SAD DROWNING ACCIDENT AT WHARF

One of the saddest accidents which has stirred Campbellton in recent years occurred here, Wednesday night, Sept. 18th when James Cantwell lost his life by falling over the government wharf and being drowned.

No one appears to have been near when the accident happened and it was not until Mr. Cantwell failed to return Wednesday night or Thursday that fears were aroused, and it was not until his hat was found floating at the government wharf that it was thought possible that he had fallen over the wharf and grappling was commenced for the body which was recovered Monday evening about five o'clock and taken to D. E. Graham's undertaking rooms.

The inquest was held on Monday evening before Dr. A. Martin, coroner, who had sworn in as a jury John McDonald, foreman, Messrs James Woods, S. A. Poirier, J. Pichette, Lavoie, Wellington and Henderson. Evidence was given as to the finding of the body, and the inquest was adjourned to allow of a post mortem examination.

Mr. Cantwell was a respected resident of the town. A very quiet, steady man, who for years was fireman at the town electric light station, which job he gave up when the steam plant was closed down. Since that he has been working for the I.C.R. as a cement mixer for the station walks here and at Fredericton. He had just returned from Fredericton a few days previous to the accident, and was awaiting the arrival of a pass to proceed to Chatham to take charge of the concrete walk there.

The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon, interment being in the B. Cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs Richard Murray, John Allward, George McRae, Bert O'Donnell, James Woods Sr., and James McNaughton.

He leaves to mourn his loss Mrs. B. McLean and Mrs. A. Anderson (sisters), Thomas and William Cantwell (brothers) Monte and James Cantwell (sons) and one daughter, Mrs. H. Hachey.

OUR CIRCULATION GETS GOOD BOOST

Nearly Five Hundred Names Added to List in Recent Contest.

The most successful subscription contest ever held by a Campbellton paper was concluded recently when the Graphic's Piano Contest ended.

This contest which lasted about eight weeks had a whirlwind finish Saturday and resulted in adding nearly five hundred new names to the Graphic's already large list of subscribers. Today the Graphic has a circulation of just a little over 2500, the largest circulation ever enjoyed by a Campbellton paper.

Despite the fact that expenses in all departments of the paper have increased in the past five years, the advertising rate has remained practically the same, but with this large increase, which we expect to augment by at least 350 more in the next two months, we think we are now entitled to an increase, consequently on Oct. 1st our new rate card will go into effect. This rate card is now being prepared and will be sent to every advertiser in a few days.

We know our advertisers will appreciate the increased service the Graphic is giving.

SEPTEMBER WEDDING

An interesting event took place at the home of Mr. Chas. Alexander Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock, when Mr. George Elton Farrar of Regina, Sask., was united in marriage to Miss Anna Edna Alexander, youngest daughter of Mrs. A. E. Alexander, of this place in the presence of relatives and immediate friends of the contracting parties. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. P. Drumm, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

The bride who was unattended was given away by her brother Mr. Chas. Alexander, and looked charming in a beautiful gown of white silk crepe metre over satin, and wore a bridal veil with orange blossoms, and carried a beautiful shower bouquet of roses, orchids and maiden hair fern. The wedding march was rendered by Mr. R. M. Hope, brother-in-law of the bride.

After the wedding supper the bride and groom left on the Ocean Limited to visit Montreal, Toronto and other Canadian cities, after which Mr. and Mrs. Farrar will reside in Regina, Sask.

Both the bride and groom received many valuable presents among them being a chest of silver from the parents of the groom and also a chest of silver from the firm of Messrs. E. & S. Currie, Toronto. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome diamond and sapphire ring.

The young people are exceedingly popular. The groom was formerly manager for the firm of A. G. Adams & Co., here. The Graphic extends its best wishes.

SHEEP SALE AT BATHURST

The sale of thoroughbred sheep is advertised to take place at Bathurst on October 11th at 10 o'clock a. m. Many of the farmers of Restigouche have been interested in this sale as it affords them a splendid opportunity to secure pure bred rams and ewes at reasonable prices. The sale is under the direction of the Dominion Sheep Breeders Association with the co-operation of the Dominion Free Stock Branch and all the sheep have been especially selected with a view to stimulating and improving the sheep industry. It was at first thought that this sale would take place at Campbellton and the Board of Trade used every endeavor to have this plan carried out but Bathurst was chosen as being the most central for the three counties of Restigouche, Gloucester and Northumberland. The other places chosen for these sales in New Brunswick are Moncton, St. John, Sussex and Fredericton.

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD
The Presbyterian Synod of the Maritime Provinces will meet next week at St. Andrew's church, Pictou. The Synod includes New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and the British West Indies, as well as the Maritime Provinces, and it is expected that there will be as many as 350 delegates present, including pastors and representative elders from various congregations. His Honor Judge Forbes of St. John will be one of the delegates. Rev. W. P. Archibald of Springfield, N. S., is the retiring moderator and his probable successor is Rev. Anderson Rogers of Halifax, who has been nominated by a number of the presbyteries.

DEATH OF A WELL KNOWN RESIDENT

Geo. A. Fawcett succumbs to long illness on Wednesday evening.

It was with feelings of deepest sorrow that the people of Campbellton learned of the death of Mr. George A. Fawcett on Wednesday night. He had been in ill health for a considerable time, retiring from active service on the I.C.R. in May. Some time ago he was removed to Montreal for operating upon, but nothing was done and he was removed home again. Always bright and hopeful he was nevertheless gradually becoming weaker and passed away surrounded by his family and dearest friends.

George Albert Fawcett was born in Petitcodiac on January 23rd 1856. When at the age of 14 being the sole support of his widowed mother and nine younger children he entered the employment of the I. C. R. in the track department Petitcodiac. In 1876 he was transferred to Charlottetown as section foreman and in the same year married Isabella Currie daughter of the late Ronald Currie of Charlottetown.

About 1880 he was appointed to Campbellton section and was in charge of work trains, etc., between Campbellton and Newcastle under track master James Paterson. In January 1905 Mr. Paterson was transferred to St. Flavie district and Mr. Fawcett appointed as his successor, which position he held until his retirement in May owing to illness. He leaves a widow, four daughters, Mrs. W. H. Miller, Mrs. R. B. Keith, Mrs. R. B. Chaytor and Mrs. F. W. Campbell, one son, Robert R. of the mechanical dept., I.C.R., Campbellton.

In June 1908 Mr. Fawcett won the Graphic prize of a morris chair as the most popular railroad man.

The funeral will take place tomorrow (Saturday) from his late residence King Street at 2 p. m., and the body will be taken charge of by the Masons of Campbellton Lodge, the deceased having been a member for over thirty years and a well beloved member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church.

Some nominations have been received and the names of these will be announced next week, so get your nominations in now and let every one start level. SOLDIER'S FINANCEE IS TWENTY-TWO Coincidences in Bade n-Powell's Romance.

London, Sept. 22—Two engagements announced this week have attracted particular attention. One was that of Lieut. Gen. Sir Robert Baden-Powell. The hero of Mafeking is nearly 56, and his fiancée, Miss Olive Soames, about 22. Gen. Baden-Powell, in talking about his romance, said:

"The affair is not so new as persons imagine. As a matter of fact Miss Soames was travelling in the West Indies when I went there in January, and we were in America on Washington's birthday, Feb. 22, which, curiously enough, is the date of my fiancée's birthday, and of my own. I well remember how we were both interested in the little axes which they tell for war in the buttonhole in the United States on that day."

The other engagement is that of Major Clive Wigram, the popular assistant private secretary and equerry of King George, to Miss Nora Chamberlain, the daughter of Sir Neville Chamberlain.

PROSPECTIVE BRIDES FROM SCOTLAND

Twenty-Seven Came Out in Hesperian.

Montreal, Sept. 26—Fourteen weddings took place in this city last night and this morning following the arrival in port Tuesday of the good ship Hesperian and twenty-seven prospective brides from across the sea. Nearly all the record arrival of brides were Scottish, bound for every part of the Dominion, from Montreal to Vancouver. Fourteen of the impatient swains could not wait for the choice of their hearts to join them in their western homes, came to Montreal to meet their fiancées and were quietly wedded here.

The fact that the Hesperian passed five icebergs well inside the Straits of Belle Isle could not cool the enthusiasm of the brides to be, over the new land of promise to which they were bound.

A DESTRUCTIVE INSECT

One of the most destructive of African insects is the white ant. This strange little creature, well under an inch in length, erects huge heaps in which to dwell. In some places, particularly in the Congo, these heaps convert an otherwise flat country into a hilly one.

They rise from 20 to 50 feet and more in height. Invariably they are crowned with several bamboo trees, which often attain a height of another 20 to 50 feet. Then the heaps are often covered with beautiful ferns and the choicest of wild tropical flowers.

As to the ants themselves they are most destructive, destroying everything except iron and steel. They go about in vast armies, and in a single night the damage they will do is almost incredible. They will enter huts or tents and attack everything that is not made of iron. Curiously enough, they only destroy that portion of the object that is not exposed to the air. For instance, they eat away the soles of boots, leaving the uppers standing in their place. It is only when you come to pick up the object that you find it has been destroyed.

AUSTRALIA AND IMPERIAL DEFENCE

London, Sept. 26—A special despatch to the Daily Mail from Melbourne states that Premier Borden's speech at Toronto, together with reports that Canada intends to make an offer of three super dreadnoughts as an emergency contribution to the Imperial navy, have aroused much attention in Australia, and Australians are now realizing that they must no longer lean on Great Britain, but must stand on an equal footing, shoulder to shoulder with the mother country and other dominions in defence of the whole Empire.

There is a genuine dread of the growth of Japanese influence in the Pacific, and though little is said on the subject, feeling is undoubtedly strong that Australia should show her readiness to play her part alongside with New Zealand and the United States of America, in policing the Pacific. Australians are, in fact, willing to bear taxation for these purposes. Premier Fisher favors biennial personal consultations with British military and naval authorities in the same manner as was done last year.

"I believe it is now recognized by the best thinkers that New Zealand will eventually join in one Australian unit of defence," he added.

PARLIAMENT CALL A SURPRISE MOVE

Session Promises to be a Busy One.

NO REDISTRIBUTION BILL

Postponement of This Measure Will Delay Necessity of an Appeal to the Election.

Ottawa, Sept. 23.—The summoning of Parliament in November is regarded at Ottawa as evidence of a sudden awakening by the government to a realization that there is a good deal of work to be done and that it will take much time to put it through. Up to the middle of last week the ministers were all of the opinion that January would be plenty soon enough for the opening. They figured that this would give them ample time to formulate their policy on the navy and to prepare the sessional programme.

With these ideas in their minds the ministers have been following a most leisurely course since their return from Europe. There has been a succession of banquets and official visits to various parts of Canada, but few cabinet councils and very little business. Last week the ministers got together and after considering the situation decided that they had better get busy for every indication pointed to more strenuous and more lengthy session than the last, which was to energetic for comfort.

Railroads, banks, insurance companies and other companies have a large amount of private legislation to present, and they have been urging an early start with law-making so their bills may get through.

It was also thought that to delay the opening beyond the regular November date would strengthen the opinion in the country that the government could not make up its mind on the naval question and was lacking decision.

Among the questions which will likely come before parliament during the session are the navy, the bank act, redistribution, tariff revision, the transfer of crown lands to the Western provinces, a bill putting the outside civil service under commission, a highways aid bill, a copyright bill, legislation on naturalization, better terms for British Columbia and confirmation of the West Indies agreement.

It is not expected that the naval policy will be ready for announcement at the opening of the session. The speech from the throne forecasting government legislation will be limited as far as the navy is concerned to the announcement that "a bill will be laid before you respecting the navy." That will give the government opportunity to consult with members from all parts of Canada and formulate its naval policy on their advice.

Unless the government changes its mind before November there will be no redistribution. If redistribution is put off for a year an election can hardly be forced. There will be a good deal of trouble over delay on redistribution, but the government is inclined to regard it as choosing the lesser of two evils. The representation of senators from Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia will likely be increased. The big debates of the session will be on the navy and on the tariff. The opening day will be either November fourteen or twenty-one.

OPPOSED TO WOMEN PRACTISING LAW

Cardiff, Wales, Sept. 25.—The law society of Cardiff is opposed to women practising law. A resolution in favor of the admission of women to the bar was defeated at the annual meeting of the society yesterday. The resolution also urged the counsel of the society to support a bill that is to be introduced in parliament, enabling women to practice.

The chief ground for this opposition, it was said, was that competition by women would be injurious to men who practice law.

GREAT TENOR WHO WORKED IN COAL MINES

New York, Sept. 24.—A London cable says: Morgan Kingston, who three years ago, after working for eleven years as a miner in a Nottinghamshire colliery, was discovered to be possessor of a tenor voice of exceptional tone, has just signed a contract with Andrews Dippel, of the Chicago Opera Co., covering a number of years. The contract calls for Kingston's appearance under the sole management of Mr. Dippel, for ten months of the year as principal tenor of Mr. Dippel's operatic enterprises, beginning October, 1913.

Kitty—"Yes, quite a rainbeau."

AGED POLITICIAN HAS PASSED AWAY

PROMINENT LIBERAL

Kingston, Ont., Sept. 24.—Sir Richard Cartwright is dead. He died in the General Hospital shortly after 11 o'clock this morning.

He took a bad turn during the night and although he rallied during the early hours of the morning, he began losing steadily and passed away suddenly. A consultation of doctors at ten o'clock decided that aged knight could not survive the day.

Lady Cartwright and members of the family were at the death bed. His funeral will be private.

Sir Richard Cartwright had not completed his seventy-seventh year, having been born at this place December 4th, 1835. When only twenty-seven he was elected to the old legislature of Canada from the constituency of Lennox and Addington.

From the formation of the Dominion parliament with confederation until 1878 he represented Lennox at Ottawa, and being then defeated, he afterwards sat successively for Centre Huron, South Huron and South Oxford the last named being the riding with which his name was familiarly identified.

Just before the general election of 1904 he was called to the Senate, of and from 1909 till the defeat of the Laurier administration, was leader of the government in that body.

On the formation of the MacKenzie cabinet in 1874, Sir Richard took the portfolio of finance, and afterwards, in opposition, was the recognized financial critic of opposition benches.

In the cabinet of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Sir Richard held the portfolio of trade and commerce. During the periods when his party enjoyed power he was entrusted with several missions of importance.

As a parliamentarian and debater he had few rivals in Canada political life.

WHY DISCRIMINATE?

The schedule of electric rates as announced by the town council are not as low as many users of electric power had believed to expect, and in some respects are a direct discrimination against the users of electricity for power purposes.

Take the minimum rate.—No discount is allowed upon accounts up to $10.00, while over that amount and up to $19.99, 5 per cent. is allowed. This is a discrimination of 5 per cent. against the power user, as users of electric light using $10.00 or more monthly are allowed 10 per cent. Then twenty-five cents per month, or $3.00 per year is charged for meter rent as against ten cents per month or $1.20 per year to light users.

This means that the Graphic and other establishments which have installed electric motors, will be obliged to pay 10c per kilowatt, or as much as the smallest user of light in the town, and besides pay 15 cents additional meter rent.

The discounts are too low and the amounts upon which discounts are allowed are too high.

As an instance—What industry here using power would use $50.00 per month or $600. per year and from this amount only 25 per cent is deducted, making the rate 7 1/2 cents per kilowatt. If this discount was allowed off of amounts of $20.00 or more it would be reasonable.

Take the highest rate of discount—On sums of $50.00 to $99.99 monthly, 45 per cent. is allowed. But what industry or projected industry would use over $1000. per year for power. This discount makes a very attractive rate, possibly the lowest for electricity in the province today, but it is beyond any present or near future industry. If the town can afford to supply power at this low rate it would be better to encourage many small users by a low rate than to place such a rate on the books just because it looks good.

We feel sure that the rates submitted by the electric light committee have not been carefully worked out and are not fair or equitable to the smaller users.

A WARNING

The first fatality of the hunting season occurred Monday morning on the Miramichi when Robert Hamilton mistook a fellow hunter, William A. Travis for a deer, and before making sure fired a shot with fatal results.

Happily such accidents in New Brunswick are very rare, but this fact should not tend to make hunters careless. No hunter while in the woods should fire at any object which cannot be plainly seen and recognized.

So prevalent have such accidents become in the state of Maine that to shoot a hunter in the woods has been made a criminal offence and punishable as manslaughter.

We sincerely hope that those going after big game in this territory will be careful of taking life through such carelessness.

THE PROGRESS OF THE INTER-COLONIAL

The desire of Mr. Matthew Lodge as expressed in a recent interview in Montreal, to see the intercolonial Railway handed over to one of the transcontinental lines will not commend itself to the people of the Maritime Provinces. The president of the Maritime Board of Trade seems to have changed his views with some suddenness now that the road is becoming a good business proposition. Years ago when the financial position of the intercolonial was anything but good, Mr. Lodge had no such desire as he now expresses. He was not then

GEORGE FAWCETT IN MEMORIAM

(Specially contributed by Theodosius Botkin)

The loyal citizen, the kind and generous neighbour, the helpful and faithful friend, the model and devoted husband and father, the exemplary Christian whose religious current, deep and constant, flowed with even power through week days and Sundays alike,—the honest, honorable, and true man, has crossed the mystic river and taken up his abode where the Many Mansions be. His life here was one of constant service in all the paths of usefulness and manly duty, and he was wholly reliable and always faithful in the discharge of duty's obligations. He lived ever at peace with his fellowmen and was respected and beloved by all his associates and acquaintances. His was that Charity whose definition is fraternal or brotherly love,—a charity that expends its forces in doing good to and for others, in kind and helpful words, in gentle and generous thoughts concerning others. As nearly as may be in manhood's estate, he had the disposition of a confiding and affectionate child. He loved and was fond of the society, the innocent pranks and the merriment of little children. He had in him the love and fondness for them from Him who said— "Suffer them to come unto me, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

His faith in the Divine Promises was perfect, and was the rod and staff upon which he leaned with steady confidence as he neared and finally entered the zone of shade and mist. Said one of those who were near and dear to him—"George, do you have any fears at all for the future?"—and his quick, smiling, confident response was—"Not a bit; perfect love casteth out fear." Conscious to the last, as the expiring flame flickered in its socket, his radiant spirit caught a vision of the life celestial, and to his beloved and ever devoted wife and companion he exclaimed—"I wish I could let you have my eyes and see what I see!" In that vision he numbered of angels and of the crowds of little children who were thronging to greet his coming! Verily may we believe that it was of one such as our friend and neighbour, George Fawcett, that the Palmist wrote—"Mark the perfect man: behold the righteous, for the end of that man is peace."

And now as his earthly form is being born to its eternal abode we may and shall console ourselves with that great thought that every good life enters into and constitutes an uplifting force in social progress, that it is lost neither here nor in the Hereafter—that it endureth forever in some form of influence, in some manner of usefulness.

To the bereaved wife and children and children's children, and to each and all the other dear ones of our deceased friend and neighbour, loyal faithful hearts go out in warmest, tenderest sympathy in their period of mourning. May He who wept in sympathy for the heart broken Sisters of Bethany, enfold these bereaved ones in the mantle of His love, and give them strength and courage to bear bravely their cross of sorrow.

May we all take a new resolution of courage, faith and lofty purpose from the life that has just closed in our midst.

Kind friend,—generous neighbor, Adieu!

AT IT AGAIN Complaints are being registered of the operation of the mysterious gent known as Jack the Hopper. One young lady who was the recipient of his unwelcome attentions was injured in the face and the chief of police is looking into the matter. While such things are going on would it not be well to keep the street lights burning?

The monument consists of two bases and a table with elaborate carving, and weighs in the neighborhood of six tons. HUNTING NEWS WANTED With the guides who have parties, and individual hunters who visit this district kindly send information in reference to their trip and game secured, to the Graphic. This country is one of the best for big game in this province yet one hears very little of it as so many hunters visit this territory from the various railway stations along the railways, without visiting Campbellton and our reporter has no means of interviewing them. These reports are invariably copied in other papers, both in Upper Canada and the United States and form one of the best kinds of advertising for this territory. All such items are published free of charge.

W. C. T. U. EXTENDS THANKS The members of the W. C. T. U. Convention of Sept. 15 to 20th take this means of thanking all the kind friends in Campbellton who made their visit so enjoyable. They leave with pleasant memories of the hospitable homes, and their beautiful surroundings of hills, valleys and river. They greatly regret that one of the last speakers, who came with apparently good recommendations, failed to uphold their principles and standards, and they ask their friends in Campbellton to remember the good things of the Convention and forget the others.

Exporters say that their orders are in some cases a month behind because of this shortage. I. C. R. authorities claim it is impossible for them to supply the demand for cars.

SHOULD BE STOPPED A report has reached the Graphic that a certain saw mill on the Quebec shore below Sellars Creek has been dumping a quantity of saw dust and refuse into or at least allowing it to float away from this mill into the river. If the Restigouche is to retain its reputation as a salmon river, mill owners cannot be too careful in respect to this saw dust and mill refuse such as edging's and bark which sinks to the bottom will drive away the salmon and other fish.

HAD A HUNGRY TIME A party of young men left town at an early hour Sunday to spend the day north of the shade of the autumn forest. They wandered about and soon lost their bearings. Finally they arrived at a strange and mighty river, which they were informed was the Restigouche. They were given explicit directions how to reach their camp and team, but again wandered from beaten tracks and became lost, spending in all about thirty-six hours, and twelve long hours of darkness without any very substantial food. Finally they met a man, (oh blessed man), who took them in tow and they safely arrived in town Monday night.

RICHARDS

Everywhere, in large towns and parishes, we talk of festivals and grand celebrations. We celebrate with great pomp and solemnity the festivals of Christmas, Assumption of Mary, St. Anne, St. Joseph, etc., no festival is one festival over than we might preparations for another. Priests and orators of renown hasten from all parts of the country, long and interesting programs are carried out, and the papers are full of advertisements which excite the curiosity of the public and of reports which attract the admiration of all. Here no fuss was made except a few advertisements which were hardly glanced at, and a few private invitations most of which were not even answered. No matter, the brave settlers of Richards were making preparations quietly, and were far from dreaming that such a wonderful success would crown their vigorous efforts.

Like their sister colony—Anderson—these courageous people were longing for a proper church to replace the miserable log cabin in which church services have to be held at present. For that purpose a movement had to be made to obtain funds, thus preparations were made for the holding of a picnic in this new-born colony in the midst of what was but a couple of years ago a wild forest.

The train bringing us from Anderson pulled in and we found the whole community at the station to greet us.

Great confusion and anxiety reigned everywhere, for the thought of their probable failure in this seeming great attempt troubled them greatly.

However, dawn came, and it promised to be a fair day. The sun arose in all its glory and splendour showing that the Lord had already begun to bless them. The red, white and blue waved everywhere and the star of Mary shone on almost every flag.

After two low masses to which a large congregation assisted and received the Holy Communion the bell rang announcing the high mass. The people gathered in front of the new church as the offices were to be held in open air.

A temporary altar, decorated in an artistic manner, had been erected for the occasion.

Rev. F. M. Lantegnie of Campbellton officiated, while Rev. Father Ferdinand touched the organ, and a well trained choir composed of men and women rendered the beautiful mass of the second tone. A few well appropriate hymns were sung at the epistle and offertory. After mass Rev. Father Ferdinand preached a very eloquent sermon in which he greatly encouraged these brave and energetic settlers to continue what they had so well begun.

They should love, respect and thank God who has chosen them to be the pioneers of this new country in which they will remain exemplary patriarchs for the growing generation.

Among the visitors we noticed Messrs. Robert St. Croix, John Richards, Ed. Sullivan, Doctor Pinesault from Campbellton; Mrs. Frank Synnott, Dalhousie; Miss Anna Poirier, Balmoral; Mr. D. Gagne, Saybec; and many others.

A dainty dinner was then served in a building on the grounds. The dishes many and varied were capable to satisfy the appetite of all if we may judge by the way they honored them.

The afternoon was spent in amusements of various kinds, everybody seemed happy and gay on this day when God had blessed them so visibly. The prize has to be touched often on such occasions, and lotteries, tables of refreshments, etc., each had a share of its contents. Three o'clock struck, there came a pause in the amusements and the ceremonies for the blessing of the bell began. First, Rev. Father Ferdinand gave a short allocation in French and then in English. He spoke of the bell as the voice of God which calls to man to pause in his occupation and answer to the various calls for which it is used. A christian dies, the bell rings plaintively, requesting a prayer for this departed soul; a child is born, the bell announces this newcomer to the world; a marriage has been performed, the bell rings again informing the world that two lives have been bound to one another, and are therefore nearer to God than ever as they will work with Him in the propagation and reformation of a nation.

Three times a day the bell rings the Angel us to recall the Annunciation of Mary when the Angel Gabriel announced her that she was the mother of God. In a way the bell is the instrument which God uses to call to His people and it should be respected by all nations, creeds and denominations.

After the ceremonies, offerings were generally made and every one rang the bell until the old forest resounded with such an unusual sound.

After supper the choir sang "Magnificat" in open air for the graces obtained during the day. Rev. Father Lantegnie was then asked to speak, and although felt like declining, on account of not being prepared, he afterwards consented and in his usual gay manner, gave a short speech on colonization as it should be practiced. "You have the key to development in this country more and more is to keep up your courage and energy. Cut down this gigantic forest, tame the soil until it yields abundant crops and make of this new colony a parish of great renown. But above all you must practice concord always, and may you ever preserve in the shade of this smiling steeps, your traditions, your faith and your tongue. The day had been well spent but as everything has an end on earth, we had a part and return to our usual duties.

As Rev. A. Melancon had to catch a train a few days, he called on the congregation to escort the rest of the clergy and visitors to the station. While waiting a few minutes for the train we all sang in a chorus the national hymn, "O Canada," and after singing "Bonsoir, mee amis," the train pulled in and then out and off we go once more carrying with us sweet memories of the 12th of September, 1912.

This settlement has certainly made marvelous progress since its foundation. Two mills, a handsome station, stores, post office, a large church in construction—all this has arisen from the depth of the forest as by enchantment. It is almost beyond belief until it is evidenced by sight itself. Those energetic settlers have at their head an apostle of colonization, Rev. A. Melancon, and with such an active and incessant worker to encourage them, they cannot help progressing rapidly. Yet they want encouragement from another important source—the government, and to lumber-merchants, but could not get the government to give those rights from the companies and try to the settlers, so eager to improve this beautiful Province of New Brunswick, full freedom to come and settle there? No other but settlers will help in the colonization, and nothing but colonization will help in developing the country. Can we be forced to this inattention from the government? Is it on account of political matters? Can the lumber merchants help you more in politics than the humble settlers? Perhaps so, but the latter will help you more in the improvements of your country.

NEW CARLISLE

The ladies are certainly working hard enough to earn their daily bread, practicing for a concert which is to take sometime during the end of the week.

Mr. Menard is lifting the floor out of his skating rink, and expects to have much better ice than last winter, and some girls are hoping that he will have a carnival sometime in January, not thinking that they have time enough to think about it later on. No time like the present.

There are lots of peaches in New Carlisle, although some of them have been frozen during the recent cold weather, and the only ones that escaped, were those that were put up in cans.

The Bonaventure Stars had an excellent baseball practice last Sunday and expect to meet the New Richmond team next Sunday to try and level the score made at the last match.

Bonaventure Henry left home last Friday morning bound for the Niagara Falls where he had been employed by the International Paper Co. for the last twelve years.

The harvesting season is opened. The farmers are hard at work reaping and bringing in the sheaves. It is a high time to bring them in, as I found it so cold one morning that I almost had a notion to put on my skates.

We are sorry to announce the death of an other of our old citizens, Mr. James Gilker who passed away on the 17th inst., at the age of seventy. Interment took place on 18th Services were held in the Presbyterian Church conducted by Rev. J. M. Sutherland, and was very impressive. Many kind friends and relatives attended the funeral. Mr. Gilker has been ailing for some time and for the past few weeks could not speak yet was quite sensible and resigned. Much sympathy is felt for the remaining members of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooke are sorry to say is very ill and her family fear that there is little hope of her recovery as she is now just passed the three-score of her years which makes the case more serious.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruak of St. John are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Caldwell at present.

Mr. Baker our Academy teacher is giving singing lessons and a number of the young people will reap a great benefit and will be much appreciated.

We are glad to hear such good news about the life and drum band in your last issue. We are sure we wouldn't hardly know that there was such a thing had we not read it, but perhaps the little kids are doing the best they can, and perhaps some people are rather hard on them. A commercial traveler said he heard and saw many very funny things in New Carlisle, but that band was the limit, but we must give them a chance, they are young yet.

TO USE CONCRETE FOR KING EDWARD ROAD

A portion of the King Edward Highway is to be built of concrete, the contract for its construction having been let on Sept. 11th.

It was the original intention that the entire highway should be built of macadam, but the Honorable Minister, who has under his jurisdiction the Canadian branch of the work, has become interested in concrete roadways.

WHERE THE MACKEREL SWARM

That the Gulf of St. Lawrence is the water where mackerel swarm each spring is the conclusion of Captain Albert Hyland, of the Gloucester schooner Pythian, which has just returned from six weeks' experimental voyage in northern waters.

He fished around Prince Edward Island and on Orphan and Brattle Bank, and pushed on up as far as Gaspe. The fishermen of these localities all did well mackerel fishing and reported an abundance.

This is an important disclosure inasmuch as the whereabouts of the great bodies of mackerel, after they have passed the Cape or Nova Scotia shore in the spring, has been a mystery. The fishermen all along Cape Breton, Prince Edward Island, and the entire Gulf of St. Lawrence say that the schools poured into this vast enclosure during June and were there in large quantities all summer.

The government sent an expedition a few years ago to trace the mackerel, but it was unsuccessful. Captain Hyland reported that mackerel fishermen using nets were greatly handicapped by the dogfish which destroyed the seine and wasted the bait.

AUTOMOBILE WON RACE WITH MOOSE

Monarch of Forest Unable to Keep Ahead of Motor Car For Dong.

Miss Rose Smith, of Amherst, is able to tell of an exciting race between her father's auto and a big bull moose a few evenings ago.

As soon as the moose saw the motor car he swung back his great spread of antlers, and giving a loud snort of defiance, sprang to the race straight along the road.

An article that has real merit should in time become popular. That such is the case with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been attested by many dealers.

SUFFRAGETTES GET INTO TROUBLE

One Thrown Over a Hedge. Others Trampled on—After that Quiet

London, Sept. 23.—Suffragettes who attempted to break up a meeting addressed by David Lloyd George, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, at Llanystudwy, Wales, on Saturday, were roughly handled and were forced to seek protection in neighboring cottages.

The Chancellor hardly had opened his mouth before the familiar cry of "Votes for Women" was heard. Other shouts followed, and the crowd losing its temper, handled the women roughly, some of them falling to the ground and being trodden on.

The Chancellor, in the course of his speech, said he had spent $30,000, which had been given to him as damages in libel suits on a village institute for Llanystudwy.

ESTRANGEMENT OF KAISER AND PRINCE

New York, Sept. 24.—A cable to the Tribune from London says: "Advices from Berlin are to the effect that the estrangement between the Kaiser and the Crown Prince is so complete that His Majesty declined to attend the festivities in honor of the Crown Prince's twenty-sixth birthday at Potsdam on Friday last."

It is the prerogative of parents to select the names of their children but the Kansas man who took advantage of the arrival of triplets to christen them Initiative, Referendum and Recall certainly seems to be taking an unfair advantage of the infants.

CHATHAM LADY PASSES AWAY

The death of Mrs. Peter Wallace occurred Saturday evening at her home on Upper Water St., in the 77th year of her age.

The deceased is survived by the following children, John, Chatham, William of Restigouche Co., James of Portland Me., and Mrs. M. F. Haley, Mrs. Wm. Hackett, Mrs. John Gilmore of this town and Mrs. James McGarren of New Jersey.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable.

INNOCENT WOMAN SERVED 23 YEARS

Death-Bed Confession of Murdered Man's Brother Vindicates Widow, Who Was Convicted.

Huntington, Ind., Sept. 22.—Mrs. John Epps, who served 23 years in the Indiana woman's prison for the murder of her husband, and who was paroled six years ago, has been vindicated, it is learned, by the death-bed confession of Henry Epps, a brother, who died a few weeks ago.

Epps before dying said that he poisoned his brother.

Mrs. Epps has been living in Toledo, Ohio. Epps died mysteriously in 1882, and his wife was convicted on circumstantial evidence, after the body had been exhumed and poison found in the stomach. It was the contention of the state that the crime was committed to gain possession of the Epps estate.

Mrs. Epps declares that all she desires now is vindication. The family estate, which consisted of rich farming land, has been dissipated.

MOCK CREAM PIE

Line a pie plate with rich cream and bake. Fill with a mixture made of the following ingredients: One cupful of milk, 1 of sugar, 2 table-spoonfuls of cornstarch, yolks of 2 eggs and vanilla to flavor. Cook until thick, then fill the crust with the cream. Cover with a meringue made of the whites of 2 eggs and 2 table-spoonfuls of sugar, and place in the oven until a light brown.

Blue in its darker tones is invariably a favored color for the autumn and early winter. This year the tones are deeper and richer, especially those with a purplish tinge. That particular tint has a very smart effect with ochre or sand color used for facings and trimmings, but is too decided as a contrast on the skirt, although admirable for bottoms and cords or as a fine piping.

HERE'S A BEAR STORY FROM YORK COUNTY

Two Hunters Called a Moose and Bruin Walked up to Them and was Shot

Fredericton, Sept. 21.—(Special)—Charles and Alex. Marshall, of Hanwell, had an unusual experience this week while moose hunting. They were calling a moose just at dusk and heard an animal approaching.

They remained silent for some time and were astonished to see a enormous black bear walk within fifteen feet of them. They opened fire and bruin fell dead in his tracks.

TWO MEN SHOT FROM AMBUSH

Flynn in Critical State—Gracie Severely Wounded, Will Recover.

AFTER ASSAILANTS

Amherst, Sept. 24.—The quiet town of Wallace was thrown into a high state of excitement on Sunday morning last when the news spread that two of its most prominent and well known citizens had almost come to an untimely end by being riddled with buckshot on the previous evening.

The story of the shooting, as related, as it has come to us is as follows:

Thomas Flynn, the superintendent of the Wallace freestone quarry, accompanied by Henry Gracie, the engineer in the employ of the company, went up the head of Wallace Bay in a boat on Saturday evening last. They rowed into a small creek near the head of the bay and while there they were suddenly surprised by being fired upon by parties hidden behind a hay stack.

Flynn fell at the first shot severely wounded. Two other shots followed in quick succession, both men receiving more wounds from the scattering buckshot. Flynn was wounded in more than a dozen different places, one shot puncturing his lungs and causing a wound of a very serious nature. Numerous other wounds were also received on his arms, legs and other parts of his body.

The shooting affray took place about three miles from the town and Gracie, although severely wounded, rowed the boat home to Wallace, summoned assistance and both he and Flynn were conveyed to their homes and medical aid summoned. Flynn's condition is reported today as very critical, and there are serious doubts entertained with regard to his recovery. Gracie, however, is doing as well as can be expected.

The crown authorities in Amherst, were notified of the shooting today, and Mr. Hanway, the crown prosecutor, sent Provincial Constable J. A. Simpson and Constable Andrew McDonald to investigate the matter.

No names have yet been mentioned but it is reported that the parties who fired the shots are well known and it is anticipated that they will be arrested soon.

KILLED WHILE MOOSE HUNTING

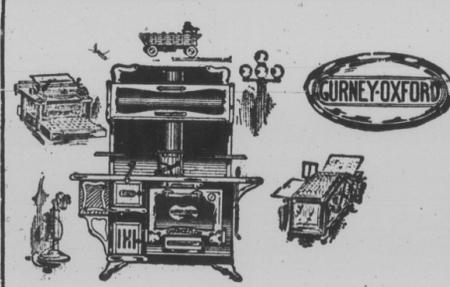

Accident Happened Monday Morning on the Miramichi.

WAS TAKEN FOR DEER

Word has been received of a fatal shooting accident Monday morning at Silliker's, about 4 miles above Redbank. William A. Travis, a storekeeper of that place and about 35 years of age, was shot and killed while out in the woods looking for moose, by Robert Hamilton another resident of the same vicinity who mistook Travis for a deer and fired at him with fatal results.

IRISH M.P. INJURED IN CAR ACCIDENT

Belfast Sept. 24.—Joseph Devlin, member of the House of Commons for Belfast, West, was injured in a motor car accident, while on his way to attend a meeting at Milclooney. The meeting was abandoned.

The GURNEY-OXFORD is an efficient RANGE

A business is kept up-to-date because it means a difference between profit and loss. The successful business uses such modern time-and-labor-savers as typewriters, adding machines and electricity. Woman's work in the home is also a matter of profit and loss. If she has improved and modern tools, she gains time and leisure and better results. If she has old-fashioned ideas to contend with, she loses energy and effort and peace of mind.

The Gurney-Economizer is the greatest single improvement ever devised to simplify cooking. It regulates the fire and heat of the oven with one direct motion. The heat of the fire is distributed by a scientific arrangement of flues that keeps the oven uniformly heated. The grates hold the fire on the least possible surface.

The Gurney-Oxford Range is a most efficient piece of household furniture. It puts the kitchen on the same labor-saving, up-to-date basis as a successful business.

DRESS

An uncommonly good looking costume for dressy wear has a directoire coat of old blue velvet over a skirt of corded white silk, and from the same Paris house comes a stunning model in vieux rouge velvet and broadcloth. Sleeves are to be worn extremely long and exceeding tight, and this fashion, if well received, will mean the downfall of the Magyar style, which may, however, prevail for blouses and rest gowns. A simple method of freshening a blouse is by adding a vest or biblike portion made of lace net or chiffon. Some of these are round, others pointed, and the pointed ones are becoming to the robust. The vests are usually tucked, and sometimes tiny fancy crochet or pearl buttons are added, or they may be left quite severely plain with a plated or ruffled frill at the edges. The cuffs, with their pleated frills at the top and over the hand, should match the other accessories. Another dainty touch for a blouse is a fichu of lace or fine material brought down under the belt in front and at the back, and finished off either in a V or square with the popular apron effect.

FROM AN ACTOR'S POSTBAG

Sir Herbert Tree received many curious epistles in the course of the year, and he has selected the following three as being more than usually entertaining. The first runs: "Dear Sir Herbert—I don't know you but I have four girls from Switzerland home for the holidays. It would be a great treat if they could see your play. But that would be rather expensive. Will you please send us five stalls? I hope you won't think this is very barefaced." The second lady wrote: "Although I am a stranger to you it would be so helpful if you would send me £12 12s. 6d." The third lady asked for a couple of stalls, and on being invited to say why she made the claim, sent what she evidently believed to be an all-sufficient reason. "My father," she wrote, "knew Charles Dickens."

REMEMBER Now is the Time to Buy CAMPBELLTON PROPERTY.

Look over this list and call at my office for prices and terms, so that in a few years you will be pointed out as one of the wise men who invested in the town that has been and bound to be the busiest town in Eastern Canada. I have my list:

- The Best Residential Lots on Prince William Street. Good Business Lots on Roseberry Street, near the Subway. Two Good Corner Lots on Gerrard Street. One Lot on Gerrard Street, 25 feet by 100 feet, very cheap. One Good Business Lot on Water Street.

Dwellings that will net you from ten to twenty-five per cent. on your investment and will assure you good tenants.

Nowhere can one find better and safer investment in Real Estate than in this Brand New Town of Campbellton.

Just consider that never before on this continent has a town been built with as little outside capital,—that there is less mortgages on our new town than there was on our old one,—that it is building up-to-date,—that Campbellton is the HUB of Eastern Quebec and the best part of N. B.,—that although the centre of the oldest part of our fair Dominion, we have not started to develop our great resources,—that we are about done shipping away our lumber to be manufactured and resold to us in its manufactured state,—that mineral is being found in abundance all around us,—that it has lately been proposed, (and I'm sure will be carried) to set off a bomb in our board of trade to wake them up and let the rest of the world know that this County and especially the Town of Campbellton offers chances for investing their money second to other places.

If you meet a few Knockers, don't mind them. Just tell them that there was some of their kind here ten years ago when we could have bought the whole town for less than they can buy one street for today. If he is a bit one you'll find he is getting a big commission to sell Western Prairie town lots, or that he has no money, or that he is some big fat fellow that always had a good time that has been well fed, well schooled, well dressed, in short well nursed, and that he owes it all to this country, of which he cannot say a good word. I don't blame him. Had he been put on a farm 40 or 50 miles from the nearest neighbor, out in the prairies, when he was 16 and there left to make his way, he would not be a Knocker today.
