TORONTO UNIONS VOTE TO BEGIN MASS STRIKE

Little Change Seen in the Winnipeg Strike Situation—Both Sides Stand Firm

DEADLOCK IS MAINTAINED FIFTY THOUSAND UNION WORKMEN STRIKERS STILL STAND OUT DECIDE TO THROW DOWN TOOLS

Citizens Reject Strikers' Plan of Collective Bargaining While Government Proceeds to Fill Places of Employees Who Refuse to Go Back to Work.

Winnipeg, May 26.—The Winnipeg City Council tonight, despite vigorous opposition from the labor members, voted 15 to 5, to reorganize the municipal fire department along lines that will forbid the firemen to join other union forces in a sympathetic strike.

Winnipeg, Man., May 26.—The Winnipeg City Council met tonight to consider approval of the stand taken by Mayor Chas. F. Gray, that no city employee who had joined general strike should be re-employed, unless the employee signs a written agreement not to walk out in the future. The question of providing protection for street cars, should they be operated tomorrow by non-union men, will also be discussed. Car service was suspended when the strike of 30,000 union employees began May 15.

The large majority of striking postal clerks and telephone operators today refused to return, although warned by representatives of the federal government that failure to return at noon today meant automatic dismissal from federal service.

Union leaders today made no move toward securing industrial peace. Announcement that general sympathetic walk-outs had taken place today at Edmonton and Calgary, and that unions at Saskatoon and Regina were considering similar action, brought

But Little News Heard at Ottawa

Service Is Almost Normal
---Business Activities Re-establishing.

Ottawa, May 26.—In the house this afternoon Hon. Charles Murphy asked in view of the serious situation in western Canada in regard to the strike at Winnipeg, and threatened strikes at Calgary, Edmonton and other places, the government had any information to give to the house.

Hon. A. K. Maclean replied that there was nothing substantially new to state to the house in connection with the Winnipeg strike, excepting that the telephone service was almost normal and business activities were being gradually re-established. There was no additional information as to the possibility of a strike in Calgary and other western cities.

Mr. Mackie asked what steps had been taken in regard to the situation in Edmonton and Calgary. He was, he said, in receipt of a communication that a sympathetic strike had been declared and there was likely to be danger to property and persons.

Mr. Maclean replied that no official information had been received by the government or by the department of labor. Until some information was received the government could not very well express an opinion about it.

Mr. Richardson asked whether the postal employees in Winnipeg returned to work at 11 o'clock this morning as they had been notified to do.

Mr. Maclean replied that the department had received no information from Winnipeg today respecting the postal employees. The last word received was that they were likely to return but there had been no confirmation.

Numbers Affected by Strike

The trades unions voting on the strike last night were constituted in regard to strength somewhat as follows:

For Striking	2,000
Amalgamated Garment Workers	1,600
Brotherhood of Carpenters	1,800
Amalgamated Carpenters	500
Chic Employees	1,800
Postal Trades	5,000
International Carmen for Canadian Federation of Labor	500
Si far as could be learned last night, no union had actually declined to take a strike vote, but the letter carriers, who previously had voted to vote against the strike, decided at the eleventh hour not to vote at all.	700

The Street Railwaymen, numbering 2,300, who had instructed their delegates to vote for a strike, decided during the ballot to defer voting and a motion until they received more definite instructions from a mass meeting of their union.

The number of men belonging to recognized unions affected by the strike is about 21,000, but the total, if those belonging to non-recognized unions were included, would be well above 30,000.

Failure of Attempted Compromise Between Metal Workers and Employers Precipitates Sympathetic Strike in Nineteen Trades.

Toronto is in the throes of a general strike. The Trades Union Council by an overwhelming majority decided early this morning to call every man doing work in Toronto to "down tools" and go out on strike.

Forty-four unions voted for the general strike and only a few small unimportant unions against. Twenty-seven unions did not cast a vote.

At a late hour last night the delegates were considering the advisability of giving the employers thirty-six hours' notice to strike. Should this be passed there will be some breathing space for negotiations.

The deciding factor in the men's leaders coming to this conclusion was undoubtedly the failure of the Metal Trades Union to come to an understanding yesterday. A deadlock was reached and this was reported to the general meeting of the delegates last night and undoubtedly affected the result.

From inquiries made by The World it has transpired that the authorities who will be responsible for law and order in the city have been looking ahead ever since a general strike was threatened. With the example of Winnipeg before them, they have adopted means whereby the safety of non-strikers will be secured and public utilities safeguarded.

TORONTO MAN IS DROWNING VICTIM

Hamilton Bay Claims H. L. Flehran and Ray Hart of Simcoe Street.

Hamilton, May 26.—A canoe containing two men, Hugh Lee Flehran and Ray Hart, 21 years of age, of 178 Simcoe street, Toronto, capsized in the bay tonight, and both occupants were drowned. The tragedy was witnessed by E. A. Tauney, 716 King street, from the Victoria Rowing Club. He at once raised an alarm, and motor boats quickly rushed to try and affect a rescue. They, however, arrived too late, but after dragging for some half-hour both bodies were recovered and brought to shore. A pulmotor was applied for a long time, but without effect. An inquest will likely be held.

HAWKER TELLS STORY OF FLIGHT

When Motor Was Giving Out, Flew Diagonally Across the Steamship Line.

London, May 26.—The Daily Mail today prints a dispatch from Thurso, Scotland, giving the simple narrative of Harry G. Hawker, the British aviator, regarding the unsuccessful attempt to fly across the Atlantic, made by himself and Lieut.-Commander Mackenzie Grieve.

"Once we got away," said Hawker, "we climbed well, but about ten minutes up we passed from firm, clear weather into Newfoundland fog banks. We got well over these, however, and of course at once lost sight of the sea. The sky was quite clear for the first four hours, when the visibility became very bad. Heavy cloud banks were encountered, and eventually we flew into a heavy storm with rain squalls. At this time we were flying well above the clouds at a height of about 15,000 feet.

"About five and one-half hours out, owing to the choking of the filter, the temperature of the water cooling our engines started to rise, but after coming down several thousand feet we overcame this difficulty. Everything went well for another few hours, when once again the circulation system became choked and the temperature of the water rose to the boiling point.

"We, of course, realized that while the pipe was clogged we could not rise much higher without using a lot of motor power. When we were about twelve and one half hours out, the circulation system was still giving us trouble, and we realized that we could not go on using our motor power.

"Then it was that we reached the first fateful decision to play for safety. We changed our course and began flying diagonally across the main shipping route for about two and a half hours, when, to our great relief we sighted a Danish steamer, which proved to be the tramp Mary. We sent up our very light distress signals, and then we flew on about two miles and landed in the water ahead of the steamer."

Picked Up At Last.

"The sea was exceedingly rough, and despite the utmost efforts of the Danish crew it was ninety minutes before they succeeded in taking us on board. It was only at great risk to themselves, in fact, that they eventually succeeded in launching a small boat, owing to the heavy sea from the northeast which was raging.

"It was found impossible to save the machine, which, however, most probably is still afloat somewhere in mid-Atlantic.

"Although before being picked up we had been fourteen and a half hours out from Newfoundland, and we were picked up at 5.30 a.m. Greenwich time.

G.W.V.A. CALLS FOR TURLEY TO RESIGN

Central Branch Much Concerned Over Calgary Gratuity Question.

Central branch of the G.W.V.A. at their regular meeting in Columbus Hall last night called for the absolute resignation of Provincial Secretary W. G. Turley for his stand on the Calgary $2,000 gratuity question.

The first resolution as moved by Comrade Scott, called only for a vote of censure to Secretary Turley, but an amendment was put by Comrade H. Brooks to call for the resignation, which passed, despite the opposition of some members, who wanted the matter laid over till the next meeting, when the provincial secretary could be made to his face.

The branch voted to allow membership to any enlisted volunteers, irrespective of where their service may have been provided that they could convince the branch which they intended to join, that their failure to get into an actual theatre of war was through no fault of their own. The resolution was carried unanimously, and the resolution to defer the matter was defeated.

Vancouver Delegates.

President C. E. Wilson was elected to represent the branch at the Dominion convention of the G. W. V. A. which is to be held at Vancouver in the near future. The other comrades who were nominated but who withdrew to make the election of the president Wilson, were Comrades Conroy, Everingham, Brockbank and Pearson.

On account of the lack of a seconder the following motion by Comrade Scott failed to come before the meeting. The resolution asks that men returning to civilian life in the cities be aided by grants of money, as had the returned farmers.

The war memorial committee reported that it had chosen a free public hospital as the most suitable reminder to be used primarily for returned soldiers and their dependents.

EXPECT TO START FOR LISBON TODAY

Ponta Del Gada, May 26.—The motors of the American seaplane, NC-4, were tuned up this afternoon and the plane, under command of Lieut.-Commander Robard, will probably start for Lisbon at daybreak tomorrow.

The weather experts predict favorable weather, with westerly winds at the flying altitude of between 20 and 30 miles an hour at the coast of Portugal.

Cloudy weather, it is announced, will be encountered midway in the course.

AVIATORS ACCLAIMED ON SCOTTISH SOIL

Reception Tendered to Hawker and Grieve on Their Landing at Thurso.

Thurso, Scotland, May 26.—Harry G. Hawker and Lieut. Commander Mackenzie Grieve were warmly received today when they landed from a torpedo boat destroyer at the Scrabster pier, two miles from Thurso town. The senior naval officer and the parish councillors welcomed the rescued aviators officially.

"In the name of the people of Thurso," said Provost Mackay, "I offer you a welcome not only to Thurso but to the shores of Great Britain. Your countrymen greet you warmly and proudly as heroic pioneers and sportsmen.

"It was at this landing stage that Lord Kitchener said farewell to the land he loved, and now we shall also know it and mark it as a place of wonderful welcome to two brave sons of the empire."

Hawker, replying, merely said: "I thank you for your kind greeting."

An official luncheon followed the reception.

WARNS SOLDIERS ABOUT THE UNREST

Hon. A. L. Sifton Declares "Settled Government" is Canada's Greatest Need.

Ottawa, May 26.—Some interesting references to existing political and labor conditions in Canada were made by Hon. A. L. Sifton, minister of customs, who returned to Canada with Sir Robert Borden, at a soldiers' entertainment on board the Aquitania on Friday evening, May 25. The minister told the audience, which included several thousand returning soldiers that the fate of any particular government or individuals at the present time, does not matter, but that it is essential that Canada should have "a settled government, able and willing to administer the affairs of the country."

Mr. Sifton's remarks to the soldiers, in part, were as follows:

"I am not going to speak to you in regard to the war, because among other reasons you know more about it than I do. But I would like to say a few words—even if the occasion is not perhaps the proper one, it will be my only opportunity before you land—in regard to the country to which you are going. Practically in all the countries that have been engaged in the war there is a great feeling of unrest. In Canada, as well as in other countries, this feeling is strong. In the cities, particularly at Toronto, Winnipeg, Calgary and Vancouver, it is very noticeable. When this ship sailed last Monday morning, we had news that in the city of Winnipeg 35,000 people had quit work in that great city of 200,000 or 300,000 people. I have no intention of discussing the merits of this question. It is possible that every other legitimate means of redressing grievances had been tried. It is also possible that a few men on one side or the other are endeavoring to use the rest of the population for their own selfish advantage. It is, of course, possible that a few men, absolutely regardless as to results, are desirous of subverting all law and order.

Need Settled Government.

"If there is one thing more than another that has been brought home to the people of Canada, as well as other countries, by the war it is the necessity of first considering essential matters. It is not essential that the present government of Canada should remain in office. But it is essential that there should be a government—a settled government—able and willing to properly administer the laws of the country in regard to life and property upon principles of absolute justice and equality. There is not a possibility of Canada succeeding in developing its great natural resources unless it should accept under settled principles and proper administration of law and order. It is essential that when you get home you realize your own responsibility with these matters and endeavor to influence your friends along the same line so that we may have a peaceful Canada, continuing to occupy the proud position among nations for which her sons and daughters have so gallantly struggled."

THIRTY-SIX HOURS' NOTICE

According to the statement of the press committee of the affiliated labor unions given at 2.40 a.m., a council of 15 has been appointed whose personnel they refuse to disclose, which has full plenary powers to call upon all or any organization to walk out on Wednesday at 10 a.m. This strike committee will meet at the Labor Temple tonight at 8 p.m.

It was stated officially that, contrary to previous reports, every delegate had voted and that 95 per cent. were in favor of a general strike.

President Arthur O'Leary, questioned by The World, said, "I am dumb as the proverbial clam."

May Call Others

Possibly 50,000 employees in Toronto will be affected by the general strike if it takes effect, which so far as can be seen will be unavoidable, and the entire city may be thoroughly tied up a week hence. It is understood that the strike committee has been empowered to call out any union it deems fitting to the needs of the moment, and in this case it is believed that every effort will be made to include the street railwaymen.

Letter Carriers Against.

Two distinct features were noted at the convention. The letter carriers had been instructed to vote against the strike movement, but at the eleventh hour they apparently decided to keep out of the fray altogether. This was not officially given out, but was strongly rumored. The street railwaymen at a recent mass meeting had decided to champion the cause of the general strike at all events, even that of the eight-hour day and 44-hour week. But last night they apparently decided that the venture was too serious to give an out and out vote to their own body. It was noteworthy that at least one of the delegates to the convention from this union was against the One Big Union, although strong for the eight-hour day. The other two were doubtless influenced by this delegate and the matter will be thrashed out again at another mass meeting. The letter carriers, according to well-founded rumor, are likely to go out in short order, the men generally having been influenced by the alleged tactless move on the part of Arthur Meighen at Winnipeg, in threatening the postoffice men with dismissal.

Urged Time Extension.

Arthur O'Leary, president of the Trades and Labor Council, was chairman of the meeting until, following the strike vote, he urged the extension of time for the ultimatum to the manufacturers to ten days. According to information received at the hall (St. George's), Mr. O'Leary was removed from the chair, and a more radical man elected in his place. The decision to give the employers only 36 hours was then passed unanimously.

That the vote was overwhelming was shown in the figures, given semi-officially that 12,000 out of a total of 13,000 voted for the general strike against a negative vote of not more than 1,000, composed mostly of small unions. The convention was generally representative of the entire union labor movement in the city, but the opinion was expressed that those who voted against the strike would be marginalized into the vortex of the whirlpool, and that a large body of unorganized workers would join the union. The vote was undoubtedly influenced by what is known as the unaffiliated bodies of the international movement, the Amalgamated Garment Workers, the Trunk and Pacific Railway workers, the staves giving at least two thousand ayes for the general strike.

ATHOLSTAN THE TRAITOR

It is felt by every one here that Sir Robert Borden will not allow the devotion of some of his ministers, many of his followers in the house, most of all his supporters in Ontario, who believe in public ownership of railways and hydro-electric energy, to be branded as traitors to the premier, self-seekers, and marplots of a policy of national service and sacrifice in the war.

He will and he must repudiate the base attacks of Lord Atholstan and The Montreal Star and those associates with him and his paper, designed to maintain an unjust corporation ascendancy over the government and people of Canada, in the interest of privilege in connection with public services. And especially when it is known that the great bulk of the support of Unionist government and public rights, and the winning of the war came from Ontario and the west; and that Montreal and its sympathizers would wrack these things if they once could get their hands on them.

Lord Atholstan is the traitor and he will be told so. The greatest plotter and public enemy Canada ever had forced his way into the house of lords, which he has not dared to enter, by his devoted service to the Conservative party. He is the career of the greatest enemy to honest government known to Canadian history. Bismarck the Indentant was not in it with him. And some day the people of French Canada will see that career is told in all its cunning, its use of money, of bedeviling public men and newspapers to an unworthy end.

A REAL NATIONAL BANK

Coming in Toronto to Serve the State, the Province and the Municipalities.

Said a Toronto man of good repute yesterday: "If Montreal financial institutions and public service corporations continue to plot against public ownership of railways and power distribution in Ontario, and threaten municipal securities, you will see a consolidation of two, perhaps of three, big Toronto banks, to the end of creating the greatest bank in Canada to meet the situation. This big new bank will be in close touch with the Ottawa government, the Ontario government, and the municipalities of Ontario and the west. Preliminary negotiations are under way. The capital will start at one hundred millions."

MINISTERIAL CRISIS ON TARIFF QUESTION

Sir Robert Borden Returns to Find Liberal Unionists in Cabinet Inclined to Bolt—"Treachery" Story Run to Earth.

Ottawa, May 26.—Sir Robert Borden upon his return to the capital faces a ministerial crisis. It is an open secret that the budget speech prepared by Sir Robert last week ago is unsatisfactory to at least two members of the cabinet. Its delivery by common consent was postponed until the return of the prime minister, and the greater part of today has been spent in conference between various members of the government.

The tariff reductions of the budget speech are a secret it is pretty well known to the cabinet. It is extremely difficult, because it would involve a number of by-elections at a time when no one can predict what might happen.

Sir Thomas White's Position.

Sir Robert is naturally anxious to bring about harmony among the members of his official family. Sir Thomas White is anxious in every way to meet the wishes of the prime minister. He will no doubt make some minor concessions for the sake of harmony, but there is a point beyond which he will not go. On the other hand, it is likely that the two ministers above named have in their minds an irreducible minimum. All would like to see some satisfactory compromise arrived at and the personal relations between the premier and his colleagues are of the most cordial nature. When the house rose for dinner at 6 o'clock it was observed that Sir Robert and Mr. Crerar left the parliament together.

The budget speech may possibly be delayed at the request of the prime minister, who considers that a cabinet crisis would be most unfortunate at this time, in view of the prevailing unrest and the labor conditions throughout the country. However, the crisis must sooner or later come to a head and should be met on the principles of absolute justice and equality. There is not a possibility of Canada succeeding in developing its great natural resources unless it should accept under settled principles and proper administration of law and order. It is essential that when you get home you realize your own responsibility with these matters and endeavor to influence your friends along the same line so that we may have a peaceful Canada, continuing to occupy the proud position among nations for which her sons and daughters have so gallantly struggled."

TORONTO AT CANADIAN PACIFIC BOARD

Who will be the successor of the late W. D. Matthews on the board of the Canadian Pacific? That gentleman was selected mainly as a representative of Toronto and Ontario, and a big share of the revenues of the road originates in those names mentioned are H. H. Williams, the real estate expert, and J. J. Warren, president of the Trusts and Guarantee Company. Both of these men have been intimately associated with the big railway for a long time.

ALSO A TRIBUTE TO THE FLYING CORPS

The ordinary every day Briton has decided to recognize Hawker and Grieve as national heroes, and there will be some demonstration in London and elsewhere today. These men are worthy because of their courage, their indifference to life, in a great undertaking, most of all perhaps because the British public would testify to the immense service of the national air force in the war.

ROYAL COMMISSION REQUIRES CAUSES OF LABOR UNREST

Open Invitation to All Parties to Suggest a Remedy.

WHAT PARSONS SAYS

Cure for Present Evil is to Think as One Class.

The royal commission, under the presidency of Chief Justice Matthews, which is inquiring into the causes and extent of labor unrest through Canada, and the possible means of improving the relations between capital and labor, opened a session at the city hall yesterday.

The commission has extended an open invitation to all employers, employees—in fact, to anyone who would like to come before them and suggest a remedy for the present state of unrest.

After W. A. Douglas had informed the commission that the single tax was the only cure for the disease with which Canada was suffering at the present time, Thomas Harrison of Weston urged upon the commission the advisability of the compulsory purchasing of annuities by both sexes arriving at the age of 21 years, and the introduction of a price index system.

He contended it was absurd to fix wage price for a year unless something was done with the price of food.

W. C. Good of Paris introduced a delegation from the United Farmers of Ontario. He said it was a well-known fact that very labor was being exploited by the employer, which was to a great extent the cause of the present industrial unrest.

What would happen if the farmers were to strike for an eight-hour day? Mr. Good declared that there was no lack of employment on the farm, but there was at the present time a general dissatisfaction over existing conditions.

J. W. Bruce was asked if this was the case, how did he propose to encourage the people from the city to go to the farm.

Mr. Good answered by saying it was largely a question of increasing the relative returns of agriculture.

No inducement. A. A. Cowers, representative of the U. F. O., said it would be extremely difficult to induce the city man to go to the farm as the present returns from agriculture are not sufficient to pay enough to induce the city man to go, even before the war the farmers were unable to pay labor to compete with the city.

In dealing with the present high price being paid for labor on high-wage work, Mr. Powers declared that the farmers' sons were being induced to leave the farm.

S. S. Morrison, secretary of U. F. O., said that in 1913 there was one man for every 125 1-2 acres. A short time back there was a great unrest among the farmers who were in such a desperate condition as the workers in the city. He did not, however, state the cause of the unrest.

S. R. Parsons, ex-president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, began by saying he only represented himself. He said any man would be a bold man who would hazard a complete analysis of the present social and industrial situation of the present, let alone prescribing an adequate remedy, alone prescribing an adequate remedy, alone prescribing an adequate remedy, alone prescribing an adequate remedy.

MORMON BISHOPS APPEAR IN COURT

Bishop B. R. McGuire Accused of Diverting Church Funds.

More than three parts of the large audience which filled the non-jury assize court yesterday, to hear the dispute between Benjamin R. McGuire of Independence, Mo., bishop of the Reorganized Church of the Latter Day Saints, and R. C. Evans, former bishop of the church, and now minister of the independent church, which has been opened on Caer-Howell street, were women.

Sir Glenholme Falconbridge is hearing the case, while George Wilkie and W. R. Smythe, K.C., are appearing for the plaintiff and the defendant, respectively.

In the statement of claim put in by the plaintiff, he alleges that during Bishop Evans' terms of office he had diverted funds amounting to nearly $700, for the purposes of his recently formed church.

Plaintiff, with whom are associated Mary Wilson, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the church; M. J. Crowley, president of the Zion Religious Society; Leslie Prentice, superintendent of the Sunday school, asks for an account and damages for alleged misappropriation.

The defendants, who, in addition to Bishop Evans, are Mrs. Lizzie Evans, former president of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Soho Street Church, and now president of the Ladies' Auxiliary at the new church; Charles Gerrard, president of the Zion Religious Society; Ida Gerrard, secretary of the Ladies' Auxiliary, and Ed. Barrington, superintendent of the Sunday school, state that before the independent church was organized an audit was made of the books and all money made of the Soho Street Church was paid except $244, which had been paid into court, and $400 in the banks fund, which they are willing to appoint to receive.

Bishop McGuire, the first witness to be heard, said he had been preaching the church since April, 1918, prior to which he had been a practicing barrister in Brooklyn, N.Y. The church itself had been incorporated in the state of Iowa to conform with the laws of the state. The local bishops, said witness, were responsible for all disbursements in their respective churches, and had to publish quarterly statements.

Under examination by Mr. Smythe, who wanted to know if the church taught that Christ on his second coming would come to Independence, Mo., McGuire testified that he would come wherever his people were. He did not think it material to name Independence.

As to the tenets of the faith, Mr. Smythe closely examined witness upon the members of the faith to turn over to the church their property to the church in the event of their death. He was trying to educate the members of the church of the doctrine of surplus, admitted witness. Bishop McGuire admitted that he received goods thus turned over, but only in a limited capacity.

Asked if the church had a Book of the Covenant, witness stated that he had a Book which had been translated by Joseph Smith, the Martyr, who translated the Book into Hebrew, but had translated it by inspiration.

THE DAY AT OTTAWA

By TOM KING

Ottawa, May 26.—Always indolent and never able to cheer, Ottawa gave rather a poor reception to the prime minister upon his return to the capital. There was a band at the station but no crowd to speak of. This was all the more noticeable, because the premier was accompanied by General Morrison, in command of the Canadian Artillery overseas, and for years editor of The Ottawa Citizen. A sort of double-headed civic welcome was extended at the city hall, where Mayor Fisher paid tribute to the soldier who had done so much to win the war, and to the statesman who had done so much to bring about a satisfactory and enduring peace.

THE DAY AT OTTAWA

By TOM KING

Ottawa, May 26.—Always indolent and never able to cheer, Ottawa gave rather a poor reception to the prime minister upon his return to the capital. There was a band at the station but no crowd to speak of. This was all the more noticeable, because the premier was accompanied by General Morrison, in command of the Canadian Artillery overseas, and for years editor of The Ottawa Citizen. A sort of double-headed civic welcome was extended at the city hall, where Mayor Fisher paid tribute to the soldier who had done so much to win the war, and to the statesman who had done so much to bring about a satisfactory and enduring peace.

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

"NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH"

Farce at Royal Alexandra is so 'Full of Lighthearted Situations That Laughter Reigns Throughout.

"Nothing But the Truth" is a delightful farce and kept the big audience at the Royal Alexandra last night in the heartiest of laughter which comes in the anticipation of an inevitable situation. Again and again through the piece the audience exploded before they heard the cue and the slowest of them came in with an uproarious echo as it came later when the situation dawned on them. It will be obvious then that the scene is spontaneous and with a comedy party equal to any demand and superior to most of the starring aggregations, the Robins Players had a real triumph. There is nothing new in the idea of the difficulty of getting the truth, "The Magic Flute" and "The Palace of Truth" being well known pieces based on the motive, but there is a good deal of originality and ingenuity in the plot in the present farce. The secondary idea is diamond cut diamond or the bitter bitten, and the truth-telling victim does not get the worst of it by any means but the pledge finally never to tell the truth any more.

The first act occurs in a broker's office in New York, and E. M. Ralston (Robert E. Homans) gives a brilliant exhibition of how the company promoter tells for his living. Various victims are introduced, including the Reine Caruthers, with her friend Sabel, secures the gallant attentions of Mr. Ralston in lighting her cigar, and this episode magnified to farcical dimensions drives Mrs. Ralston subsequently to the brink of the divorce court. Miss Caruthers acted with excellent effect, and especially in the recital of her story, "I Was a Cent Maiden," which gave the audience paroxysms. Homer Barton gave an excellent rendering of the part of Bishop Moran, who has been investigated into buying stock in the Sulphur mine to the tune of $7000. His bullying of the market was a highly amusing scene. Edward H. Roberts was the truth-teller, Bob Bennett and he could not have been better. Miss June Walker had a small part as Ethel, which she filled with sterling ability. The other parts were all excellently filled, and the company as a whole doubt the best assembled stock that has appeared in Toronto.

VICTORY GIRLS AT STAR

Popular Burlesque House Has Timely Show With Pretty Songs and Dances.

The summerlike weather failed to keep a large crowd from attending the opening performance yesterday afternoon at the Star Theatre of the "Victory Girls." The show is kept going at a record-breaking pace from the rise of the curtain in the opening act, to the ringing down in the last number. The sinking in of the very best and the songs chosen for the female principals of the show and the chorus well arranged that the audience made them respond to several curtain calls.

West and "Spending a Million" the two burlesques afford ample opportunity for the comedians, Brad Sutton and E. Johnston, to show their talent as funmakers to good advantage. During the production of the first act, several old-time favorites were sung, by Josephine Sabel, Miss Sabel sings, French songs, as does Dolly Sweet, the gingersy soubrette. Jeannette Buckley has a good voice, as has Madeline Rockwell, prima donna of the company. Specialties by the principals as chorus girls are also introduced, up in an orphan asylum. But they're not like other orphans. There was always something doing where Judy was and as a result she was always in trouble. She came under the notice of one of the trustees, Jervis Pendleton, who recognized her cleverness and who sent her to college to be educated. Judy did not get a name for him, "Daddy Long Legs." To her he was known as John Sledge.

DADDY LONG LEGS

Film at Regent Features Mary Pickford in Not the Least of Her Artistic Triumphs

"Daddy Long Legs" with Mary Pickford at the Regent Theatre this week is an artistic triumph. The settings are most beautiful and the photography excellent. The play is taken from the well-known book of the same name and concerns the fortunes of Judy, a little foundling who has grown up in an orphan asylum. But they're not like other orphans. There was always something doing where Judy was and as a result she was always in trouble. She came under the notice of one of the trustees, Jervis Pendleton, who recognized her cleverness and who sent her to college to be educated. Judy did not get a name for him, "Daddy Long Legs." FIGHTING FOR GOLD

Tom Mix in Thrilling Western Adventure Delights Patrons of the Hippodrome

Tom Mix alternately thrills and appeals in "Fighting for Gold," a western adventure play at the Hippodrome this week. It contains that mixture of audacity and love interest which characterizes the popular western picture and puts the western hero in a role which he makes his own. Herbert Russell's Co. put on a sketch, "Mr. Ritter Appears," full of bright humor. Lou Skuce needs no acclaiming; his actions speak for himself. This time they consist of cartoons, done in quick time and with a wide range of subjects. They are clever, so is the artist, and the whole idea of his act is original and new to the vaudeville stage. The audience was appreciative. Evelyn and Marguerite are novelty artists and McDermott and Heagney give an amusing bit of entertainment. Green and Parker have a bit of "A Mustard" with some claim to humor and the "Thomas Trow" are comedy acrobats. A fine comedy and news film complete the show.

FOR BETTER, FOR WORSE

Clothed in Glorious Costumes, Gloria Swanson at Allen Delights Her Popularity.

"For Better, For Worse," the De Mille picture which the Allen Theatre this week is a splendid picture dealing with the marriage problem and Gloria Swanson in the leading role proves to be as good an actress as she did in "Don't Change Your Husband." The story concerns the feelings of a woman who really loves her husband but who, believing him to be a coward, grows to hate him as she finds him in characteristic feminine fashion. Things change, however, and when he makes a tremendous sacrifice for her sake she realizes that she has loved and loved again reigns supreme. Miss Swanson wears some gorgeous gowns which cause a gasp. They represent a small fortune. The Canadian baritone, Jack Kinners, sings some pleasing songs while Allen's British Graphic shows interesting pictures.

PEGGY HYLAND AT MADISON

Peggy Hyland, the versatile, is the star of the William Fox production "The Girl With No Regrets," which is being presented at the Madison Theatre the first half of this week. The photoplay is one of strong dramatic power and emotional force. It is remarkable how easily Miss Hyland is able to step from the sprightly and humorous to the tragic and serious in motion pictures.

STRAIN ON AUSTRIAN GOVERNMENT

To Maintain Peace Delegation Paris, May 26.—Premier Clemenceau, as president of the peace conference, today received a communication from Karl Renner, head of the Austrian delegation. The communication complains that the Austrian government is in financial straits, and that the heavy expense of maintaining the delegation at St. Germain is creating a "regrettable strain."

FIRST MAILS BY AIRPLANE

From Switzerland to Paris Geneva, May 26.—The Swiss airman Duratour, carrying mails, made the first Paris to Switzerland flight today, landing at Geneva. The time of the flight was 5 1/2 hours, including a half hour's forced landing on French soil, owing to the fog. The distance is about 250 miles.

THREE FINE ACTS

Shea's Bill Proves Delightful With Some Extra Good Vaudeville Turns.

It is seldom that there are three acts on a vaudeville bill that are all worthy of being headliners, but such is the case at Shea's Theatre this week. The bill is one of the best seen here this season. Alan Brooks, in the comedy dramalet, "Declarers and Senses," of which he is the author, has a clever little play full of clever lines. Alan Brooks, in the principal role, does a splendid bit of acting as the cynical man of the world. In fact, it is doubtful if vaudeville has had a better actor than is Alan Brooks this season. George Rice, who was formerly with Little Lee, known as "Cuddler," gives some excellent impersonations of well-known stage folk. George is very young, but as the years roll around we venture to say we will hear a good deal more of him. A real treat was Madame Doree's Celebrities, a group of singers who can really sing, and who gave some splendid renditions of "The Merry Widow," "The Wood and the Sun," "The Song of the Greenwillow Village," give an amusing little skit on that home of celebrities "Mimic Work," and a number of the one of the bright spots in the bill. Jack Elkins, Joe Fay and Fred Elkins gave a song and dance act which had plenty of pep; while the Three "Giv'it Girls" in "Ten Minutes of Harmony," sing some popular songs. The La Monte Trio do a wire-walking act, while the British and Canadian Revue shows some good pictures.

AT LOEW'S THEATRE

Big Musical Show Makes a Decided Hit at Long Street Playhouse.

A pretentious musical show is the feature at Loew's Theatre this week. "Mimic Work," which combines effectively girls, song and fun. The chorus is extraordinarily good for a vaudeville stage, and some really good voices are heard. Costumes are dazzling. "Mimic Work" is one of the brightest of the kind. Solly Cutner ranks as a good comedian, and does some effective mimicry. Beryl and Daisy Hope and Alice Morley are among the cast, and do the attractive "Mimic Work." The whole production is on a high-class scale, and surprises with the unusual talent displayed. Besides this special vaudeville act, the bill is made up of a funny monologist, freak acrobat, and singing couple still hold their own in the bill.

"MICKY" AT GRAND.

From Start to Finish Offers a Series of Thrills That Keep the Audience Gasping.

"Mickey" the picture offering at the Grand Opera House this week is a photodrama that will attract considerable attention because of the remarkable combination of incidents that are depicted. The photodrama is excellent and the portrayal of the various characters as perfect as it is humanly possible to give. "Mickey" is the name of a little mountain girl whose adventures are the basis of the action of the story. Mabel Normand is portraying the character of "Mickey," and her dramatic ability displayed in such a manner that at one moment she brings tears to the eyes, while in the next she has the spectators laughing. She can swim, ride, fight and dance, and performs stunts that are sensational in their execution. There are numerous thrills injected in this picture, and it seems that these are just what the audience wants. It is coupled with pathetic incidents and humorous situations. Among the thrilling and exciting incidents depicted are the side of a tank, a horse race, Mickey on the winning horse; a combat between the hero and villain, in which a house is wrecked, all climaxes into an intensely interesting story, and all portrayed in such a manner that spectators talk of the picture as, the best they have ever seen.

Big Variety Show at Gaiety Theatre Proves Pleasing Surprise to Large Crowds.

"Hip! Hip! Hooray Girls," the big variety show, opened before a capacity audience at the Gaiety Theatre yesterday afternoon. This is the last week of the season, and Manager Bussey could not have secured a better bill. Ben Pierce, comedian, and Helen McClain, are billed as the regular performers. They are supported by a clever company, and the offering is replete with instrumental numbers, diving contests, singing, dancing and comedy. The Six Diving Belles are seen in the last of the closing half of the show in a series of aquatic stunts in a tank on the stage containing 50,000 gallons of water. A number of difficult dives from diving boards erected on the side of the tank are made, in addition to an exhibition of fancy swimming. Gene and Ethel are seen in a stinging specialty entitled "In Jazzland." Helen McClain and Ralph Rockaway sing well together, and their songs, assisted by the chorus, are well received. During the first act one of the most unique instrumental acts is given. The instruments are fitted in the interior of a living room, and the company play music on the chimneys which are fitted in the room in the form of draperies.

ON NEW YORK

Two Million Share Day in More Than Two Years.

New York, May 26.—Today's stock market was marked by extraordinary activity, scope and strength. Sales amounted to 2,025,000 shares, making the two-million-share day since Feb. 1, 1917.

General news and advices over the week have confirmed recent reports of general improvement in many lines of industry, together with other equally favorable auguries.

Important among these were the limitations of the signing of the peace treaty, heavy over-subscriptions to the Victory Loan, continuance of excellent crop prospects, and further relaxation of money conditions.

Automobile shares and affiliated stocks were the chief features throughout, their gains of three to ten points being accompanied by rumors of impending mergers or consolidations.

Steel and copper shares reflected a resumption of last week's demand. Oil and leather shares were also prominent, and tobacco shares shared moderately by comparison, also the food, chemical and textile issues.

U. S. Steel made an extreme gain of 15 1/2 points to the year's high of 100, but eased a point on very extensive trading for profits toward the end, other issues yielding one to two points.

Among the Liberty division, bonds, including the Liberty division, were firm, but trading was at all times restricted by the activity of stocks. Total sales, par value, aggregated $11,675,000.
