Sprinting Stars To Meet

New York, Jan. 20-Arrangements for the appearance of De Hart Hubbard in a meet against the European sprint star, Hubert Houben, were defconducted by the Crescent Athletic Negro in Industry" is one. Club of Brooklyn, Feb. 11th.

With one of the best special numbers in its career, "Opportunity: Journal of Negro Life," published by the National Urban League, 127 East 23rd Street, New York City, devotes its February issue to the problems of "The Negro in Industry." Never before in the history of the black man in his trek northward for a fairer share in the fruits of industrial labor has there been such a gathering together of the best minds, both black and white, on the outlook, ideals, experience and triumphs of the Negro in steel, cotton, iron and coal mining. A glance at some of the leading essays and the undoubted qualifications of the men secured to write them, is enough to convince anyone of the accuracy and scientific thoroughness which have gone into the preparation of the number. In it, for instance, William A. Green, President of the American Federation of Labor, asks himself the question, "Why Belong to the Union?"

Other articles are as follows: "The Negro in the Cotton Industry," by E. Franklin Frazier, "Optimisms in Negro Farm Life," by W. S. Scarborough ex-president of Wilberforce University; "The Dilemma of Negro Workers," by T. Arnold Hill; "Labor for Southern Cotton Mills," by Richard Wood Edmonds; "The Negro in the Coal Mining Industry," by Abram L. Harris, and "The Negro and Economic Radicalism," by A. Phillip Randolph. Aaron Douglass the brilliant young Negro artist gives it some gorgeously symbolical illustrations, and Countee Cullen, F. Wallace Thurman, F. V. Calverton, L. Hollingsworth Wood and Miss Clarissa Scott contribute poems and book reviews. The number contains over 20 articles as well as surveys and letters by leading employers of Negro labor testifying to the success of inducting Negro labor into industries depleted by the restriction of immigration.

In May, 1924, "Opportunity" issued a special number devoted to "African Art" which because of the authority and excellent quality with which it was prepared became such a pheninitely concluded here Saturday when omenal success that the magazine Hubbard signed up to appear in the shortly thereafter announced a series special indoor athletic meet to be of special numbers of which "The Services at the B.M.E. Church last Sunday were, as usual, good and well attended. The faithful people of our city continue to manifest considerable interest in the services of the Church, The pastor is delivering some splendid messages which seem to be creating considerable comment among the many hearers. At 11 a.m. he used as his text Ps. 34: 8, sub, "The Lord is Good." But this fact, said the speaker can only be realized by personal experience. In the evening at 7 p.m. a very striking message was brought to the congregation by the pastor from St. John 4: 13, 14. Sub. "The Satisfying Life." There have been many great teachers and leaders in this world of ours said the speaker in his opening remarks, but none of them have compared with the greatest of all teachers—in the person of Jesus Christ. Thousands of people in our city and in every city of the universe are looking for something. They can never be satisfied with something and they do not know it. It is some One they need, and that One is Jesus Christ. At the close of the sermon an appeal was made by Mrs. Reddick in the interest of the W.C.T.U.

During the month of Feb. the pastor will preach a series of sermons from the subject "Sowing." Feb. 7th, "What to Sow." Feb. 14th, "How to Sow." Feb. 21st, "Where to Sow" Feb. 28th, "When to Sow." All Christ- ther trip last week I suppose they ian disciples should avail themselves divided the fish?" of the opportunity, and attend this series of sermons.

Change in Press Use Of the Word Negro

Associated Negro Press

TOLEDO, Ohio, Jan. 20th-The Observer, published in this city by Cornelius Edwoods, has just succeeded in a campaign which had as its object respect for the Negro race, as reflected in the headlines and stories in the daily papers. Hereafter, according to rules compiled by white papers of the city the word "Negro" is to be begun with a capital letter, and only where absolutely necessary for indentification is the word to be used at all. The following rules adopted by the Toledo Blade show the nature of the stand which the dailies have taken:

1. The Blade does not want to play up the fact that any person figuring in the news is Colored, nor does it want to suppress the racial adjective in every case. The fact of color should not be stressed in the news but mentioned casually, if at

2. The color is never to be used in a headline.

3. The term "colored" is to be used whenever possible in place of "Negress" must NEVER 'Negro." "Black" is prohibited.

4. Whenever "Negro" is used must be capitalized. The word is seldom necessary, however, except where it is a part of the name of an organization, such as "Negro Business Men's Club," or something of the Captain Donald McMillan, famous Arctic Explorer, broadcasting from W.J.A.X., the Zenith Radio Station, Straus Bldg., Chicago, Thursday evening, January 21st, 1926, his lecture showing why Rear Admiral Robt. E. Peary reached the North Pole April 1909, says:

"Admiral Peary has been criticized for not taking a white man with him to the Pole, but taking instead, two Eskimos and the Colored man, Matt Henson."

"During Peary's 18 years' effort to reach the Pole, Matt Henson accompanied him on every expedition. He is one of tthe best dog team drivers in the world today."

"Some of our men, dog teams and Associated Negro Press sledges of food, were dropped every twenty-five miles to constitute supply to a point within 150 miles of the pole, and when it was found that supplies could be taken for only two men besides the Eskimos in their last lap to the Pole, Peary made the decision and picked the fittest man. There is no other answer to it. Matt Henson was his choise, because he was the best man in the party.

"Admiral Peary showed no racial discrimination, but chose the fittest man for the extremely hard and hazardous job of making those long marches in a temperature 60 below

Beads Turn Out To Be Pearls

Warrengton, Va., Jan. 20th - A 'string of beads" worth $100,000 has brought happiness overnight to Geo. Freeman, crippled newspaper carrier of Warrengton, Va., who received $1000 reward when he took it to the Faguier National Bank, Monday. The beads were pearls belonging to Mrs. Mitchell Harrison of Vint Hill farm, Nokesville and of Philadelphia.

Freeman was making his rounds several days ago, when he chanced to see something glittering in the frozen ground. He picked up what he thought was a string of beads, and gave the trinket to his little daughter who had fallen on the ice and was

Meanwhile Mrs. Harrison advertised her loss, which resulted in half the town going on a hunt. But nothng was found until the colored newspaper man read about the loss. He examined the "string of beads" and decided to take them to the bank. He received the reward.

Noted Indian Doctor Discovers Preparation That Grows Hair Two Inches Longer In Two Months Time

Willing to Give Free Sample to All Readers of This Paper to Prove Merits of His Discovery

Several years ago, in Gold Valley, California, two boys were playing a game of Rock Battle, and accidentally struck a middle aged woman-J. C. Delano (the ounder of the World Famous Blood Medicine, Herbs of Life, was called in to dress the wound and found that the patient was suffering with a fractured skull and concussion of the brain.

Dr. Delano started in on this new case with a determination to bring about satisfactory results: and at the end of thirty days the patient was not only completely cured, but her hair over the bruised spot had grown to such a remarkable degree that it aroused the curiosity of both her famly and Dr. Delano, so much so that the doctor questioned her as to what was it that she had been using on her hair during the treatment. Her reply was that she had only been using the ointment prescribed by the doctor.

With the given information, the doctor started straightway into deep research to find out more about the treatment and its connections with the roots of the hair; and after experimenting for twenty-seven months, Dr. Delano announced that he had discovered a certain herb, which when macurated with certain chemicals. and mixed together with Pure Cocoanut Oil and California Pine Tar, would produce a healthy growth of hair.

After finding that the experiment had proved successful in ninety-nine out of one hundred cases, Dr. Delano placed this preparation on the market under the name of Dr. Delano's Coco-Tar Hair Grower. From that day until the present time the sale has been a phenomenal and uninterrupted

In Dr. Delano's research he discovered that falling hair was due to simple infection (Sebum) and that the hair roots seldom die. Remove the infected sebum and the hair will grow, for science has shown that under most bald scalps the hair roots

Nearly all of West Africa under British rule now has constitutional rights. Great Britain's policy toward the natives appears to be one of gradual assimilation, giving the Negroes a share in government, first as unofficial members of deliberative assemblies and then as full fledged legislators.

Recently Sierro Leone and Southern Nigeria admitted to their legislative councils a proportion of elected African members. The Gold Coast is the latest colony to effect this change. Letterns patent reorganizing the legislative council were read in the chamber of Accra recently and the council will be in function early this year.

The governor will be president of the new body, which will be composed of fifteen officials and fourteen unofficial members. Six of the latter will be Africans from the towns

The constitution also provides for the election by ballot of municipal councils with African majorities, a feature intended to encourage interest in municipal government among the native. Of the European unofficial members of the legislative council one will be elected by the chambers of commerce, one by the chambers of commerce, one by the mining interests and three members at large will be chosen on a general ticket.
