

THE HERO IN KIPLING'S VERSE

Capt. Knox Tells How "Baltic" Ran from the Northern Light"

BELONGS TO HALIFAX

Arrives in City on Way to England Before Returning to Live in Shang- hai—His Interesting Story of Inci- dent Made Famous in Fine Ballad

In Capt. Knox's dining rooms, they tell the tale, which was of a hidden sea and a hidden light. When the Baltic ran from the Northern Light, and the Stralund fought the two.

There is in St. John today at the Royal Hotel a man from Shanghai who modestly confesses that he is the hero of the incident made famous by Kipling's well known ballad, "The Three Sealers." In these fine verses Kipling tells the interesting story of how Tom Hall in the Northern Light sailed to a big rookery in the Bering sea and a hidden light, under Russian control, only to find the Baltic there with 1,500 seal skins on the beach ready to be taken aboard. Hall came along with a few seeps stuck from the star-board bow and a Russian flag at her fore.

The Baltic mistaking his vessel for a Russian ship of war sailed away as fast as possible, and Hall began to seize the skins. Soon Ruben Paine in the Stralund hove in sight and Hall, mistaking her for a Russian cruiser, in turned. As he passed out, however, he recognized the Stralund which Paine had indignantly seized so as to look like a ship of war, and he and the Baltic returned and made a proposition to Paine that the latter should share the skins with them.

A dog-toothed laugh laughed Ruben Paine, and bared his fenching all that he hath a man will give for his life; But I've six thousand skins below and Yedo port to die with me.

And there's never a law of God or man runs north of fifty-three.

So go in peace to the naked seas with empty holds to fill your seals this catch, As many as I shall kill.

The fighting then began and both Paine and Hall were killed.

Captain Knox's Story.

The gentleman at the Royal Hotel is Capt. G. Knox, a former Halifax man who left there 25 years ago. He arrived in the city last night. To a Telegraph reporter he modestly talked of the foregoing incident and said:

"The scene was Robben Island and the time 1880. Robben Island is off the coast of Saghalien and was then under Russian control. There was a big rookery there, over which the Russians maintained an armed guard. There was a brief interval every year when the seals were changed, that the island was left unprotected.

"I and two other sealers decided to take advantage of this interval to raid the rookery and started for the island in three schooners, all manned by Japanese.

"We, on the Arctic, the Northern Light of the poem, reached the island first. The Russian guards had then under Russian control. There was a big rookery there, over which the Russians maintained an armed guard. There was a brief interval every year when the seals were changed, that the island was left unprotected.

A Stovepipe for a Gun.

"On a prominent knoll I mounted a stovepipe so that I could see the muzzle of a gun protruding from a clump of brush. For a stovepipe seen through the closing mist, it shows like a 4-inch gun."

PATRONAGE GAME TO UTMOST EXTREME

In Waterways Commission Ottawa Declares it Most Unfair

Substitution of Mr. Powell for A. P. Barnhill, K. C., and Replacing of the Other Members Not Justified—Request to Imperial Government to Act in Undignified Way.

Ottawa, Nov. 27.—The substitution of H. A. Powell, K. C., for A. P. Barnhill, K. C., and the replacing of other members of the Waterways Commission by Conservative henchmen, is regarded at Ottawa as carrying the patronage game to the utmost extreme.

The members of the Waterways Commission were appointed by the imperial government before the election on the nomination of the Laurier government. Requiring the British government to cancel the appointment of Canadian Liberals and replace them by Tories is regarded as compelling the home government to participate in an undignified way in the spoils system which has been inaugurated by the Borden government.

Speaking of the substitution Hon. Dr. Pugsley tonight said that he regarded it as most unfair and extreme. "The appointment of Mr. Barnhill and his associates was made at the request of the late government before the election. They are capable men and there does not seem to be any reason for replacing them except the desire of Mr. Borden to place their friends in the office."

UNHOLY ALLIANCE IS FLAYED BY GERMAN

Explains Concessions Made by Mr. Borden to Secure the Support of the Capitalists—Nationalist Member, Who is to Be Deputy Speaker, Dealt With Plainly.

Ottawa, Nov. 27.—Parliament is learning by degrees of the terms and concessions made to secure the completion of the coalition government. Thus the house of commons was told by W. M. German, who described himself as a "yellow prodigal" with the new minister of finance, how Mr. Borden had secured the support of the capitalists.

"But I was, and I always intend to remain a Liberal," Mr. White was the manager of a trust company in Toronto controlled by J. W. Flavelle, Sir William MacKenzie, Sir Byron E. Walker, Z. A. Lash and others of the "Scoble Eighteen." I believe to be a fact that these men produced the currency to carry the elections on the definite agreement that they should dictate to Mr. Borden who his finance minister should be. They said to him: "We will produce the money necessary to carry the election, but we have got to return to name your finance minister."

"Nationalism is a doctrine of treason," declared Mr. German. "The man who holds it should not sit in a Canadian parliament, let alone occupy a position in the government as they now do. The prime minister had done even worse. He proposed to make deputy speaker Mr. Blondin, one of the very men who made some of those statements in the province of Quebec, to place him in succession to you, Mr. Speaker."

"I don't think it is fair to say that Mr. Blondin is a traitor," the nationalist member at whom Mr. German was aiming and who is to be deputy speaker, rose and protested. "Those statements were denied in an article in Le Devoir which began, 'Mr. Borden, public liar,' he exclaimed.

"I have never heard Mr. Blondin deny that," he said.

London, Nov. 27.—Sir Edward Grey, secretary for foreign affairs, cleared the political atmosphere and poured oil on the turbulent waters of Anglo-German relations in a speech lasting one hour and a half in the house of commons this afternoon.

The foreign secretary reviewed the whole Moroccan episode from the sudden appearance of the German gunboat Panther in the port of Agadir in southern Morocco up to the signing of the Franco-German treaty. He unflinchingly upheld the attitude taken by the British government, but at the same time declared that his action was never antagonistic to Germany or to any settlement she was able to arrange with France and which did not threaten the rights of Great Britain.

Toronto, Nov. 27.—The third visit of His Royal Highness, the Duke of Connaught to Toronto, and his first as Governor-General, was inaugurated when the royal train bearing the new Governor-General and his consort drove to the North Toronto station this afternoon. Their arrival at three o'clock was so well timed that their Royal Highnesses had alighted and were shaking hands with the civic dignitaries before the clocks had ceased chiming the hour. The duke wore the uniform of a field marshal, partly concealed under a great coat of grey. His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Gibson were the first to give their Royal Highnesses welcome, after which Premier-Governor Cotton, Sir James Whitney, Mayor George, Hon. A. E. Kemp, Hon. J. An immense throng surrounded the City Hall, where the civic address was presented to H. R. H. after which the Duke and Duchess drove to Government House, their official residence while they remain in Toronto. The day was a perfect one, the air being mild and the sun shining brightly. MRS. PARKHURST IS JEERED BY CROWD

While Trying to Talk in New York

Mob Surrounded Car and Stripped it of Flags

New York, Nov. 27.—Five thousand messenger boys and brokers' clerks outside the offices of J. P. Morgan & Company at Broad and Wall streets, drowned the voice of Mrs. Emmeline Parkhurst, the British Suffragette, in a tumult of jeers, cat calls and cheers. Mrs. Parkhurst was scheduled to make an address on suffrage there at noon. She matched her voice against her tormentors for fifteen minutes and then gave up the unequal struggle.

When she sat down there was a rush for the automobile from which she spoke. The crowd wedged about the machine, stripped it of its flags and bunting, and with derisive cheers opened a lane in front through which a score of men and boys propelled the car down the street. A lone policeman who attempted to rescue Mrs. Parkhurst and her women companions, was brushed aside and her women companions rescued. After dozen men interfered—Tumult was Near Morgan's Offices.

Ontario Boys Face Charge of Attempted Murder—Finnish Assault on Old Man Sunday Afternoon May Result Fatally.

Corwall, Ont., Nov. 27.—Arthur Troy, aged 15; James Troy, aged 16; and Fred White, aged 18, were this afternoon remanded till Tuesday on a charge of attempted murder. They appeared before Police Court Magistrate Denis for a brutal assault on George Gallinger, aged 83, who resided about a mile north of Corwall on the St. Andrew's road. The assault was committed on Sunday afternoon and two of the boys were captured by Carson Gallinger, a nephew of the victim. The other was taken into custody later in the evening. The old gentleman had gone to the well for some water and the boys approached and asked for a drink. One of the boys threw water in the old man's face and as he did so another struck Gallinger with a club. The boys then followed the old man to his home and demanded money. They were still in the house when the grandson of Mr. Gallinger, who lived with his grandfather, returned home from Sunday school. Hearing an unusual noise inside he ran for Carson Gallinger, who rescued him. The younger man captured two of the boys and the other was arrested later.

The victim was badly bruised about the head and shoulders and in a critical condition. One of his eyes was gouged out, which leaves him blind, as the other eye was sightless before the assault. Arthur Troy and White have already appeared in the police court here. On Halloween night they stole a team of horses from the barn of Michael Gallinger, but were let off with a fine of $2 each and costs.

COMMISSION AND PROGRESS

Within a short time the new city charter, which has been the subject of long consideration by a committee, will be ready to be submitted to the large and representative body of citizens who placed the commission principle before the electors and carried it to victory at the last civic elections.

Vancouver has adopted the commission idea, as St. John has, and is to apply to the Legislature at the first of the new year for the authority necessary to complete the changes.

Prices are high in the West. So, also, is the cost of living. St. John's will have to content itself with a rather more moderate rate than are paid in Vancouver.

AS OTHERS USE US St. John was visited last summer by a large party of newspaper men from the United Kingdom.

Let us be just enough to our caution and dispassionate friend to say for them that his conveying no information of much value, as reasonably free from any error or mistake than making this the capital city, and unmarked by that certain note of consecration which a distinguished traveler once thought he discovered in the average Englishman's attitude toward those living under skies other than his own.

land, told as he tells it, it might sound a bit as though some one had been "putting" him; so perhaps it was but common prudence not to commit himself.

POSTLES OF UNREST

A most striking feature of the American elections in November was the gain of strength by the Socialists. But, as the Montreal Free Press points out, there is Socialism, and Socialism. Some of the radicals of today will not appear very radical ten years hence.

The most striking feature of the November elections in the United States has been the success of the Socialists. Los Angeles elected a Socialist mayor, who polled a 20,000 vote compared with 2,000 a year ago.

The words Democrat and Republican do not mean what they did formerly. Party issues change. The party that does not change, dies.

As for the recent United States elections, they mean little as regards Socialism proper. In the more politically corrupted cities where both party often win because the average elector adopts the principle that any stick is good to beat a dog with.

APPLE PROFITS

Speaking of building up New Brunswick—a subject we should all be talking about by the way—here is an extract from an article in an English newspaper one of whose editors visited Nova Scotia last summer.

Interest on value (500 dollars an acre) equals 800.00 Taxes 5, cultivation 8, fertilizers 20, equal 33.00 Pruning etc 2, spraying 24, picking 30, equal 56.00 Packages 57 1/2, packing and preparing for market 20, equal 77.50 Total 246.50 Income (average of 3 years) 230 barrels per acre at 2 1/2 dollars per barrel 575.00 Annual average profit on two acres 380.50 or 96 per cent over and above interest on value.

Let us add that while Nova Scotia has much fine fruit land, and deserves great credit for its admirable progress in apple culture, there is no doubt that New Brunswick has an immense acreage that will grow apples as good as can be found anywhere in the world.

BUILDING UP NEW BRUNSWICK

There is so much to be said fairly of the advantages New Brunswick offers to Canadians, to our own people, and to people from other lands, that an outside might read with no small measure of surprise Bishop Richardson's recent call to us on behalf of this province.

Let us be just enough to our caution and dispassionate friend to say for them that his conveying no information of much value, as reasonably free from any error or mistake than making this the capital city, and unmarked by that certain note of consecration which a distinguished traveler once thought he discovered in the average Englishman's attitude toward those living under skies other than his own.

cross. Someone ought to call a New Brunswick congress of optimists. Ten years ago there would have been an optimism; today the answer to the roll call would be an inspiration in itself.

THE CRUMBLING MOORISH EMPIRE

The fanaticism that smothered the British square at Abu-Klea, and the contempt of death that so often defeated the French troops in the long and bloody Algerian campaign, are still characteristic of the troops of Islam now fighting on the Barbary coast.

The fight with a different faith than that which animated the American soldiers at San Juan Hill. Some of them are reported as making a bitter remonstrance about the regimental chaplain as they cooped under the crest of the hill.

What we have to find a visitor whose opinion on such subjects is worth while who has not told us this New Brunswick should be one of the greatest sheep-raising countries in the world.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Keep a calculating eye upon St. John real estate. What has become of the Kings County murder case? Tory Ontario has cost the farmers of Canada a pretty penny.

A GRIM FIGHT WITH NATURE

The reckless speed with which the municipal councilors and the St. John street railway management insist upon extending the car line east of Courtenay Bay is calculated to make bitterns dizzy.

THE EVIDENCE

Protectionists in Great Britain and in Canada who are rejecting over the recent only the election, who are anticipating the introduction of the protection in the Old Country, and an increase in the tariff here in Canada, will not welcome the appearance of such information as is contained in this article from the Midland (England) Mail.

British Tariff Reformers, for the purposes of their fraud, have done their best to persuade the world that this old country was worn-out, was daily losing ground commercially, was being badly beaten in the race for commerce, and many other things equally untrue.

St. John is not the only place where people pay for clean streets, but do not enjoy them. Hear the Montreal Herald: "One of the richest cities on the continent, we are content to wade through slush ankle deep, to our incalculable discomfort and serious bodily harm, every time the thermometer hovers about in the vicinity of the freezing point."

many combined, and may this year cap those of the United States, France and Germany combined.

The language of the Mail is perhaps a trifle over-vigorous—but what are the protectionists going to do with its facts? And, what is now the opinion of such of our farmers and lumbermen and consumers generally who believed in the late election that they were voting for the old flag?

The protectionists in Canada, who waved the old flag in order to shut the eyes of the people to the sinister influences which were plotting for the success of a Conservative government, have not long been able to conceal the hollow nature of the devices they employed.

The attempt to divert attention from the evidence heard by the investigating committee is going to fall flat. The question the public is asking is: How was the city's business carried on by the board of works and its functionaries?

The manner in which Mr. Borden's Orange and Castor supporters blurt out the truth about election tactics in Ontario and Quebec is likely to give the Premier nervous prostration.

The British Unionists have won another seat under Mr. Bonar Law's leadership. Naturally, the preferential traders are jubilant. Mr. Borden is doubtless considering an increase in the British preference.

Premier thinks about increasing the preference he sees in his mind's eye the gentlemen of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association signalling him to forget it.

A London cable printed by several American newspapers yesterday announced that British firms were about to establish plants in Sydney, Esquimaux and other ports for the construction of Canadian cruisers and destroyers.

A committee of the Board of Works having been appointed by that body to investigate the said board, and having reported that things are fairly rotten in the state of Denmark, a full meeting of the condemned board is called to consider the indictment.

Mr. Borden's answer to the Opposition amendment relating to the navy is a plea for delay. This is remarkable, because when the House, in 1909, passed a resolution favoring the navy, Mr. Borden criticized it because it did not call for as prompt action as he desired.

Commissariat is naturally a very serious matter in surveying a railway across such wild country, in the winter supplies are brought in by dog sleds, and weary work it must be for the drivers who traverse long distances—even as much as 350 miles all alone.

Even on the best managed farms, some of the animals which are lost from accident, disease, or other causes are lost from the hands of the farmer. These animals which are lost from the hands of the farmer are lost from the hands of the farmer.

There was a herd of horses on the farm. Of the horses, one called "Red" died. The condition for two or three days was extremely bad. The horse was found dead in the barn.

The practice followed in the case of the horse which died was to bury it in the barn. The horse was found dead in the barn.

Many follow the practice of burying the carcasses of animals in the barn. This is a very dangerous practice, as it is only necessary to have a small amount of water to wash the carcass into the soil.
