Portugal Gets Ready To Send Troops To Join Army of Allies

PORTUGAL TO PUT TROOPS INTO FIELD

Result in France Remains Undecided—Russians Continue Effective Work and After Ten Days Battle Have Defeated German Army

Paris, Oct. 5.—The following official communication was given in Paris this afternoon: "The force of native troops from Britain, which recently won a great victory, to the north of the Oise, the battle continues with great violence. The result remains undecided. We have been litig, at certain points, to cede ground.

Along the remainder of the front there has been no change. Hard fighting is going on near Roye and near Douai. The allies have captured several strong positions near Soissons.

French confidence in ultimate victory continues, and has been ceased by President Poincaré's decision to visit the front. A London correspondent sees renewed peril to Von Kluck's army in the port of fighting at Douai, northeast of Arras.

In Russia, after a battle which lasted ten days, the German army which was operating between the eastern Prussian front and the Iemen River, has been driven back along the entire line, and made a retreat abandoning a considerable quantity of war material. This army has evacuated completely the territory of the Russian provinces of Suwalki and Lonja.

Other press matter given out in official quarters says:—"The operations at Marseilles has left that port for the northward, and the German army has been driven back along the entire line, and made a retreat abandoning a considerable quantity of war material. This army has evacuated completely the territory of the Russian provinces of Suwalki and Lonja.

Off To Fight For Empire

Major McGowan of St. John Celebrates Birthday On Ocean

MAJOR MCGOWAN

Congratulations to Major J. T. McGowan, who today celebrates his birthday on the high seas. Major McGowan left St. John with the local artillery contingent and is now en route to England with the troops on their way to the front. His long experience and thorough training were recognized at Valcartier by his appointment to the responsible position in command of the ammunition division.

ST. JOHN TO BE WELL REPRESENTED AT MEETINGS OF SYNOD

Presbyterian Church Court to Hold Sessions in Halifax This Week

The annual synod of the Presbyterian church of the maritime provinces and Newfoundland will meet this week in Halifax, opening with a public service tomorrow evening. The synod was to have been held in Moncton but (owing to the destruction of the Presbyterian church there by fire) the plans were changed and the meetings will be held in the Park street church, Halifax.

All the clergymen and one elder from each congregation are entitled to attend and it is expected that the delegation will number about 300. All the local parsons except Rev. Dr. Morrison are planning to be present.

The retiring moderator is Rev. T. C. Jack of North Sydney, N. S., a brother of S. R. Jack of St. John. For the coming year the names of Rev. Donald McDonald of Grand Falls, and Rev. H. R. Grant, secretary of the Nova Scotia Temperance Alliance have been chosen.

The work of the synod will include a review of the work during the year, special attention to missions with consideration of the proposals to amalgamate the work of the eastern and western boards, and also special consideration of religious education.

The meetings will continue until Thursday evening or Friday morning.

FOUR HUNDRED HORSES TAKEN TO HALIFAX

I. C. R. Men Contribute Well to Patriotic Fund—Another Shooting Case

Moncton, N.B., Oct. 5.—Twenty carloads of remounts for the British army passed through Moncton this morning for Halifax en route for England. The train conveying about 400 horses arrived at four o'clock and left for the east at half past nine. The animals were released and fed here.

A subscription list recently started among the I.C.R. employees promising a day's pay monthly to the Canadian patriotic fund is being largely signed. Already more than $3000 has been pledged.

The police are continuing to search for Benjamin Gaudet who, it is alleged, discharged a revolver while in an altercation with a man named Belliveau near the Memramouc bridge of Moncton. The latter is the father of a Policeman Bellevue of Moncton.

The work of the synod will include a review of the work during the year, special attention to missions with consideration of the proposals to amalgamate the work of the eastern and western boards, and also special consideration of religious education.

The meetings will continue until Thursday evening or Friday morning.

INVASION OF HUNGARY BEGUN

Russians Capture All The Carpathian Passes

TWO OBJECTS IN VIEW

Czar's Troops Said to Have Captured the Heights Around Przemysl and Driven Off Austrians Trying to Re-take Them

London, Oct. 5.—A despatch to the Star from Rome speaking of the Russian invasion of Hungary, says: "Having captured all the Carpathian passes, the Russians have commenced the invasion of Hungary. Advancing to the south, they have occupied Hossanuco. Then the Cossacks effected a dash coup. They crossed the river and cut the railways, thus isolating the remainder of Hungary."

Rome, Oct. 5.—News from Russian headquarters says that the invasion of Hungary, through the Carpathians has two objects. The first is to insure the Russian army operating against Przemysl and along the San River, and second, to open a new centre of action in Hungary, the plains, where it can frighten the population, disturb the drilling of Hungarian reserves and recruits, and cut the railway communication.

It is recalled that during the Russian-Turkish war of 1877, an expedition commanded by General Gourko, and mostly composed of cavalry, did the same, crossing the Balkan mountains and entering Eastern Roumania.

London, Oct. 5.—A despatch from Petrograd to the Central News states that the Russian army who has just returned from Galicia, declares that the Russians captured the heights and four to five miles around Przemysl and that Austrians have vainly attempted to retake them.

GERMANS TRAPPED BY THE BELGIANS

Gory Incident of the Bombardment of Antwerp Forts—Krupp Men Work Guns

London, Oct. 5.—The Antwerp correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, telegraphing regarding the fighting around Antwerp, under date of Saturday says: "The Germans continue their desperate efforts to capture Antwerp. They are in a desperate hurry to accomplish it, pouring away incessantly with their heavy guns, and their shells are exploding in the outer circle of the Antwerp defence. The Belgian gunners waited until they could see the whites of their eyes and then opened a murderous fire. The Belgian shells have practically wiped out most of the little villages and hamlets in the outer circle of the Antwerp defences. The Germans still hold Malines, although at a heavy cost, as the town is subject to constant bombardment from the Antwerp forts."

The German big guns are not being worked by regular soldiers but by men in citizens' clothing, who wear only an armband to indicate their military occupation. Undoubtedly the men are employees of the Krupp factory, hastily summoned to replace the losses among the regular gun layers. The heaviest German guns are located north of Villers, where foundations of reinforced concrete have been prepared.

Thus far the forts in the outer ring of the Antwerp defence have suffered little harm from the German bombardment. The German big guns are not being worked by regular soldiers but by men in citizens' clothing, who wear only an armband to indicate their military occupation. Undoubtedly the men are employees of the Krupp factory, hastily summoned to replace the losses among the regular gun layers. KING ALBERT SPENDS 20 HOURS IN TRENCHES

London, Oct. 5.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from The Hague says: "Refugees arriving here last night from Antwerp say that the position of the Belgian forces is excellent, and that the German advance has been steadily checked. The forts are admirably resisting the heavy German artillery fire. In the city of Antwerp itself there are great hopes of a final victory. There is not the slightest panic. King Albert is continuing in the trenches, personally conducting operations. The king stayed in one of the trenches for more than twenty hours without resting."

Former Minister Is County Registrar Toronto, Ont., Oct. 5.—Hon. Dr. Reame, who resigned his office as minister of public works last week, has been appointed registrar of Essex county, and will be held at the call of the coroner and not this evening as has been announced.

Common Council Is Likely To Make Grant For Belgian Aid

Matter to Come Up at Next Meeting—Patriotic Fund Secretary-Treasurer Now in Permanent Quarters—Today's Contributions

One of the matters to come before the common council at their next meeting will be a proposal to make a civic grant in aid of the Belgians. The city has made a grant for the patriotic fund, and it is possible that another sum may be voted for the Belgian relief fund. Owing to the absence of Mayor Frink, the weekly meeting, which is due to be held this afternoon, may be postponed until later in the week.

Although the people of New Brunswick were a little tardy in taking up the scheme of relief for the Belgians, they are making up for the tardiness by a noteworthy enthusiasm. The feeling is wanting to do something has spread almost all over the province, and offers of aid are being received from all sides.

The following amounts were acknowledged by the treasurer: J. G. Harrison, $20; F. L. Morrison, $10; H. G. Rogers, $15; R. Retalick, $5; Very Rev. W. F. Chapman, $5; Timothy O'Keefe, $1; Mrs. H. S. Gregory, $5; H. Tonge, $1; J. F. Belyea, $5; Robert Doherty, $5; J. F. Belyea, $5; Stanley G. Olive, $10; Emma Ribicoud, $5; Mrs. F. M. Belyea, $1; Mrs. F. Friend, $1; G. L. Laine, $2; Friend, $1; Stanley D. Clark, $2; Friend, $1; John McKelvey, $5; James McGrath, $5; Mrs. W. A. Lordly, $1; Friend, $5; Mrs. David Magee, $2; Friend, $5; Mrs. F. F. McIlvren, $1; Little girls, King street east, $75; Friend, $1; Little Girls' Bazaar, King street, East, $170; George Smith, $2; Clyde C. Corkin, $1.

The local branch of the Canadian Patriotic Fund this morning opened its office in its new home, in the old Bank of Nova Scotia Building, Prince William street.

There will be no further mobilization of troops at Valcartier camp this year, according to the statements of local militia officers who should be in a position to know. If a second contingent of reinforcements to the first Canadian expeditionary force is authorized, they will be bivouaced in New Brunswick or Nova Scotia, and will be sent from St. John or Halifax.

Whether a New Brunswick regiment will be organized as a distinctive unit to be taken for overseas service, will probably be decided this week. The plan for foreign service, such action should be taken. Several well known military men are actively engaged in taking the matter up.

William Russell, emigration officer of the Central (Unemployed) Body of London, dropped into the board of trade office this morning. He has just returned after a tour of inspection throughout Western Canada enquiring more particularly into the situation of the men and families who have been sent to Canada in recent years by this organization. With a few exceptions he says they have all done well. He is greatly impressed with Canadian opportunities, and particularly with the agricultural outlook in New Brunswick. He thinks there is a great agricultural future ahead of this province. Mr. Russell will meet the secretary for agriculture here and then will go to Halifax.

The board of trade will meet at 8 o'clock tonight to transact general business.

EMIGRATION MAN HERE

At a meeting of representatives of the three teams in the Inter-school Football League—Rothsay Collegiate School, Fredericton High School and St. John High School—a schedule was drawn up and preparations made for the season's play. The matter of a dispute in reference to the cup, there being no league last year, was referred to the U.S.B. athletic board. If satisfactory arrangements can be made at Rothsay for a half holiday, the opening game will be in St. John on next Saturday afternoon between Rothsay and St. John. Falling this the same teams will commence the series in St. John on the following Wednesday. Each team will meet the others once at home and once away.

ALLOWED HIS FREEDOM

A member of a geological survey party of the Dominion government was taken into custody yesterday while taking pictures of Fort Howe and vicinity. He would not have been troubled had it not been that he did not show his authority from his department to take the pictures, until threatened with being locked up in the army for the night. Then he showed his credentials and was allowed his freedom. The militia authorities are insisting that no photographs of importance to the enemy, or plans of the harbor, or other such prints be made without proper authority and reason for the same being done, and interest is the natural sequel to disobedience.

CHARGE AGAINST PROMINENT POLE; HE ENDS HIS LIFE

Chicago, Oct. 5.—Simon J. Czechowicz, former secretary of the Polish National Alliance, and under indictment for the alleged embezzlement of $7,000 funds of the organization, committed suicide by asphyxiation here today.

THE WOOL MARKET

London, Oct. 5.—Since the close of July auctions a generally good demand has been experienced for wools suitable for manufacturing army clothing. The forthcoming wool sales fixed for October 6 and 7 lasting only a few days with offering of about 50,000 bales, are looked forward to with some interest, and it is now believed the chief reason for holding the sales is that Australian merchants and bankers are anxious to gauge, if possible, what the value of wool really is in order to make advances in Australia on future shipments.

NOT THIS EVENING

Coroner W. F. Roberts said this afternoon that the inquest into the cause of the death of Ernest M. Pitt will be held at the call of the coroner and not this evening as has been announced.

CHANCE FOR POLICE AND STREET RAILWAY MEN TO GO TO CHURCH

At a meeting of the Evangelical alliance this morning a committee was appointed to look into the matter of police and street railway men being given an opportunity of attending church on Sunday. A committee was also appointed to investigate the needs of the Belgians for the relief fund. Rev. W. O. Raymond presided.

WANTS $5 A WEEK PENSION FOR EVERY DISABLED SOLDIER

London, Oct. 5.—Every man permanently disabled in the war, and unable to follow his former occupation, ought to be paid $5 a week during his life, is the opinion of George Nicoll Barnes, a labor leader, and M. P. for the Black Friars division of Glasgow.

He advocated this at a mass meeting last night. He estimated that the sum which the government would be called upon to pay to the dependents of breadwinners in the field would not reach $25,000,000.

The wheat market in Chicago opened today 1/4 to 1/8 higher and made a slight additional gain.

WEEK-END VISITORS

Four or five young partridge gave a little exercise to some residents of Inlandton on last Saturday, not with shot, but in chasing them and making them captives. The birds were taken with every kindness in consideration of their unusual visit to the city precincts.

"LET US HAVE PEACE"

Yesterday was proclaimed by President Wilson as a day of prayer throughout the United States for European peace. Among the sacred songs sung in churches and Sunday schools was the following, the words of which were written by Geo. Graff, Jr., and the music by Ernest R. Ball, which has been sung by such distinguished singers as Mme. Schumann-Heink.

MARINE NOTES.
Schooner Henry H. Chamberlain, Captain Watson, arrived in port yesterday with a cargo of coal for Fredericton, consigned to R. P. & W. F. Starr. About 150 or 200 tons will be unloaded and taken to Fredericton in scows and the schooner will be taken up river with the balance.
Barkentine Ethel Clarke, Captain Chute, sailed up the harbor yesterday after being out thirty-four days from Barabados. The Ethel Clarke, which is a vessel of 397 tons, was laden with 1,253 puncheons of molasses which is said to be one of the largest shipments of molasses ever brought to this port. Her voyage was an eventful one. She arrived off the coast about two weeks ago, when she met contrary winds and was driven off for a considerable distance. She then for several days made little headway on account of calm weather, and finally arrived safely in port yesterday.

MOTHER! GIVE CROSS SICK CHILD ONLY "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS"

If Peevish, Feverish, Tongue Coated, Give Fruit Laxative At Once

No matter what ails your child a laxative should be the first treatment given. Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle thorough cleansing at once. When cross peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, skin sallow, system full of cold, thro sore, or if feverish, give a teaspoon of "California Syrup of Figs" and just a few hours all the clogged up, stipulated waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels and you have a well, playful child again.

Sick children need to be coaxed to take this harmless fruit laxative. Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a lot of trouble tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly and here. Get the genuine, made by California Fig Syrup Company. Refuse any other kind with contempt.

THE DOCTOR ON THE BATTLEFIELD

Must Count on Caring For Ten Per Cent of Force In Each Fight

ALSO DIRECT BURIALS

Thousands of Dead in Present War Buried by Noncombatants—Grievous Scenes During and After the Fight

(Works Work)
What becomes of the grievously wounded that are falling in the great battles of this war? Are they properly cared for, or are many of them left to the field to be trampled upon by men and horses of the advancing armies and do many of them die there without care? And what becomes of the great heaps of the slain, piled five feet deep in long windrows as they are buried or are many left to lie where they fell?

Every soldier of every army carries in a sealed tin box, a first aid packet, consisting of a bandage, antiseptic gauze and adhesive plaster. A part of the training of the soldier is how to use these, and if the wound is slight and in an accessible place he may apply the dressing himself; if more severe, a comrade may apply it for him.

The wounded soldier, with or without first aid dressing if he is able to walk passes back to the rear to the field hospital which is always more or less sheltered from the fire of the armies. If he is unable to walk he is carried back on a litter by the hospital corps. As soon as he can stand transportation he is passed on to the general hospital, and thence in due time to the convalescent camp to recuperate.

Ten Per Cent, the casualties
The medical staff of an army is equipped upon the theory, based upon past experience, that 10 per cent of the force will be killed or wounded in each battle. If the number of casualties is 18,000 the estimate is that fully 20 per cent or 3,600 will be dead on the field; 8 per cent, or 1,440, will be so severely wounded that they will be inadvisable to move them; 40 per cent, or 7,200, will be able to walk one mile, one-half of them to the station for the slightly wounded in the rear, the rest to the field hospital, and 32 per cent will be made known to the medical staff.

In the Manchurian campaign one-third of the wounded Japanese returned to the front, the chief surgeon being in mind that the field hospital is not pitched in "zones of losses." The usual proportion of wounded is 20 per cent up to 1,000 yards, 60 per cent in the final rush, 10 per cent in pursuit, 10 per cent.

The field hospital is not pitched until the tactical situation develops and the point where the main attack is to be made known. Then a site is chosen beyond the range of the enemy's fire, accessible to the front and rear of the troops, convenient to wood and water, if possible, near buildings which are not likely to be destroyed by the advancing troops, convenient to road and, if possible, near a building which is not likely to be destroyed by the advancing troops, convenient to road and, if possible, near a building which is not likely to be destroyed by the advancing troops.

Conditions on the battlefield are all unfavorable for clean surgical work, and it is often impossible to reach many wounded for hours, and sometimes for days, as in the attack upon the Liege forts in Belgium, where the Germans wounded in the assaults were unattended for long periods, thousands of them dying of their wounds.

The chief surgeon has under him a corps of surgeons for amputating the limbs of the wounded and for dressing wounds, and also a corps of litter bearers and ambulance men. Very few of the wounded are not recorded in the annals of battles are performed by the men of the hospital corps, and of the Red Cross who go out often in the face of terrific fire and gather up the wounded, or fighting in the cover of a wood, or in any other protected place which affords a long period of continuous fighting, the gravely wounded are gathered up by the litter bearers, assisted by the soldiers, and are passed back to the rear.

When a fighting army is driven out of its position and the advancing enemy rushes over the field and on in pursuit, the medical corps then has an opportunity to gather the wounded left in the wake of the two armies and often the medical corps of two opposing armies work together upon the field, each carrying off its wounded. Often an army is taken so that the wounded are picked up and the dead buried.

Superintends Burials
Generally, the medical staff of each army takes care for its own wounded, but in every case where it is necessary the wounded of the enemy are cared for with the same attention that is given to those of the home army. Thus in Antwerp the Belgians are caring for a large number of wounded Germans, and the medical staff of the German army cared for the wounded Belgians they found when they captured the forts of Liege.

The last service rendered to the soldier by the medical staff is to see that those killed are promptly buried after the battle. There is no ceremony about it, and no reverence shown for the dead. It is a matter of the cold, horrible business of war. The dead must be buried, and as quickly as possible, for there is other work to do. One squad collects the dead in piles, another digs long, shallow trenches, and the bodies are packed in the trenches and covered with earth. The despatches told that before Liege the Germans had so many dead, and the soldiers were so needed for fighting and gathering in the wounded, that there was not time to dig trenches, so the bodies were piled in heaps, oil was poured on and they were buried.

Buried by Non-Combatants
Often an army is driven from its position and must leave the dead behind. Then they are sometimes buried by the enemy which occupies the position, but in the present war, the dead of both armies are left to be buried by the hospital corps, and of other battalions for the army officers to order the villagers near the scene of battle to bury the dead. The Sunday school pupils, headed by the pastor, Rev. D. J. McPherson, and the superintendent, Mr. A. Belives, and accompanied by the teachers, marched from the Sunday school around the block, by Union, Waterloo and Richmond streets. On their return to the school an excellent programme was carried out, including a duet by Misses Corium and Scribner; reading by Master Vail; song by the primary department, and musical selection by the Chinese department, in English and in Chinese. Rev. J. H. A. Anderson of St. John's Presbyterian church, addressed the children.

RALLY DAY OBSERVED IN SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Yesterday was rally day in many Sunday schools in the city. Special prayers were offered and inspiring addresses were delivered. In nearly every case there was a very large attendance. In St. Stephen's Sunday school, J. J. Irvine, superintendent, occupied the chair. Mr. Leggs, boys' work secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and Rev. Gordon Dickie gave addresses. Frank Wry sang a solo.

In Exmouth street Methodist church more than 300 were present. An interesting programme of thanksgiving hymns and choruses was carried out. W. B. Erb presided at the Main street Baptist Sunday school and addresses were delivered by Rev. J. H. McDonald, D. D., and Rev. Dr. Hutchinson. Miss Audrey Mullin sang a solo.

Mrs. C. F. Sanford read a letter from E. C. Hennigar, a missionary supported by Centenary Sunday school, at their rally yesterday. J. B. Arthur, president and an interesting programme was carried out in which Master Winchester, Fred Lingley, Miss Jean Treed and Miss Dorothy Tennant took part.

In St. David's the annual rally service proved highly successful. There was a large attendance in all departments and an excellent beginning for the winter was made. The school room was prettily and patriotically decorated with flags and flowers and a special programme of thanksgiving hymns and choruses was carried out. The rally day in Ludlow street Baptist church, West End, was held yesterday and was a big success, all the services being marked by very large attendance.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

The new Prince Edward Island car ferry was launched today at Newcastle-On-Tyne from the Walker yards of the Armstrong Whitworth Company. Sir Percy Girouard, Hon. George H. Perley, and Mrs. Perley were present and Mrs. Perley officiated at the christening.

The Methodist General Conference on Saturday decided to make no change in the four years term for the pastors and the term can be extended only for special missions.

CARLETON ACCIDENT
Mrs. Wm. Mayble, of Winslow street West End, while visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. J. Smith, slipped on the dining room floor and broke her leg. Dr. Neve was summoned and had her removed to the General Public Hospital where she is resting as comfortably as possible. Mrs. Mayble has been in poor health for many years and her friends will be sorry to learn of her accident.

In spite of European emigration to North and South America the entire American continent has as yet scarcely more than one-third as many people as Europe. The United States will soon have 100 millions of people, and between natural increase and immigration she is growing at the rate of nearly two millions a year.

THE WAR NEWS.

An interesting feature of today's war news is the statement that the Germans appear to be making a determined effort to capture Antwerp.

The German invasion of France has proved a failure. An attempt to invade Russia by way of East Prussia has also failed.

Indeed, he paints a glowing picture of the activity of German industries, and the steady decline of unemployment.

France has harvested an exceptionally large grain crop. This will go far to solve the problem of food supply in that country during the war.

It will be surprising if Italy is able to maintain her neutrality, so many of her people are eager to have war declared against Austria and Germany.

The Belfast Nationalists claim to have furnished five thousand of the recruits from that city for foreign service.

Some German sympathizers in South Africa, who wanted to hold a meeting to protest against the action of the government, were not permitted to do so.

The Bank of England is the best guarded institution in the world. No burglar or bank thief has ever succeeded in making it part with a penny.

The Kaiser has offered a special decoration to the first German aviator who drops a bomb into London.

The plea that is made in favor of buying and using Canadian-made goods and British-made goods should receive a hearty response.

Public attention is so centered upon the war and all that relates to it that other questions must be set aside for the time being.

One of the war correspondents describes the extraordinary precautions that are taken to protect the Kaiser, even when he is with the army.

necessary to take such extraordinary precautions to protect himself. In striking contrast is the conduct of King Albert of Belgium, who fearlessly goes to the front and mingles with his soldiers everywhere.

The utter inability of Austria to present a strong fighting front continues to be one of the notable features of the war.

This week in Montreal Sir Wilfrid Laurier will address a mass meeting to stimulate recruiting for the French Canadian brigade which is to be organized for foreign service.

The government of Ontario has granted $15,000 to the fund for Belgium relief. How much will the government of New Brunswick contribute?

NOT A BOOK SOLDIER.

I have seen a good many British soldiers. I was one of the first short-service men, and I soldiered with long-service men.

The real Tommy Atkins, the fully developed Tommy Atkins who nurses French babies, scribbles his landlady's name on the wall.

The plea that is made in favor of buying and using Canadian-made goods and British-made goods should receive a hearty response.

Public attention is so centered upon the war and all that relates to it that other questions must be set aside for the time being.

PHASES OF WAR DISCUSSED BY LOCAL PASTORS

"Until the Prussian mind shall have repented and made restitution this war must go on and England with the Allies must fight it through, continuing to bear the awful burden of the war for the world's peace so long as Germany persists in her brutal purpose to beat up the world and to grind up the people under the Juggernaut of force, there can be no other way open to liberty loving people."

ALOUSIE WITH LARGE ARMHOLE

is 2 1/2 yards 25 inches wide. The long sleeve and front are cut on an open width, while the undersleeve collar and back are arranged on a fold of the crepe.

By making the first step to tuck the front and back, creating an slot perforation; stitch one inch from folded edges. Center-front indicated by large "O" perforations. Adjust under-facing to position underneath front, corresponding edges even. Close shoulder seam. Sew large collar to neck edge, notches and center-backs even. Sew standing collar to shield as notched. Adjust shield to position, bringing corresponding single large "O" perforations in front and in shield together.

Place lower part of long sleeve, creating an slot perforations, bring folded edge to small "o" perforations. If short sleeve is made underface lower part from lower edge to one inch above crossline of double "oo" perforations; roll over on outside on double "oo" perforations to form cuff, and if desired, turn pointed end of cuff over on single small "o" perforations.

Lap armhole edge of front and back to small "o" perforations in sleeve, bringing single large "O" and double "oo" perforations in front, back and sleeve together. Close under-arm and seam as notched.

Roll collar and front as illustrated. A bit of braid embroidery may be added to enhance the beauty of the blue.

Manchester Robertson Allison, Limited

is a greater with us than with him. II Chron., xxxii, 8.

"A century ago," he said, "when England was in the midst of a conflict to free Europe from military tyranny—the conflict of similar nature to the one for which she is now arming her legions—when the days were dark, and when the broad volunteers from the Chapel of Ease at Abroth, preached before the Rev. Robert Thomson, minister in the Chapel of Ease for all the multitude that is with him, there is a greater with us than with him. With him is the Lord our God to help us, and to fight our battles."

"These words form the substance of an address with which Rev. Robert Thomson endeavored to encourage his people when his kingdom was invaded by an enemy whose success would inevitably destroy all that they held most dear. They have peculiar application to the present situation. The flag of England displayed on the Aisne the Rhone or the Rhine, is not the scene is changed to the Thames, the Tay, the Teed or the Shannon—as it may well be—we will fight with all confidence in the justice of our cause. This confidence is the only permanent incentive to our cause which God is with us. Close the righteous gives us reason to conclude that God is with us.

"The confidence in the justice of our cause and in the presence of the God of battles is not alone sufficient to win the victory. The strong and courageous, is the first injunction of the text. The ancient Hebrew principle made every prayer that confidence could suggest. He was as diligent in using the means which were in his power, as if divine aid had not been promised. He stands a noble example for those who are now directing the forces of the country. He prepared as though numbers alone counted, and at the same time he depended on God as though the best human exertions had been vain.

"Much of the strength of our armies comes from the consciousness that they are fighting the battle of justice and of human liberty. England's great part in the fight for civil liberty is today the clearly felt assurance that she is fighting, irrespective of any material benefits, that may accrue to her, for the deliverance of Europe from militarism. The public sentiment of the civilized world, outside of Turkey, is with her. That sentiment desires the destruction of the false god of militarism—a god with a mouth like a blazing fire and hearing the universe with his radiance. He is the very antithesis in all regards of the God of justice of the most saintly souls of the world. His triumph would make of the world a cosmic hell with man recreated a god-beast after his own image.

"Many of us cannot march out to fight this god of horrid men, but we can all help. Mr. Thomson concludes that sermon to which I have referred, by saying: 'Can we be indifferent about those who are ready to suffer and to bleed for us? No! Brethren, duty and love must constrain us to pray to the God of armies, that He may give them with strength to the battle; teach their hands to war and their fingers to fight; and cover them in the hour of danger; that if they must not return to us adorned with the verdant laurels, He may bless them with a glorious death, and bestow upon them the crown of life. We should remember that prayer is the most likely way to obtain deliverance from all the ill we fear and a prosperous issue to all our lawful pursuits.'

Rev. H. A. Cody.

The Effects of the War on the Churches was the subject of an interesting sermon preached by Rev. H. A. Cody to a large congregation in St. James church last evening. He took as his text, "The Lord is in His holy temple; the Lord's seat is in heaven." Mr. Cody said that the war would undoubtedly have many bad effects on the churches and would hinder greatly the work among the heathen, while on the other hand it would have many good effects and would bring the broad volunteers from the Chapel of Ease to the aid of the Lord's army. He said that the war would have many bad effects on the churches and would hinder greatly the work among the heathen, while on the other hand it would have many good effects and would bring the broad volunteers from the Chapel of Ease to the aid of the Lord's army.

His Little Savings Left To Boys' Home Montreal Reformed "Incorrigible" Off to the War, But First Makes Will

Montreal, Oct. 5.—"I" having enlisted for active service, I have left my bank book at the above address (the Protestant House of Refuge) in care of M. Shaw...

This somewhat informal and ungrammatical will and testament of a boy going to war forms part of a story that is quite unusual in even the annals of Montreal's war movement.

The author of the will, who is now a soldier with one of Montreal's crack regiments on the way to active service with the First Canadian Expeditionary Force, is an orphan...

POLICE COURT

Two Charges of Assault Against Collins—Saloon-Keeper Attacked

Daniel Collins appeared before Magistrate Ritchie this morning to answer two charges of assaulting Michael Marcus on Thursday night and again on Friday evening. A preliminary examination was begun.

Marcus, who keeps a fruit store in Mill street, said he was washing windows when Collins, who had been drinking, told him to stop the water and struck him on the hand with his case. The next night, he said, he was washing windows again about the same time and Collins came in the shop and tried to turn the water off. He picked up a bottle of lager beer and threw it at the witness striking him on the fingers and breaking the bottle. The prisoner was remanded.

John Wood gave evidence this morning in a preliminary examination into a charge against David Hennessey of threatening to kill Policeman Anderson. He said he heard Hennessey asking someone to bring him a knife when he was being arrested by Anderson on Wednesday evening and heard him say he would fix Anderson.

John Lavine charged with disorderly conduct in the saloon of John Flood, Marsh bridge, on Saturday and also with threatening to strike him with a bottle, appeared before Magistrate Ritchie and a preliminary examination was begun. Mr. Flood said the defendant and another man were passing his bar room on Saturday afternoon. He was standing in the doorway and heard Lavine say "We will go in here and have a drink." He told them they had enough and would not allow them in. Lavine, he said, struck him in the face and he afterwards came into the saloon with a bottle in his hand about three-quarters full of whisky. He said "I don't want any whisky, I have enough of my own," and raised the bottle to strike Flood, threatening to knock his brains out. The witness said he warned off the blow and put Lavine out of the shop, and afterwards gave him in charge of Policeman Merrick. The prisoner was remanded.

NOVELTY SHOWER

A delightful novelty shower was given to Miss Winnie K. Nobles on last Friday evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. Fanny Nobles, 6 St. Paul street, when many friends gathered to wish her happiness before her departure for the west where she is to be married. She received many beautiful presents. A pleasant evening was spent. Dainty refreshments were served.

Permanent Street Pavement Of Concrete a Success

COST ONLY $1.90 A SQUARE YARD

Twenty-four Food Roadway With Wide Strip of Grass and Then Granolithic Sidewalk—Good Sewerage Work Also by Supt. Parker

The town of Amherst is setting the pace for other towns and cities in the maritime provinces in the matter of laying permanent street pavement of concrete.

The people of these provinces have got inspiration from Amherst with regard to many other matters in recent years. Its growth as an industrial centre has been remarkable. It was the first town to employ trained social service workers and grant a systematic policy of playground and social service work in connection with the school buildings. Some four or eight years ago, it laid a considerable amount of bitulithic pavement, which is still in perfect condition. The town has grown so rapidly in population in recent years that a splendid new school building erected a few years ago, with the idea that only two rooms would at first be required, has all its rooms now in use and the school is again short of school accommodation.

It is true that at the present time Amherst is affected by the war and existing financial conditions; but an early improvement is looked for, and an important project of the town is to be held in Amherst tomorrow to consider the general situation in Nova Scotia, and to consider plans for a revival of industrial activity.

Permanent Pavement

Amherst has adopted the policy of laying permanent pavement. The property owners pay sixty per cent. of the cost. The town last year voted $85,000 for permanent work, but postponed expenditure until this year, when J. S. Parker, who is well known in St. John, was engaged as superintendent of streets, and the sum of $40,000 was expended, leaving $45,000 of the appropriation to be spent next year.

In the matter of the street committee of the town council, and a strong advocate of a permanent paving policy, gave some interesting facts regarding the work. Amherst is a level town, close to the great marshes, and the soil is such that in fall and spring the principal streets, if not paved, would be very soft and muddy. Some seven or eight years ago the first permanent work was done, and this year the policy was continued on quite a large scale.

Mr. Douglas said that they had adopted the plan of a street two-four feet wide between the curbs, on the boulevard plan. On each side of the street there is a two-foot foot path and a granolithic sidewalk. The street pavement is of concrete. The aim of it is to get length rather than width, and to provide with the money available longer streets than in the past. The concrete sidewalk during the last summer 4,000 feet of concrete street paving was laid, and a two miles of granolithic sidewalk. The concrete pavement cost $1.90 a square yard. Messrs. Page & Lusby, the contractors, are Amherst men, and under the specifications drawn up by Engineer Parker they have done splendid work. The permanent pavement being opened for traffic this week. The space between the curbs and sidewalks have been leveled and seeded down. When the grass comes up next spring the people will have every reason to be proud of the streets which have been paved, while for traffic purposes the benefit will be enormous. There was some doubt in the minds of the citizens about the twenty-four foot street at the outset, but now that the work is completed there is only one opinion. Everyone is delighted. The concrete pavement cost, as stated, only $1.90 a square yard while bitulithic would have cost about $2.75.

The citizens of Amherst propose to go on providing permanent pavement as rapidly as they can. During the work this summer there was no delay, as so often occurs in St. John, where the water and other departments had not their part of the work attended to. In Amherst everything was ready. The town this year, under the direction of Superintendent Parker, also adopted a new policy with regard to laying sewers. This work had previously been done by contract, but during the last summer more than 6,000 feet were laid at a very material reduction in cost in comparison with former work. Supt. Parker also opened $300 feet of surface drains. The town is steadily improving its sewerage system, as well as its streets. It would pay other towns in the province to look into what Amherst is doing, especially in the matter of permanent streets. The town council is to be congratulated upon its progressiveness, and upon the splendid results that have been achieved this year.

HALIFAX MAN BELIEVED TO BE PRISONER IN MUNICH

London, Oct. 5.—There is a noticeably marked decrease in the number of callers at the Canadian High Commissioner's office at present, as compared with the exciting days immediately following the outbreak of the war, with the attendant suspension of traffic and the stampede of tourists from the continent. For the first two or three weeks in August, the number of visitors at the office ran as high as 200 on some days, while now the average of registration is six a day. The office is, however, kept busy answering many enquiries concerning persons still on the continent, or the expected arrival of the Canadian forces. The office is in touch with several Canadians in Germany and Austria, and is remitting money to them.

Mr. Winthrop, of Halifax, is believed to be in prison in Munich.

MANY ON HAND FOR WORK ON EXTENSION OF STREET CAR LINE

All roads this morning—that is so far as working men out of work are concerned—led to the scene of the street railway extension on the Marsh road and that popular thoroughfare before seven o'clock resembled our picture of a flight from a besieged city. Men, men—hundreds of them, attracted by the notices in Saturday's newspapers, were on the job at an early hour, but so many were there that at least half of them were forced to retreat without striking a blow.

It was suggested that the overflow might have been utilized immediately for the completion of the line to Little River. This line, although it has been completed from Kane's corner almost to the bridge near the Municipal Home all summer, is idle and is not yet connected with the Kane's corner loop. Thousands of people went out to the Conway Bay yesterday and walked from Kane's corner when they might have ridden had this connection been made. Two cars were in operation on the Kane's corner line yesterday and both carried all loads of passengers. Among the attractions at East St. John yesterday were the harbor works and the new tuberculosis hospital. The hospital is rapidly assuming shape and the main building is now past the first story in the brick work and the other parts are following along well. At the present rate of progress, the walls of the building should be completed in two weeks or so.

BY PRODUCTS FROM NEW BRUNSWICK COAL IN "MADE-IN-CANADA" DAYS

To the Editor of The Times— Sir,—In connection with the pressing demands for aniline dyes, cresolate and commercial commodities, the supply of which has been stopped or restricted by the European war, a paper read before the Natural History Society of St. John in January, 1909, by E. I. Shewen, M. Can. Soc. E., resident engineer of the pulp works, Canada possesses considerable value, offering as does practical suggestions which might be taken advantage of in a "Made-in-Canada" campaign.

In this paper Mr. Shewen pointed out that by distillation of coal of the kind obtained at Grand Lake, (and other points in Canada) such valuable by-products as aniline dyes, cresolate, carbolic acid, naphtha, anthracene, in addition to illuminating gas, coke, coal tar, pitch and ammoniacal liquor were obtainable.

The Board of Trade of St. John appreciated the importance of this source of developing to the fullest extent the natural resources of the country, and in 1909, Mr. Shewen, M. Can. Soc. E., resident engineer of the pulp works, Canada proposed developing these products on Canadian soil. The time would seem to be ripe for a change in our present policy. It may not be possible or desirable to manufacture all our raw products at home, but there are many instances where it is developed at home to a much greater extent. Coal is one of them.

Enclosed is an extract from Mr. Shewen's valuable paper.

Yours, for a Greater Canada,
R. A. ARISTON, G. Secretary,
St. John, N. B., Oct. 5.

"Supposing without reference to current prices and for the sake of comparison only, a ton of Grand Lake coal, say at the pit mouth, to be worth $2.50 or $3.00 in the market, the eighty-three tons if sold as fuel without distillation would bring $202.50, while if distilled considering only the principal by-products, the same quantity of coal would bring in—

42 tons of coke at $5.00	$210.00
N. B.—It must be remembered that the value of the coal at the pit mouth was $2.50
$20,000 cubic feet of illuminating gas at 50c per M.	410.00
Cresolate 25 per cent, 250 gallons at 8c.	20.00
Say three tons of pitch worth at Cardiff 27c, or $8.10 per ton	20.25

Total result from distillation of eighty-three tons of coal which is eighty-three tons of coal which if sold without distillation would have brought only $202.50

.....$665.25

"In practice, it would probably be as the enterprise developed, commercial use of the illuminating gas would follow, besides treatment of the lighter oils, and the gradual working up of all waste products into the innumerable chemicals derived from coal.

"One measure of a country's prosperity is the extent of the consumption of coal and iron; while a good measure of its civilization is the extent to which waste products are utilized.

"Familiarly with each step of every process is indispensable for success in destructive distillation, and any attempt to succeed without the aid of the services of a highly trained chemist, thoroughly skilled in extracting and treating the by-products of coal, would result in commercial failure."

BRITISH COMMISSIONERS TO MEET LUMBERMEN HERE

The secretary of the St. John Board of Trade is in receipt of a letter from the commissioner of commerce at Ottawa on the subject of pit props, in which he states that the gentlemen who were coming from England in this connection are now on their way to Newfoundland. On their return they will visit various parts of Nova Scotia, and also St. John where they will probably desire to meet a limited number of firms who can give them the information they seek. They are not buyers, but will report upon the prospect of obtaining pit props in Canada both as a temporary and a permanent matter. An officer of the forestry department, the commissioner says, is now in the maritime provinces and will be in contact with these gentlemen on their return from Newfoundland.
