RUMANIANS LOSE THREE MORE TO TEUTONS SERBIANS SCORE ANOTHER SUCCESS OVER BULGARIANS GOVERNMENT HOLDS EMERGENCY MEETING OVER C.P.R. STRIKE

GOVT. APPEALS TO MEN AND COMPANY TO AVERT STRIKE

Trainmen and C. P. R. Asked To Reconsider Stand Taken.

THE SITUATION IS GRAVE

Emergency Meeting of Cabinet Called To Deal With Crisis.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Ottawa, Oct. 24.—An emergency meeting of the Government was called this morning to consider the C. P. R. strike situation. There was a full attendance of ministers, and the various aspects of the dispute were under discussion for two hours. The Government regards the situation as grave in the extreme.

APPEALS TO BOTH SIDES

[Canadian Press.]
Ottawa, Oct. 24.—The following appeal to both sides in the C. P. R. trouble was issued by the premier following a meeting of the Cabinet at noon:
"The Government regards as a matter of grave concern the probability of a strike on the Canadian Pacific Railway system. The fine spirit of patriotism which animates the employees is thoroughly recognized by the Government, and the like spirit actuates those responsible for the management of the company. This public appeal is made in order that both parties may consider anew the attitude which they have assumed."
Rights of the employees and those of the company, whatever they may be, are entitled to every respect and consideration, but the rights of the public must also be taken into account, and the Government cannot forget its duty as guardian of the public rights. This duty is especially imperative in time of war. Before taking any active step to prevent public disaster the Government appeals once more to the company and the employees that such settlement be made as will prevent the threatened strike."

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Oct. 24.—In spite of the fact that the Canadian Pacific trainmen have voted to walk out at five o'clock tomorrow afternoon the department of labor contends that there will be no strike and no tie-up of Canada's great railroad. The prospects of this strike has been received with the greatest alarm by the Government. There is a feeling that coming just at the close of navigation a strike on the Canadian Pacific would produce disastrous confusion throughout the country. Some days ago Messrs Murdoch and Berry declined to agree to a proposal of the Government that the strike should be postponed until after they came to Ottawa to represent the men in negotiations with the company, the Government undertaking to act as an intermediary.
That refusal coupled with the fixing of the hour for striking so near the future business strike appear unavoidable. However, the labor department this morning has received messages from the west which encourage it. Just what these messages are the Government declines to state but there is an intimation that mutual concessions are being discussed.

TOOK 1,000 PRISONERS

No Infantry Action On French Front, But Heavy Artillery Duels.

[Canadian Press.]
London, Oct. 24.—12:12 p.m.—The ground gained by us yesterday in the neighborhood of Gueudecourt and Les Boeuifs (on the Somme front) has now been fully secured, the war office announced today.
During the night there was nothing to report except intermittent shelling on both sides.
In answer to the enemy's claim that the gains of Saturday between Schwaben redbout and Le Sars were won only at the expense of heavy losses on our part, it may be noted that the troops engaged, which took over 1,000 prisoners, had only about 1,200 casualties.

FAILED, SAYS BERLIN

[Canadian Press.]
Berlin, Oct. 24.—Via Sayville.—The official report says:
"October 23 was like the preceding day, being characterized by battles of attrition. In order to break through at any price, the British and French continued attacks in which strong forces were employed.
"In spite of their use of masses of troops near the Somme, they suffered a heavy and sanguinary defeat. It is reported from the front that rows of dead are lying on upon another, especially in the case of the British and our troops was as splendid as possible. Brandenburg Infantry Regiment 84, Brunswick Reserve Infantry Regiment 22, German Infantry Regiment 23 and Bavarian Infantry Regiment 15 and 15 won special distinction.
"South of the Somme, the French prepared an advance in the Abtaincourt-Chaillais sector, but our annihilating fire made development of the attack impossible.
"Army Group of the German Crown Prince—the enemy attempted to cross the attacks on the Somme at Chaillais near Verdun. Our positions on the east bank were strongly shelled by artillery. Hostile infantry was held in its trenches by our strong and efficient artillery fire. Attempts to attack were thus frustrated."

THE DIARY OF MARS.

Virtually the entire Constanza-Tchernavoda railway line in Dobruja is now in the hands of Field Marshal von Mackensen's forces, it appears from a Russian official statement today advising the evacuation of Medjidie by the Russians and Rumanians.
Medjidie is approximately twenty miles inland from Constanza, the Black Sea port and terminus of the railway, the fall of which to the armies of the Central Powers was reported yesterday.
Medjidie, furthermore, is but little more than thirteen and one half miles from Tchernavoda where the Russo-Rumanian forces are apparently preparing to make a stand at the bridgehead protecting the town.
The Russo-Rumanian line now runs along the heights north of Constanza and Medjidie, according to the Petrograd announcement, the British forces having fallen back upon these ridges after evacuating the towns.

London reports that the British have fully consolidated the ground gained by them yesterday in the neighborhood of Gueudecourt and Lesboeuifs, where the capture of 1,000 yards of German trenches was reported yesterday.

No notably important operations along the Rumanian northeastern front are reported in the official announcement, which follows:

'SEVERE MEASURES' THREAT OF HUNS TO NORWEGIANS OVER SUBMARINE DECREE

[Canadian Press.]
London, Oct. 24.—A dispatch to the Morning Post from Christiania, says:
"The Berlin correspondent of the Aftenposten had a conversation with the German under secretary of state, Zimmermann, on the subject of the Norwegian submarine decree. Herr Zimmermann said:
"Germany has prepared an energetic protest, which I am not able to give you, but the semi-official communications which appeared in the Allgemeine Zeitung will show you Germany intends to take severe measures against the decree, which is absolutely unneutral according to Paragraph 11 of the Hague convention, being directed exclusively against Germany. Norway's attitude is evidently inspired by unfriendly sentiments toward Germany and cannot therefore be passed over in silence. Public opinion in this country is more irritated, as the decree is obviously dictated by British policy. Norway here practically gives way to Great Britain."
"Some of the Swedish newspapers assert the Norwegian measure is analogous to that of Swedish government, but this is not the exact truth. The Swedish decree was founded on several flagrant breaches of neutrality by belligerents in Swedish waters. Norway had no similar reason to take action. The Swedish decree is directed against the powers of Norway, on the other hand, is really the first neutral state which conscientiously has directed a blow against Germany alone."
"Norway goes further by excluding commercial submarines. Norwegian newspapers assert Germany is warning Norway to desist from the other hand, is really the first neutral state which conscientiously has directed a blow against Germany alone."
"I have reason to believe this statement of Zimmermann's accurately sums up the contents of the note delivered by the German Government on Friday."

'BLUE DEVILS' OF JOFFRE IN 15 MINUTES CLEARED FOE FROM SAILLY VILLAGE

[Canadian Press.]
London, Oct. 24.—The correspondent of the Daily Chronicle on the Somme says the following under date of Thursday, October 19:
"It is yet difficult to estimate the importance of the German works in this Salient, because the whole ground was so completely smothered in shellfire, but from unofficial reports which have reached the French, the Germans boasted they were even more impregnable than those of Cambrai. The number of German dead found on the field is further evidence of the importance they attached to the position.
Held by Bavarians.
"Holding this captured sector were mixed elements of the 1st Bavarian Division and the 15th Division. The Germans had anticipated the attack, and had brought up the 2nd Bavarian Division in support, and yet the French were able to seize the greater part of the ground in fifteen minutes after their artillery had smashed it to pulp.
"There was a nasty little salient made by the German trenches in the French line south of the Somme, between the village of Biaches and the houses of La Maisonette. This it was decided to straighten out. The visibility in the afternoon south of the Somme, was much better, and the French artillery took full advantage of it. They not only completely smashed the German defenses, but also knocked out their batteries at Doigt, on the east bank, which endeavored to check the infantry by a heavy feu de barrage.
"At 4 p.m. the 'Blue Devils' went forward, and having heard that their comrades in the north had accomplished their object in fifteen minutes, they proceeded to put exactly the same time record. The Germans, aided by better light, showed considerable skill in bringing their batteries further to the north, at the village of Bissus, into action, and proceeded to smother the captured works, but only for a short time. French

BRITAIN'S NEW LOAN BY U. S. FINANCIERS LIKELY 300 MILLIONS

Will Bear Five Per Cent Interest and Mature in Two Years.
[Canadian Press.]
New York, Oct. 24.—Official announcement of the terms of the new loan to Great Britain by American financiers, expected here before the close of the week. The loan will be $250,000,000 or $300,000,000. It is understood, bearing 5 per cent interest, with the issuing price at 95, and maturing in two years. As security, collateral representing between $25,000,000 and $50,000,000 would be offered, under tentative plans made public unofficially today. This would consist of American stocks and bonds mobilized by the British treasury, and Canadian issues and obligations of neutral countries.
The suggested terms are virtually the same as those arranged when Great Britain borrowed $250,000,000 in the United States last August.

London's Own Is Absorbed Into Col. Wigle's Brigade.

Troops in Training at Camp Borden Are Rapidly Thinning Out.

[Special to The Advertiser.] CAMP BORDEN, Oct. 23.—The 142nd "London's Own" Battalion has been absorbed into the 8th Brigade under Col. E. S. Wigle, and the reorganization of the unit has been carried out to conform with the new order of establishment.

This unit was approximately 750 strong, or only three companies. Under this arrangement it was necessary to drop five officers. Capt. W. J. Leonard has resigned, and Lieut. J. Taylor, G. E. Crobble, H. A. Barnard and E. M. Farncomb have been struck off the strength in excess of the establishment.

Major A. G. Calder has been recommended as Quartermaster of Battalion to replace honorary Capt. A. C. McGregor, who has been made second in command of a company. The 142nd "London's Own" will have a most distinguished and colorful staff.

The 227 men of the North Battalion will leave for their quarters tomorrow, and on Wednesday only seven battalions will be in camp. There will be the 110th Perts, 114th Haldimand, 132nd Norfolk, 161st Hurons, 165th Oxford, 142nd "London's Own" and the 159th Algonquins.

The training for the remainder of their stay will be developed along lines of endurance route marches of an extensive order, with special emphasis on bayonet fighting and physical training, will be the order.

On Wednesday manoeuvres will be held with the seven battalions marching on a given rendezvous on the Brock Creek, and each unit will display over the plains to the west of the camp, covering a certain amount of ground in a given time. The officers will be tested in this way as to judgment of time and distance, and they will congregate at the rendezvous at a given hour.

Will Have a Rest. Thursday will be an off-day in camp, and arrangements will be made to throw open all battalion lines to friends of the unit. A number of visitors arrived on the late train this evening to see the members of the 161st Huron Battalion, and as the majority of the units that will be in camp on Thursday were recruited in Western Ontario, large excursions are expected from that area.

The 176th Niagara Rangers and the 214th American Battalions left camp today for their winter quarters in Niagara Falls and Hamilton, respectively.

Musketry Inspection.

Tuesday morning the 114th Haldimand and the 165th Oxford Battalions will parade for musketry instruction and in the afternoon the Oxford and 132nd Norfolks will display their prowess in bayonet fighting and physical training. The 161st Hurons will be engaged in special bombing instruction all day.

Lieut. R. Y. McLean (33rd Regiment), 161st Huron Battalion, and Lieut. R. P. Brown (25th Regiment), 149th Lambton Battalion, have been struck off the strength of their units as medically unfit.

NO QUARTERS FOR 7TH REGIMENT; NO CLOTHES, SAYS O. C.

No Effort Being Made to Reorganize Regiment.

VOLUNTEERS INSULTED?

Lieut.-Col. Spittal Says They Were Objects of Sneers In Street.

There is, apparently, little chance of any attempt being made to reorganize the 7th Regiment in London this fall as Lieut.-Col. Wm. Spittal says there are no quarters available and no likelihood of success attending an effort to bring up the strength of the regiment.

"What are the difficulties?" was asked the commanding officer. "First, the armories are now almost wholly in the possession of the expeditionary forces, the quartermaster's stores being the only section left under local control. This leaves us nowhere to drill and puts a tremendous obstacle in the way of reorganization.

"Then, too, there are no uniforms for new recruits."

Answering a question as to the strength of the regiment, Lieut.-Col. Spittal said there were now only about forty or fifty men, with eight or ten officers. "The rest have gone to the front," he added.

In addition to these members, there is also a detached company of about 180 men under Capt. Watts, which is steadily engaged on police and guard duty. Men returned from the front are being sent to the front.

It is not the fault of the battalion or its commander that we were not over here before, but the fault lies at the door of the slackers who are still walking the streets of London and laughing up their sleeves at the reports they see in the papers.

You may perhaps be able to imagine our feelings when we see every little fault or falling of our battalion coming out in large headlines and our successes in small type or else not at all.

We are going to fight for London, and Londoners will enjoy the privileges of peace which we are willing to give our boys to obtain for them, but yet we get more kicks than cents from

Col. Spittal had a complaint to make about the treatment accorded the few men who, he says, did offer their services to the 7th. "They were sneered at on the street, and asked why they did not join the fighting battalions booked for overseas," he asserted.

There seems to be a difference of opinion as to the obstacles mentioned by Lieut.-Col. Spittal. It is said by some who claim to know that the 7th Regiment could have the use of the armories on evenings for which drills were arranged, and that there are numbers of men in the city ready to sign on and take the training to get themselves "fit" who are not yet in a position to join overseas battalions.

WORKS CHAIRMAN CALLS OFF TONIGHT'S MEETING

This Means Delay in Settling G. T. R. Crossing Question.

There will be no meeting of the board of works this evening, Ald. Palmer, chairman, having called off session.

It was expected that the board of control and the board of works would today confer with the Grand Trunk officials relative to the tower to be erected at the Talbot street crossing, where Capt. John H. Case was killed in June last, but no conference has been arranged. The council has understood that the meeting would be held at the earliest possible convenience, in order that the crossing might be made safe, but this is evidently not the case.

In the meantime the work will be held up. Ald. Palmer wants the commission to improve other crossings. The council claims that the crossings are in good shape at this time.

When the meeting will take place has not yet been decided. The failure will meet at the tower at the next meeting of the council, and sharp repartee may be expected.

STREET OILING FINISHED; COST SLIGHTLY REDUCED

Price of Oil Has Increased But Less Has Been Used.

City Engineer Brazier has completed the street oiling for the year, and is engaged in figuring up the cost. He relied about 40 miles of roads, using 3,400 gallons of oil to the mile, as against 4,800 gallons last year.

The cost will be 3 1/2 cents per foot frontage for 36 miles, and 5 cents for 4 miles. The latter was a heavy oil for macadam roads, and cost more. The rates are a little lower than last year, in spite of the fact that oil advanced from 5 cents a gallon to 5 1/2 cents a gallon.

BANDSMAN DECLARES 142ND DID NOT GET A FAIR DEAL FROM PEOPLE OR THE PRESS

Claims London's Own Was "Knocked" by 135th Recruiters and by Citizens in General — Other Bands Paid For Services Which 142nd Gave Free of Charge, He Maintains.

To the Editor of The Advertiser: I noticed in your recent issue an article referring to recruiting a battalion entirely from London and the remark that under proper leadership it would soon be up to full strength.

"This I take as a slur on 'London's Own' of which I am a member and I am about sick of the way 'London's Own' has been treated. I have seen a number of rumors spread about by members of the 135th Battalion and others, as to the bad qualities of the 142nd. I enlisted on December 3, 1915, and was told by one of the 135th recruits that 'London's Own' were all bums, although at that time there was only about 50 men enlisted. Although I do not wish to cast any reflection upon the 135th, I know from personal contact with the boys that a large number of them would have enlisted in London's Own if they could have had the privilege of sleeping at home, in fact, quite a number of men applied for transfers after they went under canvas before, but the fact lies at the door of the slackers who are still walking the streets of London and laughing up their sleeves at the reports they see in the papers.

You may perhaps be able to imagine our feelings when we see every little fault or falling of our battalion coming out in large headlines and our successes in small type or else not at all.

We are going to fight for London, and Londoners will enjoy the privileges of peace which we are willing to give our boys to obtain for them, but yet we get more kicks than cents from

Col. Spittal had a complaint to make about the treatment accorded the few men who, he says, did offer their services to the 7th. "They were sneered at on the street, and asked why they did not join the fighting battalions booked for overseas," he asserted.

There seems to be a difference of opinion as to the obstacles mentioned by Lieut.-Col. Spittal. It is said by some who claim to know that the 7th Regiment could have the use of the armories on evenings for which drills were arranged, and that there are numbers of men in the city ready to sign on and take the training to get themselves "fit" who are not yet in a position to join overseas battalions.

It is not the fault of the battalion or its commander that we were not over here before, but the fault lies at the door of the slackers who are still walking the streets of London and laughing up their sleeves at the reports they see in the papers.

Milk Producers Trying to Raise Price to Dealers

Holding Meeting To Discuss Question—Now Get $2.00 Per Cwt.

Milk producers who supply local dealers for distribution in the city are holding a meeting this evening with the object of raising the price above the present high mark of $2 per hundred pounds, or about five cents per quart.

Just what they propose to do to extract from the dealers is not known, but it is believed that they want six cents a quart, or $2.10 per hundred pounds.

The producers claim they can make more money now by taking their milk to cheese factories and creameries or selling to outside dealers than by continuing to supply local dealers at the present price.

The dealers are very much averse to having the price increased, as they fear it will mean a proportionate rise in the cost to the consumer with the inevitable complaint and, possibly, decrease in orders.

Milk now costs the consumer in the city eight cents a quart, having jumped quite recently. This caused some to complain of the advisability of using condensed or powdered milk instead of the fresh article. Another increase would be almost certain, it is said, to bring about a drop in the dairymen's orders.

S. S. CONVENTION TO BE HELD IN TWO SECTIONS

Ontario Event Divided Between Smith's Falls and Kitchener.

The 51st annual convention of the Ontario Sunday School Association is to be held in two sections, October 25, 26 and 27, at Smith's Falls tomorrow, October 25, and section B, at Kitchener, November 1, 2 and 3. The London delegates, who will represent practically every Sunday school in the city, will attend the one at Kitchener. The convention this year is to have many new features, and the uppermost thought in the minds of those building the program, according to their own statement, has been to meet the present need. Their foreword is, "We are living in new times. Not war alone, but conditions existing before the war, call for a new movement in religious education."

The subject of "The New Movement in Religious Education" is to be introduced at the Smith's Falls section tomorrow at 2 o'clock by Rev. W. R. McIntosh of King Street Presbyterian Church, this city. Mr. McIntosh will also address the convention tomorrow evening, when his subject will be "The Secondary Division Meeting the Needs."

GUILTY OF THEFT

Charles Peterson Admits Offence But Goes on Suspended Sentence.

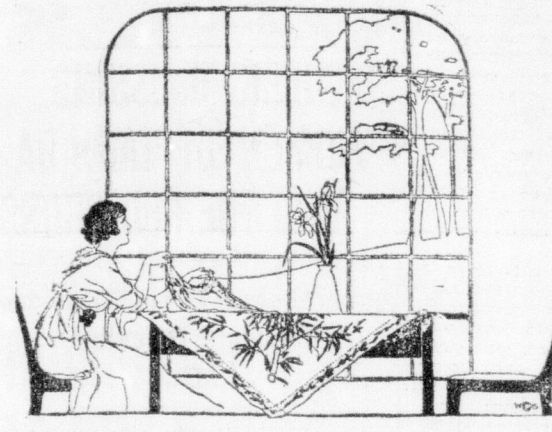

Charles Peterson appeared before Judge Macbeth this morning and pleaded guilty to a charge of theft preferred against him by Angus Galbraith of Appin.

He pleaded that he was drunk at the time and in view of his past record and the fact that he was partially supporting his mother he was allowed to go on suspended sentence. He will be required to report every two weeks to Sheriff Cameron for the next twelve months.

The theft to which he pleaded guilty was committed at Appin on October 3, last. A watch and ring and a locket were stolen from the house at the time.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

WARRIORS OR FATIGUE PARTY? To the Editor of The Advertiser: Allow me a little space in your paper. I have been told by a number of the boys of this battalion that they saw in your paper that it was stated that the 18th Battalion had put down everything and had their tents down by 7 o'clock Sunday morning. I wish to state that it is not so. We, the men of the 142nd Battalion, had to take down the tents and clean up the lines of the 18th, after we came in off church parade, when we should have been allowed to rest. Now that the 18th has left we have to take down their tents and clean up their lines. Now what we want to know is, did Col. Graham recruit a battalion of men to go overseas and fight for King and Country as we want to do, or just for a fatigue party? For when we have an overseas battalion, and when we have taken down tents for battalions which are not going over, it makes us think that we are only a fatigue party. Yours truly, INQUIRER.

Advocates a Public Forum. To the Editor of The Advertiser: It was with much interest and a new hope I read a few evenings ago your able editorial, "A Public Forum Is Needed."

Your appeal to the public-spirited of London is timely and well grounded by many substantial reasons. It is no economy to neglect to provide for necessities. London does need a convention hall, a place of adequate and comfortable accommodation. This is guaranteed and small size, 60c

These goods are now practically off the market and will be until conditions change in Europe, and if it were possible to procure them today the prices would be much greater than what we ask for these, which were bought about a year ago and should have been delivered months earlier.

We call your attention to these beautiful fancy handmade pieces with the above headline "Great Sale," but frankly tell you that the prices, which might seem fractional to you, are only about what our regular prices would be under normal conditions, buying, as we do, these lines direct from the maker; but we advise you that it may be some time again before such prices are possible.

We therefore impress upon you the wisdom of laying in your future supply from this shipment.

A great collection of exquisite pieces, not every size in each line, but many numbers include doilies, centres, oval trays and end pieces to match, hundreds of pretty single pieces in doilies, centres, scarfs, lunch cloths, trays and lunch napkins; every piece guaranteed genuine hand-embroidered Madeira. Come Wednesday morning—you will be able to pick up many delightful Christmas gifts. All new, fresh stock at astonishingly low prices. Briefly listed are sizes and prices:

241ST SCOTS ARE OUT FOR RECRUITS WITH A "BIG DRIVE"

Campaign Has Started To Fill Up Battalion.

VOLUNTEERS FINE CLASS

Tour of Western Ontario Towns and Cities Begins Wednesday.

A whirlwind tour for recruits through Western Ontario was commenced today by the 241st Canadian Scottish Borderers.

Recruits have been coming at a good rate, and the high standards of the battalion are appealing to men from Texas to the west.

Two Scots, who were in vanguard in the United States, a performer from the Ringling circus, and interesting characters from many parts of the United States are answering the call.

The battalion is affiliated with the King's Own Scottish Borderers, famous in the military traditions of the Empire, and King George himself is in one sense the honorary colonel of the Canadian Highlanders.

The manner in which women and girls are replacing men in business and industrial life in London and this releasing the latter for active service is strikingly demonstrated in the case of the local branch of the Bell Telephone Company.

ANOTHER 1,000 YARDS TAKEN FROM GERMANS ON THE SOMME LINE

British Gain Near Gueudecourt and Les Boeuifs.

STOP A GERMAN ATTACK

Germans Prevented by Artillery From Making Assault.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—(P. M.)—More than a thousand yards of German trenches in the region of Gueudecourt and Les Boeuifs were taken by the British in fighting north of the Somme River in France, this afternoon, according to the official communication issued tonight.

In the region of Grandcourt the British artillery stopped a German plan for an attack.

The communication says: "This afternoon in the course of operations by the right wing of our front line the Germans advanced on the east of Gueudecourt and Les Boeuifs and captured over a thousand yards of enemy trenches.

German Attack Stopped.
"During the day our front line in the neighborhood of Le Sars was heavily shelled. South of Grandcourt this afternoon the enemy succeeded for an attack, but was stopped by our artillery. Sixty-six more prisoners are reported as a result of the fighting at the Schwaben Redoubt and Le Sars, in addition to the total gain yesterday.

"Last night two German attacks were attempted against our trenches in the neighborhood of Gueudecourt. One was stopped by our fire and the enemy suffered heavy casualties. The second penetrated our outpost lines, but was promptly driven back by our counter-attack.

"Yesterday our aeroplanes bombed two railway stations behind the enemy's lines, hitting a train in motion

SIR EDWARD GREY INVITES NEUTRALS TO PEACE LEAGUE

Best Work To Prevent Repe-tition of War.

NO CHANCE JUST NOW Allied Forces Will See That Prussianism Is Thoroughly Beaten.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—Another important contribution to the discussions on peace was made by Viscount Grey, secretary of state for foreign affairs, at a lunch given today by the Foreign Press Association, at which the diplomatic representatives of all the allied countries were present.

The foreign secretary made it plain that the Allies were not prepared to discuss peace terms and gave no indication of what their terms might be, but welcomed any efforts by neutral countries for a combination to prevent future wars. Some of the most important passages of the secretary's speech follow:

"I would like to talk, not indeed about actual conditions of peace, which can only be started and formulated by the Allies together and not by anyone of them separately, but about the general objects the Allies must secure in this war. And to do that I would ask you to recall that we are never forgetting how the war came about. If we are to approach peace in a proper spirit it can only be by recollecting and recalling and never for a moment forgetting what was the real cause of the war.

"Cause of War Important.
"Some people say, 'Oh, we need not go back over that old ground now; everybody knows it.' You cannot go back to it too often; it affects the conditions of peace. Germany talks of peace; her statesmen talk of peace today. They say: 'Germany must have guarantees against being attacked again.'

"If this war had been forced upon Germany that would be a logical statement. It is precisely because it was not forced upon Germany, but was forced by Germany upon Europe, that it is the Allies who must have guarantees for future peace.

"In July, 1914, no one thought of attacking Germany. It is said that Russia was the first to mobilize. That I understand, is what is represented in Germany as justification for the statement that the war was forced upon her.

"Germany Mobilized First.
"Russia never made the mobilization, until after Germany refused to accept the Russian proposal. It is not merely the sign manual of presidents and sovereigns that is really to make that worth while; it must also have the sanction of parliaments and national sentiments.

"Supposing the conditions of 1914 occur again and there is such a league in which the nations agree to stand up in whether national sentiment behind it is so permeated by the lessons of this war as to compel each nation as a matter of vital interest, to keep peace other than by force.

"Must Have War Laws.
"The foreign secretary insisted upon the need after the war of arriving at some agreement with respect to the laws of war, arguing that the mere indiscriminate employment of all the resources of modern civilization and the violence of the race itself. He characterized the employment of poisonous gas and other horrors by Germany as having 'let loose upon the world a more terrible anarchy than any individual anarchist' and referred especially to the 'organized attempt' to exterminate the Christians in Turkey since Turkey became a vassal of Germany. Such horrors he declared were only possible with Germany's toleration. Perhaps, he said, some day a national union, which knows the full story, will publish it to the world.

"Entire Human Race Interested.
"He contended that this matter of keeping the horrors of war within bounds was a question in which the whole human race is interested, and as all nations should recognize their responsibility for preventing outbreaks of war, so they should insure in event of its outbreak that it should be conducted by rules of humanity as these are our ancestors observed, which Germany today had disregarded and thrown to the winds.

"Of the necessity 'of freeing the world from the oppression of Prussian militarism' he said:

"We know that if mankind has any right, it is that of peace and liberty, and it is for that we are fighting. When we are asked how long the struggle is to continue we can only reply that it must continue until these things are secured."

Duty of Neutrals.
"Passing to the position of the neutral countries, Viscount Grey said in answer to a question as to what they could do:

"I believe the best work neutrals can do for the moment is to try to prevent a war like this from happening again. If the nations had been united in such an agreement and prompt resolution to insist in 1914 that the dispute must be referred to a conference of The Hague, that the Belgian treaty must be observed there would have been no war. Nations fighting for their existence, with daily increasing prospects of seeing victory brought nearer, still knowing that if they stop short of victory they stop short of everything for which they are struggling, cannot be expected to spend much time thinking about what might happen after victory is secured. But the neutrals can do it. I believe that not only President Wilson, but Mr. Hughes is supporting a league, started, not with the object of interfering with the belligerents in this war, but which will do its part in making peace secure in the future.

"Must Have Adequate Force.
"It is a work of neutral countries to which we should all look with favor and hope. Only we must bear this in mind, that the nations are not able to do something effectively by sending themselves with the common object of preserving peace, they must be prepared to undertake not more than they are able to undertake, and to see, when the time of crisis comes, that it is upheld by force.

"The question we must ask them is this: 'Will they play up to the "come-comes"?' It is not merely the sign manual of presidents and sovereigns that is really to make that worth while; it must also have the sanction of parliaments and national sentiments.

"Supposing the conditions of 1914 occur again and there is such a league in which the nations agree to stand up in whether national sentiment behind it is so permeated by the lessons of this war as to compel each nation as a matter of vital interest, to keep peace other than by force."

AWAY WITH DRUGS!

A NOVEL BREATHING CURE FOR THROAT & CHEST.

THE introduction of these new breathe-able tablets, the silver-jacketed Peps, make a revolution in the treatment of lung, throat and chest ailments. Incidentally, it has rendered obsolete the old-fashioned cough-mixtures containing laudanum and paregoric or opium in one form or another.

Old-fashioned cough-mixtures are not only dangerous but useless in design because it is a physiological impossibility for any medicine to enter the lungs. At the back of the mouth are two tubes, one the gullet, along which all food and drink is conveyed to the stomach; and the other consisting of the throat and windpipe, organs used solely to take the breath of life to the lungs and send the "bad air" out. Between the stomach and the lungs no passage whatever exists. Hence to get at the root of throat and lung troubles it becomes necessary to alter the form of the medicine itself. The accomplishment of this Peps combined with the freedom of Peps from opium gives the remedy its unique character and its extraordinary success.

A Peps Tablet, directed of its preserving silver wrapper, is placed on the tongue and, as it dissolves, certain rare medicinal fumes are given off which can then be breathed quite easily down the throat and windpipe and into the lungs and chest. These delicate air passages which have been irritated by frequent coughing and congested with phlegm, are soothed, cleared and strengthened; the lungs are warmed and invigorated, and all germs likely to provoke inflammation and disease are soon destroyed.

A few Peps Tablets before going to sleep and occasionally during the day will end the most nagging cough, make one's breathing easy, and give comfort to a chest. At the same time these happy concoctions, either in menthol or in chestnut, give relief to the chest, put out and most novel breathe-able fumes that were ever conceived, packed up in a handy, compact tablet. Peps bring new hope to chest sufferers, for cases are on record showing the tablets are not the long-standing nature of the trouble is any barrier to relief and permanent cure.

AMERICAN COLONEL GIVES FREE ADVICE TO RHEUMATICS

SAYS IT'S SHEER FOLLY FOR ANYONE TO SUFFER THESE DAYS.

Rheumatism can't be cured so long as your system is weak and rundown. You must first build up and get strength to fight off the disease. Ferrerozine cures because it builds up, because it renews the blood and dissolves the Uric Acid and the poisons that cause rheumatism.

It is proved right here that Ferrerozine cures.

Col. H. M. Russ of Edwards, St. Lawrence County, one of the fine old heroes of the Civil War, was completely cured by Ferrerozine. Read his statement:

"I couldn't get around without a cane, and then only with difficulty. 'Rheumatism took complete control of my limbs and train a lame.' 'Suffering was more intense than hardships on the battlefield.' 'When my doctor had done his best I got Ferrerozine.' 'Then came a quick change.' 'Ferrerozine gave me comfort at once, eased the pain and took the stiffness out of my muscles.' 'I am well today. Ferrerozine cured me completely. I can jump and run like I did forty years ago.' 'I'm sensible about your case, if your present medicine is useless give it up. Don't experiment again. Ferrerozine is known on all sides to be a cure that does cure. Why not get a supply today? The sooner you begin Ferrerozine the quicker you'll get well.' Price 50c per box or six for $2.50. All dealers, or write for mail from The Catarthozone Company, Kingston, Ont.

The red hat will be conferred on Mgr. Count Raffaele Scapellotti, former parish nuncio at Vienna, and Mgr. Fruhirth, former nuncio at Munich. Mgr. Fruhirth will be replaced at Munich by Mgr. Avrami, papal nuncio in Brazil, who is now on his way to Rome.

At the consistory Pope Benedict will deliver an allocution, in which he will discuss the European situation, and pray for a cessation of the war.

THE LAKE LOSSES.

ALL HEARTS will go out in sorrow
for the losses of life on the lakes. Bow-shaped Erie has again swallowed several leviathans, and their sturdy sailors with them. Yet
one wonders if loads are not too
heavy, if storm warnings are not disregarded, and too much risk taken to get an extra cargo through. What of "construction? Has it been settled that the lake type of freighter, with its stern engines, is safe? Are the lengths too great, and is inspection sufficiently drastic? The great lesson of a few years ago seems to have brought no change for the better. If ships like the Merida, the Colgate and two others are to be rendered helpless
and lost, others are only safe through good luck. The plimol does not exist and ships are loaded, according to the depth of water in canals.

Much has been said of safety on the lakes, but who can recall what satisfactory conclusion was reached by the commission appointed to investigate the disaster of Lake Huron in 1913?

CO-OPERATION.

A WRITER in the current University Magazine expresses a fear that we may find our individualism weakening, in a surrender to "German" collectivism. He seems to think that we have nothing to learn from the enemy, that British greatness
is all due to and must be maintained
by a strenuous individualism. He assumes that German collectivism is the source of German militarism, whereas
the true source was originally the fear
of France and Russia, and collectivism merely was adopted by the Prussian military machine to strengthen the military machine necessary at first for defence, but later perfected for aggression.

Mr. Wells is cited as one of the dangerous "apostles of borrowed German political doctrine," writing recently in advocacy of "the spirit of socialism and science—and khaki." Mr.
Wells is taken thus to indorse militarism or national service, as a phase of collectivism. But it is well known that he is no supporter of militarism,
or nation-state-worship, but rather an internationalist and pacifist. When he says "khaki," he means simply the present collectivist spirit which has led the British youth in the uniform
of war for the defence of an ideal.
Nor is Mr. Wells a socialist, though he bristles "the spirit of socialism"; he means simply the federation of men and the federation of nations in the Great
State of the world.

It is rather ridiculous to suppose the growth of the co-operative idea in Great Britain as a sudden outcrop of the war and of Germany's malignant fascination. It is no new idea. Insurance, life, fire, accident, etc., is an ancient development in co-operation
that has been gathering impetus for the last 50 years. What has individualism to say now against that?
Against the compulsory insurance system
of the British Isles, or against old age pensions?

The war shadow had not yet darkened Great Britain when minimum wages were being fixed and various public services nationalized, or proposed to be nationalized. But farther back, long ago, the battle for state
supported universal, compulsory education was fought out and won against the individualists. If it is argued that collectivism means protection, while free trade was won by the individual-
ists, the old hard-shell laissez-faire,
free-competition economists, the answer is that protection has been wonderfully exploited by self-seeking,
lobbying individuals, all with an axe
to grind. Protection no more than free trade is necessarily the policy of the co-operative community.

Trade unions, combines and trusts
have become a leading feature of recent economic history. Great international,
as well as national leagues, have been formed for various purposes. Even the making of books has become more and more the co-operative task of numbers
of writers working together; for their
necessity, compare the individual encyclopaedias of the middle ages with the 11th edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica, or Samuel Johnson's dictionary with the New Oxford! Cooperative experimentation in laboratories is also now the thing.

Is Australia or New Zealand a feeble
country with its highly-developed social and political solidarity? The new progressive taxation in Great Britain may be alarming to individuals
of great wealth, but it is a necessity,
not a degeneracy.

There is a great deal of difference
between a collectivism exploited by a

bureaucracy and military oligarchy
as in Germany, and such a system as is developing in Great Britain, where the people's chosen
and responsible ministers manage it in the people's interest. Another difference between German col-
lectivism and the co-operative state,
recommended by men like Wells, is that in Germany the state has been made a god, high over humanity as a whole, with the kaiser as representative of the state, a visible incarnation of the god; whereas, the Great State of Wells' prophetic imagination is an international union with war cut out.
We want something of that kind after this strife is over. The trouble with Germany is oligarchic militarism and its misapplication or perversion of cooperation, which latter in itself is an inevitable as evolution.

THE 'EMERGENCY'
DOESN'T 'EMERGE'

CONSERVATIVE papers continue
to call-out about "the emergency."
A part of this "emergency" ventured
out of the Kiel Canal the other day in the form of a light cruiser. Before it had proceeded a great distance it came within the range of a British periscope. Then it came within range of a British torpedo, and at latest reports it was heading back to Kiel under "very evident difficulties."

The "emergency" also came out at Jutland, but it did not repeat the experiment. It has been hammered and banned whenever it has shown its head, although it required some time
for the Australian cruiser Sydney (the counterpart of the Laurier cruisers
which a certain Government refused to build), to run down the Emden.
The "emergency" has been at its worst in the outlying seas and on the coasts of the American continent,
within cruising distance of a Canadian navy. Thanks to British and Japanese and Australian cruisers, also the Rainbow and the Niobe, whose record will be shown as deserving of no "linpot" sneers, the coasts have been safe.

If there was an "emergency" for Great Britain in this war, it was a land emergency and not a "naval"
emergency. Not even the British people saw the menace from Germany
on land; they prepared for the German challenge on the ocean, and save
for German treachery, with France
able to defend her own Alsatian
border, but incapable of withstanding
a stab in the back, it is doubtful if a great British force would have been required in France. The British were not asleep. Their navy is a more dreadful thing than any German army machine. It is today the hope of peaceful civilization, impervious to every machination of the Hun and
making naught of the "emergencies"
of the lip patriots, who served Bour-assa in 1911 and give him police protection today.

THE QUEBEC TOUR.

THE "ENTENTE CORDALE" tour
of Ontario businessmen through Quebec was dealt with yesterday
before the Rotary Club by Mr. J. K. H.
Pope, treasurer of the McClary Manufacturing Company, who was a member of the party. He described people and conditions as he found them, and no doubt convinced his auditors that the inhabitants of Quebec were there to stay, that they would assert their right to their native language, but that they would cordially receive advances
from Ontario people for a broader relation and a more sympathetic spirit
between the provinces.

Mr. Pope, as an Ontario businessman, was convinced that there is a
middle ground for the two provinces,
away from prejudice and the bigotry
that stands out in clear light to destroy the solid sentiment of friendship
that should exist at the heart of the provinces. His impressions of the trip have great present value, but an even greater worth in the seed they planted
in the mind of every one of his hearers,
seeds that will bear a desire to study
the question of intercourse between the two provinces. He told how broadly
the language question was being dealt with in Quebec. In one educational institution the children used French exclusively at the morning session, and English exclusively in the afternoon.
Everywhere the party proceeded its members were welcomed in English,
while only one member, a professional
linguist, was able to reply in French.

Are the French greater students?
Are they less or more parochial than residents of Ontario? Are they anxious to understand and be understood? Are they to be handed a stone of distrust
when they ask for the bread of mutual trustfulness? Are we to listen to the words of false prophets who care for power only, and for national unity not at all? Are we able to deny the French their cradle-taught language, while we deny them credit for taking up the tongue which we speak?

Mr. Pope dwelt briefly on the recurring situation. He had been reminded in Quebec that 67 per cent of the Ontario enlistment was British-born, and he had been asked to consider that the French-Canadian had been in Canada for 250 years, with no
immigration to strengthen the imperial sentiment. Even a Nationalist who opposed participation by Canada in the war had said that he favored conscription rather than the present method.
The fiery Livergne has said that he would respond to the call if requested
by the Government.

Treatment of Quebec in the matter
of recruiting has not been tactful, to say the least. A Methodist clergyman,
no matter how capable, is not a model
recruiting director for a solid Roman Catholic province. The clergy has never been appealed to, and the Gov-

ment has effected no organization,
while the Government ministers were silent for eighteen months. Before Quebec had been given a chance, it was the target for slurs from Ontario,
and the tour described by the Lon-
doner is the first honest effort to understand Quebec.

Great good is certain to come of this movement. It cannot be checked, because it has a basis of truth and service which will not be denied. The members felt as though they were making history, as Mr. Pope said, and none of them returned with a determination to reprove Quebec, but to cast out the boon in their own eyes. They were making history, and they were nipping
in the bud the poisonous weed of misunderstanding. Quebec will come to Ontario, and we shall not turn upon them a cold shoulder of disdain. Other provinces will catch the spirit—for the problems of separatist movement are not all Ontario-Quebec problems—and there will be the "bon accord" tours
to Manitoba, to the west beyond, and to the Maritime Provinces. More feeling for a common understanding will grow from this manner of facing a problem than parties can devise and politicians promise. It is one evidence of the desire of Canada's big men to cope with some of the real problems of the country. They believe in fire prevention, and they mean to combat the work of firebrands in both provinces.

FISHERMEN'S HARD LUCK.
MEMBERS WHO are supposed to serve the counties which border
on the shores of Lake Erie will do well
immediately to consider what steps should be taken toward the relief of fishermen who have suffered severely
in the recent storms. Advertiser correspondents in Leamington, Kingsville, Port Stanley and other Erie ports report that a loss that is comparatively tremendous has been suffered by the fishermen.

It may be that the fishermen have
no desire to secure relief, but the loss
of nets may mean the crippling of the industry, unless the fishermen are able
to start business again in the spring.
They are left without facilities for fishing at a time when the best "crop"
of the season was anticipated. A survey of the damage by those in authority will be appreciated by those who have suffered.

Commercializing the war in high places is having its effect. A boy wear-

window as the boys marched past, has been begging in London, telling a pitiful
story of hardship, because "father"
was at the war.

THAT ELUSIVE SURPLUS.
With worry and with thinking, my mind
is just a wreck.
From surmising where that surplus is

says has been piled up by "our line"

So great that he can't spend it, although
so hard he's tried.

He has thoughts of elevators, dance

And he thinks that at a bathing house

At that, when these are paid for,

Australia's Fleet in War Time
Sydney and Melbourne Patrolled the Atlantic and Guarded
Canadian Shores.

A correspondent of the Naval and Military Record at Sydney, N. S. W., contributes the following interesting account of the work of the Australian fleet during the second year of the
war:

"A good record of efficient and varied
sea service is contained in the story of the work performed by Australia's
fleet during the second year of the
war.
"Since August, 1914, Australian warships have been widely scattered throughout the oceans of the globe.
Their work during the first twelve months of the war, including the destruction of the Emden and the driving
of the German Pacific cruisers to defeat
the Falkland Islands, is already well known. For the first time official particulars of their work since August, 1915, are now published for the first time in the Empire; for the Empire
has patrolled under tropical sun and in northern waters, and have beendard routes. And yet official particulars can only supply a bare outline of the doings of the fleet. The publication of details is not permitted.
"Following is a sketch of the fleet's work: Although the work of the Australian warships during this second year of the war has been less spectacular than before, its importance
and value to the Empire have in no way diminished. In naval war, just as in the last year taken their full share. In most cases the work has been done in tropical climates. It has produced few palpable results in prizes
of ships destroyed, but it has necessitated long periods of continuous steaming at sea, on apparently objectless
"scoutry," which try both ship and crew more severely than does the excitement of actual fighting, but is therefore all the more satisfactory when
not only tries to "blind it," and the patrol devoid of incidents is probably
all the more effective.

"H. M. A. Australia, which, it is at last announced, reached England
on January 28, 1915, was at once attached to the grand fleet in the North Sea, has since then been engaged in vicissitudes patrolling as the flagship of Vice-Admiral Pakenham. She was by ill-luck unable to take part in the Jutland battle. The two light cruisers Sydney and Melbourne have been engaged on more varied service. They have been employed on patrols and investigations which have taken them
as far south as Montevideo and as far north as Nova Scotia. By the end of last year the Sydney had steamed well
over 100,000 miles during her commission. In climates varying often sharply
from the cold of the Canadian winter
to the perpetual moist heat of the Gulf of Mexico. More than half the Sydney's seed time regular pen work in the tropics.
In Canada the press laid some stress
on the fact that warships belonging to one of the great dominions of the Empire were also sent to patrol off the shores of the sister dominion at the other end of the world.

"H. M. A. Pioneer was engaged in similar work in the Indian Ocean. She was attached to a squadron that blockaded German East Africa and took an active part in many of its more exciting operations. From the time of her arrival off the African coast she was employed, in company
with other ships, in watching the mouth of the Red Sea, where the German cruiser Königsberg had taken refuge,
and when in July, 1915, the monitors
sent out from England entered the shallow river and succeeded in blowing up the enemy ship, the Pioneer was employed in assailing the German sharpshooters at the river mouth. Later she visited Cape Town, and has since been used on regular pen work in the tropics.

"The remaining ships of the squadron
—the Encounter, Warspite, Parramatta, Psyche and Pantome, were early attached to the Australian fleet and manned by Australian crews—have been effectively and continuously employed

nearer Australia in guarding the routes
by which Australian trade and Australian convoys traverse the neighboring seas. In the course of this work
they have covered huge mileages,
mainly in tropical waters under conditions of much discomfort. They have entered many harbors, previously little known and rarely visited, and thus have added to the world's permanent stock of maritime knowledge, and the quality of their work has been praised
by the imperial officers to whose command some of them on occasion have been attached.
"Besides the warships of the squadron, the navy office has under its
charge many another of cargo vessels,
as well as colliers, oil ships and Australian convoys traverse the neighbor-
ing seas. In the course of this work
they have covered huge mileages,

ARE GIBBONS AND DILLON FRAMING COMING BATTLE?

Charges That Middleweight Match Is To Be Faked Is Made Public in Chicago—Should Be Investigated—Feud Is Blamed.

Ugly charges of an alleged secret agreement between Mike Gibbons and Jack Dillon, whereby there will be absolutely no chance of a knockout in their forthcoming ten-round encounter at the Twin Cities next month, have been widely circulated recently.

Criticism of the approaching contest comes from a well-known sporting writer in Chicago, who claims to have heard of a secret agreement between the boxers.

It is claimed by some persons who profess to know that the present controversy is the result of a feud now being waged between Chicago sporting editors and certain men who have been prominent in managerial roles for well-known fighters.

SOLDIER RUGBY BOYS PRACTICING ALREADY

149th Battalion Has Forty Men Out Monday.

KEEN INTEREST TAKEN

'Punk' Pollard, a Former Petrolia Star, Will Handle the Lambton Team.

The 149th Battalion (Lambton's Own) is not one to let the grass grow under its feet. The boys no sooner decided to form a rugby football team than one of their number was dispatched hot-foot for a rugby ball, and in consequence a fourteen that will do honor to the battalion has already been out to practice.

Forty Members Out. Monday morning 40 members of the pride of Lambton were on the job, and, under the leadership of 'Punk' Pollard, former captain of the Petrolia Dominion champions, were put through a two hours' practice. A lot of good material was uncovered, and Sgt. Pollard is tickled to death with his team's prospects. It will take a good team to trim these soldier boys.

Officers Elected. At an enthusiastic meeting held after practice the club was formed and the following officers were elected: Honorary president, Major W. W. McVicar, O. C. 19th; president, Capt. G. G. Moncrieff; vice-president, Capt. W. A. Wyles; manager, Capt. J. Dunfield; secretary-treasurer, Capt. (Rev.) J. M. McElvray; executive committee, Major Stewart, Sgt. E. E. Pollard and Pte. N. A. MacColl. Lieut. Knowles stated that an intermediate district in the O. R. F. U., including the 19th, the 18th, Western University and Sarnia, was practically assured, and that two games a week would have to be played to insure the finishing of the series.

Two Hours' Practice. The commanding officer will be asked to allow the boys to practice during the two hours that are usually devoted to physical training. This will mean that the soldier team will develop rapidly into shape and be fit to give battle to the best of them. The men will be asked to grant $100 from the canteen fund to defray expenses and to buy the necessary requisites for the team. Uniforms will be purchased immediately.

Colors Red and White. After a great deal of argument it was decided that the old battalion colors, red and white, would be the ones that they would play under. The Sarnia representatives wanted the Sarnia blue and white, while the boys from the hard-fought district were insistent that the Petrolia colors of green and white, which have carried many an ard-or team to victory, were the ones that should fly for the battalion. The red and white colors were offered as a compromise.

There is keen rivalry between the 18th and the 19th, and the games pulled off between the warriors promise to be fast and furious.

SARNIA BALL LEAGUE GIVES TO RED CROSS

SARNIA, Oct. 23.—The executive of the Sarnia City Baseball League has donated $75 to the local British Red Cross fund. This sum is part of the surplus which has accumulated during the past two seasons, and which was to have been expended in putting the grounds in shape for the next season, but the executive fully realized the need of ample funds to carry on this great work of caring for the wounded and unanimously decided to vote this sum for that cause. Although the Imperial ball team were the leaders when the season closed, the trophies have not yet been awarded, but a meeting will be held in the near future, when the league affairs for the past season will be wound up.

BOYS' GYMNASIUM CLASS COMMENCES AT Y.M.C.A.

Because of this an additional night has been secured for the boys. The swimming pool will also be exclusively for the juniors on one night of the week and neither seniors or soldiers will be admitted. F. H. Giffin, C. J. Markle and J. B. Ferguson will assist A. T. Taylor in the direction of the work this season.

Lieut. Bil O'Hara, Who Is Gaining Fame on the Somme Front

Bill O'Hara Recommended For the Military Cross

Former Toronto Outfielder Is Star Hurler of Bombs on the Somme Battlefield—In His Element as He Tosses Out the Germans.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The Associated Press sends out the following under a Boston date: "Bill O'Hara, once a star left fielder of the Toronto International League baseball team, and a former scout for the New York National League club, has been recommended the Military Cross in recognition of his bravery and skill in hurling bombs for the British army on the Somme battle front, according to advices received here today.

When O'Hara played in the International League he was noted for his strong and accurate throwing. Baseball men here say it was a common occurrence for him to head off a too daring base-runner at the plate by a long, quick throw from the outfield. O'Hara, a lieutenant in a Canadian regiment, at the front, is now hurling deadly bombs instead of baseballs. According to word from Toronto, the practice he had in baseball has stood him in good stead while heading a bombing squad."

PLAYERS' FRATERNITY UP IN ARMS AGAIN

Take Issue With Organized Baseball Over Barnstorming.

FULTZ MAKES STATEMENT

Players Have Right to Trade On Their Own Reputation—Tener Differs.

[Canadian Press.] New York, Oct. 24.—The reports from American League headquarters to the effect that the members of the Boston Red Sox, world's champions, and other players enrolled in the league may be fined for participating in so-called barnstorming games after the close of the regular season, has brought forth a vigorous protest from the Baseball Players' Fraternity.

President David L. Fultz stated here today that the fraternity cannot recognize the right of organized baseball to fine its members for such an alleged offense, and further pointed out that the players were acting well within their legal rights in taking part in such games. President Fultz's statement follows:

Within Their Rights. The fraternity cannot recognize the right of organized baseball to the players for taking part in games after the season is over and after their contracts have expired. The players have, of course, no right to represent any club without the consent of its owner, but as long as they trade upon their own personal reputations, they are clearly within their rights. "If the national commission thinks the alleged offence of sufficient importance and that the act would be a wise and dignified one, they have every right to withhold the franchise from any player from the Red Sox, but as far as signing them is concerned, that is an entirely different matter."

Tener's View. President Tener of the National League takes issue with Fultz. Mr. Tener said that in each contract signed by the player there is a clause in which the player agrees not to play after the season without consent of the commission. This clause was inserted, he said, to protect territorial rights of the different clubs.

The National League president declared that the commission has power to fine the players for any such infraction of the rules, but would not say that such players were acting well within their legal rights in taking part in such games. President Fultz's statement follows: "If the national commission thinks the alleged offence of sufficient importance and that the act would be a wise and dignified one, they have every right to withhold the franchise from any player from the Red Sox, but as far as signing them is concerned, that is an entirely different matter."

NEW YORK AND DETROIT TO PLAY SPRING GAMES

New York, Oct. 24.—Something new in exhibition tours was announced today by the management of the New York National League baseball club. After the close of their regular training season in the South, the New York and Detroit clubs will travel through several southern cities for a week or more, playing a game each day. The tour will start at Dallas, Texas, about April 1 and end at Kansas City. The two teams will travel in a special train. Manager McGraw of New York said that he expected such a tour to be more profitable for both clubs than playing minor league teams in the South.

WESTERN GETTING TEAM INTO SHAPE

Art Smith's Pigskin Chasers on Deck at Tecumseh Park.

NEW MEN TRIED OUT

Anxious to Play Against Soldiers in O. R. F. U., But Prefer City League.

All but two of the Western University rugby squad were on deck at Tecumseh Park yesterday afternoon. The boys went at the practice with grim determination, and Coach Arthur Smith was happy last night.

"We will sure spring a surprise on those Gaelic Aggies next time we meet," said Art, "and it will probably be a big one."

New Men Out. Several new men were tried out, and a big husky youth by the name of Colvin, taking his first year in medicine, promises to develop into a genuine man. Colvin was tried out at right scrimmage and proved literally a huge success. McLeary was moved back to quarter, and although green on the job proved that he has the makings of a good quarter-back. This shift enables Art Smith to go back to his old position on the back division. Art was the star half-back of the Junior O. R. F. U. London champions in 1912, and it is a cinch that he will make the London team a formidable aggregation in the next game.

"Bricks" and Kingswood absent. There is a chance that Brickenden will be tried out at flying wing in the next game. "Bricks" and Kingswood were missed at yesterday's workout both are on the crippled list for the time being after the Guelph game.

Two Games a Week. "We will have to play two games a week to get through the schedule, but it can be accomplished before the snow flies," said Dr. Neville. "Our boys learned a lot in the Guelph game, and will be a much stiffer proposition for any team from now on. We have several new recruits, who will make the others hustle to hold their places on the team."

The local collegiate fourteen practiced against the Western, and showed great improvement over their past efforts. Tommy McDonnell has a tidy squad, that should show all to the mercy against Sarnia and some of the other Western Ontario colleges.

SARNIA TEAM ANXIOUS TO TAKE ON PETROLEA

[Special to The Advertiser.] SARNIA, Oct. 23.—Pleased with their victory over Strathroy on Saturday, the Sarnia Collegiate Rugby team is anxiously awaiting the game with Petrolia, to be played in this city on Wednesday afternoon. They hope to hand the Oil Town boys a trouncing. The first game between these two teams resulted in a tie, 6 all, but having practiced faithfully since that date, and their victory over Strathroy makes them feel confident of victory over the Oil Town aggregation.

NO HOCKEY FOR VICTORIA

Victoria, B. C., has been dropped from the Pacific Coast Hockey League. The season will open December 1 with Seattle, Vancouver, Portland and Spokane holding franchises. Twelve games instead of nine will be played this year.

EVERYTHING READY FOR BIG PUBLIC SCHOOL MEET

School Boy Athletes Preparing for Field Day on Friday Afternoon.

All is in readiness for the big public school field day to be held in Tecumseh Park Friday afternoon. It is estimated that over 450 youthful athletes will take part in the afternoon's sports, and keen rivalry exists between the various schools, especially in the relay events. It is a common occurrence to see small boys puffing round and round the schoolyard determined that all the honors will come to their school. There are 25 events on the program.

Interest Among Girls.

The girls, too, are taking great interest in their events, and promise some hair-raising finishes in the dashes. The Petrolia girls defeated the Rectory street school lastes yesterday afternoon in a basket ball game, 19-11, while the Empress avenue school girls won from Laura avenue school, 10-5. The Petrolia team will meet Empress avenue for the championship on field day. In the basketball the girls from Alexandra school will endeavor to beat the Chesley young ladies for the championship of the schools.

YOUTH WILL BE SERVED.

Philadelphia, Oct. 23.—George Chalmers, George McQuillan and "Chief" Bender, veteran pitchers of the local National League baseball club, will be released next season, according to a statement made by Manager Pat Moran. They will be replaced by younger players.

SIR ROBERT BORDEN ISSUES APPEAL FOR NATIONAL SERVICE

Calls Upon Men of Military Age To Enlist.

ALL CAN LEND A HAND Asks Everybody To Place Themselves at Disposition of Country.

OTTAWA, Oct. 23.—Sir Robert Borden tonight issued the following appeal on behalf of national service:
"To the People of Canada:
The world-wide struggle in which our empire is fighting for its rights, its liberties and its very existence, has continued for more than two years. Every effort that could honorably be made on our part to avert war was put forth with the deepest earnestness and sincerity. There was no escape from the contest save in dishonor and ultimate disaster. The wonderful extent and thoroughness of the enemy's long and careful preparation was imperfectly understood at first and the magnitude of the struggle has surpassed all anticipation. Great Britain's first expeditionary force has been increased more than twenty fold, and that of Canada more than twelve fold. The climax of the war is rapidly approaching. The last hundred thousand men that Canada will place in the fighting line may be the deciding factor in the struggle, the issue in which will determine the destiny of this Dominion and of our empire, and of the whole world."
These Who Have Responded.
"The most eloquent tribute would fall to do fitting honor to the youth of Canada who have already rallied so splendidly to the colors and whose heroic valor and glorious achievements have crowned this Dominion with imperishable distinction before the world. Remembering the sacrifice by which that distinction was won, we recall with solemn pride the undying memory of those who have fallen."
"In the history of every people there may come such a challenge to the spirit of its citizens as must be answered in service and devotion if the nation is to have an abiding place in the future. The events of this war bring that challenge today to the manhood of Canada. 370,000 Have Enlisted."
"Since the war began more than 370,000 men have enlisted in this Dominion. Two hundred and fifty-eight thousand have gone overseas and more than 100,000 are now in the battle line. During the first ten months of the present year, the number sent forward will aggregate 141,000. From first January to April 15 of this year the enlistments were at the rate of nearly 1,000 per day. Up to the present our forces have been enlisted and organized more rapidly than in any other war. The Government has provided in Great Britain food and accommodation for the last four months of the number of enlistments has greatly exceeded and having regard to future needs it is necessary to secure a steady flow of men to the front. It is my duty to call upon you to place yourselves at the disposal of your country for such service as they are deemed best fitted to perform."
"And to the women of Canada, whose spirit has been so splendid and so inspiring in this hour of devotion and sacrifice, I bid Godspeed in the manifold works of beneficence in which they are now engaged, and I pray them to aid still more in every field of national service for which they may feel themselves fitted."
"Let us never forget the solemn truth that the nation is not constituted of the living alone. There are those as well who have passed away, and those yet to be born. So this great responsibility comes to us as heirs of the past and trustees of the future. But with quietude before the going to the front, there are some Quebecers among them, some 60 Montrealers, a batch from various parts of Quebec province, while the bulk of the men are from Ontario points and the west. Another lot of over 300 men is expected here Thursday of this week. Following is a list:

To Cure Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness and head noises will be glad to know that this condition can be successfully treated at home by internal remedy that in many instances has effected a complete cure after all else has failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear a watch tick have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from their ear.
Therefore, if you know someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand to them, and you will have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home, and is made as follows:
Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Parmitin (Double Strength) about the size of a pea. Take this home and add to it 1 pint of hot water and 4 oz. of granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.
The first dose should be given to relieve the distressing head noise, to relieve dullness, cloudy thinking, etc., while the hearing rapidly returns, the system is invigorated by the tonic action of the treatment. Loss of smell and mucus dripping in the back of the throat, are other symptoms that show the presence of catarrhal deafness, which are often entirely overcome by this efficacious treatment. Nearly ninety per cent of all ear troubles are said to be directly caused by catarrh, therefore, there must be many people whose hearing can be restored by this simple home treatment.
Every person who is troubled with head noises, catarrhal deafness or mucus in any form, should give this prescription a trial.
Important Note—In ordering Parmitin, always specify that you want Double Strength. Your druggist has it or he can easily get it for you. If not, send the postal note or money order, to the International Laboratories, 74 St. Antoine street, Montreal, Que., Can., and they will supply you.

SCHOOLGIRLS CAN WORK AS FARMERS NEXT YEAR AND GET ACADEMIC CREDIT

TORONTO, Oct. 23.—Girls can work as farmers next year, as boys did this year, and still get their academic standing, according to regulations issued by the department of education today. These regulations make it clear this year that this work must be done on Ontario farms. During 1916 some boys made the mistake of going to harvest on the plains.
The department has for the school year 1916-17 made some amendment to the regulations of January and March, 1916, which provided for the enrollment of young men who were attending the

LOSS OF CONSTANZA IS A SERIOUS BLOW TO THE RUMANIANS

Limits Means of Access of Russ Reinforcements.

GERMANS ARE REJOICING

Von Mackensen Cuts Railway to Bucharest and Advances North.

WILL TABLES TURN.

PARIS, Oct. 23.—The capture of Constanza by the Teutonic allies, although not unexpected, nevertheless puts a damper on the enthusiasm aroused by the continued progress of the Entente Allies on the front in Picardy. French commentators do not unduly exaggerate the importance of the achievement of Field Marshal von Mackensen, whose action up to the present time is considered here as a defensive one in shortening his front so as to hold it better off with fewer men. They point out that the only way he could do this is to advance since, if he fell back, his front would, on the contrary, be lengthened in so far as he succeeded. These observers say also that if he manages to tie up the Russo-Rumanian forces in Dobruja by holding a narrow front slightly south of the railroad, he will not be slow to employ his troops thus released to act in direct relation with the Austro-German army operations in Transylvania, which they assert, is the essential front from which alone Bucharest can be attacked with any chance of decisive success. Long before that, it is believed, Rumania with the help of the Allies, will be in a position to turn the tables upon its enemies. French critics assert this belief seemingly is justified by the gallant defence the Rumanians are maintaining in the passes of the Carpathians. BERLIN, Oct. 23.—Via London.—The Rumanian fort of Constanza, which has been captured by the Germans, the war office announced today. The statement follows: "Notwithstanding torrential rain and sodden ground, the allied (Teutonic) troops in Dobruja, by untiring and quick pursuit and by breaking down isolated resistance, have crossed far beyond the railway line to the east of Murfalau. Constanza has been occupied by the German and Bulgarian troops, exactly eight weeks after the declaration of war by Rumanians. We are approaching Thernavoda." "Naval airplanes land far behind the retreating enemy, destroying two aeroplanes on the ground and returned undamaged." Berlin Rejoicing. AMSTERDAM, via London, Oct. 23.—The Berlin newspapers express profound joy over the capture of Constanza by the Teutonic allies. They point out the significance of the victory, as Constanza is the main port of Rumania for imports for military purposes and especially owing to its important railroad connections. A Disagreeable Blow. LONDON, Oct. 23.—According to the London morning newspapers the German appear to have forced the evacuation of Constanza by cutting the trans-Dobruja railway about 30 miles west of the Black Sea coast. As the Germans make no claim to considerable captures, it is assumed here that the Rumanians made good their retirement. The Times military expert comments thus on the situation: "Dobruja is a separate and not vital theatre, which the Rumanians can afford to lose without great hurt. But the reported loss of Constanza is a disagreeable blow, limiting, as it does, the means of access of Russian reinforcements. It is also a technical defeat, which, coming after the loss of Tortukai and Hermannstadt, necessarily reduced Rumania's strength, as well as that of the Russian and Serbians who took part in the action and must also impair the confidence of the Rumanians in themselves." The Morning Post says: "The Times thinks the loss of Constanza is more serious, if it is true. The only bridge across the Danube between Rumania and the sea is at Thernavoda, and complete possession of the railway and the bridge would open the way to Bucharest." The Daily Mail: "Constanza contained immense stores of petroleum and grain. Whether these have been destroyed is not yet clear, but if not, the enemy has obtained important supplies. The loss of this port will be a serious blow. Rumania is deprived of valuable economic resources and of a short and convenient line of communication between Odessa and Bucharest by way of the Black Sea. Moreover, the repercussions of this event in the Balkans and the middle east will be great." "The Times thinks more military importance will still be attached to the Transylvania side of Rumania's war than to Dobruja. Gen. von Falkenhayn, says the Times, now has a footing on the Rumanian side of at least five passes, and has reached the frontier at most of the others." FIVE NORWEGIAN BOATS SUNK BY SUBMARINES LONDON, Oct. 23.—Lloyd's announcements that the following boats have been sunk, Norwegian steamers Rabbi, 878 tons; Risoy, 1,123 tons; Ul, 1,123 tons; Drafn, and Raftund, Danish steamer Helga, 1,132 tons; schooner Fritzell, the Swedish bark Lenka, and the Greek steamers George M. Embricos, 3,625 tons, and the Aris, 1,794 tons. Twelve of the crew of the Embricos are missing. The boat left Pinosos Ayres on September 17. The Greek steamer Aris was formerly the steamer George Clarkson, and was owned in Syro. The Norwegian steamer Drafn of 774 tons was owned in Drammen.

SLAYER OF MISSIONARIES A JAPANESE RESERVIST

Said To Have Made a Complete Confession of His Crime.

TOKIO, Sept. 22.—(Correspondence of the Association Press).—The alleged murderer of Rev. and Mrs. W. A. F. Campbell, the two Canadian Methodist missionaries who were slain at Karuzawa on July 18, has made a complete confession of his crime, according to an announcement made by the police today. The accused is a Japanese, Hitomi Kawakami by name, who is on the reserve list of the Japanese army, and who, since the commission of the crime, actually returned to the colors and served twenty days as sergeant of an artillery corps at Utsunomiya. Kawakami is a powerful man physically, and he offered desperate resistance to a group of twelve Japanese detectives, who finally cornered him in a house situated in a village, midway between Tokio and Yokohama. After hours of examination he is said to have broken down and confessed. The accused will be taken to the city of Nagano for trial.

ZEPP DROPS BOMB ON DUTCH TERRITORY

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 23, via London.—Dutch newspapers are indignant over the report by the Handelsblad that on Sunday a zeppelin dropped a bomb near Korkum (Gorinchem), 22 miles southeast of Rotterdam. The Nieuws van den Dag says: "If German airship commanders had not displayed supreme contempt for the protests of the Dutch Government, this deplorable incident, which only by accident lacked serious results, would not have occurred."

WOMAN'S BODY AT FALLS.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Oct. 23.—The body of a woman was taken out of the river today near the Maid of the Mist landing on the Canadian side. It is believed to be that of Mrs. H. Haight, who has been missing from her home at East Aurora for two weeks.

Audience Gets Graphic Account of How Ottawa Does Things.

Knocks Obstinate Coughs in a Hurry

A Simple Home-Made Remedy That Gets at the Cause.

Thousands of people normally healthy in every other respect, are annoyed with a persistent hanging-on bronchial cough year after year, disturbing the sleep and making life disagreeable. It's so needless—there's an old home-made remedy that will end such a cough easily and quickly.

Get from any druggist "24 ounces of Pink" (60 cents worth), pour it into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Begin taking it at once. Gradually but surely you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether, thus ending a cough that you never thought would end. It also promptly loosens a dry or tight cough, stops the "brochecough" throat tickle, soothes the irritated membranes that line the throat and bronchial tubes, and relief comes almost immediately. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma there is nothing better. It tastes pleasant and keeps perfectly.

"Pink" is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract combined with gualiac, and is used by millions of people every year for throat and chest colds with splendid results.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "24 ounces of Pink" with full directions and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Finck Company, Toronto, Ont.

DOCTOR TELLS HOW TO STRENGTHEN EYESIGHT 50 PER CENT IN ONE WEEK'S TIME IN MANY INSTANCES

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Philadelphia, Pa.—Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eyestrain or other eye weaknesses? If so, you will be glad to know that according to the principle of this wonderful free prescription, one man says, after trying it, "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read every thing without any glasses, and my eyes do not water any more. It was like a miracle all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time, and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple recipe and prescription. Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of "Pink Optic" tablets. Drop one Non-Optic tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. Drink this liquid three or four times a day. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start, and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take time to say, "I'll try this before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind men have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time."

Note—Another prominent physician who used the above article was submitted, said: "Pink Optic is a very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists, and widely prescribed by them. The manufacturer guarantees it to strengthen weak eyes, and in one week's time in many instances, or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good druggist, and is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for emergency use in almost every family." Standard Drug and W. T. Stone sell it.

Limits Means of Access of Russ Reinforcements.

GERMANS ARE REJOICING

Von Mackensen Cuts Railway to Bucharest and Advances North.

WILL TABLES TURN.

PARIS, Oct. 23.—The capture of Constanza by the Teutonic allies, although not unexpected, nevertheless puts a damper on the enthusiasm aroused by the continued progress of the Entente Allies on the front in Picardy. French commentators do not unduly exaggerate the importance of the achievement of Field Marshal von Mackensen, whose action up to the present time is considered here as a defensive one in shortening his front so as to hold it better off with fewer men. They point out that the only way he could do this is to advance since, if he fell back, his front would, on the contrary, be lengthened in so far as he succeeded. These observers say also that if he manages to tie up the Russo-Rumanian forces in Dobruja by holding a narrow front slightly south of the railroad, he will not be slow to employ his troops thus released to act in direct relation with the Austro-German army operations in Transylvania, which they assert, is the essential front from which alone Bucharest can be attacked with any chance of decisive success. Long before that, it is believed, Rumania with the help of the Allies, will be in a position to turn the tables upon its enemies. French critics assert this belief seemingly is justified by the gallant defence the Rumanians are maintaining in the passes of the Carpathians. BERLIN, Oct. 23.—Via London.—The Rumanian fort of Constanza, which has been captured by the Germans, the war office announced today. The statement follows: "Notwithstanding torrential rain and sodden ground, the allied (Teutonic) troops in Dobruja, by untiring and quick pursuit and by breaking down isolated resistance, have crossed far beyond the railway line to the east of Murfalau. Constanza has been occupied by the German and Bulgarian troops, exactly eight weeks after the declaration of war by Rumanians. We are approaching Thernavoda." "Naval airplanes land far behind the retreating enemy, destroying two aeroplanes on the ground and returned undamaged." Berlin Rejoicing. AMSTERDAM, via London, Oct. 23.—The Berlin newspapers express profound joy over the capture of Constanza by the Teutonic allies. They point out the significance of the victory, as Constanza is the main port of Rumania for imports for military purposes and especially owing to its important railroad connections. A Disagreeable Blow. LONDON, Oct. 23.—According to the London morning newspapers the German appear to have forced the evacuation of Constanza by cutting the trans-Dobruja railway about 30 miles west of the Black Sea coast. As the Germans make no claim to considerable captures, it is assumed here that the Rumanians made good their retirement. The Times military expert comments thus on the situation: "Dobruja is a separate and not vital theatre, which the Rumanians can afford to lose without great hurt. But the reported loss of Constanza is a disagreeable blow, limiting, as it does, the means of access of Russian reinforcements. It is also a technical defeat, which, coming after the loss of Tortukai and Hermannstadt, necessarily reduced Rumania's strength, as well as that of the Russian and Serbians who took part in the action and must also impair the confidence of the Rumanians in themselves." The Morning Post says: "The Times thinks the loss of Constanza is more serious, if it is true. The only bridge across the Danube between Rumania and the sea is at Thernavoda, and complete possession of the railway and the bridge would open the way to Bucharest." The Daily Mail: "Constanza contained immense stores of petroleum and grain. Whether these have been destroyed is not yet clear, but if not, the enemy has obtained important supplies. The loss of this port will be a serious blow. Rumania is deprived of valuable economic resources and of a short and convenient line of communication between Odessa and Bucharest by way of the Black Sea. Moreover, the repercussions of this event in the Balkans and the middle east will be great." "The Times thinks more military importance will still be attached to the Transylvania side of Rumania's war than to Dobruja. Gen. von Falkenhayn, says the Times, now has a footing on the Rumanian side of at least five passes, and has reached the frontier at most of the others." FIVE NORWEGIAN BOATS SUNK BY SUBMARINES LONDON, Oct. 23.—Lloyd's announcements that the following boats have been sunk, Norwegian steamers Rabbi, 878 tons; Risoy, 1,123 tons; Ul, 1,123 tons; Drafn, and Raftund, Danish steamer Helga, 1,132 tons; schooner Fritzell, the Swedish bark Lenka, and the Greek steamers George M. Embricos, 3,625 tons, and the Aris, 1,794 tons. Twelve of the crew of the Embricos are missing. The boat left Pinosos Ayres on September 17. The Greek steamer Aris was formerly the steamer George Clarkson, and was owned in Syro. The Norwegian steamer Drafn of 774 tons was owned in Drammen.

FOR WHOLE DOMINION

Thinks Principles of Insurance Should Be Taught in Schools.

The members of the Life Underwriters' Association of the city tendered a banquet in the grill-room at the Tecumseh House last evening to W. Burt Morgan of Vancouver, president of the Dominion Underwriters' Association. The event was the first official visit of the president to the city.

Vivian Reeve acted in the capacity of toastmaster and introduced first T. B. Parkinson. Mr. Parkinson outlined in detail the work accomplished by the recent convention at Hamilton. He spoke of the advantage that had resulted since the inception of the association ten years ago and made a plea for greater co-operation among the members to increase the membership.

Good Fellowship. Mr. Morgan spoke upon the spirit of good fellowship that prevailed among insurance men.

He referred to changed conditions that had arisen since the formation of the Dominion association ten years ago.

He pointed out the advisability of greater numbers and made an earnest plea that the members work for greater membership.

He thought that the greatest problem that the association had to solve today was the submission to the provincial parliaments the matter of the standardization of the provincial insurance laws.

For Whole Dominion. He hoped that the time was not far distant when the same law that affected one province would affect all, and that the legislation relative to insurance would be Dominion-wide, instead of provincial-wide, as at present.

He advocated that the Dominion association lay before the educators of the country the question of including in the school curricula the teaching of the fundamental principles of life insurance, in order that it should be better understood than it is at present.

He had interviewed several university professors and all had concurred with him in the idea.

Those present at the banquet were: Vivian Reeve, J. Burt Morgan, T. B. Parkinson, George McElroy, R. P. Pearce, A. P. O'Rourke, C. E. German, Joseph Vivian, G. P. Hooper, D. G. Wheeler, J. D. ASKS CITY TO RETURN FINE THAT WAS COLLECTED

Government Wants $450 That Came From Police Court.

Inspector J. E. Keenleyside, license inspector for the county of Middlesex, on behalf of the Provincial Government, asked for the return of $450, the fine paid by J. McIntyre some time ago for infringements of the prohibition act.

The board of control at a meeting yesterday afternoon decided to confer with City Solicitor Meredith and P. M. Judd on the matter. McIntyre was fined in the police court here, and the money was paid over to the city. The government wants it.

Hon. T. W. Crothers, minister of labor, notified the board that he would give the suggestions of the council, relative to the high cost of living his closest attention.

The express companies informed the board that they would not make local deliveries to the militia camps. As the soldiers are now quartered in Queen's Park, within the limits of the city, the order means nothing and was filed.

The agreement between the township of Westminster and the city, relative to a joint sewer on High street, was approved of, and the work will commence shortly.

The Spring of Perpetual Youth

was what the Spanish explorer sought in Florida. Youth cannot be perpetuated, but with health a man or woman can retain youthful looks till the near approach of actual old age. If a woman is dragging wearily along oppressed by some woman's ailment she may expect a return of youthful beauty and vivacity by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

BURNING OF LEAVES BYLAW RIDICULOUS, ASSERTS A CITIZEN

Points to Mess Left on City's Boulevards.

LEAVES BLOCK GUTTERS

Also Kill Out Grass When Left to Rot Over Winter.

"Some of the rules London aldermen make would hardly do credit to the intelligence of a grown-up hen," said a citizen the other day.

"What one for example?" he was asked. "Well take the rule governing the burning of leaves on the street. That strip of paper would be pointing towards the boulevard, 'Is city property. I would rake the leaves off it and do away with them if I could burn them on our rear yards and my neighbors. But we are not going to carry them in and burn them on our lawns. See the result. The strip of road along the curb is covered with leaves. The leaves are constantly blowing over, lying on the curb and margin, keeping them wet, softening the street and choking the sewer ports. The heat from large piles of burning leaves might damage paved streets, but if it has any effect on the others, it is beneficial. If the aldermen exercised a little common sense in the matter the street services would now be having the voluntary assistance of hundreds or thousands of citizens cleaning up the leaf refuse in a satisfactory manner."

"If the leaves lie and rot on the boulevards, will they not benefit the grass?" was the next question.

"One of the aldermen said that such is the effect—another instance of hen-sense. A layer of rotting leaves mulches the trees, but kills out the grass. If you want fine lawns you must fertilize them in some other way than by allowing a blanket of leaves to decay over them. Every consideration that I can think of is in favor of encouraging the citizens to burn the household leaves on unpaved streets, unless they wish to use them for mulching their perennial borders or shrubberies."

THREE LONDONERS OFF TO MASONIC CONVENTION

Scottish Rites From All Over Dominion Gathering at Montreal.

The twenty-fourth annual meeting of the imperial council of the Canadian jurisdiction, Scottish Rites Masons Association, meets at Montreal, October 25 and 26. William Allen Young, Thomas Rowe and T. G. Davis of this city leave this afternoon at 4:25 to join a party of others from Toronto on their way to the convention.

The present sovereign, Grand Commander Ballen of Toronto, will, it is expected, be re-elected.

The council will be attended by Judge Moore, grand commander of the southern jurisdiction, whose headquarters are at the Temple, Washington, D.C.

The Scottish Rites Temple is probably the most beautiful structure of its kind in the world and cost over $2,000,000. It was opened last October, when there were representatives of 32,000 from almost every part of the continent.

Last year $4,000 was given for Belgian relief and $2,000 for Red Cross, and it is likely that these gifts will be duplicated this year.

TEMPERANCE SECRETARY IS BEREFT OF FATHER

Rev. E. G. Powell Receives Sad News From Sarnia.

[Special to The Advertiser.] CLINTON, Oct. 23.—Rev. E. G. Powell, the temperance secretary for Huron County, has received word of the death of his father, which occurred at the hospital in Sarnia.

The wife of W. J. Cooper was buried yesterday in the Clinton Cemetery. Mr. Cooper, of town and Amos, was the father of the late George Cooper of town and Amos, and Fred of Toronto are sons.

Rev. George Harris, the representative of the Godesch district Methodist young people, conducted services in Wesley and Ontario Street Churches Sunday, and also at Varna in the afternoon.

In his addresses he gave a great deal of valuable information regarding his work in West China and quoted the new president of China, as having said, in answer to the question: "What do you think is the greatest need of your country?" We need Christianity more than anything else.

He said the whole life of the Chinese people is a struggle of one against the other, as they have not learned the great need of co-operation and knew nothing about the spirit of brotherhood.

Just recently the foreign missionary had been asked to act as a mediator between two factions of the community upon a matter of public interest, and it was gratifying to know that the best friends of the missionary were the officials and the better class of citizens.

The prejudice against the "foreign devil" was rapidly disappearing, and the great need of their work in China was for more helpers.

Mr. Harris will visit all the churches of this district before returning to his work in China.

CITY TO BORROW HALF A MILLION FOR FOUR MONTHS

Will Hypothecate $560,000 Debentures to Cover Loan.

The city council decided last night to borrow $500,000 from A. E. Ames & Co., Toronto, for four months at 4 3/8 per cent discount.

To cover this loan, debentures amounting to $560,000, will have to be hypothecated. The debentures so hypothecated will be $165,000 for the technical school, $50,000 hydro debentures, $35,000 waterworks debentures, $170,000 storm-sewer debentures, and $140,000 London and Port Stanley debentures.

Controller Gammage explained that this was not an opportune time to sell city debentures. There were $2,000,000 of debentures on the market, the majority being hypothecated, and money borrowed on them.

The council thought the arrangement a satisfactory one.

It was decided to allow the board of control and the board of works to settle the differences between the city and the Grand Trunk Railway over the location of the tower for the watchman at Talbot street. The aldermen at a special session last night came to the conclusion that the smaller committee could more satisfactorily adjust matters.

The company wants to locate it on city property between the curb and walk. It is thought that this would be the most advantageous location and would make the crossing safe.

Ald. Palmer stated the ground that the city was giving the company something to its advantage, and some return should be made. He wanted the crossings through the city made more passable for vehicular traffic.

The special committee will meet the company's representatives today.

Improving Highways. The city council will co-operate with the London Motor League and the municipalities between this city and Windsor in having the Government improve the highway. At the meeting of the council last night Controller Rose and Mayor Stevenson called attention to the necessity of joint action.

POTATOES ARE SCARCE AROUND INGERSOLL

Large Quantities of Tubers Are Being Imported This Year.

[Special to The Advertiser.] INGERSOLL, Oct. 23.—The scarcity of potatoes in the surrounding districts, where in former years the crop have been abundant, is evidenced by the large quantities of imported ones that are being bought by the farmers. Several car lots have been brought in recently from the west, and the Martine Province, and the demand continues keen. The prices have ranged from $1.70 to $1.85 per bag.

At Guelph occurred today of Charlotte Alice Titus, wife of Emmerson Titus, deceased, who was only 28 years of age, had been ill for some time.

The name of Pte. Frank T. Brown appeared in today's casualty list. Pte. Brown is well known in Ingersoll and vicinity, having resided only two miles south of here. He enlisted with the 7th Battalion. A private message from Ottawa received by Mrs. Brown was to the effect that her husband, who has been in the hospital for some time, was able to receive visitors, which fact is taken to indicate that he is improving.

For being intoxicated on the night of September 16, a few hours after provincial prohibition, went in effect, a local man was today fined $20 and costs.
