FARMER'S WIFE MURDERED

FOUND BY HER SON IN CELLAR OF HOME

NEGRO DRUNK BESIDE HER

Tragedy Near Stratford—Frank Roghmond, a Vagrant, Accused of Having Choked and Assaulted Mrs. Wm. Peak.

ALONE IN THE HOUSE WHEN CRIME OCCURRED.

STRATFORD, Sept. 30.—(Special)—A terrible tragedy occurred this afternoon at the rural home of William Peak, a farmer living at lot 11, con. 1, Downie, about two miles from this city.

While the husband and two sons were absent from the house a tramp negro named Frank Roghmond entered the house and, it is believed, outraged Mrs. Peak, she being found about four o'clock lying dead on the cellar floor.

Roghmond was also lying in a sleeping condition in the cellar, his hands, face and clothing spotted with blood, while blood covered the face of the victim. Marks would indicate that a woman had been choked and that a hemorrhage resulted.

The tragedy happened between noon and four o'clock. Mr. Peak had gone to the Herman farm a mile or two distant, while the boys, George and John, went to work in the fields about 300 yards from the house. About four o'clock, John returned to the house to get a jug of cider, and arriving at the cellar he saw the form of the sleeping negro and, in the dim light, what he mistook to be the form of another negro. Rushing to the field he informed his brother that two negroes were asleep in the cellar. Both returned to the house, where the discovery was made that their mother was lying dead with a portion of her face covered with blood.

George hurried across the road to neighbor Robert McIntosh, saying "Hurry over, Bob, I believe mother is dead." Other nearby neighbors were soon on the scene, while John Peak was despatched to Stratford for Chief McCarthy.

Before the chief arrived, however, the negro awakened and tried to escape from the house. He was pounced upon by the brawny and incensed farmers, while Robert Fuller placed the noose of a heavy rope around his body, pinning his arms to his side.

He was securely bound and carefully watched until the arrival of the chief. The crowd of farmers, being perturbed by pretensions of innocence by the captive, who told them a very unlikely story to the effect that he had been carried to the cellar by three men and a dog.

When found the body of Mrs. Peak was flat on the back, with limbs outstretched. Indications point to her having been criminally assaulted after she had been thrown to the floor. There were no marks of violence, the blood on her face evidently being the result of hemorrhage. It is stated that she had heart trouble, and this gives rise to the supposition that death may have followed the sudden attack. She was more than 60 years of age.

Roghmond lay within a few feet of Mrs. Peak's body, and when he awoke he showed symptoms of either having been drunk or feigning drunkenness. He was dressed in blue coat, light trousers, black leggings and a wide cheap hat, and carried rather "sporty" appearance. He is about 32 years of age, and while he was in this city this morning posed as a fortune-teller, last night and failed by the police and arraigned this morning on a charge of vagrancy. He was given a couple of hours to get out of town, but before he left he purloined a coat belonging to one of the police officers, which he wore when caught. The farmers who gathered at the Peak household were in an infuriated state, and there were murmurs of lynching before Chief McCarthy and Constable Atchison arrived at the farm.

Roghmond was brought here and lodged in jail, pending the result of the coroner's inquest. The Peak home is a two-story white brick house, a short distance off Stratford-Michigan road. The present distance from other farms to prevent any cries being heard that may have been uttered.

SHOULD PROTECT PASSENGERS

When They Are Incapable—Coroner's Jury's Recommendation.

In the inquest conducted last night on the death of Alexander Wood, who fell from a Church-street car while ill, the following verdict was returned: "We find that Alexander Wood came to his death from accidentally falling from a street car Sept. 18, 1908, and find that some rule or rules should be posted for the use of conductors giving them power to deliver such passengers to the proper authorities."

Medical evidence submitted showed that Wood was a sufferer from tubercular meningitis and that he was incapable of taking care of himself for that reason.

BREAK THE CANAL AS ROOM FOR THE GOVT.

Hon. Mr. Graham Tells Cornwall Audience That it Showed Business Capacity—Sir Wilfrid Well Received.

CORNWALL, Sept. 30.—(Special)—The Liberals of this county opened their campaign here to-night with some very heavy artillery.

They held a rally in the auditorium, the speakers being Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Hon. G. P. Graham, Hon. Charles Murphy, Col. R. Smith, the Liberal candidate in Stormont; John A. McMillan, ex-M.L.A., the Liberal standard bearer in Glengarry, and W. J. McCarthy. The latter acted as chairman.

A great effort was put forth to make this meeting a success and excursion rates were offered on the railways. A special train was run from Brockville and intermediate stations, carrying a crowd of Hon. George P. Graham's supporters, who were accompanied by the 41st Regiment Bugle Band.

There was a crowd of 4000 people in the Victoria Auditorium. Sir Wilfrid and his party arrived about 8.35 in the premier's private car. Several hundred, accompanied by the National Band, welcomed him. Reeve O'Callaghan read an address of welcome.

The first two speakers were Col. R. Smith and J. A. MacMillan. Mr. Murphy on Scandals.

Then came Mr. Murphy, the new secretary of the special sub-committee. His greatest claim on them was the record of the Liberal Government. He made light of the charges of scandal against the government and ridiculed the Conservatives for talking of purity in elections.

Sir Wilfrid, who is always quite a personal favorite in Cornwall, was introduced thru the medium of an address from the Stormont Liberal Association. This was followed by three little maids with bouquets.

This was his fourth visit to Cornwall, and while all were pleasant, he hoped this one would be followed by better luck for the Liberal candidate (defeat of the Liberal candidate followed his previous visits).

If the Liberals had got into trouble it might have been because they kept too many Tory offices in office.

As to Foster.

Referring to Mr. Foster's charge of extravagance, he claimed that while Mr. Foster had a reputation of deficit, his government had no surplus after another, the last amounting to $19,000,000. He regretted the financial depression in neighboring countries had prevented him from having his way in the matter of deepening the Welland Canal.

He expressed his appreciation of Hon. G. P. Graham and Mr. Murphy, the youngest member of his cabinet, and took into consideration the credit for selecting food men, among them being the late Mr. Blair, the late Mr. Tarte and Mr. Fielding. He concluded with a few remarks in French.

Hon. Mr. Graham pointed to the quick work in fixing the break of the Cornwall Canal as an evidence of the businesslike administration of the present government. He also defended the government's policy in regard to transportation, and expressed the hope that the Welland Canal would be deepened to 22 feet.

A recent development in the local political situation is the withdrawal of the contest of George Kerr, ex-M.L.A., who has decided to support Mr. Pringle. This leaves R. A. Pringle, Conservative, Col. R. Smith, Liberal, and A. F. Mulhern, Independent Liberal, in the field.

STRIKE STILL ON

But Prominent Canadian May Become Intermediary.

MONTREAL, Sept. 30.—(Special)—There has not been any new move in the present efforts to end the strike on the C.P.R. to-day.

It was, however, stated this evening by James O'Connell, president of the metal workers' section of the International Union of Railway Mechanics, that a prominent Canadian was now interested as intermediary between the men and the company, and that he would very speedily open negotiations.

THOUSANDS ARE DEAD FROM INDIAN FLOODS

One Village Entirely Engulfed in Mud—One Estimate Places the Fatalities at 10,000.

HYDERABAD, India, Sept. 30.—It is feared that pestilence will follow the floods that have occurred in the Hyderabad and Deccan Districts as a result of the unprecedented rainfall of the past few weeks.

The waters subsided yesterday and the country is strewn with unburied bodies estimated to number not less than 1000.

Most of the corpses are those of women and children. They are decomposing already, and as it will be impossible to get them under ground promptly, an outbreak of illness is feared.

Many elephants are at present employed in removing the dead.

Later reports from the flooded districts point to a much heavier mortality than was at first supposed.

The rescuers up to the present time have only touched the edge of the desolated area, but from the numbers of bodies already found it is feared that the fatalities will total several thousand.

One report places the death toll at 10,000. The Village of Ghouligooda which consisted of one thousand people on the bank of the River Musi, has been entirely engulfed in the mud.

The catastrophe that overwhelmed Hyderabad, the capital of the Nizam's dominions, was one of the most sudden and most appalling of many visitations to that country.

In the Nizam's dominions are many tanks or lakes, the largest of which communicates with the River Musi. Tremendous rains caused the lake to overflow into the river, which in turn burst its banks.

A flood of water sixty feet high swept down upon the city, carrying everything before it, and completely devastating several quarters of the city. The flood actually wiped out a district a mile long and half a mile wide.

CREIGHTON IF CRAZED KNEW OF HIS CRIME

DEFENCE EXPERT SAYS

Evidence All In and Verdict Will Be Reached To-Day—Medical Men Differ as to the Extent of His Irresponsibility.

OVEN SOUND, Sept. 30.—(Special)—The evidence for the crown at the Creighton murder trial to-day led up to practically no new developments other than were given at the coroner's inquest and the preliminary hearing before the magistrate.

The empanelling of the jury occupied a much shorter time than was anticipated. For the crown only three were challenged, while for the defence 13 were rejected.

The final selection was Wm. Cooke, Angus McColeman, John A. Jarrett, Firman Irish, John Halliday, William Halliday, John Carnin, James Morrison, H. S. Neelands, Gregor McGregor, John Padden and John H. Hart.

George Tate Blackstock, K.C., referred to the tragedy as one of the most terrible in years. While the prisoner had afterward expressed regret and remorse that he had killed the two girls, he had not expressed any regret with reference to the death of his wife. The plea of insanity would be put forward, but the jury must remember that even an insane person was responsible to the law if he knew right from wrong. He warned them against being humbugged. All that was wanted was the truth.

When Brought In Confessed.

George A. Wright told how when he was working in his garden he observed the prisoner looking out of the window and shouting to someone. Going over, witness was joined by William Heighes, also a neighbor, and Creighton stated that he had shot his whole family and himself, and asked for something to drink. Upstairs they found the prisoner wounded and also the gruesome spectacle which horrified them. He heard the prisoner's confession.

David Christie, hardware merchant, told of selling the revolver which prisoner owned. Prisoner had not paid for the revolver and when it was found it was labeled "this belongs to Christie Bros—not paid for—take it back."

Dr. Hoxey told of having visited the prisoner the night previous to the tragedy. Prisoner was lying on the bed dressed and was angry with Mrs. Creighton for having sent for the doctor, and refused at first to consult the doctor. Later witness felt the prisoner's pulse and it was normal. The latter declined a sedative when it was suggested, saying that it would be all over in the morning.

BORDER CRACKS AT LEWIS BOUNTY

Reminds Perth Farmers That They Are Entitled to Rural Mail Delivery as Right, Not as a Favor.

ST. MARY'S, Ont., Sept. 30.—(Special)—Into the home of J. H. McIntyre, South Perth's representative in the last parliament, came R. L. Borden and his platform colleagues to-day.

The meeting was held in the opera house, which was full to the doors at 7.30, and overflowing at 8 o'clock, when the Conservative chairman arrived.

South Perth gave Mr. McIntyre (Liberal) 144 majority four years ago, and although he has the same opponent this year, the Conservatives say the riding will be in opposition to the government after Oct. 26.

Mayor Willard was chairman and introduced Dr. Steele, the candidate, who made an excellent impression. He described Mr. Borden as a clean man who is fighting the grater and the plunderer. He was sure that there would be a change and that the spirit of true Canadianism was going to assert itself for honest government.

There was a visible change in sentiment. The questions dividing the parties were not as much of policy, but questions of right or wrong. Four years ago it was difficult to criticize the government, for the first eight years the government had done well, but the exposures of the past four years were enough to condemn any government.

Dr. Steele condemned the extravagance of the government, pointing to an expenditure of $44,000 in the riding of Bonaventure, as a sample. Much of this sum was spent for improper purposes. The $4,000 postage on St. Mary's was also an example of money, improperly spent.

The candidate said the ministers at Ottawa had tried to throw the blame for the scandals on the marine department on the under officials, but when Mr. Borden went to Europe he spent $800 in a few weeks.

The Work of Parliament.

The Conservative leader received a warm welcome. At the outset he excused his failure to visit South Perth earlier by the growing length of the session, due to the incapacity of the ministers who delayed their important legislation for four or five months and kept parliament in session for seven months. In this connection he quoted in German some words of Schiller, which describe the onerous work of parliament.

"It never will rest nor from travail be free. Like a sea that is laboring the birth of a sea."

Mr. Borden discoursed on the duty of true Canadians to maintain the principles of honest government. There would be differences of opinion as to the tariff or public ownership, but in the matter of morality in public life, honest and capable administration, there could be no two opinions.

The government had wondrously, unobtrusively and audaciously misappropriated the money of the people of Canada and outraged public decency. It was no answer to the people of Canada to say that the opposition were much ruckers. Describing his own efforts to have the marine department investigated, and Sir Wilfrid's characterization of his allegations as "froth and wild talk," Mr. Borden exclaimed: "That is the man who is the guardian of the honor of Canada and of the public treasury as well."

Mr. Borden was particularly effective when he gave probably a dozen examples of corrupt expenditures.

Money Wasted.

Near here, at St. Joseph, the government spent $15,000 on a wharf that was never used and he showed that the postal business of the port was less than $100 a year.

So far the free rural mail delivery plank in the Halifax platform was concerned the government had

Hasty 22 to 1 Shot Winner Second Day at Hamilton

Wapono and Expansionist Are the Favorites to Win... Big Crowd, Drizzling Rain and Fast Track.

The offering Wednesday at Hamilton consisted of five 400 purses and one at $600, the last race of the day on the turf, that went to John Carroll, the third choice, in a four-horse race, Cocksure, the long shot, being noised out in a drive to the wire. Golden Shore made the pace to the straight and then dropped outside the outside, and a longer smout on Cocksure would have made it a dead heat. Redmore was always third. The money poured in on the winner at post time.

Another close finish was in the fourth, for 2-year-olds and geldings, that Red Mink, second choice, was the lot, but the shot, Drapeto, by a neck, Albion, unbacked, third. Desperado was made favorite on his Woodbine form, but proved a disappointment.

The other races were all won easily. Wapono and Expansionist were the straight choice to win, took their own time, but were never prominent.

Restoration, at a long price, won over the 1 1/2 mile course. Latona P. Daley, the rest nowhere, Mariposa did not run like a favorite.

Expansionist won the steeplechase under wage. Waterway was crowded at the jump in the hollow, causing McClean to lodge a vain protest. Markman was third, alone. The play was on the first two, that started split-favorites.

Hasty was the outsider to land the fifth, punky second and Mother third, all at juicy prices, with little support. The play was on Debar and Botanis, the latter's rein getting caught in the barrier. Rain began to drizzle during the second race, causing the bookmakers to raise the odds, but the track was not affected. The layers must have had a good margin on the day. The crowd was about as large as on opening day.

McGee Hides Three Winners. LOUISVILLE, Sept. 30.—Jockey McGee again carried off the riding honors at Douglas Park this afternoon, winning on Ben Sand, 3 to 1, Swift, 10 to 1, and Lawrence P. TWELVE FURIOUS ROUNDS. Tommy Murphy and Matty Baldwin Fight Draw in New York.

BOSTON, Sept. 30.—Tommy Murphy of New York fought twelve furious rounds with Matty Baldwin of this city at the Armory A.C. last night, and at the end of the battle Referee Donnelly called the contest a draw, although it seemed to the spectators as if the New Yorker was entitled to the decision.

Murphy scored three knockdowns during the contest, but Baldwin did great work at close-range fighting. Tommy scored his knockdowns in the eighth, tenth and eleventh rounds. The first four rounds were furiously contested, both men hammering away at each other without a moment's respite, and each doing considerable damage.

In the fifth Murphy began to take a slight lead, and the men fought hard in the sixth and seventh rounds. Baldwin was the local lad staggered the New Yorker with a left to the jaw, in the seventh round, but they were too busy to clinch.

From the eighth round it looked as if Murphy would be an easy winner. Baldwin jabbed his left to Baldwin's face, and both whaled away at the head and body in a fast mix-up that followed. Baldwin backed away long enough to slam his left to Murphy's jaw, and then they sprang together again. Murphy swung a terrific right hook to Baldwin's stomach, and Matty dropped to the floor. He arose quickly and Tommy rushed at him, landing a hard right to the jaw before Baldwin could recover from the knockdown.

Then came the real fight, for Matty Murphy had the better of the ninth round, but Baldwin fought furiously and did damaging work at close range. Tommy repeatedly staggered Baldwin with rights and lefts to the head and body, but the local fighter came out hard. He hammered away at Murphy's stomach and wind, and both looked tired when the bell rang.

Murphy came up strong for the tenth. He jabbed a right to the body and Baldwin countered on the head. Murphy then landed several rights and lefts to Baldwin's head, and Baldwin tried a sudden rush. Tommy met him coming in, and the men fought hard for the remainder of the fight.

Murphy tried hard for a knockout in the eleventh, but Baldwin was just as quick, stepped back and booked the end of the round. Murphy had been getting the worst of it in the thirteenth, stepped back and booked the end of the round.

Baldwin began operations in the twelfth and last round by landing his left to Murphy's face. Murphy returned the jab and they began fighting shoulder to shoulder. Matty did a great work in this round, and when the bell rang Referee Donnelly called the fight a draw.

DISTANCE OF THE MARATHON. Annual Race Over Lake Shore Road This Year is 14-1/2 Miles.

This year's Ward Marathon will be three-fourths of a mile short of 20 miles, and about two longer than last year's, as Tom Longboat, with good reason, was anxious to have the distance same as last year. However, his friends hope to see him win the cup the third time, for keeps.

Entries are being made fast, and by the time for closing on Monday evening next the largest entry list ever known in a Marathon race in the world will have been received. Only the number in the Ward race has reached 90, among the last entries the thirteen from Central X, the Jack Near, C. Schofield, George Goulding, Price Mitchell, Jack Amour, Fred Carter, W. G. Howard, George Lester, John Gibson, Fred West, C. E. S. Willis and George J. Tustin. George Ogley of the Royal Canadians, J. Sidaway, West End, Y.M.C.A. and Fred Carnaby are among the last entries.

The boys under 14 years' race has 35 entries and closes to-night. The under 17 years has about ten entries, and the collegiate and Technical School's has five. The West End Y.M.C.A. and Fred Carnaby are among the last entries.

Canadian Athletes Do Well. (Canadian Associated Press Cable.) LONDON, Sept. 30.—In the Rome Olympic sports foot-race competition, Canada won third prize, while several Canadians were awarded silver medals for individual events.

THE CITY AND THE STREET RAILWAY.

Interviewed by a representative of The News yesterday Mr. Robert John Fleming, manager of the Toronto Street Railway, is reported to have remarked that "the annexation of East Toronto to the city will neither affect beneficially or otherwise the street car situation for the people living in that section. The annexation is theoretical as far as the street railway is concerned and practical as far as the people of East Toronto are concerned."

Asked whether the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board could compel the company to extend its lines to cover the newly acquired territory, the manager is credited with the reply: "The city council has no power to send us out there. We have no desire to go further east for a while yet."

If Mr. Fleming's remarks are correctly transcribed, it is evident that the street railway company has no present intention of abandoning its truculent attitude towards the city. Fortified by the decision of the city council, which reversed it once the Canadian courts, the plain conditions of the agreement between the city council and the company and the acknowledged intention of the parties to it, the company apparently intends to limit its service to the profitable districts of the city and leave the outlying districts, equally entitled to the advantages of street transportation, without facilities. This attitude is that normally assumed by the public service corporation, and it is directly contrary to the line of its duty as a public trustee. It was to guard against this very contingency that the agreement was drawn, with the clear understanding and in the confident anticipation (on the part of the then city council) that all future extensions rendered necessary by the expansion of the city would be given on the order of its engineer.

The law in the United States that railway companies must provide reasonable transportation facilities over all parts of the area it serves and that it may not reject unprofitable portions of its system. In other words, it cannot limit its service to individual lines which are unprofitable to meet expenses or provide a surplus. The United States courts hold that a railway company cannot discriminate in this way and thus artificially increase its revenue at the expense of the public convenience. It is sufficient if the system taken as a whole can be worked so as to yield a fair return to the shareholders, and in that case its obligations to the public must be properly discharged. When Toronto gave the street railway company its franchise it did so in order that the transportation service might be sufficient for the reasonable requirements of the whole city and that such extensions should from time to time be made as the city engineer should deem necessary. That interpretation was confirmed by the Canadian courts, who understood the facts and circumstances—it was repudiated by a court thousands of miles away, unacquainted with local conditions, which, when set face to face with plain and unmistakable conditions, adopted a construction of a highly artificial character that practically struck the clauses in question out of the agreement.

When the street railway company refuses reasonable transportation facilities to outlying parts of the city, a remedy must be found where alone it can be got—the provincial government and the provincial legislature. The company is unable to plead, against the application of a sufficient remedy, that its system is unprofitable. On the contrary, it is highly profitable and increasingly profitable. Not only so, but the railway company, entrusted with the valuable street franchise of a community comprising one-sixth of the population of the province, has gone out of its way to acquire the Electrical Development Company, and it has financed the Electrical Development Company on the credit it enjoys as holder of that franchise. But, is Toronto to suffer, and are the annexed districts of Greater Toronto to suffer, because the street railway company chooses to ignore its duty as charged with the operation of a public service? The company is a public trustee and irrespective of the city council's technical interpretation of the agreement, it should be compelled to fulfill its duty or to yield up its franchise.

The position of the street railway company is precisely that of the Toronto Electric Light Company. It has a terminable franchise which the city can resume at the expiry of its lease on the terms and conditions of the agreement. What the agreement provides with regard to the sum to be paid by the city is that "in determining such value, the rights and privileges granted by the said agreement and the revenue, profits and dividends being or likely to be derived from the enterprise are not to be taken into consideration, but the arbitrators are to consider only the actual value of the actual and tangible property, plant, equipments and works connected with and necessary to the operation of the railways, which is not to include any land, property or rights acquired or used in connection with the said street railway and which do not actually form a part of the said street railway undertaking necessary to the carrying on of the same."

The agreement naturally expires on Sept. 1, 1911. If the street railway company persists in its refusal to act up to the measure of its duties as holders of a public franchise, the city should give power immediately to resume the franchise on the payment of the value of its property, plant, equipments and works. That basis of fair value, too, is the one which should be taken in deciding upon the reasonableness of requiring the street railway to provide proper transportation facilities for the extended city. The supreme court of the United States has held that the basis of all calculation as to the reasonableness of rates to be charged by a corporation maintaining a highway under legislative sanction must be the fair value of the property being used by it for the convenience of the public. And that principle is just as applicable to any other corporation that has undertaken to perform a public service. The agreement between the city and the street railway company has that same principle running through it and there are sound reasons in equity why the provincial legislature should interfere to restore the clauses overridden by the city council to the full force and effect it was the intention of the contracting parties they should possess, or as an alternative the city should be authorized to resume the franchise on payment of the fair value of the undertaking.

COMPANY APPEALS

Object to Railway Board Order to Run Cars on Keele Street. James Bain announced yesterday that the street railway would appeal from the order of the Ontario Railway Board to run the cars to Keele-street on Dundas-street. The order was made permanent yesterday on the lines of the temporary order made last June.

Several interesting points will be raised, including the authority of the board; this being the first appeal from its jurisdiction. The appeal will also have a direct bearing on the relations of the city with the railway in case of the annexation of West Toronto.

KEEP SONS FROM MILITIA IF CANTEENS FLOURISH

Sentiment of the W.C.T.U. as Expressed by the President in Address at Annual Meeting.

In calling attention to the fact that 23 convictions for drunkenness resulted in one military camp of 10 days this summer, Mrs. E. A. Stevens, president of the W. C. T. U., in the district convention of that body in College Street Baptist Church yesterday, questioned whether the minister of militia was really trying to obey the canteen laws or was too weak to enforce them.

Touching upon the duties of women regarding temperance work, the president drew attention to an expression of Earl Grey's in addressing The Women's Canadian Club of Montreal:

"If you women would shut the doors of your homes against the man who corrupts the sources of domestic and nuptial life in the same way that you exclude the man who cheats at cards if you would refuse your smiles to the man who lifts below the belt in sports, business or politics, then the star of your city would shine with a brilliancy which would make its radiance felt, not only in Canada, but throughout the United States."

This is the 22nd annual meeting of the Toronto district body. In beginning her address Mrs. Stevens said: "It is our present privilege not alone to gather up the fruits of the last year, but the last hundred years, which might appropriately be called the century of universal progress, so mighty a force has it been in developing the world's resources, and in striving to organize the world into one united brotherhood."

In reviewing the progress of temperance, the speaker said that at the present time, more than two thirds of the United States was under strict temperance laws. In Canada, only British Columbia had not adopted local option and Prince Edward Island was now seeking federal legislation to prohibit the importation and manufacture of liquor within its boundaries.

Norway and Sweden were making great strides towards temperance, especially in the rural districts, and Finland prohibited the importation and manufacture. In England 3903 civil parishes and in Scotland 183 rural districts were without licenses.

The Canadian Government had done a good work in prohibiting opium from the Pacific coast; but it was deplorable that they had shelved the anti-cigarette bill.

retary, Mrs. F. C. Ward, showed that the total membership of the district union was $50, with an honorary membership of 140. Forty-five public meetings were held during the year and the amount of money raised in the 15 sub-unions amounted to $1451.41.

The treasurer, Mrs. J. M. Redmond, gave the receipts of the district as $988 and expenditure $1000, but as some funds were still to come in the deficit would be reduced and the balance shown on the right side. The funds of the house committee were also reported, the receipts being $978.95, against which were placed local expenditures $415.77 grant to the Frances Willard Home $100, deposit in the savings bank $300, deposit for the coming season's coal $100, and a balance of $221.85.

The election of officers will take place this morning and it is expected that several changes will be made in the personnel of the executive. For one thing, the president, Mrs. Stevens, wishes to resign. It is not known positively whether she will be prevailed upon to remain in office for another year or not; but already there are several candidates under consideration for nomination should persuasion fail.

STRIKE CONTINUES.

ALBANY, N.Y., Sept. 30.—The strike of the local unions of the National Brotherhood of Pulver Sulphite Workers and Paper Makers in New York and New England states inaugurated on August 1st, seems as far from settlement as ever. Delegates representing the various unions, after an all night session and two sessions here to-day, were unable to effect a compromise.

LICENSE HOLDERS IN CONVENTION

Will Placard the Province With Poster Against Local Option.

The annual convention of the Ontario Licensed and Allied Trades Protective Association was largely attended at Victoria Hall yesterday afternoon. The president, T. P. Phalen of Oakville, was re-elected. The other officers appointed were J. Paisley, Ottawa, vice-president; W. I. Thompson, hon.-secretary, and G. J. Foy, treasurer.

Secretary Karl Schmidt reported a total membership in the association of 450. The convention received the report of the executive on the efforts which will be made to check the local option movement. In this connection a large poster was exhibited addressed to farmers and manufacturers, dealers, insurance agents, transportation companies and wage earners. The poster states that the trade consumed in products, labor, insurance and transportation an expenditure of $35,300,000, and that $100,000,000 is invested in the trade. The poster contains the warning that "Prohibition added to the ranks of the unemployed."

Charles F. Bond, in connection with the local option question, read a paper on which he declared that candy and confections have sent more infants' souls to heaven than whiskey has sent drunkards to the other place. He attributed local option progress to ignorance and intolerance on the part of clergymen and the indifference of the average voter.

WHY CHINA HAS FEW TREES. Frank N. Meyer, the scientific explorer for the Government, in his recent penetration of China, saw farms that had been under irrigation since before Columbus discovered America. To the credit of the paper plants he said, all forms of plant and tree growth were cherished and encouraged around the temples. The priests gave Meyer what information they could. The extent to which forest devastation has gone in China can be inferred from the fact that the Chinese have rooted and grubbed out every vestige of tree growth the size of your finger above the graves of their revered ancestors.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Herman Ridder, the new treasurer for the Democratic party, in place of Gov. Haskell, who resigned, has issued the following notice:

Wanted—Five hundred men to contribute $1000 each to the Democratic campaign fund. Apply (with cash, money order, certified cheque, or send by registered letter) to Herman Ridder, treasurer Democratic National Committee, Hoffman House, New York.

"I think," he says, "that many Democrats in the country will be willing to contribute $1000 each. We are going to give them a chance to do so. We have five weeks of hard campaigning ahead of us and shall need money in small and large sums. We have a splendid chance to win and, with the proper munitions of war, will make the victory absolutely certain."

A Brockville special says: The political conditions in South Leeds are shaping towards a hard fight. W. C. Fredenburg of Westport, son of the late Charles Fredenburg of that village, who contested the riding several times against George Taylor, will, if is expected, take up arms against his father's old opponent Mr. Fredenburg. It is understood, has made known his willingness to allow his name to go before the Liberal convention at Delta on Oct. 7.

Only two constituencies remain without Conservative nominees now, East Kent having been supplied yesterday. Hamilton West may be filled to-day, and will be very soon in any case. In Prescott there may be no contest, as it has been thought in some quarters that it would not be good policy to oppose Mr. Proulx, the Liberal candidate.

What Will Be the Answer. CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 30.—That he will decide the various protests and claims raised in connection with the series of games in New York, between Chicago and New York teams strictly in connection with National League, was declared by President Harry Pulliam in a statement given to the press here to-day in answer to a published demand by President Murphy of the Chicago team that decision be given before the end of the season. Mr. Pulliam said he would give the matter his earnest attention and his return to New York to-morrow, and would announce his decision as quickly as possible thereafter.

TORONTO MARKET IN ANOMALY TRADING BECOMES STAGNANT

Pools the Only Buyers of Speculative Specialties

World Office, Wednesday Evening, Sept. 30.
The size of the Toronto stock market needs only to be gauged by the daily transactions. The afternoon session witnessed dealings in about 150 shares, a mere incident in the daily transactions of local operators at the New York exchange. Bookers are disgusted and can only account for the apathy of the public by the very high prices at which most of the specialties are supposed to be selling. Distrust and disgust evidently pervade the minds of those who have formerly given this market their confidence to such an extent that nothing but time will heal over the breach. The market, with scarcely an exception, was thoroughly speculative. Trading brokers were not willing to sell stocks short because the only takers were the agents of the pools. As the representations of the market are so generally speculative, the market is so generally speculative, the market is so generally speculative.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—There was a further cut in the dividend of the preferred stock of the International Paper Co. to-day when the directors decided to reduce it from 10 per cent. to 8 per cent. The dividend of last July was one per cent.; that of April 14 per cent.
The stock market now displays a greater susceptibility to overreactions, and when the bears resort to fakes like the Harriman rumor yesterday, it is time to be cautious on the short side. Latest reports indicate that purchases of railroad stocks will be continued for some time to come. The market is so generally speculative, the market is so generally speculative, the market is so generally speculative.

UP TO THE WOULD-BE FINANCIERS.
World Office, Wednesday Evening, Sept. 30.
The spirit of speculation is certainly moribund in so far as the Toronto Stock Exchange is concerned. Remarkable strength in C. P. R., which has carried the price no higher perhaps than its intrinsic worth, but which is due to the inevitable pool operations, had no effect upon local sentiment. The fact seems to be that various syndicates have bolstered up the prices of their various specialties, and now find themselves almost without a market. The public is distrustful of the market in its present shape, and the would-be financiers have the problem of changing this state of affairs, now on their hands.

KOCH REPEATS OPINION EXPRESSED IN LONDON

Noted Scientist Declares Bovine Tuberculosis is Not Transmissible to Human Beings.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Dr. Robert Koch, the noted German scientist, declared to-day before the sixth session of the International Congress on Tuberculosis, that he had always regarded the work of the health authorities of New York City, under the direction of Dr. Herman M. Biggs, general medical officer of the department of health of that city, in combating tuberculosis, as a model to be followed by other municipalities.
Dr. Koch followed the address of Dr. Biggs, who spoke on "The Administrative Control of Tuberculosis in New York City," and who is an old pupil of the famous German scientist.
Dr. Arthur Newsham, one of the medical authorities in England, also took the occasion to praise the program of prevention of consumption in so complete as in New York.
That he still maintains the opinion expressed by him at the conference on tuberculosis at London, in which he declared that bovine tuberculosis is not transmissible to human beings, was the declaration of Dr. Robert Koch. He said that "at the present time there is no authentic case of bovine tuberculosis in man taking the form of pulmonary tuberculosis."
He added that investigations up to the present time corroborated the statement made in London.
Announcement was made of the institution of a number of children, tubercular patients, and all charity patients at the children's hospital, with tuberculosis, human and bovine, and with a culture of Koch's tubercle bacilli, to prove the accuracy of the diagnostic methods advanced by Dr. D. Lascelles Hesse of Budapest, Hungary, and the diagnosis theories of Dr. Clemens von Pirquet of Vienna.
Dr. Von Pirquet made demonstrations at the children's hospital to-day for the benefit of the delegates. It was stated at the hospital that the children had responded to the demonstration, the reaction resulting in expressions of gratification over the showing made.

AGAINST POSTAL SAVINGS.
American Bankers' Ass'n Say Deposits are Except From Legal Process.
DENVER, Col., Sept. 30.—On the ground that the exemption of deposits from legal process is vicious, the committee on postal savings banks, in its report to the savings bank section of the American Bankers' Association, urged that the postal savings bank bills, now pending in congress, be not enacted into law. The committee declares that the bills are specifically wrong in these particulars: "The exemption of deposits from legal process is vicious, as it would provide a depository for funds of the defrauder, and the fraudulent, where they could place their money, draw interest on it and be free from attachment, which would prove a serious menace to the business interests of the country."
"In the use made by the government of the funds coming into its possession thru the postal savings deposits, the provision of the bills do not assure a wide and equitable distribution of the funds deposited nor prevent the centralization of the deposits resulting in expressions of the general business interests of the people."

CHEAP OCEAN MAIL RATE.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—The postoffice department is prepared to handle a largely increased mail from the United States, resulting from the introduction of penny postage.
It is expected that this week's mails will be particularly large.
The Philatelic Society has issued commemorative envelopes as souvenirs of the occasion. The decorations on the envelopes include the arms of the two countries, with the dates of important postal reforms.

BELLEVILLE, Sept. 30.—In the police court this morning Capt. Roy of the steamer Altha was fined $175 and costs for taking his boat, which only had a bay and river permit, to Cobourg on Lake Ontario, last summer, without permission. Three charges of overloading were dismissed.
Burned Bridge Caused Wreck.
HAMILTON, Sept. 30.—It was shown at the inquest into the Mineral Springs disaster, in which Engineer McPadden, Fireman Brown and Yardmaster Maloney were killed on Sunday, that the bridge collapsed thru the supports being burned during the night. The company proved conclusively that the bridge had burned during the night, and that it was impossible for it to have caught from the engine after it broke thru. A verdict was rendered accordingly.
