HELD FIELD DAY NEAR CHAUTAUGUA

Thirty-Sixth Battalion Succeeded in Defeating Force of Invaders.
ROUTE MARCH TODAY
Telegraph Line Constructed in Camp for Use of Headquarters Staff.

By a Staff Reporter.
NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE, June 3.—Today Col. E. C. Ashton's command held field operations in the neighborhood of Chautaugua. The tactical scheme gave out the information that a raiding force landed at Port Dalhousie and in the course of their advance were defeated at Welland. While this force was retreating in order to re-embark, the 36th Battalion came upon it to the north of the Lake Shore road. The attacking scheme was very well laid out, and the 36th came in for generous praise by the headquarters staff officers.

The 36th succeeded in driving the enemy out of two positions and were forcing them to retire still further when the umpire's whistle sounded. A conference held at the headquarters the plan of attack was disclosed by the officers.

The big route march for the entire camp will be held tomorrow morning. The men will form up shortly after breakfast and will be well on their way by 9 o'clock. The march will be taken along to enliven the march, and the men will be dressed in drill order. Two companies of the 36th go to the ranges on Friday for musketry instruction, while the remainder of the unit is participating in the march.

The hospital report for the day gave the information that the number on the sick list had increased to 104. Major Richardson has been in two operations, making a total of seven since the stationary hospital was opened.

The board of officers has been called to meet on Friday to examine several officers who are candidates for lieutenant certificates with Col. Lang acting as chairman.

KRITHIA EMINENCE IN BRITISH HANDS

Allied Line Made Successful Advance on Gallipoli Peninsula.
GAIN SLOW BUT SURE
H. M. S. Triumph Presented Easy Mark for Germans—Turkish Submarine.

Special Cable to The Toronto World.
EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN BASE, via Mytilene June 3.—The survivors of the battleship Triumph have been brought to this island. Their story briefly told of the loss of this ship is as follows:
"The vessel was lying off Cala Tepe when it was torpedoed. She was stationary at the time, but not anchored, and she had her nets out. The first torpedo was seen coming, and was fired upon by one of the ship's light guns, the shot missing it by two inches. The torpedo cut thru the netting, and probably did but little damage, but the second and third missed almost simultaneously went thru the same hole in the netting. Officers and men say that they felt the ship lifted by the explosions and she then heeled over very rapidly, and disappeared altogether in fifteen minutes. She went down bow first, and her portside propeller was the last part of her to disappear. Help was fortunately near at hand, and the loss was confined to three officers and 53 men.

Discipline Perfect.
As was to be expected from a ship whose crew had gone thru very severe fighting since the beginning of the war the most perfect discipline prevailed on board. The men kept very cool and acted on the command of the British officers right to the last. As the ship went down very quickly most of the men quietly slid down the starboard side into the water and swam to get clear of the suction when the ship was disappearing. They are all cheerfully believing in the stability of Britain, and expressed high as optimistic regarding the outcome of the European war, and considered it fortunate that the outbreak of the war was in the out of noxious gases and other barbarous methods of warfare, the Germans had placed themselves outside the pale of civilization; but he said, "Not all of usages of hell will stop the British from getting into Germany." He paid a tribute to the financial stability of Britain, and expressed his belief in the ultimate success of the British arms.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

SWANSEA TORIES HELD GRAND RALLY

Sixteenth Riding Association Formed in South York.
STIRRING ADDRESSES
Warm Debate Regarding the Insurance of Township Soldiers.

Much enthusiasm prevailed at the grand rally in the Swansea Conservative Association held last night in the S. O. E. Hall, when the association was congratulated upon its organization by Dr. Forbes Godfrey, M.L.A., West York; Ald. H. H. Ball, general secretary of the riding of South York; J. E. Boyley and P. McQueen, president and first past president respectively of the Rushmores Association; W. Caswell, president of the Oakwood Association; Deputy Reeves F. H. Miller and W. M. Graham and Councilor C. McKay of the York Township Council. President William McLean occupied the chair.

Dr. Godfrey emphasized the value of efficient organization in the development of new associations, and urged his hearers to spare no effort towards that end. He was satisfied the cause of the allies was the cause of civilization, but that, nevertheless, Providence was on the side of the heaviest artillery. He suggested that the organization of the Liberal party and of the senate had a far-reaching effect on the counsels in Germany. But the brave sons of Canada were trying to rectify the mistake then made, and Germany had found she was not fighting England alone but a united empire.

GERMANY OUTLAWED.

Ald. Ball stated the association was the 16th riding of South York, and would be responsible for the divisions Nos. 19 and 21. Speaking of the political situation and outlook, he quoted the words of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, "that the Liberal party would consent to be involved in the vortex of European militarism," and considered it fortunate that the outbreak of the war was in the out of noxious gases and other barbarous methods of warfare, the Germans had placed themselves outside the pale of civilization; but he said, "Not all of usages of hell will stop the British from getting into Germany." He paid a tribute to the financial stability of Britain, and expressed his belief in the ultimate success of the British arms.

Jackson Up-to-date in Style and Equipment
Old-Fashioned in Honest Workmanship

NO HILL TOO STEEP
NO SAND TOO DEEP

THIS is the way a man who knows automobiles described the new Jackson "44," selling for $1500, to a friend recently. It came to our attention and seemed a worthy text.

"Up-to-date in style and equipment; old-fashioned in honest workmanship." What more could be said in approval of a motor car!

The Jackson is up-to-date in style and equipment. You cannot help admiring the perfect stream-line body. For grace and symmetry, the Jackson ranks second to no other car.

The refinements are complete—flush doors, concealed hinges, one-man top, rain-vision windshield, crowned fenders, rounded radiator front. The ignition and lighting switches, speedometer and oil gauge, are all grouped on a central instrument plate in the centre of the dash, and all illuminated by a single dash light.

The equipment is everything that modern motor-car demands call for.

"Old-fashioned in honest workmanship." Think how much that means in these days of rushing things.

"Old-fashioned" in the careful selection of materials, in the accurate machining of parts, in the deep, lustrous finish of the body.

"Old-fashioned" in the sturdy strength that has made Jackson Cars famous for durability throughout the past thirteen years. This is the kind of car you want, isn't it? A car that's up-to-date in style and equipment, and old-fashioned in honest workmanship.

Specifications, Model "44"—Long stroke, four-cylinder motor, 40 H.P. Auto-Lite electrical system, lighting and ignition system. Gasoline tank vacuum feed. Steering wheel on left side, control levers in the centre. Either front door may be used. Full elliptic springs front and rear, underlining in rear. Rear axle, floating type, two universal joints. Wheel base, 115-inch. Tires, 34 x 4-inch.

Two Other Models—Jackson "48"—$1850, Jackson Olympic "46"—$1750.

Brunton in Newmarket yesterday there was aired the pros and cons of an intricate liquor case which taxed the patience of the magistrate and occupied no less than five hours. Jones stoutly denied the charge, likewise the statements imputed to him at the time by the constable in charge. After a long and conflicting evidence a non-suit was entered, the magistrate holding that the case had not been fully proven. Jones was defended by J. P. Haveron of Toronto, and among the interested listeners were some of the local clergy.

TODMORDEN TEAMSTERS WANT SHARE OF WORK

Claim That City Men Only Are Employed on Don Mills Road Improvement.
Altho the work has been resumed on the making of a good road on the Don Mills road, west from Patterson's Corner, residents and teamsters especially claim that they have a grievance. In conversation with The World a well known merchant of the locality stated that city teams were being employed in preference to local men. "When an opportunity arises to give some of our local teams employment, men who in some cases have been idle all the winter, then the work is let to men in the city. We have more than sufficient teams to do the work, and it is to be hoped that the authorities will see to it they clear to employ these men."

The Best Treatment For Constipation

The Experience of One Who Knows and Places Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills First. It is not difficult to secure a medicine that will effect movement of the bowels. To cure constipation and the troubles which attend it from it is another matter.

Constipation of the bowels is usually preceded by torpid action of the liver. Hence it follows that if constipation is to be cured the liver must be set right. And here lies the secret of the success of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They awaken the action of the liver and insure a good flow of bile, which is nature's cathartic. The liver, kidneys and bowels are invigorated and regulated, and the troubles with the digestive system disappear.

Sheltered by tall green pines and approached by broad winding walks, the Preventorium of the Daughters of the Empire was open yesterday afternoon, when the Municipal Chapter were the guests of the president of the institution, Mrs. E. F. B. Johnston.

The guests, received by the hostess on the broad verandah, where tea was served from inviting tables, after which the house was scoured from ceiling to cellar and on the whole tour it would have been difficult to find enough dust or debris to attract even a hummingbird in quest of furnishing for spring housekeeping.

The 35 children at present in the house were found in the schoolroom at the Preventorium are kept free and the some few had symptoms of constitutions none too rugged, others had blooming cheeks that seemed to deny predisposition anything but the best of nature's gifts.

Without being conversant in the slightest with modern methods of fighting disease, one could easily arrive at the means by which children at the Preventorium are kept free and eventually rendered immune from the dreadful white plague, to which probably one or both parents are victims.

Only Twenty Casualties in British Ranks—Turk Steamer Sunk.

By our artillery. Excellent practice was made by naval guns and by a territorial battery which was especially conspicuous. The heights occupied by the Turks were seized by noon, and the enemy fled, leaving three compound guns complete with ammunition, and nearly 250 prisoners in our hands.

Turk Mines Exploded. After hurriedly exploding several highly-charged mines discovered later in the river bed and on-land, we continued our advance on June 1, but found that the enemy had hastily evacuated his camps at Barhan and leaving a number of tents standing. He was observed retreating in steamers and native boats, which were speedily pursued by the naval force.

By evening we reached a point five miles north of Erar's Tomb, some 23 miles north of Kurna. The Turkish steamer Bulbul was overtaken and sunk. We also captured two large lighters, one containing 100 tons of field guns, ammunition, mines, and about 300 prisoners. The pursuit was continued by moonlight. Our casualties have been trifling, about 20 in all.

PLENTY OF RECRUITS Abundant Supply of Munitions Still Requisite to Win War.

more bond slave of cruel military tyranny, or whether it will come out triumphant, free and more powerful than ever before for good in the affairs of men.

Victory For Equipment. "I come here to tell you the truth. Unless you know it, you cannot be expected to make sacrifices. Our Russian allies have suffered a severe setback. The Germans have achieved a great success, not because of superior valor of their soldiers or strategy of their generals. The German triumph is due entirely to the superior equipment, an overwhelming superiority of shot and shell and munitions and equipment. It was a battle won by the use of their skill in the industries, and especially by the superior organization of German workshops.

Help of All Wanted. "Two hundred thousand shells were concentrated in a single hour on the heads of the gallant Russians. Had we been in a position to apply the same process to the Germans on their turned out of France and driven high across the devastated plain of Flanders. They would have been well of the country they had tortured and tormented with dastardly cruelty. More than that, we should have actually penetrated the French lines.

For the moment we have more than plenty of men for the equipment available. More men will come to the call, but we want the workshops to equip them with weapons. The state now needs the help of all, and I am proud in answering the agonized appeals of relatives for information about those who have gone.

Joe (a brother) was killed on the 24th. The right of the 7th Battalion line which had hurriedly thrown over to hold the gap on the left of the Canadian Highland Brigade, where the French broke—was not in close contact with the battalion that it. A link which was supposed to be there disappeared in the night, and early on the 24th the Germans broke in between and enveloped our right. After that it was difficult to get ammunition in to that flank. At the most strenuous hour, Joe volunteered to get some. He succeeded, but just as he got back to the line he was hit by a shell and blown to pieces. Death was instantaneous.

Misses Close Friends. "It is taking every ounce of self-control I have got to hold myself in leash and hurriedly carry on my heavy heart is heavy. I miss Joe. I miss the colonel. I miss many others who were very near to me. And with it all I have been compelled to buckle right down to the work of building up a new regiment on the remnants of the old. I was in command throughout the action, and they have still left me in command. Nothing has been said to me, so I do not know whether I am to be promoted or not. All I do know is that I have been ordered to go ahead with the work.

The Colonel's Death. On the 23rd we held the Germans. On the afternoon of that day we were ordered to dig in at night and make our position secure. Col. McHarg and I went out to reconnoiter the ground to decide on the best position for the trench line. In front of us was a hill, about 300 yards sloping down; at the foot some ruins of Col. McHarg wanted to investigate these. So down we went. When we entered the ruined houses and looked out the back, we saw hundreds and hundreds of Germans, not 100 yards away, lining the hill, and watching us. I expect they were curious to see if we would walk into their hands. They were 300 yards from our position, up hill; 100 yards from the Germans. We turned and made for the hill.

As soon as we cleared the house, they opened rapid fire on us. We threw ourselves on the ground. There was a small shell hole near me and I rolled into it. I called to the colonel and he followed, rolling in on top of me. He told me he was wounded in the stomach, would not let me try to dress him and asked me to go for the doctor. I got out from under him, rolled him down gently, made him as comfortable as I could and then made up the hill, dodging, running, crawling, jumping, with the Germans firing all the time. I reached the top safely and told the doctor the situation. He went down the hill in the face of the same fire, got into the hole, dressed the colonel's wounds and stayed with him till after dark, when we succeeded in getting him back to a stretcher. The bullet had entered the back of the left rear, had passed through the stomach, and was lying near the navel. We managed to get the colonel back to the hospital, but he died the next day.

Gas a Regular Weapon. About the use of poison gas, we may make up our mind once and for all as the Germans have done. The enemy is concerned, it is a regular weapon to be used whenever it will be of service, when we have a condition of affairs—it is simply the destruction by you of the enemy's army, his ships, his planes, his tanks, his guns, his war, etc., and as the war becomes more and more general so will the means employed to win it. Destruction become more varied, and we would say in peace times, "more humane and inhuman" are not delectable adjectives, they have no comparative superlative, and fate, they have been cut out of your vocabulary as they have no meaning.

SOME CRITICISM OF NEW MINISTRY

Nationalist Ginnell Was Bitter in References to Coalition Government.

ENABLING BILL PASSED

New Cabinet Members Can Take Seats—Premier Asquith Absentee.

own party, was not to be denied, however, and despite the censorship of the Speaker, succeeded in saying that the members of the house who formerly were "calling each other liars and political assassins," were now aspiring to give each other jobs and were afraid to face the electors. Mr. Ginnell was attacking Premier Asquith's political character when the Speaker ordered him to resume his seat.

After the passage of the suspensory bill the house of commons passed the first reading of a bill establishing a ministry of munitions, over which David Lloyd George will preside.

On introducing the ministry of munitions measure, home secretary explained that the war office would be the authority to demand the munitions, and that the new ministry would be the authority which would supply them. The bill passed its first reading.

An Unofficial Opposition. While it is expected that the new government will have the support of the whole of the house of commons and the house of lords, a few irremovable, such as Mr. Ginnell, there is to be an "unofficial opposition" in both houses. The leadership of that in the lower house has been assumed by the Right Hon. Henry Chaplin, Unionist, who today put the time-honored question of the leader of the opposition as to the course of business next week. By the courtesy extended to privy councillors Mr. Chaplin took his seat on the front bench on the left of the Speaker, where he had as companions new and old privy councillors, all known supporters of the coalition government.

Behind them, however, was a little group of the Radical "left" who are nothing but a Liberal government and who, as a token of their disapproval of the coalition, crossed the floor the hour to next from which they face the ministers, and will be in a better position to cross-examine them. The Nationalists retained their seats below the gangway in the position side, where they are separated from all the other parties, and will be serving everything connected with Ireland. It is said that they are prepared to raise a row if, as has been reported, the government proposes to appoint the Right Hon. James H. M. Campbell, Unionist member for Dublin University, as lord chancellor for clerical reasons.

William O'Brien, Nationalist, asked Sir John A. Simon, home secretary, whether the home would have an opportunity to discuss the question of the disappearance of a home rule ministry, which cannot be allowed to pass without some comment.

The home secretary suggested that he repeat the question on Monday, comparative to the reasons for this course the government for the coalition cabinet. He said the ministers apparently had been selected without regard for their fitness for the various parliamentary chicanery and intrigue.

The Speaker said he failed to see the relevancy of such remarks to the bill.

Joseph Albert Pease, speaking of his resignation from the ministry of education in the former cabinet, said there had been no friction. The premier had asked the members for their resignations, but the speaker could not discuss the reasons for this course as he was not fully apprised of them.

The house of commons adjourned until 11.30 o'clock, Friday morning.

In House of Lords. The proceedings in the house of lords today were confined to the first reading of the bill relieving the new ministers from appealing for re-election, and to a few remarks by the Marquis of Crewe and Lord Lansdowne on the entry of Italy into the war. These two members, heretofore leaders of the opposing parties, sat together on the government bench, the former as lord president of the council and the latter as minister without portfolio.

Facing them from the opposition bench sat Lord Salisbury.

Sir Stanley O. Buckmaster, the new lord high chancellor, occupied the wool sack for the first time, the fact that he has not yet received his peerage being no disqualification.

AMBULANCES ARE POPULAR

Canadian-Made Machines Doing Splendid Work

Among the special equipment supplied for the Red Cross, none is attracting more attention than the ambulances which have been built for the work in France and Belgium. The Russell ambulances are equipped with high-powered Knight engines, and are electrically started and lighted. Much favorable comment has been made on these high-class machines.

They have been designed with special reference to the hardship they will be called upon to endure. They are built with a wide margin of safety, size and comfort. The interior is provided with every facility for taking care of the wounded. There is provision for four stretchers, as well as several seats. When the stretchers are in place, there is room for an attendant to push between and give medical attention to those in transport.

The construction is high-class throughout, being manufactured by the Russell Company, whose reputation for building cars of the highest grade is unquestioned. In addition to those already presented for this work, several are in process of manufacture in the Russell shops. Among the latest are those for the Daughters of the Empire, Saskatchewan, Messrs. J. D. Patterson of Woodstock, Harry Cockshutt and Lloyd Harris of Brantford.

N. T. R. OPERATION WILL BE THOROUGH Government Has Arranged for Large Amount of Rolling Stock.

Minister of Finance Promises to Raise All Funds Required.

CAN HANDLE CROPS

Minister of Finance Promises to Raise All Funds Required.

By Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, June 3.—That the government in taking over the operation of the National Transcontinental Railway is going to adopt strictly business methods and handle all the traffic that can be obtained going either east or west, is seen by the fact that arrangements are now being made for securing a large amount of rolling stock and other equipment. With the good crop prospects in the west this year, and the likelihood of an unusually large quantity of grain to be carried eastward, Hon. Frank Cochrane has asked Hon. W. T. White, minister of finance, for a very considerable sum to purchase the necessary equipment. In spite of the difficulty of borrowing money just now, Hon. Mr. White consented.

The National Transcontinental will therefore, next fall provide largely increased facilities for transporting the crop, and the revenues of the road will be that much greater. It is understood that a close agreement for exchange of traffic will be arranged between the government and the C.P.F. with its eastern terminal now at Winnipeg.

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 4.

Pioneers in Civic Reform

It must not be supposed that the affairs of the city are being entirely neglected by the great body of citizens who have not the privilege of participating in the courteous and discerning proceedings of the city council. There appears, in fact, to be a growing impression in well-informed quarters that all is not as well with the city as it could be hoped in a city with such huge interests at stake, and such a motto as the city fathers use on their official notepaper. Evidence of this is to be found in the existence of several associations organized for the betterment of civic conditions, as well as in the efforts of individuals to bring home to the citizens generally and the taxpayers in particular the actual state of affairs in the civic government of Toronto.

The Men of the Empire

In a recent speech Mr. Lewis Harcourt, late secretary of state for the colonies in the imperial government, made the striking comment that "for nine months my office has been a clearing house for the patriotism and generosity of the empire." Much of what has been done to aid the motherland in this epochal struggle has been made known, but more remains to be told, and for that we must await the close of the war. When everything is revealed, and especially the entirely voluntary character of the offerings in men, in money and in kind, it will be of vast significance not only to the Britons at home and overseas and to the native races under the flag, but to the world. Bound only by the silken cord of sentiment and the bond of a common civilization and common ideals, what was vainly judged to be the weakest of empires has proved itself the strongest.

ANTI-GOVERNMENT RIOTING IN TOKIO

TOKIO, June 3.—The holding of an anti-government mass meeting this evening resulted in serious disturbances. The situation outside the building where the meeting was being held was the most serious. Many arrests were made, and the manifestoes issued by the organizers of the meeting were confiscated. Reinforcements of police were sent everywhere throughout the city.

GETTING TO BE UNCOMFORTABLE

as a whole will benefit all in the body politic, and wise men are quite satisfied to partake in the general benefit without expecting special favors.

Protect the Birds

Conservation, the monthly bulletin issued by the Dominion Commission in that regard, in the current number again urges that protection be extended to Canada's birds. It quotes from the declaration of principles made at the North American Conservation Conference these significant sentences: "We recognize that game preservation and the protection of bird life are intimately associated with the conservation of natural resources. We, therefore, favor game protection under reforestation, the creation of extensive game preserves and special protection for such birds as are useful to agriculture. How necessary the last is was shown in connection with the army-worm outbreak of last year. Vast flocks of birds visited the infested localities, as noted in a pamphlet written by Mr. Arthur, chief assistant entomologist, recently issued by the Dominion Department of Agriculture.

Special Cable to... LONDON, June 3.—Reports from both Vienna and Berlin tell of the official announcement by the German and Austrian war offices that Peremysl was recaptured at 3.30 this morning. The outer forts were battered by German and Austrian siege gun fire, and the rest of the positions from the westward were carried by assault. It was admitted that the army of General Mackensen lost heavily. The main body of the Russian army is reported to be retreating. No details were given of the number of prisoners and the amount of war munitions taken, but Hungarian papers say that as the Germans and Austrians entered the front the Russians departed from the rear. Lasted Twenty Days. The siege lasted 26 days. Heavy siege guns were used the same as at Liege, Antwerp, Namur, and Maubeuge and the fortifications are said to be damaged so that it will take months to repair them. "Despatches say that the Russians had removed men and supplies from this fortress as soon as it was seen that the forts could not withstand the fire of the siege artillery. Probably what mostly hampered the Russian commander-in-chief was the beginning of a new German attack on Warsaw, which would compel him to see to the safety of his line in mid-Poland. The Germans have commenced a great assault on the lines defending the capital of Poland, with the extensive use of poisonous gases.

TROUT'S SINGLE TURNED THE TRICK

sterling pitching finish was the bill of fare dished up by Billy Cramer and his fast-coming bunch at the Island yesterday. It was the first visit of the Montreal Royals with the great Arthur Devlin and Joe Fager as added attractions, and the peppy easterners gave the local hopes the tidiest battle imaginable throughout. It took a healthy single by Trout in the last box for the Leafs to put over a 1 to 0 victory.

The pitching was the only thing that came in bunches. Both flingers had a barrel of stuff, and while Richter had it over Manning as far as the number of hits went the Montrealer was more liberal with passes. He walked seven. Both the Royals and the Leafs had the double-play fever, and promising chances were squelched no less than three times by the double-out system. The Royals played errorless ball while the Leafs were credited with two misplays that didn't do any damage.

It was cold and the game was so perfect that it was almost lifeless. The pitchers were the whole works, and while their help behind them cut down the batters, this was so scarce that the fans didn't have a thing to cheer for until the ninth. Richter lost his home runs. He walked Roach, made a wild pitch to let the Leaf runner to the half-way stop and then Trout clouted a two-run center fielder. Fager sent Roach home with the winning run with none out. It was a fitting ending to a tight game.

Manning was never in very much trouble, and his work through the heavy fourth, that Holden opened with a double, but failed to get the lead clean. Whitman sacrificed cleanly and then Devlin hoisted to Demmitt, and Holden set sail for home. Demmitt made a perfect peg to Kocher and Holden was blocked off nicely. Manning was master for the rest of the game.

Richter walked the first two batters, but a double play helped him out. Manning opened the third with the Leafs' first hit, but the next three died easily. The Montreal pitcher had a lot of luck in the sixth. O'Hara started by driving one towards centre that looked labeled for three, but the ball took a bound up the Montreal outgarden just as the ball was in the air. O'Hara was forced to pull up at first. Graham sacrificed and Demmitt was walked. Roach bounded to short and O'Hara was cut off at third. Trout was also walked but Parent forced Trout at second and the chance was lost.

There was nothing doing until Trout unworked his game-winning in the ninth. Incidentally it was the third straight win for the Leafs and seventh victories out of the last eight games, or 11 wins in 15 starts.

DEVONIANS OUSTED BY DUNLOP TEAM

Dunlop Rubber and Devonians met last night on Caroline Park in their replayed Connaught Cup tie before a large crowd of spectators, Dunlop winning by 2 goals to 1. Hopper started the game for Devonians, but Cooper let Sharpe away, but Houston shot past the ball trapper, getting quickly to the other end, where Hopper tested Combs with a fast shot which the goalkeeper fielded nicely. A pretty play followed, which saw the Thompson goal, but Wilding cleared the danger, and Bruce caught on a nice cross from Devonia. Dunlop's first goal for the evening was scored by Sharpe, who was then made things lively for their opponents. Nothing undaunted, the Rubber men made things lively for their opponents, but could not beat the sterling defence of the Devonians' backs, and Leonard, letting Hopper away, shore hands-off, ball within the penalty area. Swift was entrusted with the kick, but also straight at Combs, who had no difficulty in clearing. Play was very exciting until half-time, which arrived with the score Devonians 1 goal, Dunlop Rubber 0.

On the restart of the game Sharpe allowed the attack, but could not score. Swift was having his worries trying to hold Barron in check, but the youthful right winger managed to send over several fouled Woods rather badly, but the free kick was cleared, and Hopper got away, only to be brought up by Yates, and Thompson, tricking two opponents, and making straight for goal, when Wilding tripped him up. Lavery making the score level from the resultant penalty kick. The Rubber men now pressed the Devonians in on their goal, and the free level, a good game ending in favor of Dunlop by 2 goals to 1. The teams: Dunlop Rubber (2)—Combs, Shore, Yeates, Low, Cooper, Lavery, Barron, Houston, Sharpe, Thompson, Woods. Devonians (2)—Hunt, Wilding, McKenzie, Burns, Leonard, Swift, Horn, Bruce, Hopper, Eddie, Allan. Referee: Sid Banks.

Secretaries of the home clubs concerned are requested to take note of the following changes of referees for games on Saturday: J. Buckingham has lost his wife through death, and referee Keely will take his place for the game between Mount Dennis and City Dairy. S. Banks will referee cup tie between Dunlops and Old Country owing to illness of J. Millip, while W. Withington will handle the game between Baracas and Ulster.

The monthly general meeting of the Hearts F.C. will be held in the Empress Hotel, corner Yonge and Gould streets, tonight. A large turnout of members and supporters is requested as business is important.

Yanigans F.C. played a friendly game with York Argyles last night, winning by 2 to 1.
