

A Band-box Expedient.

Miss Baillet, wished to avoid the spitting of saliva, and tried to get into the ladies' carriage. Being barred out by the Conductor, he tells the result as follows:—"We yielded to the railing as correct. Just then a gentleman, bearing a bandbox, mounted on the platform, and the key was turned in the lock. Without question, through the window was thrown the result of the innocent fraud, as the lucky passenger handed over the bandbox to the Conductor, with laughing thanks at the 'complete success' of this happy expedient. Upon that hint one of the number spoke up through the window, and out was handed the bandbox. Its second appearance on the door worked a like result, and the same experiment with the box three times, and the bandboxes were accordingly handed over. The fourth man, and the one who had first been seen, again spoke, and the bandboxes ceased, but the magic box at the door, but the Conductor of the car remembered faces, and for a moment hesitated, but as the bandboxes were handed to his vision, stepped aside and with 'beg your pardon, sir, I did not know your bandboxes were any more,' the triumph was complete. The 'bandboxes' were won over at least four friends to that abused article, who, hereafter, will not be found among its scoffers."

Gold at Lake Megantic.
 A correspondent of the Sherbrooke Free Press writes:—"The country near Lake Megantic is going to turn out to be the headquarters of the gold mines. A party of five were here yesterday, who came from the States, and found some very nice specimens of gold. They only prospected a week on the Arnold River. They came here yesterday on their way back, and intend to return in a week. One of them told me that he washed out two pieces on the shovel. There is an other party on Victoria River, and the prospect is very good. I have seen some former miners, who were here last week, and told me that if there was any gold in Canada
 there must be some in this neighborhood.—
 However, I would not advise any man who has a farm to leave it for the sake of gold digging, nor would I willingly be the means of driving any man away, so I hope that your readers will keep cool until they hear from me again."

The Circassians, at last expelled from their mountains by the Russians, crowd in to the towns of Turkey. Great barbarities have been inflicted on them, says Earl Russell. That may be assumed as a reason for their selling nothing to help the great war. It is said that they can be induced to sell to the Circassians have been suffered by the Poles. DROWNED.—On Thursday morning, about 8 o'clock, a boy named James, 13 years of age, was drowned in the canal basin, opposite Holiday's warehouse. It seems a man had lost an adze in the water, and induced the boy to dive for it, which he did without success. He dived a third time, and on coming to the surface, a policeman appeared. Whether from sudden fright, or from exhaustion, and a breathless man, he then, perhaps, exhausted, and breathless, he lay on his back, and, it is known, but the boy threw his arms upwards, sank and rose no more. The body was recovered in a quarter of an hour, but all means to reanimate it were unavailing.—Monroe's Herald.

Adjourned till last Friday in August. DAVID CAMPBELL, Town Clerk.

A Cork paper says:—It gives us pleasure to be able to state that there is a considerable falling off in the number of persons seeking passages to New York by the steamers calling at Queenstown. It is known that the great rush through this port for the past few months has been, for the most part, composed of persons pursuing the trade of the country, the proportion of those who are engaged at their own expenses being comparatively small. The thousands who were induced by the former inducement have been nearly all well to do, and those who are not yet departed quietly remain at their homes in the country till the days of sailing, for which respectively they have been booked, approach. The demand for passages by persons paying for themselves has also, for the past week or two, been suffering considerable diminution, as, indeed, it was anticipated would be the case at this season, when the crops seed tending, to insure a fruitful harvest of which latter, by the way, there is very fair promise. The consequence is, that after sailing of the Edinburgh, Olympus and city of Washington, this week, there remains but a small number of emigrants at Queenstown. Yesterday there were but two awaiting the next London steamer, though the lists of the vessels of that line are full up to the 27th instant.

His Excellency the Governor General visited the museum of the Geological Survey on Tuesday. Sir W. E. Logan was present. His Excellency appeared to be greatly interested in this most valuable collection. He stayed upwards of an hour. About ten o'clock he was present at the Champ de Mars with Lieut. Gen. Sir F. Williams, K. C. B., Hon. James Lindsay and their retinue, to witness the troop of colors by the Grenadier Guards. In the afternoon His Excellency, with Lady Monk, accompanied by Lady Lindsay, General Williams, and General Lindsay, with their respective suites proceeded to Villa Maria, and assisted at the distribution of prizes to the young ladies of the convent.—Montreal Telegraph.

There were four thousand two hundred and eighty-eight arrivals of European immigrants at New York last week, which makes the whole number of arrival since January, eighty-one thousand one hundred and twenty-nine.

Money is very scarce at Turin, and the joke of the day is that a man having paid successfully a robbery of the Italian Treasury, only found a balance of 153 francs.

The investigation into the circumstances connected with the late railroad accident is still going on. From the evidence which has been already adduced, there can be no doubt of criminal negligence on the part of the driver of the engine.

Another accident occurred near Kingston Mills on the fifth of July, which caused the death of one man. It is said that he was partially intoxicated at the time. It appears by the evidence given at the inquest that Samuel Cooper and Samuel Gorman, were both on horseback on the Kingston and Pittsburg road, running their horses, when a freight train of the Grand Trunk came on. Cooper being ahead and near the track, endeavored to throw himself off and escape danger. Gorman a few rods in the rear, did the same, and succeeded, but Cooper unfortunately fell near the track and the train struck him on the back, inflicting injuries from which he died shortly afterwards. The deceased has been for six years in the employ of Mr. William Young, and is a native of Ireland, where his mother lives. It is not known that he has any relatives in this country.

Several accidents that have lately happened on the Grand Trunk go to establish a charge of habitual negligence against some of the engine drivers, for omitting to ring the bell or blow the whistle, before crossing the highway.

The law very clearly provides that all trains shall stop a certain number of minutes before crossing a drawbridge, and this would have prevented the terrible accident which we reported last week. It appears that this was not done, and it is further alleged that the drivers make a rule of breaking the law in this respect.

At Kingston Mills there are two crossings within a short distance of each other, and it is said that the warning is seldom given at either of them. The law in relation to crossings is very clearly stated in section 104 of the Railway Act, in the Consolidated Statutes of Canada:—

"104. The bell shall be rung or the whistle sounded at the distance of at least eighty rods from every place where the railway crosses any highway, under a penalty of eight dollars for every neglect thereof, to be paid by the company, who shall also be liable for all damages sustained by any person by reason of such neglect, one half of which penalty and damages shall be payable to and collected by the company from the engineer having charge of such engine, and neglecting to sound the whistle, or ring the bell as aforesaid."

The election of the three new members in the Upper Canada session of the Cabinet will come off immediately. We have not heard of any opposition being offered, except to Mr. McDonald. He will be vigorously opposed by Mr. Cameron. The nominations are expected to take place as follows:

South Oxford.....Monday, July 11, North Oxford.....Monday, July 18, North Ontario.....Tuesday, July 19.

We have already expressed our opinion, pretty freely, in reference to the new coalition government. And we find that the opinion of Reformers, generally, is, that Mr. Brown has made mistakes in accepting office with such associates. The Brookville Recorder says: "Last week we briefly announced our fears that Mr. Brown had been 'too hasty; that his integrity to old and tried associates appeared to fail at the very moment when some determination might have procured better terms; by securing a larger representation in the ministry for the opposition. The more we reflect on this, the more we are convinced that 'this opinion we are right. Mr. Brown 'may have full faith in the sincerity of Mr. John A. McDonald, but we, as outsiders, 'have every reason to doubt such sincerity, 'and in thus doubting plead as our excuse, 'the character of Mr. McDonald, written 'daily for a period of fifteen years by the 'Globe newspaper. Some men may possess 'the faculty of instantaneously changing 'their ideas and feelings with respect to 'public men and public matters. We are 'not of that number. When conviction is 'forced upon our mind, that conviction 'must be rooted out by degrees. We cannot 'not in one breath denounce a man, 'and 'scientifically, as an ardent political chameleon, 'and in the next breath praise him as the 'greatest ultra of all that is consistent, pure, 'and true.' If John A. McDonald desires 'to earn the confidence of ourselves and 'others who have for many years opposed 'his profligate course, such confidence must 'be earned by his future good actions. We 'cannot swallow, just yet, Messrs. Brown 'and McDonald as one gulp.' The Gleaner says:—

"Is Mr. Brown justified in entering into 'Coalition with Carleton, Galt and John A. McDonald? This is a question which 'time alone can answer. In our opinion 'Mr. Brown has done wrong in entering 'into an alliance with such men. Their 'past history is too well known; we know 'how they have plucked the country into 'debt, steeped it in corruption and embittered political strife. It was only the other 'day that Mr. Galt was condemned by the 'House for spending $100,000 of public 'money without asking the sanction of Parliament. And yet Mr. Brown has consented to sit along with these men. Truly, 'as Mr. Brown himself remarks, it must be 'some imperative reason that would at all 'justify his co-operating with such men, 'and we frankly admit that if the new 'Ministry settle our sectional difficulties, 'that set will justify Mr. Brown in uniting 'with them. But it is impossible for us to 'do ought else than doubt that either Carleton, Galt or McDonald honestly desire to 'bring about such a consummation.' It is a somewhat suspicious circumstance connected with this affair to find the friends and supporters of the Hon. John A. McDonald so jubilant at the advantage he has gained over Mr. Brown. The 'News'—Mr. McDonald's organ in Kingston—whips up the 'Globe' most beautifully:—

"The Globe, which always was an instructive newspaper, abounding in late news and early information, has become quite a respectable journal. No more 'corruption,' no more 'public robbery,' no more scandal, no more Anti-Popery, no more of Maria Monk, no more ill-founded accusations against public men, no more of anything that is disagreeable or unpleasant to hear; but on the contrary, the Globe is milk and sugar, strawberries and cream. Messrs. Carleton and McDonald are gentlemen of the highest honor and integrity, in whom Mr. George Brown places the most absolute confidence, and with whom he would work alone, were none of his friends to join him! All this is most delightful to see and experience, and we take the opportunity to congratulate all and every body on the happy event."

It will never be fully known the amount of suffering and grief caused by the terrible accident which lately occurred below Montreal. The following two are amongst the many touching incidents that have occurred:—

Among the sufferers is a little girl, who is now at the Protestant Orphan's Home. Her parents and relatives appear to have been all killed; but a married couple of great respectability who have no children of their own have agreed to adopt her. They are to sign a regular adoption agreement, also relating to a child. It seems that this little creature at the moment of the shock clapped tightly the neck of some man, who was not a relation, and refused positively to let him go until they arrived in Montreal. When they got there, however, some person who spoke German, but whom the man whom the little creature had chosen for protector could not tell whether he was one of the immigrants or not, came up to them and offered half-a-dollar for the infant. Upon which the man whose neck the child had clapped, took the money, and gave up his charge. Nothing more has been heard of this child; but the German Society are advertising with a view of recovering it.

The election of the three new members in the Upper Canada session of the Cabinet will come off immediately. We have not heard of any opposition being offered, except to Mr. McDonald. He will be vigorously opposed by Mr. Cameron. The nominations are expected to take place as follows:

Cricket Match between the Renfrew and Arnprior Clubs.

An exciting match was played on Thursday last at Renfrew between these two clubs, in the presence of a large concourse of spectators, which terminated in favour of Arnprior with nine wickets to go down. The Renfrew Club had been only organized lately and their practice could not have, in consequence, been so good as that of Arnprior, which is an older club. The play was good upon the whole, and the cricketers of Arnprior never played better. The largest score made on the side of Renfrew was by James Morris, Jr., and on the Arnprior side by W. Thompson, although Messrs. Carr and Craig scored a large amount of runs. The bowling of Mr. Frier and the wicket-keeping of Mr. McLean of Renfrew were very good, and the bowling of Dr. Cranston and Mr. Oakden, with the wicket-keeping of Mr. Craig of Arnprior were excellent. The following is the score:

—COMMUNICATED.

THE NEW MINISTRY.—The following is the new cabinet complete: Sir E. P. Tache, Premier, Receiver General and Minister of Militia.

Hon. G. E. Cartier, Attorney General East. Hon. A. T. Galt, Finance Minister. Hon. J. G. Brown, President of the Council. Hon. J. C. Chapais, Public Works. Hon. J. A. Macdonald, Attorney General West.

Hon. O. Mowat, Postmaster General. Hon. T. D. McEwen, Minister of Agriculture. Hon. H. Langens, Solicitor General East. Hon. W. Macdougall, Provincial Secretary. Hon. Alex. Campbell, Commissioner of Crown Lands.

Hon. J. Cockburn, Solicitor General West. The Federals have called the crew of the Alabama "pirates," and they have taken some of them prisoners. It remains to be seen whether they will venture to treat them as pirates, or whether by their acts they will not prove how empty have been the cries they indulged in. The Americans are the last who should call privateering piracy—for first among the maritime powers, a few years ago, was their objection to its abolition. Great Britain and France wished to have it abolished, but the Americans saw that in the event of war they might profit by it. As events have turned out, they have been justly punished.

SAD BEHAVIOUR.—A very melancholy case of family dissension has occurred in the township of Chatham, whereby Mr. Edward Hall has lost within the last few days his three children—two daughters and one son, aged respectively 16, 9 and 3 years. The disease of which they died was diphtheria. The eldest daughter, Amelia, died on the 26th of June, the second daughter, Josephine, died on the 2nd of July, and the son, Sidney, died on the 5th of July, two days after. My Hall, we understand, is also a very precocious state of health.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A woman named Mary O'Donnell, wife of Joseph Peter Seider, living in Shannon street, Griffithstown, died very suddenly on Monday. It is said that she did not live on the best of terms with her husband, for from some remarks made prior to her death, it was supposed that she might have died from other than natural causes.—Montreal Herald.

The St. Louis Democrat relates in a matter-of-course style the fact that a storekeeper was applied to by a soldier for a piece of sand-paper to clean his musket, and on refusing to sell it was arrested and taken to the guard house by the provost guard for "insolently."

On Wednesday, just before the noon train from the east arrived at Utica, the passengers were startled to discover that a lady on the train had died in her seat. She had settled back into what some near her supposed to be a quiet sleep, but it was really the sleep of this child; but the German Society are advertising with a view of recovering it.

A BIG STICK OF TIMBER.—A few days since a splendid stick of white oak timber was landed at the Globe Works, Boston. It was one of the largest ever brought into Boston. It measured sixty-six feet in length, and was hewn up square, on the average, to twenty-eight by twenty-nine inches. It contained three hundred and seventy cubic feet, equal to four thousand four hundred and thirty feet, broad measure, or nine and a quarter tons. Its actual weight would not be less than twelve tons. It was brought from the State of New York.

County Council.

As we announced in our last number, the County Council (Lanark and Renfrew) assembled in the Court-House, in this town, on the 23rd ult., and terminated its labours on the evening of Monday, the 27th. The following members were in attendance:—

Mr. Buell was appointed a member of the Railway committee, in place of Mr. Haggart.

The Chairman of the Railway committee of 1862 not having made a report to the Council, the other members of the committee were directed to report each on his behalf at the next meeting of Council.
