"One of my children had croup. The case was attended by our physician, and was sup-posed to be well under control. One night I was startled by the child's hard breathing, and on going to it found it. Strangling.

It had nearly ceased to breathe. Realizing that the child's alarming condition had become possible in spite of the medicine it had taken, I reasoned that such remedies would be of no avail. Having a part of a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, I gave the child three doese, at short intervals, and anxiously waited results. From the moment the Pectoral was given, the child's breathing grow easier, and in a short-time it was sleeping quietly and breathing naturally. The rrew easier, and in salor entirely. WASHINGTON CONFERENCE.

The postponement of the date fixed THE NEW DEPARTMENT OF THE SACKVILLE FOUNDRY. for the conference of delegates from the Canadian Government with Presi-dent Harrison and Mr. Blaire, on the subject of the trade relations between dent Harrison and Mr. Blaike, on the subject of the trade relations between Canada and the United States; is satisfactorily accounted for by the ill-health of the American Secretary of State, and there is every reason to believe that erelong a new date will be named. The purpose of this meeting we may remind our readers, is not to te couclude a treaty of reciprocity of hand, but to ascertain by an interchange of views whether negotiations to such end can be began with reason able prospect of a successful issue. In a word, the conference is for the purpose of settling, if possible, the lines upon which a joint high commission to be subsequently appointed will arrange a treaty of trade between the two countries. Whether such a basis can be arrived at depends chiefly upon-the frame of mind in which Presiden Harrison and Mr. Blaine approach the subject. It is obvious, for instance that if Secretary of State defines the attitude of the Washington Governation of the subject. THE LOBSTER FISHERY.

In another column will be found the reason and the rown of the lobster fisheries for Westmorland for the past season, showing a pronounced increase in the subject. It is obvious, for instance that if Secretary of State defines the quantity taken over previous years, 11, 1889 the catch was 9,514 cases or 682,704 pounds; an increase of 4.709 cases this year the largest each on record for Westmorland is reported, 20,185 cases or 968,784 pounds an increase over 1890 of 5,950 cases and over 1880 of 1,569 cases. The price recived this year was one of the best and the amount of money which wall adone to the county through this source alone will amount to something like $132,000. The number of fact. Orien has increased by 23.

RECONSTRUCTION OF THE CAB-INET.

Although the air is full of conjectures as to the composition of the couning Dominion Cabinet, there has been positively nothing definate done, so far as can be learned, toward filling that the two existing yeacacies in the ministry. With connected the previous ministers to remove their portfolios, until the two existing was accised in the country of the Canadian to resome their portfolios, until the two existing was accised in the country of the Canadian to resome their portfolios, until the two existing was accised in the country. —I notice that the "Observer" in the Posr, in speaking of the village of Baie Verte Road, wrote very flatteringly of the land of the place, but still was within bounds, regarding the ladies. The only objection to the place is, that it is killed with Gritism—yet there has been a marked improvement within the last decade, and every promise of doing better. Observer might have remarked that the W. C. T. U. and the Baie Verte vendor are in perfect harmony, as that body had a large hand in giving him the appointment, and he feels very thankful.

On one night in the week a coffee room will be opened and hot coffie, cake etc will be on sale. The scheme is worthy of every encouragement. There etc will be on sale. The scheme is worthy of every encouragement. There are myriads of young men and boys who nightly congregate on the corners interfering with persons prissing and annoying the merchants in front of whose stores they gather. At present the plea is that there is nothing else to do. If the reading room is established and is used the citizens will be relieved of the appropriate and the young men will be annoyance and the young men will be able to spend their leasure hours more comfortable.

is now at San Francisco:

"This is a great grazing country and the finest cattle at our fall fair would not compare favorably with the range cattle here and you can see at any time beef at the butcher's stall weighing about two to three hundred pounds to the quarter from three year old steers killed right off the grass. Last week the Cochrane ranche shipped 1073 head, making three train loads and valued at $50,000 here and the Waldron ranche forwarded about 800 head in two train loads direct to the English market, but strange to state the prices of beef to the consumer here is about as high as in New Brunswick, 10 to 15cts. per lb, while at the small towns on the borders of the ranches it is higher, and lamb and mutton are only eater by those who have piles of money. I should judge by seeing the poor cuts in a quarter of mutton retail at 18 cents per lb, at Leth-bridge. Nearly everything is higher out here than further east, especially in the country districts removed from the failway, where extortionate prices prevail, but along the main line of the C. P. R., they are not as high as I was led to believelybefore coming here, but business appears to be good and most of the business people are very enthusiastic for the future. business people are very enthusiasti

She trembled violently, and rose instantly to her feet "Now I belong to God and must do His work," she said resolutely, setting her teeth and frowning, "And as for you, Julian, you are in all probability hers! What I have got to do now is to save you for her."

Mastering her feeling of repugnance, she crossed the room and put her hands on the girl's shoulder. "You must stop that," she said in a firm voice. Those strong white arms of hers proved as efficacious as bonds, as she wound them around him and held him down by main force, when the frenzy seized him. But there was something also in the very presence of the stronger nature that acted upon him like a spell, even though he did not know her in the least, and kept on calling for Capt. Kitty to come and drive the devil away, and give a fellow a chance for his life.

During these ravings she learned how her memory had been woven into all these wretched, miserable years of his; how, amid all his sin and degradation, he had never forgotten her. At length the opiate took effect, and he
