PROFIT-PARTICIPATING policyholders in the Mutual Life of Canada share fully in the prosperity of the company. Last year, during which the company enjoyed exceptional prosperity, the surplus earned from its various operations totalled no less than $3,500,258.00.

These profits will be equitably distributed in their entirety to the policyholders of the company in the form of cash dividends, reduction of premiums or increased insurance.

Government bonds, and bonds guaranteed by governments, Dominion or Provincial; bonds issued by Canadian cities, towns, villages and school sections; and first mortgages in farm lands form the principal securities in the list of Mutual investments.

The average interest earned by The Mutual Life of Canada last year was 6.41%. Considering the great variety of its investments and their exceptional security and permanence, this interest rate was And remember, after the third year a Mutual policy has a cash sur-

Ford, Ontario. — "I had a nervous areak-down, as it is called, with severe pains in my back and legs, and with fainting spells which left me very weak. I was nervous and could not sleep nor eat as I should and spent much time in bed. I was in this state, more or less, for over two years, before Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me by my neighbor. Before I had taken five doses I was sitting up in bed, and when the first bottle was taken I was out of bed and able to walk around the house. During my sickness I had been obliged to get some one to look after my home for me, but thanks to the Vegetable Compound I am now able to look after it myself. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine in turn with the Vegetable Compound, and I certainly recommend these medicines to any one who is not enjoying good health. ### THE BILL

AN ACT TO AMEND THE "SAINT JOHN CITY ASSESSMENT

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR AND LEG-ISLATIVE ASSEMBLY AS FOLLOWS:

1. Subsection 1 of Section 4 of the Saint John City Assessment Act 1918, is hereby amended by adding thereto the following paragraphs: (a). Provided that during the year in which they are made, and for the five calendar years next succeeding, the value of any alterations and improvements made to any dwelling, store or building of any kind or description shall not be included as a part of such true and real value; and

(b). Further Provided, that during the year in which they are constructed, and for the two calendar years next succeeding, the value of any new buildings constructed and used for the purpose of dwelling houses shall not be included as a part of such true and real value.

START THE CARPENTER, PAINTER, CONTRACTOR, MASON, BUILDER, ELECTRICIAN AND PLUMBER.

I have carried out my promise. A Bill has passed the Legislature, "No taxes on improvements for five years," "No taxes on new buildings for dwelling houses for two years." This means you can make a single house into a double house, you can raise your roof, repair your properties, paint your properties, add additions to your properties in the way of improvements without further taxation.

The town needs painting badly. I see many properties absolutely destroyed for want of paint, and if citizens will invest their moneys in their present holdings in real estate by improvements, it will be a paying investment for them.

WHAT THE BILL MEANS TO PROPERTY OWNERS

EVERY property owner should take advantage of the bill exempting provements to property in Saint John from taxation for a period of five years. If owners do not take advantage, and have necessary work done, the purpose of the bill is defeated. The object of Mayor Potts, in hav-ng this bill presented, was to give the property owner a chance to have great incentive to carry out improvenecessary work done without fear of dditional taxation, and at the same Elec additional taxation, and at the same time create work for both skilled and unskilled labor.

Electric fittings can be installed, plumbing modernized, new wings built, but the tax bill remains the Now that the bill has been passed, it means that the merchant can install new store fixtures, sprinkler systems, display windows or store fronts without additional taxation are made or whet the value of all the new act allows a home to be built, and for two years remain exempt from taxation. This fronts without additional taxation and, no matter what the value of the improvements may be, it is not added to the assessable value of the property.

The manufacturer can remodel his owners the owner can be removed.

The manufacturer can remodel his plant, build additions, etc., without adding to the assessable value.

To the man or woman owning a house or flats, the bill is a great boon, especially in the case of those of limited means. Under past conditions, in many cases, the revenue from rents did not allow sufficient for any extensive repairs, and the infor any extensive repairs, and the in-creased taxation following improve-of building material, in fact a little action on the part of property own Now, the owner can increase the value of property, obtain a rent in proportion to the added value, but still pay the old rate of taxation.

MOTHERS PRAISE

Concerning Saint John, he said, tourists would be greatly interested in the Martello Tower, the remains of the Indian stockade on Navy Island, where Samuel de Champlain camped when he visited the city 300 years ago, and the site of the LaTour fort. Regarding this fort, Dr. McIntosh said there was little doubt that its exact site was where the nail factory now stands in the North End. Some confusion, he said, existed for a time that the fort was located on the western side of the harbor but he pointed out that after the brave Madame LaTour's death, her husband married Charnisay's widow and they lived on the western side of the harbor.

BABY'S OWN TABLETS

The Tablets are a laxative—mild but thorough in action—which never fail the harbor.

Dr. McIntosh also spoke briefly of Fort Howe and its historic associations and also mentioned several interesting places at Fredericton, Bathurst and Campbellton, where the last naval engagement between the French and English was fought 100 years ago

A. E. BURGOMASTER RECITES

Was Signed On as Cook, But was Forced to Work at Unloading of Liquor Cargoes—Escapes by Signalling Coast Guard Cutter.

ALBERT E. BURGOMASTER, whose diary of his experiences on Rum Row is published herewith, had a libel issued against the schooner "Dorothy M. Smart," on which he claims he was held an involuntary prisoner. He alleged that he had been induced to board the boat under misrepresentations and succeeded in leaving only when he climbed high in the rigging and signalled a coast guard cutter by waving a blanket.

The schooner was seized and convoyed to Port Newark, N. J. where the United States marshal placed it on sale to satisfy the claims of Burgomaster and Louis Coccini, a fellow sailor who shared his experiences. The sailors were represented by S. B. Axtell, a New York attorney widely known among seafaring men. This was the first legal action of its kind in many years.

Burgomaster's diary unfolds a tale that rivals fiction of the old days of piracy.

His diary is as follows:

THIS week's Saint John industry story of The Times-Star has to do with one that has for a long period been important in the business life of the city—the making of wire nails by James Pender & Co., Ltd., in their bustling plant at the lower end of Charlotte street. Mr. Lafleur, delineating the powers of the Waterways Commission un the treaty between the two countries, thought that in the matters with which they were appointed to deal their decision was supreme, and that the two countries had resigned their sovereignty to the extent of the powers given

CONFIDENCE IN VENIOT.

Hon. Peter C. Keegan, representing the Saint John Valley Board of Trade, Maine, introduced a humorous note by his whole-hearted advocacy of the development in the face of what the Government of Maine representatives might say. He said his people had been waiting for the development for 40 years and looked to it to give them their chance to live. He felt the New Bruns-wick Government would want a market for their power if they developed it. "I have confidence," he said, "in this great man," referring to Premier Veniot.

Senator Clark—"Can the commission do that?"

Mr. Hackworth—"They can make it one of the conditions of approval, and if the New Bruns-wick Electric Commission cannot comply, they can't operate."

Concluding Mr. Hackworth said—"If the State of Maine wished to use part of the land submerged and could not, it would be deprived of one of the principal rights of sovereignty, the right to take over any use property. The state may never want the use of this property, but the principal is the same."

The only interests, he said, which the commission could deal with under the treaty were proprietary interests. The commission had nothing to do with alleged sovereign rights. Such, if violated, were not subject to monetary compensation, but to international negotiations.

RIGHTS ACQUIRED.

"If we acquire," he said, "as we intend to acquire, all riparian rights, surely we shall have satisfied all rights of riparian owners. It is not contended that the United States or Maine have any proprietary rights. We have already acquired rights with 90 per cetn of the riparian owners. It seems inconceivable that if we have received rights from these to dam up waters on their property, that there can be any objection."

Fashions, like history, must run in cycles, for the bell-shaped pants that are so popular among the young men of the present generation were also the rage in '79 and thereabouts. The favorite footwear among the ladies of that day were made of leather bottoms and serge tops, with patent tips and facings, and while these have not come back like the bell pants, the next swing of the circle may bring them into public favor once more.

1924 Business 60 Million Dollars

When The Manufacturers Life commenced business in 1887 it was the eleventh Canadian Company to enter the life insurance field. The total business transacted in Canada in 1887 was THIRTY-EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS, divided among eleven Canadian, ten British, and eight American Companies. In 1924, The Manufacturers Life issued policies in excess of SIXTY MILLION DOLLARS, nearly 60% more than the total of all Companies the first year of its history.

The tremendous growth of life insurance is due to an ever-increasing appreciation of its practicability, not only an ever-increasing appreciation of its practicability.

ever-increasing appreciation of its practicability, not only as an unsurpassed method of creating an estate or providing a competence for one's dependent years, but also as a means of establishing a sinking fund to retire a Bond Issue at maturity. It also guarantees immediate funds for Succession Duties. It is a safeguard to a business or corporation to offset the death of an executive or valued employee. You should know what life insurance will do for you.

Hon. Charles Stewart Tells of Experiments With Low Grade Ores.

OTTAWA, May 15—Development of the iron industry in Canada and peat production were urged in the House loday. A vote of $245,400 for the mines branch was under consideration. Hon. R. J. Manion, Conservative, Fort William and Rainy River, pointed out the importance of developing the iron industry. The question was a live one, and Northern Ontario, British Columbia, the Maritime Provinces ish Columbia, the Maritime Provinces and Manitoba were interested. The Dominion government had helped other industries; and Dr. Manion suggested that it might well consider co-operating with the Province of Ontario in grantwith the Province of Ontario in granting a bounty on iron ore.

Hon. Chardes Stewart, Minister of the Interior, said the mines department was devoting all its energies to finding a process which would make it profitable to mine low grade iron ore in Canada. It is cheap — for six dollars you get a package that will do for a good sized lawn and garden, or an acre and a half of roots or grain — for all summer. It is easy to apply and eliminates for the man in town, the difficulty of procuring and the objection to applying barnyard manure or other fertilizer. On farms it can be used with manure with splendid results.

The teams are to be composed of local boys and from now on practise will be held every night in order that they will be in condition for the grand opening.

They point out that it is better to be trimmed by a fast team than win from a medi-

Yesterday a one-ton roller was used to put the finishing touches on the diamond and it is said to be in better condition than ever before. If the patronage warrants a new grandstand will be erected with a covering and the old stand will be turned over as free bleachers. Members of the teams are also strongly advocating seeding the outer garden which, they claim, would be beneficial from many standpoints. The members of the league executive as well as the players are confident that this season will be one of the most successful in years.

exhibitors in Canada is developing here in the introduction of amendments to the Canadian Copyright Act of 1921 by E. R. E. Chevrler, federal member for Ottawa East.

These provide for the payment of royalty to the composers of all copyrighted music and to authors for other copyrighted works at every public performance in the Dominion. The proposed changes to the act also cover radio broadcasting in that the word "performance" has been extended to include radio concerts, all of which are affected with the exception of those radios by stations other than those conducted for profit.

If Canadian theatres are required to pay royalty for copyrighted music, as outlined in the Chevrler amendments, they will either have to resort to compositions which are not copyrighted, or else make arrangements to pay what really is a tax. It is pointed out, however, that practically 95 per cent. of all the popular music of the present day is copyrighted in Canada, so the field otherwise is very limited.
