Fraternally Yours.
Allan Gillivray

THE REV. ALEX. MACGILLIVRAY,

HIGH CHIEF RANGER OF ONTARIO.

In this number, the FORESTER has very great pleasure in giving to its multitude of readers a sketch and portrait of our worthy brother, the High Chief Ranger of Ontario. The writer, who will not have an opportunity of seeing the portrait before it is printed, hopes photographer and engraver will do their work well, and give us a picture worthy of the original. Bro. Macgillivray hails from the north, whence most strong, progressive men come. He was born in the township of Nottawasaga, county of Simcoe, somewhere about the middle of the century, though to look at him one would think he was no more than thirty-five. His parents, both of whom have passed away, were Scotch, but came to Canada from North Carolina late in the forties. Simcoe was sparsely inhabited then, especially in the northern part. A lot was bought and a home started a few miles from where the present enterprising town of Collingwood stands.

The early home of the H. C. R. was not without something of the picturesque as to situation. Every morning the door opened to the eastern sun, and overlooked the Georgian Bay. To the west was the Blue mountain, (now cleared up to the very crest, but then covered with a magnificent forest of pine, and oak, and other hardwoods). Amid such surroundings Bro. Macgillivray spent his earlier years, and not having much to do, for some time at least, but grow, he did that well, as anyone can see who looks at his feet and inches. He could speak well when a year old, a habit which he has kept up ever since; and at twelve he could handle "figgers" better than his schoolmaster, as the traditions of the school long afterwards declared. From the common school he went to the Collingwood Grammar school, then under the rectorship of the Rev. Robert Rogers. The master and the pupil liked each other, and the results were in every way advantageous to the pupil, and creditable to the master. At seventeen young Macgillivray qualified as a first-class teacher, and at eighteen was appointed to the mastership of the home school, which he facetiously baptized the "Academy." After three years' successful teaching, he read classics at the Collingwood high school under Mr. Nichols, preparatory to entering college, with a view to the Christian ministry, and matriculated at Queen's College, Kingston, October, 1870. During his college career he was a good student (though at times suffering from turns of ill-health), and popular with his fellows. At the Alma Mater Society debates he kept himself in practice as a speaker, and never shrank from crossing lances with an opponent. He edited the College Journal for a session, and wrote largely for its columns as well, and spicier pages the Journal certainly has not had since. The advantages of this journalistic experience are now enjoyed by the readers of the FORESTER. During this theological course he was for one year president of the Missionary Association, and one of the most sanguine and successful student missionaries of his day. He completed his college studies in 1877, and was forthwith called to the old historic congregation of St. Andrew's, Williamstown, and ordained and inducted, on Sept. 21st of that year, and made all things new, and left them one of the best equipped and organized congregations in eastern Ontario.

The year 1885 Bro. Macgillivray spent in the United Kingdom as the agent of the General Assembly in presenting to British Presbyterianism the Christian necessities and claims of the French Canadian people, and his energy and address well fitted him for the work. In 1887 he was called to the congregation of St. John's, Brockville, and during the four years of his incumbency there duplicated his Williamstown record, and set the charge with the membership doubled, a heavy church debt all but extinguished, and the people united, harmonious, and active in Christian work. He accepted, in April, 1891, a call from Bonar church, Toronto, to become their pastor, and was inducted on May 1st, the first minister of the young congregation, a sense of duty alone constraining him to sever the strong tie that united him to Brockville, and to accept, for a time at least, a less stipend than he was receiving. The affection of his former congregations for Ontario Chief Ranger was practically manifested in the liberal contributions they made last summer towards the building fund of his present church.

Bro. Macgillivray's first appearance at High Court was at the Kingston Session, in 1889. His pre-eminent abilities were at once recognized by the High Court, and he was appointed High Chaplain. In 1891, he was elected to the second highest office in the gift of the High Court. As Vice High Chief Ranger he rendered most valuable services to Forestry, and helped very materially to spread the Order still more in Can. la. At the next Session, viz., the last Session held at Barrie, he was elected by acclamation to the high office in the gift of his brethren. Such rapid promotion is not the usual rule in the mother High Court. In Bro. Macgillivray's case, however, we thought at the time that the High Court had made no mistake in recognizing such commanding talents as he possesses, and the great success which the Order has enjoyed, especially in Ontario, since his election, attests the wisdom of the High Court in having placed Bro. Macgillivray in the High Chief Ranger's chair. We shall be very much mistaken if Ontario does not make the best record yet made, notwithstanding the Supreme Organizers have been sent to other jurisdictions where assistance is more needed. But it is not only as High Chief Ranger that he is serving the Order, but as associate or working editor of THE INDEPENDENT FORESTER, he is giving most valuable aid to our whole work. We understand also that "The Chief," with that foresight and wisdom for which he is noted, before undertaking any important step, always consults not only his constitutional advisers, but also with his associate editor.

Endowed as he is with a fine business and organizing faculty, a terse and graceful speaker, and most genial in his manner, he frequently relieves "The Chief" of duties in connection with outside appointments at public meetings and other Forestric demonstrations.

When Bro. Macgillivray joined the Order four years ago, the membership was only some 12,000, and the surplus $120,000. To-day the membership is over 44,000, and the surplus $607,000. In the High Court of Ontario the then membership was but a little over 7000; to-day it is close on to 20,000, and the increase for the last three months greater than at any period in the history of the Order. The High Chief Ranger assures me that there is not a single court to his knowledge out of the 500 in Ontario where unity and harmony do not prevail. Not a single court has disbanded, and the new ones organized average over one a week. It may be noted in passing that three brothers of the H. C. R. are Foresters—Rev. M. Macgillivray, of Chalmers' Church, Kingston; Prof. Macgillivray, of Queen's University, and Capt. Macgillivray, of the 48th Highlanders. Bro. Macgillivray is a member of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, the Sons of Scotland and the Independent Order of Good Templars. An ardent temperance advocate, he has contributed with voice and pen to the cause of temperance reform. In 1878 he was married to Miss Alice Glassup, of Kingston, an excellent lady, who has been to her husband a real help-meet in every department of his work, and for this reason, among others, that she is most capable in her own.

Bro. Macgillivray is a Presbyterian, and is as enthusiastic and capable in the work of his church as in the work of Forestry, and brings to bear upon it the same clear administrative faculty. A former fellow Presbyter was once heard to remark that when a tangled question came before the Presbytery he always felt relieved when Macgillivray got on his feet. As to his politics, the writer is not quite sure. On some matters he has been pronounced "a violent Tory," and on others "an extreme Radical." The truth probably lies midway. When D'Alton McCarthy becomes leader of the party that is ready to follow him, the H. C. R. will probably be found among his staunchest supporters. I close with the words of the elder to the well beloved Gaius, "May our chief prosper, and be in health as his soul prospereth." M.

The Spider-Web.

Whenever I see
On bush or tree
A great big spider-web,
I say with a shout,
"Little fly, look out!

That web seems so pretty and white,
But a spider hides there and he's ready to bite."

So if any one here
Drinks cider or beer,
I say to him now
With my very best bow,
"Have a care of that lager or cider;
For there hides a wicked old spider;
And it fills him with joy
To catch man or boy
And weave all about him with terrible might.
The meshes of habit—the rum appetite.

Nat Made a Mistake.

Nat was a venturesome little chap. One day he heard at school that Sam Webb's boat had struck the rocks under the bridge, and was breaking to pieces.

Nat wanted to see it, so on his way home he turned off to the railroad bridge which crossed the little river just where it was full of rocks. It was a rough and dangerous place. Creeping along, the little boy bent over until his head grew dizzy, and if he hadn't jumped up quickly he would certainly have fallen over. And something else might have happened, too, if he had stayed there two minutes longer, for he had no sooner got off the bridge than a railway train came rushing along that would have crushed him to death in a moment.

But Nat thought he had done a very smart thing. He ran home, and at the dinner table he boasted that he had been down on the railroad bridge and seen Sam Webb's boat among the rocks, and had just time to get off when the Boston express came along.

Father and mother looked at each other, but not a word was said. Nat thought they would praise him, but they did not.

After dinner father took the little boy into his study. He looked so very sober Nat began to feel that something dreadful was coming. Father sat down in his chair, drew the boy up to his side, and put his arm around him.

"Nat," said he, "you thought you were very brave to-day, didn't you? But going into danger when there is no need of it is no mark of courage. It is rash and wicked." Then papa stopped, and Nat began to cry; but he never forgot the words of advice that followed:

"My dear boy, never try how far you can go in a dangerous place; always keep on the safe side."

Love One Another.

It was Saturday night, and two children small
Sat on the stairs in the lighted hall,
Vexed and troubled and sore perplexed,
To learn for Sunday the forgotten text,
Only three words on a gilded card,
But both children declared it hard.

"'Love,' that is easy—it means, why this"—
(A warm embrace and a loving kiss);
"But 'one another,' I don't see who Is meant by 'another,'—now, May, do you?"

Very grandly she raised her head,
Our thoughtful darling, and slowly said,
As she fondly smiled on her little brother;
"Why, I am only one, and you are another,
And this is the meaning—don't you see?—
That I must love you, and you must love me."

Wise little preacher, could any sage
Interpret better the sacred page?

Neatness in Girls.

Neatness is a good thing for a girl, and if she does not learn it when she is young, she never will. It takes a great deal more neatness to make a girl look well than it does to make a boy look passable. Not because a boy to start with, is better looking than a girl, but his clothes are of a different sort; and not so many colors in them, and people don't expect a boy to look so pretty as a girl. A girl that is not neatly dressed is called a sloven; and no one likes to look at her. Her face may be pretty and her eyes bright, but if there is a spot of dirt on her cheek, and her shoes are not laced or buttoned up, and her apron is dirty, and her collar is not buttoned and her skirt is torn, she cannot be liked. Learn to be neat, and when you have learned it, it will almost take care of itself.

Home Circle.

Leave Them Outside.

BY ELLA WHEELER WILCOX.

Don't bring into the lodge-room
Anger and spite and pride.
Drop at the gate of the temple
The strife of the world outside ;
Forget all your cares and trials,
Forget every selfish sorrow,
And remember the cause you meet for,
And haste ye the glad to-morrow.

Drop at the gate of the temple
Envy and spite and gloom.
Don't bring personal quarrels
And discord into the room,
Forget the slights of a sister,
Forget the wrongs of a brother,
And remember the new commandment
That ye all love one another.

Bring your heart into the lodge-room,
But leave yourself outside—
That is, your personal feelings,
Ambition, vanity, pride.
Centre each thought and power
On the cause for which you assemble,
Fetter the demon liquor,
And make ye the traffic tremble.

Ay, to fetter and to chain him,
And cast him under our feet,
This is the end we aim at,
The object for which we meet ;
Then don't bring into the lodge-room
Envy or strife or pride,
Or aught that will mar our union,
But leave them all outside.

Courage.

A TALK TO YOUNG MEN.

By the Secretary of the Boston Y.M.C.A

"None of these things move me." The men who have moved the world have been the men whom the world could not move. The men who have turned this world upside down have been the men whom this world could not turn upside down. The men who move things are the men whom nothing can move.

The men whose names shine brightest on the pages of history are the men who absolutely refused to conform to the thoughts and habits of the age in which they lived. The men who have conformed to the world have been deformed by the world, while the men who have sought to reform the world have transformed the world, and have been themselves transformed.

Are Christian young men too careful? Are we so anxious to use tact that we seldom come in contact? Are we so much concerned as to what the world will say about us that we dare not say anything about the world?

A Christian ought to be different from other men because of his indifference to other men's opinions, when such opinions have to do with the law of his God.

When Moses first started out on his life-work forty years before he was really ready for it, we are told that he looked this way and that. There is a peculiar form of nervousness that appears to affect a great many very good people; they twist their necks almost stiff, looking "this way and that." A Christian is not in a healthy condition when he looks "this way and that," either to "catch a snile or avoid a frown."

When a certain Christian reformer was told that the whole world was against him, he quietly remarked, "Then I am against the whole world."

God calls loudly for men who are unflinching in their loyalty, men who care not what men say, women who care not what women say, preachers who care not what preachers say, young men who care not what the world thinks, or says, or does, or fails to do, so long as they are sure that they are keeping step with the music of heaven and marching with heroes of all the ages.

The fashion of this world changeth, but the fashion of this world has not changed with reference to the way in which this world receives its true heroes. Boston dishonored itself by giving William Lloyd Garrison a mob in 1835, and then honored itself by giving him a monument in 1870.

The world usually rejects a man before it accepts him. First they swear at him, then they swear by him. First the sneer, and then the cheer. First the lash, and then the laurel. First the trial, and then the triumph. First the cross, and then the crown. How is your courage? Are you ready?

American Fathers.

So much has been said about the frivolity, incompetence, or fussiness of American mothers that it will not be amiss to inquire into the characteristics of our fathers of families. With the best intentions in the world the time that a city man can spend with his family is usually very limited, and he is not always in the mood to exert a helpful influence, when he returns at night worn out with business cares, and often prefers the club, lodge, or neighboring corner to his family circle; his wife may see little of him and his children less.

It is not a matter of indifference, however, even in regard to health, whether the children enjoy a due proportion of their father's companionship, for that is a should be a vital factor in the children's growth and education, and whenever they are deprived of it, certain elements of character and mind are almost always absent. Look around among your friends where the children have grown up without a father, and see if your observation does not show that there is some quality of mind or heart, some check or balance wanting, that no one else could supply.

I observe that American fathers, whether from the exactions of business or other reasons, do not ordinarily come to my office with their ailing children. The whole matter is often left in the hands of the wife or some relative. Germans are more apt to come than Americans, and Hebrews most of all; and indeed I cannot refrain from expressing my admiration of the domestic life of the better class of Jews in New York, which, so far as I have observed it, is in many respects more nearly what it should be than that of any class in our community.—Henry L. Taylor, M. D., in the Popular Science Monthly for October.

Be Brier.

When you've got a thing to say,
Say it! Don't take half a day.
When your tale's got little in it,
Crowd the whole thing in a minute!
Life is short—a fleeting vapour—
Don't you fill an eight-page paper
With a tale which, at a pinch,
Could be cornered in an inch!
Boil it down until it simmers;
Polish it until it glimmers.
When you've got a thing to say,
Say it! Don't take half a day.

—Texas White Ribbon.

His Love and Care.

I know not where His islands lift
Their fronded palms in air;
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care.

O brothers! if my faith is vain,
If hopes like these betray,
Pray for me that my feet may gain
The sure and safer way.

And Thou, O Lord! by whom are seen
Thy creatures as they be,
Forgive me if too close I lean
My human heart on Thee?
—John G. Whittier.

True Hospitality.

I pray you, O excellent wife, not to cumber yourself and me to get a rich dinner for this man or this woman who has alighted at our gate, nor a bed chamber made ready at too great a cost. These things, if they are curious in, they can get for a dollar at any village. But let this visitor, if he will, in our looks, in our accent and behavior read our hearts and earnestness, our thoughts and goodwill, which he cannot buy at any price in any village or city, and which he may well travel fifty miles and dine sparsely and sleep hard in order to behold. Certainly let the board be spread and let the bed be dressed for the friend, but let not the emphasis of hospita... lie in these things. Honor to the house where they are simple to the verge of hardship so that there the intellect is awake and reads the laws of the universe, the soul worships truth and love, and honor and courtesy flow into all deeds.—Emerson.

Learn to be a man of your word. One of the most disheartening of all things is to be associated in an undertaking with a person whose promise is not to be depended upon—and there are plenty of them in this wide world, people whose promise is as slender a tie as a spider's web. Let your given word be as a hempen cord, a chain of wrought steel, that will bear the heaviest sort of strain. It will go far to making a man out of you; and a real man is the noblest work of God; not a lump of moist putty, moulded and shaped by the last influence met with that was calculated to make an impression; but a man of forceful, energized, self-reliant and reliable character, a positive quantity that can be calculated upon.

A Warm Handshake.

A Pittsburg pastor writes us: "It was at the close of the evening service last Sunday that, according to my wont, I stepped down from the pulpit and moved toward the door to greet old friends and welcome strangers. Presently there stood before me a shy, intelligent-looking lad, who grasped my hand with so much cordiality that looking him in the face, I said: 'What is your name? Do you live somewhere near by?' 'My name,' said he, with a charming accent 'is John Silas. I do not live here: I work at the K—hotel.' How did you find your way here?' 'I look for you many days,' responded the boy; 'I come from Germany one year ago—no father, no mother. I meet you one night you preached at W—(one of our suburbs), you shook hands with me, and I've been looking for your church ever since.' The incident deeply touched several who were standing by, and hospitality to strangers will seem to us all more valuable than before."—Phil. Pres.

Official Notice.

We have been requested by our Bankers to have all I.O.F. drafts, express money orders, and P.O. orders, made payable, not to the manager of the bank, but to the bank itself, and to place thereon the words "for credit of I.O.F."

Financial Secretaries are, therefore, hereby respectfully instructed to make all drafts, express money orders, and P.O. orders payable to the order of "The Molsons Bank, for credit of I.O.F."

Court Deputies and Chief Rangers are specially charged to see that these instructions are carried out in every instance.

By order,

ORONHYATEKHA,
Supreme Chief Ranger.

JOHN A. MCGILLIVRAY,
Supreme Secretary.

The Home Office of I.O.F.,
Toronto, 1st February, 1893.

Notes.

"Abhor that which is evil, cleave to that which is good."

This month we issue 50,000 copies, and owing to extra demands on our space, we have added four pages.

If the man who is eager for prominence in the court, was only as eager for work outside of it, the good work would be hastened considerably.

The suspensions last year were a large number, but comparatively a decreasing number; just about one-half the number in the stock companies.

The complete list (and it will be a long one) of those who won the prizes offered by the Supreme Executive, will appear in our next issue. All the returns are not yet complete.

It is suggestive, that while we have twenty-eight chapters, recording the Acts of the Apostles, we have no record of their resolutions. In our day some apostles reverse this apostolic order.

In this issue we give our readers a portrait and sketch of Bro. Rev. A. Macgillivray, H.C.R. of Ontario. Next month Bro. Emmerston, P.S.C. and H.S., of New Brunswick, will adorn our first page.

The prize list of the High Court of Ontario should excite a lively competition among the members of the Order in Ontario. The list of those who won the prizes offered last October, appears in this issue.

“Speak a shade more kindly than the year before;

Pray a little oftener, love a little more;
Cling a little closer to the Father's love;
Thus life below shall liker grow to life above.”

The detailed statement of the Supreme Secretary in this No., showing the standing of each court, is of special value. Members, by comparing it with the statement in the August FORESTER, will see whether their court has advanced, stood still, or receded.

The Order that, in the first month of the 17th year of its history, adds $27,000 to its reserve, and has behind it a total reserve of $607,000, and a membership of over 44,000, paying monthly something like $50,000, is as strong numerically and sound financially as the most cautious can reasonably desire.

Some men like to work for an Order, and some like to have the Order work for them. We have hosts of the former, possibly an odd one here and there of the latter. The Order is being conducted on sound business principles. “Good pay for good work, and no work, no pay.” The Order is bound to prosper.

February and March were our best months last year. We can't afford to show a poorer record for the same months this year. We should show a better record. We have over 10,000 more members; they ought to be workers; we expect they are, and that it will be seen in handsome additions to our membership.

**

A month of the new year is past—what have you done to carry out the resolutions so earnestly made at the beginning of the year? Whom have you helped? Whose life has been made brighter by your fellowship, and whose burden lighter by your sympathies? What you should do, do now. Opportunities do not return.

“I can't afford life insurance,” we now and then hear a man say. “I have as much to do as I can to get along now.” Brother, if you and yours find it enough to get along now, how would it be with them if you were taken from them? You cannot afford, of all men, to neglect the protection that life insurance affords.

**

One of the disgraceful sights of our town and city streets is to see sickly-looking lads in krickerbockers puffing away at the stub of a cigar or cigarette. If a policeman brought every such offender to his home, and had an interview with his parents, it might tend to prevent these youngsters from becoming mental and physical imbeciles. The law against selling cigarettes to lads should be rigidly enforced.

For some weeks, two clerks have been busy with the mailing list. Every Forester whose name appeared in the annual report of his court, has his name on the mailing list, and ought to get his copy of the FORESTER regularly. All changes and additions will, as soon as reported to the editors, be at once noted. We are anxious that every member should get his copy of the official organ regularly. Will financial secretaries please notify us promptly of all charges; and will they please write a hand that ordinary mortals can read?

A Year of Unparalleled Progress.

Those who have watched the career of the Independent Order of Foresters and have interested themselves in its history will note with special interest the splendid record that the Order has made for itself during the year 1892. It will be fresh in the recollection of many that at the beginning of the year the Order was enjoying the hostile criticism of those whose interests would be served by prejudicing it in the eyes of the public. It may be safely concluded, that the strongest arguments that could be used were used against the I.O.F., and that real or fancied weaknesses were shown up. The public to whom the appeal was made, doubtless carefully considered the arguments for and against the Order, and the verdict given in the patronage bestowed on the I. O. F. for 1892, is the best possible vindication of the INDEPENDENT ORDER OF FORESTERS, the soundness of its principles and the efficiency of its management.

The returns for the year are now complete. They are away and ahead the best the Order ever had in any one year of its history, and this in the face of a continued depression that is affecting business very seriously wherever the Order is operating.

The applications for membership received during the twelve months ending Dec. 31st, amounted to 16,134. The deaths were only 224 or 5.92 in the 1,000. The amount paid for claims was $283,000, an increase of $73,000 over the preceding year. The amount carried to the permanent reserve was $171,793.67, an increase of over $47,000 on the increase of the preceding year. The reserve stood at $408,798.18 on the 1st January, 1892,—stands at $580,597.85 on the 1st January, 1893. The net increase in membership for 1892 is 10,721. The preceding year it was 7,201, showing a gain on the splendid advance of 1891 of 3,520. The number of new courts organized for 1892 was 277, less by 13 than the year before, thus showing that a large proportion of the membership was secured by additions to old courts and without any expense to the Order at large. It is also worthy of note that the year was closed without a single claim in dispute, and every dollar of certified claims paid. Not a word of strife or discord is heard from the twelve hundred and fifty courts in the Order.

With such a record it is not to be wondered that the Order received in 1892 within 25 per cent. of as many applications for membership as all the stock companies doing business in Canada insured of new lives in 1891. The work done is a splendid tribute to the soundness of the principles of the I. O. F. the splendid ability of its officers in Supreme, High, and Subordinate Courts, and the loyalty and enthusiasm of the membership. The outlook for the future is particularly bright, and 1893 should show as great an advance on 1892 as that year showed over the preceding one. "To him that hath shall be given." has been strikingly illustrated in the history of the I. O. F.

Progress in Great Britain.

January 23rd, 1893.

Col. Paterson arrived here just before the Christmas holidays, and quite in time for his particular work. The attention of the British public was beginning to be strongly attracted to the aims and operations of the I.O.F., and letters of inquiry were being received in considerable numbers at the office. These inquiries were from all parts of the country, and from Ireland and Wales, and even from the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man. But the Christmas holidays intervened, and then came a spell of wintry weather, and fogs unusual in severity, and the ordinary course of business was not a little interfered with. Letters of inquiry, propounding all sorts of questions in reference to the Order, continued, however, to multiply and increase in volume, and Col. Paterson had to lend his aid in replying, and the day that saw its own batches of letters all dealt with was a day of satisfaction. A goodly number, it may be here interjected, were from ladies, who expressed a wish to join the Order if permitted so to do.

There is no Order in Great Britain which operates on our lines, by issuing policies of insurance, and hence a difficulty in understanding the points of difference, and the special advantages we offer. The Order has also been extensively mistaken for the Ancient Order of Foresters, which in this country is a gigantic institution, with upwards of 700,000 members.

Col. Paterson was enabled to set out upon his work of organization last week, and proceeded to Birmingham, the capital of the Midlands, a city of about half a million population, where the adhesion of several gentlemen of position was secured. He had to leave Birmingham for Cornwall, to deliver an address by request of the largest employers of labor in Tregony on the principles and working of the Order, and as a result there is no doubt but that a good court will be formed, the people becoming quite enthusiastic. He has returned to Birmingham, and from thence he goes to Liverpool, from which city we have a large number of inquiries. A number of names have already been secured there towards the formation of a court.

But it is quite impossible for Bro. Paterson to cover all the ground. We want, and immediately, at least a round dozen of such men as Bro. Thompson to meet the demands for the establishment of the Order in Manchester, Bradford, Bristol, Leeds, Nottingham, Brighton, Newcastle, and other large centres of population. Then there are Ireland and Wales, from both of which we have numerous applications.

Bro. Thompson has gone to Reading, and as soon as he gets a court in there, he goes on to Lincolnshire, where he has promises of active assistance in the formation of a good court. He has left applications for charters partly filled up at Teddington, Wimbledon, Paddington, and Kentish Town, all in or about London, in good hands, to be filled up and completed. The court Bro. Thompson instituted at St. Pancras was filled up mainly by the influence and assistance of Bro. Shipman, a personal friend and temperance co-worker of the Supreme Chief Ranger, who gave Bro. Thompson letters of introduction.

Bro. Marshall has completed and instituted in Glasgow his first court for bonnie Scotland—The Scottish Pioneer. His next court is well under weigh, and some of his friends are busy in other parts of Scotland. He writes under date 21st inst: "I had exactly 63 callers about the Order yesterday." On the 23rd he wrote: "My son had to sit up with me until half-past two this morning to assist me to finish up answering letters of inquiry."

We had a capital meeting of Court England's Standard Bearer on the 20th, and received three new members. In this court there are 9 members taking £600 policies, and one taking £400. Some of these would have been £1000, the constitution permitting. There are three other courts in process of formation in London, in addition to those which Bro. Thompson has on the way.

Summing up our present position, we have now five really good courts in active operation, the members of which for the most part occupy good positions, and about a dozen courts in process of formation. We have also aroused public attention most effectively, and our work will be very much easier in extending the Order than it has been to plant it. The formidable difficulties which stood in the way of getting members for a totally unknown organization are beginning to disappear, as our positive existence is being demonstrated. Very many of our newspapers have given favorable comments upon the advent of the Order, and its aims and principles, though some of the Insurance Journals are the opposite of friendly, as might be expected.

One paper (Pearson's Weekly) having as I understand the third largest circulation in the world, 650,000, the Petite Journal and Lloyd's Weekly News only ranging higher in number of copies sold, has the biography of the remarkable man at the head of the order in type, and the biography of the Supreme Chief Ranger is the best possible advertisement the Kingdom over of the Order itself. Extracts from this biography will without doubt be given in many other papers, and the knowledge of the I. O. F. thus be correspondingly diffused.

The Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies has gone out of his way in an attempt to discredit the Order by writing a long letter to the Times. But Bro. Paterson was enabled by this very action, improper enough in a public official, to get by way of reply access to the columns of the "Thunderer" with a spirited exposition of the working of the Order.

As I write, Col. Pater has come in on his return from his second visit to Birmingham. He is in high spirits and has an immensely more sanguine opinion of the prospective success of the Order in this country than he has yet entertained. He has been able to make arrangements whereby nearly the whole district will be well canvassed. He was interviewed by some first-class insurance men who, after getting to understand our rates and the advantages our Order offers, expressed opinions to the effect that for Birmingham it means large success. Some went so far as to declare for 200 courts there within the next twelve months. Their pointed request was that Col. Paterson should call at Birmingham on his way to Liverpool to institute a first court which they expect then to be ready as a first gathered fruit of his visit.

Yours in L. B. and C.,

RONALD McDUGALL.

Subordinate Court Officers.

During the month of January, all our subordinate courts, numbering close on 1,250, elected their officers. Thousands of tried and true men have been obligated into office. The promise has been unreservedly given. "I will do all in my power to spread the principles of the Order, and to secure good and worthy men for membership therein." What may we not expect from men who have pledged their "most sacred honor" to carry out this promise? With our subordinate court officers rests largely the extension, and with them rest entirely the peace, harmony, and efficiency, of the subordinate court. Given a dozen men, loyal to the Order, mindful of their official obligations, and judicious in their efforts, and the membership of most courts will be doubled in the next six months. Some courts will double their membership in that time. What will be done by some might be done by nearly all. In this connection it is worth remembering that we are able to give Insurance at rates so much lower than the Stock Companies, because our expenses are so much less, and members are secured, in the majority of instances, through the unpaid efforts of the membership, rather than by the salaried organizers. It is a part of the contract between the I.O.F. and every member, that the members will do all in their power "to spread the principles of the Order, and to secure good and worthy men for membership therein." In laboring successfully for this end, three things are attained — the contract with the Order is being kept, the security of the individual member is being increased by the additions of new members, and the benefits of the Order are being conferred on a large number of persons. Another point, but a minor one, that we would press on our subordinate court officer, is the mastering of the ritual. It does not look or sound well to see an officer tied to his manual, and stumbling somewhat painfully over his part. As a matter of comfort to himself, and duty to his court, every officer will thoroughly master his part of the ritual. Further, be prompt in your attendance. Sometimes the absence of a single officer delays the opening of the court. Don't be absent or late when you can avoid it. Let every subordinate court officer enter upon his duties resolved to give INDEPENDENT FORESTRY the most prosperous six months in its history.

Our Supreme Court Officers.

During January some of the members of the Executive have been unusually active, and in addition to the special duties of their general offices, have been giving valuable service outside.

Supreme Chief Ranger Oronhyatekha attended the second meeting of the High Court of Wisconsin, at Madison, on the 1st inst. He reports the meeting as one of great interest. The difficulties incident to a new organization are being successfully overcome. The Order is securely established in the State, and the prospects of rapid increase in membership are of the brightest. High Court Officers acknowledged in grateful terms the assistance and encouragement given by the Supreme Executive.

Before returning the Supreme Chief completed arrangements at Chicago for hotel accommodation for members of the Supreme Court next September.

Rooms when occupied by two will cost from $1.25 to $2.25, with meals from 40 cents to 60 cents extra. The rates are considered very reasonable.

The Supreme Secretary, John A. McGillivray, has given a large number of his evenings for the last month to outside work, installing officers and addressing public meetings. Among some of the places visited are Port Perry, Uxbridge, Kintore, Bondhead, Watertown, Buffalo and Hamilton, at which latter city he gave a short address at the first annual concert given under the auspices of the courts of the city.

On the 27th inst. the Supreme Chief and Supreme Secretary leave for Michigan to be present at the meeting of the High Court of that State at Saginaw on the 28th inst.

His Honor Judge Wedderburn, High Counsellor, has been doing yeoman service in New Brunswick, visiting courts, installing officers, and giving public addresses. During the month of January the officers of Court St. Marys were publicly installed, the Supreme Counsellor being assisted by Bros. Colman, H.C.R., Creed, P.S.V.C.R., and McCrae, H.C. The large company present were addressed by Judge Wedderburn and Bro. Colter, M.P.P. In this instance the sumptuous dinner furnished by the ladies came before and not after the installation and address. No wonder that everything went "merry as a marriage bell." The public installation of the officers of Court Frederick at Carleton was a function of more than ordinary interest. The Supreme Counsellor was assisted by all the members of the High Standing Committee. Prior to the installation four new members were initiated, the High Chief Ranger presiding. The public installation of the officers of Court Hampton was witnessed by an audience that completely filled the large hall. The large stage was most appropriately arranged, and during the ceremonies had the appearance of a court in session in a forest—the scarlet sashes and bright jewels and regalia of the Foresters making a most pleasing effect against the dark green trees surrounding. The Hampton Cornet Band provided the music. The Supreme Counsellor installed the officers. The Rev. Mr. Burns, Court Chaplain, followed, going eloquently and at some length into the subject of the social, moral and fraternal characteristics of the Order, and Judge Wedderburn traced over the numerical and monetary position of the Order during the last decade, until it had reached its present phenomenal position on a most solid financial foundation. Several applications have been received as a result of the addresses.

Dr. Millman, whose office duties are very onerous, has recently visited Hamilton and Uxbridge. At the latter place he gave a very practical and effective address.

Concert at Hamilton.

The concert in Hamilton on the evening of the 6th inst., under the auspices of the courts in the city, was a most enjoyable entertainment, and the brethren scored a success of which they may justly feel proud. Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, the Opera House was completely filled, and the programme, from beginning to end, seemed to be most heartily enjoyed by all. The Hamilton press speak in the highest terms of the concert, the Times thus concludes a long article:

"Finally, the Foresters are to be much commended for their course in bringing a combination of artists here as a means both of raising money and of bringing them well before the public, which was done by Mr. McGillivray, Q.C., of Toronto, in a neat and pointed speech, giving as brief as possible an outline of the history, objects and work of the Forester's Order. The plan of engaging a well-known and reliable company for an entertainment instead of getting up costly shows, is commended to the earnest attention of our societies and charitable organizations, as being easier to manage, for less expense, and as serving some definitely artistic purpose."

The success of the concert was largely due to the committee of management who are all recognized hustlers in Forestric circles in Hamilton. J. W. Lamoreaux, of Court Oronhyatekha, was a capable chairman, and E. O. Zimmerman, of Court Pride of Barton, has made a record for himself as a hard worker in his position as secretary. The other members of the committee were: C. C. Baird, Robt. Foster, Robt. Griffith, J. M. Patterson, F. R. Close, James F. Davis, L. L. Irvine, D. Gleeson, W. A. Kerr, H. T. Drope, J. A. Brown, B. Witter, A. E. McGillivray, R. R. Baird, E. Twiss, H. Bosselman.

World's Fair Notes.

The British section of the World's Fair will be decorated in part by some seventy banners bearing respectively the arms of different municipal corporations in the kingdom, such as London, Edinburgh, Dublin, Ayr, Canterbury, etc. The British Royal Commission invited the corporations to furnish the banners, and some loaned those they possessed, while others had their official insignia reproduced for the occasion.

The "White City," as the World's Fair grounds and buildings are termed, has the equipment of a model municipality. It has a combined water capacity of 54,000,000 gallons a day, and will soon have 100,000,000. It has 25 miles of water mains and 291 hydrants. A hundred more will be provided. There are 3 steam fire engines, 4 chemical engines, a ladder truck, water tower, 40 hose carts, 26,750 feet of hose, 1,050 hand fire extinguishers, 2,500 fire pails, a steam fire boat, 63 firemen, 150 alarm boxes, 150 patrol telephones, 500 guards, complete electric light and sewerage systems, etc., etc. By the time the Fair opens many of these facilities and equipments will be greatly increased and perfected.

Special days are to be a great feature at the World's Fair. Nearly, if not quite, every state of the Union will have its day, upon which special exercises will be held, and its governor and staff, other state officers, militia and thousands of its distinguished and other citizens will be in attendance. Receptions will be held at the state buildings, respectively, and the governors and others will make speeches. Many musical, civic and secret societies also have made application for a special day upon which to hold exercises peculiar to themselves. Among them are the Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias and Foresters. The Welsh Eistedfodd will have an entire week for a musical celebration. It is believed these special features will draw many additional thousands of visitors to the Fair. Arrangements for these special days are being made by Col. Culp, Secretary of the Ceremonies Committee, which had the Dedication Day exercises in charge.

Personal Mention.

Bro. John Iams, of Court Wellington, No. 21, was elected reeve of the village of Drayton by a large majority.

The municipal election brought office and honor to Bro. Gould, of Uxbridge. He is now reeve of his native burgh.

Bro. William Long, also a member of Court Wellington, added to the honors of his court by being elected, with a handsome majority, reeve of Maryboro'.

Bro. Henry Foreman, of Collingwood, is as independent in politics as he is enthusiastic in Forestry. He was elected the other day President of the McCarthy Club, organized in the town.

Bro. Theodore McGillivray, barrister, of Whitby, and brother of the Supreme Secretary, is one of the civic fathers of his native town. "Theo. will make a genial and approachable alderman.

Bro. Joseph T. Carson, of Simcoe, enjoys in an eminent degree the confidence of his fellow townsmen. In his absence he was elected by acclamation to the reeveship of the county town of Norfolk.

Bro. Neil McCrimmon, one of Toronto's rising young lawyers, and first Chief Ranger of Court Christopher Columbus, was married recently. We wish Bro. McCrimmon and his bride a long, prosperous and happy life.

Dr. A. G. Forbes Gammack, Deputy of Court Merlin, visited our sanctum. It was our misfortune to be out, and to miss forming the personal acquaintanceship of one of our most zealous and efficient Court Deputies.

D. M. Card, D.S.C.R., is doing excellent work in Manitoba and the North-west. New courts are being instituted, and old ones are being thoroughly organized, and put on a solid footing. Forestry is bound to lead in the West.

Bro. William Morrison, of Court Kinnou, is a model Court Deputy. He has mastered the constitution, never misses an opportunity of presenting the claims of the Order, and does what very, very few do, reports semi-annually to his chief.

Bro. Victor Morin, the accomplished High Counsellor of the High Court of Quebec, believes in annexation. In a very quiet and pacific way, we are informed, he united with one of Maine's fair daughters on the 11th ult., and now the High Counsellor knows nothing but happiness. May it always be so.

Honors have come in abundance to Bro. Jos. Wright, of Beeton. He is C. D. H. C. R. of his court. At the municipal election he was, for the seventh time, re-elected Reeve of Beeton. And still more recently he was chosen Warden of the County of Simcoe. We congratulate the brother on these tokens of the confidence and esteem of the community.

Bro. T. W. Nisbet, of the Bank of Commerce, Sarnia, has been appointed Canadian editor of the Boys' Brigade Courier, published at Cincinnati. Bro. Nisbet is an enthusiast in the work, and has a fine brigade in connection with the S.S., of which he is superintendent. All who are interested in the Brigade in Canada are requested to communicate with him and send in any items of interest in connection with the work.

Official Circular No. 2.

TO BE READ IN OPEN COURT.

OFFICE OF THE HIGH CHIEF RANGER,

HIGH COURT OF ONTARIO.

TORONTO, Feb. 10th, 1893.

To Court Deputies, Officers and Members of the Subordinate Courts, High Court of Ontario:

BRETHREN,—We are in the second half of the Forestry year. In less than five months we will have completed another year of our progressive and beneficent history. It is both desirable and possible that the record of the year should be an improvement on that of any former year of our history. We have the experience of the past to guide us, the co-operation of a largely increased and rapidly increasing membership, and the stimulus of the hope that the present year will show greater gains for our beloved Order in the banner jurisdiction than any former one.

Since the 1st of July last over 2,500 applications for membership have been received. A little determined effort all along the line and we will meet the High Court at Sarnia at the end of August next with over 21,000 members. To this end we invite the co-operation of every member in the jurisdiction; granted their assistance, and the number aimed at will be surpassed. We appeal to the loyalty of every member, and ask all to share in the good work.

The death of Bro. Wallace, Junior High Court Inspector, on the 31st December, deprived the High Court of a most efficient officer and enthusiastic worker. During the few months that he was privileged to serve the Order he visited 26 old courts and instituted five new ones. The High Standing Committee have not thought it desirable to appoint a successor. They are seeking to place a number of Organizers in the field with the hope, that in this way, many new courts will be added to our number, without any appreciable addition to our expenditure.

To me it is a source of great satisfaction to be able to announce that the best spirit continues to pervade the whole Order. The work of the Subordinate Courts is being done with greater efficiency than ever, and many courts have set a splendid example in showing how a court can, by a determined effort, increase its membership. Fully half the increase in our number is due to the zeal of members for the extension of the Order.

To stimulate effort and to acknowledge special service, the following prizes are offered. The competition to begin 1st March and to close the 30th June.

The prizes will be presented at the meeting of the High Court in Sarnia.

1. Every member of courts in the province who secures FIVE members personally, a lithograph of the Supreme Chief Ranger.

2. Every member of courts in the province who secures SEVEN members personally, a copy of the picture of the High Standing Committee.

3. Every court increasing its membership through initiation by SEVEN, a copy of the lithograph of the Supreme Chief Ranger.

4. Every court increasing its membership through initiation by TEN, a copy of the picture of the High Standing Committee.

Cash Prizes.

5. To the brother who secures the highest number of new members, provided the number is not less than twenty, $20.

6. A second prize of $16, provided the number is not less than sixteen.

7. A third prize of $12, provided the number is not less than twelve.

8. A fourth prize of $10, provided the number is not less than ten.

To the winners of the first and second of the above cash prizes the H. C. R. will issue a P. D. H. C. R.'s Commission, and will present to the first the sash of his office, and to the second, the badge of his office.

The magnificent proportions of the Reserve Fund, that now stands at $607,000, coupled with the rapid growth of the membership, that is now over 44,000, ought to inspire us with fresh confidence in the solidity and permanence of our great Order.

The Supreme Executive are anxious to meet the Supreme Court with a membership of 50,000, and a Reserve of three quarters of a million. I confidently expect that we in Ontario will contribute our full share to this desirable end.

Daily intercourse with the head office convinces me more and more of the high administrative ability of our Supreme Chief Ranger and his colleagues on the Executive, and their great devotion to the interests of our beloved Order.

Wishing for your court profitable meetings and large additions to the membership, and for yourselves personally, health, prosperity and happiness.

I remain,

Fraternally yours in L. B. & C.,
 JAMES B. HALKETT, A. MACGILLIVRAY,
High Secretary, High Chief Ranger.

Court Ottawa, No. 41.

The banner court of the order at Canada's capital was recently visited by the Supreme Secretary. "The best and heartiest thanks of the court" were tendered to Bro. "Jno. A." for his visit, and his able and interesting address. Court Ottawa goes marching on.

Court Bowmore. No. 941, Duntroon.

The public meeting of this court on the 13th ult., was, notwithstanding the severe weather, largely attended. Dr. Bolster presided. Short addresses were given by Revs. A. McD. nald and J. Lindsay, and the H.C.R. of Ontario, Rev. A. Macgillivray. A select musical programme was rendered. The court is of comparatively recent institution and is gaining steadily in numbers.

Court Angus, No. 968.

The members of this court and their friends completely filled the Presbyterian Church, Angus, on the occasion of their first anniversary service on Jan. 15. Bro. Rev. Jno. Leishman, P.D.H.C.R., pastor of the church, assisted in the service. The sermon was preached by Bro. Rev. A. Macgillivray, H.C.R. The membership of Court Angus is not large, but an increase is looked for.

Court Stormont, No. 3, Cornwall.

This is the leading court of eastern Ontario. The annual ball is one of the leading social events of the season. The event of the 10th February, we are assured, was a brilliant success. A large company, good music, fine supper, and a good time, were some of the leading features.

Court Brookdale, No. 291, Clayton.

The annual concert of this court on the 11th Jan. was not the complete success in point of numbers that it doubtless would have been, but for the storm and cold weather; but, notwithstanding certain drawbacks, everyone present seemed to have a good time. After the concert, refreshments were served in the court room by the lady friends of the members.

Court Forest Home, No. 431, Palmerston.

This is one of the courts that is contributing nobly to the growth and popularity of the Order. The initiations have been four, six, and eight at recent meetings. They are aiming at a membership of one hundred by next July. They would like a visit from the Chief, or some other leader in the Order. They deserve it, although they do not need it.

Court Seabright, No. 378, Kettleby.

The annual concert of this Court is an event to which the whole community look forward. On the evening of the 17th January the spacious Temperance Hall was completely filled. Reeve Stokes, of King, presided. A choice programme of music and readings was given. The chairman, Mayor Lloyd, Editor Ratcliffe, of Newmarket, and the H.C.R., Rev. A. Macgillivray, gave addresses. After the public meeting the members and their friends sat down to an oyster supper.

Court Tamarac Grove, No. 245, North Bay.

"No one could desire a more cordial reception than that given me," writes Bro. Rev. J. Leishman, P.D.H.C.R., who visited this court on the 18th Jan., and addressed a public meeting. The Court is prospering and has among its members the Mayor and several other leading citizens.

Court Golden Rule, No. 704, South River.

This Court away to the North has but a limited constituency from which to draw members. In spite of difficulties it is pushing on. On the 17th January the Court enjoyed a visit from Bro. Leishman, who addressed the meeting and greatly encouraged the loyal brethren of Court Golden Rule.

Court Sherwood, No. 868, Arthur.

There is certainly no discount in the zeal of the members of this court. They have done nobly; organized a little over a year ago, with a charter membership of eight. Last August they numbered 26, now they are 47, and they have made up their minds to have 100 when High Court meets in Sarnia next year. Well done, Court Sherwood.

Court Harlem, No. 1028.

From the Newboro' Standard we learn that the concert of this court, on the evening of the 3rd inst., was a grand success. The weather was very cold, but that did not prevent a large audience from assembling. The programme was a very full one, and was thoroughly enjoyed. The Rev. Mr. Perley, of Delta, occupied the chair. Addresses were delivered by L. N. Phelps and C. C. Whale, H. C. Inspector. Both spoke well. Bro. Whale was in his happiest mood, and Court Harlem is now receiving many applications.

Court Jewel, No. 131, Norwich.

This is one of the older courts, and like many others, has had its ups and downs. It is now enjoying steady prosperity. Their entertainment on a recent date was a very pleasant affair. Bro. Carson, reeve of Simcoe, presided, and was introduced, in a neat speech, by Bro. Fairlie, a veteran in the cause. Choice music was rendered by a quartette. The chairman and the H.C.R. of Ontario, gave addresses, and we learn that several additions have since been made to the membership.

Court Queen City, No. 66, Toronto.

The "At Home" of Court Queen City was a most enjoyable affair. The members and their lady friends, to the number of 200, enjoyed an excellent programme of music, reading, and a short address from the H.C.R. After the programme, refreshments were served in the dining-room adjoining the hall. A string band furnished some irresistible music, of which the Supreme Secretary, Bro. Daniel Rose, and others took advantage. Court Queen City is the banner court of Toronto.

Court Trent, No. 333, Campbellford.

Some weeks ago a Bro., writing from this court, said they were "after prizes." It has turned out to be no vain pursuit. Court Trent stands second, with 23 new members to its credit, and the court is not going to rest there.

Court Florence, No. 189.

This court deserves honorable mention for the plucky way in which it has pushed on, in spite of many difficulties. At one period of its history, it had only six members in good standing. A year ago it was sixteen, now it is forty. It will be a hundred some day.

Court Valley City, No. 73, Galt.

This fine court now dwells in its own forest home. The brethren have secured a fine new hall, and it was dedicated with appropriate ceremonies, in the presence of the members of the court, and a large number of visiting brethren from neighboring courts. Bro. C. C. Baird, H.V.C.R., was master of ceremonies. The usual supper and speeches followed. Every one had a good time.

Court Lambeth, No. 143.

On Feb. the 3rd, this court had a fine concert, that drew an audience that filled their hall to overflowing. Bro. Atwell Fleming, H.T., gave an address, and we are assured from an independent source that it was replete with information and convincing arguments. The usual supper followed. Bro. Fleming speaks highly of the court, and the zeal of the brethren.

Court Elmwood, No. 594.

This court is now in a very flourishing condition. Organized July 5th, 1890, with ten charter members, but with the exception of a few new members, it was really at a standstill until last November. We made a slight effort, and now we number 32, and generally one or two initiations at every meeting. Sarah Lord Bailey, the elocutionist, gave an entertainment under the auspices of the I.O.F., which proved to be a grand success.

Court Hazleden, No. 507.

The officers of this court were duly installed on Jan. 20th by Bro. Butler, of Ottawa, P.D.H.C.R. The court is in a flourishing condition, thanks to the activity of the members, and the friendly and helpful interest of Bro. Butler. After business, the members sat down to lunch. The membership of the court is increasing every month.

Court Spadina, No. 241, Toronto.

Bro. J. M. Clark, M.A., LL.B., Chief Ranger of the court, will lecture on Monday, the 20th inst., under the auspices of his court, on "Canadian Poets and their Poetry." The lecture will be given in Wardell's Hall, Spadina-avenue. It is expected that Dr. Oronhyatekha, S.C.R., will preside. There should be a large attendance.

Court Wabun, No. 380, Staffa.

They had great doings at this court on the occasion of their annual gathering. Bro. Atwell Fleming, the High Treasurer, was present, and gave an address. We will not say at what hour the company parted. But knowing the orderly habits of the H. T., and that the majority of the members of Court Wabun are Scotch Presbyterians, we are confident that "having a brow night of it" was quite consistent with the character and dignity of Forestry.

Court Kinnoul, No. 926, New Lowell.

A fairly sized congregation met in the beautiful Presbyterian church of New Lowell, on the afternoon of the 15th January, to join in the special service in connection with Court Kinnoul. The members of the court occupied the centre of the church, and presented a fine appearance. The sermon was preached by Rev. A. Macgillivray, High Chief Ranger. The pastor of the church, Bro. Rev. J. D. Leishman, assisted in the service. Court Kinnoul is one of the best working courts in the jurisdiction, and is adding constantly to its membership.

Court Sunnidale, No. 985, Stayner,

No court in the Order has done better work in the past three or four months than the above. Over 30 members have been initiated since October. The first anniversary service was held in the Presbyterian church on the evening of the 15th Jan. The spacious edifice was filled to the doors. The members of Court Sunnidale, with visiting brethren from Creemore, New Lowell and Dunroon, occupied the centre of the church, and made a fine appearance. The officers wore their new sashes—that the court won as a prize. The opening part of the service was conducted by the pastor of the church, Rev. R. Moodie. Rev. A. Macgillivray preached the sermon. The music was very fine.

Court Milton, No. 137, Milton.

A Bro. writes us from this town to say that five members of the court are in the town council—one as reeve and four as councillors. Milton will doubtless be well and wisely governed.

Court Red Pine, No. 546, Warren.

This court to the north is showing all the vigor peculiar to high latitudes. On the 19th Jan., the court had a visit from Rev. J. D. Leishman, P. D. H. C. R. The meeting was large and interested, and the brethren are full of hope for the future. Bro. Leishman speaks in the highest terms of the membership of Court Red Pine.

Quebec.Court Bryson, No. 277.

Provincial Deputy Hurdman writes us: Though located in the wilds of Pontiac, we are doing well, adding from time to time members. If I could only get the Shawville boys to be more active, they have a good field around them—we leave it in your hands, Bro., and if you require any assistance let us hear from you. We will be only too glad to assist if at all possible.

Court Coaticook, No. 341.

Court Deputy Wallace writes: "I am sending my report for the half year. I am sure we will be pleased to have it; as is natural, we expect great things from Coaticook, for our High Court met there last year, and we have been told since, the turnout of such a fine body of men astonished the people. And certainly we were well used by Bro. Foresters.

Court Good Cheer, No. 746.

Bro. Pope writes: "We are progressing and will continue to do well, if you don't interfere in our locality, by planting another Court, as we wish to have nothing but good, steady men, and as we understand, this is what our Constitution teaches us—this is our aim. By all means brethren we will assist you, for to institute one court at the expense of another is not in the interest of our Order. And this we must guard, so while you keep diligent, every effort will be used to assist you in adding to your membership good and worthy applicants.

Court Acton Vale, No. 351.

We are pleased to learn this court is wakening up and is showing some energy. High Treasurer Bro. Smith has been called upon to visit them, to install officers and help to initiate six applicants. We trust they will continue to work and that they may be one of the prize winners in our present competition. It only requires a little effort, any member can do it. We are also glad to learn Bro. Dr. Brown (the life of the court) is progressing, we hope for him a speedy recovery.

Court St. Hyacinthe, No. 588.

We are doing well, adding to our membership the best men of the town, Aldermen and Judge, "of course we have no street-railway like you have in your great metropolis." This is what D. D. Bro. J. A. Laberge says, the founder of Court St. Hyacinthe, and from time to time the peace-maker. We know the brother is a good worker, and from experience know, that what he says he means, and feel safe the district is safe under his eye, either in leather or Forestry.

Court St. Denis, No. 731.

Our Annual At-Home took place on the 16th Jan. and was in every respect a grand success. C. R. Strathearn, Deputy Coutlee, C. R. Breton (St. Helene) C. Ranger Brown (St. Louis), and many visiting brethren from sister courts. Bro. Tussier occupied the chair, C. Ranger Strathearn replying to the toast, that of the Order; spoke of the many benefits to be derived from membership, and amused the ladies by showing them how they were able to tell a Forester. Bro. Bergeron followed in an able address. It was a pleasant and enjoyable gathering, and reflects credit on the committee of management.

Court Ormstown, No. 1087.

We learn this court has been arranging for a public meeting; this we are pleased to hear. We are not prepared to say where the fault is, but in increasing their numbers, they hardly come up to the mark. In their locality there is a good field, and we hope to hear of them making use of it. We are willing to help them, but, you know, nothing can be accomplished without work.

Court Magog, No. 1216.

Deputy Guilbert writes:—You will please accept the thanks of our court for instructions given us by the officer sent here. Everything has been done now to give us a good start, and we hope to give a good report of ourselves; in fact, we intend being in the prize list.

Your efforts will be watched with interest, brethren; it is now in your own hands.

Court St. Ferdinand, No. 1220.

The Deputy wants his commission. He will get it, as we learn he is worthy of one. The instituting officer failed to report you, but I am sure you will forgive the brother, as he has just become a benedict, and a happy one. Hope your court will flourish; am always willing to assist.

Court Belle Rive, No. 942.

The first annual "At-Home" and dinner of this court took place on Tuesday, Jan. 31st, and it certainly proved a most enjoyable evening to Foresters and their friends. After supper the various toasts were given and responded to, namely:—The Queen, The I. O. F., ably responded to by C. R. Strathearn, in a short, pithy address; Sister Courts, responded to in full justice by Bro. Gladstone Withers, P. C. R.; The Ladies, responded to by Physician Mount, who is greatly in favor of lady Foresters, and he ought to know. C. D. Wm. Mount occupied the chair to advantage, and under the able management of Fin.-Sec. Foreman, P. C. R. Dockrell, and Treas. T. Foreman, everything throughout proved a decided success, and we feel assured good results will follow.

Quebec Notes.

We want to hear from Courts Danville, Cookshive, Famous, Sawyerville, Rockland and St. Francis, but we will give them till March, when our prize competition closes.

High Councillor Morin has turned up all O.K. We learn he has written a long letter to the H.C., giving him some good advice. (We hope he will act upon it.) We congratulate Bro. Morin on his happy union, and hope for his good lady and him a long and happy life. Say, ain't these slow printers?

Brethren, we can congratulate ourselves. Just think, for Nov. passed the Medical Board, 269; Dec. passed the Medical Board, 244. Now we are on the home stretch for the banner, and, of course, second on the list of High Courts by the time our Supreme Court meets. We would request courts within our jurisdiction to at once furnish themselves with a form from the High Secretary, Bro. Stock, showing the increase in membership from 1st Nov. till 1st March, so that the awards may be issued without delay.

We learn all the C.R. for Quebec did during the year was to install the officers in eleven courts, attend two banquets, address two public meetings, and, with High Sec. Bro. Stocks, attended and addressed a gathering at Richmond. This is where Bro. F. Smith resides. He is High Treasurer and Financial Secretary of Court Myrtle. It is a good Scott Act town; Foresters are there in large numbers. There are notaries, lawyers, merchants,—in fact, all the best men there are Foresters, and they just know how to run matters, too. The High Court officers were delighted at the hospitable manner in which they were treated. Provincial Deputy Secotte and Bro. Frank, with the assistance of their good ladies, deserve all credit. They work hard for success. Bros. Wells and Johnston have also done yeoman service for our Order in that district.

New Brunswick.

The statement of the High Treasurer of the High Court of New Brunswick and P.E.I., shows, for the year ending 30th June last, receipts, $2,525; disbursements, $2,408.76; assets, $1,107; liabilities, $1,343.05. Showing amount of liabilities over assets to be $235.10. The increased revenue, owing to increased membership, will doubtless make receipts and expenditure balance by the end of the present Forestric year.

Prince Edward Island.

Court Onaway, No. 206, Alberton.

This court in the Island Province had a fine social that was a decided success in every particular. A large company, a first-class programme and a repast of the choicest left nothing to be desired. It was the event of the season, and now Forestry will surely flourish in the Island.

Manitoba and the North-West Territories.

Court Brandon, No. 427, Brandon.

The court had a public installation of officers. A special meeting was called, the attendance was large, and the ceremony impressively performed by D. M. Card, D.S.C.R., who also gave a capital address on the Principles and Benefits of Forestry. The usual banquet, with speech and song followed.

Court Hartney, No. 1239.

This young Manitoba Court makes a good start with 22 charter members. It has capital prospects of becoming one of the strong Courts of Manitoba. D. M. Card and W. S. Pierce were the instituting officers.

Michigan.

The High Court of Michigan meets on the 28th inst. at Saginaw. The meeting promises to be of great interest. The Supreme Chief Ranger and Supreme Secretary expect to be present.

The High Chief Ranger, Bro. J. A. Frise, who has occupied for two terms the highest position in the gift of his High Court, is naturally gratified at the magnificent progress made by Forestry in his jurisdiction during his term of office. The membership is now close on to 7,000; in Michigan less than two years ago the membership was only 2,500. To the High Court Executive and such efficient and zealous workers as Bros. Rev. E. Collins, State-Deputy W. J. Rapley, E. Larkin, of Detroit, Dr. R. C. Fair, of Durand, and a host of others, these splendid results are largely due. G. H. H. Aplin, P. H.C.R. and D.S.C.R., who has worked for the Supreme Executive, sends in, so they say at headquarters, the names of more new recruits than any man in the Order. The best spirit, so the High Chief Ranger informs us, prevails in all the Courts, and Michigan is bound to maintain its commanding position in the Order.

The High Chief Ranger of Ontario regrets his inability to accept the cordial invitation of his brother High Chief to be present at the meeting of the High Court of Michigan. The claims of the Order in Ontario receive all the time at his disposal.

Court Kent, No. 441, Grand Rapids.

Every seat was filled and many had to content themselves with standing room at the public installation of the officers of the above court on the 24th ult. High Chief Ranger Frise was present and performed the ceremony. An excellent programme of songs and speeches followed in addition to the H. C. R., Bro. Rev. J. T. Hasted spoke. Every court in the city was represented, and the affair was pronounced a great success.

Court Kirby, No. 1046, Detroit.

Organized last June. This court has gone steadily on its way; it now has a membership of over 30, and the "boys" are bound to make it ever long one of the first in the State.

Court Alpena, No. 293.

"We are not sleeping, much less dead," writes a brother from this court. The public installation of officers was witnessed by a large company of friends, and excited great interest. The usual refreshments, and musical and literary programme followed. The ladies of course provided the comforts for the "inner man."

Court Lakeview, No. 418, Port Sanilac.

A grand ball and supper was the drawing card for this court on the evening of the 10th inst. The arrangements were most complete and everything went even "merrier" than the time honored "marriage bell."

Court Adrian, No. 1078.

Court Adrian, No. 1078, had a public installation of officers, followed by a choice programme of music, addresses, etc. The audience was both large and appreciative. Six months ago the court started with 17 members, now they have 51. A gain of 34, or just 200 per cent. Well done Court Adrian.

High Court of Wisconsin.

SECOND COMMUNICATION.

The High Court of Wisconsin, Independent Order of Foresters, met in the city of Madison on Wednesday, Feb. 1st, 1893, at 2 o'clock p.m., and was called to order by Newell H. Dodge, H.C.R. The following officers answered to the roll call:—H.C.R., Newell H. Dodge; H. Sec., A. C. Isaacs; H. Treas., S. H. Russell; H. Phys., Chas. H. Hall, M.D.; H.J. Sec., C. H. Knight; H. Mess., J. Tollefson; P.H.C.R., E. W. Chafin.

The chair made the following appointments:—H.V.C.R., C. H. Hall; H. Chap., S. H. Russell; H.S.W., J. H. Proctor; H.S.B., Aug. Heller.

The chair appointed the following committee on credentials:—John Tollefson, C. H. Hall.

The report of Newell H. Dodge, H.C.R., spoke in high terms of the many solid advantages offered by the I. O. F., and showed that notwithstanding the difficulties incident to breaking ground in new territory, the Order had in the first year of its operation in Wisconsin secured a permanent foothold and made substantial progress. As the Order gets fully known, men will not be slow to seek the solid advantages connected with membership.

The H.C.R. made grateful and appreciative mention of the valuable services of Bro. Isaacs, who on more than one occasion had advanced the money necessary for the carrying on of the work of the High Court. The practical interest and timely aid rendered by the Supreme Chief Ranger, Dr. Oronhyatekha, was acknowledged as being of the highest value to the High Court, and contributed very much to overcoming the difficulties that confronted them at the outset. The H.C.R. complained of the insufficiency of H. Court revenue, and recommends that the High Court dues be increased from 50 cents to $1.00. This recommendation requiring a two-thirds vote failed by one vote. The High Court is incorporated under the laws of the State of Wisconsin.

The report of the High Sec., Bro. A. C. Isaacs, spoke gratefully of the co-operation of his brother officers and of the counsel and assistance given him by the Supreme Executive. The outlook he regarded as most cheering. There are already thirty-two courts, with a membership of over six hundred.

Bro. S. H. Russell, High Treasurer, in his report showed receipts $173.29, and expenditure $166.99, with a balance due High Sec. for moneys advanced of $289.40.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing term and duly installed by the High Chief Ranger, E. W. Chafin acting as Supreme Marshal: P.H.C.R., E. W. Chafin, Waukesha; H.C.R., Newell H. Dodge, Madison; H.V.C.R., C. W.

Bowron, Oshkosh; H. Coun., John C. Slater, Kenosha; H. Sec., A. C. Isaacs, Madison; H. Treas., S. H. Russell, La Crosse; H. Phys., Chas. H. Hall, M.D., Madison; H. Audts., Geo. B. Blair, Waukesha, Orrin Thompson, Neenah.

Representatives to Supreme Court:—Newell H. Dodge, Madison; S. H. Russell, La Crosse; E. W. Chafin, Waukesha.

Alternates:—A. C. Isaacs, Madison; Orrin Thompson, Neenah; C. H. Knight, Eau Claire.

Appointive Officers:—H. Chap., Rev. W. W. Hurd, La Crosse; H.J.S., C. H. Knight, Eau Claire; H.S.W., Frank Bell, West Salem; H.J.W., T. B. Blair, Neenah; H.S.B., W. A. Gray, Marinette; H.J.B., J. C. Proctor, Madison; H. Mar., T. Macqueen, Madison; H. Con., J. N. Kintzinger, La Crosse; H. Mess., J. Tollefson, Madison.

Supreme Chief Ranger Oronhyatekha on being introduced, was received with the royal salute. He addressed the High Court, and exemplified the unwritten work of the Order. At his suggestion a resolution was unanimously passed to levy a small assessment on the members so as to wipe out all the liabilities of the High Court.

It was also decided to ask the Supreme Court to put a number of organizers into the field.

The High Court was entertained at the close of its labors to a bountiful repast by Bro. Newell H. Dodge, H.C.R.

The next meeting of the High Court of Wisconsin will be held at Milwaukee on the first Wednesday of February, 1894.

Illinois.

On January 16th, 1893, the officers elect of Courts August, Iroquois, Sherman, and Humboldt, were inaugurated in the chambers of Court August, at Madison Hall, Chicago, Illinois, by the High Standing Committee. A good attendance was had, and everything passed off in "ship shape." Judging from the ease and promptness with which every one responded, the general good-will of all present, and what was said in several enthusiastic and eloquent speeches, made by various high officers in attendance, and others, there is no lack of interest in the work of Forestry in the State of Illinois.

Dr. C. A. McDermand, High Chief Ranger of Illinois, at the last previous meeting of Court August, being then the retiring financial secretary, reported that the membership of Court August, in good standing at the present time, is fifty beneficiary and two social; that there had been, since the institution of the court, an exceptionally small number of suspensions, and that the finances of the court are in excellent condition. We believe it can be said that Court August is as prosperous and healthy a court as there is in the State of Illinois.

On the evening of January 30th they gave their third grand euchre party and ball, in Madison Hall, and like all previous entertainments, was a pronounced success.

Ohio.

Court Standard, 847, Cleveland.

If all the courts in this state bestirred themselves like Court Standard, Ohio would soon be one of the leading jurisdictions. The court received upwards of fifty members during the closing three months of the year. That is elevating the standard. May it never touch the ground.

Court Progressive, No. 254, Newark.

This court recently gave a very enjoyable musical and literary entertainment to a large audience.
Supper and dancing followed, and a whole night of solid enjoyment was had by all. After so much play, Court Progressive will, doubtless, do some hard work.

We are bound to be the banner court of this cations and initiations are on the docket at every Court Eli.

KANSAS CITY, MO.,

Dec. 20th, 1892.

A correspondent writes: "It will be interesting to all good Foresters to learn that Court Eli is here;
it got here last Saturday evening, through the push and pull of J. W. Busher. The High Standing Committee, in full force, was on hand to give official welcome and standing to the new court. Twenty-eight men were duly obligated into the new organization, and instructed in the principles of the Order. Speeches were made by H. C. R., W. A.
Wyatt; P. H. C. R., E. M. Hetherington; V. H. C. R.,
W. D. Asher; H. Sec., W. A. Armour; H. Treas.,
Thos. Haire; H. Couns., W. H. Brown; H. Phys., Dr. Clarke, and others. Eli has its eye on the top round, and promises to get there in the near future.
A number of applicants are on the road toward full standing, and there is a tide coming in. No Order is growing more rapidly in the city than that of the Foresters.

California.

The Order in this state is making rapid progress.
The able and energetic High Chief Ranger is pushing the work vigorously, and subordinate courts are adding to their membership.

Court Sioca, No. 1067, Colusa.

Organized last spring, this court has now a membership of fifty. The fraternal work of the court is being well done, and the Order enjoys the confidence of the community.

Court Sutter, No. 974, Sacramento.

"This court is in a flourishing condition, and is the banner court in northern and central California. We were recently visited by H. C. R. Mc-Elfresh, who delivered an eloquent discourse in a crowded hall. The lecture was preceded and followed by a choice musical programme, after which the members of the court escorted Bros. McElfresh and Odum of the High Court to the Maison Fair-where a banquet was enjoyed by all."

So writes one who knows.

Court California, No. 451, Riverside.

"Increasing fast" is the word from the courts.
How could it be otherwise, with every member enthusiastic. At the election of officers last month neighboring courts were invited and were largely represented. Supper, speeches, songs, etc., made up a full programme and gave everyone reason to go home happy.

A Friend

Wishes to speak through the Register of the beneficial results he has received from a regular use of Ayer's Pills. He says: "I was feeling sick and tired and my stomach seemed all out of order. I tried a number of remedies, but none seemed to give me relief until I was induced to try the old reliable Ayer's Pills. I have taken only one box, but I feel like a new man. I think they are the most pleasant and easy to take of anything I ever used, being so finely sugar-coated that even a child will take them. I urge upon all who are of a laxative to try Ayer's Pills."—Boothbay (Me.) Register.

In Need

"Between the ages of five and fifteen, I was troubled with a kind of salt-rheum, or eruption, chiefly confined to the legs, and especially to the bend of the knee above the calf. Here, running sores formed which would scab over, but would break immediately on moving the leg. My mother tried everything she could think of, but all was without avail. Although a child, I read in the papers about the beneficial effects of Ayer's Pills, and persuaded my mother to let me try them. With no great faith in the result, she procured and I began to use them, and soon noticed an improvement. Encouraged by this, I kept on till I took two boxes, when the sores disappeared and have never troubled me since."—H. Chipman, Real Estate Agent, Roanoke, Va.

"I suffered for years from stomach and kidney troubles, causing very severe pains in various parts of the body. None of the remedies I tried afforded me any relief until I began taking Ayer's Pills, and was cured."—Wm. Goddard, Notary Public, Five Lakes, Mich.

The advantages of being connected with Savings, Loan and Building Associations are only becoming known. The business is getting on firmer ground and former objectors have been converted to admit the superior advantages of the system, properly worked out, over every other form of mutual investment. The uniformly high class of men who are now identifying themselves with Building and Loan Associations gives added assurance of good results. The system is commanding general attention, and appreciation is evidenced by the rapidity with which such institutions are being organized. Responsible agents wanted throughout the country. Liberal terms given to good men. DAVID MILLAR, General Manager.

PERFECTION ATTAINED

DR. C. L. COULTER'S

COMBINED VAPORIZER AND INHALER.

THE CHAMPION VOLATILIZER.

VOCALISTS AND ELOCUTIONISTS

Will find the Vaporizer of very great benefit in loss of Voice or Throat Complications.

Made of Copper and Brass, Nickel-plated. It has no Glass Tubes, no Valves to get out of order.

Perfumer and Deodorizer Attachment.

Price $5.50

With Perfumer and Deodorizer Attachment.

A New Instrument for Vaporizing Oils, and Drugs for Inhalation, AS WELL AS FOR DISINFECTING AND DEODORIZING SICK ROOMS
Hospitals, Public Buildings, Railway Carriages, etc.; also for Perfuming Parlors, Churches, Opera Houses, etc.

Excels all other Inhalers, as it reduces Drugs and Oils to a Gaseous state, in which condition only can they reach directly the cavities and air passages to be medicated, thus proving beneficial in the treatment of DISEASES OF THE NOSE, THROAT AND LUNGS, such as Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Croup, Diphtheria, Catarrh, La Grippe and Hay Fever.

Beechwood, Creosote, Oil of Southern Pine Needles, and Eucalyptus Oil, of each equal parts, vaporized and inhaled, affords wonderful benefit in Phthisis.

ADVANTAGES.

1. A non-irritating, thoroughly medicated vapor is obtained by reason of the reservoir containing the medicated sponge being placed on the inhaling tube at a distance of 8 or 10 inches from the boiling water, and complete volatilization of the drugs to be inhaled is effected, thus ensuring their reaching directly the part to be medicated. Other so-called vaporizers are only atomizers or sprays, breaking the drug into fluid particles which are not diffusible, and therefore too heavy to be inspired.

2. By vaporizing antiseptics, it quickly sterilizes the atmosphere in cases of infectious diseases, thereby reducing to a minimum the danger of contracting Diphtheria, Scarlet Fever, Cholera, etc.

3. It is simple, durable, convenient of manipulation, and absolutely proof against explosion or fire, as a perfect safety lamp accompanies each instrument.

4. The price is a great desideratum, being only about half that of any other vaporizer, volatilizer, or inhaler that claims any merit.

It is the only volatilizer that is unanimously endorsed and recommended by medical men, sanitarians and chemists, amongst whom are the following:

- W. B. GEIKIE, M.D., O.M., D.O.L., Fellow Royal College Surgeons, Edinburgh; L.R.C.P. London; Dean of Trinity Medical College, Toronto.
