CLOUDS AND RAIN BUT HOLIDAY ENJOYED

Torontonians Flock to Places of Recreation —Big Railway Traffic—In Other Places.

The Dominion Day weather provided for Toronto wasn't altogether ideal. The brisk shower that descended about 8 a.m. probably had the effect of nipping in the bud many early morning excursion plans, and while there was no further downfall during the day or evening the sky was overcast most of the afternoon and the little sputterings and a menace of a thunderstorm in the air sufficed to keep the more timorous spirits within the shelter of the friendly roof-tree.

But for every individual whose bump of caution thus indicated itself, there were many scores who were not to be deterred by the prospect of a brush with the elements, and who sallied forth in their tens of thousands with or without umbrellas in quest of recreation. They swarmed into the street cars till they made the familiar comparison of sardine receptacle or the plague of locusts appear weak and meaningless.

HORSE V. ENGINE IN 5-MILE RACE

Runaway Equine on Railway Tracks Finally Falls Thirty Feet Into River.

Chased by a locomotive for five miles, crossing half a dozen trestle bridges and finally tumbling from one 30 feet into a river bed, and emerging with one cracked rib and the loss of four shoes—that's the record that was made by an ordinary every day sort of a horse yesterday.

One Pendrake is a poultry farmer in Davisville. Driving near the Don River, he was tempted by the "wagging waters and Taylor's Dam and went in for a swim, in the meantime hitching his horse and tying it to a nearby tree.

One of the Canadian Northern Ontario trains, northbound and shrieking enthusiastically, came along and scared the equine, which, with a sudden jerk, broke loose.

Curiously enough it took the railway track for its speedway and sped away with the train in close pursuit. Along the ties and over trestle bridges galloped the beast. Several times its legs went down between the bridge and the ties and over the trestles, but it continued on the wild run.

Twice the engineer slowed up and attempts were made to catch the excited horse, but in vain.

Finally, after five miles had been covered, while crossing a trestle the poor brute swerved, stumbled and fell over and splashed into the river 30 feet below. There was enough water to break the fall—and the horse landed comparatively unharmed.

TORONTO'S HORSE PARADE MODEL FOR OTHER CITIES

Buffalo and Winnipeg Visitors So Pleased With Yesterday's Show That They'll Encourage Imitation at Home.

When Toronto gets away from ward politics and takes up a public-spirited idea like the open air horse parade and show, no city on the continent can excel the result. Yesterday morning's exhibition of horse flesh was a wonder and delight to all who had the good fortune to see it. In the five years of the association's work the standard has been steadily rising, and the average was very high among the animals shown. There were between 700 and 800 entries, estimated to be worth well up to $250,000, and third-prizes were scarcely to be found.

C. W. Miller, the well-known Buffalo horseman, declared he had never seen anything like it, and announced his intention of giving $2000 towards the trial of the Buffalo Old Home fair, a similar parade in that city.

Victor Speer, representing the mayor of Buffalo, and John L. Claverton, representing the mayor of Winnipeg, also were present. J. G. Carroll, Winnipeg, expressed his enthusiasm by a subscription of $100 for a parade in Winnipeg, so that the occasion was clearly a stimulating one.

The weather was perfect, a smart shower at 8 o'clock settling the dust, and other conditions until 12:30, when the last of the awards was distributed. Very ideal. Crowds thronged the Queen's Park, where the military bands played during the morning, and lined the route of the parade down town. It took forty minutes for the long line to pass the corner of Yonge and College-streets.

The prizes were presented by Premier Whitney, who handed out the envelope dollars to the drivers, Mayor Coatsworth and Dr. Goldwin Smith, who is not so active as when he used to ride to hounds twice a week half a century ago.

Class 41, for single horse and outfit, open to all trades not otherwise specified, drew the huge entry of 69 competitors, and was divided into two, for lights and heavies. E. W. Gilbert was taking the first for the lightweights and M. Doyle Fish Co. first in the heavyweights. The display in this class was very fine. The heavy draught geldings showed up in splendid style, and English critics might modify their views of Canadian breeding or examining the displays in these classes.

Butcher Boys in Line. One of the keen competitions was among the butcher boys, and the judges had a long trial before distributing the rosettes. The Clayton Meat Co.'s Brownie leading the score. Class 21 brought out some handsome equipages and the ponies and pony pairs were very attractive. Little Miss Norris was a picture in a breezy hat and blower riding costume. In the laundry class all four rosettes were taken by the Chinese laundries, and the tradition of the stolid Mongolian was quite upset by the smiling faces in the handsome delivery vans. Simpson's horses were a troop of beauties, and the milk wagons pre-eminently in line was won by Canton No. 7 of Toronto with twenty-seven.

Posse of Parkdale Police Break Up an Alleged "Crap Game."

There were sounds of revelry by night in a hayloft in rear of 225 Sorauren-avenue at 2:45 o'clock yesterday morning. This attracted the attention of Police Recruit Smith, who prowls that beat in the wee small hours. He secured reinforcements.

ALL-RED ROUTE CANOE UPSETS IN LAKE MONTREAL YOUTH DROWNS

SAM'L M'ALLISTER DEAD TAUGHT FOR 47 YEARS

Sudden Passing Away of One of the City's Oldest Educa- tionists.

After a collapse on the street last Friday, followed by severe weak spells, Samuel McAllister, former principal of Ryerson Public School, died at his residence, 213 Huron-street, early yesterday morning. He had been for 47 years in the service of the Toronto public school board, in the capacity of principal at the John-street, Louisa-street, Givens-street and Ryerson Public schools, and was, in fact, the "father" of the present Toronto public school system.

He served on many important educational boards, and for years was president of the Toronto Principals' Association and the Toronto Teachers' Association, besides acting on the board of the Ontario Teachers' Association. As English master in the old Bartlett Academy on Queen-street, where he took up the profession, many of the most prominent citizens of to-day received their early training under his tuition.

Deceased was born Aug. 12, 1834, at Pontefract, Ireland. He moved with his parents to Liverpool when 12 years of age, where he started a commercial career as clerk in a banking house. In 1857 he emigrated to Canada, coming to Toronto, where he found employment as a bookkeeper. Then he turned his attention to teaching.

Mr. McAllister was a prominent member of the A. O. U. W. In religion he was an Episcopalian; he took an active interest in the affairs of St. Stephen's Church. With the widow were left three sons and one daughter, Geo. D. of Toronto, Alex. L. of New York City, and J. E. of Greenwood, B. C. Mrs. David Evans of Chicago is a daughter.

The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon at St. James' Cemetery. Mr. McAllister was received enthusiastically. In his response he made an eloquent appeal for the all-red route. He paid a tribute to the fathers of confederation, those faithful statesmen who built a better than even they knew, and remarked that the confederation which in 1867 was a bond on paper was now a union of hearts. The speaker directed attention to the growth so ably directed and assisted by Lord Strathcona, of the Canadian railways.

"The next step to which we shall devote our enterprise," said Sir Wilfrid, "is to bring an imperial scheme, for the time being, to the aid of the Dominion, to encircle the earth. For that scheme the people of Canada are ready, the people of Australia are ready, the people of the United Kingdom are ready. It is not for us to suggest, still less to insist, that shall be the policy of the English people, but it is not out of place if I remind you that the British people five years ago undertook heavy financial responsibilities to assist a line of steamers running between Liverpool and New York. I am not here to blame the British people, but to say that, if I might approve it if an Englishman, but may I not ask the British people and the British parliament, whether what has been done for former years can not be done for people who fly the British flag?" Here the speaker was loudly cheered.

Should Not Hesitate. Continuing, Sir Wilfrid urged that the British parliament should not hesitate to assist in the all-red route. Referring to the governors-general, he said that Canada had been most fortunate with all its viceroys, and that a loyal peroration he declared that while he loved the British Isles one place took first place in his heart—Canada, covered by the British flag (Loud cheers).

Augustine Birrell, in responding to the toast, "Our Guests," proposed by Donald McMaster, expressed the hope that Ireland, which lay across the emerald isle, might not be left out of any scheme for its advancement. It was not for him to express any opinion, but if County Mayo, for instance, could be brought within three and one-half days of the glorious Dominion across the Atlantic, it would be a great thing for Ireland and a great thing for the empire.

T. P. O'Connor, M.P., also responded, indulged in the dream of a great free trade government, and said that the greatest security for the unity of the empire was the full liberty of its component parts, with the health of the chairman, eloquently proposed by Lord Tweedmouth.

After the dinner Lady Strathcona held a reception. Press Opinions on the All Red Route. (Canadian Associated Press Cable). LONDON, July 1.—The Daily News, which voices the opinions of the more extreme Radicals, publishes a "somewhat alarming rumor" to the effect that the government is "seriously considering a request for a subsidy for the all-red route." It says it is seriously suggested that a free trade government, if elected, upon economy, should spend £1,000,000 a year upon this proposition, an extravagant scheme. The News declares no one knows the pay would answer for the division if such a proposal were brought forward in the House of Commons.

The Morning Post editorially assures Sir Wilfrid Laurier that public opinion here is steadily settling in the imperial direction he desires, but for the moment it must be confessed the prospects are none too bright for the all-red route. The Liberal Impetualist, Chronicle, hopes the government will assist in carrying out the all-red route. DROWNED WHILE BATHING. ST. HYACINTHE, Que., July 1.—A. Mailloux, aged 16, son of J. H. Mailloux, was drowned while bathing this evening.

REPORTS OF DETECTIVES EVIDENCE FOR HAYWOOD

One Wrote That He Was Going to Get Him in Trouble With Men.

BOISE, Idaho, July 1.—The defence in the trial of William D. Haywood began the second week of direct examination of its witnesses, and today, Morris Friedman, the young man who was at one time the stenographer in the Denver office of the Pinkerton Detective Agency, was recalled to the stand.

The first of the detectives' reports show that R. operative named A. W. Gratas handed the Federation relief funds at Globeville during the strike, and that Gratas cut down the relief in order to create sentiment against Haywood. The succeeding reports dealt with the Federation convention in Denver in May and June, 1904, the actions and sentiments of the miners and the proceedings of the district convention of the United Mine Workers of America, in Colorado, in 1903.

Gratas, in order of his reports, wrote that he had told the men the strike would continue for a long time, and that unless it was ended by fall the union probably would have to give up. After telling of his intention to carry out his instructions to cut down the relief, in an effort to cause dissatisfaction among the men, Gratas wrote: "I will put the blame for not giving the men more relief as much as I can on William D. Haywood, by saying that I carried out his instructions."

BIG EARTHQUAKE SOMEWHERE
More Severe, Comparatively, Than the Shock Which Destroyed Kingston. WASHINGTON, July 1.—The coast and geodetic survey service reports that an earthquake was recorded at the Cheltenham, Maryland, observatory this morning, beginning at 8 hours 15 minutes and 53 seconds and lasting an hour. The principal disturbance was from 8.22 to 8.25 o'clock, the largest motion being in a north-south direction. The shock was comparatively greater than that at Kingston, but not so great as the San Francisco earthquake.

FATHER ACCUSED OF MURDER. NEW YORK, July 1.—Thomas Boylan, father of little Viola Boylan, who was assaulted and murdered several days ago, was arrested by the police to-day and taken before a magistrate, but was discharged, there not being sufficient evidence against him to warrant his detention.

Thos. Gilbert, Aged 21, Victim of Holiday Fatality — Companion Leonard Hartie Rescued in Nick of Time.

Carelessness in a canoe cost Thomas Gilbert of Montreal his life off the island sandbar yesterday afternoon. In the same accident Leonard Hartie, 221 Palmerston-avenue, came close to death by drowning owing to the frenzied efforts of Gilbert to clamber upon the overturned canoe.

Gilbert's body is not yet recovered, altho the spot where he sank was plainly marked and hours were spent in dragging for it.

Gilbert, who was 21 years of age, had come to the city Sunday to spend Dominion Day with Hartie and his brother Frederick. These three and William Cave, 141 Wright-avenue, went to spend the day at the island. They paddled up the lagoon, getting off near the Wick Children's Hospital and portaging the canoe, a large basswood craft, to the lake-side.

There the quarter sat down to lunch and Gilbert and Leonard Hartie finished before the others, went out for a short paddle.

Gilbert, who was unused to canoes, was paddling in the bow and Hartie in the stern. The lake was a little choppy, but not dangerously so. When they had reached a point 200 yards from the shore, Gilbert raised from the thwart upon which he had been squatted, and himself lost his balance, turned round to see how far they had gone from the shore.

"Sit in the middle," warned Hartie. "All right," replied Gilbert, turning carelessly. The next instant they were struggling in "the water."

Both reached the canoe in safety, and once there, rested their weight upon it, reading water and keeping well above the surface.

"Just hang on and keep quiet," instructed Hartie. "All right," was the reply. "Cave, who was looking out at the men, saw the craft upset."

"They're in the water," he cried, and doubled for a boat about 200 yards down shore, calling to a man nearby. The man heard, and when Cave, close to the boat, called to him, he reached the boat the man had at the water's edge.

Ten minutes after the canoe had upset the boat was alongside. It was within ten feet of the overturned craft when Gilbert, who had lost his nerve and was wildly trying to climb on to the canoe, gave it another turn and pulled it over on top of himself.

Hartie was seized and pulled into the boat, while the lads reached for Gilbert, but he was not again seen. Hartie fainted from exhaustion as soon as he felt the rescuing hands upon him and was taken to Dr. Charles Sheard's house on the shore, where it took nearly three-quarters of an hour to revive him. Meanwhile a small fleet of boats gathered and a number of men dived in the 20 feet of water, but failed to recover the boy.

Thomas Gilbert, the dead man, was 21 years of age. He was a clerk in the wreck department of the C. P. R. head offices at Montreal, where he was to have been at work at 8 o'clock this morning. He had been out from Durham, England, only ten months. Leonard Hartie is prostrated with the shock. He says that he thought all along that the other's chance looked better than his own, but that he lost his head and wore himself out trying to climb on to the canoe. "I begged of him to be calm, but he was simply wild with fright," he says.

GARBAGEMEN BACK TO WORK. WILL LEAVE MAYOR McLELLAN TO SETTLE DISPUTE. NEW YORK, July 1.—The striking drivers of the garbage teams voted today to return to work and then submit the grievance to Mayor McClellan. The mayor had previously told them he would give them no consideration until they returned to work. When two wagons, driven by strike breakers, drove from the company's pier on the East River to-day a crowd of men set upon the drivers. Clubs and stones were hurled and the police charged the crowd, which finally fell back. Two policemen were then escorted to each wagon. More trouble occurred on Avenue C, when a score of men set upon a driver, but were beaten off by the police.

TRUSTEE LEEVEE IMPROVES. Trustee L. S. Levee was reported as resting easier last night. Dr. F. N. G. Starr has hopes for his recovery.

THE WORLD'S HOME MAGAZINE FOR WOMEN

ABOUT A BOOK AND MANNERS

One of the American monthlies devoted to women has recently printed a story which now appears in book form. Its title, an admirable index, is "The Princess Virginia." One of our Canadian reviewers writes it as a light story, suitable for summer reading. In our opinion this is a misstatement. The book is in reality an indigestible accumulation of de-

Seriously, why does the public allow itself to be constantly drugged, at an early age, especially with such questionable material as this? Why do we have the "Elise Books," full as they are of morbidity, the false principle of blind obedience, and intense and infectious moral sickness, in our Sunday school libraries? We might about as well teach our children to optium as spending their money on these books full of fascinating but utterly false dreams of life as it is not. Some one says, "Well, these are as real as fairy tales." But there are not a good fairy tale is true allegorically a real story child knows and can see it is not true really and actually. Therefore, they early learn to look for the meaning in parables, which is a good lesson. But the "Elise Books" pretend to present a picture of real life in every story as such does, and they are false to the best in humanity.

PERSONAL

On Sunday morning after mass in St. Michael's Cathedral the choir-master, James Dickenson, who was married last week, was presented with a magnificent bouquet of flowers, a flower stand, a Doulton bowl, and a magnificent bouquet of peonies, M. J. McNamara made the presentations on behalf of the choir.

Dr. A. Primrose, who underwent an operation at the General Hospital, is progressing favorably, and it is expected that he will be removed to his home about the end of the week.

WHAT TO WEAR

"Learn Bon Ton and See the World." —Bobbie Burns. A beautiful evening dress, specially adapted for summer wear, consists in an organdie with silk dots made up in empire style. The skirt falls in large box plaits from the high empire waistband, and is drawn in by a band of ribbon passing under and thru each plait a little above the usual waist line. This sash is then tied at the back and falls gracefully with long ends almost to the floor.

It will be some time before even the semi-empire style will go out of fashion. We may rather expect to see an accentuation of the vogue. But be very careful how you use it. The princess style, either for street or afternoon wear, is the perfect figure, or modified in shape. The former is the more striking mode. If made up in flimsy or cheap material it soon crushes with constant wear.

THE HORSE PARADE

Continued from Page 1. sented a fine appearance. The triple teams on the coal wagons were extra fine, and the singles in the black-blond class made a record. The popular president, Noel Marshall, was cheered for his successes in this lot. An interesting exhibit was the aged drivers. Robert Simpson Co.'s 20-year-old was first, a 24-year-old of Joseph's, second, and H. Gooderham's Tommy, 22 years old, was third. These veterans looked as sleek and lively as the horses of the corporation horses made as fine a show as any, and citizens must have felt, as the prize-winners scavenge and water wagons pranced past, that they were getting value for their taxes. A fine grey, had some people thought should have been harnessed to No. 13 and the hoodoo went.

Outside Entries. The number of exhibits from outside the city was noticeable, the market gardeners, farmers and other having risen to the occasion. Altogether, President Marshall and E. F. Good, secretary of the association, have every reason to be satisfied with the result of their hard work. The gentlemen who assisted by their cash and their time may congratulate themselves that their public spirit has placed Toronto in a unique and commercial way on the horse. The employers and drivers who surrendered their time to the success of the event also deserve consideration for their public spirit.

TOURISTS UP NORTH. Summer Resorts Best Destined For a Fine Season. G. T. Bell, general passenger and ticket agent, and J. D. McDonald, district passenger agent of the Grand Trunk Railway System, returned Toronto on Saturday from a northern trip. They say they found the weather extremely fine at all of the summer resort districts visited and the prospects for business exceedingly good, based on the advance inquiries and bookings of the various hotels. The backward spring in the United States has undoubtedly checked, to some extent, the movement of tourists from across the line. Manager Boomer opened his Royal Muskoka Hotel, Lake Rousseau, June 27, with an efficient staff. This is Mr. Boomer's third season at the Royal. His winters are spent with the east coast system of hotels in Florida. He will represent the Grand Trunk in their information bureau and ticket office in the Royal.

Toronto Lacrosse Teams Win

Toronto's Two Lacrosse Teams Both Successful on the Holiday

Montreal's Rosedale 7 to 4 and Tecumseh Win at Cornwall 4 to 3—Junction Beat Matlands.

With a reconstructed team Jimmy Murphy's Rosedale aggregation had no difficulty in disposing of Barney Dumphy's Montrealers on the holiday. The score was 7 to 4.

Saturday's defeat at the island was the prime cause of the change in the lineup. Lambe figured yesterday for the first time this season, taking the place of Gilmour and Jardine, formerly of the Young Torontos, replaced Gilmour.

Both made them. They were just the strong spots the Rosedales needed on Saturday. Lambe figured yesterday for the first time this season, taking the place of Gilmour and Jardine, formerly of the Young Torontos, replaced Gilmour.

Also, it can be remarked, Regan was himself again. The little goal keeper showed great form, making some truly wonderful stops.

The game was rough and the penalties numerous, the Blanchard and Cousins, both of Montreal, who officiated as referee and judge of penalties, did not see everything by any means. For instance, in the final quarter, Kalls got into a half-conscious condition and was carried in a half-conscious condition from the field. He was not in shape till after the game. He has a knock on the side of the head, and a goose egg. Neither Blanchard nor Cousins saw this, and Hamilton was not penalized.

In the third quarter Povey quit the game with an injured knee. Blanchard ruled that he had 15 minutes to get back into the game, at the end of which time Toronto could elect to retire a man or allow Montreal to take a fresh one. Naturally Murphy decided that he would prefer to play with one man short, and Cameron went off to even up. There was a large and sonorous howl from Montreal, but the referee was firm and the game went on.

Barring the accidents the game was a good one to look upon. There was fierce checking all thru and the spectators had a good exhibition of the national sport.

Teams and officials: Toronto: Regan, goal; Francis, point; Murphy, cover; Jardine, Hamberg, Lambe, defence; McKenzie, centre; Taylor, Cameron, Barnett, home; Kalls, outside; Warwick, inside; Gilmour, Montrealers: Muir, goal; Neville, point; Haynes, cover; G. Finlayson, Mckerrow, Kenne, defence; Povey, centre; Scott, Hamilton, second; R. Finlayson, outside; H. Scott, inside. Referee—A. Blanchard, Montreal; Judge of play, G. Cousineau, Montreal. Umpires—J. E. Bailey, Toronto; Jack Davidson, Montreal.

PAINE YACHT WINNER ADELE BEATS ALILEEN

R. C. Y. C. Races For Queen's and Nicholls Cups Sailed in Light Airs.

The races of the R.C.Y.C. for the Queen's Cup and Nicholls Gold Cup were called yesterday morning under rather unsteady conditions.

At the start of the race for the Queen's Cup the wind was southwest and blowing with a velocity of about five miles, continuing light and variable throughout. This race included class F, or 27-footers, and under, and was started at 10.30.

Generally, the Paine boat Adele totally outclassed the Alileen, showing her superiority on all points, especially in beating to windward. It will be noted that all the boats were late in getting away, owing to the uncertain wind. The Adele got away 14.35 late; the Alileen 2.35. Thus the winner made 12.30 better time than the loser.

There were five starters in the Nicholls Gold Cup race, the boats getting away at 10.30. The wind had a velocity of 12 miles from the southwest. It was very constant and variable, however, and as the boats were late in getting away, the race was a close one.

A very exciting lacrosse game in the C. A. League, played at St. Catharines, yesterday, between Brantford and St. Catharines. The early part of the game was all Brantford, but the latter finished strong, winning by the score of 9 to 5.

The third home game in District No. 4 was played yesterday at St. Catharines between St. Catharines and Brantford. The game was a close one, with St. Catharines winning by the score of 9 to 5.

The Walker Cup in the 16-foot skiff race was won by Spencer Ellis of the C. A. U. A. The time of the three leaders is as follows (starting at 2.30 p.m.): Skirmisher, Spencer Ellis, N. Y. & S. C., 5:01.00.

Light and variable winds sadly interfered with the Lake Sailing Skiff Association races on the holiday, an hour's calm in the afternoon making the 14-foot dinghy fixture a most tedious affair for all concerned.

The government is disturbed and anxious to placate Irish sentiment is shown by the introduction of a bill to restore the evicted tenants, and by a promised settlement of the Irish university question.

The education problem in England and Ireland is a very perplexing one for the government, and along with the question of tariff reform, may have an important bearing on the relations between the Unionist and Nationalist parties.

If Ireland were a free country she would be a protectionist country. We have yet to meet the Irishman who seriously believes that an independent Ireland would exchange her food products for manufactured articles which her own people were capable of manufacturing.

Whether this opinion be a sound one or the reverse, is not of importance at the moment, but the fact that it is expressed and supported by many Nationalists is a political factor that cannot be ignored.

STOUFFVILLE. Good Program of Sports—Early Closing in Town.

STOUFFVILLE, July 1.—The "chalk talk" on Friday evening, in Spofford hall, on "Prohibition and Moral Reform" by A. H. A. Bengough, was an enjoyable treat and fairly well patronized.

Stouffville mite boxes for the regional beyond missionary union for the last six months amounted to $15. This is a large increase over the preceding term.

During the months of July and August the millinery stores in town are closing at 7 o'clock on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

DEER PARK. Crowds Throng the Cemeteries—Building Continues Brisk.

DEER PARK, July 1.—The number of visitors to Mount Pleasant cemetery to-day was remarkably large, the capacity of the suburban cars being taxed, to carry those desiring to come. The summary punishment meted out to offenders last year has so far prevented any further vandalism, thru the carrying away of flowers.

Our prices for these distinctive suits will stand the most critical comparison.

TORONTO JUNCTION. TORONTO JUNCTION, July 1.—The town council will hold their regular meeting to-morrow night.

NERVES IN ORDER. NERVES UNSTRUNG.

This is a nerve-racking age—not a striving hard to get on in the world, but that does not feel the strain.

If nerves are in order, a man is strong, eats and sleeps well, and his nerves mean weakness, worry, fretfulness and a general decay of bodily strength, inability to do good work or to do it long.

Most men are careless of their health, instead of looking after it. They are not strong, eat and sleep well, and their nerves mean weakness, worry, fretfulness and a general decay of bodily strength, inability to do good work or to do it long.

OPENING AT STRATFORD RACES CLOSE, TRACK WET

Anna V. Brino and Johnny Win in Straight Heats—2.10 Pace Unfinished.

STRATFORD, July 1.—(Special.)—The Stratford Association opened its circuit meeting here to-day, somewhat under difficulties. About 11 o'clock this morning a heavy rain fell and continued for an hour, leaving the track covered with water, but by 2 o'clock it was fit to race over a couple of widths out from the pole. Three thousand people, a large number of them from outside points, took chances on the threatening weather and attended the races, which were close and scratchy. On account of the poor condition of the track, seven of the original entries in the 2.21 stakes for pacers, withdrew, leaving seven to start. Anna V. Brino, Miss Mac, bought's string scored her third win in three weeks by taking the race in straight heats, but she had to do her best to-day, as George Powell's mare, Minnie Bell, kept her very busy in the opening heat, and Zac Medium made her straighten out in the second heat again in the third. The 2.10 stakes for trotters was looked upon as a sure thing for the Brantford gelding Johnny, but the face proved to be more open than the talent figured, as the grey mare Ella Nevada, also from Brantford, made an excellent showing in the first heat. In fact, many who were at the wire opposite to the judges saw the mare in front. However, Johnny won the second heat, and third heats comparatively easy. Of the nine original entries in this race, only three were in the third heat, that remained, Sirock and Ella Nevada. King Bryson finished second in the second heat, but in the third he was back on account of breaks, which made an unpopular decision, as Ella Nevada made a couple of gaining breaks in the second heat. It looked like the horses should have been placed as they finished. However, this would not have altered the result in the summary, as the mare seemed to have the Indian sign on Aid. Sam McBride's trotter. The 2.10 pace was last on the card, and the 2.10 stakes for pacers was run under the rule that no heat can be called after sunset. Rombovich's campaigner La Pointe was the original favorite, not withstanding Missouri Chief had beaten her last week in Listowel. She did not get off any too well in the first heat, but finished last, Bertha Bars winning 2.17.3, which was fast time considering the condition of the track. A new light trotter, David Barr, Sarnia, H. Cook, who looked to be hopelessly out of the race at the half, showed a great burst of speed and just trumped over the others in the last half, winning by a length in front of the Indiana pacer Elmwood. La Pointe led through the fourth and last heat of the day. Then the race was put over until 2 o'clock to-morrow. H. H. Hancock of Cleveland, O., is the starting judge, but it cannot be said that his work to-day was satisfactory. He showed decided lack of control of his drivers, and his voice is very weak. Compared with Frank Smith, who did the start, with at Listowel and Seaforth, he suffered greatly. The officials are: Judge, David Barr, Sarnia; H. Cook, Mitchell, and H. H. Hancock; Cleveland, Timers, George Larkworthy, Jr., J. Jones, Stratford, and James Jones, Mitchell. The summary of to-day's racing: 2.21 class, pacing (stake, $500): Anna V. Brino, b.m., by Wildcat; R. Burnside, Kin-cardine (Rombovich) 1 1 1; Zac Medium, b.m., by Sam McPherson; Dr. (Montgomery) 3 2 2; Minnie Bell, ch.m., by Prince Nuttinger; George Powell, Oshawa (Powell) 2 3 3; Sunday Belle, b.m.; Mikeagan; Dr. Beattie, Alliston (Anderson) 4 4 4; Nellie Bright, ch.m., by Bour-
