THAT distention of the stomach which many people feel after eating, may be due to improper mastication of the food; but, in most cases, it indicates a weakness of the digestive organs, the best remedy for which is one of Ayer's Pills, to be taken after dinner.

THE vicissitudes of climate are trying to most constitutions, especially to people having impure blood. For all such (and they constitute the majority) the best safeguard is Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the use of which cleanses the blood and strengthens and invigorates the system.

He helped Mr. Murray to prepare the defence in the case of the Queen vs. the Alexanders charged with assaulting J. J. Daley and his opening address to the jury is highly spoken of by all who heard it. BASE BALL.—The Hillsboro base ball club went to Albert last Saturday to play a friendly match with the Albert Club. After an interesting game the Albert Club proved victorious by 4 runs and an inning, the score being Hillsboro 30, Albert 32. Dr. S. C. Murray acted as umpire and as is usually the case with such officials failed to give universal satisfaction. However the Hillsboro boys took their defeat good-naturedly while their opponents bore their victory with becoming modesty. Our boys hope for better success when the return match is played.

It will be gratifying to our readers to know that the History of British Columbia, by Hubert Howe Bancroft, until recently sold only with the complete set of this author's works in 29 volumes, can now be obtained separately, complete in one volume. It is perhaps one of the most difficult fields in literature, to take what was so lately a vast wilderness, with only the crudest material to work with, and make of it a complete and finished narrative, as Mr. Bancroft has done, interweaving with the more substantial political and industrial developments those pleasing incidents and romantic episodes connected with the wild and roving life here encountered.

Mr. Bancroft's pictures, in this volume, are drawn largely from life. Visiting the country in person he came into close contact with the old retired officers of the Hudson Bay Company, most of whom have now passed away. From their experiences he not only obtained a large mass of information which otherwise would have passed out of existence, but he was enabled to fill his work with vivid life and detail which in no other way could have been possible. Besides being a masterpiece of historical investigation, it is full of that thrilling interest which attaches to the subjugation and settlement of wild countries, which here have not their parallel.

"THERE was a frog who lived in the spring. He caught such a cold that he could not sing."

Poor, unfortunate, Batschebian! In what a sad plight he must have been. And yet his misfortune was one that often befalls singers. Many a one, useful voice among those who belong to the "genus homo" is utterly spoiled by "cold in the head," or the lungs, or both combined. For the above mentioned "croaker" we are not aware that any remedy was ever devised; but we rejoice to know that all human singers may keep their heads clear and throats in tone by the timely use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, both of which are sold by druggists.

Our Washington Letter.

With everyone that can get away from this hot city out of town, the President who has out of town, from the Departmental messenger who has gone down the river for a day's outing, Washington has a nearly deserted appearance on Sunday. The houses along Connecticut avenue are closed for the summer, and that thoroughfare, which is wont to be the afternoon parade ground of fashion on foot and in carriage, showed yesterday only a few solitary wayfarers. Pennsylvania avenue, democratic as it is respecting its letterers at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon in mid-summer boasted only a few apologetic passers by, who are wondering why they didn't go out of town themselves. The sidewalks were as hot as frying pans the asphalt pavement seemed to sizzle under the July sun yesterday.

At the corner of Pennsylvania avenue and seventh street is a wide space, where hawks stand on week days and which boasts a curiously shaped drinking fountain which was erected five years ago by some Western man and which has never by any chance contained water since its first month's existence. If there is any breeze in the business part of the city it is here.

Across this deserted space at 3 o'clock comes a wiry little old colored man, with a Bible under his arm and without any preliminaries he kneels down beside the fountain and prays long and earnestly. A score of loiterers slowly gather around him, and he commences to harangue them. His sermon is rather long and is like the efforts of most old colored preachers, extremely doctrinal and the text is taken from Revelations. He concludes by getting the Johnstown horrors in some mysterious jumbled mixed with the use of wine among Congressmen.

The score of loiterers that have gathered are now doubled and as the colored man departs, a long haired white man with a lot of manhood black charts comes into view. These charts have shills drawn on them and mountains and pyramids with novel lettering entered about. The white man begins his discourse without prayer and for a half hour explains the pictures on the chart, the whole thing appearing to be an object lesson, treating of the deliverance of the children of Israel out of bondage. The white man is not an exhorter, and indeed, he becomes so much interested in his subject and wanders so far into speculation that he has no time for exhorting before he is interrupted. A huge wagon is drawn up by the post-office where the Sunday evening delivery hour is on, and the crowd as some respectable proportion. Speech after speech is made relative to personal experiences, the quality of the speeches being perhaps more of a matter of astonishment than the experience. Some are really able and some are really drivel. With a passing song, in which many of the crowd join, the wagon, with its great gilt letters "Gospel Wagon" glistening in the setting sun is whittled away.

For the last half hour, waiting patiently on one side is a little group of four or five women and a half dozen men. They are cheaply and coarsely clad, and the women's faces bear the brand of care and worry. These people belong to the Salvation Army and are waiting their turn to take possession of the square. They stand there perfectly still. One young Australian among them, with the most intensely stupid face I ever saw, tries to sell a few copies of the "War Cry" the official organ of the Army, which he carries under his arm.

When the wagon has gone away, they all kneel down and the Captain, who is a young woman, prays in a shrill, piping treble. When she is through it is dark, and the little group commences to sing some sort of religious verses to the air of "I'll meet her when the sun goes down." So it goes on for an hour, the singing and praying and exhorting, until the women's voices are faint and the crowd gets tired out and departs.

Then this miserable remnant of a shabby army sinks off to bed up dirty alleys and into poverty stricken houses, and yet happy in enthusiastic and unwavering adherence to their "cause."

What few of the churches that retain their Sunday night services, have discharged their congregations and no sound breaks silence except an occasional street car, until the blessed exodus party comes in at nearly midnight. A host of heavy drinking "sports," who have been out among the road houses all day, cross the deserted plaza and stop to whistle and jeer at a wretched drunken woman of the town, who finally sits down at the foot of the abandoned fountain, to wait for a policeman to arrest her. Surely the former religion that has been offered there to-day, have a work to do Washington, D. C., July 22, 1889.

Manitoba Crops.

More Encouraging Reports.

WINNIPEG, July 23.—Recent rains have wonderfully improved the crops, especially in Manitoba. Farmers who three weeks ago expected only half a crop of wheat are now confident of reap what they sow.

TORONTO, July 23.—The Globe publishes crop reports this morning. Manitoba it says: "Wheat will be an average crop. Barley two thirds of a crop, except a poor crop. Rye crops from Portage la Prairie and Brandon have encouraging features. The situation is not all that could be desired, but there seems no good ground for the despairing reports that have been circulated."

Scissorings.

A PONDEROUS EARL.—Acadia Mines, N. S., has a genuine living curiosity, the person of Earl Gillis, the five year old son of John B. Gillis. This lad weighs 135½ pounds, height 4 feet 2½ inches, and girls around the best 24 inches, and at the waist 42 inches.

Mr. Weeks was liberated on $4000 bail, furnished by C. B. McDougall and Wm. Fairbridge.

OLD ENOUGH TO DO BETTER.—Mr. and Mrs. Peter Duckett, both over 70, were sent to prison at New York Saturday for a one month term. They have been married 35 years, and have had 19 children, eight of whom are dead and four in Sing Sing prison.

DIED TOGETHER.—One of the most remarkable suicides that ever occurred in Rockford city was that of Mr. and Mrs. George Sasmith. Both were over 75 years of age. They had been married for some time. They have been in poor health. Friday night they walked to the river, tried their arms together and jumped in. To-day the bodies were found four miles below the city. Old age and poor health were the only cause.

THE WORK OF A FRIEND.—An attempt was made July 25, to wreck an overcrowded picnic train on the Wheeling & Elm Grove railroad. A rail was placed on the track in an open field, and a short distance away a man was found driving a spike between the ends of two rails. He was captured. He is suspected of being the man who made two attempts at train wrecking on the night of July 4th.

GOOD FOR THE COUNTRY.—The Londonderry Iron Company circulate in wages among the people of Colchester monthly $21,000.

A consignment of 3,000 tons of coke belonging to the Lepp's Society at Hillsboro caught fire on Saturday. The fire was extinguished with difficulty. Loss $6,000.

FOUND GUILTY.—Calgary, N. W. T., July 29, William Fish, who murdered a beautiful Indian girl known as Rosalie, last February, has been found guilty of manslaughter and received 14 years penitentiary. He was acquitted last spring but the judge ordered a new trial, with this result.

Mr. Atkinson Moffat, one of Amherst's oldest and most prominent citizens, died Wednesday evening after a brief illness. He had accumulated a property worth about $25,000.

The Weekly Observer.

HILLSBORO, N. B., Aug. 1, 1889.

Observations.

St. John's Bay. St. John is to hold an election for Mayor on 6th August. At present there are two candidates in the field, Hon. T. B. Jones Conservative, and W. A. Lochart Esq., Liberal. Other candidates are talked of.

Could Not Make it Work.

Despatches from Ottawa state that the American authorities have had to back down in their attempt to enforce the Alien Labor Law against Canadian boatmen at the Thousand Islands. This was no more than could be expected as it was only another instance of "biting of the nose to spite the face."

Encouraging Crop Report.

Last Saturday the Toronto Empire published special reports from six hundred places, covering the whole Dominion, regarding the state of the crops. The prospects for a splendid harvest for nearly everything are most cheering. In Ontario there will be the greatest yield in all classes of grain known for years. Boots generally will be a big yield. Fruit is a failure, except in a few western counties. In Quebec hay is a heavy crop and grain is above the average. Reports from the Maritime Provinces show the outlook to be very favorable. In Manitoba and Territories, recent rains have improved the outlook wonderfully and there is every prospect of a good fair average.

"Sounding Brass," etc.

Some of our exchanges publish the statement that on a recent Sunday a poorly dressed woman tried to get a seat in five different Montreal Churches and was treated with "severe courtesy." Montreal is not the only place where church worship is becoming a mere show. Fashionable religion (?) is fast becoming a by-word and reproach to our Christianity. There is a constant strife between the wealthy churches to see which can build the finest church edifices, have the best choir and secure the most sensational preacher who will preach "to please the sinners and fill the vacant pews." The pride and hypocrisy of the present day would cause old-time Christians to mourn and lament were they eye-witnesses of it.

Fisheries Inspection Service.

The Minister of Marine and Fisheries has decided to reorganize the fisheries inspection service of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. The minister has found that the present system of provincial districts is too unsatisfactory and will substitute smaller and more practical districts, which will enable inspectors to keep a close and vigilant supervision and report directly to Ottawa. It is thus hoped to obviate the grievances which have hitherto existed.

New Brunswick will be divided into three districts.

No. 1. The county of Charlotte, including Campbellton and Grand Manan; No. 2. Restigouche, Gloucester, Northumberland, Kent and Westmorland; No. 3. The remaining counties.

How To Sweeten Up Life.

I know a woman who is neither young, handsome, witty nor remarkably wise, and yet that woman received a compliment the other day which I would give a thousand dollars to merit. "Some say I never spend an hour in your company," said a friend to her in my hearing, "that I don't feel sorry of sweetened up for all the rest of the day." Wasn't that nice? I would rather be one of her sort of folks, passing through the most trying flower needs, than to be the greatest scholar, poet or statesman that ever lived. Rarely has a woman lived in this world who has not at some period of her life listened to a friend or a lover's estimate of her beauty or worth. But beauty fades, and even wit and wisdom grow old and are forgotten, and come to die, when the final curtain falls on one by one the lights go out and leave the stage to darkness and to dreams. When our little part is played, and our stage laid aside in the retiring room of the tomb, it will not be the answer to the question, "How did he or she stand in society, or in clubs, or in church formulas; what great cause did they champion, or what high-sounding reform advance?" that will shed lustre on our memory so much as the answer to this simple query: "What did they do to make life sweeter to the people who lived nearest them? What influence did they have in the world to change tears to smiles, and heart-aches to peace?" Perhaps some of us will lay down in our grave by and by finding it a very welcome place, and to give up long and bitter turmoil, and somebody happening along one day and reading the inscription on the headstone that lifts out of the grass and the clover, shall say, "Why yes, I remember that woman; she was neither handsome nor gifted, but bless her heart! she made folks happy and life pleasant for everybody who came in contact with her!" Won't that be better than initials a foot long on the roll of fame? Why, I believe it would make my dust put for a June rose when I was dead.

Who Pretends to be the Messiah.

Offering Human Sacrifices. SAVANNAH, Ga., July 25.—A terrible condition of affairs has been produced in Liberty County by the preaching of a half-crazy negro, Edward James, who claims to be the Messiah. In many respects James resembles the fanatic Orth or Bell, the colored preacher now confined in the Milledgeville insane asylum. His gospel, however, is much more degrading than Orth's. Some of his astounding and more amusing, others are revolting. He tells his listeners to throw their money away. Near his rude pulpit is a box, into which the silver coins are thrown. Yesterday David James, a brother of the preacher, and Carter, a friend, went to the camp ground to try to persuade Edward James to give up his calling. The negro who was there denied that there acting lord was about. The two men at length discovered Edward James asleep in a wagon. They woke him up and began arguing with him. He got mad and threatened to strike them dead. Carter put his hand on James' shoulder, and the pretend-Messiah struck him in the face. Carter knocked the false Lord by the throat and asked him until his tongue stuck out. At that the other negroes mobbed Carter and beat him terribly with their fists and clubs. Carter is likely to die. James is a justice of the peace. On Thursday last he announced his divine mission. He preaches in an entirely new condition, and urges his followers to make financial sacrifices to the Lord. On Sunday he was as much as $400 was offered as a sacrifice. James tore up the paper money and scattered the silver broadcast through the woods. Whether he secreted some of the coin and paper on his person is thought extremely likely that he did. This crowd that follow James increase daily, and the violence is recurring to the law-abiding element of both races. The idea of sacrifice has spread to a horrible extent. Human blood is demanded. On Sunday a boy, four years old, was left with his aunt, Laura Roberts, at home, several miles from Walthamville plantation, by his parents. On the return of the father and mother the child was missing. On a ditch. On the forehead a cross had been cut out on the breast the same symbol was stabbed deeply. The throat was cut and the ears split. The woman was arrested, but refused to divulge what she had done with her other child. A right hand search has been instituted, but without avail. The owner's jury returned a verdict finding Laura Roberts guilty of murder. The woman was out of her mind one time, but had recovered, and was, apparently, perfectly sound until she began her mad career. She was one of his most devoted followers, and, after his removal, transferred her attentions to James. Like many others, she accepted all of his words as of divine origin, and acting upon them, killed the child. James, while a justice of the peace, had in his office Tony Lecourt, a negro constable. Tony is now posing as the Holy Ghost.

HOSPITAL REMEDIES.

What are they? The growth of intelligence in medicine has given rise to a demand for a class of genuine, reliable medicine. The opportunity of the ignorant quack, who grows purring everything out of a single bottle has passed. To supply satisfactorily this demand this list of remedies has been created. They are the specific prescriptions of the most famous medical practitioners of the day, gathered from the hospitals of London, Paris, Berlin and Vienna. Prescriptions which cost the patients of these specialists from $25 to $100 are here offered prepared and ready for use at the nominal price of one dollar each. Not one of them is a cure all; each one has only the reasonable power of curing a single disease, and each one leaves in contrast. Sufferers from Catarrh, Consumption, Lungs, Bronchitis, Asthma, Rheumatism, Gout, Dyspepsia, Liver and Kidney Complaints, Fever and Ague, Neuralgia, Female Weakness, Laceration or Nervous Debility, should send for this list of remedies to Hospital Remedy Co., 204 1/2 West King St., Toronto, Canada. If your drug store does not keep these remedies remit price and we will send direct.
