Bishop Wiseman, the Intrusive Cardinal, has ublished a pamphiet, in which he endeavors to ow that the Papal Bull, notwithstanding the language in which it is couched, does not pretend to give the Bishops any authority more than that held by the Vicars Apostolic-he wishes us, in fact, to believe, that there is a distinction ithout a difference, and that the claim of the Bishop of Rome " to administer all the spiritual, and no small part of the temporal affairs of Engmd," is a mere phrase, " fu'l of sound and fury, signifying nothing." This is Jesuitical, and, however it may now suit Bishop Wiseman's purpose to bend before the storm he has evoked, such being ever the policy of the Romish Church in Protestis impossible even to give you an idea of the tant countries, we think he will fail in humbugging English Protestants into putting any faith in his statements after the fact, particularly when the avowed organs of the Romish Church in England and France make assertions diametrically apposed to those of the intrusive Bishop. The actual position of the question at this moment is as follows:—The Crown Lawyers are diligently investigating the Statutes on the subject; and are all but ready to report to the Crown. The sole question which arises, seems to be, whether the celebrated Act of Elizabeth, (attaching heavy penalties to all recognition of Popish authority in this Kingdom.) remains still in force, or whether it has been so modified by the Parliaments of George the Fourth and Victoria as to be practically void:—and the result of the investigation seems to be a pretty general decision on the particular penalties described in the Act of Elizabeth are dis-attached from the offence, the offence itself remains, and is punishable by common law.—This opinion is even now before the Privy Council, and will be acted upon, if correct, as speedily as ever circumstances will allow. Next, an influential Committee was formed, which, at its second meeting, on the 19th June, adopted an Address on the subject of the Bishop's visit. This Address was printed and widely circulated. The next step was to commence a series of meetings; the first of which, that the Bishop attended, was held at Windsor on the 21st May, by the sequest of the Bishop of Oxford. CANADIAN AFFAIRS.

TERONTO, December 5, 1850.

Some ten weeks ago, I stated, in one of my letters, that goal evils had resulted to intending settlers from the stoppage of the sales of public lands in several parts of Western Canada. The fact excited, at the time, no attention on the part of the Press. At length, one journal in Western Canada has broken silence on the subject. The Huron Signal states that the sale of public lands Canada has broken silence on the subject. The Huron Signal states that the sale of public lands in the County of Huron has been stopped since the month of June, 1843. After this long interregnum, they are again about to be brought into market. The Signal, a Ministerial journal, says that the effect of this extraordinary halt, has been the means of serious injury—nay, of partial ruin to hundreds—yes, thousands of our fellow country—men!" It appears that excited by the expectation of purchasing good lands in Huron at eight shillings an acre, hundreds of settlers from olds: shillings an acre, hundreds of settlers from older Counties sold out and went Westward, with their Counties sold out and went Westward, with their families, and sometimes their stock, expecting to be able to purchase, and enter at once upon their town in England it behoves Wesleyan Ministers and new homes. Taking COLD.

This sentence is constantly in the mouth of every parson, in order to explain certain complaints. Those who use it often, we think, have but a faint idea of its precise meaning. We will offer an explanation, which we believe to be the opinion of a majority of the most learned physicians. A person, for instance, has been over exerting any particular set of muscles—of the thront, from violent speaking—of the loins, by too much stooping or bending, or these or any other part of the body: these parts or muscles are, consequently, weakened and relaxed, and become a fair prey for any disease. The person who has been thus acting, accidentally or otherwise, exposes himself to the cold air, the perspiration immediately casses, and the blood, which had been but just now circulating rapidly throughout the surface of the body, is repelled inwardly, and is sure to serile in those parts which have been previously wearied and relaxed. Here, then, we have an accumulation of blood, a congestion, which gives rise to all "he pain and stiffness attendant upon such complaint. When this takes pince in the throat, we have what is called Sore Throut; when in the foins, Lumbugo or Stiff Back; when in the chest, Pleurisy. We also have it at the shoulder-blade, side, and other parts.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF,

Taken Internally and applied Externally.

Its first action, when freely applied, is to blunt the acute sensibilities of the nerves, and almost instantly relieves the pain; its secondary action is to excite perspiration, and redden the parts over which it is applied almost to a glow, thereby determining the blood from the migraed parts to the surface. In these cases, the READY RELIEF should be applied freely, as the same time rubbing the parts with a piece of flaunci, and it will be found in every case to give immediate and permanent relief.

N.B.—If convenient, a piece of flaunci saturated with the RELIEF, and tied or pinned around the parts, does good service.

A BAD COUGH CURED IN TEN MINUTES.

Mr. Rigdon, of Brooklyn, the celebrated Church Singer and Organ-Player, on the night of the 10th of December was attacked with a severe fit of coughing—so that he coughed from 9 o'clock until 12 o'clock, P. M., without three minutes intermission. One of the Clerks of Radway & Co., who sleeps in the next room, got up and gave him a tea-spoonful of the Retief internally, and bathed his throat, neck, and chest; he site saturated a piece of financi with the Retief, and land it over his chest. In a few seconds the coughing ceased, he could expectorate freely, and raised with instantly soothed the irritation of the throat in the produced a free and copius he was entirely free from pain, and make the irritation of the hroat and chest; and in tan minutes he was entirely free from pain, and sunk into a sound and pleasant sleep. In the morning he was free from hoarseness and cough, and has not been troubled since. Let every individual who is troubled with a cough, sore throat, influences, or hostriessas, pursue the same plan, and we will warrant them a speedy cure.

AGE VERSUS YOUTH.

Radway's Ready Relief renews the vigor of youth in old age. The old man of seventy is invigorated by its strengthening and exhilerating effects; it arouses the vital energies to life—the heavy and languid motion of the functions of the body is quickened to a healthy action—and the hitherto duit and mopish old man becomes active and vigorous in old age, and his life prolonged to the full number of his days.

Marriage requires the fulfilment of several conditions, in order that it may be really the cause of mutual happiness. Could the visil, which covers the origin of domestic viretchediess, he raised, and its true source in every instance disclused, in how many could it be traced to physical disqualifications and their attendant disappoinments. Excesses are always injurious? the gift which, when used in moderation, is fraught who admentage, becomes, when abused, the profife source of mischief, and of greater or less highry to the constitution and vital powers.

The particular excesses, on the nature and consequences of which this Treatise professes to diate, are productive of greater missey to the human frame than any other to which it is subject.

This Work contains an acturate and complete account of the Anstony and Physiology of the Reproductive Organs, and of their relative conditions is health and disease. Nor are these the sole contents of the danger, are pointed out in clear and intelligible language. It deservedly requires the closest attention and study, for what subject can be of more importance than the preservation of health, and of the physical engalities of which every man should be possessed. It unfortainstly happens, that, the unhappy victim of excessive indulgence and victims habita, whether acquired in early life, or from the foliase of advanced age while suffering from their marriable consequences, unwinely enterbine a fear of applying to a qualified physician for relief.
