Sneak Thieves Around Town

During the past month or so, there have been numerous cases of thieving of one kind and another, going on, in the town and country districts. Just why there should be so much of this contemptible work, is somewhat of a conundrum. Is it because people are too lazy to work, and are resorting to stealing, boot-legging, gambling and other lawless methods of making a living?

On Sunday night the store of Mr. L. S. Shaffner, boot and shoe merchant was broken into. The thieves made their entrance through a back window. They evidently used a glass cutter to break the upper pane sufficiently to get a hand in to turn the catch, and raised the lower sash.

Mr. Shaffner said he only missed a few pairs of shoes, but the cash box was taken from the safe. This, however contained no cash, but deeds, insurance and other papers of no value to anyone, other than the rightful owner. Mr. Shaffner would appreciate having this box and contents returned by parcel post, express or inform him where he could get it.

Mrs. W. W. Dodges home was also among those broken into in town, and a cash box stolen, which like Mr. Shaffners contain papers, that are of no value to anyone but her. If the highwayman would see that it is returned to Mrs. Dodge, they would certainly confer a favor.

Different homes in town and district have been looted in the same way; and in cases reported, it seems "cash" is the thing most sought after.

In ur opinion a few "rde coats" scattered throughout the province would help materially to lower the crime wave that is sweeping over the various communities. These police are without doubt the finest organigation in existence and their presence alone is worth a great deal to the district—and when they get on the trail of a culprit—some body is going to go over the road.

Funeral Service of Dr. R. Woodbury

INTERMENT AT MIDDLETON — QUIET SERVICE, ATTENDED BY RELATIVES AND FRIENDS.

Halifax, Oct. 23 — Impressive, though quiet and simple in its detail was the funeral service held at the late home of Dr. Ralph Woodbury, 225 Robie Street last evening. The body will be forwarded to Middleton this morning, where interment will take place. Rev. H. B. Clarke, pastor of the United Methodist Church, of which Dr. Woodbury was a devoted member and officer, will accompany the body to Middleton and will assist in the burial services.

In accordance with the wish of Dr. Woodbury, the service at his residence last evening was very quiet and simple and was attended by only his immediate family, relatives and intimate friends.

The service was opened with the singing of "Abide With Me," followed by the reading of the 91st Psalm by Rev. Robert McArthur. A passage from Corinthians 1 and 15, was then read by Rev. A. B. Higgins. "Peace, Perfect, Peace",, the favorite hymn of Dr. Woodbury, was sung by Mrs. H. W. MacGregor after which Rev. H. B. Clarke offered prayer. The service was brought to a close with the singing of "When On My Day of Life the Night Is Falling" and the Benediction, which was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Higgins.

The floral tributes received at the home yesterday including those of individual friends and from organizations in many parts of the province, were both numerous and beautiful. The collection includes a standing wreath of rose chrysanthemums from the Young Men's Liberal Association and a wreath from the dental students at Dalhousie University.

FRIENDSHIP

Much of the so-called friendship of the day is but pretense. It exists only in name and as soon as it ceases to be advantageous it is dropped. The friendship that continues the same in prosperity and adversity is to be prized, but all other kinds are worthless. It matters not how hard a man may struggle to do right and make a success of life there is always some loathsome reptile, some worthles wretch who is ready to drag him down, to blight his hopes and blast his fondest ambitions. The loss of money and property isn't the greatest loss a man can sustain in the business world; far better to lose your money than to lose hope and ambition

Guard The Children From Autumn Colds

The Fall is the most severe season of the year for colds—one day is warm, the next cold and wet, and unless the mother is on her guard, the little ones are seized with colds that may hang on all winter. Baby's Own Tablets are mother's best friend in preventing or banishing colds. They act as a gentle laxative, keeping the bowels and stomach free and sweet. An occasional dose of the Tablets will prevent colds, or if it does come on suddenly their prompt use will relieve the baby. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cts, a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville Ont.

Johnny had used some unparliamentary language, much to his mother's distress. "Johnny," she cried, "do stop using such dreadful expressions. I can't imagine where you pick them up."

"Well, mother," replied Johnny, "Shakespeare uses them."

"Child's Eyelids Inflamed Stuck Together and Bled"

Mr. E. P. Kimball, Entwhistle, Alta., writes:

"Our little girl from birth was troubled with inflamed eyelids and in spite of several remedies, grew worse until at the age of sixteen months her eyes could not be opened after sleep without bleeding, a waxy discharge sticking the lids together and adhering with great tenacity. The child's grandmothers were consulted by mail, and both responded with a little sample box of Dr. Chase's Ointment. These were used as directed, and lasted until we could obtain a further supply from Edmonton. Improvement was very marked from the first application. The waxy discharge was easier removed and did not reappear. Inflammation subsided and has not returned."

WEST DALHOUSIE

Ray Durling of Boston arrived here Monday to attend the funeral of his brother, Elias.

Mrs. Kate Merry has returned to her home, after spending a few months at her former home at Albany. We regret to say her health has not improved.

Mr. Gordon Beeler has beat the record, getting the largest moose of the season. The weather has been favorable; game plentiful, but hunters are scarce.

Mr. Walter Hannam has recntly purchased a car.

The night was dark and misty and the man was thinking as he journeyed toward his home of the cheerful fire that would greet him and the smile with which he would be met.

Tiptoeing up the steps, he saw his wife sitting in the room on another man's lap. Quietly he withdrew into the hall and there he took out his knife and slit the strange umbrella full of holes. Then he sneered: "I hope that it rains." Revenge.

An Irishman, coming out of ether in the ward after an operation, exclaimed, "Thank goodness that is over!"

"Don't be too sure," said the man in the next bed. "They left a sponge in me and had to cut me open again,'

A patient on the other side said, "Why, they had to open me, too, to find one of the instruments."

Just then the surgeon who had operated on the Irishman stuck his head in the door and yelled: "Has anybody seen my hat?"

Pat fainted.

OBITUARY

At her home, Melvern Square, on October 16. Anna Maria, beloved wife of J. Abner Phinney, passed away after weary months of suffering, aged fifty three years.

Stricken some months ago with an incurable disease, she bore her suffering with great patience and fortitude her brave optimistic nature bearing her up to the end.

An exemplary wife and mother, she will be sadly missed in her home, but her quite christian influence will be felt for years to come.

Very early in life she united with the Melvern Square Methodist church and for many years served faithfully in that church, as organist, Sabbath School teacher and church worker, one of the faithful few, ever willing to do her part to aid in her Master's cause.

She leaves to mourn their loss, a husband, two sons, and a little daughter, eight years of age; also two neices and a nephew in Florida.

The funeral service was conducted at her home, by her former Pastor, Rev. Mr. Hockin, assisted by the present pastor, Rev. Mr. Distant and was largely attended by sorrowing friends and neighbours.

Appropriate music was furnished hymns being used, and interment by the Melvern choir, the old familiar was made at the Melvern Presbyterian cemetery.

She has been called from pain, and hurt, and strife
From all the ills which fall to flesh and clay;
She has been raised unto an higher life:
Now should we mourn whom God in love may stay?

The floral tributes were beautiful and appropriate; Pillow of roses and carnations, from Harvey and children Sadie and Harry — Spray, Methodist church.- Spray, Scout Master and Scouts Troop No . Melvern Square. Other beautiful floral pieces were from Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Burling: - Mr. and Mrs A. B. Morris:—Mr. and Mrs. Archibald:—Mr. and Mrs. Avery Patterson :—Laura and Verna Warner.

Easily Fatigued And Despondent

A CONDITION KNOWN AS GENERAL DEBILITY DUE TO WATWERY BLOOD.

General debility is a term used to describe a weak and run down condition of the system. Debility may come from a number of causes. The after effects of acute illness, lack of nourishment due to poor digestion, overwork or worry, or anything that makes the blood thin, thereby preventing it from carrying nourishment and health to the tissues of the body. The symptoms of debility vary, but weakness is alawys present, often a tendency to be easily fatigued, spots passing before the eyes, weak back, dizziness wakefulness caued by inability to stop thinking, and unrefreshing sleep.

Mr. Lorenza L. Gamache, Rockland Ont., was a severe sufferer from this trouble and tells how he found release He says:—"Two years ago I was in that condition which medical men call general debility. I made periodical visits to Montreal for fourteen months to undergo electric treatment At the end of this time I was feeling well and thought with proper care I would continue in good health. But in the course of a month or so the symptons came back more acute than ever. I lost appetite and could hardly sleep during the night, and what sleep I had was disturbed with nightmares. I had headaches and the least effort was telling on my nerves. I always felt pains somewhere and had to lose much time. After suffering for three months, trying various things without good results, I was terribly depressed and disheartened. One day I met a friend who noted how pale and thin I was and he so strongly recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, that I determined to give them a fair trial. I got six boxes and began the treatment at once. After I had taken four boxes I began to notice an improvement in my health. I could sleep better, and I scarcely had a headache. Since that time my health has been steadily improving and now I feel as well as ever. I have gained twenty pounds since I began the treatment. Now I would not be without Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in the home, and strongly recommend them to all who suffer from a depressed system and the aches that follow."

You can get these pills through any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cts. a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

FALKLAND RIDGE

FALKLAND RIDGE Oct. 28—A large number of our citizens went to Springfield on the eveinng of Oct. 23,, to attend the services held there in the Baptist church to welcome our new pastor the Rev. Donald Dron of Edinburg Scotland. After an informal reception and bountiful refreshments in the Vestry the audience gathered in the auditorium and enjoyed an address by Rev. Mr. Wilson of Middleton, Folowing this, we listened with much interest to a short address by Mr. Dron who has seen much of the world having been a Missionory in India, in Africa and in the Canadian West. We hope he will learn to like us, and that in due time Mrs. Dron and the family may follow him here as soon as health and circumstances will permit. In the meantime during the months of loneliness which must inevitably come to Mr. Dron, so far from home and loved ones let us extend to him our sympathy, our hossipality, and our heartest co-operation in his work, realizing that it is aulso our work, and God's. We trust that great good may result from Mr. Dron's ministry among us.
