IN discussing a ball given in London, where the ladies romped in their bare feet, the Learnington Post wants to know why they take off their skirts and have a petticoat dance. Just because, dear Post, ladies don't wear petticoats now. When the skirts are removed there's little left. The day of the petty skirt and shimmy shirt is almost past.—Amherstburg Echo.

LAST issue we advertised for a June copy of the Guide-Advocate and before nine o'clock Friday morning we had several more copies than we had any use for. And yet some people will tell you advertisements are not read and do not bring results. Those who supplied us with the papers will please accept our thanks.

We have just received from the publishers, A. McKim, Limited, of Montreal and Toronto, a copy of the 1913 Edition of the Canadian Newspaper Directory. This is the eighth edition of this valuable work, which fills a very real need in Canada, and deserves a place on the desk of every business man, whether he is an advertiser or not.

THE members of the Watford Woman's Institute would be pleased if all who use Surprise soap would kindly save the wrappers and hand them to the secretary, Mrs. J. D. Brown, or the president, Mrs. P. J. Dodds, of that Society, as they are trying to gather all they can to help maintain a deaconess for the purpose of looking after women and young girls arriving at the Toronto depot.—Sic'v.

ARMADA, Mich., Press:—"Charles Carter, Gilbert Killam, David Carter and Roderick MacDonald motored to Watford, Ont., last Friday. Mr. Carter and Mr. Killam returned the next day and Mr. MacDonald returned to his home at London, Ont. Mr. David Carter returned to Armada last evening accompanied by the Misses Clara Spaulding and Anna and Grace Auld."

TWENTY years ago it was a matter worthy of note in the newspapers if a man made a trip of thirty or forty miles on a bicycle. Now it is the automobile and a man has either to go into the ditch or make the trip from coast to coast to get his name in the paper. Twenty years hence it may be only a matter of mere mention that some person makes a flying trip in his aeroplane from America to Europe to spend over Sunday at the birthplace of his ancestors.

HON. W. J. HANNA is determined to see that the Motor Vehicles Act is enforced, and the motorists, particularly while driving through the small towns, villages and rural sections, pay due attention to the rules of the road and to speed restrictions. The Provincial Secretary's Department has decided to appoint ten special constables, who will be stationed at various points in the Province with roving commissions to keep tab on the motorists.

THE regular meeting of the Watford Woman's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Kennel on Wednesday evening, Aug. 13th, President presiding. Meeting opened by singing "The Maple Leaf Forever" and the repeating of the Lord's prayer. Minutes of last meeting read and approved. A very interesting paper was given by Mrs. R. Logan on two Canadian women of note, Miss Laura Secord and Dr. Helen McMurphy. Both were good subjects. Meeting was closed by singing "God Save the King." Next meeting at the home of Mrs. T. Dodds.—SEC.

MR. SOLOMON WATSON, who has been a resident of Watford for some years, died at his home on Saturday morning last, aged 70 years and three months. Mr. Watson had been in poor health for some time but his demise was unexpected. He leaves an invalid wife, four daughters, Mrs. Lloyd, Mrs. S. Young, Misses Nora and Jane; and one son, Richard. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at the Watford cemetery and was private. Rev. S. P. Irwin conducted the service.

MR. J. W. McLAREN attended the annual convention of Rexall Druggists in Boston. This immense corporation includes in the neighborhood of 7000 retail druggists, and over 2000 from United States, Canada and Great Britain were in attendance. The convention lasted four days—Aug. 18 to 21—and there were six business sessions, at which new ideas were gathered in plenty. The balance of the week will be spent in pleasure—theatre parties, motor trips and a big field day at Nantasket Beach.

THE Band excursion to Sarnia and Detroit on the Civic holiday was well patronized by both the town and country people. The train arrived at Sarnia about eight o'clock and between four and five hundred of the happy crowd took the steamer City of Toledo for Detroit and Belle Isle, where they had ample time for sight seeing, returning to Sarnia in good time where the special train was awaiting them. The run home was made in quick time, and all on board seemed pleased with the day's outing.

MESSRS. JOSEPH MITCHELL, J. W. McLaren, E. A. Brown, S. Rivers and R. Stapleford left on Thursday last week in Mr. Mitchell's fine touring car on a trip to Boston and New York. We understand it was their intention to cross the border at Niagara Falls and continue on to Buffalo. From there they take one of the principal auto routes eastward, touching the principal points of interest to the Hudson river, then continue down, enjoying the magnificent scenery of this picturesque district. They will return by way of the Thousand Islands. We bespeak for the party a pleasant outing and a safe return.

TELEPHONE service is needed over the fourth and second lines S.E.R. and the Main road of Watford township. This section of country is practically without telephone connection, the only phones in the locality being two on the fourth line and one at Watford Village, owned by the McGillicuddy-Zavitz line. The township to the south of Watford is now well covered by the Brooke Municipal System, and we venture to say that the subscribers would not be without the service for double its cost. The north part of Watford is well looked after by the People's Telephone Co., but the south part of the township is badly in need of talk connections. This part of Watford has a well-to-do population and the covering of the district by either the Bell or People's line would no doubt prove a profitable undertaking.

THE Ontario Education Department has sent out orders superseding the High School French Grammar lately in use by a revised French Grammar which must be exclusively used under authority of the Boards of Education. The new books cost 60 cents which is 40 cents less than the old and the reader in connection with what smaller than the one now in use will come into use in July of next year. A new High School History of Canada, which was to have been ready in September, will probably be somewhat delayed. The Department will insist upon its regulations being carried out and if necessary will withhold grants from schools not using authorized books.

THE RACES

The weather was good and hot on Friday last but quite suitable for a race meeting, and the sport provided by the Watford Driving Club at the park attracted a fair-sized crowd. Owing to the busy season with the farmers the attendance was somewhat light from the townships but the town people turned out well. The program was fully carried out and each race was watched with keen interest by those present. The free-for-all was won by Nettie Eghan, a Toronto owned mare in 2.16. Jim Shieve, a Chatham horse took three straights in the 2.25 trot, and Patch Bars, trot first in the 2.50 trot.

The social under the auspices of the ladies of Salem church, held on the spacious lawn at the home of Mrs. Gilbert Woods on Friday evening, 15th inst., was in every way a decided success. The evening was all that could be desired and a large crowd was present to enjoy the good things provided by the ladies. The program presented was an excellent one. A plentiful supply of choice music was given by the Lady Harpers of London, and much appreciated by all present. The selections given by the lady elocutionist were interesting and amusing and well worth listening to, as were also the local contributions. The addresses given by the neighboring pastor claimed the close attention of all present. Rev. H. E. Currie performed the duties of chairman in a happy and pleasing manner. The proceeds amounted to $86.00.

Shirley—Campbell

(From the St. James' Man., Leader, Aug. 1st.)

A beautiful church wedding was consummated in St. Luke's (Anglican) church, Fort Rouge, yesterday afternoon at 2.30 when Rev. W. G. Nicholson, of St. James Anglican church, united in holy wedlock the Rev. J. A. Shirley, M. A., the popular curate of St. James' church, and Miss Irene Campbell, B. A., of 802 Jessie Ave.

Both bride and groom are graduates of the 1910 class of Toronto University, since which time Miss Campbell has taught at Strugcon Creek, the last year being principal.

The bride was given away by her father, A. P. Campbell, of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. Her sister, Miss Eila, acted as bridesmaid, while the Rev. D. McKee, B.A., assisted the groom. Three of the daughters of the trustees of Banatyne school, Dorothy Watts, Dorothy Banatyne and May Stutter acted as flower girls, while two boys of the same school acted as ushers.

There were some forty or fifty friends present at the home and, at the church, in the neighborhood of 150.

After the pleasing ceremony the happy couple took the evening train for Kenora, from whence they will take a trip to the Lake of the Woods for three weeks. On their return they will reside at 357 Park-view street.

The groom is well-known in Watford and vicinity, being the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Shirley. The Guide-Advocate extends congratulations.

Cousin Danny
He Had the Klondike Fever
By CLARISSA MACKIE

When Danny Roland went to seek his fortune in the Klondike he carried with him the prayers and loving thoughts of his aunt and cousins with whom he had made his home since an early orphaned boyhood.
"We'll all ride in automobiles when I come back!" shouted Danny over his shoulder to the little group on the station platform.
Four long years passed after Danny went away to the gold country, and now the Rolands had news of his homecoming. They had heard from him as often as the postal facilities would admit, for sometimes he was far from any station. At first he had written of the country, the people, the strange, new life and of his hopes for success. When he returned with the gold that must surely be his for the taking they would leave the little Californian home among the roses and fare forth to some large city of the eastern states where the greatest enjoyment is supposed to be extracted from the possession of money. That was during the first two years. Since then Danny's letters had been less confident, and there was between the lines a vague, homesick longing that impelled Mrs. Roland to urge her nephew to return home whether he had attained his coveted object or not.
"Poor Danny," murmured Rose Roland as her mother finished reading the last letter. "How eager he was when he went away from us and how hopeful his letters have been! Just think of the hardships he must have suffered in that cold, strange country!"

Beth smiled softly. She was the youngest, and she had missed Danny more than anybody else. To her the tall, handsome cousin was a gallant knight gone forth to seek fortune for his lady, who was imprisoned in a rose embowered castle.
"He should be home by the 1st of May. Don't you think so, mother?" asked Rose from her low seat near the open window.
"At the very latest. Now, daughters, remember that he must have a royal welcome, for think of his bitter disappointment at his failure to succeed in his undertaking."
"I always feel that those who make the failures of life should receive the warmest sympathy and tenderest welcome," said Rose quietly. "It is easy to bear success, but failure borne amid the silence of friends is twice bitter."
All the way down in the train to the little bungalow on the outskirts of Los Angeles Danny Roland talked to his traveling companion of the aunt and cousins whom he had left behind on his trip to the Klondike. They were both tall, stalwart, brown young men, with clear eyes and good, clean cut features. They did not look like two disappointed gold seekers, yet that is what they were.
"You will be glad to see your folks again, Dan," said the other rather fully. "I wish there was a welcome waiting for me somewhere; but, you know, all my people died before I left home. I must peg out a new place for myself in Los Angeles."

"Then you're going back on your promise to go home with me?" demanded Danny fiercely.
"Not at all," explained Arthur Clifford. "Only I was just moaning a little mean because I didn't have a loving aunt and two pretty cousins to greet me. It's fine of you, Dan, to ask me to go with you. I wish you wouldn't insist on my accompanying you to the house tonight. Surely they will want to see you alone the first!"
"Shut up!" commanded Dan crisply. "They will be delighted to see any man who saved my life. I hope you don't think I have forgotten about that ice gorge and how you—"
"It's your turn to shut up," grinned his companion. "If you not mistake this is Los Angeles, eh?"

"Come on, then," and Danny wrenched himself down the aisle as the train drew to a creaking, wheezing standstill. After they had claimed their baggage and given orders for his delivery—Danny's to his suburban home and Arthur Clifford's to a convenient hotel—they boarded a trolley car which would take them within a mile of their destination.

As the car whizzed out Danny's heart beat faster and a slow red burned into his cheeks. His homecoming was a very different one from that he had planned four years ago, when the spirit of adventure laid a strong hold upon him and led him far away from the vineyard and the little bungalow.
Now he could see that he had perhaps neglected a son's duty in leaving the three women of his family to manage the vineyard as best they could with hired help while he went rainbow chasing to the cold regions of the north. That was what he had called "rainbow chasing," and it is just as profitable," he muttered to himself as the car reached its terminus and they tumbled out.

Their way lay through hedges of wild roses and eucalyptus. In the background were groves of orange and sunny slopes gray-green with young olive trees. There were the smell of honeysuckle and geranium and the song of many birds.

The two young men swung along the beautiful highway, one with a rapidly beating heart at the coming reunion, the other with a pleasant sense of expectation in the new friends he was about to make. Surely if they were Dan Roland's people they would be friends of his.

During the long nights when the comrades had slept together in the northern cold each had confided to the other all his history, and Dan Roland had chiefly to do with his aunt and cousins, and he had talked so much about them that Arthur Clifford began to feel that he, too, was acquainted with them. He had almost fallen in love with sweet Rose, whose picture was included in the three which Dan treasured.

"Here we are!" shouted Danny excitedly, and he ran forward the last few steps that separated them from a rustic gate set in a privet hedge, which in its turn was half smothered in Cherokee roses. Clifford hung back that his friend might have his meeting uninterrupted, and he bore no grudge that Danny forgot him for the moment.

Three women sitting in the veranda of the bungalow were gathered into his arms, and there were laughter and tears mingled with their joyous reception of the cousin who was more like a son and brother than a more distant relation. Clifford turned his back on the happy scene and looked away over the flower decked fields. Danny's voice brought him up the gravelled path to the foot of the steps, where he stood with bare head while he was introduced to Mrs. Roland and her two lovely daughters.

"I am so glad that our little house is roomier than it looks," said Mrs. Roland cordially. "Danny's friend must not think of going to a hotel, Mr. Clifford."
Arthur Clifford expressed his thanks and was only too glad to accept the warm invitation to remain a little while. He had scarcely taken his eyes from Rose's face, except when he saw that his glance embarrassed her, and then he stole a look now and then to satisfy himself that she was fresh and not some beautiful creation of his imagination which might vanish at any moment.

Danny was relating to his cousins the story of how Arthur Clifford had saved his life two years before and how ever since that thrilling rescue they had been chums and inseparable friends. Beth sat entranced under the spell of his graphic recital. His cousin was far handsomer than her knight of the air castle, and her maiden heart was stirred strangely.

When they went in to the luncheon that Mrs. Roland had prepared Danny paused for a moment with one hand on the back of his chair. "Aunt Cecilia," he said soberly, "this is a very different homecoming from the one I had planned when I went away. Do you remember my Paris promises of automobiles and Paris gowns and a place in New York, to say nothing of steam yachts and horses? Here I am, not a penny richer by my gold digging, bringing a fellow prospector home with me, one whose fortune has been the same as my own, and yet you welcome us as if we were returning home laden with Klondike spoils." He looked around at the three loving faces with tear dimmed eyes.

"But, Danny, dear," protested gentle Mrs. Roland, "you know we never cared about the money. We would rather have had you with us than all the gold in the world. Money isn't everything, my dear." She smiled on them as they gathered around the table, and she poured the tea while her eyes glistened with happiness.

The roses covered bungalow still stands behind the privet hedge. Mrs. Roland and her youngest daughter and her daughter's husband live there, for Beth is married to Danny.
Not far away is another little home, where Arthur Clifford and his wife, Rose, live an ideal existence among the roses. All about them spread the profitable vineyards and the sunny olive slopes. In their hearts is a great contentment that money cannot purchase.

"We came back practically poor men, yet we would not change places with the richest Klondike millionaire," Danny Roland said once, and Arthur Clifford emphasized his concurrence in this statement with a look at his beautiful wife.

A FORT TO ASTHMA.—Give Asthma half a chance and it gains ground rapidly. But give it repeated treatments of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy and it will fall back ever faster. There is no half way measure about this remedy. It goes right to work and drives asthma out. It reaches the inmost breathing passages and leaves no place for the trouble to lurk. Have it by you for ready use.

Dad's Dope
Whenever a particularly fool question comes up, lawyers call it a fine legal point.

A Michigan dealer advertises "fresh live fish." The pure food law prohibits the sale of stale live fish.
If bothers men who boast of their retentive memories to recall just where they left their umbrellas.

It is not stated whether a steam crane or a freight engine was used in kidnapping of a 327-pound Illinois girl.
The old-fashioned butcher who used to throw in a slab of liver and other tit bits with a meat order as an incentive to trade is now only a pleasant memory.
An eastern censor of girls' bathing suits insists that they should be large enough to furnish a few square meals for a family of moths after the swimming season is over.

Five thousand new words are added to the dictionary every year, but the diligent recipient of a complimentary address can rarely find enough to expose his thanks.
There is a clause in the constitution of the United States providing against cruel and unusual punishment. It might well be enforced against the warden of the New Jersey prison who placed a plate of fried chicken and a section of a juicy watermelon in the cell of a colored prisoner who was on a hunger strike.

The farmers of Dover Township, Kent County, have just let the contract for a dredge cut to cost $70,000. The big ditch will be thirteen miles long.
The average crop of wheat in Ontario will be 63 pounds per colony, according to the report of the Agricultural Committee of the Ontario Beekeeper's Association. This will be located largely in the south-western counties.

Mr. Peter McArthur, the well-known journalist and writer, of Ekfrid Township, is endeavoring to make arrangements with the C. P. R. for a special train of 25 cars to transport Middlesex County apples to Alberta this fall.

"I understand your wife is going to make a speech at the meeting to-morrow night?" "Yes." "Are you going?" "Not much. I am going to stay at home and congratulate myself on the fact that at last she is making one speech that I don't have to listen to."
By permission of the Minister of Education the annual meeting of the West Middlesex Teachers' Institute will be held in Guelph this year, the dates being September 11 and 12. One day will be spent in visiting the Agricultural College and surroundings. On the second day, three regular sessions will be held.

A gentleman who had been in town only two or three days, but who had been paying attention to a prominent young belle, wanted to propose, but was afraid he would be thought too hasty. He delicately broached the subject as follows: "If I were to speak of marriage to you, after having only made your acquaintance three days ago, what would you say to it?" "Well, you should never put off till to-morrow what you should have done the day before yesterday."

No doubt many potato growers in this section have noticed a new specimen of bug on their potato vines this season. If you have don't kill them. They are potato bug destroyers and if you will take the time to watch them you will see them proceed in the same fashion that a mosquito takes in the big fat woman at a picnic. This new bug, which is known as the Soldier Bug, is about the size of a potato bug only it is flat. The male specimen is black, with bright red trimmings while the female is black with yellow trimmings.

Keeping the Body in Repair

Nature intended that the body should do its own repairing—and it would do so were it not for the fact that most of us live other than a natural life.

Nature didn't intend that we should wear corsets, tight collars or shoes, nor live in badly ventilated and draughty houses, nor eat and drink some of the things that we do, nor ride in street cars when we should walk.

The consequence is that the body when it gets out of order must look for outside help to make the necessary repairs.

For weak stomachs and the indigestion or dyspepsia resulting, and the multitude of diseases following therefrom, no medicine can be more adaptable as a curative agent than DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

This famous Doctor's prescription has been recommended for over 40 years, and is today just as big a success. Restores a healthy appetite. Cleanses the blood. Strengthens the nerves. Regulates stomach and liver. Demand the original.

Some Economical Women

The most recklessly extravagant woman has a vein of economy somewhere in her composition. Economy is born in a woman. It may not develop in a manner to prove beneficial either to herself or to her husband. Yet there will always be some point at which she will look well to the pennies and think and calculate with the ablest financier. She may be willing to pay $100 for a gown, but will shop all over town to save ten cents a yard on the lining. She may spend $5 for a ride in the park, but she will begrudge five cents in car fare when out shopping. She may stint the table at one time and be wildly extravagant at another. Or ruin a whole garment by the desire to finish it cheaply, which desire has remorsefully seized her at the last moment, but there is one thing in which she never economizes. When she loves, she loves with her whole heart. There is no stint—only a giving of all the wealth of her affection. Therefore do not laugh at her little economies; simply remember that a woman can be just made up of those contradictions that seem so ridiculous to the average masculine mind.

Apple Dealers in Western Canada

The success of apple growing as an industry depends to a great extent on the securing of a good market. It is no uncommon occurrence almost every fall for great quantities of apples to lie about under the trees to rot or to be fed to hogs because no good market is accessible. While the fruit is thus going to waste there are thousands of householders more especially in the Prairie Provinces that are longing for fresh fruit of a sort that can be stored and drawn upon during the winter months. The difficulty of the one class is to reach buyers for the fruit and of the other to find a supply at a moderate price. To bridge the gulf that separates these two classes, and thereby do both an invaluable service; the Dairy and Cold Storage Commissioner has issued a list of the wholesale and retail apple dealers in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and sections of New Ontario whose addresses are available. These which number about 275 dealers and firms, with few exceptions are said to be in a position to buy at least one carload of fruit. This information is given in Circular No. 8 of the Dairy and Cold Storage Branch, copies of which may be secured free from the Publications Branch of the Department of Agriculture, at Ottawa.

The Foreign Immigrant

It is human nature to think that no matter what happens to others, we, ourselves, are exempt and that all that is dreadful and unusual is far away and out of our lives. And so those who live in this corner of Ontario pay little heed to the foreign immigrant. We do not see him, consequently we do not realize what his presence in Canada means. If we only wake up and think it over, we shall see that it means tremendous things. Our Government and our people are busily engaged in making our country great and rich and in developing our resources. The foreigner who comes in at the rate of a thousand a day, is neglected and despised and the mad rush for development takes all our attention. But the foreigner bides his time. His day will come. His cradle is always occupied. Our cradles seldom needed and repose in attics. And so, taking the natural increase and the increase of one thousand a day by emigration, there can be only one result. In less than twenty years the foreigner is going to out-vote us! And what will it matter that our country be great and rich and wonderful if we have to give it to the foreigner as an inheritance? There are those who claim that women should not be interested in politics. They also claim that the woman who is interested sufficiently to want a vote is stepping outside her sphere as a wife and a mother. But the intelligent wife and mother knows that every public question has its effects on the home.

The Street Dress of Some Girls

A writer in "Everybody's Column" of the Buffalo News, writes the following earnest and thoughtful appeal to parents and their daughters in regard to the mode of dress adopted by many girls on the street, who also might heed the warning contained.

"Once or twice I have seen articles in the News hinting at the absurd way girls of to-day dress, and I would like to go on record as saying, the dress of to-day can only bring about social evils.

"This is not putting it too strong and the sooner mothers wake up to the danger the better. What we must not forget is that there is a distinct point of morals in the question of how a girl dresses. When we see sweet young girls walking the streets showing their physical charms to all beholders we cannot help but ask: 'Why do their mothers permit them to wear such clothes?'"

"There is no use of our being shocked by evils that threaten, while our young girls forget all modesty, and shamelessly parade the streets, half-dressed. Such dressing deliberately invites disrespect and danger. The young girl herself may not realize this, but it is nothing short of crime for those who are her natural guardians to allow her to dress in such a fashion. Why are not women more earnest in their reforms? Why strain at a gnat and swallow a camel?"

Checks and Real Money

"Some women never think of checks as real money. I used to give my wife checks for any cash she wanted, and she spent the money so foolishly, without seeming to understand what she was doing, that I tried a plan I read about a while ago.

"Last week she wanted one of those new wraps that cost so much and look so little. There was one that just suited her, she said, and it only cost $125. I hated to part with the $125, of course, but I couldn't refuse her. But, instead of giving her a check, I got 125 Yankee silver dollars at the bank and brought them home.

"Here's the money for that dinkus thing you want," I said, and counted out the 125 silver dollars.

"She looked at them, paralyzed for a moment.

"Do you mean to say," she asked, "that it takes all that money to buy that little wrap?"

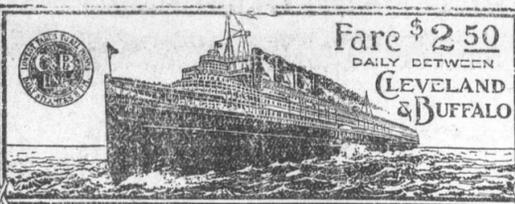

"I assured her that it did.

"Well, then," said she, "I won't spend it for such a trifling thing! You put it right in the bank, John Henry Black!"

"We had quite a talk about money after that," said the junior partner, as he unlocked his desk, "and I guess that there'll be a vision of round silver dollars in every purchase my wife makes. She's a mighty sensible woman after all, though she's young."

Now and Then

The high cost of living's the cost of high living. Just ask yourself what your ideas are today with regard to table service compared with ten or twenty years ago, and that apart from the cost of food requirements. There was a time when a porterhouse steak was something to consider on a bill of fare, and when fricassee chicken denoted an event of importance in family life. To-day these things are as common as potatoes and buttermilk in the lives of our fathers. The children of this age are beginning where the fathers left off and there is not enough to go around. That is the whole thing in a nutshell. As to extravagance, we can all see it in the other fellow, but we raise our eyebrows when it is suggested that we might live more simply than we do. What with amusements, automobiles, railway gadding and the other besetting extravagances of this age we are in a fair way to putting ourselves on the back street for a fresh start, which is about what happens all around every twenty years or so.

The Arbitrator's Award, Brock vs. Township of Warwick

We the undersigned referees appointed under the provisions of the Municipal Act to determine the matters under dispute between John Brock and the Municipal Corporation of the Township of Warwick, arising from the closing up of a portion of the original road allowance between the fourth and fifth concessions south of the Egremont Road in the said Township of Warwick by By-law No. 5 of the Township of Warwick for the year 1912. And having visited and viewed the location and lands in question and the closed up portion of the original road allowance and the road or highway substituted therefor and having notified and met the parties and heard their several allegations, proofs and evidence, submitted and argument of counsel in support thereof and duly considered the same, do award and determine that the within named John Brock shall recover of the within named the Corporation of the Township of Warwick, the sum of six hundred dollars, together with the costs of the suit, to be taxed on the High Court scale and the costs of this reference, which last amounts to the sum of $265.95, and that the same shall be in full of all matters referred to us. In witness thereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals this eighth day of August A. D. 1913.

Barn Burned

On Sunday morning last, between 3 and 4 o'clock, Mr. Archie McIntyre's barn on the Brook's farm, lot 10, con. 14, Ennisville, took fire and were completely destroyed. The year's crop was housed and added materially to the loss; nothing being saved but some implements. Estimated loss $2000, with $500 insurance on barn and nothing on contents. In talking to Mr. McIntyre he expressed the opinion that it was the work of an incendiary. If such is the case and the guilty one is found it is to be hoped that the law will be meted out without fear or favor. Mr. McIntyre recently purchased the farm and had just moved into the house last week. He will immediately rebuild.

BABY'S GREAT DANGER DURING HOT WEATHER

More little ones die during hot weather than at any other time of the year. Diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera infantum and stomach disorders come without warning, and when a medicine is not at hand to give promptly the short delay too frequently means that the child has passed beyond aid. Baby's Own Tablets should always be kept in the home where there are young children. An occasional dose of the Tablets will prevent stomach and bowel troubles, or if the trouble comes suddenly the prompt use of the Tablets will cure the baby. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Toronto, August 19.—Receipts to-day at the Union stockyards were 205 loads, with 3,711 cattle, 308 calves, 671 hogs and 2,802 sheep and lambs. With the exception that there was a good demand for choice heavy cattle for export and for special exhibition trade it was a very slow and draggy market to-day for the general run of good and medium butcher cattle.

A favorable change to cooler weather probably saved the market from a general slump in prices. With the cooler prospects, however, prices held about steady, though trade was extremely slow. The run was heavy and many cattle left over for week-end markets. The market for hogs was firm but unchanged at 10.25, fed and watered. There was a very heavy run of lambs and the market went off 10c to 25c.

Montreal Abattoir, Limited, bought live loads cattle at $6.30 to $6.60.

The Safe Course

"The safe course for us to pursue is caution in the very last degree, and no manufacturer, municipality, railway or Government should go into operations which require money unless they know they can get it. Cities and towns whose borrowings have been specially criticized in some quarters should be very careful about taking on obligations and spending money without first knowing where they can sell their debentures."—Sir Edmund Walker, President Bank of Commerce.

Different Kinds of Women

Looking constantly through our own glasses at the world does not tend to make us broader minded. If we have had our fling and have settled down to the sedate joys of hoarding the money we formerly spent, we are prone to think that everyone else should be doing the same. But the woman who makes a god of her housekeeping, who gets down on her knees to her shiny stove, has this disease of the mind in its worst form. She measures every other woman by her own standard. If the other woman thinks that there are things in life far more important than shiny stoves and well-waxed floors, if the other woman has ability for greater things, then let her beware of the tongue of the self-righteous, good-house-keeper. Perhaps, in her soul, the other woman despises the woman who selfishly spends all her days polishing floors and windows, regardless of the souls that are perishing, but she cannot escape the criticism of the woman she despises. For there is no woman more vain than the woman who makes an immaculate house her fetish. She has only one standard, one bushel measure and those who do not fit into her measure are utterly condemned. She says "I am a pattern of all the virtues. I am a perfect woman. My idea of a woman's sphere is the only one." But she forgets that while the Marthas of the world are to be commended, there are other women who render great service, a service which was once called "the better part."

Twenty-one Crops in Field Crop Competition

The Expert Field-Crop-Competition judge was in this section Tuesday and awarded the prizes in the local field crop competition held under the auspices of the Brooke and Alvinston Agricultural Society. Twenty-one fields were in the contest and the judge reports them all of a high quality.

This district is well known for the splendid quality of oats produced and this to a large extent is due to the Field Crop competitions pulled off during the past few years.

The farmers are now taking a very keen interest in the production of good oats and this makes the contest a greater success as there is no difficulty in getting farmers to enter the contest.

Below are the winners in this year's contest:—

- First Prize—George Oka.
- Second Prize—Dan Maddock.
- Third Prize—James Hand.
- Fourth Prize—T. H. Lovell.
- Fifth Prize—John Hand.
- Sixth Prize—Frank Oke.
- Seventh Prize—Elijah Armstrong.
- Alvinston Free Press.

Forty Thousand Men Required

Farm Laborers' Excursions—This Year's Wheat Crop will be the Largest in THE HISTORY OF CANADA

The wheat crop of 1913 will be the greatest ever harvested in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, thus requiring the farm laborers of the East to recruit and assist in harvesting the World's greatest bread basket.

The Governments of the respective Provinces state that forty thousand men will be required for this year's harvest. These will have to be principally recruited from Ontario, and the prosperity of Canada depends on securing labor promptly. The Canadian Pacific, on which Company will fall practically the entire task of transporting the men to the West, is already making special arrangements for this year. Excursions from points in Ontario and Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta will be run; and special trains operated, making the trip in about thirty-six hours and avoiding any change of cars or transfers. This will be a day shorter than any other route.

A PURELY VEGETABLE PILL.—The chief ingredients of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are meadow and dandelion, sedative and purgative, but perfectly harmless in their action. They cleanse and purify and have most healthful effect upon the secretions of the digestive organs. The dyspeptic and all who suffer from liver and kidney ailments will find in these pills the most effective medicine in concentrated form that has yet been offered to the suffering.

Albert Walker, aged 5, son of Mr. W. Walker, who resides three miles out of Ailsa Craig, had his left ear torn off on Friday when he was trying to separate two dogs which had started to fight. He had gone over to a neighbor's place and took his pet dog with him. Soon after his arrival his dog and the neighbor's got into a fierce fight and when the child tried to separate them one of the animals flew at him and tore his ear right off. He is doing nicely at present, and unless poisoning develops no serious results are anticipated.

With so thorough a preparation at hand as Miller's Worm Powders the mother who allows her children to suffer from the ravages of worms is unwise and culpably careless. A child subjected to the attacks of worms is always unhealthy and will be stunted in its growth. It is a meretricious act to rid it of these destructive parasites, especially when it can be done without difficulty.

WOMAN COULD NOT WALK

She Was So Ill—Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Pentwater, Mich.—"A year ago I was very weak and the doctor said I had a serious displacement. I had backache and bearing down pains so bad that I could not sit in a chair or walk across the floor and I was in severe pain all the time. I felt discouraged as I had taken everything I could think of and was no better. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now I am strong and healthy."

Read What Another Woman says: Peoria, Ill.—"I had such backaches that I could hardly stand on my feet. I would feel like crying out lots of times, and had such a heavy feeling in my right side. I had such terrible dull headaches every day and they would make me feel so drowsy and sleepy all the time, yet I could not sleep at night."

"After I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a week I began to improve. My backache was less and that heavy feeling in my side went away. I continued to take the Compound and am cured."

"You may publish this if you wish." —Miss CLARA L. GAUTWITZ, R. R. No. 4, Box 62, Peoria, Ill.

Such letters prove the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for woman's ills. Why don't you try it?

HARRIS & CO. PROPRIETORS. WATTFORD, AUGUST 8, 1913.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

The Scottish temperance bill which marks an enormous advance in British temperance legislation, is now before the British House of Lords. The bill limits the time for licenses to eight years; there must be a poll of 35 per cent. of the electors on a no license vote, and the majority necessary for the adoption of no license is 55 per cent. of those voting.

The washable bank note has arrived in England. Mrs. Ernest Hart has invented a system of waterproofing which is equally applicable to silk weighing one-half ounce to the square yard, and to heavy canvases weighing two pounds to the square yard. When applied to cinematograph screens clearer pictures are shown. When the process is applied to airship covers, they are made impervious to hydrogen and to the weather, and further, they are invisible in the air. Ropes and harnesses, it is said, can be made unwaterproofable and unspringable, and would float. Bank notes could be washed and disinfected and forgery made an impossibility by this system, which has been subjected to severe test.

Spectacles with big round-eye glasses and heavy tortois shell frames are quite the fashion now for both men and women. They originated in Europe and the first ones imported to this country came from Vienna about five years ago. They sprang into popularity at once and the fad spread gradually westward. At first they were looked upon with disfavor as an affection that was a little too pronounced and those who were bold enough to wear them in public were stared at and even laughed at. But gradually the fashion spread all over the country until now many opticians carry a large stock of them.

The great men of the past are honored and worshipped today, although when they were on earth the masses crucified and persecuted them. If you would lead a peaceful life do not get ahead of the masses, for just as soon as you run ahead of the human procession the rocks will be thrown at you. That is why we find so many dubs in our legislatures, parliaments and other prominent public positions. The real brainy, thinking and aggressive man has no show when it comes to a popular vote.

Patronize Local Stores

Few people ever stop to consider what kind of a world this would be to live in if there were no local stores. Yet some of our people persist in the policy of buying in other cities as far as they can or by mail order. If they want a paltry spool of thread or a box of matches or some other trifle they buy it at home and sometimes even demand delivery. But if it is a question of something on which there is a margin of profit, then the order goes away.

If the policy of buying away from home were to become more general, many lines of goods now kept here could not be stocked. The public would suffer a distant inconvenience and the first ones to object would be those who now buy away from home. On the contrary if everyone bought all possible in their home town, many lines of goods would be improved and new ones added, thus making it possible to trade with the least expenditure of time.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Sam Hughes

(By Sherwood Hart.)

Let's raise a cheer for Samuel Hughes, who had the spunk to state his views with force upon the theme of booze for reg'ars and milishy—who in a speech both terse and brisk has turned the key upon the whisky, and sneaked these gentlemen who frisk about on rye and vichy! For Sam he up and said, "Methinks that from this date there'll be a jinks upon the heels of all the ginks who keep themselves in pickle; while I hold down the chief command in this my loved and native land 'twill not go well with soldiers, canned, you bet your bottom nickel! Our army is a small affair, but man for man 'tis past compare—you cannot beat it anywhere with numbers short of millions; but yet the fact is very plain that no man with a fuddled brain can properly instruct and train our soldier-boy civilians. No officer who soaks up gin can like a soldier wag his chin and lead his men through thick and thin—that notion is exploded. The chap who can't eschew strong drink will put his chances on the blink—I warn him that as quick as wink I'll fire him if he's loaded!" Thus up and spake our Samuel Hughes, and when his statement we peruse we coincide with all his views—in this our generation the man who haunts the booze cafe and irrigates himself all day will earn but little praise or pay through such an occupation.

Schools and the Home

A teacher out in Oregon has hit upon a novel plan of bringing the school in closer touch with the home. His scheme is to give credit for industrial work done at home. He works it out by crediting the pupils with work done according to a pre-arranged schedule. The boy who builds the fire in the morning is credited with 5 minutes; milking a cow, 5 minutes; splitting and carrying in wood (12 hours' supply), 10 minutes; gathering eggs, 10 minutes; cleaning horse, 10 minutes; and so on. Some of the things a girl is credited with are: Blacking the stove, 5 minutes; making and baking bread, 1 hour; making biscuits, 10 minutes; preparing breakfast for the family, 30 minutes; washing and wiping dishes (1 meal), 15 minutes; sweeping the floor, 5 minutes; making beds, (must be made after school), each bed, 5 minutes; arriving at school with clean hands, face, teeth and nails, and with hair combed, 10 minutes; retiring on or before 9 o'clock, 5 minutes, with a number of other credits, covering the whole list of work that may be done by boys or girls on the farm. As a further incentive to the boys and girls to do home work, contests are held, and those having the most credits receive prizes. When a pupil has 600 credits he would be granted a holiday, but no oftener than one in 20 days. The parents send in slips each day what work the children have done. The effect of the whole plan has been an eagerness on the part of the pupils to do the different kinds of work. Children that before needed urging to help now become eager to do the work. It has developed a new interest in school and has brought the home and the school closer together. Another effect it should have, too, is to remove the impression that many have of the modern school, that it weans the boys and girls away from work.

THE WESTERN FAIR

September 5th to 13th

The Western Fair of London, Ontario, will this year without doubt surpass anything ever before attempted by the Association. For months past preparations have been going quietly on for the great Exhibition, and when the time arrives it will be found that everything is in first-class condition. Enquiries of all kinds are coming into the general offices and the indications are that the buildings, although enlarged this year, will be filled to overflowing. The space in the Main Building is already allotted. It is expected that the Agricultural and Horticultural Buildings will be crowded, as the Fruit exhibits from the different counties will be quite large and very attractive. The Women's Institute throughout Middlesex County will no doubt make a very attractive display in their competition.

Prize lists, entry forms and information of all kinds regarding the Exhibition will be given on application to the Secretary, A. M. Hunt, General offices, Room 302 Dominion Savings Building, London, Ontario.

The Simple Man

You never heard him boasting loud, His name is seldom in the press, He never tries to sway a crowd, He doesn't talk about success, He doesn't think that wealth and fame Are all that really are worth while, Nor crave the popular acclaim Before he'll condescend to smile. He merely goes along his way, And daily does the best he can, And those who know him learn some day The greatness of the simple man.

The case with which corns and warts can be removed by Holloway's Corn Cure is its strongest recommendation. It seldom fails.

Henry James, of Canada, has been appointed by the Dominion Government to the position of Indian agent in succession to Samuel Sutherland, who resigned after holding the position for 12 years.

Hundreds of acres planted with beans in the Hightate section have failed to recover from the damage caused by the heavy rains of a short time ago, and the loss to bean growers will be heavy.

For years Mother Graves' Worm Expeller has ranked as the most effective preparation manufactured, and it always maintains its reputation.

Last week the neighbors and friends of Chas. Clark, 3th line, Bosanquet, raised by subscription about $300 towards the erection of a new barn, to replace the one which was burned down on July 13th.

Near Mitchell a farmer's dog which was lying on the road, was run over and killed by an auto. The farmer asked for damages for the loss of his dog, but it was shown to him that the car had the right-of-way, and if the machine or its occupants had been injured he would have had to settle.

Fall Fair Dates. The Western District Fair Association have fixed the following dates for the fairs of that circuit: Strathroy, Sept. 15-17; Petrolia, Sept. 18-20; Forest, Sept. 24-25; Parkhill, Sept. 25-26; Wyoming, Sept. 26-27; Brighton, Sept. 30; Aylmer, Oct. 2-3; WATTFORD, OCT. 7-8.

Grease in the sink is a very prolific cause of disease. Washing soda is the best and simplest cleaning agent. Thomas Baker, an employee of the Petrolia Wagon Works Company, was struck on the head on Saturday afternoon by some gearing, which fell on him and gashed his right temple. The wound necessitated Dr. Calder putting in several stitches.

When in Petrolia a few weeks ago choosing sites for sixteen mail boxes, which are to be placed at different points throughout the town, Mr. Ross, the government official who looks after the work, stated that he would recommend to the department the necessity of altering the inside of the post office and making it more in keeping with the size and importance of Petrolia. It is likely that the entire interior will be rebuilt and new boxes and drawers installed.

WOMEN NEED A SAFE TONIC

And There is Nothing Better Than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Toning up the Blood

It is said that women's work is never done, and it is a fact that whether in society or in the home her life is filled with more cares and more worries than falls to the lot of man. For this reason women are compelled regretfully to watch the growing pallor of their cheeks, the coming of wrinkles and the thinness that becomes more distressing every day. Every woman knows that ill-health and worry is a fatal enemy to beauty, and that good health gives the plainest face an enduring attractiveness.

What women fail to realize is the fact that if the blood supply is kept rich and pure, the day of the coming of wrinkles, and pallor, dull eyes and sharp headaches is immeasurably postponed. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are literally worth their weight in gold to growing girls and women of mature years. They fill the veins with the rich, red blood that brings brightness to the eye, the glow of health to sallow cheeks, and charms away the headaches and backaches that render the lives of so many women constantly miserable.

Mrs. William Jones, Crow Lake, Ont., says: "I feel that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved my life. I was so badly run down that I could hardly drag myself around. I was so bloodless that I was as pale as a sheet, and you could almost see through my hands. In fact, the doctor told me my blood had all turned to water. I was taking medicine constantly, but without benefit. My mother had so much faith in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, that she bought me two boxes and urged me to take them. How thankful I am that I followed her advice. Before these were gone I began to feel better, and I continued using the Pills until I had taken five more boxes when I was again enjoying the blessing of perfect health, with a good appetite, and I feel sure a new lease of life. I will always, my mother be sure, be a warm friend of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

If you are weak or ailing begin to cure yourself to-day with the rich, red blood Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make. If you do not find the Pills at your dealer's send 50 cents for a box or $2.50 for six boxes to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and they will be sent you by mail, post paid.

THE TRUE STORY OF A WOMAN WHO WOULDN'T

ONCE there was a woman who declared up and down that she wouldn't wear glasses. Very well for a time—but time kept going on—when reading became difficult she would squint her eyes and thus obtain better vision—but time going on—by and by she was using all the muscles of her face to squint her eyes—then came those tell-tale wrinkles—here and there at first, then everywhere. Her excuse for not wearing glasses was that they made her look older.

"But the wrinkles were there, beyond repair."

Don't be like the woman who wouldn't wear glasses to keep the eyes good.

Important Lecture Coming

Consumption the Subject

We are pleased to announce that arrangements have been made during the past week for a lecture to be given by Mr. J. B. Watson, Field Secretary and Lecturer of the National Sanitarium Association, on Tuberculosis and the Work of the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives. The Lecture will be delivered in the Methodist Church on Tuesday evening, Sept. 2nd. Those who have been privileged to hear this lecture will be glad to have the opportunity of hearing it again. We strongly recommend those who have not heard it to make a point of doing so. Entertainment, interest and education are its three very outstanding features.

Shorthorns Sell Well

A record sale of shorthorns was recently held at Chicago when the herd of Mr. D. R. Hanna was disposed. Although the sale was cash and the cattle in ordinary condition the satisfactory average of $305 on 104 head was realized, one heifer calf two months old bringing $500. Bulls up to $3550, the imported bull "Champion of Scotland" brought $1750 and was reported sold again at an advance to a man who intended to raise steers for the open market. And yet the average Canadian farmer who will balk at $100 for a first class bull calf wonders why American cattle are quoted higher on the Old Country market than Canadian.

The Worst Storm of the Season

Friday night, Aug. 8th, a terrific electrical storm accompanied by wind, rain and hail, passed over this section of the province and did considerable damage. Among the losses in this district that have been reported are:—Barn belonging to H. Curtis, townline Warwick-Bosanquet, struck by lightning and burned.

R. Macken, 16th Bosanquet, horse killed.

Thos. McPhedran, Bosanquet, house damaged by lightning.

Robt. Jones, Bosanquet, valuable horse killed.

John Davidson, 6th line, Plympton, barn burnt and colt killed.

Dougall D. C. McIntyre, Brooke, barn and contents burned, valued at $3,000.

John Robertson, 2nd line, Plympton, barn destroyed, 17 sheep killed, 70 tons hay lost.

Mrs. Eugene Mason, farm machinery destroyed.

Alex. Wark, Wanstead, four horses killed.

R. Macken, con. 16, Bosanquet, barn damaged and horse killed.

C. E. Smith, con. 5, Warwick, valuable team killed.

L. Bailey, 2nd line, hogs killed.

The crops and orchards throughout the country suffered greatly through hail and wind. Trees were uprooted or broken down, and the damage in this way will total up to many thousands of dollars. No particular damage was done in town.

Woodmen Unveiling at Watford

One of the features of the Canadian Order of the W. O. W. is that they do not allow one of their members to lie in an unmarked grave. Every policy holder has a monument erected over his grave to the value of one hundred dollars.

On Sunday, Aug. 17th, Watford Camp No. 23, with Sovereigns from Forest, Arkona and Alvinston met at their lodge room and escorted by the Watford Concert Band marched to the G.T.R. depot and burned the Uniform Rank No. 1, of Sarnia, which arrived at three o'clock, from thence marched, about 200 strong, to the Watford cemetery and unveiled a monument to the memory of the late Sov. John Edwards, which was erected by the order. This monument was furnished by Sov. Jas. Callahan, of Watford, and the cutting on it done in a very workmanlike manner.

S. W. Louks acted as council commander and assisted by the officers of the Camp, performed the beautiful Woodmen ceremony of unveiling.

Sov. Bowles of Sarnia, recited the poem, entitled, "Oh, Why Should the Spirit of Mortal be Proud."

The Band added much to the occasion with appropriate selections also the quartette composed of Mrs. R. S. Saunders, Miss Lena Mathews, Mr. D. Maxwell and Mr. Welsh, who were highly complimented on the way they rendered their selections.

Head Consul Dr. W. S. Harrison, of Toronto, was present and delivered an excellent address after which the procession reformed and marched back to the Lodge rooms, where the usual vote of thanks, speeches, etc., were given by members. The Head Consul expressed his appreciation of the high standard of membership he found in this part of Ontario.

The visiting members, including many lady Sovs. from Forest, were entertained to tea at the Roche and Taylor Houses.

Directors' Meeting

The Directors of the Lambton Insurance Co. had a heavy afternoon's work on Saturday, 16th inst. There had been no meeting of the Board for almost three months, and the Claim Book showed a list of 88 claims having been made in that time. Thirty-four of these had been settled and paid, and the 24 to be disposed of were principally from the recent storms. A large number of these were for stock killed by lightning and damages sustained by lightning where buildings were struck and not fired. No losses were reported from rodded buildings.

Some of the larger claims settled were as follows:—Henry Curtis, Bosanquet, barn burnt, by lightning, $400.

Charles Clark, Bosanquet, barn burnt, matches, $650.

W. J. H. Johnston, Moore, house burnt, oil stove, $1200.

John Robertson, Plympton, barn burnt, lightning, $1600.

J. W. Jackson, Enniskillen, barn burnt, unknown, $1700.

Claim of Joseph Topliff, Sombra, had not been reported by Inspector, and was not settled, likewise a couple of small claims where proofs of being killed by lightning were deemed insufficient.
