RESTIGOUCHE SEES VIRTUAL CLOSE OF BUSY SEASON IN TOURIST BUSINESS

Jacquet River Leads as Vacation-ground for Holiday Visitors—Many Guests Spend Delightful Vacation at Bay View Inn—All Pleased With Scenery and Other Attractions of The North Shore.

With autumn now in the offing it is most gratifying to know that the summer which is virtually ended has seen a record established in tourist traffic on the North Shore. Just what that record is, it is impossible to estimate with any degree of accuracy, but that the influx of summer vacationists to this part of the country this year has far exceeded that of any former season is evident from the large numbers of holiday motorists to the summer visitors, but the Bay View Inn at Jacquet River, Northern New Brunswick's leading summer hotel has this season been the chief scene of vacation-time activity. From early in June until last week this fine new hostelry has been the headquarters of large numbers of summer visitors from distant points. At times the patronage has been so large that it has been difficult to accommodate all the guests.

At Jacquet River, Dalhousie, Coaric and other places have all had an opportunity this year to cater to the summer visitor, but the Bay View Inn at Jacquet River, Northern New Brunswick's leading summer hotel has this season been the chief scene of vacation-time activity. From early in June until last week this fine new hostelry has been the headquarters of large numbers of summer visitors from distant points. At times the patronage has been so large that it has been difficult to accommodate all the guests.

With the close of the present month something of the early fall quietness will again reign in this delightful summer place but long after the departure of summer guests there will remain the pleasant memories of days that were crowded with the activity of a very successful season—when the echo of happy voices filled the halls of Bay View Inn, when the verandas and lawns were alive with life and color, and the beaches, lakes and rivers were the objective of happy vacationists on their quest for outdoor recreation.

According to the general proprietor, Mr. Paul Doyle, Bay View Inn has been most fortunate this year in that the class of its visitors have been the best that could be desired. All these too have been most appreciative of the efforts put forth to make their sojourn enjoyable and have been visible in their praise of the scenery, delighted with the atmosphere of quiet restfulness there and well pleased with the facilities for healthy outdoor recreation.

Besides its transient patrons Bay View Inn has had many visitors who have been its guests for several weeks this year. Among these are the following: Miss Milla MeLellan, Superintendent of the Ross Memorial Hospital, Montreal; Miss McMillan, who is a former local girl left on Saturday last for Moncton where she will visit her father before returning to Jacquet River and thence to Montreal to resume her duties; Mrs. A. Crichton and daughter of Moncton who returned home last Saturday after a three weeks' visit; Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Smith of Montreal who returned home on last Friday's limited after a two weeks' vacation. Incidentally, Mrs. Smith is Editor of the Montreal Department of the Montreal Star.

A party of sportsmen also made the Bay View Inn their headquarters while here enjoying some Restigouche fishing. This party was composed of Messrs. G. G. Ross of Soreville, N. Y.; G. S. Shugart of Mount Vernon, J. Bromley and Marshall Bromley of New Rochelle, N. Y. These gentlemen spent some two weeks at the head of Jacquet River. They were delighted with their trip and expect to return for hunting later in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. MacKenzie of St. John's, who were also guests at Bay View Inn, Mr. Mac-

He was previously in the employ of the railway for several years and his many friends, particularly those connected with the C. N. HAVE RETURNED FROM CAMP

No. 1 Troop of Local Boy Scouts Had Great Outing at Inch Arran Grounds

A company of local Boy Scouts returned last week from an enjoyable eight-day outing at the Inch Arran. Both Scouts and the Scoutmaster in charge were delighted with their trip and have handed in the following report of their outing.

The No. 1 Troop of Boy Scouts of the Dalhousie, Campbellton, and St. John's, returned on Tuesday August 12th from their camp grounds at the Inch Arran. Kindly loaned to them by Mrs. E. Dean, Mrs. Dean not only loaned the tent, but her spacious barn at the disposal of the boys in which they made their sleeping quarters.

Numerous hikes and excursions were enjoyed. A clam digging hike to Barber's Beach, hike around the Bon Ami Rocks at low tide and to Dalhousie Island and one conducted by the Dalhousie Girl Guides and their captain, (Mrs. Hocquard), to Dalhousie Mountain.

The boys were allowed the use of the tennis court at the Inch Arran which sport they all enjoyed very much for most of it was their first experience of this fascinating game and many came away enthusiasts.

Owing to the kindness of friends the boys enjoyed many treats—peaches, cakes, biscuits, ice cream, bananas, picture show and marshallmallow party which added considerably to the joy of camp life in the estimation of the boys. A camp fire was held every night except Saturday and Sunday at which the boys sang, told stories, performed stunts much to the amusement of many camp fire visitors. On Sunday the boys attended divine service at the camp in the morning conducted by the Scoutmaster, when an address was given on "Our Flag" in the evening the boys paraded to St. Mary's Church Dalhousie where the service was conducted by the Rev. R. J. Coleman.

As some may be interested in the camp diet. The following were among menus: Breakfast—Porridge, Eggs and Bacon, Marmalade, Syrup and cream. Dinner—Soup, Lamb Stew, Roast Beef, Beef Steak, Rice Pudding, Crackers and Cheese; Sup-

SCHOOL WAR ON IN CHATHAM

Chatham, N. B., Aug. 25.—Chatham's school war which has been raging for years reached a climax today when 25 or more children from the Middle Island district were ordered from the town schools upon failure to pay a charge of $30 each for the year's tuition.

NEW TEACHERS AT JACQUET RIVER

Miss Power of Edmundston and Miss Bradley of Bathurst Now on Staff

The schools re-opened here on Tuesday with the following staff. Mr. Purvis who begins his second year as principal, Miss A. Daley in the intermediate department and Miss Power of Edmundston, primary teacher. Miss Power replaces Miss E. Hickey who successfully resigned. Miss Bradley of Bathurst replaces Miss Edna Shea in the Dalhousie school. Both languages are to be taught in this department. The most impressive penalties have never detoured wrongdoers Mr. Kelley contended, in favor of a study of prevention of crime, pointing out that modern science has led to the conviction that the criminal can be detected with unerring accuracy. The machinery of criminal law, devised and elaborated before the present scientific advances, ignores those advances and fails to regard the evidence of the sciences of the intellect or to disorders of the will of feeling, due to alcoholic, syphilitic or epileptic parentage.

RAIN IMPROVES WESTERN CROPS

Yields Well up to Average in Manitoba and Saskatchewan

Winnipeg, Aug. 25.—Despite the setback to the crop in its ripening stages in many districts throughout western Canada, the recurring rains of the last two weeks have proved of great benefit to other points where moisture was needed to aid the grain in filling out.

Given continued favorable weather, wheat cutting operations are expected to become general throughout these prairie provinces by the end of August. Early wheat cutting, which was halted by recent rains, is now being resumed and, according to reports from scattered points in Manitoba and Saskatchewan, yields are well up to the average.

In Northern Alberta the crops are reported to be ripening as fast as can be expected, although inclement weather still prevails.

Will Lease the Academy Class-Rooms

The local Board of School Trustees have decided to rent the ten available class-rooms now vacant in the L'Assomption Academy building, here in order to make adequate provision for the steadily increasing attendance at the public schools. A lease has been drawn up, and it is expected will be signed and accepted by the contracting parties. This step will temporarily solve the problem of student school room but it is altogether likely that Campbellton will see the growing population will soon require a fourth school building.

INTERESTING PAPER BY J. K. KELLY

Read Last Week at Convention of N. B. Municipalities

J. King Kelley, K. C., county secretary, addressed the annual meeting of the New Brunswick Union of Municipalities at Moncton, last week on the Administration of Criminal Law in Relation to Insanity as an Excuse for Crime.

He called attention to the difficulty comprehensively defining "insanity" and "idiotism," as indicated by the evidence of alienists at the Chicago trial. He referred to the attempt of psychiatrists to grade intelligence by assuming standards of mental and emotional development from infancy to the adult period. Mr. Kelley expressed the conviction that no one can successfully feign insanity with the scientist who knows his science. Except for workhouse and prison confinement, little attention has been given in Canada and England to people out of harmony with society. Mr. Kelley stated. Only within recent years, he said, have the insane been treated as mentally and physically ill, and in former times the unfortunate were severely dealt with.

The most oppressive penalties have never detoured wrongdoers Mr. Kelley contended, in favor of a study of prevention of crime, pointing out that modern science has led to the conviction that the criminal can be detected with unerring accuracy. The machinery of criminal law, devised and elaborated before the present scientific advances, ignores those advances and fails to regard the evidence of the sciences of the intellect or to disorders of the will of feeling, due to alcoholic, syphilitic or epileptic parentage.

Defectives are multiplying today faster than at any time in history according to Mr. Kelley. He contended that the limitation of offspring is not a crime but rather that encouragement of the unfit is a crime. The easiest, cheapest and surest method of purifying the life stream would be to unsex the defectives. That is fast

THE RESTIGOUCHE CIRCUIT COURT

Large Criminal Docket This Term on Account of April Postponement

The Restigouche County Circuit Court opened at Dalhousie on Tuesday, Chief Justice, H. A. McKewen presiding. It is expected that the criminal side of the docket will be completed today and that the six civil cases will be proceeded with.

The following were sworn as members of the Grand Jury: F. M. Shannon, Foreman, Philippe LeViolette, George Allan, Andrew Essiambre, Wm. Beaton, Thos. Gallant, Robert Reid, Jr., James E. Doyle, Armand Arsenault, Wm. McKee and Stanley Culligan.

In the case of the King, on the in-b. Gray the charge being shooting formation of Abram Dugas, vs. Chas. with intent to do grievous bodily harm, and in which the grand jury found a true bill, but a verdict of not guilty was returned.

The civil docket is as follows: J. L. Wyer, H. A. Carr, vs. Sydney Lumber Co., Peter J. Hughes, K. C. George R. Thomas, J. B. M. Baxter, K. C. vs. Arthur E. Smith, George G. Gilbert, K. C. Alfred Harvey, George G. Gilbert K. C. vs. Alex S. Arsenault, J. A. LeBlanc.

Clarence E. Hamilton, T. S. Crockett, Richard LeBuffe, H. A. Carr, Harry S. Peitchard, George G. Gilbert, K. C. vs. George S. Kerr, Colin MacKenzie.

Lazare Savoy, Colin MacKenzie vs. George E. Moser, J. A. Carr.

The reason why there is such a large docket this session is due to the fact that Judge A. T. LeBlanc had to adjourn the April session of the court as he had been practicing in the interest in all the cases then before the court, so that there are only four new cases presented, the remainder of them being remanded.

HAD ENJOYABLE MOUNTAIN TRIP

Boy Scouts and Girl Guides Had Fine Outing on Dalhousie Mountain

A party consisting of about twenty-five Boy Scouts and Girl Guides had a most enjoyable picnic on Dalhousie Mountain, Tuesday afternoon. The Rev. A. B. Humphreys, of Campbellton, was in charge of the Scouts, while the Guides were accompanied by Miss M. E. MacKenzie. A picnic supper on the Mountain, the party made its way through the woods to Cook's Crossing, whence the members proceeded to town in marching order. It is to be noted that this mountain trip will become an annual affair and that the membership of these two splendid organizations may steadily increase.

WILL RACE HERE ON LABOR DAY

Long List of Fast Horses Entered for Monday Event—Large Crowd Expected

Devotees of "the sport of kings" will learn with interest that arrangements have been completed for a good horse racing event on the Campbellton Speedway on Labor Day. The list of entries this year is a lengthy one and gives promise of being one of the best events of this kind ever staged here. Some of the fastest horses in the country are entered this year and it is predicted that the attendance on Monday will be a large one.

The races will be three classes: Free-for-All, 2:25 and 3 minute classes. "Emotionless," a horse which is well known to local sportsmen and now owned by J. Edgett of Charlottetown, P. E. I., will appear in the free-for-all. Emotionless will be driven by Henry Good of Dalhousie.

The races are scheduled to begin at 2 p.m. sharp. Refreshments will be served on the grounds. Local auto buses will provide adequate accommodation for patrons wishing to attend the event.

NOTABLE VISITORS AT GATHERING

700 at Regional Convention of L'Assomption Society Near Bathurst

Bathurst, Aug. 25.—The regional convention of the Assomption Society was held last Sunday at St. Isidore. The event resulted in the assembly of not less than 700 people on the grounds of the lovely church at this place. The day was an ideal one and people from all sections of the county took occasion to visit the prosperous and progressive village and must have been impressed with the obvious preparations that had been made for their reception. For miles in both directions the roads were lined with trees and no less than six acres spanned the highway at prominent points. These arches were finished with bouquets of foliage of different shades and several of them were marred by beauty and reflected great credit on the artistic taste and ability of their builders.

The exercises of the day began with pontifical high mass in the parish church, an effulgent feast commencing the admiration of all visitors at which His Lordship Bishop Chassignon was celebrated, assisted by a large number of priests. Following dinner, which was served on the grounds, interesting patriotic addresses were delivered by well known Acadia orators. This was followed by the formal gathering of delegates in convention. The reunion was without doubt the most successful of its kind yet held in this territory. Mr. Joseph De la Garde, of St. Isidore, made a most efficient chairman of the huge open air meeting. The addresses by His Rev. P. A. Chassignon, Premier Veniot, Rev. Father Savoie, of Petit Rocher, Mr. Jean Paul Chassignon, president-general of the Assomption Society and Hon. Senator Turgeon, all struck a high level of eloquence.

ENJOYED SOME REST

Mr. Irving Bromley, Mr. Donald G. Ross, Vice President and Treasurer of the U. S. Guide Company, New York, and Mr. G. S. Shugart, Vice President of the U. S. Fire Company, New York who are interested in a large sporting camp on the southeast branch of the Restigouche River, were visitors in Bathurst on Monday last. Mr. Bromley's little son, Master Marshall Bromley accompanied the party.

A PLEASANT AND HEALTHY SIGN

There is something of more than ordinary significance in the account of the unveiling, the other day, of a War Memorial in the town of Sheslay, New Brunswick. This community is composed quite largely of French Canadians, and as one reads the list of eighteen men of the place who fell in the Great War and to honor whose memory the monument has been erected, it is learned that there is an equal blending of names representative of the French and English speaking race.

The services which were held at the unveiling were participated in by Roman Catholic and Protestant clergymen and addresses were given by the Premier of the Province, who is of French extraction, and many others. The whole record, telling of the sacrifice even unto death of men representing the two great races which make up the citizenship of Canada and the friendly association upon a common platform of the leaders of two great religious bodies in the land, speak to us of that concord in our national family life which must be devoutly wished for by every good citizen. For a great cause, in a time of national peril, racial distinctions were obliterated and French and English enrollees themselves under one banner and marched forth in battle array as one man. Leaders in religious thought forget for a time the differences in their conceptions of Truth and speak in praise of those who, for the country's sake, paid the last full measure of devotion. Surely it is a pleasant and healthy thing in a national life when a record such as this is written—The Westman.

WORTHWHILE ACTIVITIES

It is very satisfactory to note that the municipalities of the province were more generally represented at the annual convention of the Union this year than in any previous year. The Union has clearly justified its existence. It is obviously worth while for members of Municipal Councils to get together once each year to participate in such discussions and to have their addresses as those which marked the meetings of the Union in Moncton last week. There are problems common to all which are often cleared away at a round table conference when men may talk together and secure each other's point of view and get the benefit of another's experience in regard to this or that difficulty. As years go by it is altogether likely that our Municipal Councils will come to play no small part in the shaping of provincial legislation. They have, by merit of their activities, shown themselves to constitute a progressive association eager to promote the general welfare of our country and its people. Their larger field of service will become more apparent through future conferences and further conscientious study of problems and policies which effect the common good.

FORMER RESIDENT DIED MONDAY

Henry Caldwell, Aged 79, Famed Away at Son's Home in Matapedia

The death occurred at Matapedia at five o'clock on Monday morning of Henry Caldwell, who some years ago was a well known resident of Restigouche county, but who had been living at Matapedia with his only son, William Caldwell, since he retired from business.

For several years past the deceased had been suffering from dropsy. About four weeks ago he became confined to bed and little hope at that time was held out for his recovery. He however sufficiently recovered so as to be able to get up and move about, though his heart was left very weak. On Sunday night he retired in his usual health, but on Monday morning about five o'clock was suddenly taken down with heart failure and passed away.

The late Mr. Caldwell was 79 years old and besides his son is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Daniel McCurdy, of Point LaPine, N. B., and three sisters, Mrs. Oswald Smith, of Campbellton; Mrs. Williams Crockett, of Fredericton; and Mrs. James Harvey, of California.

KING'S PRIZEMAN AT TORONTO MEET

Empire's Premier Shot Enters List at Long Branch Ranges

Toronto, Aug. 11.—At least two King's Prize winners will compete at the 50th annual matches of the Ontario Rifle Association, which opened at the Long Branch rifle ranges this morning.

They are private Burke, of the Governor-General's Footguards Ottawa, who won the prize at Blaisy this year, and Sergeant-Major W. Hawkins, of the 48th Highlanders, Toronto, winner in 1913.

In addition to these two crack shots, over 300 of the most prominent riflemen in Ontario are expected to take part in the competitions, for which over $7,000 has been allotted in cash prizes.

On Tuesday, the Canadian national exhibition match for cadets will take place. This is an innovation as this match has usually been shot during Exhibition week. It is in two stages, at the 200 yard range, with seven rounds snip-shooting, and the 600 yard range on Wednesday, and the sixty leading competitors go into the next stage, which is completed for on Friday, and consists of 10 rounds at 600 yards. The first prize is the Lieut.-Governor's gold medal Canadian Club Jubilee Challenge and $20. A team match for the trophy is shot in conjunction with the first stage, and teams of five from any battalion or regiment are eligible.

The matches continue each day till Friday, when the riflemen leave for Ottawa to take part in the D. R. A. shoot at the South March ranges next week.

Many arrived on the ranges yesterday in preparation.

The riflemen from the West include twenty from Manitoba, fifteen from Alberta, and seven from Saskatchewan.

He was a cab-driver of the old sort called as a witness in an action for damages incurred in a street collision and, ignoring the jury, he persisted in relating his version to the judge. Ultimately, the latter stopped him, and observed:

"Morris, gents; all well at 'ome, I beg."

FAMOUS NOVELIST FISHING IN N. S.

Liverpool, N. S. August 26.—A world's record in tuna fishing, it is stated, was broken by Zane Grey, the noted American author, when he landed a 768 pound tuna with hook and line, about twenty miles off Liverpool.

The giant fish put up a terrific struggle before it was landed. The fish was taken to the hotel where it was held before it was cooked.

This victory was the second he has won on his present tuna fishing expedition. R. C. Grey, the author's brother, has also made a capture.

Crimean Veteran Praises "Fruit-a-tives"

MAJOR GEO. WALKER
Major George Walker, now a familiar figure in Chatham, Ontario, is one of the men who went through the terrible Indian Mutiny. As he says: "I am a veteran of the Crimean War and the Indian Mutiny, serving under Lord Roberts. Fierce hand-to-hand fighting and continual exposure left me a great sufferer from Rheumatism, so much so that my legs swelled up, making it impossible for me to walk. My bowels were so constipated that I was in terrible shape until I began to use "Fruit-a-tives". They relieved me both of the Rheumatism and the Constipation. Today, I enjoy perfect health—no more Rheumatism or Constipation."

And in another letter, written December 1st, 1923 (eleven years after), Major Walker says: "Fruit-a-tives are keeping me in the best of health and I shall never be without them."

"Fruit-a-tives" are the famous Fruit Treatment—intensified fruit juices combined with tonics—that make you well and keep you well. 25c and 50c at all dealers or from Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

NEW COLLEGE AT RIMOUSKI OPEN

When Term Opens 400 People Will be Accommodated

Rimouski, August 18.—The new college at Rimouski, although not altogether completed, will be ready to receive pupils when the school term opens in the month of September. It will be remembered that in 1922 it was decided to build a college and the direction of the scheme was placed in the hands of Abbe Alphonse Sirot. Since that time the work has progressed favorably, so much so that when the term opens in September Rimouski will possess one of the finest classical colleges in the Province.

The ground floor of the new building is given over entirely to reception rooms, gymnasiums, recreation halls, a swimming pool and shower baths. The floors are of concrete and the walls are of pure white plaster. The most modern system of ventilation provides for the circulation of air. The upper floors are given over to class rooms and offices for the directing body.

A chapel and promenade hall both of which combine the Byzantine-Corinthian style of architecture with the modern, impress the visitor most. The former is as large as the average parish church while the latter provides ample setting accommodation for a large number of pupils and their friends.

The college will at first have accommodation for 400 pupils but in a year or so this will be enlarged to permit the entrance of 600. It will be under the direction of Canon A. Moreault.

OBITUARY

James Duncan
James Duncan, aged seventy-eight years, passed away at his home here on Sunday evening, after an illness of eleven months.

Mr. Duncan was a grandson of John Duncan, who left Scotland over a hundred years ago and settled on the south bank of the Restigouche river, near where the town of Campbellton now stands. James Duncan's father James Sr. was born in Campbellton James Junior being born in Maple Green.

For twenty years the late Mr. Duncan was a most efficient preventive officer in His Majesty's Customs, as the many liquor men who unsuccessfully tried to corrupt him with bribes have learned to their cost. Absolutely honest and incorruptible, he served his country well. In his official capacity he travelled far and wide. For eight months he served as a member of the government survey party in the Arctic. The famous Bernier was captain of the vessel in which the party made their home. On his return from the north in the fall of 1907, Mr. Duncan presented with a royal certificate (Edward VII) bearing the signature and also the seal of the Under Secretary for State. Many interesting curios were collected by the late Mr. Duncan during the course of his travels, and these he was always pleased to show anybody who wished to see them.

The funeral service was conducted yesterday, at the house, and interment was made in the Presbyterian cemetery.

Mr. Duncan was the last survivor of a large family of boys and girls. His wife, formerly Miss Mary McNeil of this town, predeceased him ten years ago. There are one son and five daughters to mourn his loss; William M. Duncan, of New York; Mrs. R. J. Dunn, Mariette, Wis.; Mrs. Henry Hamilton, Toronto, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Fawcett, returned home on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Albert Gallop entertained about fifty guests at an informal dance given on Monday evening in honor of her daughter, Miss Dorothy Gallop, who leaves on Friday for Boston where she will enter the new England Hospital to train for the nursing profession.

NEWCASTLE PRIEST IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Father Bredau, of Newcastle, accompanied by another priest, while motoring on Sunday from Burnt Church to Newcastle had a rather bad accident when the axle broke and a wheel came off. The car turned off the road, but fortunately did not quite go into the deep ditch that was there. Several motorists stopped to help, but the accident was so serious and help was summoned from Newcastle and after some time the car limped home.

The Great Impersonation

A stirring story of love and adventure. One of the famous authors of the day. Published by arrangement with The British & Colonial Press Limited.

"This," observed Dominey, "is history dished up in a somewhat palatial fashion. I repeat my suggestion that we confine our conversation to the practical."

"This is my home," the other rejoined, "and you came to see me. I shall say exactly what I like to you, and if you don't like it, you can go out. If it weren't for Lady Dominey, you shouldn't have passed this threshold."

"Then for her sake," Dominey suggested in a softer tone, "and you forgive how thoroughly you disapprove of me? I am here now with only one object in view, to point out to me any way in which we can work together for the improvement of my wife's health."

"There can be no question of a partnership between us," Dominey replied. "My help is worth a sum of the money. I have done it for her physically. She is a perfectly sound woman. The rest depends upon you, and you alone, and I am not very hopeful about it."

"Upon me?" Dominey repeated, a little taken aback.

"Fidelity," the doctor grunted, "is second nature with good women. Lady Dominey is a good woman, and she is no exception to the rule. Her brain is starved because her heart is aching for love. If she could believe in your repentance and reform, if any atonement for the past were possible and were generally offered, I cannot tell what the results might be. They tell me that you are a fish man now, although heaven knows, when one considers what a lady, selfish fellow, you were, that sounds like a miracle. You could have the great specialists down. They couldn't help, but it might save your conscience to pay a few hundred guineas."

"Would you meet them?" Dominey asked anxiously. "Tell me whom to send for?"

"Pooh! Those days are finished with me," was the curt reply. "I would meet none of them. I am a doctor no longer. I have become a villager. I go to see Lady Dominey as an old friend."

"Give me your advice," Dominey begged. "Is it of any use sending for specialists?"

"Just for the present, none at all," Dominey replied. "And what about that horrible woman, Mrs. Unthank?"

"Part of your task, if you are really going to take it up. She stands between your wife and the sun."

of another of the windows. Dominey lit the tall candles in his bedroom, fastened a dressing-gown around him, thrust himself into an easy-chair, and, fixing an electric reading lamp by his side, tried to read. Very soon the book slipped from his fingers. He became suddenly tense and watchful. His eyes counted one by one the panels in the wall by the left-hand side of the bed. The familiar click was twice repeated. For a moment a dark space appeared. Then a woman, stooping low, glided into the room. She came slowly towards him, drawn like a moth towards that semicircle of candle. Her hair hung down her back like a girl's, and the white dressing-gown which floated diaphanously about her was unexpectedly reminiscent of Bond Street.

"You are not afraid?" she asked anxiously. "See, I have nothing in my hands. I almost think that the desire has gone. You remember the little stiletto I had last night? To-day I show it into the well. Mrs. Unthank was very angry with me."

"I am not afraid," he assured her, but—"Ah, but you will not scold me?" she begged.

"It is the storm which terrifies me." He drew a low chair for her into the little circle of light and arranged some cushions. As she sank into it she suddenly looked up at him and smiled, a smile of rare and wonderful beauty. Dominey felt for a moment something like the stab of a knife at his heart.

SCOTTISH EDITORS VISIT PROVINCE

Opportunities for Settlers From Old Land are Looked Into.

Impressed with the possibilities of the Maritime Provinces and sure that an Old Countryman can do well here or in any part of Canada with hard work, Col. Edward W. Watt, joint manager of the Aberdeen Press and Journal and James Reid of the Dumfries and Galloway Standard, members of the Scottish Journalistic party touring Canada as guests of the Canadian National Railway, arrived at Fredericton recently.

Col. Watt and Mr. Reid are members of a party of five Scottish newspaper men who have been touring Canada for some time. Three sailed from the Old Country without visiting the Maritimes but the other two who were here were prevailed upon to come this way. They said last evening that they did not regret their visit.

Motored Across Country

The C. N. R. was represented by two officials of the Colonization Department, Fred A. Talbot, Public Representative, and F. C. Biette, Special Representative, both from Montreal, F. E. Sharpe, Supt. of Immigration for New Brunswick, also accompanied the party. To permit the visitors to obtain a close view of a representative portion of New Brunswick's rural sections the party left Moncton by motor Thursday morning, travelling down the Kennebecasis Valley as far as Apohaqui, thence through Queen's County to Jemseg via Cole's Island and up the St. John Valley to Fredericton.

Delighted with Country

Both visitors expressed delight through which they travelled. They referred to the fact that they had counted many men from Scotland who had recently located in Canada and from them the general report was strongly in favor of Canada. As the primary purpose of the visit of the Scottish newspaper party was to let the editors secure first-hand information with which to combat the campaign against immigration to Canada which resulted from the news of the Boreal gold strike, the party was particularly interested in the reports of the country.

Patato Culture

Particular interest was expressed in the potato culture of the province. On Cole's Island the party had an opportunity to visit the potato fields and examine the methods of culture, planting, etc. The party was greatly impressed with the seed and fertilizer used in the potato fields. The party was also interested in the reports of the potato culture of the province.

Started St. Hubert's

Col. Watt and Mr. Reid, who had been in the Maritime Provinces for some time, were particularly interested in the reports of the potato culture of the province.

ASTHMA NEVER CAME BACK

Since Taking The Fruit Treatment in "Fruit-a-lives"

Read this letter from Mrs. J. M. Pennington of New Rockland, P. Q.

"In 1919, I was taken with Bronchial Asthma and no one knows what I suffered during the winter. I began having choking spells and would just gasp for breath and could not speak. The doctor said he could do nothing for me.

In the spring of 1920, I started taking 'Fruit-a-lives' and soon the choking spells became easier and I have not had one since May 7th, 1920. It is such a relief to be able to go to bed and have no thought of having to get up in the night for an hour or more as I did all that winter, but never have to now, all because I take a 'Fruit-a-lives' tablet every night. 25c and 50c a box—at all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

RE-SEEDING OF N. B. LANDS IS SUCCESS

Tests Made on Trial Plots Show Very Favorable Results

Fredericton, N. B., Aug. 16.—G. A. Malloy and J. C. Veness of the Federal Forest Service, Ottawa, were in the Department of Lands and Mines in connection with the experimental re-seeding operations which were instituted in this province last year.

Measurements which have been made of the production on the two experimental plots at Gros Brook and Tabusintac, burned areas which were destroyed last season and which experiments were commenced to determine the production from a re-seeded first year burn, show that spruce seed is producing between 2,000 and 1,000 trees per acre. The result is said to be one of the most favorable which has been shown from the initial experiment. The experiments, which were provided for by a Federal grant extending over a period of three years, will be conducted on these areas this year in order to determine the production from areas seeded during the second year following destruction.

European methods of re-forestation will also be tried on a plot which is being prepared on crown land held by the Pulp and Paper Co.

Of Interest to Women

At Kensington Palace, London, Where the Society of Women Journalists Entertained the Members of the Canadian Weekly Press Party.

The July Number of the "Woman Journalist" the official organ of the Society of Women Journalists, London, contains descriptive articles of the reception of the Canadian Press Party held at Kensington Palace during their recent visit to London.

A Unique Privilege... To the Society of Woman Journalists was accorded yesterday the privilege, never before granted to any association, of holding a reception in the State Apartments of Kensington Palace, in order to welcome the members of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association.

Princess Louise Duchess of Argyll, the first member of the Royal House to go, as she did with the late Duke (then Marquis of Lorne), to an Overseas Governor-Generalship, is affectionately remembered throughout the Dominion; and of the Duke of Connaught and Lady Patricia, Ramsay, the younger, as well as of the older generation has the happiest recollections these three members of the Royal House, so directly connected with Canada was a recognition of the visitors that was most highly appreciated by them.

Among those present were: H. R. H. The Duke of Connaught, H. R. H. The Princess Louise, Duchess of Argyll, the Lady Patricia Ramsay, Mrs. Holden (in attendance on the Princess), the Lady Byng of Vimy, The Viscountess of Burnham, The Viscountess Burnham (President of the Society of Women Journalists), Sir Harry Brittain, Lady Brittain (Chair of the Society of Women Journalists), The Lord Riddell, The Dowager Countess of Gosford, Lord and Lady Lawrence, Lord and Lady Swaythling, Lord and Lady Sydenham, Lady Mary Trefusis, Lady Crichton, Sir George and Lady McLaren Brown, Sir Campbell Stewart, Sir Robert Donald, Sir Henry and Lady Cowan, Sir Montagu and Lady Sharpe, Sir Frank and Lady Newnes, Mrs. Alec Tweedie, Mrs. Alice Perrin, Sir Squire Sprigg, (Editor, The Lancet), Sir George and Lady Fenwick, Sir Geoffrey Fairfax, Mr. Leonard Rees (Editor, The Sunday Times), Mrs. Leonard Rees, (Mary McLeod Moore, Vice-Chair of the Society of Women Journalists), Mr. Huskisson (Editor, The Tatler), Mr. and Mrs. Hall Richardson, Mrs. Belloc Lowndes, and of course the members of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association, and other English ladies and gentlemen.

AT THE PALACE By Désirée Leake. Since the time that Queen Anne held her revels at Kensington Palace no such gathering has been seen in the stately rooms gay with flowers as was seen on June 30th in the year of our Lord 1924.

Surging up the Queen's staircase, where Miss Billington and Mrs. Massey Lyon stood, swept the representatives of the Empire, the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Publishers with wives and daughters who were sharing their triumphant procession.

England is always home to her sons and daughters wherever they are—even if they have never set foot on English soil—and it was the homely beauty of the Palace and the hearty welcome of all concerned that brought tears to the eyes of many of the guests.

How many thought of the little boy who never grew up, that precious little Duke of Gloucester, far too clever for his years, who charmed his royal aunt Queen Mary, and the reason of Queen Anne's flower-loving mother—whose home was virtually at Kensington, the link between the two sisters who had little else in common.

But the guests are gathering in the Cupola Room for the arrival of the members of the Royal House, who have come to take by the hand those representatives of the overseas Press and acknowledge the great work they were doing for the Empire.

As the reception went on and each member was presented by Lord Burnham, a pretty little scene was enacted—a small band of the royal party, with one hand gracefully holding out her skirt, she swept low before Princess Louise, and just as a fairy might have bowed at an elfin court lady, the Queen. It was all so much in keeping with the spirit of the party, one asked oneself was it really a fairy or only a flower petal blown in from the garden below.

Then came tea and the intercourses of friendship. Old friends who had met in other continents—news of those who had been left behind but were not forgotten—introductions handshakes—cards exchanged, names recorded, future meetings planned—till a whisper that nightingales were singing, or if not nightingales themselves, one who could catch the birds to song with her "tello" to be broadcast over the world. So into the long room we went, and after the music came Mr. Bell, well-known to the members of the Society. He took us back to those eventful moments when the girl Queen wrote in her diary "I am very young, perhaps in many things, though not in all, inexperienced, but I am sure that very few have more real goodwill and more real desire to do what is fit and right than I have."

An then there was the Dutch garden—lovely little gem set in green. If we have to thank Dutch William for a country palace in London, we have to thank those who tend and keep with such care this peep of paradise, this delight of Londoners, open to all to enjoy. A poor woman who fell into friendly conversation with the proprietor of a Canadian paper said with true London humor, "In the winter I go into the country that is, I come here; it is always beautiful, and is always a rest."

The Newest Decks And Fittings

There is no single piece of furniture that takes on the personality of its owner as completely as a desk. The way articles are placed on it, the pictures and books on its shelves, the color of its blotter, the position of the chair in front of it—all seem to unmistakably express individuality.

The shops cater to the desk-lover and there are many new and charming things to be gotten for its embellishment and convenience. Many women, not caring to spend much money on an elaborate desk-set, buy necessities like an ink-well, paste-pot, pen-tray, stamp-box, blotter and calendar, frame them, cover the desk blotter pad and decorate all the articles to suit their own fancy.

Clear glass is popular for the ink-well and other pieces covered with metal covers. The Chinese motif is brought out in ivory and bronze sets, an elephant forming the handle of the hand-blotter. Bronze corners for the desk blotter come in the shape of lotus leaves or flowers.

A home-made travelling set seen recently was mounted on a square of ribbed silk which was shaded with green and black. The articles were in flat boxes placed around the blotter square and securely attached. The fountain pen and ink-tube were in a blotter-lined box.

TELLS OF SALT CURE FOR TUBERCULOSIS

"Within twenty-five years there will be no more tuberculosis," declared Sir Leonard Rogers, C. I. E., F. R. S., one of England's foremost physicians at the International Conference on Tropical Diseases held in Kingston, Jamaica, from July 21 to August 2. Sir Leonard, who has spent most of his life combating diseases in the British colonies, said his faith in sodium morrhuate, a tuberculosis remedy which he discovered and subsequently applied with astonishing success. The remedy, a sodium salt obtained from the codfish, was first used by the English physician in treating leprosy patients in the tropics. His results, Sir Leonard said, were even more successful than those of the much lauded chaulmoogra oil. The doctors noticed, in the case of leprosy, that an intravenous injection of sodium morrhuate destroyed the leprosy bacillus in the body, causing a clearing up of all symptoms.

Because the leprosy bacillus and that of tuberculosis are so similar, both of them being acid fast and highly resistant organisms, Sir Leonard concluded that what would be specified treatment for leprosy might also be specified for tuberculosis. He, therefore, injected into the veins of tubercular victims the codfish preparation, with very favorable results. Sodium morrhuate, it appears, dissolves the heavy capsule of fat which encloses the tubercular bacillus and thus robs it of its protective tenacity.

The most significant feature of this remedy is the fact that it is so cheap that it lies within the reach of any sufferer," Sir Leonard said at the Kingston meeting. "A few shillings worth of sodium morrhuate will suffice for a thousand patients and there is nothing complicated in the method of administration."

In outlining the treatment to the conference, the physician produced statistics showing that his claims for the remedy were well founded. These showed that in all cases that were not hopelessly chronic, improvement was manifested from almost the hour of injection and continued until the patient was cured.

Street Nomenclature. "You didn't agree to get the lady a divorce?" asked the lawyer. "She told me she was a Broadway wife with a Main Street husband, and while I can understand why she wants her freedom, the chances are the case would be tried before a Main Street Judge."

TO EXPECTANT MOTHERS

My husband told me when the Vegetable Compound had done for his wife and advised him to take a bottle home for me. After the fourth bottle I was a different woman. I have deep children now, and I always find the Vegetable Compound a great help as it seems to make confinement easy. I recommend it to every expectant mother as nature intended. Thousands of women testify to this fact.

Our European Trip

A Brief Account of our Pleasant Experiences with The Canadian Weekly Newspaper Party on Our Trip abroad
By H. B. ANSLAW

Brussels, June 23rd, 1924.

Early this morning, that is early for us, we left Brussels for the Palace station by special train for Liege, and while we are proceeding to this historic city, which is distant nearly two hours run by fast train, we will review something of its history.

In 1914 Liege received the first shock of the German onslaught and resisted to it with such glorious heroism that she has since been decorated with the Cross of the Legion of Honour. It forts, and especially that of Loncin, which General Leman did not surrender until it was pulverized, its battle fields of Sarttilman and Rabode, the neighboring localities, like Vise, which underwent devastation and martyrdom all these offer a grim remembrance of the Great War.

To Canadians it was generally thought that Liege was a town of small city, therefore we were somewhat surprised to see a pretentious city, which we understood contained 400,000 inhabitants.

We arrived at 10.15, and found the ever ready charabancs in waiting to convey us about the city and to several large works. The city, while were entirely dismantled and destroyed by the Germans and 11,000 workmen are now employed therein.

Besides these two industries, Liege has extensive coal mines, and manufactures cloth, motorcycles, bicycles, glass and agricultural implements.

At noon we returned to Liege to be received at the Town Hall, by the Mayor and city council and officials, as well as the various managers of the works in and about Liege. Here an address was delivered by the Mayor and responded to by one of our party.

At one o'clock we had luncheon at the Hotel de Sable, where after the usual toasts, and two of our party replied fittingly. Here practically all the addresses were delivered in French.

At 3 o'clock we left by charabancs for Fort Loncin, the fort which held up the German advance for fifteen days, and thus gave the French and British time to mobilize and prepare a front to the onrushing Germans, days which were greatly needed and taken every advantage of.

Fort Loncin is situated sixty-four miles from the German frontier, and was the first of the Liege chain of forts to be engaged, and the last to surrender. Here we had as our guide the commander Colonel Massens, who was severely wounded, and taken prisoner when the fort was taken. Frequently while telling us about the ruins and explaining the situations at different stages of the siege his eyes would be filled with tears and for a time he would be unable to continue his remarks.

The whole fort, which is a mass of ruins, and now overgrown with flowers, is being kept as a monument to the brave Belgians who defended it, as well as a war memorial, which is now being visited by thousands of tourists weekly.

The fields which surround the fort as the fort is situated some distance from the city, and which were doubtless badly scarred by shell fire, have been leveled off and are growing wonderful crops of wheat, rye and hay.

We returned to Brussels at 8 o'clock and after dinner, most of our party visited the shopping districts to see the stores for which Brussels is noted. Unfortunately, or perhaps fortunately, the large stores were closed, so we had to content ourselves with a visit to the smaller ones.

In our walk we ran across a large Ford Service Station and saleroom and being curious entered and inquired the price of a Ford touring car. The price quoted figured out about $550.00 in Canadian money.

In Brussels we had some difficulty and not a little fun in endeavoring to use the electric tram cars. None of the conductors could speak English, so when we boarded a car, we would take a seat, and wait until the conductor came to collect a fare and then hand him a coin and trust to his honesty to get the correct change. He would talk away and gesture, hand us a ticket, much like a transfer on our city cars, and leave us to get off at a place we recognized.

One night a number of ladies who thought their tickets good for a ride on another car, persistently boarded one after another, presented their pieces of pasteboard, were talked and gestured to and finally pushed off. Thinking they had boarded the wrong car, they tried again and again, until at last a conductor, more knowing than the others, took their tickets, tore them into little pieces, threw these pieces into the street, and then getting his foot and holding on his hand made it clear that another fare had to be paid.

A gentleman who entered a crowded car with his wife could not find a seat with her, but sat in another section which was empty. In these circumstances he proceeded to take a seat near his beloved. Immediately the conductor came forward and demanded another fare, which he had to pay although he produced his ticket given when he paid the first fare.

In Brussels the public houses are open seemingly all day and well into the night, or rather morning. They place their little tables and chairs, under awnings on the pavements and the people, native and visitors, sit about drinking their wine and beer, and smoking. In these pastimes the ladies indulge as well as the men, and the little tables are nearly always filled. But during all our visit we never saw an intoxicated person. We were told that very little hard liquor is used, the favorite beverage being the light wine and lighter beer.

Although we had orders to have our luggage packed and ready to be moved at an unreasonably early hour next morning we could not forgo the charm of Brussels at night, and it was well in the "wee small hours" ere we returned to the Palace hotel.

Every hour of our trip so far has been filled with pleasure, and the people everywhere seem anxious that we see what is of most interest to people of our profession. In fact they are crowding so much into a brief space of time that the pace is beginning to tell. But we are assured that the next two days, which will be spent on the battle fields with Lille as our headquarters, while strenuous, will be more restful.

The next letter, which will be to many of our readers the most interesting, will deal with the time spent in that portion of the battle fields so sacred to Canadians everywhere.

DIVING SUITS NO LONGER NECESSARY
Invention May Revolutionize Pearl Industry

Tokio, Aug. 24.—The invention by a Japanese of a diving appliance which dispenses with the use of pumping promises to revolutionize the pearl industry. The new appliance consists of a small mask, with face glass and rubber edge, which covers the eyes and nose. The mask is connected to a cylinder about 16 pounds in weight, filled with compressed air, which is carried on the chest. The supply of air to the nose is regulated by the mouth, which controls an attachment to a tube connecting the cylinder with the mask. The old cumbersome diving suit is thus dispensed with and the diver, with greater freedom allowed to his limbs, can work more expeditiously.
