TURKS AND ALLIES CLASH—CONSTANTINOPLE OCCUPIED

Commons Debates Re-establishment || Spartan Uprisings Complicate War of Factions in Germany

And Insurance For Returned Men

RE-ESTABLISHMENT OF RETURNED MEN HEATEDLY DEBATED

No Decision "Off Bat," Sir G. Foster Tells Commons—May Be State Insurance.

SOME HOT CRITICISM

Ottawa, March 17.—(By Canadian Press)—Re-establishment of returned men, monopolized the day's proceedings in the house. Last year, a special committee of the house investigated re-establishment at some length. But there were several fields which the committee, admittedly, was unable to explore, and today, Major Andrews, of Winnipeg, (himself a returned man), moved the appointment of another special committee.

Early in the debate Sir George Foster, repeating the promise made by Mr. Rowell a few days ago, declared that it was the intention of the house to appoint a special committee. It would become empowered to "take up and carry on at the point where the old committee left off."

But the government was not in a position to give its decision "off the bat." On this there was some murmuring among the opposition.

The government, Sir George added, "does not intend to smother the question. It proposes to take the best means in its power, after a little consideration, to see that these investigations are carried out."

Moves for Committee.

Major Andrews, in presenting his motion, urged that re-establishment should be settled at home in the same spirit as was shown by the men when they went overseas. Lieut.-Col. Peck, V.C. supporting, thought questions should come before the committee in this order—pensions, re-establishment, gratuities. Support, too, was given to the motion by Capt. McGibbon and Capt. Manion, the former citing instances of present hardship in civilian life suffered by returned men.

Captain Power, while supporting the motion, hoped that appointment of a committee would not be used as a ruse to postpone the question.

New Zealand and Australia Cut Mutton Prices in Half

Offered in New York at 12 3-4 Cents a Pound, as Five-Year Contracts With British Government Are Expiring.

New York, March 17.—According to The Globe this evening, the British government is now offering New Zealand and Australian mutton in New York at 12 3-4 cents a pound, wholesale, against the prevailing wholesale price of 24 cents, and is taking orders for lamb at 18 1/2 cents a pound, wholesale, as compared with 30 cents a pound, the prevailing wholesale price.

This is made feasible by the fact that the five-year contracts, which the British government has held with the meat industry of Australia and New Zealand, are now expiring, and these countries will be free to divert their sheep and lambs to any part of the world without restriction. The Globe forecasts extremely low retail figures as a result.

TARIFF INEQUITOUS, BUT IT SHOULD NOT BE SOON REMOVED

Provincial Minister of Agriculture Gives His Views in Legislature.

ALLUDES TO DR. CODY

It was Irish day in the legislature yesterday in display of the "green immortal shamrock" on the breasts and over the houses. There was, however, one exceptional incident—a reference to Rev. Dr. Cody by Hon. Manning Doherty, which, if prompted by any sense of humor, failed to reach its objective.

Mr. Doherty spoke with a large pot of shamrock on his desk that had been presented by R. L. Brackin. He was applauded by the U. F. O. members even when he drew a broad line of demarcation between his attitude on the tariff and their well-known policy.

On he declared he had had all his life a Coburnian and was not ashamed of it. He must have carried into the U. F. O. a good deal of the old leaven, altho he declared the Canadian tariff the most inequitable and iniquitous in the world. At the conclusion of his speech his tariff ideas were but hazily comprehensible and members all round were relieved when Sam Clarke, West Northumberland, took up the running.

Mr. Clarke was in his best vein. He was evidently sympathetic to the government to the extent of their getting a chance; but he enunciated Liberalism stoutly between humorous digressions about the characteristics of Rowell and Proudfoot. The following are merely given as specimens:

"Brother Rowell saw the bright lights of Ottawa and he left us, where, in the name of God, is he today?"

"You have in this province of Ontario a number of men, so many saints who have things done in a minute."

"In this free Canada of ours common sense freedom is our greatest possession."

Most of it was in allusion to the demand for bone-dry prohibition at the time of the war. A group of ministers of the Gospel sat on the floor of the house outside the bar—the only bar unabolished. They were Mr. Clarke and wondered at the hilarious attitude of the members. Apparently they did not understand the spirit of the bar, but a few of them also wore the shamrock.

For the first occasion in the history of the legislature, Wellington Hay hid his buttonhole sprig of the Irish emblem shone instead.

Minister of Agriculture Speaks.

Hon. Manning Doherty, minister of agriculture, continued the debate on the tariff. Following the usual compliments to the Speaker of the house and other speakers, he said the structure of the Liberal platform drawn for the present operation. The Liberals are the greatest little platform builders in Canada. But the days of the Ross regime struck today, and after a struggle with the thugs, he was successful in breaking away from them, without being robbed. Constable was walking home and had $400 in cash in his pocket. He noticed the two men watching him count the money in a store and they followed him. Constable has cut on the face as the result of the tussle. One of the opposite side of the street came to Constable's aid and the two robbers fled.

CONSTANTINOPLE IS OCCUPIED AFTER RESISTANCE BY TURKS UNDER GUNS OF THE WARSHIPS

Clash at War Office, Where Several Were Killed on Both Sides—All War Vessels Cleared for Action—Any Overt Act Threatening Allies to Be Punished by Death—To Strengthen Power of Sultan.

STATEMENT BY HIGH COMMISSIONER

Constantinople, March 16.—Constantinople was occupied this morning by allied forces, under General Sir George F. Milne of the British army. This long-looked-for military demonstration by the allies against Turkey was carried out with only one untoward happening, a serious clash at the war office, where the Turks resisted the allied troops.

An exchange of shots resulted, in which several Punjabi of the British East Indian forces and a few of the Turks were killed. The excitement caused by the occupation quieted down before darkness, which brought absolute calm.

The landing of the forces of occupation was carried out under the guns of the formidable allies' fleet anchored in the Bosphorus. The British dreadnought Benbow was moored at the Galata Quay, her guns trained upon Stamboul. Another man of war faced the arsenal in the Golden Horn, while all the other warships in the Bosphorus were standing by with their decks cleared for action.

Except in the instance stated, however, there was no resistance to the allied forces as they carried out the orders for the occupation of the historic capital of the Ottoman Empire. The population, in fact, showed little alarm, nor was there any sign of panic, except in one section of Stamboul; as the commanders of the allied troops brought their forces ashore.

ONTARIO CONVENTION OF G.W.V.A. URGES STATE INSURANCE

Hold Stormy Gratuity Debate—J. McNamara Advises "No Politics."

MEET IN PETERBORO

Peterboro, Ont., March 17.—(Canadian Press)—At this evening's session of the fourth annual provincial G.W.V.A. convention, the meeting adopted a resolution to memorialize the government to introduce a measure to provide federal life insurance for members of the service in all wars, both male and female, whose disability prevents them from obtaining the regular form of insurance, such insurance to be provided at the lowest possible cost.

Several resolutions on pensions, and asking for an increase in the pension scale, were referred back to the resolutions committee.

The meeting also adopted a resolution to be submitted to the Dominion government, asking on behalf of the Indian members of the C.E.F. similar re-establishment conditions to those provided for all other soldiers. Several resolutions on the housing problem were dealt with, and it was decided to appoint a committee of experts to deal with the Ontario housing problem, and formulate plans for its improvement.

Debate on Gratuities.

A stormy debate on the gratuity question occupied the attention of some two hundred delegates at this afternoon's session. The debate opened with a resume of the main points in the issue by Comrade C. Wilson of Toronto, and three hours later closed with the meeting unanimously adopting the G.W.V.A. holders' re-establishment scheme as submitted to the convention.

CRUSADE AGAINST ALL "DOPE" FIENDS

Police Arrest Alleged Ring-leader, Who Says He's a Physician.

The police have started a crusade against persons handling drugs. Yesterday a man, claiming to be a qualified practitioner, and his wife were arrested on two charges, and two young men were later arrested while preparing an injection of morphine. The man arrested gave his name as Dr. George E. White, aged 30, of Seattle, Washington. The police are charging him with "using of the Golden Horn," and in the meantime they will communicate with the Seattle police for information concerning him. A woman with White, stated she was his wife, and along with White, will be charged with trading.

They are alleged to have purchased a fur stole, worth $85, from the Sellers-Gough store, Yonge street, by presenting a worthless cheque. On searching a worthless cheque, on couple on Spadina avenue detectives discovered the alleged "dope trafficking." It is alleged by the police that the accused came here two days ago from the United States.

White declared he is a graduate of the United States College of Medicine and can prove himself a qualified physician. His front room was being fitted up like a doctor's office and in a desk detectives Taylor, Wickert and Strain found a large quantity of pads which had been printed with the name of prescriptions for morphine and cocaine had been filled out and concealed the names of a number of people. The police state White had intended to do a land office business in selling prescriptions to dope fiends.

To Inspector of Detectives Wallace, White is said to have confessed that both he and his wife were users of morphine. He had 20 hypodermic needles, as well as quite an amount of drugs.

He asserted that he had $600 in cash and would gladly hand it over to any person who could cure him of the dope habit.

James Miles, aged 26, of 83, 1-2 Cumberland street and William Kirby, aged 19, of 74 Belwoods avenue, were arrested in a pool room on East Richmond street charged with having morphine in their possession. When plainclothesmen Greenlee and Parrish rushed in a downpour, they found the two young men heating the morphine in a spoon. One of the accused, the officers said, was holding a spoon while the other was holding a burning newspaper beneath it. The prisoners also had a needle used to administer the dope.

W. C. COMMINS DIES.

The death occurred late last night of W. C. Commins, of the Western Plumbing Company, 140 Spadina avenue, at his residence, 26 Starr avenue, in his seventy-ninth year. The funeral announcements will be made later.

DOCTORS' HALF HOLIDAY.

Chatham, March 17.—(Special.)—Local physicians have decided to observe Thursday afternoons as a holiday, and have arranged for their number to be on hand to answer emergency calls.

EXPECT SIR ROBERT IN OTTAWA ON MAY 1

Ottawa, March 17.—(By Canadian Press)—Latest information reaching Ottawa as to the state of the health of Sir Robert Borden is to the effect that the prime minister is rapidly regaining his former health, and that his recovery is being maintained. It is stated that he will likely be in Ottawa about May 1. As the season is expected to continue for a couple of weeks after that date, the expectations are that the premier will be in his place in the common chamber before prorogation.

Holland to Intern Ex-Kaiser In Some Part of Utrecht

The Hague, March 17.—A royal decree issued March 16 says the place to be allotted to former Emperor William of Germany as his residence will form part of the province of Utrecht, and that it will be fixed later by the government. The decree was in connection with an announcement to the allied premiers regarding their recent note concerning the one-time monarch.

The premier stated today that the government is considering an official allotment of land at Wiering as a place of sojourn for former Crown Prince Frederick William. He said that up to the present the government had no indication that the former emperor of his son had taken part in any political activities whatever.

The real effect of the decree concerning William Hohenzollern will be absolutely to restrict him to Doorn and Amerongen and their surroundings, and that one of the main purposes of the decree was to exclude him from any large towns.

WHITE OR RED TERROR, WHICH? IS THE QUESTION NOW ASKED BY THE CITIZENS OF BERLIN

REVOLUTION STAYED REPATRIATION

Berlin, March 17.—One effect of the revolution has been the interruption of negotiations to repatriate Russian prisoners, of whom there are more than 200,000 scattered throughout Germany. The negotiations were almost concluded when the government was overthrown. It was planned to ship the prisoners from Stettin to Rostov and pass them into Russia thru Esthonia.

Berlin, March 17.—After holding the reins of power for less than five days, Dr. Wolfgang Kapp, the self-appointed chancellor and dictator, has retired from office and official. He resigned today, and an official communication explained that the chancellor considered his mission fulfilled when the old government decided to meet the most essential demands addressed to it. He was also moved to this action by the extreme necessity of the fatherland, which demanded the union against the dangers of Bolshevism. The resignation says: "The Bauer government having voluntarily decided to fulfill the most essential political demands addressed to it, the rejection of which on Saturday led to the establishment of the Kapp government. Chancellor Kapp considers his mission fulfilled and resigns, resigning the executive power again into the hands of the military commander-in-chief."

"In this, he is moved by the conviction of the extreme necessity of the fatherland, which demands solid union of all against the annihilating dangers of Bolshevism."

The real circumstances of Kapp's resignation are still shrouded in mystery. An important factor undoubtedly is to be found in the deliberations of the under-secretaries and imperial council yesterday, which included General von Luettwitz. The views of this conference were that both Kapp and von Luettwitz withdrew in order to terminate an intolerable position.

Resignation Confirmed.

SENATE DECLINES THE DECLARATION ON FOREIGN WARS

Disposition of Reservation Regarded as Clearing Up Last Doubtful Issue.

IRISH DEBATE SHELVED

Washington, March 17.—The Republican irreconcilables, combining with the Democrats, overturned on the senate floor today the plan of Republican leaders to attach to the peace treaty a general declaration of American policy toward future European wars.

The declaratory reservation, which would pledge the United States to regard with "grave concern" any threat to Europe's peace or freedom, was voted down 25 to 39 after the irreconcilables had tried in vain to amend it. Intended as an offset to the reservation denying the obligations of article ten, the proposal had been expected by the Republican leaders to attract many Democratic votes, but on the roll call only two senators on the Democratic side supported it.

Disposition of the reservation was regarded as clearing up the last doubtful issue of the treaty fight, and the leaders immediately made plans to bring a vote on ratification by Friday. By unanimous consent it was agreed to limit speeches on all other pending reservations to fifteen minutes, and to continue tomorrow's session into the evening if necessary to put the ratification resolution into final form. About a dozen reservations remain to be voted on, but it is generally conceded that none of them will be adopted.

As the ratification controversy neared a conclusion, William Jennings Bryan began a series of conferences with Democratic senators, throwing the weight of his influence against the advice of President Wilson that the administration senate forces vote against ratification with the republican reservations. Mr. Bryan is understood to have told his friends in the senate to take the best ratification they could get, but there was no evidence tonight that he had materially weakened the Democratic forces standing out against the republican program.

Action on the declaratory reservation, which was introduced by Senator Denroer, Republican, Wisconsin, was reached after the senate had exercised itself with some difficulty from the debate started yesterday on the Irish question. Two propositions intended to aid toward Irish independence were laid aside by votes of more than 2 to 1. Discussion on each of them being ended summarily by a motion to lay on the table, not debatable under senate rules.

Pickering, March 17.—The news that the Ontario government will endorse the construction of the Hydro-Electricity radial known as the Toronto and Eastern was received with approval here tonight even if the beginning of construction may be held up a month or so in order that the financial air may clear and the government and Sir Adam Beck get everything straightened out as between the two rival street cars on Danforth and the latter township to the junction with the completed portion of the line in the latter township can be started in less than a month. METHODISTS CALL FOR A REFERENDUM

They Want Plebiscite Without Delay on Prohibition Question.

The present situation in the temperance arena in Ontario received careful consideration yesterday when some fifty representatives of the Methodist Church met in the Wesley building.

The meeting carefully considered the present temperance situation in Ontario and the counsel of eminent lawyers with regard to all legal aspects of the question.

The following resolution was drawn up and unanimously passed: "Resolved, that this meeting, after giving consideration to the legal opinion submitted, and having before it the statement of the provincial premier as published in this morning's press, recommend the executive of the general board of evangelism and social service to render every assistance towards the immediate submission of the referendum as provided in amendment to the Canada temperance act, enacted at the 1919 session of the parliament of Canada."

CITY HALL NOTES

If the board of control and finally the city council can see eye to eye with the heads of civic departments, the 3740 employees of the city are due for an increase in salary of twenty per cent. This increase, amounting in the aggregate to $990,372, was recommended to the board of control at yesterday morning's session by the department heads, who have been giving the matter earnest consideration for a number of months.

Decision was deferred with regard to an appeal for a civic grant of $1000 by the Ontario Safety League. U. S. Morley, appearing for the league, stated that the half of this amount was needed for an intensive safety week campaign, starting May 15.

A civic grant of $10,000 was suggested by H. W. Harper for the International Machinists' Association executive conference, which it is proposed will be held in Toronto in September. Mr. Harper asked that the city invite the association here. The grant will be considered.

During 1920 the city will retire debentures to the amount of $4,061,681, the money already being available.

Mr. Burgess complained to the board that in an interview with Sir Adam Beck, an evening paper had quoted the Hydro chief as not being familiar with the North Toronto Metropolitan situation, although he had been stated a number of times that Beck would clean up the matter on his return.

The mayor attempted to soothe the worthy alderman's injured feelings, but have not seen Sir Adam yet," he said, "but we are going to see him tomorrow. No doubt he will then make a statement about this and other matters.

1920 APPAREL OR BIGAMY. 1,100 people were... yesterday, Mag... nineteen year... bigamy.

The Toronto World

FOUNDED 1880. Morning newspaper published every day...

THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 18.

For Toronto.

The gauge of a metropolitan city in the extent to which people resort to it from outside for the thousand and one things which only a metropolis can furnish.

Toronto is a metropolis because it contains all the ingredients which in combination spell the great name.

Transportation has become to the metropolis what the circulation of the blood is to men and women.

Pictureque survivals are all very well, but when they impede progress they deserve to be lodged in their own niche of fame.

It was for many years regarded as axiomatic that Montreal must ever be the transportation head-quarters of the Dominion.

The Canadian Northern was begotten of Toronto ability and courage. Its headquarters were here from the time that it ceased to be a series of lines in Manitoba until it became a system of about ten thousand miles.

Toronto will really come into its own when the Grand Trunk is administered from the shore of Lake Ontario, instead of from the bank of the St. Lawrence.

Other interests concerned will try to take the National railway administration from Toronto in order to prevent the Grand Trunk leaving Montreal.

These discussions with Downing street may be excellent and may lead to good ends. But the arena in which departures from former constitutional procedure should be first and fully discussed in is the arena in which all the people of Canada can hear, and share in what is going on.

Two Parliaments For Us. Two parliaments in one city at one time—that will be next week's distinction of the capital of the banner agricultural province of this broad Dominion.

This national body, which has evolved a new national policy, has hitherto met only in Winnipeg. A company of the leading agriculturists and statesmen from the prairie provinces will be here, with others from the maritime provinces, and perhaps from Quebec, where the farmers recently in convention assembled were given a special reception by Lieutenant-Governor Fitzpatrick.

There will also be a fighting contingent from the house of commons. With the Hon. Mr. Crear, leader of the Farmers' party, at their head—the young political Loochinvar who has come out of the west.

Heaven forbid that jealousy should be engendered as between excellent hotels, but a feeling for the historical fitness of things prompts the observation that the red parlor is still well furnished at the Queen's, and that the authors of the second national policy might like to look upon a scene that is eminently associated with its forerunner.

Parliament is giving signs that it will not be difficult to unite all public men in the assertion that Canadian nationality which has always been latent in Canadian development and was finally assured by the confederation.

Mr. Doherty recalled the Liberal convention of last June in Toronto, when he said, the member for South-west Toronto made the member for Windsor look like a selling-platler. In regard to East Kent, Mr. Dewar talked of cold feet, but the only pair of cold feet known in East Kent that which the member for South-west Toronto brought back with him.

The Liberal party, in duty to itself and to Canada, should make it clear that it has no manner of sympathy with the feeble colonialism of its venerable ornament from Nova Scotia.

Mr. Fielding was a prime minister nearly 40 years ago. He held high office continuously from 1884 to 1914. He has returned to public life with his old-time parliamentary ability, but he is hopelessly out of touch with Canadian national sentiment.

They felt they could not rely on either of the political parties to do for them what was required. The farmers had no confidence in the Liberal party whose history showed it to be largely controlled by the big corporations.

Mr. Doherty spoke of education and good roads as aids to agricultural development as well as Hydre. He referred to Howard Ferguson's 'almost evangelistic' appeal for fair play for Hydro.

APPEALS IGNORED FOR ADEQUATE STAFF

Sims Says It Was Not Until Benson Confirmed Request, That It Was Granted.

Washington, March 17.—(By Canadian Press.)—The appeals of Rear-Admiral Benson, chief of operations, reached London during that month.

Admiral Benson said, and quickly convinced himself of the "necessity for establishing a permanent base headquarters of the navy department abroad with an adequate staff to make possible full co-operation with the admiralty and co-operating all activities with the navy."

"I had been recommending such action for five months and specifically in my letters of May 16, July 16 and October 23, 1917, had pointed out the necessity for the establishment of such an advanced base headquarters abroad," said Admiral Sims.

After Admiral Benson had reported the department changed its attitude, the continued, and a cable to Benson, November 17, said a decision had been reached that it would be advantageous to have a permanent war staff in England to work with the plans department of the British admiralty.

"It is merely another instance of the attitude of the department during all those three critical months of the war," said Admiral Sims.

"A recommendation I had been making for six months was not carried into effect until Admiral Benson, during his short stay in London, convinced himself that it was justified."

TRAGEDY IN ST. JOHNS

Three Men Are Killed, Six Others Injured When Building Collapses.

Montreal, March 17.—Three men were killed and six others seriously injured, one of whom is not expected to live, when a concrete building in course of erection for the Singer Manufacturing Company at St. Johns, Que., collapsed this afternoon and buried under the debris about a dozen men.

The accident is thought to have been caused by the giving way of two concrete beams which supported the heavy cement roof falling through the building into the cellar. The collapse is supposed to have been caused by frost heaving got into the cement before it was thoroughly set.

RE-ESTABLISHMENT HEATEDLY DEBATED

used as camouflage. The soldiers' settlement scheme had been taken advantage of by emissaries of the government to graft at the expense of the men.

McKenzie D. McKenzie. Mr. Nesbitt, speaking later, especially resented references which Mr. McKenzie had made to last year's committee. Had Mr. McKenzie attended any of the committee's meetings? Mr. McKenzie, shaking his head, replied that he had not.

Heardily Mr. Nesbitt retorted that if Mr. McKenzie had not attended the committee's meetings it was unfair that he should criticize.

"It is not only unfair," Mr. Nesbitt shouted, "it is absolutely mean."

The speaker intervened. He requested withdrawal of the word "mean." Mr. Nesbitt complied, but insisted on the use of "unfair." And his reply to Mr. McKenzie stood at that.

Finally the debate was adjourned. It being St. Patrick's Day, a large pot of shamrock graced the table by the speaker's throne.

Re-establishment Taken Up. With very little time taken up by questions or other formal matters, the house got down in good time to a discussion of the motion fathered by Major G. W. Andrews and Lt.-Col. Peck asking for a committee on soldier re-establishment owing to the fact that provision already made in many cases was entirely inadequate.

"We do not claim that all the men who went overseas were saints or heaven-born financiers, but it is a fact that an overwhelming majority of them were of the best type of Canadian citizens," said Major Andrews. "The war had been a great educator to those who had come back and now they were fast lining up behind a movement which had for its object the securing of what was commonly called a square deal.

Major Andrews Speaks Out. He gave a vivid word picture of an average day in the trenches and how the men, after coming thru a bombardment, had sworn among themselves to take a hand in the government of the country if they ever lived to get back home.

Major Andrews said it was a spirit of self-sacrifice which enabled the men to win the war and the people at home to win the peace. "If this is not anarchy," he said, "it means getting back to nature." He said the problem of re-establishment should be tackled at home in the same spirit as the men who had gone overseas had tackled their problems.

Col. Peck V.C. in Support. Lt.-Col. C. W. Peck, V.C. (Skeena) said he was satisfied in supporting the government's resolution that the men should give the returned men a fair hearing. He had said in his own constituency, that he would not support the extreme demand being put forward. He believed, however, that a committee should be appointed and should deal with all the questions of the returned men in the following order: Pensions, re-establishment, gratuities.

Col. R. C. Cooper (Vancouver South), a member of last year's committee on re-establishment, said the pensions committee should be allowed to deal with these questions.

Mackie Wants New Minister. H. A. Mackie, Edmonton East, said he would support the resolution if it came to a vote in the house. He said, however, that many of the problems irritating the returned men could have been removed by purely administrative action on the part of officials of the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment. The veterans, however, would not deal with the minister (Sir James Loughheed) and commander (Sir James Loughheed) and returned men. The minister, they said, was "offish," had no regard for votes or voters, and did not understand their problems. The member for Edmonton said he would rather move in amendment that a new minister should be chosen and that he should be a man who had served overseas. A returned man should also be appointed as deputy minister, so that the soldiers could go to one of their own kind.

Awaits G.W.V.A. Opinion. J. H. Burnham, Peterboro, said he would ask the minister to adjourn the debate until he had time to receive from a meeting of the veterans at Peterboro a pronouncement on the resolution for which he had asked. We thought this would be available by the end of the week. He did not think last year's committee had yet been released and therefore this resolution was perhaps a little unfortunate.

A. B. McCoig, Kent, said he would support the resolution.

Sir G. Foster Answers Critics. Sir George Foster remarked that the pensions board had had thousands of cases to investigate and, being only human, it was inevitable that the board should have to meet some criticism. He praised the work done by the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment and the land settlement board. As to further inquiry this year, the government intended to appoint a committee.

May be State Insurance. Sir George stated that a scheme of state insurance for the returned men was before the government, and if it could be worked out, would be placed before parliament in the form of a bill, before very long.

He dealt with the administration of relief, which money was voted last year, and said that while it had perhaps not come in the form some soldiers would have wished, it was administered in no niggardly spirit. The act-up-premier said he had every sympathy with the disabled men and with the widows and orphans who were suffering thru the loss of their bread-winners.

With the students whose educational career had been cut off, he was also in hearty sympathy, and also with those men who had given up business or employment to fight and had been unable to regain their former positions. Sym- pathy could not be measured in dollars and cents value, but it was a question of how far relief in these cases could be carried out in actual practice. Sir George said he would not ask that the minister withdraw his resolution; the government would prefer to have the debate continued so that it could secure the ideas of the whole house. In a very few days, he hoped the government would be able to put forward what it proposed in the matter of a committee to handle this situation.

Capt. C. G. Power, Quebec South, said a committee should not be used as camouflage. He believed, however, that a committee should be appointed and should deal with all the questions of

D. D. McKenzie Very Critical. D. D. McKenzie, Cape Breton, said the patience of returned men had been exhausted by the dilatoriness and tergiversity of the government. He charged the government with deliberately delaying aid to the men and using the appointment of committees as a camouflage to throw dust in their eyes. He said the government was now the essence of the contract. "He remembered that last year the government had said the finances of the country would not stand any further help to the men; he did not see any chance of improvement in the financial situation this year. He charged that the settlement scheme had been taken advantage of by emissaries of the government to graft at the expense of the men. The men were looked upon too much as wards of the state, and it warped their initiative. Moreover, there was much discontent because the government had singled out the farmers from among the returned men instead of lining up a policy satisfactory to all trades and professions among the men.

"The friends of the government," said McKenzie, "have decided that the harvest is past, the summer is over, and this government cannot be saved." This remark benches.

Favors $500 Indemnity. Mr. Ferguson, Gloucester, N.B., was in favor of a small indemnity, say $100 or $500 to returned men to enable them to set up in business for themselves.

Charges Should Be Met. Hon. W. A. Buchanan, Lethbridge, said that he had found it difficult to justify to his constituents, his action last year in supporting the committee which had declined to grant the full measure of support asked for by returned men. He had talked to returned men of all classes of life and of different politics and when he told them that the committee had shown that the country could not afford to grant $200,000,000 in extra gratuities to returned men, he had been met with the charge that the government was extravagant. The Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment Commission, he was told, was over-stuffed, and too much money was being spent.

Mr. Buchanan said that he merely wished to point out that such charges should be met. If they were true, steps should be taken to provide the re-establishment branch with no more than an adequate staff. Mr. Buchanan suggested that the government might consider making loans to returned soldiers who desired them, for the purpose of building homes. He thought that parliament should make an honest attempt to deal with the problems of the soldier in such a way as to settle them on a fair and just basis.

TWO SUSPECTED DIPS.
Inspector of Detectives Takes Two Alleged Pickpockets Into Custody.

Inspector of Detectives George Guthrie still possesses his keen eye for pickpockets. Yesterday afternoon he followed two suspects for some distance on a crowded car, and when they attempted to "dip" three different people Guthrie arrested them. The men held were Edwin Tolliver, aged 45, of Detroit, and Frank McClelland of Brockton, Minn.

The inspector was at the corner of Bay and Queen streets when he saw the men board a College car. He noticed them crowding in amongst passengers, and followed them. When they got off at Adelaide avenue and College street, he also stopped off, and caught them working their way in a crowd in the rear of the car the men arrested had just got off.

FLY SINN FEIN FLAG IN PORTAGE DU FORT
Residents of Town Demand Explanation for Presence of Colors.

Portage Du Fort, Que., March 17.—The flag of the Irish republic flapped in the breeze over the town hall here this morning, the Sinn Fein colors, green, white and orange, causing a sensation to put it mildly.

Naturally people were demanding reasons, and to all inquiries Mr. Leonard Coyne, secretary-treasurer of the town, invariably replied: "We wish to recognize the right of the Irish people to govern themselves and to show respect to Papineau and Mackenzie, who thru their rebellion 83 years ago, obtained self government for Canada. "Long live De Valera and the republic."

NAVY MUST BE SECOND TO NONE

First Lord Says Britain is Firmly Adhering to Its Traditional Policy.

London, March 17.—Introducing the naval estimates in the house of commons today, Walter Runcie, first lord of the admiralty, said the government was firmly adhering to the traditional policy, that the British navy should not be inferior to the navies of other powers. Then, alluding to the United States as the only country whose navy approached that of Britain in strength, he said that the idea of competition in armaments between the United States and Great Britain was repugnant, adding: "We hope and believe that if there is any emulation between us it is likely to be in the direction of reducing that ample margin of naval strength, which we possess over other naval powers. This is the foundation of the British naval policy."

LEGISLATURE NOTES

Mr. L. Brackin yesterday introduced a bill to amend the public school act by providing, if deemed expedient, treatment of children when attending school suffering from minor physical defects where in the opinion of the teacher and the nurse and medical inspector the defect interferes with proper education.

Premier Drury announced in the legislature last evening that the report of the Kapuskasing commission has been handed to him and would be laid before the house without delay.

H. H. Dowart has asked whether other witnesses could be called in Toronto. Premier Drury said there would have been no objection if the report had not been completed.

Mr. Dewart Parties have come to me asking that their evidence be added.

Hon. Peter Smith, provincial treasurer, told The World that he intends to reserve all information respecting the borrowings and accounts generally of the province for the legislature. He hopes the public accounts will be ready to be brought down on Friday.

Premier Drury yesterday conferred with Sir Adam Beck on the $5,000,000 hydro project for the supply of power to the Great Lakes Pulp and Paper Co. at Fort Frances. The relations of the company with the federal administration were left in a rather unsatisfactory way. Sir Adam Beck was able to enlighten the cabinet in several ways and as a result of the conference, a communication was sent to the company at Fort Frances which is expected to pave the way to settlement of all matters in dispute.

Mr. Brackin has a bill to amend the deserted wives maintenance act. A magistrate can now award to a deserted wife a sum not exceeding $10 per week which the husband must pay. This bill would raise the amount to $20.

Mr. McAlpine will ask for all correspondence between the minister of justice of Canada and the late premier of Ontario relating to the eight hour day.

Mr. Marshall inquires concerning the number of high school teachers, public and private school inspectors, and how many contributed to the government superannuation fund.

Mr. Brackin will move that the government take immediate steps to introduce the Torrens system now in force in Manitoba, Alberta and Saskatchewan.

Mr. Dewart desires to know what certificates under section 46 of the Ontario insurance act were in existence on November 13, 1919, when the present government came into office and in what names.

Mr. Hartley Dewart also asks what certificates for liquor warehouses under section 46 of the Ontario insurance act were in force between the 16th day of September, 1918, and the date of the Dominion order in council prohibiting importation.

Mr. Hay will ask the government to issue or deliver to the public bonds since the 13th day of November, 1919, and all particulars.

The memorial tablet erected by the matron and nursing sisters of the Ontario Military Hospital, Orpington, Kent, England, to the five nursing sisters of that unit who gave their lives in the service of their country during the great war, has now arrived at the parliament buildings and will be placed in position within the next few days.

The five nursing sisters commemorated by this tablet are: Nursing Sister Mary Agnes McKenzie, Toronto; Nursing Sister Thomas C. McKenzie (parents), 290 McPherson avenue, Toronto; Nursing Sister S. E. Garbutt, next of kin, Rev. John Garbutt (brother), Oshawa, Ont.; Nursing Sister Lovell, next of kin, Thomas Lowe (father), Birkbeck, Ont.; Nursing Sister D. M. Baldwin, next of kin, Mrs. Robert Baldwin, (mother), Paris, Ont.; Nursing Sister Greene, next of kin, Mrs. James Greene (mother), Harnsworth, Ont.

As Monday, March 22, 1920, is the fourth anniversary of the date on which the Orpington staff left Toronto for overseas service, it has been considered that this date would be the most appropriate to be selected for the dedication of the tablet and its unveiling.

At the request of the Hon. E. C. Drury, and the Hon. F. C. Biggs, the Hon. C. C. Cody will take charge of the short memorial service. It is requested that those who wish to attend should be in their places by 1.45 p.m. as the service begins at 2 o'clock.

Matrons and nursing sisters will assemble in the reception room at the parliament buildings, at 1.30 p.m. The matron-in-chief of the Overseas Nursing Service, C.A.M.C., Matron McDonald, has been requested to unveil the tablet, and it is hoped that Chief Matron Rayside, militia department, Ottawa, and Matron Margaret Smith, and Matron Morton, formerly of Orpington Hospital, will also be present.

WHITE OR RED, WHICH WILL RULE?

(Continued From Page 1). has retired, with the object of bringing about internal peace. General von Luttwitz has retired for similar reasons. The vice-cancellor, in the name of the imperial president, has accepted the resignation of the imperial government. General von Seeckt with the provisional conduct of affairs as commander-in-chief.

Altho the general strike dealt this government a mortal blow, the decisive fact is that Kapp and his supporters had no political prestige; their government being built only on machine guns. The statements made at these conferences gave a strange impression, and caused a suspicion that the cry of alarm about the Bolsheviks was preliminary to the announcement of retreat. The chief of the press bureau warned the correspondents against showing themselves in the streets, as a communist revolt was expected hourly.

That any kind of compromise is on the question now is undoubted. President Ebert of the old government is strongly entrenched at Stuttgart, where, according to semi-official advice, the council of the empire met today and unanimously approved the old government and strongly condemned the military coup Berlin.

Fear Bloodshed. Frightened Berliners last night were asking "The White or Red Terror? Which?" This was in consequence of an official announcement that the reds were planning a rising and calling upon the people to save the country from Bolshevism.

Government officials said to the Associated Press: "We fear bloodshed tonight; it is difficult for us to hold the troops back."

In preparation for the expected rising, officials camped in their offices all night. Then the correspondent left the chancellery at midnight in the darkness. Wilhelmstrasse soldiers were lined up in huge boxes of food and cases of wine. Berliners generally scurried to their homes, apprehensively seeking refuge and locking their doors.

Notwithstanding Dr. Kapp's resignation, Berlin seems destined to have a troublous time. An influential member of the government talking with the correspondent Tuesday, insisted upon the urgency of suppressing the strike movement and communist opposition. He added: "Time is on the side of the communists, and every hour we let slip weakens our position. We may expect great events between now and tomorrow."

Moving to a Climax. The great events, beginning with the retirement of Kapp, are evidently moving to a climax. Ebert sent an airplane over Berlin dropping leaflets predicting the early collapse of the Berlin government.

The utter tie-up of the city continued today, and there is no evidence of the breaking down of the strike. So far as is known, no fresh troops have been received, and prices are jumping almost hourly. The striking water plant employees released amount to 10,000 men, but little is available for drinking purposes.

Rioting occurred during Monday night in various parts of Berlin, and it was officially admitted this morning that twelve persons were killed in the Potsdamer Platz.

Other disorders occurred in the suburbs of Friedenau, Chottensdorf, Schoreberg and Tegel, the latter a radical labor centre.

HAT OF BECOMING LINES

AS YET spring is more a hope than a reality, and as we have not felt the softness in the air for which we have waited so long, we are still submissive when our furs caress our chin. And if there has been, perhaps, a little more hesitation than formerly in making a spring purchase—it is the weather. But, regardless of the cold, one sees new cloths and hats everywhere—particularly hats. At first glance they seem nice enough, to be sure, but one look at the label and the price tag and the discovery is made that they are merely to be looked at.

But there is a way out of most difficulties, and if one is possessed of a braid straw, a horse or any sort of small hat, there is a way out. Since everything is shining with lacquer and price more reasonable, until the season has become more advanced and prices more reasonable, and invest in a bottle of refined shellac or a can of Canadian-made glass black.

Of tropical charm is the marine blue chapeau of soft straw braid. An added charm is the silken tassel, which is fastened to the crown and drawn thru a slit in the brim of the straw. It hangs at the left side with original effect.

Serious Fighting in Dresden and Disasters in Other Places.

The Hague, March 17.—The Telegraph's Dresden correspondent, under yesterday's date, describing the fighting for the telegraph office, says the Spartacists had to engage a small force protecting the office, but later had to encounter a larger force, which fought with grenades and armored cars. STOP LOOK and LISTEN before purchasing a baking powder that may possibly contain injurious ingredients. Many food scientists claim that baking powder containing alum is unsafe for use in food. The mere fact that some brands of baking powder have the words "No Alum" on the label is not sufficient proof that they are what they are represented to be. Our chemists find a good many have "No Alum" on the outside but large quantities of it inside.

Hat Styles This Spring

The particular man is particular about his head gear. Somehow it reflects the measure of his self-appreciation. In a slouchy old felt, one feels like turning up his collar and looking for rain; in a brisk 1920 model, well, a man feels pretty much like one himself.

Simpson's Men's Store can provide you the hat to fit your head best and the price to fit your pocket best. You can choose here of hats in great variety and all in the mode.

All the mode shapes in hard and soft, products of the best makers, are assembled for choosing. You will enjoy our display.
