The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

D. B. Weldon Library
University of Western Ontario
(Regional History Room)

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shell contains the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

D. B. Weldon Library
University of Western Ontario
(Regional History Room)

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

PROGRAMME

The primary idea of this Programme is, of course, to enlighten the audience as to the personnel of the artists taking part in the performances, incidentally to serve as a guide to the plot of the piece, and generally to give such information as will tend to the enjoyment of the auditor.

Reading matter of a miscellaneous nature, is, however, liberally supplied, that may be perused with interest and advantage. Quips and Quirks give zest to the solid matter, as sauces do to meats, but there is a fund of information in the advertisements that may be seriously considered with profit.

The publishers are prepared to attend to all business in the way of general and special advertising.

Respectfully,

BELTON & ROOTE,
Advertising Agents

FREDERICK BANCROFT, the Magician,

states in a recent interview that his new spectacular production of magic has been the one great ambition of his life, and is the outcome of years of experiment and research. He is an ardent student of the natural sciences, and claims to have developed some startling and entirely novel illusions, which he will present this season. As a sleight-of-hand performer, Mr. Bancroft is said to be unsurpassed, and upon the spectacular background of his entertainment he is said to have expended a large amount of money, engaging in its construction only the most noted scenic artists and the most skilled labor to be had in this country and in Europe, and he claims that the result is one of the most elaborate stage settings ever seen in this country. Certain it is that two special cars will be required to transport it from place to place, and that he has engaged some of the best specialty artists to be had in this country, and has even drawn upon the European supply in order to secure artists whose acts are in keeping with his Oriental play and scenery. The entertainment takes the form of a visit to the palace of a magician, where, surrounded by the slaves of his household, he performs many of his marvellous tricks and illusions. Then in the palace of the Sultans of Oriental fable the magician works fresh marvels. MR. BANCROFT'S route will embrace most of the principal cities between St. Paul and Boston, and he has already arranged to appear here. The date of the engagement will be announced later. Mr. Clarence Fleming, who directs the first American tour of Mr. John Hare, the celebrated English Actor, has this novel entertainment in charge. His connection with it is an ample guarantee of its worth.

Incidental to MR. FREDERICK BANCROFT'S spectacular production of Magic, some of the best specialty artists to be had in this country and in Europe will be introduced.

Read and Reflect.

DOORS open for matinees at 2 p. m. ; curtain rises at 2.30 p. m.
Evenings.—Doors open at 7.30, and curtain rises at 8.15 p. m. sharp.
Tickets can be reserved two days in advance without extra charge.

Office open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Seats can be secured by mail, télégraph or telephone. Telephone 732.

Physicians are requested to register at the Box Office, leaving seat number, as this will enable Ushers to find them, if called for, without disturbing the audience.

Children in arms not admitted to evening performances. Children three years old or over, full price.

Patrons will confer a favor by reporting to the management any incivility or inattention on the part of the employees, and annoyances of any nature.

If the individual members of an audience would stop to think for just an instant, they would undoubtedly appreciate the fact that the habit of rising from their seat and leaving the theatre before the curtain falls, is a most annoying one, and one that should be stopped. We therefore beg our audiences to kindly remain in their seats until the close of the performance.

Carriages can be ordered at the Box Office or of the Chief Usher.

For all lost articles, apply at Box Office.

It is strange, but there is a class of people that seem to take an intense delight in bespattering the floor with tobacco juice, and in being boisterous and using profane language. These people should know at once that the courts authorize their immediate expulsion, should the management see fit to exercise its rights.

Just a Word About

BELL PIANOS.

THESE MAGNIFICENT INSTRUMENTS HAVE NOW ARRIVED AT SUCH A DEGREE OF EXCELLENCE THAT IT IS SIMPLY FUTILE FOR OTHERS TO EVEN ATTEMPT TO FOLLOW.

BACKED WITH ENORMOUS CAPITAL,

the brainy managers of the great BELL Concern not only attempted, but have actually succeeded, in producing an instrument that is the peer and pride of the musical world.

We Make No Idle Boasts.

The time has come when the word
"Bell" on a piano is known the world over as a "standard of excellence," even as it has always been "a guarantee of good faith."

A GREAT HEAD FROM WAYBACK.

Mr. Hardacre (just returned from city)—
Tell yer what, Becky, I've been a darned fool to let my money lay in th' savings bank at 3 per cent. all these years, when they pay 50 per cent. down ter New York.

Mrs. Hardacre— I don't believe they pay no such interest!

Mr. Hardacre— Oh, yer don't, Mrs. Smarty, don't yer? Well yer Uncle Hardacre just loaned $100 at that rate ter day. I'll tell you how I done it. I met a right slick-lookin' young man in front of the Astor House, and he says ter me, says he: "Sir, I would like to borrow $100, for which I will pay 50 per cent. interest." "But," says I "I don't know yer, and how am I to tell that you will pay me the interest?" "If you doubt me, sir," says he, "I will pay you the 50 per cent. in advance." Well that looked safe enough, so I give him two $50 notes, and he paid me one of them back for the interest right on the spot.
I'm to meet him at the Astor House every year and get the interest. I tell you what, Becky, it makes me mad to think what I've lost all these years.—From Puck.

First horse—"Well, they took poor old Dobbin to the slaughter-house to-day." Second horse—"That's too bad." First horse—

Friend (being shown through the house)—
"Do you find that the use of the gas-stove increases your gas bill much?" Mr. House-keep—"Not a bit, the company doesn't know we have it!"

Miss Coygirl—"Jack Softleigh told me last night that I ought to accept him, because he was willing to prove his love for me." Her Friend—"What did you say?" Miss Coygirl—"I said I couldn't see it in that light." Her Friend—"Then what did he say?" Miss Coygirl—"Nothing. He just turned the light out."

AS GOOD AS WHEAT.

Buffalo Express.

"I see," remarked the wide-awake farmer, "that wheat has gone up to seventy cents in Chicago, and there's a report that it will keep goin' till it gets to one dollar. Now, I'd like to contract to sell you my crop for seventy cents. Seventy cents will do me. I'd rather have a sure thing while it's goin' than to take my chances on doin' better by waitin'."

"But," replied the commission merchant, "I can't agree to contract for your wheat at seventy cents."

"Why not? It's goin' up to a dollar an' you'll make thirty cents a bushel. Ain't that enough?"

"Oh, yes; but you see that seventy cents is only a speculative price. It ain't what they pay for real wheat."

"Don't pay that for real wheat? What in thunder do they pay for, then?"

"Why, for options."

"Well, what the blazes are options?"

"Why, they're promises to get wheat and sell it for such and such a price."

"Well, then, they got to get the wheat, ain't they?"

"No; they sell the promises again, according as the market rises or falls."

"An' don't they buy an' sell any real wheat at all?"

"Not much."

"Just buy an' sell wind at seventy cents a bushel?"

"That's about it."

"Thunder an' Mars, wish I'd knowed that last fall. I wouldn't a-sowed any wheat. I'd tied my grain bags to the back o' my fannin mill an' kept the boy turnin' it all winter, till I'd filled all the bags I could get hold of. But it ain't too late yet. By gosh, if it's wind they want 'stead of wheat, I can supply the market for the hull country right off my farm!"

First citizen (in the near future)—"Who is that they're goin' to string up?" Second citizen—"That's the man that stole Tornado Pete's bicycle."

"War," said the lecturing philanthropist, "is a horrible evil. The warrior is a survival of barbarism—What's that! A drum! Soldiers coming!! Open the window. I want to see them."—Boston Transcript.

ONE ON WOMAN.

Oh, woman, lovely woman, were it not for thee, Man, indeed would have a fit and die from apathy.
Thou art fair as the 'lily, and beauteous as the rose,
For, coming down to beauty, you're in it, "I'll tell you those."
Oh, woman, lovely woman, thy charms are ever great,
Thou dost keep the men all guessing sometimes at a lively rate.
How often hast thou caught them with thy smile so fair to see, Oh, woman, lovely woman, come, wilt "smile
with me?"
Oh, woman, lovely woman, chief attraction—
nay, save one,
And that one is our office, where the finest Printing's done.
Our printing is par excellence in quality, and the price,
When you see the work we do you'll say "It don't cut ice."
Oh, woman, lovely woman, thy influence with man
Has always held full sway e'er since the world began.
Exert it in a profitable way o'er fathers, lovers
and brothers,
And tell them when they printing want—forget that "there are others."
Then woman, lovely woman, thou hast not lived in vain,
Pleasant day to morrow, if indeed it does not rain
We'll sing your praises truly, your charms both rich and rare.
Some day you'll have a harp and wings, and go "up in the air."
