THE THIRTEENTH ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING.

(From the Montreal Gazette.)

The Thirteenth Annual General Meeting of the Mackay Institution for Protestant Deaf-Mutes was held in the Synod Hall on Saturday afternoon, where there was a large attendance of the friends of the institution. The Rev. Dr. Stevenson occupied the chair, and among those present were the Right Reverend Bishop Bond, the Right Reverend Bishop Baldwin, Rev. Canon Norman, Rev. W. G. Barnes, Rev. J. Edgar Hill, Rev. James Fleck, Rev. J. Patterson, Rev. W. R. Cruikshank, Messrs. George Hague, Thomas White, M.P., F. Wolferstan Thomas, Thomas Cramp, Jonathan Hodgson, Charles Alexander and H. Shorey.

The proceedings were opened with prayer by the Rev. James Fleck.

The Chairman read letters from the Right Reverend Bishop Ussher, Rev. Dr. MacVicar, Rev. George H. Wells, Rev. James Barclay, and Rev. S. Belcher, expressing regret at their inability to be present, and then called upon the secretary-treasurer, Mr. P. S. Ross to read the Annual Report of the Board of Managers, together with his financial statement. The report stated that the institution was now on a sound financial basis. The liberal subscriptions of friends, added to the Government grant, and the fees received from pupils were adequate to carry out to the fullest extent the philanthropic ideas of the friends of the unfortunate beings for whom the institution was originated. They had during the past year to deplore the death of some warm friends, including that of Mr. Edward Mackay, who left them a legacy of $8,000; Mr. D. J. Greenshields, who left a legacy of $1,000; Mr. H. A. Nelson, and Dr. W. E. Scott. Upon the death of the late president, Mr. Edward Mackay, the managers nominated Mr. Hugh Mackay for the office, which nomination being accepted by him was confirmed by his appointment as president. The managers were now determined to expand the benefits of the charity, and having plenty of accommodation have resolved to associate the care of the blind with that of the deaf-mutes. The peculiar object, however, of ministering to the wants and education of deaf-mutes would be kept steadily in view, and the other would occupy only a subordinate position, until such time as it would be seen how far the existing resources and conveniences could be expended on the auxiliary effort for the blind. The report then referred to the valuable services of the Principal, Mr. Widd, and the Lady Superintendent, Miss McGann. The Rev. Canon Norman also deserved especial thanks for his examination of the pupils; and with him also originated the test examination of a limited number of pupils of the Institute with a similar number of those of the Royal Arthur School, the result of which had been sufficiently encouraging to justify its repetition at a future time. Earnest thanks were also expressed to the collectors and to a wide-spread circle of friends for their liberal support.

The Secretary-Treasurer then read the report of the Principal, Mr. Thomas Widd. Before proceeding with the report, he read a letter from Mr. Widd to the Board of Managers, to the effect that the delicate state of his health rendered it necessary that he should pass the coming winter in a milder climate, and expressing the deep regret which he felt at being obliged to bring the matter before them, as the work of teaching deaf-mutes had been a life-work and the best years of his life had been spent in building up this institution, having been connected with the Board of Managers since 1869. The Board of Managers had accordingly granted Mr. Widd six months leave of absence.

The report stated that the past year had been one of steady progress in all the departments. The number of children admitted during the year had been 42—38 remaining to the close of the session, while four left or were removed from the city. The pupils comprised 16 girls and 26 boys, of this number 27 paid fees, ranging $30 to $130 per annum, according to the circumstances of the parents, and 15 were free pupils. The income from pupils' fees was $2,014.75 being an increase over any previous year. Ninety-one deaf-mutes have enjoyed the benefits of this institution since its establishment in 1870, and the total receipts from pupils fees since then was $13,153 40. In the workshops the pupils have had regular training in carpentry, and in printing and type-setting. The printing office had turned out the annual report and done all the printing required for the institution

Miss McGann, the Lady Superintendent, through Mr. Ross, presented her report, which stated that during the past year several additions and improvements had been made, and it was a home thoroughly adapted to the purpose for which it was built, nothing having been left undone to secure the health and happiness of those entrusted to their care; only one death occurred amongst the pupils—that of a little boy six years of age who died of brain fever during the summer holidays. The progress of the articulation and lip-reading class had been highly satisfactory, the wonderful proficiency in lip-reading attained by Miss Jessie Macfarlane and Master F. Wiggett being worthy of special mention.

THE EXAMINATIONS.

The Rev. Canon Norman presented a report of a very satisfactory nature respecting the examination of the pupils in June last, which was published in The Gazette at the time. Canon Norman reiterated a wish, which he had previously expressed, that others might be associated with him in conducting these examinations.

ADOPTION OF THE REPORT.

The chairman, Rev. Dr. Stevenson then moved

“That the report just read be adopted, printed and circulated under the direction of the Secretary-Treasurer.”

He expressed the great pleasure he felt at being permitted to move the adoption of such satisfactory reports as had been presented. With reference to the remark of Canon Norman that others should be associated with him in the examinations, he thought it was altogether unfair that a work of this kind involving a heavy strain of activity and responsibility should be thrown on the shoulders of one man, no matter how willing he might be to do the work ; and, in fact, he had often wondered where Canon Norman found time to do all the work which he did, and thought he must work during the whole 24 hours of the day to accomplish it. He (Dr. Stevenson) was glad to be present with them and to have had the high honor to be appointed chairman of the meeting. No other institution touched his heart so deeply, and in doing what we could to make up to them the deficiency of their birth, we were only carrying forward the great work in which the Master was engaged while on earth. He referred to the great loss which the institution had sustained in the death of Mr. Edward Mackay, and expressed his great gratification at seeing present not only our leading clergymen, but also our merchants, our professional men and our leading business men of every class. He spoke of the great privations which deaf-mutes had to endure and the means which had been invented under divine guidance by which the benefit of language might be given to them, and concluded by saying that the institution was worthy of their warmest sympathy and most liberal support.

The Right Reverend Bishop Baldwin, in seconding the motion, rejoiced at the reports which had just been read, as showing clearly that the noble and Christ-like institution was basking in the sunshine of God's blessing, and was growing in usefulness and material happiness, and as showing that He would never let institutions such as this be in want. When he was in the great metropolis of the world in 1878, he visited some of those noble institutions, which were supported absolutely by the voluntary contributions of a faithful people ; he was deeply impressed with the idea that when the Bank of England would be in need of money, institutions such as those would not be so. He referred to the helpless condition of the deaf-mute, and expressed his admiration for the letter of Principal Widd, that noble and self-sacrificing man, in which he (Mr. Widd) stated that the institution and its interests were so precious to him that he would rather that the Directors would consult the interests of the institution than his own private wishes upon the subject. Those friends who had labored so earnestly in the past, for the welfare and advancement of the institution, were also deserving of all praise.

The motion was carried.

The Rev. J. Edgar Hill moved

“That the thanks of this meeting be, and they are hereby tendered to the governors, managers and other office-bearers of the Institution for the excellent manner in which they have discharged their duties during the past year, and that the following persons be the office-bearers for the ensuing year, viz. :—

“President—Mr. Hugh Mackay. Vice-presidents—Messrs. Thos. Cramp, F. Wolferstan Thomas and F. Mackenzie. Secretary-treasurer — Mr. Philip S. Ross. Directresses—Mrs. F. Wolferstan Thomas, Miss H. Gordon and Mrs. Major. Honorary physician.—W. A. Molson, M.D. Board of Governors—Life Governors, Mr. C. Alexander, Mr. A. Allan, Mr. A. Buntin, Mr. T. J. Claxton, Mr. T. Cramp, Mrs. T. Hart, Mr. D. L. Macdougall, Mrs. G. Mackenzie, Mr. Hugh McLennan, Mr. Peter Redpath, Mr. Gilbert Scott, Mr. Thomas Workman, Miss H. M. Gordon and Mr. Hugh Mackay. Governors ex-officio — Principal Dawson, Rev. W. Henderson, Rev. Dr. Douglass, Rev. Dr. MacVicar and Rev. Dr. Wilkes : Elective Governors—Mr. F. Wolferstan Thomas, Mrs. Claxton, Mr. F. Mackenzie, Mr. J. McLennan, Mr. W. Heneker, Mr. E. K. Greene, Mr. R. W. Sheppard, Rev. Canon Norman, Mrs. P. S. Stevenson, Mrs. Dr. Sutherland, Mr. G. M. Wood, Mr. J. Hickson, Mr. R. Benny, Mr. D. Morrice, Mrs. T. Cramp, Mrs. Holland, Mrs. J. McDougall, Mrs. J. Molson, Mrs. F. Wolferstan Thomas, Mrs. Dow, Mr. Jonathan Hodgson, Mr. A. F. Gault, Mrs. Major, Mrs. J. H. R. Molson, Mr. Alexander Murray, Miss Learmont, Miss Shepherd, Mrs. D. Scott, Mrs. Mackedie, Mrs. Elmenhorst and Dr. Molson.’

He said that these admirable reports spoke volumes for the success of their efforts, and the large attendance of friends showed how deep was their interest in the Institution. The success of institutions such as this was a complete answer to the question, “Is Christianity a failure.” When the blessed Master was on earth these poor unfortunates were supposed to be the victims of some divine chastisement brought upon them by their own folly or through the folly of others. “Did this man sin or his parents that he was born blind?” was a question that was often asked, but to-day we had come to see that these chastisements were in many cases designed to be wholesome lessons to us. In the old country the institutions for the blind had gone first, but here the order of things was reversed. He concluded by expressing the great pleasure which he felt at being present, and said he was sure they were trying to do, in their own little way, all that was possible for the Institution, and would be rewarded in that last great day by having the Master say to them, "Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of the least of these, ye did it unto Me."

At this point the Chairman read the following address, composed by an old pupil of the institution :—

" Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen :

" Nearly two and a half centuries have passed since King Charles I and his brilliant assembly appeared in Whitehall, London, to witness the wonder of his age,—the feat of John Wallis having instructed a deaf-mute! Since then time and human ingenuity have accomplished wonders in that branch of instruction.

" Behold we are here to-day, not to look upon one educated mute, but a score of them! Christian love and philanthropy have done their share to alleviate the condition of the afflicted—implanting knowledge and universal love in the obscure mind of the uneducated mute.

" On behalf of my brothers and sisters in affliction, and as one who received educational advantages at this institution, I sincerely thank all those who take a lively interest in our welfare and well-being. We cannot reward you with silver or gold, but we can do so by good conduct and an abundant flow of gratitude.

" We hope and pray that your kind words and deeds—your welcome presence here to-day—will ever stand a monument to your generosity and reflect credit on our favoured land and friends.

" CHARLES W. BUTT."

Mr. George Hague seconded the motion. He said that our very warmest thanks were due to the noble founders of this institution, which was in the highest degree worthy of our countenance and support. They had been shown that these deaf-mutes were by no means so destitute of mind and brain as might be generally supposed, and, as very often happened to those who were deprived of certain of their faculties, they had been particularly bright in other directions. He said that in caring for these deaf-mutes they were only following in Christ's footsteps, and he hoped they would endeavor to carry out the work in the future with even a greater measure of success than in the past,

The motion was carried.

The Rev. W. S. Barnes Moved

"That this meeting, in view of the just claims of this institution to a hearty support, commends it to the liberality of the Protestants of the Province of Quebec, and returns its hearty thanks to those who have so liberally remembered them in the past by bequests and legacies."

He said that a perusal of the last annual report assured him that the Institution had a warm place in the hearts of the people both of the City of Montreal and of the Province of Quebec. He did not think, however, that the favor was all on one side, but the obligation was mutual, as it was a great privilege given to the people of this city and province to assist in a work of this kind, and not only should the managers be thankful to the benefactors of the Institution, but the benefactors ought to be grateful to the managers for giving them an opportunity of doing good with their abundant means. He referred to a kinsman of his who was a deaf mute, and who was also a clergyman in the American Episcopal Church, and to the useful work which was doing among the deaf-mutes under his charge, and described the system of articulation—which had been so satisfactory that many of the deaf-mutes were no longer mute, but only deaf—as a wondrous triumph of science, and concluded by asking their earnest sympathy and support in this great work.

Mr. Thomas White, M.P., seconded the resolution. He said the Institution appealed to the Protestants of the Province of Quebec. It had always occurred to him that the Protestants of the Province of Quebec were situated in a peculiar position in relation to institutions of this kind. In every other province, and in Ontario especially, such institutions were the special charge of the Government, but here, owing to a difference in race and language and to our disagreements as to the methods of carrying on such work, they were left largely to the benevolence of the Protestant inhabitants, and these certainly had shown themselves always ready to accept that responsibility. They asked but one thing, and that was that the money which they contributed should be wisely expended. In the case of this Institution he might say that he had that day received from the department of Records a report of the Superintendent of Public Institutions in Ontario, and referring to the deaf-mute establishment at Belleville, he had been curious enough to make a comparison as to the cost of its maintenance; deducting from it the cost of furniture, farm feed and fodder, repairs and alterations, &c., he found that the average cost per pupil was $148.95, and making similar deductions from the expenses in connection with the Mackay Institute, the average cost per pupil was $156.27, or less than $8 more than in the Belleville institution. The latter had 303 pupils, and they would all admit that the cost per head of institutions of this kind was greatly reduced when the number attending was large. He believed such a comparison was eminently favorable to the Mackay Institute, and that the Protestants of the Province of Quebec might have every confidence that the contributions which they gave for the maintenance of this most worthy institution were wisely and economically expended.

The motion was carried unanimously.

A number of pupils were then brought on the platform and gave some interesting exhibitions of their acquirements, such as articulation, lip-reading, composition, addresses of welcome, sign recitations, &c., some of them being able to pronounce such difficult words as Kamschatka, cosmopolitan, enlightenment, &c., besides some Greek and Latin words, and names of individuals, the words being dictated to them on the blackboard, and their pronunciation was as perfect as those of many persons who have both the gift of hearing and speech. Two blind pupils who had been in the institution but a short time also gave an exhibition of their acquirements. Some specimens of drawing and printing, which were on view during the proceedings, also reflected the highest credit on the pupils.

The meeting was brought to a close by Bishop Baldwin pronouncing the benediction.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS.

In again meeting the friends of this Institution, the Managers have to report for the past year—1882-83—as follows, viz :—

That the Institution is now on a sound financial basis. The liberal subscriptions of friends added to the Government grant and the fees received from pupils, are adequate to carry out to the fullest extent the philanthropic ideas of the friends of the unfortunate beings for whom the Institution was originated.

This is no doubt a matter of great satisfaction to those who have striven so long and so persistently in this labour of love. It has hitherto been carried on under the great disadvantages of a large debt and heavy interest. These are happily now things of the past.

It would probably be invidious to mention names, but many Ladies and Gentlemen there are, who since the very inception of this enterprise have worked and are working for the best interests of Protestant Deaf Mutes, and who well deserve the thanks of our citizens. It seems, in view of the loss annually sustained in the death of friends, that it is but right to acknowledge the value of the services of any willing workers, whilst we still enjoy the comfort of their presence.

We have during the past year to deplore the death of some warm friends, among others, that of Mr. Edward Mackay, who at the death of his brother Joseph, was nominated President. He took a lively interest in the work and his remembrance of the Institution in his Will shews how heartily he appreciated its importance. He has left us a legacy of $8,000.

Mr. H. A. Nelson has also gone to his rest, honoured by all who knew him. His loss is felt by the Managers.

Mr. D. J. Greenshields is another friend taken from us. He also left the Institution a legacy of $1,000.

And we have also to mourn Dr. W. E. Scott the long and true friend of the pupils, whom he assiduously attended in his official capacity.

How much we, as well as the community generally, owe to these friends, we probably never shall fully appreciate.

Upon the death of Mr. Edward, the late President, the managers nominated Mr. Hugh Mackay for the office, which nomination being accepted by him was confirmed by his appointment as President.

The Managers are determined now to expand the benefits of the charity, and having plenty of accommodation have resolved to associate the care of the blind with that of the deaf-mutes. This they hope will meet the approval of their friends, and will be more or less carried out until it be ascertained whether a separate Institution for the blind is a necessity for the Province.

The peculiar object however of ministering to the wants and education of Deaf-Mutes will be kept steadily in view and the other will occupy only a subordinate position, until it be seen how far the existing resources and conveniences can be expended on the auxiliary effort for the blind.

The Managers feel and heartily acknowledge the great sympathy and liberal support which they receive from a wide spread circle of friendly hands and hearts, and while they thus express their own feelings, they do so also as representatives of the pupils whose silent tongues and deafened ears prevent them from personally giving utterance to their gratitude.

The Principal, Mr. Thos. Widd, and the Lady Superintendent, Miss McGann, have performed their duties in a satisfactory manner, and it is not too much to say that their ability and devotion are placing this Institution on a very high educational basis.

The Rev. Canon Norman deserves especial thanks for the annual examination of the pupils, whose report thereon will be submitted to you. With him also originated the test examination of a limited number of pupils of the Institute against a similar number of those of the Royal Arthur School. The result is sufficiently encouraging to justify its repetition at a future time. It has been the aim of the Managers and the wish of Canon

Norman to associate with himself one or two other gentlemen as examiners, but though arrangements to this end had been made, the gentlemen who were to act with Canon Norman were unavoidably prevented from attending.

To the various collectors, Mr. Widd, Mr. McClellan during vacation; Messrs. Heneker and Wiggett in the townships; Messrs. McNaughton and Rae in Quebec, and several others in other parts of the Province, the Managers convey the expression of their obligations and tender their thanks.

Various and extensive improvements have been carried out during the past year, such as fencing, the erection of a verandah and also of a windmill pump.

Some alteration may possibly be required in the system of heating during the ensuing year as this is considered to be somewhat defective at the present time.

The Secretary-Treasurer's financial statement will be laid before you.

The whole respectfully submitted on behalf of the Managers.

REPORT OF THE PRINCIPAL.

To the Board of Managers :

It gives me much pleasure to lay before the Board of Managers the Thirteenth Annual Report of the Scholastic year ending 30th June, 1883.

The year just closed has been one of steady progress in all the departments, and in the general prosperity of the Institution, while the labours of the officers and teachers have been carried on with the utmost harmony and good feeling.

The number of children admitted during the year has been 42, 38 remaining to the close of the session, while four left or were removed from the city. The pupils comprised sixteen girls and twenty-six boys. Of this number twenty seven paid fees, ranging from thirty to one hundred and thirty dollars per annum, according to the circumstances of the parents; and fifteen were free pupils.

THE EDUCATIONAL WORK.

Notwithstanding the length of time which has elapsed since the Institution was commenced, and the numerous published reports which have been issued, there are yet many people who fail to comprehend the objects for which the Mackay Institution was founded. Some believe it to be an asylum or permanent home for Deaf-Mutes of all ages, and others think it is an hospital for the cure of deafness. When the public are informed that the Institution is a Boarding School for the secular instruction and religious and moral training of deaf-mute children of good mental calibre, they will recognize the objects for which the school is maintained.

The Blind of school age can now be admitted, inasmuch as a special provision for this object was made in the Act of Incorporation. There are, as far as can be ascertained, but very few blind children of Protestant parentage in the Province of Quebec. Numerous enquiries through the Press, and by letters and circulars have only brought in the names of four or five blind children who are of school age. The same results attended the efforts of some gentlemen among the managers and others connected with the Protestant School Board a few years ago when they contemplated the establishment of a school for the blind in Montreal.

During the past year the Educational Staff has been strengthened by the addition of Miss Edith Terrill as an Assistant Teacher, and by the engagement of Mr. Stavely as a teacher in Carpenter Work.

The work in the school-room has been thoroughly and carefully done. New and advanced Text Books such as are used in the public schools, have been introduced into the highest class, and several of the senior pupils whose parents belong to the Episcopal Church were confirmed by Bishop Bond last May. They were well prepared for the ceremony by the Rev. Canon Norman and the Teachers. The competitive examination which took place in the Royal Arthur School between some of the senior pupils of the Institution and those of the above School is mentioned in the report of the Examiner of the classes. This kind of examination is a new departure with Deaf-Mute Institutions, and will no doubt have excellent results in stimulating the Deaf-Mutes to greater exertion in their efforts to acquire an education. The report of the Annual Examination last June is appended, to which I would call the attention of the Board.

The following programme of studies has been carried out during the session.

THE DRAWING CLASS.

(13 Pupils.)

The Class in drawing and water-color painting has been continued in charge of Mr. John Macnaughton, a graduate of the Institution, and holding a responsible position in Geo. Bishop & Co's establishment, as lithographic engraver and artist. Several of the pupils have had special lessons in water-color painting. The class continues to uphold the high standing it has always maintained and the work done by the pupils is a credit to themselves and their teacher.

THE SABBATH SCHOOL AND SERVICE.

The regular Sunday School and Service, consisting of lectures, reading and explaining of the Scriptures in the sign and finger language, have been continued. The Sunday Classes have been taught by Messrs. McClelland and John Macnaughton, two graduates of the Institution, and the Principal, who also conducts the Sabbath Service, at which deaf-mutes from the city frequently attend.

THE INDUSTRIAL DEPARTMENT.

In the Workshops the pupils have had regular training in Carpentry, and in printing and type setting. Mr. Stavely in teaching the boys, has employed them in making various alterations and improvements about the premises which have long been urgently needed. The practical work thus afforded the boys will be of great use to them. The printing office has turned out the Annual Report and done all the printing required for the Institution. Some of the girls also have learned to set up type.

Several visits have been made to the McGill University Museum by the pupils and teachers, which greatly interested them; for this privilege they were indebted to Dr. Dawson.

The donations of Illustrated Publications which thoughtful friends send for the use of the pupils, have been very welcome and highly appreciated. A Library is needed for the Institution for the use of both Teachers and scholars, and such books as are received, are carefully preserved for that purpose.

The prizes distributed this year were a special donation from "Friends."

It is hardly necessary for me to report the general and deep sorrow which we all felt at the loss sustained by the Institution in the deaths of Mr. Edward Mackay, the President; Dr. W. E. Scott, the Physician; as well as other friends of the Institution. These will be referred to no doubt in the report of the Managers.

We have had a prosperous and progressive year, and have every reason to be devoutly thankful for the manifold blessings which have been so graciously showered on us in many ways. We can only pray and trust that the Institution may continue to be thus highly favored, and that the kindly feeling and co-operation on the part of the Managers and Teachers, in the good work may be continued in the future.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS WIDD,

Principal.

To the Board of Managers.

REV. CANON NORMAN'S REPORT.

I examined the pupils of the Mackay Institution for Deaf-mutes on the morning of Monday, June 18th. A large number of friends were present, and a good deal of interest was manifested. I had to conduct the examination mainly myself, in consequence of the absence of other examiners, but I was assisted by Mr. P. S. Ross, Mr. Widd and Miss Terrill.

The Junior Class are but beginners, and some have only recently come to the Institution. Etta Wiggett, one of four afflicted ones, shews considerable intelligence.

The 2nd Class are more numerous, and of course more advanced. The writing was very good in this class, and the arithmetic accurate.

The 3rd Class also deserve praise for their writing, and they answered well some simple questions in Scripture, Arithmetic and Geography. One of the children, Norman Wilson, was unable to write from an injury to his arm. Notwithstanding his natural nervousness, he acquitted himself very well by means of the one-handed alphabet. This class contains one boy of remarkable intelligence, named Albert Morrison.

The 4th Class is a very interesting one. It contains Frank Wiggett, the best articulator in the School, and who is generally bright and clever. The Bible answering and the writing in this class were decidedly good, and the Arithmetic very creditable.

The 5th is the highest class in the Institution, and did some very good work. They drew on the Black Board in my presence some accurate Maps of the Dominion of Canada, the one done by Meech being extremely neat. The same pupils are taught English Grammar by Miss McGann, and astonished me by the excellence of their replies. This instruction seems to me to supply a great want. The minds of these poor creatures are thus opened out, and they are taught to think and reason for themselves. This in my opinion was the most noticeable improvement in the whole scheme of Education as carried on at the Institute. The Articulation Class under the skilful and patient superintendence of Miss McGann, is always a most interesting feature, and as usual delighted everybody. The pupils who are learning lip-reading and Bell's symbolical method, are making marked progress. The drawing, which is under Mr. McNaughton's direction, deserves great praise, and the writing exercises, some of which I have been inspecting at my leisure, are most commendable. I am glad to notice an increase of numbers, and that the general health of the inmates is good.

I hope frequently to carry on a friendly competition between some of the pupils of the Institute and some of the members of our city schools. It is very interesting in itself, and likely to benefit and stimulate the Deaf-Mutes.

The whole respectfully submitted.

R. W. NORMAN, D.C.L.,

Examiner.

LADY SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

To the Board of Managers of the Mackay Institute.

In presenting my Second Annual Report of the condition of the Administrative Department of this Institution, I am happy to certify to the completeness of its working, and to the well-being of its inmates.

During the year that is past, strenuous efforts have been put forth on the part of the Directors, to make the Mackay Institution a model one. Such necessary additions and improvements as were consistent with the limited funds at their disposal have been effected; and during the summer vacation, kalsomining, painting and repairing have been done. The construction of a windmill obviates the necessity of requiring the boys to pump for some hours each day; and the extension of hot and cold water pipes from the kitchen to the dining-room pantry, where supplementary items had to be added, offer increased facilities for the convenient performance of work in the culinary department. The verandah which has been erected on the south side of the building, proves a great attraction to the pupils, and I can conscientiously assert we now possess a home thoroughly adapted to the purpose for which it was built, the comforts of the pupils being such as to satisfy the most exacting parent. Indeed nothing has been left undone to secure the health and happiness of those entrusted to our care. The sexes are still kept strictly apart, except during recitation hours, at meal times, and on special occasions when a teacher is present. The two new trades, that of carpentry and dress-making, introduced at the beginning of last session, have been successfully pursued and will undoubtedly prove of great benefit in the future.

Our annual Picnic to St. Helen's Island last June, was a most enjoyable affair; and the presence of some of the Lady Managers gratified the children and helped in their entertainment.

Through the generosity of Mr. Sharpe of the City Express. and Captain Filgate of the Steamer "Filgate," very trifling expense was incurred.

As the health of the pupils is made of the first importance; and their surroundings calculated to induce good health, I have little sickness to report. Measles attacked several in March, and the first call paid by our late lamented physician, Dr. Scott, was his last, he being soon after laid on a sick bed, from which he never rose again. His benevolent labor amongst the deaf-mutes will not soon be forgotten. His place as Medical Attendant has been filled by Dr. Molson, whose prompt attention when necessary, is highly appreciated. We are also called upon to mourn the death of our late President, Mr. Edward Mackay. His cheering words and genial hearty manner, won a place in the hearts of all. Long will his friendly visits be missed, and gratefully will his memory be treasured by the recipients of his many kindnesses. But one death occurred amongst the pupils; that of a little boy aged six, who died of Brain Fever in the General Hospital during the summer holidays.

The progress of the Articulation and Lip Reading Classes has been highly gratifying, and fully realizes my expectations. In the future, I hope to have more time to devote to this most important branch of the education of the deaf-mutes. The wonderful proficiency in Lip-Reading attained by Miss Jessie Macfarlane and Master F. Wiggett is worthy of special mention.

My work this year has been considerably lightened by the appointment made by your Board of Miss Terrill of Belleville, Ont., as Assistant-Teacher. The Lady Managers have also rendered me valuable aid, and their kindness is an incentive to perform my duties to the best of my ability.

Respectfully submitted,

HARRIET E. MCGANN,

Lady Superintendent.

THE ANNUAL EXAMINATION.

ANNUAL EXAMINATION—INTERESTING EXERCISES—ARTICULATION
BY MUTES.

(From the Montreal Witness, June 13th, 1883)

Yesterday the annual examination of the Mackay Institution for Protestant Deaf-Mutes took place. Nothing could be imagined at this season more delightful than the drive through the western suburbs which takes one to the Institution, situated in the midst of one of the brightest landscapes in Canada. It stands close by the Cote St. Luc road, a little west of Cote St. Antoine, commands a splendid view of the St. Lawrence, including the Nun's Island, Lachine Rapids and the Victoria Bridge, and affords on the westward and southward a most refreshing prospect of highly cultivated country stretching away to the horizon.

Arrived at the magnificent building, the pupils are found mustered in their places in the school room, awaiting the beginning of exercises. This is a lofty, finely finished apartment, the walls handsomely adorned with bannerets bearing mottoes, texts, etc., and conveniently furnished for its purpose. It is hard to imagine that all these children, with radiant and intelligent faces, are bereft of hearing and vocal speech, some from their birth, and are shut out from the inspiring realm of music, except in so far as Christian philanthropy has enabled them to make melody in their hearts.

The Rev. Canon NORMAN, in introducing the examination, regretted that none of a number of other clergymen who had been invited to take part were able to be present.

By way of opening exercises one of the advanced girl pupils gave the hymn, "Nearer my God to Thee," in the sign and finger languages, followed by the Lord's Prayer in like manner by several pupils, the performance being exceedingly impressive. Assisted by Mr. P. S. Ross, the secretary-treasurer of the Institution, the Rev. Canon proceeded to inspect the school according to the following programme:—Junior Classes (seven pupils, standing six months to two years, ages five to nine years), in nouns and adjectives, language, arithmetic and writing, taught by James McClelland and Miss Terrill. Class II. (ten pupils, standing one to four years, ages seven to fifteen years), in penmanship, language, Bible history and arithmetic, taught by Mr. McClelland. Class III, first division (ten pupils, standing from three to five years, ages from nine to twelve years), in language, Bible history, moral lessons, arithmetic, geography and penmanship, taught by Mr. Widd. Class IV, (five pupils, standing three to five years, ages nine to fourteen years), in language, moral lessons, arithmetic, Bible history and geography, taught by Mr. Widd and Miss Terrill. High Class (six pupils, standing three to eight years, ages fourteen to seventeen years), in readers, history, language exercises, geography, arithmetic, Bible history and penmanship, taught by Mr. Widd. Grammar Class (same as high class), taught two afternoons each week by Miss McGann. The Drawing Class (thirteen pupils), in charge of Mr. John McNaughton, a graduate of the Institution, who holds a responsible position in Messrs. George Bishop & Co.'s engraving establishment. The Articulation Class, in which instruction is given twice daily, with special attention to lip-reading, by Miss McGann, lady superintendent, who was given charge of this department about two years ago, after very successful experience in Michigan. All present were evidently well satisfied with the results of the examination, the pupils upon the whole in their respective grades evincing much intelligence on their own part, and most painstaking, patient and thorough tuition. The Principal, Mr. Widd, and Mr. McClelland, assistant teacher and director of the printing department, are themselves deaf-mutes, and together with Miss McGann and Miss Terrill assisted so efficiently in the exercises as to make them no more tedious than an ordinary school examination. The main interest of the morning was centred in the exhibition of Miss McGann's class in articulation, the company being more than delighted with the results. Bell's system of visible speech is that adopted, and prompted by hieroglyphic directions on the blackboard, the pupils enunciated short sentences and the most difficult proper names distinctly. They also repeated words formed almost mutely upon the teacher's lips, with a facility that was astonishing. One of them, a young girl, had only been under instruction a year, and her proficiency was strong evidence to the feasibility of initiating suitable subjects of these unfortunates into the use of their vocal organs. The Institution is to be congratulated in the possession of a preceptress of the attainments and skill of this lady. Original compositions and examinations in manuscript, including maps, were handed about to the audience, and some of them would not discredit scholars with all their faculties. In map-drawing, particularly, great excellence was shown in more than one case.

Among the visitors present besides the examiners were the Revs. E. Botterell and J. Patterson, Mrs. John McDougall, Mrs. Stevenson, Mrs. Mackedy, Mrs. Macfarlane, Mrs. Fay, of Boston, Mrs. Major, Mrs. F. Wolferstan Thomas, a number of relatives of pupils and others.

Prizes for good conduct and proficiency were distributed among all the pupils, some winning several.

In closing the proceedings, the Rev. Canon NORMAN said that although it was impossible to make a satisfactory examination in every respect in the short time allotted, he was sure all present had been delighted with the evidences of the Institution's efficiency. He would gladly make known the generous contributor of most of the prizes given, but his lips had been sealed by strict command of the donor. Referring to a competition that had taken place in a number of branches between twelve of the pupils and twelve from the Royal Arthur School in the city, he said that in some points those of the Institution excelled, although on the whole surpassed by their more privileged competitors. Yet, taken altogether, the competition resulted not very unequally, which spoke highly for the Institution, particularly as its pupils fell short in some cases through not understanding the questions. Miss McGann interpreting as rapidly as the words were spoken in his usual manner, Mr. Norman addressed some kind words and good advice to the pupils in connection with their departure for the holidays. The Rev. Mr. Patterson also addressed the audience and pupils briefly, speaking in high terms of commendation of the Institution and its work.

Before dispersing, the visitors inspected many specimens of the drawing class, which were very creditable alike to teacher and taught, some exhibiting no ordinary talent.

Members of the press and others were shown through the building, and found everywhere all the conditions of health, comfort and enjoyable home life.

APPEAL FOR THE DEAF AND DUMB.

—o—

(The following lines, pleading for means to give deaf-mutes an education, were penned by an old teacher of that class, who recently died in Australia.)

We plead for those who cannot tell,
 Of pain or pleasure, joy or grief,
 Whose pulse may throb, or heart may break,
 But cannot ask relief.
 Fit objects these for sympathy—
 Who cannot speak to tell their woe,
 And who, without "Especial care,"
 But little good can know.
 Within their silent homes, by them
 No pleasant sounds were ever heard,
 No sportive children's merry laugh,
 No mother's soothing word.
 They joy not in the song of birds,
 The rippling stream, the stirring breeze,
 Nature's sweet music hath
 For them no power to please.
 No Sabbath bells—no teacher's voice,
 Or holy songs delight their ears,
 No promises excite their hopes,
 Nor warnings raise their fears.
 And yet they are immortal souls,
 Like us, created to endure,
 When heaven and earth have pass'd away,
 And time shall be no more—
 Ah! who shall teach these helpless ones,
 Of life and immortality,
 Unfold before their wakening minds
 Each glorious mystery.
 Tell of His love who framed the world,
 His love who freely died to save,
 Tell of the endless blessedness
 For them beyond the grave.
 Thank God it can—is done;
 And all are called to render aid,
 In this good work so faithfully
 Be every effort made.
 Remember what the Saviour saith
 Of every Christian Charity—
 "Who giveth unto the least of these,
 He giveth unto ME."
