GUGY'S LAW OF LIBEL BILL.

Col. Gugy's Bill has been before the House, and has been rejected by a large majority. The principal object, however, of the mover has been attained, and he has been enabled to repeat all his rabid non-e ner about newspapers and nowspaper likels to the assembled wisdom of the countwo. The thing does not seen to have taken, and before the speaker had got through all his story, several members rose to protest against the thing of the House to protest against the time of the Honse bailing wanted. The only wonder is that Hr. Gugy was allowed to proceed at all D is bad enough that our Courts of Justice are compelled to tolerate these exhibitions, and sure by Parliament should be kept free of them. What have the constituencies the do with Colonel Barthelomew Conrad Agestos Gugy's Hol suits, and his groan large about Mr. Hincks and the press ? As a matter of currosity, however, we would draw the attention of future jories to the position in which Mr. Gugy wishes to place the press, and the strong contrast between the license he claims for himself to that which he would allow to the newspaper. In his separate exploities of Mem-ber of Barliament and advocate, Mr. Gurgy has uttered the most atrocious libels on the Canadian press, and has spared no pains t cardinal provide a set of the provide the set of the se Gregs, he would turn round and call it a hibel, and sue us in action for damages.— He can say of men infinitely better-bred, educated and more respectable than fimself, that they are "a description of vermin" that they are "a description of vermin"-"persons wearing the galb of men bit without any muly characteristic"---and compare them with those who pick packets or commit highway robberies--In this, and much worse, Mr. Gagy has the privilege of "the Court" and of Parliament---but let a poor printer only just bint that Gubee is Gagy, and the consequence are, an action of Libel, Still Mr. Gugy is always whin-ing, and treinge to persuade the public that ing, and trying to persuade the public that be is a much injured man, and that the Prevs is despotic. Why not strike at this monster grievance at once, and wrest this splendid public property from the hands of bigotry and intolerance? Fifteen Petitions were brought up and laid on the table. 32, Nays 8. A message was received from the Coun-cil, granting leave to the Hon. Mr. Walker to be examined before the Committee. Hon. Mr. Lafontaine introduced a bill to enlarge the representation of the people of this province in Parliament; second read-ing on the 16th inst. 32, Nays 8. DIVISION OF THE DISTRICT .- Our reader will be anxious to learn something respect-ing this contemplated measure, but as yet we have nothing to state of that definite we have nothing to state of that definite character which is so desirable. In conse-quence of the prolonged debate on the Re-bellion Losses, all other measures had to stand over, and the Counties Division Bill, which otherwise would probably have gone, through its first reading before our second arrival at Montreal, was not even introduc-ed until Friday last. But having previous-ty obtained information of its character, we ing on the 16th inst. Hon. Mr. Boul on reported amendments to the bill to authorise the formation of joint stock companies in Upper Canada, for the construction of plank, gravel or macad-imized roads therein. Committed for Monday next. 'The Election Bill was read the second ly obtained information of its character, we

These will remain united for judicial, and municipal purposes, till such the as a county under the best event. for poincing and multipli purposes, till such time as any county wishes to be set apart. Thus, then, it appears that the minnies or odle-heads of Goderich ; we mean, of course, the literary Tories had sucked, as with a straw, the talented composition of this precious document from the genius of London ! They could not have hit on anything so apropos though they had studied for a month, but the acuteness of their literary taste was completely captivated with the sublimity of such ideas, and the elegant expression given to them, they grasped with avidity at this ebullition of literary talent, and Hon. Hon. Mr. Lafontaine then moved that the said bill be committed to a committee of the whole house for Friday next. Mr. Guyy moved in amendment, that the worlds "and that it be an instruction to the said Committee to enquire into and report upon the expendiency of introducing a strain and effectual system for registration of votes" be added. After a long debate; Mr. G gy's amendment was negatived by a vote of 40 to 18, and the original motion adopted. The universally acknowldged merits of the Cyclopenta of Esclish Litratures, by the same author, connected with its rapid sale, and the unbounded commendation bestowed by the class of the unblishers full confidence in the piese, give the publishers full confidence in the real value and entire success of the present
