THE C. P. R. AND THEY DOOK

To the Editor of The World.

SIR: A cable dispatch to-day announces the completion of an arrangement between the C. P. R. and the Northwest Land company, which would seem inexplicable, i. e., the C. P. R. first sold the N. W. Land company five millions acres at some $2.70 per acre; the bargain was signed and sealed on the 10th of the month, and the Northwest Land company, by this late arrangement, has bought back the same five millions acres at the rate of $1.00 per acre.

SHAREHOLDER

To the Editor of The World.

SIR: A. B. C. claims that the security given to the members of the pass-around-the-bank is as good as that given by a stock company, and refers to their past career to substantiate his claims. Let us see. Out of 236 societies in the state of Pennsylvania only 58 remain, and here are some showing the prosperity and cost of these past societies.

Table with columns: Year, Total Members, No. of Societies, Costing per $1000.00. Rows for 1874, 1875, 1876, 1877, 1878, 1879, 1880, 1881, 1882, 1883, 1884, 1885, 1886, 1887, 1888, 1889, 1890.

FORCED IMMIGRATION

To the Editor of The World.

SIR: The immigration of Europe to Canada, made up of the pauper and dangerous surplus population of Europe, we have to support and to encounter this paper competition of the rif-riff of European monarchies.

THE EVACUATION OF NEW YORK

A Brief Sketch of the Event that was Celebrated Yesterday.

On Nov. 25, 1783, the great band of the British army of occupation having failed to obtain a capitulation from the Continental Congress, the British evacuated New York City and sailed for England.
