ASSEMBLY CALLED

The Next Session of the Legislature will Meet in Regina
on April 2nd.

The legislative assembly of the Province of Saskatchewan has been called to meet at the capital on Thursday, April 2nd.

Premier Scott who has been spending the winter in the Mediterranean will be back before the House opens.
The Lieutenant Governor who has been spending some months in the east while government works was undergoing repairs, will also be back for the opening.

There will be a couple of changes in the House from last session. It will be remembered that Hon. J. H.
Lamont, now Judge Lamont, led the House last session in the absence of the premier. This year Mr. Scott will be home to lead the House, and the Attorney General's place will be filled by Hon. Alphonse Turgeon who succeeded Mr. Lamont in constituency and position.

The opposition will be strengthened by the member of Prince Albert District, Mr. S. J. Donaldson. This will be the first session that this constituency will be represented in this assembly.

A COMING MAN

Major Whitmore, President of Regina Board of Trade, a Very Busy and Big Business Citizen.

After being absent from the city for practically two months, A. E. Whitmore of the well known firm of Whitmore Bros., returned home from Winnipeg Tuesday and left again on Friday for his ranch at Yellow Grass
where he will arrange for the erection of a new building on his property
in that district. Two weeks ago Mr.
Whitmore was called to Banff to attend a conference of the big coal dealers of the west and it is learned that the meeting will result in material advantage to the consumers. Mr. Whitmore is no doubt one of the busiest of Regina's biggest

IMPROVED FINANCES

Lower Price Level Being Attained Which Will Lead to More Industrial Activity.

Money conditions throughout the United States have become more settled, and the outlook is for steady rates for some time to come, says
the Montreal Business. Bank reserves have been well restored, and if expectations are confirmed may rise to higher figures as the inflow of funds from interior points continues. There is a steady demand for loans for commercial purposes, but money goes somewhat farther now than it did several months ago, because of declines in the United States in the prices of nearly all everyday commodities as well as of securities. Demands upon the money markets will be considerable, however, for some time to come, as nearly $300,000,000
of corporate obligations in the stock market will have to be met, extended or refunded before next summer.
In general business there is a more cheerful feeling, as industrial concerns which have been shut down for several months are beginning to commence operations again, and in some quarters production is being resumed on even increased scale. Prices for commodities throughout the United States have settled appreciably, and concessions in wages are occurring here and there. Slowly but it is claimed surely, the United States is working towards a lower price level which will induce a general resumption of industrial and commercial activity. The process is a little unpleasant, but inevitable.

Amend Election Act

In the House of Commons on Monday, Mr. Aylesworth introduced a bill to amend the Dominion Elections Act. The amendments suggested are contained in the following:

(1) All contributions to election expenses must be made through a candidate's statutory agent who must make the same public.

(2) Heavy penalties are provided for contributions to election funds on the part of corporations.

(3) Circulation of false statements regarding the conduct or character of a candidate to be penalized, if shown to be circulated with a view to affecting the election result.

(4) Handbills printed during the election campaign must bear the name of the printers.

(5) Aliens are forbidden to take any part in the elections.

(6) A penalty is provided for tearing down of public proclamations.

(7) Nominating papers must give the nominee's address.

(8) The bribery clauses of the oath
for a vote is to be made clearer.

(9) A special numbered ballot is to be allowed to voters whose names are omitted from the list, but who will take the oath that they are qualified.

(10) Where the federal subdivisions are not identical with the provincial authority is given for the transfer of names from one classification to another.

(11) No ballot shall be spoiled by any mark placed on it by the deputy returning officer.

(12) A penalty of disfranchisement and disqualification for a federal office for eight years is added to the present penalties against bribe givers
and bribe takers.

(13) Imprisonment is made compulsory in all cases of tampering with ballots.

GRAFT DISCLOSED

San Francisco, March 4.—From correspondence going on between the Canadian government and the port official here, it is learned that Madame Lemieux, wife of the Hon. Rud-olphe Lemieux, Ottawa, postmaster
general, was held up by the American government officials in the port of San Francisco. It also discloses the fact that the Pacific Mail Steamship Co. has been indulging in petty graft in the manipulation of the head
tax. A head tax of $4 each is collected from the steamship companies upon every alien arriving in the United States. Persons who have resided continuously in Canada, Cuba or Mexico for a year previous to reaching an American port are exempt from the tax. The Pacific mail agent in the Orient collect the head tax from all passengers when they purchase tickets, and their greatest graft was with the Chinese passengers.

Madame Lemieux visited the Orient after leaving Canada, and was subject to the tax if she elected to stay in the United States. She arrived on the Mongolia from Yokohama on Jan. 18, and registered as "en transit." She was entitled to a return of the tax if she left the United States before thirty days. She must get the money from the steamship company as the transaction has passed out of the government's hands.

Ottawa, March 7.—The report of the militia council says correspondence has taken place between the Canadian and Imperial governments relative to a proposal emanating from the latter that officers of the Imperial Yeomanry in Great Britain
when visiting or temporarily residing in the colonies should be attached to colonial mounted forces. Canadians when visiting the British Isles to be attached for like purposes to the Imperial Yeomanry. Report also says that arrangements are in progress
between the Imperial and Dominion governments and also the principal of McGill university, whereby commissions in the Imperial army and Canadian permanent forces may be granted to undergraduates of Canadian universities.

FAVOR CHURCH UNION

Winnipeg, March 7.—That from an economic standpoint, the proposed union of churches is expedient.
That the union of these three churches will result in increased and better efficiency in all missionary work.

That the union of these three
great churches is certain to greatly increase the efficiency in all missionary work.

That the union of these three
great churches is certain to greatly increase the efficiency and power of the Christian force for social progress.

The above resolutions were unanimously passed at a banquet in Grace church school room, in connection with the proposal to form a union of the three churches, Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregationalist, and for the purpose of discussing the basis which had been arrived at.
There was a very large attendance,
several hundred clerics and laymen
being present, while ecclat was given to the proceedings by the presence as chairman for the evening of His Hon.
Sir Daniel McMillan, lieutenant-governor of the province.

wick recently, when surrounding friends were invited to meet the Misses Muirhead of Regina and Mrs.
Thomas Muirhead, who is a very welcome new arrival in our district.
Dancing was indulged in to the music supplied by Mr. Win Munro and Mr. Thomas Muirhead. During rests between the dances, the audiences was delighted by the singing of several old Scotch songs by Miss M.
Muirhead. It is seldom we enjoy such a treat.

Mr. Waterston, president of our Grain Growers' Association, who had been attending the convention at Saskatoon, has returned from an extensive trip through the north country. He appeared to have enjoyed himself immensely.

A large and appreciative audience turns out on Sundays at the home of Mr. John Dale to listen to Mr. Mc-Fadden's preaching also Mrs. Mc-Fadden's singing and playing, all of which is much enjoyed, as until lately religious services in this locality
were not held (at least in the Eng-ginning of next month if we are business men and to his credit, he has risen from the ranks. Ten years ago he acquired a ranch in the Yellow Grass district, where there were but few settlers in that part of the country. He was one of the first to get a homestead patent on that part of the Soo line, and the nearest business town was Regina, sixty miles distant. Today he is a partner in the big coal firm, which also owns the steam laundry and two drug stores in the city, employing in all nearly eighty hands. For three years

Mr. Whitmore has been prominently connected with the Regina Board of Trade, being chairman of the Business Men's Committee for two years and vice president last year. At the recent annual meeting, while absent
in the east he was elected president of that important body and in that position will no doubt aggrandise himself with distinction which has characterized his business career. Mr. Whitmore is very popular on the Soo line
as well as in Regina, and at the recent Conservative convention the delegates from the south placed his name in nomination, but for business and private reasons he declined the honor. In the last provincial election also his name was prominently mentioned as a prospective candidate for South Regina. As a thorough west-

who has made his way step-by-step,
Mr. Whitmore is a worthy criterion.

Excuses for Grant

Many and contradictory are the explanations offered by the Ottawa grafters for the operations in public lands. One of these tells us that the allegation that the Cedar Lake timber limit sold by the government to A. W. Fraser, ex-president of the Liberal Association at Ottawa, for $500 is worth $500,000 is a "mere opposition yarn." Says the organ of the government:

"It appears that this half million valuation is more political than commercial. The mere assertion of opposition speakers does not make it worth that figure, and there has been no expert evidence that they were anything near the mark."

The answer to this is to be found in the prospectus issued by the parties to whom the limit was granted by the Department of the Interior. The prospectus was signed by J. Heffner and Son, real estate agents, Winnipeg, and reads thus:

"Cedar Lake, which is situated on Saskatchewan waters, is comprised of something over 100 square miles, and is estimated at 250,000,000 feet.

"The timber on this berth would work to advantage in connection with the former berth.

"As you will notice by the accompanying plan, there is one short portage to land the logs from Cedar Lake to Lake Winnipeg, a distance of two and a half to three miles.

"The timber is immediately surrounding the shores of the lake stated for 80 square miles, together with the islands or portions of islands that have been selected.

"The survey has been made, but up to the present I am not in possession of the plans.

"The timber is of good quality and fairly clean, more so than the timber in the Erwood and Red Deer districts, but not quite so large.

"The price for this block is $500,000."

The valuation of the berth was therefore placed upon it not by opposition speakers, as alleged, but by the party to whom the property was sold by the government for $500. A second excuse is made on the authority of a Dr. McIntyre, who alleges that in 1882 this same limit was acquired by Mr. Perley, the member for Argenteuil, for nothing, and adds that Mr. Perley found it worthless and for this reason, abandoned it. "It was scarcely scrupulous in Mr. Perley," says the grafter organ, "to allow his colleagues to misrepresent the value of the timber limit, and to conceal the fact that he once owned it and considered it worthless." This statement is fraudulent. Nobody owned any timber limits in the North-West in 1882. The government of 1882 never disposed of limits. All that it did was to issue yearly licenses to cut timber for the supply of settlers. If Mr. Perley had a license to cut timber on this limit he had it but for one year, and if he did not cut the timber the license expired. The system is different today. The timber berth is, under the alterations in the law made by Sifton, the perpetual property of the party to whom it is conceded. It is something that can be held forever, and can be sold for a price. The man with a Sifton license has something he can sell. The man with one of the licenses issued in 1882 had something from which the only profit to be made was that arising from the cutting and the sale of the timber during the year for which the license held good. It was the change in the system that gave the berths the great value that they have today—a value which did not appertain to them in 1882.—Mail and Empire.

New Brunswick

The provincial elections held in New Brunswick may be taken as an indication of the feeling existing in the Maritime provinces toward the Ottawa government. The contest, notwithstanding what the government organs may say, was largely influenced by federal politics. Hon. W. R. Pugsley, Dominion minister, was in the province during the contest and exerted his greatest energies to have the Robinson government retained in power. The defeat of his plans may well be taken as an indication of the fall of Pugsley and also the decline of the Laurier administration. Every promise that a Dominion minister could make was made to the people of the province by the redoubtable Pugsley, but the people had awakened and given the proper reply to such advances.

The Robinson government went to the country holding 35 out of 46 seats, and the came out of the contest with about a dozen seats. Is this not an indication of a revolution of feeling which seems to be very favorable to Conservatism in Canada? Mr. Borden may very well feel satisfied with the results of the New Brunswick elections.

A Liberal Rout

The defeat of the government in New Brunswick is a direct downthrow for the Liberal party in Canada. Papers far away from the scene of the contest may say that it is only a defeat of a coalition government, but here is what the St. John Sun, the mouthpiece of the Robinson government said the Saturday before the contest:

"For Liberals as a party this campaign has a new significance. For the first time the provincial government is straight Liberal in personnel, in sympathy and affiliations, and makes its first appeal on straight party lines. Its defeat would mean Liberal disaster. It would be halled all over Canada as a great Conservative victory, as evidence that Laurier was losing his hold, that a tidal wave was forming in the Maritime provinces which would later sweep him from power. Mr. Hanson, who professes to be a coalition leader and yet has but one Liberal candidate on his tickets throughout the province, would not be in office a week before he would throw off his disguise and begin to lay a foundation for a Conservative victory in the next federal campaign.

"These are the issues briefly and fairly stated upon which the electors of New Brunswick must decide next Tuesday. And the Sun, which has faith in this province, and in the enterprise of its people, has no doubt of that decision."

Let the far away Liberal Organs put this in their pipe and smoke it. The nest of traitors that was supposed to be located at Ottawa must have been somewhere in New Brunswick.

Press Comments

(Oxbow Herald)

Foster, the weather man, predicts an atmospheric disturbance about the 17th of this month. The storm centre will, in all probability, be along the "Soo line and Estevan." R. L. Richardson is expected to be delivering lectures on "Why Farmers should Organize," in this constituency about that time.

(Estevan Observer)

The agitation started at Oxbow a short time ago by which a new political party was launched, known as the farmers' party, is evidently causing great uneasiness to some of the

Another feature of this remarkable session demands comment. It was noticeable that most of Hon. Mr. Brodeur's colleagues in the cabinet, with the exception of Hon. Mr. Bureau, maintained a discreet silence, or afforded him but little assistance, in the three days' struggle. With the exception of the ministers told off in relay to lead the house, the others came and went with an ostentatiously detached air, and, except during the regular hours of session, the minister of marine was only supported by a small but faithful guard of his Quebec colleagues. On several occasions they came to his assistance with vehement charges that the hon. gentleman was being "persecuted" by the opposition because he was a French Canadian. Anything more absurd in the face of facts could not be conceived, and this innovation of the race cry took on all the semblance of a threat. Invoked under such unreasonable conditions, it suggested the attitude that a French Canadian in public life can do no wrong, and that to attempt to hold a minister from that province accountable, no matter what the circumstances might be, was resented as a reflection on French-Canada. It is only fair to the French-Canadian members to say that this ill-considered attack was only assumed by a minority of Liberal members from that province headed by Hon. Mr. Bureau.

Of course we all signed the petition for the nifty canvasser is irresistible. But it seems like putting our names to our own death warrant. If Moose Jaw gets the university, what is there left for Estevan? We wanted to be made the capital, but Regina beat us out. We might have been happy as the court centre, but had not string enough on the government to get our way. We were given a peace offering in the location of the land office and told to be good, then the land was taken away to Moose Jaw district, leaving us nothing but the office. We have prayed long and hard to the C. P. R., to give us a chance to spread and become a great commercial centre, but all that comes back from the railway magnates is the stony stare. There was still a gleam of hope left that we might become the university town. There's lots of stone and brick and vacant lands for the buildings, and the Lord knows there are many of us who need education badly. But with the appearance of the canvassers today, our last hope for greatness vanishes. We cannot be great, for topographical reasons we cannot be beautiful, then let us be good. We have seven religious denominations and a curfew bell, we can at least be good.

PROVINCIAL NEWS

Wm. Gates, a pioneer homesteader living south of Osage, dropped dead shortly after noon on Saturday. The cause was heart disease.

There being no government park in Saskatchewan, and therefore no real live buffalo in the province, the game protection association have forwarded a resolution to the minister of the Interior, Hon. Frank Oliver, praying that the government reserve some suitable lands permanently for game preservation and park purposes, and to locate a portion of Canada's large herd of buffalo on these lands. It was also suggested in the resolution that the Moose Mountains would make a first class park if fenced. The Moose Mountains should be an ideal spot for a herd of buffalo and other big game, and we see no reason why the request of the association can't be granted. A large tract of land well watered and timbered, and the prohibiting of killing of game or carrying of firearms within the reserve would protect game and make a desirable breeding ground.

ELEVATOR FOR FROBISHER.

Frobisher, March 6.—Intense dissatisfaction has been strongly felt and expressed in this district for some months amongst the farming community, as to the manner in which they were treated by the elevator company. This culminated on Saturday when the most influential meeting of farmers ever held here took place in the Orange hall, Mr. Campbell, banker presided over the packed gathering.

The manager and secretary of the Oxbow farmers' elevator attended and put the meeting in possession of ample information for forming a successful business venture on pretty much the same basis as Oxbow. It was eventually decided to go on with the scheme of a farmers' elevator for Frobisher, and $3,000 was subscribed in the room under half an hour. J. Giesb, A. W. Sherwin, A. McMaisters, W. Ching and G. Munro were a committee elected from the meeting to canvass for the balance of the capital.

The shares are $50 each, and not more than four can be held by any one person. It was decided that business men should be allowed to take stock, a desire having been expressed by several to have an interest in what they believed to be a step in the right direction.

GOOD COAL AT LAST

It is now announced that a good seam of hard coal has been struck out in 14-32-21 w. 3, where the government coal mine is situated. Samples were sent to Regina recently of a coal as good as the best Edmonton product.

It was first intended to shut down the mining operations, as no suitable product had been discovered. However after persevering further, Engineer J. J. Davies has come upon a good 18 inch seam some 40 feet down, and prospects are bright for further important developments. This coal was tested and found admirably for ordinary practical purposes. There is at present an insufficient quantity being mined to make it desirable for the surrounding inhabitants to flock to the pit, but it is hoped that shortly all comers will be able to get a supply.—Asquith Empire.

VEREGIN REVOKES

Buchanan, Sask., March 5.—Peter Veregin visited the few remaining Doukhobor communities in this section a few days ago and told them that from that time on they could again resume the consumption of tea, coffee, sugar and eggs; in fact everything but meat, the newspaper notoriety which had been given him on both sides of the line evidently had a desired effect. The members of the communities were pleased to learn that they could again "eat to live."

Especially to the children was this most gratifying news.

It is commonly talked among the Doukhobors that the communists will be removed from here within one or two years to a more congenial climate—some say to Mexico while others say to a warm section of Russia. It is generally believed by all here that some such move is on foot, and that in a few years a Doukhobor community will be a thing of the past in this part of Canada—at least.

Homer Tutty while at work digging a well west of town met with a serious accident, last Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. His brother Arthur who was assisting with the work was let down to the bottom of the well to ascertain if there was any gas in same, while Homer remained at the opening to watch the proceedings. A match was lighted and an explosion followed which nearly cost the life of both young men. Homer Tutty who remained at the top was seriously injured, the explosion burning his face, while loose dirt was hurled in his eyes nearly causing the loss of his eyesight. Notwithstanding the fact that he was in a half-conscious state as a result of the shock, immediately groped his way around and assisted in pulling his brother out of the well who otherwise would have suffocated as no other help was at hand.—Halbrite News.

BUSINESS ENTERPRISE

Eleven years old, town-limited and a traveller of some distinction as one who journeyed out of the far north from Prince Albert, Master Thomas Pickering stood in the dock and declared that he left home because he didn't like the city, his father or mother or even his brothers and sisters. This sweeping indictment of Prince Albert and the Pickering family was made by the young traveller without any vehemence and in a dispassionate manner that might be susceptible to change at the end of the long journey back to the Saskatchewan metropolis, a trip which Tommy will begin this evening shortly after six o'clock. Tommy's arrival in Winnipeg was anticipated by the arrival of a telegram from his home, asking the police here to take him in charge and return him as soon as possible, money being forwarded for his fare.

It was business enterprise that led Tommy to take the trip and he expected to get work in Winnipeg, a prospect so glittering that home ties and the fascinations of Prince Albert faded to nothingness beside the allurements of Winn peg and the great future it offers to young men of proper initiative combined with capital, both elements being present in Tommy's make-up; the former very conspicuously and the latter to the extent of a reserve fund of 7 cents, the exact amount of Tommy's available cash.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, flatulency, and indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific nerve disease—nothing else.

It was this fact that has correctly led Dr. Shoop to the creation of that now very popular stomach remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going directly to the stomach nerve, alone brought that disease and hence to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. With out that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and ruddy complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

BLACK HAND TACTICS

Victims Fear to Testify Against the Operators—No Central Organisation.

Evidently the Black Hand has reached as far west as Winnipeg, for Mayor Ashdown has received a very threatening letter, says the Mail and Empire. Indeed, from known facts one might fairly deduce unusual activity on the part of this baleful brotherhood in the far west of Canada, because there Italians in large numbers are engaged or will be engaged, in railway construction work. That the mayor of Winnipeg is in any particular danger is not likely, and we interpret the threats against him as a neat way for the bandits to tell their countrymen they are "on the job" and that assessments must be promptly paid up.

Speaking generally it may be said that the dreaded Black Hand has spread all over this continent. Wherever there is an Italian community, there is the specter of the organization. He may be a member of the community himself, or he may be a stranger. So long as he is wicked enough or cunning enough he can live at ease supported by his unfortunate countrymen. The fact that any one hears little about the Black Hand in any given Italian community may be evidence that it is prosperously at work. Dynamite outrages and kidnappings are by no means the surest sign of Black Hand strength in any district, for at bottom the organization is not founded with a view of murdering people. A murder may signify a failure to collect blackmail or it may be wantonly committed in order to have a terrorizing effect on intended victims of blackmail.

The Weekly Assessment
An American writer on immigration who has paid particular attention to the Black Hand organization is Mr. Broughton Brandenburg, and he thinks that the outward activity of the Black Hand is the most sign that it has fastened itself securely on the community and is collecting blackmail without the necessity of violence. He testifies to having seen it at work among gangs of Italian navies. On pay day an Italian turns up, and goes round among the men apparently begging. His exactions are, usually small, perhaps amounting to 50 cents from each laborer. Mr. Brandenburg estimates that there are 150,000 Italians in the United States who have submitted themselves to the Black Hand and are paying weekly assessments for their exemptions from worse evils. As to the membership of the organization, it is impossible to hazard a guess, as new branches spring up constantly, but our authority says that in New York there are 4,000 young Italians who live in affluence, yet who have never worked. He supposes all of them to be members of the American Mafia.

The Rebel and the Lesson
Why Black Hand outrages are common at certain seasons of the year than at others is explained by Mr. Brandenburg. When the Italians are all at work, and earning good wages, they more readily yield to the threat of their oppressors, and pay their weekly ransom without much demur; but in the winter time, when work is scarce, and the laboring Italian is driven to the most desperate shifts to support his family, he is often forced into rebellion by the cruel exactions of his task master. Than it is that he will refuse to pay, and perhaps he may try to drive a stiletto into the carcass of his collector. For a few days nothing happens; the Black Hand waits till the whole colony knows of the trouble. Then suddenly the blow falls. The lesson has been taught, and some of the holder spirits who had lifted their head rebelliously once more bow their necks to the yoke.

Atraid to Inform
To exterminate the whole blood-thirsty order on this continent would be a simple matter if it were not for the reluctance of victims to turn to the police and bear witness against the blackmailers. From Rome the Italian has brought the conception that it is dastardly to inform on the ruffian who attempts his life. The proper thing to do is to become an equal ruffian and stab the enemy. This sentiment makes the work of the authorities in Black Hand centers extremely difficult. More than this is the absolute terror the gang inspires. On several occasions the police thought they were on the threshold of discoveries that would brood the conviction of whole broods of these ruffians; but at the last moment the material witness retracted his former confession, and chose imprisonment for perjury rather than the fate that he feared should be openly proclaimed himself an enemy of his tormentors. On at least two occasions mentioned by Mr. Brandenburg, the Black Hand has given the "death signal" to the witness in the box, with the result that there has been an infant and complete withdrawal of damaging statements, to the disgust of the police and the indignation of the judge. But increasing the misfortunes of the victims by sending them to prison for perjury is a poor way of exterminating the band.

No Central Organisation
In time, no doubt, the system that is being pursued in districts where the Black Hand is known to be strong, the hiring of special Italian detectives, will win the day. Even though the convictions they are able to secure are by no means commensurate with the outrages committed, the fact that they are apt to be arrested—and none too gently handled by the police—will deter many of the cutthroats, and gradually put some pluck into the victims who now take their punishment lying down. In one important respect the depredations of the Black Hand are not as serious as they might be. At present the ruffians have no chief, no particular organization. They simply copy each other's methods. With the coming of some murderous, masterful outlaw, who would apply to the Black Hand the methods J. P. Morgan applied to the steel industry, the criminal capacity of the Black Hand would be enormously increased.

RECIPE FOR RHEUMATISM

Directions To Prepare Simple, Yet Remarkable, Home Mixture.

There is so much Rheumatism here in our neighborhood that the following advice by an eminent authority, who writes for readers of a large eastern daily paper, will be highly appreciated by those who suffer. Get from any good pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract of Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kagon, three ounces Compound Syrup, Sarsaparilla. Shake these well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime; also drink plenty of good water.

It is claimed that there are few victims of this dread and torturous disease who will fail to find ready relief in this simple home-made mixture, and in most cases a permanent cure is the result.

This simple recipe is said to strengthen and cleanse the eliminative tissues of the kidneys, so that they can filter and strain from the blood and system the poisons, acids and waste matter, which cause not only rheumatism, but numerous other diseases. Every man or woman who feels that their kidneys are not healthy and active, or who suffer from any urinary trouble whatever, should not hesitate to make up this mixture as it is certain to do much good, and may save you from much misery and suffering after while.

Our home druggists say they will either supply the ingredients or mix the prescription ready to take if our readers ask them.

INDIANS STARVING

Their Reserve Being in a Grazing District Sets Them at a Disadvantage.

Are the people of Canada allowing the wards of the nation to suffer the awful pangs of hunger through ignorance of the actual condition of affairs?

Are the members of a tribe of Indians being driven to acts of lawlessness which are only inspired by the cravings for sustenance which are natural to all men, while the red? Some westerers being posted on Indian affairs are most emphatic in answering: "Yes!"

The fact that a couple of Stoney Indians had their names on the supreme court docket, on a charge of cattle killing, comes as a shock to many.

The members of this tribe are invariably law abiding and industrious and have been pointed to as examples of what proper instruction and treatment will evolve from the sons of the prairie.

The Stoney Indians have been given the alternative of working or starving. It is impossible for them to secure work for more than a total of a few weeks in the year, so they are in a fair way to starve.

The whites in the vicinity of the reservation at Morley provided work so far as they are able, and some of the Indians have been employed cutting wood for the line kilns at Kananaskis. Others have cut and shipped wood and posts to Calgary, but as the demand for this is limited and all the wood near the railway has been cut, it cannot be considered a source of much value to even the small number engaged in it. The line kilns too will cease to use wood in the near future and thus another source of employment will be closed to them.

The Indians formerly owned a large number of horses, the sale of which has been their chief means of support during the past few years, particularly since their rations have been withdrawn, but they have now not enough for their own use.

Although the Indians are wards of the crown, they were compelled last year, under the law of the local government, to pay a license fee of $2.50 per rifle to the chief game guardian who was on hand for the purpose of collecting it on treaty day, thereby depriving the Indians of one-half of their treaty payment, which would otherwise have gone for the purchase of four and other necessities. As a natural consequence he was compelled to kill more game than he otherwise would have done. So much for the game protection.

Their reserve is in the grazing section and it is utterly impossible for them to sustain themselves by farming, as owing to climate conditions, grain will rarely ripen and it is always cut as green feed. Potatoes and turnips yield a very inferior crop in the few sheltered plots where they are grown.

What the government has assisted the Indians by giving them a small number of cattle, the Indian is in no position to support himself until such time as the increase would afford him an appreciable assistance. In any case the reserve would not sustain a sufficient number of cattle to support the tribe, and as a matter of fact many Indians have no cattle at all.

The Blackfoot, Sarcee, Blood and Piegan Indians all have large reserves situated in good agricultural districts where they are rapidly becoming self-sustaining. They have received and are receiving far more assistance from the government than the Stoney Indians, although during the Northwest rebellion of 1885, the former had to be watched and policed, while the Stoney were the first to offer their assistance to the government and also volunteered their services as scouts, to the Imperial government, through Rev. John McDougall, their old friend and adviser, during the Boer war.

All the reserves, except that of the Stoney, being in good agricultural districts, have become valuable in the last few years, but the Stoney's reserve being in the grazing district is only worth the grass that grows on it and cannot further increase its value.

Owing to their poverty and lack of nourishing food during the past few years there has been an alarming increase in consumption. For example, one Indian has lost four children during the last eighteen months from this dread disease.

Those acquainted with the situation feel it is only necessary to call the attention of the public and the authorities to the facts of the case to relieve these worthy Indians from their present distress.

The remedy they propose is simply to return to former conditions and issue rations to these Indians and relieve their hunger. They claim it would be a simple act of justice which the people of Canada can well afford and which would meet with the hearty approbation of all who are familiar with the circumstances.

Indians, no matter how industrious cannot be expected to sustain themselves under conditions where white men could not make a living. This is the proposition which the most industrious, civilized, law abiding tribe of Indians in Canada have been compelled to face. Naturally the consequences are disastrous and if relief is not afforded them what the outcome will be is hard to guess.

FLAX IN ROTATION

Prof. Thomas Shaw Explains How Flax Seed May be Grown Without Injury to the Soil.

Prof. Thomas Shaw of the university of Minnesota, who was formerly a professor in the Ontario agricultural college at Guelph, is of the opinion that there is no more profitable crop for the farmer of the Northwest than flax seed. He says: "The idea prevails that flax is hard on land, viewed from the standpoint of the removal of plant food from the soil. Essentially it is not more so than wheat. The wheat among cereals is relatively hard on land furnishes no reason why it should not be grown where the conditions are favorable, but it does furnish a reason why it should be grown in such a way that the fertility of the land may still be maintained, and the same line of reasoning will apply to flax. When flax is grown in a judicious rotation, it fits as naturally into the same as any other crop."

The Proper Rotation

"The question now arises, what is the rotation in which flax should be grown? A little reflection will answer this question. When land is first broken, and when at the same time a proper seed bed is prepared, it furnishes the best crops. Why? For three reasons: First, it is well supplied with the elements of plant growing second, it is well stocked with humus, that is, vegetable matter and in a state of decay; and third, it is relatively clean. The decaying vegetable matter in the soils adds to the available fertility from other sources, and it also furnishes moisture to the plants. The relatively clean condition of the soil is very favorable to the growth of the flax crop, as it is not well fitted to cope with a vigorous growth of noxious weeds. The influence of the flax crop is also helpful, the quick reduction of the prairie sod, owing to the peculiar nature of the fibrous growth of the roots. These, penetrating every part, reduce the soil to a disintegrated pulverulent mass, which is greatly favorable to the growth of the succeeding grain crops other than flax."

Sod Land For Flax

"It has also been noticed that good crops of flax follow the breaking up of a sod field. For the same reasons that good crops of flax are grown on new breaking. The yields from crops grown on common sod land broken up are usually not quite so good as on new breaking, because the elements of fertility are not usually present to the same extent. But should farm yard manure be spread on sod land the previous year, the leachings from the same would stimulate the growth of grass roots, that these in decay would produce the best crop of flax that it would be possible to grow. It may happen, however, that in certain seasons the best crops may not come from sod land. However, the more sod land which the north west can furnish, the more will be the area of highest adaptation for growing the crop. The more grass to furnish pasture, the greater the number of the live stock and the greater the number of these the greater will be the supplies of manure to spread on the sod land on which flax is to be grown. The closer interdependence between much live stock and much flax in the future is thus apparent."

A Good Crop to Follow Wheat
"No crop north of the corn belt proper can follow wheat so well as flax. But, it has been noticed, that when flax is grown on old and worn land, the yields are low. The crop is also much injured by noxious weeds. Moreover, it has also been noticed that usually it is not wise to grow two crops of flax in succession or even without an interval of a few years between crops. This is owing to some substance left in the ground by flax roots detrimental to the growth of flax that follows on the same land. How many years should elapse between crops will depend on such conditions as the newness and strength of the land. Usually, however, a wise rotation would call for an interval of four or five years between crops. This does not mean, however, that in some instances good crops of flax cannot be grown in close succession. The increasing prevalence of flax will also accentuate the wisdom of growing flax crops in judicious rotation. It is thus apparent that the aim should be to grow flax not more frequently than four to five or even more than five years on the same land, and to grow it as far as possible, first on new breaking, second on over turned sod, and third on over turned sod previously manured."

PRINCE WILL VISIT CANADA

The Prince of Wales to be a Guest at Champlain Tercentenary.

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will attend the Champlain tercentenary celebration in Quebec next summer.

In connection with the second reading of the bill providing for a vote of $300,000 for the celebration in the House recently, Sir Wilfrid Laurier read the following letter from Earl Grey:

Government House, Ottawa, March 3, 1908.

My Dear Sir Wilfrid: It gives me great pleasure to inform you that His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, in response to your invitation, has graciously signified his willingness to attend the celebration of the founding of Quebec by Champlain, providing that can be held during the last week of July. Pre-arranged movements of the Atlantic fleet, which will accompany the Prince of Wales to Quebec, make it necessary for his highness to arrive on the 22nd of July, and to depart on the morning of the 29th of July.

His Highness regrets that for this reason his stay in the Dominion must be curtailed to make it impossible for him to visit places other than Quebec on this occasion. Lord Elgin who is anxious to do everything in his power to make the tercentenary a success, wishes to congratulate the Dominion on the important announcement which it is my privilege to request you to make to parliament of His Royal Highness's approaching visit. In joining most sincerely in these congratulations, I remain, Yours very sincerely, (Signed) GREY.

HAZEN SPEAKS

He is Delighted With His Majority and With the Result in General.

Mr. Hazen, the new premier has issued a statement reviewing the causes which contributed to his victory in New Brunswick, and says: "I have had the support of thousands of Liberals in this election, and am grateful to them. The verdict in St. John and elsewhere, to my mind, was a most emphatic condemnation of the part taken in the campaign by Hon. Mr. Pugsley, who will go back to Ottawa a very much weaker man than when he went down to New Brunswick to interfere in local affairs."

"I would like to say how delighted I am with my increased majority in Sunbury county. I have not been able to give much attention to the campaign there, but no man ever had a warmer support in his native county, and this in the face of promises of post offices, warves and mail services made in such lavish manner by Col. McLean, backed up by the minister of public works."

Premier Robinson says that the opposition will deserve the support received from the electors if they carry out the promises to give children school books at half price, and if they can run the province and build steel bridges without adding to the public debt.

CITY HALL OPENED

The Magnificent Building Was Visited by Crowds on the Opening Occasion.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday were gala days for Regina citizens for on those days the council and civic officials held an informal reception for the citizens in the magnificent new city hall.

The building is one which the people of Regina may well be proud of, for there are few, if any, city halls in Canada, that will surpass this one. The rooms are spacious and the furniture is in keeping with the building. The furniture is of oak and is handsome and appropriate. In a first walk through the building everything seems to be all that could be desired. There are no superfluous ornamentations but everything seems to have been worked out with an eye to utility. This we think is to the credit of the contractors and the city hall committee, and not to the architect.

On the ground floor are the most used offices, viz., city clerk, city treasurer, mayor's parlor, city assessor, city solicitor and health and relief offices. On the same floor is the council chamber and committee rooms.

On the basement floor is the police magistrate's office, the police court with rooms for lawyers and witnesses, the police offices, the cells, as well as offices for the waterworks inspector and city foreman.

Upstairs is the auditorium with its gallery, the city engineers' office and public library. The council chamber was the subject of comment by all who visited the hall. It is indeed an excellent room and the best furnished of any. On either side of the mayor's chair hang a life sized portrait of the king and queen. On the walls are also hung paintings of Mayor Smith and Ex-mayors Laird and McRae.

Reception

On Thursday afternoon from 3 to 5, Mayor and Mrs. Smith, with a few friends were at the hall and welcomed the visitors. Music and refreshments were supplied in the auditorium, Prof. Laubach and his orchestra supplying the music.

STOREY'S MITTS

In the evening addresses were delivered by Mayor Smith and Ald. Wilkinson, chairman of the city hall committee. At this evening's function the mayor formally declared the building open.

On Friday a similar reception was held, but in the evening addresses were dispensed with. Saturday afternoon was children's day and a host of children took possession of the hall.

Gave Birth to Six.

Stuebenville, Ohio, March.—Six perfectly formed children were born here today to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Campbell. Three of the infants died within an hour after birth. One boy and a girl will live, it is said. Three were boys. Mrs. Campbell weighs less than a hundred pounds. The combined weight of the infants were 23 pounds. Physicians declare the case to be the most remarkable known. Campbell is a mill worker and has four brothers. To the family of two of these, twins have been born, and each of the other brothers is father of triplets.

Campbell's first wife died after becoming the mother of triplets.

Campbell was for twelve years in the United States navy and fought under Schley of Santiago. Two of his brothers are now with Admiral Evans' fleet in the Pacific.

BRANDON MILLS CLOSED.

Brandon, March 5.—The flour mills of the Wheat City Milling Co. have been temporarily closed down by the Merchants' Bank, who, it is understood have been carrying the company with heavy liabilities. Notices were posted in the mill this morning stating that the mill was closed pending a readjustment. The notices were signed by Geo. A. Harrison who was brought here by the bank from Vancouver and placed in charge of the mill, and the local branch of the bank temporarily, while Mr. Little, manager of the bank for the last four years, has been called east by head offices. It is expected that Wheat City Milling Co. will soon open up under new management.

Many rumors are heard on the street in reference to the financial difficulties of the milling company but definite information will not be available until Mr. Harrison has completed his investigation of affairs. In the meantime the bank officials nor those connected with the mill will make any statement for publication, but it is believed that the shareholders will be heavy losers by the present financial difficulty.

Dr. A. Hulme Griffith, his wife, has been conducting a medical mission among the people of Montana, gives a remarkable account of his adventures.

During two years, nine months and his wife came in four towns and villages, receiving 500 patients and performing 500 operations.

The doctor spent a week with the Yezidis, or Shekhs, who inhabit the mountainous regions of the Caucasus. They are very hostile to those who are unable to subdue them to the inaccessibility of their homes.

There is a great deal about their religion, and not admit that they were ill, although there is no doubt that they were. Their diet is white, and carries a brand of office surplus, these are regarded as the best of the mountain. They are very hostile to those who are unable to subdue them to the inaccessibility of their homes.

WORSHIP SNAKES

Dr. A. Hulme Griffith, who, with his wife, has been conducting a medical mission among the people of Mesopotamia, gives a remarkable account of his adventures.

During two years, ministrations he and his wife came in touch with 384 towns and villages, received over 2,500 patients and performed over 600 operations.

The doctor spent a week with the Sheikh of the Yezidis, or devil worshippers, who inhabit the mountains around Masul. He says: "This curious tribe numbers about 20,000. They live among the mountain fastnesses, and owe allegiance to the sheikh. They are very hostile to the Turks, who are unable to subdue them, owing to the inaccessibility of their homes."

There is a great deal of mystery about their religion, and they will not admit that they worship the devil, although there is ample evidence to that effect. Their priests are all clad in white, and carry with them a wand of office surmounted by a brass pea cock.

These are regarded as most sacred and it is the boast of the Yezidis that none has ever been lost.

Snake worshippers at the entrance to their chief temple is the figure of a serpent. This is looked upon with great veneration, and is kept black by means of charcoal. Each worshipper kisses this serpent before entering the temple. Their religious rights which include the use of hypnotism, are kept very secret, and are only practiced between sunset and sunrise.

"Some time ago," the Turks captured their shrine, but were quite unable to make any progress with Moslem teaching, and lately handed it back to the Yezidis. The devil worshippers are afraid to venture into the towns, although numbers used to come down to me from the mountain for medical treatment.

A Beautiful Sight
The doctor describes how he saw a phenomenon which was practically the vision of the prophet Ezekiel. When "by the river of Shebar" Ezekiel "saw the heavens opened and saw visions of God." The prophet describes the whirlwind and the bright colors which appeared in the sky, followed by the appearance of wheels working "as if it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel."

Dr. Griffith said: "We had just pitched camp on the banks of the Khabur, a tributary to the Euphrates—the same river as is mentioned by Ezekiel at Shebar—when we witnessed a wonderful display as we were watching the setting sun. During the afternoon the sky was lit up by rays of varied hues, projecting like the spokes of a wheel from the setting sun."

From either side of the sun there appeared to issue wings, and the whole appearance gave just the idea of the winged wheels within wheels described by the prophet. The period of the year was the same as that referred to in Ezekiel.

After the phenomenon had lasted for some minutes the sun disappeared from the sky, which had the deep violet hue of eastern heavens. I cannot account for the phenomenon, but after I had witnessed it I recalled that I had some time previously received a letter from England suggesting that I should look out for such a display.

Dr. Griffith states that the region between the Tigris and the Euphrates only await the employment of capital to become one of untold wealth.

BRIGHT EYES, ROSY CHEEKS

Every Girl Can Have Them by Keeping Her Blood Rich and Red With Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

In the early days of her womanhood every girl—no matter what her station in life—should be bright, active, cheerful and happy. Her steps should be light, her eye bright and her cheeks rosy with the glow of health. But the reverse is the condition of thousands of young girls throughout Canada. They drag along always tired, suffer from headaches, breathless and with palpitating heart after light exercise, so that merely to go upstairs is exhausting. This is the condition doctors call anemia which means weak watery blood. In this condition Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the only safe and reliable medicine. These pills actually make the new, rich, red blood which can alone give health and strength and thus make weak, listless, pale faced, girls bright, active and strong. Miss Albina St. Andre, Joliette, Que., says: "I am more grateful than I can say for the benefit I have found in the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I was weak, run down and very miserable. I suffered from severe pains in my back and chest; had a bad cough, no appetite and would lay awake most of the night, and what sleep I did get did not refresh me. I tried several remedies, but they did not help me, and I, as well as my friends feared I was going into a decline. At this stage a friend who came to see me strongly urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and providentially I acted upon the advice. After using a few boxes my appetite improved and I began to sleep much better at night. This greatly cheered me and I continued taking the pills for some time longer, when the change in my condition was really marvellous. I was feeling as well as ever I had done. I could sleep soundly at night; the pains and cough had disappeared and I felt, altogether different. I am so grateful for what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me that I cheerfully give you permission to publish this in the hope that it may point the way to health to some other weak and despondent girl."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are good for all diseases due to weak, watery blood. That is why this medicine cures rheumatism, indigestion, neuralgia, St. Vitus dance, partial paralysis, and the sideaches, backaches caused by the troubles women alone suffer from. You can rest these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 25 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Scores Judiciary.
Vancouver, March 5.—Rev. Dr. Fraser, pastor of the first Presbyterian church, created a sensation at the Presbyterian meeting yesterday by charges against the judiciary.

H. G. said: "What we want in British Columbia is a self-respecting judiciary. Even patrolmen will tell you that there is no use securing convictions, because it will be upset by the higher bench on a technicality. Fast women were recently released on bail pending an appeal. They did not leave the city but returned to their former life, and conditions were now nearly as bad as ever. It is a down right shame that British Columbia should be open to such criticism. I was informed that during the hearing of an important case here, the judge fell asleep on the bench, and the case had to be adjourned until next day. No use mincing matters; in order to effect reforms we should strike at the very centre."

A NOTED SETTLER

A Man Who Lived and Fought in South Africa Settles in Canada.

The Saskatoon Phoenix has the following to say about one of the settlers in that district which goes to show that Canada's population is recruited from all over the world:

Mr. Melville is a veteran of the Crimean war and of the South African Boer war.

When scarcely 20 years of age he enlisted with the 42nd Highlanders, the famous Black Watch, and after a few weeks of drill at the depot at Carlisle, Scotland, was drafted for foreign service. He sailed for the Black Sea at the outbreak of the Russian War, and landed on the Crimea on the 18th of September 1854. Then followed the Alma, fiercely fought up the steep heights. He was wounded in the thigh by a Russian bullet. After a week or two to recover he was at Balaklava, where it was mostly cavalry fighting. The 42nd were spectators of the famous charges of the heavy brigade and the light brigade. Then ten days later, Inkerman, called the private soldiers battle, because of the lack of generalship, with its 14,000 stark corpses to be buried in wide trenches. Then followed the stern, icy winter of staving and freezing in the trenches, while comrades lay dying of fever or wounds at Seydlitz, with such nursing as Florence Nightingale was able to extemporize.

Finally the summer of bombardment, death in the trenches, the bloody assault on the Rian and the fall of the long defended city.

Of all the blood red panorama Mr. Melville has a distinct remembrance. Some months of truce, and the Black Watch sailed for Gibraltar, thence to the Cape, when shortly Mr. Melville was mustered out by purchase, now Color Sergeant, Melville, with the Crimean medal and three clasps, and the Turkish medal.

Just a few weeks more and he saw his comrades sail away to India for a further glorious record under the same noted General, Sir Colin Campbell one of the many heroes of the mutiny.

He was now 22 years old and had seen enough glory and adventure for a life time.

The next 44 years were spent in the usual way of the British colonist rancher, agriculturalist, etc. In 1899 he had a grown up family and was living in the Orange Free State. A few neighbors of one DeWet, later the famous general. At the outbreak of the war he secured the passage of his family and stock into Natal, where his four boys enlisted, one by one, to fight the Boers. Two were Saltcoats, March 5.—A foreigner was seen stumbling along W. Parkin's fence at Clumber last night, and Mr. Parkin on going out to see what was the trouble, found that both the stranger's feet were completely frozen, and the man was quite exhausted. Nothing was found out about him as he cannot speak English. He was brought to town to-night and put on the train for Yorkton, where he will go to the hospital to receive medical treatment.

All Disney sports were up in arms last week for several hours, among others were Dug, Taylor and W. T. Ash. Early in the morning of the 18th, Joe Robson struck town, almost breathless, for Joe, when he settled down, told the sports he had seen a real bear. He knew the exact spot where it was; gave the boys the precise location of the bluff where he saw it disappear while he hurried off to Disney to report. He said for sure it was the one Jim Mair and Harry Byett were after near Condie. When Dug, Taylor heard the yarn he picked off to Sporty Ash's house, and the pair soon returned with Ash's superior bounds, and in less than half an hour were scouring the country for bear. Dug says "I have my doubts about it, for it may be a Teddy bear." Soon they came on the bluff and the next moment they were disappointed, for what Joe Robson took to be a real bear was Jack Harris' old black horse, rustling for prairie wool on the sheltered side of the bluff.—Lumsden News-Record.

Brandon Mills Closed.

Brandon, March 5.—The flour mills the Wheat City Milling Co., have been temporarily closed down by the merchants' Bank, who, it is understood have been carrying the company with heavy liabilities. Notices were posted in the mill this morning stating that the mill was closed pending a readjustment. The notices were signed by Geo. A. Harrison who was brought here by the bank from Vancouver and placed in charge of the mill, and the local branch of the bank temporarily, while Mr. Little, manager of the bank for the last four years, has been called east by head offices. It is expected that the Wheat City Milling Co., will soon open up under new management.

Many rumors are heard on the streets in reference to the financial difficulties of the milling company but definite information will not be available until Mr. Harrison has completed his investigation of affairs. In the meantime the bank officials nor those connected with the mill will make any statement for publication, but it is believed that the shareholders will be heavy losers by the present financial difficulty.

IN THE INTERESTS OF Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives

The National Sanitarium Association of Canada has undertaken to publish a monthly magazine devoted to the Outdoor Treatment of Tuberculosis, and the inculcation of Hygienic Methods of Living for the people generally. The first number was issued in November, 1906.

All profits from this magazine — from subscriptions and advertising — will go to the maintenance of patients at the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives.

Any one contributing one dollar a year, or more, to the funds of the Hospital will become a subscriber to CANADIAN OUT-DOOR LIFE for one year.

No Father, No Mother, No Home—Worse Than a Prisoner
GARFIELD BRACEY, BERLIN, Ont.: Enclosed please find doctor's certificate and examination papers. Hope you will secure me a place in your Sanitarium. You will notice that my circumstances is a hard one: no father, no mother, no home—worse than a prisoner. Nobody wants me on account of my disease. Hoping you will have the charity and consider my position, and give me a position at once in your Sanitarium, I ever pray.

An Orphan, without Home or Means
DR. A. E. HANNA, PEETH: I have a patient here, a young fellow in whom I am greatly interested. He has tuberculosis. He is a poor young fellow, an orphan, out of home, without any means. If we sent him up would you take him in and do the best you can for him? I know how difficult it is to accommodate all who require treatment, but this is a special case.

It is always encouraging to have a letter from friends who kindly contribute. For the convenience of those who have not time to write, the following blank may be used:

"DO IT NOW"
Is a business motto of this strenuous age that applies with tremendous force when it is a good act you should do.

"A child's kiss set on thy sighing lips shall make thee glad."

"A sick man helped by thee shalt make thee strong."

"Thou shalt be served thyself in every sense of service which thou renderest."

"DO IT NOW"

I WAS SPECIALLY PLEASSED WITH THE ATTENTION PAID TO CONDUCT THE INSTITUTION CAREFULLY AND ECONOMICALLY.—Dr. R. W. Bruce-Smith, Government Inspector Hospitals and Charities.
