THE GREAT HIKE OF NEWSPAPERMEN

On Tuesday, May 21, the editor accompanied by other representatives of the paper, started on the Great Hike to the Pacific coast and return. And it was some trip.

We seldom leave the office and still less often do we leave town. Only at the time of the annual conventions of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association do we make any pretense of taking a holiday and on these occasions, business is confined with pleasure. On the day mentioned we boarded the south-bound train for the first time since the convention of last year and we were quite ready for a change of scene and an interchange of ideas with our fellow-craftsmen. Newspaper people live in a world of their own, and united they form one of the strongest, most intimate and most loyal fraternities in the world.

Living a whole year far from the atmosphere of this fraternal spirit we realized that our ideas were becoming warped, our judgment biased, our sympathies turned entirely upon ourselves, and in general our whole soul suffering from a bad case of ingrowing toenails.

Thus it was with relief and hopeful anticipation that we left the office for three whole weeks. And we left all worry behind—for the doctor told us so. And in all these three weeks the only message we had from the office, where our heart is supposed to be at all times, was a five-word telegram received at Vancouver which said "All is well, don't worry."

Leaving Hartland, our immediate party went directly to Toronto and at 4 p.m. on the following day we boarded the magnificent train assembled especially for the use of the party by the C. N. R. and C. P. R.

The portion of the train supplied by the C. N. R. was a baggage car fitted up in such a way that every passenger could have access to his belongings at any time. The next was a four-wheel car for the accommodation of the train staff of 25 people. Then came the beautiful steel standard sleeper, "Rideau," which was the home of the Observer party and the other merry members of the association. Half of us were men and half were women and we lived like one big happy family in that car for 15 days.

In years to come all members will remember that Car No. 1, which was Rideau, was the star car of the train. Of course those who rode in cars 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100, 101, 102, 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 116, 117, 118, 119, 120, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125, 126, 127, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132, 133, 134, 135, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 155, 156, 157, 158, 159, 160, 161, 162, 163, 164, 165, 166, 167, 168, 169, 170, 171, 172, 173, 174, 175, 176, 177, 178, 179, 180, 181, 182, 183, 184, 185, 186, 187, 188, 189, 190, 191, 192, 193, 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 199, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 205, 206, 207, 208, 209, 210, 211, 212, 213, 214, 215, 216, 217, 218, 219, 220, 221, 222, 223, 224, 225, 226, 227, 228, 229, 230, 231, 232, 233, 234, 235, 236, 237, 238, 239, 240, 241, 242, 243, 244, 245, 246, 247, 248, 249, 250, 251, 252, 253, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 259, 260, 261, 262, 263, 264, 265, 266, 267, 268, 269, 270, 271, 272, 273, 274, 275, 276, 277, 278, 279, 280, 281, 282, 283, 284, 285, 286, 287, 288, 289, 290, 291, 292, 293, 294, 295, 296, 297, 298, 299, 300, 301, 302, 303, 304, 305, 306, 307, 308, 309, 310, 311, 312, 313, 314, 315, 316, 317, 318, 319, 320, 321, 322, 323, 324, 325, 326, 327, 328, 329, 330, 331, 332, 333, 334, 335, 336, 337, 338, 339, 340, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 346, 347, 348, 349, 350, 351, 352, 353, 354, 355, 356, 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366, 367, 368, 369, 370, 371, 372, 373, 374, 375, 376, 377, 378, 379, 380, 381, 382, 383, 384, 385, 386, 387, 388, 389, 390, 391, 392, 393, 394, 395, 396, 397, 398, 399, 400, 401, 402, 403, 404, 405, 406, 407, 408, 409, 410, 411, 412, 413, 414, 415, 416, 417, 418, 419, 420, 421, 422, 423, 424, 425, 426, 427, 428, 429, 430, 431, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438, 439, 440, 441, 442, 443, 444, 445, 446, 447, 448, 449, 450, 451, 452, 453, 454, 455, 456, 457, 458, 459, 460, 461, 462, 463, 464, 465, 466, 467, 468, 469, 470, 471, 472, 473, 474, 475, 476, 477, 478, 479, 480, 481, 482, 483, 484, 485, 486, 487, 488, 489, 490, 491, 492, 493, 494, 495, 496, 497, 498, 499, 500, 501, 502, 503, 504, 505, 506, 507, 508, 509, 510, 511, 512, 513, 514, 515, 516, 517, 518, 519, 520, 521, 522, 523, 524, 525, 526, 527, 528, 529, 530, 531, 532, 533, 534, 535, 536, 537, 538, 539, 540, 541, 542, 543, 544, 545, 546, 547, 548, 549, 550, 551, 552, 553, 554, 555, 556, 557, 558, 559, 560, 561, 562, 563, 564, 565, 566, 567, 568, 569, 570, 571, 572, 573, 574, 575, 576, 577, 578, 579, 580, 581, 582, 583, 584, 585, 586, 587, 588, 589, 590, 591, 592, 593, 594, 595, 596, 597, 598, 599, 600, 601, 602, 603, 604, 605, 606, 607, 608, 609, 610, 611, 612, 613, 614, 615, 616, 617, 618, 619, 620, 621, 622, 623, 624, 625, 626, 627, 628, 629, 630, 631, 632, 633, 634, 635, 636, 637, 638, 639, 640, 641, 642, 643, 644, 645, 646, 647, 648, 649, 650, 651, 652, 653, 654, 655, 656, 657, 658, 659, 660, 661, 662, 663, 664, 665, 666, 667, 668, 669, 670, 671, 672, 673, 674, 675, 676, 677, 678, 679, 680, 681, 682, 683, 684, 685, 686, 687, 688, 689, 690, 691, 692, 693, 694, 695, 696, 697, 698, 699, 700, 701, 702, 703, 704, 705, 706, 707, 708, 709, 710, 711, 712, 713, 714, 715, 716, 717, 718, 719, 720, 721, 722, 723, 724, 725, 726, 727, 728, 729, 730, 731, 732, 733, 734, 735, 736, 737, 738, 739, 740, 741, 742, 743, 744, 745, 746, 747, 748, 749, 750, 751, 752, 753, 754, 755, 756, 757, 758, 759, 760, 761, 762, 763, 764, 765, 766, 767, 768, 769, 770, 771, 772, 773, 774, 775, 776, 777, 778, 779, 780, 781, 782, 783, 784, 785, 786, 787, 788, 789, 790, 791, 792, 793, 794, 795, 796, 797, 798, 799, 800, 801, 802, 803, 804, 805, 806, 807, 808, 809, 810, 811, 812, 813, 814, 815, 816, 817, 818, 819, 820, 821, 822, 823, 824, 825, 826, 827, 828, 829, 830, 831, 832, 833, 834, 835, 836, 837, 838, 839, 840, 841, 842, 843, 844, 845, 846, 847, 848, 849, 850, 851, 852, 853, 854, 855, 856, 857, 858, 859, 860, 861, 862, 863, 864, 865, 866, 867, 868, 869, 870, 871, 872, 873, 874, 875, 876, 877, 878, 879, 880, 881, 882, 883, 884, 885, 886, 887, 888, 889, 890, 891, 892, 893, 894, 895, 896, 897, 898, 899, 900, 901, 902, 903, 904, 905, 906, 907, 908, 909, 910, 911, 912, 913, 914, 915, 916, 917, 918, 919, 920, 921, 922, 923, 924, 925, 926, 927, 928, 929, 930, 931, 932, 933, 934, 935, 936, 937, 938, 939, 940, 941, 942, 943, 944, 945, 946, 947, 948, 949, 950, 951, 952, 953, 954, 955, 956, 957, 958, 959, 960, 961, 962, 963, 964, 965, 966, 967, 968, 969, 970, 971, 972, 973, 974, 975, 976, 977, 978, 979, 980, 981, 982, 983, 984, 985, 986, 987, 988, 989, 990, 991, 992, 993, 994, 995, 996, 997, 998, 999, 1000.

Completed the C. N. R. portion of the train. After the dinner was the C. P. R. sleepers, Gerard and Kenway and another C. P. R. sleeper which carried the Scalds, who accompanied the party. Through the mountains an open observation car, which is an ordinary passenger car with everything above the window sills cut away, was attached to the rear.

This Rideau Car One contained a bunch of people in whose names the trip was financed, and we here give the names of those who comprised this particular party: Max D. Cormier and wife, Edmundston; Roy Carmichael, Verdun, Que.; J. J. Cave and daughters, Beaverton, Ont.; W. Logan Craig and daughter, Grand Valley, Ont.; George B. Hudson and wife, Haverhill, Ont.; J. J. Hunter and wife, Kincaid, Ont.; S. R. Alker, Oshawa, Ont.; R. J. Corson and wife, Markham, Ont.; J. W. Vanatter, Goderich, Ont.; T. W. Sims and wife, West Lorne, Ont.; J. M. Southcott and wife, Beaverton, Ont.; Fred H. Stevens, Miss Marion Stevens, Miss M. L. Brooks of Hartland; and T. P. Lancaster of Havelock, Ont. It was Car One that started the singing, that paraded the train in grotesque or solemn parade as the mood changed.

At each stopping place our crowd detrained quickly and gave in lusty fashion the car call: Rideau! Rideau! we're Car One, Rideau! Rideau! we're Car One, Rideau! Rideau! we're out for fun. We've all got a smile.

Now we beat you a mile. Rideau! Rideau! One, One, ONE!

We certainly must not forget to mention that "Arthur" Edmondson was the best little old porter on the whole train. If you want to see Arthur's sunny smile get one of the photographs of the happy bunch taken at Hartland.

Enough for Rideau, Car No. 1. Leaving Toronto at 4 p.m. on June 2, the train proceeded northward over the G. T. R. At midnight, at North Bay, transfer was made over to P. & N. G. over which we ran until we arrived at Cochrane at 10.30, Friday morning. Here we were transferred to C. N. R.

Cochrane is a typical mining town, as is well known, and in appearance is what we expected to see. The morning of our arrival being the King's birthday all hands and the banding assembled on the station platform and sang the National Anthem, after which Rev. A. H. Moore, the clergyman-journalist of St. John's, Quebec, offered an elegant prayer for the health of the King and the safety of His Majesty and the Empire.

The motto of the Observer is "don't knock." If we cannot say anything good we usually remain quiet. We would like to be excused from describing the country, a stretch of nearly 500 miles, between Cochrane and Timmins, near Winnipeg. The railroad itself, built to the highest standard, is straight as an arrow and level as the floor, but the scenery—well, there wasn't any. The country was mostly flat, the soil a thin black loam on a bed of clay. The so-called "timber" was scrub spruce and poplar running to 25 or 30 feet high with 9 of every 10 trees dead and fallen over. It seems that the ambitious young tree cannot survive in that country, yet millions of them are springing up all the time, only to perish by wind or frost or fire, or for lack of substance in the soil. For a whole day and night the train traversed this for. (Continued on 8th page)

EXPECTED AUTO FATALITY OCCURS

Mrs. G. W. Green Struck Down on Sunday and Dies from Injuries

One of the most terrible auto accidents that has yet happened in Carleton County was that on Sunday when Mrs. G. W. Green of Arundale lost her life. In a car driven by Oscar Hartley, a neighbor, and with a number of friends she left her home shortly after noon to attend the Soldiers' Memorial service at Hartland. About a mile north of the bridge road on the west side the car stalled in the middle of the road. Almost immediately thereafter Byron Ross, son of Dr. D. W. Ross of Fredericton, driving a big Cadillac, came along and in turning out struck the unfortunate woman who at the moment stepped from behind the stalled car directly in the way of the oncoming auto. She suffered terrible injuries. A leg, hip, several ribs and her arm were broken and she suffered other injuries so that she died six hours after being taken to the office of Dr. Macintosh.

The remains were taken to the undertaking rooms of J. W. Adams & Son where on Monday they were viewed by Sheriff A. B. Reeler, Coroner, and a jury which included J. A. Ward, H. R. Nixon, A. G. Baker, F. P. Plummer, S. S. Miller, Ayon Nevins, E. C. Morgan, F. R. Kelley and D. W. Shaw. The jury also viewed the scene of the accident and the coroner gave permission for the removal of the remains.

At the time of going to press the inquest was being held. A full report will be given next week.

Besides her husband Mrs. Green leaves a family of seven children, the youngest of which is but two months old. In view of all the circumstances the accident is the most terrible and pathetic that has occurred here in many years.

NEW TRAIN IS PROVING POPULAR

C. N. R. Now Gives People of Upper St. John Valley Best Service Ever

The new time table on this division of the C. N. R. went into effect on Monday. This provides two express trains each way every day in the week except Sunday, and the accommodation train is cancelled. The new express train is made up of a baggage and express car and two passenger cars. It leaves Arundale at 5.10 Atlantic time, Perth at 5.25, Bath at 6.05, Bristol 6.14, Florenceville 6.23, Hartland 6.49 and Woodstock 7.25. Passengers going by this train may go to St. John, reaching there at 12.45 and may have four hours there and return home the same day; or they may go to Fredericton or to St. Stephen or any intermediate point and have a longer time. Passengers for Fredericton will need to go by way of Moncton or transfer to the early train and go to Houlton with four hours delay at Debec and return the same day; or passengers may go to Houlton on the afternoon express and have nearly two hours there and return home the same evening. People from the north may take the early train to Woodstock and return on the early afternoon express, or remain until late evening; or passengers may go to Woodstock on the afternoon express and have from 8 to 10 p.m. in town. The new train running north brings passengers from all points south, including Boston, to their destination, the same day they start out, as follows: Woodstock 10 p.m., Hartland 10.35, Florenceville 11, Bristol 11.09, Bath 11.18, Perth 12.04, Arundale 12.30.

This arrangement of trains gives the best passenger service that the people of this subdivision have ever enjoyed and the permanency of the double express service depends on whether or not the people patronize the new train. It may be argued that for the sake of convenience the train leaves too early and arrives too late, but the experienced traveler knows that some points must be reached at night. Under the new arrangement a traveler to Moncton may reach that city mid-afternoon, whereas by the other train he reaches that city at 3 a.m. Likewise by the old train he must leave St. John much earlier than the early train leaves Hartland, and that by the old train passengers arrive at St. John near midnight.

There is also an improvement in the local freight service, inasmuch as there is a daily service instead of a tri-weekly service.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES' NEW ORGANIZATION

Largely Attended Meeting at Hartland is Representative of Whole County

Hartland had one of the surprises of its life on Monday, when about 250 delegates crowded in to attend the School Trustees' Convention called by the Hartland Board through its Secretary, J. S. King, for the consideration of the new schedule of Teachers' Salaries and the forming of a Teachers' Association. The townspeople wondered to see autos parked in nearly every available corner. The meeting was to be in the Town Hall at 2 o'clock sharp but before that time this room was overflowing and adjournment had to be made to the Star Theatre, which also soon became packed to the doors with delegates from every Parish in Carleton county.

W. D. Keith was elected chairman and J. S. King, secretary of the meeting. The former briefly stated why it had been thought advisable to call the meeting and the latter related all that had taken place regarding special district meetings, the sending of circulars to 156 school districts and correspondence with some 40 or 50 of the largest districts outside of Carleton county urging the forming of Teachers' Associations in every county, also a letter from Chief Supt. of Education, expressing sympathy with the movement, showing in nearly every case a feeling Province-wide that the Teachers' Association was very ill advised to put forth a new schedule so soon after that of Jan. 1 of this year, and in favor of a Teachers' Association in every county, particularly that a provincial meeting should be called at once.

The general tone of the free discussion of the salary question was that the trustees were not trying to combat the teachers but give them to understand that the schedule of January last was going far enough in the present, and that any new addition to their salaries should come by way of Government grants, in the securing of which the Teachers' Association might throw very considerable strength.

Gordon Sharp made a very pleasing address and his motion that the Teachers' Association, including Secretaries for Carleton county, be organized, was also a motion to the effect that this meeting is decided not in favor of the new schedule of teachers' salaries and that Teachers' Boards go ahead and hire Teachers on the basis of the same. The opinion of the meeting was divided as to whether the Chief Supt. should be urged to call a Provincial Convention about July 5 or immediately after the annual meetings of the 11th. Discussion brought out the fact that very few had heard of or seen the Chief's circular in regard to a provincial gathering. Finally a motion passed calling on the Chief Supt. to arrange a meeting in Fredericton as soon as possible after the annual meetings.

Several other matters of importance to teachers, ratepayers and districts were discussed, such as the difficulty of the smaller and poorer districts in keeping up schools at all, the rate per $100 being as high as $4 to $7 in some cases.

Officers elected were President, W. D. Keith; Vice-President, Gordon Sharp; Secretary and Treasurer, J. Stirling King; Auditor, C. B. Rideout. Additional members of the Executive are Trustees or Secretaries from each parish, as follows:

Woodstock, Gay Hall; Richmond, Jas. Gately; Wakefield, Howard Spingier; Kent, Arch Clark; Aberdeen, C. A. Dorrath; Peel, Henry Campbell; Brighton, Wm. Bubar; Northampton, Henry Phillips; Wilmet, Burden Clark; Wicklow, John Owens; Simonds, Russell Hatfield.

The meeting closed with very general expression of opinion that a long stride had been taken towards meeting a great need in Educational matters. The meeting together and discussion made for a much better understanding of the problems of teachers, trustees and ratepayers.

A meeting of the Executive will be arranged at the call of the President after the annual meetings.

G. W. V. A. MEMORIAL SERVICE

On Sunday the local G.W.V.A. held their annual Memorial service in the honor of their comrades who fell in the great war. About fifty returned soldiers assembled at the armory where they formed marching order, marshalled by Col. L. L. Kennedy of Centreville. They marched to the music of bag pipes played by Piper McDonald of St. John, to the United Baptist church which was crowded to the doors. Rev. M. E. Conroy, pastor of the Methodist church at Woodstock, and chaplain in the late war, preached an impressive sermon from John 3:17. Rev. W. D. Haigh read the lesson. During the service Piper McDonald played the tune of a hymn and the choir sang appropriate selections.

From the service the Veterans marched to Greenwood Cemetery, where the grave of A. R. Knight, a departed comrade, was decorated and the beautiful service prepared for such an occasion was carried out. Marching back to the armory the local branch, G. W. V. A. supplied the visitors with refreshments of ice cream and cake.

A collection was taken for the widows and orphans of the departed comrades, amounting to $32.

Suffered Three Years Until She Tried "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

DAME PETER LAMARRE

Pointe St. Pierre, P. Q.
"I think it my duty to tell you how much your medicine has done for me. I suffered for three years with terrible Eczema. I consulted several doctors and they did not do me any good. Then, I used one box of 'Sootha-Salva' and two boxes of 'Fruit-a-tives' and my hands are now clear. The pain is gone and there has been no return. I think it is a marvellous cure because no other medicine did me any good and I tried all the remedies I ever heard of, without benefit until I used 'Sootha-Salva' and 'Fruit-a-tives'." "Fruit-a-tives" cooled the blood and removed the cause of the disease, and 'Sootha-Salva' completed the cure."

How Churchill's Enemies Interpret Recent Move

To the Colonial Office

THE following article appeared in the London Herald when it was reported that Mr. Winston Churchill was to leave the War Office for the Colonial Office.

Maltrouk's en va-t-en guerre.

At least, he used to, did our little Winston. He va-t-en-ed with Gen. Weyler, that flower of Spanish chivalry, when the Americans rescued the poor Cubans from the clutches of the Spanish cigar-barons, and handed them over to the embraces of the Yankee cigar-barons. Also he served with the Malakand Field Force and the Tirah Expeditionary Force, doing valiant deeds in the very teeth of the matchlocks and the Martinis of deluded tribesmen. Also he decapitated Dervishes in the Sudan, and "bunked" from Boers in the Transvaal. Altogether Winston is the devil of a warrior and all.

But Winston is, they say, no longer happy. He has done his best to keep the pot a-bolling with those decidedly "dud" whites, Kitchik and Yudenitch, Denkin, and Wrangel, but they've let him down badly. They've packed up their rubles in their new kit-bag and "beat it," and Winston is left without a decent war. A Secretary for War is no better than an office boy when there is no war to ward. Hence it is that Winston has vacated his roomy workshop in Whitehall, and turning his back up on the delightful equestrian statue of Field Marshal the Duke of Cambridge (sans umbrella), is crossing the road to the Colonial Office.

The Colonial Secretary's job was a back number until Joseph Chamberlain, the Duke of Camberwell and the Bellarus of the Bull Ring, bumped it into publicity.

But there came a generation which knew not Joseph, and the proud colonies of colonial preference faded away like an old soldier. Nowadays the Secretary of States for the Colonies is one of those imperial statesmen who have to be looked up in the reference books. Nowadays, if an acquisitive man came to you and said, "I'll bet you an Oxford" (Oxford Oxford scholar-dollar-five shillings sterling) "you can't tell me the name of the Colonial Secretary," you would give him the money straightway. If you were by nature vindictive, you would probably stand him a bottle of Australian wine instead—and see that he drank it.

Why, then, is our little Winston suspected of designs on the job? Well, as we have pointed out, there is a distinct slump in wars. The rattling of sabres drowned by the good, kind financiers who are fearful lest the British working man should follow the example of his debased brother, the Russian working man, who has repudiated all ancestral obligations for wars entered into without his consent.

But if Winston "takes over" the colonies, he'll be able to ginger things up somewhat. He doesn't get the illicit money that his noble ancestor the first Duke of Marlborough got out of his wars, but he contrives to get almost as much glory as that titled scoundrel, and he's hoping for the best.

True, the colonies have had a bellyful of fighting, and are not showing any anxiety to engage in fresh wars manufactured in Whitehall. But the new scheme is to "enlarge" the scope of the Colonial Office so as to include the middle east.

The middle east is not exactly a colony. Indeed, the few odd millions of "natives" (low fellows, like you and me) seem to have got their heads full of the "self-determination" stuff—which was purely a war-time gospel anyhow—and they have made it pretty clear that they are no more anxious to be grabbed by Imperial Britain than by Imperial Germany. But they don't count.

There is "trouble" in the near east, and, with a bit of luck, there should be more trouble. And trouble is distinctly up our little Winston's street when Winston gets busy as Secretary of State for the Colonies, we may look forward to a nice little schism in "Mesopotamia" and other branches of the Garden of Eden.

So the young man ought to be real happy. As to the taxpayer, 'tis a different story. Mesopotamia is, even now, costing us a lot of money. Why trouble about the cost? We can have quite a lot by abolishing education, which is, after all, a luxury. Moreover, it tends to make the prospective taxpayer discontented. Ignorance means bliss—and blood, and blood.

The Unsporting Bishop. One seems to have heard of an archdeacon being mistaken for a "sport," but that was a vague tale, while for the following anecdote we get chapter and verse from the Rev. W. B. Money in his book entitled "Humours of a Parish Priest and Other Chatterboxes." A certain most excellent colonial bishop once came to stay with me for our confirmation, says the author. He left me in the morning to take a confirmation at Easter and returned to me in the afternoon. When I met him at the door he said: "Now, Mr. Money, do I look like a sporting bishop?" With a smile and a little hesitation, he was very spruce—I said, "Well, no, my lord, but why do you ask?" "Because when I asked at the station for a ticket to Easter, the book-keeper said to me, I suppose you know there are no races at Sandown to-day."

Snow-Dries Garments. A curious fact has been noticed by Arctic travellers—snow, when at a very low temperature, absorbs moisture and dries garments.

Modern milling of the world's best wheat, naturally produces the world's best flour.

THE TRIALS OF A HOUSEWIFE

How They Have Been Endured and How Overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Experience of a Providence Woman

Providence, R. I.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a female trouble and backache. It began just after my baby was born. I did the best I could about getting my work done, but I had awful bearing-down pains so I could not stand any more. I read in the papers about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and how good it was for other women, and I have not doubt but that it will always recommend it. You can use these facts as a testimonial if you wish."—Mrs. Elizabeth E. Cassatt, 18 Main Court, Providence, R. I.

Ohio woman for three years could hardly keep about and do her housework she was ill. Made well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

At times I could hardly do my housework. I got medicine from the doctor but it did not help me. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in a newspaper and took it with good results, and am now able to do my housework. I recommend your medicine to my friends and you may publish my testimonial."—Mrs. Cassatt A. Hall, R. I. Fayette, Ohio.

An Illinois woman relates her experience. Bloomington, Ill.—"I was never very strong and female trouble kept me so weak I had no interest in my housework. I had such a backache I could not cook a meal or sweep a room without raging with pain. Rubbing my back with alcohol sometimes eased the pain for a few hours, but did not stop it. I heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and six bottles of it have made me as strong and healthy as any woman; and I give my thanks to it for my health."—Mrs. J. A. McQuerry, 610 W. Walnut St., Bloomington, Ill.

The conditions described by Mrs. Cassatt, Mrs. Hall, and Mrs. McQuerry will appeal to many women who struggle on with their daily tasks in just such conditions—in fact, it is said that the tragedy in the lives of some women is almost beyond belief. Day in and day out they slave in their homes for their families—and beside the daily routine of housework, often make clothes for themselves and for their children, or work in their gardens, all the while suffering from these awful bearing-down pains, backache, headache, nervousness, the blues, and troubles which lay the very foundation of life until there comes a time when nature gives out and an operation seems inevitable. If such women would only profit by the experience of these three women, and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the natural restorative for such conditions it may save them years of suffering and unhappiness.

There is hardly a neighborhood in any town or family in the United States wherein some woman does not reside who has been relieved to health by this famous medicine. Therefore ask your neighbor, and you will find in a great many cases that it saves time or other else, too, has been benefited by taking it, and will recommend it to you. For more than forty years this old-fashioned root and herb medicine has been restoring suffering women to health and strength. Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments of Women" is sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

DEATH OF REV. EDWIN C. TURNER

The death of the Rev. Edwin C. Turner of Debec occurred on Saturday afternoon last, after a brief illness in his 81st year. He was born at Bay Verté in 1838. The deceased minister was a veteran clergyman of the Methodist church, well and favorably known through the N. B. and P. E. I. conference. He held several pastorates in Carleton county, of all of which he was very successful and greatly beloved. He entered the ministry in 1872 and after spending five years in preparation was ordained in 1877. It will be noted that the present year represents the 40th of his ministry, the last two of which were spent in retirement from active service. He is survived by a widow and four daughters who mourn their loss. Mrs. Turner was formerly Miss Kirkpatrick of Debec who has been through the years a faithful ally in her husband's work.

During his prolonged ministry the late minister was stationed on the following circuits: Tobique River, Hartland, Upper Kent, Northampton, Richmond, Bideford, P. E. I., Beque, P. E. I., Margate, P. E. I., Cornville, P. E. I., Fowall, P. E. I., Gibson, Centreville, Jacksonville, Florence,ville, Sheldac and again at Richmond. Extensive revivals of religion attended his ministry on many of these fields. He was an eloquent preacher and a good pastor with a pleasing personality.

The immediate cause of death was heart trouble brought on by hardening of the arteries. Widespread sorrow is occasioned by his death and the bereaved family have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends. The funeral, which was held on Monday afternoon was largely attended, being represented by friends from many old circuits. The services were conducted by the Rev. F. A. Wightman of East Florenceville, assisted by the Revs. J. K. King, H. Harrison, Hugh Miller, M. E. Conron, Geo. Readman and Rev. Mr. Miller (Pres.) of McKenzie Corner. The Masonic fraternity, of which the deceased was a member, also officiated at the grave. "Servant of God Well done."

Miss Inez London has been suffering from an attack of appendicitis. She and her sister Miss Elva London are at their sister's, Mrs. Clifford McQuade's, Centreville.

Shock for the Explorer. The sable coat of 150 skins for which £10,000 was paid recently is not, as might be supposed, the most expensive fur coat in the world. Some years ago the czarina was presented with an ermine mantle valued at £12,000; and an explorer in eastern Greenland recently discovered a native girl wearing a dress of silver fox skins worth, at present prices, nearly £30,000.—London Tit-Bits.

Musical Instruments of Insects. Buzzing or humming is mainly due to rapid vibrations of the wings, which often strike the air more than a hundred times in a second, but there is sometimes a special quivering instrument near the base of the wing. Chirping or trilling is due to some sort of "vibrating" organ, one hard part being scraped against another, as the bow on the fiddle—it may be leg against wing.

Rather Large Order. In a certain kindergarten the children were telephoning imaginary orders to an imaginary grocery store for the sake of the training in English to be derived therefrom. A little girl volunteered the following order: "Hello! Is this the grocery? Please send me some bread. Please send me some chops. And a little gravy, please!"

Economical Grandma. Little Jack, four, was looking at his grandmother reading. After reading for about a half an hour she put her glasses down on her nose, her eyes being tired. Jack noticed this and turning around said: "Oh, mother, look at grandma looking over her glasses so she won't wear them out."

Desirable Orange. There is an orange grove in China that is reported to surpass in sweetness and delicacy any of the oranges to which the people of America or of Europe are accustomed, and it may be grown in places where the temperature falls to 20 degrees below freezing point.

Testing Oil Quality. One test to ascertain the quality of lubricating oil is to heat a small quantity and hold a flame to the thin smoke which arises. This smoke will flash or catch fire for an instant, and if the oil is of a good grade will flash much quicker than a poor grade.

Moved to Protect. Floyd's mother had kept him busy keeping the chickens out of the yard for quite a while. He was beginning to get disgusted with the job. Going to his mother he said: "What do you think I am—a chicken shepherd?"

Dangerous. "Children," said teacher, "can any of you tell me what is the most dangerous part of an automobile?" Up went a hand, and Tommy (who walks to school), responded shortly: "Yes'm, I can, it's the driver."—Insurance.

Rice Wine Used 2000 Years. Next to grape wine, it is said that Japanese rice wine is the oldest alcoholic beverage known to man, its use in Japan dating back more than two thousand years.

Not Allowed to Do That. "My father," said a complainant at Clarke's police court, "threatens to tear me up into pieces." It was pointed out to him that this would be a breach of the law.—London Punch.

Song of the Wires. The humming sound heard from telegraph wires is said to be the song of the barometer; if it is low, a change in the weather may come in two days; if sharp, it may be immediate.

Meet on Common Level. There is one field in which the wise man and the fool meet on a common level. That is when they fall in love and take their pens in hand.—Oregon Journal.

Not True Charity. We believe it was Emerson who said you had to give affection with money in order to make it count. So much charity is pocket deep.

BEECHWOOD BREEZES

Perry Barker, Sam and Steve Cahill and Cale Doucette motored to Juniper on Friday returning Saturday and had a lovely trip. Got all the trout the law would allow.

Mr. Pitchie, Primitive Baptist minister, has moved his family to this place after a two week's visit with friends at Caribou. On Tuesday night of last week the people of this vicinity gave him a recitation at his home also remembered them with a number of useful things. Cake and ice cream were served by the ladies. Mr. Pitchie gave a speech thanking the friends for the pleasant evening they had made for them.

On Tuesday of last week the stork called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Cox and left them a bouncing baby boy.

Mrs. Sam Maskell has returned home after a two week's visit with friends at Caribou.

WILLIAM McBRINE

William McBride of Glassville died on Friday at Juniper after a week's illness. He was 55 years of age and besides his wife he leaves four sons and six daughters. Three of the daughters are married—Mrs. Harry Lindsay and Mrs. Cecil Avery of Woodstock and Mrs. Percy Whitehouse of Glassville. The other children live at home. The funeral was held on Sunday at Glassville, the sermon being preached by Rev. E. A. Trites of Hartland.

Our idea of a guarantee is that the manufacturer who gives one—which hasn't any tags and loopholes—believes in his product.

So much so that he stands ready to make good any loss suffered by the purchaser through defective material or workmanship.

It's mainly because of the guarantee that goes with them that we are selling and recommending Ames Holden "Auto-Shoes."

Of course, we know they give the cheapest mileage too—that they are dependable tires for any make of car, anywhere. But it's the guarantee that we talk about most. It's the straight and clear-cut, without time or mileage limits. It shifts our responsibility on to the manufacturer and he lives up to every letter of it. ville, on June 28, when Miss Dorothy Wightman of this place became the bride of Frederick H. Carle, also of this place.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Rev. P. A. Wightman, who was also the officiating clergyman. She looked charming in a dress of white liberty satin with pearls and wore the conventional bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of roses and ferns.

The church was beautifully decorated with roses and palms by the girl friends of the bride. Miss Stella Hunter played the wedding march and the choir of which Miss Wightman had been a member since coming to East Florenceville four years ago, sang "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden."

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom to which only the immediate relatives attended. The bride's going away costume was navy blue with hat and veil to match and a beautiful maribou, the gift of the groom. Much happiness is extended to this popular young couple by all.

ISLAND FALLS TIES HARTLAND, SCORE 2 TO 2

Before a fairly good crowd Tuesday evening the Hartland baseball team met the Island Falls team in one of the best ball games seen here during the season. The score was very close and several good plays were pulled off on both teams.

Walker in the box for Island Falls had fourteen strikeouts to his credit against seven fanned before Paynter. Walker pitched a fine game of ball as did also Paynter and both twirlers were given wonderful support in the field. Island Falls it might be said, had all the breaks of the game and with a few poor decisions by both umpires helped to make the game a tie.

Paynter made a good stop on a high bounce in the fifth inning retiring the batter at first. Adams in left field made a good catch in the seventh close to the foul line, having caught the ball while falling into the ditch.

Lavigne at bat cloaked a nice one for two basins into deep centre field but was caught out at third trying to stretch it into a three-bagger. Had he not stumbled between second and third he would have been safe.

The Grand Falls team played the Hartland nine here on the 24th and won out by a score of 4 to 2.

The game was marked by some very heavy hitting and also by some very poor decisions of the umpires. In the 4th inning Pirie poled out a three bagger into deep centre field, but died on third base when Billings struck out the next three batters up.

In the 6th inning Pirie made another good hit, getting two bases and bringing in one run. He finally completed the circuit a little later, making another score.

It was decided previous to the starting of the game that it would last until 8:15 o'clock and finished at the close of the seventh inning. McCluskey for Grand Falls struck out 6 men and passed 2 on a base on balls. Billings for Hartland struck out 9 and passed 1.

Hartland had 6 hits while Grand Falls had 5. The Batteries were: Hartland—Billings, p.; Boyne c.; Grand Falls—I. M. McCluskey, p.; Estey, c. The umpires were C. D. Dickson and John Watson.

On June 17 the Hartland baseball team motored to Woodstock for a light workout with the team from that town. The game lasted for seven innings and was more of a comedy-drama than a baseball game. The Hartland team was shifted around every inning. In the second the pitcher went behind the bat and the catcher went to third, while the third base man went into the box. The outfield went into the infield and vice versa. The game ended with Woodstock in the lead, the score being 5 to 3. At the start of the game Billings and Boyne was the battery for Hartland while McGibbon McKinley officiated for Woodstock.

The junior ball team of Hartland used the Woodstock team on the 27th in Hartland, in a fairly good game, the score being 9 to 9. McAdam in the earlier stages of the game walked out a home run deep into the left field. A. W. Kyle officiated as umpire and handled things very satisfactorily.

A new fancy in private correspondence papers, is to have the papers lettered with the initials or name and the post office address of the writer. The envelopes are similarly lettered on the flap. The Observer is doing a great deal of this work, and carries in stock some of the very finest grades of paper. This includes Royal Butka, George's Parchment, Telanian, Norman, Delecta, and other grades. The most conservative and dignified shapes are large or small octavo and empress, with either square or long, narrow envelopes. We also have genteel correspondence size. These prices for this stationery is moderate, especially when orders are grouped, so that several may be executed at one time.

THE SANDS OF THE SEA.

Where They Come From and How They Are Made.

Most of us know that sand is made up of little grains of mineral matter, and our knowledge may be limited to this extent. But what are the minerals? Where do they come from? Why are they there?

"These, and many other questions, will occur to those to whom the pursuit of knowledge proves a pleasure," writes Mr. Cecil Carus-Wilson in "Conquest." "We know the grains of sand are very small, and if we wish to study them conveniently without eye-strain we should provide ourselves with a small pocket magnifying glass, or lens, which may lead, later on, to the use of the larger and more effective compound microscope and its accessories. But we do not necessarily need a lens of this kind, and will scratch glass when rubbed on its surface, while others are soft and can be crushed and powdered easily between two pebbles."

"Now, let us examine with the lens some of the grains we found were sand enough to scratch glass, and we shall see that they may be clear and glassy-looking or else covered with a yellow or red coating of iron oxide, which, by the way, may be partially removed by washing and completely by other means. These are grains of the mineral quartz or silica, better known, perhaps, as 'rock crystal,' or 'Cornish,' Bristol, and Irish diamonds.' Sands are composed of minerals, and there are many kinds, but quartz, because of its hardness—being only three degrees softer than the diamond—wears down but slowly, lasting through ages of time, and that is why we find this mineral in such great quantity in nearly all the sands we are familiar with. Quartz is a very common constituent of rocks, and it is always present in rocks like granite, and as the granite wastes away, the grains of quartz do so in time when exposed to the weather—the particles are released from the parent mass, and may be carried by streams and rivers to the sea."

"Then the combined action of the coastal currents, waves, and wind pile up the particles along the shore and provide us with a sandy beach. But even then the grains have not reached their final resting-place, for they are subjected to the constant buffeting of the waves and winds, which causes them to be broken up and ground down until they reach the state of fine mud. As an example of the natural processes above referred to, it may be interesting to know that the sands of Bournemouth, and the Bagshot sands nearer London, England, are chiefly composed of quartz which was originally derived from the wasting away of ancient granite mountains of which many thousands of years ago, must have formed conspicuous features of the landscape where Cornwall and the Shetland Isles now stand."

"As we may see to-day, if we visit the tors and granite masses of the west, the atmospheric agents of denudation are still at work, breaking up the rock particle by particle, and conveying it elsewhere."

A Big Shortage in Potato Crop is caused by the Farmers not spraying. The BROWN SPRAYOR is the favorite with the potato growers for the reason that it has a 100 gallon tank made of cypress wood that resists the liquid better than any other wood known. It sprays six rows at a time and is fitted with a whirl spray nozzle, that gets the liquid over every part of the plant. The pressure is got by double cylinder displacement pump fitted with brass plungers and packed with graphite packing, also large air pump fitted with brass check valves that can be ground. Rests on the axle, doing away with all strain on the frame giving an overcast balance when tank is full of liquid. Revolving twin paddles in tank to give a perfect mixture of Bordeaux. Has heavy main wheels 3 in. the wheels and 1 1/2 in. cold rolled steel axle that does not break. Also fitted with steel frame that does not sag sideways. As we can only procure a limited number of these for 1921 Farmers will do well to place their order with us early, or with one of the following Agents:

EVERYBODY SEES A CHANGE IN FATHER

Grateful Son Says His Father Looks Link a Different Man Since Taking Tania

"My father has suffered from chronic stomach trouble for over twenty years and has paid out thousands of dollars for medicines and doctors," said G. W. Slayton, a well-known Cobb County farmer, living a short distance out of Atlanta, Ga.

"We tried nearly everything, trying to cure him and he went off to the Springs, thinking maybe the water might help him but it just looked like nothing would reach his trouble. Then he tried dieting and lived on liquid food until he almost starved, but even that failed to do him any good and he just kept going from bad to worse."

"I don't guess there ever was a case as stubborn as his and if there ever was a confirmed dyspeptic, he was one of them and I guess he would have been one yet if it hadn't been for this Tania."

"The first we heard of this medicine was when my father saw an advertisement in the papers from parties he knew in Tennessee, who were friends of his and he knew what they said about it was the truth, so he got it right away and began taking it. Well, Sir, it acted just like magic—everybody notices the change in father—Why, he is just like a different man and sits down to the table and eats like a farm-hand. Only yesterday he ate pork and turnips for his dinner and ate so much we were actually afraid he was going to over-do the think, but he laughed and said nothing hurt him now and that he was hungry and expected to eat and make up for lost time."

"Now, when a medicine will do things like that I think people ought to know about it and I want to say right now that I would not give one bottle of Tania for all the other medicines and health resorts in the country put together."

Keith & Plummer, Ltd., are unloading from a car, flour, middlings, cornmeal and corn, which will be sold at a very low price for cash.

W. R. Hatfield of Boston has been a guest of his brother, H. H. Hatfield. H. H. Hatfield was in Boston and New York on business last week. While in New York he secured a large contract for telegraph poles which are to be shipped to Beaumont, Texas. To reach this destination from Hartland these poles will have to be billed over 15 railroads.

Among those who left yesterday for the Beulah camp meetings were, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Baird, Mrs. Harvey Belyea, Mrs. W. P. MacMullin and grand-daughter, Delta MacMullin, Margaret McLaughlin, Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Mullen and two children, Mrs. Gay McLaughlin, Mrs. Pearl Thornton, Elsie Rideout, Esther Jensen and Mrs. Mary Stimm.

born country. We were told that the whole section could be developed into fine agricultural land, but we don't want it.

At 11 a.m. on Saturday we drove in to the beautiful C. N. R. depot at Winnipeg. Here awaited the Mayor, Civic Officials and the Board of Trade. About 50 automobiles were waiting to convey the party to all points of interest in the city, going in one grand procession. After the drive we were taken to the beautiful Assiniboine park where luncheon was served to the music of a delightful orchestra. Here was more speech making by chief city officials and responses by President Davies and Manager Skyles. After luncheon the beautiful parliament buildings, the magnificence of which is without equal in Canada, were inspected.

The party left Winnipeg late in the evening and the morning brought the first broad view of the prairie, dotted here and there with cosy homes, with gigantic grain elevators looming up all over the landscape. This was Sunday. Shortly before arriving at Saskatoon the train was flagged at Watrous where awaited the big line-up of autos and the whole town en masse. This stop was not on our program, yet the people were very eager to welcome us. Near Watrous was Lake Manitou, whose waters it is claimed are for the healing of the nations. This lake is so saline in character that it does not freeze in winter, and it is said that most marvelous cures of rheumatism have been made there. Each member of the party was presented with a bottle of water, boiled down to the consistency of a light oil, and with a package of salts reduced from the water.

Arriving at Saskatoon at 11 a.m. the party met on the station platform where Rev. A. H. Moore conducted a beautiful and inspiring divine service and delivered a short sermon appropriate to the occasion. After luncheon in the diner the city authorities and the great parade of automobiles arrived, and after the address of welcome was read we were taken about this wonderful city of the prairies. Later the party was entertained at afternoon tea at the Saskatoon Club. During the evening the party attended service at the various churches.

Another night's travel over the prairie and the train arrived at Edmonton, where, after the usual auto drive around the city, luncheon was served in the Board of Trade rooms. Later some of the party went to the country club, for golf, while others went motoring.

To cut a very long story short, it may be said that the reception given by every city was practically the same—the address of welcome by the mayor and Board of Trade, the big line-up of autos, the drive to points of interest, and the partaking of the cities' best hospitality. There was not an idle moment. At every stopping place we were accorded the heartiest reception and if the total cost of the service rendered by the railways and the cities was divided in cash among the members of the party none of us would have to work for the next nine years.

On the whole C. N. R. system the most delightful spot was Jasper Park, where is the outlet of the Maligne river, one of the most remarkable streams in North America, running for miles under ground. The park is a game and forest reservation of 4,000 square miles. On one of the plateaus is a beautiful town site. The party remained at this spot all day and enjoyed motoring and the saddle ponies to the various points of interest. Here, also, luncheon was served. At 7 p.m. we arrived at Mount Robson which has an altitude of 13,063 feet and is the highest and most majestic peak in the Canadian Rockies. First sighted at 6 o'clock the noble peak was still in view, apparently as near as ever after three hours' travel away from it, when darkness shut out the view.

We will not attempt in this article to further describe the trip west bound or the stop at Vancouver and Victoria but we want to say here that the service rendered as by the railways, both the C. N. R. and C. P. R., was perfect in every detail, generous and hospitable beyond compare, and the service, which they showed us, their guests, is the same service that they are prepared to give every person who travels over their lines.

Charles K. Howard, a St. Andrews boy, once C. P. R. agent at McAdam, later connected with the Valley railway, today high up on the C. N. R., showed the party every possible at-tion. He called us all by name, at every stop he was right on the job, and on his morning and evening tours through the length of the train his genial greeting made every one a friend of himself and of the C. N. R.

Field, B.C., on the Kicking Horse River. The C. P. R. gave the Editors of the Canadian weekly newspapers a dance here.

Beautiful Lake Louise was visited by the Editors of the Canadian weekly newspapers, during their tour of the West.

No less assiduous in his care of this big family was H.J. Lambkin, a St. John boy, who is the company's inspector of sleeping and dining cars. He was with us all the way.

Enough cannot be said of the splendid dining car service. The car itself had never been used before and is the very last word in dining cars. Stewards J. J. Kelly and his hands full, but he was courteous and good natured to the last minute. There was a waiter to every two tables and never was a large company of people better served. The dining car staff numbered 13 all told. They went to work at four in the morning and had not a moment's respite until after midnight throughout the whole journey. Among the waiters was Frank Kelly, who years ago was well known on his division of the C. P. R. as a newsboy.

Coming east the party was in the immediate care of M. A. B. Calder, who last year conducted the Imperial Press excursion, and who personally conducted the Prince of Wales on his Canadian trip. Mr. Calder deserves a special article all to himself, and this he will get in a later issue.

The editors, wives and children under the auspices of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Convention held in Vancouver commenced their return transcontinental trip over the Canadian Pacific Railway on Sunday, June 13.

It was a memorable occasion as some ninety per cent had never travelled through the Canadian Pacific Rockies, and needless to say it surpassed all expectations from a scenic point of view.

After passing Kamloops they began to be enthralled with the wondrous and magnificent beauties of the Canadian Rockies through which the miles and miles of steel of the greatest transportation company in the world runs. Nature has thrown up the Canadian Rockies on so vast a scale that the human mind can with difficulty grasp their greatness.

At Glacier the everlasting snow capped peaks of Sir Donald, Hornet Mountain and the lesser lights entranced nature lovers, and those who had not had the opportunity of seeing this wonderful scenery before, declared that it would live for ever in their memory as one of the most enjoyable days of their lives. Passing through that wonderful piece of engineering—the Connaught Tunnel—still between towering mountains bearing innumerable names, the party eventually reached the divisional point Field, where they were still awed by the vastness of the mountains.

It was at Field that the party received their first surprise in the form of an impromptu dance given at the former C. P. R. hostelry which is now transformed into a railway Y. M. C. A. The enthusiasm of the crowd at the entertainment provided for their benefit, demonstrated itself by the manner in which everyone threw themselves heart and soul into the old fashioned dances to the tune of a violin and an accordion. Both old and young entered into the dance with such energy that it was a very tired but still very happy bunch that hit the blankets in the early hours of the morning.

Despite the tired feelings that may have pervaded many, all were up with the lark the next morning to witness the glories of the Rockies and the Great Divide, which marks the division between Alberta and British Columbia and the two tiny streams, one flowing to the great ocean of the west and the other to that of the east en route to the Pearl of the Rockies—Lake Louise.

It was impossible to find adequate and sufficiently impressive words to describe this exquisite bit of scenery. The stop at Lake Louise was all too short. The electric car ride transported the delegates to the Chateau situated at an altitude of nearly 8,000 feet where Mr. Evans, the manager, extended a cordial welcome and provided a swell luncheon. It was here that again words failed to express the magnificence of the natural beauties of nature. A lake of the deepest and most exquisite coloring, great change-ing, mirroring in its wonderful depths the sombre forests and cliffs that rise from its shores on either side, the gleaming white glacier and tremendous snow-crowned peaks that fill the background of the picture. Pony trails and motor rides were indulged in while many took "shanks mare" to Lake Agnes, famously known as the Lake in the Clouds visiting the dainty tea room where Miss Dodds, a charming English lady, served tea in real English fashion. The stay was all too short, but it was afterwards described as the most beautiful spot in the Canadian Pacific Rockies, a sentiment which everybody endorsed.

The train proceeded on its way to

Banff arriving about five o'clock in the afternoon, met by a multitude of motor cars placed at the disposal of the party by the genial entertainers, the C. P. R. and driven by the famous Brewster Transfer people, who supply the thousands of ponies required to handle the tremendous pony traffic at the various mountain hotels of the C. P. R. Under the shadow of Mount Rundle, Sulphur Mountain and Cascade Mountain the representatives of the newspapers were transferred to the delightfully situated Banff Springs Hotel, and here again the manager Mr. Bengalla had made arrangements for dancing in the handsome ballroom. A stay was made overnight and the following day the Canadian Pacific entertained the guests to a special drive to Lake Minnewanka, a lake of somewhat stern beauty with a plentiful supply of fish, thence to the Cave and Basin and the golf links along the beautiful Bow River in the heart of the world renowned Bow Valley. Here again pony rides were the order of the day and a most enjoyable luncheon was provided by the hotel authorities. Access to the swimming pools was afforded the visitors, several taking two or three dips during the day, while others enjoyed a midnight dip the evening of their arrival. The courtesy extended to all was more than could be expected, demonstrating that the popular railway company still keeps up its traditions in this particular direction. The visitors subsequently left for Calgary reaching that city about eight in the evening.

A whole paragraph could be devoted in voicing the gratitude and pleasure felt and expressed by the delegates for the open top motor cars which were attached to the train and the train from Vancouver to Lake Louise and their reception by all C. P. R. officials, who were only carrying out the earnest desire of Mr. E. W. Beatty, the popular president of the company that the Canadian Weekly Editors and those who accompanied them should receive the best that it is possible for the Canadian Pacific Railway to give them.

Again at Calgary the cordial hospitality of the company and the manager of the Palliser hotel was accorded the party to the entire satisfaction of everyone. Another dance was given, and carried out to everybody's satisfaction, the ballroom and the orchestra being placed at the disposal of the visitors by Mr. Bengalla the manager, ably assisted by Mr. Edwards, assistant manager.

The cordiality of the C. P. R. town, where is situated the Supply Farm producing eggs by the clothes basket and barrel full and where are the finest Holstein herd in North America, was overflowing. Here a most spontaneous welcome was given, and all the motor cars in the town turned out to convey the party through the supply farm and irrigation ditches. The town band played all the time and the school children sang "O Canada" while the Mayor, Frank Butler, extended a hearty welcome. It was a welcome the editors will never forget nor will they forget the very wholesome sandwiches handed round by the pretty girls of the town. Prof. Hutton, agricultural expert of the C. P. R. Natural Resources Department, gave a synopsis of the work carried out and the visitors were treated to the rich milk from the famous Holstein herd. Such openhearted hospitality was such as had never been received during the entire journey.

As an appreciation of this splendid reception a telegram was sent from Regina by W. R. Davies, acting president, to the following effect: "The hearty welcome of the town of Strathmore was deeply appreciated by members of the C. W. N. A. and their wives. Please convey our thanks to Mayor and Council, schoolchildren and citizens, and accept same for your self and staff. The visit to the C. P. R. model farm was one of the educational events of our trip and enjoyed by all."

It was during the visit to Regina that the following telegram was received by Mr. Davies, the acting president, extending greetings from E. W. Beatty, the president of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, as follows: "Will you please convey to all the members of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association the pleasure of the Canadian Pacific in having them as its guests. A visit to other scenes such as your journey to the prairies, the Pacific Coast, and the Rocky Mountains, cannot but be beneficial to yourselves and those you visit, for there is nothing more needed in a big and diversified country like Canada than an interchange of opinion between all its parts. The weekly newspaper is one of the most potent forces in building up a successful community, and it can best achieve that end by educating its readers in their responsibility to the wider Canada beyond the town limits. I trust that the remainder of your trip will be as successful as the first part of your journey."

Very hot weather greeted the representatives of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association on their arrival at Regina, the capital of Saskatchewan, where an interesting program had been mapped out for the visitors. The party were met at the station by Acting Mayor England and representatives of the local press. Nearly fifty automobiles were waiting to convey the delegates round the city, supplied by members of the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs. They were shown the principal thoroughfares and thence through the residential section, subsequently visiting the fine Provincial Government buildings, and also the headquarters of the famous Royal Mounted Police better known to the world as the North West Mounted Police. At the Government buildings many of the visitors ventured the rather strenuous climb up the winding stairway to reach the tower from which position a magnificent view of the city was obtained.

Returning to the banquet hall of the Trading Company, the party were right royally entertained to lunch by the City of Regina and the Leader Publishing Company.

"PARLIAMENT OF LAYDES"

Historical Seventeenth Century Pamphlets Dealing With Question. A striking idea of the changed attitude of the world toward women in politics is to be obtained from some of the spires of the period of the Civil War and the Puritan Parliaments.

These tracts, says a recent contributor to Country Life, depict a lower and also a higher house, composed entirely of women. The feminine House of Commons appears in a pamphlet under the title of "A Parliament of Laydes with their Lawes newly enacted," describing the convening of a House of Noble Matrons to control alleged grievances and picturing the tumultuous insistence of a "great many Tradesmen's Wives who desired to have their voices in the Council."

The "Lawes" proposed by this assembly, included "That women might vex, perplex, and any way torment their husbands," in accordance with the motion of Mistress Rachel Rattle-a-pace that "when our Husbands trouble us we may likewise torment them; if they set we frowne; they grudge, we grumble; they prate, we gloat; they crosse, we curse; if they bend their browes, we may bend our fists; and be they never so outrageous, we to carry no coales in any case."

A further law proposed was that "Women may feast, banquet and gossip when and where they please." The impartiality of the House of Women is indicated by the "Item" that "It is thought meet that rich widows shall marry Gentlemen's youngest sons, that have no means to maintaine themselves."

This skill was reprinted nine years later, with a more elaborate title: "The Parliament of Women: With the merry Lawes by them newly enacted: to live in more Ease, Pomp, Pride, and Wantonness: But especially that they might have Superiority, and domineer over their Husbands."

Perhaps the most interesting tract of all is the "Extract Diurnall of the severall passages in the Parliament of the Laydes." These passages relate the impeachment of various Royalist leaders during an eight-day session, which was held in Oxford, and the final reprieve of the prisoners. The "Laydes" sat in "Mary Maundin Hall," and there conducted the trial of Prince Rupert and others for treasonable misdemeanors. The "Countess and other Laydes (on Monday morning early) first made choice of their Speaker; it was agreed that Lady Oboney should have the Chair, and Moll Cut-purse made Serjeant at Arms."

The first day was occupied by speeches moving that all persons guilty of baseness, cowardice, or treachery, be brought to the bar, as delinquents. The second day the Laydes ordered that various delinquents, including Prince Rupert, be brought before the House "alive or dead."

When the warrant was delivered to the Serjeant at Arms, Mrs. Moll "musters up her witty Mermidons" (the women police of the period) and "sends for and attaches the Delinquents, whom she keeps prisoners fast in Irons, lest they or any of them should make escape." Prince Rupert, falling on his knees, heard his charge read against him "that he hath been the chiefe cause of their designes miscarrying by his plundering at Edge Hill, his wantonness at Marston Moore, and his cowardice at Borstoll. To all which he pleaded 'Not guilty, noble Amasons.'"

The House delivered a series of ferocious judgments, whereupon all the condemned prisoners most submissively prayed for mitigation and burst into "bawling tears," which tears "made the Laydes' hearts to relent," with the result that "a general Reprieve was granted to them all."

A Kipling Story.

The railways of America are in many respects very different from the railways of England, and Mr. Kipling, in one of his books, illustrates one striking difference with an amusing little story. "In England," he says, "the railway came late into a settled country, fenced round with the terrors of the law, and has remained ever since just a little out-side daily life—a theory to be respected, but in America it struts along with its hands in its pockets and a straw in its mouth—a platformless, regulationless necessity; and it is treated even by sick persons and young children with a familiarity that sometimes affects the death-rate. There was a small maiden, aged seven, who honored our smoking compartment with her presence when other excitement failed; and it was she that said to the conductor: 'When do we change crews? I want to pick water lilies—yellow ones.' A mere half she knew would not suffice for her need; but the fifteen minutes' stop when the red-painted-foot chest was taken off the rear car and a new gang came aboard, would do. The big man bent down to Little Impudence, and said: 'Want to pick lilies, eh? What would you do if the car went on and took mamma away, sis?' 'Take the next train,' she replied, 'and tell the conductor to send me to Brooklyn. I live there.' But suppose he wouldn't? 'He'd have to,' said Young America. 'I'd be a lost child!'

The Emu.

Among the indigenous birds of Queensland the emu is one of the most interesting. It rivals the ostrich for the fecundity of its feeding. In the stomach of a specimen which was recently killed were found four pan-pies and five halfpennies. Other things found inside this emu were: Nine 3 1/2 inch nails, five marbles, one pump connection, one umbrella ferrule, one key, one medal, one clock wheel, 4 1/2 inches in diameter, two studs, three buttons, one safety pin, two staples, three washers, and 24 pieces of broken china, while a large pin was found embedded in the liver. The emu was only young, and was a fine specimen.

A Start in the Right Direction

The temptation to spend money in your pocket is greater than when your money is in a savings account in the bank. That margin of temptation may mark the difference between an opportunity to go into business later on or of working for wages with nothing saved and nothing ahead at the end of your working year.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

A happy event took place in the Methodist church on Wednesday last, when Miss Mollie K. Oddy became the bride of Harold Baldwin of Douglas-field. The pastor, Rev. Hugh Miller, performed the ceremony. The church had been prettily decorated for the occasion by girl friends of the bride.
Following the ceremony the bridal party and guests proceeded to the home of the bride, where a delicious wedding luncheon was served. After a pleasant hour the bride and groom left by auto for Fredericton, and thence to Douglasfield where they will in future make their home. Among out of the town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin, parents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. James Gibson, Woodstock; Mr. and Mrs. Robert
Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Havelock
Wilson, Lakeville; Mrs. John Humble and Miss Dorothy Humble of Lakeville.

On Saturday night about 12.30 an old resident of Centreville, John Cormier, after a period of failing health, passed away at his home here. Deceased was about 80 years of age and came here with his family from East Florenceville over 30 years ago, since which time he has been a resident of this town. His wife predeceased him a few months. He leaves to mourn three sons, Gordon, Rex and Sam, and four daughters, Mrs. F. R. Mc-Lean and Mrs. D. W. Perkins of Centreville, Mrs. J. C. Burt and Mrs. Elmer Fulton of Bridgewater. The funeral services were held on Tuesday from his late home and interment made in the family lot in the U. B. cemetery.

On Friday the members of Haulton Commandery held a Field Day at Island Park, Woodstock, where they all laid dull care aside and had a good time. All the local Knights Templar were invited and attended in a body and the general consensus of opinion gave it that all had an extra good time.

Entertainment for the past week consisted of a company of amateurs from the B. C. A. Bridgewater, on Wednesday evening and a travelling company of amateurs on Thursday evening. The weather was a bit too humid to encourage any very large attendance at either program.

Jewelry Awaiting Purchasers

A note of interest from London concerns a pearl necklace, valued at $1, 500,000, which is in London awaiting sale. It is probable that the necklace will be offered by public auction. The pearls are remarkable not only for their size, but for their delicate tinting. There is at the present time much very valuable jewelry in process of realization on behalf of Russian and other owners, who have no option but to convert it into cash.

Some Cheese

Tillamook county, Oregon, expects to make and sell over 5,000,000 pounds of cheese this year.

When You Are Away from Home

Can you leave home with the assurance that a thunder storm will not destroy it before your return?

ning by Dodge's Struthers' System of possible chance of loss by lightning.

For more than 30 years the Dodge System has stood good. It is guaranteed absolutely. The dreaded season of disastrous storms is here. Ask me today what it will cost to put your property in the "safe" class by installing the Dodge & Struthers System. Remember your terms will suit me.
