THORNTON RATE ON ALBERTA COAL NOT LOW ENOUGH

Western Mine Operators Say U. S. Will Still Command Market

Member of Association Says Chief of C. N. R. Has Apparently Changed Views—Emergency Meeting is Called in Calgary.

(Canadian Press)

Calgary, May 7.—Nine dollars a ton on Alberta coal going to Ontario on the C. N. R., as suggested by President Sir Henry Thornton is too high by $2 a ton and would be useless, coal operators said here last night.

Jesse George, members of the Western Coal Operators' Association, said: "It is hopeless to expect that we could reach the Ontario market with a rate like that. It is absolutely no good and we could only take advantage of it in case of an extreme coal famine in the East. Some outside influence of which we have no knowledge must have been at work for Sir Henry Thornton has apparently changed his views. Both in Alberta and in Ontario we entertained hope that we would obtain the reduction we required because of the 'wonderful manner in which Sir Henry evidently viewed our case. Then, Sir Henry discussed getting the rate down to a competitive basis, but he knows, and we all know, that $9 would not form a basis of competition for our prices would be higher than the price U. S. subsidize is being quoted in, especially since their prices have been reduced."

An emergency meeting of the Western Canada Coal Operators' Association will be held in Calgary this afternoon.

Ottawa, May 7.—Unless Alberta coal can arrive in Ottawa to cost in the $10 a ton on the cars here, it will not compete with the Pennsylvania coal, said a local official here last night.

"Allowing a $3 spread for profit, delivery, interest, storage, etc., that would make the coal sell at $13 a ton. American coal would compete with it. At that rate it would compete with the American coal, but it is not enough to give the U. S. operators any profit and still let a little hope of much coal from Alberta selling here with the $9 freight rate."

Ottawa, May 7.—The lower rate of $9 a ton for Alberta coal to Ontario would not be sufficient to permit of the development of market of Alberta coal, was the opinion of the Edmonton Coal Operators' Association. "It would undoubtedly help some," said one prominent operator, "but it is not enough to permit of competition with the summer months. To make a continuous summer market demand we would have to get $12 a ton."

It is pointed out that the price at the pit-head ranges from $2.50 to $4 a ton, and the delivery cost and retail profit from $2 to $2.50 more. With the $9 freight added, the Toronto price would be $14.50 to $15.50 and this price, the Edmonton operators say, would not be sufficiently attractive to permit of successful competition with the east, unless there is abnormal cause, such as a coal shortage, owing to a strike in eastern mines.

Ottawa, May 7.—Sir Henry Thornton announced that the Canadian Pacific Railway will quote a rate of $9 a ton on Alberta coal moving in train loads to Ontario during May, June and July. "Similar consideration will be given the maritime provinces."

CUTTING DOWN THE U. S. DEBT

Secretary Mellon Predicts $1,600,000,000 Reduction by June 30.

Washington, May 7.—Bringing to an end the first phase of refinancing the Government's great war-time debt, Secretary Mellon last night announced a new offering of four hundred million dollars in treasury notes to complete the refinancing and retiring of victory notes which when issued aggregated more than four billion dollars. The new issue will bear four and three-quarters per cent interest and will mature on March 15, 1927.

Secretary Mellon predicted that the gross public debt of the nation would be reduced to about $22,000,000,000 by June 30, retirement of about $1,600,000,000 of federal securities since April 30, 1922.

He declared there would be a surplus of $125,000,000 on June 30, or $65,000,000 more than estimated by Director Lord of the budget, who on Saturday forecast that Government receipts for the fiscal year would exceed expenditures by $60,000,000.

George T. Polly, his son-in-law, said this afternoon that Mrs. Vanwart was still with Mr. Vanwart but that Mrs. Polly was expected home tonight.

King George and Queen Mary Are In Rome; Are Heartily Greeted

Italian Monarch, Other Dignitaries and Throng of People Give Rousing Welcome to British Monarch and Queen in Italian Capital.

(Canadian Press)

Rome, May 7.—The train bearing King George and Queen Mary to Rome passed through this city about five o'clock this morning. Several members of the suite were up to receive the monarch and queen. They also received baskets of fruit intended for the breakfast table of the King and Queen. All the local civil and military authorities were at the station to offer their homage and welcome to the royal guests.

Queen Mary, who is the first of the royal family to visit Italy, and much enjoyed their first glimpse of Italy. On one side of the car they saw the towering Apennines, with the morning sun falling on the great gorges fringed by the famous marble cliffs of Carrara. The train also passed Viareggio, near which the poet Shelley was drowned. Continuing to Pisa, Queen Mary was much interested at seeing the famous leaning tower and the ancient Romanesque Cathedral. The station was decorated with bunting and flowers, and the civil and military authorities were given the honor of the reduction of their carriage and bowed to the monarch in which Sir Henry Thornton was present.

Rome, May 7.—King George and Queen Mary arrived in Rome at 3 p.m. King Victor Emmanuel, Crown Prince Umberto and the other royal princes and princesses greeted them at the station. Also included in the welcoming party were the members of the cabinet, headed by Premier Mussolini, Gen. Diaz and Admiral De Ravel, representing the army and navy, the presidents of the senate, and chamber, and the members of the British embassy staffs, with their wives. The king was profusely decorated. King George was greeted with tremendous enthusiasm. The British and Italian sovereigns warmly embraced. From the station the streets and public squares were crowded with applauding people.

NEW CABLE ACROSS ATLANTIC

New York, May 7.—A new trans-Atlantic cable between New York and London is to be laid at a cost estimated at ten million dollars. It will be the first Atlantic cable laid since the completion of the old cable in 1866. The new line, which will be operated by the Cable Corporation, will be a bulk affair, its conductor average about 1,100 pounds of copper wire. It will be the heaviest existing cable. The route will send it up along the coast of Nova Scotia, then across to the Azores, making a total of 2,760 miles of cable to be laid on this stretch.

At the Azores the line will connect with a cable already laid from Ireland to England, which will hook up with the new system. About 200,000 pounds of copper will be used in the conductor.

On Guysboro Coast. Halifax, N. S., May 7.—An increase of seventy per cent in trans-Atlantic cable communication will be one of the benefits expected from the new cable, according to Superintendent Hagen of the local cable office. In addition there will be the advantage of facilities for carrying a larger bulk of matter. The cable line will land at Dover Bay, Guysboro county and connect with the main line to London.

"It is very ambitious undertaking," said Mr. Hagen, "considering the fact that the largest cable now in use is only 700 pounds to the mile and the new cable 1,100. But I presume experiments have proved the efficiency of the new line to stand the strain." Mr. Hagen remarked that the first Atlantic cable cost nearly half as much as the projected new cable will cost.

Girl is Slain in a Detroit Vacant Lot

Police Hold Two Youths Who Made Report of Find

Detroit, Mich., May 7.—The body of a pretty 17-year-old girl lies unidentified in a morgue here today, and two young men, who said they found her unconscious in a vacant lot late last night, are held. They are Edward Prayzbylki, 17, and Max Novak, 17. They told police officers they knew nothing about the young woman, but saw her lying in a vacant lot at Burnett and Garden avenues. They went to a nearby house and reported that a woman had fainted. A young man went with them to where the girl was lying and carried her to a nearby house. She died ten minutes later. Examination showed her clothing torn to shreds and finger nails on her neck. The coroner's physician said indications pointed to strangulation as the cause of death. Police are seeking a third man, whose name is withheld, but who, they assert, Prayzbylki and Novak mentioned as having said he was going to take a girl friend for a ride in his car.

ROCKEFELLER RELATIVE AMONG CAPTIVES IN BANDIT RAID

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram, "I walked up the street early on Saturday evening and saw a young man very much under the influence of liquor. Two hours later, returning home by another street, I passed another young man, who was in a similar condition. I suppose if I could have seen into all the places where they were, I could have seen a lot more."

"This town could not have any prohibition," said the reporter. "We'll-we hunt," said Hiram. "But there is the law. I should think an officer of the law could see what all the rest of us can see. What's the explanation of this open sale of liquor? When will it be stopped?"

"When the folks that talk prohibition shows they mean it," said Hiram. "I should think a man who has been drunk and had been trying to engage himself in conversation with people about the station. A fine of $80 was imposed."

MANY TIES IN BIG LEAGUES

Third Week Sees Baseball Competition Very Keen.

Only Four Places in American League—Foul Claimed Against Jack Johnson in Bout in Havana.

(Canadian Press)

New York, May 7.—Nearing the finish of three weeks of play the races in the American League have disclosed keen competition all down the line. In most seasons, there were only four places in the American League when play started today, one team was in first, two in second, one in third and four tied for fourth, and three were tied for third in the National.

Though they lost to the Athletics, the Senators have not disclosed their intention to leave the American League. By defeating Boston 4 to 1 Washington became level with the Red Sox and enabled Chicago, which team won a ninth inning thriller, from Cleveland, 5 to 4, to go into a four-way tie for fourth place. Chicago and Pittsburgh both lost ground in the National League by losing to the Yankees and Boston were tied. Trough victory over the Cubs, 10 to 4, St. Louis went into the tie for third place with Pittsburgh, which lost to Cincinnati 8 to 7. Brooklyn made a motion toward getting out of the cellar by defeating Philadelphia 7 to 4. Horsey, leading major league home run hitter last year, made two homers, being as successful as he has been in 1922. Chicago, playing its consecutive record of 19 games, won 10 and lost 9.

Havana, May 7.—The bout between the Cuban champion, Jose G. F. Lopez, and the world's heavyweight title, and Walter (Farmer) Lodge, the Minnesota fighter, was terminated at the end of the fourth round early today after Lopez had felled by a blow which he said was foul. Johnson led in the first three rounds of a rather tight fight.

Calgary, May 7.—The red flag was hoisted and the Internationale sung at the meeting of the Women's Labor Union at the Grand Hotel here yesterday, under the chairmanship of Fred J. Nagle, local member of the Alberta legislature. Four hundred people attended.

Mrs. Wm. Carson, local labor leader, advocated the abolition of the national anthem in favor of the Internationale. Two city aldermen gave addresses.

GOVERNOR DINES LABOR LEADERS

Ontario's Crown Representative Peace and Good Will.

Toronto, May 7.—Canadian and local labor leaders to the number of 120 lunched on Saturday with Lieutenant-Governor McCreagh in the first time that a representative of the crown had invited the recognized leaders of organized labor to the gubernatorial table.

Tom Moore and Senator Robertson replied to a toast to Canada. Mr. Moore rejoiced that so many labor men in official and public posts were present. KICK OR FALL, BUT DEATH ANYWAY

Montreal, May 7.—Ernest Desjardins, thirty-eight, is dead, and two men are held as material witnesses for the coroner's court as the result of an incident in a house in Rivard street on Saturday night.

Desjardins, it is alleged, offered to assist the men held in holding a trunk up a winding staircase. He fell down a fifteen-foot staircase, striking his head on the sidewalk. His skull was fractured.

The two men who have been detained allege that there was no blow or kick, but that Desjardins fell down the stairs.

GAS EXPLODES; 10 DIE IN MINE

Trinidad, Colo., May 7.—Ten men lost their lives when gas in the north slope of the south-west mine of the Rocky Mountain Fuel Co. exploded on Saturday.

Eighty men working all night in shifts struggled against the barriers of wreckage to recover the bodies. Hundreds of men and women gathered at the mine and kept vigil. The blast apparently caught the men as they were about 1,900 to 2,000 feet inside the mine.

Smallpox On Train; 26 Are Locked in Car

U. S. TEAM GETS JOLT AS THE GOLF PLAY BEGINS

Dead, Eng., May 7.—Ideal weather favored the competitors in the British amateur golf championship tournament today. Francis Quimet, of Boston, and A. Read of Summingdale, were among the first to get away. Quimet had comparatively little trouble in winning 4 up and 8 to play. Results of the other matches in the first round were:

John E. Neville, Sea Francisco, defeated Viscount Maidstone, Royal St. George's, 5 up and four to play. Roger Wethered, Wexlesdon, the Oxford star, defeated E. R. Campbell, Sunningdale, one up. G. D. Forrester, of Woking, England, defeated Robert A. Gardner, Chicago, two up.

E. N. Layton, Royal Cinque Ports, defeated Jess Sweetser, Swanley, U. S. amateur champion, 4 up and 8 to play. The U. S. team received a severe jolt when it suffered the loss of two of its leading members. Jess Sweetser, U. S. amateur champion, went down to defeat at the hands of E. N. Layton, of the Royal Cinque Port Club, four up and three to play, and Robert A. Gardner, Chicago, captain of the Walker Cup team, and rated as one of the steadies of the American competitors, was down at the finish to G. D. Forrester, of Woking.

H. E. Lebas, Walton Heath, defeated G. M. Standifer, of Washington, D. C., 8 up and 2 to play. Cyril J. H. Tolley, Eps, defeated E. Martin Smith, Royal St. George's, 4 up and 8 to play. Harry R. Johnston, St. Paul, Minn., defeated H. S. Holden, Bowdon, Eng., 9 up and 7 to play.

Effect on Unity. Editorially the newspaper stresses the fact that reparations are owed to the Allies and not to France and Belgium only. The British public, the Daily Telegraph believed, finds it very hard to appreciate the French reasons for the step taken. The editorial further expressed a desire that France should have rejected Great Britain's appeal for concerted action as voiced by Lord Curzon on Friday.

The Times likewise condemns outspokenly the French-Belgian opposition that those two nations are the sole arbiters of the Ruhr situation, and says they have made the maintenance of a policy of unilateral action a principle of policy which is in itself unwise and unnecessary. The newspaper reiterates the view that although the German note was well worded and inadequate it might have been the stepping stone for a settlement.

The Times argues for such a tribunal as U. S. Secretary Hughes suggested, and would like to see the U. S. participating as an associated power in the deliberation of such a body. "But with the attitude of the U. S.," the newspaper says, "the situation looks for common action, not separation."

Health Minister. Hon. Dr. W. F. Roberts, Minister of Health, addressed the meeting of the Evangelical Alliance this morning in the Y. M. C. A., on the work of the health department. He was accompanied by Rev. E. H. Styles, secretary; Rev. H. E. Thomas, Rev. F. T. Bertram, Rev. Claude Stewart, Rev. Neil MacLachlan, Rev. A. T. Edmondson, Rev. George Grandin, Rev. Hugh Miller, Rev. Dr. S. S. Poole, Rev. William Lawson, Rev. R. G. Falconer, Rev. Archdeacon A. H. Crowfoot, Rev. W. A. Robins, Rev. W. H. Sampson, Major Burrows and Staff Captain Ritchie. Rev. Anderson, secretary, interim supply at St. Andrew's church was given a hearty welcome.

Dr. Roberts reviewed the work of the department of health, emphasizing particularly the departments of sanitation, school inspection and vital statistics. Through vaccination, he said, smallpox had been practically stamped out in the schools since 1920. The death rate among children had been lessened considerably. Dr. Roberts also mentioned the work of the department in an endeavor to wipe out this disease and asked the clergymen to cooperate in the endeavor.

A vote of thanks, moved by Archdeacon Crowfoot and seconded by Rev. Mr. Falconer, was carried by unanimous standing vote.

Rev. A. T. Edmondson said that next Sunday would be Mothers' Day and urged the churches to make the most of the occasion.

English Lawyers Do Not Like This

Former Solicitor-General of U. S., Called to Bar by Benchers of Gray's Inn.

London, May 7.—Considerable agitation has been aroused around the Inns of Court because the benchers of Gray's Inn "called to the bar" Jas. M. Beck, former Solicitor-General of the United States. Mr. Beck is an honorary member of Gray's Inn.

Under British legal organization lawyers are divided into two branches, barristers and solicitors, and only the former are allowed to appear in courts and argue cases. Numerous lawyers are writing to the newspapers complaining that Mr. Beck is to argue a Canadian case before the judicial committee of the Privy Council, although he has never passed the examination for admission to the British bar, never eaten dinner in one of the Inns' courts, which is considered a sacred part of the tradition of legal aspirants, and particularly because he is a solicitor as well as a barrister.

Some writers declare there is favoritism against the colonies because lawyers of the Australian states which do not classify lawyers are not permitted to argue cases in British courts, as only barristers unaided by solicitors work here that right.

It is permitted to a foreigner, who technically is unqualified for the work, to take the broad oath of the monarch of England, as without this special privilege given Mr. Beck, some eminent British lawyers would not be permitted to be presumably attached to this particular case.

The latter's 85 per cent. share has recently been quoted in the neighborhood of $14.

How Hundreds Made A Bread Discovery

It happened this last week. Moving day came on top of house-keeping. Trouble enough in that without bothering to bake bread in a stove only needed now a little before meals.

So hundreds of St. John housewives decided to try a baker's bread just this once. And from the way our sales have jumped up and stayed up we have come to believe that this year again the great majority chose Robinson's and were glad of it enough to keep on having it. Always a host of new and permanent patrons come to us this way every May. For many reasons they find a saving and a satisfaction you'll not know till you try.

The New Roads did it

"Why, Jim, when did you get out on those new roads, too?"

"Surprised, eh, Fred? Well, I've just been riding a short time. It was the new roads that did the trick."

"What roads?"

"Why, man alive, have you been asleep? Haven't you seen those wonderful new highways the Government has been spending millions of dollars on?"

Ten Miles Easier Now Than Five Before

"Your wheel glides along those hard, smooth, dustless highways just like a ball rolling over a billiard table. Hardly any pressure needed on the pedals. You can ride 10 miles today more easily than you could do 5 or 6 miles on the old roads."

"That so, Jim?"

Like A Toboggan

"They've cut down the big hills, too, Fred. The new grades are easier to climb. As for coasting—you can let her go now just like a toboggan. And, say, it's great to feel the wind in your face and to see the trees whizzing by. And, after you reach the bottom you shoot on—and on—and on! You'd never believe you could coast so far unless you'd tried it yourself."

A Peppy Bike

"For one thing, there's the Triplex Hanger. No other bike has it. The Triplex responds to the slightest pressure on the pedals. You start easier. Get under way faster. Every bit of weight you put on the pedals counts for speed. The Triplex Hanger is sure a peppy power plant."

The New Pedal

"There's the new Gibson Pedal, too. A beauty! Aluminum frame that looks like silver and cannot rust. Strong, yet wonderfully light. Watch how she spins! And see how perfectly it fits the foot."

"But I'm not a salesman, Fred. Just bike down to the C.C.M. dealer. He will be glad to tell you all about C.C.M. Bicycles—why they're nickelled over copper; why the enamelling lasts so long; why English Seamless Tubing makes the best frames and all about the Hercules Brake."

Bottom Prices

"Go down and get your C.C.M. now and come out for a ride. You can easily afford one—C.C.M. Bicycles are almost down to pre-war prices; $15 to $20 less than the 'peak' prices. They've hit the bottom for a quality bicycle."

Sumerian City was Seat of First Empire Known to History.

David Draper, writing from Rio Janeiro to the London Times, narrates the following—Goodman Household was the son of one of the settlers who landed from the wreck of the Minerva, which went ashore on the Point of Durban. Being of an independent mind, Goodman became a self-taught mechanical engineer, and went in for constructing machinery in the days when skilled men were scarce in the infant colony of Natal.

While watching the flight of the large vultures (aasvogels), he came to the conclusion that it was possible to imitate them, if he could succeed in directing the flight of the machine, but it was a very bad time. Not content with copying the studies of the flight of birds to the vulture only, he included all manner of flying animals, bats, etc. Weighing wing area of each victim, he succeeded in arriving at a basis of calculation which led him to believe that flight without motive power was possible, provided he could obtain the necessary material for constructing the wings.

These calculations he placed before the celebrated mathematician, Dr. Colenso, at that time resident Bishop of Natal, who gave his opinion that Household's figures were correct. To obtain the material required, a special quality of dense woven silk was imported from Switzerland and specially designed steel tubes from England. With these he constructed a large single plant, with a steering apparatus, or tail, and a seat for the operator. He had a drawing of the machine, but it has been lost, as I did not consider it would ever be of any use, and consequently took no care of it.

The Household family resided on a farm in the Karloof district, about twenty miles north of the village of Howick. The Karloof mountain is a high table-topped peak, partly surrounded by a precipice, several hundred feet in height, and it was from this elevation that Goodman decided to take his first flight. #### THE RED ELEMENT.

A Communist from the United States, speaking at the May Day celebration in Queen's Park, Toronto, told his audience that Canada was more tolerant of Communism than the country from which he came. He said that, being in Canada, he could admit he was a Communist; and he added that if he said as much across the line as one of the Toronto speakers preceding him had said, he would have been sentenced to ten years in jail.

Such a compliment to Canada is of doubtful value. We are told that more than twenty-five nationalities were represented at this meeting. The following is an extract from a report of the proceedings:

"Captain Paxton Hibben, form the U. S. A., and a frequent visitor to Russia, spoke of the red flag flying in the eastern and western hemispheres over great territories. 'He not dismayed,' he cried, 'as long as the flag of the workers waves in Russia, the battle is won.' The celebrations concluded with the lusty singing of the 'Red Flag,' and resounding cheers for Soviet Russia and the Workers of the World. The very plucky hue of the 'Red' celebrations in the afternoon was maintained at the evening session in the Gaiety theatre. If the Canadian Government continues to persecute the Mussolini methods, then militants are going to be content no longer with constitutional methods of achieving their ends," said James Simpson, John Macdonald spoke of the 'solidarity of the proletariat' and the 'emancipation of the workers' party' and called upon the little enthusiasm when he spoke of Toronto as 'this hypocritical city of the damned.' The meeting was started by the singing of the Internationale and concluded by an enthusiastic rendering of the 'Red Flag.'

Rather than propaganda, this for an assembly in Canada. But Toronto is not alone. On the same day over fifteen hundred persons marched in procession in Glace Bay. About a thousand went there from Sydney. The 'Red' credit he it said, only five or six hundred out of five thousand Glace Bay miners were in the ranks. This procession bore at its head a red banner, and the calibre of the speakers, the fact that under this banner marched Daniel Livingstone, J. B. MacLachlan, Alex S. McIntyre and Alex Stewart, U. M. W. officials, and Tom Bell, of the Maritime Labor Herald, each with a long red streamer hanging from his coat lapel. The red banner bore the motto, 'Workers of the World Unite—Workers Party of Canada,' and 'Long Live Communism.' We quote from the Glace Bay Gazette:

"Following the red flag were about twenty or thirty of the committee in charge of the celebration, and behind them was a large procession of Russians from Sydney and other cities, many of them wearing red hats and carrying Russian flags. At the head of the first Russian delegation was a banner bearing some Russian inscription. Then came the only band in the parade, from the Sydney steelworkers union, almost 1,000 strong. At the head of the steelworkers' section was a banner bearing the words, 'Rise up in our might and break the bonds with the force of a tidal wave.' In the rear of the parade were two bodies of workers carried from Sydney and both groups carried banners with foreign inscriptions. One of the features of the speeches in the rink was the district secretary's attack on the supreme court judges sent to the Red Internationale in Russia."

"These Glace Bay parades were of the same kind as those that met in Queen's Park, Toronto. The Gazette, however, observes the citizens of Glace Bay from any suspicion of sympathy with the Communists. Little more than a tenth of the local miners joined in the parade. As to their leaders, who they refuse to follow, the Gazette says:

"All the local members of the district board, including the president, and secretary, took their places in the parade under the red banner of Communism. By this act they placed themselves definitely in the ranks of the international Bolshevik, whose object is revolution—the overthrow of the existing social and political order and the state."

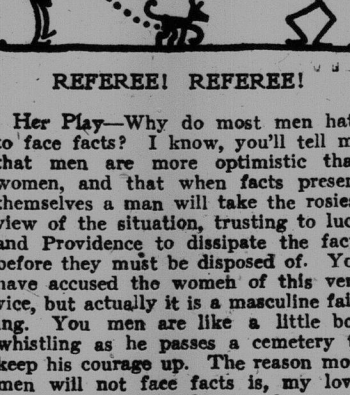

The Gazette also has something to say about the mayor of the town, who took the chair at the meeting in the rink, "at which language of the most provocative and seditious intent was used," and declares the whole proceeding was a disgrace to the town. It is especially bitter in its reference to the visitors from Sydney. We quote:

"If it had not been for the 'reds' from Sydney there would not have been any parade in Glace Bay yesterday, as the few who joined the steelworkers from the colliery towns would not have made a parade in itself. And from

The Marriage Game

The Snappiest of Pastimes As Played at a Decision Every Day

By Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hutton

REFeree! REFeree!

Her Play—Why do most men hate to face facts? I don't tell you that men are more optimistic than women, and that when facts present themselves a man will take the roughest view of the situation, trusting to luck and Providence to dispense the facts before they must be disposed of. You have accused the women of this vice, but actually it is a masculine failing. You men have a little boy whistling as he passes a cemetery to keep his courage up. The reason most men will not face facts is that they haven't the moral courage that a woman has to have! Now!

His Counter-Play—Moral courage! Wow! Say, that's a good one. It isn't moral courage that gives a woman the force to face facts. It's just plain ignorance of the consequences that ensue from facing facts before the time is ripe to handle them. There's no use in crossing your bridges till you come to them; that's something every man learns the day he starts earning a living. Why, say, if business men were to face facts, as you call them, they would worry themselves into a fit of the blues or the grave in a week. Face facts when you can't dodge 'em, that's a man's motto and a mighty good one to pursue!

The Referee—Excuse us, today you say it! (Copyright, John F. Dille Co.)

LONDON.

(From The Poetry Review)

Woods for April weather—
Downlands for the prime,
Moors for autumn heather—
London all the time!

Shops of fairy glitter,
Goblins in the street,
Dragged birds a-twitter,
Trump of tired feet.

Flaming on the river
Drops the dying wren
London's high-tower quiver,
Jewels on her breast.

We go to youth that lingers,
Lured by rainbow gleams—
London's grubby fingers
Clutch at dream.

The Rolling Passion.

A shriek! A splash!
People ran frantically along the pier.
A woman waved her hands and wailed that her child had fallen into the sea.
The man who usually produces the man. A gullant here threw off his coat and kicked his dark-eyed Sue into the water.
Then he dived boldly into the waves.

THE VALLEY RAILWAY.

The Minister of Railways and Sir Henry Thornton have promised Premier Veniot that they will have an investigation of the entire situation in regard to the Valley Railway. The Premier announces that the question of completing the road to Grand Falls, to make the shortest available Canadian line from the west to the sea-board is to be studied, as well as the proposed connection from Meductic or thereabouts with the Maine Central, giving the government system direct connection with the New England States. The Government at Ottawa has not yet taken up the Valley Railway, but that is what is in mind in connection with the investigation. The people of the province will be much relieved if definite action along the lines suggested is now taken. There is, however, more than the Grand Falls extension involved. The present Valley Railway ends at Westfield. It is to become a real part of a trans-continental system it must come over its own rails to its own terminals. If Sir Henry Thornton can be convinced, and can in turn convince Minister of Railways, that through traffic should be routed over the Valley Railway it will mean much to St. John, although we will only be getting back to what was promised when this railway was surveyed and built. Premier Veniot has justice to the province on his side in this matter, and it should prevail.

Sir Henry Thornton promises lower freight rates on coal from Alberta and Nova Scotia to the Central Province. This may be a concession of considerable value. Now what about the shipper's fish, potatoes, apples and other products? They also would appreciate some consideration.

ANIMAL STUDY IS RECOMMENDED TO ZOO VISITORS

One of Officials Says Minds of Cage Dwellers Have Been Probed.

London, April 10.—(By Mail)—An engaging pastime for visitors to the Zoo was referred to by Dr. P. Chalmer Mitchell, secretary of the Zoological Society of London, when introducing Dr. G. M. Vevers, the new superintendent of the Gardens, to representatives of London newspapers, reports "The Westminster Gazette."

The Zoo authorities are anxious to get the public interested in the mental psychology of the animals. In fact, it is said, has been laid on the fact that here is a fine collection of rare animals, just as though they were so many foreign stamps in a collector's album.

All creatures, from the lowest to the highest, it was pointed out, have their mental aspect. This applies to the minute Amoeba living at the bottom of ponds equally with "Sandy," the popular Orang-Outang.

We have never got to the bottom of the mind of any of these animals yet," said an official of the Zoo to the Westminster Gazette. "There is any amount of material here for the student and the children."

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. Sarah A. Morrison.
The death of Mrs. Sarah A. Morrison occurred yesterday afternoon after a short illness at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. William Earle, 126 Victoria street. Mrs. Morrison, who was eighty-two years of age, belonged to Economy, N. S., but she has been living with her daughter in this city for the last year. She is survived by two sons, Charles, of Somerville, Mass., and Lawrence, of Medicine Hat; also six daughters, Mrs. William Bishop, of Delmont, Mass.; Mrs. William Phinney, of Matlock, Mass.; Mrs. Gordon McQuarrie, of Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Ada Totten, of Vancouver, and Mrs. Edward Brown and Mrs. William Earle, of this city. The body will be taken to Economy, N. S., for burial.

Mrs. Mary Johanna Coughlan.
A wide circle of friends will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Mary Johanna Coughlan which occurred on Saturday at the home of her son, Rev. Harold L. Coughlan, in Loch Lomond. Although Mrs. Coughlan had been in failing health for a year or more, the end came unexpectedly. She was in her habitual state of health up until Saturday morning when she experienced a weak turn from which, however, she rallied later in the morning. About noon she was again stricken and from this attack she did not recover, peacefully passing away later in the day. The members of her family were summoned when Mrs. Coughlan was first stricken and they were all with her at the time of her death. The late Mrs. Coughlan was the widow of Richard J. Coughlan, a former city official, who died several years ago. Rev. Richard Coughlan, who at the time of his death four years ago was parish priest of Johnville, Carleton county, N. B., was a son of Mrs. Coughlan. The surviving children are Rev. Harold L. Coughlan, Loch Lomond; Thomas F. of this city, and the Misses Johanna and Gertrude, at home.

The body was brought from Loch Lomond on Saturday to Mrs. Coughlan's home, 2 E. mouth street, from which the funeral will be held on Tuesday morning at 8.45 o'clock to the Cathedral for solemn high mass of requiem.

The funeral will take place this afternoon from O'Neill's Undertaking Rooms, Main street.

Teresa V. Quinn.

One brother, James, of this city, and two sisters, Mrs. William Crowley, Boston, and Miss M. Quinn, at home, survive. The funeral will be held on Tuesday morning at 8.40 o'clock from her late residence to St. Peter's church.

Mrs. Eliza Howard.

Felix Holland.
Felix Holland died at his home in Queen street, West St. John, last Saturday after a lingering illness. He is survived by two sisters, Julia and Mary, both at home.

Funerals.
Interment of the body of Richard Stackhouse, who died last winter and whose body was placed in the vault at Fernhill, was made yesterday morning at Gondola Point. Rev. A. L. Tedford conducted the service.

The funeral of Louis Cody took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence in Milford to St. Rose's church where service was conducted by Rev. Father Nugent. Interment was made in Holy Cross cemetery.

The funeral of Charles Spence, victim of the Musquash flood, was held on Saturday afternoon from St. Ann's church, Musquash. The service was conducted by Rev. N. P. Fairweather. Interment was in St. Ann's cemetery. Rev. Mr. Fairweather paid a high tribute to the life and works of Mr. Spence.

The funeral of the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Boyne of Musquash was held from the same church on Saturday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Fairweather conducted the service and interment was in Point Lepreau cemetery.

FRENCH WARRING WITH TRIBESMEN
Using Army of 25,000 to Subdue Fanatical Taza People in French Morocco.
Taza, French Morocco, May 7.—A French army of 25,000 has begun a campaign against the warlike tribe of the Beni Bousett as one phase of the pacification of the Taza tribesmen which commenced on April 12. The French troops in four columns surprised the lower end of a rebellious strip in the middle Atlas Mountains, at the other end of the line.
Heavy action has been reported, but the extent of the casualties has not been reported. The French are prepared for a hard campaign as the unconquered tribes always have fought with fanatical enthusiasm.
Next Sunday in all the Anglican churches of the diocese of Fredericton special collections will be taken on the half of the incapacitated clergy fund and the fund for the widows and orphans of the clergy. The Breaking Point

By Mary Roberts Rinehart

(Copyright 1922, by Mary Roberts Rinehart, Published by Arrangement With McClure's Magazine.)

(Continued from Saturday.) He had thought Margaret was sleeping, but after a time she moved, and slipped her hand into his. It comforted him. That too was life. Very soon now they would be alone together again, as in the early days before the children came. All the years and the struggle, and then back where they started. But still, thank God, hand in hand. Ever since the night of Jim's death Mrs. Sayre had been a constant visitor to the house. She came in, solid, practical, and with an everyday manner either forcedly cheerful or too decorously mournful, which made her very welcome. After the three first days, when she had practically lived at the house, there was no necessity for small retentions with her. She knew the linen closet and the pantry and the kitchen. She had even penetrated to the stairs, Wheeler's shabby old den on the second floor, and had slept a part of the first night there on the couch with broken springs which he kept because would hear him coming in hours later. In the morning his eyes were suffused and his color bad, and she knew that he was drinking in order to get to a usual detachment from the town and sleep.

On the third day after Dick's departure for the west she got up when she heard him coming in, and putting on her dressing gown and slippers, knocked at his door. "Come in," he called ungraciously. She found him with his coat off, standing half defiantly with a glass of whiskey and soda in his hand. She went up to him and took it from him. "We had enough of that in the family, Wallie," she said. "And it's a pretty poor resource in time of trouble. I'll have that back, if you don't mind." "Nonsense," she said briskly, and flung the glass and all out of the window. She was rather impressive when she turned. "I've been a fairly indulgent mother," she said. "I've let you alone, because it's a Sayre trait to run away when they feel a pull on the bit. But there's a limit to my patience, and it is reached when my son drinks to forget a girl." He flushed and glowered at her in a sullen silence, but she moved about the room calmly, giving it a housekeeper's critical inspection, and apparently unconscious of his anger. "I don't believe you ever cared for any one, in all your life," he said roughly. "If you had, you would know."

She was straightening a picture over the mantel, and she completed her work before she turned. "I care for you." "That's different." "Very well, then. I cared for your father. I cared terribly. And he killed my love." She padded out of the room, her heavy square body in it blaring kimono a trifle rigid, but her face still and calm. He remained staring at the door when she had closed it, and for some time after. He knew what message for him had lain behind that emotionless speech of hers; not only understanding, but a warning. She had cared terribly, and his father had killed that love. He had drunk and played through his gay young life, and then he had died, and no one had greatly mourned him. She had left the decanter on its stand, and he made a movement toward it. Then, with a half smile, he picked it up and walked to the window with it. He was still smiling, half boyishly, he put out his light and got into bed. It had occurred to him that the milkman's fliver, driving in at the break of dawn would encounter considerable glass.

By morning, after a bad night, he made a sort of double-headed resolution, that he was through, as he termed it, with booze, and that he would find out how he stood with Elizabeth. But for a day or two no opportunity presented itself. When he called, there was always present some grave-faced, sympathetic visitor, dark clad and low of voice, and over the drawing room would hang the indescribable crush of a house in mourning. It seemed to touch Elizabeth, too, making her remote and beyond earthly things. He would go in, burning with impatience, hungry for the mere sight of her, fairly overcharged with emotion, only to face the strange new spirituality that made him ashamed of the fleshly human urge in him. Once he found Clara Rossiter there, and felt at once something electric in the air. After a time he identified it. Behind the Rossiter girl's soft voice and sympathetic words, there was a veiled hostility. She was waiting Elizabeth was over-conscious of her. And she was, for some reason, playing up to him. He thought he saw a faint look of relief on Elizabeth's face when Clara at last rose to go.

"I'm on my way to see the man Dick Livingstone, adjusting her veil at the mirror. "I've got a cold. Isn't it queer, the way I've broken up?" "Hardly queer. And it's only temporary." "Possibly. But if you ask me, I don't believe Dick will come back. He doesn't like to be fooled. And he's fooled it for years. I know a lot of people who are quite content, only to face the fact that a good many are saying that when a man takes a false identity he has something to hide." She gave him no chance to reply but sauntered out with her sex-conscious, half nervous walk. Outside the door she smiled faded, and her face was hard and bitter. She might forget Dick Livingstone, but never would she forget herself for her confession to Elizabeth, nor Elizabeth for having heard it. Wallie turned to Elizabeth when she had gone, slightly bewildered. "What's got into her? He inquired. And then, seeing Elizabeth's white face, rather shrewdly: "That was one for him and two for you, was it?" "I don't know. Probably." "I wonder if you would look like that if anyone attacked me?" "No one attacks me." "That's not an answer. You wouldn't, would you? It's different, isn't it?" "Yes. A little." He straightened, and looked past her, unseeing, at the wall. "I guess I've known it for quite a while," he said at last. "I didn't want to believe it, so I wouldn't. Are you engaged to him?" "Yes. It's not to be known for a while, Wallie." "He's a good fellow," he said, after rather a long silence. "Not that that makes it easier," he added with a twisted smile. Then boyishly and unexpectedly he said, "Oh, my God!" He sat down and when the dog came and placed his head on his knee, he patted it absently. He wanted to say, but he had a queer feeling that when he went he went for good. "I've cared for you these years," he said. "I've been a poor lot, but I'd have been worse, except for you." "Only last night I made up my mind that if you'd have me, I'd make something out for myself. I suppose aman's a cad to put a responsibility like that on a girl."

"WHAT'S the matter? Did you get bad news in that letter, dear?" "No-o-o, Fred. It's from the Campbell's. They're coming to visit us." "The Campbell's! That's great news. But why are you looking so queer, Helen? You've always spoken so highly of the Campbell's." "Oh! I do like the Campbell's and they gave us such a good time when we visited them last year. But I was thinking of our shabby old spare bedroom. And they had such a lovely guest room for us." "H-m-m! It isn't very attractive," replied Fred, stroking his chin thoughtfully. "Honest, Fred, I'm ashamed of it. It gives visitors a bad impression. It makes people think we cannot afford anything better. Or else, that we don't care very much about the comfort of our guests." "Nothing is too Good for Them!" "Well, I wouldn't want my old college chum, Jim Campbell, and his little wife to think that about us. Nothing is too good for them. We've been talking about re-furnishing that spare bedroom for a long time. I guess we'd better do it now." "Fine! Fine! And let's do it right while we are about it, Fred. You know how people have admired our Gibbard Solid Walnut Dining Room Suite. Why not get a Gibbard Suite for our spare bedroom?" "That's a Bright Idea, Helen" "That Gibbard Dining Suite has class and it was very moderate in price, too. We can afford to furnish the spare room in Solid Walnut or Solid Mahogany when we can get it in a Gibbard Suite at such a reasonable figure." "That's settled then, eh, Fred? I'll meet you to-morrow at the furniture store and we'll select a Gibbard Suite. And won't one of those beautiful Gibbard Suites make our spare room a dream? It will be a real guest room. It will smile a real welcome to the Campbell's!"

turned he was watching her with jealous, rather tragic eyes. "I suppose you hear from him by mail?" "There has been nothing today." "Something in her voice, or her face, made him look at her closely. "Has he written at all?" "The first day he got there. Not since." He went away soon, and not after all with the feeling of going for good. In his sceptical young mind, fed by Clara's malice, was growing a comforting doubt of Dick's good faith. If he wasn't writing— When Wilkins had disappeared around the angle of the staircase, Bassett went to a chair and sat down. He felt sick, and his knees were trembling. Something had happened, a search for Clark room by room perhaps, and the discovery had been made. He was totally unable to think or to plan. With Dick well they could perhaps have made a run for it. The fire-escape stood ready. But as things were— The murmuring among the crowd at the foot of the staircase ceased, and he looked up. Wilkins was on the staircase, searching the lobby with his eyes. When he saw Bassett he came quickly down, and confronted him, his face angry and suspicious. (To be continued.)

Convenient, Economical and Pure

If you have never known the convenience of milk that is always at hand and ready to use, that takes up so little room and keeps sweet so long, you will be delighted with Carnation Milk. Creamy and rich, it adds a new flavor and richness at less cost than cream. Economical for ordinary milk uses because you add a little more than an equal part of water to replace that which we have removed, and because it is never wasted, as it keeps for several days after the can is opened, when kept cool.

Carnation Milk is pure—because it is simply fresh, whole milk with about 60% of the water removed, sealed in air-tight tins and sterilized. Your grocer has this finer milk—order several tall cans or a case of 48 cans.

Try this recipe and write for the free Carnation Cook Book.

RICE PUDDING 2 1/2 cups water, 1 1/2 cups Carnation Milk, 1/3 cup rice, 1/2 teaspoonful salt, 2 tablespoonfuls sugar. Wash rice, mix ingredients, and pour into buttered baking dish. Bake two and a half hours in a very slow oven, stirring every twenty minutes the first hour of baking to prevent rice from setting.

WHAT'S DOING IN THE MONEY AND STOCK MARKETS TODAY

The Situation Encouraging

No Hysteria in Business But Good Groundwork for Improvement

Plenty of Money Available—Industrial Operations Expanding—Farming Gets a Good General Start.

(Toronto Globe.)

A broad survey of the general business situation leads to the conclusion that Canada is far from enjoying the same measure of improvement as is shown in the United States. There is no hysteria in Canadian business, no rapid marking up of prices to secure a momentary advantage, and no over-production. It would, therefore, seem that business here is in a position to develop moderately and conservatively over a longer period, and it is such conditions, with an absence of violent swings, of the economic curve, that constitutes the groundwork for genuine prosperity and satisfaction.

Plenty of Money.

Fundamental conditions are sound, despite the heavy burden of debt born by the country, and reflected in the heavy tax burdens upon the individual citizens. The money situation is easy, and as a Toronto banker pointed out this week "there is no plethora of money, but there is enough money for all legitimate purposes." Business is making further calls on the banks, however, as evidenced by the upturn in current loan accounts which the chartered banks' statements for two or three months past. In March last current loans were higher by $10,000,000 than for the month of February.

Another point of interest is the fact that money appears to be still getting cheaper. There has been no liquidation of securities as yet for business purposes, and in fact the floating supply of the better class of investments is conspicuously reduced in volume. An interesting feature of the week was the sale of a $2,500,000 issue of Province of Nova Scotia 5 per cent. twenty-year bonds at a price of 98.75, or an approximate cost to the province of 50 per cent. This represents a high point in provincial financing for several years past, with one exception, the Province of Quebec issues having been sold a few weeks ago at a slightly higher price. The Nova Scotia issue is being offered to investors at par to yield 5 per cent.

Industrial Operations.

Industrial operations are proceeding on a steadily expanding scale throughout the Province of Ontario, and in fact on the whole is much better than a year ago. Several lines of industry are operating well up to capacity; wages are on the upgrade, commodity prices are firming; and in fact, the outlook is generally bright. Retail and wholesale trade have been disappointing in the whole. The spring trade did not materialize on the scale anticipated, and has not been reflected in any marked increase in buying. It is felt, however, that with the industrial situation as it is, with mechanics and labor actively employed, and in many cases in receipt of higher wages, there is bound to be a reflex of this condition in the buying shortly. Collections are variable, but seem to be improving.

The Farming Outlook.

Weather conditions have been favorable for the prosecution of out-of-door agricultural operations during the past week or more, and considerable progress has been made in various sections of the Dominion in preparing the land for the spring grain. Seeding operations are general throughout southern Ontario, in the middle west late snow-falls and spring frosts have been a handicap, but the situation is clearing, while in Alberta it is estimated that almost 50 per cent. of the season's acreage has been seeded already. There had been some apprehension lest the unusually prolonged spell of unseasonable weather, which prevailed well into April, would enforce such delays as to lead to a serious curtailment of acreage, but it now appears that such fears were the early spring seeding will be completed in plenty of time, and in many districts in the first week in May.

In Ontario an unusually large amount of plowing was done last fall, and seeding operations can therefore be groundless, and it is anticipated that completed expeditiously. In the west a scarcity of labor is reported, but not acreage will be close to normal, barring unforeseen and drastic interruptions as a result of unfavorable weather conditions. In Alberta seeding operations are being conducted under favorable conditions, although it is said that the land could stand a little more preparation.

A. Nell McLean, who returned home last Saturday from Ottawa, where he gave evidence before the committee dealing with the Bank Act, expressed an opinion that the act would be passed at the present session without any radical changes.

FLOOD CONDITIONS ARE IMPROVING

Traffic on C. N. R. Resumed and C. P. R. Progressing With Repairs—Two Casualties.

The week end brought a general improvement in flood and transportation conditions. Trains were run over the C. N. R. on Saturday night for the first time for several days and it is believed that on the C. P. R. conditions will be back to normal by tomorrow or Wednesday. No improvement is reported in the Valley railway situation. The first train over the Fredericton and Grand Lake railway left Fredericton on Saturday for Chipman and made the trip successfully. Great damage was reported from Hartland where one house was completely turned over. The first train since April 28 arrived in Hartland on Saturday from Edmundston. Communication with Woodstock has been established by stage. Lumbering operations throughout the province will be resumed at once.

Two Drowned.

On the Magalloway a drowning accident took place on Saturday. George Little lost his life when his boat upset. A young Frenchman in the same vicinity is missing and is believed to be drowned. At Buctouche, Fidele M. LeBlanc stepped off a bridge in the darkness and was drowned.

BROKE ALL RECORDS

(Boston Herald)

The production of pig iron in the United States in April was the largest for any month in history. The average daily output during the month also broke all previous records. The total for the month was 3,547,012 tons, a daily average of 116,228 tons. This compares with 3,223,995 tons in March, the previous high mark. The best daily record previous to April was 118,774 tons in September, 1922.

The weekly reviews of the steel trade report a falling off in new orders. In spite of this the mills are hard pressed to make deliveries, so great is the congestion on their books. It is estimated that the recent wage advances of the Pennsylvania are negotiating for an additional 10,000 tons of rails.

Tokyo, April 6.—(By Mail)—Since last spring nearly 20 big factories, public and private have discharged approximately 100,000 workmen, the majority of whom, according to the authorities, still are without fixed employment. The number is to be further increased this summer with the discharge of workmen to be discharged from the Tokyo and Osaka arsenals, and even from the business re

HOUSES THEY HAD RENTED FOR YEARS

Nashua, N. H., May 7.—Tenants who for years have occupied houses of James E. Humphrey, retired lumber dealer of this city, who died two weeks ago, are the principal beneficiaries under his will, allowed to probate last week. The disposition of the $50,000 estate is peculiar, in that only a small portion of his property is bequeathed to relatives, a niece, Miss Emma Bennett of Amherst, being the sole legatee designated as heir.

He was survived by no close blood relatives. Miss Bennett will receive $2,000 in Liberty bonds, and the New Hampshire State Humane Society $500. The house and lot at 21 Norton street is named as executor of the will.

Doctors Call Plan

Proposal to Feed Them No Other Food for a Month Held Menace to Health by English Experts.

London, April 15.—(By Mail).—The Ice Cream and Refreshment Federation's proposal to test the nutritive value of ice cream by feeding a number of children on nothing else for a month is strongly condemned, says The London Daily Express.

It has been suggested that the experiment shall be started during the "ice cream week," which the federation is organizing to begin on May 7.

An eminent London physician said to a Daily Express representative last night that in his opinion the experiment would seriously endanger the health of the children concerned.

"The proposal involves cruelty," he said, "and should not be permitted to be carried through."

"There is a certain amount of nourishment in ice cream, because it contains a small quantity of milk cream, but it is an unnatural food, because the stomach will not stand large quantities of ice-cold substances."

"All the children concerned would rapidly develop irritation of the stom-

SCHOONER FOR WORLD TOUR LAUNCHED AT BOSTON YARD

Boston, May 7.—The knockabout schooner Wanderer was launched last week at the yard of J. F. James & Son at Essex. The boat, which is the property of R. W. Allen of the New York Athletic Club, was taken in tow for Gloucester, where she will have her mast stepped and will be rigged.

Mr. Allen plans to circumnavigate the world in her, going by way of the Panama and Suez canals, making a leisurely trip of perhaps five years. While the vessel is equipped with motor power and an engine, he intends to cover practically all the long stretches under sail.

The Wanderer is 138 feet over all and was designed by William J. Hand, Jr., of New Bedford. She has teak-wood rails and deckhouses and comfortable interior fittings. It is expected she will be ready to place in commission about June 15.

BUZZARD-STYLE FLIGHT ADDED 30 MILES AN

Dayton, O., May 7.—Gliding twenty-miles against a forty-nine-mile wind, with his motor developing less than fifteen horse-power, Lawrence Sperry arrived at Dayton recently after a four-hour flight from Washington, D. C. Twenty-five horse-power had previously been required to keep a plane in the air.

Sperry flew a Sperry messenger, the smallest ship ever flown successfully, and estimated that he gained thirty miles an hour by patterning his flight after buzzards observed on the trip in taking advantage of air currents.

BARROOMS ON EXCURSION

Washington, May 7.—That American ships may run excursions outside the three-mile limit, obtain their liquor stocks there and maintain floating barrooms until they are ready to return to port, appears to have been sanctioned by the United States Supreme Court ruling on run traffic on the high seas. On the face of the decision, some officials believe there would be no way of checking such a practice.

Author of Dry Act Surprised by the Supreme Court Ruling on Sales at Sea.

St. Paul, Minn., May 7.—Minimum jail sentences of one year for violators of the liquor laws were advocated recently by Andrew J. Volstead, author of the prohibition enforcement act. The Eighteenth Amendment would have been functioning perfectly long ago if lawbreakers had not been dealt with so leniently by the courts, Mr. Volstead declared. He expressed surprise at the action of the United States Supreme Court in reversing Attorney General Daugherty's ruling against serving liquor on American ships on the high seas.

"The seaports are ours," he said. "Who can stop us from keeping what ships out of them we choose?"

Chicago, May 7.—How could a fifteen-year-old girl spend $5,000 for chop suey within a month? The authorities gave up the puzzle, and Mary McDonald was put on probation by the Juvenile Court.

The girl insisted that she had forged her father's name to checks for $4,000 and spent the money—all for chop suey. The balance of the money spent was from her own account. All efforts to show that she had spent money for other than food failed.

Vision—Power
 Vision, perfect unstraining vision, means more power just the same as sound heart, nerves and interior mechanism mean more business and personal force. Perception, clear and free employment of the abilities nature gave to us.
 Good glasses, and four out of every five need them more than is generally understood, go as far as a good digestion. And oftimes a good digestion is not possible until glasses are procured. Even headaches, over ninety per cent of them in fact, depend on glasses for their banishment.
 For the nervous system between the eye, the head and the stomach is rather closely connected and trouble in one frequently makes trouble in the other. Free your strength—at least take stock of your eyes with a good Optometrist.

 Lights out! The lights of a great city! The lights that meant life or death to Robert Sheldon! What hidden motive prompted New York's district attorney, leashed to the wheel of his auto, to win that mad race with a locomotive through a blinding storm, in the pale, grim silence of the night. What prompted him to stop, dash into the power house and give an order that—
 But you'll never know what happened on that fateful, awe-inspiring night until you behold Thomas H. Ince's drama of today—

FERRY PASSENGERS HAVE CLOSE SHAVE
 Prompt action on the part of Leonard Burke yesterday afternoon was instrumental in saving several lives. The little ferry steamer E. Ross, Captain Theodore Vallis, was making her usual run between Indian town and Pleasant Point when her engine failed. Besides her crew she had a passenger list of six. Captain Vallis immediately sent out distress signals on the steamer whistle, and Burke jumped into a motor boat in the Public Slip to go to the rescue of the steamer, which was rapidly working toward the falls. The engine of the boat into which he jumped was locked, but he got a plank on her and began the pull against the racing current. By this time a motor boat manned by W. Green and the big Kivan touring boat were standing by ready to give assistance, but the motor boat of Mr. Burke succeeded in pulling the ferry to Indian town. The engine trouble was repaired and the ferry was back on the route again in a short time.

DEFICIT SHOWN IN YEAR'S REPORT

Protestant Orphanages Bills $2,134.90 in Excess of Receipts

Barely Enough in Sight to Pay June Bills—Those Under Case Number 147—Promises of Contributions to Permanent Home Fund.

The annual meeting of contributors to the Protestant Orphanages of New Brunswick is being held this afternoon in the Board of Trade rooms with the president, D. C. Clark, in the chair. A lack of funds was shown at the meeting in the report of H. C. Rankine, the treasurer.

This report showed total receipts of $27,225.17 while the disbursements for the year had been $29,360.07, leaving a deficit of $2,134.90 for the year. This reduced the bank balance from $5,875.22, as on May 1, 1924, to $3,740.32 at the present time. It was estimated that all present possible sources of income would provide barely enough money to pay the June bills and that some strenuous public support was necessary to keep the institutions going through the summer.

The report of the secretary, H. Usher Miller, was as follows: St. John, N. B., May 4, 1925. To the Protestant people of New Brunswick: Ladies and Gentlemen—On May 1, 1925, the inmates of the three buildings that now compose the New Brunswick Protestant Orphanage Home numbered 188. On April 30, 1924, this number of inmates had increased to 147. Our utmost capacity is 155. Therefore, we have eight vacancies at present.

The 147 in residence are made up as follows: 28 Babies under 2 years old. 14 Children under 4 years but over 2 years. 64 Girls over 4 years old and under 14 years. 41 Boys over 4 years old and under 14 years.

The eight vacancies are made up as follows: 2 for babies under 2 years, with 5 applications on hand for same. 2 for children between 2 and 4 years, with 2 applications on hand for same. 3 for girls over 4 years old, with no applications on hand for same. 1 for boys over 4 years, with 9 applications on hand for same.

Of these 147 inmates, 35 are for adoption, divided as follows: 17 Babies under 2 years old. 4 Children between 2 and 4 years old. 10 Girls over 4 years old and under 14 years. 4 Boys over 4 years old and under 14 years.

During the year 66 children were admitted as follows: 28 Babies under 2 years old. 11 Children between 2 and 4 years old. 16 Girls over 4 years and under 14 years. 10 Boys over 4 years and under 14 years.

During the year 56 children were removed—13 babies under 2 years old; 8 children between 2 years and 4 years; 20 girls over 4 years; 15 boys over 4 years and under 14 years.

Our capacity of 155 is divided as follows: British street—21 boys over 4 years; 24 girls over 4 years. Total, 45. West St. John—17 boys over 4 years; 20 girls over 4 years. Total, 37. Clifton street—4 boys over 4 years; 14 girls over 4 years; 8 children between 2 and 4 years; 20 babies under 2 years old. Total, 46.

Of the 86 removed from our care, 6 died. They were all under 2 years old; 2 of these were under 6 months old. Fourteen (14) were adopted into good home and seemingly are doing well. The remaining 36 were taken by a surviving parent, guardian, relative or close family friends who became in such a position by various causes that they could give a home to the child; these children likewise all seem to be doing well.

Of the 65 children admitted 21 were illegitimate babies; 18 the mother had died and the father could not care for the children; 1 case both mother and father dead, grandmother got too far up in years to longer care for the boy. Total, 46.

We are at present desperately in need of a lot of room for babies and older boys.

Your board of directors held thirteen meetings with an average attendance of 19 members. Your standing committee held thirteen meetings with an average attendance of 6 members.

As treasurer of permanent home funds, I desire to state that unsolicited $45 is on hand from three sources and a letter stating that $500 is available when needed from a local organization. Also another gentleman has publicly stated that $5,000 is available from him when we need same.

The minimum number of letters written per month is about 125. Scarcely a day passes without listening to one or more stories of sorrow or distress. We can't help them all. I have tried to be kind and patient yet firm enough to protect the interests of the Home and the Subscribers. I know that I have failed in some instances and thus been imposed upon, but such conditions soon show themselves and are speedily corrected. It is well to remember again it is the children that are our care and that therefore some cases unworthy from the parents' side we must care for for the child's sake. I have systematized many things, particularly has this proven beneficial in preventing arrears of board and collecting at least $1,000 of old arrears. I am thankful to say that the health of the children has been generally good. I desire to thank all the officers and members of the Board for their kindness to me and for their patience with me when I perhaps have been too insistent upon non-essentials and details. I thank the members of the standing committee in particular; the other six active members of same in my opinion are ideal members, the other two members seldom attended.

I also desire at this time to thank the three superintendents and the two assistants for the way they have cooperated with my wishes at all times. I can truthfully say in closing that I believe I did my best.

Yours very truly, H. USHER MILLER.

PORT MATTERS AT COMMON COUNCIL

The Tri-partite Agreement Again the Subject of Discussion

Necessity of Some Action on Part of the Government Stressed—The New Ambulance—G. W. V. A. on Civic Appointments.

The necessity of having something done towards relieving the Dominion Government to carry out port development work as laid down in the tri-partite agreement of 1911, in order to relieve the conditions in Germain street, West St. John, was stressed at a committee meeting of the Common Council this morning. After some discussion, the Mayor was authorized to go into the matter with both the C. P. R. and the Federal authorities to see if some action could not be taken in the near future.

A letter was read from the G. W. V. A. in which a protest was registered against appointments to positions in the civic departments without consideration being shown to returned men.

Plans of the Jarvis building for which the city has an offer of sale were presented and tenders for a new motor ambulance were opened.

G. W. V. A. Complaint. The G. W. V. A. wrote that very few returned soldiers had been appointed in recent cases, particularly in connection with the Civic Hydro commission and asking that in future notice of pending appointments be published.

Commissioner Frink said that by an order-in-council preferential treatment was to be given to returned men. Commissioner Wigmore said he understood some men who were not even tax-payers were engaged by the Power Commission.

The Mayor promised to investigate the matter. Commissioner Thornton said that in the Public Works Department preference was always given where possible to returned men. Commissioner Wigmore and Commissioner Bullock said in the same of their departments.

The Municipal Review of Canada, wrote asking for information and asking for a subscription. No action was taken.

West Side Matter. A letter was received from J. M. Woodman, superintendent of the C. P. R. regarding the occupation of roadway between Union and Germain streets, West St. John and enclosing copy of letter from H. C. Groat of the same matter.

The Mayor said that the C. P. R. had carried out its agreement to relieve the situation by providing a roadway or preventing the trains of cars from standing in Germain street.

Commissioner Wigmore said that there was a sewerage agreement also which had not been carried out by the C. P. R. and he thought the matter should be taken up actively.

Another Berth Needed. Commissioner Bullock said there was need of another dock on the West Side in addition to the proposed new berths of the C. N. R. on the east side. Then relief might be given to the situation at Germain street. The first thing necessary, he said, was to press on the Government for the building of a new dock.

He said a more should be made to have the 1911 tri-partite agreement carried out. Commissioner Frink said the Government stopped carrying out its contract in 1916 and since that time they have not been asked to resume it. He said if the city threatened to remove the tracks, there would be a great outcry. He said the C. P. R. was ready to go on with the 1911 agreement as soon as the Government built a replacement wharf.

Commissioner Thornton said if the C. P. R. would make no other arrangement, they should take over the property from the people in that locality and compensate for it.

Commissioner Wigmore moved that the matter be left to the Mayor to take up with the C. P. R. and the Government and report back.

The Mayor suggested that action be taken first to have the C. P. R. relieve the Germain street situation and the Government matter allowed to stand in abeyance until the committee on port matters, recently appointed, had made its report.

Conference Suggested. Mr. Bullock suggested a conference with the C. P. R. officials to arrive at some decision. He added that the first thing to be done in connection with the Government work was the extension of the Negro Point breakwater.

Commissioner Wigmore's motion carried.

Germain Street Protest. Commissioner Thornton read a protest from the Germain street Improvement Association against the erection of a gasoline service station on the vacant lot opposite the Clifton House. He said he would report further on the matter.

Motor Ambulance Tenders. Tenders for motor ambulances were opened and referred to Commissioner Thornton as follows: J. C. Clark & Sons, White, complete, $6,500; L. B. Boston; etudebaser big six, delivered complete, $4,300; chassis, $2,500 and Nova Sales Co, Reo, complete, $4,500.

The Mayor reported that the ground floors of the two buildings were about level but there was a difference of about 10-12 inches in the second floor. Rewiring of the building might be necessary. He said that the assessor's department, and the water and sewerage department brought to the assessor's present quarters; an opening cut through on the ground floor and quarters on ground floor of Jarvis building used for a Mayor's office; the present council chamber and suite-room to be used by the Chamberlain's department; the present Mayor's office to be used as a council chamber, or the Mayor retain his present office, the council chamber remain where it is and the lower floor of the Jarvis building be used for the Chamberlain's department. The matter was referred to Commissioner Thornton.

Commissioner Wigmore reported that plans were being prepared for the restoration and improvement of the Water & Sewerage buildings in Leinster street.
