JELLICOE MADE FIRST LORD OF THE ADMIRALTY BEATTY RISES

Commander of British Fleets Named For Great Post.

BEATTY SUCCEEDS HIM

Cruiser Squadron Chief Placed at Head of Grand Fleet.

[Canadian Press.]

London, November 29.—Admiral John Jellicoe, commander of the British fleet, was today appointed first sea lord of the admiralty, being succeeded in command of the grand fleet by Vice-Admiral Sir David Beatty, who commanded the British battle cruiser squadron in the Jutland naval battle.

In being appointed first sea lord, Admiral Jellicoe succeeds Admiral Sir Henry Bradwardine Jackson, who had held that post at the admiralty since May, 1915, when he took the place vacated by Lord Fisher.

Sir Henry B. Jackson, the present first sea lord, has been appointed president of the Royal Naval College at Greenwich.

The announcement of the change of command of the British grand fleet was made this afternoon in the House of Commons by A. J. Balfour, first lord of the admiralty. Mr. Balfour said there would be consequential changes also in the board of admiralty.

Flock of Turkeys Stolen From One Woman in County

Poultry Thieving On Extensive Scale Alleged in Westminster.

That large quantities of live poultry are being stolen is the claim of residents of Westminster, particularly in the vicinity of Rural Route No. 8. They say that the depredations have been carried on for several weeks, commencing with the loss of only a few fowls, and increasing each time. One woman, they state, lost a flock of fifteen turkeys as the result of a raid of the thieves. She was relying on the sale of them to supply money for winter expenses, and the loss is a serious one to her.

Russians Launch Smashing Offensive Against the Teutonic Lines in Transylvania, Carrying East and South of Kirlibaba.

(Canadian Press.)

Petrograd, Nov. 29.—Via London, 2:30 p.m. — Russian troops advancing against the Teutonic lines east and south of Kirlibaba in the southern Carpathians, have captured the ridges of heights there and taken 711 prisoners, the war office announced today.

MINOR AFFAIRS, SAYS BERLIN.

Berlin, Nov. 29.—In the wooded Carpathians and on the eastern frontier of Transylvania, the Russians yesterday launched attacks at many points against the Germans and Austro-Hungarian lines. They suffered defeat. Minor local advantages were paid for in sanguinary sacrifices.

BLEED THE FRENCH; RAZE OLD LONDON; ENSLAVE BELGIANS

"Our Ultimate Act Is To Push Through to West and the Ocean, Crushing All Resistance," Says Rhenish Gazette—Terrible Fate in Store for the Allies, According to One German Newspaper.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Nov. 29.—The Rhenish and Westphalian Gazette, in an article on the principle of German peace, declares that the reconciliation of Germany and her western enemies is impossible, according to an Amsterdam dispatch to Reuter's. The paper declared that it believes Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg recognizes this, and adds:

"Our ultimate act is to push through to the west and the ocean. Whatever offers resistance must be crushed."

Referring to the Balkans the Gazette says: "What the victor gets he holds."

Take It From France.

In respect to the lost German colonies, the Gazette is quoted as saying:

"If we do not succeed in reconquering them the French provinces are worth twice our colonies, and we will take our compensation out in francs. Let us daily tell the French that every foot we conquer is ours. We need not waste words about Belgium. We need access to the channel, and we need Antwerp.

Would Destroy London.

The Gazette concludes that England is more assailable than Russia, and that London can be destroyed easier than Moscow, because, it says, Moscow costs blood and London only torpedoes.

"We have no fantastic dreams," the the Gazette's final words "of conquering the world. German burgerdom is not yet ripe for mastering and governing a world empire. We neither can or will destroy the British Empire, but the minimum necessary for German peace is the complete beating down of France in the west and the prestige of the German flag on all the seas."

A Remarkable Article.

An Amsterdam dispatch to the Times refers to the Gazette's article as by far the most remarkable that has as yet appeared in regard to peace terms. The dispatch adds that the Gazette represents great industrial magnates, who "are making their influence increasingly felt."

Annexation is also advocated by Dr. Jaeger, a member of the Central party in the Reichstag, who, writing in the Russeldorf General Anzeiger, insists that the German blood shed in Belgium since 1914 must not have been shed in vain.

"Belgium must be our guarantee," writes Dr. Jaeger, "for a good part of the war costs. We must retain permanently the Meuse line with Liege and Namur. Part of old Luxemburg which has become Belgian, can perhaps be ceded to the grand duchy."

After saying that the Walloons could be ejected from their homes, Dr. Jaeger pronounced in favor of allowing the Belgian dynasty to remain. He declared, however, that the country must be brought politically, militarily and economically in closer relation to Germany.

GERMANS INCREASE FINE ON HELPLESS BELGIANS

Paris, Nov. 29.—The German authorities have issued a decree imposing a further payment of 10,000,000 francs a month on Belgium according to a Havas dispatch from Havre. This is additional to the existing levy of 480,000,000 francs. The dispatch says that the provincial councils have been convoked for December 2 in order to approve the new imposition.

HIGH MASS FOR FRANZ AT THE U. S. CAPITAL

Washington, Nov. 29.—Pontifical high mass celebrated by Cardinal Gibbons and attended by President Wilson, Secretary Lansing, Baron Zwiedinek, charge d'affaires of Austria-Hungary, Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, members of the staffs of the Austria-Hungarian and German embassies, and a number of members of the diplomatic corps, was said here today in memory of the late Emperor Francis Joseph.

CHICAGO HOT AFTER THE FOOD GRAFTERS; TO BREAK CORNERS

City, State and Federal Officials Working On the Food Problem.

[Canadian Press.]

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 29.—City, state and federal officials, together with numbers of civic, women's and other organizations, were working today in an attempt to find a solution for the high prices of foodstuffs.

With the campaign centering on eggs, it was announced that municipal inspectors had discovered in storage about 800,000 eggs of questionable quality which were tagged and marked for examination by the city chemists, while more than 2,000,000 eggs were found in six cold storage houses awaiting an increase in prices. In addition, Government inspectors found 36,000,000 eggs stored in another warehouse, the owner of which has not been located. United States District Attorney Clyne also began an inquiry into the report that James F. Wetz is the holder of 72,000,000 eggs in Chicago and to learn, if Mr. Wetz is not the actual owner, who is backing him in the alleged attempted corner.

UP GOES MILK.

[Canadian Press.]

Montreal, Nov. 28.—The milk dealers in this city have decided to increase the price of pints of milk one cent beginning on Friday next, while quart bottles will continue as at present, ten cents. The high cost of washing and filling the bottles is the excuse the dealers make for trying to get the consumers to buy quarts instead of pints.

RUMANIANS REPULSE HUNS IN THE PRAHOVAL VALLEY

[Canadian Press.]

Bucharest, Nov. 29.—Via London, 4:16 p.m.—An official statement issued today by the Rumanian war department says:

"Northern and Northwestern Front: There has been intense artillery bombardments over thte whole front. An enemy attack in the Prahoval Valley has been repulsed.

"Western Front: The situation is unchanged.

"Southern Front: There has been rifle and artillery fire along the Danube, especially in the direction of Oltenitz.

"Dobrudja: The situation is unchanged."

DIED SUDDENLY AS HE AWAITED ORDERS TO SAIL FOR FRANCE

Advertiser Illustrations.

The news of the death of Major John R. Meredith will be read with much sorrow.

Major Meredith died suddenly in London, England, word being received here on Sunday. He was thought to be in perfect health on the evening before his death, but he was found dead in his room in the morning. He was attached to the 95th Battalion, which was waiting to be ordered overseas.

He was born in this city 38 years ago. He was the only son of Sir William and Lady Meredith. Sir William was formerly a captain in the 7th Regiment. His widow is a daughter of I. F. Hellmuth, K.C., formerly of London, and now of Toronto. He leaves also one daughter.

Major Meredith's early years were spent in this city. He removed with his father, some years ago to Toronto, and after his call to the bar engaged in the practice of his profession. At the time of his death, he was a member of the firm of Hellmuth, Cattanach & Meredith.

Although his life was not given up on the battlefield, it was sacrificed in his country's cause. Like Great Britain itself, Canada has many darkened homes. She has given already many of her best sons. Such great sacrifices should not be made in vain, but as the news of each death comes home, the hope becomes stronger that the end of the terrible war is near. His widow and child will have the sympathy of all, as also will his father and mother, in their great sacrifice.

Berlin, Nov. 29.—The official report from the Rumanian campaign is as follows:

"The infantry of Gen. von Falkenhayn's army is victoriously advancing along the entire Wallachian front. The defeated enemy is retreating eastward in disorder.

"Front of Field Marshal von Mackensen: The movements of the Danube army correspond with those of the forces operating further north.

"In Dobrudja there has been only minor fighting activity."

ARTILLERY OF HUNS OPENS ON FRENCH ALONG SOMME LINE

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, Nov. 29.—12:30 p.m.—Increased activity on the Somme front south of the river is reported by the war office. During the night there were spirited artillery engagements in the regions of Biaches and Pressoire.

The statement follows:

"There has been very considerable activity on the part of the opposing artillery forces south of the River Somme in the sectors of Biaches and Pressoire.

"On the remainder of the front the night passed quietly."

THE GERMAN REPORT.

[Canadian Press.]

Berlin, Nov. 29—Via Sayville.—The German official statement today follows:

"Western Front, Army Group of Crown Prince Rupprecht—An attack by a British company, launched during a fog near Givenchy, southwest of Lens, was a failure.

"In the Somme sector the hostile fire north of the Ancre and on St. Pierre-Vaast wood increased during the evening hours.

TELEPHONE PORTFOLIO FOR MANITOBA GOVT.

[Canadian Press.]

Winnipeg, Nov. 29.—Provincial Treasurer Edward Brown, addressing the Canadian credit men here last night, hinted at the appointment of a minister of telephones, with cabinet rank, to have charge of Manitoba's $11,000,000 telephone investment. Mr. Brown outlined the Government's plan for taking the civil service out of politics through the appointment of a commission.

TINO'S COUNCIL VOTES AGAINST ALLIES' WISHES

DUFOURNET SEES KING

French Admiral Has Long Interview With Greek Ruler.

TUMULT AT LARISSA

Reservists Resisted Removal of Guns and Swore To Fight.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Nov. 29.—The Greek crown council has voted to support the Government in opposing the Allies' demands for the surrender of arms and munitions, according to an Athens dispatch to Reuter's of yesterday's date. The dispatch says this decision was reached after a session of an hour and a half, which was presided over by King Constantine.

LOOKS BRIGHTER BY THIS.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Nov. 29.—A dispatch to the Daily Chronicle from Athens November 27 says:

"A feeling of optimism prevails today in diplomatic circles, and there is a general rise in prices on the Bourse. That a satisfactory solution of the questions at issue is not excluded is due to the long interview which Admiral Du Fournet had with the king this forenoon, and persons in a position to know express the belief that matters are now moving in a more normal manner. No crown council was held today as was expected yesterday.

Reservists Threaten.

It is said that the admiral discussed with the king the question of public order, which according to the admiral was in danger on account of threatened action by certain disloyal organizations. Members of the illegal reservists' leagues, endeavoring to terrorize Athens and Greece, hold nightly meetings in various parts of the city and try to frighten Venizelists by following them and spying upon them after dark. This morning a number of prominent Liberals found red circles painted on the fronts of their houses, and the reservists give out that all houses so marked will be attacked at a given signal. It may be that no such thing will be attempted, but still such tricks inspire terror, and especially among the wives and families of Venizelists who, obeying their leaders' strict injunctions, refrained from arming themselves. The number of reservists in the city is said to be 15,000. The latest move of the Government is to make demarches in London, Petrograd and Rome, in the hope of persuading the three cabinets to obtain a reduction of Admiral Du Fournet's demands or their complete withdrawal. No representation of this nature has been made in Paris. The premier says that the cabinet's final reply to the admiral will be drawn up when the result of these demarches come to hand. He denies rumors of the pending resignation of the cabinet.

Trouble at Larissa.

A London Times' dispatch from Athens says Admiral Du Fournet in his audience with King Constantine drew his majesty's attention to the gravity of the situation and hopes of a settlement are expressed.

The French admiral subsequently visited several Venizelist merchants who had been threatened and promised them protection if the designs of the reservists should take place.

Telegrams from Larissa state that reservists resited the removal of guns at the station and, having seized two of them, dismounted them and conveyed them to the public square, where speeches were delivered and the rioters swore not to allow the guns to be surrendered. The guns were then handed over to the commander of the third army corps who has likewise sworn not to deliver them. Shots were fired by reservists during this demonstration. When the Venizelist newspapers arrived by train, these were burned.

CITY HALL EMPLOYEES CANNOT TAKE DRINK

[Canadian Press.]

Joplin, Mo., Nov. 29.—All city employees of Joplin were forbidden to "drink intoxicating liquors at any time" in a resolution adopted unanimously by the Joplin city commission in executive session here last night. Five city firemen immediately resigned as a protest against the order, it was said.

The commission also passed an ordinance forbidding display of cigarette or liquor advertisements in motion picture theatres.

Allies Having Better of Violent Fighting Along The Macedonian Fronts

Serbians and French Sweep German-Bulgars From Heights in Cerna River, While British and Italians On the Flanks Make Further Progress.

(Canadian Press.)

Paris, Nov. 29, 12:30 p.m.—Serbian troops yesterday captured the height northwest of Grunishte, on the Macedonian front, east of the Cerna River, the war office announces. A height east of Hill 1050 also was captured. A violent battle is in progress northwest of Monastir.

The French are advancing toward Hill 1248, the statement says. The Italians made progress in the region of Tsrvent Stena height, west of Monastir.

A SURPRISE ATTACK.

"On the west bank of the River Vardar British troops were successful in a surprise attack upon a trench of the enemy to the northeast of Macukovo. East of the River Cerna Serbian troops, after a brilliant advance, occupied a height to the northwest of Grunishte, and retained this position in spite of furious German-Bulgarian counter-attacks. The enemy suffered heavy losses without accomplishing anything.

"In the region to the northeast of Monastir four Zouave regiments continuing their successes occupied a height to the east of Hill 1050.

"To the northwest of Monastir there has been violent fighting in the course of which our troops made progress in the direction of Hill 1248, which the enemy defended with great ferocity.

"Italian forces also have made progress in the mountainous region of Tsrvena Stena."

BELITTLED BY BERLIN.

Berlin, Nov. 29.—Via Sayville Wireless.—Only local attacks have been made on the Germano-Bulgarian lines on the Macedonian front by the Entente forces northwest and east of Monastir, the war office announced today. The official statement says:

"Macedonian Front: The Entente offensive from the south, launched to relieve other forces, having failed, the enemy yesterday carried out only local attacks northwest of Monastir and near Grunishte, east of the Cerna. In these likewise they were unable to gain any advantage."

Trench Mortars Were Active On British Front

[Canadian Press.]

London, Nov. 29.—Artillery and trench activity in some sectors of the Franco-Belgian front is reported in today's official statement on military operations as follows:

"There was intermittent shelling in the neighborhood of Gueudecourt and south of Arras. Considerable trench-mortar activity developed in the Maisquaissart and Neuve Chapelle areas. Otherwise nothing of importance transpired.

SAY FORD ASSETS WORTH MUCH MORE THAN LAW ALLOWS

[Canadian Press.]

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 29.—Although the Ford Motor Company is capitalized at only $2,000,000, the assets of the concern are now worth $400,000,000, it is charged by attorneys for John F. Dodge and Horace E. Dodge, in an injunction action brought against Henry Ford, president of the company, alleging that the Ford company's capitalization is much greater than the maximum allowed by Michigan laws.

It was asserted by the Dodge brothers' attorneys that Mr. Ford's plans for greatly increasing the output of his plants might sharply conflict with state incorporation laws. The state law now provides that no concern can incorporate for more than $25,000,000 in Michigan.

CANADIANS MOVED TO QUIET SECTOR OF WESTERN LINE

London, Nov. 29.—The Canadians are in a very quiet part of the line just now, the chief assault being from snipers and trench mortars. The weather is bitterly cold, and the trenches are in some places not thirty yards from the enemy.

A chaplain returned this morning and says the location is very welcome after the Somme. He tells of how one day he was dressing the wounds of an officer on the Somme when a shell came and killed officers and an orderly close by, but the chaplain himself was entirely uninjured. However, when he moved with the division to a new location he received a slight shell wound in the back of the hand.

FIGHTING 18TH HAS GREAT REPUTATION AT ENGLISH CAMP

Lord Hardy Says None Better In Behavior.

SIR J. MOORE MEMORIAL

Moore Barracks Near His Old Home, Writes Pte. Fred Young.

Physically, Pte. Fred Young has been injured by war experiences in such a way as to prevent him taking further part in active hostilities, but his mind and powers of perception are so clear and acute that he sees something in each day of his convalescence worth writing about. He has just discovered with some satisfaction, historical facts about Moore Barracks, which he relates in the following letter:

For the past week or more we have addressed our letters to friends and relatives from "Moore" Barracks Hospital, Shorncliffe, Kent, but it was not until this afternoon that we got wise to the historical associations of our environments. We had wandered down the cliff side, on which our hospital home was built. Although the season was mid-November a warm southern breeze was blowing inshore across the waters of the English Channel. At the foot of the cliff, the old-world town of Sandgate, basked in the afternoon sunshine.

Looking across the street our attention was arrested by a monument, whose base was lapped by the waters of the channel. A polished brass plate gave the information that the monument had been erected in 1909 to commemorate the heroic death of Sir John Moore at the battle of Corunna in 1809. A brief eulogy of the dead hero was followed by a footnote stating that Sir John had resided near that spot for many years, and had been in command of the barracks that now bears his name during the years 1803-4.

Kent Figures Largely.

Kent County has figured largely in the history of Canadian overseas forces since the time the 2nd Division camped in the Shorncliffe area, in April, 1915. From its shores thousands of the brave lads from Canada have bade farewell to old England, and plunged whole-heartedly into the titanic European struggle, to do their humble or their splendid share for the cause of freedom. We well remember watching a bombardment out yonder, where shells tore into a village churchyard, exhuming the dead, and we thought of those lines describing the funeral of Sir John Moore, which said, "Little he'll reck if they'll let him sleep on, in a grave where a Briton has laid him." But at that time we were not aware of the fact that we had received our final training, in the vicinity where the hero of Corunna had drilled and trained men to fight old England's battles over a hundred years ago.

Spring in November.

When traveling in Midland or North Eastern Counties we have noticed posters setting forth the—advantages of people spending their winters in the southern parts of England. If the weather handed out to us thus far through November is a sample of "winter" weather in these parts, Kent County is fully entitled to claim her share of the advantages of the sunny south, for spring weather seems to be fashionable even in November. It would be impossible for anyone not officially informed to form any accurate estimate of the number of Canadian troops in the Shorncliffe area. On visiting "the old camp ground" at Sandling the other day we felt that there are more soldiers in training in that vicinity at the present time than there were during the summer of 1915. Such a steady stream of free-spending Canadian soldiers has given the storekeepers of the nearby towns an opportunity of inflating prices to such a degree that to the English tommies they are practically "out o' bounds."

Tribute to 18th.

Perhaps we may be excused the pardonable pride we felt when seated at the tea table with friends on Lord Hardy's estate, our host and hostess voluntarily gave us the information that the splendid reputation made by the boys of the fighting 18th, during their stay in that district, had never been eclipsed by any battalion that has since taken its place on the camp grounds.

Personally, we cannot help feeling at times that fate has been a little unkind, but we have the satisfaction of reading in the papers that recommend our discharge as unfit for further military service, the official statement, that our injuries were received "on duty" in the presence of the enemy, and that's all that Nelson asked for.

INTERESTING BUTTERFLIES EXHIBITED IN THE LIBRARY

Gaudy Forms of Insect Life—Some Poisonous and Some Edible.

The fourth exhibit of tropical butterflies in the Public Library Building by R. V. Smith, city superintendent of parks, shows some of the most gaudy forms of insect life that have yet been placed on view. Two particularly interesting varieties in the present exhibit are the imperials from the Loyalty Islands, in the South Pacific, which are eaten in the larva stage by the natives, and the poisonous moths from Burma. The latter, small orange and black butterflies, have the power to eject a fluid which on coming in contact with human flesh burns it and starts decomposition, which is accompanied by acute pain. For this reason they are much feared by the natives. The Imperials are gathered by the natives, and when cooked are regarded as considerable of a delicacy.

The contrast in coloring between butterflies that fly in the dry seasons of the tropics and those that fly in the rainy season is nicely shown by a number of the specimens from Mr. Smith's collection. Gaudy coloring marks the insects that fly in the dry deason, while those that come with the rains are almost transparent in some cases. Included in the present exhibit are specimens from such remote portions of the globe as Coram, the Andaman Islands, Sumatra, the hill country of India and New Guinea, the latter being a German possession which has been annexed to the British Empire since the outbreak of the present war.

MENDELSSOHN CHOIR OFFERS ITS SERVICES TO LONDON SOCIETY

Will Be Brought Here Next Year For Feature Contest.

The Musical Arts Society is delighted with and honored by an offer of a visit from the Mendelssohn Choir of Toronto, which would come to London in company with the Russian Symphony Orchestra in February, if such arrangements were convenient to the London society.

Unfortunately the date for which the offer is made is February 6, which is just one week before the visit of the New York Symphony Orchestra, and the two, it is feared, would conflict. However, the Musical Arts Society will accept the offer for next year, and will consider it the concert feature of the season.

The letter written by Dr. Vogt to A. D. Jordan of this city follows:

"Nov. 28, 1916.

"Dear Mr. Jordan,—When the Russian Symphony Orchestra appeared here a fortnight ago, the matter of an out-of-town concert was discussed by us, and I incidentally mentioned that it would give our chorus a great deal of pleasure to appear some time in London, since it would seem to be the only city in Ontario possessing a suitable place for a large chorus to sing in. I also felt that the country about London might be interested in such a joint concert as the Russian Orchestra and ourselves might be able to give.

"Mr. Durrett of the orchestra may have written you about the matter, our proposition having been to hand over to you the net proceeds of such a performance. In thinking the matter over, however, I quite realize that the great demand your own comprehensive scheme is likely to make on London and its vicinity, may well preclude the consideration of any such proposition as Mr. Altschuler, Mr. Durrett and myself had in mind. Whilst our chorus would, of course, be willing to appear without expense, excepting such as would be entailed through hotel and appropriate traveling facilities, even this outlay might, I believe, prove prohibitive under the circumstances. I wish to say, however, that should a visit of our choir at some future time seem to fit in with your arrangements, we would be glad to do anything in our power to be of service to you. With kind regards, I am, very sincerely yours,

"A. S. VOGT."

LIBERAL CLUB ELECTION OF OFFICERS ON FRIDAY

Some Received Acclamation, But There Are Many Contests.

Friday night the election of officers for the Liberal Club for 1916 will be held at Hyman Hall from 5 to 10 o'clock. Several have already been elected by acclamation, including honorary president, George S. Gibbons; the president, E. S. Little; secretary, Robert Lashbrook; treasurer, William B. Boyd, and vice-president of Ward 4, J. K. Campbell.

Those who will contest the other offices are:

Ward One—Vice-president, Thomas Copp and Colin Duffield. Executive—Raymond Evans, Frank Hart, Austin McLeish, James McCormick, Frank McLachlin and Gordon Mitchell.

Ward Two—Vice-president, Gordon Tennent and Charles Clarke. Executive—William Charlton, M. Caravella, Charles Crowdy, Martin Donohue, Richard Ivey and Richard Milne.

Ward Three—Vice-president, Jack E. Nopper and George E. Perry. Executive—Thomas W. Baker, William Gray, Hugh McAlpine, Albert Strangleman and Chas. T. Summers.

Ward Four—Executive—Archie Ashford, Harold Bayley, William Ball, J. S. Brown, William Mace, Jas. Moran, Fred Pace, Grant Stewart, Harold Tanney and James Wilkey.

J. M. McIntosh will act as returning officer.

The infusion of so much new blood into this year's contest and the number of new members who are joining is creating interest and enthusiasm as never before.

Those wishing to vote who have not already secured membership may obtain tickets from any of the candidates or from the secretary at the club.

CAR DERAILED.

A broken axle derailed North Belt Car No. 68, southbound, at the corner of Richmond and Albert street, about 10 o'clock last night, and caused the car to slew around on the pavement and land across the northbound tracks. Traffic was delayed for half an hour. No one was hurt.

LONDON MERCHANTS ASKED TO TELL OF LOCAL PROSPERITY

By Great International Advertising Clubs of World.

CITY A MARKET CENTRE

Investigation of Conditions To Extend Over the United States and Canada.

The Associated Advertising Clubs of the World is conducting an investigation of business conditions in the North American continent, and has selected London as one of the leading marketing centres of the United States and Canada, for inclusion in its report. The work will be done by the local Advertising Club executive, which has nominated the secretary of the board of trade here as London's representative on this international research committee.

This is the third continent-wide investigation which has been made by the Associated Advertising Clubs. Two years ago, when the European war unsettled trade conditions, the advertising clubs were appealed to to report the actual change in purchases for an index month of 1914 over the same month of the year previous. A number of cities were selected as representative, and men were sent to obtain answers to five simple questions from the leading retail dealers in the lines with which every consumer naturally comes in contact. The investigation of 1914 showed that despite many alarming reports, the typical consumer of North America had only decreased his purchases 2.3 per cent. The average increase or decrease was shown for each city in each line of retail business.

The high commendation of this investigation by President Wilson, Premier Borden of Canada, and the many thousands of financiers, merchants and businessmen all over the country who read it, led to a second investigation in the month of November, 1915. The second investigation showed an average increase in American consumption of 15.93 per cent. On these figures the report indicated that the United States was entering on a period of unprecedented prosperity, and that 1916 would be the greatest year American business had ever seen.

Another Investigation.

In the face of the fulfillment of this prophecy, another investigation is to be made. As in the two previous years, the investigation for 1916 will cover the six principal retail lines, namely, department stores, grocery stores, hardware stores, clothing stores, jewelry stores and drug stores. The five questions which will be asked of each dealer in no way decIose business secrets. No names are asked. All answers are in percentages, and an average for the city is all that is reported. The five questions are:

1. Sales. "What is the per cent of increase or decrease in your total volume of sales for November, 1916, as compared with November, 1915?"
2. The same question relating to advertising expenditure.
3. The same question relating to volume of stock on hand.
4. The same question relating to net profit.
5. What per cent of all money in accounts on your books, October 31, 1916, was collected during November?

The investigation is not conducted for profit. None of the members of the committee receive any money for their services.

While the first report was sold at $5 a copy to defray expenses, the Associated Advertising Clubs felt that such valuable information should have a more general circulation, and the report of the second investigation was published in the January number of Associated Advertising, the official organ of the Associated Clubs, as the present report will be.

Some sixty maps and charts are contained in the final report. Proofs of these are sent to the leading newspapers of the country, that businessmen in every section may compare their own sales records with the averages of their cities, and the averages for the country.

The Purpose.

Mr. Philip has furnished the following statement regarding the scope and purpose of the investigation:

"The purpose of these investigations is to take the 'guess' out of business and give definite facts upon which to base sales and advertising efforts for the coming year. The investigation last year revealed the trend of business in this country as a whole, and also gave figures showing sectional prosperity or depression. Merchants and manufacturers used the report and found accurately in what locality it was advisable to expand or retrench. This investigation is the only one of its kind, and is the only plan which has ever been devised to give every merchant an opportunity to compare his record for the year with the average in his city, and with the average for the entire country in his particular line.

"In answering these questions no one need feel that he is giving away any business secrets. No names or dollars-and-cents figures are asked for. All we want is percentages, and all information given is held strictly confidential.

Speed of Value.

"A part of the great value of this work rests in the speed with which the information is collected, and the figures tabulated. We will start to collect this information Monday morning, December 4th. We hope every retailer in London will have his five answers ready when we call. The reports will be mailed from here before midnight of December 7th, and Mr. MacMartin of the MacMartin Advertising Agency of Minneapolis, chairman of the committee, has promised to have the complete tabulations and deductions for the entire continent finished within 150 hours. Last year over a thousand investigators gave their time to this work. This year I am informed over two thousand have already volunteered to assist in collecting the information from the dealers. The corps of statisticians in Minneapolis works on night and day shifts, not missing an hour, until the last deduction is made.

"We want London represented on these maps and charts as a leading marketing centre, and we are sure that the representative merchants whom the Advertising Club have selected will gladly answer the five simple questions early Monday morning, December 4th, so that this city will get credit for the satisfactory and prosperous business conditions it is entitled to."

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

"That Hired Man of Ours."

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

They say that coming events cast their shadows before them, and in reference to this I will write of the forthcoming Dominion elections, for the word has gone forth that there is to be an early election.

On September 21, 1911, W. G. Weichel of Waterloo was engaged by a majority of the electors of North Waterloo to represent them in the House of Commons of Canada for five years. The contract has expired, and few there be who have the desire to renew the contract.

Since becoming member he has attended five sessions of the House and has drawn in cold cash $12,500 of the people's money for his services. What has he done for the money? Going back to the night of September 21, 1911, we find him being driven in an open carriage up the main street of this city, flanked on either side by cheering thousands, and himself assisting in the celebration by waving in the breeze the grand old Union Jack, and he was acclaimed as a hero who would help save Canada from the cruel annexationists.

The first session he attended was during the winter of 1912, and no untoward incident happened that was likely to shape his destiny, except that he became noted for blowing a tin whistle in the corridors and restaurant. The session over in May, we don't hear of him again until December 24, when the official organ of the Conservative party in North Waterloo, the News-Record, announced in bold black type that Mr. Weichel's Christmas box to the citizens of Berlin was $100,000 for a new postoffice. Whew! Wouldn't that be fine? Then he disappears from view.

Session number two, held in 1913, we find him moving the reply to the speech from the throne, and then he disappears from view, and the postoffice with him.

Session number three, held in 1914, which lasted for five months, he kept, at intervals, the seat warm in the House. In August of the same year came the declaration of war with Germany, and now we find what manner of man he was.

Do we find him lustily waving the Union Jack as on the night of September 21, 1911? No, but rather keeping in the background, while the alien enemies of the Twin City began to move noisily about seeking for what they called the ——— Anglisher, and declaring this was not Canada's war, and, anyway, Canada, would be better annexed by the United States. And they were able to spread this propaganda to their hearts' content for over a year, and the city had to make three applications to the minister of justice before the member for North Waterloo would consent to a registrar of aliens being appointed. And when 650 had been registered a stop was made. Why?

During the interval between the declaration of war and February, 1916, the member for North Waterloo rises in his seat in the House and tells the Canadian people that he will be responsible for the behavior of the Germans of North Waterloo. Are we to believe that he really meant that he had alienated his affections from the country which gave him birth, and was at present paying him a salary, and aligned himself with those who desired her hurt? What think ye?

The war brought new duties to the people of North Waterloo. Money was needed for patriotic and Red Cross funds, and a goodly sum was raised, but none was paid by those who were seeking the hurt of the "Anglisher."

A whole page could be written of the incidents of the past five years, from the day in September when the people of North Waterloo gave to him of their heritage (the ballot), and he has given to them nothing in return.

"He kept us out of khaki" will probably be the slogan one will hear on the crossroads at the next election, and it may carry some weight with some who have failed in their duty to keep the home fires burning and have been a hindrance to others.

She Is Disgusted.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

On reading the paper this morning I was very much disgusted to see the result of the voting for a secretary for the Soldiers' Aid Commission. I wonder where the principle or the patriotism is of some of these returned soldiers. I cannot understand how a man who has been fighting in France, and experiencing all the hardships of trench life, could vote for a man who has never been, and never intends to go and do his bit unless he is forced to by conscription, and I think the sooner that comes the better, to take such slackers as he and a few more like him, who are holding down good jobs these returned men could do. But I suppose these so-called returned men that voted for Mr. Lance are some of the cold-footed ones who never got any farther than England, and don't understand what it is to be cold and miserable in wet trenches day in and day out, and don't understand the great need there is for all available men. I'm glad my husband's name isn't Mr. Lance. I'm thinking if it had been he would have been in khaki long ago, if I, his wife, had had any say in the matter. But there, my husband is British-born, and that makes all the difference, and I'm proud to say he has done his bit, and has suffered, and still suffers, but not with cold feet.

While I am writing, I would like to refer to a letter that was in last night's paper from a returned soldier's wife, about something for the wives and children. I myself would call that a kind of a begging letter, and it should be left for someone else to suggest. I suppose the kiddies won't be forgotten at Christmas, but it doesn't sound right, to my idea, for their mothers to be begging for them, and with the exception of a few, which is the fault of the Government, I don't think there are any of us in want, as she remarked in her letter. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, I am

ANOTHER RETURNED SOLDIER'S WIFE.

Butter Mixtures.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

In reference to the above-mentioned subject, it is doubtful as to whether, the interests most to be considered, are those of the butter producer, the butter dealer, or "oleo" manufacturer, or the consuming public which eventually pays.

As the primary cause of the high price of any commodity is insufficiency of supply to satisfy demand, it seems that in the present instance, there must be room for a substitute for the butter that is not being produced, without prejudice to the producer.

If this non-production of butter is the result of inability on the part of the farmer, he can have no objection to the public securing their necessity in some other direction. If, on the other hand, production is normal, and there is an organized effort on the part of farmer or dealer to artificially enhance values, such action calls for the strongest condemnation, and the most urgent competition of any other article that could be used as an alternative.

It is not possible to believe that the permission to manufacture and sell "oleo" mixtures would have any detrimental effect on the farmer who sells the best butter, and the inferior and unpalatable article would be better used for drug manufacturers' purposes.

The dealer could have no reasonable objection, as his main object is to sell, what the public wants, at a profit to himself; and this he can do, as well with mixture as butter.

In the British Isles oleo mixture is allowed to be sold, under certain restrictions of manufacture and sale. Tremendous quantities are actually put on offer, but this does not prevent the English markets from eagerly absorbing all their own production of butter and also all that can be sent them from Europe, Australia, New Zealand, Canada and the Argentine, and then leave the market in such a delicately-balanced condition, that the rumored burning of an Australian butter ship with its cargo, is sufficient to send the London price shillings up.

Furthermore, as to producing a choice oleo mixture, the manufacturer must employ only the best material, he increases the demand for butter by buying the very choicest brands for his own product. To show that this is the case, some years ago, a law was passed in England, prohibiting margarine manufacturers from putting more than 10 per cent of pure butter in their mixtures. This act was absolutely in the interests of the butter dealers, who feared the competition of a 75 per cent butter mixture.

The best product can be sold retail in England at about two pounds for a quarter. It is produced under far closer scrutiny than butter; it suffers many restrictions to avoid fraudulent substitution, and it is therefore safe to assume that it is a wholesome food product, at a low price, extremely palatable, a boon to the poorer classes at all times, and to the more wealthy when pure butter is scarce.

The manufacturers would import their raw material, oleo, cottonseed oil, etc., and generally use the butter produced in the country, for blending, and thus create a new and profitable industry for the general benefit.

A Great Clearing of Colored Dress Goods

1629 Yards 50c, 75c, $1, $1.50, $2, $2.50 Goods To Clear at 39c, 49c, 69c, 89c Yard

SALE THURSDAY MORNING

This will be one of the old-time dress goods sales. During the past few seasons there has been an inclination on our part (owing to the scarcity of all wool dress goods and advancing prices), to hold onto such goods rather than sacrifice them at less than they could be repeated for, consequently as you know sales of this kind have been few or unknown. In the face of all this, and notwithstanding that many lines in this sale cannot now be procured at all, some fine French fancy suitings and English worsteds which have greatly advaneed in price; yet we are going to stick to our old policy that each season must be responsible for its own. So we have gone thoroughly through the stock and sorted out all odd pieces left of the different lines and grouped them into four lots, which you will find listed below. There are some exceptional bargains in these groups and under present conditions this sale is of very unusual significance. Come early—it will pay you to anticipate your future needs. All are briefly listed below.

THREE WILL COMPETE FOR McEVOY ORATORY MEDAL

Collegiate Institute Commencement Exercises To Be Held on Friday.

Commencement exercises of the Collegiate Institute are to be held at the Masonic Hall Friday afternoon. Presentation of scholarships and medals will be one of the chief features of the afternoon.

The three leading competitors in the oratory contest for the McEvoy medal will deliver their speeches and the winner will be chosen. Preliminary trials at the school have narrowed the contest down to Travers Welsh, Cecil Wright and Fred Hitchins. A feature of the afternoon will be folk-dances presented by the girls' classes under the direction of Miss Nash.

Donors of the medals and scholarships will be present as well as members of the board of education. A. E. Silverwood will be chairman. The high school orchestra under the direction of Mel Platt will furnish the music for the afternoon.

W.C.T.U. DECIDES TO HOLD NOON MEETINGS FOR GIRLS

Also Appeals for Clothing and Fruit for Poor and for Indians.

An interesting meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held in the rooms, Park avenue, on Tuesday afternoon. While the main work of this organization is the abolition of the liquor traffic, it earnestly strives to promote all good work towards purity of life and higher womanly ideals. The need for more earnest prayer at this most critical time in the nation's history was emphasized by Mrs. Dr. Rae, as she read chapter ix. of Daniel for the scripture lesson.

Many plans of work were outlined and steps taken to carry on the social work as heretofore. Noontide meetings will be held for the girls in the large factories of the city. An appeal will be made to the unions throughout the county and ladies' aids in places where there are no unions, for assistance in securing clothing, bedding and fruit for the poor and sick, and for the poor Indians of the north, in whom a keen interest is taken. Articles or bales of clothing may be sent to headquarters, 432 Park avenue.

A resumption of the work done under the social service department was given by Mrs. Harrison. Many tired and weary girls, some of them handicapped by environment and circumstances were benefited by their sojourn of a week or two in the summer camp at Springbank. The influences that were thrown around them, the quiet talks and services, all told for improved living for the girls. The generosity and kindness of both members and others were feelingly alluded to by Mrs. Harrison as she concluded her report.

It was felt by all present that something ought to be done to purify the moral atmosphere of the city.

STEAMERS ARRIVED.

New York, Nov. 29.—Arrived: Steamer Tuscania, Glasgow.

IN THE POLICE COURT

A trio of citizens, all old-timers and each one charged under the Ontario temperance act, appeared in police court today.

The first one to answer was a well-known local character, who had only breathed the free air of liberty a couple of days after serving a three-months sentence for chicken stealing.

He pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $10 and costs or one month in jail. A friend came to the rescue and paid the fine.

Mind a Blank.

Second to answer to his name pleaded guilty before Squire Macklin could ask the question.

"Where did you get your whisky?" was asked.

"I cannot remember anything about it. My mind has been a blank ever since I took that first drink of Montreal whisky," he replied.

"Perhaps we may send you to jail until you do tell," said the squire.

"Go to it, your worship; anything that suits your worship suits me, but I'll bust before I tell where I got it."

Going Home.

"You can't punish him by sending him to jail, that's his home. He's asking for a sentence now and all that is worrying him is that he won't get it," commented Chief Williams.

He will spend the next 30 days at Castle Carter because of his failure to liquidate a fine of 10 and costs.

Last on the list pleaded guilty, and stated that he procured a case from Montreal and drank the first bottle.

He was fined $10 and costs, and being unable to pay will sojourn for the next month at the county jail.

38 PAISLEY NAMES IN CHURCH HONOR ROLL

[Special to The Advertiser.]

PAISLEY, Nov. 28.—The ceremony of unveiling the honor roll of Knox Church took place Sunday evening. The pastor preached an appropriate sermon to a fairly large congregation. Two little girls, Greta Fleming and Meryl McGregor, made the formal unveiling, disclosing the names of 38 soldiers and two nurses. The service throughout was most impressive.

FREDERICK PALMER WILL BE GUEST OF HEADQUARTERS HERE

Officers To Entertain Noted Correspondent at Dinner.

GREAT INTEREST SHOWN

Advance Sale of Tickets For Lecture Shows Big Demand.

Frederick Palmer, the famous war correspondent, who comes to lecture on "The Greatest Battles of the World" at Masonic Hall tomorrow night, will be the guest of the officers at military headquarters at dinner.

When it was learned that Mr. Palmer was to appear in the city, an invitation was sent to him, and he has accepted. He will probably tell many personal experiences, and give some description of "inside" events. Officers in training and those who have been overseas look forward with eager interest to the opportunity of meeting a correspondent who has had access to the British headquarters for more than two years.

Big Advance Sale.

Mr. Palmer's appearance in the city will be the occasion for large attendance if the advance sale of seats at The Advertiser office is any criterion. While seats are not reserved, the public is securing them in advance, together with war-tax tickets, which are on sale at the office. From indications at present, every seat will be filled.

Soon Going Back.

Mr. Palmer will arrive in the city tomorrow morning from Toronto, where tonight he will address a meeting in Massey Hall. His lecture tour in Ontario has brought out large audiences, as no writer is so well known, or so favorably known to Canadians. His furlough from the front will terminate within a short time, and he will be back in France soon after Christmas.

Many requests for tickets from outdf-town people are being received, and The Advertiser would advise all intending patrons to secure seats at once.

LEFT ARM IN FRANCE, BUT GLAD TO BE HOME

Pte. Chas. D. Carter Returns From Front Feeling "Fine."

Pte. Charles D. Carter, 472 Dufferin avenue, has returned from the front, where he lost his right arm in the fighting of the early spring. He was shot at Ypres, and his arm was shattered so badly by shells, that it had to be removed. He has practically recovered, and declares that he feels fine.

"I left a bit of me over there," he said. "I am rather lucky to bring back what I have. There are no complaints on my part, as I did what I went over for. As I am single, I think I will be able to get along all right.

"Story? Why, I have no story. You know all about it, probably more than we who were on the firing line. I don't care to say anything about it, as enough has already been said. I am glad to be back among the boys again."

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

DIED IN WINNIPEG.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Dean, formerly a resident of the city, whose death occurred suddenly in St. Boniface Hospital, Winnipeg, on Wednesday, November 22, was held Tuesday morning at Paris.

She was well known in this city, having resided at 696 King street, where she made her home with her brothers. She left here ten years ago for Winnipeg, where she and her daughter, Mamie, have since resided.

The body was forwarded from Winnipeg to Paris, the funeral taking place from the home of her mother, Mrs. McDonald of Blue Lake Farm, two and a half miles from Paris.

Requiem high mass was sung at Sacred Heart Church, Paris, and interment made in the Paris Catholic Cemetery.

She is survived by her daughter, Mamie; her mother, Mrs. McDonald, of Paris; four sisters, Mrs. Wardroper of 253 Queen's avenue, city; Mrs. L. Chantze of Calgary; Mrs. Fixture of Wingham; Miss Isabella McDonald of Paris, and four brothers, Duncan McDonald of Springfield, Ohio; Angus of Sarnia, John and Archibald of Paris.

The pallbearers were the four brothers, Gus McDonald, a nephew, and Donald Johnson.

MARTINUS STEYN DEAD

Was President of Orange Free State From 1896 to 1900.

Bloemfontein, Union of South Africa, Nov. 29.—Via London, 12:26 p.m.—Martinus T. Steyn, president of the Orange Free State from 1896 to 1900, died suddenly today while addressing a women's congress. Ex-President Steyn of the Orange Free State was born in 1857. He was educated in Holland and in London, and subsequently was called to the bar of inner temple at London. Returning to South Africa he became attorney-general. He got a judgeship in 1889 which he retained until 1905 when he became president. After the Boer War in which he took an active part the president spent most of his time in farming.

BROTHERS WHO ARE DOING THEIR SHARE: ONE NOW WOUNDED

Advertiser Illustrations.

Sergt. Albert E. and Gunner Frank Dalton, sons of John J. Dalton, 366 Lorne avenue, are now overseas with the Canadian forces. Gunner Frank Dalton left here as a trooper with a draft of the Canadian Mounted Rifles, but was transferred in England to the Trench Howitzer Brigade, 3rd Canadian Division.

Sergt. Albert Dalton enlisted as a private in the 70th Battalion, and left here on Good Friday last. After arriving in England he was rejected by a medical board as unfit for service, but determined to do his bit, rather than return home, he succeeded in getting transferred to the Postal Corps, where he was soon promoted to sergeants' rank. He was employed as a lettercarrier here, and is now in the Base Postoffice, Shorncliffe.

Gunner Frank Dalton is now in hospital, having been hit by shrapnel as he was leaving a trench. He writes that he expects to be out again soon.

DESERTERS WILLING TO REJOIN FORCES UNDER THE PARDON

Several Inquiries Made at the Local Headquarters.

NUMBERS ARE MISSING

But Many Are Expected To Report When Punishment Is Void.

The proclamation of the new governor-general granting pardons to all members of the C. E. F. charged with desertion has not yet appeared in camp or district orders, but already some of the delinquents have signified their intention of taking advantage of the leniency of the Government.

Lieut.-Col. Brown, A. A. A. G., stated this morning that apparently word had been received by the men some days ago that the move was to be made, as several inquiries have been received at headquarters from men wishing to rejoin their units. None of the battalions have as yet heard from their absent members.

The number of deserters all over the country is said to be very large. They absented themselves for various reasons, of which one was that they had no intention of actually deserting, but that having once overstayed their leave, they were afraid to return to their unit for fear of possible punishment. It is believed that practically all of this class will report within the next few weeks. Others are thought to be ashamed of themselves and looking for a chance to rejoin.

LUCAN CONSATBLE GETS PROVINCIAL JOB

Peter Butler, Noted Tracker, Can Run Anywhere Now.

Peter Butler of Lucan, for 32 years village constable, received on Saturday last an appointment from the Ontario Department of Justice as provincial police constable.

Peter was noted for his Marathon stunts in tracking criminals or suspects, and has been known to run for ten miles on several occasions to make an arrest.

ALDERMANIC SCRAP WILL BE AIRED AT DECEMBER SESSIONS

One of Two Criminal Cases Listed For Trial.

FRAUD CHARGE ANOTHER

William Ginsberg Accused of Fraud by Morris Gootson, City.

The only two criminal cases to be heard at the December sessions of the county court to open on Monday next, are a charge of assault preferred by Ald. William Wilson against Ald. Adam Palmer, arising out of the famous drinking glass bout indulged in by the two city fathers at a stormy session of the city council last August and a charge of fraud laid against William Ginsberg on complaint of Morris Gootson. Both cases received a preliminary hearing at the police court and the introduction of a voluminous amount of evidence is expected in each case.

The first civil case to be entered for trial is that of William H. Clark of Delaware Township against Robert Howlett, a cattle buyer.

Clark in his statement of claim says that Howlett owes him $448, the balance due on the purchase price of fifteen head of cattle.

The defence entered by Howlett is that the cattle were never contracted for or never delivered.

The second civil action is a re-entry one that has been pending for months. The McLaughlin Carriage Co., Ltd. is suing to recover $463.61 from John M. McEvoy on an account which the company claims extends over a period from June 28, 1912 to October 31, 1915.

The defendant disputes the claim and has entered a counter-claim for $120, alleging the amount as due for supplies bought outside the company's shops for the purpose of repairing a motor car.

The defendant further claims that the car was not put into good running condition and the plaintiff disputes this claim and asks the amount be ordered paid as claimed.

The third civil action to be entered for hearing at the county court assizes to open on Tuesday next is that of Dan Iwanski, Polano Monatto and Peter Siginuskey against Morris Gootson.

The claim against Gootson is for $580 and according to the plaintiffs is due under an agreement made between plaintiffs and Gootson and William Ginsberg who is being tried at the same assizes on a charge of fraud.

SUBURBAN ROADS AND TOWN PLANNING TO BE DISCUSSED

City and County Councils and Other Bodies to Hear W. A. McLean and Thomas Adams.

W. A. McLean, deputy minister of public works, will address the county council, the city council, and the members of the London and Westminster Township councils on Tuesday afternoon next at 3:30 o'clock on the subject, "Suburban Roads."

The meeting will be held in the county buildings, the object being to make it convenient for the county councillors, who will be in attendance at the December session which opens on Monday next.

Mayor Stevenson will preside.

In the evening a gathering at 6:15 o'clock under the auspices of the board of trade will be held at the Tecumseh House, to be addressed by Thomas Adams, town-planning adviser of the Dominion Commission of Conservation.

Those invited to attend this gathering are representatives of all the men's organizations in the city, the city and county council members, and representatives from adjoining municipalities.

The subject of Mr. Adams' address will be "Municipal Improvement and Land Development; the Need for Town Planning, and a Department of Municipal Affairs."

Sir Adam Beck, M. P. P., will address the meeting at the request of the civic improvement committee of the board of trade. His subject will be "Hydro Radials, as a Means To Developing Agricultural Areas and Assisting Prosperity in Existing Cities and Towns, and the Need for Early Action in This Respect."

George H. Belton, president of the board of trade, will preside.

WEDDINGS.

SPICUZZA—MASCARI.

A pretty wedding took place at 9 o'clock this morning in St. Mary's Church, when Josephine, daughter of Augustine Mascari, 614 Dundas street, was united in marriage to Anthony Spicuzza of Hamilton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Kennedy, followed by a high mass. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father. She was gowned in white crepe de chine trimmed with taffeta, with an overskirt of white shadow lace and a court train hung from her shoulders. She wore a white veil, caught up with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

The bridesmaid was Miss Anna Mascari, sister of the bride. She was daintily attired in white crepe de chine and wore a white hat trimmed with gold lace. She carried sunset roses.

James Catalano assisted the groom. The flower girls were Violet Scolio and Frances Buttice, little cousins of the bride, from Erie, Penn. The former was dressed in white silk and the latter in pink silk, and they carried large baskets of carnations, while on their heads were wreaths of smilax.

A dainty breakfast was served at the home of the bride, while the Tony Cortese Orchestra provided excellent music.

The happy young couple were the recipients of many beautiful presents.

After a trip to Detroit, Cleveland, Erie and Buffalo, they will reside in Hamilton.

BIRMINGHAM—THOMPSON.

St. Patrick's Church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 8:30 o'clock this morning, when Miss Emma Thompson, daughter of James C. Thompson, 36 Dalton avenue, was united in marriage to Leo T. Birmingham, also of this city. Rev. Father Doyle performed the ceremony.

The bride was becomingly attired in a green broadcloth suit, with a white hat and veil.

The bridesmaid was Miss Edith Dalton, cousin of the groom. She wore a suit of navy blue whipcord, and wore a blue velvet hat.

The groom was assisted by his brother, Ambrose Birmingham, of the paymaster's office, Queen's Park.

A number of beautiful presents were received by the happy couple.

Miss Thompson was formerly an employee of the Bell Telephone Company.

Parents Beware! Deadly Poison Is Lying on Streets

Contents of Doctor's Medicine Case Scattered in East London.

A deadly menace to the lives of London children lies in vials which have been scattered from the medical case of an East London doctor, which was lost or stolen last night from the physician's motor car.

The case was missed by the doctor after he had made a call, and this morning in East London some of the contents were found scattered on the street. It was apparent that the case had been rifled and some of the tubes and bottles containing poison enough to kill many people, were thrown away. The case contained strychnine, morphine, arsenic, bicloride of mercury, potassium, permanganate, carbolic crystals and liquid and other deadly drugs.

The physician stated to The Advertiser that he wished to warn people to watch their children, and to caution them not to eat any pills they might find in the belief that they were candy. The fact that some of the vials were found alarmed him, as it was evident that boys who had likely stolen the case were scattering the contents broadcast, unaware of the menace to the lives of little children.

"The loss of the case is not serious, but the possibility of someone making use of these drugs in their ignorance is such as to make a warning necessary," said the doctor. "Every parent should make sure that his or her children are protected."

FUNERAL OF MRS. BREEN.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Breen, who died Sunday morning, was held today. Solemn high mass was celebrated at St. Peter's Cathedral, with Father Hanlon as celibrant, Father Lennon as deacon, and Father Laurendeaux as sub-deacon. The funeral was one of the largest for many years in London Township. Interment took place at St. Peter's Cemetery. Mrs. Breen resided at lot 7, concession 4, London Township.

The pallbearers were M. Hohen, P. Fallon, D. Bacon, H. Percival, James O'Rourke, and James Anderson.

HURLEY—COUGHLIN.

STRATFORD, Nov. 28.—The marriage was solemnized here today at St. Joseph's Church of Miss Nellie Coughlin, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Coughlin, to John J. Hurley. Rev. D. J. Egan officiated. Miss Reta Killgatlen of London was bridesmaid, and Mr. Joseph Coughlin, groomsman.

SCORES OF FRIENDS EXTEND GREETINGS TO DR. MACGREGOR

Father Throws Off Years With Load of Care.

MAY BE PRISON DOCTOR

Report Says Position at Jackson Will Be Offered To Him.

Dr. R. A. Macgregor, who was pardoned on Tuesday by Gov. Ferris of Michigan, is spending a very busy day, and if he is strong his good right arm may stand up under the strain of shaking hands. Scores of old school-mates, friends of the family, and others, have been congratulating him, and he is feeling the force of the friendship in a most striking way.

The most interested people in the case and its denouement are the aged parents of Dr. Macgregor. Always convinced, as so many others were, of his entire innocence, the burden of the conviction bore most heavily upon them. For four years they have borne bravely the ordeal, hoping that the great wrong would be righted, and that their son would be restored not only to them, but to his rightful place in society. It was a great burden, and its weight was enough to break the health and spirits of younger persons. It aged them greatly, but they worked, and hoped, and prayed, and their prayers were answered.

Burden Removed.

Now that justice has been done, tardy justice, it is true, the burden has fallen off their shoulders, like John Bunyan's Pilgrim, and they are happy once more. A. S. Macgregor, the father of the boy, is young once more. He is cheery and bright, a different man from the person he was some weeks ago. No wonder, of course, but the change is remarkable. His friends, and they are legion, are delighted, and expect that he will long live to enjoy godd health and happiness. Mrs. Macgregor is likewise happy. The meeting of last night was a remarkable event.

Dr. Macgregor himself is much relieved. He is of an optimistic turn of mind, strong of body and cheerful, but the experience weighed heavily upon him. Joy was his portion today, the first really happy day in many a month, and he was too busy to say much about his case.

Faith Vindicated.

"What can I say," he asked, when interviewed. "There is nothing to add. Justice, tardy justice, I must add, has been done, and I have been vindicated after an unbiased, unprejudiced review of my case has taken place. That is my vindication, and I, of course, feel glad. My friends have been very kind, very thoughtful, most self-sacrificing on my behalf, and I am glad that their faith in me has been vindicated. That is all I want to say today. I am busy meeting old acquaintances and friends. I have talked to so many people today. They are all glad to see me, and I feel much better. I am not making any plans for the future as yet, but I will practice my profession shortly."

It is stated on good authority that Dr. Macgregor will return to Jackson, Mich., where he will practice his profession in the very prison where he spent four years. There is a vacancy on the staff of the prison, and an appointment will be made before January 1. There is a strong movement on foot to have him named for the place, and information has come to The Advertiser that he would probably be named at a first-class salary. While there, he did much of the work, and he was the most trusted man in the place. The men there appreciated his services on their behalf, and not a man in the prison but who was overjoyed at the pardon given to Dr. Macgregor.

Dr. Macgregor arrived in the city on Grand Trunk express No. 8 at 1 o'clock this morning. He was accompanied by his wife, who before her marriage was Miss McKenzie of Woodstock. He was met at the depot by his brother William, and drove at once in an auto to see his mother, whom he had not seen in five years, at the family residence, 392 Burwell street. His father, A. S. Macgregor, was there, and a sister who was called from Toronto by the family immediately upon receiving the news that Dr. Macgregor had been pardoned.

"I have no definite plans yet," Dr. Macgregor told The Advertiser, "but expect to remain in London until Christmas. I expect to resume the practice of medicine, possibly in Jackson, Michigan. In the meantime I am going to have a good visit with my father and mother here."

Asked regarding the case, he said: "I have never doubted that truth would triumph, and that I would be vindicated in the eyes of the world."

Mrs. Macgregor joined her husband at Port Huron last evening, and they took the first train for London.

Last evening A. S. Macgregor received the following telegram from Detroit:

"The Sun Life staff at Detroit rejoices with you in the news that Robert has been pardoned, and send you and your wife their heartiest good wishes."

Other telegrams were received during the evening, of a congratulatory nature.

POSTOFFICE GIVES TEMPORARY PLACES TO RETURNED MEN

Thirty-One To Be Appointed, M. P.'s Being Allowed To Choose.

Thirty-one temporary, inside positions at the London post office will be filled by returned soldiers in all probability.

These men are required because of the Christmas rush and a number will be put on at once. S. Frank Glass, M. P., has been asked to recommend ten and the balance will be in the power of William Gray, M.P., to recommend. Mr. Glass stated to The Advertiser this morning that all of his appointments would be turned over to the Soldiers' Aid Commission. So far two have been appointed to go on duty from December 1 to December 31, being Bombardier Harry Percival, who was at the front with the 12th Field Battery, in command of Lieut.-Col. Woodman Leonard, and Bombardier W. J. Austin, who also had long service with the same battery. They were selected by the Soldiers' Aid Commission, and Mr. Glass was gratified at being able to give the positions to two old 6th Battery men who had performed such long service.

The other appointments will be made to take effect about December 15.

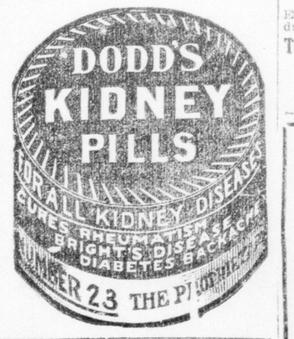

HAS WORD OF RILEY

Constable Shaver Off Again on Trail of Elusive Indian.

County Constable Alex. Shaver received a telephone message today informing him of the whereabouts of Jim Riley, the Indian who leaped from a Hurop and Bruce southbound train between Ilderton and Denfield last Thursday evening, while he was being brought to the city under arrest.

Constable Shaver started for the scene shortly after receiving the message, and expects to return with the "wily Riley." The location given is only a few miles from where Riley made a leap from the lavatory window of the moving train, and it is believed that he was injured in his fall and has been unable to proceed any further.

Constable Shaver, on making his departure offered to wager 100 to 1 that if he got his hands on Riley he wouldn't give him the slip again.

SAYS EXPENDITURE ON WELLAND CANAL PERFECTLY USELESS

Startling Statement by Dr. Miller to Canadian Club.

PATRONAGE IS BLAMED

No Outlet Even Surveyed Into St. Lawrence River as Yet.

That the expenditure of from $50,000,000 to $60,000,000 on the Welland Canal is a perfectly useless expenditure of money was one of the interesting statements made at the Canadian Club luncheon at noon today by Dr. Miller, principal of Ridley College, St. Catharines. Owing to the weather the attendance was smaller than usual.

Dr. Miller's subject was "The Call of Canada to the Canadian Clubs." The great war had taught men as never before that a man could not live unto himself, it had given a great call for service, although all had not heeded that call. Democracy. Germany had figured that France was a decadent nation, and had attacked it. The same opinion had prevailed so far as Great Britain was concerned. The Germans have treated American democracy with the utmost contempt. Democracy to be a success must find its method. The kernol was in universal service, that the individual must subordinate his own interests to those of the state.

First Problem.

He brought up a number of problems that would come to Canada after the war. The first, and possibly one of the most important, was the question of immigration. It was being freely predicted that there would be from ten to fifteen million people in Canada within a few years after the end of the conflict. How could Canada absorb this influx of foreigners, he asked. The United States had tried to solve this problem since the civil war. To aid in this idea, the English language had been insisted on, but the results had not been encouraging. Certainly not an Anglo-Saxon spirit had resulted. The nation was not Anglo-Saxon in its ideals, nor could it be. He doubted that Canada, with its present large foreign population, could absorb this mass of people pumped into it, without suffering a destruction of the Anglo-Saxon ideals. He warned the country against that.

Political Evils.

The question of political patronage was another. It was eating into the vitals of the nation, and it must be stopped. Both parties when in opposition demanded a reform in the patronage evil, but when in power, nothing had been done.

"The only solution is in the divorce of legislative from administrative functions of the Government," said Dr. Miller. "Why should a minister of the crown be bothered by a horde of hungry office-seekers. The best type of men do not like that.

"In speaking of patronage, I would like to mention one or two instances. Take the Welland Canal, for instance. As now being built it is an absolutely useless thing, although it will cost $50,000,000 or $60,000,000. Why there is not outlet at the end of Lake Ontario. It must stop there. Any sane people would have looked at the outlet first, and would have discovered whether or not it would be possible to get the vessels to the Atlantic coast. Stopping the vessels at the end of Lake Ontario will be not much more beneficial than stopping them at Niagara. Yet we must spend this enormous sum of money on this useless undertaking.

The Ross Rifle.

"Take again the Ross rifle, a most useless weapon of warfare, used now for holding up dug-outs. I tell you that it is not a service rifle, and never was. Some person has the lives of many Canadians on his shoulders. No person on either side of the House has dared to criticize this rifle. Patronage is at the root of these evils, and I often wonder that the public men of Canada are not sickened at the sight.

"The question of the franchise is another problem. The women are going to get the votes, just as sure as prohibition. I am not afraid of it. I want to tell you that manhood franchise is not all that it is cracked up to be. You know something of the debauching of elections and electors. Now that the women are asking for the vote it would be a good time to review the whole question of the franchise. I would require all foreigners who get the franchise to write and read English, and show some service to the nation."

"The senate ought to be reformed. It has not justified its existence. The senators are the lotus eaters of this country. I would have the senate either elected or that they be given the administration of the Government. Much of the work now done by commissions could be done by this body, and show reasons for their being.

"I would also advocate that redistribution of seats in Parliament be done by the high court judges, getting away from gerrymandering and the like.

"As for municipal government, administration should be divorced from legislation. I would have a council, who should outline policies, and the carrying out of them should be done by a body composed of the engineer, the city clerk, the city solicitor, and the treasurer. They would be responsible for the economical management of the city, and should be held to strict account. I am not in favor of a commission form of government for cities, or a city manager. They are against the genius of our people."

GERARD CARRIES STRONG MESSAGE ON BELGIANS

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 29.—Representations to be made to Germany by the United States on the deportation of Belgian civilians was a topic of discussion at a conference arranged for today between President Wilson and Ambassador Gerard, who will sail Tuesday to return to his post at Berlin. The administration has determined to express to the German Government its apprehension over the movement of Belgians in more positive form than by the inquiry which the United States charge at Berlin recently made on instructions from Washington.

BREWSTER GATHERS NEW B. C. MINISTRY

Cabinet Will Be Presented To the Lieutenant-Governor At Once.

[Canadian Press.]

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 29.—The cabinet of Hon. H. C. Brewster is complete and today the premier will present the names to hhis honor the lieutenant-governor, and the new ministers will be sworn in.

It is generally believed that the following will be members of the Government, that portfolios assigned to them here will be found to be correct:

Premier and Minister of Finance.—Hon. H. C. Brewster, Victoria.

Attorney-General.—Hon. M. A. MacDonald, Vancouver.

Minister of Education and Provincial Secretary.—Hon. Dr. J. H. King, Cranbrook.

Minister of Agriculture.—Hon. John Oliver, Dewdney.

Minister of Lands.—Hon. T. D. Patullo, Prince Rupert.

Sloan for President.

There is considerable uncertainty as to the portfolios of mines and works, and railways, as well as the president of the council. For the first, William Sloan, of Nanaimo, and Dr. J. D. McLean of Greenwood, are mentioned. For minister of works and railways, H. W. Anderson, Kamloops, or J. R. W. Thompson, Grand Forks, seem to be the choice, with the possibility that Ralph Smith, Vancouver, or J. W. DeB. Farris, Vancouver, may be selected as head of this department. Dr. W. H. Sutherland, Revelstoke, is also a cabinet possibility. Should the minister of mines go to Dr. McLean it would not be surprising if William Sloan was chosen as president of the council. Rumor has it that Ralph Smith has been offered the presidency of the workmen's compensation commission at $5,000 a year, if he will forego his cabinet aspirations.

LILLE FOLK SENT HOME, IS GERMAN STATEMENT

But Only Those Incapable of Work or No Longer Needed.

[Canadian Press.]

Berlin, Nov. 29—Via Sayville.—The following semi-official item was given out for publication today: "According to promises given to the inhabitants of Lille and other towns in occupied territories in France the following number of persons have been transported back there.

"Up to August 1, 1916, 1,993 persons who were either incapable of working or whose removal from their homes had proved especially severe. From the beginning of October until the middle of November 6,671 persons, mostly women, whose work was no longer required.

"The competent military authorities have received an order to transport back up to the end of the year all persons with the exception of those who wish to stay in their new residences. Since it is most probable that the French Government will assert that these measures were taken in consequence of its protest and the intervention of neutral governments, it is expressly stated that neither unfounded protests nor intervention has in any way influenced the decision of the German military authorities. The transport back home of these people was carried out exclusively in accordance with the promises given them at the time of their removal."

DIETERS GAIN WEIGHT ON A CHEAP DIET

Chicago Food Experiment Is Proving a Success.

[Canadian Press.]

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Plainer fare will mark the menus of the diet squad of the Chicago health department during the remainder of the attempt to demonstrate how to live well at reasonable prices, the second week of which began today. Dr. John Dill Robertson, health commissioner, expressed the hope that in the final week the cost of feeding the twelve dieters might be cut to about 25 cents a day per person. The cost for the first week was 33 2-3c, exclusive of allowances for fuel, light, heat, service and other overhead expenses.

Only two dozen eggs were used in the first week, these costing 40 and 44 cents a dozen. Thirty-five quarts of milk at 9 cents, were used, chiefly for cooking. Economies were made, it was pointed out, by purchasing in large amounts, thus saving fractional weights and "splitnickel" charges, although all goods were purchased in downtown retail stores.

Dr. Robertson said he expects to cut down the daily ration slightly, and to substitute less fattening and less costly foods, pointing out that in the first week the members of the squad made a total gain of 24 3-4 pounds, and that the average had increased from 152.03 to 154.31.

IDENTIFY WEAPONS IN TIEPER MURDER CASE

Buffalo, Nov. 29.—The stories of witnesses on the scene in the two hours following the murder of Mrs. Agnes M. Teiper and her son Frederick, last January, were completed today, and District Attorney Moore prepared to take up the identification of the three alleged murder weapons, a revolver, a tire iron and a hammer.

The revolver, shots from which are alleged to have been fired into Mrs. Teiper's body after she had been beaten to death with a blunt instrument, was found by Richard H. Coley and Otto Webber, newspaper reporters. They also found a tire iron alleged to have been used by the murderer.

John Edward Teiper, the accused, at first denied in statements to the Buffalo police that the revolver belonged to him, but when ownership was traced by the factory number, he admitted that it was his, saying he at first feared acknowledgment would incriminate him. Police officers to whom Teiper told these contradictary stories were in court as witnesses.

Left 4 Millions To Teach Girls To Manage Home

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Nov. 29.—More than $4,000,000 is left to start a home for girls over the age of 10 years, where they can be educated to take up the cares of motherhood and wifehood, and the management of homes and the direction of housework, in the will of Lizzie M. Palmer, formerly of Great Neck, Long Island, who died there recently.

The home is to be founded in Detroit. The will states that the testator would have liked to initiate the work before her death, but there is nothing to show among the papers filed that the task had been started. Under the terms of the will, if the trustees appointed cannot carry out the work of establishing the home, the circuit court of Wayne County, Mich., is appointed to do it.

EFFICIENCY IN SUNDAY SCHOOLS IS DISCUSSED

Boys' Work Committee Holds Session at St. James' Church.

A general discussion of the standard efficiency test program and how it could be applied to Sunday schools of local churches was held at the first of a series of meetings of an advisory committee for boys' work in London at New St. James' Church last night. Nearly a hundred men and boys were present. "The New Program for Boys" was the topic of an address by E. D. Otter of Toronto, superintendent of Sunday school work. A demonstration of charity was given by Rev. W. R. MacIntosh.

Supper was served at 6:15 and the meeting closed at 8 o'clock. A vote of thanks was tendered the ladies of the church for their part in making the meeting a success.

Next Tuesday another meeting will be held at St. Paul's Cathedral to discuss how the program of work can be set up in London churches.

R. E. G. Davis and E. Reid will be the speakers.

SUB SHELLED CHEMUNG; FLEW AUSTRIAN FLAG

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 29.—Latest dispatches to the state department say the submarine, which sunk the American steamer Chemung on November 26 flew the Austrian flag and that the steamer was destroyed by shell fire as well as torpedoed. They repeat there was no loss of life and that the crew had opportunity to leave the ship.

HEADQUARTERS TAKES UP RETURNED SOLDIER'S CASE

Pte. Maycock in Financial Difficulties Over Transportation Muddle.

The case of Pte. Jos. Maycock, a returned C. A. M. C. man, who since returning to Canada has got into financial difficulties as a result of his having to pay out a large amount of money for ship passage for his wife and family after having been told that he could bring them to Canada for $10, is receiving the attention of headquarters. Lieut.-Col. W. J. Brown is taking the matter up and will communicate with the transportation officials in England. Apparently the transportation system broke down and the man was done an injustice. In the meantime he is receiving full pay and subsistance allowance and a separation allowance for his wife, a total of almost $72 per month, and it is claimed will soon be in a reasonably comfortable position.

CLEMENCY PETITIONS.—The petitions addressed to the governor-general asking for commutation of the death sentence passed on Mike Tancreade were mailed today to Hon. C. J. Doherty, Dominion minister of justice. Over 4,000 names were attached to the various copies of the petitions. The petition will receive consideration at a meeting in council and it may be some weeks before a decision is rendered.

ECZEMA ON FACE

Was So Bad Had To Stay in House.

All skin diseases such as eczema or salt rheum, itching or burning rashes, eruptions, ulcers, boils, pimples, etc., are all caused by bad blood, and while not usually attended with any fatal results, may sooner or later develop into some serious blood trouble, and the entire system become affected.

Burdock Blood Bitters, that old and well-known remedy, will cleanse the blood of all its impurities, and by this means cure all skin diseases and other blood troubles.

Mrs. Ernest Andrews, Hamilton, Ont., writes: "My face was covered with eczema and was so terribly bad I had to stay in the house. I had ten different doctors, but got so tired of their treatment that I went and bought a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and it helped me, so I kept on taking it. Now I am cured, and have a lovely skin.

"People who used to see me when I was so bad and see me now will not believe it, but I always tell them that nothing cured me but Burdock Blood Bitters."

B. B. B. is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

KILTIES ARE GOING HOME TODAY, AFTER INSTRUCTION HERE

Hope To Take Some More Londoners Along With Them.

London will see the last of the Kilties for some time when the members of the 241st Battalion, Canadian Scottish Borderers, who have been taking a course in infantry training, leave for Windsor today to join their battalion. Members of the battalion have been here since September, when a vigorous campaign for recruits was carried on at the Western Fair.

For the past few weeks they have been attending the Royal School of Instruction here, and their kilted uniforms have added a touch of the picturesque to London military life. The Highlanders are anxious to add more Londoners to their battalion, and although only a few hours remain, hope to take several new recruits from the Forest City to Windsor with them today.

The detachment here comprise about 21 men. They all pay high tribute to the training school here and those in charge of it. The school teaches them more than a drill and to shoot, they say; it teaches leadership and cultivates initiative. Every subject calculated to help a man in the battle of life during the war and after it is taught. The school is in charge of Capt. Cantin.

SARNIA MAGISTRATE DEALS LIGHTLY WITH BOXCAR MERCHANT

Takes Into Consideration Ignorance of Law.

FOREMAN HITS WORKMAN

Russian "Knocked Cold" in Mueller Plant—Tilbury Gas Not Failing.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

SARNIA, Nov. 28.—Joe Jaras, an Italian, who was charged with keeping liquor for sale in a boxcar at the tunnel station, appeared for trial this afternoon. After taking the evidence of the officers who made the arrest, and the party who had purchased the liquor from Jaras, he was convicted, and a fine of $200 and costs, $6.50, were imposed. The fine and costs being paid by his fellow-countrymen, the prisoner was released.

Chief Forbes was the first witness called, and stated that he had received several complaints that liquor was being obtained by and from foreigners in the vicinity of the tunnel, and with County Constable Lampel, armed with a search warrant, visited the tunnel. They noticed a foreigner coming across the tracks, and when he approached them they noticed a bottle of whisky protruding from his coat pocket.

Paid 60 Cents For It.

The foreigner, Mike Baranoski, informed the officers that he had purchased the liquor from an Italian in a boxcar, and had paid 60 cents for it. He exhibited the change, 40 cents, out of a dollar. A search of the car revealed one large bottle, one small bottle of liquor and an empty gallon jug, labeled "Walkerville." The occupant of the car denied that he was selling liquor, but stated that he had given it away to the man who said he was sick, and had taken no money. County Constable Lampel corroborated the evidence of the chief, and stated that he had made a second search of the car and had found more whisky and a sum of money.

It developed that Jaras had told other foreigners who obtained liquor from him that he had a license which cost him $500. In rendering his decision the magistrate took into account the fact that the defendant was a foreigner, and was not thoroughly aware of the severity of the law, and that he would impose the minimum penalty, which he thought would serve as a sufficient warning to his fellow-countrymen.

Again Port Huron.

John Gibson pleaded guilty to a charge of intoxication in this morning's police court, gave Port Huron as his source of supply, and paid a fine and costs, amounting to $30.

Made a Mess of Things.

John Deith, a Frenchman, who resides in the boarding-house of Eva Lafontaine, 226 Water street, appeared in the police court this morning on a charge of being drunk and disorderly and creating a disturbance in the lodging-house. The proprietress of the house testified that the prisoner was employed at the freight sheds at Point Edward on occasions, but was not a steady worker. Upon her return to the house from a trip to the city yesterday, she found the house "upside down," the table and several other articles of furniture were broken up. Deith denied breaking up the furniture, but as he was the only occupant of the house at the time, he was convicted and was fined $5 for being disorderly, and costs, $5, and $2 for damaging the furniture, or one month in jail.

Foreman Fined for Assault.

Michael Jackson, a foreman at the plant of the Mueller Manufacturing Company, was charged with unlawfully assaulting Roman Hunter November 25, to which he pleaded not guilty. G. Weatherill appeared for the defendant, and J. Cowan for the plaintiff. The plaintiff, who is a Russian, testified through Interpreter Lampel, that on November 25, while at work at one of the furnaces in the molding shop, the foreman had requested him to leave his work and attend to another man's work as they were short of help due to the absence of two other employees. Hunter refused to leave his furnace, and alleges that the foreman then choked him, and knocked him unconscious with a blow in the face, and he had remained in an unconscious condition for three hours, and had been removed to the hospital.

Completely Knocked Out.

Dr. Hayes, who attended the injured man, stated that he was called to the plant, and found the plaintiff, Hunter, in an unconscious condition, due to concussion from a blow. He was totally unconscious for about three-quarters of an hour, and did not wholly recover his faculties for about three hours.

Five witnesses, employed in the same room, gave their different versions of the assault as they had witnessed it.

Self-Defence Plea.

The defendant, Jackson, stated that when he had asked the plaintiff to leave his work and he had refused, he took him by the arm in a playful manner, and insisted that he come along, and when Hunter displayed anger and attempted to pick up an iron bar which was lying nearby, he took this as evidence that he was about to be attacked and "waded into the plaintiff," and in the scuffle had himself received several blows on the face at the hands of the plaintiff. He swore that Hunter did not grab hold of an iron pipe which ran up from the floor of the building and endeavor to pull away from him, as the plaintiff had testified, but that he had his back to the pipe.

The defendant was found guilty and fined $5 and costs, $16.50, and was ordered to pay the damages, due to the plaintiff's loss of work, doctor bill, hospital bill, etc., amounting to $15.

HYDRO BY NEW YEAR'S.

SARNIA, Nov. 28.—The work of installing the hydro system in this city is progressing rapidly, the iron standards on which the fancy lights for the main streets will be fastened, have been erected on Christina street, and the work of wiring these poles is now under way. The installation of the other equipment for the new juice at the electric light plant is nearing completion, and although the local manager of the hydro system would set no definite date for the turning on of the current, it is expected that another month will see the system ready for use. The work at Point Edward has been practically completed, and as soon as the new machinery is installed in the plant the stone company will be ready for operation.

TILBURY NOT PETERING OUT.

SARNIA, Nov. 28.—In commenting on the articles appearing in local and outside newspapers for some time back to the effect that the Tilbury gas fields are petering out, Secretary-Treasurer J. B. Williams of the Sarnia Gas Company stated to The Advertiser this morning that these statements "There is plenty of gas in the Tilbury fields from which this city is supplied," he declared, "and since the completion of the new pipe line the pressure of gas supplied to this city is greater than ever."

In regard to the notices sent out to the manufacturers, who are using this fuel, to lay in a supply of coal or other fuel for their use in extremely cold weather, he said, this was purely a protective measure for the public consumers. The amount of gas used by the public had increased nearly 30 per cent, and in extremely cold weather the manufacturers were requested to curtail their use of the gas, so as not to decrease the pressure to the public consumers. He further stated that there was no present danger of the supply playing out, and that if the pressure from the fields to this city were increased there would be a danger of breaking the new pipe line. The charts at the company's office show that the pressure has never been better, and in order to offset the false impression which has been created by articles published Mr. Williams wishes the facts to be known.

The "Live a Little Longer" Idea

IN Rochester, N.Y., there has been formed an association the object of which is to promote the "Live a Little Longer" idea. It aims to encourage men and women to give attention to their health, and by preventive methods to avoid serious disease and add years of happiness to their lives.

This idea is suited to people of all ages, but seems particularly applicable to persons of advancing years who feel their vitality on the wane. It is truly wonderful what is accomplished by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food under these circumstances.

By forming new, rich blood, and nourishing the starved, wasted nerve cells, it instils new life and vigor into the vital organs and enables them to perform their natural functions.

This means new strength and comfort, freedom from pain and disease, and longer life. This letter gives you some idea what old people may expect from the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Mrs. Sophia Baker, Tancook Island, Lunenburg Co., N.S., writes:—"I have been reading about people who have been cured by Dr. Chase's medines, and as I have obtained great benefit from the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I want to tell you my experience. I am an old woman of 80 years. My sleep was very poor, I could not eat anything, and my nerves were in a bad state. Hearing about the Nerve Food, I decided to use it, and must say that the five boxes I took helped me wonderfully. I never expect to be like I was at 50, but this treatment has helped me to sleep well, improved the appetite and built up the nerves. Anyone who wishes can write to me for full particulars.

50 cents a box, 6 for $2.50, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

Do not be talked into accepting a substitute. Imitations disappoint.

DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

CORN IS IN GREAT DEMAND.

SARNIA, Nov. 28.—Larger shipments of corn than ever in the history of this city are being brought in and sold to farmers this fall. The corn is shelled when landed, and will help out the feed problem where dairy cows or finished beeves are a specialty.

The oat crop for meal cannot be counted on this year, there is so little substance in the grain.

Further rains are hoped for since so many wells in the country have been taxed for so long a period. Plowing is again resumed with milder weather.

76 DAIRY COWS ENTERED FOR WINTER FAIR TEST

[Special to The Advertiser.]

GUELPH, Nov. 28. — The space allotted to the cows entered in the dairy test is almost half filled at the Winter Fair buildings today. The contest is going to be particularly keen this year. Holsteins and Aryshires are leading for the entries, there being 22 of the former, and 28 of the latter. Jerseys have 18.

There are still some dairymen who believe that the day of the dual-purpose animal will come, as shown by the entry of seven Shorthorns. There are 76 entries in all, and the remainder are made up of grades. The feeding of the animals on a select diet has already started. The testing period runs from 9 o'clock Thursday night until Sunday night at the same hour, making 72 hours in all. Holsteins have been winners for several years past.

D. A. Campbell has a string of fourteen thoroughbred horses that he has just brought in. McGregor of Brandon is not expected here this year.

REDEEMED PRISONER TELLS THRILLING TALE

[Special to The Advertiser.]

BLENHEIM, Nov. 28. — A large audience from town and the surrounding country listened with a great deal of interest last night to Sergt. Gibbons, of Toronto, in the opera house, tell of his experiences in the fight of St. Julien, and life as a prisoner in a German camp after being captured. He was wounded in the battle and taken care of by the Germans, after several escapes from being put to death by individual soldiers of the Germans. Once a she lay wounded on the field a soldier drew his bayonet to kill him; another time one coveted the ring on his finger, and proceeded to cut it off. All attempts were frustrated, and he was cared for with the other prisoners after the German wounded had been given first place. He was afterwards exchanged for a German prisoner, as he was considered unfit for further service.

Magistrate's Post Still Left Vacant

Rumor Has It A. H. M. Graydon Will Be Appointed.

The question of the appointment of a police magistrate to succeed Judge Judd has not yet been answered, although Hume B. Elliott, K. C., was considered the probable candidate. When Judge Judd was appointed junior judge, the arrangement was made between S. Frank Glass, M. P., and Geo. Elliott, M. P., that Mr. Elliott should get the place. It was on this condition that Mr. Glass decided to support Judge Judd when a deadlock developed among the three candidates, E. T. Essery, K. C., Mr. Elliott and P. M. Judd. The latter received his appointment, but the police court berth has not been given to Mr. Elliott.

It is rumored that A. H. Marshall Graydon will be named. Mr. Graydon stated emphatically that he was not seeking the position, and that he had not been offered it. Whether he would refuse it was not made manifest by Mr. Graydon.

In the meantime, the police court is being handled by Mayor Stevenson or any person else who happens to be handy.

POSTMASTER POINTS OUT DUTIES TO ED. LANCE

Refuses to Comment on Complaints Not Made Directly.

Accordingto Ed. Lance, secretary of the Soldiers' Aid Commission, two returned soldiers who were given temporary positions at the local postoffice have been unfairly treated. He says one was let out, but taken on again after a protest, and the other one is about to be let go. These men are Corp. Williams of the 6th Battery, and Pte. Featherstone of the 18th Battalion.

Postmaster Dr. MacDonald, asked about this, said it was Mr. Lance's duty to go to him if there were any complaints to be made, and until Mr. Lance realized his duty he (Dr. MacDonald), would make no comment on the story. As secretary of the commission, Mr. Lance was surely not supposed to delegate inquiries to the newspapers.

FUNERAL AT CREDITON.

The body of Henry Bauer, who died in this city on Wednesday, will be forwarded by Smith, Son & Clarke to Crediton via G. T. R. at 8:30 on Thursday. He was 73 years of age, and is survived by one son, Henry, of California; one sister, Mrs. Peter Woolley of Hensall, and one brother, Edward Bauer of Tavistock. Interment will be made at Crediton Cemetery on Friday.

TORONTO EX-CONTROLLER TO RUN IN BRANTFORD

[Special to The Advertiser.]

BRANTFORD, Nov. 28.—S. Alfred Jones, K.C., will be an aldermanic candidate at the coming elections here. He has had over twelve years experience on the board of control and board of education in Toronto. At least five of this year's council have stated their desire to retire and the only candidate announced for the mayoralty, so far, F. J. Calbeck, tailor, has decided not to run.

WEEKLY EUCHRE.—The first of a series of weekly social evenings for the men of the parish was held last night in St. Mary's Hall, Lyle street. A good crowd was present and a pleasant evening was spent. Euchre was played and some good prizes were offered for the winners. Edward Walsh winning a pipe.

VICE-REGAL PARTY AT GUELPH PRISON FARM

Devonshire Inspects Provincial Prison and Guelph College.

Toronto, Nov. 29.—While the ladies of the vice-regal party remained quietly at home this morning, the Duke of Devonshire, accompanied by Sir John Hendrie and his military secretary and aide, went to Guelph to visit the prison farm and the Agricultural college, in which, as one of the biggest farmers of the United Kingdom, he naturally takes a keen interest. At the college, Minister MacDiarmid of public works and the deputy minister of agriculture attended the party, and they were shown around the prison farm by Hon. W. J. Hanna, provincial secretary.

MORE PAY TO MEET HIGH COST OF LIVING

32,000 Employees of American Clothing Makers Receive Increase.

New York, Nov. 29.—An increase in pay of from 35 to 40 per cent to meet the increased cost of living will be given the 32,000 employees of members of the American Clothing Manufacturers' Association, beginning December 18, it was announced here today. The advance will represent an increase in wages of $8,000,000 a year.

Slightly more than half of the persons employed in the men's clothing trade in New York will be benefitted. Three fourths of them are men and the remainder women.

ANNIVERSARY AT LUCKNOW.

LUCKNOW, Nov. 28.—The Lucknow Methodist Church has passed another landmark in its history. The 31st anniversary was observed Sunday. Although not favored with good weather the service proved a success. Rev. Dr. Treleaven of Toronto, an old boy of this section, preached two interesting sermons. On Monday evening he gave a lecture entitled "Big Blunders," which delighted everyone.

SUFFERED WITH BACK FOR TEN YEARS.

Women are the greatest sufferers from weak, lame and aching backs, owing to the continual stooping, bending and lifting so necessary to perform their household duties.

The cause of the backache comes from some derangement of the kidneys, for were there not something wrong with the kidneys the back would be strong and well, and without a pain or an ache.

Doan's Kidney Pills will take out all the stitches, twitches and twinges, limber up the stiff back, and give perfect relief and comfort to all poor, weak-backed, suffering women.

Mrs. Chas. Thibeau, Church Point, N.S., writes: "For ten years I suffered with my back, and was so weak I could not do my washing or any hard work, just a little around the house. One day a friend advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills, and they helped me so much that after I had taken two boxes I could do my washing, and since then I have been in perfect health."

Doan's Pills are the original kidney pills. Do not accept any substitutes put up under similar names. See that you get the oblong grey box, the trade mark a "Maple Leaf."

Price 50c, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Specify "Doan's" if ordering direct.

CASH WILL APPEASE THE UNITED STATES FOR STEAMER SUNK

"Amount of Damages Only Question," Say Officials.

SANK WITH FLAG FLYING

Chemung, Torpedoed by German Sub, Flew Stars and Stripes to the Last.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—Lloyds reports that the American steamship Chemung has been sunk.

The Chemung sailed from New York on November 6 for Genoa and Naples, and stopped at Fayal, Azores, on November 26. She was owned by the Hardy Steamship Company of New York, was built in 1888 at Buffalo and was 327 feet long, of 2,662 tons gross.

CREW ALL SAFE.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—The crew of the Chemung has been landed at Valencia by the Spanish steamer Giner, says a Reuter dispatch from Valencia today.

The Chemung was torpedoed near Caneo De Gata, according to the dispatch.

The steamer foundered with the American flag flying. It is added, the captain having formally refused to lower the flag.

The submarine towed the crew to within five miles of the coast, the Valencia advices state, and then abandoned them. At the end of the day they were picked up by the Giner.

WASHINGTON UNCONCERNED.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—The official report on the destruction of the American steamer Chemung by a German submarine was received by the state department from the American consul at Valencia, Spain. He said all on board had been landed safely.

The case appears to be similar to the destruction of the American ships William P. Frye and the Leelanaw, both carrying contraband, damages for which are to be awarded by diplomatic negotiations. As there was no loss of life nor apparent violation of Germany's pledges the case is not regarded as alarming.

In the long-argued case of the W. P. Frye Germany agreed that an American ship carrying contraband and sunk because a submarine could not get her into port, should be paid for in full. The amount of damages is thought to be the only subject for negotiations in the present case.

The manifest of the Chemung's cargo filed on date of sailing shows that it consisted mainly of iron and steel products, chemicals, dried fish, wooden staves, etc. Included in the cargo was 5,146 pieces of copper and 200 bales of cotton.

CREW REFUSED TO LOWER FLAG.

PARIS, Nov. 28—(Censored).—A Madrid dispatch by wireless announces the arrival at ——— of the crew of the American steamer Chemung, torpedoed in ——— by a German submarine. The commander gave the crew only a few minutes to abandon the vessel, not allowing them to take even their money and papers.

The submarine towed the lifeboats, in which the crew were placed, to within five miles of the coast, where it abandoned them. The Chemung went down with the Stars and Stripes floating at her mast.

Resist Attack On Flag.

A lively incident preceded the sinking of the vessel. The German commander gave orders that the American flag should be lowered, and German sailors prepared to put them into effect. They met with stubborn resistance on the part of Captain Duffy and his crew, who refused to haul down the colors, saying that if the ship had to be sunk, it would be with the flag flying.

Captain Duffy maintained his ground, and so rapidly were the preparations to sink the Chemung made that further discussion about the flag ceased, and after the captain and crew had been taken abroad the submarine a torpedo and three shells sent against the side of the American ship put her to the bottom.

Although angry at the action of the German commander, Captain Duffy and his men had some measure of satisfaction in seeing the flag at the masthead as the waves finally engulfed their ship.

The Chemung was registered at New York and carried a crew of 24. They found a place in two life boats and after a time on the open sea were picked up by a Spanish steamer, which took them to Valencia. Captain Duffy has made a long report of the incident to the American consul at Valencia, John R. Putnam.

FORMER GREAT LAKES CRAFT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The Chemung, which was built in Buffalo, was a sister ship of the Owego, and both were employed in the Great Lakes trade at one time. They were fitted with triple expansion engines and were the forerunners of the type of vessel, both for the navy and the merchant marine. In the latter eighties they plied between Chicago and Buffalo, making about eighteen knots, which then was considered as setting the record for speed.

IF STRENGTH DECLINES AS AGE ADVANCES FOLLOW THIS SUGGESTION

So many women grow old before their time, perhaps your wife or sister, Boston, U. S. A. A little while ago, buoyant, full of vigor and activity—she enjoyed life and imparted pleasure to the whole family; but now in a few short years she has faded and lost color and strength. She is just ready to develop some disease that will further weaken and debilitate. You remember how it began, failure of appetite, tired in the morning, found housework burdensome, always nervous and a little irritable. It's a shame to let her go down hill further when you can build her up so quickly with Ferrozone. The change this nourishing tonic makes in a weak woman is surprising. It gives great zest for food, increases appetite and digestion enormously. The blood gets richer and stronger and adds new life to every organ in the body. A rebuilding process works through the entire system. The first week will show an improvement, and a month or two will fatten up the thinnest, most rundown woman you can think of. Take Ferrozone for lost color, for nervousness, for weakness—use it when rundown and feeling poorly—it will do you more lasting good, keep you in better health, than anything else. Just as good for men and children, too, because Ferrozone is harmless and safe. 50c per box or six for $2.50, at all dealers, or direct by mail from the Catarrhozone Company, Kingston, Ont.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens so Naturally Nobody Can Tell.

The oldtime mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening grey, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the grey hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure mitigation or prevention of disease.

New York Women Win First Round In H. C. of L. Battle

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—New York's campaign to reduce the high cost of living began today in earnest by a boycott on eggs by thousands of housewives. This was followed by a direct appeal by the National Housewives' League to President Wilson for the regulation of the country's food supply, and meetings of federal, state and city officials and investigating committees, as well as various civic organizations, at which resolutions were adopted looking to a speedy readjustment of conditions. Coincidental with the egg, there was a break in the poultry market, the price of turkeys dropping from four to five cents a pound.

Virtually every branch of the municipal government was at work today in an effort to find a solution to the food problem. A statement issued by Israel Fienberg, president of the board of coroners, declared that "the present high cost of living is directly reflected in an increase in the number of suicides, deaths from lack of proper nourishment, and birth control."

EVEN TURKS FLOUT UNITED STATES WITH APPARENT SAFETY

Refuse to Allow Interned Americans to Leave.

OBJECT TO INVESTIGATION

Washington Says Situation Requires 'Delicate Handling,' Diplomacy Being Useless.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Word that the Turkish Government has rescinded its previous agreement to allow several hundred Americans to leave the Turkish Empire via Jaffa, reached the state department today from Ambassador Elkus at Constantinople. The ambassador was informed that the Americans can not be permitted to depart because of military necessity, and that the official who made the previous agreement spoke without authority.

Diplomacy seems to have been exhausted in the situation, and it is not known what action may be taken in an effort to bring Turkey to terms. The practical internment of the Americans is a source of anxiety to their friends and indignation to the Government. It is said to be an unprecedented situation which will require most delicate handling.

The exact number of persons affected cannot be learned owing to the fact that direct communication with shore is not permitted. Many are said to be naturalized Syrians and Armenians, though a number of native American missionaries are known to be included.

The American cruiser Des Moines now at Alexandria, is due shortly at Jaffa, where she had been expected to take on the refugees. It is understood now, however, that officers from the vessel will not even be allowed to land to investigate conditions.

KAISER SAYS PRAYERS AT BIER OF FRANCIS

Talks With Young Imperial Couple at Austrian Capital.

[Canadian Press.]

Amsterdam, via London, Nov. 29.—A Berlin official telegram says that the German Emperor arrived in Vienna in the forenoon yesterday, but left the city in the evening. Owing to a slight cold, the emperor's physicians prevailed upon him to abandon his intention of attending the funeral of Emperor Francis Joseph. The telegram says:

"The German Emperor refused to renounce his duty of bidding farewell, both personally and as supreme lord of the allied German forces to the deceased ruler. The emperor stayed quietly in prayer at the bier of Francis Joseph on which he laid a wreath. The emperor especially requested that no official reception be accorded him. The day was thus devoted quietly to the memory of the deceased, and to a talk with the young imperial couple, with whom the emperor expressed an urgent desire to have a long visit in these earnest days."

DE GIERS MAY HAVE RUSS FOREIGN POST

If Appointed Will Pursue Same Policy as Sazonoff.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Nov. 29.—A semi-official dispatch from Petrograd says that Count Bobrinsky has been removed as minister of agriculture and appointed grand master of the imperial court.

Michael De Giers, Russian ambassador to Rome, will probably be appointed foreign affairs minister in the new Trepoff cabinet, according to a Petrograd dispatch to the Morning Post. The dispatch says that, if appointed, M. Giers will pursue the same policy as that associated with the name of Serius Sazonoff, namely the complete solidarity of Russia and her Allies.

RUMANIANS WRECK RAILWAY TO BLOCK GERMANS' ADVANCE

Confident, Although Foe Is Near Capital.

LOOKING TO RUSSIANS

Hope of Entente Pinned on Sakharoff's Dobrudja Counter-Move.

DESTROY RAILWAY.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—Dispatches from the German armies in Rumania, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen, report that the Rumanians have destroyed the railway from Tchernavoda to Bucharest and are burning all the villages and stores of food in the course of their retreat.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—With the forces of the central powers in possession—according to German official reports, which hitherto have proved accurate, with regard to recent events in Rumania—of Curtea de Arges, an important railway terminus 90 miles from Bucharest and Giurgiu, on the railway, 40 miles southwest of the capital, anxiety as to the fate of Bucharest is greatly increased.

Field Marshal von Mackensen's capture of Giurgiu shows that this army has advanced 20 miles in a single day. Further, a Bulgarian official communication claims that the Danube has been crossed near Lom-Palanka and Vidin, and the town of Kalafatu, opposite Vidin, captured.

Nothing is yet admitted by the Rumanians of these enemy advances, but it is assumed that the Rumanians are continuing their orderly retirement toward the line of the Argesiu River. A danger, however, lies in the possibility of this retirement not being effected quickly enough to prevent an attack on their rear flank from von Mackensen's forces at Giurgiu, from which point there is both rail and direct road communication to Bucharest.

Was Rumania Asset?

It is impossible to doubt that the situation is viewed here with the greatest misgivings. The question is being frankly asked whether the accession of Rumania to the Allies' cause has brought strength or weakness, whether Russia has rendered the assistance which might have been expected from her, and whether the Allies might not have shown more initiative in attack from Saloniki; whether the collapse in Rumania is due to any lack of unity in the Allies' plans, or strategy, or whether it is due in large part to Rumania's hasty invasion of Transylvania.

On the other side of the account it has been noted that continued confidence is being displayed in Rumanian military and political circles, where the suggestion that Russia has not rendered all possible aid is warmly repudiated, and the Rumanians appear fully convinced that it will not be long before the great efforts Russia is making will bear effective fruit. They point out that the Germans have failed to secure any great number of prisoners or guns, and that the position of the Rumanian armies in the matter of guns and supplies is daily improving, thanks to the Allies' redoubled efforts.

Forecast Attention on Dobrudja.

In the meantime all eyes are turned to Dobrudja, where it is hoped Lieut.-Gen. Sakharoff, commander of the Rumanian army, may succeed in retrieving the situation by a counter-move against von Mackensen's forces in that quarter, and in the northern frontier passes, where it is hoped the Rumanians will be able to stem the further advance of von Falkenhayn's armies. Should these hopes be realized, it is believed that the Rumanians may be able to make a stand on the Argesiu River, and save their capital.

ITALY SHORT OF COAL; CAN'T PROCURE GAS

[Canadian Press.]

Rome, Nov. 29.—The high price and scarcity of coal threatens to close up the gas companies in Italian cities. This is especially true in Turin where two companies have declared that they will be unable to furnish gas after a few weeks unless England sends coal according to an agreement which they say was made before the renewal of the German submarine campaign.

The gas companies throughout the country also declare that they are being forced into bankruptcy by being compelled to fill contracts made with municipalities before the war. One solution offered is the use of electricity which is relatively cheap for cooking and heating. As a move in this direction Wm. Marconi, the inventor, has just accepted the task of reorganizing the Roman municipal electric plant.

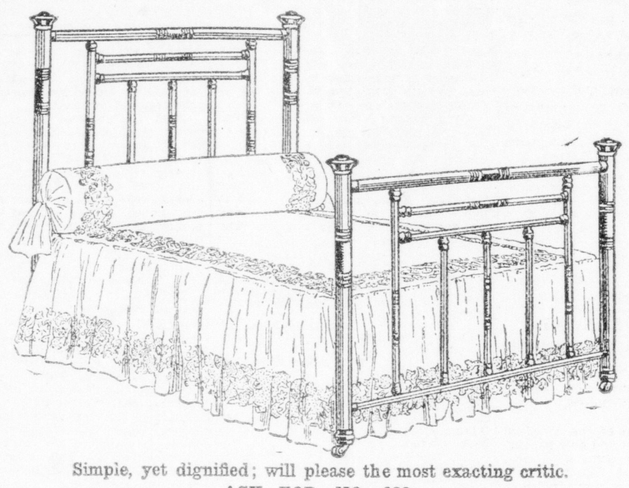

TWO VALUABLE CARGOES.

Fort William, Nov. 29.—The American steamers Charles Hubbard and E. D. Ohl cleared the local harbor today for Buffalo with the most valuable cargo of grain taken out this season. Those vessels carried combined 510,000 bushels of flax, which it is stated sold for about $2.30 per bushel, making their cargoes equivalent in value to over $1,325,000.

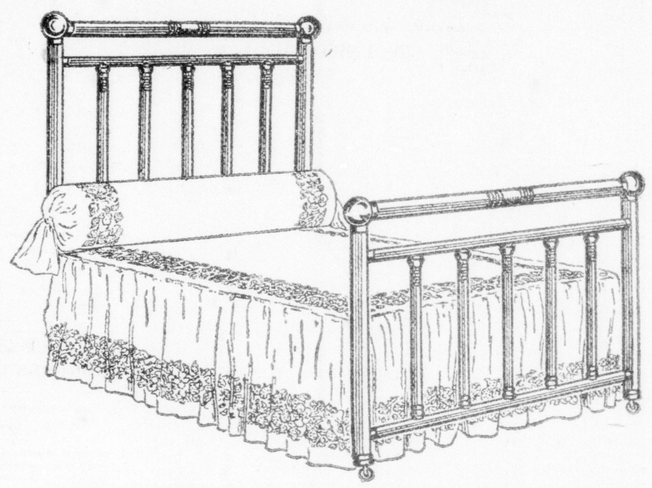

Navigation for the package freighters will close tomorrow, at midnight. Extension of policies may be had to December 11. Out of 1,607,000 bushels shipped today only 184,000 bushels went to Canadian ports.

TABLOID NEWS OF CANADA, THE WAR AND THE WORLD

Emil Verhaeren, the Belgian poet, was crushed to death at Rouen while endeavoring to board a train. The French Government has been requested by Senator Marchand to hold a national funeral for Verhaeren. He suggests that his body be placed in the pantheon, there to be held until Belgium is freed.

Frank P. Tinker has been made divisional freight agent of the C. P. R. at Ottawa. He was formerly chief clerk in divisional freight agent's office at St. Johns.

U. S. Government officials claim to have positive information that the evacuation of Chihuahua City, Mexico, by Carranza forces was due to shortage of ammunition.

Phil Morrisey, assistant to the vice-president of the C., B. and Q., and formerly head of the Railway Trainmen's Brotherhood, died at his home in Galesburg, Ill. He was 54 years of age.

Mrs. Mary Feeney of Montreal, was beaten into insensibility and robbed of her jewelry, $20 in money, and a railroad ticket to Montreal, by a man who waited for her in the hallway of the New York home she was visiting.

The militia guard, which has been on duty at the international bridge at Vanceboro, Maine, since the attempt made by Werner Horn, a German, to destroy it, has been withdrawn. C. P. R. detectives will guard the bridge now.

Shots accidentally fired from the British Leyland liner, Scythian, pierced the smokestack of the public health service steamer Neptune, at the mouth of the Mississippi River on Saturday. The American authorities say the shooting was accidental.

The steamer which sent out S. O. S. calls early yesterday off Sable Island was the French steamer Pro Patria which runs between Halifax, Sydney and St. Pierre and Miquelon. She has been refloated. At first it was reported that it was the French liner Amerique, which was stranded.

LARGE STORES OF FRANCE TAXED ON TURNOVERS

All Doing Business in Excess of 2,000,000 Francs Must Pay.

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, Nov. 29.—The Senate, which is debating the income tax bill, has adopted a clause taxing the profits of large stores of which the annual turnover exceeds 2,000,000 francs. The tax is one per cent on profits or turnovers from 2,000,000 to 5,000,000, 2 per cent up to 50,000,000, 3 per cent from 50,000,000 to 100,000,000, 4 per cent from 100,000,000 to 200,000,000, 5 per cent above 200,000,000.

An amendment proposing an all-round tax of 2 per cent was rejected. Minister of Finance Ribot said that this would be hard on the smaller big stores. In this connection he mentioned a certain unnamed store which paid the state 358,000 francs as license fee on a turnover of 232,000,000 francs. Under the new scheme this store would pay 430,000 francs.

OBJECT TO TISZA ATTENDING CROWNING

[Canadian Press.]

Amsterdam, via London, Nov. 29.—A Budapest dispatch to the Cologne Gazette says that the Hungarian opposition is working hard to prevent Premier Tisza from assisting the Hungarian cardinal at the coming coronation of Emperor Charles. The ground of the opposition campaign is that Count Tisza a Protestant. Efforts were made to influence the cardinal, but he declared that the first official in the kingdom could not be pushed into the background at the coronation.

STRIKING MINERS RETURN TO WORK PENDING "PROBE"

Accept Equivalent of Increased Living Cost.

GOVT. ORDERS PROBE

Its Findings Will Be Basis for New Western Coal Field Agreement.

OTTAWA, Nov. 28. — Following the conferences here between the representatives of the Government and the miners' unions, the Fernie district 18 coal strike has been called off. Messrs. Graham and Rees, the men's representatives, this afternoon wired instructions west that the men return to work.

The department of labor's fair wage officer at Calgary, Fred Harrison, will immediately investigate the cost of living at Fernie, B. C., Lethbridge and Calgary, between July 1 and November 22. The miners are willing to accept the equivalent of this increase in lieu of the 25 per cent war bonus which they made as their first demand. After Mr. Harrison reports the matter will be taken up anew with the operators.

Harrison is also to probe the allegations that immediately after each wage increase to the men the local merchants to the same or greater extent advance the price of commodities.

SYMPATHETIC STRIKE.

FERNIE, B. C., Nov. 28. — This morning the Fernie coke oven employees laid down their tools in sympathy with the miners who suspended, demanding a war bonus increase proportionate with the increased cost of living.

The residents of Coalhurst thus found themselves without water. The company operating the mines there also controls the water supply system, and without warning it cut off the water to the inhabitants.

HOSPITAL SHIP WAS TORPEDO'S VICTIM

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—The Lloyds report received late today at the state department lists the Braemer Castle as torpedoed. It also reported the torpedoing of the Norwegian steamer Banztead on November 23, and the sinking of the Norwegian steamers Olfjel and Tryn and the British steamers Emlynderne and Jerseyman. Dates were not given.

Van Goenen Torchiana, Dutch consul general at San Francisco, who has been here in conference with the Netherlands Government, has been ordered to Washington on a special mission to confer with Secretary of State Lansing. Mr. Van Goenen Torchiana will sail for the United States next Tuesday on the Holland liner Noordam.

STATES WANTS MORE DATA AS TO MARINA

[Canadian Press.]

Berlin, Via London, Nov. 29.—The German foreign office has asked the American embassy for further details as to the place and circumstances of the sinking of the British steamer Marina. It is said that the information offered in the American note of inquiry is insufficient for the purposes of investigation.

Bride of 70 Years Sues Groom of 76 on Plea of Alimony

BRANTFORD, Nov. 28.—With six cases entered, and Hon. Justice Britton presiding, the non-jury supreme court sittings were opened at the courthouse here this morning. An action for alimony was the first case taken up. The plaintiff, Emily H. Smith, over 70 years of age, married to Joseph Smith, her fourth husband, last summer, is now suing for alimony, claiming her husband refuses to support her. Smith is 76 years of age. After six weeks of married life, Mrs. Smith claims he left her with 30 cents and a little charcoal to live on. Smith was ordered to pay $2 a week towards her support.

NOTED DIVINE TO SPEAK.

INGERSOLL, Nov. 28.—The Canadian Club will have as their guest at a luncheon at the Ingersoll Inn Thursday evening, Rev. Bruce Taylor of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Montreal. His reputation as a speaker has preceded him, and the members of the Canadian Club are anticipating an "intellectual treat. Mr. Taylor will discuss, "A Chaplain at the Front," and doubtless will give considerable first-hand information pertaining to the war.

GEORGE SHIPWAY DEAD.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 29.—George Shipway, statistical secretary of the World's Sunday School Association, is dead at his home in Birmingham, England, according to information received here by H. J. Heinz, chairman of the association. He was one of the most prominent Sunday school workers in Europe.

A "PRINCE" JAILED.

Venice, via Paris, Nov. 29.—An individual calling himself Prince Edward of Bourbon, pretender to the throne of Albania, has been condemned to three years' imprisonment for defrauding hotels in the war zone. He is said to be a gas collector of Milan named Carlo Lorito.

CANADA IS NOT AN UNINVADED COUNTRY.

THE AVERAGE CANADIAN would hold a low opinion of the native of France who sought refuge in this country to escape military service. With his feet on uninvaded ground, such a Frenchman would be free to spurn the need of his mother land; he would walk about the streets of London or Toronto without concern as to whether the Germans broke through at Verdun or defeated the Allies on the Somme. He would be that type of man, who would fail to heed the call of France. Those in Canada who believe the present war to be one of Christian ideals against the powers of evil would regard such a Frenchman with contempt. He would be antithetical to every conception of the brave figures that rise to stand forever in the world's eye, with Joffre above them all as the serene father of France, the consecrated. The sort of Frenchman who would leave his country in her hour of life struggle and place an ocean between danger and himself would be an unnatural son. He would be an outcast for all time with those Frenchmen who have lived through the strewing of French bodies about Douaumont and Vaux, who have cast aside all but honor to serve in the spirit of the republic. He would not be regarded as a desirable type of settler for Canada.

Yet how closely would such a slinking Frenchman approximate the Canadian type of manhood that does not know—does not desire to know—does not heed, or does not concern himself above the duties imposed by the dictates of selfishness? He may think the Canadian has his feet on uninvaded soil. That is true only in the physical, geographical sense alone, however. In reality, in the spirit of the Allied arms, France today is Canada and Canada is France. We are uninvaded only through the same good fortune that placed Niagara Falls in Ontario rather than in Flanders. Every foot of ground in this Dominion is invaded by German tribes of heavy-footed, brutal-handed soldiers, in a spiritual sense, as Belgium and the northern part of France are invaded. Peaceful, comfortable existence is only our portion in the location of so much land and water. We have sent nearly 300,000 altruists to prove that peaceful, comfortable existence is not our portion. They realized that this country was invaded in the spirit, if not in the flesh.

Ten thousand more such men are needed and needed now in No. 1 Military District. That is the simple statement of how many men we have fallen short of our "appropriation." It is no reproach that the call is again heard for more than 30,000 have already volunteered; it is a greater force of soldiers from a few counties that never dreamed of war three years ago, than Canada ever considered would be necessary to send from her shores; it is almost as great a force as has been sent from the entire province of Quebec. But by ten thousand men it fails to meet the promissory note to the Allied cause which was issued by Sir Robert Borden. It falls ten thousand men short of meeting the obligation imposed upon all men of any nationality to remove the fangs of the tiger from the throat of the Belgian nation.

When Canadians come to feel that aside from the debt to humanity, aside from the innate covenant to protect the weak, there is the demand for self-protection, there will be no further lagging. "The Hun is at the gate" in spirit. Only our protectors on land and sea keep him from our homes. Bodily, he cannot attack us unless we meet him on that ground which is Canada through the devotion of that alliance of nations true to the principles of civilization. But who shall permit others to bear all the blows?

MAIL BEATS THE CABLE.

DESPITE THE fact that some 3,500 clerks are employed in the Canadian Pay and Records Office in Old London, it seems that this department (which absorbs three battalions of Canadians who enlisted for active service) has not time to notify all relatives of the death or wounding of their kin at the front.

Two instances of this intolerable state of affairs have just come to the notice of The Advertiser. In one case, a mother heard some time ago that her son had been killed. This came by the letter route, and she was loath to believe it, yet it caused her an anguish mixed with doubt. More than a week later she heard in an official telegram that the intimation received by mail was all too true. Weeks had elapsed before the word was received, and an experience worse than the abrupt breaking of news was the mother's part.

Again, an employee of The Advertiser, who has two sons at the front, received a letter from one of them last night, stating that the boy was in a hospital with shrapnel wound. This was the first the father had heard of it. An official notification, with all the facilities of the Pay and Records Office and the cable at its command, cannot bring the news as quickly as a letter written by a wounded man or his companion.

Is it necessary to add a few more hundred clerks to the Pay and Records staff, or have several hundred been resting up after fatiguing duty? Is it necessary to have soldiers who enlisted for active service in this office at all? Surely older men and men disqualified through some physical defect could wield a pen. The numbers employed is not the only scandal, however, as the cases mentioned above go to prove.

MODERN GIANT KILLERS.

THE GERMANS send out great bloated giants to feast on women and children, but Britain's modern Jack-o'-the-Bean-Stalks climb on the wings of the night to the ogres' lair and smite them to earth. Giant-killers indeed are these boys of the air service and one supposes it is now a tradition in the flying arm that he who has not winged a zepp (or a Boelke) has his heavenly spurs to win.

Canadians are represented in the flying service and are doing their bit to maintain the quickly-wrested supremacy of the air. What standards of valor have been set in the flying ships will make for new moral stamina in all the race, to its farthest-flung borders.

Ye knyghtes of the ancient tournament would have stood in their stirrups and stared aghast could they see to what heights (!) has been carried Britain's badge of chivalry. And it is no mere wanton bravery of the professionals the boys of the air service show. Aerial protection is the grimmest business of the whole cataclysmic struggle. Think of what a real terror the zepps might have become had not the youth of Britain gained the air mastery in a few months over the hate-spouting count's evil and deadly contrivances! The British have been wonderful in hauling up to the Germans and beating them out! He who refers to the slow-moving Britisher is barren of intelligent appreciation of the most marvellous display of emergency thoroughness the world has ever known.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The seductive fruit that grows on the advertising tree begins to taste like Christmas.

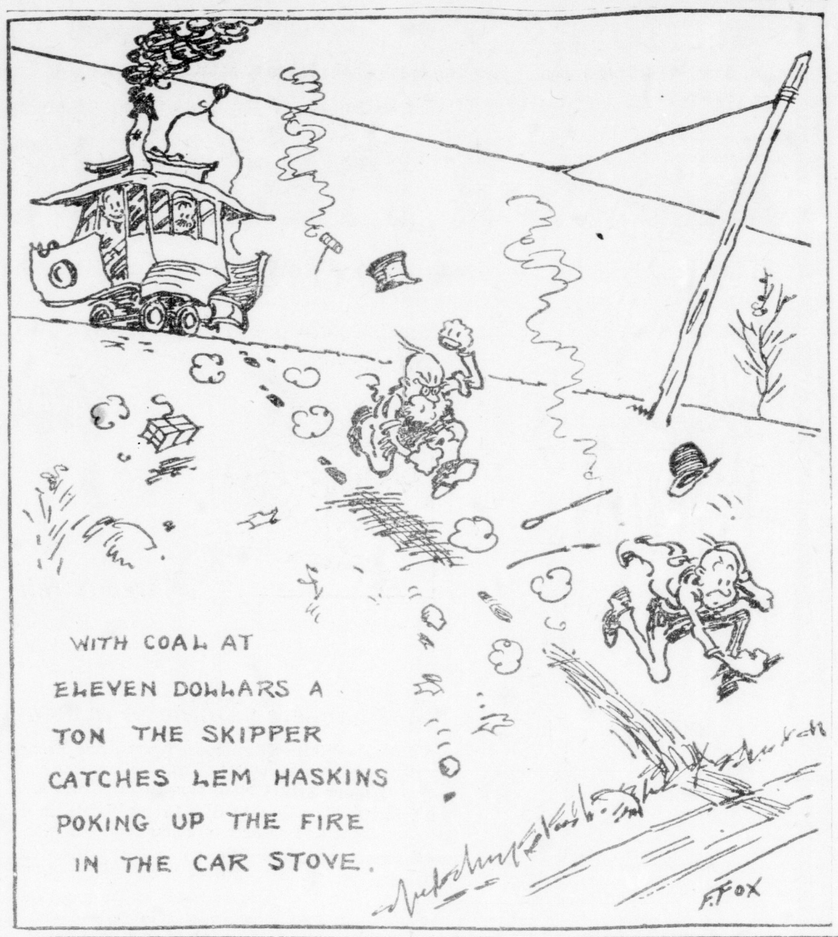

Germany doesn't recognize Venizelos. Well, he has done his level best to offend the kaiser.

Every cent above actual expenses, in which no advertising charge is figured, received from the Frederick Palmer lecture, will be devoted by The Advertiser to a patriotic cause. Hear Palmer and help the Allies!

If crime will out, so, too, will justice. Dr. Robert Macgregor, whose parental home is in this city, has been pardoned of complicity in the Sparling case by Governor Ferris of Michigan. His friends in London have always stoutly maintained his innocence, and though he has undergone the worst ordeal that may come to a man, he will be received in Canada with honor and sympathy. Governor Ferris of Michigan is to be commended for his determination to do justice to the young physician.

The Escape

BY ANITA REYBURN.

The girl with a loose white sweater over her evening dress to guard against the cool of the night, passed like a shadow from column to column of the terrace, passed tall flower-filled urns, a fountain and statues glistening white in the moonlight. At the top of the broad steps that led down to the river, she paused under a spreading tree.

Sounds of music came faintly from the house, white and palatial, with lights in all of its hundred windows. It stood against the black background of the hill, and with the moon illuminating the beautiful valley and river below, the whole scene was magical.

"It is magic," the girl breathed," and life is wonderful if we don't ruin it, poor silly mortals that we are."

She hesitated, then started down the steps, cautiously keeping in the shadow of the high stone rail.

At the foot of the flight, a boathouse snuggled against the slope and beside it lay a yacht pointing seaward like a great white bird ready for flight. She remembered with relief that the captain and crew were in the house, having a share in the festivities of the wedding rehearsal.

The groom was to arrive that evening and the bridal party was assembled and guests were invited to receive the wonderful person of title who was to wed the family fortune in exchange for a coronet.

She passed on, spurning launches and motor boats of various kinds, and chose a rowboat rocking gently on the easy swell of the water.

Gathering her skirts close, she got in and pulled a long, easy stroke up the river. Two miles away was a favorite haunt of hers, a flat, grassy dell, where willows hung over a clear little stream that lost its identity here with the big river. Violet purpled it in the spring and under the trees grew arbutus and trilliums.

The little boat swung into the haven as she rested one oar, and slid in under the willows. Moonlight filtering through the tiny leaves made a wonderful lacework of shadow on the water.

"It is fairyland," breathed the girl softly, and the place caught the echo and sent it back to her.

"It is heaven!" said the echo, and, lo, the voice was masculine.

She looked around surprised and not displeased, for the voice had thrilled her.

"Better than heaven! It's here and heaven is yet to come," she answered.

"Fairyland then, and you are Titania."

"Yes, I am Titania. And who are you, mysterious stranger?"

"Oberon! Didn't you guess?"

"Stupid of me, good king of the fairies! Won't you come out where I can see you, or are you living up to your promise never to meet me in the moonlight?"

"I'll emerge, fairy queen, instantly. I forgot that Titania and Oberon were only invisible to each other when they quarreled. But before I come out of my hiding place can you tell me anything of the whereabouts of Puck, or Robin Goodfellow, as he is called, who knows where the flower grows called 'Love in Idleness?' I would commission him to lay some of its magical juice on your eyelids so that you would fall in love with the first person you look upon."

"But I don't care to fall in love with any one," she laughed. "I don't think I shall call you Oberon, either. He was a mischief-maker, and led Titania a terrible life. Remember how he put the ass's head on the clown and caused her to fall in love with him?"

"That isn't a fairy trait. It's very human. Many people love as they are told—and marry also."

An odd look crossed her face. "Come out, kind stranger. Be you Oberon, Puck or the donkey-headed clown, I should like to see you," she coaxed.

"Very well. Since you ask the favor I'll come."

And then the branches rustled and a canoe slid out of the willows quite close to her. The girl saw how erect he sat and his strong, clear features. Susceptible to his smile and voice, she felt her heart beating strangely. Her answer was irrelevant. "Isn't this a truly wonderful night?"

"It is—because you are here!"

"And aren't people foolish to stay indoors?"

"They are—when you are outside."

"And why do people have stupid weddings?"

"Because two people are in love.'

"No. Not always! Do you know I've just run away from a wedding, or rather the preliminaries. The real wedding is tomorrow."

He was instantly interested. "You don't say so! And who, pray, is the bride?"

She told him.

"Ah! And you?" he asked. "What have you to do with it all?"

"I," she said, "I am in the bridal party."

"I am going to confess, too," he added. "I am in the bridal party also."

"What! You!"

"Yes. And drawn by the beauty of the night I ran off just as you did. We're both in the same boat."

She laughed delightedly. "My sin is less heinous now," she said, "since I have company."

"And we are not in the same boat, either, are we?" he broke in. "But I would like to be if you allow. We could have a little journey of our own up this wonderful river."

"I'd love it," she said. "And I'll show you how substantial I am when it lifts." She stood up and held out her hand, and as he took it she sprang lightly from one rocking boat to the other and settled herself in the low seat facing him.

"Where to?" he asked.

"Let's go out on the river and——"

"Never come back?" he said, impetuously.

"Never come back!" she breathed. A spell was over her—strong, real, enduring. She wanted to drift on anywhere, forever and always with this stranger who had taken her heart by storm.

"Let us forget the world," he went on earnestly. "Forget alliances made by families whose allegiance to their country would sacrifice love on the altar of Mars."

"And let us forget," she added, not quite understanding, "alliances made by parents who tell daughters that they must marry as they are advised.

"I love you," he said softly.

"And I love you," she breathed.

He nodded toward the shore. "There is a village and a parson. Will you marry me now, dear, tonight?"

"Yes. But first I must tell you that I who ran away was to be the bride."

"And I?" he cried ecstatically, drawing her to him as the boat touched shore, "was to be the bridegroom. The gods are kind, indeed!"

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

A Smooth, White Skin That Defies Weather

During the coming months of biting winds and intense cold, you who would keep your skins smooth, white and velvety, should turn your attention to mercolized wax. Nothing else will so effectively remove a chapped, roughened or discolored surface. By gradually absorbing the weather-beaten cuticle, the complexion is kept in perfect condition, and even the beauty of expression appears more pronounced. If your skin be blotchy, pimply, freckled, coarse, sallow or over-red, why not shed it? One ounce of ordinary mercolized wax, to be had at any druggist's, will completely transform the most unsightly complexion in less than a fortnight. Use the wax nightly, like cold cream, washing it off mornings.

If weather, age or poor health has marred your face with wrinkles, here's good news. You can quickly remove every line by using a harmless, refreshing face lotion prepared by dissolving one ounce of powdered saxolite in a half-pint witch hazel. The firmer, smoother skin, the more youthful appearance, even after one application, will astonish you.—Advt.

Belgians are Starving While Canadians Have Plenty

Our Heroic Allies Deserve More Help than We are Giving

An accident of geography, and the fortunes of war, have subjected Belgium to the cold-blooded, calculated cruelty and attempted starvation of the German conquerors—while we in Canada, secure from danger, are making money out of the War.

Legitimate though our profits are, we surely owe a substantial share of them to our Allies, who are destitute because they dared stand up for their rights and defy the enemy.

We have given much—but barely enough to help keep the Belgians alive. More of them every week are calling for help, as their own resources are exhausted, and every one of the millions should have something more than the three slices of bread and the pint of soup which is all the Relief Commission can supply out of present contributions.

If you have been helping, do more if you can till the war is over and Belgium is free. If you have not given yet, will you make up for lost time with a substantial contribution? Better still, will you give, every month, enough to feed one or more Belgian families, at the rate of $2.50 each per month?

Whatever you can afford to give, send your subscription weekly, monthly, or in one lump sum to Local or Provincial Committees, or

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn. No letter can be answered privately.]

Born Near Coventry.

Dear Miss Grey, and All the Mail-Box Readers,—It was very interesting and true what "Mrs. Homebird" wrote. I think it is only the farmer that is retired or who has been farming ten or fifteen years, who doesn't feel the pinch this year in regard to the high cost of living; they can buy in 300 or 400 pounds of sugar when it is only $7 per cwt., and other things, but we beginners have to buy little by little, and do not escape the high prices. Some of the small farmers just beginning will do well to pay even their interest this year. When our crops fail it is done for, and no matter what price groceries go to, we have to pay, but the city man still has his check for his work, and wages are good now in most cities, and so can meet the high prices far better than the farmer of one or two years.

I saw a letter from a lady from Coventry. I was born ten miles from Coventry (Leamington Spa). I often think of when I went to Coventry. I saw a statue of a man peeping out of a building, and he was called "Peeping Tom," looking at Lady Godiva. I would like to give to your prisoners' fund, but I have four brothers and a nephew at the front, and, of course, charity begins at home with me.

Dear Miss Grey, please answer me this one question: Is it right for a trustee's wife (who has no children attending same) to interfere with a caretaker's work in cleaning the school, etc., and letting the ratepayers know by means of the telephone that the same school is not looked after? I would like to know before writing the inspector on the subject, as in his report he wrote, caretaker's work, "well done," and oblige.

ROYAL LEAMINGTON SPA.

Ans.—Because her husband is trustee gives the woman no right to generally report negligence or otherwise on the part of the caretaker. If she observed or was advised of carelessness she should have reported the matter to her husband, whose place it is to interview the caretaker in regard to the complaint. No need to notify the inspector of the same until the caretaker has been given a chance, at least. The trustee's wife has acted without authority in telephoning the complaint to the community.

Cavell Memorial Fund.

Cynthia Grey,—Mrs. Frederick Monro, 4 Grange road, Toronto, Ont., is the honorary secretary and treasurer for Edith Cavell memorial fund. I saw that this was asked for by one of your readers. It was to her we sent our subscription.

I am also inclosing a letter which I wish you to forward to "Lanny," one of your correspondents, please.

SUNSHINE.

Ans.—Thank you very much, Sunshine, for supplying the address. I hope "Lanny" sends me her address for your letter.

She Wrote Before.

Dear Miss Grey and Readers,—I see where "Helpful" wants some recitations, so I am sending them. I would like in exchange the yoke pattern that "Helpful" has sent. I wrote for yoke pattern once before, but did not get one. If "Helpful," or any other readers, would like to exchange crochet patterns, I have some.

May I call again? Inclosed find stamped envelope.

A GIRL FROM PASADENA.

Ans.—Have mailed the pattern to you and trust that when finished you will pass it on to "Glencoe Girl," who also sent pieces for "Helpful."

Got There First.

Dear Miss Grey,—I saw in The London Advertiser where you had a yoke pattern with sleeves, in return for some recitations, which was sent in from "Helpful." What do you think of my writing? GLENCOE GIRL.

Ans.—Our "Girl From Pasadena" was just a wee bit ahead of you, so I have sent her the yoke, asking that it be forwarded to your address when she has copied it.

Help for "Interested."

Dear Miss Grey,—Inclosed you will find a letter for "Interested." I hope it is not too late; also sending books for "English Lily." BONNIE DUNDEE.

Ans.—"Interested," the one who is helping to get up a boys' concert, do send me your address again, as I've forgotten your street number, and unfortunately kept no record. Thanks for helping, Bonnie. Your P. S. did interest me, although our friend is only a Mail-Box acquaintance. I hope "they two" get on well together.

Employment Bureau.

Dear Miss Grey,—Will you kindly forward the inclosed letter to "Discounts," whose letter was published Nov. 21? Is there an employment bureau in London for women and girls? I never notice many ads wanting office girls, clerks, stenographers, etc. I thought they likely got employment through a bureau. Thanking you,

ALEXANDRA.

Ans.—If "Discounts" lets me have her address I shall gladly forward your letter. There are one or two bureaus (cannot give names), but they are engaged rather in the employing of maids, cooks, etc., than in procuring places for office girls, stenographers, etc. As a rule, business schools attend to that for their graduates. That is probably why you do not see advertisements for office help.

Notts and Yorks.

Dear Miss Grey,—I think the article in Friday's Advertiser the finest yet re the soldiers' wives question, and thousands of us will echo its sentiments.

I see by the letters, you have two Cynthians who come from Notts, "L. O. D. G." and "Notts' Magpie." Well, like them, we have been out here about four years, having lived for ten years previous at Hucknall, Notts, and "all the years" before that at Huddersfield, Yorks. Wonder if "Yorkshire Lass" is from anywhere near there? My address is free to them.

Miss Grey, do you know if the village of Clifford, Ont., is called after one the same name in York, England, as so many Canadian towns are same names as ones in the old country—as my parents came from there, should like to know. With kindest regards.

E. W. YORKS AND NOTTS.

Ans.—If either of the Notts folks wish to write "Yorks. and Notts.," please let me know.

Cannot say how the village of Clifford got its name, but perhaps someone residing there will let us know.

Wanting To Help.

The address of "Helper's" lonely 186th boy at Chatham has been sent to "Soldier's Sister" and "G. Race."

Other "lonely soldiers' names" have been sent to "Woodstock Reader," "Bluebell," and various readers, also the name of the Canadian war-prisoner, sent in by "A Soldier's Wife," has been given to two or three Pageites, who express the desire to send him parcels.

Granny's Talk to Young Mothers

"Few young mothers realize the extent to which a cold lowers the system and makes it susceptible to disease. The majority of diseases arise from germs, but it is not widely known that a healthy system will repel their attacks.

Mothers should never allow a cold to run for 24 hours without attention. If this is made a rule there will be less sickness for young mothers to worry over. A good reliable medicine for coughs, colds, croup and bronchitis should always be kept in the home. You may say that you have no confidence in cough medicines, but that is because you have never tried the medicine that is thoroughly reliable and has stood the test of half a century. There is nothing in it unsuitable for even the baby.

Yours for Health,
—Granny Chamberlain

Of all overworked women probably the housewife is the hardest worked. She has so much to attend to, with very little help. Her work can be lightened if she knows the value of system, and she should try and take a short rest in the daytime. A physician who became famous almost around the world, Doctor Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., the specialist in woman's diseases, for many years practiced medicine in a farming district. He there observed the lack of system in the planning of the work.

If it is a headache, a backache, a seemingly uncontrollable nervousness, something uncontrollabel nervousness, something must be wrong with the head or back, a woman naturally says, but all the time the real trouble very often centres in the organs. In nine cases out of ten the seat of the difficulty is here, and a woman should take rational treatment for its cure. The disorder should be treated steadily and systematically with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

For diseases from which women suffer "Favorite Prescription" is a powerful restorative. During the last fifty years it has banished from the lives of tens of thousands of women the pain, worry, misery and distress caused by these diseases.

If you are a sufferer, get Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in liquid or tablet form today. Then address Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and get confidential medical advice entirely free.

THE "WILLOW" LEGEND

Story of the Famous Willow China

This is published again upon special request. The copy was originally sent in by a reader, "Mother Bird":

The willow pattern on china had its origin with Chinese decorators, and is familiar to most people. To the right is a lordly mandarin's country seat, two stories high, to show the rank and wealth of the possessor. In the background is an orange tree, and in the foreground a pavilion, to the right of which is a peach tree in full bearing. The estate is inclosed by an elegant wooden fence. At one end of the bridge is the "famous willow tree," and at the other the gardener's cottage, one story high, and so humble that the grounds are wholly uncultivated, the only green thing being a small fir tree at the back; at the top of the pattern, on the left-hand side, is an island, with a cottage; the grounds are highly cultivated and much has been reclaimed from the water. The two birds shown are turtle doves. The three figures on the bridge are the mandarin's daughter, with a distaff, nearest the cottage, the lover with a box in the middle, and nearest the willow tree, the mandarin with a whip. The tradition on which the pattern is founded is a most romantic one. The mandarin had an only daughter named Lichi, who fell in love with Chwang, a young man who lived on the island home represented at the top of the pattern, and who had been her father's secretary. The father overheard them one day making vows of love under the orange tree, and sternly forbade the unequal match; but the lovers contrived to elope; they lay concealed for awhile in the gardener's cottage, and thence made their escape in a boat to the young lover's island home. The enraged mandarin pursued them with a whip and would have beaten them to death had not the gods rewarded their fidelity by changing them into turtle doves. It is called the willow pattern not only because it is a tale of disastrous love, but because the elopement occurred when the willow begins to shed its leaves.

DAILY BIBLE QUESTION CLUB

By Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.

(All Rights Reserved.)

The six daily studies for this week constitute the International S. S. Lesson for next Sunday. Read the Bible Story on which this study is based, as you ponder the following questions:

"Jesus Christ the First and the Last." Rev., i.

Golden Text—"Fear not: I am the first and the last, and the Living One; and I was dead, and behold, I am alive for evermore." Rev., i., 17-18.

7. Verses 7-8—What does the Bible say about a general judgment day?

8. Perhaps the judgment hall will be in space, the law of gravitation not being operative on spiritualized bodies; a vast throng which no man can number will be there, and Jesus Christ will be on the judgment throne. What do you consider will be some of the scenes on that great day?

9. Verses 9-10—What were some of the tribulations which they suffered in those days?

10. Why has there been so much persecution of Christians in past ages?

COMMON ERRORS MADE IN LETTER WRITING

Many Mistakes Frequently Made Are Very Simple to Rectify.

In writing a letter—

Place date and address at the top right-hand corner of the sheet, an inch or so down the page. Don't squeeze it so near the top there's danger of it falling off!

Be sure you spell correctly the name of the person to whom you are writing.

Do not abbreviate by saying "I rec'd your letter." There is plenty of time to write the word in full, and remember the "e" comes before the "i" in "received."

Take pains to use properly the words "to," "too," and "two." The preposition "to" is used in sentences like this: "Going to London," "left to right," "walking to work." "Too" is the correct spelling when you say "too much," "too many," "too little," and so on. And, thirdly, if you wish to indicate a number, spell it "two apples," "two men," "two houses," etc.

The abbreviation "etc." is another stumbling-block. Some spell it "ect." Others insist upon writing "and etc.," which is also wrong. The abbreviation is from the Latin, "et caetera," meaning "and so forth," and to place the word "and" before it is unnecessary repetition.

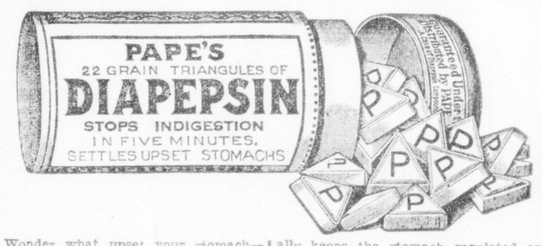

Another error frequently found in letters written by people of fair education is the confusion of the quotation marks and the parenthesis or bracket. Quotation marks are used only to "quote" the conversation of some person, an extract from some book, speech or letter, a reference to the title of a book or magazine, play, music, etc. Parentheses, or brackets, are used to inclose an explanatory word or sentence, where the meaning is really clear without such word or sentence. For instance: "They asked us to accompany them, but (remembering that there was much to be done) we decided to remain alone."

The usage of "know" and "no," "knew" and "new," should also be studied by more people than the reader perhaps realizes, and to more than school children are the verbs "did," "done," "saw" and "seen" constant puzzles. Never say "I done it," or "I seen it," or you'll be labeled at once as "never having no learning."

As a last word, when your letter is finished, all ready to mail, look at the address on the envelope once more, to assure yourself of its being correct, and see that proper postage is placed thereon, or the recipient will not thank you.

FIVE MINUTES! NO INDIGESTION, NO GAS OR ANY STOMACH MISERY

Don't suffer! Here's the quickest, surest relief known for Dyspepsia, Sourness, Heartburn or Upset Stomach—Try it!

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; your head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Diapepsin and in five minutes you will wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps the stomach regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

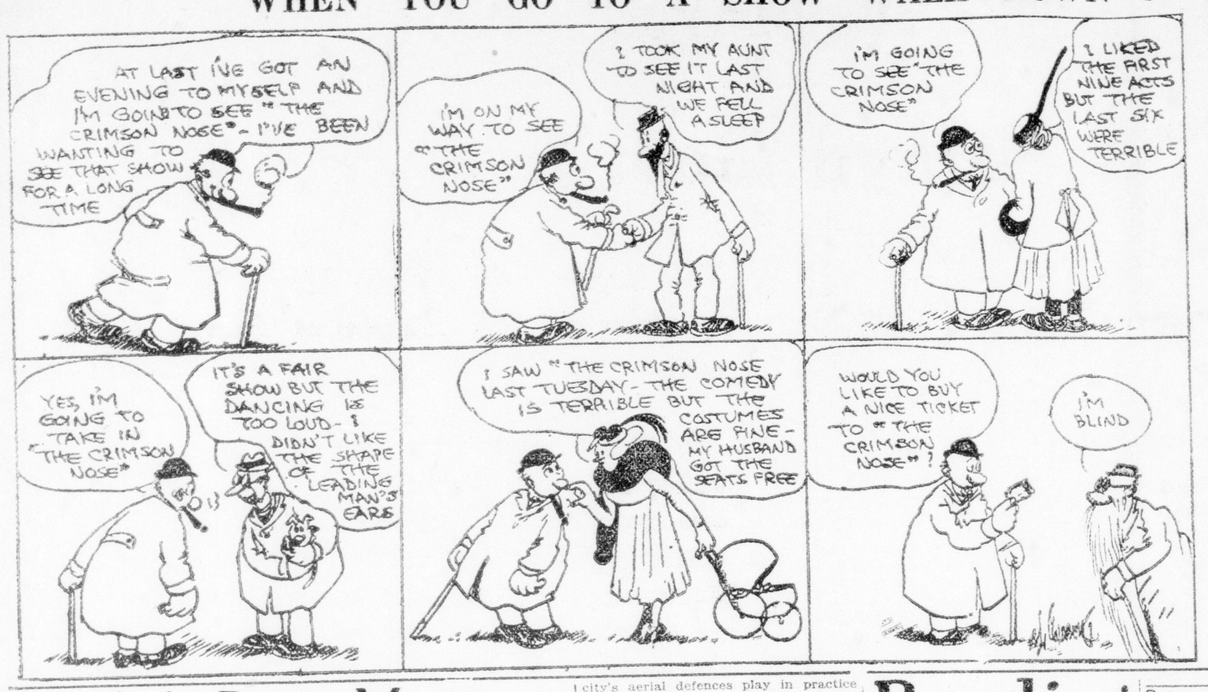

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is astonishing. Please don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

English Race Meets Entirely Successful

Earl of Derby Second in Season's Winnings With $45,850 —All Classic Races of Turf Maintained — King Lends Patronage.

London, Nov. 5—(Correspondence of the Associated Press).—The flat racing season in England, which ended with the first week of November, was accounted quite successful, notwithstanding that it ran into the third year of the war. There were 23 meetings in England—11 at Newmarket, 4 at Lingfield, 3 at Gatwick, 3 at Newbury and 2 at Windsor. There will be jumping meets during the winter, but as special trains are not permitted, and the supply of petrol for automobiles is limited, the crowds are not expected to be up to the usual standard.

The King continued to lend his patronage, and appears in the final list of winners with purses aggregating $3,685 to his credit. All the classic races of the English turf were maintained, although many of them did not come up to the value of the past years.

Winning Owner.

The leading winning owner was E. Hulton, a newspaper proprietor, with $86,820. The Earl of Derby, whose time is wholly taken up by his duties as under-secretary of war, kept his racing establishment intact, and was the second winner with $45,830. The Duke of Buchanan fifth with $25,425, and Lord Falmouth was fourth with $31,500. J. Buchanan fifh wit $25,425, and Lord d'Abernon, head of the liquor control board during war time, is sixth with $23,260. The winning jockey was S. Donoghue, who had 43 mounts first past the wire.

A day's racing at Newmarket, known as "headquarers" of the English turf, retained this fall many of the picturesque features of pre-war days, with some distinctly novel attractions. The crowds were perhaps a bit more subdued, although English racing throngs never have quite the same exuberance or the same tendency to "ride" a winner home as one meets on the tracks around New York, Latonia or Louisville. The winners here take their winnings with calm and somewhat disdainful self-assurance, while the losers lose with no disposition to "grouse," or "grouch," as it would be rendered in "American."

Newmarket Course.

Newmarket lies 70 miles northeast of London, but this is not accounted a great distance when a splendid big motor car has been successfully requisitioned, and the day's program offers a card of seven well-filled races.

The way leads out the famous Seven Sisters road, through Epping village and its royal forest, which, just a few weeks before the war started, rang and echoed with the chorused voices of thousands of German singers. The old English inns and public houses along the road always are a source of interest to visiting Americans because of their quaint construction and still quainter names. There are the "Fighting Cocks," the "Bull and Horseshoe," the "White Hart," the "Coach and Horses," the "Three Tuns," and scores of others. The English countryside is beautiful at all times of the year, and in the autumn months the grass is as green in the fields as in the spring. "Six-Mile Bottom" is a welcome station along the way, for from there to Newmarket lies a six-mile stretch of arrow-straight road which invites a speed limited only by fear of the county constable.

Newmarket, somewhat slow and sleepy by general disposition, is alive and throbbing with excitement on racing days.

Road Clogged.

The road from town to track is fairly clogged with all mnner of vehicles. One finds war time racing is a bit cheaper than the ordinary sort, and entrance to the grand stand is to be had for £1, with 2 shillings extra as a war tax. The stand is not large, for England takes its racing in the open—on the broad lawns and in the open air paddock. Betting goes on "as usual," with the bookmakers calling their odds in a manner calculated to attract and persuade. In return for a £5 note; or a £1 note, or perhaps your "two and six" in silver, you get a bit of numbered pasteboard, which may or may not be worth preserving.

Newmarket is not a race track in the American sense. The grandstand and surrounding inclosures seem rather a gathering station set in the midst of never-ending fields of wonderfully green and velvet turf. But to the right there are the familiar white rail fences which merge the several slants or straightway courses into the home stretch. Witnessing the start of an English race is not vouchsafed to the spectator. As it is a mile race the horses start a mile away from the grandstand. If it is a mile and a half race, they start a mile and a half away. The tracks here are built for racing, not to afford a spectacle. The racegoer must be content with the brief struggle he sees in the last hundred yards or so, and the flash past the winning post. Even this thrill is denied when occasionally the finish line is moved a furlong or so up the track to conform to some century-old tradition.

During an afternoon's racing this year one could see on the tracks all colors long familiar to the English courses the primrose of Lord Rosebery; the black, white cap of Lord Derby; the white, black sleeves of the Duke of Portland; the yellow-black cap of the Duke of Westminster; the blue and yellow hoops of Baron de Rothschild; the dark blue and buff stripes of the Earl of Jersey; the light blue and pink sash of Major Waldorf Astor, and the scarlet of Lord Decies, who married Miss Vivien Gould.

Each racing throng contains its share of khaki, officers on inland duty or home from the front on leave. Many of them, like Major Astor, own horses which are entered for the various events.

Return to London.

The return to London from Newcastle by motor clearly makes up for any thrills that may have been wanting at the track. First there is the headlong rush along the road to cover as many miles as possible before the fast-setting sun robs the land of its protecting rays and night closes in. For headlights in times of war are taboo, and the motorist must grope his way through the darkness as best he can by the pale flicker of his screened sidelamps. Some of the English chauffeurs have become adepts in the dark and speed along at twenty to thirty miles an hour, swerving suddenly now and then to avoid a darkened wagon or a motor bound in the opposite direction. To the novice from abroad this running through the blackness of night and the narrow escapes from collision are anything but reassuring.

The outskirts of London may be reached within that first hour of darkness in which the searchlights of the city's aerial defences play in practice so that they may be skilfully directed against any intruding zeppelin that may venture over in the later reaches of the night.

Sweeping in from the country the spectacle of the searchlight canopy over the city is one never to be forgotten. The blazing white beams shoot from every angle, and some more powerful than the rest appear to be impiously struggling to pry their way into the very mysteries of heaven itself. Great, broad bands of dazzling daylight they flash their way into dark and mystic space. They cross, interlace, turn and sweep with an effort that no pyrotechnic display ever has attained. It is difficult to realize that these marvels have been called into play by the grim business of war, rather than to thrill and mystify in the spectacular brilliance of their display.

By the time the twisting, tortuous streets of the inner city are reached the searchlights trials generally are at an end, and once again comes the slow groping through the gloom.

A day of war time racing is a day of striking contrasts.

PLAYERS TO RECEIVE BIG CUT IN SALARY

Game Has Been Conducted Extravagently, Says Ban.

NO MORE 'WAR' CONTRACTS

Owners Must Have "Fair Return" for Coin Invested.

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Salaries of baseball players in the American League who were signed at high figures to retain them during the war with the Federal League will be sharply reduced, B. B. Johnson, president of the league, announced today. The game was conducted in an extravagant manner during the fight with the Federal League, President Johnson said, and all expenses connected with the operation of the sport next season will be curtailed.

Trouble Over Now.

"Now that the trouble is over," he asserted, "we will have to return to a sound basis—one where men who have invested their money in the game stand a chance of obtaining a fair return. There will be no renewal of high salaried 'war' contracts. The players must understand that. We will insist on a new contract at the annual meeting of the American League here, December 14, that will be fair to all concerned. It will be equitable to the player and to the club owner."

BILL CARRIGAN REFUSES TO SIGN UP WITH BOSTON

That the new owners of the world's champion Red Sox—Harry Frazee and Hugh Ward—must look further than Bill Carrigan for a manager to run their team now seems assured.

Holy Cross William has emerged from obscurity up in Lewiston, Me., long enough to make his 59th positive announcement that under no conditions will he again don the spangles.

Immediately after acquiring Joseph J. Lannin's stock in the Red Sox the new theatrical owners sent an emissary to Lewiston to find out Bill's grievance and how much he wanted to manage the club for next season. As theatrical men they could not understand how a successful manager would voluntarily relinquish hold of the best club in baseball unless there was some money difference.

Nothing Doing Here.

They were upset when Carrigan wired Frazee from Lewiston: "Nothing doing. I am out of baseball for good, and will not consider any kind of an offer. This is final."

Carrigan also has informed the new owners that he can not neglect his business interests in Lewiston any longer, and has advised Frazee to sign a new manager. It also is said that Carrigan's devotion to his family is one of the leading reasons for his determination to retire from baseball. His long trips from home have taken the joy out of managing world's champions.

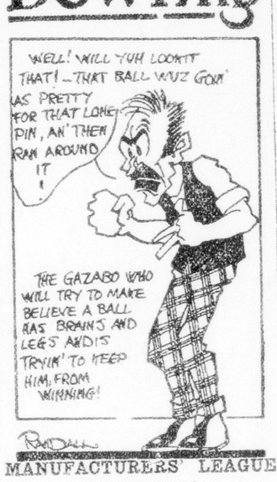

May Be Superstitious.

Then perhaps Bill is superstitious. The former men who brought world's champion honors to the Red Sox have not fared well in a baseball way. Jim Collins led the first Red Sox world's champions, the team which beat Pittsburg in 1903. The Giants refused to play his club in 1904, when Jim again piloted Boston to another American League pennant. Two years later the Red Sox were last, and set an American League record by losing 20 straight games. Collins was traded to the Athletics, and then made several unsuccessful attempts to manager clubs in the International League.

Jake Stahl, who managed the Boston Americans of 1912, which club won the world's series of that year from the Giants on Snodgrass' historical muff, was let out in midseason of the following year by former President Jim McAleer.

Charlie White is now training for his bout with Stanley Yoakum, of Denver, at the Harlem Sporting Club of New York, on Friday night. White has several other important matches scheduled, and he is in hopes of earning another chance at Freddie Welsh's crown.

Special Five Pin Match.

A special five pin match will be played on Friday night between the National Recruits and the Imperial Optical Company.

The National Recruits will be piloted by George Karrys, while Jim Forbes will lead the optical boys.

Short Sport

Pollard, of Brown, left what you might call a dark impress upon the escutcheons of Yale and Harvard. The wonderful negro halfback is working his way through college by pressing clothes in a little tailor shop. Harvard and Yale, upon learning this, probably will insist that it constitutes professionalism, and balk at playing Brown until Pollard goes away from there—which won't be until June, 1917.

Brown University is distinctive in more senses than one. Its goal line has not been crossed this year. In the old days there were teams which were not scored against, but in these times that is the rarest distinction.

It is roughly estimated that persons who attended the Yale-Harvard and Army-Navy football games last Saturday spent more than $1,000,000 for railroad fares, hotel accommodations, meals, admission tickets and parking space. To see the battle in the New Haven bowl, 77,000 persons paid $2 each for reserved seats. The railroad fares between New York and Boston and the scene of action exceeded $150,000. Rooms in New Haven cost $50,000, and the food consumed cost in the neighborhood of $250,000. Five thousand automobiles netted $10,000 for parking space. Nearly 50,000 persons saw the Army-Navy game at the Polo Grounds, New York. Fifty thousand was paid for tickets, $100,000 for transportation, $150,000 for hotel accommodation, and $200,000 for meals.

CAPTAIN ALBERT JUDD TO RETURN TO LONDON

Capt. Ab Judd, who left London with the 135th Battalion, writes a friend in this city that he expects to come back to London soon on instruction work. Capt. Judd, who is a son of Judge Judd, was one of the best halfbacks that ever graced a London uniform. He was captain of the London junior O. R. F. U. team several years ago, and took a great interest in local sports.

HOCKEY GOSSIP

Jimmy Etherington, the former Preston player, who has been with Hamilton the last two seasons, has left for Creighton Mines, where he will play this season.

Hamilton Times: The 227th will have a strong O. H. A. team, and Lieut. Ross, who is looking after the team, expects them to make a strong showing in their group. No less than 21 men will turn out to practice with the soldiers, and the majority of them have played in the O. H. A.

A suggestion comes from Ottawa that 25 per cent of the proceeds of the N. H. A. games at the capital go to patriotic purposes. This seems to be the intention of the other N. H. A. clubs also, according to the figures contained in the majority of the players' contracts.

You can't knock the "L" out of Kelly without strong retaliation. Neither is it expected that the "body-check" is going to be eliminated from O. H. A. hockey without strong opposition.

The introduction of six-man hockey in such O. H. A. rinks as Weston, Milton, Newmarket, Markdale, Listowel, Penetang and Watford, is one of the best suggestions ever made—at least all O. H. A. referees are pulling for the adoption of the amendment.

Johnston, a defence player, who was with Seaforth and Stratford, is turning out with Lieut. Herb Birmingham's soldier team in preparation for their carnival game with the 228th Battalion team.

The Listowel Hockey Club has organized for the coming season, and prospects are bright for placing a strong team on the ice. It is not definitely known whether they will play in the O. H. A. or in the Northern League.

Smythe, a former Sarnia forward, now living in Hamilton, is a mute. He is regarded as a first-class player, and is almost sure to catch a place on the Hamilton intermediate team.

The all-important question in amateur hockey circles just now is, "What do you think of the body-checking amendment to be taken up at the O. H. A. annual meeting?" It is the live topic of conversation among the hockey managers, players and enthusiasts, and so varied are the opinions that it is assured that the annual meeting of the provincial association will be a lively one, with the body-checking amendment as the centre of activities. There are many hockey fans of the first order who are afraid to pass an opinion on the matter. They would like to see body-checking abolished, but are afraid it would spoil the game to a great extent and take away much of the excitement.

The one fault with the body-checking rule at present is the fact that the official who enforces it to the limit is generally the object of much abuse. A heavy man may body an opponent quite legally, but in so doing injure the other player. If the official does not put the offender off he is abused, and if he does rule him off he is not living up to the rules. Then, too, there is a great tendency among players who use the body-check to slip the butt-end of the stick in at the same time, and this really is more dangerous than the check. The referee may be in such a position that he could not see the offence of butt-ending yet many of the spectators could, and again the official would be given his "bumps."

On the other hand is the fact that body-checking is one of the features of the O. H. A. game. It livens the game considerably and gives the heavier and slower player a chance to cope with his lighter and speedier opponent. A good body-check, given legally, has been, and always will be well liked by the public. The trouble, however, is that the players have a tendency to give other checks at the time when giving the body.

Art Ross is very modest. In a letter to the Ottawa Hockey Club he admits that on account of the war that the salaries should be reduced and that he expects a cut. Perhaps Art is using diplomacy, and thinks that perhaps it may work the other way around.

None of the N. H. A. clubs, with the exception of the 228th Battalion, will get down to real practice until next week. The contracts do not call for the players to report until December 1, and they do not believe in putting in any more work than is necessary.

George Kennedy of the champion Canadiens intimates that several of the veterans will be let out to make places for some younger fellows to whom he will give a trial.

Manager "Mike" Quinn of the Quebec N. H. A. team is figuring on using Ritchie and Crawford on the defence this winter, with Hall and Mummery as substitutes. Ritchie and Crawford both stitutes. Ritchie and Crawford both have speed to burn and are clean players, something that cannot be said of the tactics used by Hall and Mummery.

DECEMBER DRAWS NIGH; KENNEDY LINES 'EM UP

Montreal, Nov. 20.—George Kennedy of the Canadien Hockey Club, Stanley Cup holders, yesterday signed up Harold McNamara. The habitant team in the N. H. A. is now about complete and is as follows:

Goal—Geo. Vezina; point, Harold McNamara; coverpoint, Bert Corbeau; centre, "Newsy" Lalonde; right wing, "Didier" Pitre; left wing, Jack Laviolette.

The world's champions will also have Louis Berlanquette, "Skinner" Poulin, Bernier and a couple of youngsters who Manager Kennedy hopes to secure.

Boxing

Mike McTigue, one of the latest aspirants for the middleweight title, comes from County Clare, Ireland, and is 22 years old. He landed in America a little over three years ago, and went to work as a horseshoer.

Kid McCoy has unearthed another "coming champion" in Texas. He is "Little Billy" Cutler, weighs 215, is 6 feet 4 inches tall, 21 years old, and a blacksmith. On McCoy's advice "Little Billy" will soon leave Texas for New York.

Jim Barry and Sam Langford, who have boxed so often that even their own managers have lost count, have agreed to box again. Their next meeting will take pace Thanksgiving night before the Ryan A. C. of Syracuse.

Gabe Kauffman, the Kansas City promoter, has wired an offer of a purse of $4,000 for another Lewis-Britton bout. Danny Morgan has accepted in behalf of Britton, the welterweight champion, and upon Jimmy Johnston's return from the West with Lewis the match is likely to clinched.

"Battling" Lahn, the Brooklyn banam with the long list of K.O.'s to his credit, will box Champion Johnny Ertle, upon whose trail he has been for a year, at Cleveland on December 8. They will collide at the Cleveland A. C. The weight will be 115 pounds ringside.

That Freddie Welsh, the world's lightweight champion, who boxes Johnny Dundee at the re-opening of Madison Square Garden on Thursday night, intends to keep busy this winter is evidenced by the fact that he had booked another fight. He has been signed up to box Pete Hartley before the Cleveland A. C. of Cleveland on December 8.

Jimmy Johnston sends up a wail from Chicago that Tom Cowler was not floored by Bill Brennan in their recent bout at Buffalo. On the contrary, wires Johnston, Brennan was down for the count and it is an outrage to say that Cowler was ever off his feet. "We want an even break, that's all," concludes Jimmy.

Ad Wolgast is back in Chicago about $2,000 richer than when he left for the coast.

In stopping Albert Badoud recently Marty Cross, who manages to keep the name of Cross in the Queensberry directory, became the welter champion of Europe, a title that Badoud won by beating all contenders for the French championship, and then knocking out Johnny Basham, holder of the British title. The authenticity of the honors now held by Cross cannot be questioned, because Badoud earned the title in a decisive way.

NEW HAMBURG JUNIORS ELECT CLUB OFFICIALS

[Special to ..... Advertiser.]

NEW HAMBURG, Nov. 28.—At a meeting held here by the local hockey players it was decided to enter a team in the O. H. A. junior series. The officers elected for the ensuing season are: President, J. F. Harrison; vice-president, R. Gribble; second vice-president H. Culbert; secretary-treasurer, Otto Ritz; executive committee, John Otto, Emil Schmidt, C. S. Cairncross; manager, Charles Hueglin.

"Y" JUNIORS DEFEAT FAST WEGNER TEAM

Score 33 to 16 in Well-Played Game at Y.M.C.A.

Haberdasher Gang Lead at Half-Time 10—9.

THE STANDING.

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Dowlers	2	0	1.000
"Y" Juniors	1	2	.667
Wegners	1	2	.333
Soldiers	0	2	.000

The "Y" Juniors showed real class in the only game played in the City Basketball League last night. The "Y" youngsters had the condition, and trimmed Wegners 33 to 16 in a fast, well-played argument.

Mascaro and Rush were the two bright kids for the Juniors, and made the opposition forwards look foolish in the last half. This Mascaro is some tidy boy, and he demonstrated the fact last night, running up eleven points in short order.

Rush, Some Lad.

Rush, his team-mate, was the pick of the floor. He rushed the baskets in at an awful rate, getting fourteen points, almost enough to trim the "Heart of London." The Wegner gang were right on the job in the first half, and led at half-time 10 to 9.

The kids set a heart-breaking pace in the second half, and with Rush and Mascaro making some beautiful shots, had no difficulty in getting away with the game. Burridge and Shaw both played good games for the Wegner team.

Owing to the fact that several members of the soldier team are on the sick list, the game scheduled between Dowlers and the boys in khaki was postponed.

Following are the teams and scores:

STRATFORD OPPOSED TO PROPOSED NEW RULES

O. H. A. Boys Strong For the Body-Checking Stuff.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

STRATFORD, Nov. 28.—At a well-attended meeting held tonight to discuss the questions which are coming up next week at the annual O. H. A. meeting, President Rogers was chosen as the local delegate.

Those present expressed objection to the proposed new body-checking rule, and the proposal to increase the goal off-side limit from 10 to 20 feet. They favor the six-man team, and also the plan whereby a man transferred from one city to another may play for his original club.

It was decided to send no delegate to the Northern League meeting, but a junior team will be entered. Both junior and intermediate teams will be entered in the O. H. A.

KEEN INTEREST IN NEW CLUB

Great interest is being taken in the formation of the new athletic club for London. Many men prominent in local sporting circles asked the sporting editor of The Advertiser for particulars yesterday. The best way to get all the dope on the situation is to attend the meeting tomorrow night at 79 Dundas street. All matters pertaining to the club will be thoroughly threshed out. Come on along and bring a friend.

Have you had a Sleepless Night?

Why don't you take Dr. Cassell's Tablets? They're just splendid for sleeplessness.

DO THIS.

Take two Dr. Cassell's Tablets to-night at bedtime and note how soundly you sleep how fresh and bright you wake in the morning, how well you feel all day. That test is worth columns of argument; we would not ask you to try it if we were not sure of the result. But we are quite sure.

NOTE THIS FACT:—Dr. Cassell's Tablets don't drag you to sleep. They make you sleep naturally, because they overcome all the nerve-fret and friction that prevent sleep. They nourish the nerve-centres, build up new vitality and fill your whole body with sparkling health. Dr. Cassell's Tablets are the key to vim and vigour.

Dr. Ramsay Colles, J.P. of Dublin (Ireland), F.R.S.I., F.R.H.S., etc., says:—"From several cases which have lately come under my notice, I am able to form the opinion that Dr. Cassell's Tablets constitute a safe and reliable family remedy and appear to be specially effective for nerve and bodily weakness."

Dr. Cassell's Tablets are Nutritive, Restorative, Alterative, and Anti-spasmodic, of proved therapeutic value in all run-down conditions, and the recognised remedy for

ENEMY RECORDS LOSS OF ANOTHER BRITISH CRUISER; HIT MINE

Overseas Agency Says Newcastle Was Sunk Nov. 15.

CLAIM 121 SHIPS GONE

Estimate of Naval Losses of England Given Out by Berlin.

BERLIN, Nov. 28, via Sayville.—The British cruiser Newcastle is reported to have been sunk at the entrance to the Firth of Forth, Scotland, November 15, by coming in contact with a mine, according to the Overseas News Agency.

"It is reported from Rotterdam," says the news agency, "that the British cruiser Newcastle on November 15 in the North Sea struck a mine and sank at the entrance to the Firth of Forth while trying to reach a home port. The Newcastle at the time of the disaster was accompanied by two other cruisers. Of the crew of the Newcastle 27 men were killed and 47 wounded.

"The total losses of the British navy with this loss, have, as far as can be ascertained, reached 121 ships of 767,950 tons, not counting auxiliary cruisers and auxiliary ships.

"The English patrol ship sunk during the raid of German sea forces the night of November 27 was the steam trawler Narval, which was engaged in the mine sweeping service. Her crew belonged to the Royal Naval Service."

The last report of the British cruiser Newcastle was in September, 1915, when she was reported leaving Callao, Peru, for Guayaquil, Ecuador. She was a vessel of 4,300 tons, built in 1905. Her complement was 376 men. She was 430 feet long and carried two 6-inch and ten 4-inch guns, four 3-pounders and two torpedo tubes.

RUTHLESS SUB WAR INDICATED BY LOSSES

Danish, Norwegian, British and French Vessels Listed by Lloyds "Sunk."

LONDON, Nov. 28.—Lloyds shipping agency today announced the following:

"The Danish steamer Villemoes of 775 tons gross, from Esbjerg for Grimsby, has been captured.

"The captain and crew of the Norwegian steamer Belle Ile of 1,883 tons gross, have been landed, and report that their steamer was torpedoed by a German submarine. (The Belle Ile was last reported on November 2 as passing Ushant while bound from Gothenburg for Bilbao).

French Sailing Vessels.

"The French sailing vessels Alfred Le Courcy of 184 tons gross, and Malvina of 112 tons gross, have been sunk.

"The British steamer Rhona of 640 tons gross has been sunk.

"The captain and crew of the Greek steamer Christoforos of 2,345 tons of Piraeus have been landed, and report the steamer sunk by a German submarine.

"Lloyds reports that all the passengers and crew of the City of Birmingham, torpedoed, were saved with the exception of a physician and three members of the crew, who were drowned.

Greek Steamer Sunk.

A Greek steamship, whose name is given as Mihail, believed to be the Michael, had been torpedoed off Tinos Island, one of the Grecian archipelago.

The Greek steamer Michael, 2,514 tons gross and 300 feet long, was built in 1890, and owned in Andros. She was last reported at Piraeus on October 21. There is also a Greek steamship Michail, 2,427 tons gross, owned in Syra. She sailed on October 24 from Cardiff, Wales, for Arzeu, Algeria.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—Lloyd's reports that the British steamships Ransgarth, Alison and Alert have been sunk. The Ransgarth's crew has been landed.

Available shipping lists do not contain the name of the Ransgarth. There is a British steamer Ramsgarth, of 1,563 tons gross.

NO FRICTION EXISTS IN BRITISH FORCES

Earl of Derby Sets All Rumors of Such at Rest.

LONDON, Nov. 28. — In the House of Lords tonight the Earl of Derby, under-secretary of war, set at rest rumors in circulation that there was friction between Gen. Sir Douglas Haig, the British commander-in-chief in France, and the home authorities. Alluding to Lieut.-Gen. Sir Frederick Clayton's relinquishment of the post of inspector-general of the lines of communication in France, the Earl of Derby said there was no connection between his retirement and the appointment of Sir Eric Geddes to superintend all questions of railway docks and inland transport, leaving to the administration the rest of the lines of communication as heretofore.

The secretary of war, said the Earl of Derby, in order to satisfy himself as to the adequate means for the transport of the ever-increasing amount of ammunition, sent Sir Eric, with Gen. Haig's consent, to investigate the matter. Gen. Haig was greatly impressed with Sir Eric's report, and requested that Sir Eric be appointed to carry out his own suggestions. The rumor that he had been imposed upon by Gen. Haig was absolutely false. The army council had the greatest confidence in Gen. Haig, and did its utmost to fall in line with all his suggestions, and rumors that friction existed were untrue.

BRITISH WOMEN CALL EX-SECRETARY OF WAR TRAITOR TO COUNTRY

VISCOUNT HALDANE.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—Viscount Haldane, the former secretary for war, and former lord chancellor, while speaking before the Royal Society of Arts tonight, was subjected to a succession of violent interruptions from a number of well-dressed women, who excitedly accused him of being a traitor, pro-German, and an enemy to his country, deserving of being sent to the Tower.

The women had to be ejected from the building before quiet was restored.

Norway Ordered To Accommodate Self To Germany

Berlin Paper Tells Her What She Must Do on Sub Question.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—An Amsterdam dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company quotes the Berlin Lokal Anzeiger in commenting on the report that the Norwegian Government has conceded that its submarine restrictions cannot be maintained, as follows:

"It may be supposed that a final agreement will soon be reached, but, in addition to the submarine question, there is also the economical question and the position of Norway as an independent neutral to be considered. To maintain good relations with Germany she must alter her economic politics and accommodate herself to Germany's wishes."

AERIAL COMBATS ON SOMME FRONT ARE STILL CONTINUING

Centre of Activity Now on Work of Aviators.

SUCCESSFUL EXPLOITS

British Fliers Bomb Important Works of Enemy—Artillery Busy.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—The British official statement on the campaign in France, issued last night reads:

"There was considerable hostile shelling today against our front on both sides of the Ancre. Our retaliations were prompt and effective.

"The enemy also bombarded our lines south of Souchez, and his trench mortars were active south of Armentieres. Our artillery shelled the area of La Bassee.

"Yesterday much successful artillery and reconnaissance work was accomplished by our aircraft. Several places of military importance were attacked and bombed. In one instance a large explosion was caused.

"In aerial combats one hostile airplane was destroyed; another was driven down damaged. Two of our machines are missing."

ONLY MODERATE FIRING.

PARIS, Nov. 28.—The bulletin issued by the war office tonight reads:

"There was moderate artillery activity in the region of the Somme and in the Douaumont sector. Calm prevailed on the rest of the front."

Use Deutschland To Fill Stocking

Kaiser Sending Edition De Luxe to Friend Wilson.

GENEVA, via London, Nov. 28.—Emperor William will send to President Wilson, as a Christmas present, a de luxe set of the American authors, specially prepared, printed and bound at the royal printing works in Berlin, according to the Budapest newspaper Az Est. The German submarine Deutschland, the newspaper says, will carry the gift to the United States on her next trip across the Atlantic.

Emperor William's Christmas gift to Pope Benedict will be a Bible, magnificently illuminated and bound.

REACH AGREEMENT ON GERMAN "HOME ARMY"

Situation Considered an Advance in Parliamentary Control.

[Canadian Press.]

Berlin, Nov. 29—Via London.—The Germania, evidently speaking with authority, announces that the Government and Reichstag leaders have reached an agreement on the "home army" question and that the labor service bill to be introduced tomorrow will be practically a new measure.

The bill will remain a blanket one as far as establishing the principle of universal service is concerned, but it will prescribe that general regulations under which the law may be applied may be issued only with the consent of a special Reichstag committee. Provisions for workmen's committees and courts of arbitration to protect the rights of laborers are also included in the new bill. The changes are considered a long step in the direction of parliamentary control.

BELGIANS SENT INTO GERMANY CRY FOR FOOD

Have To Be Rationed by Their Fellow-Countrymen, Says Report.

UNITED STATES TO ACT

Will Make New Representations to Berlin Over Deportations.

WILSON'S CABINET MEETS

Members Discuss Appeal for Intervention Made by Enslaved Country.

PARIS, Nov. 29.—Owing to reports from deported Belgian civilians now in Germany, says a Havas dispatch from Havre, the Belgian Government has been compelled to arrange for the sending of bread rations to their deported fellow-countrymen. A beginning has made by the dispatch of 12,000 rations to the internment camp at Saldau, East Prussia. In the meantime, a committee for the relief of deported Belgian civilians is being formed at Ghent.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—New representations will be made to the German Government by the United States concerning the deportation of Belgian civilians for labor in Germany. What form they shall take has not been determined, but it became known tonigh: that the American administration is seriously exercised over the matter, and is preparing for its next step in the matter with great deliberation, hoping to make it effective, without straining the relations between the two countries.

Efforts Unavailing.

American Charge Grew at Berlin recently took up this question informally with the German foreign office. His effort was unavailing, however. The foreign office, in a note now on its way to Washington, replied that the deportation of the Belgians was a military necessity and was being carried on in accordance with international law, governing the treatment of populations in conquered territory.

The charge's preliminary report, the latest appeal for aid from the Belgian Government, and other information in the hands of the state department, were discussed at today's cabinet meeting, and Secretary Lansing remained with the president for nearly half an hour after the other members left. Ambassador Gerard, here for final conferences before returning to Berlin, and Col. E. M. House, also talked over the plight of the Belgians during visits to the White House and the state department. It was said later that this situation had made such a profound impression that for the present at least it has displaced in interest the submarine issue.

Peeved at Britain.

The refusal of the British Government to grant safe conduct to Count Tarnowski, the new Austro-Hungarian ambassador to the United States, also was brought up at today's cabinet meeting, and dissatisfaction was generally expressed. Any step that may be taken by the United States will be delayed until full consideration has been given the British note on the subject.

NO FOOD DICTATORSHIP BUT WASTE ELIMINATION

British Food Regulations Aimed at Expensive Menus.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28. — Expensive restaurants and hotel dining-rooms catering to wealthy patronage will have to close up under the regulations to be imposed by the newly-created food control commission of Great Britain, according to Sir Alfred A. Booth, chairman of the board of directors of the Cunard Line, who arrived here today on the steamship Laconia from Liverpool.

Sir Alfred said the first work of the commission would be an active campaign against the high cost of living. Waste of food through the ordering by the wealthy of elaborate menus that were not eaten, induces, he said, an active food supply competition on the part of eating-places, supported by wealthy patronage, which others depending on trade of the poorer classes could not meet. He said the commission would not impose a food dictatorship such as that existing in Germany, but that every form of waste would be stopped. All grain brought into the kingdom would be purchased by the Government, he said, and would by the authorities be passed on to millers and bakers in such quantities, and so distributed that all the people will benefit equally. At the same time regulations would be imposed as to prices charged.

The Laconia is here for the first time as a passenger ship since the war began. She did duty for a while as an auxiliary cruiser along the East African coast.

5 KILLED, 7 HURT IN PASSAIC, N. J.

Train Plows Through Workmen of Canadian Car Company.

PASSAIC, N.J., Nov. 28.—Five men were killed and at least seven others injured tonight when a passenger train on the Lackawanna Railroad plowed through a crowd of about 400 employees of the Canadian Car and Foundry Company who were walking along the track to a special train which was to take them from the plant at Kingsland to their homes in this city, Hoboken, Jersey City and Newark.

Small Chance of Coalition Rule for Canadians

Public Sentiment, Gauged at Ottawa, Wants Entirely New Administration.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OTTAWA, Nov. 28.—There is little likelihood of any move for a coalition government succeeding. It is not believed that the Conservative Government can be induced, by any of the influential groups of Canada, to make a fair and acceptable offer to the Opposition. There has been no indication that the people favor a coalition government.

The word which comes to Ottawa is that the people do not feel that the long-tried system of party government has broken down in Canada, but that the Borden Government has shown great weakness, and should be replaced. Apparently the people would prefer to pass judgment at the polls, rather than to have themselves gagged for another term of years by an understanding between the parties which would take a few Liberal members into the Borden Government, and extend the term of Parliament indefinitely. Such a plan would put an end to scrutiny and criticism of the acts of the Government.

500 MEMBERS FOR NEW DETROIT I.O.D.E. CHAPTER

Mrs. E. J. Baxter, of Windsor, Seeks Authority to Organize.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

DETROIT, Nov. 28.—Detroit is to have a chapter of the Imperial Order of the British Empire.

The details for the organization are in the hands of Mrs. E. J. Baxter, Windsor, and she has written to the president of the order to learn when she can come to Detroit to organize the chapter.

Mrs. Baxter reports, as a nucleus, there are 500 women for membership in the new chapter. They became interested in the work of the Daughters of the Empire during the Allies' bazar and wanted to join the Canadian chapters. This was not possible under the constitution of the Canadian order, but it was pointed out that they could organize under the regulations of the Imperial Order, which has large and influential chapters in California, Chicago and New York.

GAS ATTACK ON RIGA RUSSIAN LINE FAILS

Rivers Interferes With Plans of German Army Leaders.

PETROGRAD, Nov. 28.—Via London.—An outpost engagement and a German gas attack on the Russian lines in the vicinity of Riga are announced in today's official statement reporting operations on the Russian front.

The statement says:

"Western front: West of Riga the Germans, about two companies strong, launched an attack on our advanced posts, where they were repulsed by our fire.

"South of Riga the Germans liberated a cloud of gas, but this failed to reach our trenches owing to the intervening waters of the River Issa. They also bombarded us with shells charged with asphyxiating gases.

"At Dvinlatch, on the River Bystritza, our scouts attacked an enemy company, and dispersed it. We captured a number of prisoners.

"Caucasus front: An enemy detachment occupied Adramed and Koshishogly, ten miles south of Van."

CLAIM BORROWED $55,200 WENT TO CAMPAIGN FUND

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WINNIPEG, Nov. 28.—Today at the Patterson commission inquiry into road graft under the Roblin Government, Deputy Engineer Bowman testified that he was a party to a "clandestine" transaction in borrowing $55,200 from Dr. R. M. Simpson, treasurer of the Conservative party, for the payment of Government roadwork done in 1914, but he declared there was nothing dishonest in the transaction.

J. Kilgour, crown counsel, claims it all found its way back to the campaign funds, judging by the way paysheets were paid.

DUKE AT BANQUET

Attends Function in Toronto Given by Sir William Mulock.

TORONTO, Nov. 28.—This afternoon the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, who are in Toronto for a week, paid a visit to the Ontario Museum, and expressed themselves as greatly pleased.

Tonight the duke attended the banquet given by Sir William Mulock, president of the Toronto and York County patriotic fund, at the York Club. His excellency expressed great pleasure at his election as honorary president in succession to the Duke of Connaught, and promised that he will attend the meeting on the 22nd of January, when a great campaign will be launched.

GERMAN SEWER RATS.

KINGSTON, Nov. 28.—Eluding their guards, three Germans at Fort Henry hid in an excavation in the courtyard where a sewer is being constructed, with the idea of making their escape over the walls when it became dark. They were missed for a couple of hours, when guards found them in the excavation, covered with mud.

A Message From Lloyd George

The Right Hon. David Lloyd George, speaking on "The Lesson of Sacrifice," said:—

"We have been living in a sheltered valley for generations. We have been too comfortable and too indulgent, many perhaps too selfish. But the stern hand of fate has scourged us to an elevation where we can see the everlasting things that matter for a Nation, the great peaks we had forgotten---of Honour, Duty, Patriotism, and clad in glittering white, the towering pinnacle of Sacrifice, pointing like a rugged finger to Heaven."

Compared to service in the trenches, Service in the Munitions Plant is the lesser sacrifice, but it is hardly less vital to the Empire.

No Deviation by Allies From Their Grecian Stand

Will Adhere Strictly to Terms of Ultimatum, Tino Is Told.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—Vice-Admiral Du Fournet, commander of the Allied squadron in Greece, informed King Constantine in an audience given him on Monday, that he would firmly adhere to the terms of his ultimatum, says an Athens dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

The ultimatum to Greece requires the delivery to the Entente Allies of Greek arms and cannon within a period ranging from two days to a week.

CONSTANTINE SQUEALS.

ATHENS, Greece, via London, Nov. 28.—The Government of Greece today appealed to the neutral nations, through the Greek diplomats at the respective neutral capitals, against "the coercions being employed by the entente powers toward Greece."

ASKING WIVES TO STAY IN CANADA

OTTAWA, Nov. 28.—The Government has issued another appeal to wives of Canadian soldiers to remain in Canada and not go to England. It is pointed out that every additional person is a drain on the food supply there. In addition there is the prospect of difficulty in returning to Canada after the war owing to scarcity of shipping and the tax on transportation facilities.

LEFT WIDOW $300

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—An estate of $300 was all that Pastor Charles T. Russell left, according to his will, which will be published tomorrow in the December issue of the Watch Tower. The estate is bequeathed to his widow. Pastor Russell, who was founder of the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society," spent 40 years in evangelical work.

SAYS ACID STOMACHS NEED MAGNESIA

Calls Bisurated Magnesia Safest, Quickest and Most Effective Food and Acid Stomach Corrective Yet Found.

The almost universal use of magnesia by physicians and specialists in the treatment of stomach troubles is due to the fact that it quickly neutralises the excessive acid in the stomach and thus stops food fermentation—the direct cause of nearly all stomach trouble. Of the many forms of magnesia such as liquids, oxides, citrates, carbonates, sulphates, etc., the most suitable and efficient for stomach purposes is bisurated magnesia a teaspoonful of which taken in a little water after eating or whenever indigestion is felt will instantly neutralize or dissolve the excessive acid, stop fermentation and make painless and normal digestion easy. Be sure to insist therefore that your druggist supply you with magnesia in the bisurated form—either powder or tablets. Stomach sufferers who follow this plan and avoid the use of pepsin, charcoal, soda mints, drugs and medicines are astonished to find the stomach once relieved of the irritating acid and gas, soon regains its normal tone, and can do its work alone without the doubtful aid of artificial digestants.—Advt.

WANT GOVT. ACTION IN HIGH COST OF LIVING

Important Resolutions Adopted at Mass Meeting in Toronto Last Night.

TORONTO, Nov. 28. — At a high-cost-of-living mass meeting, held tonight in Massey Hall, and presided over by Mayor Church, a resolution was passed commending the Dominion Government for the action so far taken and recommending that further action be taken by the Federal Government along the following lines: 1. Prohibit ore regulate export of food to protect home demands. 2. To remove tariff barriers on food required in Canada. 3. Fix prices of wheat and flour. 4. To control importation of coal and regulate prices. 5. To investigate cost of producing canned goods, sugar, etc., which are believed to be under monopolistic influences, and fix the prices of same.

Legislation was also recommended permitting municipalities to conduct stores for flour products, coal yards and bakeries, and have a monopoly in the sale of bread, milk, coal and other commodities.

MILLIONS OF EGGS HELD IN COLD STORAGE

Government Investigators Discover Over Thirty Million Dozens in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—Thirty million dozens of eggs were discovered by Government investigators in a cold-storage warehouse yesterday afternoon. The eggs were bought last May at 20 cents a dozen, and are understood to be held by James E. Wetz, self-styled "Egg King."

Government agents regarded the discovery as the most important they have made in their investigation here of the high price of eggs. In the belief that Wetz may not be the real owner, but only a figurehead, acting for more powerful firms, Assistant United States District Attorney Lally prepared to subpoena officials of the Monarch Refrigerating Company.

MYSTERIOUS BARN FIRE OCCURS NEAR WINGHAM

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WINGHAM, Nov. 28.—A mysterious barn fire occurred near here at 4:15 this afternoon when the building of Thomas Wheeler was burned to the ground, entailing a loss approaching $4,000 with insurance of about half that amount.

New implements, buggy, a number of pigs, a calf, hay, and grain were destroyed.

Mr. Wheeler and two men were in the bush cutting wood at the time, and Mrs. Wheeler was driving the cattle in from the fields. A neighbor, driving past, saw the whole side of the barn ablaze. He rushed in and saved Mr. Wheeler's horses.

It is likely that an investigation will be demanded.

THIGH FRACTURED.

Walter H. Davis of 454 Salisbury street has received official word that his son, Pte. Lewington G. Davis is in No. 9 General Hospital at Rouen with a compound fracture of the thigh due to a gunshot wound.

MOTHER! LOOK AT YOUR CHILD'S TONGUE

Give "California Syrup of Figs" If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious, Constipated--They love it

Watch Children! Guard Against Colds, Grippe, Sore Throat and Sickness by Keeping Liver and Bowels Free from Poisons

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, "mother!" If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has the grippe or a sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. See that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't merely ask for Syrup of Figs, but ask for "California Syrup of Figs." Remember, "California."

HORSE DEALERS CLAIM AGENTS GET TOO MUCH

TORONTO, Nov. 28.—Sixty horse dealers met tonight and formed a provincial association. They also made an agreement that they will not buy horses in the province for re-sale to the provincial agents of the British and French Governments, unless they receive better prices. They claim that the commissions of the agents are, too high.

FRENCH DEPUTIES' SECRET SESSION

For Second Time Since War Chambe Meets in Camera.

PARIS, Nov. 28.—The Chamber of Deputies met today in secret session. It is expected that many questions with to the conduct of the war will be raised in this session which is the second secret meeting since the beginning of the war. Looking Into Matters

Many big businessmen habitually follow the CLASSIFIED pages of The Advertiser in order to know what is going on in THE REAL ESTATE COLUMNS; or what is stirring in THE BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES COLUMN, or what is happening in the LABOR market—as reflected in the HELP WANTED COLUMNS, or for some other practical reason.

The man who reads Advertiser "Want Ads" always has his finger on the PULSE of London and Western Ontario. He always knows what is taking place under the surface of things.

NORTH OF ENGLAND REJOICES OVER THE FALL OF ZEPPELINS

Coast Towns Honor the Conquering Airman.

AIRPLANE BROUGHT DOWN

French Capture Lone Raider Who Dropped Bombs on London.

ADMIT LOSS.

BERLIN, Nov. 28.—Via Sayville.—A German official statement on the air raid on England says that one airship was shot down and that another did not return. The statement reads: "On the night of November 27-28 several German naval airships successfully bombed blast furnaces and industrial establishments in Middle England. At several places conflagrations were observed.

"An airship was shot down by the enemy near Scarborough, and another has not returned, so that it must be considered lost. The remaining airships returned and landed."

LONDON, Nov. 28.—The destruction of two of the zeppelins that participated in last night's air raid caused great enthusiasm in the northeast coast towns, which had suffered so often in previous air raids. This morning the naval airman, who arrived to report the success of the British in their fight against the airship, which was making her way home when she was brought down, was given a tremendous ovation by the townspeople, who carried him shoulder high through streets crowded with cheering people, while the sirens of the shipping shrieked triumphantly.

Regarding the report that the Germans used an aeroplane disguised as British, or one captured from the British for today's raid on London, a member of the Government said in the House of Commons that he had no information on this point.

FRENCH APPARENTLY BAG RAIDERS.

London, Nov. 29.—An admiralty announcement late last night says:

"The commodore of Dunkirk has been informed by the French authorities that they brought down an airplane at 2:15 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, carrying two naval lieutenants, and with a large scale map of London and vicinity aboard."

NINE INJURED BY AEROPLANE RAID.

London, Nov. 28.—According to an official statement issued this evening, the police reports show that nine persons were injured in the aeroplane raid on London.

SO PROUD OF SUB CAMPAIGN ENEMY HAS IT FILMED

Germans Take Movies of Destruction of Ships.

ALLIES HAVE THE SMILE

French Supercargo of British Steamer Turns Laugh on Sub Commander.

PARIS, Nov. 28.—How six members of the crew of the steamer San Bernardo, bound from Philadelphia, had moving pictures taken of them on board the German submarine, just before their ship was sunk by the underwater boat, is related by one of the crew, the French super-cargo, in the Temps today. The German officer, when he boarded the vessel, noticed a man wearing an overcoat.

"Who is this gentleman?" the German asked.

"The super-cargo, a French citizen, representing the owners," replied the captain of the San Bernardo.

"Let him come aboard the submarine with the five engineers," said the German. "I shall keep them as hostages."

The six men were kept in conversation on board the submarine by the underwater boat's commander, while bombs were being placed on board the San Bernardo. When the steamer blew up there was a moving picture operator on the bridge of the submarine, who took a picture of the entire proceedings.

"You seem to be annoyed," said the German captain in French to the super-cargo, as the latter glanced to the operator of the camera.

"Naturally, I would rather be a hundred miles away from you," replied the super-cargo, "but since you have without regard to our feeling, taken our pictures, Berliners will see that the English and French always have the smile."

The story adds that the men were not detained as hostages, but after the camera man had them on his films and their ship had been blown up, they were placed in one of the boats with the other members of the crew of the San Bernardo, and later landed at Newcastle.

A dispatch from London, August 12, announced that the British steamer San Bernardo, a vessel of 3,907 tons, had been torpedoed in the North Sea.

Taken For Aviator Who Dropped Zepp, Is Violently Kissed

Owen Sound Officer Awfully Embarrassed on Trip to London.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OWEN SOUND, Nov. 28.—Lieut. Hyle Beaton, an Owen Sounder who is with the 119th Sault Battalion, was treated to an unique reception when he took advantage of his first leave from Folkestone to visit London. He was to meet a friend at a certain bank and when he alighted from his taxi he found himself the centre of an immense crowd, apparently waiting for him. Amid lusty cheers they welcomed him, wrung his hands, kissed him, and generally overwhelmed him with their ovations. When he was able to extricate himself, he did so, but it was not until he met his friend that he learned the reason for all the excitement. It seems that Lieut. Beaton closely resembled Lieut. Robinson, the English aviator who was responsible for the downfall of a zeppelin, and who was received by the King, and that the crowd had mistaken the Canadian soldier for the English airman.

HOTEL PROPRIETORS DENY HAVING SOLD LIQUOR

Case in St. Thomas Adjourned Till Thursday.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

ST. THOMAS, Nov. 28.—The case against McLean & Son, proprietors of the Dake House, for alleged selling liquor, was today adjourned till Thursday. R. H. McLean and Harry McLean, both positively denied that they had sold whisky contrary to the Ontario temperance act.

Nelson Walker swore that he had been obtaining liquor for some time past at the Dake House; on each occasion he had obtained it from Harry McLean, son of the proprietor; he had not secured any liquor elsewhere since the 16th of September, with one exception, this being on Saturday evening when the supply at the Dake House ran short, and he purchased some from a "bootlegger" just outside the hotel. He also said that on Thursday last he was informed by the younger McLean that if he went upstairs he would sell him some whisky. He was conducted to a dark room where he purchased two bottles of whisky at $2 per bottle.

MORE THOROUGH SYSTEM FOR FIRE PREVENTION

Ontario Government at Last Wakes Up On Forestry Protection.

TORONTO, Nov. 28.—Reorganization of the forestry and fire prevention service of Ontario was announced by Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, minister of lands, forests and mines, today in addressing a representative deputation that called upon him to urge the need of a more thorough system of fire prevention. The minister stated that a branch of his department would be established, with an expert head, entrusted with the widest authority, to deal with all the problems arising in connection with forest protection and reforestation.

Later Hon. Mr. Ferguson announced that Edmund J. Zavitz, for the past few years connected with the forestry branch of the provincial service, would be appointed chief. An important part of his duty will be the formulating of a general scheme of patrols, telephone line and lookout stations. With Hon. Mr. Ferguson, he will also work out a scheme of settlers' permits for burning slash. Under the system proposed settlers will be allowed to burn off underbrush and slash only when weather conditions render it absolutely safe, and general conditions are satisfactory to a ranger of the department.

MAY BE SENSATION.

PARRY SOUND, Nov. 28.—It is stated that an inquest to be held here tomorrow night into the death of a young girl of this city will develop sensationally, and rumors have it that two prominent townsmen will be involved. It is claimed that the girl died from the effects of a criminal operation.

$200 FINE IMPOSED THOUGH LIQUOR IS ORDERED FROM QUE.

Magistrate Rules It Wholly Ontario Deal.

AN APPEAL IS LIKELY

First Case of Kind Since Prohibition Came Into Force.

BRANTFORD, Nov. 28.—Holding that the transaction took place wholly within the limits of the province of Ontario contrary to the provisions of the temperance act, Police Magistrate Livingston today imposed the minimum fine of $200 and costs on E. C. Andrich, former liquor dealer of this city, on a charge of selling liquor without a license.

This sentence sets a precedent, being the first of its kind in Ontario since prohibition came into effect. Many complications arose in the case which had to do with the delivery of a case of liquor in this city from a Montreal firm through an order received from Andrich. According to the evidence, the liquor was shipped to Brantford from Toronto. No evidence was produced to show that the case in question had been shipped from Montreal to Toronto.

The liquor was for a colored man, John Murray, recently fined $200 in police court. Murray purchased a money order made out to Andrich and mailed same to Montreal.

Some of the liquor was given by Murray to a local woman, it was claimed, and she was afterwards found dead in her house, and this led to the case. It is expected an appeal will be made. S. A. Jones, K.C., acted for prosecution, and James Haverson, K.C., of Toronto, for Andrich.

NEW COMMANDANT OF 248TH BATTALION ON JOB IN OWEN SOUND

Lieut.-Col. J. H. Rorke, Native of Thornbury, Is Popular.

NEW LEAGUE IN NORFOLK

Clergymen Band Together to Assist Recruiting Cause.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OWEN SOUND, Nov. 28.—Col. J. H. Rorke, the new O. C. of the 248th Battalion which will have headquarters here this winter, arrived in town from Thornbury yesterday, and saw several applicants for commissions in the new battalion. Active recruiting for the unit will commence in about two weeks.

Col. Rorke, who takes over the command from Col. W. N. Chisholm, will prove a popular officer. He is a native of Thornbury, and has been with Gordon Southam & Co. in Montreal, for the past few years. He went through the Boer war, and has been interested in military affairs for many years.

While his appointment came as a surprise to everyone, even Col. Chisholm not being aware of the change until he saw the announcements in the papers, it will be generally satisfactory. Col. Rorke's brother, Major H. V. Rorke, was an officer with the 20th Battalion company which went from Owen Sound.

Nurse Returns Home.

Miss Olive Kilbourn, an Owen Sound girl who has been nursing in France, returned last night from France, and will spend Christmas with her mother, Mrs. James Kilbourn. A reception will be given for her at the First Methodist Church on Wednesday night.

On Tuesday morning a campaign for the Y. M. C. A. work overseas will be inaugurated here. An attempt will be made to raise $3,000.

REV. CANON TUCKER IN KITH AND KIN MOVEMENT

[Special to The Advertiser.]

KITCHENER, Nov. 28.—Canon Tucker of London tonight addressed an organization meeting of the Associated Kin of Canadian Expeditionary Forces, explaining to a large audience the aim and objects of the association. Canon Tucker's speech was stirringly patriotic. His remarks were received with considerable enthusiasm. The speaker especially emphasized the strength of the appeal which the associated kin of the expeditionary forces can make for recruits.

He declared that the appeal of this organization was Dominion-wide, and that it was the last card that can be played in the voluntary system, which has been weighed in the balance and found wanting. That person was not a very desirable member of the society who had not some relative enlisted for service. He was of the opinion that kindred and relatives of those who had already enlisted could still be an influence to get recruits.

It was decided to organize a branch in the city, and Dr. J. F. Honsberger was appointed temporary chairman, and James T. Uttley, secretary. The next meeting will be held next Tuesday to appoint permanent officers and otherwise complete organization. Fifty citizens signed application blanks to become members.

LIEUT.-COL. H. A. GENET AND MAJOR PATTERSON WINNERS OF D. S. O.

BRANTFORD, Nov. 28.—Lieut.-Col. H. A. Genet of this city, commander of the 58th Battalion, has been recommended for the Distinguished Service Order. Information received here states that in addition to the officer commanding, 33 members of the battalion had been recommended for promotions, and that in the bunch were three other Brantford men.

Major William R. Patterson, son of Mayor Patterson of Paris, has been awarded the D. S. O. He is with the 4th Mounted Rifles, and led an attacking force with great courage and captured two enemy trenches. Later he organized bombing attacks and consolidated the position.

HOLSTEIN BREEDER DROPS DEAD.

SIMCOE, Nov. 28.—Death came suddenly about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon to John Lea of Townsend Township, a couple of miles north of Simcoe. He had not been feeling well during the day, and had been resting on the couch. Rising to his feet he fell over dead. He is survived by his wife, six daughters and two sons. He was a prosperous farmer and was a noted breeder of Holstein cattle.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

LOCAL MARKET DOES NOT REFLECT CHICAGO PANIC

Wheat Steady, But Drop Expected Soon—Other Prices Firm,

Although a semi-panic on the Chicago market brought wheat down several cents, the change was not reflected on the local market today. A drop is expected soon. Wheat sold here for $1.75 a bushel for new and $1.60 a bushel for old. Oats were unchanged at $2.20 to $2.30 a cwt., the majority of them selling for $2.25 a cwt. Little hay was offered, and the market was slow at $12 to $14.50 a ton. Straw was unchanged at $9.50 to $10 a ton.

Sales of imported potatoes have so far failed to reduce the price here, owing chiefly to the fact that only a few home-grown potatoes have been offered this week. They are selling for $2.25 to $2.40 a bag. New cabbages are bringing 60c to $1.50 a dozen, and dry onions $2.25 to $2.50 a bushel. Carrots bring 90c to $1 a bushel, parsnips $1 to $1,10 a bushel, and turnips 50c to 60c a bushel.

Apples are steady at 80c to $1.25 a bushel, and crabapples are unchanged at $1 a bushel. Pears are still offered at $1 to $1.25 a bushel.

Dairy prices have failed to climb higher and creamery butter is retailing for 48c to 50c a pound. Dairy butter, in rolls, is retailing for 46c to 48c a pound, while dairy butter, in crocks, brings 45c a pound. Eggs are unchanged at 48c to 50c a dozen. Dressed chickens are being sold retail for 90c to $1.40 a pair, and ducks for 70c to $1 each. Turkeys bring 26c a pound.

Live hogs are maintaining their slight jump, selling for $10.25 a cwt. Fat sows are selling for $7.25 a cwt. Dressed hogs are unchanged at $13.50 to $14 a cwt. Other butchers' meats are steady as well as wool and hides.

GRAIN.

Winnipeg, Nov. 28.—Wheat closed down all around today, ranging from 1¼c for November to 4¾c for May. Oats dropped in both months, and barley was unchanged to 3c lower. Flax gained 1c in November, 2¾c in December, and 1c in May.

A fair trade developed today. The opening gave way under a little liquidation, but some good buying came from outside sources, credited to foreign interests, which created a firm undertone in wheat during the session. The weak American markets could not break Winnipeg until near the close. No special feature was in the news.

The feature of the market was the heavy speculative trade in oats. A big line of shorts got out on the breaks, but oats could not be stopped, and were relatively much weaker than wheat.

In the cash market there was a little better demand for No. 1 northern. The lower grades were also in better demand, though Nos. 2 and 3 went through the option freely.

Barley was firm.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Wheat prices today showed decided power to rally. At first, however, the market gave evidence of much nervousness, and had to face an accumulation of over-night selling orders. On the other hand, word from the seaboard told of an improvement in export demand. The market was also bullishly affected by positive assertion that President Wilson disapproved of any embargo on foodstuffs, and that he would communicate his ideas to Congress.

Opening prices, which ranged from 2c decline to 1⅞c advance, with December at $1 66@1 66¾, and May at $1 74½ @1 76, was followed by a moderate general setback and then a sharp upturn to well above yesterday's finish.

WALL STREET.

New York, Nov. 29—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—Further moderate irregularity attended today's early dealings, declines far exceeding advances. Trading was of the same cautious character as that of the preceding session, professional operators, however, renewing or adding to their commitments for the short account. Coppers, equipments, motors and some shares of less specific description were lower by fractions to a point, with 2 points for Ohio Gas. Prices in general hardened later on the stronger tone of rails, the movement in that quarter being led by Reading, Union Pacific and Rock Island.

Noon.—The better tendency in rails embraced many other issues of that division, notably Baltimore and Ohio, Missouri Pacific and Wabash issues, Denver and Rio Grande preferred, Ontario and Western and Southern Railway. United States Steel threw off the pressure of the previous day, rising more than a point, with increased firmness in coppers, Anaconda featuring that group. Shipping shares made moderate improvement, with Mexicans, Central Leather and the paper issues. The effect of the federal reserve board's admonition was again apparent in the relative heaviness of international bonds, some of which added to yesterday's declines.

COTTON.

[Reported by Thomson & McKinnon.]

Chicago, Nov. 28.—The violence of fluctuations while natural at this level and to be expected, nevertheless, become rather discouraging as its natural tendency is to confuse the trade. Every little item of news now is magnified in importance and has its effect. Today's weakness in the cotton market was due to continued liquidation aided by a rumor to the effect that a private crop estimate had been published making the crop 11,333,000 bales exclusive of linters, and although it was subsequently denied that the report had been issued, nevertheless the effect was there. It seems to us that the present source fluctuations will induce a sufficient amount of liquidation to put the market in a healthy condition and subsequently when the real state of affairs is realized the market will again assert itself.

INQUIRY IN CONCLUDED INTO SARNIA HOUSE FIRE

Removal of Furniture Occupies Last End of Session.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

SARNIA, Nov. 28. — The inquiry into the Munro fire was resumed here today before County Crown Attorney Wilson, acting for the fire marshal's department, and the evidence of some of the previous witnesses was partly taken again. The point which received most of the attention was whether or not the occupants of the house had been told to lock the furniture in the house after the fire and leave it, as had been stated at the previous hearing. Fire Chief Breakey swore that he had issued no such notice, and could not understand why the statement had been made.

Police Officer Maitland told of his visit to the house on the night of the fire, and of the articles which he saw in the house, and in his opinion their value would be about $200.

A neighbor testified that he had seen some furniture taken from the house previous to the fire by a drayman, and had also seen a load brought back to the house. He saw Mrs. Munro, occupant of the house, and Miss Peavoy, the owner, carrying away a couch a few nights before the fire, and that on the night of the fire he had seen Miss Peavoy at the house at 7:30 p.m., whereas Miss Peavoy had previously stated that she had been there at 6:30. This ended the inquiry, with no decision given out.

WYOMING FLAX GROWERS NOT PAID FOR PRODUCT

Disappointed at Delay of Lambton Flax Company.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WYOMING, Nov. 28. — The farmers in this vicinity, who put considerable work on their land last spring, and then let it to the Lambton Flax Company, are sorely disappointed this fall, when, after the company has removed the flax and the time has long since expired for payment to be made for same, they find there is nothing forthcoming. Many thousands of dollars' worth of flax are piled in Petrolea and vicinity, and it is understood, provided none of the creditors presses his claim in a legal course, that Mr. Waddell, capitalist, of Trenton, has consented to withhold his claim of $10,000 advanced for operations, until the Petrolea claims have been satisfied as far as the assets will allow.

Reason for Life Insurance

PROTECTION AND INVESTMENT.

One cannot figure out how much better he could do by investing otherwise the annual payments for the insurance, since the policy may become due within the first year. Quite a number are thus paid every year. Even the estates of those who live into ripe old age will get back at least all premiums paid, and generally something for interest—to say nothing of the benefit of years of good protection. Then, too, it must be remembered that many investments turn out badly and leave grief and disappointment for the promised profit.

SARNIA MAY HOLD VICIOUS ASSAILANT OF PORT HURON MAN

Attempted Murder May Be Charge if Fugitive Is Caught.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

SARNIA, Nov. 28. — William Longworth, 2319 North Boulevard, Port Huron, is lying at his home in a critical condition, resulting from a murderous assault made upon him today at the plant of the Romeo Foundry Company of that city by Peter Osadeluck, and the police of Port Huron and of Sarnia are now conducting a search for the assailant.

Longworth is employed as a foreman at the foundry, and for some time has been having trouble with Osadeluck, and this trouble culminated in the discharge of the latter on Saturday last. Osadeluck returned to the plant on Monday to get his wages, and, contrary to orders, resumed his work. He was again discharged.

At an early hour this morning Osadeluck went to the foundry, and began calling names, and when Longworth turned his back Osadeluck grabbed a two-pound mallet and struck Longworth over the head seven or eight times. Longworth fell to the floor unconscious, and Osadeluck made his get-away.

A tip was received that the assailant had been rowed across the river to Sarnia, and from an address found in his effects at his boarding-house the police of the American city are of the opinion that he has escaped to this side and is in hiding in Sarnia. If caught a charge of attempted murder will probably be laid against him. Up to a late hour tonight he had not been captured by the local police.

ST. THOMAS, Nov. 28.—Negotiations for the purchase by the Carnation Milk Company of Seattle, Wash., of the plant of the Aylmer Condensed Milk Company, at Aylmer, Ont., owned by the Dominion Canners, Limited, were completed today. This is one of the largest plants of the kind in Canada. The new company will enlarge the plant.

147 Deserters at Prison Farm Are Affected By Order

Superintendent Has Had No Official Word Regarding Amnesty.

GUELPH, Nov. 28.—The order offering amnesty to deserters which was sent out from Ottawa this morning, will considerably reduce the numbers at the prison farm here, provided they are willing to rejoin their units. There are 147 men at the present time serving terms at the reformatory for desertion from the various units of the Canadian overseas forces.

Dr. Gilmour, superintendent of the reformatory, has as yet received no official word concerning these men.

Nine soldiers who enlisted at Windsor are affected by the duke's act of grace.

PREMIER HEARST SPEAKS AT GUELPH CAN. CLUB

Alludes to Shortage of Canada's Promised Army.

GUELPH, Nov. 28. — Premier Hearst was the speaker at the meeting of the Guelph Canadian Club this evening. There was a record attendance. The recent trip that the premier made to the front was drawn upon for the material in his address.

His chief point was that the Canadians were about the best soldiers at the front, and also that the wounded Canadians were receiving the best care that skill and money could provide.

"The end of the war is not yet in sight, and there must be no let-up in our efforts," was the nearest the premier came to acting the role of a prophet as to when the war would end. He also pointed out forcibly that Canada was still short of the half-million men that were pledged by the Government.

RETURNED SOLDIERS SEND IN RESIGNATIONS

Men Will Be Asked to Reconsider the Matter.

At the regular meeting of the Returned Soldiers' Association held in its rooms last night, it was decided to cease all discussion of events in connection with the secretaryship of the Soldiers' Aid Commission. A number of the members of the association mailed in their resignations as a protest against the result of the recent election. It was proposed and strongly seconded by Corp. D. E. Campbell that the resigning members be interviewed and requested to reconsider their decision.

Speaking in connection with the matter, Corp. Campbell strongly urged the men to forget the hard feeling that had arisen lately, and for the sake of the men who were still to come, to work in harmony with the Soldiers' Aid Commission. A mistake had been made, he declared, but the matter was settled definitely, and the new situation should be accepted in a manly spirit.

Suggestions were made as to means which might be adopted to secure a greater attendance at the weekly meeting of the association. It was proposed that some form of entertainment be held after each regular meeting. Nothing definite was decided, but the question will be brought up at the next meeting.

Pte. Graham suggested that a Christmas tree be arranged for the children of the members of the association. The idea was heartily received, and all arrangements will be completed at the next meeting.

A considerable amount of private business was transacted. Sergt. J. Struad occupied the chair in the absence of the president, Pte. Williams.

IMPROVE EAST END HALL

Board of Works to Fix Things Up At Once.

The board of works last night decided to improve the East End hall so that meetings may be held comfortably there. The protest of the trades and labor council against present conditions was received, and City Engineer Brazier instructed to put the place in as good condition as possible.

Complaints were made that the Grand Trunk crossings were not in good shape, and Superintendent Forester will be asked to make improvements at once.

The report on the street oiling and street watering was received from City Engineer Brazier, and was most satisfactory. The street watering will cost 1½ cents a running foot frontage, while the street oiling will cost 3½ cents a running foot. Formerly street watering cost 4 cents, and street oiling 5 cents. Some minor matters were disposed of.

BAPTIST MINISTERS MEET.

DENFIELD, Nov. 28.—The quarterly conference of Baptist ministers of the counties of Middlesex and Lambton, met in the Baptist Church today. The meetings were well attended and were held in the morning, afternoon and evening. Papers on live subjects were read by Revs. C. P. McFarlane, H. H. Bingham and H. Moule, which aroused plenty of discussion, the themes being, "Qualification for Church Membership," "Winning the Children for Jesus," and "What Jesus Taught Concerning Future Punishment." The evening meeting was of an evangelistic character, and was conducted by Rev. A. C. Bingham of London.

MANNED MACHING GUNS

Sergt. G. Harris Tells of the Precautions Taken on Board Ship.

A graphic and interesting account of the voyage of the 142nd Battalion from Camp Borden to Shorncliffe is given in a letter from Sergt. Grant Harris to his wife, who resides at 265 Grosvenor street. Sergt. Harris says:

We left Camp Borden on Saturday, October 28th, at 4:30 p.m., and took train for Halifax. The train was composed of colonist sleeping cars, a shelf above pulled down for one man to sleep, and two men to sleep on the seats underneath. Here we lived, ate and slept for three and a half days, reaching Halifax about 11 a.m., Wednesday, after a very tiring journey. The train journey was about 1,200 miles long, passing through Montreal near Quebec, through Reviere de Loup (French Quebec), St. John, to Campbelltown, N. B., Moncton, Truro, to Halifax, and after detraining we were kept on the platform waiting for orders to embark on the SS. Southland, White Star Line. About 3 p.m. we moved off to the quay and embarked right away, the ship leaving dock at 4:30 and steaming out of harbor to join three other steamers, and an auxiliary cruiser. We had a pretty rough voyage, cold, wet, and heavy seas running the whole ten days. Great numbers of the men and officers sick for the greater part of the time. On our ship there was one other battalion, the 196th, and some details. About 200 miles west of Ireland some destroyers met us and and escorted us into the Mersey. War conditions prevailed on board all the way; guards were mounted all over the ship. We carried one big gun at the stern, which the 196th took charge of, and one machine gun section had four machine guns on the boat deck and six good men picked out to help man them, yours truly being one of them. Our duties were four hours on guard or watch, and twelve hours off, pacing the lower bridge and sides, on the alert to detect any lurking submarine. Every man had to wear his life-belt all day, and go to bed with it in his hand, and we were all tolled off to different boats in case of accident. We had some inspiring receptions on the train from Liverpool, but as we were traveling all night with darkened windows we could see absolutely nothing. We arrived in Shorncliffe Camp at 4 a.m., Saturday, November 11th, and marched into camp in the dark in silence.

FAMOUS WOMEN WERE CLEVERLY IMPERSONATED

Entertainment in Hyatt Avenue Methodist Church Largely Attended.

At the Hyatt Avenue Methodist Church last night a representation of "Famous Women" took place.

Each character appeared dressed in a suitable costume to represent some famous woman, and in a few words gave the audience an account of her life. The judge, whose duty it was to decide who deserved the highest honor for having done the most for humanity, was impersonated by Mrs. A. E. Tutt. The other characters were: Queen Esther, Miss Emma Praff; Queen Isabella, Miss Bella Thompson; Jenny Lind, Mrs. V. Baty; Grace Darling, Miss Elsie Malpas; Frances Willard, Mrs. J. Addison; Mary, Queen of Scots, Miss R. Hodges; Madame Patti, Miss McGuire; Ophelia, Miss Lillian Manning; Topsy, Miss Carrie Mount; Eva, Miss Nellie Tutt; Laura Secord, Miss Maud Beecroft; Japanese girl, Miss Minnie Eason; Melba, Miss M. Burns; Maud Muller, Miss Elsie Anderson; nun, Miss Ruth Mantz; Indian woman, Miss Alma St. Clair; Italian girl, Miss Marguerite Gibson; Samantha Allen, Miss Ethel McLaughlin; Joan of Arc, Miss Jean Peace; Marie Antoinette, Miss Cora Patten; Madame Albani, Miss Lancaster; Madeleine Vercheres, Miss Edith Hutchinson; Rosa Bonheur, Miss Cora Davidson; Mother Goose, Miss Irene Hilbert; Scotch lassie, Mrs. Munro, introducing Sam and Dorothy Munro; Barbara Fritchie, Miss Dorothy Hutchinson; maid, Miss Pearl Mantz; fishwife, Miss Blanche St. Clair; Nordica, Mrs. C. Allport; Florence Nightingale, Miss Laura George; Queen Elizabeth, Miss Mabel Slyford; Britannia, Miss Madge Wigham; Queen Victoria, Miss Zetta Chown; Mrs. Pankhurst, Miss Margaret Eason; Miss Canada, Miss Iola Williams; the mother, Mrs. J. A. Moyer.

A number of songs were rendered during the course of the concert.

D. Sharratt, organist of the church, was accompanist. The band of the 118th Battalion provided a pleasing program.

Parts of the funds realized will go toward the bronze memorial tablet, which was recently unveiled in the church in honor of those members who had fallen in the war.

SOMME BATTLE TO BE DECISIVE, SAYS FREDERICK PALMER

Effect on Morale of More Importance Than Gains.

CANADIANS' FINE WORK

Had Chance of Initiative and Took It—Doing Fair Share.

"The greatest battle in history and the decisive battle of the war," was the way Frederick Palmer, accredited representative of the Associated Press on the western front, described the great struggle which is being waged on the Somme, in an interview in Toronto yesterday. "That place," he said, "is where the skill of the war meets." He was of opinion that it would be the effect of that battle upon morale and not the capture of two, three, or four miles of territory, which would prove decisive. Mr. Palmer declared that the fighting on the Somme had already weakened Germany more than had the battle around Verdun, and that there would be no cessation of hostilities during the winter months. British losses on the Somme had been heavy in July, about equal to those of the Germans in August, and much lighter than those of the Germans in September. He estimated that in that sector the casualties of the British, French and Germans totalled 1,500,000. As far as Mr. Palmer could see the war would last another year at least.

Canadians' Part.

The Canadians, Mr. Palmer said, had played a very great part. They had introduced trench raiding, a method of warfare which the Germans had since adopted, and they had done an extremely brilliant piece of work in the capture of Courcelette. "They had their chance for initiative, and they covered themselves with glory," quoth the war correspondent. He characterized the German story that colonial troops were being exposed to danger in order to spare British soldiers as "a ridiculous and rotten lie." One Newfoundland battalion, he said, was in the original attack on the Somme on July 1. The Canadians, Australians and New Zealanders were not brought to that front until September. Since September the Canadians had taken their turn with all the rest. Division by division, Canadian losses had not been as heavy as British losses.

Great British Work.

The British staff, Mr. Palmer continued, had done wonderful work, and the British army had improved, seized the initiative, taken the offensive and was going to keep on hammering. The "tanks" had, he estimated, saved the British 25,000 casualties, but the time had not yet come to give a description of them.

In conclusion, Mr. Palmer asserted that the British censorship was "fine." "They have revived the war correspondent," he said. "We can go around on the battlefield as freely as you can here."

Mr. Palmer will tell his wonderful story of the Somme and Verdun battles to a London audience in the Masonic Hall on Thursday night, speaking under the auspices of The Advertiser. There promises to be a large audience.

"SHELL BURIED ME, NOTHING TO SPEAK OF"

Plucky London Soldier Hit Coming Out of Trench.

Writing to his father, John J. Dalton, 666 Lorne avenue, Gunner Frank Dalton of the 3rd Canadian Division Trench Howitzer Brigade, writes that he is in the hospital at Newton Abbot, Devonshire, England.

"I was beating it out of a trench," he writes, "when a big shell exploded nearby. It buried me and a few small pieces hit me. Nothing to speak of though. My leg was crushed, but I am getting along fine and don't expect to have to stay in the hospital long. We have been through some heavy fighting and I consider myself lucky to get off so easily. Lots of poor fellows got it good and hard. I don't know if I will have to go back again or not. Maybe the next war I will help out again. This is a swell place, and talk about feed, we sure get plenty."

Pte. Albert Dalton, who is overseas with the Postal Corps, is a brother.

Pte. Dalton speaks in the highest terms of the nurses in both French and British hospitals.

MINSTREL SHOW WAS A SPLENDID SUCCESS

Entertainment in First Presbyterian Church Enjoyed by Big Crowd.

Drizzling rain and lowering skies outside took nothing from the success of the minstrel entertainment presented by the choir and orchestra of the First Presbyterian Church in the Sunday school last night. The school was completely filled with an audience which enjoyed every minute of a bright and varied program.

J. Brownlee, E. Crawford, W. Chater and R. S. Pollard, as end men, added much to the success of the evening by a witty repartee with the interlocutor, Miss Jean Walker. As a rampant suffragette, presenting the claims of her downtrodden sisters, Miss Cochrane was a decided hit, as was Miss Rita Gould in a "highly colored sketch" entitled, "Miss Johnsone's Kitching." J. Brownlee played well the part of the negro suitor. A vigorous sermon on the perversities of human nature, delivered by W. H. McKee in the character of the negro parson, was followed by a number of humorous epitaphs by R. S. Pollard. As soloists, Miss Weston, Miss Hayes, Miss Cullis and Messrs. F. Barr, Gordon Scott, Walter Neale, L. T. Lawrence, W. Chater, E. S. Crawford and R. S. Pollard were heard to advantage. A bright reading was rendered by Miss Jean Walker.

Selections by the chorus and orchestra were other delightful features of the evening.

WOMAN MAY RECOVER.

INGERSOLL, Nov. 28.—A slight improvement was reported today in the condition of Mrs. John Station, who Monday morning was struck by a C. P. R. passenger train. She, however, is in a very critical condition.
