MANY SHOWS MEET FAVOR

The Big Fontaine-Manley-Stacy Enterprises Attract Much Attention.

Brief Review of the Various Attractions - Considerable Interest Displayed.

All the shows along the street eemed to be pretty well patronized last night. There were crowds on the street till well on toward morning. Starting at the west end of the street is Mon Cavana, the high wire artist, who is well worthy of note. The lady minstrels is next. The performances of this company attracts many and has some good dancing. The Irish and folly dances last night

The electrical theatre is probably drawing the biggest crowds of any show on the street and is well deserving of all the patromage bestowed upon it. The life of a London fireman is the best on the bill.

"Don't tell anyone how it is done,"
the man on the door pleads with you as you imerge from the Palace of

The Ferris Wheel is fascinating and the cars were always filled last night. The ride in mid-air is safe, enjoyable and interesting.

McMahon, the champion high diver, takes his life in his hands every time he does his act. There is no breathing between the time he leaves the top and crawls out of the water.

Murphy, the armless and legless wonder, is well worth the price. The spiel that he gives you is alone well worth the admission charged.

Darling's Little Darlings are darlings indeed. The ponies and dogs are par excellence. The show is a fine one and will just suit the children. Seats are arranged around in this show and everything is complete for the entertainment of the boys and girls.

TWO GLADIATORS

An amusing scene transpired last vening on the street. Two harmless characters, well-known around town came inebriated to such an extent that navigation was difficult. They were good frienes at first, but when they each had more than they could hold, there was a falling out and a hold, there was a falling out and a decision was reached to settle their differences with their fists. Each made a giant swing at the other, but both were so full that they were bound to fall one way or the other, and each fell backwards. They were lying on the ground twn feet apart, but each thought the other had lanied and each set up a howl of "take him off." The situation was so funny that everybody set up a laugh.

CHARGE OF BIGAMY

Mrs. Mary Ann Connelly was ar rested yesterday on the charge of bigamy. Mrs .Connelly is a dainty look ing young lady and has a charming manner. She was married to Connelly eight years ago, when she was only 17 years old. Her husband has since een living in the States, where he is a motorman on a street-car. There is a motorman on a street-car. There was a collision between two cars and the wife heard that her husband had been killed. Some time afterwards, in October, 1903, she married Herbert McMullen, a Chatham Tp. farmer, When she learned that her husband was still living, Mrs. Connelly says she left husband No. 2.

She was arraigned yesterday on the charge of bigamy and pleaded not guilty. O. L. Lewis is defending. Bail to the amount of $400 is asked for.

Trooping to Other Points-Kuropatkin Reported as Defeated

London, Thursday, June 2 .- No confirmation yet has been received of the reported heavy fighting near Port Arthur or with Kuropatkin's army, although the latter is not regarded as improbable. Rumors persist that court influence at St. Petersburg actively is being exercised to induce Gen. Kuropatkin to assume the of-Gen. Kuropatkin to assume the offensive in an endeavor by a viotory to retrieve the Russian military reputation. The Daily Telegraph's St.
Petersburg correspondent says: "A recent council of war decided that Kuropatkin should risk an engagement. The Emperor ratified this judgment, even going so far as to authorize the despatch of troops from the German frontier to the far East on the ground that as Germany was benevolent, she might be trusted safely. All hopes are centered now on Kuropatkin, who will make desperate efforts to save Port Arthur. 'Against these statements may be placed the official contradiction communicated to the Associated Press, and already cabled that Gen. Kuropatkin would REINFORCEMENTS FOR KUROKI. MEINFORCEMENTS FOR KUROKI.

A despatch dated Che-Foo, June 2, 10 a. m., says: "Ohinese arriving from Taku-Shan say that a Japanese force, estimated at from six to ten last month, has proceeded to FengWang-Cheng. Reinforcements have,

it is reported, also been sent from

CRUISERS FOR RUSSIA.

The Morning Post's correspondent in Vienna learns that the Stabilimen-to Tecnico at Trieste has engaged to deliver five armored cruisers to Russia, the first two within a year, the others subsequently at intervals of ten months. HARBIN TO BE FORTIFIED.

The Moscow correspondent of the Times learns that Harbin is to be fortified speedily against the contingency of a siege. Heavy siege guns have left St. Petersburg already, really intended for Harbin, and others will be sent from Cromstadt and other first trians, fortresses for the same purpose. A painful impression has been produced by General Kuropat-kin's insistence on the necessity of making timely provision for a retreat to Harbin.

ANARCHY AT DALNY.

ANARCHY AT DALNY.

The Times correspondent at CheFoo cables: "During the interval of 30 hours between the Russian evacuation of Dalny and the Japanese occupation anarchy prevailed. The local Chinese officials allowed the prison to be forced, with the result that about 200 cut-throats had the run of the town. Some time will be required to make the ports of Dalny and TaLien-Wan safe for shipping to enter, as the San-Shanp-Tao Islands have been connected very successfully with the mainland by mines zig-zagging over a large field. The damage to the Russian works ashore is insignificant.
The Japanese have much railway material on the way. There is no information yet as to the fate of the Russian gunboat and four, transports which were in Ta-Lien-Wan Bay during the battle of Kia-Chou. It is just possible that the Bobr slipped away during the night of May 26.

TO INVEST PORT ARTHUR.

TO INVEST PORT ARTHUR. "Immediately after Ta-Lien-Wan shall have been made safe, a Japanese siege train will be fanded, when presumably the second army corps will quietly invest Port Arthur, while a third army corps and a specially organized flying column will co-operate with the first army corps in the advance on Mukden."

To the Reeve and Council of the Township of Harwich:

Gentlemen...In reference to the petition of J. K. Laird, asking that part of the centre part of the N. E. half of lot 18 in Con. 3, L. E. survey, be drained by means of a drain, I beg to state that I have made an examination of the locality and find that I cannot do anything towards ear-Ination of the locality and that that I cannot do anything towards carrying out the prayer of this petition.

Mr. Laird wants the water that is now being brought down along the sideroad to be continued past his place along the sideroad by means of a tile train. This work would be very expensive if made a sufficient size to carry off all the water brought down to this point, and in case it were done the petitioner would not be as-sessed for benefit.

In any case I would not recommend the carrying off of the water in this way.

All of which is respectfully submit-ted. Jas. A. Rell, C. E. St. Thomas, May 14th, 1904.

Gravel and Bladder Disease Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto Bricklayer Relieved of Those Terrible Troubles—Medical Science Makes Another Move Forward.

Makes Another Move Forward.

Toronto, Ont., May 30.—(Special).—
Medical science has at length awakened to the fact that Gravel and other bladder troubles are caused by disordered kidneys and that the modern method of curing them is to cure the kidneys with Dodd's Kidney Pills. This does away with those terrible operations that in past years have been all too common.

The case of William Thomas, bricklayer, 158 Mill street, this city, is one of the recent proofs of the efficiency of the treatment. Mr. Thomas says:

ciency of the treatment. Mr. Thomas says:

"I had been troubled with Gravel and Bladder Disease for seven years. I had to go to the hospital and have water taken Irom me. I tried medicines of different kinds but they failed to remove the trouble.

"Hearing of cures by them prompted me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, and after taking them for a time I passed a stone the size of a large bean. Four boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills made a complete cure in my case."

WANT JUDGESHIP

Attorney General Gibson and Sir Wm Mulock Said to be Hot-Foot After Plums.

Ottawa, June 1 .- (Special.) - The rumor is current in political circles here that Attorney-General J. M. Gibson is contemplating retiring from the provincial cabinet as soon as possible, and is endeavoring to secure the ap-pointment to the unfilled position of chief justice of the new exchequer division of the high court. The recent visit of the attorney-general to Ottawa is now understood to have that object in view, and it is not secret that considerable influence is being brought to bear upon the government to provide Mr. Gibson with a berth of that

Sir William Mulock is also said to have been making eyes at the position, but it is believed among lawyers that his qualifications for the job, in a legal sense, are by no means exceptional.

E. F. B. Johnston, having declined the honor, the chances of Mr. Gibson have grown very much of late, and as a prominent Ontario bencher stated today, his movements among the members of the bar at late and the cultivabers of the bar at late and the cultivation of more intimate acquaintamee, which he is evidently seeking, tend to strengthen the idea that he is to get a place on the bench, if not a chief justiceshiap, the position on the chancery division made vacant by the death of Justice Ferguson.

An unusually well-formed politician who is in the city is authority not only for the statement that the attorney-general is hot-foot after a judgeship, with good chances of getting it, but that with his retirement and also that of Mr. Latchford, Mr.
Ross, with an insufficient majority to carry on business, will be afforded

OLD AGE.

OLD AGE.

Old age as it comes in the orderly process of Nature is a beautiful and majestic thing. The very shadow of eclipse which threatens it, makes it the more prized. It stands for experience, knowledge, wisdom and counsel. That is old age as it should be. But old age as it often is means nothing but a second childhood of mind and body. What makes the difference? Very largely the care of the stomach. In youth and the full strength of manhood it doesn't seem to matter how we treat the stomach. We abuse it, overwork it, injure it. We don't suffer from it much. But when age comes the stomach is worn out. If can't prepare and distribute the needed nourishment to the body, and the body, unnourished, falls into senile decay. Dr. 'Pjerce's Golden Medical Discovery is a wonderful medicine for old people whose stomachs are "weak" and whose digestions are "poor." Its invigorating effects are felt by mind as well as body. It takes the sting from old age, and makes old people strong.

old English Terms For Groups of Persons and Animals.

In a book on British sports, written in the eighteenth century, Joseph Strutt gives the old English terms for groups of various beasts as follows: "When beasts went together in companies there was said to be a pride or flons, a lepe of leopards, a herd of harts, of bucks and of all sorts of deer; a bevy of roes, a sloth of boars, a sownder of wild swine, a drift of tame swine, a route of wolves, a harras of horses, a rag of colts, a stud of mares, a pace of asses, a baren of mules, a team of oxen, a drove of kine, a flock of sheep, a tribe of goats, a skulk of foxes, a cete of badgers, a richness of martins, a fesynes of ferrets, a huske or a down of hares, a nest of rabbits, a clowder of cats and a kyndall of young cats, a shrewdness of apes and a labor of moles."

Similar terms were applied to gatherings of human beings. Strutt gives them as follows: "A state of princes, a skulk of thieves, an observance of hermits, a lying of pardoners, a subtitite of sergeants, an untruth of somp-ners, a multiplying of husbands, a safeguard of porters, a stalk of forest-ers, a blast of hunters, a draft of but-lers, a temperance of cooks, a melody of harpers, a poverty of pipers, a drunkenship of cobblers, a disguising of taylors, a wandering of tinkers, a malpertness of pedlars, a fighting of beggars, a rayful—that is, a netful—of knaves, a blush of boys, a bevy of la-dies, a nenpatience of wives, a gagle of women, a gagle of geese."

In the old days the word "leash" was applied to three greyhounds, while two were "a brace." On the other hand, two spaniels or harriers were called "a couple." A number of hounds went under the term of "a mute of hounds," while it was correct to speak of "a kennel of raches, a litter of whelps and a cowardice of curs."

WHY THEY ARE POOR.

Their ideas are larger than their

They are easy dupes of schemers and They reverse the maxim, "Duty be-

They do not think it worth while to save nickels and dimes. They have risked a competence in

They think it will be time enough to begin to save for a rainy day when the rainy day comes.

They risk all their eggs in one basket when they are not in a position to watch or control it.

Helping Him Out. Mrs. Hoyt, wife of Charles Hoyt, the playwright, added much to the enjoy-ment of a Lambs' club banquet in Chicago by her sharp and witty tongue, always ready for a home thrust. Mr. Hoyt was second on the list of speakers and was badly frightened. He con cluded that he would plunge quickly into his speech when called upon, and, with this idea, he arose briskly when announced and started in: "Ladies and gentlemen, I feel honored, I'm sure, by this request of the toastmaster, but it is so unexpected I really had no time to prepare—a—I really had no time to pre-pare—a"— And he stopped. Every one felt sorry for him, but Mrs. Hoyt seemed in ne way disturbed. When she no-ticed his predicament she turned to-

Reading and Thinking. The things one merely reads about never stick. Those on which one thinks become permanent acquisitions; hence the man who is not afraid of thinking and who does not dread "that thinking and who does not dread that cursed hour in the dark" is at a dis-tiact advantage on every ground. He passes the time without being bored, and he strengthens his mind. To say this may no doubt sound slightly priggish, but it is none the less true. The man who can enjoy and make use of his own thoughts has a heritage which can never be alienated. Even blindness for him loses some of its terrors.-"My cook, an old darky, informed me one morning: 'Miss Annie, I's goin'

"'But, Maria,' I said, 'you've got a "But, Maria, I said, you've got a husband alive and haven't been di-vorced. It would be bigamy!"
"'Well, Miss Annie, I don't care;

Getting Out of Debt.

"What was it your husband wanted to see me about?" inquired Mrs. New-liwed's papa.

"I think he wanted to borrow a couple of hundred dollars from you," she said. "He's so anxious to get out of debt."

"This is a funny ship."
"How so?"
"They have no clock in the cabin."
"Oh, no! But they always keep a watch on the deck."

"It's cruel of you to snub him. He's a good sort, if he is a rough diamond."
"That's the reason he needs cutting."
