THE MEN OF LOYALIST CITY HAVE HEEDED THE CALL TO JOIN THE EMPIRE FORCES

Magnificent Demonstration in St. Andrew's Rink last night drew Thirty Volunteers for Service—Thirteen passed examinations and were sworn in—Another meeting tonight for men.

A magnificent recruiting meeting in St. Andrew's Rink last evening was attended by about six hundred men and at the close thirty of those in attendance offered their services to the Empire as members of the 64th Battalion. Thirteen out of the thirty passed the medical examination and were sworn in as members of the battalion. Those added to the honor list were:

ALBERT FINNAMORE, Fredericton.
LEONARD JOHN PORTER, St. John.
WALTER MORINI, Bear River, N. S.
CHARLES R. DOW, Honolulu.
HAROLD McCABE, St. John.
GEORGE BURTON, Yarmouth.
J. E. ADAMS, Summerside, P. E. I.
WILLIAM J. PUPPEY, Newfoundland.
W. L. INGRAM, Scotland.
W. J. STONE, England.
ALBERT J. BANVILLE, St. John.
RAYMOND HARGROVE, Musquash.

One recruit asked that his name be not given out for the present. Those who enlisted during the day at the recruiting office were:

ROWLAND T. D. FRITH, Naasan, Bahama.
HERVEY B. FRITH, Florida.
HARRY McGOVERN, St. John.

The speakers at the meeting made strong pleas for men to join the colors. Sergeant Norman Knight of the Gordon Highlanders was particularly strong in his call for recruits.

The demonstration will probably never be forgotten by those present. One thing which this recruiting campaign has accomplished has been to set the young men of the city thinking and the results, although not as good as they should be, have been most encouraging to the citizens' committee.

Sergeant Knight, as the chief speaker of the evening, was repeatedly cheered and there is no doubt that he has won a place in the hearts of the citizens of St. John. In his pointed catchy style of direct speaking he appealed to the man himself and his words last evening brought forth excellent results. Other speakers, including Rev. W. G. Lane, honorary major in the 28th Dragoons, who wore the King's uniform in South Africa, were equally good. C. B. Allan, secretary of the St. John branch of the Canadian Patriotic Fund, gave some very interesting information concerning what the fighting man's family would receive in the event of his enlisting. Col. B. R. Armstrong gave a full explanation regarding the pay of the soldiers, not only what they received for daily employment but also in the way indemnities such as sickness, wounded or total disability. Col. Sturdee, chairman of the Citizens' Committee, presided and the regimental band of the 62nd Fusiliers was present and gave several musical selections.

Rev. W. G. Lane

Rev. W. G. Lane, the first speaker, said: "Why do we want you? Now, young men, I believe everyone has a warm spot which, if touched, will make him respond. We want you because you are a Canadian. The Canadians today are known the wide world over as resourceful, quick-witted and intelligent in an emergency. I know that from my experiences in South Africa. But South Africa is nothing compared with this war. Do you know, men, that the amount of ammunition fired in twenty-four hours in this war is greater than that fired in all the South African war. Do you realize the tremendous struggle in which we are engaged? I say the Canadians are quicker witted in an emergency than any other nation. Europe, men, is where you are wanted because you are able to do things. The Canadians are needed because they are intelligent men, trained to think, not like the Germans who move like one gigantic machine. You men are trained along the lines of quickness and you have a force that you don't know and realize until called upon to use it.

"Why is England at war? Why? Because she considers honor above every other thing. We ought to be proud to live under a flag true to such a teaching.

"In 1812 the greater nations of Europe, Great Britain, France, Austria and Germany, signed a treaty to respect the neutrality of Belgium. In 1870, like an avalanche came war and Napoleon true to his promise rather than violate the neutrality of that country suffered France to be overrun with the enemy, although having the opportunity and advised by his generals to save France from defeat. There, men, you see are allies whom we can trust. Is that, true of Germany? She said she would observe Belgium's neutrality, but as the years roll by the German Emperor mobilizes his forces and addresses them as follows: The German people are the chosen of God. I am his sword, inspired by the spirit of the Almighty. We to him, who is an unbeliever. In spite of that he lied and launched his fighting machine against that little country.

"We want you to stand next the men who have sacrificed all for the colors. Come men, come men, get out of the bog trough, get out of home-spun. Get on top for your King and country.

Patriotic Fund

C. B. Allan, local secretary of the Canadian Patriotic Fund, was next called upon. He said the Canadian Patriotic Fund was incorporated about one year ago for the collecting and administering of a fund for the soldiers of Canada on active service on the naval and military forces. Up to the present time $4,500,000 have been paid into the fund by the people of Canada to assist the soldiers and their families. Of this amount $150,000 had been donated by the citizens of the province of New Brunswick, the largest proportion coming from the city of St. John. During the past year the Patriotic Society in New Brunswick has paid out $90,000 to the families of the soldiers.

"In the distribution of money the society allows $30 per month to the wife of each soldier and about $45 to the average family including wife and three children up to the age of eight. All this is exclusive of the regular pay of the soldiers. The $45 includes $20 received through the Paymaster-General of Canada as a separation allowance and the balance, $25, is furnished from the funds of the Patriotic Society. The money is paid out of the government under the oversight of the committee twice a month in checks and places the family on the level of decent living.

"In all Canada about 20,000 families are provided for and $300,000 is paid to the soldiers every month, about $17,000 of this amount going to the families of the province of New Brunswick. Continued on page two.

ZEPPELINS PAY ANOTHER VISIT TO ENGLAND, DROP BOMBS AT SEVERAL POINTS

London, Sept. 9, 1.12 a. m.—Hostile air raids on the eastern coast of England and on the London district were continued last (Wednesday) night. Aircraft dropped a number of bombs, and casualties and fires resulted.

The official statement respecting the raid issued by the press bureau says:

"Hostile aircraft visited the eastern counties and the London district Wednesday night and dropped incendiary and explosive bombs. At midnight a few casualties had been reported and some fires, which were then well under control. "The number of casualties will be communicated through the press in the course of the day."

MAJ. P. A. GUTHRIE ON THE HESPERIAN RISKS LIFE TO SAVE WOMAN AND CHILD

Although Crippled and on Crutches, After Reaching Gangway, Went Back to Get Life Preserver for Woman and Child.

London, Sept. 8, (Gazette Cable)—Major J. A. Guthrie, of Fredericton, in command of the 10th Battalion, and formerly attached to the 12th, had a remarkably narrow escape from drowning when the Hesperian was torpedoed, owing to the fact that he was using crutches. In spite of his own handicap, however, after reaching the gangway, when the torpedo had struck the ship, he turned back to get life preservers from a cabin for a woman and child. Fortunately, Captain Geggie, of Quebec, a medical officer attached to the 10th, sought Major Guthrie, and assisted him to the deck.

Major Guthrie had passed through the thick of the heavy fighting in which his battalion took part, but was hit subsequently in the reserve trenches by a sniper. He has been an inmate of No. 2 Stationary Hospital at Letouquet for some weeks, with his foot in such bad condition that amputation was narrowly averted.

He was remanded to the toms until tomorrow, when sentence will be imposed.

CANADIANS' VALOR ON LIPS OF ALL EUROPE

Everywhere Story of Their Gallant Fight at St. Julian is Praised.

ABBE PERRIN OF ROME ON VISIT TO CANADA

Head of Canadian College in Eternal City Says Soldiers from Dominion Have Won Admiration of all Europe.

Special to The Standard.

Ottawa, Sept. 8.—The stand which the Canadian troops made at St. Julian and their wonderful bravery is known all over Europe, so says Abbe Perrin, Superior of the Canadian College at Rome, who is in Ottawa today on a mission to the Papal Legate and Archbishop Gauthier. "I visited recently many small villages in both Italy and France, and when the people found I was a Canadian they were most enthusiastic. They praised in the most eulogistic terms the Canadian troops and I myself, just because I was a Canadian, was treated with the honor of a wounded soldier. The valor of the Canadians is on the lips of all Europe. I was proud indeed to be able to say, I am a Canadian."

The Abbe gave an instance of the spirit of Canadian soldiers. He visited Lourdes and was told there was a Canadian wounded soldier there. "I hunted him up," said the Abbe, "and asked him to have a meal with me at a restaurant. He had been a cowboy in the west. He had been wounded three times; first he was wounded in the foot, recovered and went back to the trenches. He was next wounded in the breast. Again after a period in the hospital he recovered, and once more he went back to the battle-line. The third time he was partially paralyzed on one side by concussion from a high explosive shell. They say," said that soldier to me, "that I can never get well, but see," he remarked, partially lifting his arm, "it is getting better already. In two or three months time I shall be able to go back." But if you return, I told him, you will this time lose your head. "No matter," he shouted, "it is all for the cause."

The incident said the Abbe touched very much the people in the restaurant and before they left they all insisted on shaking hands with him and wishing him the best of luck. The Abbe said that there was perfect unanimity in Italy over the war. Before war was declared there was considerable difference of opinion and much political strife. But now Italy was one and all parties at perfect peace and determined to see the fighting through to the finish. He said it was difficult to appreciate the obstacles which faced the Italian army. They had to capture mountain peaks, armed like great fortresses and progress was naturally slow and difficult. The general progress of the Italian army, however, had been very satisfactory and there was absolute confidence both that Italy would win back its London, Sept. 8, 9.55 p. m.—Almost simultaneously with the announcement that the Emperor has personally replaced Grand Duke Nicholas as commander of the Russian forces, the fighting along the eastern frontier, despite the beginning of the autumn rains has been resumed with the intensity which characterized it throughout the summer on both wings in Courland, in the north and in Volhynia, Podolia and East Galicia. In the south the Russians are making determined efforts to regain the initiative while in the centre the Austro-Germans continue to increase their advantage.

Thus Field Marshal Von Hindenburg and his commanders in Courland are still being denied their objective, the Dvina river, while Von Mackensen and the Austrian generals, at the other end of the line, are engaged in opposing the Russian offensive. In the centre, on the other hand, Gen. Von Elichhorn and Prince Leopold of Bavaria are pushing forward and, according to the Berlin official report, have occupied Volkowysk, an important railway junction immediately east of Bialystok. It is for these reasons that the Germans are now fighting, as when the autumn rains turn a great part of the country into an impassable morass they will need every line of railway to keep their armies supplied with provisions and munitions.

Another day of heavy artillery engagements is recorded on the western front where also there has been a series of air raids, as well as bombardment of the German coast batteries by the British fleet. The Italians claim to have captured several Austrian positions on the Cadore frontier, while on the rest of the Austro-Italian front only artillery actions have occurred.

This long-drawn-out fighting appears also to be a feature of the operations in the Dardanelles, where, according to the accounts from Constantinople, the Turks have successfully bombarded the allies' positions at Anafarta and Seddul Bahr.

The Zeppelin raid on England last night resulted in the death of thirteen persons, of whom ten were women and children, and the wounding of forty-three, of whom thirty were women and children. This brings the grand total of casualties from Zeppelin raids up to 102 killed and 263 injured.

Turkish Report. Constantinople, Sept. 8, via London, Sept. 9 (2.30 a. m.)—The Turkish war office has issued the following official communication:

"During the night of the sixth reconnoitering forces were sent in the direction of Mesas and Anzac. They penetrated enemy trenches, capturing two guns.

"Near Seddul Bahr, enemy torpedo boats bombarded our positions on the right and left wings, but without causing important damage. "Enemy batteries which bombarded our positions on the left wing on the 7th were silenced by our batteries in the straits."

lost territory and that the Allies will ultimately win.

"The Canadian college at Rome will be closed as far as studies are concerned until the war is over, and it is in connection with this and the question of reopening it when the war is over that the Abbe is visiting Canada. He offered the college as a hospital for Canadian troops but, as they were already well provided for and it was some distance from the front, the offer was not accepted.

The Abbe met Sir Robert Borden while in Paris, and while there he will pay his respects to him and also to Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He will visit western Canada if time permits.

BERLIN'S NOTE ON SINKING OF THE ARABIC

Claims Submarine Acted in Self-defence and Offers to Refer Matter to the Hague.

Berlin, via London, Sept. 8.—Germany's note to the United States concerning the sinking of the White Star line steamer Arabic by a German submarine was communicated to James Gerard, the American ambassador yesterday evening. The note ascribes the destruction of the liner to an act of self-defence on the part of the submarine, expresses the German government's deep regret that American lives were lost thereby and offers to refer the questions of reparation and compensation to The Hague for adjustment.

GERMANY APOLOGIZES TO DANISH GOV'T

London, Sept. 9 (1.35 a. m.)—Reuters' Copenhagen correspondent says the German government has apologized for the sinking by a German submarine June 2, of the Danish schooner Salvador. Germany, according to the correspondent, stated that the Salvador was destroyed by mistake and offered to indemnify her owners. The Salvador was a timber schooner. Her crew escaped when she was torpedoed and was landed at Larwick.

CZAR'S ACTION A SURPRISE

Rumored in Army Circles He Would Take Command of Armies but People Were Ignorant of Proposed Change.

Petrograd, via London, Sept. 8.—The change in supreme command of the army, which was made known here today came as a surprise to the general public, although it had been rumored for several days in army circles. The Novoe Vremya, the only newspaper which thus far has commented on this subject, says: "Our insolent foe has now received a worthy answer to his projects. The Russian Emperor has placed himself at the head of the military forces, and hopes of the Germans for peace are turned to dust and ashes."

"For more than a year the chief command of our army has been vested in Grand Duke Nicholas Nikolaievitch, whose name will for ever remain graven in the heart of every Russian soldier."

NEW UNITED DUMA IN RUSSIA

On our side there were between 800 and 900 families. Of this number, however, 150 were taken off last fall. Last month we were providing for 683 families of whom the greater proportion are in St. John, numbering about 500. Last month the sum of $10,881 was paid out in St. John alone and any man enlisting can feel sure that his family will be well provided for.

Other work carried on by the Patriotic Society is the visitation of the soldiers wives by different ladies, who are sympathetic and do everything in their power to help along the families and improve their condition.

In addition to this a disbursement fund has been organized. Last November, there was appointed a military hospital committee to look after disabled soldiers from the front, and Lieut. Col. (Dr.) Thomas Walker was appointed by the government as the local representative on the committee.

The whole country has awakened to the fact that men are worthy of consideration and that it is a serious proposition to offend a man leaving the country and sacrificing all. Among all the visitors leaving our office not one has thought that his family will not be provided for, and by the funds of the society every Canadian soldier who has a wife and family is well provided for.

Soldiers' Pay.

Col. B. R. Armstrong was next called upon. In the course of his remarks he stated that the men were getting better pay than many of the people realized. A good percentage of the soldiers are getting more money now than they did before they enlisted. However, he objected to use this as a means to stimulate recruiting and he thoroughly believed that the men are not enlisting to get as much money as they are able out of the government.

"Every man enlisting has the chance to make from $1.10 to $2 per day," said he. "The private receives $1.10 and the Sergeant Major $2.00. This does not include lodging, board, clothing and medical attention. The men are well fed and well clothed and everything is provided. Every month each soldier receives $60.45 including $34.10 his pay per month and $26.35 which is the cost of his board as supplied by the government reckoned at 55 cents per day.

In addition to this he receives $20 from the government as a separation allowance and $15 from the Patriotic Fund, the average amount to each family, so that each soldier receives $95.45 per month, which I guarantee is greatly in excess of the amount which the majority were getting before they enlisted.

If injured or disabled every man receives a pension. These are divided into four classes, according to the nature and seriousness of his injury. Following are the classes with the amounts received by private and sergeant major:

1st Class	2nd Class	3rd Class	4th Class
$254	$192	$126	$75
$422	$324	$216	$132

If totally disabled he receives one-half of what the pension entitles him and if dead, his widow or mother also receives one-half after his death. If killed at the front, the widow of a private receives $32 per month and an additional $5 for every child. The widow of a sergeant major receives $39 per month and an additional $5 for every child. This applies to boys under 16 years and girls under 17.

Before closing I would like to say a few words concerning our friend and returned war hero Sergeant Norman Knight. Sergeant Knight was first slightly wounded by a German sniper. After a short time in a hospital he returned to the fighting line and in a charge with his regiment, he received a bayonet thrust in the mouth which knocked out some teeth and injured the back of his throat. After another short stay in a hospital he was again wounded and taken to Exeter, England, to recuperate. On regaining consciousness, Sergeant Knight was told that he had been thrown by a cow-boy, which landed near him, twenty feet in the air and fell and through the top of a buggy."

Sergeant Knight was next introduced. He was given a fine reception.

Sergeant Knight.

"You know I am here on definite business," said he, "I was not here on a business I would far rather be some place else tonight.

"I want to tell you that every able bodied man in St. John is needed at the front. He is not needed only in the 55th battalion, he is not needed only in the 64th, he is not needed wherever Sir John French wants him to be put, and Sir John French is the wisest man I believe under the British flag for the job he has. There is not a man more skilled in military strategy today than Sir John French. There is not a man in the whole of the British empire with a heart as big as Sir John French, and there is not a man in the British army who has not Sir John French, but must respect him. I know this personally, that Sir John French is as just a man as ever stood in boots. You fellows that are making such a time where you are going to be put. Be soldiers, but the first element of a good soldier is obedience. It is hard to get Canadians to be obedient, from the time they are knee high to a grass hopper, they begin to answer back, and the thing I most hated over there in Europe was discipline. It is hard for me to take a command from another man, but I said this, when I went, with God's help I would do the thing I was put at and do the best I could (Cheers).

"Col. Armstrong said I did not talk much about myself. Why should I? There have been men to put my little bit to shame; there are men over yonder lying beneath the soil of Europe. I am here well and happy. Why should I speak of myself when I have in my mind the memory of those men. I have nothing to prate about. I only did my duty. Why should I go around feeling better than any other man, just because I did my duty. If I had not done it I think I would feel pretty miserable. I was asked today if I saw any German atrocities. I think I said before in St. John that I have carried on for two years pretty nearly all my business with Germans. I lived for over 18 months in Germany and I thought I knew the German people pretty well, but I am here to tell you that not a man was ever so deceived as I was in Germany. When I left the United States, the reports just began to be current of German atrocities, I told a German lady friend that I did not believe the Germans were capable of such atrocities. I told her that I would come back and be able to tell her that they were all lies.

German Atrocities.

"When I landed in France on the 11th or 12th of August, we were taken some place, God knows where, I don't, but we were taken somewhere in France. I felt like a Frenchman and we walked along the road. In the distance we saw what appeared to be an old man pushing something in front of him, while behind him were walking three children. In the distance shells were breaking. We watched this man as he approached and when he came opposite to us we saw he was pushing a bicycle. Across the bar of the bicycle he had fitted a board and on the board was a pile of bedding. I looked at him and saw a vacant stare, he was not mad, but pretty nearly. I walked up to the bicycle and pulled the coverlet back and saw one of the sweetest little girls as you ever set eyes on. You men who have children, dear to you, think I think she was dead. I tried to take her up in my arms but he would not let me touch her, and there I saw that the little one's limb was taken off above the knee. Here is the story, I wish I could forget these things, I wish they had never happened.

"This little family, this old man, his wife and daughter lived with the four children in a little cottage on a pretty little farm in Eastern France. The father had gone to the firing line. He was a reservist. The Germans came, you know what they left behind. A lady 80 years old ravished, killed by the savage demons. We have too many of them in Canada. (Cheers.) Yonder in the city of Halifax lives one. He is worth thousands of dollars. He was in the Halifax Hotel exploding his pro-German theories. There were lots of Canadians around, but because he was a respected citizen and had been for a long time, no one interfering with him, but two Americans jumped up and slammed him one in the teeth. Not alone was the old lady of 80 years attacked but also the young wife.

"The four children were left behind, the father states, a shell hits the house and the baby of the family has the leg taken off by a splinter. The old man was bitter, I wonder if you will wake up some day, if you fellows would not get on your feet and say: 'By God, what I can do, I will do.' You say I am too earnest. You say I make too much of this thing. (If I were brought to St. John for nothing except to discover these fellows, I am here for a good cause.) If your committee, who brought me here, do not like my method they can send me back, but I am doing my duty as a Britisher.

Wounded Soldiers.

"I have seen our boys wounded and lying on the field and being sniped at all the time, with the old boys being dug into their wounds and the Germans shooting at them. That is the way they fight, not like men, but like demons and devils. I want to bring it home to you tonight that our strength lies in numbers, that we need numbers. They were crawling, we will have them on their knees before long, but I want to be there at the finish. I haven't got mine yet, I want to be there to pay them back. (Cheers.) I said the other night that you fellows here were too prosperous, I have been asking men why they did not enlist, and men, I am persuaded more tonight, it is not cowardice that keeps them back, not at all, they are not afraid to die, but they do love their comfortable jobs. I want to jar some of you tonight. Do you realize over yonder that it is you they need, not you? You are willing to give anything and everything but you, it is you that is wanted, you.

There are several boys here I want to see in khaki to come up here with me. I want to show you some of your young products. You fellow come. (The sergeant then called several men in khaki on the platform).

"I want to ask you men here: Are you satisfied? Perfectly. Have you any kick coming? No. Are you treated all right? Yes. Are your officers all right? Yes, A.I.

"If I can get any more excuses from you fellows I can call you liars on the evidence of these men here. I just wanted to be sure about this."

Sergeant Knight then called for recruits and thirty men volunteered to go.

Nineteen men were sent forward to Sussex last evening by recruiting officer Sergeant Stairs. This is the largest number sent forward in one day for some time. Following are the names of those who are on the honor roll.

For the 64th—Harry McGovern, St. John; John Miller, Bathurst; George M. Fountaine, Buffalo, N. Y.; Henry Cannon, Lancastershire, Eng.; Fred W. Shaw, D. W. Shaw, St. John.

Sir Louis Not Coming

A telegram from Sir Louis H. Davies of Charlottetown received last evening bore the intelligence of His Honor's illness and consequent inability to be present and speak at tonight's meeting in St. Andrew's Rink. This is a disappointment for many, but as Sir Louis was quite enthusiastic in the prospect of speaking in the interests of recruiting in this city, it is hoped he will be improved sufficiently in a short while to carry out his original intentions.

However, Judge Stewart of Charlottetown will be present and address the gathering tonight and those who intend being present have some inspiring moments ahead of them. His Honor is a splendid platform orator and one of the big men of the Island. The matter of sending more men to the front is very near to his heart and he has some new and forcible arguments in favor of enlistment. In addition to Judge Stewart's address tonight there will be appeals made by Sgt. Knight and Lieut. A. J. Brooks. It is probable a pipe band will play.

Halifax Man Coming

Another military man who is making quite a stir in the sister city of Halifax in the line of recruiting talks is Lieut. J. Raiston. A telegram from the Halifax Recruiting Committee received by Chairman E. A. Schofield of the local committee yesterday stated that Lieut. Raiston would be available for St. John meetings. Consequently this kind offer was accepted and the officer will in all probability be on hand for the Friday meeting in St. Andrew's Rink.

Increased Interest

The recruiting campaign is proceeding with such spirit that the interest is spreading like wildfire. The permission granted by leading employers for soldier-speakers to address their workers during working hours is another evidence of the earnestness of the people of all classes and positions in life.

A start was made yesterday afternoon in explaining to the inside workers of the city's establishments the needs of the hour. Sgt. Knight of Halifax received a rousing reception in the few places he was privileged to visit before a committee meeting called him away. Among the places to be visited by the recruiting men are: T. S. Simms & Co. Ltd., Murray & Gregory's, John E. Moore's mill, Randolph & Baker's, Stearns & Cutler's two mills, J. R. Warner's mill, the Parkton Pulp & Paper Co., the Christie Woodworking Co., the Wilson box factory, the Maritime mill works, and the Portland rolling mills. Business houses in the center of the city are consenting to the holding of little meetings among their employees, who thus in close session are told many little details of enlistment and service that otherwise might not be explained.

At the meeting of the recruiting committee yesterday afternoon arrangements were completed for the meeting this evening in St. Andrew's Rink.

G. E. Barbour reported that the committee, which was interviewing employers with the idea of holding short recruiting meetings in the several industrial plants of the city, had met with good success and an opportunity will be given for placing the recruiting program before the men.

The Pipers' Band has offered its services in the recruiting campaign. Their services will likely be required this week.

Gloucester County Probe Brought to Close—Not Dollar Spent Dishonestly for Material or Performance of work, A.J.H. Stewart Declares—Veniot Not Anxious to Hear Anything About Liberals' Doings Brought to Light.

Special to The Standard.

Bathurst, N.B., Sept. 8.—If Mr. P. J. Veniot thought that he was going to make a good pile of political capital out of the petting charges he has preferred before Commissioner Chandler against two of the members of the legislature for this county, he must now be feeling as badly as he did the night of the last election, for besides Mr. Turgeon, the Liberal M. P., not a single voter has taken the trouble to even listen to the "disclosures."

This morning's session of the inquiry did not begin until after eleven o'clock, as Mr. J. Robichaud, M.L.A., only arrived this morning at a late hour from his home in Shippegan. His examination was concluded before the court adjourned for dinner and the only incident approaching anything like excitement occurred when the commissioner called Mr. Veniot sharply to order for unbecomingly language addressed to the witness and made him apologize.

Mr. Robichaud in his evidence explained very fully the transactions he had had with Peter P. Robichaud in regard to timber for the Carleton Creek bridge and the explanation was so simple and straightforward that it took the wind right out of Mr. Veniot's sails, and made him so angry with himself that he tried to cover his face by asking a lot of questions regarding the matter in Carleton Creek bridge. But the witness' answers were so clear and explicit that Veniot was fooled every time.

When it came to the Lameque Road, on which Veniot insinuated a number of men were paid who never worked there, Mr. Robichaud told very frankly all that he had done in connection with it and in answer to a direct question made the reply that he did not know of anyone who had been paid money he did not earn.

In regard to Clement Lontaigne, he knew that man did not work on the Lameque Road in 1914, but he had done so in 1913 and his name had been left off the pay list in error. The road commissioner had told him of this so the man was paid what was owed him for work on the very same road by having his name included in the pay list. Not a very great crime that.

The rest of the questions and the answers given were really so paltry that they hardly referred to the charges in any way and certainly were not what Mr. Veniot hoped to hear.

Not a Dollar Spent Dishonestly. The political jinxes of Carter and Veniot have met an inglorious end in connection, as far as the charges against Gloucester county officials, and also against Martin J. Robichaud, M. L. A., and A. J. Stewart, M. L. A., two local representatives for the county are concerned. Never before provided the Duma remains alive.

"Popular instinct feels this," he continued, "and the people here with deep concern all rumors of a dismissal of the Duma and believe you clearly understand that in these circumstances dismissal would be political madness. Let those who are agitating it know, therefore, that if the Duma is prorogued now we shall meet in political crisis—this is a fact of great importance whose consequence cannot but be reflected immediately in the entire policy of the empire."

The Novoe Vremya has retained through the last fifteen years a reputation as a weather vane. Its support of the new Duma majority therefore is regarded as highly significant.

Debate in the Duma on the military censorship took a wide range, in view of renewed reports that the Conservatives were working secretly for dissolution or prorogation. Professor Paul N. Milukoff declared the formation of a Liberal-Progressive majority in place of the Conservative block to be a historic importance, adding that the formation of a majority in the Duma will bring about a dissolution of the question of power, was the old adage "He who tries to prove too much proves nothing" been more fully exemplified than at the closing session of the Chandler investigation. Veniot did not realize his expectations regarding the interest that he believed the electors of the county would take in the investigation proceedings. He had always claimed that hundreds would assist in the investigation if it were held in Bathurst, but, in spite of this, the largest number, outside of those directly taking part in the investigation, who attended the inquiry was four. Messrs. Stewart and Robichaud, who gave evidence today, did not mince matters. They admitted some irregularities, which were necessary, owing to the importance of the public demands for repairs and improvements to the roads, and testified that not in one instance was one dollar paid for material furnished, or labor performed that was not absolutely justifiable and honest.

Mr. Veniot, after losing his head completely in the morning session, and crossing-firing at Mr. Robichaud in the witness box, but afterwards apologizing to the commission, showed his weakness in the afternoon session, and admitted that the most investigation would show some irregularities in connection with the submitting of reports, and asked Mr. Albert Stewart if he would not admit that he, Veniot, was justified in bringing about the investigation of the charges.

Mr. Stewart replied that he might have been, if he (Veniot) could reconcile his position with the large amount of money that it had cost the province to bring the irregularities to light. It is generally admitted here that Veniot's undertaking has been a complete fiasco, and the finding of the commission is awaited with calm reserve by all.

Veniot Loses His Head.

Bathurst, N. B., Sept. 8.—During this morning's session, while Mr. Robichaud was on the stand while the matters of Liberal government were being explained by Mr. Robichaud in connection with the Shippegan dog-fish factory, Mr. Veniot in loud tones said: "We don't want anything about the Liberals" and accused Mr. Robichaud of profiting from the building of that establishment. Mr. Robichaud returned with: "Yes, there is a man sitting across the table who profited," motioning directly at Mr. Turgeon, whereupon Veniot called Mr. Robichaud a liar.

A. J. H. Stewart called the attention of the court to the unbecoming language of Veniot and the latter offered an apology, something rarely given by that gentleman.

Mr. Robichaud's evidence referred to Veniot's charges and the people of Gloucester will give Mr. Veniot his answer to his methods when the time comes.

SUBMARINE WHICH SANK ARABIC LOCATED

Commander Pleads Self-Defence for Torpedoing Liner, Claiming the Arabic Headed in Direction of His Vessel and He Believed She Intended to Ram Submarine—No Reason Given for "U" Boat's Delay in Returning to Her Base.

Berlin, Sept. 8, via London (2.05 p. m.)—The commander of a German submarine which has returned to its base has reported to the Admiralty that he torpedoed the liner Arabic, in the belief that the Arabic's action indicated she was about to attack the submarine, and that he fired in self-defence.

According to the submarine commander's report the submarine was engaged in destroying a freighter when the Arabic was sighted. The submarine was then on the surface. The Arabic, the commander declares, swung around and headed towards the freighter, as if to attack the submarine. The commander of the underwater craft remained in doubt as to the intentions of the Arabic, when the latter changed her course a few points, but still kept headed in a direction that was bringing her nearer to the scene.

The captain of the submarine reports that he continued to observe the actions of the liner until he saw the Arabic again change her course and head directly for the spot where the submarine lay, as if the Arabic had sighted the underwater boat. Then the commander of the submarine, believing his craft was in danger, he declared, submerged her and fired a torpedo.

This news was communicated immediately to James W. Gerard, ambassador to America for transmission to Washington.

Prior to the receipt of the report of the submarine's commander, Admiralty officials were of the belief that the submarine had been lost. No reason for her delay in returning to port has been given.

A high official of the foreign office, in discussing the case with the Associated Press, said the commander of the submarine evidently had adequate reasons for believing the submarine was about to be attacked, and was justified in taking steps necessary to save his boat and crew. The torpedoing of the Arabic, according to this official, could not be considered an unprovoked attack without warning, but a measure of self-defence which the commander of the underwater craft was compelled to adopt by the alleged actions of the Arabic.

The news of the return of the submarine, and the commander's report, has not yet been published in Germany.

There is still no report available here with regard to the sinking of the Lusitania but has been under a terrible storm of criticism.

Reports are current in Berlin that Admiral von Tirpitz, the German Minister of Marine, is ill from overwork and exhaustion, and on the advice of his physician intends to leave Berlin for a holiday, which will extend over several weeks. Admiral von Tirpitz, who is sixty-six years old and has been head of the German Admiralty since 1907, was the father of the campaign of frightfulness waged by the German submarines. Since the sinking of the Lusitania he has been under a terrible storm of criticism.

Grand Duke has given magnificent proof of Bravery and Inspired confidence in men and people, but Duty Emperor feels his own Duty demands that he put himself at head of army and share their fatigues as well as their glory.

Petrograd, Sept. 8, via London.—In relieving the Grand Duke, the Emperor addressed a communication to him which read as follows:

"At the beginning of the war I was unavoidably prevented from following the inclination of my soul to put myself at the head of the army. That was why I entrusted you with the commandship in chief of all the land and sea forces.

"Under the eyes of all Russia, Your Imperial Highness has given proof during the war of a steadfast bravery which has caused a feeling of profound confidence and called forth the sincere good wishes of all whom followed your operations through the inevitable vicissitudes of war.

"My duty to my country, which has been entrusted to me by God impels me today, when the enemy has penetrated into the interior of the empire, to take supreme command of the active forces and to share with the army the fatigue of war and to safeguard with it Russian soil from attempts of the enemy. The way of Providence are inscrutable but my duty and my desire determine me in my resolution for the good of the state.

"The invasion of the enemy on the western front, which necessitates the greatest possible concentration of civil and military authorities as well as the unification of command in the field, has turned our attention from the southern front, and I appoint you viceroy of the Caucasus and commander-in-chief of the valiant Caucasian army.

"I express to Your Imperial Highness my profound gratitude and that of the country for your labors during the war."

GRAND DUKE'S PARTING MESSAGE.

Paris, Sept. 8.—The text of the order of the day issued by Grand Duke Nicholas transferring command of the Russian armies to the Emperor is forwarded by the Petrograd correspondent of the Havas News Agency as follows:

"Valiant army and fleet: Today, your august supreme chief, His Majesty the Emperor, places himself at your head. I bow before your heroism of more than a year, and express to you my cordial, warm and sincere appreciation.

"I believe steadfastly that because the Emperor himself, to whom you have taken your oath, conducts you, you will display achievements hitherto unknown. I believe that God from this day will bring to him final victory."

FRENCH COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF DIRECTING ARTILLERY ATTACK

General Joffre has begun a systematic and violent bombardment of the German battle line at all the important points of conflict from the shores of Belgium on the North Sea as far as the region between the Meuse and the Moselle, in Eastern France. Many batteries of the new type of heavy French field guns are now in action, and from the continuous fire they are maintaining against the fortifications and trenches held by the Kaiser's troops there is no longer reason to doubt that the allied forces on the western front are now supplied with adequate quantities of ammunition. An official statement declares that the gun fire of the French has been effective, notably in Belgium, near Het Sas and Stenestraete. This is the district in which the Germans gained ground several months ago by the use of asphyxiating gases.

Add this to the remainder of the milk, scalded in a double boiler. Stir constantly until the mixture thickens, then occasionally for 20 minutes. Add the yolks of two eggs beaten up with a quarter cup of creamed butter and a half cup of grated cheese. As soon as these are cooked, turn out into a shallow pan, and when cold cut in shapes. Paris, Sept. 8.—An official note issued today gives the reply of Gen. Count Cadorna to the message sent him by Gen. "We are fighting for a worthy purpose, and we shall not lay down our arms until that purpose has been fully achieved"—H. M. The King. TO THE PEOPLE OF THE EMPIRE—Every fighting unit we can send to the front means one step nearer peace.

THE CALL TO YOUNG MEN

The results of the recruiting campaign yesterday were quite successful and if young men continue to offer their services as freely and as willingly during the next ten days, the quota required to complete the ranks of the 4th Battalion will be speedily secured. While it is the bounden duty of all men, physically fit and without homes, to join the colors prepared, if necessary, to make the supreme sacrifice in the cause of Empire, there should be no unreasoning condemnation of those who do not go unless it is very plainly understood that they have no ties to keep them from bearing their part in the struggle, and it is not always the case where the reasons a man can present to keep him from going to the front can be made sufficiently apparent to his neighbors to save him from unwarranted censure.

The Toronto Mail and Empire deals with this phase of the recruiting question very sanely when it says: "If a man feels that he ought to go, he should go. If he feels that he ought not to go, he should stay; and hysterical young ladies who confer upon him a white feather or who send him anonymous letters ought to be disregarded. It is probably true that for many citizens the harder task is to stay at home and meet the ignorant opprobrium of those who do not understand the grave and creditable reasons that persuade many able-bodied young men to this course. A man surely to be as respectful of his responsibility as the man who has a wife. A man may be the sole support of his father, or of his sisters, or be a mainstay to others who have a claim upon him without advertising the matter to his friends, who may thus be inclined to think he is shirking a national duty in not offering himself for service. Many such a Canadian in these dark days will understand for the first time the meaning of the words, 'The heart knoweth its own bitterness.' "The word has not yet come which should prompt all able-bodied Canadians to put wife and family behind them and take their places on the firing line. Should it ever come, there will be, we think, more rejoicing than sorrowing on the part of the volunteers who will go rather as a bridegroom to a wedding than as a felon to his fate."

As the Mail and Empire quite properly says, it is up to the individual to decide whether he should or should not go and all the advice and exhortation in the world can result in little more than pointing the need for men. Every man physically fit and who has no imperative domestic ties should offer himself, and if all the men of that class realized their duty in this respect, there would be no need for recruiting campaigns or public meetings with impassioned speeches. The simple fact is that the need and the duty are not yet realized. The young men who are continuing in their ordinary pursuits of business and pleasure, giving no heed to the fact that in the trenches of France and Flanders other men, eligible and free to no greater extent, have been fighting their battles for them have been blind to the situation, and deaf to the appeal; nothing has happened to draw out their enthusiasm. If the word should come that it was necessary for every man in Canada, to put behind him home ties, which he had regarded as imperative, and go to the defence of his home there would be a flocking of men to the colors and an army would be raised in comparison with which all other forces of free men assembled during the war would pale in comparison. That is not yet necessary but should the need for it arise the young men who today are holding back for no good reason would be in a position of terrible responsibility.

It is the safe thing and the patriotic thing for those men to volunteer for service. If they are not wanted they will not be sent. If they are wanted they will be taken as soon as the need becomes sufficiently grave to warrant a step which every British subject will regard as regretful. If the necessity for men becomes greater than can be supplied by volunteers it will be met no matter who suffers, and if young Canadians do not go as volunteers they may yet have to go as conscripts.

In one case they will be regarded as heroes, willing to make sacrifices for the common good; in the other they will merely appear as shirkers.

compelled to a duty they attempted to avoid. It is a grave and serious responsibility to be faced by every young Canadian who has so far not offered his services and has no good reason to give for the delay.

Let there be no misunderstanding of the case. Men whose home ties are such that their departure would cause perhaps irreparable misery and hardship to their dependents are not regarded as yet but the hundreds and thousands of others in every province in Canada who can be classed as military eligibles are urgently needed. To such the appeal is made, it should not be neglected.

"TOO MUCH POLITICS"

"We don't want anything about the Liberals." This remark, which a reputable correspondent of The Standard credits to Mr. P. J. Vagot at yesterday's session of the investigation being held by Commissioner Chandler in Gloucester county, illustrates, possibly more clearly than Mr. Veniot intended, the whole ground upon which that gentleman and Mr. Carter are working in the allegations they have made against the supporters of the Clarke Government. The Clarke Government is a Conservative administration, the gentlemen who are scouring the country in an effort to substantiate allegations of wrong-doing are Liberal organizers, in the service of the Liberal party and, presumably, receiving remuneration from that source.

The Telegraph and Times are disposed to laud Messrs. Carter and Veniot as political house-cleaners, but these gentlemen are very careful that the broom shall not be turned into any corner where an accumulation of Liberal dirt might be disclosed.

The same policy is followed by Liberal organizers and Liberal newspapers in reference to Federal affairs. They made a great outcry regarding the price paid for certain articles of military equipment when the purchasing was done by agents of the Conservative government, but when attention is called to cases under the Laurier regime where a rake-off was made, with no attempt by Sir Wilfrid or any of his lieutenants to enforce restitution of the money illegally secured, they are discreetly silent.

The Standard has directed attention to the matter of field dressings and house-wives supplied to the soldiers, but the Telegraph and Times are not disposed to pursue the discussion. In order to give those newspapers another opportunity we repeat certain statements previously made.

The Borden Government, during the present war, bought field dressings for the Canadian forces at 21 cents each.—See evidence before Public Accounts Committee.

The Laurier government, during the South African war, when such articles should be cheaper, paid 26 cents each for the same class of dressings.—See Auditor-General's report, 1899-1900, Division "Q," page 122.

The Borden Government, during the present war, bought soldiers' "house-wives" for 53 1/2 cents each.—See evidence before Public Accounts Committee.

The Laurier government, during the South African war, when such articles should be cheaper, paid 90 cents each for a similar article.—See Auditor-General's report, 1899-1900, Division "Q," page 117.

In the case of the purchases by the Borden Government the Telegraph and Times, and Liberals everywhere, shouted "Grafters and Thieves." Confronted by the evidence of the Laurier government's action they are silent. Mr. Veniot has told the reason—"WE DON'T WANT ANYTHING ABOUT THE LIBERALS."

THE TSAR IN COMMAND.

Whether the announcement from Petrograd that Emperor Nicholas has taken supreme command of all the Russian forces on land and sea fore-shadows a change in the Russian policy, it cannot fail to have one pronounced result. It will add to the fervour and zeal with which the subjects of the Great White Tsar will devote themselves to the cause and will stop at no sacrifice tending to lead to success for Russia. It is always an inspiring thing when a monarch goes to war. Evidence of this was furnished early in the campaign by the conduct of Albert of Belgium. Never in the history of the world did a ruler more completely and unreservedly consecrate himself to his people than did the heroic young King of the Belgians, who, not only assumed command of his forces but fought side by side with them in all the bloody engagements marking the German invasion of Belgium.

As to the military effect of the Tsar's action nothing can be said. If there has been dissatisfaction with the course of Grand Duke Nicholas the news will come as a distinct surprise, for the opinion of the keenest military observers has always been that as a military genius he ranks with Kitchener, Joffre and French. If the official reports of the Russian campaign are to be depended upon, the Grand Duke has done wonderfully well in extricating his armies from many difficult positions. The Germans have taken much territory but they have not destroyed the efficiency of the Russian army, and it may be that with a change of leaders the Russians will make greater progress than in the past. It must not be forgotten as well, that Czar Nicholas takes supreme command of his forces at a time when the long Russian winter is about to commence, and his armies will have the great assistance of the cold weather.

During the whole campaign the Russians have borne a praiseworthy part in the fighting, and they will continue to do so.

"Wake Up England"

(His Majesty The King.) Women, awake! 'Tis yours your men to sway, Bid them beware the confidence they feel, Bid them cast cloth and apathy away: 'Tis foe is brave and worthy of our steel.

Awake! awake! Ere Time's swift rising surge Brings doom beyond recall and ruthless fate; While echoing through the ages rings the dirge The fact is ours! Too late! Alas, too late! Britons, awake! Hark to the kingly call, Hark to the Daughter Nations' answ'ring cry, 'Hail, sire! we come; Together stand or fall, Together fight! Together do or die.'

Our Wheat Will Be Looked After

(Mail and Empire.) In few countries have the farmers so little reason for taking thought of the morrow as they have in Canada. Of countries that have a surplus of wheat to export no other except India has so strong an assurance of an adequate demand in the world's greatest market. Canada and India have an advantage that no grain-exporting countries outside the British Empire have—they have the market preference of the United Kingdom. So, indeed, have all the other overseas dominions and colonies, but it is improbable that any of them will have any wheat to sell abroad. The preference in question is not a tariff preference. It is the sentimental preference of the heart, the connection, a preference of the heart, never in the history of the Empire did the people of the United Kingdom feel themselves so strongly bound to the people of Canada and the other dominions as they do today. The dominions' spontaneous rush to the side of Britain in this war touched the pride and the heart of the old Mother Country as it never was touched before, and through good report and evil report she will stand by her daughter states. By her Allies she will stand with unwavering loyalty to the end, and towards neutral nations she will show every consideration. But no countries will come before her own dominions and colonies. Russia has not yet disposed of her surplus wheat of the harvest of 1914, and she has the splendid yield of the present harvest to market. Britain will offer a market for some of Russia's holdings. France, who will have to supplement domestic wheat yields by importations, stands ready to take some of it. Italy will need some. The United States has now the largest quantity of wheat for export it ever had. Argentina will have a big crop coming on the market. Canadian farmers can be easy in their minds. They will have first chance. The British government can, and we are sure will, use its power over the situation for Canada's advantage. A preferential tariff is not the only means it could make use of. The control over the great merchant marine of the United Kingdom, the merchant marine which has the bulk of the carrying trade of the ocean, enables it to send to our ports the necessary tonnage to keep our terminal elevators clear, no matter how rapidly the grain is forwarded by our railways. If necessary, the British government could impress British freight vessels for this special transportation business. At all events, there is little likelihood that our wheat shippers will have cause to complain that the ocean tonnage is avoiding Canadian ports and concentrating on those of the United States, thereby side-tracking Canadian grain. In regard to financial arrangements the British government is likewise in a controlling position. In the large British credit that is to be established on this side for counteracting the decline in sterling exchange a fund could be earmarked for the payins of our grain bills. Fortunately for Canada at this time of world crisis, there is at the head of her affairs a statesman who has the true conception of her place, rights and duties in the Empire, and at the same time has an exceptional aptitude for public business, which he can be depended upon to administer on sound lines. Sir Robert Borden's visit to England will prove to be of very great immediate and permanent value to Canada. British buying power, British carrying power and British sea power are all at our grain sellers' service.

Fine Watches for School Teachers

You teachers compel promptness in your pupils, and your own work can not be carried out right unless you adhere to time schedules. No experienced teacher depends on the school room clock. A watch is a necessity if accurate time is to be kept in the room. Women teachers find Wrist Watches most convenient. The time is always before them, and there is no danger of losing the watch, or dropping it, as when it is placed on the desk. Teachers will find Sharpe's the best place at which to buy a watch because only good watches are dealt in and prices represent the greatest possible watch value. Come in and examine watches.

To the Boy Scout whom I consider has sent in the most correct sentence, I shall award a GLENDID WATCH as First Prize.

When framing a picture it is a good plan to paste a piece of brown paper over the back to keep out the dust. If this is done by pasting the paper in the ordinary way, a lot of creases will be left, and the paper will not fit properly. A better method is to wet the paper, all round. Now paste these edges, lay the paper over the back of the picture, and allow it to dry. When dry, the paper will be quite tight and smooth.

Nearly all of the property and collateral of the estate goes directly to Mrs. Rowley and the two infant sons, John William Rowley and Roger Rowley. "Sudacoga Hall," the Sandy Hill residence of the late Mr. Rowley, goes to Mrs. Rowley. It is valued at $60,000. St. Luke's and Lady Grey Hospitals, Ottawa, each receive $1,000, and the Synod of Ottawa receives a like amount to be divided among the following four funds: Mission, Widows and Orphans, Clerical Separation and Divinive Students. The parish of Christ Church Cathedral, Ottawa, also receives a bequest of $1,000. Mrs. Rowley, the widow, is a daughter of the late Chief Justice Sir Wm. J. Ritchie.

Probate of the last will of Miss Mary Gormley, late of this city, has been granted to Frances J. Donnelly and Joseph M. Donnelly, the executors named in the will. Dr. J. Roy Campbell appeared for the Board of Health. Fined $20. John G. Sperdakes, Charlotte street, charged with the like offence, was fined $20. Sydney Hart and Margaret Hazelwood appeared on the charge of bigamy. Rev. Dr. David Hutchinson, on the witness stand, testified that he married the couple as Charles William Harrison and Gertrude Jackson, in December, 1914. They were remanded. A wife beater was told by the magistrate that the best course to pursue was to let him go, on condition that he enlist, so that he might kick and abuse the Germans to his liking. The man was given a chance to talk the matter over with his wife.

Expresses His Thanks. The Board of Trade is in receipt of a letter from Mr. A. TRADING WITH THE ENEMY IS REPORTED Official statement that Hides are being transhipped to Canada through German firms - Caution necessary. Information has come to the Department of Trade and Commerce that hides from Uruguay are being shipped to United States ports for transhipment to Canada through German firms in Uruguay, which constitutes virtually trading with the enemy. It is very distinct that Canadian firms conducting business transactions in Uruguay should do so through British or neutral firms rather than through the agency of German firms, however much these may be disguised by working through intermediate sources. The office of the High Commissioner for Canada in London, has also forwarded to the Department a letter, which was sent to an English firm and which would appear from its internal evidence to be probably one copy of a circular sent to a number of firms in Canada, offering the services of a Dutch house of forwarding agents for the shipment of Dutch goods to the Dominion to replace goods formerly obtained from enemy countries. The Dutch firm in question are, however, known to the British Board of Trade to be acting as agents for a number of German traders, and it would appear possible that they may be endeavoring to export enemy goods to Canada under the guise of Dutch manufacturers.

BOARD OF TRADE PARTY VISITS THE MISTAKE. Viewed boring operations under direction of Engineer Maxwell - Also at Hog Island. The following account of a visit made under the auspices of the president of the Board of Trade to that portion of the St. John River where borings are being made in order to determine the future of the possible foundation for bridges was contributed to The Standard by R. E. Armstrong, secretary of the Board of Trade. Upon the invitation of President Maxwell, a party of gentlemen from this city visited Gorham's Bluff on the St. John river yesterday to get a close personal inspection of the suggested crossings for the Valley Railway in that vicinity. The party included Alina A. Wetmore, C. E. Foss, C. E. and R. E. Armstrong. The route followed runs via Gondola Point and cable ferry to the opposite shore, thence by highway a distance of about six miles through a most picturesque country to the bluff, the entire journey consuming about one and a half hours. At Gorham's Bluff the members of the party were met by S. L. Peters, who placed a motor boat at their disposal and escorted them to the Shampier wharf, around Shampier Bluff into Kingston Creek, and afterwards to the point on the St. John river where the local government is having borings made under the direction of Engineer Maxwell. The day was clear and the visitors had a splendid opportunity of inspecting the crossing. The water surveyed by Mr. Maxwell and of looking over the Hog Island crossing suggested by Mr. Peters. Both are quite close to each other and both seem to possess almost equal merit, though the Hog Island crossing is more direct and saving in mileage is made by the curvy route. The Maxwell survey runs from the west side of the river, down the narrow tongue of land known as "The Mistake" to a point almost directly opposite Gorham's Bluff. The water level at this point is now being maintained for about 500 feet. Borings, which began at the shore of the bluff, are now being made to ascertain the character of the bottom. So far the bottom consists of pebbles and boulders and is pronounced excellent. It is expected that a softer bottom will be encountered as the borers approach the Hog Island crossing. It will take about another month to complete the borings at this point. Upon reaching the shore at Gorham's, the Maxwell line crosses the point of the bluff, a distance of about a quarter of a mile, then it runs across the half mile of comparatively shallow water which separates it from Shampier's landing. From thence it will reach Kingston Creek, either by tunneling through 500 feet of rock, or by a direct approach to the Shampier Bluff, a mile to the eastward. This would necessitate a curvature of perhaps ten per cent, but it would save at least $150,000 in tunneling. From the bottom of the line of the Intercolonial the route has not been determined. The Hog Island crossing advocated by Mr. Peters, is just a little north of the Maxwell route. It avoids Gorham's Bluff and runs straight across the Hog Island to Shampier's. The water distance from the island to Shampier's Landing is 7,000 feet approximately and the greatest depth is thirty-nine feet. The nature of the bottom is not known positively. The visitors were impressed with the importance of a thorough survey being made of these two crossings, both with respect to bottom conditions, but also with respect to the cost of the crossings. The determination of the route to be followed from Kingston Creek to the Intercolonial line. The information they gathered was very favorable to the eastern route.

APPLES OF GOOD SIZE ASKED FROM CANADA. Only better kind wanted in Great Britain - Would Command ready sale. The current bulletin issued by the department of Trade and Commerce, Ottawa, states as follows with reference to the market for Canadian apples in Great Britain. English-grown apples are now reaching the local markets and as predicted in former reports, owing to the long prolonged drought during the growing period, the fruit is exceedingly small in size. While supplies are fairly plentiful, the quality is anything but what is to be desired and the apples are only suitable for cooking purposes. In view of these circumstances, local merchants are all of the opinion that good full-sized apples, more especially the suitable for dessert purposes, will command a ready sale this year and supplies of this class of fruit from Canada will be most welcome in the near future.

PATRIOTIC AUCTION AND OTHER CAMPAIGN ARE NOT TO CLASH. Central Committee interested in increasing Patriotic Fund discuss proposed canvas. At Tuesday's meeting of the Central Committee having in charge the patriotic campaign in aid of the Patriotic Fund, it was decided to commence a house to house canvas of the city early next week, the county to be taken up later, or as soon as the city has been finished. It was also arranged that fraternal societies and other organizations in St. John be requested to assist in this campaign by becoming responsible for wards set apart for them. Since this announcement was made there appears to have arisen some difference of opinion as to the wisdom of this course, and several of the organizations have already expressed the opinion that the immediate launching of this campaign may not prove as productive as would be the case were it postponed for a short time. One body, which has undertaken a similar work in connection with another movement, feels that it may not engage in both at once with satisfaction to its own members, or to the institutions which it desires to aid. It is believed that the Patriotic Auction, promoted by the five chapters of the I. O. O. E., with the assistance of the Elks, Knights of Columbus, and the Rotary Club, and which is already well under way, should be given every opportunity of success, and that nothing whatever should be done to affect it in any way. There is an opinion that people will respond most generously to the appeals for this Auction, and indeed they are already doing, and that later they will exhibit equal generosity in the call for funds which the Patriotic Association contemplates making, but that they may not contribute in the same measure to both movements at the same time. This feeling will, in all probability, lead to a further discussion of the campaign at a meeting which is to be held today.

OPTIMISTIC IN REVIEW OF CONDITIONS IN DOMINION

President of Reid-Newfoundland Company in Interview given in Newfoundland tells with pride what Canada and the Ancient Colony have done in support of Empire during War, strain of which country stands well—Hopeful future.

(From "The News," St. John's Newfoundland, August 31st, 1915.)
Mr. W. D. Reid, President of the Reid-Newfoundland Company, arrived here Saturday, after spending some months in Canada and the United States.
Dealing with the chief topic of the hour—the war—as it affects Canada,
Mr. Reid said:
"The unflinching determination to see the war through to a finish—and that finish the end of German militarism—is typical of the spirit of Canada as a whole. From one end of the Dominion to the other the progress of recruiting especially emphasizes Sir Robert Borden's declarations to English audiences.
"It must occur to everyone," said
Mr. Reid, "that the presence of the Canadian Prime Minister in Great Britain has had a tremendous significance. He is the visible emblem of the British spirit in the Heart of the Empire. Canada, as well as other Overseas Dominions, realizes to the full that the progress of civilization, as we know it, and the unhampered liberty of the citizen, as we conceive it, are hanging in the balance. And this realization is sinking deeper and deeper each day into the hearts of the people of Canada and spurring them on to greater material efforts to carry on the war. To this end Sir Wilfrid Laurier is assisting by patriotic appeals in the Province of Quebec.
"When it is considered that Canada is contributing half a million of dollars to the cause of the allies and has in view the sending of troops across the Atlantic to the number of 150,000 and as many more as are necessary, the magnitude of the Dominion's efforts is apparent.
"Of the troops already sent to the fighting area by Canada between ten and twelve thousand have been incapacitated through death, wounds and captivity. These losses are sustained without a trace of slackening in the effort of the people of Canada to rally more men to the colors in order to replace those who have been incapacitated through death, wounds and captivity. The aggregate number at the battle front. I consider this a marvelous example of fortitude and perseverance on the part of a non-military people.

Canada's Prospects.

"Besides the money pouring into Canada from American sources for investment, there is the business of manufacturing war munitions for the allies. There are now 160 factories in Canada turning out shells. I have seen a calculation, giving in detail the items which go to make up the grand aggregate of $300,000,000 of war orders, as well as the further statement that this tremendous business will be doubled within the next six months.
"When I left Canada it was stated on good authority that 28,000,000 pounds of bacon and cheese had been ordered by the Russian government.
Another item in the same order was 2,000,000 bags of oats. The shell orders to that date amounted to $152,- 000,000. The Canada Car & Foundry Company alone are under contract to furnish 11,000,000 shells. In order to fulfill this undertaking the Canadian industry has had to make arrangements with American firms in order to help them out.
"The Department of Natural Resources of the Canadian Pacific Railway looks for a wheat crop of about 225,000,000 bushels in the Northwest.
There are over 150,000 cars ready to undertake the transportation of this great crop to the east. In certain districts of Saskatchewan the expectation is for one hundred bushels of oats to the acre.
"So you see Canada is in an exceptionally strong position."
To the question as to whether or not there was any considerable talk in the Dominion of Canada about Confederation with Newfoundland, Mr.
Reid said he had heard nothing of the kind.
Mr. Reid stated that the total contributions received by the Canadian Militia Department for machine guns amounted to $2,000,000—the equivalent of 2,000 guns. These guns are of the same type as those furnished by one section of the Newfoundland contin-gent, and their utility at the front is well recognized.

Canada's Part.

"Canada has done nobly; and Sir Robert Borden's emphatic utterances in London that his country is ready to contribute her last man and her last dollar must have a tremendous moral effect. His words cannot fail to give comfort to the allies and demonstrate to the enemy that the link which binds the Motherland and her outlying Dominions is one which cannot well be regarded as anything else than a mighty power to thwart the aims of German militarism.
"Canada is spending hundreds of millions of dollars in this war. She has demonstrated her capacity to do it and still keep up her industrial extension and agricultural development, you know, farm products are as good as gold at this time.
"The prosperity of the Maritime Provinces of Canada is almost unexpected. Take the case of lumbering in Nova Scotia. At the present time it is being carried forward on a scale which exceeds anything in the history of the province. The steel and coal industries are not languishing.
"In the Province of Quebec much of the unemployment in the cities and larger towns has been met by a return of factory labor to the farms.
"Montreal alone has contributed between seventeen and twenty thousand troops.
"The crops in the Province of Quebec are above the average.
"Montreal, which is the financial centre of Canada, contributes a striking item to the strengthening of the general situation. Thirty-one representative Canadian stocks have risen in market value almost $100,000,000 thus far in 1915. The shock of war, in a business sense, is being dissipated by the rise in prices. Canadian securities of nearly all kinds are good investments. The present price is low.
The Americans are taking advantage of these conditions. They know a "good thing" when they see it. They are buying Canadian securities as never before, and in my opinion, they will continue to do so.

Investors Look This Way

"When it is considered that, at the present time, the balance of trade in favor of the United States is more than a billion dollars for the eight months to the end of July, it is not hard to figure out upon what basis the American investor is turning his eyes northward and sending his money in the same direction.
"The American Review of Reviews for August calculates that another year of the war will give the United States a balance of trade of one billion and a half of dollars for the current fiscal year.
"The New York Times of August 14, having regard to these figures says:
"There is coming forward the largest cereal crop the United States has ever produced, with a premium in the world on food stuffs; we have a potentiality in the manufactures required by war that so far as anybody can see is unlimited."
"The same paper asserts the United States has more gold than it can find through various sections of the Province of Quebec, with the need of a fertilizer such as will be manufactured in Newfoundland. In his opinion a market lies ready at the Ancient Colony's very door.

"Speaking of aviation and the war,
a subject in which Mr. Reid is particularly interested because one of his sons is in that branch of the service, he said Canada was awakening to the idea and was making preparations to manufacture and furnish flying machines of acceptable type, thereby imitating the example of donations made for aerial work by citizens of Newfoundland.
"Wherever I have been in Canada," said Mr. Reid, in conclusion, "the patriotic response of Newfoundland to the needs of the Empire—in naval forces, soldiers and other aids—in the prosecution of the war has been the subject of favorable and enthusiastic comment.
"The prompt action of the Ancient

NEWCASTLE MAN LOSES HEAVILY BY FIRE

Newcastle, Sept. 8.—Mr. P. Hennessy, wholesale and retail grocer, had a very heavy loss by fire in the barn behind his store and warehouse, early yesterday morning. Fire was noticed by one of the occupants of the dwelling, which is in same building as the store, about 2:20 o'clock and the firemen were on the scene in a very few minutes. The fire started in or near the manger of the barn, where everything was known to be all right late in the evening before. A large quantity of hay, a wagon and goods were destroyed. The loss was from $800 to $1,000 and there is no insurance.

CRITICAL TIME OF WOMAN'S LIFE

From 40 to 50 Years of Age.
How It May Be Passed
in Safety.

So Wellington, B. C.—"For a year during the change of life I was all run down. I was really too weak to walk and was very dependent and thought I was going to die, but after taking Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier my health and strength returned. I am very thankful to you and I have advised several women who suffered as I did to try your remedies. You may publish this if you wish."—Mrs.
DAVID R. MORRIS, South Wellington,
Vancouver Island, B. C.
No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. We know of no other medicine which has such a record of success as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For more than 30 years it has been the standard remedy for woman's ills such as inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains and nervous prostration, and we believe it is unequalled for women during the period of change of life.
If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman,

The Goddess
AMBLING in Arcady,—following the prophesies, Celestia,—listening to her innocent words and watching her unworldly manner of treating matters shocking to the prude. I believe that if Gouverneur Morris had made "The Goddess" a sermon it would go down in ecclesiastical history as one of the most impelling and soul-stirring appeals for the right, ever heard.
I believe that if Anita Stewart were a truly evangelist, she would number her converts by the hundred thousands.
I believe that if the Vitagraph Organization had painted a picture, it would be an eternal shrine for the pious.
I believe that if this paper had intended "The Goddess" for propaganda literature it would lift this city to a higher exciting and at times bewildering—so that when you

APATHY PRONOUNCED IN YESTERDAY'S TRADING WITH MARKET IRREGULAR

Steels one of few bright spots in day's transactions, Bethlehem jumping to 302—No new developments in the Foreign Exchange situation.

New York, Sept. 8.—Apathy, resulting mainly from lack of patronage, was again the most pronounced feature of today's market session. Important stocks, that is to say, investment issues, moved irregularly on light offerings, few fluctuating more than a point, while specialties, chiefly war shares, were moved back and forth as so many pawns in the speculative game.

There were several exceptions to this rule, notably Bethlehem Steel and Crucible Steel, the latter showing a maximum advance of five.

Crucible led all the industrials in activity except United States Steel, its rising being accompanied by a variant of the old rumor of additional contracts and buying by banking interests for control. United States Steel was under mild pressure until the final hour, when it advanced to 75 1/2, a gain of three-quarters on heavy buying which ranged from 1,000 to over 3,000 shares in individual lots. The entire list became more active and comparatively strong towards the end, the excellent government crop report infusing renewed interest and causing short covering.

Among the few stocks whose strength was traceable to definite conditions was Western Union Telegraph, which rose two points to 77, its best price since 1912, on an advance of the dividend from a four to five per cent. basis. Advances dealing with the steel and iron trade were decidedly optimistic, including some substantial new orders for railway equipment. The condition of the industry is summed up in the statement that new records for production are being made.

Total sales amounted to 425,000 shares. Foreign exchange ceased to be a primary consideration, although rates on London moved uncertainly. Official figures issued in connection with the arrival of the third consignment of gold from London via Halifax, were much below recent estimates.

Bond trading was distinguished for the reduced offerings from abroad, these being less than fifty per cent. of yesterday's. Total sales, par value, aggregated $2,755,000.

CLOSING LETTER OF N.Y. MARKET BY E. & C. RANDOLPH

(McDOUGALL & COWANS.)
New York, Sept. 8.—The rather violent advance in Bethlehem Steel, Cru and Stu eliminated the short interest in those stocks and when that occurred those stocks reacted checking an advance in the general list at end of the day. The government crop report made an excellent showing, indicating a yield of 322 million bushels of spring wheat and a total of 981 million bushels for both spring and winter wheat combined, this being nearly 100 million in excess of last year, heretofore the high record. The railroad stocks gave signs of responding to these very good agricultural prospects and what they imply in the way of tonnage for the railroads, but the advance was checked temporarily by the reaction in Cru and other specialties. Sales 415,000. Bonds $2,491,000.

UNLOADING GOLD SENT BY BRITAIN

TRANSFERRING GOLD FROM TRUCKS TO GOVERNMENT VAULTS
Fifty-five million dollars of British gold was shipped to the United States Sub-Treasury in New York recently. The money was sent to J. P. Morgan & Co. by the British government to strengthen the credit of the Allies in the United States. It was transported from an unnamed European port to Canada on a British super-dreadnought, and from there, under a guard of thirty-eight men armed with rifles, it was brought to New York on a special train. Each of the gold filled boxes was so heavy it required two men to lift it. Representatives of Great Britain, the firm of Morgan and the American Express Company checked the gold and securities as they were carried into the vaults.

Assessment Commission Hears Citizens' Views

About Twenty in Attendance at Open Meeting of Commission—Labor Representatives Favor Decrease in Tax on Workingmen, but Approve of Head Tax.

There was a fair response to the invitation given by the City Assessment Commission to the general public to attend and give views on matters affecting taxation, about twenty citizens being present last night in the committee room of the Common Council.

J. B. Jones, president of the commission, presided. An afternoon session was held at which N. C. Cameron, on behalf of the Retail Merchants' Association, T. H. Estabrooks and E. B. LeRoy spoke on various matters concerning the subject in hand. Among other speakers last night were E. J. Tighe, C. Stevens, J. B. Jones, Hugh Beck, J. L. Sugrue, J. Sharpe and J. Scott.

E. J. Tighe said that the workingmen of St. John were taxed higher than those of any other city of importance in Canada. Figures could be produced showing that in cities like Toronto, Halifax and Winnipeg the demand upon the workers by taxation was much less than that upon those here. He advocated the taxation of vacant land, the owners of which, he claimed, were only holding on to secure increased value, in the meantime escaping liability for contributing to necessary revenue. He suggested a $2 poll tax and as low a rate as possible for the workers, who, he said, at any time, were only able to make both ends meet. He was not adverse, he remarked later, to the imposition of a head tax as being a necessary incident of taxation. This tax, he said, was exacted in other cities and should be collected here. Whatever action was taken by the commission, he remarked, it should be borne in mind that the wages of the working classes in St. John were at all times uncertain and that even under best conditions it was not easy to pay out a comparatively large sum under the head of taxation.

ARE YOU READY FOR SEPT. 20?

Committees from local societies promoting Patriotic Auction will start work on that date.

While a few donations have been received for the Patriotic Auction, the articles taken are only those to be devoted to the preliminary details of the big scheme to raise $50,000 for the Patriotic Fund. The active canvassing in general throughout the city and country districts will not begin until September 20—This will afford plenty of time to all to prepare for the coming of the solicitors in the interests of the auction, and will allow all citizens to decide as to what form their contribution to this praiseworthy endeavor will take.

The city canvass for the most part will be done by the Daughters of the Empire. Up to the present one or two of the smaller committees of this energetic organization have been busy in soliciting donations which will be of service in connection with the office work, and the general preliminary of the stupendous undertaking. On September 20 the general body of workers will start out on their whirlwind campaign throughout the city, while members of the Elks, Knights of Columbus and Rotary Club will make a tour of the rural districts within a radius of sixty miles of St. John.

After September 20, and up to and during the period of the auction, October 4 to 9, delivery of the goods donated will be made, each gift being individually acknowledged through the system now being arranged with the aid of donation slips, duplicate forms, delivery tags, and other material. This it will be seen that the general mass of citizens have fully ten days, until the 20th of the month, to make their minds up as to what their gift will comprise, and the expectation is that the contributions will be most liberal because of the elaborate nature of the scheme, and the deserving object, $50,000 in a week for the Patriotic Fund.

So carefully has the organization for the auction been arranged that the committees are all prepared to begin their canvass at any time, but it has been thought advisable in order to allow all to familiarize themselves with the movement to wait until Sept. 20 before soliciting is undertaken. The road maps for the outside districts have been completed by F. W. Coombs and M. D. Coll, and details completed for the solicitors. It will be verified, while as to the city, the Daughters of the Empire have divided the districts into seven areas, all of which will be thoroughly canvassed so that every citizen will have an opportunity to contribute. Meanwhile, will be prepared for the visit of the solicitors when they open their campaign and be ready to give as generously as possible that the achievement they are attempting may be successful?

Two arc lamps have been placed on the new bridge at the Falls, and these will be used for illuminating the driveway until the permanent lights are installed. One arc is placed in the centre of the bridge and the other at the western end. The eastern approach is lighted by a lamp in Douglass avenue.

Suspension Bridge Passing.

The work of demolishing the old Suspension Bridge is progressing rapidly, and already the cables have been stripped for a considerable distance. The contractors started at the centre and worked towards the both shores. It is expected that the cables will be removed within the next week or so. One of the anchorage piers at the western end of the bridge has been partly broken. The material in it was found to be in good condition. The operations of the dismantling crew is watched with interest by large crowds who take position on the new bridge.

Lieut. Teed Home.

Lieut. Hugh Teed is in the city with his brother, John F. H. Teed, of Sydney street. Lieut. Teed is a survivor of the battle of Ypres, in which he was wounded by shrapnel, and later became a victim of poisonous gas used by the Germans. He was invalided home, and returned to Canada, arriving in Dorchester on August 30, where he was given a fine welcome. He will speak tonight at the recruiting meeting in St. Andrew's rink. Lieut. Teed came to the city yesterday and will remain for some time. In conversation with The Standard last night he said he had nothing at present to say concerning his experience in Europe.

Two Splendid Attractions.

Old-time crowds greeted Mary Pickford in "Fanchon The Cricket," at the Imperial yesterday—a charming play. Many people thought this picture was the popular little actress's masterpiece, it certainly was delightful. It will be concluded with today's showings. The Dancing Marr, too, are a great attraction. Elaborately staged with three settings of scenery and presenting a programme of dances fifteen minutes long this act is the acme of grace and tuneful music. Madame Mar and her two children, Carletta and Bobby, are a well known vaudeville act and play the best houses. The mother is a renowned dancing teacher in the States. Tomorrow the second chapter of Emerson Hough's "The Broken Coin" will be put on.

Style and Comfort.

The new serge dresses being displayed at F. A. Dykeman & Co.'s store are remarkable for their pretty styles and the serviceable nature of the garments. They are made from materials that will give the greatest of wear and comfort and yet they have an appearance which will make the wearer feel that they are perfectly dressed at all times. These dresses are sold at very attractive prices from $7.50 to $12.00. They are also showing a lot of velvet dresses very stylishly made at $10.00 each.

Vacant Lands Should Pay.

C. Stevens said that he was in entire agreement with the idea that owners of vacant lands should be taxed. Much of this land, he remarked, is held by speculators and others who should contribute their share towards the civic upkeep. He suggested a poll tax of $2, with total exemption in cases where the income or wages is proven to be under $700 a year. This plan, he said, had been found to work well in Alberta and other centres.

The Worker's Income.

J. Sharpe said that in his view any law for the readjustment of taxes should be so framed as not to disfranchise the worker because of non-payment at a fixed rate. He should have the benefits of the franchise so long as he is held liable for any sum levied on him as a tax. He pointed out the difficulty of framing any system of taxation upon the basis of income, for, he said, "the working man has no income."

MAIN STREET WORK PROGRESSING WELL

Roadway from Douglas Avenue to Adelaide Road almost completed.

The street construction work now being carried on by the city on the south side of Main street, commencing at the Avenue is progressing rapidly and the Public Works Department has a large crew of men steadily working on the job. Yesterday afternoon at five o'clock the concrete laying had been completed as far as No. 5 engine house, excepting for one small strip and workmen were engaged in laying a concrete sidewalk in front of the engine house. Excavation work has advanced as far as Adelaide street, and it is expected that the street will be completed to this point by the end of next week. The concrete block laid by the men of Commissioner Potts' department over the roadway of the street railway still remains and no effort so far has been made to remove it.

FORMER MEMBER OF 8TH HUSSARS

Lieut.-Col. Leckie now Brigadier-General of 3rd Highland Brigade.

News has just arrived that Lieut.-Colonel R. G. Edwards Leckie, C. M. G., commanding the Sixteenth Battalion "Canadian Scottish" of the first overseas contingent, has been appointed Brigadier-General, and is to command the Third or Highland Brigade, made up of the 12th, 14th, 15th and 16th Battalions, all of which did splendid work at the battle of Langemarck last April. In this he succeeds Brig.-Gen. Turner, V. C., who has been given command of the second division, now training in England.

Lieut.-Col. Leckie's promotion also means a step in rank for his brother, Major J. Edwards Leckie, D. S. O., who has been second in command of the 16th Battalion since its formation. He will now get command of it with rank of Lieut.-Colonel.

Both are well known in this province, being sons of the late R. G. Leckie, formerly general manager of the Springhill collieries and of the Londonderry Iron Works. General Leckie was at one time an officer in the Eighth Hussars, under Lieut.-Col. Markham, while his brother was a frequent visitor to St. John.

A portrait of General Leckie appeared in our issue of 24th ult. in the group which showed the late lamented Captain Ralph Markham and others.

Pork and beef coming in as well as many potatoes — Good passenger business.

Business conditions on the river yesterday were exceedingly good. All the steamers arriving at Indian town carried heavy cargoes and the Majestic brought her largest cargo this season, from the Washademoak district. The Victoria and Champlain were equally well laden and all had fair passenger lists.

The Champlain had among her cargo eighteen hogs ranging in weight up to 300 lbs., and several quarters of beef. Potatoes, pumpkins, apples, corn and blackberries were among the arrivals yesterday. Outgoing cargoes on the May Queen and Oconee were also heavy.
