AMERICANA.

Walker. (Sir Hovenden.) A journal, or full account of the late expedition to Canada, with appendix, containing commissions, orders, instructions, letters, memorials, courts martial, councils of war, etc., relating thereto. 8vo, calf, 13.50. Lon, 1720. 1

This volume was written by Sir Hovenden Walker in exculpation of himself and others who commanded the unfortunate expedition against Canada, when by the unskilfulness of the pilots, eight ships and nearly a thousand men were lost in the River St. Lawrence.

Canadian Biography. The Canadian Potrait Gallery by John Charles Dent, assisted by a staff of contributors. Profusely illustrated by very fine full page lithographed portraits. 4 vols, 4to, cloth gilt, gilt edges, 10.00, (pub. 20.00.) Toronto, 1880-81. 2

"This is by long odds the best work of Canadian biography. It is written with a genuine enthusiasm for the subject, and not as a mere compilation with the main object in view of extorting money from the pockets of those whose portraits were engraved. The portraits are very fine, indeed much the best of the kind ever produced in Canada."

Herman Moll's Atlas, The World described, or a new and correct set of maps, showing the several empires, kingdoms, republics, principalities, &c., in all the known parts of the earth, wherein the errors of the ancient geographers are corrected according to the latest observations of travellers as communicated to the Royal Society of London, and the Royal Academy of Paris. EACH MAP is engraved on copper by HERMAN MOLL, Geographer, and printed on two sheets of elephant paper, whereby the scale being large, admits of showing the cities and chief towns in the most distinct manner. To render these maps the more acceptable several of them are ornamented with remarkable prospects, plans, etc. Title mounted inside the cover. No collection of early and rare American books can be complete without a set of these fine maps, of which this copy is of the largest size, each map being coloured and nearly six feet square, with curious engravings, titles and letterpress descriptions. Tall folio, calf, $22.00. Circa, 1715-20. 3

Short collection of the American Portion, Title mounted on the inside cover. 1. The World in Hemispheres, dedicated to his most sacred majesty George II, with astronomical and other information. As for ye Dutch Maps (says Moll) all of 'em yet extant, are much alike and far enough from correctness. Now it being a great hazard we run in undertakings off this nature, and labouring under ye frequent hardships of having our MAPS copy'd upon us in Holland, etc., brought over hither, Publicly advertised and sold under other names to their Profit, and to the manifest defrauding of us, etc., etc. 2. North America, dedicated to Lord Sommers, with insets of ten harbour plans (including Boston, New York and Charlestown) 23 x 38 in. [Title by Vertue, engraving of the manner of the New-found-land codfish industry; tracts of Hudson, James and the Galleons; several places are named as newly by the French in 1712]. 3. New and Exact Map of the DOMINIONS of the King of Great Britian on ye Continent of North America, containing Newfoundland, New Scotland, New England, New York, New Jersey, Pensilvania, Maryland, Virginia and Carolina, with insets of South Carolina, Louisiana, plans of Charles-Town and small key-map; 24 x 41 in. [Title with Douglas arms, dedication dated 1715, fine views of "ye CATARACT of NIAGARA, some make this waterfall to be half a leagu' while others reckon on it no more than a hundred fathoms," "ye Industry of Beavers," account of the continental posts and the fishing rights, the Iroquois, fortifications of Charles-Town, etc.] 4. The North Parts of America CLAIMED BY FRANCE, with insets of Mouth of Mississippi and Harbour of Annapolis Royal; 40 x 25 in. [Title with Bromsall Arms, and very quaint note by Moll dated 1720, capital engraving of the Indian Fort of Sasquesabanok (Penna.) Really a map of North America, on a French basis, shewing the English colonies crowded to the sea, the French touching the Atlantic in S. C. and Georgia. Most valuable as an illustration of French N.A. at its greatest extent]. 5. New Map of the WELLS INDIES or the Islands of America in the North Sea, insets of four harbours; 40 x 23 in. [Title with view of shipping the treasure; map devoted chiefly to the proceedings of 'he Spanish "Gallions and Flota."] 6. SOUTH AMERICA; 38 x 23 in. [Dedicated to Earl of Sunderland, engraving by Vertue, view of the Potosi. Attack on rival maps, about 200 words.] 7. The Coasts, Countries, and Islands within ye limits of ye SOUTH SEA COMPANY; four coppers, together, 19 x 26 in. The detached plates are Chiloe, Guaiquil and Baldivia, insets on large plate of Magelean, Pepys Island, Juan Fernando, Acapulco and others. [Arms of Earl of Oxford and Moll's dedication, tracks of Narborough and Dampier].

Canada. The Globe, weekly edition, an illustrated, political, literary, agricultural, and family newspaper, ardently devoted to Canadian interests, for 1876-7-8-9. Folio, in sheets as published, fine clean set, 10.50. Toronto, 1876-9. 4

A complete set of this series of the Weekly Globe, and is the most interesting and valuable of the whole issue of the paper. The valuable illustrated history of Canadian Towns, the biographies of celebrated Indians and Canadians, our educational institutions, the well known series of Canadian scenery, etc., etc., are included in full. A copy was recently sold by a Toronto bookseller for $20.00.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Ciceronis, Marcus Tullius. Opera. Cum Indicibus et Variis Sectionibus. A VERY FINE COPY of an EXCELLENT EDITION with various readings and with the extra volume of notes. OLIVETI DELECTUS COMMENTARIORUM IN M. T. CICERONIS OPERA OMNIA, of which only 100 copies were printed. In the first volume will be found the full length portrait which is often missing. Together 11 vols, 4to, full calf, A VERY FINE COPY, 8.00. Oxonii, 1783-1821. 137

"This edition is worthy of the illustrious dignity of the University of Oxford."—HARWOOD. "The Oxford edition is a very elegant and correct reimpression of the text of Olivet; to each volume there are various readings from 29 MSS, collated by HEARNE. This elaborate edition."—DIBDIN. The most perfect edition of Cicero that of OLIVET.—CIBBON'S Miscellaneous Works.

The Theatre. A monthly review of the drama, music and the fine arts, edited by Clement Scott. Complete from January 1883, (vol. 1, new series) to September 1889, 13 vols and 3 parts, royal 8vo, 12 vols, half roan and 9 parts in wrappers as published, illustrated with nearly 200 capital photographic portraits of present day actors and actresses (in character) with facsimiles of their handwriting, etc., besides numerous woodcuts, fine clean set, 12.75. Lon 1883 9. 138

The above is the modern and most interesting series of this esteemed periodical.

Cornhill Magazine (The), from its commencement in 1860 to Dec. 1876, (vol. 6 and 16 missing), containing contributions by W. M. Thackeray, George Eliot, John Ruskin, and other popular authors, with several hundred full page and other illustrations. 32 vols, 8vo, publisher's red cloth, cheap, 16.00. 1860-76. 139

Shakespeare (The Works of). The imperial edition. Edited by Charles Knight, with full page illustrations on steel, from pictures by FRITH, LESLIE, MAC-LISE, ORCHARDSON, WARD, ETC. 2 vols, in 4 divisions, folio, bevelled cloth gilt, gilt edges, 12.75. Circa, 1880. 140

This is a magnificent and monumental edition of the great master. It is excellently printed in a large type, and all the engravings are worthy of being framed.

Scribner's Monthly and Century Magazine. From vol 19 (Nov. 1879) to vol 40 (Oct. 1890), inclusive, 22 vols, in original wrappers as issued, fine clean set, 11.50. 141

Hardly any field of literature has been neglected in this excellent magazine. Its pages contain thoughtful essays, book reviews, scientific and illustrated articles, notes by experts, etc., etc. It abounds with the finest of wood engravings.

Fielding's (Henry) Complete Works, with an essay on his life and genius, by Arthur Murphy, portrait by HOGARTH. 10 vols, 8vo, half russia, fine copy, 19.00. Lon. 1806. 142

"He has an admirable natural love of truth, the keenest instinctive antipathy to hypocrisy, the happiest satirical gift of laughing it to scorn. His wit is wonderfully wise and detective; it flashes upon a rogue and lightens up a rascal like a policeman's lantern."—H. M. Thackeray.

Leisure Hour (The) from 1852 to 1871 inclusive, (wants 1854, 9, 1866). With hundreds of illustrations. 17 vols, half calf, clean sound condition, 12.00. 143

This set contains a vast amount of capital reading for a nominal sum of money.

Good Words, edited by Dr. D. Macleod, from the commencement 1860 to 1877 (inclusive). With hundreds of illustrations. 18 vols, half roan, (vol 1 and 2 in cloth). fine clean set, 13.00 (original cost would be over 40.00.) 144

A capital set for a school, church library, or mechanic's institute, containing complete novels by Miss Muloch, George Macdonald, Norman Macleod, Charles Kingsley, Mrs. Henry Wood, Jean Ingelow, and other popular authors; with a variety of other articles by first-class writers.

Jardine's (Sir. W.) NATURALIST'S LIBRARY, complete; containing valuable works on every branch of animated nature, by the most eminent naturalists, 40 vols; also Martin's History of humming birds, and Hamilton Smith's natural history of the human species, together 42 vols. Finely printed and illustrated with over 1200 beautiful colored plates. Post 8vo, red cloth, gilt tops, fine clean set, as new, 35.00. H. G. Bohn. 145

"This book is perhaps the most interesting, the most beautiful, and the cheapest series ever offered to the public.—Athenæum."

THE FAVORITE LARGE TYPE EDITION OF THE

Waverley Novels, by Sir Walter Scott, with the frontispieces by Turner, Stanfield, etc. 48 vols, 12mo, red cloth, uncut, white labels, a handsome set, 35.00, (pub. £12). 146

This is the original edition, published by Caddell in 1829-33, though the title pages bear mostly the imprint of A. & C. Black.

Boyle's Official Baronage of England, showing the succession, dignities, and Offices of every Peer from A.D. 1036 to 1885, with 1600 illustrations, portraits, arms, autographs, etc. 3 handsome vols, 4to, half morocco, gilt tops, 11.00, (pub £5 5s.) Longmans, 1886. 250

Intended to assist in the study of English history, especially mediæval history, where exact information regarding the peers who carried on the history of the country has been difficult to find. The points treated are:—1. Dates of birth, succession and death.
2. The varying titles of each line. 3. The offices held by each peer. 4. Their marriages. 5. Their armorial bearings. 6. Their persons. This work in a manner does for the active ruling class of the earlier ages what our modern Peersages and Parliamentary Companions do for the legislators and officials of the present day. The authority for every fact is accurately indicated.

THEOLOGY.

Henry (Rev. Matthew.) Commentary of the Old and New Testament; with memoirs of his life, character, and writings, by Sir J. B. Williams, LL.D., a new and illustrated edition; with essays by the Rev. John Stoughton. 3 thick vols, imperial 8vo, cloth, genuine English edition, 7.50. Lon. 655

In this age of commentaries, when almost every day announces a new competitor for biblical honors, Matthew Henry would seem to have a very poor chance—but this is not so—he is asked for at the bookshops as often as the latest commentator, and as far as one can judge he is as popular now as he was a hundred years ago.

Bible and Apocrypha, Oxford Clarendon, Press Edition. 2 vols, royal 8vo, beautifully bound in extra chased blue morocco, with silk end papers, extra tooling and gilt edges. The Apocrypha, indexes and marginal readings occupy one half of the 2nd volume. BEAUTIFUL TYPE, WITH FINE LARGE MARGINS, 6.00. Oxford, 1807. 656

The binding on these two fine vols. must have cost at least three pounds, and it is next to impossible to get this class of finishing done in our day.

Clarke's (Dr. Adam.) Commentary on the Holy Bible. Containing the author's latest corrections. A new edition, with additional prefatory and supplementary notes, bringing the work up to the present standard of Biblical knowledge, and a life of the author, by the REV. THORNLEY SMITH. Unabridged edition, 6,000 pages, with many pages of engravings; maps, etc. In six vols, super royal 8vo, cloth, new, 12.00. Lon. 657

— Condensed Commentary. By the REV. NEWTON YOUNG. In three vols, imperial 8vo, cloth, new, 4.75. Lon. 658

Kitto's (John, D.D.) PICTORIAL BIBLE, being the Old and New Testament. Illustrated with beautiful steel engravings after celebrated pictures, and many hundred woodcuts, representing the landscape scenes and the subjects of natural history, costume and antiquities. 4 vols, super royal 8vo, cloth, nice clean copy, 4.50. 1847. 659

— Another copy. 3 thick vols, super royal 8vo, roan, fine copy, 4.00. 1836. 660

"As you cannot visit the Holy Land, it is well for you that there is a work like the Pictorial Bible, in which the notes of the most observant of travellers are ranged under the texts which they illustrate."

"For the geography, zoology, botany, manners and customs of Palestine, this will be your counsellor and guide."—Spurgeon's "Lectures to my Students."

- "This volume is mainly derived from manuscript sources, and consists entirely of inedited and uncollected pieces in prose and verse. The Note Books and Common-place Books of Thomas Moore, together with a large mass of correspondence and the original draughts and manuscripts of his principal writings, have been for some time in the possession of the present publishers, and were found on examination to yield so much matter of permanent literary interest, that it was thought advisable to place them beyond reach or chance of loss in case of the future disintegration of these autographs. No piece, either in prose or verse, appears in this volume, which has already appeared in any of the editions of his collected works."
- Cricketer's Note-book (A), containing original anecdotes, remarks, notes, reminiscences, and gossip, by an old cricketer. Crown 8vo, cloth, 25c. 1881. 61

- NOTE.—Dr. Wilson was a profound orientalist, an able controversialist, a man of science and vast information, and his knowledge of India, the manners and customs of the Hindoos, their history and their philosophy, brought him in constant communication with scholars the world over. His services to the Government of India are well known. He was a personal friend of David Livingstone; and it was Dr. Wilson's two faithful students who brought the remains of the heroic explorer to England. Dr. Wilson's memoir of his devoted wife should be read by all who value true excellence.
