The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

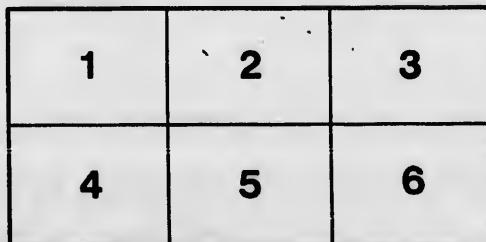

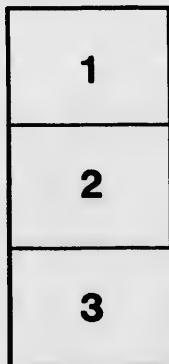

Metropolitan Toronto Library
Canadian History Department

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▽ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Metropolitan Toronto Library
Canadian History Department

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▽ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

TESTIMONIALS.

1ST. By J. W. LANGMUIR, Inspector of the Asylums of Ontario during the last seven years of Dr. Workman's superintendence of the Toronto Asylum for the Insane:

" TORONTO, 4th November, 1884.

" MY DEAR SIR,—

I duly received your note of the 3rd instant. I was astonished to learn, from your letter, that Dr. Tuke had been informed that you had left the Toronto Asylum in a 'disgraceful condition.' Let me say once for all—and I beg you will make whatever use you wish of this letter—that you left the Toronto Asylum in the best possible condition; the structure, in every department, scrupulously clean and well kept; the management of the Asylum affairs in the highest degree of efficiency, and what is more, you took with you the love and gratitude of every patient in the building—and that of many outside of it who had experienced your skilful and kindly treatment. Moreover, you held the respect and good wishes of every one over and under you—from the Government of Ontario and their Inspector down to the humblest employee in the Establishment. I am delighted to hear that the English Medico Psychological Association has honoured Canada and itself, in electing you an honorary member, and I sincerely trust that you may be spared many a year to the Profession, and particularly that department of it with which you have been so long identified.

" Believe me, my dear Sir,

" Faithfully yours,

" J. W. LANGMUIR.

DR. JOSEPH WORKMAN,

" Toronto."

1770 Vol. 28
2ND. By E. A. MERIDETH, LL.D., member (Chairman) of the Board of Inspectors of Asylums, etc for Canada East and West, from 1859 to 1869, and late Assistant Secretary of State for the Dominion of Canada:

" DR. WORKMAN.

" MY DEAR SIR,—

Mr. Langmuir has shewn me your note of the 3rd instant, and his reply of yesterday, and I very gladly avail myself of your permission, granted in our conversation this morning, to place on record my own estimate of your administration of the Toronto Asylum. During the ten years from 1859 to 1869, while I was one of the members of the Board of Inspectors of Asylums, it was my duty to make very frequent official visits to the Asylum and to make myself thoroughly acquainted with everything connected with its management, and it affords me sincere pleasure to be able to testify that my colleagues and myself had every reason to be entirely satisfied with the zeal, ability and energy, which marked your administration of the affairs of the Asylum. Whilst zealously watchful of the care and comfort of the unfortunate ones committed to your charge, you were at the same time not unmindful of the necessity of economising the public funds: and while everything necessary for the comfort and proper treatment of the patients was claimed by you, there was an anxious desire to avoid all wasteful expenditure.

" You always enjoyed, so far as I knew, the respect and esteem of all your subordinates in the Asylum, and I believe, also, the affectionate regard of your patients. For myself, I have always considered it one of the happy consequences of my appointment as an Inspector, that it brought me into intimate and pleasant official relations with you, and resulted in securing for me your personal friendship.

" Believe me,

" Most sincerely yours,

" E. A. MERIDETH."
