Handicapped.

Parents often wonder why their children do not take more interest and make better progress in music. Sometimes they blame the teacher and sometimes the pupil, while in many cases neither the one nor the other is to blame. Both are handicapped by the inferior instrument on which the pupil has to practice. Perhaps there is no instrument at all, and the practicing has to be done at the teacher's house. This is equally unsatisfactory.

A NORDHEIMER PIANO

in the home will remedy this. Old instruments taken as part payment.

VICTIMS OF POISON

Body of Mrs. Chapman To Be Exhumed—Widow Cleared.

London, Oct. 29. — The home secretary, Mr. Akers-Douglas, has ordered the exhumation of the body of the last wife of George Chapman.

Cortlandt, N. Y., Oct. 29.—At the close of the coroner's hearing Mrs. Maud Kiehl, the 18-year-old widow, charged with poisoning her brother-in-law, Adam Kiehl, was released for lack of evidence to connect her with the crime. It was proved that Kiehl, who was a prominent young farmer of Premble, died from strychnine poisoning.

Ten-Wheeled Locomotives.

Montreal, Oct. 28.—For the first time since the original purchase of equipment the Canadian Pacific Railway Company is going to import locomotives from across the Atlantic. The manufacturers of the United States and Canada are overcrowded with orders for next year and the inability of the company to secure delivery when required has compelled it to place an order in Scotland for twelve ten-wheeled locomotives.

William Farrell, who has been Grand Trunk yardmaster in the Barthurst street yards, Toronto, for some years, has been transferred to Monteal. His salary will, it is understood, be $1,000 per annum compared with $1,500 what he was paid in Toronto. His successor has not yet been appointed.

In ten years the city of Chicago has lost $5,610,000 in uncollected taxes.

OUT OF THE RACE.

THE NORTH PERTH ELECTION VOIDED AFTER BRIEF INQUIRY

Conference Proposed by Counsel for Respondent.

ONLY ONE CHARGE GONE INTO

Voter for Monteith Marked Ballot of a Brown Supporter—Mr. Blake's Statement.

Stratford, Oct. 28.—The first seat in Ontario to be opened by the election court is North Perth, in which the trial judges today ordered a new election after a brief inquiry and a scrutiny of ballots. The trial was unexpectedly brief, for even some of the counsel engaged came prepared to stay at least for a week or two. There was, too, an imposing array of witnesses, to retain whom would have cost $800 per day in witness fees. The court had barely opened, when counsel for Mr. J. C. Monteith, the Conservative member, who had been declared elected by a majority of two votes, proposed a conference with a view to settlement, and the result was an understanding, by which one charge would be taken up, which would result in the vote being declared a tie, thus necessitating a new election. This charge was speedily investigated.

LEFT VOTE A TIE.

It was shown that of two men by the name of James Fraser, both formerly living in Stratford, one had moved outside prior to the election, and on polling day he, thinking he still had a vote in the city, marked the ballot he obtained for Monteith, and it was counted, while the Stratford Fraser, coming later, received a tendered ballot, marked it for Brown, and it was not counted.

This difficulty being adjusted, the vote was left a tie, and after the two candidates had formally declared their ignorance of any corrupt acts in their behalf, a new election was ordered.

The trial judges were Mr. Justice Maclennan and Mr. Justice Moss, of the court of appeal. The petitioner in the case was Mr. John Brown, the unsuccessful Liberal candidate. He was represented by the eminent local counsel who have had charge of the case, Mr. J. P. Mabee, K. C., Mr. G. G. McPherson, K. C., and Mr. R. T. Harding, of Stratford. The respondent was represented by Mr. S. H. Blake, K. C., and Mr. Edmund Bristol, Toronto, and Mr. E. Sydney Smith, K. C., Stratford. Mr. C. S. Grant, assistant clerk of the court of appeal, acted as registrar.

RESPONDENT SEEKS CONFERENCE.

Immediately after the opening of the court, a few minutes past 1 o'clock, Mr. Blake intimated to the petitioner's counsel that he desired a conference, and their lordships' permission was obtained to the withdrawal of all counsel, the candidates and the principal parties interested to an outer room. On their return 35 minutes later a subdued consultation was held with the court, after which one of the counsel announced to the members of the press that the respondent's representatives had offered to open up the seat at once by consent, but that their lordships required that some evidence be tendered to justify that act. It was then decided to give evidence respecting the Fraser charge.

THE TWO FRASERS.

Mr. R. R. Lang, city clerk, produced the assessment roll for 1902, which showed the names of two James Frasers in Stratford, one a baker and the other a blacksmith.

James Fraser, of North Easthope Township, was then called. He said he was a blacksmith and carpenter and had lived on the farm where he now resided for a little over a year, previous to which his home had been in Stratford.

Q.—Where did you vote during the late Provincial election? A.—I voted in Avon Ward, No. 2, where I voted for the last 30 years.

Q.—You supposed you had a vote there? A.—I did, certainly.

Q.—Your vote was not objected to? A.—No.

Q.—You were not sworn? A.—No.

Q.—You did not vote in North Easthope? A.—No, I never went near the polls.

ANOTHER HAD VOTED FOR HIM.

James Fraser, of Stratford, the next witness, said he was a baker. In reply to Mr. Mabee's questions, he said he had been told on asking for a ballot at No. 2, Avon Ward, on election day, that James Fraser had already voted. He had, however, taken exception to the situation, and afterwards was given a ballot by the deputy returning officer.

Mr. Mabee produced the only tendered ballot from that poll, which was marked for Brown, and asked Mr. Fraser:

"Is there anything to make you think this is not your ballot?" A.—It is maked in the right place. (Laughter.)

Q.—Your ballot was put into the envelope and was not put into the ballot-box? A.—No, it was not put into the ballot-box.

Mr. G. J. Ewart, deputy returning officer at No. 2, Avon, confirmed the last witness' statements respecting the tendered ballot, and said it had not been counted.

Mr. Mabee—We claim that the vote of the North Easthope Fraser goes off and that of the Stratford Fraser goes on.

TO SAVE EXPENSE.

Mr. Blake, upon being questioned, made this statement: "This was not come to without consultation with my learned friend. We both came to the conclusion that it would be very lengthy and very expensive to proceed with the scrutiny. A good many manhood suffrage votes were considered, and the evidence to be taken upon them would have been so very, very expensive, that I said I thought it would be better that we should not proceed further with it, and I therefore do not give any evidence further upon that question. The result of the evidence would be, my lords, that there would be no election, and that the seat would be declared vacant. But I should like, and possibly it would be a satisfaction to the court, so as to be sure there is no collusion in the matter, that the usual questions should be put, possibly to the petitioner, who was the candidate, and to the respondent, as to the absence of fraud or improprieties in the election.

Mr. Justice Moss—You can see the effect of this evidence is to make the number of votes an equality.

Mr. Blake—Yes. Of course, we could proceed further, but it would be so expensive and so lengthy that we have thought it was not in the interests of justice that we should do so.

CANDIDATES CALLED.

The court approved the suggestion to call the candidates, and Mr. Monteith took the witness stand. In answer to Mr. Blake's questions he declared he was unaware of any corrupt or improper acts in his behalf at the last election, and declared he had requested at the convention that it be a pure and proper and upright contest.

Mr. Brown made a similar statement to Mr. Mabee, and said so far as he knew the election had been conducted in his interests in a clean manner.

THE SEAT OPENED.

Mr. Justice Maclennan—Then the result of the poll is a tie, both parties having received the same number of votes as a result of this election.

Mr. Blake—The declaration, I suppose, would be the same as in the West Elgin case, that is, that the seat is open and there should be a new election.

Mr. Justice Maclennan—Yes, the election is void—ineffectual. We shall have to report that there is no reason to believe that corrupt practices have extensively prevailed. What about costs

Mr. Mabee—The petitioner does not ask costs.

The court then adjourned.

GREAT MORTALITY FROM MEASLES

Ten Thousand Victims Perish in Kamschatka—Cholera Deaths in Egypt.

London, Oct. 29. — The St. Petersburg correspondent of the London Daily Mail cables that there is an epidemic of measles on the Kamschatka Peninsult. Ten thousand persons have died of the disease; and the populations of some country villages have been nearly wiped out.

According to a report of the director-general of the Egyptian department of health, the cholera epidemic continues to claim a large number of victims. The number of infected places has increased to 1,557. The number of cases registered during the week ending Sept. 15 amounted to 9,467 with 8,278 deaths. Of the 28,520 cases of cholera registered between July 16 and Aug. 15, 23,684 were fatal. In Alexandria during the week ending Sept. 15th, 64 cases of cholera occurred among Europeans, with 41 deaths, and during the following five days 35 cases and 25 deaths.

Lots of Dope Confiscated.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 29.—Eighty pounds of opium, valued at $1,600, which a Chinese passenger on the coast survey steamer Gedney will be charged with attempting to smuggle from Victoria to Seattle, has been seized aboard the cutter by customs inspectors. The discovery was made through a conversation heard by Secretary of the Treasury Shaw's son, a guest on the Gedney.

The gypsies have an odd cure for rheumatism. They carry a good-sized piece of brimstone in the pocket and warrant it to cure the worst cases.

COLOMBIANS ARE CRUSHED

Death Blow to the Revolution—Surrender of General Uribe-Uribe and His Men.

Panama, Oct. 29. — The revolutionary general, Uribe-Uribe, with ten cannon, 2,500 rifles and 300,000 rounds of ammunition, has surrendered to Gen. Marjorres at Rio Frio, near Santa Marta.

The revolutionary forces, under General Uribe-Uribe, which was defeated Oct. 14, at Lacienaga, retreated to Rip Frio and took up positions there. General Marjorres, with 2,000 men, proceeded against the rebels from Lacienga and engaged the enemy two days ago. The Government general succeeded in surrounding the rebels and forcing them to surrender. Gen. Castillo was with Gen. Uribe-Uribe.

The surrender of Uribe-Uribe is said to complete the pacification of the departments of Magdalena and Bolivar. The revolutionists now occupy the isthmus only.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 29.—Confirmation of the news of the surrender of the revolutionary general, Uribe-Uribe, was received at the Colombian legation here tonight.

MITCHELL DAY AT THE MINES

Celebrated by a Suspension of Operations.

BIG PARADE AT WILKESBARRE

Seven Thousand Men Were in Line at Scranton—Only a Few Washeries Working.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 29.—Mitchell Day was celebrated by all the union miners in the anthracite region today. There was a general suspension of work. A few washeries were working, but their output of coal was very small.

President Mitchell arrived from New York today. He will go to Scranton to attend the session of the arbitration commission. There were demonstrations in many of the nearby towns today, and after the parades the people flocked to Wilkesbarre in large numbers to see the big parade here.

Shamokin, Pa., Oct. 29.—Mitchell Day was observed here today. Seven thousand united mine workers, headed by the Tenth Regiment Band and troops, paraded the streets, after which the mine workers were addressed by several labor leaders. No collieries were in operation and all business was generally suspended.

"Mitchell Day" is the anniversary of the close of the last big strike, Oct. 29, 1900, when the mine workers returned to work after being out six weeks, the owners having granted a 10 per cent increase in wages and other concessions. As in the present strike, President Mitchell then conducted the strike for the mine workers.

THE OUTPUT.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 28.—Official figures from the five big companies having their main offices in Scranton, show that almost 90 per cent of their collieries are in operation, and that the output is now more than three-quarters of what it is normally. The following table shows the normal output, and yesterday's tonnage:

Companies—	Normal Output.	Monday's Output.
D., L. and W.	26,000	23,250
Erie	28,000	15,700
D. and H.	19,000	14,000
O. and W.	12,000	9,000
Temple	8,000	3,100
Totals	88,000	65,050

Today's output is estimated to be 70,000 tons.

A FLOODED MINE.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—Mr. Johnson, a mine boss from Shamokin, Pa., passed through Toronto yesterday on his way to work in the British Columbia soft coal mines for Ellis Rogers, in whose employ he was in Pennsylvania, 27 years ago. Mr. Johnson said that his mine at Shamokin had 1,360 feet of water in it, and that it would take two years to pump it out before work could be resumed. While the other mines in the district were not quite so badly flooded as this one, yet most of them were more or less in a state of being submerged and it would take a long time to get them in a condition for working. He stated that not half the men had yet gone to work. There was difficulty all through the region over the taking back of the men. He said that it was almost certain that there would be further trouble by next spring.

Pope Interested in Canada.

Rome, Oct. 29.—The Pope today received Archbishop Bruchesi, of Montreal, in private audience. The pontiff showed great interest in Canada and spoke in flattering terms of Premier Laurier.

A San Francisco dispatch says: The early wheat reports indicated a yield of about 900,000 tons. Now that the harvest is over the crop is believed to be only 600,000, or a trifle over.

MERRY PRANKS AND GAMES FOR HALLOWE'EN PARTIES

Ghosts, Goblins, Witches and Elves Are All Abroad.

Parents Should Give Children Innocent Amusement at Home That Night.

Next Friday evening will be Hallowe'en. If you are sitting quietly by your own fireside you may be startled of a sudden by a gentle tick-tack on the window-pane, and while you are still looking in the direction of the sound, like enough there will appear outside, a huge head with tongue and nostrils and eyes all aflame. If you are bold enough to venture from home, beware of taut cords over which you are liable to stumble; of pocketbooks which move away mysteriously as you stoop to the sidewalk to pick them up; and of a hundred other pranks which the small boy will try to play upon you while he lurks in a nearby alley to enjoy the fun. For he will gain permission to stay out late this once and intends making the most of his freedom.

But not only is the small boy at large on Hallowe'en. It is the night of all the year when ghosts and goblins, witches, devils and mischief-making elves, as well as spirits of the dead, are said to wander abroad to aid or warn or molest poor mortals.

ANCIENT CUSTOMS.

The customs of Hallowe'en, sometimes called All Hallow's Eve, or Nut-crack and Snapapple Night, are plainly relics of pagan times. A feast to Pomona, goddess of fruits and seeds, was always held by the Romans on Nov. 1, and the stores gathered during the summer were then opened for winter's use. At this same time the Druids held a festival of thanksgiving to the sun for their harvest. The Druids also believed in the transmission of souls, and thought that on this night the Lord of Death summoned the spirits which had been condemned within the previous year to possess the bodies of animals. November was one of the periods when bonfires were lighted in honor of Baal. This lighting of fires continued in Great Britain until a comparatively recent time. In Wales especially was the custom long adhered to. Every family made its own fire, and when it burned low each one threw in among the embers a smooth white stone, marked for future recognition. Woe to any whose stone was missing in the morning, for it betokened certain death to that one within a year. The firetending was usually accompanied by the eating of nuts, apples and parsnips and by various games. Many of these customs and games have come down to us, and with various changes and additions are played today with as much ardor as they were of old; the chief difference being that whereas in early times they were ceremonies of belief, they are now occasions of sport, pastimes for fun and jest-loving people.

ROASTING NUTS.

It may be added, however, that there is doubtless many a merrymaker who wishes that some of the prophecies concerning Hallowe'en customs might really prove true. One of the most common practices of all is the roasting of nuts. Three nuts are placed on the grate before the fire and named by the person testing fate and fortune. If the nut jumps off, that lover is unfaithful; if the nut blazes or burns, so does his love; if the nut named after the girl and her lover burns until consumed, the wedding gown may as well be ordered at once. The nut-shells are sometimes burned and from their ashes many strange things may be foretold.

BOBBING FOR APPLES.

Then there are apples—subjects for much merry sport and matrimonial divination. In a basin or tub of water a number of rosy-cheeked apples are placed, some having the stems left on, to assist in their capture. It may seem easy enough to secure a prize, but it is really a rather difficult matter to catch a round slippery apple with the teeth. The surest way, it is said, is to force it to the bottom of the tub where it may be held until caught firmly. If one does not succeed after three attempts, spinisterhood or bachelorhood is assured without a shadow of doubt. The game, known as bobbing for apples, creates all manner of fun and laughter, as one after the other of the party emerges, dripping, if not triumphant, from the contest.

APPLE AND CANDLE GAME.

The apple and candle game is another favorite. From the ceiling a strong cord is suspended, and it is tied to the center of a stick about two feet long. To one end of this stick an apple is fastened; to the other end a lighted candle. The string is set in motion, and contestants try to catch the apple with their teeth; to catch the lighted candle instead isn't as funny as it might be; indeed, as it is not altogether pleasant or even safe to play with fire, instead of the candle a bag of some thin material filled with flour may be substituted. When the person trying to snatch the fruit is struck in the face with the bag, and covered with flour instead of glory, it only adds to the fun, which grows fast and furious. Here, too, three attempts to catch the fruit with failure each time, is a fatal blow to all hopes of a speedy marriage.

PARING THE PIPPIN.

If a maiden wishes to discover the initials of her future husband's name, all she need do is to peel a nice large pippin, and taking one end of the paring in her fingers, she must swing it twice around her head and then let it drop. At least the first initial may be traced in the shape the paring will take. The Irish lass, and any who wish to follow her example, may see the likeness of her future husband in this wise. After she has thrown a ball of yarn out of her window—being sure to keep hold of the one end of the thread—she must begin to re-wind it, all the time saying the Pater Noster backwards. When this ceremony is finished the lover will apear.

SOWING THE HEMP SEED.

The hemp seed experiment is also well known. The sower must go forth quite alone, taking a handful of seed, which he scatters, saying, "Hemp seed, I sow thee, hemp seed I sow thee; and him or her who is to be my true love, come after me and pou thee." If upon looking over the left shoulder the future sweetheart's likeness is not seen pulling the seed, either the sower is destined never to marry or some mistake in the experiment has been made.

Of course no maiden will neglect the duty of looking into the mirror in a half darkened room. Let her gaze long and patiently, if need be; "he cometh not," she says; but wait a little; "he," the hero of her dreams will presently appear, perhaps in somewhat ghostly form, peeping over her shoulder. But suppose he really and truly cometh not; what then? Is her doom sealed for good and all?

Oh, no, not at all; there is still another trick or two left, from which if in the doing she receives no broken limbs all may be well.

Holding a lighted candle, the damsel slowly makes her way down stairs backward, nor looks behind; if her candle is extinguished it is by the breath of her cavalier, and the date of the marriage is there and then decided upon—so rash is youth

A lighted candle plays a part in another trick, which is apt to be more amusing than sensational. The candle is placed upon a table in full view of everyone; the maid or man who would test fate is blindfolded, turned around three times, and set free to seek the candle and blow out the light, if possible. The candle is seldom found, and even if the table is reached, it is difficult to blow in such a direction as to extinguish the flame. The clever person who is successful is certain—absolutely certain—to become engaged before the end of the year.

The magic rites of Hallowe'en are not ended if a young girl does not take two long-stemmed roses, and naming one for herself and one for her lover, go without speaking with anyone to her own sleeping room. Kneeling beside her bed she twines the stems together, while repeating these lines:

"Twine, twine and intertwine,
Let my love be wholly mine.
If his heart be kind and true,
Deeper grow his rose's hue."

If the lover is faithful the rose's color will at once become deeped.

Lastly, a glass of water containing a small bit of wood is placed at her bedside. She will always dream of falling from a high bridge into the river. And just as she is about to drown, a man will appear and rescue her. In him she will recognize her future husband.

Don't.

Don't think because you have taken many remedies in vain that your case is incurable.

You have not taken Hood's Sarsaparilla. It has cured many seemingly hopeless cases of scrofula, catarrh, rheumatism, kidney complaint, dyspepsia and general debility—many cases that may have been worse than yours.

What this great medicine has done for others it can do for you. f

IN THE MISSION FIELDS

Miss Pratt, of Petrolea, About to Leave for India.

Another Presbyterian Minister Replies to Archbishop Langevin.

Petrolia, Ont., Oct. 29.—An interesting meeting was held Monday night in the Baptist Church as a farewell to Miss Lilla Pratt, who leaves this week for India to enter on mission work among the Telegus. She has always been interested in mission work, and when the call came for workers in the field she offered herself, and was accepted. The large gathering showed the esteem in which she is held in this community. She left today for Toronto, and sails from New York on Saturday. Miss Pratt is a daughter of Mr. William Pratt, alderman, and late secretary of the Imperial Oil Company here.

AMONG THE INDIANS.

Toronto, Oct. 29. — Regarding the statements of Archbishop Langevin on Sunday in Montreal that the Presbyterian missionaries among the Indians in the Northwest were interfering seriously with their work and perverting their converts, the Rev. R. P. MacKay, one of the missionary officials of the Presbyterian Church, today made the following statement: "I am afraid the good archbishop is not prepared to state all the facts. One of the chief difficulties Protestant missionaries have to contend with in the Northwest or British Columbia is the persistent efforts of the Roman Catholic priests to defeat their work. In British Columbia the priest visited all the bands on the west coast in one month, baptized hundreds of children, then called them Catholics. No more was done for them. To the eye of the archbishop they were converted, but to our eyes they are as pagan as ever. We send misisonaries to them, open schools and establish permanent Christian work, under many protests, it is true, but what else could be done? If the Roman Catholic Church really did the work we would be delighted. The Indian brings no ecclesiastical advantage to the Presbyterian Church. He will never be a strong factor in church work. It is purely a benevolent enterprise on our part. We cannot see them wasting away totally neglected. I do not wish to be understood as saying that the Roman Catholic Church is doing no work in other quarters. They have many schools even on the west coast of British Columbia; they started a school in our immediate neighborhood after we went into that region. We have thus provoked them to good works."

INTERESTING ANNIVERSARY.

Ottawa, Oct. 28. — His Grace Archbishop Duhamel, of the Diocese of Ottawa, celebrated today the 28th anniversary of his elevation to the bishopric. Pontifical mass was celebrated at the cathedral; a large audience was present. There were many priests present, who dined with his grace. Mgr. Falconio was a guest.

WANTED AS A MISSIONARY.

St. Thomas, Oct. 28. — At the meeting of the official board of Christ Church last evening, an urgent request was received from the American Foreign Church Misisonary Society, Cincinnati, Ohio, asking the church to release Rev. Mr. McDougall to enable him to go to Cuba as a missionary.

After considering the request in all its aspects, it was decided to retain Mr. McDougall as pastor for the present.

DAWSON GETTING GOOD

Gambling and Dance Houses Shutting Up—Yukon Is Prospering.

Toronto, Oct. 28.—A party from Dawson City, composed of W. L. Walsh, barrister, H. T. Wells, local manager Bank of Commerce, and William Bradley, arrived in the city yesterday. Mr. Bradley, who is a large English mill owner in the Yukon, is on his way to England. They left Dawson on Oct. 11.

Mr. Walsh said the Yukon was prospering. Matters in Dawson, from the commercial standpoint, were a little quiet just now, however. This was due to the closing down of the gambling dens and dance halls, which had been the means of putting thousands of dollars in circulation in Dawson. The closing down had resulted in more money going outside, but at the same time Mr. Walsh believed it would ultimately work for the good of the community. As far as mining operations were concerned, things were most satisfactory.

Asked regarding the political contest now in progress in the Yukon, Mr. Walsh said: "When we left it had scarcely begun to get warm, but there is every indication that it will be exciting before the close of the polls on Dec. 2. There will, I think, be only two candidates, as I believe Dr. Catto will retire, thus leaving the fight between Mr. Ross, the Liberal candidate, and Mr. Clarke, the opposition candidate."

Taffy For Toronto.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—W. R. Newell, the Bible reader, of Chicago, in his weekly address at Massey Hall ast night, said that in no city of the United States was the word of God so respected as in Toronto. Giving Bible lessons, he said, was like carrying coals to Newcastle. Mr. Newell is conducting similar classes in Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit and other American cities.

Sir Henry Strong Retires.

Ottawa, Oct. 29.—At the conclusion of the Yukon appeal in the supreme court, Sir Henry Strong left the bench, and it is understood that he has heard his last case. According to arrangements he will retire and assume the chairmanship of the commission to revise the Dominion statutes.

Niece Weds Aged Uncle.

Freeport, L. I., Oct. 29.—Without telling even their most intimate friends, Joseph Carman, 82 years old, and Miss Etta J. Carman, his niece, who is 45 years old, were married on Oct. 5. Fearing comment from the villagers they agreed not to mention their union. Carman did not tell a soul. Somehow, however, the villagers heard of it yesterday. Mrs. Carman blushingly admitted the wedding and said that it concerned nobody but the contracting parties, both of whom were of age.

Shipping the Apple Crop.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—The big apple crop of Ontario is creating a demand for cars to move it to the seaboard, and the railways are having difficulty in finding the cars. Considerable of these apples are going to the Northwest this year, while the exports from Montreal are exceptionally heavy. For general freight on the middle division of the Grand Trunk from 950 to 1,000 cars are being loaded and moved daily.

ANOTHER BIG INDUSTRY

The Soo Is to Have a $4,000,000 Paper Company.

Chandler-Dunbar Company's Power To Be Utilized.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Oct. 29. — William Chandler, of the Chandler-Dunbar Water Power Company, which controls the rights on St. Mary's Falls north of the ship canal, and has power developed, states that plans have been perfected for the development of power there to the largest extent, and for the establishment of a paper mill. The American Soo Paper Company has been capitalized at $4,000,000, and the money proposed for its investments at the Soo has all been provided for.

The general plans for the plant have been prepared and only a few minor details are left to be worked out. The plans contemplate the putting in of a pulp grinding plant of a daily capacity of 125 tons, a sulphite mill of 35 tons and paper mills capable of turning out 150 tons of paper a day.

Sulphite and paper mills will be erected about 600 feet directly west of the present power house, the whole plant being so located as as not to interfere with the widening of the ship canal or building of a third lock if the Government decides to make these improvements.

The company leases its power from the Chandler-Dunbar Water Power Company, and has contracted for 10,000 horse-power, with an option on 5,000 horse-power additional. The plans of the power house are so drawn as to admit of adding thereto and taking in the full power controlled by the company, estimated at between 60,000 and 70,000 horse-power.

The entire works contemplated at the canal will involve the expenditure next year of $2,000,000, of which the Soo will receive the direct benefit of every cent.

The construction of the power house, mills, etc., will be of concrete, stone and steel, while the machinery will be the latest and most approved pattern, the whole plant constituting one of the most complete and up-to-date concerns of the kind in the world.

BOERS IN CANADA

The Delegates Visit Niagara Falls—Want Canadian Harrows.

Hamilton, Oct. 29.—The Boer delegates, five in number, sent from South Africa to study the conditions in this country, arrived in Hamilton yesterday, and spent the afternoon in the Grimsby fruit district, visiting several of the leading fruit farms. The Boer party consists of W. L. and Mrs. Jooste, of Klerksdorp, Transvaal; S. J. M. and Mrs. Lane, of Klerksdorp, and H. T. Rood, of Ermelo. They are in charge of Capt. Kirkpatrick, D. S. O., of the imperial army, and Mrs. Kirkpatrick. The later is a Boer lady, and was married to Capt. Kirkpatrick just prior to their departure from Pretoria for this country. Delegates Jooste and Lane wee members of Cronje's army that surrendered at Paardeberg. The party went to the falls in the evening.

Ottawa, Oct. 28. — The crown agents of the Imperial Government in South Africa have cabled another order through the Dominion department of agriculture to the Massey - Harris Manufacturing Company for 2,000 more zigzag harrows. This is a duplication of the first order, which was worth in the vicinity of $40,000, making $80,000 worth of machinery in all.

Mr. O. Hallerhan, deputy minister of agriculture, has been advised through the manager of the Ogilvie mills at Winnipeg, that the firm will take the greatest pains to give the Boer delegates all possible information concerning the manufacture of flour and foodstuffs.

Third Crop of Strawberries.

Marshall, Mich., Oct. 29.—G. Rogers, of Marengo, is now selling the third crop of strawberries picked from the same vines this year. The first crop brought 10 cents per quart, the second 15 cents and this crop 25 cents.

A Blood Maker

Nerve Invigorator and System Builder, Composed of the Most Powerful Restoratives To Be Found in Nature's Realm, Is

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD.

That the nervous system is dependent on the blood for its nourishment and life is best evidenced by the fact that about one-fifth of all the blood required for the sustenance of the human body is consumed in the brain and goes to create nerve force, the vital power which runs the machinery of the body.

Because it forms blood as no preparation was ever known to do, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is of incalculable value to the nervous system, as well as to the body generally.

Neuralgic headache, sleeplessness, languid, depressed feelings, debility of the stomach and bowels, and consequent indigestion, dizzy spells, sparks before the eyes, nervousness, irritability and general bodily weakness, are indications that the nerves are starved for lack of a sufficient supply of rich, red, life-sustaining blood.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food removes these symptoms, and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, locomotor ataxia and partial paralysis by its wonderful power as a blood maker.

Mrs. Wm. Shaw, wife of Conductor Shaw, 209 Park street N., Hamilton, Ont., states: "My blood was in a bad condition. I was very pale and run down in health and my nerves were weak and shaky. I have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and can say that it has worked a thorough cure. I have also used Dr. Chase's Ointment and found it an excellent treatment for skin diseases."

Mrs. Alfred Woods, 211 Robinson street, Hamilton, whose husband is in the employ of Messrs. Ennis & Co., writes:

"I was very nervous, easily fatigued and generally run down in health. Languid, depressing feelings would come over me, and at other times I suffered from severe neuralgic pains in the back of the head. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has changed all this. My nerves are strengthened and restored, the pains in my head are a thing of the past, and I feel strong and well."

Zerad Pomeroy Has No Dread of Unlucky Numbers.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 28. — Few men have the matrimonial record of Zerad Pomeroy. He has just married his thirteenth wife, after surviving the other twelve. His latest bride is his first wife's sister. She is 22 and Pomeroy is 89. He is an old Californian pioneer, and married first when 20 years old. His wife died on the voyage around the Horn. Pomeroy then married a woman member of the pioneer party. On a voyage to Japan she died and he at once married another. She died in New York and he married a music hall artist, who deserted him two days later. After securing a divorce he married again. From that time, marriages followed frequently, until Pomeroy finally reached the thirteenth and youngest, who, taking pity on him proposed to him and was accepted. He proudly says she is the best of them all.

CANCER ATE RIGHT CHEEK

A Distressing Case Completely Cured by the New Constitutional Treatment After Plasters Failed.

Cancer of the face is peculiarly distressing, not only on account of the suffering involved, but also because of the terrible disfigurement.

The case referred to was one in which the right cheek was almost gone, having been eaten off by the disease and the plaster treatment, from the eye to the lower part of the jaw and back almost to the ear. Instead of helping the cure, the plaster extended the area of the tissue destruction.

When the New Constitutional Treatment was started, its beneficial results soon became apparent, the cancer ceased to spread, the tisues became healthy and commenced healing, till, in a comparatively short time, the disease was cured completely, and, we may say, permanently, for there has been no recurrence in the past three years.

A complete account of this case will be found in our book "Cancer, Its Cause and Cure," which will be sent to anyone on receipt of two stamps. Address STOTT & JURY, BOWMANVILLE, ONT.

A NEW YORK TRACY

Two Men Shot in a Wild West Episode on Third Avenue.

New York, Oct. 29. — Two men, shot through the legs, are in Bellevue Hospital, and one man is locked up as the result of a fusillade of bullets fired in a shooting gallery in a basement of 98 Third avenue. The prisoner sought the protection of a policeman, after he had been chased up Third avenue and through Fourteenth street, by a crowd who were shouting, "Tracy, the outlaw! Kill him!"

With a rifle over his shoulder, his face cut and bloody, his collar ripped off and his shirt torn, the man, when captured, said he was David Wemmer, proprietor of the shooting gallery, and declared he had shot no one.

The shooting gallery man explained that he had quarreled with his wife recently and that she had left home. He inquired for her at the home of one of his acquaintances, when the latter with several friends came to the gallery, he said, and started a fight, during which the rifles lying about came in handy.

AS FREQUENT AS MEALS

Epidemic of Murder in China—Story of a Returned Missionary.

Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 29. — "It will take a hundred years or more of hard work and the expenditure of hundreds of thousands of dollars to civilize Southern China." This statement is made by Henry W. Huntzell, a Methodist Episcopal missionary sent out by the Chicago Mission two years ago to the Chosong station in Southern China.

He is now on his way back to Chicago on account of ill-health.

"In Southern China murder is as frequent as your meals, and it is called custom, instead of crime. Natives have little or no moral law. There is marriage law, but it is only for the protection of male inhabitants. A Southern Chinese woman, once married to a man, can never desert him. A man can have as many wives as he likes.

"Slave traffic is rampant in all parts of the southern provinces. Fathers dispose of their daughters and wives in the same manner as in this country we dispose of live stock."

CUBA REJECTS TREATY

President Palma Sends a Counter Proposal to Washington.

Havana, Oct. 29. — It is learned here from official sources that the proposed treaty between the United States and Cuba was returned to Washington last Saturday. With the treaty was sent a counter-proposition from the Government of Cuba to the United States, the nature of which is not known, but it is understood Palma in a letter sent with the treaty says that the acceptance of the propositions made by the United States would be ruinous to Cuba, as it would result in a larger reduction of the customs revenue of the island.

Thomas A. Smith, former assemblyman of Freeport, L. I., several days ago found a turtle which, when he was a schoolboy, he marked with his initials and the year 1856. The inscription was easily deciphered.

THE NEW ROUTE TO BUFFALO, N. Y.

Deal Between Pere Marquette and L. E. and D. R. R.

ARRANGEMENTS MADE PUBLIC

The American Company Secures an Interest in the Canadian Railway.

Detroit, Oct. 28.—The Evening News says: The Lake Erie and Detroit River Railroad, which is owned by the Walker family, of this city and Walkerville, will at once be lengthened 120 miles to reach Buffalo from the present terminus, St. Thomas. Work will be pushed under co-operation between the engineers of the Lake Erie and the Pere Marquette, which latter road has obtained enough stock in the Lake Erie to have a large interest.

F. H. Walker, president of the road, told the News today that the plan was to extend the road to Buffalo, and that stock had passed, but declined to say how much, or at what price.

THE L. E. AND D. R. R.

The Walker road is now a very valuable property, and its joint ownership by the Pere Marquette means much to the railroad interests of Michigan. It was begun some years ago by the late Hiram Walker, who was interested in oil and lands in the neighborhood of Leamington. Little by little it was extended, until it reached St. Thomas, on the main line, with a car ferry to Cleveland and a branch line from Sarnia to Blenheim, on the Lake Erie shore. The main line is now 128 miles; St. Thomas to London, 15 miles; Sarnia to Blenheim, 67 miles; also car ferries from Port Stanley to Cleveland, and from Rondeau to Conneaut.

For years past the Walker road has slowly been approaching Buffalo. The Pere Marquette interests will now push the road as fast as possible.

It will first be necessary to secure right of way from St. Thomas, east, which has not yet been done, but there will be no special trouble involved because that part of the country welcomes the road.

F. H. Walker is president; E. C. Walker, vice-president; J. H. Walker, treasurer; W. Woollatt, general manager; Ed Radford, secretary; T. Marshall, general freight and passenger agent.

The new road will give the Pere Marquette a long-looked-for opportunity to handle direct eastern freight. At present cars are turned over to the Wabash or Michigan Central.

Mr. Walker says engineers are now making surveys for the line, east of St. Thomas.

ANOTHER STATEMENT.

The Journal today says: For months past it has been understood that the Pere Marquette Railway was negotiating for a traffic agreement with the Lake Erie and Detroit River Railway for its purchase, the plan being in either case to extend the line from St. Thomas to Buffalo, and to take the traffic which the Pere Marquette now gives the Wabash and Michigan Central at Detroit over its own tracks to Niagara River. This morning F. H. Walker, one of the owners of the Lake Erie and Detroit River Railway, informed the Journal that the Pere Marquette had acquired part of the stock of the Lake Erie and Detroit River Railway, and that surveys are now being made for the extension from St. Thomas to Buffalo.

F. H. Walker declined to discuss the details of the purchase at present. In the course of a few days, he said, he would be in a position to give out more information in regard to the matter. President Heald, of the Pere Marquette, said today that he did not know of the purchase of the Lake Erie road, and did not believe that it had been made.

ASPHALT BLOCKS

A New Ontario Company Formed to Manufacture Them.

Ottawa, Oct. 29.—The Ontario Asphalt Block Company, Limited, which yesterday was incorporated by the Ontario Government, is being formed to manufacture asphalt blocks in Canada," said Attorney O. E. Fleming, one of the stockholders, this morning. "The details of organization have not yet been completed, and we can give but little information at present. The head offices will be in Windsor. The plant will be in some railway city that offers us inducements, probably Toronto. Richard Bangham, who last night resigned his position as street commissioner, will be our manager, and will take charge of the factory. All asphalt blocks used in the Dominion are imported from the States, as none are made here. The duty is 20 per cent."

ANGLO-CANADIAN TRADE

Value of Breadstuffs and Grain Sent From Canada to England.

Ottawa, Oct. 29.—According to statistics just issued, of $317,352,854 worth of breadstuffs imported by Great Britain, during the calendar year 1901, $154,027,541 worth was from the United States, and $20,348,623 fram Canada. In 1900 the value of breadstuffs imported from Canada was $23,821,656, and from the United States $158,624,800. The value of wheat imported into Great Britain last year from Canada was $10,784,772; from the United States, $65,580,965.

Statistics of the trade between Canada and Japan, just issued, show that that country imported from the Dominion during the calendar year 1900 goods to the value of $158,300. In 1901 the imports amounted to $91,000. The chief falling off was in salted fish, of which Japan took from Canada over $90,000 in the former year, against $40,000 last year. On the other hand, Canada's imports from Japan show a steady increase, as follows: In 1897, $1,027,000; in 1899, $1,179,000; in 1900, $1,450,000; in 1901, $1,638,000. About half the value of these imports consists of tea, the next largest item being cotton manufactures, which last year amounted to $495,000.

BRAIN FOOD

Is of Little Benefit Unless It Is Digested.

Nearly everyone will admit that as a nation we eat too much meat and too little vegetables and the grains.

For business men, office men and clerks, and, in fact, everyone engaged in sedentary or indoor occupations, grains, milk and vegetables are much more healthful.

Only men engaged in a severe outdoor manual labor can live on a heavy meat diet and continue in health.

As a general rule, meat once a day is sufficient for all classes of men, women and children, and grains, fruits and vegetables should constitute the bulk of food eaten.

But many of the most nutritious foods are difficult of digestion, and it is of no use to advise brain workers to eat largely of grains and vegetables where the digestion is too weak to assimilate them properly.

It is always best to get the best results from our food that some simple and harmless digestive should be taken after meals to assist the relaxed digestive organs, and several years' experience have proven Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to be a very safe, pleasant and effective digestive and a remedy which may be taken daily with the best results.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can hardly be called a patent medicine, as they do not act on the bowels nor any particular organ, but only on the food eaten. They supply what weak stomachs lack, pepsin diastase, and by stimulating the gastric glands, increase the natural secretion of hydrochloric acid.

People who make a daily practice of taking one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal are sure to have perfect digestion, which means perfect health.

There is no danger of forming an injurious habit as the tablets contain absolutely nothing but natural digestives: cocaine, morphine and similar drugs have no place in a stomach medicine, and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are certainly the best known and most popular of all stomach remedies.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and after a week's use note the improvement in health, appetite and nervous energy. 25c zxv

TWO AT THE SAME TIME

Georgia Woman Secures Divorce From a Couple of Husbands.

Carrollton, Ga., Oct. 29.—Friday was divorce day in Carroll Superior Court, and almost a dozen verdicts were taken. A novel case was that of Mrs. Bailie Frother, who had two proceedings pending in the same court at the same time to cancel marriages at different times to different men. She charged that eight years ago she was married to Dave Fortner, who soon thereafter abandoned her, and that, being advised that his absence for seven years entitled her to marry again, she contracted marriage with Lockey Glenn, from whom she separated the following day. The jury cancelled both obligations to her.

SETBACK FOR BIG CANAL

Colombia Increases Her Demands on the United States.

Washington, Oct. 29. — Colombia's reply to the proposition made by the state department for the negotiation of a canal treaty on the lines of the Spooner act has reached Washington. While friendly in tone, it is known to be not altogether an unqualified acceptance of the state department's propositions, and it unquestionably sets back the date of final agreement by opening up new topics for argument.

Colombia asks a $10,000,000 payment to start with, instead of $7,000,000, and wants a lump yearly payment of $800,000 instead of waiting for 14 years for annual rental to begin, thereby considerably increasing the immediate cost of the enterprise, and clings to its contention that it has no constitutional authority to alienate any Colombian territory.

The best it can do to meet the language of the Spooner act, which looks to perpetual control by the United States Government of the canal strip, is to make a 100-year lease with a distinct stipulation that the same shall be renewable by the United States at the expiration of the first century.

One obstacle which it is believed will interfere somewhat with the resumption of negotiations is the feeling aroused in Colombia by the actions of American naval officers during the revolutionary movements here. These are declared to have been bitterly resented in Bogota.

TREASURER SUSPENDED

A Shortage in the Account of a Kent County Official.

Chatham, Ont., Oct. 29. — A sensation developed here in connection with the office of Kent County Treasurer Shambleua, that official being suspended and Warden Rankin placed in possession of the office. The action was taken on the strength of a report by Government Auditor McPherson, that the cash account of Romney Township land register was $2,000 short. A special meeting of the country council has been called for Monday to deal with the matter.

Shambleau's predecessor, Arnold, 12 years ago defaulted to the amount of between $8,000 and $9,000, $4,000 being made good by sureties.

CAPITAL $110,000,000

Big Combine Under Way—To Include the Soft Coal Interests.

Pittsburg, Oct. 29.—The Gazette today says: Negotiations are under way for the merging of the Pittsburg Coal Company and the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company, with their combined authorized capitalization of $11,000,000 and assets of $120,088,581. Consolidation of these interests will launch by far the strongest bituminous concern in the world. The combined coal output of the two concerns is close to 30,000,000 tons a year. The plan is to make the Pittsburg Company lessee and he purpose to economize operations.

A GIRL'S FLIRTING CAUSED KILLING

Her Father Arrested on a Charge of Murder.

BLOODHOUNDS ON THE TRAIL

Illinois Farmer Believed to Have Shot the Man Who Visited His Married Daughter.

Quincy, Ill., Oct. 28.—Millard Fillmore Lester, a prominent and wealthy farmer of Plainville, was arrested yesterday on the charge of having murdered Frederick Larimore. Lester gave a $10,000 bond and last night returned home. With him was his daughter, Mrs. Alvin McKee, aged 19, whose flirtation with young Larimore, it is said, cost the latter his life.

Lester declares that when the case comes to trial he will prove that he was at home in bed at 9 o'clock last Thursday night. The murder was committed a short time before that hour.

SUSPICION AROUSED.

Mrs. McKee's husband is a prominent young farmer of Plainville. He is an invalid, and some time ago the couple went to Battle Creek, Mich., where the husband entered a sanitarium. After the shooting of Larimore the detectives called on the victim's father, L. N. Larimore, and asked him if he had any suspicion as to the identity of the assassin.

"To tell you the truth," said Larimore after some thought, "I do suspect someone. That man is Millard Fillmore Lester. Fred, it has been told me, was in the habit of going out to see his daughter. Lester warned him to stay away, but it is said he did not heed the warning.

"This man is the only person in the world who would have any motive for killing my son. I believe he is the man who shot him."

BLOODHOUNDS USED.

With this clue to work on, Detectives Koch and Bumster began to weave a web about the farmer. Four times the bloodhounds used in the case followed the trail of the assassin from the blackberry bushes in the orchard where the murder is supposed to have stood to a hitching post in town where Lester's horse had been tied Thursday night.

Later the officers searched young Larimore's trunk, finding several letters. One of a recent date bore the Battle Creek postmark. The only woman from Plainville at Battle Creek at that time was Mrs. Alvin McKee, who, while her husband was in the sanitarium, was boarding at a hotel. The letter described the writer's loneliness and contained an invitation to Larimore to visit Battle Creek, the writer offering to pay his expenses if he would make the journey.

FATAL FLIRTATION.

Whether Larimore went to Battle Creek is unknown, but it has been established that Millard Fillmore Lester had knowledge of his daughter's flirtation with Larimore and had warned the latter to desist. It is also known that Mrs. McKee was expected home the day after Larimore was killed.

Since Lester's arrest the fact has come to light that shortly after the inquest Saturday Lester, who had not been before to the Larimore home to offer condolences, went to the place and asked to see I. N. Larimore.

"I have called," said he, "to talk to you about the killing of your son."

"Yes," said Larimore.

"Stories have been circulated connecting my name with it," said Lester hurriedly, "and I am here to deny them. I understand you have your suspicions.'

"I have been careful about expressing my opinions," answered Larimore, "but I want to say that if the man stood before me who killed my son, and I was sure of it, I would tear him into shoestrings."

The interview ended there.

When Kansas was first organized as a territory in 1854, its area included part of the present State of Colorado, extending as far west as the crest of the Rocky Mountains. Denver, Leadville, Pueblo and Colorado Springs are now located on former Kansas soil.

ALL THROUGH THE SYSTEM

Catarrh Spreads Like a Malignant Poison.

PE-RU-NA CURES THESE CASES.

All Run Down.

MR. BRYAN CARLON, Secretary of the Eccentric Engineers' Association of New York City, with a membership of 1,000 licensed engineers, also prominent in labor unions, writes from 489 Canal street, New York City:

"Your Peruna is a valuable tonic. When I get run down, weak and languid, or restless at night, I take a bottle of Peruna. I know no family medicine like it. I notice the effects of it almost immediately. It quiets the nerves and brings healthful sleep. It is a reviving tonic at all times."—Mr. Bryan Carlon,

Congressman Romulus Z. Linney, from North Carolina, writes:

"My private secretary has been using Peruna for several weeks and I wish to testify to its great value and merits in cases of catarrh. My secretary had as bad a case as I ever saw and since he has taken one bottle he seems like a different man. Before he started on Peruna his system was very much run down, and at times he could not work at all, but ever since his first bottle he has been building up. I don't think any man who is under a nervous strain should be without it. I cannot express the good it has done him."—Romulus Z. Linney.

Peruna is not a sleep medicine. Peruna is not a nervine. Peruna is not a narcotic. Peruna does not stupefy, does not bring about artificial rest. Peruna helps weak nerves. Builds up broken down constitutions. Brings refreshing sleep, not by producing stupefaction, but by invigorating the nerve centers.

Peruna produces a natural appetite. It strengthens the digestive power. It fills the lacteals full of nutrition and sends surging through the blood vessels the recuperating currents of new life. It does all this by producing healthy mucous membranes.

"I heartily recommend Peruna to those who suffer from nervousness and loss of sleep. For months I did not get a refreshing night's sleep, and in the morning I was weak and drowsy. Peruna was recommended to me by a friend. When I had taken four bottles of it I was a new man. The nervousness had entirely disappeared and when I get up in the morning now I feel rested and refreshed, Peruna is a splendid catarrhal tonic."—Joseph J. Craven.

The above letter was written by Mr. Joseph J. Craven, 235 E. Seventy-fourth street, N. Y. City. Mr. Craven is president of the Standard Association of Stationary Engineers of New York, an organization with a membership of 1,500 licensed engineers. He has been identified with labor organizations all his life.

Peruna makes clean, strong mucous membranes in the nose, throat, stomach and digestive organs. In this way it reaches the origin of all life, all strength and all activity.

Peruna cleanses these membranes of every vestige of catarrhal congestion. This leaves them strong and able to do their work.

Then follows refreshing sleep. Then nervousness disappears. Then a man becomes confident, vigorous, hopeful and happy.

This is why it is that Peruna is the tonic of tonics. It cleanses the sources of the blood. Good, rich, red blood is the result and health follows as a natural consequence.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

The Ontario Government Safe.

The opening in North Perth somewhat clears the political atmosphere in Ontario. It is a foregone conclusion that Mr. Brown will win the bye-election. South Renfrew is also conceded to the Liberals. This would yield a majority of four for the Government, even if no more seats are vacated by the election courts. It would not be a wide margin, and the position of Liberal whip in the Legislature would be no sinecure, but the Government could work along on it fairly well, and it would grow. This may sound like counting chickens before they are hatched, but every candid Conservative must admit that the probabilities in a bye-election, Dominion or Provincial, favor the party in power. There is nothing to applaud in this tendency—both sides have suffered from it—but we are simply stating a fact which our friends of the Opposition know they are "up against."

Under the present conditions two or three seats mean all the difference between stable government and the turmoil of another general election, which might result no more decisively than the last one. A long period of political uncertainty and confusion would be injurious to the Province. Under the party system, an administration should be firmly seated, so that it can push its measures with vigor and confidence, without being unduly harassed by the Opposition. There is danger alike in an Opposition being too powerful or too weak. When the Government's majority is precarious, the Opposition is tempted to resort to obstructive tactics, and public business is impeded. When the Government's majority is too large the Opposition is apt to be indifferent and inefficient. A skilled parliamentarian like Mr. Ross, with a majority of four in the Ontario Legislature, would be master of the situation, but his path would be smoother if he had, say, six or seven votes to the good. The prospects are that he will have as large a majority as had Mr. Hardy at the first session of the House after the general election of 1898. Mr. Ross has done well to sit tight and await developments.

The City Shade Trees.

The work of marking out shade trees, to be pruned or removed, has been wisely deputed to a committee of citizens — Dr. Bethune, Mr. Saunders and Mr. Fox — who have made a study of tree life. We hope this will lead to some permanent arrangement. No city on the continent can show a finer profusion of shade trees than London, but there is no intelligent system of tree planting or conservation. The care of the parks and the shade trees should be intrusted to a special committee, under the financial control of the city council. We have no doubt there are several gentlemen, members of the Horticultural Society, who would be willing to serve on such a committee, and give it the benefit of their expert advice. The value of shade trees to a city is not as fully realized as it ought to be. Dr. Wm. A. Murrill, of Cornell University, who has studied the shade trees in many cities in Europe and America, has just issued a pamphlet on the subject. He points out that trees add to the healthfulness of a city by cooling and purifying the air. Besides cutting off the direct and reflected rays of the sun, foliage exercises a marked effect on the temperature by evaporating large quantities of water from its surface, and the reduction of the temperature in this way is greatest on dry, hot days, when it is most needed. Leaves also absorb impure and hurtful gases and manufacture the oxygen needed by animals for respiration. Circulation of the air, due to unequal temperature, is likewise promited by trees properly pruned and arranged. While the air of basements and cellars is rendered less humid by the removal of surplus water from the surrounding soil through the medium of roots and foliage. Deciduous trees seem specially designed to shield our sidewalks from the glare of the sun in summer and to expose them to its warmth in winter. Trees give pleasure as well as comfort and health. They soften the hard lines and add attractive forms and colors to the monotony of buildings. Their bright green foliage is eagerly watched for in the spring, and the changing colors are a constant source of pleasure in autumn. The most attractive cities are those in which well-shaded streets and beautiful parks are most abundant.

Newfoundland May Fail.

The Boston Herald hears that the proposed treaty between Newfoundland and the United States has been shelved owing to the opposition of the senators from Massachusetts. Two reasons are given for their attitude. One is that the Republican party is averse to any reciprocity legislation at this juncture, as it would open up the tariff question and give the tariff reformers an opportunity to attack the Dingley schedule all along the line. Another reason is the opposition of the handful of Gloucester fishermen who naturally want to shut out Newfoundland competition. "It has been our experience," says the Herald, "that if some little interest or some little locality raises a protest against the carrying out of a broad policy of state and national commercial development, our senators hear this protest as though it were uttered in tone of thunder, and instantly array themselves in defense of special interests, and to this extent in opposition to the general good. There is not the shadow of a doubt that a liberal trade treaty with Newfoundland would be of enormous advantage to the manufacturing and commercial interests of this state." In this case Canada would profit by the dunderheaded Dingleyism of the United States Senate. In return for the free admission of fish to the United States market, Newfoundland proposed to give American fishermen free bait and to admit a limited list of American foodstuffs and manufactures on a preferential basis. This would deprive Canada of a powerful lever in the settlement of the Atlantic fisheries question, and would be a serious discrimination against Canadian trade, especially against Canadian millers who have a large market in Newfoundland. If the island colony fails to make a bargain with the United States, as seems likely, the movement in favor of union with the Dominion will be greatly strengthened. Let us hope the United States will be sufficiently stupid to reject Newfoundland's overtures.

Mr. Whitney is not so sure now that a coalition wouldn't be a good thing.

North Perth will be a sort of skeleton at the Whitney feast here next month.

Some of the Irish members are not parliamentary in their manners, but Ireland has secured a good deal by a chronic kick.

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy advocates a duty to keep American lead products out of Canada, and develop the lead industry at home. This argument was presented to the Canadian Manufacturers' Association and was very coolly received. Why? Because many manufacturers use lead and want it at the lowest price. A duty on lead would be a direct tax upon them. They don't believe in protection for the other fellow when it hurts them.

Mr. Gault, president of the Dominion Cotton Company, is one of the leaders in the agitation for a higher tariff. The Moncton, N. B., Transcript floors him as follows:

"In Moncton Mr. Gault's mill has within a year increased considerably its plant, and it is run largely on orders given by American dealers, and its output stamped with American brands is shipped to China, sold there as American cottons in competition with the world. Yet Mr. Gault wishes us to believe that his firm cannot compete in Canada with a fairly high tariff. It looks as if Mr. Gault were imposing upon Mr. Tarte's credulity."

The spring trade number of the Canadian Shoe and Leather Journal gives ample evidence in its one hundred and fifty pages of the marked prosperity of the shoe and leather trades in Canada. Its contents are not only replete with information of value to the trades represented, but of interest to Canadians at large, as affording evidence of the marvelous development in the production of fine leather and shoes in this country. A descriptive article, profusely illustrated, is devoted to the methods followed by Canadian tanneries in the manufacture of upper leather. Another six pages are devoted to the Goodyear welt, which has now susperseded the hand-sewn shoe. The Journal has apparently gone to considerable trouble and expense in demonstrating the fact that leather and shoes are being made in Canada equal in style, make and finish to anything imported from the United States or elsewhere.

So there he lies, redeemed at last!
His knees drawn tense, just as he fell
And shrieked out his soul in a battle-yell;
One hand with the rifle still clutched fast,
One stretched straight out, the fingers clenched
In the knotted roots of the sun-bleached grass;
His head flung back on the tangled mass
Of raven mane, with war-plume wrenched
Awry and torn; the painted face
Still foeward turned, the white teeth bare
'Twixt the livid lips, the wide-eyed glare,
The bronze cheek gaped by battle-trace
In dying rage rent fresh apart—
A strange expression for one all good!—
On his naked breast a splotch of blood
Where the lead Evangel cleft his heart.
So there he lies, at last made whole,
Regenerate! Christ rest his soul!

There is both humor and pathos in the plaint of the Boer generals that they "are getting plenty of cheers, but little money," in Europe. All during the war in South Africa continental Europe was ever ready to applaud the magnificent prowess shown by the Boer fighters, but the sympathy and encouragement ended at that. Neither France, Germany, Italy nor Austria was willing to step in and lend material aid to the struggling people. But they were ever ready to applaud. Applause is very cheap. It is easily given and is attended with no serious after-claps.

The Days Gone By.

[James Whitcomb Riley.]

O, the days gone by! O, the days gone by!
The apple in the orchard, and the pathway through the rye;
The chirrup of the robin, and the whistle of the quail,
As he piped across the meadows, sweet as any nightingale;
When the bloom was on the clover, and the blue was in the sky,
And my happy heart brimmed over—in the days gone by.

In the days gone by, when my naked feet were tripped
By the honeysuckle tangles where the water-lilies dipped,
And the ripples of the river lipped the moss along the brink,
Where the placid-eyed and lazy-footed cattle came to drink.
And the tilting snipe stood fearless of the truant's wayward cry,
And the splashing of the swimmer, in the days gone by.

O, the days gone by! O, the days gone by!
The music of the laughing lip, the luster of the eye;
The childish faith in fairies and Aladdin's magic ring—
The simple, soul-reposing, glad belief in everything,
For life was like a story, holding neither sob nor sigh,
In the golden, olden glory of the days gone by.

But don't you sit and wait, my boy;

The world may think 'tis time to lay
Rewards upon your pate—it may—
But don't you sit and wait, my boy.

The world's intentions may be kind,
But don't you sit and wait, my boy;
For worth that waits is hard to find,
So don't you sit and wait, my boy.
The world may turn, some day, inclined
To cheer the worth that lags behind,
That through long years has hoped and pined—
But don't you sit and wait, my boy.

ONTARIO W.C.T.U. IN CONFERENCE

Shortcomings of Temperance Workers Pointed Out.

THE REFERENDUM CRITICISED

President Mrs. McKee Said Political Considerations Silenced Temperance Workers.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—The twenty-fifth annual convention of the Ontario Women's Christian Temperance Union opened in the Metropolitan Church yesterday morning, with a fair attendance. Mrs. S. G. E. McKee, of Barrie, occupied the chair. In her presidential address Mrs. McKee severely criticised the condition of the referendum, and blamed the politicians among the Prohibitionists for accepting the referendum. In the evening a public meeting was held in the Jarvis Street Baptist Church.

Rev. Charles Deacon conducted a conference on law enforcement. He started by saying that he did not believe in license law. Nothing would do but the ultimate aim of temperance work, prohibition. He pointed out that nine-tenths of the license law is prohibition. He urged the W. C. T. U. to send their complaints of non-enforcement of the law to the department in Toronto. In reference to the alleged fraudulent censuses for license purposes, Mr. Deacon said that the commissioners connived and brought about a fraudulent census. In nearly every case the census was simply a fraud.

Mrs. Britton, of Gananoque, provincial treasurer, stated that the report as it affected work among lumbermen was more satisfactory than last year's. The total receipts for the year were $3,641, disbursements $3,459, balance $182. The fees received were $1,313, and the totol amount subscribed for lumbermen was $1,412.

MRS. McKEE'S ADDRESS.

Mrs. McKee read an address of some length as president of the union. In it she said, after touching upon the various activities of the union and upon the conditions attending the referendum, and the fact that the union had published the result of the voting among the executive board in opposition to the holding of a referendum:

"Had the organized prohibitionists of this province exhibited at this juncture the common sense applied to ordinary business transactions they would have adopted a similar policy, rallied public sentiment against this device of a Government driven, so far as the temperance issue was concerned, to its last ditch, and there would have been no referendum. But, alas! they failed us. Silence, hesitation, inaction, prevailed. The Government naturally accepted the failure to protest as a practical consent, and the compromise so long outlined in the papers took definite form. The Manitoba bill, which is all we could expect under confederation and an excellent measure, was prepared for submission at the polls, and the vote was hampered and loaded by conditions which would make success most difficult.

"Prohibition would still be an ignis fatuus, to be chased still farther into the goom of muddy politics or strangled by the dictum of the liquor interests. That a Government whose premier was a vice-president of the Ontario Alliance and a lifelong professed Prohibitionist could so play with the honest sentiments of moral reformers and the friends and supporters of nearly half a century took the heart out of us. We looked in each other's faces with dismay, and felt that choking sensation which tries to conceal a bitter disappointment. You all know the history of the convention of Feb. 25. On the evening of the 24th we called as large an executive of our women together as we could, and after thoroughly threshing out the details of the prohibition kite, with its cumbrous tail, we came to the conclusion that the most sensible thing to do was to repudiate—not the kite itself, but its appendage.

STRONG CHARGES.

"However, the temperance forces rallied in the pavilion, some 1,500 men and women (more men than women), representing different parts of Ontario, eager and zealous to give the prohibition cause an onward push. But party whips were there. They stood shoulder to shoulder with the paid agents of the liquor trade to see to it that no drastic or practical measures were taken; nothing that would hurt the party in power or compromise the party out of power; and so the old Jack-in-the-box was made to move once more to the pull of the magic wires. Resolutions of scathing rebuke were passed, but they accomplished nothing because they fell on shoulders padded by the soft and comforting dollar bills which the Brewers' Association and the License Victuallers' Association and every hotelman from Cornwall to Fort William had promised to contribute in the coming elections, as the price for a loaded referendum, doubtfully constitutional and unquestionably unjust. We protested and argued by deputation, but instead of less bricks to make and better straw to do it with we were ordered to make bricks without straw, and instead of modified conditions we were shown how much harder was the hand that imposed the burden. This was done, not only at the dictation of the liquor caucus, but by the clerical consulting physicians of a sick Government, who stepped in to advise and throw around it the aegis of their moral (?) support.

INDEPENDENCE.

"In the present unsettled condition of the Government it is hard to say what may be the outcome, but we who have grown tired of waiting for help for our cause from party politicians are in no doubt as to the way we should go. If we are ever to reach the goal for which we are striving, and see our country legally freed from the liquor curse, we must push the idea of independence in politics and help to augment the number of those who will put principle before party, and be willing to vote on the side of right, no matter which party suffers, and stand bravely out for Christian citizenship. We, by our pledge and our principles, are in duty bound to support such a movement."

Mrs. Thornley, London, read a report on "Schools of Method."

NEW LIFE NEEDED.

Miss Wiggins reported on "organization." She said that five new unions were formed, 310 new members and 130 honorary members were enrolled at the meetings. The revenue was $579 50 and expenses $159 50, leaving a balance of $420. Miss Wiggins said: "I wish that I could report that all the unions were in a satisfactory state. The time has come when we must either put on new life and vigor or die out."

Mrs. Wright read an interesting and encouraging report on "exhibitions and fairs," showing that a great deal of useful work had been done at many fall fairs.

Mrs. McKee deplored the increase of drinking among women, speaking of the use of liquor at afternoon teas, the sip at the dressmaker's and the use of brandy chocolates as insidious forms of indulgence.

Doubles of Kings.

By argument of an ancient proverb there are always on this earth at the same time two human beings who resemble each other in all respects, and a European occultist points out that this is certainly true in the case of rulers.

An old beggar who lives in Whitechapel bears, according to him, a startling resemblance to King Edward of England—so startling, indeed, that if the beggar were dressed in royal raiment he could not be distinguished from the real King.

The British ruler, however, is not the only one who has a double. The Czar and the Prince of Wales are wonderfully like each other. Indeed, more than one photographer in Europe invariably sells a photograph of the Prince to anyone who asks for a photograph of the Czar.

M. Bertolani, a photographer, of Salerno, was the double of the late King Humbert of Italy, and so proud of the resemblance was he that he spent much of his spare time studying the attitudes and gestures of his sovereign. For this labor he was well rewarded, since the soldiers, mistaking him for the King, frequently saluted him.

Herr Adolph Hirschfeld, the double of Emperor William of Germany, is by no means proud of the resemblance, and feels very uncomfortable when anyone mistakes him for the Kaiser, for he fears that the latter will frown on him sooner or later and will request him to leave Germany.

M. Bernede, a wealthy gentleman of Lyons, is the living image of King Oscar of Sweden.

HE CAN PROVE IT

Mr. Chalker Is Prepared to Substantiate the Truth of the Statements He Has Made.

Housey's Rapids, Ont., Oct 27.—The open letter of Mr. George C, Chalker, of this place, published in the daily papers some time ago, has created quite a sensation and considerable inquiry from those who do not know Mr. Chalker. His friends are well aware that he would not put his name to any statement that he could not substantiate in every particular, and to those who do not know he announces that he is prepared to substantiate the truth of every assertion he made. In the letter he said:

"I was laid up with Kidney Trouble and was so bad that I could not do a day's work. My back was very sore. I had heavy, aching arms and dull, bloated eyes, I was very weak and much reduced in weight. Six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me completely and I have not now the slightest trace of Backache or Kidney Trouble."

A Canadian Chamberlain.

[Montreal Witness.]

The right man to take the vacant place in the Cabinet, if he can be got, is Mr. Parent, the Chamberlain of Canada. By thorough uprightness and public spirit and great administrative capacity, Mr. Parent has changed Quebec from being a sort of decadent among cities, always making demands upon Government, into a modern and progressive place, the admiration of all who visit it. We say Mr. Parent has done this, because he has been the moving spirit and inspiring force of it, just as Mr. Chamberlain was in the regeneration of Birmingham. Like his predecessor in the premiership, he has been noted among his fellows for moral rectitude and for the success of his Government. His name has been mentioned among those who are being thought of, and we feel sure that it would prove a tower of strength in his own province, and would win that province and the Government honor elsewhere. He would, however, be a great loss to the Provincial Legislature.

The store so long used by James Wright & Co., we have purchased. With this ground added, we will have sufficient space to build a modern warehouse, in every respect up-to-date. To enable us to carry this out we are compelled to move our entire drygoods stock, manufacturing departments and tailoring to the premises where we are selling off the

BANKRUPT STOCK OF RUNIANS, CARSON & McKEE.

This stock was very large, amounting to $67,460, and an exceptionally good stock, as the people were a comparatively short time in business. Think of the price, only 55c on the dollar. The stock is not quite two months on the market. We have kept the best for the last, and a large stock bought so cheaply enables us to give you goods at very low prices.

TO ADD TO THIS ATTRACTION our own stock will be all remarked

We only advertise what we have. We don't place a visionary value on our goods to make reduction attract attention.

We don't sell cheap-made, low goods, and call them best.

Five loads of oats sold at 86c to 88c per cwt; one musty load at 83c per cwt.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

The market was well attended during the past six days, the turnout of Saturday last being especially large. Sales were easily made in the various lines of produce offered. With the possible exception of apples, which were a drug on the market, prices are well maintained, and in several lines are considerably higher, particularly for potatoes.

Grain—Oats, as usal, formed the bulk of the offerings; in this line prices are firmer at present, at 86c to 88c per cwt. Very little wheat offered, at $1 10 to $1 12 per cwt. Barley, 85c to 90c per cwt.

Hay and Straw—There were offered during the week 110 loads of hay; the demand is good, with prices firm at $8 50 to $10 per ton, the last-named figures for choice hay. Straw is scarce and in good demand, at $5 50 to $6 per ton.

Butter and Eggs—There is a good inquiry for good table butter; sales were made at 17c to 19c per lb for crocks and 18c to 20c for pound rolls in basket lots. Eggs are firm, owing to a keen demand and a comparatively light supply; strictly fresh-gathered are selling as high as 20c per dozen in basket lots, and 18c to 19c for ordinary stock.

Vegetables—Potatoes are coming in in fairly large quantities; sales were made at $1 per bag by the load and $1 10 per single bag. Onions are a slow sale, at 60c to 65c per bag. Turnips, 25c to 35c per bag.

Fruits—Peaches are almost at an end; the few offered are held at 30c to 50c per 12-quart basket. Grapes are plentiful, at 2c to 2½c per lb. Pears are in fair demand, at 50c to 75c per bu. Apples are a dull sale, at 50c to $1 10 per barrel. Chestnuts sell at $3 to $3 25 per bu.

Poultry—The supply has not been as large as usual for this season of the year; prices range from 8½c to 9c per lb for live turkeys; dressed do, 11½c to 13c; geese, dressed, 60c to 75c each; ducks, dressed, 60c to 80c per pair; live do, 50c to 60c; chickens, dressed, 50c to 75c per pair; alive, 45c to 60c per pair.

Dressed Hogs—A couple of hundred have been offered during the week; sales were made at $8 to $8 30 per cwt; prices are expected to go lower.

Live Hogs—The price for Monday next will be $5 60 per cwt; the market is weak and lower prices are looked for.

Butchers' Meats—Beef sold at $5 to $6 50 per cwt by the carcase, and $4 to $5 for frontquarters and $5 50 to $6 50 for hindquarters.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

LeRoy, Talma and Bosco at the Grand.

A small audience witnessed the excellent performance of magic given at the Grand last night by LeRoy, Talma and Bosco. It is regrettable that these clever people should receive so little encouragement in their efforts to present a clean and entertaining show. These three magicians showed themselves fully as expert in their various lines as any who have ever appeared in a local theater. Mlle. Talma made an especial hit with her marvelous exhibition of palming with coins. Equally mystifying were the illusions with which the performance concluded, notably that of the "spirit materializations." The one-act romance, "The Feast of the Angels," as presented by Miss Pearl Charlton Seward, Mr. Ernest Howard, and Mr. Herbert Barrington, proved to lack body. The Busche-Devere Company gave some musical novelties.

"A TRIP TO COONTOWN."

Something new in musical comedy is promised for tomorrow night at the Grand, when Cole & Johnson present their big colored show, "A Trip to Coontown." The company has made a big hit everywhere, and its thirty or more artists are the very best in their respective specialties. "A Trip to Coontown" is said to be the best colored organization now before the public. Some of the fairest daughters of their race will comprise the chorus.

"WHEN WE WERE TWENTY-ONE"

"When We Were Twenty-One," which will be seen at the Grand Saturday afternoon and evening, gathers its interest from the comradeship which exists between four men in middle life. There had been five in the little circle of close friends, but one died, and the others devote themselves to the care and training of his son, a young scapegrace known as the Imp, who has barely reached the age of 21. The Imp has secretly contracted a marriage with an adventuress, and his guardian, Dick Carewe, and the others, seek to save him from the consequence of his indiscreet act.

A COMPOSITOR INTERVIEWED

The Nature of His Work Does Not Permit Him to Take Enough Exercise to Keep Himself in a Healthy Condition.

Celery King, He Finds From Its Mild, Potent Treatment, Is Just What He Wants.

"You must understand in the first place," said a compositor of one of the big Toronto dailies, "my work—that of setting type—allows me little chance for exercise, and is too confining for anybody who is the least subject to indigestion or dyspepsia. That has been my trouble for years, and I attribute the recent noticeable improvement in my condition to the occasional use of Celery King. I first heard of it through a fellow-compositor, who, on hearing my tale of woe one day, told me about Celery King, and told me that he would guarantee that it would act on the liver. I took it under protest, but was very much surprised with the result. It was gentle, but effective and since then I have noticed an entire change in the working of my system, and I think that Celery King is the best remedy for liver and stomach troubles this side of anywhere. It is really in my case a substitute for exercise.

Remeber Celery King, the 25 cent kind. Sold everywhere.

Property in News.

Chicago, Oct. 29. — An important principle of law was established yesterday when the United States court of appeals handed down an opinion to the effect that the Western Union Telegraph Company has a right of property in the news which it gathers, and that such right does not cease when the news is published on the tickers rented to its patrons. In laying down this new principle, the court of appeals affirms two decisions of the lower court, and forever enjoins the National Telegraph News Company, the Illinois Commission Company and other defendants from using the quotations in question.

The special remained on the track, but the caboose was thrown from the trucks and three people saved their lives by jumping. The freight had pulled on a siding to let the special pass. The caboose had not cleared the main line when the special swept around a curve and crashed into the caboose. The occupants of the caboose were warned of their danger in time to save their lives. Mr. Bryan was uninjured. The track was obstructed so that the special could not proceed. Mr. Bryan and his party were put into an empty refrigerator car and drawn by a special engine to Nathop, seven miles away.

HUGGED TO DEATH BY BEAR.

Hot Springs, Ark., Oct. 29.—At Harper Hollow, a resort near here, which, among other attractions, includes a zoo, a black bear fatally injured Robert Tatum, an 8-year-old boy. The lad was passing the animal, which was chained, but came too close, and before the horrified spectators could interfere the brute had the boy hugged to his breast. Then the animal closed his great jaws on his prisoner's head.

A keeper pried the bear's mouth open and released the boy, but he was unconscious and dying from several fractures of the skull.

GREAT MEDICINE.—Tonti, one of the pioneers of French Canada, lost a hand and wore an iron hook as a substitute. He was in the habit of boxing the ears of refractory Indians with this iron hand, and they have remarked that it was "great medicine." Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is great medicine. It takes hold of pain with an iron hand and knocks it out of the system.

CENTURY OF PEACE FOR BRITAIN

Mr. Chamberlain Will Travel to South Africa on a War Ship—Cape Colonists Glad.

Vienna, Oct. 29. — It is said that the cable between Canada and Australio will be completed on Saturday. THE KING'S WISH.

In accordonce with the wish of King Edward, the colonial secretary, Joseph Chamberlain, is to be conveyed to South Africa on board a naval vessel, and the admiralty has assigned a new cruiser, Good Hope, to this duty.

The Times' Vienna correspondent says that for some time there has been a complete revolution of opinion in many parts of the continent regarding Mr. Chamberlain, who, once, the object of general execration, has since peace in South Africa been most popular. Neue Frie Press, of Vienna, says the journey to South Africa about to be undertaken by Mr. Chamberlain, is a step of extreme importance, which will not only fortify Chamberlain's position and enhance his reputation as a politician, but also be of the greatest advantage to Great Britain.

COLONIALS REJOICE.

The announcement of Mr. Chamberlain's visit to South Africa has aroused extraordinary interest in Cape Town, and is the sole topic of conversation there. It is hailed with enthusiasm as marking an entirely new departure in the relations between Great Britain and her colonies.

The comment in the lobbies on Mr. Chamberlain's journey to South Africa is that it indicates Premier Balfour's confidence in the passage of the measure long before Christmas, owing to the weakness of the Opposition, otherwise he could not have spared his chief lieutenant. Mrs. Chamberlain, being intensely interested in her husband's work, will accompany him.

ITALY NOT WORRIED.

Foreign Minister Prinetti is quoted today in an interview as saying Italy will not intervene against the Mad Mullah of Somaliland unless he provokes a disturbance in territory under Italian sovereignty. SHOT BY HIS ASSOCIATES.

Portland, Me., Oct. 28. — William Thomson, alias Wm. Riley, of Chelsea, Mass., known to the police as a "hobo burglar," was shot by fellow-burglars at Stroudwater today. It is supposed the burglars, who had robbed O. L. Sherman's general store near by, and of whom Thomson was undoubtedly one, quarreled when it came to dividing the spoils, and Thomson was shot. His companions ran away. Thomson crawled to a neighboring house, whence he was taken to the Westbrook police station, where he died. He gave no information as to his assailants.

STOLE $4,000.

Des Moines, Iowa, Oct. 28.—The boldest bank robbery of recent years in Iowa occurred at Prairie City today. The robbers dynamited the safe of the Iowa State Bank, and stole an amount approximating $4,000. They exchanged a fusillade of shots with local officers and escaped. Night Watchman Erskine discovered four men approaching the bank at 1 o'clock. One of the men cornered him, and kept him covered with a rifle for three hours, while another broke open the bank door and worked on the safe. The other two men patrolled the street. Five dynamite charges were discharged by the men in the bank before he succeeded in getting to the cash box. The sum stolen was mostly in silver. At 4 o'clock the robbers left the bank and disappeared. Watchman Erskine opened fire on them and narrowly escaped death from a return bullet. Bloodhounds are being used to trace the thieves.

RANCHMAN SHOT TO DEATH.

Butte, Mont., Oct. 29. — A special from Bear Mouth says: James Conn, a wealthy ranchman, on Willow Creek, was found shot to death in his home today. His mother lay upon the floor with her skull crushed and cannot live. The murderer is believed to be the lone bandit who held up the Northeast Limited last Friday.

KNOWN BY THEIR EARS.

Paris, Oct. 29.—Alphonse Bertillon, of anthropometric fame, has undertaken to educate the Paris police in the art of describing faces. An interesting part of the instruction is that special value is attached to the ear. No two ears are alike. Therefore that organ is chosen as the base of the system employed. Close attention is also given to noses. Each policeman gets an album containing a thousand photographs, full face and profile, of persons expelled from Paris. To facilitate the research these portraits are grouped methodically according to height, ears and noses. It is believed that when the police become familiar with Bertillon's system, recognition of criminals will be greatly facilitated.

FOR THE OVERWORKED.—What are the causes of despondency and melancholy? A disordered liver is one cause, and a prime one. A disordered liver means a disordered stomach, and a disordered stomach means disturbance of the nervous system. This brings the whole body into subjection, and the victim feels sick all over. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are a recognized remedy in this state and relief will follow their use.

FUNERAL OF MRS. BRUNTON.

This morning, in the presence of only relatives and a few intimate friends, the funeral services of the late Mrs. W. Y. Brunton were conducted at the residence of Mr. C. B. Hunt, Wortley road, South London, by Dean Innes, assisted by Ven. Archdeacon Davis. The interment was made at Woodland Cemetery. Those acting as pallbearers were Mrs. Brunton's three sons, Messrs. T. H., Wm. M. and Dr. H. O. Brunton, and Messrs. C. B. Hunt, John I. A. Hunt, A. O. Hunt, C. R. Hunt and W. S. Strong.

AUDITORIUM CONCERT COURSE.

The delightful Auditorium entertainments, which for the past few years have been pleasant features of winter life here, promise this year to eclipse any that have yet been given. The entertainment committee of the Y. M. C. A. may well announce with confidence that their attractions for 1902-1903 will please all who patronize them. That the public appreciates the opportunity for enjoyment afforded by this course of concerts is shown by the demand for course tickets, which so far has been extraordinary. The programme includes: Brooke and his famous Chicago Marine Band Orchestra, which is here Friday and Saturday of this week; "Roney's Boys" Concert Company; Durno, the Mysterious, and Company; Mr. Leonard Garver; Marion Short, Dorothy Taylor and Henry S. Saunders; Mr. De Witt Miller; the Boston Ladies' Symphony Orchestra; May Parker's Little Pickaninnies and Concert Company; The Bostonial Ladies' Quartet; Fred Emerson Brooks.

LEAVES SABBATH SANCTITY TO MORAL TEACHING

Lord's Day Alliance Does Not Impose Religious Duty on the Public.

The annual meeting of the London branch of the Ontario Lord's Day Alliance was held in the Talbot Street Baptist Church last night, and notwithstanding the unfavorable weather a fair-sized audience assembled. The chair was occupied by Rev. J. G. Stuart, and devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. G. J. Bishop. The secretary, Rev. C. T. Scott, presented his report, which contained the following paragraph:

"In a quiet way the London branch has been doing useful work for the cause in our own locality. In several cases we have remonstrated with persons who were infringing the Sunday laws of our Province. In some cases the remonstrance was sufficient. In other cases more effective measures may yet be necessary. Several cases of a willful disregard of the Christian sentiment of the community as well as the laws of the Province are known to us, and it is important that we should have the hearty co-operation and support of all Christians in our efforts to preserve inviolate the sacred day of rest."

Mr. George W. Armstrong presented the treasurer's report, showing that the sum of $87 had been forwarded to the provincial treasurer and that there was a balance of $2 05 in the treasury.

Mr. J. A. Paterson, M. A., K. C., of Toronto, then gave a logical and spirited address. Mr. Paterson advised his hearers to reject all cunningly devised fables about the Lord's Day. Long before Abraham there was Sabbath in the world. This day was in essence a holy day, yet the law should never be invoked to enforce its sanctity, but to enforce its restfulness. It was a libel on the Lord's Day Alliance, he said, to say that it seeks to impose a religious duty on the public. It left the sanctity of the day entirely to the influence of moral teaching, but it asked the courts of our land to make it clear that the Lord's Day act should secure one day in seven as a day of rest. When this was secured to every workingman as his right, then moral and religious forces might appear to him to use that day in a sacred way, but they would never seek to attain such an end by any kind of force.

The speaker then took up the legal aspect of the question. He said that a year ago they were in doubt as to where the power rested to make Sunday laws. They felt that if they had to go to the Dominion Parliament and ask the support of Quebec representatives to make laws suitable for Ontario, they could hardly get satisfactory legislation. Since then the supreme court had decided that the power belongs to the provinces to enact such legislation, and the Alliance had an opportunity to get some new and effective laws upon the question.

Mr. Paterson said that our present act belongs to the age of Charles I., and we need a law more up to date. At present Dominion laws permit corporations operating under Dominion charter to violate provincial laws, but the Alliance were carrying this matter up to the Privy Council for decision, and hoped to have it disallowed. American boats had been in the habit of running Sunday excursions to Canadian ports, and the Alliance was not able to prevent them, because that came under international law. It met this difficulty in a new way. An appeal was made to the Minister of Customs to refuse to give clearance papers to such boats, and he acceded to the request. Had he been a mere politician he would have declined, Mr. Paterson said, but being a statesman he helped to preserve respect for Canadian law. The speaker also illustrated the danger of trusting to local sentiment in these matters by citing an instance where an American firm erecting a sugar beet factory practically defied the law by working on Sunday in the face of protest, but so eager were the people to have this factory that even the local branch of the Lord's Day Alliance was willing to make a compromise. "A good Lord's Day act," said Mr. Paterson, "if rightly enforced, will make true men in this country, and true men are worth more than pulpwood, mines or minerals."

Rev. D. S. Hamilton, B.A., also gave a short address, and the choir of the church rendered some pleasing music.

The following officers were appointed for the ensuing year: President, Rev. J. G. Stuart; vice-presidents, Messrs. W. E. Saunders, Alex. Fraser, George Robinson, Thomas McCormick and J. G. Wright; treasurer, George W. Armstrong; secretary, Rev. C. T. Scott.

CARROLL'S TWO ATTACKS

Assaulted Two Men Before Setting House on Fire.

Further Particulars of His Attempt at Suicide.

Squire McGuffin, of West Nissouri, was in the city today. He gave further particulars of the attempt at suicide of William Carroll, now at Victoria Hospital. He says that Carroll did not stab himself before setting fire to the house. When William Woods entered the place, Carroll rushed at him, threatening to kill, but suddenly pausing, Carroll said, "No, I will kill myself," at the same time making three jabs with his knife at his abdomen. Woods then grappled him and took the knife from him. On being taken outside the house Carroll attacked a bystander, Hugh Finch, and beat him severely before being restrained. A charge of insanity has been laid against Carroll and should he recover from his injuries he will probably be committed by Squire McGuffin to stand examination before the judge. Carroll is reported as progressing favorably at the hospital.

INTERESTING LAW SUIT

Involving the Borrowing of Money on Insurance Policies.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—A somewhat important insurance case is on trial here. The Copp Bros., of Hamilton, some years ago borrowed money from the Star Insurance Company, of England, and as partial security took out a policy on the life of William L. Bain, son of William Bain. The son died in April last, and his father claimed the insurance money as next of kin. The company paid the money into court, and the issue between Copp Bros. and the father is now being tried, the latter contending that the Copp Bros. had no insurable interest in his son. As the company is said to have lent considerable money on similar terms to churches throughout Canada, the decision will be watched with interest.

SEVERAL VESSELS LOST

Canadian Freighter and Seattle Steamer Collide.

An Italian Steamer Wrecked—Other Marine Disasters.

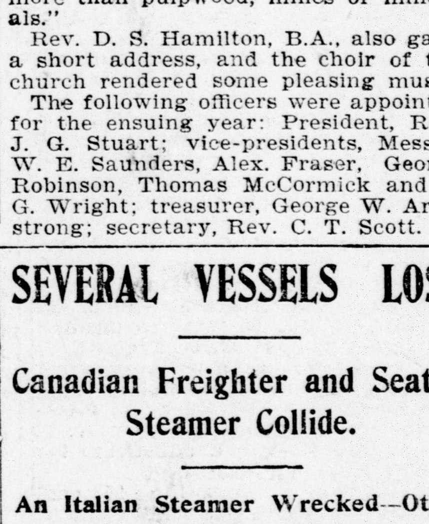

Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 29.—The steamer Capital City, operating between Olympia, Tacoma and Seattle, and the small Canadian freighter Trader, Captain Parsons, which was bound from Stevenston, B. C., to Tacoma, with a cargo of Canned Salmon, collided late last night off Dash Point. The Capital City, with twenty passengers aboard, had a big hole stove in her hull on the port side. She filled rapidly and barely had time to run for the beach, where she sank.

Marseilles, France, Oct. 29.—News has been received here that the Italian steamer Elena has foundered at sea. The report adds that part of her crew was saved.

Lisbon, Oct. 29.—News has reached here of the foundering of the Italian steamer Primavera. It is not known whether any lives were lost or not.

IRISH CATHOLIC GETS THE POST

Sir Anthony MacDonnell, Brother of a Nationalist M. P.

THE TIMES VOICES DISCONTENT

O'Brien's Paper Abuses the Irish Who Welcomed Lord Dudley to Connemara.

London, Oct. 29.—The official announcement of the appointment of Sir Anthony Patrick MacDonnell to the post of permanent under secretary of Ireland in succession to Sir David Harrell, leads the Times this morning to an editorial display of veiled discontent. The paper says the removal of Sir David Harrell on pension while his energy and powers are unabated causes surprise and hints that Sir David wanted to have the crimes act enforced in Ireland earlier than it was, but that he was overruled in higher quarters. The Times explains that the under secretary for Ireland is always in close touch with the Irish constabulary and that Sir David was formerly an officers of this organization.

The paper points out that Sir Anthony Patrick MacDonnell is an Irishman and a Catholic, that his brother, Mark Anthony MacDonnell, is a Nationalist member of the House of Commons, and reads Sir Anthony a lesson in acting with absolute neutrality in his new position, drawing the line clearly between sentiment and policy. The fact that the Times lauds Sir Anthony's Indian administration only serves to emphasize the uneasiness at his appointment to the Irish post.

"WHINING ADDRESSES."

The Irish People, the paper owned by William O'Brien, M. P., refers strongly to the welcome given Earl Dudley in Connemara. The paper says the habit of presenting "whining addresses" to "every wretched creature of ascendancy" who comes among them must have struck Lord Dudley as proof of how men can be transmuted into slaves under conditions favorable to the growth of slavery.

Irish people deplore the fact that the "lord lieutenant can travel through places most foully branded with English misrule without hearing a word of truth as to what people think of him."

WAITING FOR REDMOND.

Having gained their end in forcing the discussion of coercion, the Nationalist members of the House of Commons appear to have abandoned any further parliamentary campaign pending the return of John Redmond, the Irish leader in the house, from the United States.

A large number of Irish members left London yesterday for Ireland. Those remaining did not enter the legislative chamber, but contented themselves with social intercourse in the lobbies and smoking-rooms. All Irish questions and motions have been suddenly dropped, and the Government has been left to do as it pleases without molestation.

"One try satisfies"

Her Recompense.

"The woman's story is too plausible to be doubted for a moment," said Audrey. "She told me so much of your history that I knew it must be true—the names—the dates, all corresponded with what I myself knew, and her own name she gave as Margaret Fox."

"Yes—yes—that was the girl's name," cried Mr. Halstead, eagerly, "and I remember she had a swarthy complexion, with great black eyes and heavy hair, and a somewhat forbidding countenance; though when she was good-natured and happy she might not have been thought ill-looking."

"Yes, you have described her exactly," Audrey replied; " and she said that before leaving your house she went to your private desk in the library and took a large roll of bills from it. This money supported her and her little charge for a long time. But, after going into the country, she had a fit of sickness which consumed the most of what was left, and after that they were very poor. Sometimes she was able to work and earn a little, but oftener she was obliged to send the child out to beg."

"Rich sent out to beg!" exclaimed Mr. Halstead, turning pale again at the thought. "When I have had more than plenty, my boy going hungry for bread, and begging for her!"

"That was perhaps a fortunate circumstance after all, hard as it may seem," said Audrey; "for otherwise I might never have found him."

Then she proceeded to relate all those events, which we already know, connected with her adoption of Rich, and their life since leaving their country home.

"It is the most wonderful story I ever heard," Arthur Haistead said, when she had concluded. "What a wretched, revengeful creature that woman must have been! And then to think that my child should have fallen into your hands to be reared and educated! That is more astonishing than all else!"

Then, turning to Rich, he continued, while a fond smile illumined his face:

"Richmond, my boy, are you prepared to acknowledge your father?"

Rich could only clasp his hand in reply.

He was moved to his soul's depth at the discovery that he was the son of this noble man—that he could claim an honorable birth—an unblemished name.

Then, as if he felt that he must not appear to renounce his allegiance to her to whom he owed so much, he put out his other hand and grasped Audrey's.

Arthur Halstead's face lighted at the act.

"Audrey," he said, earnestly, "this but serves to strengthen the bond between us—and how much I owe you for what you have made my boy."

"I owe Rich a great deal for the comfort that he has been to me," Miss Waldemar responded, tremulously. "He has been nothing but a blessing to me from the first, and when I lost my property, you have no idea how manfully he went to work to take care of me."

"Ah! but he must have had wise training, or he would never have been what he is," Mr. Halstead returned. "I tremble when I think what might have been if he had been reared by that woman; while I am bound to confess that you have done far better by him than even his own mother could have done, with her poor health, though she loved him most tenderly, and his supposed horrible fate nearly killed her."

"It must have been very hard for you both," Rich said, sadly, and sighing as he remembered that wistful, yearning expression in his mother's eyes. "But," he added, "Aunt Audrey has given me the wisest of training; she has been a mother indeed to me, and I believe it would hardly be possible for me to love anyone more than I love her."

"But, Arthur, you did not tell me that you had ever had a son, when I inquired for your family," Audrey observed.

"No; I told you that 'I had no children.' That was always my reply when anyone questioned me regarding my family. It was far easier to say that than to explain that I had lost my boy, and then have to go over the dreadful story in detail."

"Your grandfather Halstead named you, Rich," he said, turning to the young man. "He did not exactly like his own, which was Richard, and yet he wanted you to have something that sounded as near like it as possible, so compromised the matter, and called you Richmond."

"It is the nicer name, I think," said Audrey; "but, Arthur, is it not a little singular that you should have trusted Margaret Fox so fully? She must have been a strange character."

"I do not know," he returned, thoughtfully. 'I never knew anything of her unhappy and remarkable affection for me until you told it this evening. Probably Ida thought it too absurd to mention, and she always conducted herself with the utmost decorum whenever she was in my presence. If I had known of it I should have insisted upon a change of nurses at once. But I am too grateful, at this present moment, to cherish any revengeful feelings toward the poor dying woman, although," with a tremour in his voice, "she has deprived me, for long years, of his love, and of the pleasure of watching him develop day by day and year by year."

"It was a dreadful thing," sighed Audrey, "and yet good has grown out of it —at least to me. This is my recompense for all the trials and sorrows of the past —that I can restore your son to you, and a worthy son, too, of a noble father. I have often wondered why our lives were so divided, why each was doomed to go a different and such a difficult way. But there was a purpose in it—do you not see? And is not the reward a wonderful one?"

"I suppose we should regard it in that way,' returned the gentleman, thoughtfully. "However, we will thankfully accept our present blessings, and not mar them by vainly regretting the past. But Rich is going to reap some benefit from this long waiting, as well as we. How will it suit you, young man, to have the control of a fine fortune from this time on?" he concluded, turning with a look of pride on his son.

"A fortune!" Rich repeated, in a surprised tone.

"Yes. Your mother was quite an heiress at the time of her marriage, and her property has been accumulating ever since, as she was too feeble to enjoy spending money very much, and never even used the whole of her yearly income," explained Mr. Halstead.

"A competence is what I have been hoping to achieve by close attention to business," Rich replied, gravely; "but a fortune, however large, seems of very little moment to me just now, compared to the fact that I have found you—my father."

"Bless you, my son! That is the sweetest word that I have heard this many a year," said Mr. Halstead, heartily. "God grant that we may live long to enjoy this renewed relationship."

"This Margaret Fox," Audrey said, when, after a time, they had all become a little more composed, "seemed to be quite anxious regarding her nephew. She says he was not always unkind to her, though he possessed something of her own passionate, revengeful disposition. She says he was her only dependence, and that he suddenly disappeared last winter, and she had heard nothing from him since, until she saw in a daily paper an account of his attempt to take your life."

"Ah! then his disappearance must have occurred about the time of his attempted abduction of Annie," said Rich.

"Yes, I judged so; and she has had a hard time to get along ever since. A few weeks ago she took a severe cold, which resulted in this dreadful fever. She seemed quite softened and repentant, and requested me to ask you to forgive her for the great wrong that she has done you."

"Which I freely do, and to prove it will commit her to your tender mercies, Aunt Audrey, together with whatever means may be necessary to insure her future comfort," Rich answered, heartily.

"What do you suppose a certain little blue-eyed lady will say when she discovers that she cannot marry Richmond Waldemar?" Mr. Halstead questioned, a little later, when they were discussing their return to Lynnell.

Rich's eye twinkled.

"I'm sure I cannot say how Annie will feel about it," he replied. "What do you think, Aunt Audrey? Is there be any serious objection to exchanging the name of Waldemar for that of Halstead?"

And Miss Waldemar, thinking only of those two dear young people, very innocently replied:

"I am sure, Rich, I cannot conceive of any."

The burst of laughter from both gentlemen which greeted this admission made her conscious of the jest perpetrated at her expense, and a beautiful blush suffused her face.

But, nothing daunted, she pursued, with a defiant little toss of her shapely head, and a shy glance at Mr. Halstead:

"Well, if there is any doubt upon the subject, and she chooses to wait long enough, perhaps I will prove my position."

"I think I shall retain both names," Rich said, gravely, after a moment of thought. "I have become deeply attached to your name, Aunt Audrey, and I am very reluctant to drop it altogether; so I mean to be known henceforth as Richmond Waldemar Halstead."

"I am glad you have made that decision, Rich," said his father, "for I shall be glad to retain the name of Waldemar in the family," and Audrey also appeared gratified by this evident love for old associations.

Birthday Present to Roosevelt.

Washington, Oct. 29. — A party of citizens from Alaska called upon President Roosevelt yesterday and presented a magnificent moose head, one of the finest specimens of the Cook's Inlet region, to him. The antlers measure 54 inches from tip to top. The mounting bore this inscription: "To Theodore Roosevelt, from the citizens of Valdez, Alaska, in token of their esteem and in recognition of his friendship on his 44th birthday, Oct. 27, 1902." The President expressed his appreciation of the present. The party invited the President to visit Alaska on a hunting trip, assuring him that if he would he could shoot a polar bear. The President was urged to recommend to Congress the desirability of legislation for protecting and promoting the interests of Alaska.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 28.—Cresceus failed in his attempt today to lower his mile record of 2:02¼, trotting the mile in 2:05½. The weather was cool and a strong breeze was blowing directly down the back stretch. Before Cresceus made his appearance it was announced that record breaking time was out of the question, but that the son of Robert McGregor would do his best. Dan Patch, the pacer, also made an effort to reduce the world's mark of 1:59¼, but his effort proved no more successful than that of Cresceus, the mile being paced in 2:01½. In the race for 2:13 pacers Gentry won first money from Cubanola after Rank had been substituted for McCoy. The 2:10 pace to wagon, amateur drivers, was won by Mr. Billings' Dr. Monical in good time. RACES AT AQUEDUCT.

New York, Oct. 28. — The mud runners had an inning at Aqueduct today. Brunswick and Articulate were the winning favorites. The Nassau stakes for three-year-olds, the feature of the card, was won by Andy Williams, who was played down from 5 to 1 and 3 to 1. The favorite, Oom Paul, made the early pace, but in the stretch Andy Williams took command and won easily. A big killing was made with Chicle in the fifth race, which was for maiden two-year-olds at 5½ furlongs. His price opened at 30 to 1 and was steadily backed until won in a hard drive by half a length. The odds-on favorite, Rosetint, had no chance after the lifting of the barrier, being off very poorly. Summaries:

First race, for three-year-olds and upwards, 6 furlongs — Brunswick, 105 (Minder), 2 to 1 and 7 to 10, 1; Glennellie, 105 (Rice), 12 to 1 and 4 to 1, 2; Tremar, 110 (M. Johnson), 6 to 1 and 2 to 1, 3. Time, 1:16 3-5.

FOOTBALL.

NORMALITES BEAT F. C. B. C.

The first match between the football teams of the Normal School and Forest City Business College was played yesterday afternoon on St. John's A. C. grounds and resulted in a victory for the former. The Normalites showed the results of good practice since their bad defeat a week ago, and played with their old-time vigor. The college team made some splendid exhibitions of combination, making some beautiful kicks on goal, which, unfortunately for them, failed to score. The weather was most unfavorable, part of the game being played in the rain. The honors during the first half were about equally divided, there being no goals scored on either side.

In the second half the teachers got down to business and scored twice. The last ten minutes of the game was played in the dark.

The following is a schedule of the games for the next week:

Wednesday, Oct. 29—L. C. I. vs. Military.

Thursday, Oct. 30—Normal vs. City.

Friday, Oct. 31—F. C. B. C. vs. Military.

Saturday, Nov. 1—City vs. Medical.

Monday, Nov. 3—L. C. I. vs. F. C. B. C.

Tuesday, Nov. 4—Normal vs. Military.

Wednesday, Nov. 5—L. C. I. vs. Medical.

Thursday, Nov. 6—City vs. F. C. B. C.

Saturday, Nov. 8—Normal vs. Medical.

NEXT SATURDAY'S GAME.

Toronto Mail: The Toronto Rugby Club play the London Club next Saturday at Rosedale. There will be two morning practices this week, Wednesday and Friday. Bob Grey will be on hand to see that sufficient practice results to win the next game. A win from London practically wins the district for the Torontos, and then they clash with Peterboro for the championship. Every player, both junior and senior, is urgently requested to attend the morning practices, as this work will win the London game. It is a hard one, and all must buckle together in order to win.

ELLIOTT-MARR CO. WON.

A close and exciting game of Rugby was witnessed on Saturday between teams representing Elliott, Marr & Co. and A. M. Smith & Co., resulting in a victory for Elliott, Marr & Co. by the score of 8 to 4. Mr. Fred Adams proved a satisfactory referee.

BASEBALL.

THE ARBITRATION BOARD.

New York, Oct. 28.—The National baseball board of arbitration resumed its sessions today. The business before it is the trouble between the American Association and the Western League.

The board had before it representatives of the Western League and the American Association, trying to find an amicable solution of the difficulty. Late tonight it was announced that the board had taken an adjournment until tomorrow without having formed any definite plan of settlement.

THE RING.

SULLIVAN NOT IN IT.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—The fight between Eddie Santry, of this city, and Tommy Sullivan, of Brooklyn, scheduled for tonight did not take place. Sullivan failed to appear.

RING TALK.

John Hertz, manager of Benny Yanger, the "Tipton Slasher," says that Yanger did not get the worst of the recent six-round bout between his man and Tim Callahan at Philadelphia. "Yanger, anyhow, is no limited-round pugilist," continued Hertz. "He gave Callahan as good as he received. I am more than confident that he can whip Callahan."

It seems as if the proposed match between Terry McGovern and Willie Mack will have to be abandoned. The pair signed articles a few weeks ago to meet before the club offering the best purse. Up to date no club has come forward with an offer.

Tim Callahan says that if Terry McGovern does not accept the offer of the National Sporting Club, London, and meet Ben Jordan, he will. Callahan declares that he can box at 122 pounds, the weight which Jordan suggests.

In order to prove to the sports that the lightweight champion, Joe Gans, is the real thing Hereford offers to match him against any two first class men in the business for one show on the same night, each bout to be limited to ten rounds.

Marvin Hart, of Louisville, says that in the event of beating Kid McCoy at Fort Erie next month he will consent to box George Gardiner at San Francisco two weeks later.

Alec Greggains, manager for George Gardiner, of Lowell, has issued a challenge for a match with either Jim Corbett, Bob Fitzsimmons or Kid McCoy for a side bet of $2,500.

Eddie Connolly, of St. John, N. B., who has been in England for nearly a year, expects to return to America next month. Before he returns here he announces his intention of meeting Jack Palmer again. Palmer defeated him a few months ago.

Will Curley, the English featherweight, who met George Dixon a few weeks ago in London, pays a handsome compliment to the former featherweight champion. Curley undertook to stop Dixon in fifteen rounds recently, but failed. Curley says that Dixon was at his best when they met, and in his opinion the negro is still a wonder, and capable of holding his own for years to come.

HOCKEY.

STRATFORD'S TEAM.

Stratford will have but one hockey team this year, and that will be entered in the intermediate series. The Beacon says: "Although feeling against the O. H. A. has been pretty strong since the close of last season, the Indians lean visibly toward it when the W. O. H. A. is viewed as the alternative."

CURLING.

GLENCOE CLUB IN GOOD SHAPE.

Glencoe, Ont., Oct. 28.—The annual meeting of the Glencoe Curling Club was held last night in the McKellar House. There was a good attendance of members. John Pool, president, was in the chair. Reports were presented, showing the club in good condition, though without a rink the past season. Satisfactory arrangements were made for the erection of a new one at once. The election of officers resulted in John Pool being re-elected president and A. Finlayson vice-president. Secretary McArlane was instructed to renew membership as usual in the Ontario Curling Association and Colts' League of Western Ontario.

ELORA READY FOR BUSINESS.

Elora, Ont., Oct. 28.—The annual meeting of the Elora Curling Club was held this evening. Following were the officers elected: Honorary president, John McGowan, M.P.; patron and patroness, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clarke; chaplain, Rev. H. R. Horne; president, W. Gofton; vice-president, F. J. Ross; secretary, N. McMurchy; treasurer, A. Hobbs; auditors, E. R. Palmer and Dr. Nairn. The club has lost two of its oldest skips—Mr. Thos. Black by death and Mr. John Bowes retired from the game.

CRICKET.

AMERICAN TEAM GOING ABROAD.

New York, Oct. 28.—It has been definitely decided to send an American cricket team to England in the spring. It is expected that the matches will be arranged with the leading county teams of England, and that the schedule will include Yorkshire, Lancashire, Surrey, Middlesex, Kent, Sussex and Somerset, while games will also be played with Oxford and Cambridge Universities, the Marylebone C. C. and representative teams in Ireland and Scotland. The committee of the Associated Cricket Clubs of Philadelphia, in charge of the selection of the team, at a meeting just held, decided to have the team known as the Gentlemen of Philadelphia.

To Encourage Cattle Trade.

Toronto, Oct. 29. — A proposition has been made to the Ontario Government that in order to encourage the cattle business it should guarantee the interest on the bonds of the Union stock yards, Toronto Junction. The bonds amount to $200,600, with interest at 4 per cent. One of the promoters is Thomas Crawford, M. P. P., West Toronto. It is said that the company intend to build an abattoir, on which they would give the Government a lien as security, but that the yards and other property would not be included.

Pacific Record Broken.

San Francisco, Oct. 28.—The Pacific Mail Company's new steamer, Corea, arrived at noon today from Yokohama, breaking the record across the Pacific. The steamer made no stop between the coast of Japan and her home port, and came flying through the water at the average rate of nearly 500 miles a day. The Corea sailed from the Japanese port on Oct. 18, and made the passage in ten days, averaging 470 miles a day.

It is a great affliction for a woman to have her face disfigured by pimples or any form of eruptive disease. It makes her morbid and sensitive, and robs her of social enjoyment. Disfiguring eruptions are caused by impure blood, and are entirely cured by the great blood-purifying medicine—Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It removes from the blood the poisonous impurities which cause disease. It perfectly and permanently cures scrofulous sores, eczema, tetter, boils, pimples and other eruptive diseases which are caused by the blood's impurity. It increases the action of the blood-making glands and thus increases the supply of pure rich blood.

"For about one year and a half my face was very badly broken out," writes Miss Carrie Adams, of 116 West Main Street, Battlecreek, Mich. "I spent a great deal of money with doctors and for different kinds of medicine, but received no benefit. At last I read one of your advertisements in a paper, and obtained a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Before I had taken one bottle of this medicine I noticed a change, and after taking three bottles I was entirely cured. I can well recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to any one similarly afflicted."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose. Therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book containig 1008 pages, is given away. Send 31 one-cent stamps for expense of customs and mailing only, for the book in paper covers, or 50 stamps for the volume bound in cloth. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A peculiar circumstance occurred on the farm of James Brown, near Wingham. Seventeen years ago Mr. Brown lost a purse containing about $100. Search was made for it at the time, and it was given up as lost. A rail fence has recently been removed between a pasture field and an adjoining one, and as Mr. Brown's son was in the act of plowing the field he turned up the long-lost purse. The bills were all on the Molsons Bank, and proved to be not all utterly defaced. The bills were put under a powerful magnifying glass at Montreal, and $70 of the $100 were found legible

FACTS FOR BUSINESS MEN.

It is well for one to consider the educational features of advertising. By its means new goods and commodities are made known to the public as necessities or luxuries, and men have by it been taught where to go to make their purchases. The accident rendered his mind a perfect blank. He was unable to remember the slightest detail of the accident. He was removed to his home, which he will not be able to leave for a few days. Considering his experience his injuries are not regarded as being serious.

LONDONERS GO NORTH

Party of a Dozen Left for the Hunter's Paradise.

A Toronto dispatch says that a special train left union depot yesterday afternoon for the benefit of hunters who are going to various points of the "hunters' paradise" between Toronto and North Bay. Several parties from points outside of Toronto were abroad, the local huntsmen not being much in evidence as yet, though many will leave for the hunting grounds next week. Among the hunters who left for the north today were a party bound for the Sudbury district. Another party of about a dozen hunters went through from London. The Spoffard party of 20 left for Trout Creek, and still another party of eighteen left for South River.

Mrs. Tupman, a prominent lady of Richmond, Va., a great sufferer with woman's troubles, tells how she was cured.

"For some years I suffered with backache, severe bearing-down pains, leucorrhœa, and falling of the womb. I tried many remedies, but nothing gave any positive relief.

"I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in June, 1901. When I had taken the first half bottle, I felt a vast improvement, and have now taken ten bottles with the result that I feel like a new woman. When I commenced taking the Vegetable Compound I felt all worn out and was fast approaching complete nervous collapse. I weighed only 98 pounds. Now I weigh 109½ pounds and am improving every day. I gladly testify to the benefits received."—MRS. R. C. TUPMAN, 423 West 30th St., Richmond, Va. —$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

When a medicine has been successful in more than a million cases, is it justice to yourself to say, without trying it, "I do not believe it would help me?"

Surely you cannot wish to remain weak and sick.

Mrs. Pinkham, whose address is Lynn, Mass., will answer cheerfully and without cost all letters addressed to her by sick women. Perhaps she has just the knowledge that will help your case—try her to-day—it costs nothing.

DIED WHILE ON DUTY

Peter A. Morrison Succumbs to Heart Failure.

Took His Train Out and Death Occurred on the Line.

Peter A. Morrison, a C. P. R. engineer, of this city, died last night while on his run.

He seemed in his usual health when he left his home, 707 Queen's avenue, to take out a special westbound freight at 9:30 o'clock. The train was at North Bothwell at 11:30 before he gave any evidence of weakness. He was then seen to reel and fall. He was carried into the station, but his death must have occurred immediately. It was caused by heart failure.

Mr. Morrison was one of the best known engineers on the road. He was an old and valued employe of the C. P. R., and was highly esteemed by the officials above him. His death will be greatly regretted. His wife and one son, who also is an engineer on the C. P. R., survive him.

LEAGUERS IN CONVENTION

London District Societies Meet in This City.

Sessions Largely Attended—Election of Officers.

The eighth annual convention of the Epworth League of London district, which was held in Colborne Street Methodist Church all day yesterday, was marked by a good attendance and much enthusiastic speechmaking. Mr. Joseph Nicholson, who was elected president for another term, occupied the chair. Miss Jessie Taylor, secretary-treasurer, was also on the platform. Rev. George Jackson opened the meeting.

The different addresses were listened to attentively, and proved very interesting. The first was delivered by Rev. C. T. Scott, pastor of Dundas Center Church, on "The Christ Life in the Spirit, Rather Than in the Letter." Rev. R. F. Irwin, of Westminster, addressed the meeting, his subject being "The Preparation of Leaders." The topic spoken on by Mr. W. E. McCann, of South London, was, "Does the Literary Department Pay?" Other addresses given were by Rev. A. J. Thomas on "Missions," and by Mrs. F. C. Stephenson, Toronto, on "The Forward Movement Conference."

At the conclusion of the afternoon addresses, the election of officers was held and resulted as follows: President, Mr. Joseph Nicholson; vice-president, Miss Rice; treasurer, Miss Taylor; secretary, Miss Friend.

The business committee appointed was composed of Messrs. Joseph Nicholson and Amos Thomas, Rev. Messrs. A. K. Birks and R. D. Hamilton, and Miss Jessie Taylor.

Addresses by Rev. R. D. Hamilton on "The Leaguer as a Citizen," and by Rev. J. W. Baird, B. A., of Glencoe, on "The Leaguer as a Soul-Winner," were the most interesting features of the evening session.

Each member stood up at the close and pledged himself to do everything possible to get out the best vote on the referendum.

Another session was in progress this afternoon and the convention will close tonight.

WITH HOUSE IN FLAMES AND BLEEDING WOUND IN BODY

William Carroll Crawled Into a Muddy Hole to Die Alone.

Was Brought From Thorndale by Freight Train.

Doctors at Victoria Hospital Hope He Will Recover From Self-Inflicted Wound.

Wm. Carroll, a farm laborer, living in West Nissouri, is lying in a critical condition at Victoria Hospital, as the result of a most determined attempt at suicide. Carroll stabbed himself in the abdomen with an ugly knife, and before the wound was dressed he lost considerable blood, but the attendant physicians hope to save his life.

Carroll, who gives his age as 52 years, lived in a small house on a farm owned by Peter Elgie, on the 7th concession of West Nissouri, his nearest postoffice being Oliver, in Oxford county. Carroll made a living by working around as a farm laborer and as a blacksmith. He has been living alone since the death of his wife, eight months ago, an event over which he brooded until it apparently affected his intellect. Signs of failing mentally had been noticed by his neighbors all summer, but as the man was not violent they paid little attention to him.

Yesterday morning about 7 o'clock Carroll arose and dressed. He then locked the doors and secured all the windows. Taking a knife about eight inches long, made from a saw blade and tapering to a point, Carroll stabbed himself deeply in the abdomen. He then set fire to the house, lifted some boards in the kitchen floor, and crawled into the space beneath, lying upon the wet and muddy ground.

Within a few minutes Wm. Woods, a neighboring farmer, passed and discovered that the house was on fire. He ran for Edward McQuillan, another neighbor, and together they hastened to the house. Finding all securely fastened, they only obtained ingress by breaking one of the window sashes. Inside they found the smoke very thick and heavy, and saw nothing of Carroll until he rushed at them out of the smoke, flourishing his knife and threatening to kill them. Carroll is a big man, over six feet in height, and his appearance was so threatening that the two men retreated. They immediately re-entered the house, however, and persuaded Carroll to surrender his weapon. The fire was easily extinguished, and Carroll was taken to a neighbor's house, where it was discovered that he had stabbed himself.

Dr. Ford, of Thorndale, was at once called and he decided that the only chance of saving Carroll's life was to bring him to Victoria Hospital. Carroll was driven to Thorndale, and the first train, which happened to be a freight, was hailed. He reached the city at 3 p.m., and Carroll was at once hurried in the ambulance to Victoria Hospital, where he was operated upon by Dr. Wishart. It was found that he had made a wound about six inches deep in his abdomen, and he had become very weak from loss of blood. He passed a good night under the influence of opiates and is reported as doing well this morning.

Carroll talked quite rationally to the hospital authorities before being put under chloroform for the operation. He has a sister, Mrs. Thompson, in this city, and his brother Albert and two married sisters live in Lucan. Less than $100 damage was done the house by the fire.

SUCCESS IN GOOD WORK

Board of Convalescent Home Accomplishing It.

Annual Meeting Brings Forward Evidence of Fine Results.

At the postponed annual meeting of the board of the Convalescent Home, the officers elected were: Patron, Mrs. Bremner; president, pro tem., Mrs. Labatt; vice-presidents, Mrs. Niven, Mrs. Edge, Mrs. St. John Hyttenrauch, Mrs. Strong; board of management, Mrs. Hopkins, Mrs. W. J. Reid, Mrs. De la Hooke, Mrs. B. A. Mitchell, Mrs. Bucke, Mrs. Callard, Mrs. Lashbrook, Mrs. Kidner, Mrs. Blinn, Mrs. Bullen, Mrs. Andrew Thomson, Mrs. Malcolm Kent, with power to add to their number; treasurer, Miss Ada Meredith; secretary, Miss Lougheed; assistant secretaries, Miss Florence Mitchell, Miss Macnamara; advisory board, J. H. Flock, K.C., Rev. Dr. Johnston, E. P. Bucke, T. McCormick, Andrew Thomson, Rev. W. J. T. Hill; purchasing committee, Miss Bremner, Miss Bullen, Mrs. Edge.

The annual report, which was presented by Mrs. Labatt, showed that this excellently managed institution has been just as successful this year as in the past in proving of great benefit to those who otherwise might have sadly lacked that rest and comfort which the home has been able to provide.

There have been admitted for various terms of residence, 31 patients of whom two are now in the home. Of these as usual, the great majority (21) have been non-paying patients from the city, many coming through the hospitals. Of the remainder two paid the full compensation and the rest only a small portion, all they could afford. Upon the list it is noted that 13 are men and 18 women. In religion 22 are Protestants, 8 Catholics, one not known. Their nationalities are: Canada 11, England 9, Ireland 5, Scotland 4, United States 2. Their collective stay was 1,714 days, average stay 36½ days. The receipts for the year were $638 74, as against $788 14 last year, but while the same number of patients has been cared for, the expenditures were only $573, as against $621 26 last year. The report added that though our funds are low, we have found in the past 14 years that the help came when we most required it, and we trust that it will be so in the future.

The board expressed its thanks to all who had assisted them during the year and their regret at the absence by illness of Mrs. Lashbrook, and their sense of loss in the departure of their president, Mrs. Boomer.

There has been noted in Honolulu a series of tidal waves believed to be due to volcanic action.
