BRITISH COMMONS JAMMED TO THE DOORS HEARS MR. BALFOUR REFUSE TO RESIGN

The Premier Quotes Former Governments' Actions to Back Up Stand—International Situation Too Acute Says Unionist Journal.

LONDON, JULY 24, 2:33 P.M.—THE GOVERNMENT HAS NO INTENTION OF RESIGNING IN CONSEQUENCE OF THURSDAY'S ADVERSE VOTE. THIS WAS THE GIST OF PREMIER BALFOUR'S ANTICIPATED STATEMENT IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS THIS AFTERNOON. ALTHOUGH IT HAD BEEN GENERALLY RECOGNIZED THAT SUCH WOULD BE THE DECISION OF THE PREMIER, THERE WAS FEVERISH EAGERNESS ON ALL SIDES TO HEAR THE EXACT TERMS OF HIS STATEMENT. THE HOUSE WAS LITERALLY PACKED. EVERY GALLERY AVAILABLE TO THE PEERS AND THE PUBLIC WAS CROWDED, AND THERE HAD NOT BEEN SUCH AN ATTENDANCE OF MEMBERS DURING THE LIFE OF THE PRESENT PARLIAMENT.

Mr. Balfour, who was heartily cheered by his supporters on rising, somewhat tried the patience of his hearers by a long digression on how former administrations had ignored defeats similar to that of Thursday. He declared that such incidents had never been regarded as ground for resignation or dissolution, and he announced that the Government did not propose either to resign or dissolve Parliament because of Thursday's occurrences.

The Premier considered that it would be a grave evil if the tenure of ministers was made dependent on such votes as that of Thursday. He hoped the practice would never prevail of allowing a government, united in itself, and possessing the confidence of the majority of the House, to abandon its post merely in consequence of such a vote.

Mr. Balfour sat down without referring to the remaining business of the session, and Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the Liberal leader, immediately asked for an opportunity to discuss the Premier's statement. The Opposition, he said, did not propose to proceed with Sir Edward Grey's proposed vote of censure, which obviously was superseded by the occurrence of Thursday. They wanted to discuss the conduct of the Government regarding the events of last week.

John Redmond, the leader of the Irish Nationalists, took a similar line, and the heated tone of both leaders indicated that the Government will have to face the most determined opposition during the balance of the session. Ultimately, by arrangement with Mr. Balfour, the chief Government whip, Sir Alexander Acland-Hood, formally moved the adjournment, and Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman opened the debate with a stirring attack on the Government.

London, July 23.—It is an open secret that some Liberal leaders question the wisdom of the form given to the Anglo-French entente, especially the impression given to Germany that the entente is designed to isolate her in Europe. It is equally well known that serious Liberal objections have been raised to the proposal to enlarge the Anglo-Japanese alliance into something like an offensive and defensive compact.

The Unionist journals point to the delicacy of the negotiations now passing between Tokio and London as one reason why it is imperative that Mr. Balfour should not resign at the present moment. It is quite conceivable that the King may invite the Liberal leaders to their aid, and Mr. Balfour would be towards Japan in the event of their accession to office. Mr. Balfour himself explains to his friends that he has no personal desire for clinging to office, but would gladly walk out if he could be assured that the Liberals would not make havoc with the Anglo-French entente and the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

The Radicals smile cynically. Foreign affairs, they allege, would be as safe in Liberal as in Tory hands. The Tory record in South Africa and elsewhere is not such as to justify these superior airs. If, moreover, Mr. Balfour is to be defeated, he would find nothing better than to be defeated by the Irish.

for he all alone has been persuaded that his best chance with the British electorate is in opposition to the old Irish demands, including Home Rule. He believes that such demands upon the Liberal ministry will prove disquieting to the Roseberys and the Unionist anti-Chamberlainites.

Looking at the situation all round, the prospects are that Mr. Balfour now will recognize that it would be impossible to go through another session, and therefore will wind up the present session speedily with non-contentious business and dissolve in October.

The Spectator, anxious to disabuse the public mind as to the truth of the British thirder for German blood, says: "There is no hatred here for the Germans as a people, but rather admiration and respect. There is no desire for themselves either a navy, a colony, or a worldwide trade. The British people never could consent to attack any power for whatever reason, and the Emperor, the burglar, and the governing classes of the German Empire make little secret of their hatred for the British people, and popular in Europe. They regard the self-governing communities of Great Britain and France as offenses against the dynastic principle, and had examples in monarchical states. Hence we, and also the French, are coming to see that the free world is alienating itself from the Emperor, and must stand together or else their dearest interests will suffer."

Especially skeptical is the Spectator as to the German professor's hope that Germany will succeed in alienating America from sympathy with England, and induce her to join a coalition to destroy the British Empire as a mad dog should be destroyed.

The Baptist World Congress here has been a great success. The secretary says that the two outstanding features of the meeting were the eloquence of the beloved president of the congress, for the recital of the Apostles' Creed at the opening, and the gathering of the formation of an alliance, itself a world-wide membership of 6,000,000, one result of which is hoped, will be the reunion of the divided American Baptists for common purposes of action.

GREAT QUAKES.

New York, July 24.—A Vienna dispatch to the World says that one of the most violent earthquakes ever known was indicated by the seismographs of the hydrographic instruments at Laibach and Pola yesterday. Between 3:55 and 4:17 a.m. the instruments showed extraordinary movements in waves, signifying earthquake catastrophe at a distance of 6,000 kilometers (about 3,700 miles).

At Laibach the instruments were still vibrating. The distance indicated by the seismographs would locate the earthquake at a strong point (most probable point) in mid-Atlantic or in the Arctic regions, or in South Africa.

THE WAR IN ARABIA

Turkish Regulars Make Headway Toward Recapture of Sanaa.

Hodeida, Yemen Province, Turkish Arabia, July 24.—The Turks are meeting with some success against the insurgents at Sanaa, the chief city of Yemen Province. Operations to recover possession of that city commenced July 17 from three directions. Marshal Ahmed Fezi Pasha, at the head of the Arabian battalions, dislodged the rebels from a strong position near Menakha, inflicting severe losses on them.

OVERBOARD IN A SCUFFLE

Two Sailors, Chums, Drowned from Ship in Halifax Harbor.

Halifax, July 23.—Two sailors on the Norwegian bark "Hugo," lying at the railway terminal wharves, were drowned on Saturday in a peculiar way. They were Theodore Johnson, of Christiania, and Andrew Parn, of Chile. They were chums and were on shore leave, on Saturday afternoon. Returning to their vessel late they went to their quarters. About midnight they came up on deck again and got into an altercation, a scuffle ensuing. They evidently fell or pushed one another overboard. The crew were aroused by the noise of the struggle, but were unable to save the men. Both bodies have been recovered.

ANARCHISTS IN CONVENTION

Doom European Rulers

made, a militant programme being advocated, and it is said to have been decided to proceed energetically against European rulers. The Spaniards were the most vehement and said they were in daily communication with towns in the neighborhood of San Sebastian and that their comrades at Hendaye, Irun and Fontarabie were awaiting the occasion for the daily promenades of King Alfonso to make an attempt against him.

HAD WAR ORDER READY

Call of Men to Regiments Given Out by Mistake in France.

Paris, July 24.—The quiet little village of Ville Saint Jacques, near Moret-sur-Loing, experienced the other day all the poignant anguish of the outbreak of war. It was midday and the men were at work in the fields, when suddenly the village drum began to beat and the churchbells rang. People ran from all sides and assembled in the principal squares.

Tomorrow—Fair and Cool.

Sun rises, 4:58 a.m. Moon sets, 12:50 a.m. Sun sets, 7:59 p.m. Moon sets, 12:53 p.m.

Toronto, July 23-3 p.m.

Showers have occurred today in Ontario. Elsewhere in the Dominion the weather has been fine. The temperature has been highest, exceeding 80° in Western Ontario and Southern Alberta.

Minimum and maximum temperatures: Victoria, 59-74; Vancouver, 50-51; Calgary, 52-72; Edmonton, 54-78; Winnipeg, 48-70; Port Arthur, 50-60; Parry Sound, 48-73; Toronto, 63-82; Ottawa, 58-72; Montreal, 58-78; Quebec, 59-74; Halifax, 46-72.

There is a 50 horse-power motor at each end, four propellers and two aéroplanes at the bows. The total weight is 64 tons. Barton's son, a boy of 14, was among the crew.

A forty mile an hour wind delayed the start, but the airship rose gracefully at 5:15 o'clock.

The ascent was only a partial success. Dr. Barton managed to make several circles, but a strong wind rendered the steering erratic. Finding it impossible to descend at the spot whence he had ascended, Barton steered the airship to the eastward with the wind, and landed safely at Farnham.

Victims of the Auto.

Chicago, July 24.—The Tribune today says: Seven persons killed and 54 injured in the recent made in this year by the automobilists in Chicago. Although the year is but little more than half over, the figures show an appalling increase over the year's record of one killed and 73 injured.

Windsor's Weddings.

Windsor, July 24.—Windsor retains its reputation as a place for marriages. Clerk Lister's figures showing 538 marriages for the six months ending June 30, with 130 births and 114 deaths. A good proportion of the would-be married couples come from the United States side.

Toughs Terrorize Town.

St. Petersburg, July 24.—Telegrams from Nizhni Novgorod say that the town was for five hours yesterday in the hands of thousands of roughs who murdered and attacked every respectable person they met in the streets. Numbers of persons were killed or injured, the rioters breaking into houses in

BOMB KILLED 24

Attempt to Assassinate Sultan Deadly to Those About Him.

Constantinople, July 23.—The commission appointed to inquire into the attempt on the life of the Sultan has ascertained that the explosion of the bomb caused the death of 24 persons and wounded 57. In addition, 55 horses were injured. The preliminary investigation tends to show that the outrage was committed by two Hungarians.

LAST HONORS TO DEAD

Forty-Seven Sailors of the Bennington Laid to Rest.

San Diego, Cal., July 23.—Forty-seven of the gunboat Bennington's dead were buried today in a common grave in the little military cemetery on the crest of the promontory of Loma, high above the waters of San Diego Bay on the one side, and within sound of the booming surf of the Pacific on the other. Without the crash of drum or the sound of brass, without pomp or parade, yet with simple impressive-ness, all honor was paid the nation's dead.

TEST OF NEW OATS

Harvesting Now Under Way at the Central Experimental Farm.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Ont., July 24.—Harvesting has been started on the Central Experimental Farm. Some six-rowed barley, oats, and spring wheat have already been harvested. Two new kinds of oats, the Daubener, from Western Ontario, and the Gloia, from Finland, are now under test and promise to be of value to farmers in northern districts requiring an early ripening variety.

A REVOLT THAT FAILED

Folk of Buenos Ayres and Rosario, Brazil, Given a Scarce.

New York, July 24.—Rumors are being circulated about a threatened revolutionary outbreak at Buenos Ayres and Rosario, says a Herald dispatch from the former city. Upon warning received from Rosario by the Minister of War troops were held in readiness throughout Saturday night and other precautionary measures adopted, but no untoward incident occurred, and it is believed the promoters of the movement have weakened.

LIGHTNING HITS OIL TANKS; FLAMING FLUID KILLS MANY

Eleven Big Tanks, Holding Millions of Barrels, Destroyed in Texan Fields—Hundreds Homeless.

Humble, Tex., July 24.—Covering an area of three-quarters of a mile square, with a great canopy of smoke covering two miles, the oil tanks of the Texas company boiled and bubbled under the great heat of burning oil today. When the fire can be extinguished is problematical. Certainly not until it has burned all of the oil in the eleven big tanks, which held 2,500,000 barrels when lightning struck them Sunday afternoon. It is now known that five negro workmen perished. There are hundreds of homeless people, many of them only awaiting a chance to go to Houston for shelter. They were living in tents and shacks in the oil field and fled for their lives to the town. Their belongings have been destroyed by the fire, which runs out toward the oil field, although it has not yet been communicated to any of the derricks or wells. During the whole of the night there was a heavy down-pour of rain and this covered the ground with a sheet of water coated with a thick film of oil.

Shortly after the big tank, which was struck by lightning, began to blaze, 200 workmen with 75 miles, were hurried to the place to throw up earthen embankments to confine the fire to the tank where it originated. Suddenly the fire gave an upheaval, bubbled and lifted a great mass of the burning fluid bodily from the tank and the fire was communicated to three other tanks.

The burning oil caught the men and mules and hemmed them in. There was a wild scramble for safety, men dropping their scrapers and reins. Some of them mounted mules and escaped, but at least forty mules balked and were burned to death. Five negroes were seen to go down and it is not believed they could have escaped. While all of the men have not been accounted for, these five are all that are known to have perished.

At 4 o'clock this morning fire broke out in the steel tanks of the Texas company at the pumping station, a mile from the original fire. What damage was done cannot be ascertained yet, it being impossible to reach that part of the field.

ARGUMENT ENDS IN FATAL FIGHT

Swedes Discuss Norway's Secession, Row Follows and Two Are Dying.

New York, July 24.—Two men dying and a third seriously wounded, was the outcome of an argument in Brooklyn early today between four Swedes about the secession of Norway from Sweden. The men who are dying in a hospital are: Karl Anderson and John Tromler. Ludweg Thegel was seriously hurt. Victor Linquist was captured after a chase by policemen who pursued him in a trolley car. He is charged with having done the shooting.

As learned by the police, the men, all intimate friends, met for dinner in a hotel. After a quiet evening an argument about the proper course to be taken by their country in the present crisis found Linquist taking one side and the three against him. The talk became bitter and was continuing as they left the house to go to a terry nearby. Suddenly, it is alleged, Linquist turned on his countrymen and the shooting began. The prisoner strenuously denied the charge when he was locked up pending a hearing.

Flies 128 Miles an Hour.

Paris, July 24.—In connection with the speed in the pigeon flying contest in France, an Antwerp financier had tested the speed of the swallow with a remarkable result. He captured one nesting under his roof and sent it to Campmeire, where it was placed among the pigeons. It flew off at 7:15 and reached its nest at 8:22. The bird traveled at the rate of 128 1/2 miles an hour. The best time made by the pigeons was 35 1/2 miles an hour.

International Cricket.

Philadelphia, July 24.—The match between the Marylebone Cricket Club of London, and the Gentlemen of Philadelphia, which was interrupted on Saturday by rain, was continued today on the grounds of the Germantown Cricket Club at Manheim. When stumps were drawn on Saturday the home eleven had scored 88 runs for the loss of four wickets. The weather today was clear, but the wicket was spongy.

KAISER AND CZAR MEET IN THE BALTIC; LATTER URGED TO GIVE RUSSIA REFORMS

Emperor Nicholas, in Private Yacht, Has Rendezvous With the War Lord on Lonely Island—Peace Conference Will Be Discussed.

Berlin, July 24, 1:06 p.m.—The foreign office here is advised that a meeting between Emperor William and Emperor Nicholas took place early today off the Swedish coast near the island of Bojorkoe. Emperor Nicholas wrote to Emperor William several days ago that if during the latter's yachting in the Baltic he should approach the Russian shore he (Emperor Nicholas) would be pleased to meet him. The German Emperor replied that he would be glad to cruise to any convenient point, and the island of Bojorkoe was suggested. It was understood that the conversation was to be entirely personal and intimate, and therefore no minister from either Government was present, although the Russian Minister of Marine is in Emperor Nicholas' suite. The meeting is a sequence to the correspondence that has been going on between the two emperors concerning peace, in which Emperor William urged Emperor Nicholas to take steps toward peace. Emperor William was then co-operating with President Roosevelt in seeking to bring the belligerents to a discussion of the terms of peace, and in the present meeting the Associated Press is authoritatively informed Emperor William will continue to advise ask for his further views, and it would be very natural that Emperor Nicholas should do so as a development of the correspondence which has already taken place.

Emperor William went to the meeting, as the Associated Press is officially informed, prepared to say, if he were asked, that he thought Emperor Nicholas could attain a full understanding and reconciliation with the disappointed portions of his people only through reforms. The German Government is interested in having the neighboring country peaceful and prosperous, for it is toward the Russian Empire that Germany's manufacturers look for great expansion in the future. The German Emperor is most reluctant to have either the Russians or others think that he is volunteering suggestions regarding the international affairs of Russia. He is not doing so, but will only give his personal views on their being asked for.

Emperor William has the fullest information regarding the Russian situation and may be able to give Emperor Nicholas statements of fact and deductions from them that are unknown to the Russian Emperor.

As far as the rumors in other capitals that a scheme is afoot to cap-

Russia, moral support against Japan in the negotiations soon to be opened at Portsmouth, N. H., concern Germany, they are denied explicitly. Germany's policy of non-interference, it is often declared, remains the same.

Diplomacy Disconcerted.

St. Petersburg, July 23.—Midnight—On the eve of the peace conference, and with a suddenness already disconcerting to diplomatic circles, the Emperor left Petrohof today on board the Imperial yacht Polar Star for a conference with Emperor William, who is cruising on the Hohenzollern in Finnish waters. The first interview of the sovereigns was expected to take place this evening off the Finnish port of Borgo, at the mouth of the Gulf of Finland, near Helsinki.

This will be followed by another interview tomorrow, after which Emperor Nicholas will return to St. Petersburg and Emperor William will continue his cruise. The Emperor is accompanied by his brother, Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovich, and a considerable suite, including Count Benckendorff, marshal of the court; General Baron Fredericks, Minister of the Imperial House; Count Heyden, chief of the imperial chancelleries; Admiral Birlikoff, Minister of Marine; Captain von Essen, who commanded the battleship Sevastopol during the siege of Port Arthur; Cap-

AS FROM DEAD HUSBAND TURNS UP

A Detroit Man Wakes Up in Duluth After a Three Months' Wandering.

"Duluth, Minn., July 23.—Dear Susie, — I have waked up here. How did it happen? When did I leave? Are you well? I am waiting for an answer.—W. H. Butcher."

Like a message from the dead, the foregoing telegram came to Mrs. William H. Butcher at 9:30 o'clock last night, and solved the mystery which has surrounded the disappearance of Butcher over three months ago.

The uncertainty which has worked upon the woman during the months that she has wondered whether husband was dead or alive removed, Mrs. Butcher yielded to the impulses of nature, and as the tears fell in torrents, gave up the paroxysms of joy, which racked her body and left her prostrated.

Mrs. Butcher had almost given up all hope of ever hearing from her husband. For three months she has searched far and near for him. While the police of dozens of cities have been called upon to aid in the quest.

Butcher left his restaurant at 129 Michigan avenue, known as the Detroit lunch room, on the morning of April 17, last. He arose early, telling his wife that he had a hard day's work ahead and that he must hurry to the restaurant. This was the last Mrs. Butcher saw of her husband.

At the time of his disappearance Mr. Butcher had in his possession a large amount of money, variously estimated at from $300 to $500. He also had several diamonds upon his person.

Butcher's disappearance was as complete as though the earth had opened and swallowed him. He was completely lost to the sight of those who knew him well, and all efforts to find any traces of him ended in failure. About three weeks ago Mrs. Butcher received information from Duluth, stating that a man who knew Butcher had seen him in that city. The report was investigated, but gave no result. Prior to that, it was thought that a man who was killed in Indiana was Butcher.

Battle On in the Far East; A Fight for Tumen Pass

London, Monday, July 23.—A news agency dispatch says that a desperate fight for the possession of Tumen Pass is progressing. Thirty thousand Japanese under Gen. Hasegawa are impetuously attacking the Russians. Four bayonet charges have been already repulsed with terrible slaughter. The Russians are still stubbornly holding their ground. Before the engagement became general the Japanese attacked a Russian position, fifteen miles below Kolkond at 9 o'clock last night. The Russians held them at bay until midnight, when they were forced to fall back on the main body. They retired in good order, saving all their guns, and losing, so far as known, thirteen

GYPSIES CONFESS TO CANNIBALISM

Band Say They Have Murdered Many Children—To Be Executed.

Budapest, July 24.—The twenty or more gypsies arrested a few days ago at Jaszereny on suspicion of kidnapping have all confessed to having killed eighteen children, and to having eaten their bodies. It is probable all will be sentenced to death. The police of Jaszereny had looked on the lookout for this very band of gypsies, as reports had reached them from all over Hungary that many children had been kidnapped. A minute search of the band's encampment failed to reveal any child, and it was then that the horrible truth dawned on the officials. A closer search disclosed the body of a child cut to pieces, and after the arrest of the band a full confession was obtained from the leaders.

Orilla, July 24.—About 5.50 last evening a freight train on the Midland division of the G. T. R. was wrecked a mile east of Atherley Junction. Two cows belonging to Mr. W. H. Whitney caused the wreck. The engine was derailed and badly broken. The rails were twisted and the ties torn up. The train crew jumped and escaped injury.

Another Chance for Patrick.

New York, July 24.—Justice O'Brien of the court of appeals, has granted an order staying the execution of Lawyer Albert F. Patrick, convicted of the murder of aged William M. HAS JOHN HOUSER BEEN MURDERED?

Toronto Police Have Mystery on Their Hands.

RELATION OF SWISS PRESIDENT

Known That a Large Sum of Money Was About to Arrive for Him When He Disappears.

Toronto, July 23.—Perhaps John P. Houser, cousin of President M. Ruchet of the Confederation of Switzerland, was murdered when he came to Toronto from Hamilton on July 1. He came and nothing has since been heard of him. A day or two after he left Hamilton a draft for $5,000, representing a remittance of 30,000 francs from his Swiss relative, arrived for him at the home of his friends in Bartonville, five miles from Hamilton. The money is in the Bank of Montreal branch at Hamilton, and Houser's friends are overwhelmed with anxiety. He lived at Bartonville with Mr. and Mrs. George Pickering, well-to-do market gardeners, for the past two years. They knew he was expecting a large sum of money, and it was to visit relatives of Mrs. Pickering that Houser came to Toronto on the holiday.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Pickering came on a detective headquarters at the city hall to ask about Houser. Her story of his disappearance was taken up by Deputy Clerk Stark and Sergeant Reburn, who, after a search, found and it is so full of interest that every effort will be made to clear up the mystery.

Mrs. Pickering is a kind-faced lady, much worried over Houser's disappearance. She can't understand it because she knew that money was coming to him and if he was able to have it would have been in Hamilton to receive it when it came. Not that he needed money, for he had a little put away—quite enough for all his needs, but last October he went east to Canada where he had a lady love, and his intention was to wed her. But something hampered his arrangements. The wedding did not come off and he returned to Bartonville.

From what can be learned of Houser's history he is a splendid fellow, of ideal habits, good-looking, and a good liver. Three years ago, when he came from somewhere to the neighborhood of Galtville, he got employment with Mr. Little, a farmer, and was sent to that district. Mr. Little's daughter was schoolmarm and while Houser was in the house for seven years an attachment grew between them, and some time ago Houser's reason for leaving that district is not known. Perhaps it was a quarrel, but he went back again a few months ago prepared to lead a bride to the altar.

There was some dissatisfaction in the little home over the arrangement of a marriage portion from the bride's father. He was willing to give the farm to his daughter, but there were some things attached to it and Houser and the old man could not see eye to eye with it. This may or may not be true but it is that Houser returned to his little garden home in Bartonville not dowryless but with a small sum of money to be entirely independent of any generosity of his bride's people. He never said much about matrimony, but after his return from Galtville, he was hourly expecting a large sum of money just before the day he came to Toronto.

He is past life's meridian—51 years last birthday, has a mild complexion, clean-shaven, slim build, about 5 feet 8 inches high, has gray hair, inclined to be a bit curly and parted in the center, and wore a plaid tie and a fedora. He was an intelligent man with a good knowledge of the English language. His education was good, his cousin was the president of the Swiss Republic, who was married to the daughter of an ex-president of the Swiss Republic. He never needed money cause he liked it.

Any theory that Houser might be just missing on a little jag is blown away by the fact that he was a temperate man, and not liable to make friends of strangers easily.

Maggie Little is the school teacher who was married to Houser's father, and she is going to make her father to her. If Houser has gone to that locality, the detective friends of this part of the country knew of it. He told Mrs. Pickering that he had a mother in the Switzerland for money, and that he had money coming to him.

Mrs. Pickering is so worried over his mysterious disappearance that she can't rest. She has communicated with the Hamilton authorities, and when she heard that the detective force had some hope that the detective could trace Houser's movements on the set of July, but there is nothing to show really that the man ever came here, except that he positively announced his intention of coming.

The action of the detective force generally interpreted as an assurance of his moral support of Russia in the coming peace conference and to show that German participation in the recent Japanese loan was not a mark of the alienation of German sympathies from Russia.

WITTE, STRONGEST

MAN IN RUSSIA

Were Revolution to Choose Him Would Be Dictator.

EVERYBODY BOWS TO HIS WILL

"When His Eyes Take On Dead-Fish"

Look Peace Conference Will

Stop for the Day."

Baltimore, July 24.—"When Witte's eyes take on a dead-fish look and his bearded face grows like graven stone the peace conference will adjourn for the day—there's no doubt about it," said Major J. G. Pangborn, who has traveled extensively in Russia, in speaking of Russia's ranking peace plenipotentiary.

"Witte will easily be the striking personality of the conference, both physically and in his general manner.

He is a tremendously large man, and in remarkable well-balanced proportions.

He measures in every way a monstrous Alexander, the father of the present Czar, and a giant among men. As straight as an arrow, he carries himself with a consciousness of superiority that is most irritating to a good many people. He is overwhelmingly impressive to the masses.

"I have been pretty well over the empire, know something of Russia and the Russians, and all the men I came in contact with throughout the vast domain not one impressed me comparably with Witte.

"When I reached St. Petersburg after eight months' journeying through

Siberia, Manchuria and Mongolia, the

United States Minister, Henry

Breckenridge—made it most pleasant for me, and among other attentions he asked an interview with Witte, then Minister of Finance, for the purpose of presenting me to him. Witte promptly declined the request.

"A day or two later President Kirilch, the Validelek of Russia and one of the few railroad men in the empire, intimated that Witte would be glad to see me. Acting upon the hint, I went the next morning to call at his ministry.

"The spacious ante-room was crowded with generals and civil-service officials in uniform, civilians in full dress and wearing brilliant decorations.

I felt insignificant in plain United States togs.

"Standing in my card, I thought I should have a long, possibly fruitless wait, but to my surprise the flunky almost immediately returned, saying,

"With a profound respect, your excellency would see me at once."

"I had been told the evening before by a dignitary who knew the great minister's peculiarities that, upon first meeting him, I would find him as if looking upon the eyes of a dead fish, and that later, should he prove interested in what I might be saying, his eyes would always be a feature of his desk, trappings, and he would toward me with an invitation to smoke.

Then, should I be so fortunate as to bring all this about, I would see a facial transformation such as had never before been my experience.

"Sure enough, such an absolutely impressive expression I had never before seen. The man is a statue, yet sort of hold your breath and wonder as to what will come when the electric current is turned on.

"The cigarette case came my way. I smoked as he did, and with the lighting of the match I recognized that it was the same face with the same pair of eyes. I was in the presence of the man who had been the subject of so much talk. He was a man of great control over expression and features. He extended the interview beyond an hour and a half and said I did not need the intervention of any one to see him.

He said he would see me whenever I came to St. Petersburg.

Dictator With a Big D.

"Should the present dynasty be overthrown in a revolution and a republic be declared, Witte inevitably would be chosen to lead the country. He has been a question of his loyalty, or that he would lend himself to a thought of the dizzy thing. But he is the only really big man in the ministry. He has the courage of his convictions.

Nothing could keep the people, if they had the say, from demanding that he should go to the head of the parade.

Witte would be a President or any such sort of a head. He would be a Dictator with a very big D."

"Witte dares to do more than most men. He is a man of great courage.

Sergt. Hopkins Revisits Comrades at Barracks After Eleven Years.

A welcome visitor at Wolsley Barracks on Saturday was Sergt. N. J.
Hopkins, of the Twenty-third United States Infantry, and formerly a member of No. 1 Company, R. C. R. He went through the Cuban and Philippine wars, retaining no marks of the campaign except one small scar from a bullet wound. He suffered bad attacks both of yellow fever and dysentery, however.

Sergt. Hopkins enlisted at Wolsley Barracks in 1888 and got his discharge in 1894. Only four of those who were members at the same time as himself, remained, namely: Quartermaster-Sergt. B. Dunlevy, Sergt. O. R. Clerk
H. G. Millie, Corp. Hugh Horner and Pie. Fred Walliker.

GAVE THE FIREMEN WORK.
Sparks from passing locomotives work the firemen some work on Saturday and Sunday. On Saturday, about 2 o'clock, the department was summoned to Egerton street, where a fire was burning the fence on the east side of the Grand Trunk car works yard. The blaze was extinguished before much damage was done. Yesterday, at 11:30 a.m., a grass fire started on the line of the Pere Marquette, near South street, and when a number of residents of the vicinity failed to extinguish it, they called in an alarm. Three hours later the firemen were suddenly to the same locality for the same purpose.
Sparks from locomotives were the cause of both fires.

Fifteen-Year-Old Ross, in Canoe, Rescues Glower With a Paddle.

By the heroic act of 15-year-old Will Ross, son of R. A. Ross, grocer, of the corner of Thames and Ridout streets, a young fellow by the name of William Glower was saved from drowning near the Cove bridge last evening.

Young Ross and two companions were paddling down the river in a canoe, when they suddenly saw Glower, who was in swimming, sink underneath the surface. With rare presence of mind and courage, Ross turned the canoe ashore, and said to his two companions, "Get out of the boat. I will save him."

Meanwhile George Oakes, Glower's companion, stood on the bank, and being a poor swimmer could do nothing to save Glower.

As young Ross reached the drowning man, the latter went down for the third time. The lad then thrust his paddle as far beneath the surface as he could reach, and it was very fortunately so, for Glower, when he reached the surface, found the surface of the water was covered with trunks and other articles. When the rescuer, Ross, however, managed to get him almost to shore. Then Oakes, who was in the water at the edge, tried to pull the canoe ashore, and upset it. With the aid of Oakes, the other two managed to reach the bank.

Glower had swallowed so much water that he was nearly dead. The others were able to partially bring him around and summoned medical aid.
Glower is now being cared for by a doctor and will recover.

The brave act of the Ross boy will no doubt be recognized in some public manner.

Two thousand people took in the rin, the head of the firm, who is always an interested and delighted spectator. A special train had to be run to bring all the picnickers home, and the

HAPPY DAY AT TORONTO

G. T. R. Employees and Friends Storm the Provincial Capital.

The four thousand Grand Trunk employees and their friends had an ideal day at Toronto on Saturday. The weather was just of the right kind for excursion purposes, the sun shining in undimmed splendor overhead, while a cool wind blew off the lake.

The four trains which bore the crowd to Toronto all arrived at the Union depot before 10 o'clock, so that the excursionists had a long day in the provincial capital. Three of these trains contained eleven cars, while the fourth had thirteen cars.

Toronto's beautiful land-locked bay and the island in the middle of it, with attractions to many of the excursionists.
The majority, after wandering about the city in the morning, found their way to the island in the afternoon.

Queen's Park, with its provincial buildings and beautiful flowers, also attracted many of the excursionists, and others made their way to the grounds of Toronto University, where several fine new buildings had been erected during the past year.

The return trains did not make such good time as those of the morning, and it was not until 2 o'clock that the last of the excursionists reached home. Some who had stayed over in Hamilton were picked up by one of the trains on the way back.

CAN JUDGE A MAN
BY HIS SABBATH

Declares Canon Dann, of St.
Paul's, in a Sermon on Sunday Observance.

The observance of Sunday was the theme of a strong sermon by Canon Dann, of St. Paul's Cathedral last evening. Speaking of Sunday as a day of rest for the laborer, Canon Dann declared that half a century ago the agitator used to cry for a revocation of the Sunday observance laws, saying that Sunday was "a day stolen from the workman" in that it lessened his earnings. The Christian church had stood alone for the observance of Sunday.

"The laborers," continued the preacher, "did not owe one minute of their day of rest to the secularist, the atheist, the employer, the labor promoter or even to themselves. They owe it to Christ and his church. Today, I am glad to say, the church is backing up in its defense of Sunday by the powerful, practical aid of the labor unions."

The canon then said that Christ had "rescued the Sabbath" from Hebrew-ism for the Christian church. The Jewish Sabbath was surrounded by rules which were not the divine commands by which the Sabbath was instituted. When Christ and his disciples were taken to task by the Jews for breaking the law, making their way through a field on the Sabbath, they said, "We have done no harm."

Many people excused themselves for not going to church by saying that they did not like the minister. Christ certainly had no reason to like the style of preachers that held the pulpit for the sake of money. Yet he continually went to the synagogue. Again, Christ healed the withered arm of the stonemason on the Sabbath. He rescued the Sabbath from the clutches of the Pharisees.

"No man that thinks the work with anything but apprehension on any attempt to desecrate the Sabbath day," said the preacher, "Street cars are run, places of amusement are kept open, to rob the toiler of his day of rest. Stores are kept open so late on Saturday night that the tired clerk finds it hard to get up and worship God on Sunday. In a short time, a great many more residents of this city will be with us in charge of the committee in charge of the observance of Sunday in London."

A service of song was held in the Empire Avenue Methodist Church last evening. A number of anthems were rendered by the choir. Solos were given by Miss M. Gibson, Miss C. S.
Greenway, Miss Rossiter and Mr.
Gibson. The service was very interesting.

DROVE INTO TRESTLE

Young Man Meets Accident, Warning Light Being Absent.

A painful accident to a young man, police interference, and a possibility of some lawsuits, are the results of there being no red light on the trestle which protects the new King street pavement at Wellington street.

The young man, Jenkins by name,
was driving along Wellington street, about 11 o'clock, and not seeing anything ahead, ran into the trestle. He was thrown from his rig and badly cut.
The two horses which he was driving were injured and the tongue of the carriage was broken.

Word of the affair was sent to the police, who, not being able to find any watchman, removed the trestle.

demand.
