British Resume Drive Quickly Make Gains

Attack On Wide Front On Both Sides Of The Scarpe River

Satisfactory Progress, Says General Haig—Associated Press Correspondent Says Last Point of German Defences on Hindenburg Line North of Scarpe is Captured

LONDON, April 22.—After a week's inactivity, during which they had been busy consolidating the gains of the first week's offensive and bringing up their guns, the British at dawn this morning began another phase of the operations against the formidable German defences on the front in Northern France.

General Sir Douglas Haig reports that the forces under his command attacked on a wide front on both sides of the River Scarpe, where a portion of the Hindenburg line forms a barrier defending Cambrai, and that they are making satisfactory progress.

Further south British troops have captured the remainder of the village of Trescault and occupied the greater part of Havrincourt wood, which formed a two mile bulge in their lines. From this point to St. Quentin the line approaches very closely to the Cambrai-St. Quentin road and canal. A success along the Scarpe not only would threaten the new German line, but would further outflank Lens on the south.

GAINS IMPORTANT

British Headquarters in France, April 23.—(From a Staff Correspondent of the Associated Press)—In their new offensive, the British have captured the town of Gavrelle, the last part of the defences of the Hindenburg line north of the Scarpe. They have also taken the village of Guenappe, south of the Scarpe. More than 1,000 prisoners have been taken today.

LONDON, April 23.—The British have opened an attack on a wide front in the region of the Scarpe River.

The official report, issued today, says that the battle is proceeding and that satisfactory progress is being made.

The British completed the conquest of the village of Trescault and gained the greater part of Havrincourt Woods. The announcement follows:—

"We attacked at dawn this morning on a wide front on both sides of the River Scarpe. Fighting is proceeding and our troops are making satisfactory progress."

"South of the Bapaume-Cambrai road we captured the remainder of the village of Trescault during the night and gained possession of the greater part of Havrincourt Wood."

FRENCH CHECK ENEMY ATTACKS

Paris, April 23.—The French statement of today follows:—

"There was very active artillery fighting last night south of St. Quentin and between Soissons and Rheims. East of Craonne a very violent German bombardment was followed by preparations to attack. Our batteries replied effectively and the enemy was not able to launch the attack."

"In the Champagne the Germans at six o'clock last evening directed a strong attack against the sector northeast of Mont Haut. It was broken by our artillery and machine gun fire. The enemy renewed his efforts during the night on the ridges which we hold before Moronvilliers. The fighting was very spirited at some points, resulting everywhere to our advantage."

"East of St. Mihiel and in the Woëvre we repulsed two surprise attacks made by strong enemy detachments, one in the Ally Wood, the other against the Calonne trench. In the Vosges an enemy attack south of the Ste Marie Pass was without success."

Kaiser to the Crown Prince.

Amsterdam, via London, April 23.—An official despatch from Berlin says that Emperor William has sent the following telegram to the crown prince:—

"The troops of all the German tribes under your command with steel-hard determination and strongly led have brought to failure the great French attempt to break through on the Aisne and in Champagne. There, also, the infantry again has to bear the brunt and thanks to the indefatigable assistance of the artillery and other arms, has accomplished great things in its death-defying perseverance and irresistible attacks. Convey my and the Fatherland's thanks to the leaders and men. The battle on the Aisne and in Champagne is not yet over, but all that fight and bleed there shall know that the whole of Germany will remember their deeds and is as one with them to carry through to the fight for existence to a victorious end, God grant it!"

TURKEY RANGES AS AN ENEMY OF UNITED STATES

Washington, April 23.—Official notification of the Turkish government breaking off diplomatic relations with the United States was received today by the state department in a despatch from American minister Stovall at Bern, Switzerland.

TURKS FALL BACK FROM ISTABILAT POSITION; BRITISH ARE ATTACKING

LONDON, April 23.—The Turks in Mesopotamia have evacuated the Istabilat position, on the right bank of the Tigris, ten miles below Samarra, the war office announces. They are now being attacked at a point six miles nearer Samarra.

EXAMINATION OF THE PROVINCE ACCOUNTS TO BE MADE BY EXPERTS

NOTED ACCOUNTANTS
Same Firm Who Audited Manitoba Books And Now Are Engaged in Similar Work in British Columbia—Representatives Reach Fredericton

(Special to Times)
Fredericton, April 23.—The provincial government has arranged with Price, Waterhouse & Co., of Montreal, perhaps the best known firm of chartered accountants in Canada, to make a thorough examination of the accounts of the province with a view to ascertaining the exact condition of the finances. This concern lately completed an audit of the accounts of the province of Manitoba and recommended a new system of bookkeeping for that province.

The government was so well pleased with the work accomplished that it appointed the firm's representative comptroller of the treasury. The same firm is now engaged in making an audit of the accounts of the province of British Columbia.

A. B. Brodie of Montreal, representative of the firm of Price, Waterhouse & Co., arrived here on Saturday and this morning entered upon his duties. He was joined this afternoon by Mr. Smith, another representative of the firm, who is likely to remain here until the work is completed. Mr. Brodie will return to Montreal but will make several visits to Fredericton to superintend the work.

The firm of Price, Waterhouse & Co. are auditors for several chartered banks of Canada and also act for large industrial corporations. The high standing of the firm is a guarantee that the work which they have been engaged to perform for this province will be thorough and accurate.

POLICE COURT

Fourteen prisoners were before Police Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning. Most of them were lined up on drunkenness charges. Two bottles, taken from one of the prisoners, were displayed on the magistrate's desk. Picking up one of the bottles, he made the remark—'If it was not for this stuff I would have very little to do.' There were no arrests yesterday.

Five prisoners were fined $8 or two months in jail for drunkenness. Two soldiers were before the court on charge of being drunk together in King square. Policeman Ward, who with Sergeant Journey arrested the men, was given strict orders by the magistrate to make every effort to secure the names or names of any who supplied liquor to the men in khaki. Two sailors arrested in Hospital street on drunkenness charge by Detective Briggs, were remanded.

Another man left a deposit of $8 for acting disgracefully in Mill street. Noble McLeod and Albert Beem were remanded, being told that they were liable to nine months in jail for wandering about South wharf at an early hour this morning and not giving a satisfactory account of themselves to Detective Briggs. He also charged of being intoxicated. One of the men said that he went to the late train to see his brother away and afterwards he, with a friend, went to the wharf for a joy-ride. This was the reason for their being out late. A soldier arrested with the two, was taken to the military hospital on order of Dr. Dunlop.

CALLS OF COURTESY MARK THE FIRST DAY

Washington Paying All Honor to Mr. Balfour and His Conferees

Washington, April 23.—Calls of courtesy today filled part of the programme of Foreign Minister Balfour and other distinguished members of the British commission who arrived here yesterday to confer with American officials on the nations' joint task of beating Germany. Tomorrow also the visitors will be entertained with all the honor the nation can show to guests of such high rank on a mission of such tremendous significance and then will come a series of official conferences for the exchange of counsel on America's part in the world war.

Mr. Balfour today arranged to drive from the big Sixteenth street mansion, which has been placed at his disposal, to the state department to call formally on Secretary Lansing.

The two will go across to the White House to allow Mr. Balfour to greet President Wilson, and later the foreign minister is expected to go to the Capitol to call on Vice-President Marshall. Lunch is to be with the French Ambassador, J. J. Jusserand, and dinner this evening with the president.

Tomorrow evening there will be a reception by Secretary Lansing at the Pan-American building for the noted visitors, preceded by a dinner of cabinet members to their special guests.

The concert was brought to a close with the playing of God Save the King. The battalions were then brought to the present and marched to their quarters.

GERMAN DESTROYERS SENT DOWN WERE OF THE NEWEST TYPE

Two Others Badly Damaged in Channel Fight—Marked Activity Along Belgian Coast

Amsterdam, April 23, via London.—The Maandag Ochtensblad learns that two German destroyers which were sunk in the battle off Dover sailed from Zeebrugge and were of the newest type, with four funnels each. Two other destroyers were heavily damaged and numerous wounded sailors were brought to Bruges on Saturday.

A squadron of eight vessels is said to have left Zeebrugge about seven o'clock on Friday night. The greatest activity was apparent along the Belgian coast yesterday and today, searchlights were being worked vigorously and rockets were going up at frequent intervals.

The Provincial Ministers Were Not Opposed

Hon. Messrs Foster, Veniot, Byrne, Smith, Tweeddale and Murray Elected by Acclamation

Nomination day proceedings in the by-elections today resulted in the return of Hon. Walter E. Foster, premier of the province and the members of his cabinet by acclamation.

Premier Foster stood for election today in Victoria county, W. J. Burgess having resigned his seat.

The other members who were returned today are:—Hon. J. F. Byrne, attorney-general, Gloucester; Hon. Robert Murray, provincial secretary, Northumberland; Hon. P. J. Veniot, minister of public works, Gloucester; Hon. J. F. Tweeddale, minister of agriculture, Victoria; Hon. Dr. E. A. Smith, minister of lands and mines, Westmorland.

In addition to those with portfolios, the other members of the cabinet are Hon. Dr. W. F. Roberts, St. John city; Hon. C. W. Robinson, Moncton city, and Hon. L. A. Dugal, Madawaska.

Today's proceedings place the new government securely in office, ready to proceed with the administration of the affairs of the province which have been in their hands since Mr. Foster was called upon by the lieutenant-governor to form a government. The next step will be the summoning of the legislature to meet and this may be expected soon.

Premier Foster left St. John on the early train this morning for Andover to be present at the nomination proceedings. Hon. Mr. Tweeddale also was present. They were given a hearty reception. Hon. Mr. Foster will return home tomorrow.

Dorchester, April 23.—The nomination proceedings in the Court House in the Westmorland by-election for the office of minister of lands and mines were of a purely formal nature. The returning officer, W. A. K. McQueen, opened the election court at ten o'clock. G. A. Taylor was the election clerk. James McQueen, barrister, of Shediac, presented the nomination papers of Ernest Albert Smith, and as these were the only ones received, he was declared elected by the returning officer.

FLAGS BRING IN MUCH MONEY FOR RED CROSS HERE ON ST. GEORGE'S DAY

Flag Day, under the auspices of St. George's Society and under the management of the Young Women's Patriotic Association, will be a marked success.

Beginning in the southern end of the town, incendiaries yesterday extended operations to the northern district. Simultaneously, Avion and other centres of the mining district adjoining Lens are being destroyed with all the appliances of the enemy. Where he has been driven out and can no longer apply the torch, he neglects even our working parties to make targets of the overhead plant of mines and the houses of miners.

A trip up the Souchez Valley through the mining region furnished evidence that the enemy is hanging on solely for the purpose of completing his destruction.

Everywhere in the valley are ruin and desolation. Souchez is crumbling. Our patrols out of Douai Plane are keeping the enemy jump by pushing near his outposts in the night. During these affairs the enemy makes a fearful row with his barrage fire, being in nightly fear of an attack in force. His trouble may be diagnosed as a bad case of nervous Vimy-ana.

AMERICAN INVENTION TO MEET GERMAN GAS

Washington, April 23.—Experts of the bureau of mines are designing an apparatus to combat noxious gases which it is declared promises to be superior to any now in use on the European battle fields.

Details of the invention are being withheld for obvious reasons.

THE NIGHT SCHOOLS.

Fredericton (Gleaner)—Dr. Carter, who left for St. John last Tuesday, has returned to the city. He was in conference with the instructors in St. John of the night schools in that city, and says that the attendance of the Fredericton night schools is much better than at St. John, probably due to the interest shown by the instructors in the welfare of their pupils.

CHINA MAY GO TO WAR; PLAY A LONE HAND

Peking Reports Indication of Independent Declaration Against Germany

Peking, April 23.—The war sentiment in China is increasing daily. The Chinese are incensed over the action of Germany in detaining the Chinese minister in Berlin pending the safe arrival of Von Sinto, German minister to Peking. There is also great indignation over the detention of Chinese students in Berlin and Munich.

The military governors will hold their first war conference in Peking on April 25. The majority of the governors and parliament favor war, but they differ over the attitude China should adopt toward the Entente. The indications are that China will declare war independently.

TWO SOLDIERS ARRESTED

Two soldiers of a unit now stationed in the city were taken into custody this afternoon by Detective Duncan on charges of stabbing and doing serious bodily harm to John Williamson of 38 Long Street. There are some unexplained circumstances. It is said that the two soldiers called at the boarding house in Long Wharf on the 18th inst. and went up stairs. As they were about to leave the house they engaged in conversation with Williamson and, it is said, one of the prisoners drew a knife and inflicted a serious wound in Williamson's leg. The woman who conducts the boarding house identified the two soldiers.

BRAZIL SHOULD BE STRONG POWER IN THE WORLD WAR

South American Republic Has Had Universal Military Service Law for Years, and is Well Prepared

The recent action of Brazil, as indicated in recent cable despatches from South America, gives timely interest to the following war geography bulletin issued by the National Geographic Society from its headquarters in Washington.

"For nine years Brazil has had in force a universal military service law, every Brazilian between the ages of 21 and 45 being affected. The terms of service under this law require two years in the ranks, followed by seven years in the army reserve, seven years in the territorial army, and eight years in the national guard.

"The total available unorganized military strength of Brazil exceeds by half a million men the total organized military strength of Italy at the time the latter country entered the world war.

"The war strength of the country is twice as great as that of Portugal, five times greater than that of Norway, exceeds that of Greece, Serbia and of Bulgaria. Its reserves and regular army constitute a fighting force half as large as the total war strength of all the other countries of South America combined.

"The three A. B. C. powers have navies of appreciable strength. The personnel, officers and men of Brazil is equal to the combined strength of Chile and Argentina. The pride of the Brazilian navy are her two modern dreadnoughts of 10,000 tons displacement and with an armament of 12-inch guns each.

"The country has three naval arsenals—at Rio de Janeiro, Para and Laredo de Motta Grosso, the last named a river arsenal.

"The infantry is equipped with Mauser rifles while the field force artillery is a Krupp gun. The military budget for 1915 amounted to $86,000,000.

"If Brazil should be drawn into the war vortex it would mark the entry into the most significant movements of the largest republic in the world, for in extent of territory the South American nation is exceeded only by Russia and the United States, and in population by the conflict. The republic of China, which is fourth in area (Mongolia and Tibet not included) has already severed diplomatic relations with the imperial German government.

"In studying the trend of events in Brazil it is interesting to note that one of the most significant movements during 1916 was the organization of the league in favor of the allies, formed by many of the leading men of the nation, to express sympathy with France and her allies. At the close of the year there was an agitation for the taking over of the German shipping in Brazilian ports."

WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB ACTIVITIES

A meeting of the executive of the Women's Canadian Club was held on Saturday morning in the Soldiers' Club. Convalescent Home matters were discussed and the committee on refurbishing composed of Mrs. Doody, Mrs. Beatty and Mrs. Fisher, reported that several more good chairs for the home and veranda were needed; also many other little comforts would be required.

The treasurer reported that a collection of $119 had been received in the boxes for Madame Huard's work in France. The European War Veterans' Association expressed themselves as very much pleased with the banner presented to them by the club.

An opportunity will be given to the members of the club to hear Major Buchanan speak in the Stone church school room on the soldier and his pension. The sum of $25 was voted to each of the following societies: The V. A. D., Y. M. C. A. war fund and Seaman's Institute. It is considered a great privilege to be given by Baroness Tschelichev, wife of a Polish nobleman. She has already won fame as the author of "When the Prussians Came to Poland" and tells a thrilling story of the occupation of her chateau by General von Hindenburg and his staff.

JAGGER FOUND NOT GUILTY AND IS FREED

The case of Nick Jagger, alias Gorat, who was committed by Magistrate Ritchie on a charge of the theft of a watch, was disposed of by His Honor Judge Armstrong under the Specially Tried Act. William M. Ryan, who appeared for the prisoner, had a plea of not guilty entered. Mr. Ryan contended that the prisoner never should have been sent up for trial as, he said, the evidence in the police court was very vague and in no way incriminated the prisoner. He said he would consent to having the evidence as produced in the police court read over and thus save the crown the trouble of recalling the witnesses. On reading over the evidence as given in the police court, His Honor found the prisoner not guilty and ordered his discharge from custody.

PREDICTS $1 EGGS

New Jersey Experts advise Preservation by Housewives. (New York Times) Eggs at six dozen next winter is the prediction of the poultry department of the New Jersey agricultural station in which it is recommended that housewives preserve eggs this spring for future use.

In view of the increased cost of poultry feeds and the resulting fact that many poultrymen are disposing of their birds, the probability is that fresh eggs will be worth considerably over $1 a dozen this coming winter. They are now selling wholesale at from 35 to 40 cents a dozen, which is probably the lowest point they will reach this spring. If war continues and prices continue to rise, fresh eggs will hardly be obtainable.

In giving directions for the preservation of eggs the department says: "Cooks can be secured from hardware stores, four, five and six-gallon sizes, ranging in price from 75 cents to $1.25. Water glass or silicate of soda can be secured from drug stores at from 35 to 40 cents a quart. In making the preservation solution use nine parts of water which has previously been boiled and cooled to one part of silicate of soda."

The department is distributing circulars giving details of the silicate of soda method of preserving eggs. They may be had from the New Jersey Experiment Station at New Brunswick, N. J.

A liner reached the city yesterday and the officials on board related a thrilling story of being chased by a German submarine craft. The liner had stopped off the French coast to pick up a sailor in a boat, whose barque had been peddled. Here a submarine was sighted which gave chase. The liner, however, was able to get away. Seventeen shots were fired at the steamer.

TINS OF RUM SEIZED

(Halifax Recorder)

Inspector Tracey, last evening, seized some bottled rum in a camp at the Ocean Terminals. This morning at North street station, he seized two cases of rum, which were marked varnish. Each case contained twelve gallon tins, which had over-proof rum. The packages were marked William Ferguson, and the address given was at a Halifax hotel. The inspector caused a warrant to be issued for Ferguson, but no such man was at the hotel whether as a guest or an employee. The inspector says that for the past fortnight or so he has seen many of these "varnish" tins in places where he searched, but they were always empty. He also seized 2 1/2 barrels of other liquor at North street.

COUNTRY'S WELFARE FIRST

"I do not want to take up too much of your time upon matters which may be discussed more fully in the near future, and particularly in the legislature. However, there is one point that I wish to make, the government of which I am premier intends to give the people of this province a business administration. We are not going to place our own personal interests before the welfare of the country. We are going to take up each and every question upon its merits and not place legislation upon the statute books that will be for the benefit of private individuals and contrary to the public good.—Premier Foster at Grand Falls.

BREAK A CHILD'S COLD BY GIVING SYRUP OF FIGS

Cleanses the Little Liver and Bowels and They Get Well Quick

When your child suffers from a cold don't wait; give the little stomach, liver and bowels a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

If your child coughs, snuffles and has caught cold or is feverish or has a sore throat give a good dose of "California Syrup of Figs" to evacuate the bowels, no difference what other treatment is given.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

Had Headache For Two Years

A Barrie Man Tells of Persistent Headaches and Indigestion—Finally Found His Way to Good Health.

Barrie Ont., April 23—For two long years the writer of this letter was subject to severe headaches. The nervous system got run down, digestion failed, and there was continued loss of weight.

The use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food changed all this, and now with scores of other Barrie people Mr. Nader is recommending the use of this food cure as the best means of building up the exhausted nervous system and curing headaches, indigestion and all the annoying symptoms of a run-down condition.

Mr. John Nader, 38 Penning street, Barrie (Ont.), writes: "During the last two years I had an attack of indigestion, accompanied by severe headaches. I suffered from loss of appetite, and my system became run down. I also lost considerably in weight. I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and as they helped me I continued this treatment for some time. My condition is now greatly improved, my headaches are gone, and my health in general is much better. I can cheerfully recommend the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to those suffering from nervousness of any kind."

As a spring tonic and restorative to overcome tired, languid feelings and build up vitality at this time of year there is nothing to be compared to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, a full treatment of 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute. Imitations only disappoint.

Sherman, as part of the annual observances in connection with St. George's Day. The society met at its rooms and, headed by the flag and banner of the order, marched in a body to the church. The choir entered the church in procession.

Trade a Casing for a Tube?

Of course you wouldn't. The difference in price is too great. Yet many motorists risk a costly casing by not selecting their tubes with care. For a poor tube, by causing under-inflation, may easily ruin a casing.

Poor tubes allow air to seep through imperceptibly, inconspicuously. To overcome this, Goodyear invented the lamination process. Goodyear Tubes are all made the right way—built up, layer on layer, of pure, tissue-thin rubber, each layer thin enough to be properly inspected for sand or other foreign material. The valve-patch is vulcanized into the tube, not stuck on. The whole is made as near to permanent air tightness as is possible with an elastic material.

So for the good of your casings we urge you to buy Goodyear Tubes. They will add greatly to your tire mileage. And as tubes they will give you unusually long and satisfactory service.

THE WAR SITUATION

Today's cables indicate that the British have brought up their guns and munitions and completed their plans for a new drive against the German lines. The battle is in progress, and is said to be progressing well. French and British are co-operating in the most effective manner on the whole western front, and both are making headway against the enemy, despite the fact that he has been hurrying new divisions to this front in a desperate effort to check the advance.

The assertion now often made that the morale of the German armies has been broken down seems to be well-founded. The superiority of the Allied artillery is now beyond question, and the guns leave much less for the infantry to do than has been the case at any previous time in the war. The effect of the relentless pressure of the great drive is seen in the eagerness with which German soldiers throw up their hands when the British or French infantry storm their position after one of the preliminary to a successful rush and the gain of more enemy territory. Lord Curzon declares that the military situation is distinctly encouraging, although he adds that the military power of Germany must be further broken before she will accept the terms the Allies will impose. His remark: "Keep your eye on Mesopotamia" would seem to suggest important developments there in the near future.

There is fresh evidence each day that the economic situation in Germany and Austria is growing desperate. The submarine campaign was expected to starve Britain into submission, but the starvation will be in Germany and Austria, and will sooner or later bring revolution. The latter will come the sooner if the advance of the British and French in the west cannot be checked.

The destruction without warning of two hospital ships, causing the death of wounded soldiers, including a number of Germans, is a crime that will add fresh fuel to the flame of wrath and hatred which Germany has done so much to kindle and keep alive since the war began. We are proud and thankful that it was the Prussians who rushed and fought for the lifeboats, while the British stood by and watched the German destroyers who tried to sink the hospital ships.

Five German destroyers lost two of their number, if not three, and failed to inflict any damage in return. The British navy is supreme.

HYPOCRISY EXPOSED
In 1911 the prairie provinces had to elect only 27 representatives to parliament. The number was small, and the demand of the west for free wheat was refused. In the next general elections those provinces will elect 43 representatives, and the party which in 1911 solemnly asserted that to talk of free wheat was treason has now unblushingly adopted that policy. It wants to win the farmer vote of the west. In 1911, believing that the cry of "no truck or trade with the Yankees" was raised, and it was asserted that reciprocity would wreck the empire. Many Liberals were foolish enough to be deceived by the flag-trick, and voted against their party, although in doing so they linked themselves up with the Bourassa wing of the Borden party. They can see now how they were deceived, and how they helped to bring about the present situation.

43 votes instead of 27. Votes were to be gained in 1911 by opposing reciprocity. Votes are to be gained now, it is hoped, by granting reciprocity. The Toronto Star also recalls the book called "Unconscious Traitors," published in Winnipeg, in which the author gave the Germans credit for hoisting reciprocity. He said: "I confess to having a fixed idea that the reciprocity campaign was, if not inspired by, at least fomented by German intrigue and subsidized by German gold, and a strong suspicion that German influence was visible in the Canadian campaign, and that German money was siphoned into Canadian politics in the mysterious way in which such campaign philanthropies are carried out."

It ought to be reasonably clear to this gentleman how that the Germans, if they wanted reciprocity between Canada and the United States, have brought Sir Robert Borden to their way of thinking. The truth is that by making the United States an ally of Britain the Germans have robbed the Canadian Tories of the "old-flag" cry, and those western votes must be got at all hazards. Hence the adoption of the Liberal policy of free wheat and flour. But in it is not shameful that a great party should charge its opponents with treason and at the same time ally itself with the real traitors? Had Sir Wilfrid Laurier been willing to deal with the Nationalists he might today be prime minister. He preferred defeat. Not so Sir Robert Borden and his party. They waved the flag with one hand to defeat reciprocity, and held out the other hand to the men who hoisted about holes being shot through the British flag. The whiffling of time brings its revenge. We quote again from the Toronto Star: "It is a solemn warning not to allow patriotism to be made a football of designing politicians—not to allow the flag to be trailed in the mud—not to give offices and fat contracts to men who falsely claim to be more loyal than their neighbors. The alliance with Bourassa and the Nationalists was executed upon the plea that reciprocity must be defeated at all costs. Now reciprocity is an accomplished fact; accomplished by the men who denounced it as diabolical."

The citizens of St. John would have deemed it a great honor to have been permitted on Saturday morning to extend a welcome to the Rt. Hon. A. J. Balfour, en route from Halifax to Washington. Let us hope that pleasure may be ours in happier times, when the grim shadow of war has passed from the land.

Will Sir George Foster and Sir Thomas White live in suite at their Washington hotel? Has the new reciprocity led them to bury the hatchet? By the way, they will have a fine opportunity to enlarge on Sir Robert Borden's eloquent allusions to the Union Jack and Old Glory rushing to battle together.

The cadet movement in the public schools should be heartily supported by parents and teachers. It makes for greater physical efficiency, which helps mental development, and the discipline is of distinct value. It is the kind of preparedness our young people need.

Yesterday's great military parade reminds us that recruiting is practically dead in this province. What will the government do about it? There are long lists of Canadian casualties. How will the thinning ranks be filled?

THE DAY'S RESULT.

(Edgar A. Guest in Detroit Free Press) Is anybody happier because you passed his way? Does anybody remember that you spoke to him today? This day is almost over and its toiling time is through. Is there anyone to utter now a kindly word to you? Did you give a cheerful greeting to the friend who came along? Or a cheerful sort of "howdy" and then vanish in the throng? Were you selfish, pure and simple, as you rushed along your way, Or is someone mightily grateful for a deed you did today? Can you say tonight in parting with the day that's slipping fast That you helped a single brother of the many that you passed? Is a single heart rejoicing over what you did or said? Does a man whose hopes were falling now with courage look ahead?

Did you waste the day or use it, was it well or poorly spent? Did you leave a trail of kindness or a scar of discontent? As you close your eyes in slumber do you think that God would say, You have earned one more tomorrow by the work you did today?

John Doran, a son, who went overseas among the very first, returned home wounded but a month ago. Two grandsons—Stewart W. Campbell and Frank H. Doran, and a son-in-law, John McCann, are now serving with the troops overseas. Mr. Doran was widely known and was highly respected. He leaves, besides his son, three daughters, Mrs. J. C. HORSES LOVED BY SOLDIERS.
The fact that King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, commander in chief of the Balkan forces, has a favorite black charger which he has named Varna, after the place of that name on the Black Sea, where his summer place is situated, reminds one of the affection which has existed between celebrated soldiers and the horses which have accompanied them through their numerous campaigns. One of the most famous war horses was Lord Roberts' gallant charger, Volonol, which died a few years ago, and is buried near the Royal Hospital, Dublin. Volonol was a grey Arab, which Lord Roberts bought in India. He rode the animal to Kandahar. Lord Roberts was very much attached to the animal, and when Queen Victoria awarded medals to the soldiers who had gone through the Afghan War, the hero of Kandahar proudly hung around his charger's neck the Kabul medal with four clasps and the Kandahar star of bronze. The best known of Lord Kitchener's war horses was a handsome chestnut which he named Omdurman. The animal carried Kitchener during the battle, and ultimately went with his master to South Africa during the Boer War. Westminister Gazette.

WOMEN TO TEACH FARMING
Society women in khaki trousers and shirts holding potatoes and milking cows on a big Long Island farm—the women's section of the Navy League if plans announced at a meeting at the Hotel Astor in New York on Friday afternoon succeed. Friday night fifteen women had enrolled for the agricultural class of No. 6 National Service School of the women's section of the Navy League, which will be opened at the New York state school of agriculture at Farmingdale, L.I., on April 23.

The class will live in the school buildings, where they will be charged $25 a month board for the three months of the course. There is no other charge except for the uniform. Miss Alice Carpenter is chairman of the executive committee of the school; Mrs. Adolf Lauenberg is chairman of the agricultural committee. Miss Fay Kellogg will direct transportation and Mrs. Mary Moskowitz will be quartermaster.

The agricultural course is independent of the training camp, which will open on July 5 at Farmingdale, and where the women will live in tents. This camp will be similar to that conducted at Chevy Chase last year. Albert A. Johnson, director of the Farmingdale school, told the members of the section at the Astor meeting on Friday of the opportunities for good work by women who knew something of gardening. He said that the members of the section of the New York city there were 3,000,000 acres of land of which 2,400,000 was not used for agricultural purposes. Of the 2,400,000 acres, he said, 50 per cent. could be put under cultivation.

"If we put all this land under cultivation," he said, "we could feed New York city without outside aid. It is a problem of bringing the landless people to the peopleless land."

ELEPHANTS COMPELLED TO HAUL CIRCUS TRAIN
When a circus train on the Southern Pacific came to an involuntary stop near Galveston not long ago, investigation by the engineer revealed the cause, it is reported, in a carload of elephants right behind the water tank of the engine tender. Being athirst and dusty the intelligent animals had reached with their trunks through the end window of the car into the tank, and every drop of water had gone to assuage elephantic thirst and spray vast areas of dusty hide. The elephant trainer was called from the caboose to a consultation and solved the problem of moving the stalled train by unloading the four offending elephants, who were then chained in tandem in front of the locomotive and compelled to pull it for a distance of three miles along the track to the nearest water supply where the tender was replenished.—From the May Popular Mechanics Magazine.

WHEN YOU CAN'T SLEEP
YOU SHOULD USE MILBURN'S HEART and NERVE PILLS
Sleeplessness is caused by the nervous system becoming deranged. Perhaps too much worry has gotten on your nerves, perhaps you have overworked yourself, or have been excessive in your use of tobacco, but whatever the cause, the nervous system must be built up again before restful sleep can be assured. Those whose rest is broken into by frightful dreams, nightmares, sinking and smothering sensations, who wake up in the morning as tired as they went to bed can have their old, peaceful, undisturbed, refreshing sleep back again by using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. John Sloan, Haley Station, Ont., writes: "Over a year ago at night, and I would faint at the slightest fright. I tried several doctors, but they did me practically no good. I noticed your advertisement, and immediately tried Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and I am proud to say they cured me." Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c a box or three for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

A Vagrant Memory

She stood before the hardware counter in the department store and her eye glanced the various things displayed on the counter and then it wandered to the shelves.

"What can I show you?" asked the clerk behind the counter.

"That's what I am trying to think of," she said. "I mean to write the name down before I left home, but I didn't, and I can't remember. Anyhow, it's one of those little dohobads that are three or four things in one, you know. A kind of thing-um-a-jig that part of it folds up—and don't you know what I mean? One of those little jiggers that you are sure to find in every kitchen table drawer, or ought to find there, for they come in handy in so many ways and are—well, a funny little contraption that you can do as much with as you can with a hairpin. It's a combination thing-um-bob and—don't you know what I mean? It is funny you don't get the idea of it. Being in a store where you are probably selling them every day, I should think you would know right off what I mean. It's the commonest sort of a little rinkum, a combination affair that you open caps and pull out corks and—"

"You mean a combination cork-screw?"

"That's it! I knew I would remember the name of the little jigger if I put my mind to it. Thank you. Yes, I am sure it is a—what do you call it? That's it! The very identical little equigledium I was looking for. Fanny you didn't remember the name of it sooner."

"Stalemate" No Longer on the Western Front

OFFENSIVE SHATTERED STRATEGY

Attack Has Proved That There is a Limit to the Defence Value of Trenches—Remarkable Dugouts Proved Traps

"Stalemate" was a word that hovered like a bird of ill-omen over the battle lines in France and Flanders for two years. It has been put to rest by a clean-cut decision which has proved that the war cannot be fought out to a clean-cut decision. It is the all-year-round blood-purifier and health-giver. It embodies the careful training, experience and skill of Mr. Hood, a pharmacist for fifty years, in its quality and power to cure. Ask your druggist for it today.

R. W. GOULD TAKES OVER MARITIME RETAILER

R. W. Gould has taken over the Maritime Retailer, a bright and useful monthly magazine published in St. John in the interests of the retail trade. For the last two years he has been a member of the writing staff of The Telegraph and during that time has made many friends throughout the city who will wish him all success in his new venture. Before coming to St. John Mr. Gould was editor of the Evening News of New Glasgow and previous to that had been with newspapers in Fort William and Halifax.

Mrs. Charles Dutcher dug half a peck of potatoes from her garden in Wallingford, a few days ago and found they had not suffered from the frost and were as well preserved as if dug last fall.

NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

Stamford, Conn., Nurse Tells How She Found Health

Stamford, Conn.—"I am a nurse and suffered from a nervous breakdown. I had no appetite and could not sleep at night, and nothing seemed to help me. By chance I heard of Vinol, and after taking the first bottle I noticed an improvement, and four bottles made me well and strong, it gave me a hearty appetite, so I can sleep soundly night or day. I consider Vinol a wonderful tonic." Edith R. Forbes, Stamford, Conn.

The reason Vinol is so successful in overcoming such conditions is because it is a constitutional remedy and goes to the seat of the trouble. It is the greatest strength creator we know—due to the beef and cod liver peptides, iron and manganese peptonates and glycerophosphates which it contains, all dissolved in pure medicinal wine.

"We have seen so many wonderful recoveries like this right here in St. John caused by Vinol, that we feel perfectly safe in offering to return money in every such case where Vinol fails to benefit."

TRENCHES LIKE FORTRESSES

In their earlier advance the Germans proved that the utmost that man could do in the way of fortresses of steel and concrete was futile against the fire of the heaviest guns. Liege, Namur and Mauberge are monuments to this effect. These fortifications were built on the edge of the earth, and were not being able to advance and take Paris, they had consoled themselves with the reflection that those parts of France and Belgium which they held could never be wrested from them—that the trench, in fact, would be the impregnable fortress of this war.

A German Error

British guns in the past week have shown that the defensive has not yet countered the offensive in warfare. The trenches have fallen as the fortresses fell. Once more have the Germans erred on the side of thoroughness. Finding that a trench six feet deep was a good shelter, they argued that a trench or shelter twelve feet deep was twice as good. A drain twenty-four feet underground was twice as good again. The British guns have destroyed the exits of these trenches, and have left the subterranean Germans an easy prey for the advancing infantry. They could not get to the surface and operate their machine guns, they could not escape from the rear exits because of the barrage fire, and so they were caught, to use a good old expression, like "rats in a trap." The deeper the trench the more certain their capture—that is a military principle that the Germans have been taught in the past few days.

Elaborate But Futile

The German engineers have done their work well, as stories now coming back from the front attest. They have made their shelters not trenches, but mines, with elaborate systems of ventilation, with numerous exits and entrances, plentifully provisioned and equipped; they were expecting to stand a siege like a fortress. Their concrete, steel-lined underground retreats have been the result of two years' planning and work. Fitted against anything less than the British bombardment they would have served their purpose; in some cases they have done their work well, for those that were not destroyed served as nests for machine gunners. Fortunately these were few, for the airman had taken hundreds of photographs of the German positions and most of the trenches were known in advance and subjected to a conscientious fire from heavier guns than were ever before turned against field entrenchments. It is incredible that the trenches that the Germans are now digging in the rear of the shattered Hindenburg line can be so well prepared as those which have been destroyed already. "Stalemate" is a word that may be deleted from the lexicon of the war.

NEW PROGRAMME GIVES PLEASURE TO THRONS

Opera House Draws Capacity Audience and Performers Do Their Share Well

Capacity houses greeted the performance in the Opera House on Saturday afternoon and evening, and judging from the many favorable comments, it was thoroughly enjoyed. The programme consisted of an episode of the "Crimson Stain Mystery," and five vaudeville acts. The vaudeville was varied, so as to please all, and evidently proved a success, judging from the frequent and prolonged applause. It consisted of comedy singing, a comedy dramatic sketch and comedy acrobats and proved highly entertaining.

The most popular number on the programme was that presented by the Bragger Brothers, who are exceptionally good comedian acrobats. They gave a clever demonstration of acrobatic feats on the trapeze, and in addition staged a wrestling match which evoked rounds of applause.

The Three Ionas gave a clever comedy singing and pianologue novelties and made quite a hit. They make a very good trio and some of their songs were both catchy and pleasing.

THE BATTLE OF THE CENTURIES

FROM the beginning of time, armies of women have waged that unequal and always losing struggle against the Demons of Dust and Dirt. With sublime courage in the face of continual defeat, they renewed the conflict every morning to go through their daily ritual of home cleaning.

Armed with the crudest weapons, but spurred on by love of home, with undying patience, they have never wavered before the attack.

Sweep and dust. Dust and sweep. It satisfied her conscience. She had done her best. But every woman knew in her heart that her house was not really clean, never had been clean, never, in fact, could be clean. She had with all her efforts merely moved the dust around—stirred it up. She had not, could not get rid of it. While she was chasing it out of one corner, it gathered in another. It was still in the house, lurking under the furniture, on the walls and ceilings, behind the piano. To remove it was humanly impossible. From the day it was built until the day the first vacuum cleaner went into it, no home has ever been perfectly clean.

This is no discredit to the woman. She has done all that anyone could do under the circumstances. Unaided, single-handed, she has fought an enemy too great for her physical strength, too cunning for her generalship.

But now the age-long fight is over. The twin giants ELECTRICITY and AIR have done what woman's frail strength could never do. Imagine, if you can, the fierce joy that fills a woman's soul when for the first time she takes an Electric-Sweeper-Vac in her own hands and sees hereditary foes, Dust and Dirt, licked up into that hungry nozzle without the slightest effort on her part. Can anyone blame her? What a delight it must be to know that rig shaking is gone, never to return; that the broom is out of fashion; that house-cleaning week is a thing of the past. How she must glory in the thought that the daily drill with the dust-cloth is but a memory. In its place have come hours of leisure. Instead of a life spent in one continual round of dust pan, scrub brush, soap and mop, there are hours for her sewing or fancy work; hours for her book or magazines; hours for her club or church; hours for her children; hours she never could spare before for her own personal appearance.

Now she turns a button, and what was once gruelling, back-breaking labor is done for her by a tireless electrical servant.

As that voracious nozzle goes feeling over the floor and walls, under the beds, on top of the bookcase, in dark closets, over the mattresses, in and out of the radiators, over every surface within the four walls of your home, every speck of dust and dirt, lint, threads, soot and germs are relentlessly sucked into the Electric-suction Cleaner (never to be seen again).

In order to regulate our supply and not disappoint our customers, it will be necessary for you to have your inquiry in this office not later than

Y. M. C. I. Plans Trips
The Man of the Hour which was presented here in connection with the St. Patrick's Day observance under the auspices of the Y. M. C. I. and which made such a hit, is to be played in Moncton soon. At the same time a volley ball team, representing the Y. M. C. I., will play a team in the Moncton Y. M. C. I. The result of both the theatrical production and the athletic event will be devoted to the Red Cross.

The institute is to be represented at the winter bowling tournament, which is to be held this week at Calais (Me.), for the championship of Maine and New Brunswick. The institute's team will leave for Calais tomorrow.

The game of volley ball, between two teams from the business men's class played on Saturday afternoon, resulted in a tie. McCaffery, Knoll, Lantaulum, Burns and Corr taking the first two games by scores of 21-7 and 21-14 and finally, Fitzpatrick, A. Owens, O'Brien and C. Owens taking the other two games by scores of 21-10 and 21-18.

This almost immediately brought into evidence considerable confusion--much inconvenience and some loss, and the promoters soon had to admit, or at least seem to, that the interests affected that they had not realized would have been, and let us make due allowance for these promoters in this respect also, for not having any connection with these businesses, they naturally were not acquainted with their workings.

Since it had then become law, every one worked along the best they could, and those who were adversely affected putting up with it in the hope that before another season some better conditions would be arranged, but it can hardly be said, as has been stated, that all were practically unanimous in favor of the bill. However, let us give them the benefit of that assertion, by saying that it was so perhaps "as far as they came in contact with it."

Finally the season of 1917 was approaching, and the matter came to the surface again, as it was expected the law would automatically come in force on April 29.

As "co-operation" seems to be one of the watch-words of the time, it was suggested at a certain meeting that the question be asked of several other important towns and cities of the maritime provinces, as to how they felt regarding the plan.

This was done and answers received, practically every one of which stated they did not consider it advisable for any one locality to adopt, while almost all admitted that as a dominion measure, universally adopted, they thought it would be a good thing and many objectionable conditions thus avoided.

Now, in the face of all this, is it not reasonable that the council should suspend the time of this by-law coming into force again, for a short time longer, at least, and let us continue to press the bill to act throughout all Canada, after championship seasons were un- der at least for a trial season, and if the der way and so did Robinson.

DAYLIGHT SAVING.
St. John, N. B., Apr. 23, 1917.
To the Editor of Times--
Sir--If you can spare the space I believe a review of the daylight saving situation, as the writer understanding it, may be of interest to your readers.

It seems the matter was brought up at a certain meeting last spring and certain large questions reserved, pushed it forward, and while it did not meet with unanimous approval, or enough publicity in its early stages, yet on the whole no serious objection was made with its progress to the council, where it was passed as a by-law and put in force--and right here--if it was right for St. John City Council to put a bye law into effect changing the time within its own town, it is presumed every other town and city would have the same privilege, and if so, conditions might easily get into a serious state. However, it was passed in St. John and became a by-law.

This almost immediately brought into evidence considerable confusion--much inconvenience and some loss, and the promoters soon had to admit, or at least seem to, that the interests affected that they had not realized would have been, and let us make due allowance for these promoters in this respect also, for not having any connection with these businesses, they naturally were not acquainted with their workings.

Since it had then become law, every one worked along the best they could, and those who were adversely affected putting up with it in the hope that before another season some better conditions would be arranged, but it can hardly be said, as has been stated, that all were practically unanimous in favor of the bill. However, let us give them the benefit of that assertion, by saying that it was so perhaps "as far as they came in contact with it."

WOMAN CLAIMS PART OF BRADY'S FORTUNE

Brooklyn Widow Says Her Mother Was "Diamond Jim's" Half Sister

Expects to Get $1,500,000

Her Lawyer to Contest on Ground That Decedent Had Not "Testamentary Capacity" to Make Will

New York, April 23.—Mrs. Mary E. McGee, a widow living with her five daughters on the top floor of a tenement at 208 Fifth avenue, Brooklyn, announced yesterday that she is a niece of the late James Buchanan ("Diamond Jim") Brady, and that she had instructed a lawyer to start proceedings for a share of the estate.

The Brady will made no mention of Mrs. McGee either as a beneficiary or a relative, nor was she known to be one of those who were reported to be contemplating an action to contest the will.

The lawyer showed reporters two letters which he said, proved that Mrs. McGee was Mr. Brady's niece. One of these bore the signature of "R. C. Crowley," Mr. Brady's secretary, and was a brief, typewritten acknowledgment of a letter that had been sent to Mr. Brady by Mrs. McGee, thanking him for some favor.

The other letter was signed "Lucy McArdle," which is the name of the daughter of Mrs. C. T. McArdle of 486 Sterling place, Brooklyn, an aunt of Mr. Brady, to whom he bequeathed $100,000.

This letter referred to some debts contracted by Mrs. McGee during her mother's illness, and after her death, and indicated that they had been paid by Mr. Brady.

"Mrs. McGee was the daughter of Mr. Brady's half-sister," Mr. Hipple said. "Mr. Brady's father was married twice, and Mrs. McGee's mother was the issue of the first marriage. The children born after the second marriage were James B. Brady, Daniel M. Brady and Mrs. Mathieu."

"Mrs. McGee's mother was placed in a boarding school at Tarrytown, where she remained until she was ten years old. She was then sent to Chicago by her stepmother with a letter of introduction to what the child thought were relatives, but which proved to be an employment agency which sent her out to work as a servant. She later married a man named O'Neil, and after his death she moved to Brooklyn with her daughter, the present Mrs. McGee.

"According to the story told to me by Mrs. McGee, Mr. Brady made her mother an allowance of $15 a month for ten years after she returned from Chicago and settled in Brooklyn. Later he increased this to $25, and also, after her death, paid her funeral expenses. Mr. Brady's allowance to his step-sister was not large, but it proves that he knew she was his relative.

"Mrs. McCabe's husband was for years employed in the Water Department of the city as a stationary engineer in charge of a pumping station on Long Island, and I became Mrs. McGee's lawyer after his death. She told me months ago that she was related to 'wealthy Jim' in New York, but didn't tell me who he was until after Mr. Brady's death. She said that she had been a sister of the full blood. Under the law all her rights were transferred at her death to her daughter.

"Of course," added Mr. Hipple, "Mrs. McGee can hope for nothing from the estate unless we succeed in breaking the will. But I think we will be able to do this on the ground that Mr. Brady had no testamentary capacity during the last years of his life to draw up a will."

"Mrs. McGee refused to discuss her case beyond asserting that she was Mr. Brady's niece and that she had retained Mr. Hipple to start proceedings."

Miss McArdle, who was said to have written one of the letters in the lawyer's possession also refused to comment on Mrs. McGee's contemplated suit.

"I know Mrs. McGee," she said, "but it is none of my business if she has started action to break the will. Daniel M. Brady is the one to make a statement."

It was said that neither Daniel M. Brady nor his sister, Mrs. Mathieu had made up their minds whether they would contest the will, and that no decision probably would be reached for some days.

FOOD SOURING IN STOMACH CAUSES INDIGESTION, GAS

"Pape's Diapepsin" ends all stomach distress in five minutes

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gentle and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, indigestion stomach; it's so unnecessary.

ARRIVED AT HALIFAX

Steamer Brings Interesting Passenger List — Hon. A. J. Balfour and Party — Large Party of Soldiers' Wives

A steamer, arriving at Halifax Friday, made a voyage which, for various reasons promises to be historic. Not only did the famous ship bring the Balfour commission to the United States, consisting of Rt. Hon. A. J. Balfour, British foreign secretary, Admiral Deschene, General Bridges and about twenty distinguished representatives of the military and civil authority who passed through the city Saturday morning but there were on board a party of 1,100 Canadian women, wives and dependents of soldiers and about 400 officers and returned men, including several of high rank. The military party was commanded by Lieutenant Colonel R. H. Greer, former O. C. 180th battalion which was stationed in St. John last fall and included also Major C. L. Dunfield and Mrs. Dunfield, and Captain Frank H. Elliott, these officers being members of the original 26th battalion. The women and officers coming to St. John arrived during yesterday on special trains which continued on their way to the west bearing their precious freight.

A.M.C. EXPLOITED FOTHERINGHAM MAY STEP OUT

Military Hospitals Commission Gets New Order, Giving it Control of Appointments—Ties Hands of the New Director

(Toronto Star.) What is all appearances is a deliberate attempt to exploit the Army Medical Service and the whole medical profession for political advantage, is revealed in an edict from Ottawa, just issued, that the Military Hospitals Commission must, in future, give approval to every appointment to the medical staffs of convalescent soldiers' hospitals throughout the dominion. Coming within the domain completely under the control of politicians, without waiting for the return to Canada of Surgeon-General Fotheringham, who, as the officer chosen for the supreme command of medical services, would undoubtedly advise a plan of appointment which would ensure the best results.

"Things are in an absolutely rotten mess," said a prominent physician, long identified with the Army Medical Corps, when describing the situation to The Star yesterday. "The Military Hospitals Commission has insisted upon certain things being done by the Army Medical Corps, which is a complete violation of the approval of the commission, which simply means that the political gang are in control and intend to keep control, regardless of the results of unwarranted political interference," he added.

"They are not content with exploiting the situation to the detriment of the medical profession of Canada as well, to achieve political ends. There never was a more scandalous combination of affairs than exists today."

Fotheringham May Not Act. It would occasion no surprise to many of the General Fotheringham's friends in this city if he should, on his return soon, when he appreciates the position in which he is placed, resign his appointment rather than submit to the dictation of party politicians on the carrying out of his duties.

It is the system of political preferment had its beginning shortly after Samuel L. Armstrong received his appointment as director of the Military Hospitals Commission. Previous to his appointment Mr. Armstrong was assistant provincial secretary of Ontario. When a new assistant director was to be selected, the choice of Lieut. E. S. Ryerson was made. Lieut. Col. Warren, who, it is claimed, was recommended by Major General Logie, but was not favorably regarded by the commission because he was friendly to the former assistant director of Medical Services, was passed over, although second in command. Lieut. Ryerson had spent two years in Salonika and it was on that ground that he was chosen.

The Question of Expenses. The director of the Military Hospitals Commission is also, it is said, complaining about the cost of the medical staffs of the hospitals, when in reality the cost of the whole visiting staff of specialists in this military district is less than $7,500 a year, which Mr. Armstrong draws as salary as director of the Military Hospitals Commission.

"A policy of drifting and bluffing along seems to be in force as applying to the work in this military district of the Military Hospital Commission," said another medical practitioner.

In this city the lack of accommodation is almost a scandal. There are 436 beds crowded into the College street and Spadina avenue hospitals, where it was only originally intended to place 275 beds. Despite this it is said there are over 800 out-patients in Toronto alone, and 1,000 in this military district.

Big Influx Coming Soon. It is reported that the number returning within the next few weeks will be enormous because of the decision to empty the hospitals in England of all Canadians able to make the trip home, in order to have accommodations ready for the wounded in this spring's drive on the west front, which has begun.

It is said nearly 8,000 Canadians who have been in English hospitals throughout the winter are due to return in a few weeks.

Captain G. Marullo, a veteran American shipper, with full commission to sail the seas under American, British and Cuban flags, and his ten sons have agreed to offer their services to the United States for war. Capt. Marullo was the first captain to enter the harbor of Santos, Brazil, with a vessel flying the Cuban flag.

FOUR WEEKS IN HOSPITAL

No Relief—Mrs. Brown Finally Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"For years I suffered so sometimes it seemed as though I could not stand it any longer. It was all in my lower organs. At times I could hardly walk, for if I stepped on a little stone I would almost faint. One day I did faint and my husband was a sent for and the doctor came. I was taken to the hospital and stayed four weeks but when I came home I would faint just the same and had the same pains."

A friend who is a nurse asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it that very day for I was suffering a great deal. It has already done me more good than the hospital. To anyone who is suffering as I was my advice is to stop in the first drug-store and get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before you go.—Mrs. W. C. Brown, 2844 W. 12th St., Cleveland, Ohio.

GOOD NEWS FOR SOME RUSSIANS IN CANADA

Montreal, April 23.—One of the first fruits of the Russian revolution to show itself in Canada is the granting of a pardon to all Russian refugees in the dominion. Henceforth Russian political refugees who have gone through the dominion under the constant fear that the hand of the Russian government would stretch across the sea and reach them, will breathe freely, and may even return to their native land without fear of interference, if they desire to do so. What this means to a man or a woman who has been in exile for many years, with the constant fear of being shadowed, even though they were innocent of crime, can only be realized by those who have experienced the peril. One Russian lady in Canada has been in fear for many years, just because when the Russian duma was first created with their very limited powers, she had the audacity to cry "Vive la duma."

Stories have frequently been heard, particularly in western Canada, where Russian political refugees have been arrested on warrants for murder. One famous case occurred in Winnipeg eight years ago, and it will be remembered that public protest meetings were held in an endeavor to arouse Canadian public opinion to the danger of the Russian hand of autocracy being stretched to this dominion.

All this is a thing of the past. Serge de Likatchef, the Russian consul general in Montreal, has received an order from the Russian provisional government, declaring that Russian political refugees in Canada enjoy in future the same rights as Russian citizens in the Russian regime has freed them. The order also states that a Russian consultative committee has been authorized to meet in Montreal and deal with all questions concerning consular aid to Russian political refugees who may desire to return to Russia. This committee will be known as the Russian political refugee consulting committee, and they have opened headquarters at 183 St. Lawrence boulevard.

INCIDENTS SHOW THE CONTRAST IN MORALE

London, April 23.—The Times correspondent with the French army telegraphs that conditions overhead and under foot are as bad as possible in the course of his despatch, which merely amplifies the present detailed French communiqués, he says: "The bombardment that has continued incessantly for days along the front to an extent of 100 miles added to the formidable length of the English front north of St. Quentin, is, perhaps the most appalling thing the world has ever seen. I heard today of a captured German officer who went down on his knees when taken to beg for mercy. I saw a French officer who, with two men, had taken 80 enemy prisoners, walking about places where he was exposed, not only to shell fire, but to machine gun bullets, as coolly as if he had been in the place de l'Opera. The difference between the two men exactly typifies the difference between the general morale of the bombardment force that is attacking and the bombardment force that is being attacked. Not in one place or two, but all along the line the French have shown this morale superiority."

PRO-GERMANS LEAVE AUSTRIAN CABINET

London, April 23.—The resignation of Dr. von Baumreiter and Dr. Urban, leading representatives of the Austrian-German parties in the Austrian cabinet, is a curious sign of the influence of the Russian revolution on the Hapsburg dominions. A little before the death of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, the German government and its partisan Austria put forward a scheme to complete the Germanization of Austria by means of administrative and territorial changes. The Czech preponderance in Bohemia was to be neutralized by the redistribution of the administrative and electoral districts. The German language was made the language of the state. Galicia was to be given a large measure of autonomy, and its parliamentary representatives to be excluded from the Reichsrath. The strength of the Slav elements in the Reichsrath was to be further reduced by the inclusion of Dalmatia with eleven Slav deputies in the new Austro-Magyar southern Slav province.

THE LATE FRED MANNING

Having had the pleasure of his friendship for seven years, I wish to pay this tribute to his memory. As a boy he was all that a father could wish in a son. He was actuated by the best motives while in his boyhood, and it was then that he laid the foundation of his career. As a bright youth he was everything that a father could wish in a son. As a young man he was everything any young person could wish in a devoted friend. His soul was pure, and he had lofty ambitions for his life work, which was to be a leader in leading men in their studies, in college. Fred belonged to that unique class to which the late Fred Young and James Malcolm belonged. Like them he has become a hero, and while standing on the threshold of a bright future he has laid down his precious young life.

It was a pleasure to have Fred for your friend. About fifteen times I urged him to devote his life to the ministry. I've often thought how lovely it would be—but I don't think I cut out for one. My strongest leanings are towards a profession. And when he saw his way clear he bent all his powers to that one end. He was winning his way with singular success, when the mighty call to arms sounded through the empire. He was ready to go and when the Almighty called, he was ready for that, too, because he had all his short life lived beneath the cross of Christ. No fear, no doubt, just full of faith, trust and love to God. What more could he have than that? He now is safe in Paradise. He is more alive than ever. It is one glorious satisfaction to me to know that Fred Manning is in Paradise, and that every dollar of public money is spent honestly and is spent well."

THE NEED FOR ECONOMY

Premier Foster, in his speech at Grand Falls, referred to the great responsibility which rested upon the people of New Brunswick at the present time when the empire is at war, and of the necessity of carefully guarding our resources. On this subject he said: "We must economize. The war for freedom which has assumed such tremendous proportions, the war in which so many thousands of our New Brunswick sons are engaged, has placed on the men and women of all portions of the empire a responsibility for economy that cannot be ignored. Governments as well as individuals must respond to the demand that every bit of wealth and every resource that we have shall be treasured and guarded most carefully.

"Therefore it has a greater task before it than perhaps any administration in the history of our province. I feel so strongly upon that point that I think we should economize even in our public services.

"The loyal and patriotic men of the party in power should see to it that every dollar of public money is spent honestly and is spent well."

Leading Hitters in the Majors

Many Players in American and National Leagues Are Making Good Start As the Times reported Tris Speaker of Cleveland, champion batter of 1916, got away to a flying start in the race for hitting honors in the American league, his unofficial average for the first six games of the season being .400—25 points ahead of Peckinpaugh of New York. The averages include games of Wednesday, April 18. Leibold of Chicago and Hoblitzel of Boston lead in stolen bases, with three each. THE POLICE Chief Simpson said this morning that the police force was now about up to strength. There were forty-nine men now doing patrol duty about the city, outside of the special work of the four city detectives. The chief also intimated that with the coming of the summer traffic in the streets and the increase in gangster for pedestrians at certain corners, he would likely add three more traffic policemen to the two that have been actively engaged all winter. The chief is allowed five traffic men, which number can be effectively used at many points about the city. With the number of autos greatly increased, and the general traffic more congested, the chief said that traffic policemen were becoming a real live necessity.

Come in and see our New Furniture

Dear Mary:— Well, isn't it fine that we can both move into larger, pretty new homes at the same time? Don't you remember my having told you that if our husbands would fix up our homes for us that it would help them in their business as well as help us socially? We women know more than our husbands give us credit for, don't we? I've been so well pleased with my new furniture and rugs that I'm going to the same store again. Affectionately—HELEN P. S. Let's go together and buy our new things for our new homes. Of course, you too are going to 91 Charlotte St.
