The Kaiser-Prince Reunion is a Non-Political Affair.

At Least, That is the Statement Given Out.

Scenes of Wild Confusion in the French Chamber.

Thorn, in East Prussia, say that cholera is spreading rapidly in the frontier districts of Russian Poland, Round, Opatow and Konsk. In the Province of Radom there are 100 fresh cases and 20 deaths daily. "Blood Money."

PARIS, Jan. 28.—Italy has paid the French Government 30,000 francs indemnity for the injury done to Frenchmen in the riots in Naples, Genoa and Rome ast August, immediately after the Aigues-Mortes massacre.

John Redmond's Programme. LONDON, Jan. 28. - John Redmond, leader of the Parnellites, said in an interview today that he would move in the House of Commons two amendments to the address replying to the speech from the throne. One amendment would deal with the queslion of amnesty for political prisoners. Others would censure the Irish Government for not making greater efforts to prevent evictions and jury packing.

Discount Rates. LONDON, Jan. 28 .- The rates of discount last week were 2 for three months and 11 for 30 days. Gold was not in demand. The silver market was disturbed by the further weakening of the price. On the Exchange the revival of business continued, although the buying was still confined chiefly to the professional dealers, there being no demand from the public. American railroad securities were dull, although showing a slight upward tendency.

Waiting for the Headsman.

PARIS, Jan. 29 .- It is stated this evening that the pardons committee, after examining the appeal of Vaillant, the Anarchist, who was sentenced to death for throwing the bomb in the Chamber, has decided to let justice take its course. President interfere. It is rumored that Vaillant will Deibler has gone to Lyons, where he will violently. behead Busseil to-morrow.

French Occupy Timbuctoo. PARIS, Jan. 28 .- The Liberte publishes a letter from a soldier of a Honduras contingent, who intimates, contrary to the official announcement, that the French occupation of Timbuctoo is part of a fixed colon zation plan of which the Ministers are fully informed. An official dispatch describes an attack made by Tourages on Marine Ensign Aubree's party, between Cabra and Tim-Luctoo, on Dec. 26. Aube, the second mate, and 23 native allies were killed. St. Joan.

ROME, Jan. 28 .- At noon yesterday the congregation of the Sacred Rites pronounced Joan of Arc worthy of veneration. Six hundred documents were submitted to the congregation.

The report that the Pope has summoned Archbishop Corrigan, of the diocese of New York, ad audendum verum, is officially denied. The Pope ratified the congregation's decision as soon as it was presented to him by the prefect. His readiness was intended, it is thought, to further emphasize his willingness to support republican France.

The Egyptian Situation.

LONDON, Jan. 29 .- The Daily Telegraph still devotes much space to the discussion of the Egyptian question. Its Cairo correspondent says: "From the serious tone of the remarks of exalted English officials it is supposed that Great Britain is meditating some severe measures coassert her authority. This view is not indorsed by Riaz Pasha, who informed the Telegraph correspondent, that the Khedive disclaimed the intention of offending England. The Khedive criticised only one regiment, said Riaz Pasha, and did not foresee the storm of indignation, which utterly astonished him.'

Simply a Personal Affair. BERLIN, Jan. 28 .- Amid the floods of surmise on the meaning and consequences of the meeting yesterday of the ex-Chancellor and his Majesty, there emerges something of the truth that it was simply a personal affair, having only indirect political significance. The Emperor and Chancellor Von Caprivi are deriving the chief benefit from the incident. By means of it the Emperor has enhanced his popularity, and the Chancellor has gained somewhat of strength from the disturbed state of the agrarian opposition, which dreads losing the private support of Prince Bis-

Emperor Franz Josef said in proposing the toast, "I drink in sincere friendship and affection to the health of my true ally.' Premier Crispi telegraphed his cordial congratulations to Prince Bismarck, and the Prince replied with equal cordiality.

Pope Leo on the Italian Disturbances. ROME, Jan. 28 .- The Pope delivered in St. Peter's to-day an address suggested by the recent disturbances in Italy. He spoke substantially as follows: "The present occasion gives us fresh proof of the devotion of the Roman people, to whom we wish all blessings. In view of Troops Finally Called in to Eject the this, it is easy to understand our bitterness when we think of the trying conditions in Rome, which are aggravated by the general state of the peninsula. Let us hope, however, that the present disasters in those districts which are now troubled. We cannot on this occasion omit to recall the past, when the presence of the Pope gave Rome not merely for years, but for centuries, glorious and tranquil prosperity. That prosperity was the outcome of neither chance nor the institutions of man. It was rational and sure of the morrow. Life was then calm and well ordered. Nothing was wanting for the well-being of the people. The opposite is true of the present. If we would profit by bitter experience let us trace the evils to their origin and seek an effectual remedy. The religious ruin, invoked and designed, had brought moral and material ruin. Not only justice, but also political exigency must demand the return of the nation to the religion of its fathers with mutual confidence and affection, and without suspicion of the Pope, whose preaching of life eternal renders even mortal life happy and prosperous,"

The Pepe seemed to be in excellent health and spirits. The Pope's address was not delivered personally by his Holiness, but was read for him by Mgr. Volpini. About 12,000 persons were present.

Bounced From the Chamber.

FARIS, Jan. 28 .- In the Chamber o Deputies yesterday, M. Georges Chaudri, bureau of imperial defense, is the only conjonrnalist who was shot by the commune, proposed the adoption of the order of the day which was favorable to the Government. In speaking to his proposition, M. Chaudri made a reference to M. Guesde, ships costing £70,000,000 this year. Socialist member, which displeased the Socialists.

M. Thieveyer mounted the rostrum and maintained that he and his party had a perfect right to cry as they had done. The Chamber then adopted a resolution censuring M. Thieveyer, coupled with an the hall.

M. Thieveyer refused to leave the house and orders were given to clear the Chamber beginning with the spectators. The Socialist phalanx of 50 men retained

M. Sambat, who is the political editor of the Petite Republique Franciise, and who represents one of the Paris districts in the Chamber, later described how the Chamber was cleared. One of the questors, he said, came to the Socialists and requested M. Thieveyer to leave the Chamber. The letter refused to go, whereupon the colonel Carnot has intimated that he will not of the military guard at the Chamber was called. The colonel told M. > M. Thieveyer replied: "I shall not go until you do use force."

The colonel then summoned a corporal's guard of five men and ordered them to remove M. Thieveyer from the precincts of the Chamber.

M. Thieveyer, addressing the soldiers, said: "My boys, I do not feel angry with you because you belong to the French army, but I regret that you are made to do such work." Then, together with all the members of the Socialist group, he shouted again, "Vive la Commune," and left the Chamber.

When the sitting was resumed the motion of M. Clovis Hugues censuring the Government was rejected, and the Chamber adopted a vote of confidence in the Ministry, 409 members voting in favor and 64 against the declaration of confidence.

M. Vaillant then protested against the expulsion of M. Thieveyer, and made a speech in his defense. What he said could scarcely be heardowing to the interruptions. pounding on the desk and cries of "Order." Mr. Thieveyer was suspended for fifteen sittings and deprived of half his pay for

The Afflicted Czar.

St. FETERSBURG, Jan. 26 .- The Czar is suffering from a severe attack of influenza, accompanied by bronchitis and inflammation of the right lung.

Bogus Peace Rumors. Rio Janeiro, Jan. 28.—Dispatches from New York refer to the alleged success of Rear Admiral Benhams' mediation between the Government of Brazil and the revolutionists, and to the consequent readiness of both sides to submit their differences to arbitration. The references in question are life at the traction office. The cars will based upon Associated Press reports published in the United States yesterday. The truth is that no understanding has been reached either with Rear Admiral Benhams or anybody else.

The reports of an agreement between President Peixoto and the insurgents to submit their differences to arbitration are falsehoods without even the color of fact.

Queen Victoria Gay. LONDON, Jan. 29. - The fame of the Welsh Ladies' Choir, which won prizes in Chicago, has somewhat tardily reached royal ears, with the result that the Queen has invited the members to sing at Osborne on Feb. 8. Her Majesty has been unusually gay this season. There have been tableaux vivants, concerts, or theatricals every week since Christmas, and a stage has been specially fixed in the Indian room, the gorgeous annex to Osborne, which was built at a cost of thousands of pounds, Queen has definitely promised to attend Rome, Jan. 29 .- Burglars last night forced an entrance into the American legation, No. 13, Via Nazionale, by breaking the locks. The thieves broke open the safe of the desks of the minister and consul-general and then set fire to all the papers in the offices. A number of archives were completely destroyed and others partially burned. The building is in a bad condition. The police are at work.

Princess of Wales Melancholy.

London, Jan. 29 .- It is a pity that some serious reports regarding the family of the Prince of Wales are not set at rest. Color is given to them by the fact that the Princess has avoided nearly all public functions for many months, and is almost never seen with her husband. She has, indeed, spent little time in the same house with him in the past year. It is generally understood can be repaired and order can be restored that she is in a condition of almost chronic melancholy. The health of the Prince is said to leave much to be desired.

Labouchere's announcement that the Princess was about to retire permanently from society has been promptly denied, but other and more widespread rumors have not received the quietus which should be applied.

An Emperor's Photographs. BERLIN, Jan. 29 .- Berlin is one vast storehouse of Kaiser William's photographs. The visitor there can purchase any one of 200 portraits which the Emperor has had taken since he ascended the throne. Several hundred others have been destroyed because they did not please him. No actor has been photographed in so many costumes. From the shop windows of Berlin he stares at you as a hunter, an admiral, a general, a colonel, on horseback, on foot. His favorite attitude is that of "Ajax Defying the Lightning." And yet one thing should be borne in mind; While the Emperor is forever being photographed in a military uniform and posing as the great "War Lord," he knows nothing of active service.

FENCES BURNED FOR FUEL.

Suffering in Indiana Cwing to the Failure of the Natural Gas. INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 27 .- The natural gas supply in the suburb of West Indianapolis gave out Wednesday night, and for ten hours the people of the suburb were without any fire except what could be made by burning old plank and fencing. None of them had any coal on hand and the houses were as cold as barns. In a number of cases the residents tore down their fences for fuel, and in others planks were torn off the barns. The residents put their children to bed, and many of them suffered from the extreme cold, the mercury gradually falling till it stood 9 degrees below zero. It appears that there was some trouble with the regulators that shut off the supply. The regulators were examined and a supply of gas turned on, but it is so weak that it does not warm the houses.

Not a Street Car Wheel Turning at Bridgeport, Conn,

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Jan. 28 .- For the first time in eight days it is absolutely quiet about this city, not a car being run, Owing to disuse all the street car tracks are buried in snow, and there are no signs of start again to-morrow. It is said that the eighteen men who ran the nine cars sent out on Saturday have decided to give up their places on account of the threatening manner in which they were treated.

DANBURY, Conn., Jan. 28 .- All of the eighteen hat factories that have been involved in labor difficulties for the last nine weeks will be running to-morrow. Twelve of them opened on Friday as independent shops, and the other six will start up tomorrow as union shops.

Conroy was taken to the hospital, where it was found the wound would not be fatal. The fellow has a mania for killing himself in public. LOST IN THE CASCADES.

Terrible Experience of a Former Londoner,

Son of Hon Frank Smith-Found Fam. ished and Weak.

TORONTO, Jan. 29 .- Word was received this morning of the harrowing experience of the eldest son of Hon. Frank Smith in the Cascade Mountains, near North Thompson River, N. W. T.

Mr. Smith, who was in the employ of the C. P. R. in British Columbia, and a party of gentlemen, one by the name of Potter and two named Doherty, all from Toronto, went out deer shooting in the Cascade Mountains ten days ago. Last Tuesday, the 23rd inst., the party separated, Mr. Smith going northward some distance. The Cascades are a branch of the Rockies, and are thickly wooded. About the middle of the afternoon a heavy snowstorm started, which grew more fierce and blinding as the evening came on.

The three friends, Potter and the two Doherties, were together and they commenced to search for Smith with shouts and cries. They tried to signal him with rifle shots, and twice the report of the lost man's gun came reverberating through the lonely woods in reply. But the search was in vain till Friday. The mountains are at that point quite unsettled by human beings, and there was but the remotest chance that Mr. Smith could have met with succor from human hands. The provisions he had with him were very light-A few mouthfuls of camp fare and a hunter's flask. Ever since the loss of Mr. Smith on Tuesday last large searching parties were out looking for him. without hope of success. In the opinion of the Indian hunters he had died and was buried in the snow, and it was thought that his body would never be recovered.

Early Sunday afternoon, however, word was brought into Vancouver that the lost man had been found, famished and weak, but still alive.

The news was immediately telegraphed to his relatives, and was glad tidings, indeed, for them, for a telegram earlier in the day had been received announcing the probable death of the young man. AMHERSTBURG AFTER THE NEXT BIG FIGHT. The recent fight in Jacksonville and the approaching contest between Corbett and Jackson has awakened some of the citizens of Amherstburg to the fact that right at their door is one of the most available places for a prize fight in America, and they will make an offer to the pugilists. The place is Bois Blane Island, opposite Amherstburg in the Detroit River. The island is the property of Col. John Atkinson, and he will be waited on this week and asked for permission. It is in Canadian waters, but no trouble is anticipated from the authorities. Those who are behind the scheme are well known citizens of the burg, and if the island can be secured they will at once make an offer of $30,000. They will not place the tickets at a high figure, but would expect bonuses from the owners of the different steamboat lines, and erect an amphitheater with a capacity of 10,000 persons.

HAILED THE VICTOR. New York, Jan. 28.—The popularity of victory was demonstrated yesterday afternoon, when 2,000 cheering people gathered at the depot of the Pennsylvania Railroad in Jersey City to welcome the arrival of James J. Corbett. Corbett said that he had received ovations all along the line. As to his future prospects he felt very enthusiastic. "I shall not keep in as hard training as I am now," he said, "but I will not get out of it to such an extent that it will be necessary to do a great amount of hard work when I prepare for the fight with Peter Jackson in June or July." The fight will come off between the 10th of June and the 10th of July. Nearly every seat in Madison Square Garden was occupied last evening by friends and admirers of Jim Corbett. They had paid from 50 cents to $2 each for a chance to welcome him and gave him unstinted applause. IN THE INTERESTS OF LAW AND ORDER. New Haven, Conn., Jan. 28.—The International Law and Order League is not as all inclined to let the Corbett-Mitchell matter drop. Rev. Clarence Greeley, general agent of the league, says he is in-formed by his attorney in Jacksonville that Manager Bowden is afraid to let the Supreme Court pass on sec. 1, chap. 66, of McMillan's digest of the Florida decisions. This section, he says, and the one following fix a good round penalty for principals and all promoters. Mr. Greeley has advised President Connolly, of the Jacksonville league, to carry the matter to the Supreme Court in case the Governor does not, and at the expense of the international league.

NOTES. In the Græcc-Roman wrestling match at Galveston, Texas, Saturday night letween H. Bernan and Fred Marks for the championship of the Northern and Southern States Marks won easily by three straight falls. Marks says he is now ready to meet Roebur in a match for the championship of the United States. A telegram from Tacoma, Wash., add to Parson Davies, manager of Peter Jackson, offers $40,000 for the Jackson-Corbett fight. The telegram was signed by B. Levy, secretary of the Washington Athletic Club.

SHATING. JOHNSON SKATES A FAST HALF. CLEVELAND, Jan. 28. - John S. Johnson, champion ice skater of America, broke the world's half-mile record of 1:22 by skating a mile here to-day in 1:16 3-5, with a flying start. Harry Hulse, of Toronto, with a set start, skated a quarter mile in 36 seconds, beating the best previous record, which was 37 3-5. THE KENNEL. THE CAT WHIPPED THE DOG. HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Jan. 28.—A large crowd of people witnessed a contest between a wildcat and a bulldog yesterday. The cat whipped the dog in three minutes' time, putting out one eye and otherwise injuring him. Those interested in the fight will be arrested and prosecuted by the Humane Society. DRAUGHTS. The open air draught board in Wellington Park, Greenock, was put there by the town council nearly 40 years ago. It is twelve feet square, and the men weigh fourteen pounds each. It has afforded an immense amount of enjoyment, and is as popular as ever.

CURLING. The curling matches for group 11 of the Ontario tankard competition, will be played in Brantford on Jan. 30. The clubs competing are Brantford, Ayr, Embro, Simcoe, London, Preston, Plattsville and Dundas. CURLERS KICK.

The Sarnia Observers of Saturday says the curlers in that district objected to being compelled to play the finals in London, which is outside the district. If says: "The Sarnia curlers held a meeting Wednesday evening and decided not to enter the competition unless it came off on a rink in the district, and word to that effect has been sent to the secretary of the Ontario Association. Petrolea, Forest and Detroit are opposed to playing outside the district. As a result of the kick word was received by telegraph from Mr. Reid, of London, on Friday, that he had decided to have the Ontario tankard competition played in Sarnia some day next week."

THE WHEEL. LONDON, Jan. 28.—Jules Dubois, the French champion wheelman, beat Linton to-day in a 100-mile race in Paris. Time 4:40. SNOWSHOEING.

CHAMPION OF CANADA. Montreal, Jan. 28.—The long distance snowshoe race from Montreal to Lachine, nine miles, which is regarded as the championship snowshoe race of Canada, was run on Saturday, and was won by H. Gowan, of the Argile Snowshoe Club, who covered the distance in 61 minutes and 43 seconds. HOCKEY. AT MONTREAL.

Fully 4,000 people attended the championship hockey match between the Ottawas and Montrealers in Montreal on Saturday. The Ottawas were victorious 4 to 1. Two of the players-Stewart, of Montreal, and McDougal, of Ottawa-were seriously injured, the former having his shoulder badly bruised, and the latter having his eye injured badly by being struck with the puck. Both had to retire.

AT NIAGARA FALLS. NIAGARA FALLS, Jan. 28.—The game last evening between St. Catharines Hockey Club and the Niagaras was won by the home team by a score of 8 to 5. Two of the St. Catharines players-Van Lucken and Vincent-were quite seriously injured during the progress of the game, which was rather rough.

How Richard Tooley, M.P.P., Would Represent That of W. R. Meredith.

"It Meets the Views of the P. P. A. and the Patrons,"

So He Says-Mr. Tooley's Queer View of Prohibition-Reeve Leitch Waxes Elequent and Wroth-Mr. Steele Talks.

The Conservative Association of East Middlesex met in the Young Conservative rooms, Masonic Temple, on Saturday, with 60 or 70 of the faithful in attendance. Among them were noticed Dr. Roome, M.P., Joseph Marshall, M.P., Richard Tooley, M.P.P., Richard McElheran, J. B. Fram, H. F. Whetter, Frank Whetter, J. Leitch (Glencoe), Wm. Brett, D. C. Macdonald, Mr. Steele and others. J. B. Fram, West Nissouri, occupied the chair, and the first business done was the election of officers.

County Clerk T. E. Robson was elected president; John Geary, first vice; James Gilmour, second vice; James Grant, treas-urer; W. C. Fitzgerald, secretary. Township vice-presidents were elected as follows: London, Andrew Powell; West Nissouri, J. B. Fram; North Dorohester, Wm. Rowat; South Porchester, E. F. Moore; London West, R. A. Jones; East London, J. W. Bartlett; Westminster,

Wm. Shore. Reeve Leitch, of Glencoe, then gave the assemblage advice as to how to draw together a representative convention and incidentally roundly abused the Mowat Government and all therein contained. There would be a serious awakening at the next election, he was sure. That dreadful Mowat Government had appealed to everything under the sun; to the liquor interests and to the church, in order to remain in power. The Government was corrupt and was feeding all its friends at the public trough (and Mr. Leitch's hog was hungry), and the only way to get rid of the office-holders was to turn out the Government. Mr. Leitch waxed elequent in his attack on the fee system, but when he began to talk about the misdoings of Hon. G. W. Ross his righteous indignation knew no bounds. His thinklets soared aloft with such force that the pillars of the temple did quake and the young men in the room who were playing "Seven-up" actually dropped their cards and stopped to listen in amazement. Then Mr. Leitch went for the manner in which school books were printed in On-tario, saying that the work should be distributed among more than three firms. All pine timber exported should, he said, be to the idle. When the historic name of Tooley was called, Richard was himself again. Striking an Opposition attitude on the platform, he began to speak with so much brilliancy and fluency that several felt themselves called away and left the room. The horse that Richard would give his kingdom for just honor to actually keep Mr. Tooley awake during the next session. Mr. Tooley's first thought was that a convention should be held. A Conservative candidate ought to be selected within a short time, because, as everybody knew, a session was close on and an election would tollow. Mr. Mowat had lost friends, and there was a great feeling in this country against the course that he had taken in the past. He thought that the representatives of East Lambton and North Bruce would not support Mr. Mowat. If they did, then he had no confidence in men of that stamp. Wait, he said, until next session and see what these men will do. He did not intend to represent the views of one party or another. County officers that the county had to pay should be appointed by the county council.

The educational system of this country should not be made a political lever, neither should the license system. He had no objection to prohibition, but warned his hearers that Mr. Mowat was not in earnest about the measure and was trying to please the temperance party. Mr. Mowat knew full well that he had no right to spring prohibition. They would agree to prohibition when the demand came from the people, not from Mr. Mowat. He was a supporter of W. R. Meredith, whose platform, Mr. Tooley said, met with the views of the P. P. A.

and the Patrons. Mr. Steele, East London, followed, and the burden of his plaint was that Mr. Ross timber lands were looked after was also censured by Mr. Steele. Joseph Marshall named the first Saturday in March as a day on which to meet and arrange for a convention to bring out

"Better be careful," said watchful Richard McElheran, clerk to the London school trustees; "you might make a mistake, and you will be right in the midst of an election.

And so the date was changed to Saturday, Feb. 10.

SUNK IN THE MISSISSIPPI.

Sad Fate of a Party on a Pleasure Excursion.

Their Schooner Capsized and Eight of Them Drowned.

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 28 .- The little schooner Florence, which left Holland, Mich., four months ago for the Gulf of Mexico, has been capsized in the Mississipi River at a point near New Orleans, and the passengers and crew-a pleasure party-were drowned. This is the substance of a statement contained in a letter received yesterday by Mrs. Robert Lender, of 11 Huron street, whose father was on the vessel. Two sons of Mrs. T. J. Morrissey, of 230 Walker street, this city, were also on the ill-tated schooner.

The schooner Florence is a vessel of 35 tons that has seen considerable service in the lumber trade on Lake Michigan. Late last season she was fitted up by George H. Brooks, of Holland, for a voyage through the Illinois River, down the Mississippi and along the gulf coast to Florida. The start from Holland was made in Sep-

The party on the boat consisted of Gen. Henry Brooks, aged about 65 years; Geo. Brooks, aged 19; Eddie Brooks, aged 17; Bertie Brooks, aged 11, and John Howard and Mrs. John Howard, aged about 65 years each, and their son, James Howard,

25 years old. Several letters were received from the party after they left Holland, Capt. Brooks corresponding quite regularly with a Mr. Huntley, a well-known machine shop owner of Holland. This morning Mrs. Lender received a letter from her son in Chicago, in which he stated he had received a letter from Mr. Huntley, in Holland, containing the news of the death of the entire party on the Florence. The letter states that Huntley has received a telegram from New Orleans saying that the schooner Florence had capsized in a squall near New Orleans, and that not one of the party had escaped.

NEW ANTIDOTE FOR MORPHINE.

Dr. Moor Tock Three Grains and Prevented Its Fatal Action.

A new antidote for morphine poisoning has been discovered by Dr. William Moor, of 355 Boulevard. It is permanganate of potassium, and Dr. Moor recently demonstrated its antidotal qualities by swallowing a sufficient amount of morphine to have caused death unless its effects had been neutralized by some other agent.

The experiment was made on Jan. 9 in the West Side German Clinic. Twelve other physicians watched Dr. Moor swallow three grains of morphine, to which his system is very sensitive. He then drank a glass of water containing four rains of permanganate of potassium. Instead of coma Dr. Moor retained his normal condition and suffered no ill effects from the poison.

The new antidote, it has long been known, is a destroyer of organic matter. It has been used heretofore in cases of diabetes. In the case of soluble salts of morphine, permanganate of potassium destroys them almost instantly.

The antidote is equilly valuable, it is claimed, in counteracting the effects of all forms of opium poisoning where the morphia sulphate is held in suspension. It is only necessary to add to the permanganate of potassium solution a quantity of vinegar. The acidulous properties of the vinegar free the morphia sulphate and render it susceptible to the action of the antidote. The action of the antidote is so quick that it thought that it will be effective in the last stages of morphine poisoning. The discovery will be promulgated in medical journals.

Dr. Moor lea. Ad of the antidotal effects of permanganate of potassium while treat-ing a patient ddicted to the morphine habit. He anew of the effect of the permanganate upon organic matter, but it had always been supposed that it was deoxidized immediately on entering the stomach. He experimented, however, and found that it destroyed morphia sulphate much quicker than the permanganate was rendered, unless by contact with other organic matter. The physicians who witnessed Dr. Mcor's experiment on his own system are Dr. Valentine, president of the clinic; Dr. Egbert A. Grandin, Dr. F. W. Warner, Dr. Herman L. Collyer, Dr. Wm. Gotthel, Dr. constitutions, squander their vitality and ruin their health by pernicious practices generally contracted through ignorance.

BANKS DEFRAUDED.

Extensive Swind Inearthed at Kansas

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 28 .- A gigantic windle involving $200,000, was unearthed here yesterday. It appears that the lumber firms of George W. Howell & Co., of Atchison, Ks., and J. H. Beemis & Co., of Jefferson, Tex., have been defrauding banks from one end of the country to the other by means of fraudulently interchanged drafts. One firm would make a draft and secure the indorsement of the other and vice versa. Banks in Nebraska, Texas, Connecticut, Omaha, Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City are involved.

THE COAL TAX.

A Toronto Conservative newspaper rejoices because there is a prospect that reciprocity in coal may soon be established between the United States and Canada by the mutual abolition of the duty. Our sontemporary counts that taking off the duty means a gain to Toronto manufacturers alone of $180,000 a year. Only the otherday, in almost every Conservative paper and on every Conservative platform in the urban constituencies, the assertion was made that the consumer did not pay the duty -that though it were taken off the consumers of coal would not be benefited. Sir Henry Tyler, president of the Grand Trunk Railway, a shrewd business man, has again and again proved to the contrary, by showing that his company alone was handicapped in taking through freight to the extent of the duty on its supplies, amounting in this commodity alone to some $400,000 a year. These confessions from former apologists for "protective" taxes prove all that the opponents of trade restriction have conOVER THE BORDER,

The United States House of Representatives put in a hard six days work last week considering the various reductions in the tariff provided for by the Wilson Bill, and will continue the discussion till Thursday next, when the final vote will be taken. As originally agreed to, the vote should have been taken to-day, but the House insisted on tacking the proposal to tax all incomes over $4,500 a year on to the tariff measure, and it was agreed to grant three days for discussion of this means of adding to the public revenue, which will prevent the final vote taking place till Thursday.

Practically the important features of this tariff reduction bill are already agreed on. Coal, iron and raw materials generally, together with sugar of all kinds, are to be put upon the free list, the sugar bounty is to be abolished July 1, 1894, and the reciprocity clauses of the McKinley Act, under which reciprocity treaties were negotiated with various countries, are to be specially eliminated from the law; an income tax is to be provided for, and a general scheme of ad valorem duties substituted for specific taxes. This is the platform to which the Democracy of the House of Representatives is committed, and which will soon be submitted to the Senate for its approval.

Wm. L. Wilson, the author of this new tariff measure, has expounded in the last number of the Forum the principle and method of the proposed tariff reductions. Those responsible for the measure are declared to be unflinching believers in the truth that all taxes should be for public purposes alone, and that tribute to private enterprises under the guise of taxes is robbery. Starting from this principle, the framers of the new bill have aimed to make as near an approach to the proper system of taxation as is safe and expedient. That the new measure is not thoroughly purged of the protective taint is due to the dread of change on the part of the people. In dealing with an inveterate and vicious system it is a triumph to be able to make any progress at all in the right direction. "A legislator must do what he can if he cannot do what he would." Still, the new tariff bill is a large and far-reaching measure of reform. It releases from taxation the great basic materials of modern industry. Both capital and labor will be benefited by this reform. There is not one of the leading industries of the country that can find free and healthful play within the limits of the home market. The wages of the workingman depend on a full and expanding market for the products of hi labors and skill. Apart from its free list, the bill makes everywhere large reductions in the duties on the products that go into immediate consumption, to the end that clothing, tools, shelter, fuel and other indispensable things may be put within the reach of the masses. Next to the release of raw materials, the most beneficent feature of the bill is the substitution of ad valorem duties for specific duties. Specific duties raise the common and cheap articles to the same level of taxation as the more expensive ones, and this is at variance with the law of equal taxation. Taxation in proportion to value is the fairest made. On the other hand, experience shows that it is susceptible of honest and successful application. Under-valuations doubtless occur under an ad valorem system, but they are not as gross or as hurtful as the constant over-valuations carried in the system of specific duties. The remission of public taxes offered by the new bill, according to Mr. Wilson's calculation, is at least $60,000,000, and he claims that the taxes taken off are chiefly those that throttle trade and oppress con-

There has never been much doubt of the measure in the House of Representatives, In that branch of the national legislature, the Democratic tariff reformers have a large majority, elected to give effect to a generous measure of tax reduction, and the Wilson Bill will pass in due course. A harder struggle is expected in the Senate. That body is so constituted that it does not respond so quickly to public opinion, and its present constitution makes it comparatively easy for the advocates of special privileges to impede the progress of tariff reform. In the House, the Democrats from Alabama, Virginia, West Virginia and Tennessee voted to place iron ore on the tariff list at 40 cents per ton. If the senators from these States follow suit a hole will be made in the Administration measure. There are in the Senate 38 Republicans, 44 Democrats, 1 Independent, 1 Farmers' Alliance and 1 Populist. If three Democrats should vote with the Republicans the Senate would be a tie. If four Democrats should vote with the Republicans it would give them a majority. If the eight Democrats from Alabama, Virginia, West Virginia and Tennessee should vote with the Republicans on the tariff question, it would make 44 in favor of a tariff on iron ores and 38 against it, if the Republicans all voted for the tax.

When the Wilson Bill reaches the Senate it will be sent to the finance committee of that body, and already preparations are being made by the Administration side for its defense. Senator Mills, of Texas, a stalwart free trader, has been added to the Democratic membership of the Senate in Democratic membership of the Senate in expects great results. Four hundred acres place of Mr. McPherson, who is not so of land near St. Louis have been reserved progressive, and this adds to the strength for the undertaking.

PROGRESS OF TAX REDUCTION of the forces favoring reform. A well-informed correspondent at Washington asserts that it is common belief there that the Senate will eventually vote to maintain a duty of some kind on coal, iron and sugar, and that it will kill the income tax proposition as dead as a door nail. This may not be done in committee, but after the bill gets into the Senate and becomes subject to amendment. The abolishment of the sugar bounty and of the Blaine reciprocity treaties will probably be agreed to.

If the Republican Senators refuse to votefor a reduction of the tariff, and leave the responsibility entirely to the Democrats. it is probable that a modified measure will be passed by the Senate and sent back to the House. If the House concurs, it becomes law. If it does not concur, a committee of conference will be appointed, and no man ever knows just when or how a committee of conference will agree. It may be, indeed, as a member of the Senate finance committee prophesies, that the Senate will give a most exhaustive and deliberative hearing to the whole tariff question, and that the Wilson Bill will not be disposed of in that body before September

All things considered, it seems foolish for our Government at Ottawa to be unduly delaying the assembling of Parliament, while looking to Washington for hints as to what the Government of the republic will do. The Government at Ottawa should call Parliament together, and let us have tax reduction that will benfit Canadians. No one at Washington has suggested that Congress shall wait till Canada moves. They are changing their tariff without reference to the doings of other countries. Tax reduction should proceed at once in Canada whether there is early or late tax reduction in the United States. Let Parliament get down to business and aid in restoring confidence in business circles by making the needed reforms as speedily as possible. We all suffer through delay.

TAXES TO BE THROWN OFF. A correspondent of the Montreal Witness quotes the Metal Worker and Iron Age, trade journals, for January, 1894, to show that at the mills car lots are sold in New York, Chicage and Pittsburg for 90 cents for cut nails and $1 10 for wire nails. The Canadian duty on cut nails is $1, and on wire nails $1 50 per 100 pounds, making, according to this correspondent, the extraordinary tax of 111 1-9 per cent. on cut nails and 136 10-11 per cent. on wire nails. The same correspondent maintains that the duty on barbed wire is 75 per cent. The correspondent adds:

"All the above duties are prohibitory. Cut nails in Montreal are $2 25. Two years ago cut nails were selling in New York for $1 40 and in Montreal for $1 90. Prices in New York have fallen 50 cents and advanced 35 cents here. There was no combine here then. The difference now between prices here and in the United States, after paying the duty, would be used up in freight from Pittsburg, the great manntacturing center. The whole of the $1 and $1 50 duty goes into the manufacturers' pockets, less a duty of $2 a ton on a small proportion of the scrap iron imported for their manufac-

HIGHLANDERS AGAIN MENACED.

(Toronto Globe.) Dr. G. Sterling Ryerson has returned rom the south in time to attend the Grand Council of the P. P. Sir John Thompson cannot smile approvingly on his vellow starling after drawing the color line against the yellow Martin.

NO NEW THING.

(Ottawa Free Press.) Probably the Canada Cordage Company s making the Government's proposal to make binding twine with convict labor a pretext for shutting down the twine factory at Port Hope. They shut up the factories at Quebec, St. John and elsewhere some years ago, paying the owners of those establishments bonuses for going out of the business, long before there was any talk about manufacturing twine in Government prisons.

IN THE FAR NORTHWEST.

(Winnipeg Free Press.) If those persons who left Minneapolis vesterday for the wilds of the Canadian Northwest in search of friends from whom they had not heard for over three months were fully informed as to mail facilities in that region they might have spared themselves the trip. The Canadian mail ser vice goes no further north than St. Albert, Alberta, and travelers in the Athabasca district can only take advantage of chance conveyances or the Hudson Bay packet to send news to the outside world. In winter time these chances are very rare.

A TIMELY PROPOSAL.

(New York Tribune.) Now that it is decided beyond a question that the American ruffian is a quicker, more powerful and more effective bruiser than the English rascal, all controversies over the superiority of professional boxers ought to cease. It is time to have an end of prize-fighting. It is highly desirable in the public interest that the remarkable muscle, agility and endurance of James J. Corbett should be made use of at the earliest possible date in breaking stone in some well-managed State prison, while a general desire will be felt by law-abiding people that Mitchell shall spend a long term at hard labor in an English treadmill.

Large as a Dollar Were the scrofula sores on my poor little boy, cially severe on his legs, back of his ears and on his head. His hair was so matted that combing was sometimes impossible. His los were so bad that sometimes he could not sit down, and when he tried to walk his legs would crack open and the blood start. Physicians did not effect a cure. I decided to give him Hood's Sarsaparilla. In two weeks the sores commenced to heal up; the scales came off and all over his body new and healthy flesh and skin formed. When he had taken two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla he was entirely free from sores." HARRY K. RUBY, Box 356, Columbia, Pennsylvania.

It is expected that prohibition workers in every part of Canada will co-operate to make this the largest and most successful Canadian prohibition rally ever held.

The secretary was instructed to convey a special invitation from the council to Lady Henry Somerset, Miss Frances E. Willard, Sir Wilfred Lawson and Gen. Neal Dow to attend this great meeting.

RIOTOUS MINERS

Destroy a Quantity of Valuable Property-Fatal Results of their Violence.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 28.—On Friday night a mob of 200 striking coal miners, most of whom were Slavs, Poles, Beigians and Frenchmen, went to the Federal and Woodville coal mines on the Pittsburg. Chartiers and Youghiogheny Raticoad, and made a vio 'nt assault upon the miners who were at work. Stones and clubs were used and many pistol shots fired. Considerable | this side of the boundary. damage to property also resulted.

BRIDGEVILLE, Pr., Jan. 28 -- Tue rioters who thronged this town yesterday spread ruin and destruction in their path. The ruins of the Schulte coal tipple, which was fired, are still smoking. The mob visited the Painters' Run district, in which are the Panhandle Coal Company's mines, the Esser Coal Company's and the E. B. Adlings Bros', mines. The Panhandle Coal Company's tipple had just been completed at a cost of $6,000, and this was burned. The work of destruction was then continued at the Esser mines. The infuriated band proceeded to the Beadling mine. An assault was made on the supply store on the Beadling hamlet, where it is reported a fight occurred and one man was killed. Just as the rioters appeared on Bowers Hill they came face to face with a band of twenty armed citizens. The horde stopped, and seeing the armed and desperate little band of men they started to run, scattering over the country like so many frightened sheep. Frank Staley, a leader of the rioters, was shot through the body and will die. The damage to the Panhandle Coal Company's it sure. She received no other harm than tipple trestle will reach $15,000, and much valuable machinery was destroyed. MANSFIELD, Pa., Jun. 28.-Never before did the streets of Mansfield present such a scene of excitement as they do this evening. News has just arrived that a battle is in progress at W. J. Steen's mines, on Tom's Run, between a band of rioters and a force of deputies. Franz Josef Stepig, the rioter who was shot during the battle at the Reading mines yesterday, died to-day.

THE FEE QUESTION.

(Toronto Star.) It could hardly be expected that counties would be any more happy in their choice of sheriffs and registrars if they were entrusted to do so. The fee system is proper. The appointment by Government is safe, but where there is room for a change is in the readjustment of the fee tarif. The evil of men receiving large salaries for no work could in this way be

The British bark Nellie Troop (Captain Young) has arrived at Anjer, from New York, after a rough voyage, in which she had jettisoned 2,000 cases of petroleum. The balance of her cargo was somewhat damaged. Some 124 houses, 30 go-uswns and a temple were destroyed by fire in the Japanese village of Kaga on Dec. 24. Two children were burned to death and eight persons injured.

A shock of earthquake lasting five minutes occurred at Yamagata on the same day. Many houses were affected by it, walls falling and pillars being bent. On the following day there was another shock. Strong earthquake shocks have also been felt at Yokohama and several neighboring places recently, causing much alarm but no damage. Preparations are being made in Japan for the general elections. Early in the present month an attack was made on the governor of one of the Corean provinces by a mob of several thousand natives. The governor's house was completely destroyed, but he himself managed to escape. Several other officials were brutally treated at the hands of the mob. The cause af the attack is yet un-

RUFFIANISM AT AILSA CRAIG.

Daring Attempts at Highway Robbery-& Woman's Plucky Fight. AILSA CRAIG, Jan. 28 .- A most daring attempt at highway robbery occurred here last night. Mrs. Shannon, wife of a G. T. R. employe, when returning home from shopping, and while within a few yards of her own door, was set upon by some person unknown, thrown down and an attempt made to take her purse out of her pocket Mrs. Shannon, being an able-bodied woman, was able to thwart her assailant's purpose long enough to allow assistance to arrive. The robber was chased by a couple of young men, and would surely have been caught only there happened to be a freight train drawing out of the station yard, on which he jumped, and although the news was wired ahead no trace of him could be found. He is described as a tall man, with a long overcoat and fur cap. Mrs. Shannon had her purse in her must or he would have had a terrible fright.

The Whitby Township Treasury $8,000 or $9,000 Short.

[Associated Press Dispatch.] BROOKLIN, Ont., Jan. 28.-J. F. Moore, treasurer of the township of Whitby, absconded to the United States Thursday night last. Reeve Calder and Manager Thornton that day discovered Moore's defalcations in the Dominion Bank at Whitby. Falsified by laws and notes with Calder's name on them enabled Moore to get into the bank for between $8,000 and $9,000. The township council at a special meeting yesterday repudiated all responsi-bility for the liability to the bank on account of the forged notes. Moore got money from his neighbors as well. He was Grand Trunk station agent here and held a number of other offices. Living beyond his means is given as the cause. He was a blonde whiskered, big man, weighing more than 250 pounds.

THE street money-changer is an interesting character in Spanish cities. He stations himself at a principal street corner early every morning and exchanges a bag of coppers for silver. By 10 o'clock his bag is exhausted and he goes home. All the servants on their way to market get their money changed by him, as they are not skillful in counting and afraid of false coins. He gives them full count, his coppers being obtained from the bakers, who get rid of their coins at a discount.

red pepper, that is consumed by the natives of tropical countries will be deemed incredible to people who live in more temperate regious, but there is a physoilogical reason for the use of these sharp condiments. The use of red pepper in the tropics braces up the digestive organs when impaired and relaxed by the great heat. In other words pepper is nature's tonic against hot weather, and the more liberal use of it in summer time might be beneficial even to the natives of the temperate zones.

LETTER boxes have been attached to the street cars in Huddersfield. England, and letters can be posted in these boxes as the cars are traversing the suburbs, the boxes being emptied by the postoffice employes on the arrival of the car at or near the centrel postoffice on each trip. If a person stops the car especially for the purpose of mailing a letter a penny is collected by the conductor and deposited in the fere box. This doubles the cost of sending the letter, but the advantage of an immediate special delivery is secured and letters are greatly expedited by the scheme.

One of the most interesting relics of old London is St. John's Gate, Clerkenwell. It is the only remaining portion of the im-portant priory of St. John, which dates from the fourteenth century. The old gateway has a literary interest attached to it, for in the room above the archway Dr. Johnson worked for Cave, the painter, for a small weekly stipend; and the Gentle-man's Magazine, which to this day bears a picture of the archway on its cover, was first printed there. The archway had latterly become much defaced and weatherworn, but it has recently been restored as a memorial to the Dake of Clarence, who was first sub-prior of the Order of St. John.

Some of the Canada lambs which have been in the market since Monday were disposed of to-day. In fact the offerings which have been in the market since Monday were disposed of to-day. In fact the offerings of Canadas were all pretty well cleared out, but at prices which must have netted shippers a considerable loss. One load sold at $450, and from that price up to $485, which was the top figure paid; the others were disposed of The weather continues cold, and prospects are for a better trade. Good fat natives sold at $415 to $425, and fair butchers at $375 to $4; cull and common grades of lambs and sheep sold at very low prices o butchers to clean up, and there was no particular competition for that class of stock. Sudden Death.

Mrs. Robert Hadden, for 21 years a resident of London West, died suddenly at the family residence, Mount Pleasant avenue, Sunday evening. About nine months ago deceased suffered from a paralytic stroke, from which she had partly recovered. A few days ago, however, Mrs. Hadden was again taken ill and confined to her bed, but on Sunday was considerably improved and was up for a short while in the afternoon. About noon she again went to bed, and was apparently improving, when at 1 o'clock deceased was again stricken with paralysis. From this attack she never regained consciousness, lingering until 8 o'clock in the evening, when death ended her sufferings. Mrs. Hadden was a native of Scotland, a lady of many amiable qualities, and well liked by a large circle of friends. There are left to mourn her loss her husband, Mr. Robt. Hadden, cutter of Burns & Lewis, and a family of eight children-Mrs. Joseph Holmes, a married daughter; William, Robert, Mary, Alexander, Jennie, Ella and Oliver-the latter being but 7 years of age. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon to Mount Pleasant Cemetery. A Notable Career Mr. Alexander Mazyck died in this city, due to suicide is unwarranted. at 857 Wellington street, on Saturday, in his 93rd year. He was almost a link connecting the present century with its pre-Charleston, South Carolina. Mr. Mazyck, who never married, has lived here since 1867. Graduating from Princeton College in 1820 (of which class he was the last survivor), he immediately commenced the study of law. To this profession he devoted the first twenty years of his majority, and in its pursuance he was eminently successful. For nineteen years prior to the conclusion of the civil war he was an active and capable member of the South Carolina Senate, and for a long period he occupied the partly legal and partly military position of judge advocate general in the same State. For ten years before coming to Canada Mr. Mazyck operated a large rice plantation on the South Santee River in his native State. The family of the deceased is of French-Huguenot extraction. His ancesters settled in Charleston in 1686, about a year after the revocation of the edict of Nantes, They came from La Rochelle. Several generations anterior to these the ancestry can be traced back to the town of Mazyck, in Flanders. Mr. Mazyck was a man of wide culture and exceptional information. Mr. Mazyck had lived a quiet, retired life in the city, though remarkably active for one of his years. Mr. Edward Manigault, city, is a grand-nephew.

> REBUKES PRIZE-FIGHTING. Queensbury, the Author of Prize-Fighting Ruler, Says the Manly art Has Degenerated.

London, Jan. 29.—In an interview, the Marquis of Queensbury, author of the prize-fighting rules bearing his name, said: "This prize-fighting has degenerated from a pure sport to a gambling machine, and the moral sense of the people is aroused against it, and cries out for its suppression. The expenses attending every fight are so great that thousands must witness it in order to defray them. The newspapers take it up, and it becomes notorious. Lawmakers are appealed to by their constituencies, and laws are passed, making prize-fighting, illegal and consequently disreputable. I believe it has seen its day. Some years ago sparring and fighting contests were engaged in through a pure spirit of sport. They took place privately and quietly, and very little money changed hands over them.

"How did you come to frame the famous prize-ring rules that bear your name?" the correspondent inquired. "The rules that bear my name were never designed for the prize ring, but solely to govern glove contests. They are much too severe for bare knuckles. In fact, their purpose was to disqualify any person who resorted to slugging, which is the very practice they are to-day used to promote. ATHLETICS.

LOOTED THE TOWN.

Disastrous Fire in Hayti-100 Houses Burned-Hordes of Vandals.

Port-Au-Prince, Hayti, Jan. 29 .- Coniderable excitement was caused here Tuesday last by the news that a big fire was raging at the town of Jeremie. The fire was an extensive one, over 100 houses, including many large business establishments, being burned. It com-menced at night and was caused by the overturning of a lamp in a dwellinghouse. The water supply at Jeremie is limited, and once the fire was fairly started all the inhabitants could attempt to save was their household effects. To add to the excitement, people living in the hills along the coast, who look upon a fire or shipwreck as an especial blessing from the Almighty, came down in numbers, armed and prepared for looting. All efforts by the police to prevent looting were unavailing. Those who were on the spot describe the scene toward midnight as of the wildest character. Hordes of country people, halfcrazed with excitement and liquor, ran up and down the streets, assaulting whom they met and stealing what they found. Some, under the impression that a revolution had broken out, commenced firing on the police. By daylight quiet was restored, but such excitement continued for two days after that steamers calling at the port were unable to secure sufficient labor to land cargoes.

Somebody or other always had their head sumped whenever the ferry boat arrived. It was a heavy and cumbersome machine, and the ferry boy was not a good punter. He admitted this frankly, which was creditable of him. But he made no attempt to improve himself; that is, where he was wrong. His method was to arrange the punt before starting in a line with the point toward which he wished to proceed, and then push hard, without ever looking behind him, until something suddenly stopped him. This was sometimes the bank, sometimes another boat, occasionally a steamer, from six to a dozen times a day our riparian dwelling. That he never succeeded in staving the boat in speaks highly for the man who built her,

One day he came down upon us with a tremendous crash. Amenda, our domestic, was walking down the passage at the moment, and the result to her was that she received a violent blow first on the left side of her head and then on the right.

She was accustomed to accept one bump as a matter of course, and to regard it as an intimation from the boy that he had come; but this double knock annoyed her: so much "sty e" was out of place in a mere ferry boy. Accordingly, she went out to him in a state of high indignation.

What do you think you are ?" she cried. balancing accounts by boxing his ears first on one side and then on the other. "A tor-What are you doing here at all? What do you want?"

"I don't want nothin'," explained the boy, rubbing his head; "I've brought a gent "A gent," said Amenda, looking round, but seeing no one. "What gent?" "A stout gent in a straw 'at," answered the boy, staring round him bewilderedly. "Well, where is he?" asked Amenda. "I dunno," replied the boy, in an awed voice: "e was a standin' there, at the other end of the punt, a smokin a cigar.

Just then a head appeared above the water and a spent but infuriated swimmer struggled up between the house boat and "Oh, there'e is!" cried the boy delight-edly, evidently much relieved in his mind at this satisfactory solution of the mystery; "e must ha' tumbled off the punt." "You're quite right, my lad, that's just what he did do, and there's your fee for assisting him to do do it." Saying which my dripping friend, who had now scrambled upon deck, leant over, and following Amenda's excellent example, expressed his feelings upon the boy's head. There was one comforting reflection about the transaction as a whole, and that was that the ferry boy had at last received a fit and proper reward for his services. I had often felt inclined to give him something of the same sort myself. I think he was, without exception, the most clumsy and stupid boy I have ever come across, and that is saying a good deal. His mother undertook that for three and sixpence a week he should "make himself generally useful" to us for a couple of hours every morning.

Those were the old lady's very words, and I repeated them to Amenda when I introduced the boy to her.
"This is James, Amenda," I said; "he will come down here every morning at 7, and bring us our milk and the letters, and from then till 9 he will make himself generally

Amenda took stock of him. 'It will be a change of occupation for him, sir," she remarked.

After that, whenever some mee than usually stirring crash or blood-curdling bump would cause us to leap from our seats and cry: "What on earth has happened?" Amenda would reply: "Oh, it's only James, mum, making himself generally useful."

Whatever he lifted he let fall; whatever he touched he upset; whatever he came near—that was not a fixture—he knocked over; if it was a fixture, it knocked him over. This was not carelessness; it seemed to be a nat-ural gift. Never in his life, I am convinced, had he carried a bucketful of anything anywhere without tumbling over it before he got there. One of his duties was to water theflowers on the roof. Fortunately—for the flowers-nature that summer stood drinks with a lavishness sofficient to satisfy the most confirmed vegetable toper; otherwise every plant on our boat would have died from drouth. Never one drop of water did they receive from him. He was forever taking them water, but he never arrived with it. As a rule he upset the pail before he got it on the boat at all, and this was the best thing that could happen, because the water went back into the river and did no harm to any one. Sometimes, however, he would succeed in landing it, and then the chances were that he would spill it over the deck or into the passage. Now and again he would get half way up the ladder before the accident occurred. Twice he nearly reached the top; and once he actually did gain the roof. What happened up there on that memorable occasion will never be known. The boy himself, when picked up, could explain nothing. It is supposed that he lost his head with the pride of the achievement, and essayed teats that neither his previous training nor his natural abilities justified him in attempting. However that may be, the fact remains that the main body of water came down the kitchen chimney, and that the boy and the empty pail arrived together on deck before they knew they had started. When he could find nothing else to damage, he would go out of his way to upset himself. He could not be sure of stepping from his own punt on to the boat with safety. As often as not, he would catch his foot in the chain or the punthole and arrive

Amenda used to console with him. "Your mother ought to be ashamed of herself," I hiard her telling him one morning; "she could never have taught you to walk. What you want is a go-cart."

He was a willing lad, but his stupidity was supernatural. A comet appeared in the sky that year, and everybody was talking about it. One day he said to me:

"There's a comet coming, ain't there, sir?"
He talked about the thing as though it were "Coming!" I answered. "It's come, Haven't you seen it yet?" "Oh, well, you have a look for it to-night.

It's worth seeing. "Yees, sir, I should like to see it. It's got a tail, ain't it, sir ?" "Yes, a very fine tail."

"Yees, sir, they said it 'ad a tail. Where do you go to see it, sir?" "Go! You don't want to go anywhere. You'll see it in your own garden at 10

He thanked me, and tumbling over a sack of potatoes, plunged head foremost into his punt and departed.

Next morning I asked him if he had seen the comet.
"No, sir, I couldn't see it anywhere."

Did you look?"
"Yees, sir. I looked a long time."

"How on earth did you manage to miss it, then?" I exclaimed. It was a clear enough night. Where did you look?"

"In our garden, sir, where you told me."
"Whereabouts in the garden?" chimed in Amenda, who happened to be standing by;
"under the gooseberry bushes?"

"Yees-everywhere."
That is what he had done; he had taken the stable lantern and searched the garden for it. But the day when he broke even his own record for foolishness happened about three weeks later. McShaugnassy was staying with us at the time, and on the Friday evening he mixed us a salad, according to a recipe given him by his aunt. On the Saturday everybody was, of course, very ill. Everybody always is very ill after partaking of any dish prepared by McShaugnassy. Some people attempt to explain this fact by talking glibly of "cause and effect." McShaugnassy maintains that it is simply coincidence.

"How do you know," he says, "that you wouldn't have been ill if you hadn't eaten any? You're queer enough now, any one can see, and I'm very sorry for you; but, for all that you can tell, if you hadn't eaten any of that stuff, you might have been very much worse—perhaps dead. In all proba-bility, it has saved your life." And for the rest of the day, he assumes toward you the attitude of a man who has dragged you from the grave.

The moment Jimmy arrived I seized hold of him. "Jimmy," I said, "you must rush off to the chemist's immediately. Don't stop for anything. Tell him to give you something for colic-the result of vegetable poisoning. It must be something very strong, and enough for four. Don't forget, something to counteract the effects of vegetable poisoning. Hurry up, or it may be too late."

Within the walls of St. Peter's Cathedral ast evening were heard the stirring words of a clever narration. Right. Rev. Mgr. McEvey, of Hamilton, related his impressions of the Holy Land to an audience which completely filled the capacious edifice. His discourse for the most part was delivered in a conversational style, which was passioned and brilliant flights of description as he touched upon some of the more sacred localities connect-Father McEvey's tour was made last summer in company with Bishop Dowling, of Hamilton, and occupied two months. After visiting his Holiness the Pope at Rome they sailed for Jaffa; thence they proceeded, with frequent short stoppages, to Jerusalem. No brief synopsis could possibly do justice to the speaker's effort. His auditors were delighted. The collection, which amounted to almost $100, is to be devoted to the objects of the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

When Mr. George Gray returned home from church last night he found two of the unregenerate taking stock in his little shop in front of his dwelling house, and packing up a considerable quantity of this world's goods. Mr. Gray's shop is situated just west of Adelaide on King street, and much was his surprise to find Charles and Alvin Prosser, aged 13 and 12 years respectively, helping themselves to his groceries. They had worked the window racket and were noticed by the proprietor before they could make their escape. The patrol took them ! in. The boys are well known to the police and live on Adelaide street. Just a week ago last night a house was entered on King street, less than a block away from where the boys were caught, and while the household was at church, a gold watch, chain and $5 gold piece were stolen. A Pleasant Evening.

A very pleasant "At Home" was held on Friday evening in the school-room of the Adelaide Street Baptist Church, it being the annual gathering of the Young Ladies' Circle in connection with that church. In former years their much beloved president, Mrs. G. F. Robertson, has entertained the circle with the honorary members in her own home, but during the past year the circle has so increased in numbers that it was thought best to meet in the basement of the church. The young ladies in connection with the circle spared no pains in making the room attractive and pleasant Mrs. and Mr. G. F. Robertson were the hostess and host. The president opened the meeting with a short address of welcome, and spoke very encouragingly of the work attempted by the circle for their Master, extending a hearty invitation to any present who were not members to join the circle as soon as possible. A short but very pleasing programme was provided, including a solo by Miss Minnie Hartson, recitation by

E. Hartson, Miss Nellie Rendell lending which light but very tasty refreshments were provided by the young ladies. Two-minute speeches from some of the gentlemen were then called for by the president. Pastor D. M. Mihell, Messrs. G. F. Robertson, A. J. Clark, C. G. Moorhead, A. C. Clark and J. E. Adkins responded in a happy vein, the gathering closing with singing "God be with us till we meet again." Altogether the meeting was highly enjoyed by all present, its success reflecting no little credit on the ladies who had charge of the arrangements. Passed Away. The death occurred at Guelph yesterday of Miss Annie H. Pritchard, of 484 Talbot street, this city, and sister of Messrs. John H. and Robert Pritchard, grain dealers, and George Pritchard, insurance agent. Miss Pritchard had been visiting in Gueiph for some time. She was taken suddenly ill Saturday night and rapidly grew worse, dying early Sunday morning. The unex-pected news was a sad shock to her relatives here. Deceased came from England 35 or 40 years ago, and resided first in St.

Thomas, but the last 25 years in London.

She was a very active member of St. Paul's congregation and will be much missed. The interment will take place from her late residence. The many friends of John J. Poccek, sen., will hear with feelings of deep regret of his death, which occurred at his residence on Maple street, London West, Saturday afternoon after a short illness. The deceased gentleman was born in London, Eng., in 1820. His parents removed to Bristol, where he spent his boyhood. He came to Canada in 1842, and entered into the shoe business in the town of Niagara. He was twice married, his first wife being Miss Margaret Cook, sister of Philip Cook, of this city, who died in 1862, leaving four sons and three daughters. His second wife was Miss Catharine Casey, who, with three sons and two daughters, still survive him. Mr. Pocock came to London before the railway was built, making the long journey from Niagara by the old-time stage coach route. He was interested in the shoe business here from 1849 till 1876, name of Pocock Bros. He had a remarkknew him best respected him most. Mr. Owen Cawthron, aged 46 years, died in this city yesterday. Deceased, who was well known among labor reformers, was born in Lancashire, England, whence he came to this country, having lived for a number of years in Toronto. He resided in London for two years, working at his trade as a plumber for Smith Bros. He subsequently moved to Chicago, but returned to London and died after four weeks' illness. He leaves a widow, but has no other relatives in this country. The funeral takes place to-morrow from No. 122

Clarence street. Mr. Peter Campbell, a pioneer in this section, died on Saturday on the old homestead, lot 13, con. 7, township of Lobo. Mr. Campbell, who was born in Argyleshire, Scotland, came here about 47 years ago, settling in Lobo, and following the occupation of a farmer. He was a consistent Presbyterian and a staunch Reformer. Besides his widow, two daughters and six sons survive him. The funeral takes place to-day at 2 p. m. from the family residence given above.

The appearance among us this winter again of grip is a source of great alarm, not so much for the severity of the disease in itself or fatalitles, although the latter is a source of much alarm; but the greatest danger seems to lie, as the greatest medical authorities state, in the cases that have never recovered from previous attacks, and have re-aroused disturbances consequent upon the after-effect of la grippe and the frequent changes of the weather. When this condition prevails we cannot too strongly impress upon our readers the great necessity of keeping open the excretory system of glands, and at the same time considering though fully the rheumatic feature that accompanies these cases, The remedy that most promptly suggests itself to my mind, and of most lasting benefit, and one that physicians are not only prescribing, but taking themselves, is Williams' Royal Crown Remedy—two teaspoonfuls four times a day—and a couple of Royal Crown Fills three times a week. This is the remedy that has been so successful in the past in reconstructing the system and enabling it to combat the disease. The genuine should be in every home. the rheumatic feature that accompanies these
