If he cannot raise 600 men, he is to appoint officers for the smaller number only, to be selected from those on half-pay. The pay and subsistence are to be the same as are allowed to the regular troops; he is to draw on the Treasury for the expense, and orders shall be sent to furnish arms, etc. When the restriction on granting lands is withdrawn, the services of such of the corps as are without grants shall be considered. The healthfulness of the climate; the advantages that will arise to Great Britain by an increase of population, to which efforts should be directed. The misehief caused by the large reserves of land which should be put a stop to, as other measures for preserving mast timber are more effectual. The restriction on the granting of lands is also a hindrance to settlement. Measures suggested for increasing the populalation.

Same to Grenville. Transmits draught of charter for incorporating a college in New Brunswick. The state of the population does not immediately require the completion of this establishment, but the inhabitants, with few exceptions, cannot afford the expense of education at a distance and many having had a liberal education covet the same for their children. It would be a consolation for them to see this institution cherished, a monument of His Majesty's goodness and a proof that in this respect no preference had been given to the older province of Nova Scotia. The number of scholars is 17, exclusive of those who are under nine years of age; sends list of books used. The trustees have purchased a lot with a house, sufficient for some years for all the necessary purposes of the college. If a benefaction similar to that for Nova Scotia be granted, it shall be invested in the funds with the grant from the Assembly, to provide for such salaries as shall enable the trustees to procure from one of the English Universities a principal and one or more professors.

Cyr, he learns, has been indemnified by that province; had he sued Coslin in New Brunswick the judgment would, no doubt, have been in his (Cyr's) favour, but he doubts Costin's ability to have made any satisfaction. Hopes that nothing more will arise out of the business. The statement that Costin had caused militia officers to be elected is a mistake, as the officers were appointed by him (Carleton). The Acadians of Madawaska have shown a decided predilection for the British government.

March 29, Fredericton. Same to the same. Has been informed that in consequence of proceedings in France the King had found it necessary to put himself into a posture of defence and has directed that an account be sent of the state of the province. Exclusive of His Majesty's troops, now reduced to one battalion, the internal force consists of militia scattered over extensive settlements; if collected there could be only about three thousand, almost universally without arms having been compelled to sell those they brought with them. When a rupture was threatened with Spain, he applied to Lord Dorchester for a supply but the change rendered this unnecessary, so that the militia have been without arms and consequently without discipline. Any attack would probably be of a predatory character, either at St. Andrew's or St. John. Small batteries en barbette would be sufficient for their defence on the landside; the efficiency of a naval force.

Carleton to Secretary of State (Dundas). Sends extract from a letter written by Pagan of St. Andrews. However sincere the American States may be in their declaration of neutrality, their Government does not appear to have sufficient energy to prevent predatory equipments which may justly be considered the prelude of unavoidable and open hostility.

Col. Cor., N.B., vol. 3, p. 281 Enclosed. Extract from Pagan's letter of 30th July. Reports the arrival of French ships in Chesapcake Bay and the fitting out of privateers at Boston, notwitstanding the spirited opposition of the principal inhabitants.

September 4, Whitehall. Secretary of State (Dundas) to Carleton. Has sent to the Admiralty copy of his letter; approves of his having granted letters of marque. The exigencies of the service did not appear to warrant the appointment of so many officers to the new corps; if fewer than six companies are raised the officers cannot all be employed; Hazen's appointment may continue, but he is to understand that he is not entitled to half-pay. The Act respecting elections sent to the Privy Council; when it is returned he shall be informed of the result. The Acts are sent in an informal manner; how they should be attested.

337 Enclosed. Speech and addresses.

(These are extracts from the minutes of Council and journal of Assembly.) Secretary of State (Dundas) to Carleton. Has sent to the Treasury extract from his letter respecting clothing. Regimental returns are to be sent monthly. Is satisfied that care will be taken to check expenditure on the recruiting service, where no vouchers can be obtained. Approves of the Militia Act, but, as that should be permanent, desires him to propose to the Council and Assembly to repeal the last clause. The King's satisfaction at the zeal shown by the inhabitants in providing for the defence of the harbour of St. John; a squadron is about to be sent to protect it. (Copy in Col. Carleton to Secretary of State (Dundas). Acknowledges the honour of the King's approbation; the inhabitants of St. John will feel flattered; returns thanks in their names and his own.

July 4, Fredericton.

Same to the same. Alarm of the inhabitants of the upper settlement of the St. John, at the arrival of strangers at a farm near Maductic, about 40 miles above Fredericton, who planted a land mark on what they said was the line between New Brunswick and the United States; whether this is done by public authority or by private adventurers is uncertain. It cuts off some of the best lands, well settled, and also the communication through the province with Canada. Suggests, to prevent doubt, that it be settled with the United States, that New Brunswick be bounded by the Scudiac, or St. Croix, from its mouth to the source of its Western branch and tence North West to the Southern boundary of Canada. The United States by such an arrangement would relinquish nothing but a tract of wilderness they have never attempted to settle.

W. Knox to King. Transmits petition from the Society for the Pro-Soho Square. pagation of the Gospel, to be laid before the Duke of Portland.

The petition (enclosed) is for 500 acres of land in New Brunswick.

Distribution of the New Brunswick regiment. 451 Secretary of State (Portland) to Carleton. There does not appear to be too great a proportion of officers of the New Brunswick regiment at headquarters, but the return of recruits leaves no proportion to the number of officers on that service. The officers of the 6th company should be discontinued till the 5th company is raised or in a fair way of being so. Carleton to Secretary of State (Portland). Had chartered the armed brig "Union" for the defence of the coast to check the attacks of privateers; the first charter for two months was extended for another month and he was requested to continue the charter longer, but Admiral Murray has written that he will send a ship as early in spring as it will be safe; the "Union" was therefore, dismissed on 14th December. The total expense has been £625 17s. 1½d., for which he has drawn on the Treasury. Encloses copy of the charter party with accounts and vouchers and copy of letter to Long.

Secretary of State (Portland) to Carleton (secret). In appointing an agent to ascertain the boundaries with the United States, he is to select the best qualified person, without favour or partiality; sends copies of previous correspondence respecting the boundaries. The agent is to be furnished with all necessary information. Transmits copy of section of the Act of Parliament of 1775, defining the boundary, passed at a time when it did not affect the extent of His Majesty's territories. This shows clearly that the river called the Maguadavic in Sproule's map, taken from actual survey in 1791, cannot be meant. The question can only lie between the Chaputnatecook and the St. Croix, which unite in a north-west direction. run in the same channel and fall into Passamaquoddy Bay on the west side of St. Andrews. In the conversations and correspondence with the commissioners of the United States in 1782, there is no information on the subject. The agent employed must, therefore, obtain full information and the best evidence. Sends copy of the chart of the St. Creix, Passamaquoddy Bay and islands adjacent, taken by Morrris in 1765, by order of Wilmot. (A copy of this chart is among the papers relating to Nova Scotia.) Sends also memorial of the English and French commissioners concerning the limits of Nova Scotia. (One of the four volumes entitled: "Memoires des Commissaires du Roi," etc., published in 1755-56.)

Cor., N.B., vol. 5, p. 459 Memorial, certificates, &c. 463 to 471 March 23, Carleton to Secretary of State (Portland). Meeting of the Assembly on Fredericton. the 9th February; evasion of any specific declaration by the representatives of the liability of the province for works of defence. Disputes with the Council respecting the supply and appropriation bills. Encloses minutes of conference between the two Houses. Rejection of the bill by the Council, so that the province remains without supply or appropriation for the public service. The hardship of this to the officials, whose salaries and wages are now two years in arrear. Differences between the Council and Assembly on the subject of fixing terms for the meetings of Supreme Court. History of the steps taken for fixing the capital at Fredericton; the good effect of the measure in promoting settlement; opposition on the part of the representatives of the counties on the Bay of Fundy, who desire to have the capital at St. John. Bill passed in 1791 by the Assembly for holding terms of the Supreme Court alternately at Fredericton and St. John, rejected by the Council, was again brought forward in the Assembly, although no real grievance was shown to arise from holding all the terms at Fredericton, Copies of the proceedings at the conferences between the Council and Assembly, are enclosed. Secretary of State (Portland) to Carleton. Has transmitted to the law officers the documents relating to Spry's appeal and to the Treasury papers respecting the clothing for the New Brunswick regiment; his economy approved of. Provision should be made for Rev. Messrs. Diblee and Arnold; they should receive local support and he shall recommend an addition to what may be thus provided, to be inserted in next year's estimate. With reference to the differences between the Council and Assembly, it should be clearly understood that the constitutional mode in respect to money bills is, that the voting and, if the Assembly think proper, the appropriation, is peculiarly within its province, but to carry such appropriation into execution, or to pass or direct the actual payment is, unquestionably, an improper eneroachment on the functions of the Executive Government. It is, however, highly expedient, should the Assembly desire it, to introduce the practice of laying the accounts before it; this will give confidence and check abuses. The insertion of different and distinct, as well as disputed, points in money bills is contrary to the established mode of proceeding by which a free discussion is admitted and abuses prevented. His disapprobation of the payment of members, owing to the bad effects of such a measure. Any Acts imposing duties on British goods should be passed with a suspending clause. Col. Same to the same, 15th September. Points out the difference between the commission to Howell from the President of the United States, barely authorizing him "with the other two commissioners to decide the question before them," while in His Majesty's commission to Barelay a clause was added, by which His Majesty "engaged and promised on his royal word to give and cause to be given full force and effect to such final decision as by his said commissioners, together with the other two commissioners, or by the major part of the three commissioners, should be made according to the provisions of the said treaty." His doubts and the reasons for them, if the decision onght not to be unanimous in terms of the treaty. Howell declines to apply for any change in his commission; Barelay has written on the subject to the Secretary of State. Benson, one of the judges of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, has been appointed the third commissioner. Gives information of his own proceedings.

Secretary of State (Portland) to Carleton. Has received dispatches and representations of the Assembly; his letter of 9th June shows the rules of procedure. The King's regret and displeasure at the groundless differences between the Council and Assembly; it was competent for the latter to propose a measure of compensation for the members in a separate bill to admit of free discussion, but still thinks such a measure can only tend to lessen the weight and dignity of the Assembly.

Is glad to hear that the September 7, Whitehall, decision as to the St. Croix will be favourable. Memorial transmitted to the Treasury. Col. Off., N.B., vol. 1, p. 237 Carleton to Secretary of State (Portland). The commissioners appointed September 20, Fredericton. to settle the boundary having met at Boston have again adjourned to meet in June. They have suggested an application to their respective governments to dispense with that part of the treaty which requires the latitude and longitude of the source of the river in question to be ascertained. Encloses Chipman's letter on this point. Col. Cor., N.B., vol. 6, p. 325 Enclosed. Chipman to Carleton, 20th August. The latitude and longitude of mouths of the rivers claimed by the respective governments are in process of observation; those of the source of the river intended cannot be ascertained; the difficulties involved in carrying instruments into the wilderness to make the survey. The commissioners suggest that application be made to the respective governments to add a new clause, that the ascertaining the latitude and longitude of the river determined to be the boundary shall not be necessary. Carleton to Secretary of State (Portland). Transmits copy of Chipman's arguments delivered to the Boundary Commissioners, with Chipman's answers to the arguments of the agent for the United States. Sends also copy of letters to him (Carleton) and to the surveyors on the Scudiac, who had not completed the survey, directing them, after making a may of what was done, to make as accurate a sketch as possible of what remains unsurveyed. Chipman's discovery of an important fact, which will render the discussion of the river easier than had been expected. Has received information of a representation of the Board of Trade of 23rd August, 1743, respecting the boundaries, which are declared to be the same as those described in grant of James the First to Sir William Alexander; of this he desires an authenticated copy. Chipman desires to obtain the volume of Champlain from which extracts were made.

Enclosed. Chipman to the surveyors, 22nd November. To make a map of the part of the River Scudiac already surveyed and a sketch of the rest.

Carleton to Secretary of State (Portland). The legislature met on 16th January and was prorogued on the 9th instant. Money bills voted by the Assembly have been rejected by the Council, owing to the pay of the Members of Assembly being mixed up with the public grants and appropriations. Other irregularities would prevent a proper check upon expenditures. Copies of these bills, with a letter on the subject, have, he understands, been transmitted. In reference to the complaint that holding all the courts of justice at Fredericton has been practically a denial of justice, states that no complaints have been received from any suitor. It is doubtful if suits could be rendered less expensive with real benefit to the community, but no such effect could result from holding half the terms in the seaport town of St. John. June 6, Whitehall.

Secretary of State (Portland) to Carleton. The King's approbation of Chipman's services; the fact represented by him as to the Chaputnatcook branch of the Scudiae may affect the limits of the boundary. Doenments have been sent as requested by Chipman. Although £1,600 had been drawn on 30th September, he shall recommend the payment of £1,900 advised on the 28th of February to have been drawn for the same purpose, His concern at the disputes between the Council and Assembly, which he had hoped had been put an end to and healed by the observations he had repeatedly made. With respect to the petition enclosed in Botsford's letter, refers to dispatches of 19th June, 1796, and 13th June, 1797. When these have been laid before the House, the principles laid down should secure an amicable arrangement. The obstacle that stands in the way is the refusal to separate the public services from those of a particular and individual nature. Could such a mode of proceeding be admitted, the success of any measure could no longer depend on its own merit but on the quality of some other measure with which it may have no connection. Although he has objected to the payment of members of Assembly, yet if it be thought desirable as a temporary measure, he is too auxious for the restoration of the harmony and good understanding between the different branches of the legislature to hesitate in recommending that they be acquired on such terms. 305 (Copy in Col. Has transmitted to the law officers the memorial of the possessors of the lands for the recovery of which Spry has appealed. The main obstacle to the payment of the quit rents arises from the neglect to collect them when due; the matter now requires deliberation. As soon as the opinion of the Paymaster General is received on the mode of paying the Royal New Brunswick regiment, final directions shall be given. The King feels peculiar satisfaction at the zeal and loyalty of the inhabitants of New Brunswick, as shown by their subscriptions towards the expense of the war. Returns of clothing, 1st December, 1795 and 1st November, 1797, 31-33 Carleton to Secretary of State (Portland). Transmits copy of letter and other documents from Chipman, showing that a majority of the Commis sioners had entirely rejected the American pretensions to the River Maguagadavick and deelared the Scudiac to be the river truly intended by the name of St. Croix in the treaty and decided in favour of the British claim to the western branch of that river. By what he holds to be an erroneous construction, they decided that its source was at the first of the chain of lakes through which it runs, although it extends much further to the westward. Whilst in appearance conforming to the express tenour of His Majesty's claim, the decision would cut off a considerable part of the lands already settled by His Majesty's subjects on the River St. John. accommodation, the Chiputnatecook branch, to the north western source, was finally determined unanimously to be part of the St. Croix and the western boundary of New Brunswick. By this arrangement a considerable tract of land clearly ascertained to be His Majesty's, falls into the territory of the United States, so that the line will intersect the communication with Canada; some alteration is an object of immediate importance. The decision as to the St. Croix cuts off all the ground from the American claim to the possession of the islands in Passamaquoddy Bay; the exchange of these for the wilderness would, if necessary, be an equivalent. Will desire Chipman to give more detailed explanations.

Carleton to Secretary of State (Portland). The legislature met on the 18th January and closed on the 8th of February. The dispute between the two Houses, begun in 1795, still continued; but a copy of His Grace's letter being placed in the hands of the Speaker, the Assembly was induced to separate their pay from all other services, so that the Council waived objections to some irregularities, and he believes that harmony is now restored. Supply has been granted for two years, with the view probably Col. Cor., N.B., vol. 8, p. 139 of lessening the expense of a session.

Enclosed. Address from the Assembly, dated 19th January, for a communication of any letter from the Secretary of State relative to the differences with the Council, and reply, dated 24th January, transmitting copy of the letter asked for. Extracted from the minutes, where the documents will be found at their respective dates.

An extract, dated 30th, on the same subject. Secretary of State (Portland) to Carleton. Transmits copy of letter from Liston to Grenville respecting the disputed boundary between New Brunswick and Maine, arising out of the doubt as to which is the St. Croix river intended in the treaty. The important part of the dispute is that respecting the ownership of the islands in Passamaquoddy Bay. Points out the reason for holding that these belong to His Britannic Majesty. The limits of Nova Scotia are clearly indicated in the memorial of the French and English commissioners of 1750 and 1751, which show that the boundaries of Nova Scotia, or Acadia, extended much beyond the islands in Passamaquoddy Bay. (Copy in Col. Off., N.B., vol. 1, p. 262.)

In reference to minute of Council, Hinde Street, that he should be offered a new grant of land in lieu of those taken from him, states that he had atready in 1794, a similar offer from Dundas, which he had refused as not making a compensation for his expenses in settling the land. For reasons given in a separate paper, the amount paid as compensation could be charged to the account for settling the loyalists. 1764.

November 28, Minute of Treasury respecting expenditures. Enclosed in letter from Treasury. Secretary Grenville, of 5th October, 1790, which see,

1784. February 13, New York,

Opinion of counsel (Alexander Hamilton) on the application of Cuyler for leave to return to the State of New York to recover his property, under protection of the treaty of peace. The opinion was that it would be very dangerous for Cuyler to return, and that there is no prospect for the restor ation of his property. Col. Cor., C.B., vol. 63, p. 1

February 21, London.

Cuyler to Secretary of State (Sydney). Transmits memorial for a grant of land in Cape Breton for the ettlement of loyalists. Enclosed. Memorial.

March 11,

Cuyler to Nepeau. Loyalists are desirous to be removed from Canada to Cape Breton, as soon as H.s Majesty's sanction is obtained. On arrival at Cape Breton they will require some assistance.

Apparently enclosed, but undated, is a memorandum from Cnyler, asking to be appointed inspector of lands in Cape Breton, with power to employ a surveyor to settle the loyalists. Asks that Haldimand be requested to forward the settlers from Canada. An estimate is added of articles required by 500 families.

September 27, Whitehall.

B.T., C.B., vol. 3, p. 1 Secretary of State (Sydney) to the same. Sends copy of commission to Parr, Governor-in-Chief of Nova Scotia and of the islands of St. John and Cape Breton. The arrangements for the loyalists are to be the same in Cape Breton as in Nova Scotia; care to be taken to prevent monopoly in the land. The oaths prescribed for officials not to be admiristered till further orders. The salaries are settled so as to admit of moderate fees; the same fees to be established as in Nova Scotia. The estimate sent will show the salaries; how he is to draw for contingent expenses.

Townsend to the same. Was under the impression that the provisions October 5, Halitax. for troops and loyalists were to include those for the latter at Cape Breton, but finds that, for that island, only provisions for the troops are sent. Advice received that a vessel loaded with stores for Sydney has sailed; shall instruct Story, the commissary, to take his (DesBarres') instructions as to their distribution.

Col. Cor., C.B., vol. 63, p. 215

October 5, Halifax, Townsend to Perry. Is unable to go to Sydney this season; hopes Storey will give satisfaction as his deputy. Has applied to the General to put him (Perry) on the victualling roll at Sydney as absent on leave from St. John.

October 6, Sydney, Yorke to DesBarres. Owing to the incessant labour of the troops in clearing &c., will be anable to give the men to assist in opening the road to Miray (Mira) Bay. 223

October 14, Sychiey, DesBarres to Sparrow. Sends bills on the Treasury to be applied for the purchase of provisions for Cape Breton; terms of his agency.

October 21, Halifax, Townsend to DesBarres. His disappointment that no provisions have arrived for the settlers in Cape Breton; only provisions arrived for the troops there. Yorke has transmitted a list from Cayler for 110 rations a day. Should advice of the arrival of the provision vessels for Sydney not be received before the 24th, the General will load a vessel with six months provisions for the troops and 300 loyalists; provisions for 500 would have been sent had the stores permitted.

October 22, Halifax. Same to Perry. Has been informed by DesBarres that he had appointed him (Perry) to take charge of the provisions for the loyalists. Storey had been appointed for that purpose and the General would not allow him (Storey) to charge for two as istants. He is to pay S orey out of his allow ance and he (Perry) will probably hear something of the same kind respecting St. John; he cannot draw rations at Sydney as absent on leave, as his deputy would draw them at Charlottetown. His family might, however draw them as loyalist settlers. Orders given to send rations at the rate of 300-a day, or more if the provisions arrive. Uncle, the Collector, and Brown, the Comptroller of Customs, sail for Sydney by the snow that takes this letter.

October 22, Halifax, Same to Storey. As sorry to hear that the vessel with provisions for Sydney has not arrived; if advice is not received of her arrival in two or three days, a vessel will be sent with six months provisions for the troops and for 300 loyalists, of which Yorke is to have charge.

November 2, Sydney, Yorke to DesBarres. Sends extract from Brigade Major's letter; that all provisions sent to Cape Breton for the garrison shall be under his charge, no matter to whom they are consigned.

November 3, Sydney. Return of refugee loyalists victualled by government, now residing at Louisbourg and Gabarus. The names are given, but not where the people are settled. There were ten heads of families (twelve men), s x women, sixteen male and six female children – forty in all.

November 3, Sydney. DesBarres to Yorke. Acknowledges receipt of extracts from instructions by Campbell to him (Yorke), desiring him to take charge of the issue of provisions; sends copies of letter from the War Office, inscructions, warrants, etc., as proof that he (DesBarres) has control of these issues.

November 6, Sydney. Yorke to DesBarres. Has received his letter of 3rd November, which, with inclosures, shall be transmitted to General Campbell. 247

Major General Campbell to Secretary of State (Sydney). Sends letter. with enclosures, from Col. John Yorke, commanding in Cape Breton; also letter from DesBarres, and copy of answer prepared to be sent. There are two points in the dispute between Yorke and DesBarres, which require immediate decision. 1. Whether the commissary, fort adjutant, barrack master and the other officers of the garrison staff, are to be considered military or civil officers; and, consequently, whether they are to pay obedience to the orders of the civil governor, or to those of the military commanding officer? 2. Whether provisions sent out by contract with the Treasury, expressly for the military are subject to be alien ted by the order of a civil governor from the purpose they were intended for? The impropriety of consigning provisions for the military to the civil governor, the inconvenience of which is shown by the instance of the consignment by the "Brandywine." Col. Enclosed. Yorke to Brigade Major Campbell, 11th February and subsequent dates, the letter being of the nature of a journal. Thinks DesBarres is now pretty well off for provisions, as he has received supplies. Sends extracts from the charge of the Chief Justice to the Grand Jury, to show the disposition of the civil toward the military authorities. A true bill found against him (Yorke) for opposition on board the "Brandywine;" the summons was handed to him at any head of his regiment by the gaoler —he supposes because they had not a hangman to do it. Conjectures as to the meaning of renewing the contest, but he is perfectly easy. The Grand Jury has presented the whole regiment; the document, he is told, was the joint work of the Chief Justice and Lieut-Governor, and has been prepared to form part of the dispatches to the Secretary of State. 13th. Was before the Chief Justice; the trial put off till next term. 28th. Demand made for an additional supply: public meeting of Council, at which the Chief Justice (Gibbons) and Lieut. Governor DesBarres violently denounced him (Yorke) as intending to starve the people; answered by Capt. Stewart, of the 33rd, contradicting the violent assertions, which he believes saved the people from being led to attempt forcing the stores. To remove apprehensions of being starved, he had posted up a proclamation, which the Governor's family tore down; arms and ball cartridges have been distributed to the lower class. 1st March, DesBarres informed by Moncrieff that he (Yorke) would oppose by force any attempt to break into the stores, Des Barres, it is believed, will issue a warrant, read the Riot Act and charge him (Yorke) if any one is wounded. Complains that Lieut, Norford refused to oney orders to resist the civil power; another officer appointed. The journal of events, all of the same nature, is continued to the 15th March.

A. & W. I., vol. 407, p. 113 DesBarres to Mathews, Attorney General, 12th December, 1785. In consideration of a letter from Lieut. Ralph Gore, praying that proceedings against him, the sergeant and soldiers may be superseded; he is directed to do so, Mathews, note of 10th February, 1786, that in accordance with this order he had written to the Chief Justice that proceedings were stopped.

Yorke to DesBarres, 25th February. Is surprised at his requisition for provisions after the large supplies he (DesBarres) had received by the "Amelia." In reference to the overtures of the whalers and fishermen of Nantucket, Martha's Vineyard, etc., he should have waited instructions; his (Sydney's) surprise that he had entered partly into engagements with them, which required the sanction of an Act of Parliament, and, in violation of public faith, taken measures for the removal of subjects of the United States and promised indulgences which would subject Great Britain to considerable expense. But this disapproval of his measures does not mean that the people are to be excluded. It is not intended to encourage the southern whale fishing, unless it is exercised directly from Great Britain. Some expense must be expected in new settlements, but no works of magnitude should be undertaken unless the approbation of Government is first received; the erection of barracks is principally alluded to. Great caution is enjoined in the expenditure of public money, as it was with difficulty the Treasury could be induced to accept his bills. The brig "St. Peter" has arrived at Cowes, having been unable to reach Cape Breton from stress of weather; the large amount drawn by Venture on account of the brig's expenses. Macarmick to Secretary of State (Sydney). Has been obliged to draw on the Treasury for additional repairs to Government House; sends vouchers, &c. The expected arrival of Prince William Henry makes him wish not to appear housed in an uncreditable manner. The present expense has been only sufficient to render things decent. Same to the same. Has reported the apprehended scarcity of provisions.

The accidents to the "Relief"; the cost of repairs; has sent her to London with dispatches, where it might be thought proper to dispose of her. The necessity for a vessel to check American encroachments on the fisheries, as well as to prevent illicit trade; one or two small shallops would be of great service in the latter duty. There are many places to which he should go to ascertain the progress made, but want of roads and conveyances prevents liim.

DesBarres to Nepean. Asks that Hurd be not allowed to leave the country till he be confronted for his false allegations.

Ogilvie to Macarmick. Sends extract from letter from Dorchester. 419 Extract, dated Quebec, 6th June, follows. He is to notify the different Lieut.-Governors that as, in event of a war, the troops are to be withdrawn. they are to organize the militia for defence.

Cossit to Taitt. Cuyler acknowledges that a combination exists for the removal of DesBarres. Enclosed in Taitt's of 13th March, 1790, which see. Macarmick to Secretary of State (Sydney). Sent dispatches by H.M.S. "Thisbe" and detained the "Relief" waiting the arrival of Prince William Henry. Col. Cor., C.B., vol. 64, p. 407

Same to the same. Has the satisfaction of reporting that he has got over the infant difficulties of his administration. Suggests as an important measure for advancing the interests of Cape Breton, that a free port should be established, but if that were not politic, that United States vessels might be allowed to bring emigrants or that British vessels might be allowed to carry coal to the States and to bring back settlers and their effects. Reasons, from the importance of the commercial and fishing interests, why the island should be fortified; the consequent settlements would render it a permanent defence to Canada,

Two plans, endorsed as received on the 28th October, the date on which the letter was received. They were apparently transmitted in the preceding letter; one is a plan of Sydney River, the other of the isthmus and harbour of St. Peters, C.B.

(A copy of the letter was sent to Grenville on the 24th August, 1789; it is in Col. Cor., C.B., vol. 65, p. 195.)

DesBarres to Nepean. Is perplexed by the distress of people who have advanced their property and are looking to him for relief. Urges that a sum on account be paid to discharge the more pressing demands. Col. Cor., C.B., vol. 64, p. 123 Mackworth to Nepean. Dr. Smith of Cape Breton has written respecting his application for leave of absence; asks that he (Nepean) would send an answer. Is glad to hear that there is a prospect of relief for DesBarres.

DesBarres to the same, Sends list of properties and funds which he had disposed of for the service of Government.

Macarmick to Lords of Trade (Cottrell). Sends duplicates of letters to the Secretary of State. Sends duplicates of letters to B. T., C.B., vol. 1, p. 185

Enclosed. The first letter gives details of the care taken to alleviate the sufferings of the convicts, and the attention of Pr. Robertson of the 42nd to their medical requirements. It was feared that an infectious disease had been brought among their rags; removal of the convicts to a safe distance, and destruction of their rags. Deaths during removal; false alarm as to the cause of the disease among the troops, which has altogether ceased. It will be difficult to make provisions last till spring; has sent to Arichat to purchase flour. The military commander has assisted with provisions. A commissary appointed for distribution of provisions to the convicts, whom he had been obliged to take charge of. A vote will be necessary to meet the past expense, as well as to provide additional clothing for them. Regrets the conduct of some of the Council, who make use of the question of the convicts to rouse animosity and try to "establish a principle that a governor is only a cypher, and that the advice and dictation of a Council must be the sole rule of his conduct," Shall only in the last extremity suspend their official power of acting, Macarmick to Secretary of State (Sydney). The difficulties in the way of the fishery caused chiefly by the illicit trade carried on by the American fishermen and by the premiums to the fishing at Newfoundland, which draws all the British vessels there. Represents the delay in his promotion and that junior officers have been put over his head.

Macarmick to Secretary of State (Grenville). Sends report on the islands of St. Pierre and Miqueloo as taken in 1787, with report of a man sent lately and who has just returned. These show that Cape Breton would be the lirst point of attack. Has sent duplicates to Dorchester, so that measures of defence might be taken, even in time of peace. Sends also return of militia.

Col. Cor., C.B., vol. 66, p. 533

Enclosed. Deposition of Luke Keegan, showing the munber of guus at St. Pierre; forty additional soldiers had arrived from France. A frigate had arrived but sailed, it was supposed for St. George's Bay, Newfoundland. Large quantities of coal are at St. Pierre. An engineer had arrived, it was supposed to fortify the place, but had returned to France. The Governor had gone to Boston to arrange for supplies of flour, etc. The desire to exchange St. Pierre and Miquelon for Cape Breton.

Table showing the number of ships, troops, men lit to bear arms, ordnance, etc., at and on the islands.

Return of militia on Cape Breton. The number in each discript is given. The total resident was 598, and supposed number of Jersey men, who come every season, 500—a total of 1,098. The names of the commissioned officers are given.

August 25. Whiteball. Secretary of State (Grenville) to Macarmick. Ordinance against persons publishing libels is disallowed.

August 25, Sydney, Macarmick to Borchester. Thanks for approbation. Sends return of men fit for this partition, with a plan of Cape Breton showing the readezvous proposed in case of attack. The necessity for a large force to defend the town; the inhabitants, if attacked in strength, would retire to Mount treuville, which can be easily fortified to resist a numerous enemy. The proposed works and men required are detailed. The arrangements for collecting vessels by signal to come under shelter. If the defence of the Gut of Canso should be preferred, states his proposals to that effect, Point Carmick and Hawkesbury being the best litted for defence. Recommends Capt. Core for engineer. No arms provided for the militia; a depot might be at Sydney, Mount Grenville or wherever Dorchester might select. The great part of the inhabitants are Roman Catholics under the influence of the priests; on the moment of alarm, he would require the residence of the priests at his elbow. The island has been long disturbed by party feuds; these and other reasons make it necessary to place the army in charge of the military. Steadiness and resolution have destroyed the scheme to make him unpopular, so that he can now count on 500 militia and nearly as many fishermen from Jersey; the crews of the vessels would add to the number. The alarm at the reported withdrawal of the troops; either militia or a provincial corps must be raised. Sends report and deposition on the state of St. Pierre and Miquelon, Col. Cossit to Morice. Church built at Sydney and occupied for service, but there are no pulpit, pews or seats and they cannot be supplied as Macarmick claims possession; asks that this matter may be settled and that he may obtain pay and an allowance for his house, etc. Asks also that the Church of England may be established in Cape Breton with parishes. Hiram Payne, recommended as schoolmaster, is still teaching but cannot be paid for a deputy; asks for assistance. Payne intends to apply for Holy orders and to act as an itinerant missionary. The population of the town and county of Sydney is: men, 242; women, 119; male children under 14 years, 106; over that age, 32; females under 10 years, 94; over that age, 31. Nearly the same number is on the western part of the island; most of them are French and Irish Roman Catholics. Has baptized 19 infants; of communicants he has 28 inhabitants and 8 soldiers; has married one couple and buried four persons. Col. Macarmick to — —. States the offences of Cuyler and the course of conduct which led to his suspension; his own purity of motive. It will be impossible to recompense him (Macarmick) adequately for all the difficulties he has had to struggle against by the action of disappointed men, who took every opportunity to oppose him, but he has overcome this opposition and gained the confidence of the people. Has written to the Treasury on the insufficiency of his emoluments. Sends the opinion of Wentworth, Surveyor General, on the benefit of working the collieries.

1791.January 2, Sydney.

(The letter is not addressed, but ends with compliments to Mrs. Butler.) Macarmiek to Secretary of State (Grenville). Transmitted proposed ordinance for raising a revenue by a tax on spirits; now proposes an addition by a tax on the expertation of moose skins; reasons for the tax, the produce of which would enable him to open roads and the meat could be sold in the market at a penny a pound, it being now left in the woods to perish for want of roads. The value of plaster of Paris extolled in American newspapers; proposes to send a sample. Nothing has occurred to disturb the harmony. Sir Richard Hughes has given assurance of protection to the island by the fleet.

Tremain & Stout for manning, etc., the Treasury schooner "Lady Apsley." Enclosed. Receipt by Tremain & Stout for bills drawn on account of the Macarmick to Secretary of State (Dundas). Sends extracts from minutes November 1, Sydney, of Council on a letter from Phelan, Roman Catholic priest at Arichat, and on petition from 111 heads of Roman Catholic families in the neighbourhood of Mount Grenville stating the hardships these families would undergo if their chapel and land could be held by Phelan. Asks for instructions as to the power of the Catholic Bishop of Quebec in such a case. Application from the French missionary at St. Pierre for leave to settle in the province, he having refused to take the oaths prescribed at St. Pierre; most of the Acadian families there, it is reported, desire to return to Cape Breton. Inclination of the settlers from London to emigrate to the United States: finds that that government is paying forty shillings a head to captains for all the people they can bring from Cape Breton; the designs of the Americans on the island on account of the lisheries.

Col. Cor., C.B., vol. 67, p. 603

Enclosed. Extract from minute of Conneil, 24th October, on a letter from Phelan, Roman Catholic priest at Arichut, that Jones, a friar, had arrived with a Frenchman with pretended orders from the Bishop of Quebec to dismiss him and appoint the Frenchman; states the law on the subject. The Council determined that Jones had no authority in the case, and had heard nothing prejudicial to Phelan's character.

Extract from minute, 29th October, on petition signed by 111 Roman Catholies in the district of Mount Grenville against Phelan, founded altogether on statements made by Jones, a priest from Nova Scotia who is attempting to introduce a Frenchman in room of Phelan, against whom there have not been any complaints till the arrival of Jones.

Macarmick to the petitioners. That both parties should appear before him, and the case should have full consideration. The letter approved of by the Council.

November 8, Whitehall, Secretary of State (Grenville, in absence of Dundas) to Macarmick. No extra pay allowed to the secretary of the province for collecting and copying the Acts. Sufficient time has been given to claimants for land to establish their claims.

Taitt to Nepean. Complains of the present system of government, which tends to ruin those who have laid out money, although the land is fertile and productive. The character of the inhabitants of Nairchat (Arichat) and neighbourhood, who are mostly Acadians; their dissatisfaction with their priest, Father Whelan (Phelan elsewhere); the advantage of putting a good French priest over them, who would be worth more than two regiments in securing the obedience of the French Acadians and Indians, and should be subject in spiritual matters to the Bishop of Quebec -- not to the see of Rome. Deserted state of Sydney; many of the inhabitants removed to the United States, and more will follow. Grants made in spite of orders, which will remain unsettled so long as the present Lieut. Covernor and officers remain in power; no justice is to be obtained since Gibbons was suspended: the extortions practised: the judges are tools of the Lieut. Governor, who draws an exorbitant sum from the coal fees, from the gaol, which has not been used for two years, from the government vessel, which is rotten and useless, and from other sources, his avowed object being to make money. The ruinous state of the church, on which the amount charged has not been expended. Germans from Lunenburg propose to come to Cape Breton next spring, if the owner of the grant on the Miré will parcel out lots for them; if not, they will return to Germany. Other charges; urges the dismissal of the whole Council, etc. Col. Cor., C.B., vol. 68, p. 343

Ingouville to King. Complains that the lands held by him under license of occupation have been granted to different individuals and that what has been assigned to him, in consequence of orders, consists of swamp and lake, the desire of Macarmick being to obtain possession of the saw mill, &c. The reduction of the duty on coal would double the revenue, and the expense saved on the schooners, which are of no use, would open roads.

Macarmick to Secretary of State (Dundas). Has received instructions efforts to that end.

Col. Cor., C.B., vol. 68, p. 351 to restrict the expense for the Treasury vessels us much as possible; his efforts to that end.

Same to the same. Dispatches received; sends lists of persons having equitable claims for land and of those to whom grants have been passed. New applications have been represented. The list contains chiefly old settlers, native Acadians, old soldiers and loyalists, who have obtained warrants of survey, but most of them have been unable to pay the fees. How is he to deal with the irligent, when they come to take out their grants? Some French Acadian inhabitants, on Isle Madame and neighbourhood are able to pay the fees but refuse to do so and the difficulty of enforcing payment is increased by the mutinous conduct discovered in Cunada among the military and settlers.

Enclosed. Return of persons having equitable claims to grants (the names, 129 in number, are all given).

List of persons to whom grants were made during the administration of Des Barres. (Names given; the "situation" merely states the grants to be town lots, farm lots and town and farm lots combined.)

List of persons to whom grants have been made during Macarmick's administration. (The list is in the same form as the preceding.) 89

Macarmick to Secretary of State (Dundas). The King's wharf carried away by a storm; the Attorney General considers that the Crown, not the contractor, should rebuild it, the contractor being only responsible for repairs. Asks for the opinion of the law officers, the danger being that a contractor may take means to destroy a wharf, if called on for repairs.

Same to the same. Has received dispatches and order for the withdrawal of the troops; sends Council minute on the subject. Should the Americans assist their allies, the French, Cape Breton would be tirst attacked and, if taken, would be so fortified as to make its recapture very difficult. Indeed the Governor of St. Pierre has always had this conquest in view and could get men from Boston, even though the measure was not openly countenanced by the States. The Americans esteem the fisheries so highly and the situation so consequential for an attack on the trade of Canada, Nova Scotia and Newfoundland by privateers, that he thinks it not unlikely the attack is in comtemplation should war be declared. The Highland emigrants would Macarmick to Secretary of State (Dundas). Is sending dispatches by a vessel to St. Pierre, to meet the British squadron gone to capture the islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon, in hopes to find a speedy conveyance from Newfoundland. American fishermen report that armed vessels are collecting in a New England port, but the information is not sufficiently authentic for him to act on.

Same to the same. Arrival of four persons from the Magdalen Islands. who for two years and upwards had been trying to emigrate to His Britannic Majesty's dominions, asking that they, their families and others, to the number of 250, might be admitted to Cape Breton as British subjects. Had consulted the Council, who recommended that they should be allowed to remain till His Majesty's pleasure should be known. They had not taken the oath to the French republic, of which they spoke with horror, As an act of caution, he had placed them on a tract of land at the mouth of the harbour, where they can carry on the fishery. At Arichat 10 open shallops had arrived with 115 souls and 11 head of cattle from Miguelon; two others with 14 souls had arrived at Main-à-Dieu, all desiring to become British subjects. Has reported to Halifax the arrival of so many people, so that an armed vessel might be sent as a measure of precaution.

Neither cannon nor ammunition yet received; how he proposes to supply them. Vessels overdue suspected to be captured; an American privateer, under French colours, seized and carried into Halifax. Expects no serious attempts on the island till October; his anxiety about the safety of the settlers; if satisfied about the grants they would fight and preserve the island till succour could arrive. Sends return of male settlers, cattle and shallops. Col. Cor., C.B., vol. 68, p. 259

Enclosed. Return of male settlers. The numbers (not names) are given for each settlement.

September 1, Sydney. Macarmick to King. Will attend to the matters ordered in letter of 22nd June.

September 2, Sydney. Same to Secretary of State (Dundas). Since writing, learns that a 44 gun French ship is at Boston, preparing to sail for Cape Breton. A French fleet with numerous privateers is at New York, making ready for an expedition. The brigadier is to supply ammunition but no provisions.

September 4, Whiteball. Secretary of State (Dunders) to Macarmick. If the French families are well disposed they would form a valuable addition to Cape Breton when peace is restored; in the meantime they should be well watched and an opportunity taken to so of them to Nova Scotia, where they can do no mischief if so inclined. Macarmick to Secretary of State (Dundas). Sends copy of an affidavit, which has caused great alarm. The defensive measures taken make it impossible to restrict in time of war the expenses to the amount voted. How he has arranged for defence; the necessity for a vessel from the squadron to protect the coasts. Has asked Do chester for a jacket and cap for each militia man. In event of a continued war guns of a large calibre will be necessary. Dorchester, who is reported to have passed through the Gut of Canso, must have seen its importance as a passage for trade.

Never saw the order that no perquisites were to be taken from the price of coal from the mines. Shall give every assistance to Miller and have a plan prepared, showing where coal, iron and other metals have been discovered. How a revenue might be derived from coal, and fraud prevente l. The wharf has been repaired by the contractor, so that he has not sent the letter he had prepared. Sends MacKinnon's letter on the subject of the Highland emigrants. Respecting the return of persons entitled to lands, their claims are contained in the minutes of Council transmitted. The half fees are regulated by those in force in Halifax. A postscript suggests further steps that might be taken to prevent fraud in the coal traffic. Col. Cor., C.B., vol. 68, p. 311

November 8, Whitehall.

Secretary of State (Dundas), to Macarmick. From the small population of Cape Breton, the defence should be concentrated as much as possible and Ogilvie should be informed of any apprehended danger. The report of a 44 gun French ship preparing to attack the island appears to be unfounded. It is proper that the Government schooner should be kept fit for service, but good reason must be given for any increase over the sum allowed. 279

Macarmick to Dorchester. Reported on the conduct of Jones, a Roman Catholic priest residing at Halifax. Sinds extract from minutes of Council and copies of letters from Wentworth; the September mail is missing; asks for instructions. Guns of large calibre required, should the war continue The power to call out the militia only exists on actual invasion. The action of the Roman Catholi Bishop of Quebec may secure peace and obedience on the part of the Acadians. Signals might be sent from Mount Grenville to Quebec of the approach of an enemy's fleet, by means of the points of land in the St. Lawrence. Should a body of men be required, all the officers on half pay and thousands of emigrants now in the United States would return to their allegiance on the offer of full pay, bounty and passage money, and on the reception of those who might come in American bottoms. The barracks will soon go to decay, unless they have a new coat of paint. Except he have a military command, he will be deprived of the power to carry out the plan of defence. Col. McKinnon to Rose (Treasury). Apprehension of a visit from the French fleet. Was appointed Lieut. Colonel of the militia by the Lieut. Governor, and performed his duties satisfactorily. The setting in of winter had removed all fear of an attack till spring. The Lieut.-Governor had read to him the recommendation for pay to the officers of militia, at which he (McKinnon) was hurt, believing that the officers should give their services without pay. Should the dispatch not be altered, leaves it to his (Rose's) indgment, as others are concerned, but wishes no pay for himself. Encloses letter to the Lieut.-Governor on the subject.

Enclosed. McKinnon to Macarmick. He wishes no reward for his Macarmick to Sccretary of State (Dundas). Is engaged in preparatory measures of defence in case of an attack by the French in spring.

Enclosed. Macarmick to Dorchester (undated). September mail arrived by way of St. Pierre, with instructions as to the disposal of the inhabitants of the captured islands, the greater part of whom would probably remain on the Magdalen islands; Wentworth does not agree in the opinion that these people should not be allowed to settle near the Gut of Canso or in Cape Breton. A duty of one dollar a chaldron of coal ordered: by drawing a supply for the barracks at Quebec, &c., a beneficial trade would be opened. Postscript of December 6th. The attempt to attack Cape Breton defeated by the state of the winds. The Acadians have taken the oath of allegiance at the altar. Recommends compensation to be made to Lieut.-Colonel Moore for his services, as in spring he will again be called on to command the militia, causing him to appoint a deputy naval officer and to incur other expenses; the services of McKinnon. Cox, the engincer, on the refusal of the militia to assist on the fortifications, has declined further interference in works of defence; materials, &c., shall be collected. Asks for some troops.

Macarmick to Secretary of State (Dundas). His reason for filling up vacancies in the Council; the peculiar case of the Chief Justice. The doubts as to the number of which the Council is to consist. Reinstatement of McKinnon on leaving the Association. Threat of Mathews to prosecute the person who got up the petition against the Association; sends statement from Storey and copy of petition. P. S. of 21st August. Sends minutes of Council, accounts and vouchers for expenditure on military defence and duplicate of letter to Treasury on the subject of the accounts.

Col. Cor., C.B., vol. 69, p. 259 Enclosed. Storey to Macarmick, 18th July, stating that on receiving copy of petition to be shown to the people of Mount Grenville and Arichat, he had reported to Macarmick, who forbad him to show it; he had, therefore, returned the petition after taking a copy of it, which he had shown to Lieutenant-Colonel Moore; how it came into the hands of Mathews is not known, Minutes of Council, 17th and 21st July, the meeting of the last date being for the special purpose of examining and auditing the public accounts.

Vouchers. 283 to 317 To Treasury, 18th August, respecting the accounts for military expenditure, for which he has drawn bills. (All these are endorsed as enclosed in letter dated 18th and 21st July; the dates on the covering letter are 18th July and 21st August.) Mathews to Nepean (?). Sends copies of documents transmitted to Dor-

Mathews to Secretary of State (Portland). Sends returns of vessels entered and cleared in Cape Breton for the half year ended 5th July.

Miller to the same. Proposed importation of coal from England, which will check extortion but injuriously affect the revenue. How the cost of production on the island and price at Halifax could be reduced. Sends plan of Sydney.

Enclosed. Plan, with streets (those only proposed marked with red ink), inhabitants, etc.

Mathews to Secretary of State (Portland). Informed Miller and the contractors of the instructions regarding the coal mines; does not know when Miller intends to begin the works. Shall honour Miller's bills to the extent of the produce of the coal. In reference to restraint on granting lands exceptions were made in certain cases, especially of loyalists and disbanded soldiers; in these cases permission was given to complete the grants.

231Miller to the same. Shall go on with work authorized for the mines, but is afraid there will be delay from the scarcity of hands and the insufficiency of means. Renews his recommendation as to the method of charging dues to vessels.

Same to King. Uncertainty as to the receipt of his reports &c., owing to the frequent captures of vessels. Recommends Miss Miller (his sister) to be elerk of the coal duty. The delay in the arrival of the provincial schooner prevents him from making his proposed tour and also keeps back the grants, as the captain is deputy surveyor general; the negligence and irregularities in this department. Would himself accept the office and believes he could "stock" a township with the assistance of friends. Remarks on the plan of Sydney sent to Patterson; on the causes of decrease of population and on the condition of the inhabitants. Tremain & Stout, complaining of bills in their favour being protested. Account sent with letter. Copy of letter from Spiller to Macarmick, 4th September, 1792, that the sanction of the Sceretary of State is necessary before he can pay bills drawn on him. Miller to Secretary of State (Portland). Proposal to change the method May 19, Halifax, of charging fees on vessels loaded with coal, and calculation showing the effect of the proposed change. Memorial of Ingram Ball. For the appointment of Chief Justice and May 25, that he may receive the whole salary since the death of Gibbons, in Novem-Sydney. ber, 1794. Secretary of State (Portland) to Mathews. Bills drawn for the "Hope" May 31, are paid. Miller is in Halifax on a visit of inquiry; the work at the mines Whitehall. in Cape Breton to be carried on as speedily as possible; money on that account to be paid to Miller, independent of his salary. The coal fees cannot be increased; it becomes a question of reducing, a plan which the good sense of the officials has already led them to adopt. (Copy in Col. Miller to Secretary of State (Portland). The increase of the coal trade in spite of drawbacks; the reduction of expense in consequence of he greater employment of small vessels, counterbalanced by misfortunes to the contractors from various causes. Hears nothing of the intention to sink another pit; about 40 men are engaged on the present works. Has closed a contract for work preparatory to entering the level. Describes at some length the works he has undertaken.

233 to 243 McKinnon to Mathews. Has had no answer to his letters; complains of his (Mathews') conduct towards him.

Miller to King. End of a long and severe winter: has about 3,000 chaldron of coal on the bank; would have had more but for a disorder which attacked the men. The work at the level dormant from the ice; it will now proceed with vigour; miners, however, are not to be had. How materials were obtained during the winter: no horses could be got. The opposition given by President Mathews to all operations; the character of the correspondence; other means taken to hinder the work. A presentment of the Grand Jury that two of the magistrates are unfit to be justices has incensed Mathews, who proposed to make one of them an assistant judge.

Miller to Secretary of State (Postland)

Miller to Secretary of State (Portland). Sends abstract of coal exports; the increase in the quantity of coal raised. Plant is not attending to the measurement; does not know if this leads to any deficiency. Ground opened for a new pit, which will eat out all the coal on the present level. The unfortunate effect of the stoppage by the President of the water level. Arrival of a good miner from Ireland, who could complete the work in time, were the President to allow it. Col. Cor., C.B., vol. 76, p. 25 Envlowed. Return of coal from Spanish River, between 1st July and 30th September, 1798.

King to Murray. Sends estimate for 1799-1800.

Col. Off., C.B., vol. 1, p. 137 Ogilvie to Secretary of State (Portland). Did not think it necessary to repair Government House; fitted up quarters for himself at a small expense and turned the upper part of Government House into a gaol for debtors and felons. The want of lawyers has caused distress; Cossit and Miller in gaol for small debts, apparently on account of old dissensions; suggests the appointment, with a small salary, of a Solicitor General, unconnected with the disputes. The business of the island is impeded by the improper site of the town of Sydney, which is nine miles from its staple, and the situation not suited for carrying on any trade to advantage; points out a good site within the harbour, two miles from the mines and three from Bras d'Or. Sends returns of militia; those in the vicinity could be easily assembled. The defences in ruins, except a block house; four twelve pounders sent from Halifax, which he will have mounted to protect the harbour against vessels of small force. Is auditing Miller's accounts; has authorized him to work on the level, but discontinued it, finding little could be done; has no reason to think he has acted fraudulently, but a large sum had been spent with little result, Miller working under disadvantages; a civil engineer of greater activity, accustomed to mining, is required. Suggests how the work could be carried on and the conditions to be inserted in a new lease. The confusion that will probably arise from the system of granting licenses for lands. Transmits memorial from Tryon Mathews, appointed Provost marshal by his father. The bad effects of so many offices being held by deputies and substitutes.

Enclosed. Return of militia in the districts of Sydney and Arichat. The total number was: 1 colonel; 2 lieutenant-colonels; 11 captains; 24 lieutenants; 13 clerks; 28 sergeants; 526 rank and file.

January 14, Whitehall. Secretary of State (Portland) to Murray. The sum voted for the school-master (£40) being considered sufficient, he does not intend to apply to the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel to continue the stipend.

January 21, Whitehall. Same to the same. Agrees with Ogilvie that McKinnon was suspended from the Council without sufficient cause, but his conduct was not free from censure. To investigate the practice of giving permits to occupy Crown lands, that being contrary to instructions; although the occupants, out of His Majesty's kindness, may not be dispossessed, yet they have no title to the binds. There is no good reason for granting the lessees of the coal mines the arrears of the two shillings from 1797. Before renewing the lease to Tremain & Stout, an inquiry should be made into the conditions on which the mines should be worked in future. The lessees, on the expiration of the lease, can only occupy the mines as tenants at will, subject to Supervision.

Miller to Secretary of State (Portland). Sends return of coal shipped in 1798. The miner's proposal to Ogilvie to carry on the level by contract is approved by him (Miller).

Enclosed. Return; the quantities are given in three terms of four months each.

Murray to Secretary of State (Portland). Has arrived and taken office as President of Council; has formed the Council according to instructions, except that John Janvrin is not included, he being in Jersey, nor Ball and McKinnon, both being in gaol; shall report on these cases when better informed. Apparent reconciliation of the members of Council, who have all promised to dine with him the first time [they have met socially] for years. Debilitated state of Miller's health from his sufferings in prison; he cannot therefore, assist in respect to the mines; the importance of a modification of the navigation act, so as to permit the exportation of coal in American bottoms. The propriety of giving power to grant land to deserving people.

Same to the same. Has laid His Grace's letter before Council: McKinnon and Mathews sensible of the justice of the observations in it. There is every appearance of unanimity, the only thing wanting to the prosperity of Cape Breton. Had revoked licenses of occupation granted by Mathews, but thinks there should be a power to grant land to deserving settlers. Cannot report favourably on the administration of justice; if not changed, Cape Breton must remain a dead charge on government. Tremain & Stout are willing to become tenants at will after the expiry of the lease. The loss to government by letting the mines; the ease of extracting the coal from its great abundance and the formation of the land. Suggests building pier heads with flood gates to admit of vessels to load.

Same to the same. The disputes which have shamefully subsisted in Cape Breton proceed principally from vexatious suits at law. The state of the courts described in detail, showing the necessity for a Chief Justice and Solicitor General. Calls attention to a mistake in his commission, in which he is called "Thomas" instead of "John."

Same to the same. Sends exhibits and proofs against Ball. Has had the work of finishing the level of the coal mine completed; the contractors intended to dig out all the coal without sinking a new pit; had, therefore, advertised for offers for a lease of seven years, but had advised that the mines should be worked by Government. Secretary of State (Portland) to Murray. On the lease of the coal mine.

Murray to Secretary of State (Portland). His endeavour to promote cordiality among the inhabitants of Cape Breton; the factious conduct of Mathews and McKinnon, the latter of whom he was obliged to suspend from his office of clerk of the Council. The frequent change of Governors is, he thinks, responsible to a large extent for the bad state of affairs; he will be responsible for the good government of Cape Breton if continued in office. The letter gives details of the quarrels. Col. Cor., C.B., vol. 76, p. 387

Enclosed. Address to Murray by the clergyman, church wardens and inhabitants of Cape Breton, in open vestry, expressing their gratitude for exertions to promote the interest of the settlement, &c. 399

(Duplicate at p. 535.)

403 to 465
Secretary of State (Portland) to Murray.

The necessity of putting an end to disorders and re-establishing the due administration of justice in Cape Breton; Smith to be Chief Justice; Ball dismissed; the appointment of Mathews, Attorney General, to be revoked; a successor will be appointed. Is persuaded that he (Murray) will prevent the contractors from removing all the coal to the injury of the mines. If a proper person can be found to enter into a lease an agreement may be made, subject to approval; in the mean time the mines may be worked by government and such portion as may be necessary to be taken from the £1,600 duty money to be used for the purchase of implements. In case an increase of the force should render it necessary for him (Murray) to give up the guardhouse, a house may be built for his occupation, the cost not to exceed £1,000, to be defrayed from the revenues of the coal mines.

Dodd to King. Sends copies of letters on the question of the effect of the misnomer in Murray's commission, regarding which he could not invalidate His Majesty's sign manual. His interests are bound up in the prosperity of the province which has been retarded by dissensions. These were in process of removal by Ogilvie, but had been renewed on the arrival of Murray.

Col. Cor., C.B., vol. 76, p. 823

Enclosed. McKinnon to Dodd. The egregious blunders made by Cossit in the rough minutes. Murray has earried off the original opinions of the members on the question of the effect of the name "Thomas" being in the mandamus of the Lieut. Governor. Murray's course in suspending him (McKinnon) from office.

Copy of question is the minutes, see pp. 475 and 811 of this volume. (76)
Opinion of Dodd that General "John" Murray cannot, without risk, exercise the powers conferred on "Thomas" Murray.

Mathews to King. His desire to have all animosities buried. The mandamus of the President is in name of Thomas Murray, the name of the Brigadier being John, so that he (Mathews) holds all proceedings by Murray as President to be illegal. Charges the President and assistant clerk with altering the minutes, &c.

Enclosed: Mathews to Murrey. Believes that the Council has no power to pass ordinances, being illegally constituted.

Extract from the minutes, to have in writing an answer to the question: "Whether or no the misnomer "Thomas," observed upon by the Honourable David Mathews, His Majesty's Attorney General, in his written opinion entered on the minutes of Council ought to, or do, affect the powers intended to be conveyed to him by His Majesty's mandamus, bearing date the 15th Nov., 1798." Remarks follow, which do not appear to form part of the question, although no distinction is made in the extract.

Remarks by Mathews on the question; points out that he did not, in his written opinion use the word misnomer. It would be a dangerous doctrine to maintain that the Council could decide that a person not named in the mandamus could act as President of the Council.

Murray to Secretary of State (Portland). Death of Miller on the 5th; has called on Tremain & Stout to enter into a formal agreement as tenants at will of the coal mine, which they had informally accepted; sends copy of correspondence. Bourke, whom he had intended to place in charge of the mines, not being allowed to leave his military duties, he must himself take charge and would in the meantime employ Campbell, a halfpay officer. The forforn situation of Miller's sister, a woman of uncommon abilities, who acted as her brother's clerk. Has arranged with Campbell to divide the salary (£200) with Miss Miller. Has at last driven Tremain & Stout to an agreement. Campbell appointed to act as Solicitor General till the King's pleasure is known, the salary to be provided by his appointment to be Superintendent of the Mines. Understands that Despard is to relieve him; if he is also to act in a civil capacity the change will be productive of mischief. Has received from Tremain & Stout £1,950 6s. 111d. of coal duties. His endeavours in various places to save money to the Crown have brought on him the vengeance of contractors, but his purity of motive supports him. 483

Murray to Secretary of State (Portland). Sends proposal for the lease of the coal mine at Spanish River, showing the advantage to be derived from the mines. Does not think the offer equal to the advantages these mines are capable of producing to the Crown.

Enclosed. Offer from James Kavanagh to lease the mine for ten years, paying seven shillings sterling for every chaldron raised, and allowing Miss Miller £75 a year during the continuance of the lease.

Murray to Secretary of State (Portland). Arrival of Despard (see also 17th June), to whom the military command has been transferred, but who demands also the transfer of the civil government, which he (Murray) cannot do without instructions; dispatches addressed to him have been handed to Despard and retained. The military changes. If he (Murray) is removed from his civil office before completing reforms begun, he shall think himself hardly used; all attempts to check abuses are certain to create enemies. In a postscript he explains that it was owing to the claim of Chief Justice Smith to be President of the Council that he did not lay the mandamus of 17th October, 1799, before Council, fearing that the discussion of Smith's claim might cause a rupture. Col. Cor., C.B., vol. 77, p. 299

Enclosed. Despard to Murray, 19th August. Gives as his authority for demanding the transfer to him of the civil command the terms of the mandamus of 17th October, 1799. Requests him (Murray) to deliver the King's instructions of that date and those of the Duke of Portland of the 18th, that steps may be taken to carry them into effect.

Murray to Despard, 20th August. Desires him to send the duplicate of mandamus he had received which belongs to him (Murray). Has received no orders to give up the civil government, and he is entrusted with the execution of important public works. If it is determined that the change is to be made, orders will soon be received and the short delay can cause no inconvenience; shall take the whole responsibility. Hopes his determination may cause no interruption to their friendly intercourse.

As that relating to the continuance of Murray in the civil government might be the subject of a suit before him on the Bench, it would be improper for him to give an opinion on it. The Attorney General is the proper legal officer.

September 17, Yorkfields,

Enclosed. Minute, 16th September, of Council called by Murray for advice on the position of affairs, a body of militia having been collected without authority and Despard sworn in as president by two members of Council. The Council he called recommended that an account of the proceedings should be transmitted to be laid before the King.

September 19, Sydney.

Despard to Secretary of State (Portland). Sends an account of his being sworn into the civil administration; denies the statement of an armed force being collected, there being only one sentry from the militia at Government House; joy of the inhabitants at the change, there have been no depredations as charged, although a few windows were broken by boys. Refusal of Smith and Cossit to attend Council; sends copies of their letters. The coal mine is not so productive by the present plan as when it was worked by contract; the coal raised is short of the quantity required. Shall take steps to remedy the evils complained of.

The defects in the new Government House and its unsuitable situation. The "Hope" bartered away for an American bottom, seized whilst engaged in illicit trade and not appropriate tor the service required.

Enclosed. Despard to Murray, 16th September. Informs him that he (Despard) had been sworn in as President of the Council and desires him to transfer all records, etc., warning him of the consequences should he not comply.

Murray to Despard, 17th September. Not having received any official command to transfer the civil government, must decline to do so.

Despard to Murray, 18th September. Is sorry on his (Murray's) account that he refuses to obey the spirit and true meaning of the King's mandamus of the 17th October, 1799; his subterfuge will not exonerate him when called to account in England. Sends extracts to prove that he (Despard) has been appointed to the civil government.

Cossit to Despard, 16th September. According to his (Despard's) request, he went to the Council room twice; found no one there, but an armed party outside. From the tunult in the streets was afraid to leave his house to go again, his fear being confirmed by his windows being broken. Has read over the mandamus, etc., and believes Murray to be the legal civil Governor.

Despard to Cossit, 17th September. Will be guided by strict and impartial justice, notwithstanding his (Cossit's) opposition and that o' a few others in concert with Murray. Sends extract from Portland's letter of Smith to Despard, 16th September. Went to the Council chamber to advise as to the legality of his (Despard's) assumption of the civil government. Found no one there but armed men at the gate. A mandamus can only apply to the person named in it; in this case, therefore, it applies to Mnrray. When he sees a letter from the Secretary of State directing him (Despard) to take on him the civil government, he shall give every assistance in his power. Has this day read a letter from the Privy Council to Murray, dated 30th June.

Despard to Smith, 17th September. A similar letter to that addressed to Cossit of same date.

Secretary of State (Portland) to Murray. Is surprised that he has not received the letter of 18th October, 1799, with instructions respecting the Council, the more so as it was sent by the same conveyance as the one by which the letter of 11th October was sent. October 26, Sydney, Despard to Secretary of State (Portland.) Has made an examination into the state of the coal mines; Murray obstinately refuses to gives up the accounts, &c. No stores provided for carrying on the work; had, therefore, contracted with Stout, partner of the former contractors, by an agreement, copy of which is sent, with estimate of the necessary supplies for winter and minutes of Council on the subject. The sum of £3,000 would have been available for the Crown had the tenants at will been left in possession, but not more coal has been raised than will defray the winter's expenses. There has been either great impropriety in Murray's mode of carrying on the work, or abuse in the application of the revenues; at all events, working them for the Crown is unprofitable. How he proposes to work the mines and reduce expenses for superintendence, the allowance to Miss Miller, &c.

Enclosed. Campbell to Despard, 16th October. Reports the bad condition of the coal mine and the injudicious walling. He had been deprived of all control by Murray, who had assumed every office and would listen to no remonstrance.

Report and estimates (duplicates). 527 to 537 Despard to Secretary of State (Portland). Return of the Government schooner, which had landed Chief Justice Smith at Newfoundland to take passage for England; has made the master deliver her up. The schooner, an American bottom, seized for illicit trade, is not nearly so valuable as the "Hope," for which she was exchanged, the copper on the "Hope's" bottom being worth more than the whole value of the other vessel; shall send her to be examined at the dockyard and transmit the result. Does not think she can be altered to perform the service needed for the island. 539

November 4, Cape Breton, Murray to Secretary of State (Portland). Despard has seized the mines, new Government House and schooner and placed everything in the same faction's hands they were in before his (Murray's) arrival. Is, therefore, sending Baker, clerk of the mines, to give information, which cannot be done in a letter. Despard's proceedings being so various and extraordinary. He (Murray) has been proscribed by proclamation and beat of drum, so that people are afraid to have intercourse with him or even to sell him the necessaries of life. Will do his duty as if in a siege, which his state resembles. Asks that Smith and Baker may be examined on oath before the Privy Council, so that full information may be obtained. Had conducted all operations without drawing from the Treasury, but Despard having taken the profits of the mines, the source of payment, he (Murray) is obliged to draw the bills enumerated. Despard to Secretary of State (Portland). Has received dispatches, two for Murray, which he had sent him; these inform him that His Grace had sent to him (Despard) copy of letter to him (Murray) of 20th September, ordering him to deliver up all papers relating to the government of Cape Breton. Murray sent that evening the scals of the island and of the Supreme Court and next day the Council and Register books and a number of letters. The trouble given by Murray was largely due to the confidence he placed in Smith and Cossit; Campbell is well qualified to be Attorney General. The distress caused to McKinnon and his family from his suspension by Murray and the refusal to grant certificates for his salary; asks for a decision on McKinnon's case; believes his suspension was made on groundless pretexts. Sends petition from Ball, who, he thinks, has been hardly treated.

Murray to Secretary of State (Portland). Has delivered up the seals, &c., to Despard, as ordered, with the correspondence. Waited on Despard at his house to give him information, but Despard refused to have any verbal communication with him. Has been plunged into a sea of trouble by His Grace's letter of 11th October, 1799. Although Despard has more than £2,000 in hand from the sale of coal and will have £3,000 before Christmas, yet he (Murray) has been taken into custody for the pay of the colliery workmen, so that he had to draw another bill, which he trusts may be hononred as he is in pledge for it. Believes that the letter of 18th October, following that of the 11th, must have been written as a result of misrepresentation, the effects of which he hopes may be removed by Chief Justice Smith. Hopes his not giving up the civil government to Despard may be considered an error of judgment and not intentional. The applicants for lands are respectable farmers from Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

Desperd to Secretary of State (Portland). Refere to bis letter for Secretary.

Despard to Secretary of State (Portland). Refers to his letter of 26th October, respecting the agreement with Stout to continue working the coal mines; their ruinous condition leaving no alternative, the business having been completely neglected by Murray and his agent, Baker. Sends return of expenses and of coal raised; the people have been employed in finishing a new pit and other work; the pit is finished, and he has reason to believe 4,000 chaldrons will be ready to ship by 1st June. Owing to the rise in the price of provisions, recommends an advance in the price of coal, those who purchase for shipment at the present rate making excessive profits, so that an increase of two or three shillings would cause no diminution in the demand. This would largely make up for previous losses and justify a higher duty if the mines are let on contract. Has deferred advertising the mines till he can receive further instructions; a larger revenue, he believes, can be raised than has hitherto been the case. The amount exported since the mines were taken over by the Crown has been 2,0081 chaldrons, and the price, amounting to £1,606–13s. 4d., has been applied to the payment of wages, &c.

Enclosed. Account of articles furnished to the mines.

May 9, Wlateladl. Secretary of State (Portland) to Despard. Whilst the restraining instruction continues, he is not authorized to grant lands in permanency; he may grant allotments to proper persons as tenants at will, subject to the terms established for making future grants; approves of constituting courts of escheats. Is happy to learn that Murray's attempt to disturb the peace has been attended with so little success. Has referred to the Council his proposal for a duty on rum to raise a revenue for building mills and making roads. Refers to directions in letter of 18th February, respecting the hire of a vessel; that is to be done till an opportunity occurs to purchase, when he can draw for the amount above the money in his hands from the coal mines. Should Murray have money in his hands unaccounted for, or have drawn for unauthorized expenditures, he is to be compelled to refund. Facts relating to smuggling vessels should have been communicated to Leonard.

Despard to Sccretary of State (Hobart). Had intended to send an account of the island, but from the difficulty of intercourse with the outsettlements, has been unable to complete it. The want of roads and mills retards the progress of the settlement; had submitted to Portland the propriety of levying a duty on rum and other spirits to raise a revenue to supply these; has given some small assistance towards building a mill near Sydney; the amount may be paid from the revenues of the coal mines. Has, in accordance with directions, purchased a schooner for the service of the island.

Campbell to Despard, 17th November. Transmit abstracts of the conditions of lease, on which he is willing to take the coal mines at Spanish River.

Abstract, with temporary agreement.

Despard to Secretary of State (Hobart). There being no house for the person exercising the government, he received permission to remove the materials of the building to a suitable site, where a house might be built when the revenues of the coal mines could defray the expense. Believes a suitable house could not be built for less than £3,000; recommends, therefore, the purchase of the house in which he lives, which is in a suitable situation, and with certain additions, would cost less than to build a new house. Encloses proposal from Dodd for the sale of the house; the purchase money and additions he hopes to be able to discharge from the revenue of the coal mines next season. Col. Cor., C.B., vol. 78, p. 305 Enclosed. He had been refused a passage to England by Gateing, the commissary at St. Malo, for no other reason than that he did not "grease his fist." Had he and the rest been sent at once from Rochelle, he would not have complained, but to be handed to a couple of villains who took them to Dinant, kept some of the men in prison and treated them like other prisoners, but for their (Duports') brother, had led him to make this complaint. If Iberville gave proper orders, then the commissary must be blamed.
