School Board Has Surplus Of One Thousand Dollars

Rumors Of An Overdraft Were Entirely Without Foundation
—Chairman Paxton, Mr. Robertson And Mr. McNabb Come In For Words Of Praise

The last Public School Board meeting that the reporters of the Maple City dailies will record for some time was held last evening in Harrison Hall.

Those who were present to witness the last moments of the Public School Board in Chatham were Chairman Paxton and Trustees Robertson, Somerville, McKeough, Morley, Lentest, Andrews, McArthur and Brackin.

The most important part of the meeting was the announcement from the chairman of the Finance committee, Dr. Geo. T. McKeough, relative to the state of the finances of the Board of 1906. A short time ago it was rumored in certain municipal circles that the Board would have to overdraw their account this year.

It was shown last evening that there were absolutely no grounds for this report, and instead, the Board after paying all running expenses of the year and extra expenses incurred through building and repairs which were necessary, they are not in debt, but they have a surplus of about $1,000. This is a most satisfactory state of affairs and speaks volume for the excellent business ability of the members of last year's Board. They have proven excellent managers, and it is to the credit of the city that so many of them have been elected to positions on the new Board of Education.

The following was the Finance committee's report:

FINANCE COMMITTEE.

The committee recommended the payment of accounts amounting to $1,859.50.

The committee decided to recommend that the following accounts be referred back for further discussion—Brisco Bros., football, $3.00; The Planet, $1.75; and Thomas Stone & Son, $63.37.

The committee deemed it advisable to bring to the attention of the Board the gratifying fact that after paying all the running expenses for the year as well as paying out all indebtedness in respect of building and repairs, the Board will conclude the year with a cash balance in the bank of at least $1,000.

The report was unanimously adopted amidst great applause.

A communication was read from Mr. Merchant of London, asking for the names of the Chatham kindergarten instructors. He wished this information for the Ontario Educational Association. Referred to Mr. McArthur with power.

An account with Ward Stanworth was ordered paid.

WAS PLUMBERS' FAULT.

A communication was read from the Steam Heating Company asking relative to the heating account for the Central school. The statement had been made to the effect that the accounts were high on account of negligence on the part of the company. It has been shown since that the fault did not lie with the company but with the plumber who installed the system. The first report had injured the company's business.

Mr. Somerville—it is not right that the company should be liable for this insinuation. We have no trouble at all now and it has been found that the trouble in the first place did not lie with the company. We were assured by the company that our rate for heating for the last year would not be over $1,000, and we are almost sure to come out for far less than that amount. During the holidays the heat was not turned on in the radiators but left in the main pipes. All through the holidays, the heat from the main pipes was sufficient to heat the whole school. Of course the weather was warm, but even in the cold weather, there is no trouble about the heat.

ONE TEACHER WILL GO.

Mr. Park drew the attention of the Board to a recommendation made in his report to the effect that a reduction of the teachers in the Central school was necessary. At present there is one teacher too many, and one of the teachers was not a qualified teacher but was teaching on a renewal. The Board have a by-law to the effect that teachers holding either a first or a second class certificate shall be employed by the Board, but when the teacher referred to was appointed, it was impossible to get anyone else. Now there is no necessity for the extra teacher.

After some discussion, it was decided to adopt the Inspector's report. Inquiry was made as to the special committee appointed to consider a reduction in the Kindergarten staff.

Mr. McArthur reported that the committee was appointed to consider a reduction of the whole teaching staff of the city. They had not met, and therefore had no recommendation to make to the Board.

It was decided to leave the matter over for the Board of Education.

NON-RESIDENT FEES.

Mr. McNabb reported that during the year he had received from non-resident pupils in the schools the sum of $191.50. This was considered a small sum, but it was found difficult to keep track of all the fees.

A PARTING SHOT.

Mr. Morley referred again to the Blight & Fielder account which had been charged up to the School Board and for which the Board claimed they were not responsible. He thought that the Board should not be compelled to pay this account. Mr. Robertson was of the same opinion.

Dr. McKeough thought that in view of the surplus the Board might afford to be generous and pay the account.

Mr. McNabb reported that he had written to the clerk in reference to the matter, but he had not received a reply.

Mr. Robertson—Was it an honest transaction?

Mr. Paxton—Far from it!

It was decided to leave the matter over for the new Board.

PRaise FOR PAXTON.

Then came one of the most interesting parts of the evening's program. Dr. McKeough called for the chairman to vacate the chair and asked Mr. Robertson to officiate in that capacity for a few minutes.

Dr. McKeough then addressed the retiring chairman, Mr. Paxton, and in a few well chosen words he expressed the regret of the Board that his term of office was completed.

"I now make a motion with a great deal of emotion," said he, "to take the greatest pleasure in moving a vote of thanks to the man who has so ably presided over the meetings of this Board during the past year. We regret that his term of office is completed. He has filled that position in many respects in a more admirable way than any of his predecessors. Since what I do say on the Board, I have never seen a chairman who has given his attention to the duties of the position to the same degree as has Mr. Paxton. During the year many repairs and additions have been made to the schools. The old Board leaves the schools in excellent condition. A great deal of this work had to be done. The public thought a lot of it unnecessary, otherwise Mr. Paxton would have been elected in the recent contest. He, and Mr. Robertson, have given much valuable time and personal attention to this work, and we deeply regret that the public did not appreciate this more."

"I have done your duty, and we would have you know, that the other members on the Board, who understand, do appreciate this. In presiding at the meetings the chairman has been brief and to the point and the discussions throughout the year have not been unnecessarily long."

Mr. Morley seconded the motion, and added a little to what the doctor had said. Mr. Paxton had often helped Mr. Morley in many matters, especially in the steam heating matter, where his advice was most valuable and saving to the city.

The motion was carried by a standing vote, followed by much applause.

TO MR. ROBERTSON, TOO.

Mr. Somerville then tendered the thanks of the Board to both Mr. Paxton and Mr. Robertson.

Mr. Robertson, in extending to Mr. Paxton the vote from the Board, said that in his opinion every word was true. "I have done nothing worthy of comment," said he, "but you have done even more than your duty."

In a few brief words Mr. Paxton thanked the members of the Board for the kind words they had tendered him. It gave him great pleasure to leave the Board when the schools were in such excellent condition. It was also a pleasure to him to feel that he had done something towards putting them in this condition. Any work he had done had been done because he enjoyed doing it.

MR. MACNABB HONORED.

Dr. McKeough then moved a vote of thanks to Mr. McNabb, the faithful and efficient secretary of the Board, for the excellent manner in which he had performed his duties during the whole time he has served as the Board's secretary.

Mr. Brackin seconded this motion and in doing so he expressed his great regard for Mr. McNabb, felt not only since he had been elected to the School Board, but also when he was a newspaper reporter.

This motion was also unanimously carried amidst applause.

Mr. McNabb made a brief reply, saying that he had enjoyed his work ever since he was appointed to the position eighteen years ago.

MEETING OF NEW BOARD.

The first meeting of the new Board of Education will be held next Thursday evening at eight o'clock. The members will meet on Thursday afternoon at five o'clock in Mr. Brackin's office for organization purposes.

The following is a summary of the Inspector's report as read at last night's meeting:

Split In Local Liberal Party The Cause Of Much Uneasiness

The Machine Element Is Becoming Bolder As It Grows Stronger And The Thinking Men Of The Party View This With Much Alarm—Discontent Prevails

Those who are next to what is going on in the inner political circles of this city, had something interesting to watch in the recent municipal elections. It is now almost common property that it would have been much better for the local Liberal party, had the election turned out somewhat differently. The results of the polling, together with the scheming which preceded the election, have by no means tended to lessen the breach which has existed for some time among local Liberals, and those who hold the best interests of the party before everything else view the situation with alarm, and hopelessly long for a patching up of the split which is silently becoming wider every day, and which threatens to overthrow organization and any chance for future unity.

It has been known for some time that a certain clique has been earnestly at work in the Liberal party, gobbling up everything in sight, and trying to manage things to suit themselves. In many ways they have been successful. They have to a great extent captured the Liberal patronage in both Houses, and have by no means forgotten themselves when there are any benefits to be received from the party. Their actions have been noted by the stronger element of the party with anything but approval, and there is a pronounced impression among many honest-minded Liberals that these men are after too much. They think there are other men in the party who have done more for the Liberal cause in this county who should receive a little consideration, and some have gone so far as to express themselves quite strongly on the subject.

Matters were drifting along in an unsatisfactory state until the municipal campaign commenced. Then the wires commenced to hum. The Liberal machine was in evidence early and it worked late. The result is that the party men favored by the clique fared well while others of the same shade of politics were not in it very strong at the finish. Just why this was the case is only known by the favored few who happen to be in the most of it.

It will be noticed from the returns that the Liberals elected are in the majority. As the better element of both parties believe that municipal elections should be run apart from politics, the Liberal machine had the field to themselves and they certainly made the most of it.

It is a conspicuous fact that Mayor-elect Stone is a Liberal. In the new Council, the Liberals have a majority. The first three elected are Liberals, and others appear later on. The two men at the head of the polls for the Board of Education are Liberals. So it will be seen that the machine was not idle. They practically carried the men they wanted to carry.

Conspicuous among the Liberals who lost was ex-Ald. John Edmondson. Mr. Edmondson was a good alderman and is also a good Liberal. Two other men who are generally looked upon as the two strongest men who ever sat at the Public School Board, and men who rank high in the estimation of the Liberal party of this county, are Messrs. Robertson and Paxton. These two men have served the city faithfully for a number of years on the School Board, and their worth is universally recognized both as men and as public servants. People are asking why they were left when the Liberal sentiment was so strong throughout the whole election. "Knitted by the Machine" is a common explanation by those who have been watching events, and in this case the little Liberal clique of relatives and chosen friends is not only dangerous to the friends of its own party, but it is also a menace to the city at large, by robbing the citizens of the services of these worthy representatives.

The men who were not included in the "Liberal state" are the least interested in the matter. They look upon the present defeat with comparative indifference, but there are other men of influence in the Liberal party who look beyond present events, and to them the results of the election are not pleasant to think about. They see danger ahead. The strong-minded element of the Liberal party do not entirely approve of the actions of this clique, but they have kept them in office because they are energetic and untiring workers at election time, thinking of course that there are enough of the better class of Liberals in the party to keep these men in check and to keep everything balanced.

The machine, however, made a big mistake by carrying everything before them in the municipal elections. They have now proven their strength and this is what causes so much uneasiness among the Liberals of the old school. Flattered by their success the clique is already planning for the future, and how they will control the whole party. There are whisperings of whom THEY will elect as candidates for the political elections. It is hinted that it will not make much difference if the men they select will be defeated or not—they will have the patronage. This idea of greed behind it all is what alarms the thinking men of the party, and just at present there is a strong feeling among most Liberals that a re-organization of the party along improved lines is in order, and must be accomplished if the party itself is to sustain any degree of prestige in the community.

Lumber famine in Winnipeg. Winnipeg, Jan. 8.—Lumber prices have taken a sudden leap and the outlook is far from bright, for Winnipeg builders this year. Since Dec. 1 the price of wholesale lumber has gone up nearly $3. The principal cause of the advance is the inability to get the lumber out this winter, owing to the heavy fall of snow and the scarcity of men.

New Motto on Coins.

Paris, Jan. 8.—Finance Minister Caillaux has directed the authorities of the mint to substitute on all coins the words, "Liberty, Equality and Fraternity," for the old device of "God Protect France," in accordance with the amendment to the budget appropriation, forming a coin which was adopted by the Chamber of Deputies.

A VINDICATION.

Among the many closely contested and supremely interesting elections held in Kent County this year there were none watched with more absorbing interest than the one in Orford. There have been many important happenings in this township during the past year and one of the chief of these was a government audit of the township books conducted by A. F. Falls, of this city. Mr. Falls, in the course of his work, found many things of which he could not approve, and he felt it his duty to incorporate these in his report, suggesting remedies which if carried out to the letter would not be very comforting to certain township officials.

In the first place the audit was opposed by some of the ratepayers of the township, including the officials and Mr. Robert A. Spence, who was then Reeve of the township. Influence was brought to bear in certain quarters to have Mr. Falls' report ignored.

As is always the case in any public affair, there were men on both sides, and the present election finally came down to a contest over the audit. Mr. Falls' report was the issue of the campaign, and it is interesting to note the result.

Robert Spence, last year's Reeve, was in favor of throwing out the recommendations contained in the report. In the Highgate Monitor he is quoted as saying at the municipal nominations:

"I will not say I will accept the report when it is not right. It does contain little errors. I have not rejected it. The auditor can collect his salary by law."

John B. Peets, a former councillor, was nominated against Mr. Spence by the opposing faction and in his nomination speech he is reported thus in the Monitor:

"He believed the Government audit report perfectly correct, and considered Mr. Falls a competent man. In conversation with J. L. Rycraft a few days ago that gentleman said, 'Mr. Falls' equal as an auditor cannot be found in the country.' * * * Gentlemen, if I am elected Reeve for 1907, the auditor's report will be carried out to the letter."

It will be seen from this that Mr. Falls' recommendations were the basis for a spirited fight and the result as received yesterday afternoon was that Mr. Peets was elected Reeve by 63 majority. Arthur Leverton, another man who favored the audit, was elected Deputy Reeve, while the Councillors Moore, Ferguson and Blue are, it is understood, sympathizers with Mr. Peets in this fight.

So it will be seen that the result is a complete vindication for Mr. Falls' audit and the men who supported it. The Township of Orford is to be complimented upon thus speaking out for fair dealing with all men and for electing men who will fearlessly support the utmost publicity in matters pertaining to the welfare of the Township.

"Thought it Meant Death Sure."
—Mrs. James McKim, of Dunnville, Ont., says of her almost miraculous cure from heart disease by Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart: "Until I began taking this remedy I despaired of my life. I had heart failure and extreme prostration. One dose gave me quick relief and one bottle cured me. The sufferings of years were dispelled like magic." 3

THE STAGE

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

(Supplied to The Planet by Press Agents.)

At the Brisco Opera House—
Jan. 8—Dorothy Vernon, of Haddon Hall.
Jan. 11—Jessie McLaughlin Concert Co.

LAURA BURT AND HENRY STANFORD IN "DOROTHY VERNON OF HADDON HALL."

The Dorothy of Laura Burt in "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall" in the dramatization of Charles Major's novel of that name which comes to the Opera House to-night, is a character of delightful animation. Since dainty Dorothy of the Hall stepped from the confines of books and took her place on the more spacious and revivifying stage, her adaptability to the theatre has been proven time and again, and her possibilities for artistic acting have been the cause of plaudits from thousands, in conjunction with John Manners, son of the Earl of Rutland, who dares and does so much for his lady love.

Laura Burt's Dorothy is more than the "poor, shrewish, red-haired, frocked witch" she calls herself, after the fashion of the outspoken occupants of Haddon Hall. She fears again that in the mind of her betrothed she is a "bold, immodest, brazen girl," but Miss Burt's Dorothy is admirable because she does not appeal altogether to the fun closely approaching farce which might be produced by the portrayal of a troublesome vixen, but makes the character winsome by her gentler method at times and picturing the inner sweetness of the maid of one and twenty who had not until then felt the touch of the first lover's kiss. The comedy of turbulence of the temerarious Dorothy is outdone by the romantic loveliness of the Dorothy devoted to Sir John Manners.

LAURA BURT.

In "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall."

The story of the play is well known. The present production is more animated than the ordinary, as when Dorothy strips her bodice and bares her shoulders to the butcher's lash at the command of Sir George Vernon. At that Miss Burt is more reserved in the scenes demanding tempestuous rage and is artistic in making her wide change of humors.

In the Southern States and in Indianapolis it has been no uncommon occurrence for Miss Burt to be so strongly applauded that after six or seven curtain calls she has been compelled to come to the foot-lights and thank the audience for its appreciative attitude, and in Toronto and Ottawa at Christmas time the same enthusiasm was manifest.

Henry Stanford, who with Miss Burt was a member of the late Sir Henry Irving's company, is an admirable Sir John. He possesses the youth, dignity of carriage and handsomeness necessary to make him an appealing hero. There is not the slightest ranting in his interpretation of the part, and he is one of the few male stars whom nature has favored who does not make a strong appeal to the foot-lights. His acting in the part of one easily an idol possesses realism too seldom seen.

The scenery prepared for this production of a romantic comedy is more than adequate. It is not only accurate, but possesses splendor as well.

JANUARY CLEARING SALE

AT NORTHWAY'S

Here's a Sale worth while—a sale with a reason and an object and a result. Here's a sale with a method and a meaning. Here's an annual sale—a sale believed in, anticipated and awaited. Here's a sale greater than all our previous January Sales, a sale you must not miss.

The reason is clear and the object is clearance and the result is clearance. The method is price cutting and the meaning—to you is savings. Now's the time we deal in foresight and forehandedness. We begin to prepare for the Spring—to force out Winter goods—to clean up broken lines, remnants and oddments—to move surpluses—to turn goods into cash.

This is clearance. And how do we do it? Simple—Very simple. Just by applying the old, old method—price-reducing in a big hearted, generous, fearless manner. By disregarding profits and by even overlooking losses. By giving bargains better and greater than at any other time or by any other store.

Every department is represented in this upheaval of values and downfall of prices. Nearly everything in the store is bereft of profit and priced for YOUR benefit.

THE NORTHWAY CO., LIMITED.

curate, but possesses splendor as well. The entire cast lends excellent assistance to as good a presentation of this ever delightful story as one could expect to see.

Miss Jessie MacLachlan, under the management of Sweeney, Shipman & Company, brings for her tour of the United States and Canada a splendid company of representative Scotch artists. Mr. Douglas Young, the well known Scottish lyric tenor, who made the transatlantic tour with Miss MacLachlan prior to her Australian triumphs, will be with the company again this year. Mr. Young has added much to his reputation since then, and it was thought for a time that Miss MacLachlan would be unable to secure his services, as he is greatly in demand, not only in Scotland, but the English metropolis and Provinces as well. Mr. John McInden, cellist, and Mr. Robert Buchanan, accompanist and conductor, will also be members of the MacLachlan Company this season. Mr. Murray Graham, the young Glasgow pianist, who has established such an excellent reputation throughout Scotland, will be the fourth member of the company, and while a stranger to Canadian audiences, he will not doubt be warmly welcomed, for the ecumenism of the press of Scotland are any criterion by which to judge his ability.

In the selection of her company Miss MacLachlan has endeavored to secure the best artists to be had in Scotland, as it is her ambition to make this, her farewell tour of Canada, the "banner" one of her career. At the Brisco Opera House on Friday, Jan. 11th.

YOUNG'S BIG SHOW.

Local play-goers will be glad to learn that their old favorites, the Youngs, are to be in the Brisco Opera House all next week. Mr. Young and his clever wife, and supported by a very capable company of fifteen people, have been highly praised by press and public throughout Ontario. This clever company will open Monday night, Jan. 14th, with the great comedy success, "Old Kentucky." Truly a great play and a host of specialties, etc. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS.

Pazo Ointment is guaranteed to cure any case of Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days, or money refunded. 50 cents.

TOO LONG.

Yielding to Medical Advice.

"Mabel, the doctor says you drink entirely too much coffee. It is not good for you."

"Why, mamma, it doesn't hurt me a particle, and I like it too well to quit using it. I just couldn't get along without my coffee."

"And Mme. Lockes, the celebrated authority on beauty, says it is ruinous to the complexion."

"Oh, well, if the doctor thinks I ought not to drink it any more I'll drop it, of course."

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

This wonderful cough and cold medicine contains all those very pine principles which make the pine woods so valuable in the treatment of all lung affections.

Combined with these is Wild Cherry Bark and the soothing, healing and expectorant properties of other pectoral herbs and barks.

For Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Pain in the Chest, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Hoarseness or any affection of the Throat or Lungs, you will find a sure cure in

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

Mrs. H. A. Misenor, Port Williams, N.S., says: "My son had a dreadful cough, it lasted in the fall and lasted all through the winter."

At last we became very much alarmed about it and started to use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and before he had used one bottle his cold was completely cured."

Price 25 cents per bottle. Put up in a yellow wrapper. Three pines trees the trade mark.

Refuse substitutes. Dr. Wood's is the genuine.

Historic Timepiece.

The old astronomical clock in the first and second quadrangles at Hampton Court Palace, which has gone continuously for many years without stopping, has suddenly ceased to keep time. It stopped at six minutes to eleven a few mornings ago, through the slipping of a pin in the mechanism, and is now being thoroughly overhauled. The circumstance is of interest, as there is a tradition at the palace that the clock had not stopped from any accidental cause for over a century. The present clock is a restoration of the original clock, erected about 1560, when Henry VIII. and Queen Catherine Howard lived at Hampton Court. A clock that originally belonged to the queen's apartments at St. James' Palace was removed to Hampton Court in 1835, and put in the place of the old clock, which was laid aside in an out-house of the palace until 1879, when the board of works ordered its restoration to its original position. As, however, a practically new machine had to be made to perform the old movements, little remains of the original clock except its pictorial dial. This has three discs, which combine to show not only the hours of the day, but the days of the month, the motion of the sun and moon, the moon's phase, phases, quarters, etc. The clock is wound up weekly, and this ordinary face to the clock in the first court, which was added in 1649.

Col. Cameron's Sudden Death.

Brantford, Jan. 8.—One of Brantford's prominent citizens, in the person of Col. Ed. Cameron, expired as he was entering his home about six o'clock last evening. He was in excellent health all day, but towards evening began to feel weak and walked home from his office. Death was due to heart failure.

Col. Cameron was Superintendent of the Six Nations Indians and was appointed to that position in 1891.

He was formerly a lawyer, and was commanding officer of the 38th regiment.

Rev. W. MacWilliam Dead.

Toronto, Jan. 8.—The death occurred about midnight yesterday of Rev. William MacWilliam, who for many years had been librarian of Knox College. Deceased was in his 70th year.

Deceased formerly preached at Streetsville, Ont., and then became a missionary at Prince Albert in the west. Later he had a charge at Port Hope.

About 10 years ago he was appointed librarian at Knox College and also taught in the Bible Training School on College street. The late Mr. MacWilliam was a man of particularly ripe scholarship, though modest and retiring in his manner. A widow, a son and two daughters survive.

Lieut.-Col. Stewart Dead.

London, Jan. 8.—(C. A. P.)—Lieut.-Col. K. Stewart, C.M.G., a Scotch-Canadian, late King's messenger, a well-known soldier, is dead. Lieut.-Col. Stewart was an officer of the Gordon Highlanders and served with distinction at Tel-el-Kebir and other battles in the Sudan and Nile campaigns.

Dr. John Kilman Dead.

London, Jan. 8.—(C. A. P.)—John Kilman, M.D., a lifelong friend of Robert Macbray, died in Edinburgh Sunday.

Lived 50 Years in Stratford.

Stratford, Jan. 8.—D. Davis, for 53 years a resident of this city and a well-known grocer, died yesterday.

The world is too apt to turn up its nose at virtue clothed in rags.

CELEBRITY PASSES AWAY

Deceased Was One Of Toronto's Most Honored Pioneers

CAPT. M' MASTER DEAD

Toronto, Jan. 8.—Capt. William Fenton McMaster died at 10:30 last night in his 89th year. He was one of Toronto's most honored pioneers, and the history of the city was almost entirely linked in association with his career.

A kindly and cheery figure about the Parliament Buildings, he pursued with assiduous industry until ten days ago his duties in the supervision of reports in the Department of Agriculture, and, though somewhat stooped, continued very active and walked to and fro with amazing vigor. On Dec. 28 he began to feel the weight of years, and having sank slowly since, passed quietly away last night at "Restholm."

Capt. McMaster was born on Sept. 1, 1822, near Omagh, Tyrone, Ireland, and landed in Toronto May 17, 1839. The place was then a country town, with two or three wooden wharves. He lay sick of ship fever for several weeks after his arrival in the room in Leader lane lighted by the fifth upstairs window from King street on the east side. Employed at first in Cathcart & Co.'s, where his uncle, subsequently Senator McMaster, afterwards became a partner, he went to Beamsville and was in business there with his father. At Beamsville he also married Jane, daughter of Dr. Summer. She survives him with their children, Robert S. F., secretary of the Toronto General Burying Grounds Trust; Charles A., in business in New York; Helen, married to A. L. Herbert, assistant chief engineer of the C.P.R., and Miss Flora, who remained with her father. Seven grandchildren also survive him.

Capt. McMaster was in business also in Kent. Upon the death of his father he came to Toronto, when his uncle, his brothers and he established the firm of William McMaster & Nephews, the wholesale dry goods house. In 1865 Senator McMaster withdrew and the firm became A. R. McMaster & Brother, and so continued till 1885, when the captain gave up business and in the following year entered the civil service as assistant secretary to the bureau of industries, which expanded with the Department of Agriculture, where for ten years he held the position he held at his death.

In addition to these duties he was one of the first directors of the Toronto, Grey & Bruce, and Toronto & Nipissing Railways. He was one of the founders of the Freehold Loan & Savings Co. When the Toronto Industrial Exhibition was founded he was elected first vice-president at the first meeting and held the office until 1893. He became an honorary director and held this position until the last.

Shortly after his arrival in Toronto he became attached to Brabant's Horse, and not only in military but in naval matters he proved himself capable and devoted. He was one of the very few men who passed with honors, both the military and naval examinations. In 1862 he founded the Toronto Naval Brigade for the defence of the lakes. He equipped the corps and maintained the men at his own cost, and in 1866, at the time of the Fenian Raid, the brigade was utilized in manning a gunboat, converted from a twin-screw tug. He supplied the equipment in this instance also, and the boat was despatched to patrol Lake Erie, where it remained till the arrival of troops and vessels of war. He retired from this service with the rank of major, and the brigade was broken up about 1868. Capt. McMaster was also an honorary officer in the Q. O. R.

Prof. Barnes, an American educationist, lectured recently at Harrow School on English and Transatlantic methods. While claiming that the American system had substantial points of advantage, especially in the production of a splendid general mediocrity, he regretted that it had no historic associations. Looking round at the old oak-panelled walls, deeply graven with the names of many who had made their mark in history, he could not help feeling, he said, that his country, with all her millions, would be hard put to it to find the value which such associations would be to her, if only it were possible to make them organically connected with the life of her people.

Shocking Mortality. The crowded ship gave a sudden lurch.

There was a splash. "Oh," wailed the young woman who had been sitting near the rail reading a book, "think of all those lives being lost!"

But nothing could be done, and she gazed sadly at her copy of "Plutarch" dancing merrily on the waves far astern.

A Wonderful Record.

As made up by improved and exact processes Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. It cures the backache, periodical headaches, the dragging-down distress in the pelvic region, the pain and tenderness over lower abdominal region, dryness and pelvic catarrhal drain, so disagreeable and weakening, and overcomes every form of weakness incident to the organs distinctly feminine.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, the makers of which are no afraid to print their formula on the bottle wrapper, thus taking their patrons into their full confidence. It is the only medicine for women, every ingredient of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the most eminent medical practitioners and writers of our day, recommending it for the diseases for which "Favorite Prescription" is used. It is the only put-up medicine, in a neat, convenient, through-druggists, which does not contain a large percentage of alcohol, so harmful in the long run, especially to delicate women. It has more genuine cures to its credit than all other medicines for women combined, having saved thousands of sufferers from the operating table and the surgeon's knife.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets do not gripe. They effectually cleanse the system of accumulated impurities. The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, by Dr. Pierce, 1008 pages, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address as above.

Former Member Of The Russian Douma Passes Away

REVOLUTION'S PIONEER

St. Petersburg, Jan. 8.—The death is reported in the Province of Kiev after a long illness of Stephen Vassilievich Annikin, the foremost leader of the peasants, founder of the Group of Toil and former member of the Lower House of Parliament.

The Vovoe Vremya voices its sorrow at the loss of this self-made man, who wielded the powers of his intellect among the peasants. Annikin was born a peasant, in 1864. He became a school teacher and was one of the pioneers in the revolutionary propaganda among the peasants. For this he suffered long terms of imprisonment and exile, which undermined his health.

Saved Life by a Russ. Odessa, Jan. 8.—Six terrorists have been saved from the gallows by resourceful revolutionists here, who conceived the bold plan of utilizing the official cipher of the Governor-General received a cipher telegram from St. Petersburg, apparently bearing the signature of Gen. Pavloff, the military procurator, conveying the Emperor's order to commute the death sentences to hard labor for life. According to Russian law, prisoners cannot be executed once their sentences have been officially commuted.

LOCAL

Miss Mary McKeough will return from Ottawa to-day.
Robert Campbell, who has been visiting at his home on Dexter St.
for a short time, has returned to Toronto.

R. F. Ogilvie, of Hanover, has taken a position in the discount department of the local branch of the Merchants' Bank.

Two of the wells on the Maple City Oil and Gas Co.'s leases have come in and are making a splendid showing. Another well is expected in next week and drilling has been already commenced in a fourth well.

A new well has come in on the Murray farm, which is situated about two and one-half miles southwest of Fletcher. This well is flowing at the rate of 75 barrels a day, and is on the farm adjoining the Maple City Oil and Gas Co.'s leases.

M. W. Ball & Co. are making some extensive alterations in the interior of their store. The sleek discount department is being moved to the rear of the store, and the portion of the store now used for the clock department will be used for dressgoods.

W. C. Armstrong, manager of the city branch of the Dominion Bank, is sending out some particularly handsome calendars. Like many bank managers and others, he can make a good selection of a pretty female face. Another handsome calendar he is also sending out is from a painting by R. Atkinson, entitled "Waiting for their Master."

The first meeting of the Board of Education will be held to-morrow night. There will probably be a private committee meeting previous to the regular meeting for the purpose of drawing up the slate for 1907. There will likely be at least five committees—Finance, one for each of the three public educational institutions, and a kindergarten committee.

CATHOLIC FORESTERS

Are requested to meet at their Hall on King Street, Tomorrow, Thursday, the 10th, at 9 a.m., to attend the funeral of the late Bro. Jno. E. Welsh.

R.S.

SERGEANTS' MESS

The annual meeting of the Sergeants' Mess of the 24th Regiment was held in their club rooms last evening. There was a large attendance. Regular business was taken up and dealt with, and several accounts were passed.

The election of officers for 1907 resulted as follows:

Pres.—Color-Sergt. Whitmarsh.
Vice-Pres.—O. R. Sergt. James Gavan.

Treas.—P. M. Sergt. Reid.
Secretary—Sergt. Geo. Green.

Board of Management—The officers of the mess with Sergt. Gut-tridge and Sergt. Murdock.

Auditors—Color-Sergt. Morley and Sergt. McBride.

Sergt. Murdock extended his comrades a hearty invitation to a social evening, to be held at his residence on the corner of Grey and West streets, Tuesday, Jan. 15. The Sergeants will meet at the mess rooms on this occasion, and march in a body to Sergeant Murdock's home.

Yesterday

WATERWORKS.

From Our Own Correspondent.
Jeannette's Creek, Jan. 8.—On Saturday, Jan. 8th, Miss Lizzie Forbes, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
H. Forbes, died at the home of her friend, Miss Dubbs, near Thamesville, after one week of suffering from peritonitis. The remains were brought to her home here on the Wabash train Saturday night. All that skill and love could do was done, but the bright young life could not be saved. She was in her twentieth year. She left home on Thursday, Dec. 27th, with a pleasant greeting to all whom she met, and was taken sick on the Saturday following. Her sudden death came as a great shock and grief to her many friends here, to whom she had endeared herself by her kindly disposition, having a bright smile and kind word for all with whom she came in contact.

WATERWORKS.

The funeral services were held on Tuesday at twelve o'clock at her late home by the Rev. Mr. Nichol, Presbyterian minister of Tilbury, of which she was a member. There were many beautiful floral offerings from sorrowing friends in Detroit, Chatham and Jeannette's Creek. The four young girls with whom she had spent her childhood and girlhood sent "Gates Ajar." The remains were taken to Chatham on the 1.30 p. m.
train and interred in the Maple Leaf cemetery. The bereaved parents have the heartfelt sympathy of all in their sorrow.

WATERWORKS.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Stewart, of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Ferguson, of Chatham; Mr. Mowbray, Thames-ville, were here on Tuesday to attend the funeral of Miss Lizzie Forbes.

WATERWORKS.

FOR CHEAP POWER

Hen. Mr. Hanna's Reading of the Big Majority For Bylaw.

Toronto, Jan. 9.—The latest returns show that the majorities in favor of the Niagara power bylaw were even greater than at first reported.

The vote in Berlin, according to Town Solicitor Clement, may be added to on the 17th by those who failed to vote yesterday, and the ballot will not be counted till after that date.

In one polling division, where the ballots were counted, inadvertently, the vote for Niagara power was 153 in favor and 6 against.

The latest returns of those incomplete yesterday are:

For Ag't. Maj.

London . . . . . 2,428 476 1,853

Brantford . . . . . 2,324 722 1,408

St. Thomas . . . . . 1,613 722 1,408

Tor. Junction . . . . . 1,255 241 1,014

Woodstock . . . . . 800 110 690

New Hamburg, carried by 200.

Hon. W. J. Hanna's View.

Hon. W. J. Hanna gave expression to the general view yesterday in a press interview.

"It is an emphatic intimation that the people want cheap power, and want it quick," said the Provincial Secretary, "and a powerful endorsement of the efforts of the Government in that direction. In this connection
I cannot speak too highly of Adam Beck's untiring work. He sacrificed his holidays and worked day and night in mastering the details of the subject, and in addressing meetings. It has been a most unique case of a public-spirited man working solely in the interests of the public."

Meanwhile the Ontario Hydro-Electric Power Commission meets to-day.

Hon. Adam Beck having arrived at the Queen's last night.

ORFORD.

The Local Option Vote.

Toronto, Jan. 9.—The local option score last night showed:

For local option . . . . . 32

Against local option . . . . . 42

Orillia, by 592 to 263, decided that liquor must not be sold by retail in shops.

ORFORD.

Half Million Damage Claim.

Montreal, Jan. 9.—If the courts allow the full damages claimed by the Dominion Iron & Steel Co. against the Dominion Coal Co., Mr. James Ross will have to hand over the entire capital of his company save about half a million. The sum of $400,000 is claimed for damages to the coke ovens, furnaces, loss of profits and increased cost of production up to Nov. 30, 1906. The sum of $68,580 is also claimed for the increased price of coal bought from outside sources, and actually delivered to the Steel
Co. up to Nov. 30, 1906.

Return Thanks

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE CITY OF CHATHAM.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I wish to express my sincere thanks and gratitude to all who supported me in the past election.

SAMUEL BULLIE

Chatham, Ont., Jan. 8, 1907.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE CITY
OF CHATHAM.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I was called out of town yesterday morning, and I therefore take this the earliest opportunity to thank you for the generous support you gave me at the polls on Monday, and which so nearly secured by election.

Wishing you a prosperous year, I am,

Faithfully yours,

THOS. SCULLARD.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE CITY
OF CHATHAM.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I wish to take this means of expressing my sincere thanks to you for your support in the municipal election. Owing to indisposition I was unable to make a personal campaign, and I am all the more grateful for your unsolicited support.

Faithfully yours,

WILLIAM POTTER,
MAYOR.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

You have done me proud indeed by giving me 505 votes as a spontaneous free-will offering and without pestering you in a single instance with begging supplications. I did not visit a factory, canvass a house or button-hole a single voter.
No candidate in the field received so many votes under the same circumstances. If I knew your names and residences, I would now call to personally express my gratitude. If I can render any of you a service just call around and see me. I am the same old "G. G." the year round. To the good people of Division No. 4, among whom I have lived for over 18 years, and who placed me within two votes of heading the poll, I cannot express my thanks. You will hear from me again.

"Great Caesar never knew defeat,
And was by so much less great."

Again thanking you one and all,
Your obedient servant,

GEORGE G. MARTIN.

January 9, 1907.

STRAYED—On or about the 20th, one pony, Brandy mare, and one suckling colt. Information to their whereabouts will be rewarded. S.

On a Sunday in September, 1500.

Lady Robert Dudley, better known under her maiden name of Amy Robesart, being in good health, sent to a fair all the people of Chesham Hall, near Oxford, where she was residing, except one friend. On her return she was lying dead at the foot of the stairs.

Dudley courted inquiry. The inquest found that she died by accident, and she was splendidly buried in St. Mary's, Oxford. The Spanish ambassador wrote that Elizabeth had told him a few days before that Amy was likely to die soon, but he may well have had a motive for a false statement. It is Sir Walter Scott's greatest crime that he misdates Amy Robesart's death by some fifteen years.—Pall Mall Gazette.

Don't be debarred from strength and spirit, don't give in to illness and despair. Ferrozene supplies tone and vigor through which all functions of womanly life are maintained, and fortified. From New Richmond, Que., comes the following statement from Mrs. Isidore Boismenu: "I take deep pleasure in testifying to the powerful influence of Ferrozene. For years my daughter has been pale and sickly—showed signs of advanced anemia. Her lips got so white and her cheeks so devoid of color. I feared consumption. I can certify Ferrozene made an excellent cure, and to-day my daughter's health is the best." 50c. per box at all dealers.

We're a-goin' ter git dinner ready, an' when we call yer, yer ter come 'ome and chuck the fags about." "Ho!" said Bobby. "Come 'ome drunk, do I? And why for?" "Why for, stupid?" retorted the girl, with a glance of mingled scorn and pity. "Ain't it Saturday?"

A LAND OF BLIZZARDS

THE FIERCE GALE THAT SWEEP AND WRECK SEISTAN.

These Terrible Windstorms Always Blow, as They Have Done For Ages, From the Same Direction—A Pandemonium of Noise, Sand and Dust.

Every one who has visited Seistan or written about Seistan has mentioned its celebrated wind, called the "bad-lad-o-bist roz," or wind of 120 days, which blows in the summer. Few of these have had the misfortune to experience it, but as we went through two seasons of this wind we are able to say something about it. It more than justifies its reputation. It sets in at the end of May or the middle of June and blows with appalling violence and with little or no cessation till about the end of September. It always blows from one direction, a little west of north, and reaches a velocity of more than seventy miles an hour. It creates a pandemonium of noise, sand and dust for a time gets on one's nerves, but it is in reality a blessing in disguise, for it blows away the insects which from April to June make life in Seistan a perfect purgatory, mitigates the awful summer heat and clears the country of typhus, smallpox and other diseases rife in the country in May and June. One would think this 120 day wind enough, but violent winds prevail all through the winter from December to April, and blizzards are of constant occurrence. These winds always come from the same direction. The winter blizzards are terrible, and the wind attains a terrific velocity. In a blizzard at the end of March the anemometers registered a maximum of 120 miles an hour. The average velocity for a whole sixteen hours was more than eighty-eight miles an hour.

The extraordinary frequency and violence of the Seistan wind and the regularity with which it blows from the same quarter are very remarkable. That it has blown from the same quarter in past ages is proved by the fact that all the ruins of Seistan are built at the same angle, with their front and back walls at a right angle to the wind and their side walls at the same angle as the wind. No wind can blow with such violence and frequency without leaving its mark on the country. Its effects are everywhere visible in Seistan. Everything looks wind swept and wind stricken. Over the greater part of the country not a single tree exists.

The present villages and habitations are all built with their backs presenting lines of dead walls to the windward side. The old ruins are oriented at exactly the same angle on account of the wind. The effect of wind is everywhere visible on these ruins. Their bases are undercut by wind as though by water action. The thickness of the walls, the excellent quality of the bricks made and used by the ancient inhabitants for the lower courses of their buildings and the extreme hardness and durability of the Seistan soil when made into the sun-dried bricks of which the upper portions of the ruins are composed, have withstood the destructive effect of the wind in a wonderful manner, but in the old ruins we often find that the walls facing the wind have entirely disappeared, and only the side walls remain, while in still older ruins only one or two solitary pilasters remain to mark what were once large, massive and extensive buildings.

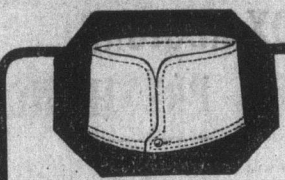

The wind has buried large tracts of the country under sand. Many of the old ruined towns are wholly or partly buried in sand, and this burying process goes on all the year and every year and is covering up not only valuable lands, but inhabited villages. In Seistan, as elsewhere, the invading army of sand is preceded by lines of skirmishers in the form of travelling "burkhans," horseshoe shaped sand hills, which steadily advance until they meet some obstacle which retards them until the reserves come up to their support and bury all before them under hills of sand.

On our arrival in Seistan we found Kilanau, a big and flourishing village, built on the south side of a high ridge for protection from the wind. Before we left the sand had attacked that ridge, surmounted it and buried the village, forcing the inhabitants to build a new village elsewhere. An example of still greater rapidity was afforded at the village of Kilakohna. Up to June, 1904, this village had a large, deep pond on its northern side. By September—that is, less than three months—this deep pond was converted into a sand hill some ten feet high.

The wind, however, did not confine its energy to burying only. While it sweeps other tracts clear of sand, rendering valuable land available for cultivation and exposing long buried ruins once more to view. These are, however, only the milder effects of wind action. The Seistan wind in its more destructive moods has in places removed not only sand from place to place, but has scoured away the whole face of the country. Everywhere we find the sides and banks of the canals which irrigated the lands on which the dwellers of the old ruins depended left standing like walls high above the present surface of the surrounding land. These banks, having been hardened by water, have withstood the action of the wind better than the surface of the land, which has all been blown away to a depth of several feet. This depth in places is very considerable, and we find the outlines exposed of still older canals which existed at some yet earlier age and which must have been buried deep in the ground when the canals above them, old as they are, were in use.

The idle always have half a mind to do something.

A walking portrait gallery has been erected in Tunis, where he had long been wanted as a deserter. The name of the human picture show is Sarthe. On entering the police-station he removed all his clothing, and said, "Observe my skin. You shall have it. It is worth its weight in gold." On his chest were tattooed two pictures of ladies in color. Nowhere kisses to a cavalier. On his right side Sarthe has the portraits of President Loubet and the Shah of Persia shaking hands. On his left side are Mrs. Yeats, Gullberg and Mayol, the most-hall singer. Sarthe's back is treated in purple, decorative style. In the center of the back are represented in garlands of rosebuds, and a scroll of flowers runs up and down Sarthe's spine.

EVIL EYE CHARMS.

The True Italian Talisman is in the Shape of a Tiny Hand.

In Italy the aristocracy still protects itself from the evil eye, and the multitude is still devoted to the little evil eye charms to secure immunity from disaster.

The true evil eye charm of the Italians is in the shape of a tiny hand, the index and the little finger being pointed out and the third and fourth fingers being held down by the thumb. The charm, however, is merely a representation of the way in which the Italian holds his hand. When pointed outward he wishes to cast the evil eye on an enemy, or when turned toward himself he thinks to protect himself from its malicious spell.

This little charm can be bought in Italy of various materials, coral, tortoise shell, silver and gold being the ones in highest favor. The coral charms are those worn by the poorer classes, since of a cheap grade of the material they can be bought for a few sous. Naturally the aristocracy prefer them of gold. In Italian money these tiny things then cost the equivalent of about $8. Sometimes they are seen exquisitely modeled, the fingers and nails being as carefully chiseled as marble statues.

Another small hand that the Italian wears as a charm is known as the Manus Panthea, a facsimile of which is to be found in the museum in Rome. It is referred to in various Egyptian papyri, and indeed was worn by the ancients to prevent disease and witchcraft and the evil eye from taking hold of them and to induce love and amiable.

This hand has the thumb, the index and the middle fingers held out in a straight line, while the other two are turned under toward the palm of the hand. Instead of being smooth on its outer surface, as is the evil eye hand, it is covered with many mystical symbols—a tooth, a serpent, and so on. Each of these little signs has its peculiar charm and is as well understood and heeded among the Italians today as formerly among the Egyptian magicians.

The third small hand which the Italians wear for their supposed good is the so-called Manus Pontificus, or the hand of the Holy Father. It shows the four fingers held out closely together, and the thumb alone is curved under the palm of the hand. As the Manus Panthea, it is covered on the outside with mystical symbols.

FOIBLES OF LITERARY MEN.

Keats liked red pepper on his toast. Dickens was fond of wearing jewelry. Daudet wore his eyeglasses when asleep. Joaquin Miller nails all his chairs to the wall. Hawthorne always washed his hands before reading a letter from his wife. Alexandre Dumas the younger bought a new painting every time he had a new book published. Thackeray used to lift his hat whenever he passed the house in which he wrote "Vanity Fair." Robert Browning could not sit still. With the constant shuffling of his feet holes were worn in the carpet. Robert Louis Stevenson's favorite recreation was playing the flute in order, as he said, to tune up his ideas. Darwin had no respect for books and would cut a big volume in two for convenience in handling, or he would tear out the leaves he required for reference.

No Sweethearting in Ireland.

Through a great part of Ireland public opinion, molded by the clergy, separates the sexes as far as possible. At the church door and wherever else they congregate men group on one side, women on the other. It is not well thought of for people of opposite sexes to be seen walking along the road together even to a market. The position has been made definite by the refusal of certain bishops to allow "mixed classes" in branches of the Gaelic league. On the whole, public opinion discourages whatever can be justly or even unjustly set down as sweethearting.

The Extinct Mammo.

Perhaps the most notable native bird of the Sandwich Islands was the mammo, which has been extinct comparatively only a few years. It had two little tufts of yellow feathers on its wings, which were used exclusively in the manufacture of cloaks worn by the natives of those islands. The estimated value of one of the cloaks is $200,000, and it took an almost indefinite number of birds to furnish the feathers.—London Times.

Thunder and Lightning.

Here is a Georgia youngster's definition of thunder and lightning: "The thunder is maw readin' a lecture to paw, an' the lightning is paw-runnin' to git away from it. But I doubt if lightning kin beat him when he jumps the garden fence an' hits the grit!"

All In the Point of View.

"Oh, I don't know," contentedly answered the lap dog.

Self Esteem.

Druggist—Huh! You seem to think you are the boss of this establishment. New Clerk—Oh, no, sir. Druggist—Then why do you talk like a blooming idiot?—Exchange.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets—takes blood pressure down from pain centers, its effect is charming, pleasantly delightful, gently, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure. If it's painful periods with women, same cause. If you are restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a 10 to 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.

Bruse your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.

We sell at 25 cents, and cheerfully recommend

A Kaffir Story.

This Kaffir story is true: A Christian Zulu-Kaffir was heard recounting to another Kaffir a vision of heaven of which he had had a dream. "And saw you any Kaffirs there?" inquired his listener. The teller of the story pondered awhile, and then "No," said he, "for I did not look into the kitchen."

SHAKE HANDS WITH ASTHMA.

Awfully distressing is asthma. But worse, if possible, when combined with Bronchitis. Relieved quickly by Catarrhoxone than anything else—cured so thoroughly by "Catarrhoxone" that it doesn't return. Catarrhoxone's healing vapor is breathed right into the lungs, destroying the cause of the Asthma, and succeeds in the most chronic cases. Try it. Two sizes, 25c. and $1.00, at all dealers.

School For Policemen.

There is a policemen's college in St. Petersburg to train applicants for the force. It consists of a museum combined with the school, where the pupils make themselves familiar with the tools of criminals—knives, drills, whistles, and contrivances for robbing collection boxes, a model field of Russian thieves. The Russian passport system is studied in detail. The duties of the dyornits, a sort of assistant police, are taught. They keep watch on the residences, report on the habits of tenants, their visitors, examine the papers of new-comers, and direct them to report themselves at the police station.

A Big Household.

The missionary was at once pale and yellow—pale, he explained, from an avoidance of the deadly Indian sun, yellow from a disordered liver.

"Nevertheless," he said gayly, "India for me first, last and all the time. On the money you and your family are paying at this hotel do you know how you would live in India?"

He lighted a cigarette and resumed: "You would live in a beautiful house set in a lovely garden, with a list of servants that would include a khar, a samah, or butler; a khitmutgar, or male servant; a chokra, or page; a musaichee, or light bearer; a mug, or cook; two syces, or grooms; a theestee, or water carrier; a sadah, or house-cooly; a moll, or gardener; a dhoobie, or washerman; an ayah, or nurse; a sirdah, or valet; a furash bearer, or lamp man; three punkah coolies to work the fans; a durman, or lodge porter; a jamadar, or footman, and several chuprassies, or messengers.
