GREEKS AND TURKS IN BATTLE TODAY

Fighting Along the Frontier Has Begun This Morning

Formal Declaration of War Against Serbia and Bulgaria Published at Constantinople—Turkey Sends Army Against Servians and Bulgarians

(Canadian Press) Athens, Greece, Oct. 17.—Fighting between the Greek army and the Turkish forces stationed along the frontier began early today. Constantinople, Oct. 17.—The formal declaration of war against Serbia and Bulgaria was published by the Turkish government today. Constantinople, Oct. 17.—Hostilities were opened at half past two o'clock this morning by the Turkish troops at various points on the Bulgarian and Serbian frontiers. The divisions of the Turkish army were ordered to take a simultaneous forward movement. In giving the order for a general advance, the Ottoman war minister mentioned only that the movement was to be made along the frontiers of Bulgaria and Serbia. There is a powerful Turkish army concentrated near the Greek frontier, but this has not yet been put into motion. Sofia, Oct. 17.—King Ferdinand and staff have left for the headquarters of the Bulgarian army near the Turkish frontier. It is believed he will issue a proclamation to the nation or make a formal declaration of war from that position. Athens, Oct. 17.—The Turkish minister to Greece Athens today issued a formal declaration of war against Serbia and Bulgaria. A daring feat was accomplished this morning by the commanders of the Greek garrisons A and D. At two o'clock they made a dash to force the Turkish blockade at the narrow entrance to the Gulf of Arta, one side of which is Turkish and the other Greek. They were observed from the Turkish fort at Preveza, which dominates the entrance, and a heavy fire was directed on them, which they returned. They succeeded in fighting their way through, and at half past four, reached the Greek town of Vonitza on the eastern shore of the bay, with very little damage. Algiers, Oct. 17.—An escort of four Greek destroyers is conveying the Greek steamer Macedonia with Greeks, Bulgarians and Servians on board, who are returning from America, to join their regiments to fight against the Turks. The Macedonia arrived here last night from New York and found four destroyers, recently purchased by Greece in England, waiting to accompany her on her voyage. Paris, Oct. 17.—More than one hundred installations of Turkish troops are concentrated already at the port of Ana Minor to be sent to reinforce the Turkish forces in the Balkans.

BOURASSA SAYS NATIONALISTS CANNOT ACCEPT BORDEN POLICY ON NAVY SUBJECT OF ARTICLE IN HIS PAPER

Montreal, Oct. 17.—"Le Devoir" in an article signed by Henri Bourassa, and evidently inspired, confirms the news to the effect that Hon. Mr. Monk would resign as soon as the Borden policy is announced. Mr. Bourassa learns that an urgent contribution of $30,000,000 will be made, and the promise of a plebiscite before a permanent policy is adopted. Hon. Mr. Monk will retire, adds Le Devoir, if he does not obtain a plebiscite on the urgency vote. "The real friends of the minister of public works," the Nationalist leader says, "and we are amongst them, hope that he will maintain this attitude, although strong pressure is being brought to bear on him to retain his portfolio." Mr. Bourassa says that the representatives of the company who arrived in the city this morning are F. W. Sumner and Matthew Lodge of Montreal and four of the British directors, Walker of Edinburgh, Claud Allan of Glasgow, D. C. H. Higgins and J. A. L. Henderson of London. They have just been in Montreal conferring with the New Brunswick Petroleum Company, which is the company in the city today and will hold a conference with the city commissioners this afternoon. WHITE SLAVERS AT WORK IN THESE PROVINCES; LEADER WAS IN ST. JOHN

Traced in Halifax, He Escaped Into Maine by Way of This City—Dominion Police Have Been After Him

(Canadian Press) Montreal, Oct. 17.—That the maritime provinces have, within the last few weeks, been scourged by agents of the white slave traffic, has been disclosed by an investigation now in progress by provincial and local police. Sergeant H. Giroux of the Dominion Police, sent by Colonel Percy Sherwood, chief commissioner of the Dominion Police, to assist the provincial detectives, said today that Colonel Sherwood received notification from the French authorities that the chief leader of the men employed in the importing of women was one Jean Satrie, alias Paul Durandau, alias Duran, alias Mistigri. The alleged scope of his operations had been traced in Halifax, Quebec, Montreal, Winnipeg, Calgary and Vancouver. He was last seen early in October in Halifax, where it is supposed he became aware that the police were curious about his business, and he managed by traveling via St. John, N. B., to get into the State of Maine.

PAY AS YOU ENTER CARS REACH HERE

Two Received For Local Street Railway Service and Four More Coming

Two of six new cars ordered by the St. John Railway Company have reached the city and are now in the C. P. R. yard off Mill street. They were built by the Ottawa Car Construction Co. and are modern in appearance and finish, as well as accommodation. Four others are expected just as soon as the construction company can turn them out and they will probably reach the city in a few weeks. The new cars are slightly larger than those now in use and the seating capacity is greater while the arrangement of the seats is also different and some of what similar to that in vogue in the more up-to-date cars in the larger cities. They will be used under the "pay-as-you-enter" system, and will be placed in commission immediately after the trucks have been attached, which will require some little time. The cars are nicely painted both inside and outside. They bear the numbers 80 and 82. One of the noticeable changes in regard to the interior arrangements is the installation of a pearl-buttoned pusher bell which is convenient on a time when there is a large crowd aboard and is used as a signal for the car to stop. The seats are of the remainder being located as in an arranged train with sliding backs and opposite each other with a wide aisle.

SAYS UNLESS MONK, NANTAL AND PELLETIER DEMAND PLEBISCITE THEY WILL STRIKE Rude Blow at Last Vestige of Popular Confidence

Montreal, Oct. 17.—"Le Devoir" in an article signed by Henri Bourassa, and evidently inspired, confirms the news to the effect that Hon. Mr. Monk would resign as soon as the Borden policy is announced. Mr. Bourassa learns that an urgent contribution of $30,000,000 will be made, and the promise of a plebiscite before a permanent policy is adopted. Hon. A delegation from the company is in the city today and will hold a conference with the city commissioners this afternoon. The representatives of the company who arrived in the city this morning are F. W. Sumner and Matthew Lodge of Montreal and four of the British directors, Walker of Edinburgh, Claud Allan of Glasgow, D. C. H. Higgins and J. A. L. Henderson of London. LORMIER OF WINNIPEG ARRESTED IN BOSTON

Wanted in Western City in Connection With Financial Transactions

Boston, Oct. 17.—Inspectors Sheehan and Burke of police headquarters trapped, in a house on Newbury street, Robert Gibson Larimer, thirty-five years old, former head of the Larimer Electric Agency of Winnipeg, after taking it, is alleged, $40,000 from persons with whom he had business dealings. For ten days the headquarters men have been searching for Larimer, and following his arrest, Larimer declared that he would return to Winnipeg without offering any legal resistance. A few weeks ago a circular bearing a Chief Clerk on receiving the telegram sent out by Donald McPherson, chief constable of Winnipeg, and Edward J. Elliott, chief of the provincial police. The Montreal men at headquarters who were assigned to the case saw the picture they were a striking resemblance to a prominent man of this city. When additional information reached Boston which caused the headquarters men to suspect that Larimer might be in the city, they went in search of a man who resembled Larimer. The police say they do not know the details of the case. The Larimer Electric Company is an automobile agency. Larimer, although a resident of the Canadian Northwest for several years, is a Pennsylvanian by birth. Larimer would not talk about the case at police headquarters. He says he will be ready to return to the northwest the moment the police from there arrive with the extradition papers.

ARRESTED HERE ON TELEGRAM FROM MONTREAL

Arthur C. Morton Faces $600 Charge—Was in City Hotel

A telegram was received this morning from Montreal from A. St. Max, high constable, and E. R. Carington, detective, asking the local police department to be on the lookout for one Arthur C. Morton of Toronto, who had been issued a warrant had been issued charging him with theft of $600. It was thought that he had come this way. Chief Clark, on receiving the telegram, sent out a city hotel man to search for the man under arrest with the charge he stated against him. He will be detained here until some of the Montreal police officials call for him. Two or three days ago Morton came here. He was registered at Arthur C. Morton at the hotel and was surprised when Chief Clark called on him about noon and took him into custody. Chief does not give any further particulars.

STRIKE FIGURES AND FOOD PRICES IN OTTAWA BULLETINS

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—An improvement is shown in labor conditions, in regard to disturbances throughout industrial disputes during September. The department of labor records that there were twenty-one disputes in existence during the month, an increase as compared with the previous month, though an increase is still maintained over the corresponding month of last year. The disputes in all commenced during September, the most important of which were those of coal miners on Vancouver Island and carpenters at Moosejaw. The former caused cessation of work on the part of about 3,000 miners, that at Moosejaw affected 600 workers, but was not of long duration. About 5,000 employees were thrown out of work by disputes during September. The department of labor's index number of wholesale prices continued to decline during September, standing at 132, as compared with 133 in August and 128 in September of last year. The downward movement during September was due chiefly to declines in the prices of fresh vegetables, especially potatoes, while there were slight increases in several commodities, notably dairy products, fish, iron, hides, and miscellaneous building materials. In regard to retail prices, the chief feature of the month was a rise in prices of anthracite coal in many cities of Eastern Canada.

VALLEY RAILWAY ROUTE AT LAST APPROVED

Line of Contractors' Engineer Between Fredericton and Oranocito Chosen (Special to Times) Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 17.—After much hesitating and delay the government has at last approved of the route selected for the Valley railway between this city and Oranocito. Three surveys have been made, one by Mr. Maxwell, local government engineer; one by Mr. Taylor, Dominion government engineer; and one by Mr. Thompson, contractor, who is in charge of the route chosen by the latter is the one selected and has been approved by the minister of railways. Charles Crumlin, Tobique guide, is here and reports the rise of water resident sportmen to the Tobique this year to be the greatest on record.

I. C. R. COMMANDEERS COAL HERE TO MEET ITS REQUIREMENTS

Not only is the shortage of coal being felt by private individuals but the cooler months are in evidence, but trouble is being experienced by corporations in securing the quantities desired. This is particularly true with the Intercolonial Railway, and it has been found necessary to resort to the commissioning of a private company for local coal companies have been taken by railway and government. The coal supply for the government railway about here is usually received from the mines through Nova Scotia, but it falls off this week. An average of about 100 tons daily is required to fill the needs of the railway, and it is expected to be in other parts of the line, but relief is expected very soon.

FATHER VAUGHAN GIVES ENGLISHMEN ADVICE

Counsel To Those Who Come To Canada From The Old Land Moosejaw, Sask., Oct. 17.—Father Bernard Vaughan, who arrived here yesterday, said, "To my way of thinking, there never was a land not ready to give in exchange for a better one. Put on your coat, pull up your sleeves, and put your back into your work till you are through with it. Then instead of being all in, down and out, you'll come out on top and become a useful member of an enterprising community and not at all a bad advertisement for the old country." He added: "My advice to old countrymen coming to this country is to put on your coat, pull up your sleeves, and put your back into your work till you are through with it. Then instead of being all in, down and out, you'll come out on top and become a useful member of an enterprising community and not at all a bad advertisement for the old country."

DISCOUNT RATE NOW AT 5 P. C.

London, Oct. 17.—The official announcement of a five per cent Bank of England discount rate was the natural outcome of the refusal by the bank, on Monday, to discount bills below that level. Owing to the abnormal difference between the money market and the discount rate, as well as the Balkan war, and the actual and prospective gold demands, India being the latest addition to the list of gold seekers, a rise has been already discounted by the stock market but short loans will probably stiffen as a result. Messages from Nesbit advanced its rate from three to three and a half.

SIBERIA NO LONGER A NAME TO DREAD

Russia to Abolish the Decree of Banishment There New York, Oct. 17.—That Russia is to abolish the decree of banishment to Siberia by order of the Czar, is news received from St. Petersburg. The Russian minister of justice, it is said, is preparing a bill completely abolishing penal servitude in Siberia and substituting the same punishment in the penitentiaries of European Russia. Of late years, the number of convicts in Siberia has been increasing and there have been protests from the free people that the country is overrun with the scum of European jails. The authorities recognize that the dumping of convicts in Siberia is seriously hampering the development of that country.

ON SMUGGLING CHARGE

U. S. Cutter Captures Notorious Craft and Those Aboard San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 17.—The United States revenue cutter Golden Gate, acting on information supplied by Charles A. Stephens, deputy surveyor of the port of San Francisco, steamed thirty miles to the north and picked up the gasoline sloop Alert, owned and captained by John Osterhuis, on Monday under surveillance by government officials on suspicion that she was smuggling Chinese opium. The sloop, which is notorious for smuggling opium, was captured by the cutter and an Italian youth who was carried ashore was held in the city jail, pending arraignment on charges of having engaged in a smuggling conspiracy. Mr. Stephens declared the capture of Osterhuis to be the most important in the recent renewal of the government's warfare against the traffic in contraband Chinese.

PLAN NOW FOR NORTH END SURVEY

The proposed survey of that section of the city which was formerly the town of Portland was discussed by the city commissioners at their noon meeting today and the city engineer was instructed to submit a report on Monday showing the probable cost of the work and the number of assistants he would require. There has been no survey of that section of the city since the time of the great fire and conditions are such that the present plans and surveys are not as dependable as they should be.

LOOKS FOR A BIG PASSENGER YEAR

W. B. Howard, district passenger agent of the C. P. R., who returned yesterday from Montreal, said this morning that the outlook points to a big passenger season. Heavy bookings are already coming in for the homebound and returners before Christmas and it is expected that there will be a difficulty in finding accommodation for all who wish to cross. Although the C. P. R. will have fifteen additional sailings this winter it will not affect the passenger situation as the extra sailings are all freight boats.

THE MEXICAN SITUATION

Mexico City, Oct. 17.—In order to crush the rebellion of Felix Diaz at Vera Cruz, not only have the federal armies from the north and south been commanded to converge on that city, but General Joaquin Beltrán from Saporana, has received orders to proceed there. From Mexico City itself two military trains under command of Col. Rubio Navarro with twenty-four pieces of artillery, have been sent to support Gen. Beltrán. Among other officials ordered to take the field are Colonels Jimenez Castro and Ocasio, two men who were very prominent in the campaign against Zapata in the state of Morelos. The general public does not seem inclined to share the optimism of the government, and it is considered not improbable that some part of the army ordered to fight against him. A detachment of 129 men commanded by captain sent from Orizaba by General Beltrán met a rebel outpost and joined the rebels. Vera Cruz is now completely isolated except by water. The government has instructed the railways to withdraw all their rolling stock and to establish new terminals at Orizaba, Jalapa and Tierra Blanca. No trains will be run beyond the federal lines.

Preparing for Old Age

By BUTE CAMERON

Is there anything in all this wide world any sadder than old age without any of the dignity, the exaltation, the philosophy and the usefulness which ought to be old age's compensation for the loss of the infinite riches of youth?

What a tragedy! For where will that woman find friends? Youth wins friends in spite of selfishness because of the eternal and inseparable charm of youth.

But old age must offer some measure at least of sweetness and interest in spite of selfishness because of the eternal and inseparable charm of youth.

Lingay of this city and Mrs. Charles Fairweather of Moncton, and three brothers, George, James and Walter Brown. The funeral will be held on Friday afternoon from her late residence in Fairville, to the church of the Good Shepherd, where service will commence at half past two o'clock.

The annual agricultural fair was held at St. Martin's yesterday. There was a fine display of horses and cattle. Councillor Fred Black and J. S. Frost were the judges. Horace King, of this city, was the judge of horses. Warden T. E. Carson, M. P. P. Senator Daniel, John McDonald, Jr., P. W. Thomson and G. E. Logan were among those at the fair.

(Times Special Correspondence.) London, Oct. 8.—Considering the fact that the Princess Victoria and Her Majesty, the daughters of the Duke of Teck, the Queen's eldest brother, are about the same ages as Princess Mary, it is curious that she should not rank in them the playmate she has so often longed for, and that it has been necessary to find companions for her in the daughters of Lord Salisbury and the Duke of Devonshire.

TWENTY YEARS A DRINKER SAVED BY NEAL TREATMENT
The experience of a practicing Physician among thousands of cases of remarkable redemption from bondage of strong drink which makes up the gloomiest record of Neal Institute achievements, the saved stands out like a skyscraper over an ordinary building. Over two years ago this man was saved, and his brother, one of the best Insurance Agency Directors in America, tells the story. "My brother," he writes, "had used liquor to extreme excess ever since he was twenty-one years old. He was one of the kind who would never admit that he could not stop, but as the years went on, his condition became more helpless, and in Dec., 1908, he was all in. I had heard of the Neal treatment, but when I considered my brother's condition and stocked it against the proposition that he could be cured in three days, I must confess it reduced my faith in the proposition. But I got my brother's consent and he did take the treatment. I have no words to express my appreciation of the change that that treatment effected in him. He has re-established himself in his practice, gotten on his feet again financially, and has again taken his place among the sober, clear thinking men." If you have any doubt about the efficiency of the Neal treatment, try it yourself.

YARMOUTH MAN KILLED Yarmouth, N. S., Oct. 16.—The saddest accident which has occurred in Yarmouth in years, happened tonight when Andrew Steeves was instantly killed by the turn over of his auto in Hartford, about six miles from town. As far as it can be learned, the machine was going at a rate of about fifteen miles an hour when a team loomed up in front, and in steering to one side, the machine turned turtle, plunging Mr. Steeves underneath, just where he sat at the wheel. W. F. Branscombe, manager of the Dominion Express Company, who was with him, jumped and escaped injury. Dr. Williamson was called, but on arriving found life extinct, and had the body removed home. Mr. Steeves was the Dominion Express agent of the town, and was a very popular and obliging official. He is survived by a widow.

ALBORN OPERA COMPANY BRINGS REMARKABLE SCENIC EFFECTS It is claimed that the Messrs. Alborn have a scenic adornment for the Bohemian Girl, such as never before supplied this opera, and one that takes rank with the famous Metropolitan Opera House, and in carrying out the detail of the opera in its six scenes, they are introducing a number of novelties among them a cavalcade of horses, which figure prominently particularly so in the pursuit of the Gypsy chief at the finale of the first act, which shows him with the child Arline, that he is abducting in his arms, riding wildly up the winding road of the mountain, followed by a score of cavalry men. Three performances only next week, Wednesday evening with matinee and evening performances Thursday.

AMUSEMENTS IN ST. JOHN; WHAT THE PLAYHOUSES OFFER THE EQUINE SPY AT THE UNIQUE Due to the fact that of late the Unique Theatre has presented some of the finest motion pictures ever seen in the city, the copy house has now a standing reputation, richly deserved, that places it in the foremost of the maritime provinces picture theatres. Yesterday's feature was an excellent effort of the Solax Co. in two parts, The Equine Spy. This picture is a singular one in many respects, but particularly for the fact that an educated horse, Don, plays the role of a hero in a manner that elicited the heartiest applause from yesterday's audiences. The story is one of war and heroism, and being worked out in the Solax style, it made both sensational and very interesting. A very clever piece of work is where Don lights the signal fire, and also his stealing of the revolver from one of the guards.

Another subject well worthy of mention is Thambauer's "Conductor 788." This is a decided diversion in motion picture plays, the unique thing about it being an opportunity to glimpse into the life of a street car conductor, seeing life in a fashionable hotel, and a look at an interesting baseball game. The Unique features for the week-end will be Imps Two Feet Tall, The Gem, and a novel by Thambauer, "Sturtevant and the Knight," enacted by an all child cast.

GREED FOR GOLD. The presentation of the two reel production "The Greed for Gold," at the Gem yesterday gave pleasure to all who witnessed it, as it was a finished production, exciting and interesting, portraying a thrilling drama capably enacted. It deals with one innocently wronged through the guile of another man, and shows the treachery and baseness of human nature when the "mighty dollar" is the goal which it desires to attain. The story is one which appealed strongly to those who saw the picture yesterday, and through the 2000 feet of film there was not a dull moment. To the picture was added a reel of two comedies, "The Maiden and the Pie-faced Indians," and "Turning the Tables," both of which proved hearty laugh makers. Miss Eriksen was heard in a new character song and the orchestra had a pleasing line of late novelties in the musical programme.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES Royal Gazette today contains official notice that Chippan A. Steeves, barrister, has been appointed commissioner of the City of Moncton Civil Court and Police Magistrate of Moncton in place of James Kay, removed for cause. In Anglican church circles in Canada, a sensation has been caused by a petition in divorce being filed by Mrs. Elizabeth Curtis Brenton, of Hartford, against her husband, Rev. Dr. Cranston Brenton, professor of English literature and candidate for suffragan bishop of the diocese of Antigonish. It is the charge. She asks control of their six-year old son. The sensation has been increased by the fact that Mrs. Brenton has mysteriously disappeared. The time for remitting half of the duty upon cement imported from the United States will expire on October 31, and after that date it is said there will be no remission of the duties.

SUICIDE IN STRIKE CAUSE Serious Situation in Prison Where Convicts Unite Against Corporal Punishment St. Petersburg, Oct. 17.—Particulars of the strike and suicides which have lately taken place in the Kotarmarsky prison and hard labor colony at Nerchinsk, Siberia, are given out. BOUGHT ISLAND TIMBER Beacon.—The demand for lumber for pulp and other purposes has become so great, and the sources of supply have become so limited, that material is being sought for in many out of the way places. Recently Haley & Son, St. Stephen, acquired the right from the Messrs. Hawkins, of Pennfield, to cut the soft wood on Eastern Wolf Island for the sum of $1,200. They have eight years in which to get it out.

an attempt to murder, was sent to work on the line now under construction for the Amount railway, and, being of very bad behavior, was sent back to jail, where his impudence to the prison authorities entailed corporal punishment of thirty lashes. All the criminals and political prisoners in the jail then protested, and demanded the abolition of corporal punishment. On their request being refused, about forty of the "politicals" out of 500 inmates declared a hunger strike that lasted several days, besides which four of them committed suicide, two by taking poison and two by opening their veins. Judicial authorities of Irkutsk have been sent to Nerchinsk to investigate the matter.

TO HELP THE BLIND
Ingenuous Method of Raising Funds Is Devised by Denmark

Copenhagen, Oct. 17.—The Danish Post-Office General has devised an ingenious method for providing money for the education of the blind. A copper coin, a lucky penny, is to be made in the royal mint, and is to be sold to the parents of every new born child who has the gift of sight, by the nurse attending the mother. The parents are to pay whatever sum they think fit for the lucky penny, which is worth only a half-penny, and bears the device, "The child seeing the light for the first time presents a tribute to the child who will never see."

Expert Advice Declared Needed By Municipalities Seeking To Borrow — Mortgages in Holland

(Times Special Correspondence)
London, Oct. 17.—(Special) One mayor in all Canada has ever turned for guidance to any expert financial adviser. It is the statement of a financial writer of note, who reviews Canada's position in the London money market.

"It has been whispered," he continues, "that the mayor of London, who has some business in taking up Canadian municipal issues, there have been reports of a considerable proportion of the recent issues being left on the hands of the underwriters and that in the case of municipalities of high standing there is certainly some truth in these stories."

This is due in part to the lack of unity in financial policy. One municipality in five years is said to have issued six different kinds of stock. Methods such as these cannot be followed by a municipality and even provincial stock issues have been attended with a very lukewarm reception in London. The British investor is scared by what is obviously haphazard finance.

The statement of provincial and municipal Canada sorely want and must obtain is expert financial advice; but this cannot be obtained in Canada herself or, at any rate on the prairies. As London is the world's treasury, there are to be found the financial experts who could advise Canadian municipal borrowers as to the exact condition of the market at any time and also as to the best terms which might be secured at any given moment. The consolidation of Canadian municipal loans could readily be effected by competent agencies, and would represent a gain to Canada of millions of dollars."

The statement is made by a Dutch financier that two million dollars would be invested in western Canada during next year has brought the information to the attention of the Dutch banks that in two years more than ten million dollars have been lent by investment banks in Holland, on Canadian mortgages.

CHURCHILL'S POPULAR MOVE

Unfortunate "Outlawed" Britons Whom Anybody May Steal From

London, Oct. 17.—At the Shakespeare's England" exhibition which Mrs. George Cornwallis West got up in London recently, one of the sights that interested visitors most was that of a man in the stocks "turning the gauntlet," was a popular way of punishing troublesome soldiers. Perhaps the British borrowed it from the American Indians, anyhow it was done in the army exactly as the Redskins used to do it—a regiment being divided into two lines and the offender being marched between, getting one cut with a switch from each man as he passed.

The public today has almost forgotten that such punishments existed, yet it is only about a fortnight since Winston Churchill, who, as first lord of the admiralty is ruler of the king's navy and who, in the opinion of many, is the greatest statesman of the day, finally abolished the childish, yet maddening punishment which had been known and loathed for generations in the fleet as "10 A."

It was called this on account of its number in the regulations, and generally was inflicted for insubordination, the man punished being treated like a naughty boy who is stood in the corner. He had, in fact, to stand at attention for eight o'clock, to ten each evening, facing the ship's side, with his only distraction being to "watch the flies on the paint," as the phrase went. He had to eat all his meals alone on the upper deck. Instead of resting between watches, he had to polish brass-work, and besides this his grog was stopped and he was prohibited from smoking.

Winston Churchill never did a more popular thing than when he abolished "10 A." but the British tars hope he will go further and wipe out a lot of other ridiculous penalties that still are inflicted in the navy. If, for example, a man is detected in the horrible offense of washing clothes on any night but the one especially set apart for this purpose, the punishment is an extraordinary one. He has to put the wet garment on a boat hook and

At the close a committee of ladies served dainty refreshments. The formal decorations were very pretty.

You know the story the comb tells. It's a very discouraging story, too. Day by day, a few more strands are added, of hair that is turning grey, losing its vitality, its strength and its health. STATUTE OF BROCK UPON THE PILLARED HEIGHT
Of brave Sir Isaac's emblem grand of thee!
Robbed in the first rays of the dawning light,
Fit garb for such an immortality!
Lying dead when the heavens sent thee,
Catch the first snatches, wear thyself a crown;
And when the warlike tempests rage, and while,
Calm in the conflict, splendid be thy form.
So stood the hero in the raging strife,
While war clouds rolled and thundering cannon roared.
Gaily he stood and reeled not of his life,
Pointing the way to victory with his sword!
Stand like a hero on our frontiers! Stand! And when the stranger asks, "Who dwelleth here?"
Tell him a race of Britons own the land,
Bid true men welcome and bid freedom fear.
Yes, speak out loudly from thy lips of pride,
And warn the rash invader to beware,
For still there lives the honored name of Brock!And his spirit lingers in the air.
How two invading armies yielded, fell,
And how he led his patriot bands and pushed forward rapidly and much work has been done. The contrast for the construction of a very large chimney has been awarded the firm of H. R. Baseball White Sox Trim Cubs. Chicago, Oct. 16.—The Chicago National League club went to pieces in the eighth inning of today's game for the Chicago championship from the Chicago Americans. Both Roubal and Chesney were batted out of the box and the "Sox" clinched the game by scoring four runs. The series now stands three to two in favor of the National League. White Sox was wild and gave way to Benz in the fourth inning. Benz was equally wild and held the National League to two hits.

St. Louis Nationals Win Series. St. Louis, Oct. 16.—The local National League club retained the baseball championship of St. Louis, winning today from the St. Louis Americans in the seventh game of the inter-league series by a score of 6 to 1.

Players' Demand Made. "Christy" Mathewson of the Giants, acting as the representative of both the New York team and the Red Sox, conferred with President Garry Herrmann of the National Commission and President Thomas Lynch of the National League in Boston regarding the request of both teams for more money in the world's series game.

Mathewson told Herrmann and Lynch that what the players wanted was a share of the receipts for the first five games, to make up for the game last Wednesday, which was played off on Thursday. Under the rules the teams share in the receipts only of the first four games.

The conference lasted fifteen minutes. Chairman Herrmann declared the matter was entirely out of the hands of the commission.

"The commission is the creature of the two big leagues," declared Herrmann. "The two big leagues formulated the 'World's Series' rules and the National Commission is simply following out those rules. The matter is entirely out of the hands of the National Commission."

The meeting followed a decision reached by the Giants and Red Sox on the train over New York. The players appointed Mathewson and Bill Carrigan, a committee to represent them in laying the request for more money in the series before the National Commission.

As the hour set for the conference Carrigan had not showed up, so Mathewson, representing both teams, went to the National Commission's headquarters in Boston. After the conference he reported the result to the Giants, and later to the Red Sox.

For Next Year. Toronto, Oct. 16.—President McCaffery, of the Toronto Club, has received a wire from President Riberidge of the Mason Club of the South Atlantic League, conveying the information that the application of the Leafs for the Mason grounds as a training camp next spring had been granted.

Acadia, 11—Dalhousie, 0. Halifax, Oct. 16.—(Special)—The Dalhousie football team was defeated by Acadia in a game at Wolfville today, the score being 11 to 0. The Acadia scrim was much the heavier.

U. N. B. Victorious. The U. N. B. team yesterday defeated the St. Thomas College Rugby team of New Brunswick, by a score of 24 to 5. In the face of the large score and the difference in the tallies, the game was interesting as the Chatham boys put up a hard game, making up in active fagging what they lacked in experience.

Ottawa College Drops Out. Toronto, Oct. 17.—At an intercollegiate football meeting last night, held behind closed doors, the resignation of Ottawa College was accepted, after a lengthy discussion. Father Stanton's team dropped out as the result of the finding of a committee on investigation of the Queens-Ottawa College fiasco in Ottawa.

The collegians asked the decision.

HAD THE ANSWER PAT. Young Teddy, aged eight, looked up at his adoring mother, and then spoke. "There were only three of us in school today," he cried, with swelling pride, "who could answer a question teacher asked us!" He paused. The worshipping mother said: "I hope one of the three was my darling Ted!" "You bet I was!" was the youngster's triumphant reply. "And Sam Harris and Harry Stone were the other two to try!" He paused again—made an attempt, it seemed to wander off. But his mother longed for more and other details.

"It does me good to hear such stories of my boy," she murmured proudly. "Tell me—what question did the teacher ask you, Teddy dear?" "Who broke the schoolroom window?" said Ted, and, turning, fled in fear—'Tis Bita.

Was Known Here. Seymour Beutler, a well known figure around race tracks, died in New York the other day. Mr. Beutler was attached to the Pukerton service, which has charge of the policing of the principal tracks in America. His marvellous memory of faces and his quick detection from descriptions made Seymour Beutler invaluable in all places where large crowds gathered. A few years ago he branched out for himself, but still retained his connection with many of the race tracks. Personally Mr. Beutler was a genial gentleman and one who was exceedingly popular wherever he went. He was in St. John on the occasion of a recent race meet at Midpath. Mr. Beutler was a close friend of Detective Patrick Killen of the local force.

Hanon's Backer Dead. Toronto, Oct. 16.—It was a coincidence that John Davis, of Windsor, should die on the day of the sculling race for the world's championship, for no man, except Edward Hanon himself, did more to bring the first championship to Canada. Mr. Davis was perhaps the most active member of the Hanon Club, which conducted the affairs of that famous oxeman. David Ward, whose death occurred only a few months ago was another. They prepared all his matches, conducted all his negotiations, handled all the finances and generally managed things so that the "boy in blue" had nothing to do but row and win. Mr. Davis was long a resident of Windsor, many times mayor and for years President of the Windsor Jockey Club.

THERE WAS MUCH MONEY UP IN ST. JOHN

Now that the world's baseball series is over it is safe to predict that considerable more business will be transacted in this city than during the last ten days. St. John certainly had the baseball fever and the city's pulse has hardly yet returned to normal after the excitement furnished by the big games. No previous series is known to have created as much excitement and aroused as much interest as the games just completed. In the business section of the city business was almost at a standstill for a couple of hours each day while the games were in progress. Bulletin boards were watched by hundreds and the brokers' offices where the news was received by direct wire, were crowded with enthusiasts. Those who could not get their information direct used the telephone and the newspaper offices, telegraph offices, "information," and every other possible source of news were deluged with inquiries regarding the progress of the game and the news.

It was not only the men and boys who were interested. Many of the fair sex were just as keen about it and as a result of their interest there was a sudden increase in the sale of golf clubs and golf attire to settle their little wagers.

Setting of a more substantial character marked the operations of the male fans and a large amount of money changed hands from day to day. Before the series commenced many bets were placed on the final results and from day to day the betting was on the day's game. Even money prevailed at first but after Boston's winning streak those who placed their money on New York demanded, and received odds of 2 to 1 or more. About that time the odds for series jumped to 3 to 1 in favor of Boston in some cases. There were, however, a good many even bets later on. Boston money was more plentiful around the city anyway, due apparently to greater sympathy with the victor of the two contesting cities. This sentiment was quite evident while the games were in progress.

The announcement of a Boston advance was always the signal for heartier cheering than a similar accomplishment on the part of the New York players, and at that many who were backing the Giants and who were doing so simply as a sporting proposition and not from the feeling of sympathy which seemed to actuate many of those taking the opposite side.

A feature of the betting which was more marked than ever before was the amount of money placed in New York and Boston by local brokers for their customers who wished to put up bigger sums than they could find takers for in St. John.

CHILDREN NEED A PLAYGROUND JUST AS FLOWERS NEED LIGHT

Lady Helper From New York at Child Welfare Exhibition in Montreal Tells of Advance of Playgrounds Movement in the States

(Montreal Witness.) The provision of playgrounds for children is one of the great points insisted upon at the Child Welfare Exhibition.

It is sought to drive home to the citizens the fundamental truth that the child needs a playground just as a flower needs light.

Miss Julia Schornfeld, of the Playgrounds Association of America, who is here from New York, to help forward the cause at the exhibition, said in an interview with a Witness representative, that the playgrounds movement is making great strides throughout the United States. The parks department of many of the large cities had done away with many "keep off the grass" signs, and had opened a part of the grounds for the use of the children, equipping them with apparatus and putting a trained leader in charge.

School Yards as Playgrounds. "Boards of education in our cities," she continued, "have also recognized the fact that play is educational, and are turning their school yards into playgrounds. They have become aroused to the reasonable proposition that if our school buildings are used only 25 per cent of the time for study, they whose use need some of the remaining time for play; and so, in many communities recreation centres have been opened where the children may go for a good time, where not only the younger children may go for a good time, but the older boys and girls who have left school to go to work may come in the evenings to enjoy clubs of all kinds dancing and gymnastic exercises, where the parents may come to attend lectures, to get in touch with the educational tendency and influence of the public school system, and here acquire some of the standards and ideals of the American people.

Let us develop the school as a leisure time institution, and immediately the school will have to find out how to be interesting. It will have to appeal to the family group. To reach the family as a whole, to gather all the community together to make it possible for the social centre to evolve from and be a part of the community life—these are the ideals to be attained.

The Churches and Recreation. Churches have also come to realize the need of providing wholesome recreation for their young people. In many communities there are churches whose yards are sheltering boys and girls of all races and creeds, who are meeting on the common ground of the rights of childhood. We find churches providing for young men and young women wholesome amusements and dancing. We find the church taking the stand against child-labor and the other evils which are depriving our children of their birthright.

"Private groups of citizens interested in the welfare of children, through such organized efforts as playground associations, are trying to see to it that the children of their communities have proper supervision, may play unmolested by policemen and protected from the injuries which threaten them in the street.

"But most encouraging of all is the fact that the tax-payers are beginning to realize their responsibility, and are putting their hands into their pockets in order that the municipality, through a playground commission, may provide proper recreational facilities for young and old and may regulate the commercial amusements, such as dance halls and the motion picture theatres. So important has this phase of commercial recreation become, that some people are looking forward to the time when dance halls and motion picture theatres may pass from the stage of public recreation to public ownership. "The problem of the twentieth century is the conservation—which means the utilization—of the leisure time of the people, for only in this way shall we get educated people, and only through an educated people can we hope to secure economic justice, responsible political freedom and the conservation of the resources of the earth.

"So long as there is a child in our land, who toils in shop or tenement when he should be out at play, whose school is without a playground, and whose out-of-door life is bounded by the gutters of the public street, with never a tree or shrub or flower, so long the masses will hate the class; and the policeman be to the boy an enemy instead of a friend. To give the boy back his childhood is more than justice and common sense. It is sane government."

DOG CLAIMANT OF FORTUNE Princess Left $20,000 For Pet Terrier—It is Dead and Money is Claimed For Obitispring

St. Petersburg, Oct. 17.—The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals should be interested in a lawsuit arising from the will of a Russian princess who died early this year.

Among her bequests was one of $20,000 to a toy terrier, Gipsy, with the proviso that her pet should be entrusted to the charge of a certain very old friend, whom she named. Within six months Gipsy followed her mistress to the grave; and, as even the most-daily fed and luxuriously-clothed and bewigged of toy terriers cannot run through money at the rate of $40,000 a year, the legacy was practically intact when she passed away.

The lady who had tended Gipsy to the last took it for granted that on the dog's death she would succeed to the property; but she has not been allowed to remain in possession of it undisturbed. A claim has been formulated on behalf of an offspring of Gipsy's, which being a puppy of high degree, was duly registered at birth.

The claim has been heard, but as the question is one of momentous concern to the canine race, the judges are taking some time to consider their verdict.

Andrew A. Lockerby has been absent from the island for thirty-seven years. The first seven of these he spent in St. John, but after being burned out in the great fire there he removed to Boston, where he has since resided.

NEW BRUNSWICKER WAS SHOT IN HEAD

Bullet Tore Along Top of Skull and Cooper is Not Badly Hurt

Presque Isle, Me., Oct. 18.—Perley C. Brown, county attorney, went to Washburn on Monday afternoon, where he conducted a hearing on an assault case, which occurred there on Sunday afternoon. It seems that George Cooper of Concord, N. B., and John Conlon of Providence, R. I., were employed by one of the farmers during potato digging, and roomed together. On Sunday afternoon Cooper, who owns a house, went out to get some views of the village, and was accompanied by Conlon. While Cooper's attention was attracted by his work Conlon shot at him with a revolver, the bullet plowing along the skull, and stunning the victim for a minute. He quickly recovered, however, and saw Conlon, who was frightened at the results of his deed, running away. He gave the alarm and the fugitive was captured. It transpired during the hearing that Conlon had taken it from his suit case. Only the fact that the revolver was practically worthless, prevented Cooper's death. Conlon was bound over to appear before the supreme court at Houlton next month and was taken to Houlton jail. Cooper apparently feels no ill effects from his wound and will be as well as ever in a few days. He is apparently a quiet fellow, with a good reputation, while Conlon is one of the floating population who drift into Aroostook from all over the United States every fall.

It was decided this morning not to hold an inquest.

MARRIED THIS MORNING

In the Cathedral this morning at six fifteen o'clock a pretty marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. A. W. Meahan when he united in marriage William Leo Warner and Miss Kathleen, daughter of the late Dennis and Mary Coe, in the presence of immediate relatives and friends. The bride was nicely attired in a costume of cream Bedford cord trimmed with duchesse satin and wore a white beaver hat and carried a bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by Miss Genevieve Donohoe as bridesmaid, wearing a pretty grey suit and black beaver hat, and carrying a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom's brother, Fred C. Warner was best man. After the wedding a dainty breakfast was served at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Patrick McDonald, 32 Brussels street, and Mr. and Mrs. Warner left on a honeymoon trip through the Annapolis Valley. The bride's travelling gown was of Copenhagen blue with black beaver hat. They received very many presents, including a check for a substantial sum from the bride's uncle, William.

FOUND SEAM OF COAL. Gloucester Bay Gazette.—An eight feet seam of coal has been discovered at Loch Lomond by Messrs. Lawlor and Barrington of North Sydney, it is reported. These gentlemen have been boring in that district for some time, and on Friday afternoon discovered the coal after sinking a shaft some seventy feet. At a depth of sixty feet a hard rock was encountered. A diamond drill was used and after boring through the rock for a distance of ten feet, the seam was discovered.

ALL PROTECTION STREET FOR WORKS

Residents Say Government Should Take Over All Property

LIFE GETS UNBEARABLE

Elevator and Railway Operations at Front Doors and Now Another Grain Building and More Railways at Rear—Suggest Use Whole Place

The residents and property owners of Protection street, Carleton have a grievance. They say their homes are being made untenable and their lives miserable by the surrounding conditions and instead of seeing any relief ahead they have only the expectation of finding things getting worse if they continue in that location. Under the circumstances they are convinced that somebody ought to do something and as the trouble is caused by the extension of the harbor facilities in that district they suggest that it is up to the government to compensate them for damage to their property. At the time when the wharves and elevators at Sand Point were built, the northern side of Protection street was bought up and wiped out to make way for the improvements and on railway tracks puffing locomotives now run along that side of the street. As the room on the eastern side of the street was not needed as a site for any part of the terminal facilities, the property there was not bought and the owners and their tenants continued to reside there. Until recently the situation was not too bad as in the rear of their lots faced on the harbor and there was nothing on that side to disturb them. Now the core to the rear of Protection street is being filled in to afford a site for the new elevator and room for shipping and storage tracks for the railway. In the meantime there is quite enough smoke from the work of construction which is going on, and which cannot be prevented. When the improvements are completed, however, matters, they say, will be much worse; the houses will be overshadowed on either side by towering elevators and will be smothered by chimneys, locomotives, etc. and it will be no place for a comfortable home. The people who own the properties cannot afford to vacate them and lose the money invested in them and the terminal facilities has been made that the terminal facilities at that place would be greatly improved by the entire removal of the buildings and the deviation of that section to additional track space. The construction of the damage to the property by the work done and that which is being carried on now and the advantage of the street from clearing the houses away, the property owners have figured out that the dominion government ought to buy their properties, remove the houses and convert the street into a railway yard.

BUILD SOME MODERN HOMES HERE AND MAKE A GOOD THING OF IT

A View of the Situation in St. John—What Real Estate Men Say. The suggestion of the provincial commissioners from British Columbia, who were here a few days ago, that St. John be ripe for a building boom, is heartily endorsed by the real estate men of the city. Probably every office in the city has a list of applications from persons seeking homes, applications which they are unable to do anything. The trouble simply is that there are not enough desirable houses to go around. The city has been filling up steadily during the last few years and the amount of building which has been going on has hardly been sufficient to keep up with the number of dwellings which are burned, condemned or otherwise taken out of the market, to say nothing of keeping up with the increase in population. Rents are already about as high as the market will stand and even a willingness to pay a far rent than the average will not help the home seeker materially for there is a scarcity of higher priced houses and few as well as those of lower rent. In addition to the demand for houses to rent there is a good market for the sale of houses and it cannot be supplied because there are practically none of the type wanted for sale. The older houses in St. John, in most cases, do not come up to modern requirements, and few of the newer ones are offered for sale. The real estate men, who are in close touch with the situation, all are agreed that any one investing some capital in the erection of a group of modern dwellings would make a handsome return on their investment.

HOME FROM WEST, DOUGLAS McARTHUR HOLDS ST. JOHN AS FIRST; PEOPLE HE MET

Douglas McArthur is home from the west after a trip as far as Regina. While full of the graces of the western land and the possibilities there, he says St. John, with its prospects and the better life here is his choice beyond any place he saw while away. Over all the western cities visited he gives the palm to Saskatoon which he is assured has a great future. In what way Mr. McArthur met many former St. John men who are doing well. They include A. L. Haining, Mr. Casswell, P. B. McArthur, Mr. Saksakson, Fred Doig, who, with his partner now owns two business houses, one in Brandon and a recently established branch, and Mr. Sweeney of St. David street, who has prospered in Winnipeg.
