ING OUR FALL HARVEST

In many respects our business is like a farmer's. We plant our ideas for fall and winter in the spring and reap the benefit of our forethought in the fall. Just now it's harvest time and our customers are gathering the fruits of our labors in the swell models of Suits, Overcoats, Raincoats, Fur Collared Top Coats, Boys' Suits, Reefers and Overcoats, to say nothing of the hosts of things we have for your needs in the Haberdashery Depart- ment.

Fur-Collared Topcoats

Young Men's Winter Overcoats, with Hudson seal and nutria collars, $45.00, $50.00 and $60.00—beauties—trench style.

Young Men's Suits

In all the new shades, 3-piece, full belted and slash pockets; other models in single and double-breasted styles—full of vim and snap. Priced from $22.00 to $45.00.

Men's and Stout Men's Suits

For the more conservative dresser we have our standard 3-button sack, and also a model cut special for men upon whom nature has been generous and produced a roundness of form that cannot be fitted with ordinary lines. We have them all from $18.00 up to $55.00. Be kind to the form nature has given you —buy the best.

Overcoats

We show a wonderful range of models and fabrics. Men who have been round town a bit tell us that our showing has a lead over all others. Anyway the number of coats we are selling would indicate they are not far off the correct mark. We start our price range at $18.00 and go up to $60.00. There are hundreds of coats to select from and a wonderful harvest of patterns.

Our Boys' Department

Occupies one-third of our immense floor space, so that you can see we have the boys well in mind, and at no time have we garnered such a magnificent showing of Suits and Overcoats. Space prevents a general description, but a wonderful display is here for your inspection. Bring the boys in.

Public Discontent is Not Justified by Present

Position.

London, Sept. 24 .- Count von Hertlong, the German imperial chancellor addressing the main committee of the reichstag today, declared that the pubdiscontent in Germany was not justified by the military situation on the western front, according to a despatch from Berlin.

The chancellor opened with the promise to meet the desire of the reichstag for information as far as possible. stag for information as far as possible. He proceeded to allude to the "deep discontent which has seized wide cir-cles of the population," and said that the principal reason was the pressure of the terrible four years of war, with all the deprivations and sufferings brought in its wake, and the sacri-fices imposed on all classes, all fam-ilies, and, more or less, on every in-dividual dividual. "I have no intention of trying

"I have no intention of trying to diminish this pressure by words," he continued. "but, gentlemen, if this discontent is influenced by our pre-sent military situation, by the events on the western front, I must, without desiring to anticipate a statement which we may expect from a repre-sentative of the war ministry, declare most emphatically that it far exceeds justifiable limits."

most emphatically that it far exceeds justifiable limits." Count yon Hertling admitted that the last German offensive was unsuc-cessful and that it had been neces-sary to withdraw to the Siegfried line. "The situation is grave," he addd, "but we have on cause to be faint-hearted. We have already had to pass thru harder times. The chancellor instanced the failure of the Verdun offensive, the Somme hattles and Brussiloff's mass assaults, bringing in their train the well-re-membered unfavorable reaction on the Austro-Italian front. Then came Ru-mania's entry into the war. "We never lost dourage," he said, "but showed our enemies what a re-solute will to victory could do.

solute will to victory could do. "How do things stand now? We have peace with Russia and Rumania, and even tho conditions in Russia are not yet clear and the future appears uncertain, nevertheless the former menace from two sides has disappeared and a coniderable part of our men of the eastern army can be employed in the west."

Leaside Munition Officials Highways Into Leaside Not Adequate, Says Toronto and Employes Contribute Several Hundred Dollars. Business Man.

In response to an appeal by Chief Constable L. G. Gardner, member of the distress committee of Earlscourt branch of the G. W. V. A. to benefit T. J. Hearn and family, who lost their home by fire on Renhold avenue, North Earlscourt last Friday, the officials and employes of Leastde munition factory have come nobly forward and contributed several hun-dred dollars. "I was out to Leaside last evening with a load of munition material for the big Leaside Works," said the manager of a metal works to a World reported yesterday, "and I must say that even the one good road into the town from Yonge street is not good enough for Leaside, owing to the

The whole tendency of Marx is against democracy in the real sense, and is the result of a reaction against a tyranny which has taken the form of a counter-tyranny. Tyranny by one class is just as bad but when the medium is made the as tyranny by another, and it does not matter whether the tyranny is from are getting off the track of a just above or from below.

If an independent board is de-sirable for the Canadian Northern, it needs no argument to convince that it is equally desirable for the other lines belonging to the people.

La Patrie of Montreal complains that the French-Canadians have no represen-tative on the directorate of the national ailway system, to which The Montreal Gazette rather lamely replies that the French-Canadians have only themselves in evidence in late years, and which tends to perpetuate rancor and lack of unity. The French-Canadian people have not representation in the govern-ment relative to their numbers, but the fault is their own, since the electors of that race failed to send to the house of commons last election a single supporter of the government, and it does not lie in their mouths to condemn the premier if his French-Canadian colleagues went down to defeat and none were sent to replace them.

MILITARY BUILDINGS

Work by the Dominion Government on the $2,000,000 military casualty clearing station for Toronto has start-ed. The clearing station group of buildings and barracks will be built on the property just to the north of the St. Andrew's College property. The contractors, Bates, McMabon Co., have commenced the excavation op-erations. The plan is to rush the work so that the casualty clearing station barracks will be built before the zevere winter weather starts.

CAT T is like a dream now to think of the long, weary months I spent in ner-vous helplessness. Some days I would be cheered by feeling better, but only to slip back again, and to be more than ever discouraged.

"I had always been very active. Had a wide acquaintance and did much enter-taining. In addition to helping in what-ever was going on at the church, there was Red Cross work to be done, and all the time I had my little family to look after and could not get help.

"I suppose I tried to do too much, for I got so I could not sleep at nights and always felt tired out in the mornings. Then I would have headaches and did not seem to care for my meals.

"Instead of the usual ambition and energy I found myself putting off the duties of the day. I got behind with the housework, and this worried me.

"I did not think that I was sick, but only tired. However, the time came when I did not get up in the morning. I simply could not. The doctor came and said, "Nervous Prostration." It seems I had kept on the go until the nervous system was wrung dry of all nerve force.

"Then came the long, weary weeks, and weeks dragged into months, without finding much improvement. I was complete discouraged and almost devoid of hope.

"But one day a friend told me of her experience with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and she was so sure that this treatment would do me good that I decided to give it a chance.

"I need scarcely say that there were some dark, discouraging days after beginning the use of the Nerve Food, but as my appetite and digestion improved I felt that I was gradually getting back the old-time vigor. Sleep became more natural and refreshing. The dark days passed and I began to take a more cheerful view of the future. Then I began to plan what I would do when I got around again. The house must be decorated and the children brought home, for I had to send them to my sister's on account of the way their noise disturbed me.

"Now I feel that I am entirely well again, and without hesitation give the credit to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I cannot tell you the pleasure it gives me to be restored to my husband and children after the long period of helplessness."

ST. THOMAS COMPANY

St. Thomas, Sept. 24.-A meeting of the creditors of the pure milk com-pany of St. Thomas was held here today. The plant was totally destroy-ed by fire about two weeks ago and a few days later the company made an assignment to Crown Attorney Mc-Crimmon of this city. The liabilities will amount from $32,000 ta $,138,000 with preferred claims of $10,000. The assests consist of fire insurance $21,-000; real estate and book debts $3,-000. It is believed the company will bay about fifty cents on the dollar. A large number of creditors mostly farmers who sold milk to the com-pany, were present and were repre-sented by counsel. The president of the company explained to the credit-ors that the books containing the financial statement previous to the fire all were destroyed. W. K. Cam-eron, barrister, F. B. Holtby and John Lyle were appointed inspectors.
