A NOTABLE DINNER.

In measured sentences, Mr. F. W. Stewart of Montreal, addressed the St. John Branch of the Retail Merchants' Association last evening, counselled its members to exercise caution in buying, and expressed the view that, while in some lines of goods prices had reached bottom, in others there would be further recession. He added, however, that he believed the worst was over, so far as Canadian trade is concerned, and regarded the outlook on the whole as encouraging.

The addresses delivered were keyed to a lofty conception of business ethics, and suggestive of the co-operation and good fellowship which are so essential to right results.

THE CITY FINANCES. The city's financial statement is a tribute to the proved ability and thoroughness of Chamberlain Liffey and Comptroller MacIntyre. It presents in the clearest light the city's financial position, and at a time when some western towns are defaulting on their bonds it must be a source of the greatest satisfaction to the citizens of St. John that expenditures are kept so nearly within the estimates, and the city's assets show so substantial a surplus over its liabilities.

Britain's surplus of income over expenditure for the last year was more than £200,000,000. The floating debt was decreased £41,082,000. This is a good showing and suggests that conditions are improving in the Mother Country.

THE CANADIAN MERCHANT MARINE SURPLUS FOR LAST YEAR. But what will the record be for the current year? And there are more vessels under construction.

THE COLD WINTER HAS BEEN UNPLEASANT, but it prevented a more serious flood in the upper reaches of the St. John river.

Time to begin to think of the spring clean-up. It should not be too long delayed—and it should be thorough.

KINDERGARTENS IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Reports of the delegations to the board of education in Fredericton and to the school board in St. John in advocacy of the taking of the free kindergartens into the public school system were given at the meeting of the Free Kindergarten Association in the kindergarten room in the G. W. V. A. building yesterday afternoon. Mrs. F. E. Holman, the president, was in the chair.

Mrs. J. W. Flewelling, treasurer, reported monthly expenses of $397.69 and a balance on hand of $450.00 collected by the children in St. John's and $6.25, the collection taken at the meeting of the United Women's Missionary Society.

An account was given of the appointment of a delegation from the St. John Local Council of Women to appear before the board of education in Fredericton and ask that the kindergartens be made part of the public school system; of the delegation's also having appeared before the St. John school board, which subsequently announced itself as unable to kindergartens as part of the school system, and of the board having appointed a committee to inquire into the advisability of kindergartens into the public school system. Members of the delegation yesterday expressed their pleasure with the reception they were given in Fredericton.

It was stated that the conference called by the St. John school board and the city council which had been attended by six teachers of primary schools had not been attended by any present at the meeting of the kindergartens. In referring to the statement that qualified kindergarten teachers were scarce it was pointed out that the kindergartens in the public schools were given the kindergartens after one year of teaching in the kindergartens. It was also said that there are nine pupils in a local kindergarten training school at present and of these pupils one is a school teacher with a first-class license and another is a college graduate. A special class for kindergartens was found in the city, while more than 1,000 children for the primary grades of the St. John schools each year, less than eighty graduate from the high school. It was felt that the extra year of training before school age because it lengthened the entire training period was greatly to be desired.

A report was given of the visit of Dr. H. S. Bridges, superintendent of schools in St. John, and Dr. A. F. Emery, chairman of the board of school trustees, to one of the free kindergartens. They had expressed surprise at the advanced work taught and commended the order and methods of the kindergarten.

SERIOUS RIOT AT FOOT OF MT. CARMEL

London, March 30.—A dispatch to the London Times from Jerusalem says that serious rioting broke out in Hafia, Syria, at the foot of Mount Carmel on Easter Sunday, following an Arab demonstration. On Christian was killed and eight persons were wounded, most of them Jews. A state of siege was proclaimed and order was restored.

RECENT DEATHS

Pella Duffy, a watchman at No. 15 shed, West St. John, dropped dead while on duty in the shed about 6 o'clock last evening. Workmen in the shed said that Duffy came into the shed and, without any warning, he fell to the floor, when they examined him they found that his heart had stopped beating. Dr. F. L. Kenney was sent for and, upon his arrival, he pronounced the man dead, the cause being heart trouble. Dr. Kenney said there would be no necessity to hold an inquest as death was due to natural causes. The late Mr. Duffy was about sixty years of age. He had not been feeling well for the last few weeks and had been under the doctor's care, but was allowed to continue at his work. He had resided almost all his life in Chelvey street until recently, when he made his home at his brother's, 8 Rock street. He is survived by two brothers, Edward Joseph, of this city and William, living in Scotland; also two sisters, Annie and Nellie, both in Massachusetts. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning from the residence of his brother, Edward Duffy, 84 Dock street.

HERE WITH BRIDE

F. M. Holden of Alberta returned in the S. S. Minnetonka, yesterday, from England, where he signed a life contract. While a member of the Canadian forces he met a young English lass in Nottinghamshire, and after two years' work on a farm erected a little home and went back to England to get his life's partner. Both are looking optimistically for success on the western prairies. Mr. Holden was a commissioned officer in the Canadian forces and at the termination of the war took a farm in the west, where he has been growing wheat. He said he is well satisfied with the Soldiers' Settlement scheme, and thinks there is a good living for those willing to work.

WOMEN IN PROFESSIONS.

They Will Do Well if They Take Them Seriously, Says Mrs. Adams.

Women can compete with men in any field, if they play the game the same way and are willing to make the sacrifices in the way of time and energy, according to Mrs. Annette Abbott Adams, formerly United States Attorney for the Northern District of California and now assistant attorney general at Washington. To succeed in their new occupation solely by men, women must be willing to spend the same amount of time in preparation and give the same amount of effort to the profession, explained Mrs. Adams.

"The trouble with women is that they do not take their professions seriously enough. Of course some prejudice still exists in the minds of both men and women against women in executive positions and in professional life, but this is fast fading," said Mrs. Adams. "In following the law, if a woman is to succeed she must be willing to practice law as a profession and not as a side issue for her entertainment or for her self gratification. Of course, women in the legal field have a certain handicap that men have not. They have not had the same chance for general business experience, and as every lawyer knows, advising a client is usually only about three-quarters law and the other quarter good business judgment.

"In the past women have not been given the same chance that men have had to familiarize themselves with practical business, but that is fast becoming expressed in terms of the past tense, for more and more every year women are found in highly paid positions and they are acquiring the experience as they are taking greater and greater part in the business life.

"The legal profession has not been open to women more than twenty-five years. The doors of some of the best law schools, including those of Harvard and Yale, are still closed to women.

However, the time when any one will specify that they want a man or a woman lawyer for a particular case is fast becoming a memory. The question which people are asking now is: "Who is the best counsel I can secure to help me in this litigation?"

"Of course," the woman who goes seriously into any profession must be willing to give up a certain amount of domestic life. A woman cannot properly bring up a family and practice, but the child-rearing period is not more than ten or fifteen years, and what are you going to do with the woman of brilliant mind and energy after that? I believe that previous to marriage and during the time that she is raising her family a woman should devote her spare energy to obtaining training which she can put into good effect later on.

"Too many women waste their time and we find them at middle age without a real purpose in life, restless and unhappy, where they might really be doing efficient work in the world. What a tremendous economic waste it is! It seems to me there is nothing better to fit a girl for running a home efficiently than a good business training. She learns to face her problems squarely. In business life she has learned lessons of self-control and diplomacy and she has also learned to systematize her work so that her home will run smoothly."

Two witnesses were on the stand and testified that they were with the accused, on March 25, from 12.30 to 2 o'clock and he was not in the store during that time. The prosecution alleged that the time the liquor was sold was likely to be before 12.30 o'clock, at the time on which they two men were said to have bought the liquor, left the city at 12.40. Captain of City of Colombo Found at Fault in Grounding of Vessel—Others Exonerated.

That Captain J. J. Robertson, the commander of the steamer City of Colombo, which ran ashore on the Digby coast on March 20, was in fault, that, consequently, his certificate should be suspended for a period of three months and that the officers and engineers were exonerated from all blame was the finding of the court of inquiry which concluded a two days' investigation of the case at the board of traders yesterday afternoon. The finding was read by Captain L. A. Demers, Dominion wreck commissioner, the president of the court of inquiry, and concurred in by Captain A. J. Mulcahy and Captain John Hall, the two nautical assessors, who also sat as members of the court.

In a rider attached to the finding the court suggested that further inquiries be made into the alleged existence of an uncharted bank of mud which is not shown on the chart amongst the soundings, but which was declared to exist by Pilot Penwick McKelvie in his evidence, given on the morning session of the court.

According to the decision handed down by the court Captain Robertson had failed first, to watch himself, or cause his officers to observe his compass when leaving the wharf at St. John, and whilst proceeding towards Partridge Island. Second, in shaping a definite course, S. 4 deg. W. on a position or departure obtained by a single sound of the Point Lepreau fog horn, and establishing a very approximate distance from the fog station. Third, to take into serious consideration the unknown and unchecked error of the log, which instrument he termed erratic. Fourth, in ignoring the existence of the direction finding station at Red Head.

The Direction Finding Station.

Captain Demers, before announcing the finding of the court, said that between the morning and afternoon session an official of the direction finding station at Red Head had called to deny that the apparatus was unreliable in bad weather, as Captain Robertson said he had been told. In certain abnormal conditions there was a small variation. The Canadian Pioneer had received her bearings accurately from the Red Head station, while she was in the Bay of Fundy on the same day that the City of Colombo ran aground.

CHARGE MOTHER WITH POISONING HER CHILDREN

Fleming, Ky., March 30.—Mrs. Palmyra Mullins, a widow, of Beechfork Creek, near here, is charged with murder in connection with the poisoning of her three children. Mabel, aged thirteen, died and two younger ones are said to be in a serious condition.

In a rider attached to the finding the court suggested that further inquiries be made into the alleged existence of an uncharted bank of mud which is not shown on the chart amongst the soundings, but which was declared to exist by Pilot Penwick McKelvie in his evidence, given on the morning session of the court.

MIND READING IS FASCINATING

Princess Wah Letka Continues to Be Feature Attraction at Opera House—Other Good Vaudeville Offerings in New Bill.

Despite the fact that there are other stellar vaudeville attractions at the Opera House in addition to Princess Wah Letka, there is no denying that she is the most popular offering of the mid-week bill. Her extraordinary mental faculty of being able to read minds and disclose secrets is creating a mild sensation, and every performance is attracting crowds eager to test her powers.

Hilbert and Nugent, who appeared in a comedy blackface offering, greatly amused all present at the three performances yesterday. They have a good line of comedy, some funny songs and real good dancing.

Don, Stanley and Minnette Lea proved to have a banner attraction for music-lovers. They played on banjos and a piano accordion, and had an exceptionally clever pianist. They played some classical as well as popular music, and their efforts evoked rounds of applause.

Pracy Brooks, a dainty and sprightly comedienne, entertained with songs and jokes, and was very apt in her Scotch numbers.

The Ureda Japs have an act featuring with amusing feats of balancing. Their footwork is marvelous and their skillful manipulation of a barrel was respected bursts of applause.

In addition, to the five vaudeville numbers, there is another episode of the serial "Fighting Fate," which is featuring William Duncan. This programme will be continued tonight and again on Thursday afternoon and evening, and is expected to attract capacity houses.

HUGE INTERESTS OF STINES MAKE HIM POWER IN GERMANY

Is Leading Industrial Magnate, Trader, Financier—Owns Sixty Newspapers.

London, March 30.—(By mail)—Hugo Stines, generalissimo of German industry, recently accused of plotting a strike of several hundred thousand workers in the Ruhr district to make more difficult the Allied occupation of Düsseldorf, Duisburg and Ruhrort, is referred to by the Berlin correspondent of the Times as an earnest and dangerous patriot.

Stines, a multi-millionaire member of the Reichstag, has put through some of the greatest financial deals of his career since the armistice. He has been called "a relentless efficient human calculating machine."

There is nothing in his appearance to betray the man of genius," says the correspondent. "Just fifty years old, of medium weight and sturdy built, with black hair and beard that show up strongly against rather ruddy complexion."

His fortune before the war was estimated at 40,000,000 gold marks. What it is now he probably could not say himself.

F. Chappelle of Toronto, in City Yesterday Told of Industrial Matters in Motherland—Suggestion to Immigration Officials

Among the passengers who arrived on the S. S. Minnedosa Tuesday E. Foster Chappelle of Toronto, who has returned to England to attend a meeting of his company after return of the directors from Germany. He is of the opinion that it will not be long until there will be a tremendous business boom with Germany, especially in neutral countries.

Asked about conditions in England he said that so far as the cotton trade was concerned they were very bad, which he felt was partly due to the government holding a large quantity. In Manchester there was considerable manipulation of cotton companies, he said, speculators buying them at a low price and reselling them at great profit.
In Wales conditions were also bad and the men employed in the mines were having to face big reductions in their wages. He attributed curtailment of output to the companies not accepting offers by Lloyd George in recent large quantities arriving in states. The importation of was quite extensive and it cheaper than that mined to the men they had he said, a reduction of work in their wages, but they seemed to be taking spirit and apparently to their share in bring-back to normal. They openly expressing the as food was one of the first to soar in price it should be first to start coming aid that so far as he could case of manipulation be-and labor. His opinion thinking men in the labor only much to bring con-satisfactory basis and that see these matters right them-cattle embargo, he said that the people were anxious to see if they felt it would bring down of meat. The question was a and was being discussed in all England. In Wales men spoke about it and said that it would be price of some meat down six pound. The argument he heard of the embargo was that the the cattle might bring disease not to the consumer, but also to the in Great Britain.
expressed the opinion that Engwas arriving at a basis in the un-country and from personal investigation and observation he was confident that before long there would be a change for the better.
He offered a suggestion in regard to she follows the advice of doctors and mothers, based on a century's experience, your baby is fed on Nevae's Food, he will be free from teething troubles, rickets, and other similar infant complaints, and will grow up healthy, happy and contented.

PARIS FASHIONS
MOST BIZARRE

Opening of Season at Auteuil Races Most Colorful and Vivid

Paris, March 30.—The most colorful and vivid opening of any Paris season occurred at the Auteuil races. Society has two continents met to criticize the new fashions which are called the most bizarre on record.
With the sun shining brilliantly the scene in the paddock resembled a contention of Spanish patio grounds and a Turkish harem. Crowds of manikins from rival dressmakers paraded in latest styles. Most of them were wearing strings of barbarous jewels, with diap-hous bell-shaped skirts just reaching to their knees. Their bare legs were visible above the low sandals which permitted glimpses of toes bedecked with diamond and ruby strings.
Apart from the usual array of mon-ocled women other innovations included snake skins, jeweled gloves and diamond studded Hindu robes and turbans. The coolest makers' crusade to re-introduce wasp waists is apparently doomed to failure, although many men sported dainty corsets.

Progressive Australia
And New Zealand

(The Importers' and Exporters' Journal, Melbourne.)
In industrial pursuits, in social habits and customs in democratic ideals, Australia and New Zealand have developed free from the trammels of old world prejudices. The people of these two nations are of free and sanguine spirit, accustomed to handling problems in a big way. Their energy and enterprise together have built up two of the most progressive countries in the world. In trade and industry their initiative has been tempered with shrewd common sense, with the result that the foundation of commerce is solid, based in confidence and integrity.
Taking the statistics for the year 1919 for the Commonwealth of Australia, we find that the overseas trade for that year is as follows:— Imports overseas—$28,891,575.
Exports per head—$19.15s. 10d.
Exports overseas—$14,678,810.
Total overseas trade—$43,570,385.
For New Zealand the statistics are:
Imports—$20,671,688.
Imports per head—$26.10s. 10d.
Exports—$5,970,076.
Exports per head—$47.8s. 10d.
Total trade—$26,641,764.
From these figures may be gathered the vast buying and selling capacity of the Commonwealth of Australia and the Dominion of New Zealand. Australia with, in round figures, a population of the and a quarter million, and New Zealand with one and a quarter million, The extent and variety of the natural resources of the two countries may be gauged by the export totals quoted above. The immense range of products and commodities required by the well-to-do citizens of Australia and New Zealand may be grasped by reading through the import statistics for the month of November, published on another page in this issue. Few countries are so prosperous. Taking the Commonwealth of Australia alone, the deposits for cheque-paying banks for 1919 amounted to $247,288,747. A truer index of the general financial standing of the community may perhaps be gathered from the savings bank figures of the Commonwealth for 1919, which are:—
Number of depositors—3,025,865.
Total deposits—$129,648,497.
Average per head of population—$24
14s. 2d.

POLICEMAN NOT ENEMY OF CHILD
New York Officer Tells Mothers How to Keep Jail-birds Out of Family Chicago, March 30.—"Do not teach your children to be afraid of policeman," warned Police Captain Patrick Harding, who addressed a court room full of mothers.
"It's wrong," he said. "You make the little ones think the police are their enemies. When they are little they run from us. When they get bigger they throw bricks at us behind our backs.
When they're grown they may become gangsters."
"In many mothers try to quiet their fearful children by telling them a 'big-mean policeman will get them if they don't watch out!'
"Policemen are not cruel. They like the children. Teach your kids the copper on the beat is their friend who will look out for them and your won't have any jail-birds in the family."
The meeting was called by the captain to establish better relations between the policeman and the families in his district.

THINKS MONEY
WRONGLY USED

Raising of the Fallen Instead of Preventing Fall.

Historic Trinity church, Montreal, was re-opened last Sunday, after being closed all winter, for a special Easter service for the Kiwanis Club. There were over 150 members of the club in attendance.
Canon Almond based his address on the last words of Christ on his address on the precepts embodied in the Lord's Prayer, which he considered as jointly embodying the whole precepts of the Christian religion.

Canon Almond said that one difficulty was that people would contribute to keep the fallen, but were not so willing to give to keep people from going wrong.
"I believe," he said, "that ninety percent of the money collected for charitable institutions is doing as much harm as good, because we are working from without. The great majority of the money is given to help those who have fallen, but very little is given to prevent the fall. There is too much of the idea that people must be helped after they have fallen, and God knows it is needed, but many of those sent to the hospitals are witnesses that Christianity has failed, because they have gone wrong.
We will give $10 to help a man who is down, but not a dollar to prevent him from going down. That is the problem Christ alone solves. We are looking for new men and new revelations, but it is only Christ, working along individual lines, that can save the world." While thousands in Montreal were staring physically, mentally and spiritually, there were many willing to give liberally to useless things, while their fellow-citizens suffered. But Canon Almond said he was convinced there was a spiritual resurrection coming. The last ten years had been too awful, unless they were to bring a spiritual harvest, and people should realize that this was coming before it was too late.

The world, he said, was quivering with expectancy and hope. As an example, he said that his church in Westmount had been continually filled during Holy Week while that day they had over 700 communicants. To his brother Kiwanis-ans he left the final thought that there was a great revival both in England and as the summer drew, and just as contagious, who could only be brought useful life through the influence of Christianity. It was an inspiration to see that the Kiwanis Club, which was doing so much good work, was observing Easter Day by attending service to secure inspiration for further good work.

DANCE REVISION
WILL BE DRASTIC

Shimmy and Fox Trot to Go —Waltz and Czarda to Be Rage.

Paris, March 30.—Once more the dancing masters and mistresses are meeting in Paris in annual conference in an endeavor to lay down the law as to what the rest of the world shall and shall not do. Once more they are talking about revising the waltz and are planning waltzes with variations which are to take the place of the fox trot, tango and shimmy.
With this aim, light-footed men and women have gathered from every European country, and they are curiously confident of coming success, for the waltz has had a great revival both in England and France. Plain and unvarnished, so however, they feel the waltz must not be else their profession might suffer; so from an American comes a new Boston, Southern France has sent a representative to demonstrate what he calls the "Sovereign Waltz," and Mme. Lefort, one of the best-known Paris teachers, has designed the "Fantasie Waltz," all her own.

The newest thing of all, however, is the "Czarda." It is said to be Hungarian peasant dance, though it bears a certain resemblance to the shimmy. The movement, however, is slower and characterized as "more dignified." In the movement of the monarchy and the advent of Bela Kun it seems to have found its way into the salons of Budapest. Thence it has been brought to Paris by no less a person than Archduke Albert, son of Archduke Frederick of Austria.
One evening he danced it in a society drawing room in Paris with a young and beautiful Hungarian girl and immediately it caught. Now the dancing masters are being besieged by would-be pupils, and they in turn have had to ask the

NEWS NOTES ABOUT PROMINENT BAPTISTS (Maritime Baptist)

Among other bequests in the will of Dr. J. F. Tufts was a legacy of $10,000 for the Maritime Baptist church. Prof. Tufts was for many years a faithful and valued member of the Wolfville church. Rev. J. H. Lambrooke, of London, expects to visit the United States and Canada in the near future. He was appointed some months ago in behalf of the Baptist World Alliance as Baptist Commissioner for Europe.

Rev. C. Orrington Howlett has been called to the pastorate of the Andover Perth field and expects to take up his work there about the first of May. For four years he has given faithful and efficient service to the church on the Bath field.

Since early in the war Rev. J. B. Hogan has been serving in connection with the Military W. M. C. A. For more than a year he has been attached to the military Sanitarium at Kentville. His term of service there will soon end and he is anxious to return to the regular pastoral service.

A copy of the catalogue of the Newton Theological Institution has recently come to hand. In the list of graduates who are candidates this year for the degree of master of theology there are twenty-one names, and six of these are maritime men and graduates or former students of Acadia—Clarence Frank Bleakney, Bridgewater, Mass.; Guy Greig Bleakney, Brantford, Mass.; Herbert John Blossie, River Hebert, N. S.; Leonard Harris Crandall, Chipman, N. B.; Ross Chipman Eaton, Malapan, Mass.; and Thomas Surrard Roy, London, Ont.

Toronto Baptists have lost one of their outstanding laymen by the death of William Davis, founder of the William Davis Co., gown packers. He was in his ninetieth year. One of his recent benefactions was the gift to the Master of Wellington Hall as a residence for the women students of the University. His subscription to the Forward Movement was $20,000.

Rev. F. C. Burnett has accepted a call to the Pleasantville-Dayton field. When the war broke out he was one of the first to respond to his country's call, serving as stretcher bearer in many hot engagements. Finally he suffered from shell shock and returned home with serious nervous trouble.

Rev. A. T. Dykeman has tendered his resignation as pastor of Zion church, Yarmouth. We are sorry to learn that this action was taken on the advice of his physician. Pastor Dykeman grows old so slowly that one is apt to forget that already he has rendered over forty years of pastoral service.

The church at Newcastle has found a successor to Rev. E. A. Kinley in the person of Rev. F. E. Bishop, now pastor of the Florenceville field.

The death of Lewis S. Hezanson, of Goldboro, cuts short a life which was full of promise for the work of the Kingdom. He entered Acadia College

To meet the urgent demand on the part of the residents, transportation and other business interests of Montreal, commercial travellers and tourists, it is proposed to construct upon the most desirable site in the city, a modern fire proof hotel of 1,036 rooms. This hotel—The Mount Royal—will be operated as a link in the chain of twenty hotels in Canada and the United States which are managed by the United Hotels Company of America. The personnel of the local Board of Directors together with the fact that the Mount Royal will be operated by the United Hotels Company of America insures its success.

DEATH OF JOHN DEMPSEY. Many friends in this city will regret to learn of the death of John Dempsey, which took place at his residence in New York city on Sunday. He was born in the old town of Portland more than fifty years ago. He left St. John in 1881 after graduating from the Christian Brothers' school and completed his education in the States. In later years he became an interior decorator and met with success. Two years ago he retired owing to ill health. His one great hobby was art and literature and he accumulated a valuable collection of paintings, prints and etchings, as to the latter he was considered an expert. Besides many works on art he had a library of 2,000 volumes on general subjects. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Elizabeth, and one son, Paul, also his father, Jeremiah Dempsey, and two sisters, who are residing in Brooklyn. Miss Mary O'Leary of Fredericton is an aunt. EXPECTS DEFICIT THIS YEAR IN THE HARBOR ACCOUNT

Report of Commissioner Bullock Presented to Council Yesterday

Wages Paid to Ferry Employees Exceeded Total Revenue—A Few Words on Harbor Commission—Need of Speeding Up Development.

The revenue from the harbor department during 1924 exceeded the expenditures by $182,218, notwithstanding an added interest charge of $8,281.77, as well as an increase in wages and material costs, according to the report of T. H. Bullock, commissioner of harbors, ferries and public lands, presented at yesterday's council meeting.

The following are extracts from the report: There is every possibility that the expenses will show an excess over the receipts in 1925 on account of the depression in tonnage and a proposed increased expenditure for repairs.

The west side terminals are lacking modern loading and unloading devices outside the steam trolley lifts and electric trucks operated by the C. P. R.

With the advent of hydro-electric the city should advertise the port in the principal centres. Boston recently voted an expenditure of $200,000 for this purpose.

Harbor Commission. Local shipping interests are on record as recommending harbor commission "as the only practical solution of the various harbor problems at present confronting the city, and under which a comprehensive plan of development can be carried out. It is anticipated a plebiscite will be taken on the matter this spring.

Federal control, wisely administered, is in many ways commendable. Every effort should be made to speed up development work; neglect may mean loss, since there should be completed several new piers on the west side in readiness by the time the present depression is lifted and exports and imports aggregate a vaster business than the port has ever heretofore experienced. Arrangements could be made whereby the regular liners could have an exclusive berth and under annual rental.

The C. N. R. is also greatly in need of increased deep water terminals. The extension of the Negro Point breakwater is essential for the protection of the private and public wharves in the harbor, Public Lands.

During the year, fifteen lots were leased and 107 leases renewed. Revenues from the east and west side lands yielded $18,278.38.

The monthly of the Lancaster lands account is not much improved; the deficit in that account appears as $1,581.28. Wages paid to Lancaster amounted to $8,850.42.

A low pressure mechanical oil-burning system is recommended for the ferries. Ferry revenue, total, $45,169.89. Cost of coal and ashes, $7,407.98. Wages, $61,665.16. Steamer repairs, $21,565.46.

INLAND REVENUE TO BE MERGED IN THE CUSTOMS

Change on April 1—Some Effect on Local Staff.

The branches of the inland revenue department all over Canada will lose their identity after tomorrow according to a memorandum received by the collector of customs here from the customs department at Ottawa. The work of the inland revenue department is to be merged with that of the customs department on April 1 under a collector of customs and excise. The amalgamation, which it is thought is being carried out in the interest of economy, will likely mean a reduction in the staffs, particularly in the smaller centres, but what changes will be made locally have not yet been announced. So far as the public is concerned, there will be no great change in the procedure here, with the exception that the office of the inland revenue department will be moved to the customs long room tomorrow. The cash returns from excise will be accounted for separately by the collector, but the remittances from both departments will be made to Ottawa in the one draft.

Grant Hall, vice-president of the C. P. R., arrived in the city this morning in his private car Mount Royal, which was attached to the Halifax Express. He is accompanied by George W. Allan, member of parliament for South Winnipeg, who is availing himself of an opportunity of seeing this section of the country.

Asked if the C. P. R. contemplated making any improvements or changes in the New Brunswick district, Mr. Hall said that there was nothing under consideration at present. He pointed out that they had done considerable work at Sand Point during the last couple of years.

This morning he inspected the new buildings at Sand Point and the local terminals. He was accompanied on his tour by J. M. Woodman, general superintendent of the New Brunswick district. At noon he was a guest of friends at luncheon at the Union Club. He will leave this evening for Montreal.

OAK HALL

Furniture That's Made For YOU --- And Not For Profit

There are two kinds of furniture— One is the kind that usually looks pretty well on the surface. The kind that makes take a chance on. Use a little glue where they should use a dowel pin—hide a defect with a pinch of putty "because it will never show." Drive a light brad where a screw belongs, and put on a fake finish to give it the appearance of what it is not. This kind of furniture is made for profit—not for you. We never but it, neither should you. Another Kind—well styled, honestly constructed furniture—workmanship and woods that will endure for generations. Furniture of integrity—the kind we looked for when we bought the first piece of our stock. And we believe you'll find this the right kind of a store for the right kind of a buyer—if you are particular and know values.
