NORTHERN QUEBEC NEW GOLD LAND

Rich Finds Reported and Many Claims Have Been Recorded

(Canadian Press) Cobalt, Ont., April 5.—Half the virtue claimed for this new field is proven, there will be a great rush of free lance prospectors of the north from the Porcupine district in Ontario to Quebec this summer. Sixty miles northeast of Haliburton, about 60,000 acres of territory has been staked out and several good free gold finds are chronicled. There is every indication that the main prospecting activity in the north this year will be not at Porcupine, which is now staked solid for dozens of miles, but in the Keeweenaw country.

On the peninsula at Turnback Lake there is a great deposit of iron ore, which it is reported belongs to M. J. O'Brien, the Renfrew millionaire, and Hon. Clifford Sifton. It is said a German syndicate have bought it for half a million dollars. At Keekok Lake a find of quartz solid for twenty feet and carrying very fine grained gold has been made by Sam Leroy. He staked all he could, then he got licenses at the nearest recording station, for relatives and finally passed the word on to his friends.

C. A. Foster, who made a fortune by selling the Foster mine at Haliburton to Lady Scott and the Foster mine at the Porcupine to Augustus Heintz, heard of this new country in Northern Quebec. He has made his fortune by making such chances at these, and he outfitted an expedition, and his name with that of his brother-in-law, Heintz, is prominent on the chart of claims.

URGES CONGRESS TO PROMPT ACTION ON TRADE AGREEMENT

President Taft's Message to Extra Session Deals Wholly With Reciprocity

(Canadian Press) Washington, April 5.—President Taft today transmitted to congress a message urging early action on the reciprocity agreement with Canada. He said that he based this message upon deference to popular sentiment and duty to the great masses of the American people.

The message follows:— To the Senate and House of Representatives:— I transmitted to the sixty-first Congress on January 28 last, the text of the reciprocity trade agreement which I had negotiated with the representatives of the Dominion of Canada. This agreement was the consummation of earnest negotiations extending over a period of nearly a year on the part of both governments to effect a trade arrangement which, supplementing as it did the amicable settlement of various questions of a diplomatic and political character that had been reported, would strengthen the friendly relations now existing.

The agreement in its extent and in its terms, was purely economic and commercial. While the general subject was under discussion by the commission, I felt assured that the sentiment of the people of the United States was such that they would welcome a measure which would result in the increase of trade on both sides and reserve productive resources of Canada to the great mass of our own consumers on advantageous conditions, and at the same time offer a broader outlet for the excess products of our farms and many of our industries.

Found Widespread Approval. Details regarding a negotiation of the kind necessarily could not be made public while the conference was pending. When, however, the full text of the agreement, accompanied by its purpose and data explaining both its substance and its scope, had been made known to the people through the message transmitted to congress, it was immediately apparent that the ripened fruits of the careful labors of the commission met with widespread approval. This approval was strengthened by further consideration of the terms of the agreement in all their particulars. The volume of support which has developed shows that its broadly national scope is fully appreciated and is responsive to the popular will.

Urges Early Action. I am constrained, in deference to the popular sentiment and with a realizing sense of my duty to the great masses of our people whose welfare is involved, to urge upon your consideration early action on this agreement. In concluding the negotiations, the representatives of two countries bound themselves to use their utmost efforts to bring about the tariff changes provided for in the agreement by concurrent legislation at the Congress of Ottawa. I have felt it my duty, therefore, not to acquiesce in relegation of action until the Congress of the next year, but to urge upon your consideration early action on this agreement. The reciprocity trade agreement is a measure which will result in the increase of trade on both sides and reserve productive resources of Canada to the great mass of our own consumers on advantageous conditions, and at the same time offer a broader outlet for the excess products of our farms and many of our industries.

Discovery About Provincial Bookkeeping Made By Hon. Mr. Robinson

(Special to Times) Fredericton, April 5.—In the public accounts committee this morning Hon. Mr. Robinson showed that in 1910 about $33,000 of interest and sinking fund on the inscribed stocks was not charged against the year 1910.

Mr. Robinson went into the matter fully and showed that in the last two years only one year and eight months interest on this account had been charged against the province. It was quite true that, under the conditions of this inscribed stock, the interest was payable every six months and that what might be called the stock year did not coincide with the fiscal year of the province. Hon. Mr. Robinson's point was that the interest accrued at the end of the last fiscal year—about four months interest—had not been charged against the province's statement.

COMPANY HAS EXPERT ON STAND IN 'PHONE INQUIRY

Chicago Electrical Man Testifies Before Public Utilities Commission

(Special to Times) Chicago, April 5.—The public utilities commission was occupied this morning in the examination of F. H. Reid, an electrical expert from Chicago, who was brought here by the telephone company to testify in the case now being heard by the commission regarding excessive rates. The examination of Mr. Reid was conducted by Recorder Baxter and he was subjected to a lengthy cross-examination by Mr. Powell. The direct examination was mainly regarding technical matters. The witness gave as his judgment that the cost of the St. John exchange would be about $10 to $125 per station.

Mr. Powell endeavored to secure from the witness statements of the detailed cost of construction and installation of telephone lines, but he declined to answer some of the questions on the ground that costs would vary according to conditions. At the session yesterday afternoon, H. P. Robinson was again on the stand, and was questioned about the rates, and service in St. John. During the last year, he said, there had been a raise of $4,000 in the operating expenses and he felt that this was due to increased pay. After adjournment, the commissioners visited the local plant of the telephone company.

Expert is Called. At this morning's session F. H. Reid, consulting electrical engineer and telephone expert of Chicago, was called to the stand and examined by Recorder Baxter as to technical matters. He said he had entered the telephone business in 1906. He told of the mechanical means utilized for "speaking up" the operation of the telephone. Depreciation was due to wear and tear, on physical wear and tear, made "quasi" or "obsolescence."

Mr. Powell pressed the witness for an answer as to the cost of No. 12 wire per mile, as to the cost of cross arms or insulators, but he declined to answer, even within limits. He said he could not approximate the cost of cable for any length, or for underground conduit work. He said he would not admit that the relative cost of pole lines in the city was less than in the suburbs. In the city larger poles had to be used.

Mr. Powell asked if the larger poles did not accommodate more wires, and the witness said that while this was so, the cost in the city was generally conceded to be greater than in the suburbs. The life of iron wires, the witness said, was about ten or twelve years; of cedar poles, about fifteen years; and underground conduits, about thirty to fifty years.

Continuing the witness said the life of cable was about 15 years. Mr. Powell questioned the witness at some length as to the depreciation account in the books of the telephone company, but he declined to make provision for a depreciation fund. After some further questioning, the inquiry was adjourned at 1 o'clock until 2.45 this afternoon.

ENGLISH MONEY IN BIG PORT ARTHUR BUSINESS Meat Packing Establishment to be Rival of the Chicago Concern

Toronto, April 5.—F. H. Keefer, K. C., who is returning to Port Arthur after an extended trip to England, says that after the completion a party of British capitalists will visit Port Arthur with a view to founding a meat packing establishment at £1,500,000. They expect to secure the bulk of the contracts for supplying the British army and navy which hitherto have gone to Chicago.

Los Angeles, April 5.—An interurban car was held up last night by two men, who robbed thirty passengers and the motor man and conductor of much money and many watches.

"I've Had a Beautiful Dream," She Said on Awakening New York, April 5.—There was much hysterical excitement at 3 a. m. in a flat on the second floor of No. 30 East Third street, when Mrs. Hannah Scriber, who apparently had been dead for seven hours, and had been pronounced as such by her relatives and friends, suddenly opened her eyes and spoke.

Several of the relatives fell on their knees and screamed that a miracle had been wrought. The cry, "The dead has come to life!" was taken up and quickly spread throughout the neighborhood. Many persons flocked to the place to get the news at first hand, and as the day advanced the east side talked of the event as one of the wonders of the times.

Mrs. Scriber, who is 65 years old, fell on ice. First she had pleurisy, and then had pneumonia. Her children and grandchildren were summoned. Among the latter, Mrs. Abraham Waltz and her daughter, Mrs. Charles Zolot, came from Chicago. The doctors gave up hope. The woman turned to those around her: "I will die in 12 hours," she said, pointing to the clock on the mantelpiece.

That night at the stroke of 9 Mrs. Scriber closed her eyes and passed into a coma which soon took on the appearance of death. Her body grew cold and her pulse was indistinguishable. In vain were efforts made to revive the woman. By midnight there was no one about her but who believed she was alive and the relatives gave themselves up to mourning. Arrangements were made to prepare at daybreak for the funeral.

Grief was turned to joy at 3 o'clock a. m. when Mrs. Scriber awoke and came back to consciousness. She conversed some during the day, and though she was in a critical condition, it was said she possibly may recover.

FARMER IS SHOT DEAD BY HIS MAN

Quarrelled Over Money—Accident, Says Prisoner, But He Shot Dog Also

(Canadian Press) North Bay, Ont., April 5.—After a quarrel yesterday between neighboring farmers in Wildfield township, fifteen miles north of North Bay, Lawrence Morin lies dead, and John McDougal, 52 years of age, is locked up here, the admitted slayer of Morin.

McDougal was working for Morin, taking out poles on contract, and went to get some money on his wages. He found Morin in the bush with his dog. McDougal claims that the dog was vicious, and that he took his shot gun to protect himself against the animal. Morin became angry when asked about the money due, and, according to McDougal's story, set the dog on him. McDougal claims that he warned Morin that he would shoot the dog if it attacked him. Morin persisted, and McDougal fired at the dog, but the charge entered the head of Morin.

Then McDougal said he fired the other barrel and killed the dog. He left Morin lying dead and went home, afterwards giving to the township magistrate and going himself up.

DIVER NINETY FEET BELOW THE SURFACE; AIR SUPPLY FAILS Plucky Mates, Capsized, Rescue Him After a Hard Struggle

San Francisco, April 5.—Imprisoned in a diving suit at the bottom of the bay, his air supply shut off and the shipmates upon whom his life depended struggling for their own lives in the water, ninety feet above his head, J. C. Hicks, a navy quartermaster, faced death in an awful form near here.

He had been laying water pipe along the bottom of the bay. Suddenly a storm came, and the ship was capsized. The pump and maintained a steady supply of air to the man below. Each man was attending to his duties when a ferry steamer passed close to the boat, capsizing it and throwing the occupants into the water. The bluejackets then gave a demonstration of their devotion to duty and resourcefulness.

They dived until they found the diver's lines, and then, hanging to the capsized boat, they hoisted away, and soon had Hicks at the surface. It was a work of only a few seconds to twist off his brass helmet.

For a few minutes the quartermaster seemed dead, but the fresh air soon revived him. By the time a launch that was sent to the rescue from the training station at Yerba Buena arrived Hicks was almost himself again.

A large delegation of medical practitioners from St. John, appearing both in support and in opposition to the bill, J. King Kelly, county secretary of St. John, also appeared in opposition to the bill. E. P. Raymond, Dr. Cobett, and Dr. Pratt, supported the bill, claiming that other hospitals had been called "the new door," and that the same should be granted to St. John. Dr. Walker, chairman of the hospital commissioners, Dr. Curran and Dr. Christie, spoke in opposition to the measure, claiming the penalty clause included in the bill was a direct insult to the commissioners, and that the work of the institution would be greatly injured if the proposed legislation was allowed to pass.

Vanderbilt died the other day of pneumonia at his home in New York in the 43rd year of his age. Loyal to horses, he once declared fervently that he would never set foot in an automobile and it is not known that he ever did.

Mr. Work's estate has been estimated at $20,000,000. He made 12th Wall street as a member of the firm of Work, Strong & Co. He was prominent in the group of financiers identified with J. P. Morgan, a number of his associates of managers and a director in several other railroads. He made his money in the days when they Gould, Jim Fiske, and Daniel Drew were making theirs, and he was equal to the best of them in combining daring with acumen.

Pictureque and Eccentric

Even his best friends called him eccentric and because of his eccentricities, which manifested themselves in outbursts of temper, he had lived somewhat solitary life in the old mansion overlooking Madison Square Park, and he no longer frequented "Deli's" and other dining places where formerly he was a picturesque figure. He had been so afflicted with rheumatism that he was unable to walk with his horse. He was his ruling passion. They brought to him health, but unfortunately he died in St. Louis after a three days' illness.

Two great sycophants came into his life. One was the death of his only son, George. The other was the marriage of his daughter, Mrs. Frances Burke-Rocher, to Aurel Belmont, a professional lawyer. It was while the latter sorrow lay heavily upon him that he declared international marriage should be a hanging offense.

Mr. Work was considered a ruisman in the forties, when country houses and mansions along the roads were his own upper west side and Harlem streets. He was the days when drivers took their horses to the city and left them at Bloomingdale road and Seventy-third street and at Judge Smith's tavern beyond Macomb's Dam Bridge. Perhaps the most famous pair over which Mr. Work's reins were his Dick Swiveler and Edward. He paid for them $15,000 and $12,000 respectively. "Big" money for the seventies. He was a devotee of the horse and he was a devotee of the horse. Several of the ladies had noticed among the young men at the service a number of men who were not in the congregation. The Board of Missions will meet tonight. The meeting will be held at 8 o'clock. Bishop Richardson, Archbishop Newhall and Dean St. John.

The insurance companies are arranging for witnesses.

REGIPROCIITY

Washington, April 5.—(Canadian Press)—Two endorsements of President Taft's proposed reciprocity agreement with Canada cheered the White House today. The first came from W. F. Knox, chairman of the Michigan Republican central committee and the other from Woodlawn Grange, of Portland, Ore.

Angry because the Republicans stole a march on them by Representative McCall, Republican of Massachusetts, introducing the McCall Canadian reciprocity bill in the House, Democratic representatives set out today to offset this theft of Democratic thunder by framing a reciprocity bill of their own, which they will sub for the original McCall bill.

According to the tentative plans under discussion by Democratic leaders the new reciprocity bill, framed for introduction by a Democrat, will embody all the principles of the McCall bill changes being of no primary importance and only written into the measure to allow of its introduction, and precedence over the McCall bill.

PROSPERITY

Into the short budget speech delivered yesterday by Hon. W. S. Fielding there were crowded more facts showing the prosperity and progress of Canada, and more reasons for confidence in the future and satisfaction regarding our growth up to date, than have ever been presented previously since Confederation.

"Every prospect for Canada today," said Mr. Fielding in conclusion, is bright and hopeful. With peace and progress and prosperity at home, with the friendliest relations with the republic lying alongside of us, with the warmest attachment to the great Empire, of which we are so proud to form a part, the Canadian people can look forward to the future with very hope and confidence."

Mr. Fielding announced the greatest surplus in the country's history-$30,500,000. Further, he showed that although $24,000,000 had been spent on the construction of the National Transcontinental Railway during the year, and more than $11,500,000 on public works, the actual addition to the public debt has been only $3,900,000.

For the outlay on public works and almost all of that in building the railroad from Winnipeg to Edmonton, was paid out of revenue. The total revenue for the year just closed was $117,500,000, an increase of $18,000,000 over the year previous.

Estimating the present population at 7,785,000, Mr. Fielding said the per capita debt is now $43.69, as compared with the $20, when the Conservative party went out of power. Mr. Fielding made the significant announcement that the government has no intention to renew the steel bonnet.

With the exception of Mr. Foster, who fired off his customary melancholy protest against the success of the Liberal party, the Opposition had no stomach for a debate on the budget, and when Mr. Foster had said his piece the debate was declared finished. Mr. Foster's criticisms are the same he has made year after year; his speech is marked by a complete lack of alternative proposals for the benefit of the country. He grows at Mr. Fielding, but has no useful suggestions to offer in matters of public policy. He favored a permanent tariff commission-apparently vainly hoping that some machinery may be devised to prevent the people from enjoying the increased measure of free trade that will come through reciprocity and the increase in the Liberal preference.

Mr. Foster still speaks for the high protectionists, but the grip of that group upon the Conservative party is visibly weakening; and, if the Conservative party no longer stands for high protection, its occupation is gone.

THE UNQUET GRAVE

There is an old superstition that excessive mourning for the dead destroys their peace, and that tears burn the shrouds of those departed, but it is more than a village superstition that blood shed by ruthless reaction and injustice must in some way be atoned. The present unrest in Spain is attesting the truth of this. Though Francisco Ferrer has been dead for more than a year, the feeling created by his unjust execution is still strong enough to cause the resignation of the Spanish ministry. Before the execution of this intellectual leader many of the most liberal journals and correspondents of Spain protested with great clearness and reason, but with no effect. Several members of the British parliament took up his cause. Anatole France gave notice, long before his trial, that the whole world would refuse to accept any condemnation of Ferrer, whether by civil or military court in Spain.

After his execution, or his "judicial murder," as the Manchester Guardian called it, fifty-nine French municipal councils decided to name a street in his honor. The numerous Masonic lodges, under the National Federation of Free Thought, decided to place a monument of Ferrer just in front of the great church of the Sacred Heart. The Freemasons of Troyes have asked the French Grand Orient to begin a movement for placing his statue near the Vatican in Rome. Mayor Nathan of Rome organized Ferrer and denounced his execution in the most violent terms. In France the Federation of Labor proposed an insurrection in his name, and the Congressional Union in England joined those who hailed him a martyr.

That the affair was a serious and lasting for Spain cannot well be denied. He was condemned before a secret military tribunal, after a civil tribunal had acquitted.

BLOOD BAD IN THE WINTER

Indoor Life, Too Little Exercise, Breathing Impure Air, Eating Artificial Foods.

Is it any wonder that the system becomes poisoned with impure waste matter in the winter time, when you think of the artificial life we lead?

With doors and windows tight shut we breathe the same air over and over again until it is incapable of purifying the blood.

In vain efforts to cast the seasons out of the system the liver and kidneys are worked over time until they too are played out. The result is a marked constipation and indigestion.

The quickest and most certain way to overcome this condition is by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They act definitely and directly on the liver and kidneys, awaken them to renew energy in filtering poisons from the bowels and remove the cause of indigestion, headache and other body pains.

You are not experimenting when you use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They are unique in their combined action on the liver and kidneys and for this reason stand without a rival as a means of purifying the blood and cleansing the filtering and digestive systems.

Mr. Henderson expressed the appreciation of the members and referred to the deplorable conditions existing in St. John. He considered every trip the jail prisoners made in the chair going to and from work was a distinct blow to their manhood. It seemed to him that these men could never recover their self-respect.

Your Danger From Kidney Troubles BEGINS WHEN YOUR BACK ACHES.

Backache is the first and the sure sign of kidney disease.

When the back aches or becomes weak it is a warning that the kidneys are affected in some way.

Next to the heart, the kidneys are, perhaps the most important organs in the body. It is a common thing that if the kidneys are affected the whole system must be.

On the first sign of backache, Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken. They go right to the seat of the trouble, heal the delicate membranes of the kidneys and make their action regular and natural.

Mr. E. J. Sealinger, Lake James, N.S., writes: "I take a great deal of pleasure in telling you the benefit I have received from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. I was troubled with my kidneys for several years, my back was weak, had terrible headaches, and was so restless I could not sleep at night. I commenced using Doan's Kidney Pills and in a very short time I was right and fit again."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50c. per box or 3 for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. M. M. Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

If ordering direct specify "Doan's."

WHO INVENTED THE COMPASS? The Italians claim the invention of the compass, attributing it to Flavio Gioja, a native of Amalfi, between the years 1300-20; but the probability is that he improved rather than invented the instrument, for there is evidence that as early as the year 1122 A. D., a primitive kind of compass was in common use on the Syrian coast, and it is said that on the return of Marco Polo from China in 1293 he brought with him a knowledge of this among other original inventions.

Quick and Permanent Relief from Rheumatism

It is not exposure to cold or wet that is the real cause of rheumatism—it is bad kidneys. So long as the kidneys are doing their work properly, filtering from the blood all the Uric Acid formed there from the waste products of the body, rheumatism cannot exist.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By BUTH CAMERON

THE man-who-thinks is about to take part of his summer vacation. The other half he will take in late September or October.

And this is the explanation of his conduct which the man-who-thinks gives—that is, when he cares enough for the critic to bother to give any.

And in the third place, think of the joy of escaping the summer crowds. I am sure to get a star room and the best of attention.

And anyway in my mind the most comfortable place in summer is home. I don't know any time when I appreciate my own tub and shower, my own cool and well screened room and the surety of knowing just what I'm getting to eat any more than in July and August.

Sometimes the critics of the man-who-thinks are converted so that they show their intention of trying his plan some time. "Don't you agree?"

I Give Men This Vitality of Youth

Vitality is the thing which makes upon all with whom he comes in contact; it gives men that compelling power which sends them forth eager and equipped to meet and overcome all obstacles; it is the thing which gives the young soldier courage to face death; it is the thing which inspires and holds his sweetheart's love and faith. No matter what your age, I can give you this same vital power. I can restore the vigor you lost, no matter what early or later indiscretions have sapped your strength; I can make you "young" and keep you "young" from an intimate and studious observation of possibly 100,000 men only. Both sent upon application, free, sealed, by mail.

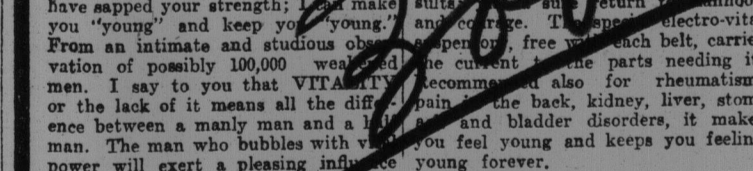

Call or write me and I will at once arrange to let you have the belt on trial, not to be paid for until cured. No deposit or advance payment. Send it back if it doesn't do the work. Liberal discount for cash if you prefer to deal that way.

They fully describe my Health Belt and contain much valuable information. One is called "Health in Nature," and deals with various ailments common to both men and women. The other, "Strength," is a private treatise for men only. Both sent upon application, free, sealed, by mail.

If in or near this city, take the time to drop in at my office that you may see, examine and try the belt. If you can not call, fill in the coupon and get the free books by return mail. They are better than a fortune for any one needing new vigor.

VISITING TAX REFORM OFFICIAL

Secretary of Toronto Association Speaks of Benefits in Single Tax—Hopes to Call on Mayor and Officials

A. B. Farmer, secretary of the Single Tax Association and the Tax Reform Association of Toronto, reached the city last night and is at the Royal. Speaking to a Times reporter this morning on the merits of the reform in taxes throughout Ontario, Mr. Farmer said it was encouraging to those interested to see the enthusiasm with which the people in general were taking part in the work.

"In Ontario," he said, "there is a general assessment act for the whole province. They tax land and buildings, but incomes up to $1,200 are exempt in the case of householders, and up to $800 in the case of non-householders. In 1904, they abolished personal property tax, and substituted a business assessment system on the value of the premises occupied. In this way a retailer pays 25 per cent. of the value of his premises, a manufacturer 40 per cent., a wholesaler 75 per cent. and distillers, 150 per cent. and so on.

"This last session in Ontario a bill was brought up allowing each municipality to place a rate of taxation on buildings, incomes, and business assessments. The measure was approved by 250 municipal councils, 200 labor organizations, and 168 newspapers which shows how general was the interest taken. At the request of Premier Whitney, however, the bill was withdrawn.

"In Toronto the tax is placed both on the ground value and on the building, and assessment is therefore not on the floor space of the firm, taxed, as in the cases in other places, and this feature being one of the location of a building as well. There is a local improvement department in Toronto which works very effectively in residential districts. For instance, if a petition is framed to have a portion of or a whole street paved or beautified, the council pays half the cost and a frontage tax is taken from the property owners in the street for the other half.

"One result of the local improvement is that, as soon as a new street is opened, the owners find the tax so high that they are compelled to build at once. The result of the local improvement is that the value of property, vacant lots, building and operations are benefited and increased.

Speaking on the feeling of Ontario people as regards reciprocity, Mr. Farmer gave his opinion that, in spite of the fact that the Whitney government had condemned it by resolution, there was a strong sentiment in favor of it throughout the country. The farmers, in particular, would call their representatives to account for their action in condemning the agreement. He felt that it would be a help rather than a hindrance to the province.

Mr. Farmer will remain at the Royal until tomorrow, when he will return to his home. He hopes to call on Mayor Price and other prominent citizens this afternoon.
