THREE CENTS

NINE HUNDRED DELEGATES IN ATTENDANCE AT OPENING OF TRADES AND LABOR CONGRESS

Labor Representatives Welcomed to Hamilton by Sir William Hearst, Premier of Ontario, Hon. G. D. Robertson, Minister of Labor, and Mayor Booker—Irish Question and Other Matters Discussed.

Hamilton, Ont., Sept. 22.—With nine hundred accredited delegates in attendance, more than double the number that attended last year's convention in Quebec, the thirty-fifth annual session of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress was commenced here today. Addresses of welcome took up practically the whole of the morning session, the delegates being greeted by Sir Wm. Hearst, Premier of Ontario, Hon. G. D. Robertson, Minister of Labor, and Mayor Booker, of Hamilton.

In each of these addresses reference was made to the spirit of unrest prevailing in Canada, appeals being made to the delegates to exercise sound judgment and moderation when discussing industrial problems or others which affected the general public.

The real business of the Congress was commenced at the afternoon session, when resolutions regarding the Irish question and the granting of clemency to defaulters under the Military Service Act were under discussion. The former was moved by Delegate John Thompson of Montreal, and advocated "A full measure of Home Rule for Ireland." The committee's resolution substituted "That Ireland be granted as full a measure of Home Rule as that enjoyed by Canada and other overseas dominions." Doubt was immediately expressed as to the advisability of the Congress making a pronouncement on the question, while others held the opinion that the subject should not have been introduced at all. Finally, after a lengthy debate, the amended resolution was adopted by a small majority.

The question of clemency for defaulters and deserters also resulted in a discussion which times became bitter as delegates spoke of their personal sufferings through the loss of relatives at the front. Other delegates, however, maintained that labor was unqualifiedly opposed to war and those who had consistently refused to fight had upheld one of labor's strongest principles. The committee refused to enter in the resolution and its recommendation was finally upheld by a very small majority.

A "get-together" gathering was held this evening in the I. O. O. F. hall. Several speeches were made by delegates supporting and opposing the recommendation of the committee and

The Ocean Limited Bandits Arrested in Quebec Yesterday

Quebec, Que., Sept. 22.—After five days of incessant work during which every possible clue was followed to the limit and practically every place in the province of Quebec, was combed fine, the police operated four arrests in the city of Quebec today and believe they have captured the bandits who figured in the hold-up and rifled the mail car on the Ocean Limited train between Lévis and Montmagny on the morning of Thursday, September 18th. The men arrested are George Topping, a freight conductor on the Canadian National Railways, and C. Bernardin T. Proteau, a former garage owner, who are the men who disguised with masks and carrying revolvers entered the mail car and after binding the hands and feet of the five mail clerks, ransacked the mail and got away with $71,000 in five-and ten dollar notes. The other two men arrested, who are held as material witnesses are George Lavasseur, a brother-in-law of Topping, and Napoleon Boulanger of Lévis.

While the police have not yet located the missing money, they hope to be able to do so in a very short time, and in the meantime, they have the masks used by the bandits, when they made their haul.

While the operations of the police since the hold-up seemed to be concentrated in the rural districts and along the American line, they were neglecting nothing in Quebec and Lévis and the fact that the four arrests were operated in Quebec today indicates that their operations had narrowed down to a small area within the past few days.

The first arrests made today were those of George Lavasseur and Napoleon Boulanger, the former is a mechanic in the employ of the Gosselin firm at Lévis, the latter was also a resident of Lévis. Both were arrested in Quebec, the former on St. Joseph street, and the latter as he was entering the Quebec post office.

While these two men have some connection with the crime, it is understood that they turned King's evidence and as a result are merely held as witnesses in the case for the present.

When the police had secured statements from these men they immediately set out to locate Topping and Proteau. Proteau was found at his home at 9 Finlay Place and was placed under arrest by Detective Juste Masse of the provincial police, who took him to headquarters at the parliament buildings. All the other arrests were made by the Canadian National Railway police assisted by the Dominion police and Detective Tom Walsh, of the city police.

The four prisoners will be arraigned in the police court tomorrow morning. It is now definitely established that all four men connected with the hold-up on the I. C. R. in the early morning hours of Thursday the 18th instant, and now safely under lock and key. The two principals who led the actual hold-up, were George Topping, Transcontinental Railway conductor, who runs between Chaudière and Monk, and a man called J. Bernardin T. Proteau, in his room on Grand street.

Topping, who is recognized as the leader of the hold-up, was seen at Berthel's bar in the city of Lévis, he had a drink with a man named Collard, of St. Pierre de Montmagny. Part of a rope with which the railway was secured was found in the automobile, which is still at St. Pierre de Montmagny.

It is not definitely known how Topping and Proteau reached Quebec, but one story runs that after hiding their booty, they walked all the way and only reached this city on Friday.

Interviewed by the Canadian Press at midnight, Post Office Inspector S. Tanner Green, who had just arrived from St. Pierre de Montmagny, in the company of the Canadian Press at the Dominion police, Ottawa, confirmed the facts of the case as secured by the Canadian Press in all the essential details. So far the police have been unable to locate the missing money, but they expect to do so within a very short time, as the numbers of the money, which are known and have been manifested throughout the country. It is thought that the police working in this city are still expecting to make some further arrests within a few days.

Hon. Frank Cochrane Samuel Gompers' Died At Ottawa Message To Session Early Yesterday In New Orleans

Ottawa, Sept. 22.—Hon. Frank Cochrane, former minister of railways and canals, died here at 3:30 o'clock this morning.

Hon. Francis Cochrane was a son of Robert and Mary Ann Cochrane and was born November 18 at Clarenceville, Quebec, and was educated in Quebec. He was married in 1882 to Miss Alice LeVina Dunlop and for several years was a resident of St. John's, N. B.

He entered political life in 1898, being elected to the Ontario assembly for the electoral district of East Nipissing by acclamation in the by-election on May 30 and was re-elected in the general election held in June of the same year as a member from the newly created constituency of Sudbury.

On May 30, 1905, Mr. Cochrane was appointed minister of railways and canals in the Whitney government, retaining this portfolio, which later was known as the department of lands, forests and mines, until his entry into the Dominion government. On Oct. 10, 1911, he was sworn in as a member of the private council of Canada and appointed minister of railways and canals in the absence of those officials in 1912.

BILL PRESENTED IN COMMONS SUBSTITUTES ELECTROCUTION FOR HANGING IN DOMINION

Mr. McMaster Moved as an Amendment That the Death Penalty be Abolished in Canada—Bill Was Still Under Discussion When House Adjourned.

Ottawa, Sept. 22.—Private members had an evening in the Commons today Mr. I. E. Pedlow's bill to make the second Monday in November each year a permanent Thanksgiving Day, was one of the matters under discussion. On motion of Mr. R. L. Richardson the bill was so amended as to make November 11 (Armistice Day) the holiday of Thankfulness. This is the object of Mr. Pedlow's bill, but the South Renfrew member favored the second Monday of the month because the first work day of the week in Canada become to be regarded as more suitable for the celebration than any other day. In recognition of this feeling it was decided to allow the bill to stand in committee until objections can be heard from the House.

There was an academic debate on a motion moved by Mr. J. H. Burnham, dealing with the cost of production and calling upon the government to lay a definite plan of government in this respect before the people at the next general election. Mr. Burnham wanted a committee named to deal with the matter, but the government would not agree and the motion was declared lost.

H. M. Mowat's resolution advocating government assistance for the erection of houses in model town-sites or returned soldiers was withdrawn on the promise that this matter would be considered by the committee to which the soldiers' civil re-establishment bill has been sent.

At the evening sitting Mr. Mowat's bill to substitute electrocution for hanging as the death penalty was debated and Mr. McMaster, seconded by Mr. Pedlow, moved by way of amendment that the death penalty should be abolished.

The bill was still under discussion when the House rose.

Ottawa, Sept. 22.—Tribute to the late Hon. Frank Cochrane was paid in the House this afternoon. Hon. C. J. Doherty referred to Mr. Cochrane as a man of sturdy reputation, one who in every action was impelled by a desire to do his duty and do it in full measure.

Mr. McKenzie, House leader of the opposition, also expressed the profound regret of the opposition. Although the opposition had not agreed with Mr. Cochrane, they believed he followed a conscientious line of action in the best interests of Canada, as he saw those interests. Mr. McKenzie added that he always respected Mr. Cochrane because he believed him to be a firm party man and representing what was best in his party.

The Solicitor-General presented a bill to amend the Dominion by-elections act of 1913. The bill provides that where there is any disqualification against any particular person that disqualification shall be continued in the case of a by-election. The bill really raised, Mr. Guthrie added, the question of the Oriental vote.

In answer to a question by Mr. Thomas Hay, the government stated that $23,350,550 had been subscribed to the 1918 Victory loan in Winnipeg. Commission was paid on $7,335,450.

SERIOUS RIOTING AT THE CARNEGIE COMPANY'S PLANT

Seven Persons Shot, One Probably Fatally, at Newcastle, Penna., Yesterday—Crowd Attempted to Prevent Mill Workers Entering Plant—Men Had Heads Clubbed at Pittsburgh—Twenty Arrests Made.

Newcastle, Penna., Sept. 22.—Seven persons were shot and one probably fatally, in rioting which broke out at the Carnegie Steel Company's plant here late today.

The trouble started when a crowd of about 400 persons attempted to prevent mill workers from entering the plant. About twenty workmen were being assaulted, when the mill guards, consisting of a number of deputy sheriffs, came to their rescue.

The mill guards were met with a volley of bricks, stones, and clubs. They drew their revolvers and attempted to hold the mob at bay, but the shower of missiles continued and the crowd refused to disperse. Several shots were fired by each side, according to Clairton police headquarters.

Big Steel Strike Went Into Effect On Monday Morning

Chicago, Pittsburg, Buffalo, Birmingham, Youngstown, Cleveland and Other Places Affected—No Disorder Reported.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—The big steel strike went into effect in the Chicago district today without disorder. Some of the largest plants were closed to close, but others operated on a reduced scale throughout the day and early tonight there was no material change in the situation. The minor concerns were affected in about the same proportion as the big establishments.

Whether the strike would increase in effectiveness was admittedly dependent largely upon the course of the engineers in the plants. Although their international union had forbidden a strike the most of Gary members of the order went out with the thirty-eight feet long, twenty-five horsepower and in every way staunchly built. She is owned by Messrs. This afternoon J. O. Chesley, marine agent, St. John, was notified of the anxiety concerning the missing boat with the result that the marine boats were ordered out and have been since searching the island shores. Tonight Ottawa was communicated with and requested to order out the island boats to assist in the search.

Union Party Summoned For Caucus Today

Continued from Page 1. The other, a party remains the best traditions of the two old historic organizations and grafting onto its platform, new ideas called for, by the needs of the times, is challenged by the prospect of reconstruction ahead. In their opinion the old name Conservative, despite its historic associations and splendid past, is out of harmony with the spirit of the times, and places a hobble about its prospects of success; and they would call the new organization the Unionist party.

But they insist that the matter must be dealt with now. They insist that a platform be launched so that those who feel they cannot stand up on it may go where they belong. They insist, also, upon a political organization, something without which, they hold, no party, no matter how altruistic its aims or high its ideals, can become a living force.

At tomorrow's caucus all of this is to be threshed out. From a sick bed the prime minister is understood to have sent out a creed for the new party, and this, it is said, is to be laid before the caucus. What this creed, or statement of policy contains, no one outside of a few of the premier's political intimates knows, but if it proves satisfactory to the caucus, it will likely be shortly given to the country and used as the government's fighting ground in the by-election campaign.

There are many and strange rumors about the future of some of the Liberal-Unionist members. It is said of Mr. Rowell, for example, that he will soon retire from the government and seek a favorable opportunity of returning to his old party, the favorable opportunity undoubtedly in mind being the Liberal-Unionist party.

Julia Heinrich Once Opera Singer

Formerly Metropolitan Company Singer Struck Baggage Truck—Recent Sang for Prince at Charlottetown.

Hammond, La., Thursday.—Miss Julia Heinrich, of Philadelphia, formerly a Metropolitan Opera Company singer, was killed here today when she was hit by a baggage truck which was knocked from the Illinois Central tracks by a locomotive.

Miss Heinrich was at the station waiting to board a New Orleans train. The baggage truck, which had been left on the track, according to authorities, was in the way of a passenger train and by depot attendants, was hit by the train. One of the handles of the truck hit Miss Heinrich on the head.

Miss Julia Heinrich was a member of the Metropolitan Opera Company in the seasons of 1915 and 1916. She was the daughter of the late Mrs. Heinrich, a baritone and contralto, who received most of her vocal training from her father. She made her debut in concert in this country in 1915 when she went abroad for study.

She made her first appearance in opera with the Hamburg Opera Company in Germany and, returning to this country, was engaged to sing in several of Wagner's operas. She had been singing in concert for several years and returned to New York recently, after singing for the Prince of Wales at Charlottetown, E. I.

When in New York city she lived with her cousin, Mrs. Grant Sheppard, of No. 310 West 118th street. Her sister, Mrs. W. C. Brierley, lives at Atlantic, Pa., where the funeral of Miss Heinrich will be held.

MR. HARRISON'S ADVICE.

The advice of Frederick Harrison to British organized labor should be taken to heart by everyone in Canada, for he, one of the staunchest friends that labor ever had, presents in a few words and a most striking manner the inevitable end of the present misguided demand for less work and more pay.

"The wages now paid enormously exceed the value of the work done. Bread, coal, houses, sea and land transport, are all subsidized by high wages, as very soon meat and milk will be subsidized. Producers are receiving more for these things than the goods are worth."

Continuing, he points out that Britain has been paying many millions of pounds to maintain a fixed price for bread, millions more for high wages, handing out charity to the unemployed, and to the unemployed, many of whom prefer not to work. A large proportion of the wages paid to these extremes among the unions which hold the country in their grasp is nothing more nor less than a gift handed out by the government from the pockets of the taxpayers as a means of preserving industrial peace.

Turning to the question of competition, Mr. Harrison discusses the relations between Britain and other countries. A very general impression prevails that industrial unrest in Britain, which is the only important free-trade country in the civilized world, is largely promoted by United States labor as a political move. Britain's industrial supremacy in the past has been largely due to the employment of cheap labor, which, in turn was made possible by the low cost of living. If, however, by means of outside propaganda, the workers of Britain can be induced to demand the same wages and the same hours as are enjoyed by their fellow men in high tariff countries, Britain's great advantage must immediately be lost and a free trade country be brought into competition with high tariff nations, a condition which must inevitably spell ruin for the first named. "We cannot go on working five days for six hours if foreigners work six days for eight hours," he says. Coal exports are falling. The high price of coal, high wages, and the cost of other materials, make the price of manufactured goods so high that foreigners will not purchase. Britain must buy her food abroad or starve. At her present rate of expenditure there will soon be nothing left to buy with, nor will she be able to carry her purchases to her shores, for ships cost so much that they cannot be built.

PRINCE COUNTY.

Mr. William Lyon McKenzie King is playing safe. He has accepted nomination for North York in the next general election and has expressed his determination to secure a permanent seat if at all possible in his own province. Mr. King is at present Liberal candidate for Prince, Prince Edward Island, in the by-election on October 7, and his announcement to the Ontario people is an intimation to the electors of Prince County that he is withdrawing their constituency merely as a stop-gap. He would like to sit for Prince during the next session of parliament, if such a session is held before the general election, but having done so he will abandon Prince County and go back to his own province for re-election. This is equal to a fifty per cent. boost in the chances of ex-Premier Arsenault, who is spoken of as a Unionist candidate in Prince County in opposition to Mr. King. Mr. Arsenault is looked upon in his own province as the strongest man available for that constituency, which, unfortunately, does not say as much as friends of the party would wish. They miss the big men of former years who have passed out of public life, but who, if still in the running, would easily defeat the present Liberal leader. A few weeks ago Mr. Arsenault's chances of success were slim indeed, but a change in sentiment has been taking place in Prince Edward Island, where the people vote one way or the other, not on federal issues, but on little local twists, and where the result of any contest is always a matter of extreme doubt. This changing sentiment favors Mr. Arsenault, who met defeat in provincial affairs not through any fault of his own but because of a combination of circumstances against which no government could prevail. And this sentiment is in opposition to Mr. King on the ground that he is attempting to use Prince County merely as a convenience to his own ambitions, that he will not represent Prince County in any way whatever, and that insofar as his presence in Ottawa is concerned he will be of no value to the electors who are now called upon to support him.

THE WESTFIELD ROAD.

Mr. Veniot's wonderful road work has been getting into the papers again. He has built a splendid new steel bridge over Milligan's Brook on the Westfield road and is straightening out that road in a manner which will literally transform it. The strange thing about this whole proposition is that the bridge over Milligan's Brook was projected and authorized by the Murray government. It is a very fine piece of work and has been built by A. E. Smye, a contractor of Alma, who secured the contract during the Murray administration but was delayed through scarcity of men and lack of material and who is just now finishing the work under the supervision of Mr. Veniot's department. "Sharp turns," says The Telegraph, "are being blasted out bodily, and broken stone used for filling depressions." The singular would be more appropriate than the plural in this case. A projecting corner on the road is being blasted, it is true, and some of the broken stone dumped into the ditch. In years to come the job may be completed, but it will not be done this season. And even if it were, it is only one of a dozen bad corners on the Westfield road which should have been given attention early in the Spring, but which has been neglected, as usual. The road-making season is almost at an end and in spite of the glowing promises of Mr. Veniot's newspapers and the advertising which he has received, the road from St. John to Ketepec is not yet fit for travel. The main highway from St. Stephen is in a deplorable condition. What might have been a good road in that direction has been abandoned and an attempt made to do something with the shore road, which will never be any good. Above Ingleisle in the Westfield district the highway is in a fairly good condition, thanks to the attention devoted to it by the previous government, and thanks to the fact that Mr. Veniot has been unable to destroy it. His attention has been directed to the stretches below Grand Bay and for seven or eight miles from St. John that highway is in very bad shape. Not only this at the end of the season, but during the entire summer the present Public Works Department has managed to keep this stretch of highway torn up, heaved with mud, covered with broken stones and generally in such a condition that travellers have actually been afraid to go over it.

W. F. O'CONNOR.

No man ever attempted to do anything for the public good without drawing upon his head the condemnation of those with whose interests he interfered. Little men with yard sticks twenty inches long are trying to measure W. F. O'Connor, and find that he is too small for the job he holds. He talks too much, they say. His regulations are too drastic. They are hurting people. He is not a fit man for the position and should be removed. Yet Mr. O'Connor was the only one connected with the Food Control Department during the war period who accomplished anything worth while, and is apparently the live wire of the Board of Commerce today. Whether his regulations are drastic or not, whether he is more lenient than necessity demands, he is getting results. And it is results that the people of Canada are looking for. With the authority vested in the board he is able to restrict advances in foodstuffs about which the people are complaining, he is in a position to allay unrest by a well-intentioned endeavor to control the upward tendency in commodity prices of all sorts, and although a few condemn his actions, the masses of the people who benefit by the regulations he and his associates provide, will endorse his policy to the limit. And that he is admirably held in esteem by those who are best qualified to judge the value of his work is evidenced by the fact that he is now a member of the Board of Commerce. Had previous complaints against his conduct while in the Food Control Department been justified, Mr. O'Connor would not have been appointed to his present post, but this appointment is a recognition of the services he has performed and of his ability to protect the interests of the people against the demands of profiteers for inflated prices, and against extravagance and waste. The announcement that the Board of Commerce will very shortly hold meetings in St. John is of more than passing interest. There are a number of matters deserving consideration which will no doubt come in for a share of attention.

WHAT THEY SAY

Sage Advice. Chicago News: What to do with the railroads: Make them efficient.

Rather Crude. St. Louis Republic: That Louisville lawyer who shot a judge when he objected to the action the court was taking was crude. The better method of influencing judicial decisions is to wait and bide the judge at the next election.

Aguinaldo's Chance to Serve. Brooklyn Eagle: Our old friend Aguinaldo has bloomed out as a captain of industry in the Philippines, and if he can make the Tagal work more than three days at a stretch, or work as all when there's money in his pocket, Aguinaldo will be a national benefactor.

No Respect For Authority. Indianapolis News: What is needed is a firm and steadfast policy toward Mexico, and that is something that we have not had. Carranza cannot be allowed to say that it is beyond his power to suppress banditry, for that is an admission that he is not able to govern the country, or to perform his duty to other nations. This latest outrage was committed by citizens of Mexico, men subject to the authority and under the jurisdiction of the Mexican Government. But it is an authority that they do not respect and jurisdiction that they do not recognize. If neither can be enforced, all the talk of such a man as a candidate for President does not deserve to be recognized as a Government.

Speech and Action. London Daily News: If it is true, as people said in Paris, that "Hoover was the biggest man there," how is it, many people ask, that no one ever speaks of him as a candidate for the Presidency? That question provokes several answers. Hitherto the American President has always been a politician—unless, as in the case of Grant, he has been simply a soldier. The American people have not yet reached the stage of choosing as head of the government a man who is not a politician. Mr. Hoover is, literally, no speaker. Some day, perhaps not far off, such a man may be counted the perfect candidate.

The World Wants Peace. Portland Oregonian: The strongest point in favor of President Wilson is his appeal for support of the peace treaty. The Senate to ratify the Peace Treaty without change is the general desire to end the present state of uncertainty. The chief cause of the industrial unrest and of all the economic troubles that afflict this and all other countries. No man knows in what way to end the present war or what or how much of anything to buy, because he cannot foresee the future clearly enough. So all go on the "boom-or-bust" principle. The armistice period is a twilight zone between war and peace, and will only end when execution of the peace terms is definitely begun. The whole world fervently repeats Grant's words: "Let us have peace."

The Forbidden Handkerchief. London Daily Chronicle: No one has yet told us why handkerchiefs are square, but a reader reminds us that they were unknown before the early part of the 18th century, Venice being the place where they made their first appearance. Otto Fische, a German authority, says that the Germans were slow to adopt the new idea. They first used them in 1580, and soon afterwards sumptuary laws were enacted in most German States forbidding any person of plebeian birth from blowing his nose with a handkerchief. This restriction remained in force for over 200 years, and was enforced even on the stage. So recently as 1790 an actress was officially reprimanded for disregarding it in a Berlin theatre. She excused herself by pleading that she had not used a handkerchief, only a little linen rag."

Are We Downhearted? No. London Daily Express: While the issue of a war for life or death hung in the balance we had to concentrate on war. Clearly, however, we were thus forced into expedients and experiments full of peril for the times of peace. Are we to let the peace go? Not on your life! This country of ours, and that of Europe, has been in ever the case. Yet Europe survives. It is a few breakages, and we grew up to win the greatest war in history. We have now to win and establish the greatest peace on the ancient basis of liberty and law. It would be folly to pretend that the difficulties and dangers are not great. They are. But they are not greater than those we conquered in the war, and we shall only go wretchedly to wreck and ruin if we persuade ourselves that this is inevitable. Not a bit of it. Buck up!

Aguinaldo's Chance to Serve. Brooklyn Eagle: Our old friend Aguinaldo has bloomed out as a captain of industry in the Philippines, and if he can make the Tagal work more than three days at a stretch, or work as all when there's money in his pocket, Aguinaldo will be a national benefactor.

No Respect For Authority. Indianapolis News: What is needed is a firm and steadfast policy toward Mexico, and that is something that we have not had. Carranza cannot be allowed to say that it is beyond his power to suppress banditry, for that is an admission that he is not able to govern the country, or to perform his duty to other nations. This latest outrage was committed by citizens of Mexico, men subject to the authority and under the jurisdiction of the Mexican Government. But it is an authority that they do not respect and jurisdiction that they do not recognize. If neither can be enforced, all the talk of such a man as a candidate for President does not deserve to be recognized as a Government.

Speech and Action. London Daily News: If it is true, as people said in Paris, that "Hoover was the biggest man there," how is it, many people ask, that no one ever speaks of him as a candidate for the Presidency? That question provokes several answers. Hitherto the American President has always been a politician—unless, as in the case of Grant, he has been simply a soldier. The American people have not yet reached the stage of choosing as head of the government a man who is not a politician. Mr. Hoover is, literally, no speaker. Some day, perhaps not far off, such a man may be counted the perfect candidate.

The World Wants Peace. Portland Oregonian: The strongest point in favor of President Wilson is his appeal for support of the peace treaty. The Senate to ratify the Peace Treaty without change is the general desire to end the present state of uncertainty. The chief cause of the industrial unrest and of all the economic troubles that afflict this and all other countries. No man knows in what way to end the present war or what or how much of anything to buy, because he cannot foresee the future clearly enough. So all go on the "boom-or-bust" principle. The armistice period is a twilight zone between war and peace, and will only end when execution of the peace terms is definitely begun. The whole world fervently repeats Grant's words: "Let us have peace."

The Forbidden Handkerchief. London Daily Chronicle: No one has yet told us why handkerchiefs are square, but a reader reminds us that they were unknown before the early part of the 18th century, Venice being the place where they made their first appearance. Otto Fische, a German authority, says that the Germans were slow to adopt the new idea. They first used them in 1580, and soon afterwards sumptuary laws were enacted in most German States forbidding any person of plebeian birth from blowing his nose with a handkerchief. This restriction remained in force for over 200 years, and was enforced even on the stage. So recently as 1790 an actress was officially reprimanded for disregarding it in a Berlin theatre. She excused herself by pleading that she had not used a handkerchief, only a little linen rag."

Are We Downhearted? No. London Daily Express: While the issue of a war for life or death hung in the balance we had to concentrate on war. Clearly, however, we were thus forced into expedients and experiments full of peril for the times of peace. Are we to let the peace go? Not on your life! This country of ours, and that of Europe, has been in ever the case. Yet Europe survives. It is a few breakages, and we grew up to win the greatest war in history. We have now to win and establish the greatest peace on the ancient basis of liberty and law. It would be folly to pretend that the difficulties and dangers are not great. They are. But they are not greater than those we conquered in the war, and we shall only go wretchedly to wreck and ruin if we persuade ourselves that this is inevitable. Not a bit of it. Buck up!

INFLAMED GUMS—THE CAUSE OF TOOTH-BASE DECAY

Just as the strength of a building is dependent upon its foundations, so are healthy teeth dependent upon healthy gums. Permit the gums to become inflamed or tender and you weaken the foundation of the teeth. This condition is called Pyorrhea (Riggs' Disease). Loosening of teeth is a direct result. Use Forhan's, which positively prevents Pyorrhea if used in time and used consistently. It also scientifically cleans the teeth—keeps them white and clean. Brush your teeth with it. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment. 35c and 60c tubes. All Drugists. FORHAN'S, LTD., Montreal.

WEDDINGS

Boles-Coleman.

A wedding of much interest to a large circle of friends was solemnized in the Douglas avenue Christian church on Saturday at three p.m., when Rev. J. C. Goslin, of Hatfield Point, assisted by Rev. J. C. B. Appel, pastor of the church, united in marriage Mrs. Mae A. Coleman, daughter of Councilor David Jones, of the Parish of Kere, Kings county, to Frank R. Boles, of this city.

The bride was attired in a handsome tulle silk gown with hat to match and carried a bouquet of cream roses. She entered the church to the Lohengrin wedding march, played by H. S. Craikbank, of West St. John. The ceremony was performed under a canopy of evergreens looped with white satin bows. Spruce and flowers decorated the church.

The bride was attended by Miss May G. Russell, of Cambridge, Mass. Miss Russell was becomingly gowned in navy blue satin and Georgette crepe with black hat and carried a bouquet of carnations.

The groom was attended by his nephew, Charles W. Henderson, while other nephews, Gordon F. and Walker K. Henderson, acted as ushers.

During the ceremony Mrs. Vernon R. Henderson, of Metcalf street, sang "Oh Promise Me," as a solo.

A reception was held at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. E. B. Henderson, Murray street, where a dainty wedding supper was served. About 100 guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Boles left on the evening train for Boston and New York. On their return they will reside in West St. John.

The groom's present to the bride was an amethyst and pearl pendant, and to the bridesmaid a gold brooch set with amethysts. To the best man and ushers he gave gold cuff links.

Among the many lovely presents received were a beautiful china cabinet from the firm of A. C. Smith & Company where the groom is employed, and a leather rocking chair from the men in the warehouse of the same firm. From the bride's parents a substantial cheque.

Mills-Wallace.

At the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson, at 6.15 o'clock yesterday morning, a pretty wedding was solemnized. The bride was Miss Gladys Rebecca Wallace, youngest daughter of Mrs. John Giggsey, Adelaide street, and the groom, Cameron Merle Mills, also of this city. The bride, who was attired in a becoming travelling costume, was attended by her sister, Miss Carrie Greig Wallace, and the groomsmen was her brother, Percy Wallace. The happy couple left by the 7.10 train on a honeymoon trip to Prince Edward Island.

Mme. LaGrange, a clairvoyant, is called upon to solve the mystery of who killed Stephen Lee. The people concerned in the murder are invited to a dinner party and then told that Madame will treat them to a seance. Thirteen people gather about a table in a dark room. Some Canadian Political Gossip

President of Trades Congress Knocks Liberal Leader — The Fair Sex and the Soldiers — To be or Not to be Drink — Social Volcanos.

Hard on King.

Tom Moore says the Rockefeller foundation was organized to defeat labor unions and here when Mr. King was being presented as a super-friend of labor.

Woman's Argument.

Toronto Telegram—A village woman spoke the morning after Ottawa's refusal to consider the claims of the returned soldiers to an increased gratuity and met the economic argument against the gratuity in these words: "If the war had kept on for two, three or four years, we would have found money to keep the soldiers' bodies fighting for us, and I don't see why we can't find all the money that is needed to keep our pocketbooks fighting for the soldiers."

These words constitute a WOMAN'S ARGUMENT. Arguments that are richer in high sentiment than in hard sense are not always easily answered.

The Farmers in Politics.

London Free Press—Mr. Dewar, in his several addresses, says that had the government paid due attention to agricultural interests there would not have been a United Farmers' party. The Liberal leader does not seem to see that this criticism cuts both ways. If the government has not been attentive to the farmers, neither has the opposition, otherwise the farmers would have been found supporting the Liberals, whereas it is Mr. Dewar's complaint that they are appearing chiefly in Liberal constituencies.

The simple fact is that the U. F. O. they acted together, rather than that they should be divided into political groups and thus fight against each other. Whether the movement will succeed cannot yet be forecasted, but success has already attended it so Ontario Will Never Put H. H. Dewar On Guard.

Toronto Telegram—Ontario might as well hand the future of Ontario's school system over to Henri Bourassa, Arnold Levinsky or any other race-and-creed fanatic as hand the premiership of this province over to Hartley H. Dewar, K. C., M. P. P. Ontario has concluded in the future of Hydro-Electric progress over to Sir William Mackenzie, R. J. Fleming or some other corporation fanatic to place Hartley H. Dewar, K. C., M. P. P., on guard in the premiership of this province.

It is unfortunately not always true that a vote for a Hearst candidate is a vote for a sympathizer with Adam Beck and an upholder of Hydro progress.

It is absolutely true that a vote for a Dewar candidate is a vote for an enemy to Adam Beck and an obstructionist of Hydro progress. Ontario's chief duty is to keep the future of this great province out of the clutches of the pro-corporationist, pro-Montreal, anti-people's influences that would triumph in the failure of W. H. Hearst and in the success of H. H. Dewar.

Wells Couldn't Dress Himself Without Help Before Taking Tanlac—Is Now a Well Man.

"I suffered for ten long years and tried all sorts of medicine and treatment, but I never got any relief until I commenced taking Tanlac," said David Wells, a well known employe of the Dominion Marine Government Dock, and who lives on Charlotte street extension, West St. John, St. John, N. B., the other day.

"Well, sir, when I commenced taking Tanlac," continued Mr. Wells, "I was so bad off with rheumatism, and was so weak and run-down from stomach trouble, I could hardly walk, but yesterday, Labor Day, I walked sixteen miles and sat down and ate a hearty supper and then carried my wife out to the park to see the fireworks. Now I claim that a medicine that will do that much for a man after all other treatments and medicines fail to even give him temporary relief, is worth its weight in gold. Why, my stomach was in such bad condition that I couldn't eat any substantial food at all, and even the things I did eat would upset my stomach so I had to be helped to get my food down. Sometimes my head would swim so bad I could hardly stand on my feet, and then again my head would ache like it was going to burst. Then rheumatism bit me, and the pain and suffering I underwent from that simply can't be told in words. I finally got to where I had to have help to get my clothes on and off. Those pains kept me awake night after night, and I just kept on going down hill and getting weaker all the time until I was about all in."

"I picked up the paper one night and saw a statement from a lady who had suffered exactly as I did, and she had been greatly relieved by taking Tanlac. Well, I thought that if it had worked so well in one case it ought to do the same thing for me, so I commenced taking this medicine at once. The very first bottle of Tanlac convinced me that I had found the right medicine at last. Why, I can sit down now and eat a big meal of meat and cabbage or anything else that comes my way, and I never suffer a particle afterwards. My appetite was never better, and it seems a mighty long time between meals now. The rheumatism has left me too, and I sleep like a tired boy every night. Yes, sir, I am so well and strong in every way, that I never lose a minute's time from my work any more, and I get to pass the good word along to others who suffer as I did, and if I could only meet them face to face, I would urge them to take Tanlac and be relieved of their suffering as I have been."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Company and in West St. John, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Adv.

Arranging For World's Series

First Game Will Likely be Played in Cincinnati on Wednesday, October First.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 22.—The first game of the world's series championship between Cincinnati, winner of the National League pennant, and Chicago, likely winner of the American League flag, will be played in Cincinnati on Wednesday, October first. This was decided today at a meeting of the National Commission here, presided over by August Herrmann, president of the commission, and head of the Cincinnati club.

Two games will be played here after which the clubs will go to Chicago for the next three games. In the event of either club winning five straight games the club will return to Cincinnati, where the next two contests will be played. If the championship has not yet been determined, the eighth game will be played in Chicago, a coin to be tossed before the ninth game will be played if necessary.

John Comiskey, son of Charles A. Comiskey, president of the Chicago club, tossed the coin and Mr. Herrmann called "head," and the American League, represented that league at the meeting and President John A. Heydler represented the National League. Harry Grabiner, secretary of the White Sox, represented Chicago.

Following the tossing of the coin, the commission settled terms to work and appointed the officials who will work in the series. William G. Evans and R. F. Naltn were chosen to represent the American League and Charles Rigler and E. O. Quigley were the choice of the National League.

William Harridge of Chicago and L. P. Constan were appointed as members to represent the National Commission.

The official scores will be J. G. Taylor Spink, of St. Louis, representing the National Commission, and Joseph McEwen, secretary of the Baseball Writers of America. These two will officiate in each while a representative from each of the local chapters will be elected to officiate in their city.

It was suggested that the commission draw up a schedule with Cleveland and Cincinnati at the west end of the entrance to Seven Islands Bay. Hopes are entertained that the crew got out safely, but it is feared that the vessel is a total wreck.

Getting Posted.
Lord Nock— I say, old dear, what is the usual procedure in catching an American heiress?

Reggie— It's very simple, old chap. You tell the girl how much you love her, and her father how much you are objecting to this in view of the condition of the float.

Commissioner Jones said he agreed with the motion being passed on the pair of the pontoons below, but he thought the widening of the floats might be set over for another year. Mr. Thornton said he had thought it was not a necessary expenditure and had thought of opposing it, but he would like a little more time to look into it.

In reply to the Mayor, the city engineer stated the work would cost $1,000 more if undertaken later.

Commissioner Bullock said he would not have submitted this work if he had not deemed it absolutely necessary for the public.

As Commissioners Jones and Thornton opposed the bond issue for this work, the motion was lost.

Although he was not in favor of the top work, Mr. Jones said he would like to see the lower work proceeded with.

Tenders for repairs to trestle work forming a short cut between Rodney wharf and a point further west on Union street, West Side, were opened by the Common Clerk and read as follows:

John A. Adams	2,667
R. R. Lee	2,285
Edward A. Farren	1,898
Engineers and Contractors	3,189
H. O. Clarke	2,800
S. H. Mayes	2,708

The tender of Edward A. Farren being the lowest was unanimously accepted.

A report as to the expenditure for the proposed widening of the ferry floats was presented by Com. Bullock. Probably half of the expenditure of the $2,000, he said, would be on account of the necessity of repairing the underwork of the floats.

His Worship read a letter from a J. Magee objecting to the widening of the floats. The letter stated that the teams could get off the boats without waiting for the passengers.

The engineer stated only fifty per cent of the expenditure was for the purpose of the widening of the floats, the other $4,000 would be below where some would know it was going on.

Commissioner Bullock said the traffic was steadily increasing due probably to the increase of fares. There were over 100,000 teams last year and over 2,000,000 people transported last year.

Commissioner Fisher suggested the adding of the overhanging to the floats on one side only. The city engineer said the superintendent of ferries had

HOME OF FUTURE PRIZE RING HEROES

Arrangements Are Satisfactory

President Comiskey of Chicago Americans Quite Satisfied With Plans of Commission.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 22.—Arrangements for conducting the World's Series, made at the meeting of the National Baseball Commission in Cincinnati today, are highly satisfactory to Charles A. Comiskey, President of the Chicago Americans.

"Playing two games in Cincinnati and then coming here for three is all right so far as I am concerned," President Comiskey said. "If we had won the toss for the opening games it would have been all the same to me."

Approximately 30,000 applications for World's Series tickets have piled up at the White Sox Park and must be returned to the senders, as the reserved and box seats have been sold. There has been the usual protest from disappointed applicants in the method of awarding the tickets, but officials explained there was no other course to pursue.

The pennant race in the American League cannot be settled before Wednesday, as neither Chicago nor Cleveland plays until then. Chicago has five games remaining. The percentage figures show that if the White Sox win one or Cleveland loses one, Chicago will win the pennant.

If Chicago loses all five of its games, and Cleveland wins four, the flag will go to Cleveland. The Cleveland club reduced Chicago's lead to four games yesterday by winning from Washington.

Quebec, Sept. 22.—The steamer Corsican arrived Sunday night, after an uneventful voyage from Glasgow. She carried 538 cabin passengers and 639 third class passengers, among whom were many wives of soldiers and a great many children.

Among the passengers on board was B. Tillet, labor leader, of England, who is on his way to Montreal.

Common Council And Wider Floats

Commissioners Were Opposed to Widening Ferry Floats at Present Time—Other Business in Council.

The common council in session yesterday decided to have the city engineer inspect Rodney wharf and report as to its safety.

Edward Farren's tender for repairs to trestle work in West St. John was accepted at $1,898.

The C. P. R. is to be notified to remove a wire fence in Protection street as it was considered a hindrance in case of fire.

A complaint in regard to the condition of Protection street was received but it was stated that nothing could be done at present on account of their being no sewers in that street.

Speaking on the report that the N. E. Telephone Co. are petitioning the Public Utilities for an increase in rates, Com. Fisher said he thought the city should look into the matter, and he remarked that the city solicitor is also the company's lawyer. There was a petition from the company, also to the council for permission to put up guy wires, also for the putting of a conduit on Waterloo street. He went on to say hitherto the city had allowed the company cheap construction; this should be taken into consideration when the hearing comes up. Presumably he preferred to allow the cheaper form of construction and not have an increase in rates. He thought the eight per cent dividend allowed by the company might be less at times.

In reply to Com. Bullock the commissioner said he was not a shareholder in the company.

Commissioner Jones said he had heard the street car fares were to be raised to ten cents.

Communication from the Engineers and Contractors, Limited, was read, asking relief from the $50 penalty for five days' overtime in finishing their work on the West Side floats. The company stated that their delay was due to the rushing of other work for the city and also to the piling being late in arriving. Com. Bullock moved that in view of the fairness of the company in dealing with the city the penalty be waived. The motion was unanimously carried.

A report as to the expenditure for the proposed widening of the ferry floats was presented by Com. Bullock. Probably half of the expenditure of the $2,000, he said, would be on account of the necessity of repairing the underwork of the floats.

His Worship read a letter from a J. Magee objecting to the widening of the floats. The letter stated that the teams could get off the boats without waiting for the passengers.

The engineer stated only fifty per cent of the expenditure was for the purpose of the widening of the floats, the other $4,000 would be below where some would know it was going on.

Commissioner Bullock said the traffic was steadily increasing due probably to the increase of fares. There were over 100,000 teams last year and over 2,000,000 people transported last year.

Commissioner Fisher suggested the adding of the overhanging to the floats on one side only. The city engineer said the superintendent of ferries had

Triangle Park In Herald Square To Be Beautified

New York, Sept. 21.—The triangular park in Herald square is to be improved along lines to be determined in a contest open to all architects and draughtsmen of this city. That announcement was made yesterday by the Municipal Art Society, which will conduct the contest at the suggestion of R. H. Macy & Co., which firm will offer the prizes.

The park is situated directly in front of the Herald building and also is faced by the Macy store building. It is bounded by Broadway, Sixth avenue and Thirty-fifth street. The plot is small, but its location makes it adaptable to many forms of decoration. It stands out prominently in the open area of Herald and Greeley squares and in view of not only pedestrians but passengers on three surface car lines and the Sixth avenue elevated railway.

The park has not been improved radically since 1888. Then the statue of William Earl Dodge, reformer and philanthropist, who died a few years previously, was erected by popular subscription taken by the Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York. The statue, typical of the art on that period, stands at the southern end of the plot, and from its base flows a fountain into a basin, originally intended for a horse watering trough. Back of the statue is a semi-circular bench of stone. Behind this is a plot of grass surrounded by an iron fence.

During the long period that the new Broadway subway was in construction the park was covered with a temporary superstructure, and when this was cleared away an air shaft for the subway was left with openings in the centre and also in front of the statue. This cavern is covered by iron screens.

The artistic changes in the park will have to take this detail into consideration. About the northern air shaft the grass struggled up this summer and some shrubbery was planted. R. H. Macy & Co. will offer first, second and third prizes to the draughtsmen presenting the most acceptable plans. In addition the successful draughtsmen will receive compensation for the task of executing the improvement. The Municipal Art Society will allow six weeks for the preparation of plans.

Wedding Bells In Railway Town

Three Couples Made Happy in Moncton Yesterday—Kings County Man Died Suddenly—Inquest Held at Request of Son.

Special to The Standard.
Moncton, N. B., Sept. 22.—The marriage of Walter Scott and Miss Elizabeth Adair took place this morning in St. Bernard's Church, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Father Savage. Mr. and Mrs. Scott left by motor on a wedding trip, and on their return will reside in Moncton.

A pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Anselme's Church, Fox Creek, this morning, by Rev. Father Robichaud, the contracting parties being Edward Leger, of the C. N. R. offices, and Miss Minnie Leblanc. About fifty guests witnessed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Leger left this afternoon on their honeymoon to Quebec and Montreal. They will reside in Chartrandville.

Richard W. McDonald, of Uplham, Kings County, aged 61 years, who came to Moncton recently and was stopping with his son, Henry McDonald, manager of A. M. Ford's farm, died suddenly this morning as well as usual and after breakfast went to work on the road near by. About an hour later he returned to the house, complaining of a pain in his chest. He had his daughter-in-law mix a hot drink and shortly after returning to work, suddenly collapsed, expiring immediately. An inquest was held at the request of deceased's son, and after hearing the son's evidence, the jury returned a verdict to the effect that death was due to natural causes. Deceased was a well-known resident of Uplham, Kings County, and, besides his son here, is survived by four other sons, who reside at Uplham.

The home of ex-Conductor Malcolm Cummings was the scene of an interesting event at 8 o'clock this evening when his eldest daughter, Miss Margaret, was united in marriage to Norman Steeves, the well-known member of the firm of Main & Steeves, whose merchants of this city. Common Council And Wider Floats

Commissioners Were Opposed to Widening Ferry Floats at Present Time—Other Business in Council.

The common council in session yesterday decided to have the city engineer inspect Rodney wharf and report as to its safety.

Edward Farren's tender for repairs to trestle work in West St. John was accepted at $1,898.

The C. P. R. is to be notified to remove a wire fence in Protection street as it was considered a hindrance in case of fire.

A complaint in regard to the condition of Protection street was received but it was stated that nothing could be done at present on account of their being no sewers in that street.

Speaking on the report that the N. E. Telephone Co. are petitioning the Public Utilities for an increase in rates, Com. Fisher said he thought the city should look into the matter, and he remarked that the city solicitor is also the company's lawyer. There was a petition from the company, also to the council for permission to put up guy wires, also for the putting of a conduit on Waterloo street. He went on to say hitherto the city had allowed the company cheap construction; this should be taken into consideration when the hearing comes up. Presumably he preferred to allow the cheaper form of construction and not have an increase in rates. He thought the eight per cent dividend allowed by the company might be less at times.

In reply to Com. Bullock the commissioner said he was not a shareholder in the company.

Commissioner Jones said he had heard the street car fares were to be raised to ten cents.

Com. Thornton mentioned the advance in price of milk.

George H. Turton, who recently accepted an appointment as sailing manager for the Dominion Tobacco Co. at their head offices at Montreal, found the position too confining after his long experience as a commercial traveler, so he resigned and has resumed his former position "on the road" again.

At the meeting of the students association at the University this afternoon, Clarence B. Burden, '20, was elected to act as captain of the football team until a permanent appointment is made. The following were elected members of the football council: C. B. Burden, '20; C. C. Atkinson, '21; R. R. McLean, '22 and W. S. Lonsbury, '23. All are returned soldiers and the first three were members of the 1914 champion team.

James Adams, son of R. B. Adams, of this city, and Miss Alice Boyle, daughter of Mrs. John Boyle, of Waasla, were married this evening at 7 o'clock by Rev. J. S. Sutherland at the Presbyterian manse. After the ceremony they went to the bride's home at Waasla and later leave on a honeymoon trip. The groom is a well known young man, being a member of the firm of Fenwick and Adams, who conduct a garage at Minto. He was for some time on the staff of the Gaiety theatre where the bride also was employed.

Amended figures of the attendance at the Fredericton 1919 exhibition were given out today by Fred B. Edgecombe, chairman of the

PLENTY OF CUCUMBERS.
Cucumbers are still being quoted at about two cents each, but over on the Elm street dump there are hundreds of them, which have been discarded by some dealer. These particular cucumbers were in various stages of decay yesterday afternoon, but it seemed unfortunate that it should be necessary to throw away food especially in these times when prices range so high.

Sued By Wife, He Says Earthquake Led To Wedding

Dr. Agnes Produces Her Letters in Naming One-Time Suitor in Separation Action

The conflicting emotions of a young woman left impoverished by an earthquake, which robbed her not only of her inheritance, but impelled the acceptance of a suitor other than the one to whom she had dedicated her life, were described in a "farwest letter" Mrs. Rivis Agnes, daughter of an Italian consular agent in Guatemala, is alleged to have written within one week after her marriage. The husband, Dr. Giovanni Agnes, who is being sued for a separation by the Supreme Court, retailed with the letter Mrs. Agnes is said to have written to an old admirer.

When Mrs. Agnes found that the valuable upheaval had stripped her family of their fortune, she accepted a proposal of marriage sent by Dr. Agnes by cable. He was in America, she in Central America when Cupid's message was sent and received. On March 9, 1918 the young woman, accompanied by her mother and sister, arrived in this city and was married to the physician. Soon after Dr. Agnes found among her effects a letter which reads:

"Dear Love—
"Yes, I am writing to you, not because you could be useful to me in any way, but because I want you to know many things which you do not know.
"On your birthday I followed you to the altar a man who is now my husband. Like an accursed phantom, because the memory of you was killing me, and now I have received your letter, written on your patron saint's day.
"I returned there (Guatemala) shortly before Christmas and found everything was dead. My soul was filled more than ever with emptiness when I saw the catastrophe. The property of my mother was totally ruined. She, Dr. Agnes, knew this and I received a cable from him containing a noble offer, and I accepted him.
"You do not know anything about my future—and neither do I. I continue like an automaton. I wish could vibrate with full love toward this man who is so good, and I want to love him because I am his whole existence.
"You must continue your barren life and leave me to my happiness or my grief. You must dispel from your

France To Send Art For A Show At N. Y. Museum

Government Arranges Exhibition of Paintings, Sculptures and Decorative Arts

The Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York is completing arrangements for an exhibition this autumn of modern French art of exceptional importance, according to a statement made yesterday by Edward Robinson, director of the museum.

The exhibition has been in course of arrangement for four months, he said, and the idea of having such an exhibition was conceived by the French government as another means of cementing the bonds of friendship between the two countries.

The arrangements are being formulated by the French Ministry of Fine Arts, Mr. Robinson said. In that regard there has been a unity of three societies, now known as the Tripartite, and composed of the Artistes Francaise, Societe Nationale des Beaux Arts and the Salon d'Automne.

The New York branch of the Tripartite is in the hands of Maurice Cassagne, director general in charge of the French services at No. 65 Broadway. The exhibition will include paintings, sculptures, examples of decorative arts and modern French arts.

The selection is being made by a jury, and the choice is not being confined to any one tendency, but to types and schools.

The opening date will be early in November and the exhibition will be for one month after which it will be transferred to other American cities.

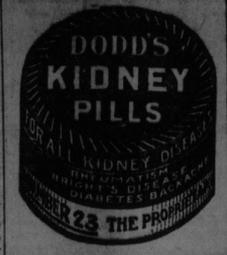

INDIAN'S ROMANCE ENDS IN COURT FIGHT.

Miami, Okla., Sept. 20—Unless a settlement out of court is reached at once a receiver will be appointed by Judge S. C. Fullerton, of the District Court, for one of the richest estates in Ottawa county or Northeastern Oklahoma, that of W. O. Cardin, a half blood Miami Indian and the owner of large tracts of agricultural and mining land as well as business property.

The appointment comes as a result of the war and family troubles. When Cardin thought that he was to be called into national service, just a year ago, he executed a power of attorney in favor of his wife, Ida May Cardin, on the understanding, he says, that she was not to file the instrument nor to exercise the power until after he had gone into the army.

She filed it August 22 and has managed the property since then. Cardin was not called to service. His wife has sold and assigned some of the property, and Cardin filed suit to have all deeds and the power of attorney itself set aside. The result was that his plan was granted but a receiver for the estate will be appointed.

Cardin owns a great deal of land in Ottawa county and adjacent counties and in Kansas. A part of his land is leased for mining purposes and he received a 10 per cent. royalty for the ore produced. Cardin, a little town in the Miami mining field, is named the greater part of the town.

Cardin first met his wife while he was attending the Quapaw Indian mission school at Lincleville, where she was a matron.

At that time he was nineteen years old and she was thirty-one. They were married before he left the school. She is a sixteen-blood New York Indian, but both of them were adopted into the Quapaw Indian tribe and received allotments as such.

Gypsy musicians started the dancing craze in Hungary with their famous "Csardas," or tavern dances. Perhaps the most dazzling of this fascinating music is the "Heire Kati" (pronounced High-ec-ty), scenes from the Csardas. Tocha Seidel interprets it with irresistible fire.

French Army Band Superb in Arlesienne

Bizet's exquisite "Arlesienne Suite" must have mightily appealed to these veteran bandmen of the Marne, for they play it as if they love it. As in Bizet's opera Carmen, these melodies are strongly influenced by the composer's study of French and Spanish folk-music. On the back, "La Feria," an inspiring Spanish-bull-ringing march.

Art Cleanings of Local Interest

Colony of Illustrators in Connecticut Whose Work is Familiar Here—John Rogerson's Fine Carvings Described.

There is a lovely little town in Connecticut which is as much a Mecca to the illustrators of New York City as it is Provincetown to those of Boston—Westport. Here fongather many artists whose work is seen in the American magazines and whose signatures, from frequent recurrence, have become familiar to many to whom illustrations are the best part of a story. Illustrators, designers, cartoonists form a colony who enjoy life together, criticism, encourage and develop the most modern expression of art. There you may meet Harvey Dunn, Clark Pay, Ernest Fuhr, Henry Raleigh, Frank Stone and Myra McMein—all names found on the covers or pages of Red Book, Cosmopolitan, Munsey and the Saturday Evening Post. Miss McMein has a record for strikingly well-drawn and colored figures of women in her cover designs. An artist in whom we are interested because he is married to a former St. John girl, Miss Pearl Peters, daughter of Mrs. Fred A. Peters, of Denver, Colo.; who began as a cartoonist in Kansas City, has now won a success in illustrating stories for Munsey, Red Book and Cosmopolitan, and at his Westport studio has posed his pretty wife in many of his pictures. His name is Len Karshen, and being quite young, will yet be known among the great illustrators.

Nearer home, I would like to tell you of some good art work being done by a brave Scotman whom everybody knows, John Rogerson, who has given all this year, without a day at his summer camp, carving beauty into pine blocks that will decorate the new St. David's Church. Hard work—aye, and lots of it—wonderful for a man of his age to keep at it so. His workshop is a litter of columns, caps, brackets and other ornamental bits—all cropping out like trees in spring with leaves and blossoms, here and there crosses and stars among the blooms. A particularly fine carving is the pulp panel with the burning bush and wreath of maple and bay leaves, cut in toughest oak. Mr. Rogerson has completed the patterns for panels to be cut for the soldiers' monument at Fernhill, and is at work on a decoration for the bow of Messrs. Grant's new schooner.

Domestic Help Needed in Canada

Problems of Immigration Discussed at Conference Held Recently in Ottawa—All Provinces Not Represented.

Concerning the recent conference held at Ottawa to discuss the problems of immigration it is reported that only those Provinces were represented where there are already centres for the reception and distribution of immigrant girls. It is hoped that more definite news of this work may come shortly to St. John. It is understood that the unanimous decision arrived at, at this conference was that at the present time the only feasible help that could be accepted in Canada would be domestic helpers, and that organization would have to insure that those coming in this capacity would continue in such work and not make it merely a stepping stone to other employments.

"ARLINGTON" AT THE UNIQUE

The well remembered and popular Arlington orchestra will open an engagement at the Unique this afternoon and on the next popular impression was an indelible one, they will doubtless be gladly welcomed.

The new change of vaudeville programme opening at the Opera House this afternoon offers two extraordinary features among the five vaudeville acts in Martin and Fabrin, who present a series of dancing numbers and a comedy fox trot fantasy, and Oaki and Taki, two sensational Japanese athletes, in a number of astounding feats on the high pole had acrobatic work. Both of these acts are right from New York City, and are featured on the programmes of the leading vaudeville theatres of the country. Other splendid features on the bill are playbelle Phillips, known as vaudeville's daintiest monologist; De Lorch and McCarrie, comedy entertainers, in fifteen minutes of hearty laughter; Copps and Hutton, a Brazilian nut duo in screams and spasms of fun; and the second chapter of the serial drama, Perils of Thunder Mountain. This afternoon at 2.30, tonight at 7.30 and 9.

Mrs. G. A. Kuhring Returns From Visit To Ottawa

Tells Standard of Happenings at the Capital—Prince's Welcome at St. John Regularly Spoken of.

The St. John welcome to the Prince of Wales was referred to many times in Ottawa, said Mrs. G. A. Kuhring, who returned home Saturday after a visit in that city. While in Ottawa, Mrs. Kuhring was present at the laying of the corner-stone of the new Parliament Buildings, being one of the official guests on that occasion. She gives a most interesting description of that event, speaking particularly of the beauty of the setting, the huge stone walls, the green terraces, the business of the sky, and the wonderful decorations. The Prince was very much affected by the solemnity of the ceremony, but his voice rang out clearly as he made his speech. The crowds in Ottawa were as wildly enthusiastic over His Royal Highness as elsewhere in the Dominion. People from other parts of Canada told Mrs. Kuhring that the St. John welcome had been most highly spoken of. The Prince himself referred to it and members of his staff complimented St. John persons on the cordiality and splendid way the arrangements were carried out. Mrs. Kuhring told several little incidents illustrating the Prince's thoughtfulness and his genuine appreciation of all that was done to make his visit memorable. At the Halcyon Club, where Mrs. Kuhring was delightfully entertained at a tea by the officers and executive of the V. A. D. and where she met a number of V. A. D.'s returned from overseas work, she gave an account of her own visit overseas. At the public meeting of the Provincial Synod, Mrs. Kuhring heard speeches from the former Puel Controller, C. A. McGrath, and an address by Tom Moore, President of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada. In Ottawa Mrs. Kuhring was the guest of her son, Paul Kuhring.

Nothing Definite About Schedule

Manager Teakle Says There Will be No Discrimination Against This Port Regarding Sailings of Canadian Gov't Merchant Ships.

Mayor Hayes has received a letter from Mr. Teakle, manager of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine stating that nothing definite had been done about drawing up a schedule of sailings of government ships, either from St. John or Halifax, and that there would be no discrimination against this port. A short time ago a local paper printed a report to the effect that schedules for the winter sailings of the government fleet had been prepared, and that these showed only a few sailings from St. John. Mayor Hayes wrote to Mr. Teakle, asking if he was aware that St. John's claims as a winter port were recognized the world over, and if there was any reason why a fair proportion of the government ships should not come to St. John this winter. Mr. Teakle replied that any published schedule of sailings of the government fleet this winter were merely newspaper conjectures, as nothing definite has yet been decided on regarding the sailings of the government fleet during the winter season. Mr. Hayes said yesterday that St. John would only ask for fair consideration from the Government Merchant Marine. There was no disposition to knock the claims of Halifax. The Commissioner of Harbors thought there was no doubt St. John would get its share of government ships this winter, and that the question of accommodation would be the main consideration. Export and import rates via Halifax and St. John were the same. The government ships would carry grain mostly, and St. John could handle more grain than Halifax. Winter transport was still cheaper via railway transport, and when circumstances permitted the government ships would no doubt be operated on the same principle as private ships.

ENQUIRIES ARE BEING RECEIVED

Business Men in Foreign Countries Wish to be Put in Touch With Canadian Manufacturers.

Enquiries received at the Board of Trade indicate a growing interest in Canada on the part of business men in foreign countries. Scores of enquiries are being received every few days from men all over Europe and other continents who wish to get in touch with Canadian manufacturers of nearly everything under the sun, either for the purpose of acting as representatives or for purchasing supplies. Also there are many British and foreign manufacturers who are looking for representatives to handle their wares in this country.

Made Inspection Of The Buildings

Joint Committee from Exhibition Association and City Council Found Some of Buildings in Bad Condition

A joint committee from the Exhibition Association and the City Council made an inspection of the buildings which have been occupied by the military, yesterday afternoon, and came to the conclusion that they should engage the services of a carpenter and a plumber—and a painter to help them in making up an estimate of what it will cost to restore the buildings to their pre-war condition. A committee will meet today to select three experts, and the committee will lose no time making up an estimate. The government is to be asked to restore the buildings to the condition they were in before being occupied by the military, or to pay over the sum of money estimated to be necessary. Members said they found some of the buildings in a rather bad condition, and thought it would take a considerable sum to fix them up again. Those representing the St. John Exhibition Association were the president, W. F. Barritt, E. A. Schofield, A. G. Skinner, L. L. Patchell, and H. A. Porter, while Mayor Hayes and Commissioners Jones, Thornton and Fisher attended to look after the city's interests. The military authorities were represented by Captain Bennett.

Nothing Definite About Schedule

Manager Teakle Says There Will be No Discrimination Against This Port Regarding Sailings of Canadian Gov't Merchant Ships.

Mayor Hayes has received a letter from Mr. Teakle, manager of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine stating that nothing definite had been done about drawing up a schedule of sailings of government ships, either from St. John or Halifax, and that there would be no discrimination against this port. A short time ago a local paper printed a report to the effect that schedules for the winter sailings of the government fleet had been prepared, and that these showed only a few sailings from St. John. Mayor Hayes wrote to Mr. Teakle, asking if he was aware that St. John's claims as a winter port were recognized the world over, and if there was any reason why a fair proportion of the government ships should not come to St. John this winter. Mr. Teakle replied that any published schedule of sailings of the government fleet this winter were merely newspaper conjectures, as nothing definite has yet been decided on regarding the sailings of the government fleet during the winter season. Mr. Hayes said yesterday that St. John would only ask for fair consideration from the Government Merchant Marine. There was no disposition to knock the claims of Halifax. The Commissioner of Harbors thought there was no doubt St. John would get its share of government ships this winter, and that the question of accommodation would be the main consideration. Export and import rates via Halifax and St. John were the same. The government ships would carry grain mostly, and St. John could handle more grain than Halifax. Winter transport was still cheaper via railway transport, and when circumstances permitted the government ships would no doubt be operated on the same principle as private ships.
