Were there time to expose the absurdity, the want of patriotism, the trampling under foot of the pledged honor of our country which are embodied in the Pacific Railway policy of the Government, they would be beaten hopelessly in their own stronghold of Ontario. In Quebec they will not have a majority of pledged supporters. If the Martime Provinces approve of a government which, when in opposition, has offered the most strenuous opposition to everything calculated to develop their resources and give them their proper influences in the Union—if they will stand by a Premier who as the leader of the opposition voted and got his party to vote for the immediate

MONDAY EVENING, JAN. 19, 1874 The desperate efforts of the Government to defeat every man of brains who their appearance in this list. is likely to criticise their acts in Parliament excite suspicion. Why this morbid fear of men of ability who refuse to promise allegiance to them? Why this tragic appeal to the electors to keep Charles Tupper, James Macdonald, Peter Mitchell and A. L. Palmer out of the Commons? Why, when their Ontario majority is sure to be very large, the demoniac efforts to oust Sir John Macdonald from a seat he has filled for thirty years—a seat in which his hair has turned gray? The Govern ment have no need of his seat; their majority is large enough without it; but they fear criticism; they are conscious of crooked ways that expose themselves to criticism; and no crime can be greater in an independent candidate than brains.
